În cazul filmului lui Eisenstein despre Pușkin, tema fatalității amenințătoare, reprezentată prin albul tragic, este elementul central care guvernează narațiunea. Pe măsură ce albul inundă cadrul și culorile se estompează, tensiunea dramatică atinge punctul culminant la locul duelului fatidic. Contrastul puternic între albul zăpezii și siluetele negre ale dueliștilor stabilește impactul maxim al temei fatalității. Muzica și culorile sunt utilizate strategic de regizor, asemenea ofertei și cererii pe piața artistică, pentru a modula percepția publicului și a maximiza impresionarea acestuia.

Poți folosi spontaneitatea demersului tău creator pentru a surprinde armonia formală într-un anumit plan al compoziției, integrând astfel doar acele elemente esențiale percepute de la distanță?

Tema fatalității implacabile a destinului în filmul lui Eisenstein evidențiază în mod simbolic lupta inevitabilă și tragică a individului împotriva forțelor incontrolabile ale vieții, subliniind fragilitatea și efemeritatea existenței umane. De fapt, regizorul pune în prim plan ideea următoare: "fatalitatea destinului este o forță implacabilă care domină și definește existența umană, evidențiată prin simbolistica vizuală și contrastul dramatic al culorilor."

Teme-te de uneltiri, în pofida propunerilor care ţi se vor face

On Mai 9, 2010

Învaţă să te faci remarcat prin abilitatea de a observa și interpreta subiectiv evenimentele prin intermediul informaţiilor vizuale, conturând o viziune proprie care protejează virtuțile ascunse în tine.

- Mamă, vreau să ştii că atitudinea fratelui meu Neferu, mă îngrijorează.

Hetepheres ridică din sprâncene mirată şi îl privi întrebătoare, ceea ce îl încurajă pe fiul ei să continue.

- Ieri, Neferu a oferit o petrecere frumoasă fraților, verilor şi prietenilor săi. M-a luat deoparte şi mi-a propus un pact, după ce mi-a spus că fratele nostru mai mare, Keops, nu este în stare să-şi asume sarcina regală care îi va reveni după ce Maiestatea Sa vă urca în barca lui Ra.

- Un pact, spui?

- Îmi propune să-l ajut să urce pe tronul celor Două Regate și, în schimb, mă va face vizirul lui şi şeful armatelor. Or, tu ştii foarte bine, mamă, cât de mult ţin la Keops și, personal, ştiu că va putea să conducă poporul Egiptului. Nu i-am spus lui Neferu că niciodată nu-mi voi trăda fratele, că poate îi sunt cel mai fidel aliat, căci nu vreau să rup legătura cu fiul lui Neithotep. Intenţia mea este să-l las să creadă că nu sunt ostil unei alianțe cu el, în detrimentul lui Keops, putând astfel să-i urmăresc îndeaproape uneltirile şi, când va veni timpul, să pot interveni în favoarea fratelui meu.

- Gândeşti frumos, fiul meu. Dar fii atent, mă tem de perfidia lui Neferu. Mi-e teamă că se va folosi de tine şi, după ce își va atinge scopul, te va sacrifica. Sunt convinsă că nu pe tine te-ar face vizir, dacă ar câștiga puterea. Alesul lui ar fi mai curând Ptahuser, Marele Maestru al Artei, căci alianţa cu el este mai importantă decât cea cu tine. Din partea acestuia nu riscă nimic, ştie că nu va putea să revendice dubla coroană, în timp ce tu, după Keops, eşti al doilea moştenitor legitim. În cazul în care Keops ar dispărea, tu vei deveni prinţul moştenitor, nu el.

Leadership: Înțelegerea cauzei-efect din culisele evenimentelor te poate ajuta să-ţi gestionezi emoțiile și să acționezi în mod conștient și responsabil, fără să te simți în pericol față de tot ce înseamnă adversitate?

- Zeii să ne păzească de o astfel de nenorocire. Fratele meu Keops îmi e la fel de drag ca soția mea şi sunt gata să-i apăr tronul împotriva oricărui duşman.

- Rahotep, află că sunt pe lângă tatăl tău ca o viespe: de fiecare dată când îl văd, insist să te pună comandantul armatelor regale şi îl îndemn să-l recunoască oficial pe Keops prinţ moştenitor legitim prin voinţa sa regală. Sper că voi reuși, deși, în privinţa lui Keops, nu mă grăbesc prea tare în demersurile mele, căci, la fel ca tine, mă tem de acţiunile lui Neferu, mă tem, văzând cum îi scapă definitiv tronul - în urma unei declarații a tatălui vostru, care l-ar face în mod oficial pe Keops moștenitorul tronului. Sper să nu facă un lucru necugetat. Trebuie să acţionăm cu abilitate, cu o mare diplomaţie, căci Neferu e viclean, e sprijinit de mulți şi e gata să facă orice ca să urce pe tronul celor Două Regate. Şi tu ar trebui să te temi de uneltirile lui, în pofida propunerilor pe care ţi le-a făcut, căci eşti al doilea obstacol în calea ambițiilor sale.

- Tocmai fiindcă este conştient de asta mi-a propus acel pact. Dar voi fi atent. Fii convinsă, mamă, că voi şti să mă protejez de perfidiile lui.

- Trebuie să fii foarte atent. De aceea nu te îndemn să simulezi o alianță cu el. Acţionând astfel, nu faci decât să-l încurajezi în ceea ce urmăreşte şi, mai ales, mai mult te descoperi lui decât să poţi câștiga vreun avantaj. E prea abil ca să te lase să-i pricepi jocul, în timp ce tu, aşa cum te ştiu, spontan şi deschis, te vei destăinui lui, îți va descoperi slăbiciunile și le va folosi în profitul său.

Leadership: Poţi găsi o modalitate de a-ți proteja integritatea și autenticitatea, manifestându-ţi puterea interioară de a te expune evenimentelor într-un mod congruent cu cine ești cu adevărat?

- Nu-ţi voi uita sfaturile, mamă. Mă voi gândi la modul în care va trebui să mă port faţă de el. Dar mă tem mai mult pentru Keops. Nu ştiu unde se află în acest moment; probabil că bate ogoarele şi deşertul în jurul Memphisului.

- Nici vorbă. În acest moment este în deplină siguranță, în templul lui Thot de la Hermopolis, unde învaţă să devină rege al celor Două Regate.

- Asta e o veste care îmi bucură sufletul. Măcar e în siguranță, printre oameni care îl iubesc şi îl respectă.

- Sigur că da. Dar păstrează pentru tine acest secret. E mai bine să se creadă că e plecat în vizită la văcarii săi din mlaştini, ca de obicei.

A te expune evenimentelor într-un mod congruent cu cine ești cu adevărat înseamnă să integrezi în elanul tău spre măreţie puterea de a fi tu însuți într-o lume care încearcă în permanență să te schimbe.

Teme-te de uneltiri, în pofida propunerilor care ţi se vor face, şi doar astfel vei reuşi să asimilezi în mod raţional "înţelegerea de dincolo de înţelegere", adică ceea ce face ca o putere minoră să devină o putere majoră. Chiar dacă pari ușor de influențat, poți folosi această aparentă vulnerabilitate într-un moment care să facă duşmanul să devină vulnerabil în fața ta.

Conturarea unei viziuni proprii care să-ţi protejeze virtuțile și valorile ascunse în tine, mai ales dacă aspiri la un post înalt de conducere, înseamnă să-ţi dezvolţi o percepție unică asupra lumii, care să reflecte acele calități și principii fundamentale pe care le consideri importante și demne de protejat în faţă oricăror uneltiri.

Este vorba despre a avea o înțelegere profundă a ceea ce ești și a ceea ce valorizezi ca autoritate de prestigiu, despre a-ți construi o perspectivă și un set de idei care să te ghideze în alegerile și acțiunile tale, ţinându-te departe de duşmani. Fiind o modalitate de a-ți proteja integritatea și autenticitatea, trebuie să-ţi manifeşti puterea interioară de a te expune evenimentelor într-un mod congruent cu cine ești cu adevărat.

Tentaţii irezistibile

Îndeplineşte-ţi rolul pe care trebuie să ţi-l asumi, reducându-ţi vulnerabilitatea în faţa tendinţei nestăpânite de extindere a zonei de excelenţă.

Floarea cea mai rară a geniului uman trebuie valorificată cu folos, îngrijită ca un giuvaier de cea mai mare calitate. Nicidecum abandonată într-un câmp gol, în plin sezon de înflorire şi de recoltare. Iar Clarice Starling, conştientă de atributele preţioase acestei creaţii magnifice se vede nevoită – asemenea unui grădinar iscusit – să o întreţină. Şi nu doar atât, nu să se limiteze doar la a se bucura de parfumul şi culorile ei. Ci să extragă din ea mierea dulce a virtuţii. Căci, această miere amestecată continuu în proporţii bine determinate, încălzită la foc mic până ajunge la punctul de fierbere, produce acel ulei de prima mână cu proprietăţi de energizare şi amplificare a funcţiilor mentale.

Clarice vrea să realizeze trecerea spre faza provocatoare de diagnosticare a omului, să călătorească şi să intervină în zona subtilităţilor pe care nimeni nu le observă. Vrea să ajungă la acea fineţe a înţelegerii elementelor din care este alcătuit omul, să identifice motivaţiile secrete care îi sustin personalitatea şi să determine cele mai bune opţiuni de control. Un singur gând pare a nu-i da pace: " Nu pot să rămân pasivă în faţa amplorii fenomenului de profunzime, vreau să învăţ să gândesc în detrimentul mediocrităţii şi al formalismului. "

Asemenea unui maniac care urmăreşte persoane necunoscute, Clarice urmăreşte atentă firul judecăţii avansate şi greu de accesat a doctorului psihiatru, Hannibal Lecter. Cu orice preţ trebuie să exploateze şi ea energia din cele mai adânci abisuri ale fiinţei umane, de la limita inferioară la cea superioară a capacităţilor şi patternurilor de gândire. Să sondeze şi ea dimensiunile extrem de variabile ale simţirilor cele mai înalte, inversând proporţiile de desăvârşită armonie. Iată la ce chin istovitor o supun tentaţiile irezistibile.

Leadership: Limitările tale faţă de ceea ce nu poţi controla întâmpină o forţă de opunere din partea unei motivaţii existenţiale atunci când te hotărăşti să evadezi din extremele unui sentiment de copleşire psihică?

Întreaga existenţă a lui Clarice pare să se învârtă în jurul ideii de călătorie prin harta vieţii lui Hannibal Lector, întrega ei motivaţie fiind aceea de a-şi imita idolul, dar pentru aceasta ea trebuie să evadeze din extremele unui sentiment de copleşire psihică, cum este acela că ceva groaznic se va întâmpla şi că va pierde totul. Munca unui agent FBI nu se bazează doar pe conştientizarea repercusiunilor distructive a evenimentelor tragice, ci mai ales pe manifestările sufletului la o anumită formă de răspuns în faţă ameninţărilor de natură perceptuală.

Dar, vrând să dea ea însăşi un exemplu impresionant de gândire şi atitudine, în eluzivul joc al căutării celor mai fertile înţelegeri şi percepţii despre om, ţinute ascunse în carapacea mentală a doctorului Hannibal Lecter, are loc o distanţare temporară de rolul ei. O reticenţă faţă de obligaţiile şi responsabilităţile profesiei sale în etapele procesului decizional individual.

Aceste eludări justificate ale zonei profesionale blocate de regulamente şi directive, se concretizează în "pasul înainte", devenit fundamentul evoluţiei ei. Decizia de a nu-i spune totul cu de-amănuntul şefului ei, păstrând pentru ea elementele cheie ale investigaţiei, este rodul unei determinări între visul de a accede la un nivel înalt de profesionalism şi tendinţa de a dobândi o cunoaştere avansată a omului. Poate chiar şi un IQ superior.

Cea mai mare greutate pe care trebuie s-o suporte Clarice nu este de a intra în mintea criminalului, inspirându-se din gândirea lui Hannibal Lecter, ci este aceea de a-şi accepta părţile negative şi greşelile care tot mai pregnant o fac să uite că mai există bucurie pe lume.

Ataşamentul faţă de o gândire care se regăsește în toate conștiințele particulare scoate în evidenţă efortul mental la care eşti supus să rezişti în condiţiile unei simulări de luare a deciziei realizată de o realitate de ordin superior.

Clarice simte că nu se poate ridica la nivelul stilului de gândire a lui Hannibal pentru faptul că nu se poate adapta la o realitate de ordin superior care poate costa mult, chiar viaţa, o realitate care nu mai reproduce simplitatea idealului de împlinire a unui destin, ci mai degrabă produce teama de necunoscut. Pentru transpunerea în concret a gândurilor îndrăzneţe, perfect adaptate personalităţii care recepţionează în mod direct şi deschis mesajele cu caracter mobilizator, este nevoie de anumită capacitate şi de o anumită orientare în faţa suferinţei.

Capacitatea de a vedea în profunzimea omului, destinată exclusiv extinderii propriului potenţial. Şi orientarea precisă asupra punctului focalizat, dedicat antrenării mecanismelor de autoreglare a stimei de sine. Amândouă variabile corespund consecinţelor decizionale induse de o anumită doză de nonconformism.

Dar între capacitate şi orientare există întotdeauna un al treilea element care le cuprinde pe ambele: tendinţa de a ascunde aspectele legate, direct sau indirect, de identificarea şi amplificarea graduală a utilizării de resurse absolut necesare formării continue şi realizării personale.

Iar o persistenţă a concentrării eforturilor de a fi cât mai fidel reconstrucţiei personalităţii, determinând o reacţie ambiguă, o anumită imprevizibilitate şi imprecizie în decizii şi acţiuni, va crea efectul de domino în zona ta de excelenţă, reducând acea constantă a cooperării cu alţi participanţi la sectorul îngust şi profitabil al afirmării pe plan profesional.

Leadership: Poţi să pui în evidenţă extremele unei decizii de carieră pentru a da claritate alegerii pe care urmează s-o faci, într-un context de apropiere şi deschidere emoţională faţă de o autoritate care se manifesta fără nicio explicaţie?

Clarice Starling se vede nevoită să ia o decizie foarte riscantă şi periculoasă: acceptă să păstreze legătura, pe ascuns, cu evadatul Hannibal Lecter, care cu câteva zile în urmă comisese două dintre cele mai atroce crime din istoria orașului, fiind mai periculos ca oricând. Nu găsim decât o singură explicaţie pentru acest gest de ataşament psihologic şi emoţional: ea ştie că va avea nevoie de cunoştinţele şi gândirea lui Hannibal pentru a soluţiona în viitor cazurile cele mai importante de omor.

Practic ea acceptă să păstreze legătura cu cel mai odios dintre criminali pentru a-i prinde pe alţi criminali. Este o procedură tipic FBI. Ea îşi pune în evidenţă această decizie prin lipsa oricăror remuşcări, fapt care denotă vanitatea, pentru că singurul ei scop a fost să-l prindă pe ucigaşul în serie Buffalo Bill, fără s-o intereseze victimele colaterale.

În leadership asta seamană mai mult a atitudine de pendulare între responsabilitate si ipocrizie, între moralitate şi necesitate, între setea de senzaţionalism şi povara greu de suportat a conştiinţei.

În leadership, lucrurile trebuiesc privite din două unghiuri: o apreciere pozitivă a omului prin sporirea valorii lui, admisibilă numai prin faptul că îl fereşte de cramponarea de vechile limitări. Şi o apreciere negativă, datorată tentaţiei de a "tranzita" spre o altă formă de a fi, spre o altă destinaţie profesională decât cea prevăzută de rolul său. Este destinaţia unei vieţi împlinite prin eliberarea de durerea pricinuită de tendinţa de a vedea lucrurile la poluri opuse, semnul unei slăbiciuni, al unei temeri, al unei tendinţe de autoprotecţie şi de conflicte interne.

Predispoziţia către asumarea riscurilor are deseori ca şi corespondent principal procesul de luare a unei decizii care este influenţat de factori externi propriei tale conştiinţe, în folosul unei experienţe care îţi aduce mai mult prestigiu sau în virtutea preocupării faţă de ce vor crede cei din jur la adresa performanţelor tale.

Maxima " Îmbată-ţi simțurile cu miere, fără să te înfrupţi cu dulceața ei ", utilizată în contextul procesului responsabilităţii, având o conotaţie critică, devine punctul de reper necesar cugetării şi conştientizării riscurilor pe care le presupune o deviere de la rolul încredinţat în procesul de extindere al acordului de cooperare şi asociere încheiat cu ceilalţi parteneri sau superiori.

Se au în vedere aici acţiunile pe cont propriu care vizează extinderea zonei funcţionale, precum şi planurile individuale de insubordonare, ele pot avea o interpretare pozitivă, reprezentând o evoluţie, dar numai dacă câştigă teren vis a vis de mediocritate şi formalism.

In timp ce tentaţia de a te înfrupta prea mult cu dulceaţa din miere, va da naştere acelui fenomen de Gică Contra care, urmărindu-şi doar interesul propriu, profitând din plin de rolul ce i-a fost încredinţat, se va opune sistematic tendinţei generale.

Leadershipul este vocea conştiinţei pe care ţi-o asumi despre o acţiune prezentă, în măsura în care Egoul care îţi animă existenţa nu are legătură cu ce anume găseşti atrăgător în ceilalţi.

Tentaţii irezistibile vizează acei lideri care, în dorinţa de a excela în activităţile practicate, se pierd pe cărările întortocheate ale subtilităţilor umane. Dacă nu doreşti să adaugi carierei tale un minus cu caracter definitiv, atunci îndeplineşte-ţi rolul pe care trebuie să ţi-l asumi, reducându-ţi vulnerabilitatea în faţa tendinţei nestăpânite de extindere a zonei de excelenţă.

Teritoriul excelenţei

On Martie 12, 2009

Cu cât leadershipul tău este mai important, cu atât trebuie să fie mai mare exigenţa faţă de tine.

Ieri seară, la o emisiune de divertisment, unul dintre invitaţi a spus următorul banc:

Doi poliţişti gonesc cu maşina. La un moment dat ocolesc o groapă şi intră într-un pom. Ies amândoi dintre fiarele contorsionate, iar unul din ei zice:

- Să ştii că merităm o primă ! Niciodată nu am ajuns aşa repede la locul accidentului.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi desfăşori activitatea ca punct de reper pentru imaginea unui întreg compus din părţi egale care pot fi închise numai într-o singură poziţie?

Studiezi fiecare element al leadershipului tău înainte de a-ţi defini excelenţa? A-ţi dezvolta potenţialul este ca şi cum ai analiza o hartă. Ca să înţelegi cum să-l foloseşti la maxim mai întâi trebuie să studiezi fiecare element al său, astfel încât să poţi extrage cât mai multe informaţii despre "teritoriul" reprezentat.

Toate trăsăturile, calităţile, aptitudinile noastre sunt colectate pe un teritoriu pe care suntem constrânşi să acţionăm. Pentru ca nivelul nostru de performanţă să crească, mai întâi trebuie să dezvoltăm acest teritoriul sub înrâurirea binefăcătoare a exemplului şi îndrumărilor unui profesionist, a unui mentor, a unei echipe competente. Iar apoi să acţionăm în acord cu elementele constitutive ale teritoriului fără să ne îndepărtăm prea mult de realitate.

Însă de multe ori, greşim prin a ne crea singuri bariere pe acest teritoriu. Suntem precum poliţistul care îşi limitează potenţialul creându-şi anumite certitudini, anumite avantaje, anumite aşteptări care maschează lipsa lui profesionalism. Parcurgem o etapă de dezvoltare în sensul opus excelenţei noastre, care nu ne aduce niciun fel de beneficii.

Aşa cum elementul de bază al teatrului îl formează textul literar, piesa, tot astfel elementul de bază al excelenţei tale este dat în primul rând de nivelul tău de sinceritate faţă de responsabilitatea ta. La dezvoltarea teritoriului tău nu se poate ajunge decât, în primul rând, printr-o îmbogăţire a propriilor perspective şi înţelegeri faţă de propria ta performanţă. Mai întâi străduieşte-te să devii mai bun profesionist, apoi lămureşte-ţi nivelul de performanţă. Vei încălca multe din aspectele fundamentale care îţi marchează teritoriul dacă îţi oglindeşti personalitatea prin prisma unei false excelenţe.

Leadership: Cât este de mare este exigenţa faţă de tine în raport cu o situaţie care se pretează la mai multe posibilităţi de comportare, dar nu se conformează cu înţelegerea ta despre ce ţi se întâmplă?

Imaginea care îţi defineşte poziţia de lider poate fi compusă din două părţi egale: realitatea pe care o ştii a fi posibilă şi realitatea pe care o trăieşti prin acceptarea sentimentului de vinovăţie, dar căreia refuzi să i te laşi pradă în totalitate. Iar a-ţi desfăşura activitatea ca punct de reper pentru această imagine înseamnă să te simţi conştient de sine, ca şi când alţi oameni te vor judeca pentru orice lucru greşit, pentru orice schimbare pe care nu ai putut s-o controlezi.

A fi exigent faţă de tine, înseamnă să arăţi mai mult interes faţă de evenimentele care te pun în situaţii neaşteptate, şi numaidecât trebuie să te disciplinezi să îţi focalizezi atenţia asupra a ceea ce poţi face pentru a le îndrepta. Deci, cu cât leadershipul tău este mai important, cu atât trebuie să fie mai mare exigenţa faţă de tine, cu atât mai mult trebuie să-ţi lămureşti inconsecvenţele în gândire. Nu-ţi îndepărta abilitatea de a fi obiectiv şi critic faţă de tine – facultăţi de care ai nevoie pentru a-ţi regla constant tranzitul de la mediocritate şi ineficienţă la excelenţă.

Te simţi în mod deosebit vizat de o anumită doză de eşec atunci când îţi ridici prea sus nivelul de competenţă? Îţi limitezi potenţialul în drumul spre perfecţionare încălcând principiile de bază ale excelenţei? Faci apel la toate capacităţile tale pentru a-ţi clarifica şi redefini viziunea, sistemul de principii, valori şi filosofia de viaţă? Care sunt acele părţi ale teritoriului tău pe care le desconsideri atunci când rezultatele tale sunt dezamăgitoare?

Poziţia pe care o adoptă un lider într-o situaţie de nedumerire în faţa evenimentelor nu trebuie să fie aceea de "erou al hazardului", nici aceea de un om inviolabil împotriva căruia până şi voinţa lui Dumnezeu nu poate să facă nimic. Mai degrabă poziţia pe care trebuie să o adopte un lider este aceea de supunere în faţa evenimentelor, dar acţionând cu acea admiraţie care porneşte dintr-un suflet mişcat, cu tăria de a recunoaşte greutatea realităţii şi eventualitatea unui demers îndreptat împotriva propriilor convingeri.

Leadershipul vizează procesul de maturizare a unui om care dintr-un pion lipsit de experienţă în faţa evenimentelor se transformă într-un om de mare verticalitate care salvează lumea de la dezastru.

Teritoriul excelenţei formează acea unitate perfectă între performanţele şi calităţile tale. Hotărâtoare pentru excelenţa ta este modul cum acţionezi în acord cu elementele constitutive ale leadershipului tău. Cu cât leadershipul tău este mai important, cu atât trebuie să fie mai mare exigenţa faţă de tine.

Teritoriul excelenţei presupune a avea un simţ autocritic şi analitic deosebit, o putere deosebită de a te ancora în permanenţă în prezent pentru ca astfel să poţi să-ţi netezeşti drumul spre viitor, şi mai ales să nu te “împotmoleşti”. Căci acest teritoriu al excelenţei în leadership este aidoma nisipurilor mişcătoare, te pot înghiţi când faci un pas greşit.

Ţesătorul neîndemânatic nu potriveşte firele urzelii în mod egal

Cu cât încerci mai mult să-ţi forţezi voinţa asupra celorlalţi, cu atât mai mult vei descoperi că lucrurile NU merg în felul tău.

În sfârşit, eu, Samuel Gelb, încep să am ghinion. Nimic nu-mi mai reuşeşte. Niciodată n-am avut de-a face cu lucruri atât de rebele şi atât de greu de supus voinţei umane. Geniul însuşi este neputincios. Cele trei fiinţe pe care voiam să le stăpânesc, îmi scapă simultan. La ora aceasta, Olympia este cu siguranţă pe drum, luând în bagaje proiectele mele. Cât despre Julius, apariţia lui sub un nume fals în organizaţia carbonară, provocată pe jumătate chiar de mine, este poate fără voia mea, definitiv condamnată, şi ambasadorul Prusiei trece printr-un real pericol de moarte, cu mult înainte de momentul şi prilejul pe care mintea mea îl stabilise.

În avans faţă de Julius, sunt în întârziere faţă de Frederique. Iată că apare un intrus care să mă concureze înainte ca eu să-mi fi luat măsurile de apărare. N-am vrut s-o cer de nevastă înainte de a fi avut puterea şi bogăţia, care ar putea compensa ceea ce-mi lipseşte în materie de tinereţe şi aspect fizic. Am trudit pentru ea fără să i-o spun, şi în vreme ce eu îi pregăteam o soartă mai bună şi fericită, un prost care n-a făcut nimic pentru ea, care s-a născut pur şi simplu cu tot ceea ce eu mă străduiesc să cuceresc prin inteligenţă şi cutezanţa mea, un copil, a intrat şi mi-a furat poate toată speranţa, toată bucuria, tot visul meu. Ca un ţesător neîndemânatic, n-am potrivit firele urzelii în mod egal, scăpând din vedere o latură ca să lucrez la alta şi iată că pânza se rupe în locul cel mai preţios.

Samuel se ridică plin de gânduri duşmănoase, făcu câţiva paşi prin birou şi se îndrepta spre oglindă, privindu-se fix, ochi în ochi. Să mă fi resemnat cu adevărat? îşi spuse el cu un fel de furie şi ură înverşunată. Cum vei proceda oare ca să recuperezi pe de o parte timpul pierdut şi pe de altă parte să înfrânezi timpul prea grăbit? Zoreşte-te să iei o hotărâre rapidă. Dacă nu, gândeşte-te, iată ce te ameninţă: Julius poate murit dintr-o clipă în alta, lovit de pumnalul vreunul carbonar, sau să cadă deodată din pricina epuizării. Aşa cum stau lucrurile, toată averea i-ar reveni lui Lothario. Atunci, n-ar mai rămâne decât o singură cale de a avea o parte din moştenire: s-o mărit pe Frederique cu moştenitorul, şi să mă bizui, pentru a trăi, pe generozitatea bărbatului şi pe recunoştinţa femeii.

Leadership: Tu cum procedezi ca să recuperezi pe de o parte timpul pierdut şi pe de altă parte să înfrânezi timpul prea grăbit, încât voinţa ta să se împlinească de la sine?

Moarte şi blestem ! exclamă el, mergând cu paşi mari prin birou. Asta-mi mai lipsea să sfârşesc astfel: să ajung la cheremul unui menaj. Aşadar, inteligenţa, curajul, cutezanţa, nesocotirea legilor umane şi divine, şi pe de altă parte toată grija pe care i-am acordat-o acestei scumpe fiinţe, toată tandreţea şi tot devotamentul pe care i l-am arătat, totul să se sfârşească într-un mod atât de infam? Să mănânc firimiturile pe care-ar catadicsi ei să mi le arunce?

Nu, n-am să mă împotmolesc în acest josnic deznodământ. Voi lupta. Dar, poate că eu exagerez pericolul, şi mă neliniştesc de parcă aş avea dovada că Frederique este îndrăgostită de tânărul ăsta. Ce prostie ! L-a văzut doar un sfert de oră. Este o fire prea mândră ca să se agaţe de gâtul primului venit. Cu siguranţă că nu-l iubeşte. Dacă mă iubeşte pe mine? Mă cunoaşte, mă vede zilnic, m-a intuit, poate.

Leadershipul de care te foloseşti survine în împrejurarea în care, dintr-un motiv sau altul, devii un fel de om de ştiinţă al minţii, dar totodată un fel de "junghi" în inima altora?

Şi, deci, concluzia care se ridică din această etapă a vieţii private, dintre oamenii care țes intrigi și creează neliniște în jurul valorii de înșiși, este aceasta: când voinţa ta se ridică deasupra aşteptărilor celorlalţi, atunci însăşi voinţa capătă frică şi agresivitate. Vei fi gata la orice, pentru ca voinţa Ta să se împlinească prin tine şi în toate înfăptuirile tale, încât ajungi să nu-ţi doreşti nimic altceva decât să trăieşti acea senzaţie unică pe care doar un fantasy de calitate o poate oferi – atingerea imposibilului „ca prin magie" ?

De fapt, leadershipul capăta o tentă de gri prin prisma dezamăgirii pe care o da deznodământul intrigilor pe care le ţeşi şi a capcanelor pe care le întinzi de-a lungul poveştii numite "viaţă", o poveste pe care o poţi dicta, o poţi influenţa după voia ta, dar nu-i poţi schimba traiectoria prin falsificarea realităţii.

În acest caz vei ajunge precum eroul acela care, printr-o breşă a "realităţii" lui, ajunge în condiţia atotputernică a scriitorului de vieţi, a cărui întreagă cunoaştere devine derizorie pe măsură ce îşi reneagă calităţile, comparându-le cu ale personajelor sale. Tot de individualitate şi psihic ţine şi asta.

Ţesătorul neîndemânatic nu potriveşte firele urzelii în mod egal, şi din această cauză pică în propria lui capcană: devine el însuşi victima propriilor urzeli, fiindcă se transformă într-un spațiu al neliniștii depline, o povară emoţională care produce stres, dăunând sănătăţii.

Test de personalitate în leadership

Oferă acces la modul de configurare a personalităţii tale, fără să zăboveşti prea mult într-un loc supus presiunilor emoţionale.

Toate aparenţele sunt împotriva a ceea ce am mai bun în mine. S-ar zice că mi-am croit cu voinţă o imagine. O imagine care-mi permitea să înfrunt lumea. În timp ce lumea era fascinată de o Anais Nin încântătoare, veselă, inteligentă, misterioasă. Această cealaltă femeie, femeia timidă, dar puternică, practică, nesigură, dezinteresată, copilăroasă, striga pentru a fi auzită în paginile jurnalului. Era locul unde se regăsea fiinţa ei împrăştiată, unde scăpa de înfrângerile vieţii.

În Jurnalul ei, Anais Nin mărturisea cu sobrietate: "Au fost în mine întotdeauna cel puţin două femei, la vârsta de douăzeci şi nouă de ani. O femeie rătăcită şi disperată, care simţea că se îneacă, şi cealaltă, care aborda o împrejurare aşa cum s-ar fi suit pe scenă, ascunzându-şi emoţiile adevărate, fiindcă nu erau decât slăbiciune, neputinţă, disperare, pentru a înfăţişa lumii un surâs, o curiozitate, entuziasm şi interes pentru ea."

Tot aşa vorbea Geo despre mine, uimit de ceea ce descoperea:

- E în tine o imensă aptitudine la fericire şi o tot atât de teribilă disperare. Nu ştiu cum se explică asta. Eşti neliniştită, de parcă te ameninţă cineva.

Eu trăiam ameninţarea. O simţeam. Cine mă ameninţa? Cine era duşmanul? Poate provizoratul în care trăiam de când m-am născut. Îmi e frică de ziua de mâine. Şi totuşi o aştept. Şi cred în ea. Fiindcă aştept un miracol.

Leadership: Cu ce poţi să umpli conţinutul de adevăr care te face să aduci generaţiile viitoare la momentul de faţă al trăirilor tale, în aşa fel încât să nu conferi imaginii tale un design inestetic?

Adevărul este opera cuvântului care îţi defineşte percepţia despre viaţă atunci când vei petrece ceva timp în singurătatea propriei fiinţe. Iar conţinutul sublim de adevăr spre care tinde omul, în încercarea de a-şi exprima liber opţiunile de "a fi" în diverse circumstanţe, este menit să păstreze constantă temperatura realităţii cu care el se identifică la nivel de sine prin "imaginea de sine" - formată, la rândul ei, din ideologii, norme de viaţă, modele şi tipare existente.

Acest adevăr poate fi umplut cu nostalgie, nelinişti, suferinţe sau cu lucruri pe care ai fi vrut să le trăieşti şi nu ai putut să le trăieşti niciodată. Dar în acest caz imaginea ta capătă nişte umbre îndoielnice, paralizate între viaţă şi nefiinţă, sugerând ideea sfârşitului de lume, care nu poate fi decât dramatică şi absurdă. O astfel de imagine, atunci când spiritul ia avânt spre pragul unei epuizări emoţionale care conţine doar aşteptarea neîncetată a unui miracol de vindecare, nu corespunde înflăcărării molipsitoare, energiei sentimentului de siguranţă cu care se urmăreşte realizarea unul scop măreţ.

Important este modul de rezolvare a formei pe care o ia personalitatea, modul ei de configurare inedită, exercitând mai mult decât ocazional, la nivel de gândire, acea puternică influenţă spre bine. În acest caz, existenţa leadershipului se datorează în primul rând valorii de unicat a omului, sugerând realizarea până la perfecţiune a unei împliniri care este în acord cu standardul stabil al caracterului său. O interiorizare excesivă devine periculoasă !

Leadership: Ar trebui să foloseşti un trigger DOWN cu funcţia UPDATE definită de utilizatorul final al solicitărilor acaparatoare ale vieţii, ca să îţi argumentezi interiorizarea sub forma unei ieşiri din precaritatea şi temporalitatea unei lumi abandonate definitiv?

Triggerul "Down" este executat automat la îndeplinirea comenzii "Voi fi altcineva", trunchiind realitatea dinăuntrul şi exteriorul omului, răsplătind în mod subiectiv, tendenţios şi ameninţător, orice luptă cu sine însuşi. Când încerci să fii mai mult decât eşti trebuie să abandonezi definitiv lumea care te înlănţuieşte în sinea ei.

Cel care cade în extremele propriei sale fiinţe, între Eul fenomenal (accesibil şi vizibil) şi Eul numenal (inaccesibil şi invizibil), automat activează triggerul "Down" şi ajunge de unde a plecat – la premisa că nu se poate substitui propriei sale imagini. Şi în acest caz nu va putea privi în afara lui, în afara a ceea ce-l defineşte. Nu va putea să se distanţeze de identitatea îndoielnică care îl limitează.

Pentru evidenţierea acelei laturi a personalităţii care pune în prim plan situaţiile şi motivaţiile particulare de valorificare a sinelui pozitiv, examinând posibilele consecinţe ale provocărilor şi oportunităţilor pe care le ridică dorinţa de autodepăşire, se impune o sincronizare mai bună cu realitatea în care te situezi.

Aplicarea unei cunoaşteri existenţiale suficiente pentru a străbate tărâmurile unei gândiri mai rigide sau prea abstracte, se caracterizează prin reprezentarea veridică a realităţii, prin absenţa idealizării propriei persoane şi a circumstanţelor în care acţionezi.

Leadership: Poţi să măreşti forţa de impact care acţionează asupra punctului de formare a identităţii tale de om menit să trăiască fără suspiciuni, prin modificarea compoziţiei acelei lumi care îţi cere tot mai mult din timpul şi sentimentele tale?

Căpătarea experienţei în a desluşi esenţa caracterului uman, sensul cel mai profund posibil al existenţei omului, printr-o apreciere realistă a tuturor intenţiilor, valorile, care se ascund în spatele acţiunilor şi gândurilor sale, este primul pas pe care trebuie să-l faci pentru a-ţi începe ucenicia în tainele leadershipului.

Să încerci să conturezi un personaj, o personalitate, să pregăteşti victoria integrării tale într-un nou univers, să descoperi pentru tine însuţi o formulă nouă a nuanţelor care valorifică întreaga structură sufletească a omului, aceasta este ambiţia care poate te frământă cu adevărat. Himera pe care o urmăreşti neîncetat de parcă ai merge într-un labirint şi dai din fundătură în fundătură fără să găseşti nicio o ieşire.

Leadershipul devine o mare fundătură ce produce şi intensifică o viziune superficială a întregului, dar niciodată nu se poate umple cu preziceri exacte, matematice, dacă elementele de ordine ale unei mulţimi de valori, atitudini, opinii şi motivaţii, nu deţin o pondere bine determinată în aprecierea caracterului omului.

Şi degeaba iscodeşti în profunzimea omului pentru a scoate la lumină adevărurile bune şi simple care să fie acceptate în cadrul realităţii pe care o compui, dacă ele nu au impact în reevaluarea stimei de sine şi a stărilor emoţionale.

Compoziţia personalităţii din spatele unei atitudini controlate are ca suport profunzimea cunoaşterii de sine ce îi este acordată omului prins în vârtejul grijilor zilnice, în momentul când la poarta vieţii sale bate sfios un clopoţel, o bucăţică de suflet cu mare preţ, care palpită într-un miraculos fenomen de creativitate demonstrat prin intermediul scrisului.

Testul de personalitate în leadership se remarcă prin întrebările următoare:

1. Ce simţi când pentru a putea merge mai departe în viaţă ajungi să te negi pe tine însuţi?

2. Cum se reflectă personalitatea ta în sfera unei realităţi cu o largă semnificaţie profundă, dar care nu te împlineşte?

3. Cum ai putea lupta împotriva atâtor răni adânc crestate pe suflet, când nu ai învăţat încă să îţi ignori urletele de groază în faţa neputinţei de a te desprinde din şerpii învăluitori ai cuvintelor care te sugrumă?

Tezaurul intangibil a celor mai fine simţiri

Desăvârşeşte-ţi cunoaşterea de sine prin contemplarea unor plăsmuiri născute din experienţe adevărate care doar în aparenţă par a fi aceleaşi cu ale tale.

Părea să fie o lege secretă a vieţii mele, înfiorătoare prin prevederile ei, dar aplicabilă şi acceptată tacit de Eul meu. De fiecare dată drumul pe care o apucam mă ducea dincolo de tainele mult căutate, vechi şi însemnate ale alchimiei sufletului, deschizându-mi tărâmuri pe care spontan n-aş fi cutezat niciodată să le încalc.

O lume întreagă, nouă, greu de înţeles prin prisma celor două tipuri de relaţii: directe şi indirecte, şi a celor două legături: temporale şi de cauzalitate, se năştea. O lume tot mai alertă, tot mai deplină prin emiterea celor mai fine impulsuri, prin generarea undelor de frecvenţă foarte înaltă, de către un emiţător totalizator. Care se conecta la acea reţea încâlcită de percepţii, reprezentări, raporturi şi reacţii, ce se manifestau aproape simultan. Nu le puteam îndepărta, şi nici opri din viteza lor. Eram prins în cablurile de înaltă tensiune a unei surse de energie inepuizabile. Şi irezistibile.

Era o lume care nu fusese croită pentru a fi reală, precum cea a lui Par Lagerkvist. În care trebuia să experimentez câte puţin din toate, să verific ce ar deveni şi unde ar putea duce. Un fel de atelier, un câmp de experienţă în care noi personaje ţeseau în permanenţă firele unei noi realităţi. Acumulau noi drepturi, noi însuşiri, noi stări sufleteşti ce caracterizau modul propriu al unei persoane reale. Eu însumi ajungeam să mă cunosc mai bine. Tot mai multe intrigi, jocuri de culise, suspans, iţe încurcate se clarificau, transformându-se într-un scenariu de lung metraj, mai mult sau mai puţin optimist. Într-un “ The neverending story ”.

Stephen King sau Marion Zimmer Bradley m-ar fi invidiat peste măsură, încercând să-şi imagineze ceva mai presus de ştiinţa lor. Ca nişte simpli muritori care încearcă să-şi imagineze Universul.

Leadership: Posibilitatea de a explora noi arii de procesare a informaţiei de care dispui îţi permite să faci diferenţierea aspectelor care redefinesc valoarea elementelor de tip "raţionalitate introspectivă" în construirea unei noi realităţi?

După cum Vrăjitorul din Oz, cu o pereche de foarfeci tăia o gaură mică şi pătrată în stânga pieptului Omului de Tinichea, aşezându-i o inimă micuţă croită din mătase, eu ataşam un ”semn distinctiv” fiecărui personaj căruia îi atribuiam calităţi unice, transcendentale, superioare, oferindu-i un rol complex în mozaicul de transformări, de interacţiuni, de conexiuni cu trecutul, prezentul şi viitorul.

Cu o singură sforţare de imaginaţie, trezeam toate simţurile ce le punea în mişcare instalaţia numită “viaţă”. Cu o singură atingere a baghetei magice dădeam o nouă formă Eului lor, un plus de armonie, de energie. Un bizar mod de a crea o lume. Cu o singură condiţie: să fiu vigilent.

Mă îndreptam înspre nemăsurat, ca un om care din dorinţa de a-şi bucura ochii şi sufletul cu cele mai grandioase vederi panoramice ale unui oraş pierdut şi nemaivăzut de mii de ani, ajunge să facă aproape orice.

Raţionalitatea introspectivă rezultă în urma expunerii propriilor trăiri la experienţe diferite de a cuprinde în acte de creaţie mai multe lucruri deosebite privite din mai multe unghiuri. Altfel spus, ceea ce încerci să descoperi despre tine trebuie să fie o proiecţie a imaginaţiei în stare să schimbe realitatea pe care urmeaza să o experimentezi.

Cu îndrăzneala celui mai iscusit alpinist porneam în marea ascensiune spre o dimensiune mai înaltă - alchimia sufletului, forma cea mai pură de transformare a materiei din care e constituit omul, fabrica celor mai alese preparate persuasive, tezaurul intangibil a celor mai fine simţiri, culmea cea mai înaltă a măiestriei de a fi tu însuţi.

Voiam să dobândesc o cunoaştere mai amănunţită, mai nuanţată a naturii umane, să intru în posesia resurselor cele mai tăinuite, prin desluşirea, măcar temporară, a mecanismelor care condiţionează individualitatea omului. Dar fără să mă las în voia lor, fără să mă cufund prea adânc în întunericul lor. Nu voiam să mă pierd într-atât în ele, încât să fiu transformat de ele.

Însă leadershipul presupune transformare. Iar alchimia sufletului, bastionul cel mai greu de cucerit, cel mai râvnit, prin care se vrea a transforma totul din Eul omului, era singurul mijloc prin care se putea realiza această transformare. Dar era greu aplicabilă.

Leadership: Poţi să arunci o privire de la înălţime asupra vieţii tale încât să descifrezi sensul unei evoluţii determinată de intensitatea cu care corelezi mijloacele de expresie ale unei imagini care se vrea a fi încadrată într-o zonă de tip "Open Space"?

Leadershipul, adevăratul motor al performanţei, nu acea “activitate comercială” de implementare a unei schimbări temporare doar pentru asigurarea rapidă a unei anumite poziţii înalte, pune în prim plan existenţa unei realităţi obiective în ceea ce priveşte Eul omului. Căci tot ceea ce el plăsmuieşte, tot ceea ce îi conferă o anumită expresivitate, o anumită autoritate, se profilează şi se reflectă în reprezentările pe care le face despre viaţă, raportate la o realitate palpabilă.

Ceea ce vreau să spun, în cuvinte mai simple, este că leadershipul cultivă un anumit gen de valori, un întreg orizont de perspective, percepţii, reprezentări, raporturi şi reacţii, ce permit dezvoltarea ta proprie. Arta de a te autodescoperi presupune să înţelegi acea opoziţie dintre ceea ce este profund şi ceea ce nu este, dintre ceea ce eşti şi ceea ce vrei să fii. Iar acest lucru se descoperă, se învaţă, se întrebuinţează numai prin acordul sinelui.

În actul cunoaşterii, în acest soi de coloană vertebrală care susţine necontenit leadershipul, ale cărei extremităţi sunt fixate zdravăn de personalitatea care te defineşte, sinele îndeplineşte cel mai fidel realitatea pentru care a fost programat să o gestionezi şi coordonezi.

Leadershipul devine “ieftin” atunci când sinele îndeplineşte o funcţie inutilă, asemenea unui aparat digital de fotografiat îmbâcsit de numeroase setări care nu-şi au rostul. Căci sinele îşi dezvoltă propria individualitate, dobândind o anumită formă, pe măsura străduinţei personale, spre desăvârşire.

Open Space este un proces distinct de prelucrare şi utilizare a informaţiei care se concentrează pe extinderea percepţiilor asupra realităţii transpusă într-o operă de artă numită "sufletul lumii", din care rezultă o fiinţă nouă.

Tezaurul intangibil a celor mai fine simţiri este zestrea interioară a fiecăruia din noi, pe care am dobândit-o, am chivernisit-o şi am sporit-o toată viaţa, şi care poate să confere o aură deosebită leadershipului.

Un leadership performant nu depinde numai de lider, ci şi de ceilalţi oameni. Depinde de zestrea interioară a tuturor. Descoperă şi redecoperă omul şi eul lui propriu, iar la un moment dat vei putea spune: " Ecce Homo ".

Şi astfel vei putea să triezi mai uşor oamenii în trei categorii: cei ce te ajută şi se dezvoltă o dată cu tine, cei indiferenţi şi neadaptabili, şi cei ce nu vor sau nu pot să se schimbe şi care te trag în jos.

The Act Of Seeing What Is Invisible To Others

Scufundă-te în universul creaţiei, dovedind că eşti perfect conștient de superioritatea ta.

Mă stăpânea pregnant o idee, un fel de gând pe deplin justificat în tabloul alternanţelor dintre postura de creator şi cea de suplinitor al unei imense lacune în ceea ce priveşte interpretarea operei şi vieţii mele. Cumva, trebuia să mă adaptez la nivelul unor emoţii şi intuiţii nedesluşite, cu neputinţă a fi exprimate, asemenea culorilor autentice ale unui tablou cu neputinţă a fi percepute de alţi ochi decât de cei ai artistului.

Totul părea a fi cântărit prin contrariile unei conştiinţe sublime de care arta este străină. Nu puteam să admir îndeajuns sensul adânc, pretenţios ca un răsfăţ prin diversitatea şi cantitatea lor, al tuturor celor spuse prin reflecţie, în felurite chipuri, prin contragreutate naturală la acţiune, fără de care nici nu-mi puteam valorifica pe deplin potenţialul. Accidental, mă dezvăluiam în faţa unui fenomen aleator, al potrivirii între un anumit tip de rezultate şi un anumit sistem de valori, fără să mă grăbesc să-l înțeleg sau să-l stopez.

Oare gândul ascuns, că am slujit mai mult decât trebuie unei tendinţe de spirit nedezvăluite, ce avea să fie definitivă în mulţimea acelor amănunte imperceptibile celorlalți, din propria existenţă, legate de amintiri şi reflecţii personale, dând naştere unui imbold de compensaţie pentru atingerea unei recolte revelatoare rentabile, nu provenea cumva dintr-un pic de protest faţă de posibilitatea de a mă obişnui cu decizii şi ipostaze de care ulterior mă puteam face vinovat?

Omul care reuşeşte, prin spiritul analizei şi cercetării propriei lumi, să se înfăţişeze drept un artist autentic, mai mult sau mai puţin accesibil, în lumina unei măreţii care implică dezavantajul de a fi prizonier al stăruinţei de a se apropia de cele depărtate, aceluia i se va ierta "greşeala" de a nu fi rămas un fenomen superficial în mersul dezvoltării ştiinţei.

Leadership: Emoţia pe care o experimentezi într-un moment pe care alegi să îl trăieşti pentru întemeierea unei estetici a autenticităţii, joacă un rol important în direcţia tendinţei de asimilare a unor noi coordonate de contact ale conştiinţei tale?

Nu ai cum să nu te laşi purtat de valul plenitudinii, fără de care înzestrarea ta lăuntrică nu ar putea să ia forma unei stime de sine sănătoase, dacă nu trăieşti un moment de contemplare şi de creaţie artistică. Nu ai cum să te scufunzi în universul creaţiei, fără de care nu poți strânge laolaltă tot ceea ce este nou în furtuna curentelor de gândire, decât dacă maniera ta de a te raporta la restul lumii dovedeşte că eşti perfect conștient de superioritatea ta. Aceasta este esenţa leadershipului pe care îl practică artiştii.

Prin universul creaţiei se înţelege totalitatea acelor gânduri şi emoţii care, adunate şi contopite prin învoiala certitudinii de a fi altcineva într-o altă realitate, se materializează în mărturisiri care spun o nouă poveste despre aspectele intrinseci ale omului, promovând o nouă abordare a experienţei de receptare a artei.

Oamenii care lucrează temeinic la obţinerea unei arte bazată exclusiv pe creație, lăsând la o parte suferinţa pe care o implică întrebuinţarea continuă a ideilor, prin urmare a eforturilor de articulare și transformare a reflecţiilor referitoare la viață într-o operă desăvârşită, pur și simplu nu se pot abține să nu-și împartă cu profunzime realizările cu ceilalţi. Chiar dacă nu în mod egal.

Cel ce experimentează „ The Act Of Seeing What Is Invisible To Others ", îndeplinind operația cunoaşterii și ordonării unor concepţii care subminează autoritatea celorlalți artişti, deci combătând orice reprezentări străine ale artei, sub diversele ei manifestări, face parte din categoria spiritelor sublime care spun minţii lor: „Du-te unde vrei, dar nu căuta aprobare din partea nimănui !

Conştientizarea superiorităţii este o atitudine intransigentă care reflectă tendinţa de nedezvăluire a planurilor, nevoilor, dorinţelor, temerilor, pentru dezvoltarea anumitor zone ale leadershipului.

Leadership: Începi să primești identitate de la factorul "înzestrare interioară", prin intensificarea tendinţei de originalitate a creaţiei intelectuale privind forma unică a produsului numit „personaj de contrast"?

Celebrul critic literar, Sainte-Beuve, avea ceva important de spus la adresa talentului oamenilor care își împărtăşesc întotdeauna izbânzile, mergând până la originea acestora:

Schimbări tainice se petrec în ei, în sânul geniului lor, transformându-l câteodată. Ei suportă aceste schimbări ca pe nişte legi, fără niciun amestec personal, fără să le ajute în mod artificial. Ei sunt precum omul ce nu grăbeşte vremea albirii părului, ca pasărea ce nu grăbeşte schimbarea penelor sau ca arborele schimbarea frunzelor, după anotimpuri. Şi, procedând astfel, după mari legi interioare şi după o puternică înzestrare interioară, ajung să-şi imprime forţa în opere sublime, monumentale, de o ordine reală şi stabilă, sub o dezordine aparentă ca în natură, întretăiate de piscuri şi povârnişuri."

Omul care începe să primească identitate de la factorul "înzestrare interioară", nu-și va pondera decât în rare cazuri acea latură a tendinţei spre posedare absolută a artei pe care o propune. Dimpotrivă, el își va intensifica tendinţa de originalitate a creaţiei intelectuale privind forma unică a produsului numit „personaj de contrast".

Un astfel de personaj, neîntorcându-şi capul în fiecare clipă ca să măsoare drumul străbătut şi să calculeze pe cel rămas, își va menține mereu opoziţia între concreteţe și mister, în funcție de stările prin care trece - beatitudine sau frusteţea unei realităţi închise.

Fără să-i pese şi fără să-şi dea seama de mijloacele sale de creaţie, el va cuprinde în arta sa ceea ce poate fi perceput de alţi oameni. Dar niciodată aceşti oameni nu vor putea să perceapă realitatea lui, cauza genialităţii sale.

Înzestrarea interioară evidenţiază un cumul de calităţi, emoţii, credinţe sau concepţii despre viaţă care pot intra în componenţa criteriului de "valoare artistică", ducând la diferite configuraţii individuale şi, ulterior, la recunoaşterea unanimă a unei mari părţi din comunitatea umană.

Coordonate de contact ale conştiinţei unui om care experimentează lumea artei pot să amplifice calitatea creaţiei sale prin puterea reflexiei Eului Suprem, limitat însă la o reflectare veridică a ceea ce este el de fapt, şi nu aşa cum îşi imaginează atunci când îşi scanează limitările şi refulările. Aceste coordonate de contact sunt: introspecţia, nevoia de individualizare, privirea la rece, călătoria în amintire, oglindirea, sinceritatea, confesiunea.

Latura cea mai autentică a personalităţii se descoperă atunci când rămâi cu tine însuţi, adică cu propria-ţi lume de idei, şi alegi să te ridici la un nivel superior de conştiinţă prin modul în care îţi regândeşti imaginea care urmează să fie imortalizată în amintiri ce vor spune povestea ta.

Leadershipul este opera care demonstrează frumuseţea unui tablou care se dezvăluie privirii lăuntrice a omului.

The Act Of Seeing What Is Invisible To Others face referire la gândul ascuns că slujeşti mai mult decât trebuie unei tendinţe de spirit nedezvăluite, ce are să fie definitivă în mulţimea acelor amănunte imperceptibile celorlalţi, din propria existenţă, de amintiri şi reflecţii personale. Numai procedând astfel, după mari legi interioare şi după o puternică înzestrare interioară, vei ajunge să-ţi imprimi forţa în opere sublime, monumentale.

The Eyes Of Truth

Fii gata să scoţi iveală toate calităţile pe care le-au şlefuit rezultatele experienţelor tale sub înrâurirea unui simbol al Creaţiei.

Viaţa mea se desfăşura pe un drum în furtună, reflectându-se parcă în spargerea de stânci a valurilor mării sau în întinderile de zăpadă de pe munţii cei mai stâncoşi, apropiată de perfecţiunea construcţiei unei intrigi din care orice scriitor ar fi putut dezvolte o adevărată aventură, o nebunie a victoriei împotriva timpului petrecut în alt context. Eram o adaptare dinamică și palpitantă a unei poveşti care bate filmul din care, desigur, nu lipsea iluzia iubirii.

Totul părea desprins dintr-un roman în care personajul principal caută să se destăinuiască destinului, iar destinul îi răspunde: „Ţi-ai jucat bine rolul, dar ai uitat că eu sunt regizorul".

Dincolo de rememorarea unei vieţi inedite stă frumuseţea sufletului care a ştiut s-o preţuiască sub incidenţa unui cod de acces spre o altă realitate, una împlinită de un "instrument" optic ce formează imagini reale, un simbol al credinţei, al spiritului şi al veşniciei.

Un scriitor îşi creează propriul univers narativ, pe care apoi, îl respectă ca atare, sau îl dinamitează, într-un fel sau altul. Dar numai Ochiul, îndreptat numai către slava lui Dumnezeu, uneori mai plin cu noapte decât cu zi - ca într-o lucrare suprarealistă de Igor Morski, poate să vadă cele mai fine detalii, să perceapă ordine în aglomeraţia sau dezordinea parcursului meu spre înălţimi cutezătoare.

Leadership: Principalul tău mod de a-ţi înțelege rostul este de a introduce pretutindeni în viața ta ideea de „Ochi" care te trag înspre înăuntrul unui personaj plin de forță?

Încă de pe atunci aveam unele semne sigure ale faptului că viitorul meu se va orândui încetul cu încetul, destul de bine, fără pretenţia de a mă arăta disponibil în căutarea unui răspuns bine gândit la întrebarea: "Ce se va întâmpla probabil?"

Iar Ochiul, această cantitate de autoritate divină pe care doar faptele măreţe o cuprind şi o promulgă, obişnuit cu o prezenţă intelectuală activă, era pregătit pentru orice idee nouă, gata s-o ia în considerare şi s-o aprecieze încă de la prima aruncare a privirii asupra ceasului. Sub reflectarea unui mister infinit, făceam o călătorie suprarealistă la capătul căreia avea să aibe loc o întâlnire explozivă, și, totodată o descoperire.

Dezvoltarea personală, strâns legată de modul cum te descurci atunci când eşti înconjurat de un ocean imposibil de străbătut, reconstituie portretul unui personaj de mare forţă, împlinit nu prin căderi repetate în timpuri de eșec, nici prin libertatea de a zbura peste prăpastiile ce-i stau înainte. Ci prin revelaţia și starea sufletească cuprinse în semnificaţia unui simbol al sensului vieții.

Mereu am simţit acea chemare a întinderilor ce mi-au fost interzise, o avertizare împotriva marilor adevăruri ale Creaţiei, dar şi satisfacţia unei libertăţi fără reguli, tras într-un spaţiu care nu are nimic comun cu lumea asta. Fapt pentru care un artist ar fi putut glosa pe tema miracolului facerii omului.

În domeniul ideilor, ca şi în viaţă, noul se răspândeşte destul de lent, în felul în care artistul transformă nespusul într-o imagine care exprimă emoţie, dovada măsurii de a fi condus de o forţă a cărei origine extrinsecă nu o sesizează. Pentru că în faţa lui se derulează mereu un decor superb, a cărui imensitate nu poate fi exprimată de cuvinte, ci doar de simţuri, culori, nuanţe, senzaţii și expresii.

Leadership: Caracterul tău predominant se remarcă prin dobândirea unei încrederi permanente într-o legătură intrinsecă cu un simbol al Creaţiei care arată că omul se poate conecta cu Universul?

Simţeam acea formă elementară a contrastului dintre perspective, culori, vederi şi principii, numit Mega Contrast, turned into the delirious fantasies of a mind raging against the dying of the light . Nu încape nicio îndoială că Ochiul, aflat pe aceeaşi lungime de undă, îşi modifica puterea de refracţie, îşi răspândea prezenţa înăuntrul meu, dar cu o tentă de capricios.

Forţa lui spirituală pătrunzând treptat, tot mai adânc şi mai adânc în diferitele situaţii din viaţa mea, pentru importanța acordată valorilor drumurilor optice ale diferitelor raze care mă urmăreau peste tot, figurează pe o hartă a cărei amprentă milenară hrăneşte sufletul, dar obligă creierul să ceară informații despre misterul divin.

Când viaţa îmi trezea nedumerire, când aproape îmi consumasem toate forţele, am simţit existenţa luminii, am preluat din nevăzut o undă energetică pe care o conştientizam numai prin simţuri, în stări, în senzaţii, sentimente şi nu poate fi explicată raţional.

Mă izbeam de ceva asemănător sensibilităţii artistului care interpretează trăsăturile modelului fie după gusturile sale, fie după pretenţiile atribuite intrării ilegale într-un imaginar al concepţiilor preştiinţifice. Era o formă nouă de răspuns la stimulii de ordin esoteric, ceva după care am tânjit întotdeauna, o pretenţie pornită de jos, dar urcată spre cele de necuprins, care se numeşte dreptul regilor.

Dreptul regilor este acel fragment din simfonia leadershipului reprodusă printr-un gradual proces de auto-convingere că ceea ce crezi este real și că ceea ce ți se întâmplă este prea frumos ca să fie adevărat.

Voiam să fiu o prelungire a Ochiului, marele vrăjitor din spatele cortinei, o enigmă atât timp cât ea nu este un dat general-valabil, dar care îşi răspândeşte cu putere razele în spaţiul infinit, scăldând întregul pământ în lumina sa atotputernică. Voiam să adaug din profunzimea experienţelor mele efectul, misterul divin, pentru care toate par altceva.

În finalul filmului "Now you see me 2", magicianul Thaddeus Bradley aprinde o lumânare: „A vedea înseamnă a crede, dar este acesta adevărul?"

Depinde de punctul vostru de vedere. Există un singur lucru în care cred: ochi pentru ochi. Este jocul vostru, jucaţi-l aşa cum vi se potriveşte. Când veţi scoate la iveală toate atuurile, toate calităţile pe care le-au şlefuit rezultatele experienţelor voastre, şi sigur veţi face asta, voi fi acolo, aşteptându-vă. Pentru că, fiţi atenţi la cuvintele mele, veţi primi ceea ce vă este destinat, în moduri în care nu v-aţi aşteptat. Dar pe care le meritaţi, pentru că există un singur lucru în care cred: Un scop mai înalt.

Jocul pe care adevăratul lider îl mânuieşte cel mai bine este o versiune a poveștii în care este implicată acea minimă fărâmă de sclipire a glasului conştiinţei care tinde să reacționeze conform unei influenţe supranaturale.

The Eyes Of Truth este acea proprietate a minţii și a sufletului de care nu te poți rupe, de care nu știe nimeni și de care ajungi să nu te mai saturi în momentul când știi că fără ea nu ai mai putea fi atât de convins de puterile tale.

În adâncul tău știi că ești dependent de ceva mai înalt și nelimitat care te protejează, te ghidează, te învaţă foarte multe lucruri şi te obligă să le aplici la un nivel avansat. Până într-o zi când vei fi pregătit să fii parte a „Ochiului".

The Future

Fii o alegere a variantei pe care doreşti să o accepţi ca fiind adevărată, chiar dacă adevărul nu se prezintă finit decât într-un aspect al lumii ales ca reper simbolic.

Arta mea se naşte din necesitatea de a simţi că trăiesc într-un alt timp, într-un alt loc, cu cât se perindă mai multe stări sufleteşti variate prin conştiinţa unui artist ce caută noi metode de a-şi extinde orizonturile în căutarea unei perfecţiuni 3.0. A trăi este un mod de a scrie prin reprezentarea unui alt înţeles decât cel creionat de gândurile unui anonim, pe care nu eu l-am căutat, ci el pe mine, aşa cum pictorul îşi caută inspiraţia între reflexul spectacolului lumii exterioare şi continuarea aventurii numită iluzie, într-un Matrix poetic din care odată ce-ai intrat nu mai există cale de evadare.

Arta poate pleca de la o intenţie figurativă, un tipar de frecvență pură cu care visele se leagă de ceea ce trăiesc sau voi trăi, ca apoi în mersul creaţiei (reprezentată ca expresie a unui semiconductor intrinsec) ea să se convertească, prin abstragere şi stilizare, într-un filon bogat de mister, într-o năzuinţă de cuprindere şi asimilare a exteriorului. As vrea s-o ridic la temperatura combustiei unui ideal mai măreţ decât şi-ar fi putut imagina vreodată Don Quijote pe drumul aventurilor fantastice.

Totul în această artă trebuie imaginat drept absolut ca taină supremă a comuniunii între Dumnezeu şi om, încât la final să mă consider eu însumi partea cea mai semnificativă dintr-un univers fără sfârşit, parcă special imaginat ca o configuraţie pură, eliberată de sarcina reprezentării unei teme comparativ cu fonturile altei teme, implicând fuziunea între frumuseţea ştiinţei şi natura extatică a spiritualităţii.

Este un fel de reflectare a ceea ce se întâmplă în interiorul şi exteriorul meu, relevat ca o atracţie suprarealistă, ca o pecete a unei paradoxale cunoaşteri, dar şi ca un semnal al unei orgolioase libertăţi în exprimarea unor alte puncte de vedere decât cele instituite drept "oficiale".

Leadership: Îţi satisfaci necesitatea de a-ţi recunoaşte meritele deschiderii către NOUL unei exprimări plastice, considerat un efort al imaginaţiei formale, într-un omagiu adus inteligenţei de a fi una cu totul?

Aici las ca indiciu primordial cuvintele din prefaţa "Simbolului pierdut" al lui Dan Brown: "A trăi într-o lume fără a deveni conştient de sensul ei este ca şi când ai rătăci într-o mare bibliotecă fără a atinge nicio carte" , la care aş adăuga imperativul unei continue înnoiri în duhul minţii mele: "Nu te juca cu păcatul de a face din cunoaştere un labirint în care să te pierzi cu uşurinţă, deplasându-te printr-un spaţiu cu trasee libere şi pereţi groşi până la o destinaţie fără termen de exprimare".

În orice caz, vorbesc de stabilirea identităţii unui spaţiu de artă folosind o schemă constructivă de exprimare care îl ordonează într-o aglomerare de expresii şi date, sugestii şi nuanţe, interconectate prin gateway-uri compacte. Un limbaj plastic este un limbaj metaforic, unul ieşit din tiparele normalului, apropiat de o artă destinată în exclusivitate unui public restrâns de cititori care ştie să aprecieze tendinţele noi cu care încerc să-mi impun viziunea asupra cunoaşterii.

Când spun că o linie curbă sugerează curbura unui deal, înseamnă că ea este echivalentul unei experienţe de viaţă care nu-şi pierde unitatea în profunzimea neurmată a Dumnezeirii, văzută cu un ochi de apă şi unul de foc într-un decupaj spaţial semnificativ: precum pe Pământ aşa şi în Cer.

A avea inteligenţa de a fi una cu totul înseamnă să dispui de toate semnificațiile adânci ce reies din imperiul aparențelor, în încercarea de a te ridica la esențe.

Acum, îmi dau seama de limitarea şi dependenţa conştiinţei de sine care se descoperă a fi în raport cu o realitate deghizată în ficţiune, numită "roman", ca un transfer de energie cosmică realizat în momentele în care are loc o comunicare temporală între ceea ce consider ca fiind "finit" şi ceea ce consider ca fiind "o alternativă" spre respingerea a ceea ce nu ar putea fi niciodată pe deplin revelat.

Aparenţele sunt acele moduri de exprimare care pun în valoare dimensiunea privată a personalităţii mele, mici firimituri de adevăr, nişte frânturi de timp din care se alimentează veşnicia sufletului meu într-un univers simbolic, un univers al formelor literare mereu schimbătoare.

Universul este ceea ce nu cunosc despre mine atunci când mă integrez în centrul unei idei care îşi câştigă farmecul atâta vreme cât nu se impune ca sens ultim şi cel mai important din punctul de vedere al viitorului. Acesta îşi menţine totalitatea şi exponenţialitatea prin elaborarea unei viziuni integrate asupra fenomenului deosebit de complex pe care îl reprezintă utilizarea simbolurilor, fidele proprietăţilor spaţiale şi materiale ale unor obiecte neobişnuite în înaltul cerului şi pe continente diferite, cu riscul ca imaginea de ansamblu să devină iluzionist-descriptivă.

Esenţa este ceea ce extrag dintr-un substrat aprioric şi aparent iraţional, ulterior transformat şi filtrat într-un stil personal numit "Big Bang" adaptat ideii de schimbare, ca un fel de "Ieşire din Matrix". Ea determină sensul ori forma artistică a cuvintelor mele, ca proiecţie a libertăţii de exprimare într-un grad foarte înalt a unor ample valenţe, intrinseci, poetice şi literare, ca o extindere a posibilităţilor de creaţie percepute tot mai mult de alţi creatori ca "nemeritate privilegii".

Leadership: Poţi să aduci un elogiu artei de a trăi într-un spaţiu de cunoaştere care se măreşte pe măsură ce înaintezi într-o realitate care nu se poate defini pentru cineva care n-o are?

Personajul din pelicula Matrix, pe nume Neo, are posibilitatea să aleagă între două pastile pe care i le recomandă the god of dreams , Morpheus: una albastră pentru a rămâne în lumea colorată a iluziilor şi alta roşie pentru a trece în groaznicele catacombe ale realităţii. Groaznice, dar reale.

Mi-aş dori ca eventuala uitare a vechilor divergenţe cu realitatea, identificându-se cu minunata pastilă roşie, să constituie totodată o eliberare a conştiinţei mele de toate faptele potenţiale ale unei lumi în derivă, spre viitorul unei arte pe care n-o consider în declin, situându-se într-un decor plin de originalitate.

Primul elan al gândurilor ce prefigurează esoteric proiectul naşterii formelor de creaţie are ca variabilă dominantă alegerea unui hotar care separă două spaţii învecinate, finalizat printr-o singură unitate de expresie: "trezirea din hipnoza interzisului" sau "eliberarea din vicleșugurile finitului".

Aşadar, sunt o alegere a variantei pe care doresc să o accept ca fiind adevărată, chiar dacă adevărul nu se prezintă finit decât într-un aspect al lumii pe care poeţii îl aleg ca reper simbolic.

Arta, ca tăcere dinaintea Facerii, despre care nu se poate vorbi decât prin ipoteze, prin limbaj oblic, prin aluzie, prin simbol, trebuie să redefinească golul absent în evenimente prin plăsmuirea spiritului trezit din uimirea pură a necesităţii de a fi Neo.

Simt că sunt proiectat într-un univers în care spaţiul este mult mai dens, iar timpul mult mai rapid ca în lumea mea, din care nu mă mai pot intoarce. O voce din off parcă îmi şopteşte: "Niciodată nu poţi pleca dintr-un loc în care încă nu ştii cu ce ai de-a face."

Ieşirea din Matrix este realitatea cu care te identifici în construcţia unui univers al cărui reper simbolic îl constituie două valori conjugate: tendinţa de a arăta o altă faţă a lumii şi libertatea de a exprima orice idee prin orice mijloc artistic.

The Future este calea de a te armoniza cu Totul Din Jur prin intermediul unei exprimări care face posibilă o nouă utilizare a "pastilei roşii" – un alt mod de a face artă prin descoperirea unor adevăruri, transformate ulterior în simboluri, insuportabile pentru minţile care nu sunt îndeajuns de puternice pentru a le stăpâni.

Mi-am câştigat Ieşirea din Matrix odată cu rătăcirea într-un "Labirint al Textului Sacru" al cărui secret se învață în timp, al cărui sens scapă, al cărui capăt de drum nu se ştie unde duce, dar odată ajuns la capăt am înţeles că autorul lui sunt chiar Eu.

Try to see the future, not the past !

The Road To Hell (II)

Învaţă să apreciezi arta adusă de-o imagine existenţială fără egal, încât să devii ceea ce ţi-am sugerat să trăieşti prin emoţiile mele.

Goneam fără direcţie pe drumurile nesfârşite ale unei lumi tot mai accelerate, preocupat de transfigurarea realităţii şi de redarea unei reflecţii noi asupra sensului vieţii. Nu doar existenţa celor trecătoare şi fugitive îmi făcea cu mâna pe oriunde mă deplasam, într-un colaj aproape ficţional, fiindcă mi se părea totul o halucinaţie a memoriei care NU se suprascrie la reconstituirea fărâmelor de energie şi libertate care aproape îmi fugiseră din suflet. Dar, totodată îmi ieşeau în drum şi închipuirile de frică, ideile obsesive pe care le trăieşte cineva într-o „excursie a groazei".

O viaţă câştigată în urma unui act de judecată a sinelui este asemenea unei maşini care niciodată nu se opreşte, pentru a ajunge la nişte parametrii de consum energetici ce ar trebui încadraţi în valorile individuale de tipul: spirit de challenger . Totul părea desprins parcă dintr-o fantezie a lui Borges: povestea mea era simbolul celui ce am fost, pe măsură ce trăiam la intensitate maximă o viaţă care nu era altceva decât tortura sufletească a unei fărâme de iad.

Leadership: Eşti pregătit să setezi axa destinului tău care se vede "reverse" în oglindă, în complexitatea intrigii şi aventurii dintr-un complicat scenariu existenţial care pare fără sfârşit?

În momentele mele de demenţă la volan, iadul nu exista decât ca o consecinţă a vreunui act instantaneu, doar dacă conştientizam abaterea direcţiei şi a vitezei de la respectarea unor norme rutiere. Nimic nu-mi stătea în cale. Cu o aprinsă imaginaţie tomnatică, demnă de un artist care schimbă puţin realitatea când caută să lege trecutul de prezent, mă încăpăţânasem să repet un vis care părea mai mult decât real, părând să se materializeze constant şi irepresibil.

Visul de a mă dărui întruna ambiţiilor nemăsurate, având ceva din caracterul aventurilor întâmplătoare ale cavalerilor rătăcitori din producţiile medievale, se constituia ca replică dată evoluţiei în materie de siguranţă. După aspectul exterior al traiectoriei acţiunii, adică după înlănţuirea dintre feluritele evenimente şi circumstanţe care curgeau una după alta, totul părea a se petrece sub impactul magic al unei euforii conjuncturale.

Mirajul care strălumineează întotdeauna la orizont este locul de intersecţie al artei cu experimentul. Arta de a privi altfel viaţa şi experimentul de a te crede Dumnezeu. Am călcat pe roşu. Îmi pierdusem total simţul direcţiei. Axa destinului meu care se vedea "reverse" în oglinda Egoului meu nemăsurat, se putea defini prin exercitarea unei noi acţiuni explozive, îmbinată cu adrenalină, care se succeda opririi când încălcam legea.

Singurul scenariu existenţial ce pare fără sfârşit este regăsirea propriei autenticităţi în modul în care faci lucruri prioritare atunci când simţi nevoia de a-ţi testa limitele.

Am văzut o femeie pe marginea drumului, cu un chip pe care îl cunoşteam ca pe al meu, reflectat în geam. Astfel, drumul nu mai constituia o tentaţie a evadării dintr-o viaţa liniştită, o creştere a vitezei cu care invadezi senzaţia de HIGH, senzaţia de dilatare a unei clipe de vitalitate deplină, necesară ca răspuns la o idee nesăbuită plasată într-un univers atemporal şi fără limite.

De fapt, situaţia în care mă aflam a fost descrisă cel mai bine de Marguerite Yourcenar în "Memoriile lui Hadrian": "Recunoşteam în acest du-te vino mişcarea angrenajului imensei maşini al cărei pivot eram. M-am simţit o clipă înduioşat la vederea acestei forme singuratice, trecătoarea flacără arzând în pieptul omului aflat în mijlocul unei lumi pline de pericole."

Femeia a mers până la geamul din faţă şi s-a aplecat foarte încet. O tensiune teribilă m-a paralizat în umbra gândului că mă voi implica mai mult decât trebuie într-un joc plin de incertitudini. Chipul ei minunat se zărea ca printr-o abatere de la realismul optic, în clarobscurul acelei seri ceţoase de toamnă, ca printr-o magie a gestului cel mai neînsemnat, printr-o deformare a percepţiilor despre lume, în complexitatea intrigii şi aventurii dintr-un complicat scenariu existenţial, ispititor şi rar întâlnit.

Chiar atunci când bătăile inimii îmi perturbau liniştea goală, capodopera acestei prezenţe unice s-a făcut remarcată prin excelenţa virtuţii de a se subordona dorinţei de a plăcea maxim, de a se dărui fără limite unei clipe de savoare, de emoţie, de mister. Ea părea dominată de o lege imuabilă prin infailibila metodă a ducerii în ispită a celora care pătrund în perimetrul ei vizual. Parcă ar fi vrut să mă vrăjească cu o incantaţie magică, sugerând nesfârşirea la gradul cel mai înalt al creaţiei artistice căreia un pictor îi conferă vibraţia timpului trăit cu cel visat.

Leadership: Care este echivalentul nuanţei de înţeles pe care ai ales-o să se potrivească unei experienţe de viaţă amplificată de intensitatea emoţiei pe care ţi-a transmis-o cineva într-o împrejurare deosebită?

Echivalentul nuanţei de înţeles pe care am ales-o să se potrivească experienţei de viaţă amplificată de intensitatea emoţiei pe care mi-a transmis-o acea fiinţă plină de mister, este însufleţirea care nu m-a părăsit niciodată, mândria de a aparţine tot timpul unei clipe trecătoare.

Văzută cu alte cuvinte, întreaga situaţie părea un fel de revanşă a stării de confuzie asupra unei presupuneri de acceptare reciprocă între două fiinţe asemănătoare, cu un singur ţel: de a nu pierde din vedere ocazia unei evadări din amorţeala cotidiană, simţind nevoia să regăsesc ceea ce contează într-adevăr pentru exerciţiul vieţii.

Drumul devine un mister al unui prezent incert, un mister al unui suflet ce iubeşte arta şi o trăieşte din plin datorită savoarei cu care cineva îi încântă simţurile, mai ales savoarea cu care îşi povestește aventurile. Drumul începe să fie parcurs ca un mod de simbolizare extensiv, care îl face diferit de realitatea unei existenţe fără perspective, de unde rolul meu de a intra în câmpul vizual al unei fiinţe pline de sens, cu vibraţie înaltă, şi a înţelege de fapt ce transmite ea, nu numai ce o diferenţiază de restul lumii.

Judecând după felul cum orice existenţă îşi împarte soarta cu puterea de expresie a unui mistic vizionar, din mine făcând un creator ce caută compensaţii în universul de lupte continue cu schimbările de viteză, cu flash-urile, virajele şi trecerile pe roşu, cu hotărârile şi impulsurile de moment, aş spune că eram sensibil la atitudinea eroică, la aspiraţia către faptele mari, la voinţa de a evada din realitatea cotidiană.

Leadership: Eşti în stare să-ţi judeci propria viaţă din perspectiva unei staţionări inopinate, cu ajutorul dorinţei de a fi ceea simţi că eşti într-un moment definitoriu al vieţii altcuiva?

Numai întâlnirea neaşteptată cu un om al momentului prezent, personaj misterios în care predomină ecourile sonore ale unor timpuri viitoare, poate schimba ceva din frânturile unei existenţe trăite intens, dar incoerentă prin exerciţiul intuiţiei.

Cititorule. În călătoria ta prin pustietate, de la deşert până la fântână, te-ai abătut către autostrada spre iad. În mişcare, ai cunoscut intensitatea unui stimul dependent de alte adevăruri aflate parcă în contradicţie evidentă cu logica creaţiei relevată în logica existenţei, fiind predestinat trecerii de la ficţional la real, de la general la particular. Fapt care îţi dă oarecum senzaţia de repetare a unui eveniment trăit în vis.

Iar dacă ai fost oprit în traficul infernal şi ai observat chipul unei femei frumoase reflectat în geam, înseamnă că depinzi de sentimentul unui deja-vu care îţi şopteşte că nu ţi-ai irosit timpul citind aceste rânduri. Eu am devenit Tu, sau cum ar spune Borges: "Ai devenit ceea ce ţi-am sugerat să trăieşti prin emoţiile mele".

Staţionarea inopinată într-un spaţiu pe care nu îl cunoşti este dovada certă a unui artist vizual de succes care ştie să recunoască posibilitatea ieşirii din banal, din monotonie, din rutina vieţii, din impasul generat de "absurd" pe calea unei orientări ce poate fi oricând pusă la îndoială.

Tu ştii să apreciezi arta adusă de-o imagine existenţială fără egal?

The Road To Hell este călătoria pe care o parcurgi de la imaginar la emoţie, de la revelaţie la raţiune, în funcţie de mirajul pe care îl aduce fenomenul senzaţional al trecerii din virtual în real, şi invers.

The Road To Hell (I)

On Noiembrie 29, 2018

Modul în care tratezi ceea ce se întâmplă în viaţa ta are ca şi consecinţă starea ta din momentul imediat următor producerii unei schimbări a realităţii pe care nu ţi-o recunoaşte nimeni.

Uneori mă gândesc la mine ca la o lume prinsă între momentul trecut al unei vieţi irosite, plină de lucruri de care veşnicia nu îşi reaminteşte, şi activarea intuitivă a unui vis plin de nădejde care se repetă în mod constant fără să-mi dau seama de ce, fără să întrezăresc semnificaţia lui spirituală. Singura operă de artă care face cinste sublimei mele călătorii într-o seară ploioasă de toamnă este consecința unor trăiri echivalente rugăciunii de dinainte de marile evenimente ale unei existenţe efemere.

O lume care vine, o lume care pleacă, două imagini suprapuse într-un real zgomotos sunt închipuite din înaltul punct de vedere al aventurierului ocazional, menite să exprime ruptura categorică între ultimele concluzii dinaintea unui turneu final al recordurilor de viteză şi valoarea unei iniţieri în intriga unei naraţiuni concentrată de-a lungul unui prezent ficţional. Suflul de magie al clipei de faţă este mişcarea volanului spre exteriorul virajului şi apăsarea acceleraţiei în doze potrivite.

Un delir poetic sau un vis trecător? Cu responsabilitate, mă văd nevoit să îmbrăţişez orice parte a întâmplărilor care mă încearcă cu sau fără îngăduinţa Domnului, ca şi când aş fi subordonat unui copios joc al fanteziei care se dispensează de conformismul unei lumi aşezate, liniştite şi serbede. Parcurg mai departe călătoria spre un orizont nedefinit și intangibil, datorat unei visări punctate de reflecţii asupra vieţii şi artei, pe un drum al purei rațiuni, dar care începe cu o întrebare nelămurită: „de ce tocmai eu, într-un loc numit Lumea Pierdută" ?

Neîndoios, am totuşi de partea mea evidenţa experienţei privilegiate a luminilor stradale, schimbări frecvente ale vitezelor, care mă ajută să cunosc structura adevărată a lucrurilor cele mai însemnate dintr-o viaţă afişată în oglinzile retrovizoare ale realităţii imediate.

Leadership: Dispui de capacitatea de a încerca stări contradictorii și de a proba experiențe de mare angajament în interiorul unei naraţiuni care se cere dezintegrată sub presiunea unei realităţi care se arată mai presus decât poate duce o minte obișnuită cu confortabila lume a simbolurilor?

Maşina nu este un simplu mijloc de locomoţie, ci expresia puterii de reprezentare a unei realităţi mai vii, mai alerte, mai evoluate, mai tulbure, ce te încearcă la proba unui timp al vieţii plină de adrenalină, vădind apartenenţa la o structură de mentalitate mai complexă. Când te regăseşti într-o lume străină şi încerci să domoleşti mijloacele ei de a te face prizonier, ar fi util să-ţi reaminteşti de ideea potrivit căreia artistul trebuie să picteze ceea ce vede în continuă mişcare pentru a surprinde cadrul unei lumi în care naraţiunea pare a continua viaţa însăşi.

The Road To Hell surprinde melancolia predestinării unui ins care nu îndrăzneşte să se ridice împotriva destinului său fatal, durerea continuă a omului aflat în faţa unei lumi ostile, pendulând, în neliniştea lui, între îndoieli şi certitudini. În acelaşi timp, trecând prin orice intersecţie, drumul poate să marcheze lupta pentru cucerirea unui mare simbol de credinţă, o încercare de a ieşi din labirintul atâtor stări contradictorii.

Pe trunchiul aspiraţiei pătrunse de un întreg patetism legat de o iniţiativă utopică de schimbare, ieșire dintr-un timp și spațiu uzat, se altoiesc mlădiţele sensibilităţii neînfricate, împletite în voia unei clipe de abandon, germeni stimulatori ai incertitudinii în faţa unui orizont întunecat. În sfârşit, se simte libertatea de dincolo de barierele vremelniciei clipei prezente.

Leadership: Poţi identifica acel element diferenţiator care să inspire starea ta din momentul producerii unei schimbări în povestea realităţii pe care nu ai mai spus-o niciodată?

Cauza oricărei întreceri cu tine însuţi într-un timp al nimănui este fuga de o viaţă şi o lume cărora nu le mai vezi rostul. Dincolo de orice îndoială rezonabilă, fuga mea într-un sens sau în altul, drumul pe care îl parcurg de la o lume la alta, generând mereu o atmosferă nouă plină de figuri umane rătăcite, cade în mreaja afectelor şi pasiunilor cele mai vehement dezlănţuite.

Totul pare să fi pornit de la gândurile unei minți disperate după senzaţii tari, dintr-o schimbare de profunzime produsă într-o revărsare de acorduri lirice, dar în care domneşte cea mai adâncă nostalgie a începutului şi sfârşitului unei poveşti cu intrigă poliţistă, datorită căreia te simţi continuu într-o stare alertă.

Viaţa mea nu se constituie ca o compoziție ce dă impresia că urmărește desfășurarea unei povestiri imaginare, ci este însăşi povestea imaginară plină de suspans care se amestecă cu povestea plină de frământări a prezentului real. Fantezia care mă leagă de realitatea unei trăiri concrete aparţine înflăcărării de a demara acțiuni îndrăznețe, determinării în a porni pe cărări nebătătorite.

Element diferenţiator care inspiră starea mea din momentul producerii unei schimbări în povestea realităţii pe care nu am mai spus-o niciodată, este acea senzaţie de "high" care nu cere mântuire, fiind explicată ca o rupere de trecut şi ca o incursiune într-un posibil imaginar al tuturor posibilităţilor.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi asumi integral gradul de incertitudine în faţa unui imbold ce depinde de experienţa anterioară în gestionarea situaţiilor de viaţă, fără să devii prizonierul unei conştiinţe care se străduieşte să pună raţiunea înaintea fanteziei?

Cine s-ar încumeta să treacă în locul meu, ar fi îndreptăţit să experimenteze o abundenţă nebănuită a situaţiilor în care se aplică deformarea sau supradimensionarea unui fragment din realitatea cea mai palpabilă, privind totul din prisma emoţiilor care te încearcă doar în faţa unei decizii neaşteptate. Cumva, par să experimentez aceeaşi situaţie prin care trecea Humbert Humbert din romanul "Lolita":

Am virat, aşadar, trecând pe partea stângă a şoselei, mi-am verificat starea de spirit şi am constatat că era bună. Aveam senzaţia plăcută a unei dizolvări interioare, cu elemente de tactilitate difuză, amplificată de gândul că, rulând pe contrasens, mă apropiasem fantastic de eliminarea legilor de bază ale fizicii. Într-un fel, era un neastâmpăr metafizic. Mânam pe faţa excentrică a oglinzii, domol, visător, fără să depăşesc douăzeci de mile pe oră. Circulaţia era redusă. Maşinile de mă depăşeau claxonau brutal. Automobilele care veneau spre mine ezitau, virau brusc şi se văicăreau îngrozite. Am constatat curând că mă apropiam de zone populate. Am trecut pe roşu, ce senzaţie !

Ceea ce se opune trăirii prezente este sentimentul unei rătăciri în jurul unei singure axe care se vede în oglindă "reverse", fiind accesată în urma unui act de judecată a sinelui. Ai senzaţia că faci parte dintr-un scenariu de viaţă mai dur, mai cizelat, mai tensionat, care se remarcă prin retrăirea unei situaţii de libertate totală în luarea deciziilor. Dar în acelaşi timp te afli în prizonieratul unei conştiinţe care dă o amprentă morală oricărui act de voinţă.

Conştiinţa care se străduieşte să pună raţiunea înaintea fanteziei este acea parte din tine care vine din afara ta, legată de anumite situatii care te-au marcat profund printr-o călătorie fascinantă în timp, dar care nu se poate schimba - fiindcă îşi găseşte proiecţia în realitatea prezentă.

Leadershipul are ca temei următorul mesaj semnificativ: dacă nimeni nu-ţi cunoaşte realitatea din care îţi fabrici fantezia dătătoare de emoţiile cele mai puternice, atunci nimeni nu-ţi poate cere socoteală pentru felul cum gândirea îţi influenţează viaţa.

The Road To Hell vizează înclinaţia spre compromisul raportării la un prezent plin de incertitudine, prezentat sub forma unei fantezii care are ca scop trăirea unor emoții pline de forţă şi elan care te introduc în contextul unei lumi în schimbare.

The Show Must Go On

Învaţă să faci din leadership o ştiinţă abstractă, luându-ţi libertatea de a crede în ceva peste puterile omeneşti.

Gândul mă conducea la realizări în care imaginaţia şi libertatea de a crede în ceva peste puterile omeneşti, surprinse în dimensiunea unică a suprarealului, se făceau simţite cu plenitudine în tot felul de combinaţii. De altfel, unei palete de realizări, neputând fi categorisite decât într-o logică a parcurgerii formei de exprimare prin filtrul creator, prin combinarea spaţiilor de dincolo de cortina realităţii, i se spune simplu „compoziţie".

Şi, iată, dezvoltatorul artei îşi pune în valoare capacitatea de anticipare a unei realităţi răscolitoare. Fiind altcineva, el continuă să vadă acolo unde toţi ceilalţi obosesc să încerce a căuta. Inegalabil, îl putem distinge îmbrăcat ca un actor deasupra unui morman de figuranţi, în ipostaza de rege al creaţiei. El parcă simte o chemare adâncă printre măşti, oglinzi, machiaje, diverse costumaţii, culori, concepte, linii de evoluţie, toate luând forma unor „empty spaces / abandoned places", ulterior incluse într-o singură idee existenţială: „Whatever happens, I'll leave it all to chance."

Dăruit cu Divinis Influxibus Ex Alto, geniul se vede înveşmântat nu doar în straiele artei, ci în coloritul unei raţiuni elevate, servite de o conştiinţă nobilă, care asemenea unei comori misterioase, aflate în centru luminii subiective, îi aduce satisfacţia ficţiunii care dă iluzia vieţii vii văzute „Behind the curtain, în the pantomime".

Leadership: Individualitatea pe care o oferi Creaţiei are legată de ea o determinare exterioară de dincolo de tine, receptivă doar la formarea unei viziuni estetice autentice?

Practic, Freddie Mercury, procentul acesta maxim de imaginaţie, se comportă ca un pictor care aranjează într-o unitate închegată diferitele elemente ce le are la îndemână ca să comunice cu claritate mesajul afectiv: „The show must go on". Nu este vorba despre experienţa sufletului de a fi prins în mirajul unei lumi inaccesibile, elementar atingerii unei conexiuni cu simbolurile creaţiei cabalistice preluate în marile capodopere ale impresionismului, dacă astfel s-ar putea numi acele jocuri de substituiri ale Eului prin rolurile sale diverse, ci mai degrabă este vorba despre scrutarea adâncurilor unei idei și a tentațiilor de a forța limite, în căutarea permanentă a alterităţii.

Acum începe primordialul, unde sunt angajate forţele inspiraţiei cele mai înalte. Şi mă văd surprins de impresia întregului ce rezultă din închegarea laturii ştiinţifice cu un întunecat şi infinit supliciu: încă exist. Dar, cum? Prin ceea ce nu oricine poate vedea, prin ceea ce creez şi prin ceea ce sunt în această a doua, sau a treia, dimensiune a realităţii. „I have to find the will to carry on …with the show."

N-aş avea niciun motiv întemeiat să mă simt intimidat în faţa acestei arte a genialităţii. În splendoarea reflectată de genialitate, unde totul capătă accente şi legături nobile, se simte fluidizarea sângelui întregului ştiinţific, încercând parcă a se reface arhitectura lumii vizibile pulverizate de percepțiile prea directe ale impresionismului.

Ca un cuceritor de universuri care vede dansul stelelor în orice reminiscenţe ale lumii - ale carei elemente le aşează în relaţii aproape ludice, aveam să mă comport în faţa artei ca şi când aş fi intrat voluntar în moarte, loc egal cu sălaşul divinităţii, ca apoi să reînvii ca stăpân al celor neştiute. „Inside în the dark I'm aching to be free."

Dar, încă mă frământă un gând: „Does anybody know what we are living for? I guess I'm learning...”

Leadership: Poţi să devii un efect de tipul "puterea proiecției în viitor și a anticipării" în cazul forţelor artei exercitate între fluxul şi refluxul transformărilor de conţinuturi?

Vă îndemn să urmăriţi videoclipul "The Show Must Go On". Dacă urmăriţi cu atenţie, fascinaţi, vrăjiţi de spectacolul plin de efecte al unui spirit revoluţionar, sesizaţi arta în tot ceea ce se află în plan fizic. Dar desfăşurată în valsul interminabil al gândurilor cărora li se atribuie un anumit spaţiu - pustiu sau aglomerat - depinde în ce ecuaţie a ştiinţei introduceţi sugestivitatea şi dublul mesaj.

Leadershipul, extras din mediul înconjurător care se bazează pe fapte şi consecinţele lor, poate să vizeze aria largă a aplicabilităţii lor pe termen mediu şi lung, dar filtrate prin curiozitatea cunoașterii, prin tot felul de combinaţii. Practic, leadershipul implică exercitarea puterii de plăsmuire dobândite în urma experienţei de integrare şi utilizare a forţelor de inspiraţie cele mai înalte.

Prin ceea ce nu oricine poate vedea, prin ceea ce creezi şi prin ceea ce eşti în acea dimensiune a realităţii pe care o numim „conştiinţă extinsă”, practic abordezi procesul de stimul-reacţie, orientând rolul tău de explorator existenţial spre potenţialul maxim de agent al schimbării. Asta înseamnă să fii artist.

Şi, ca să ajungi tu însuţi să te consideri un efect de tipul "puterea proiecţiei în viitor şi a anticipării" prin conţinutul presimţit al unei culturi artistice situată dincolo de cortina timpului, într-o directă conexiune cu universul imaginar al unei lumi gândite în termeni simbolici, într-un tărâm al infinitelor asocieri, trebuie mai întâi să-ţi laşi spiritul purtat spre idei care se situează dincolo de ceea ce raţiunea obişnuită poate sesiza.

Necesitatea utilizării ştiinţei impusă de dimensiunea artistică a unei opere fără egal are ca pivot de referinţă puterea de a continua să dezvolţi coloritul unei raţiuni elevate capabilă să justifice caracterul tău de reformator, cu riscul de a depăşi posibilităţile de înţelegere ale mulţimii.

Dacă te vezi surprins de impresia întregului ce rezultă din închegarea laturii ştiinţifice cu un întunecat şi infinit supliciu: încă exist, înseamnă că încă nu ai atins acel nivel de artă care lasă în urmă vechile abordări ale virtuţii - traduse prin actele dorinţei şi simţirii. Înseamnă că nu ai adăugat la însuşirea dominantă a caracterului tău componenta inovativă, dar greu de îndurat, dezvăluită prin „Inside în the dark I'm aching to be free.”

Continuă să vezi spre mai departe, acolo unde toţi ceilalţi obosesc să încerce a căuta răspunsuri în ei şi în afara lor. Şi chiar dacă în tot ceea ce descoperi rămâne ceva gol, ascuns, trebuie să ai puterea să continui a dezvolta coloritul unei raţiuni elevate care să justifice caracterul tău de reformator, cu riscul de a depăşi posibilităţile de înţelegere ale mulţimii: „The Show Must Go On”.

Vei reuşi să faci din leadership o ştiinţă abstractă dacă devii un efect în cazul forţelor artei exercitate între fluxul şi refluxul transformărilor de conţinuturi, vizând acele combinaţii între certitudini şi incertitudini, între sursele proprii de producere a noului şi sursele împrumutate din procesul unei gândiri ce face din realitate un fel de show - un „dream world”.

Fondatorul psihologiei analitice, Carl Gustav Jung pune în evidenţă forţa motrice a acestui show într-un joc al interpretărilor şi armonizării fiinţei la natura dinamică, veşnic nouă, a simbolului: "Când spiritul întreprinde explorarea unui simbol, el este purtat spre idei care se situează dincolo de ceea ce raţiunea noastră poate sesiza şi, tocmai pentru că există nenumărate lucruri care se situează dincolo de limitele înţelegerii umane, noi utilizăm în mod constant termeni simbolici pentru a prezenta concepte pe care nu le putem nici defini, nici înţelege deplin."

Munca de interpretare a unei capodopere precum "The Show Must Go On" urmăreşte explorarea unui simbol al schimbării, al evadării din real, al acceptării viitorului în dinamica infinitelor asocieri ale tehnicilor video şi audio, prin intermediul unui imperativ al universului: "Nici să mor nu pot. Mi-ar strica imaginea."

The Show Must Go On este concepţia fundamentală a unei compoziţii artistice unde unitatea şi diversitatea se înlănţuie pe principiul coincidentia oppositorum , dar în acelaşi timp depăşind limitele orientative ale unui sine dornic să trăiască în prezent, într-o singură lume, într-o singură realitate.

Thing Called Love (II)

Fii mereu prezent acolo unde alegi să te dezvălui, lăsându-te purtat de propria ta descoperire.

Mai rămânea doar să-mi imaginez un pretext ca să intru în comuniune cu acea parte nevăzută a lumii, din perimetrul unei ordini dominatoare, care, în schimb, transforma restul lumii, antrenându-l într-un adevărat pariu cu hazardul. Sau, era mai degrabă o stranie asumare a singularității, prin suspendarea celorlalți într-o întrecere cu propriile mele așteptări?

Cumva, trebuia să profit de acest moment de reglare a raţiunii pentru a-mi continua drumul spre realizările cuvenite unei deschideri de perspectivă, migrând într-o dimensiune esenţială propriei libertăți de imaginaţie, între exaltarea trăirii intense și conturarea unui idei superioare de afirmare. Ceea ce însemna, totodată, o posibilă cădere de la înălţime, o demolare a construcţiei numite "Join". This spark will cause the bridge to burn.

Mă măcina obsedantul gând, acceptorul final al răspunsului la întrebarea "De cine aparţin?", că în priveliştea ce mă învăluise aproape constrângător cu puterea unei minţi geniale, puteam să continui legătura cu un alt context de timp, cu un soi de percepţie care punea la încercare schemele normale ale realității. Cu o cunoaştere pe care cumva am pierdut-o printr-un Alter-Join. Dar pe care trebuia neapărat să o recuperez printr-o întoarcere la analogia cu o fiinţă superioară. To cross a line takes a tiny step.

Se revela astfel faţa ascunsă a unei realităţi care trecea prin altcineva, declanşatorul unei înţelegeri ascunse, ale cărei simple ingrediente erau rezonanţa și reflexia.

Concomitent, mă simţeam introdus în romanul "Perpetuum Mobile" al scriitorului Artur Silvestri, fiind cuprins de un fel de înfrigurare şi o stare de uimire totodată. E vorba de a cea stare de navigator singuratic ce întrezăreşte, undeva, departe, un ţărm care nu se găseşte niciodată. Dar în acelaşi timp, raţiunea mea făceam corp comun cu viziunea schimbării de imagine şi de personalitate din perspectiva aceluiaşi personaj: descoperitorul unei lumi care se vrea autonomă, în unire cu izvorul prim şi inepuizabil de viaţă, lumină şi iubire, al unei conştiinţe mai înalte.

Leadership: Dispui de o modalitate de mare acurateţe şi utilă de a înţelege unde te afli în termeni de "conştiinţă prinsă în jocul hazardului", sub aspectul trăirii într-un parcurs al trecerii de la evaluarea impactului realităţii la descoperirea unui om nou?

Leadershipul nu trebuie să se omită din aprecierea condițiilor în schimbare care afectează trecerea omului de la un cadru de referinţă la altul, plecând de la analogia cu "oriunde vrei să te avânţi, până la urmă vei nimeri acolo unde ești".

Acest cadru de referinţă depinde de poziţia de observare pe care o ia omul, de la înălțimea unei raţiuni care are puterea să declanşeze noi înţelegeri asupra lumii, faţă de efectul pe care îl antrenează această înțelegere asupra ei.

Vei fi mereu prezent acolo unde alegi să te dezvălui, lăsându-se purtat de propria ta descoperire. În fiecare zi poţi descoperi legătura cu lumea din jur în raport cu semnificaţiile pe care le atribui unei fiinţe superioare. Devii un primitor sau un expeditor al semnelor ei de întrebare, în funcţie de contrariile pe care le găseşti în tine şi care pot fi echilibrate de statutul de fiinţă superioară.

Ca să te înţelegi în termenii de "conştiinţă prinsă în jocul hazardului" trebuie să devii cea mai bună variantă a ta într-o întrecere cu propriile mele așteptări încât să micşorezi probabilitatea de apariţie a unui fenomen potenţial dăunător pentru perceperea realităţii. Trăirea într-un parcurs al trecerii de la evaluarea impactului realităţii la descoperirea unui om nou se manifestă prin analogia cu o fiinţă superioră care nu se lasă oprimată de constrângerile legilor naturale, imaginare, raţionale sau sociale.

Omul Nou este tot ceea ce îţi poţi oferi ca răspuns la întrebarea "de cine aparţii" privită ca modalitate de a înţelege ce anume trăieşti într-o realitate care există independent de tine, dar în acelaşi timp datorită ţie.

Thing Called Love este argumentul unei nedespărţiri de ceea ce mă înlănţuie și mă înrobeşte, adică de acea parte din mine care se vrea revelată și împărtăşită. Presupun că acest argument este unul din identificatorii de bază ai unui lider desăvârşit.

Pot oricând să mă îndepărtez de restul lumii, pot oricând să dau frâu liber libertății de imaginaţie, dar întotdeauna mă va ţine în loc acest impediment: „De cine aparţin?”. Sunt legat de puterea unei lumi la care trebuie să mă adaptez constant, sau de efectele ascunse ale unei puteri superioare de înţelegere a ei?

Un singur lucru este clar: în nici într-un caz nu voi putea să demolez construcţia numită "Join".

Thing Called Love (I)

Asumă-ţi putinţa de a te confrunta cu tine însuți, punându-te față în față cu ideea unui fragment din povestea ta.

Port în memoria mea neţărmurită, adunate de-a valma, toate cele întâlnite într-un trecut care nu iartă, plin de suişuri şi coborâşuri, scoţând afară elementele necompromise de pulsul vieţii cotidiene. Este doar o chestiune legată de rolul pe care sufletul doreşte să şi-l asume în această luptă îndelungată dintre imaginile vii ale perindărilor mele prin peisajele mişcătoare ale lumii, recunoscându-mă dincolo de orice referinţe, şi efectele speciale ale intervenţiilor mele asupra realităţii. So here I am, I'm just the same. But you will never know.

Adesea, îmi ascund înţelesurile în dosul unei temeri neidentificabile, o dimensiune prea largă ca să-i pot măsura amploarea, ca o fântână adâncă şi umbroasă, al cărei fund nu este uşor de văzut, în care mereu arunc un bănuţ pentru a mă reîntoarce la altcineva-ul care am fost. Lucruri peste care trebuie să învăţ să trec, conturate în jurul unei dispariţii de sine trecătoare, mascând un contrariu al lumii, negarea propriei fiinţe, abisul conştiinţei.

Conjunctural, întrezăresc doar izbânda unui întuneric total în faţa luminii revărsate din prea plinul unei părţi din răspunsul la o întrebare, zdruncinătoare ca un fior electric: Did you live your life just once?

"Share another road" , îmi şopteşte adevărul unei eternităţi uitate, în faţa nevoii de a mă recunoaşte într-un plan arhetipal, proiectându-mă în alte roluri, cutreierând prin tot felul de lumi şi spaţii, căutându-mă în ceva ce exprimă anumite idei şi sentimente, structuri de suport ale actualizării mele.

Toată lumea poate să-mi citească sufletul, cu tăcerile, răspunsurile şi nebuniile lui, dar oare va reuși cineva să miște dedesubtul lor?

Leadership: Poți să faci din lumea pe care o divulgi un punct de referinţă al viitoarelor tale recizelări, utilizând un trigger de tip „Before Delete"?

Principala caracteristică a leadershipului nu este în nici într-un caz evocarea unei lumi apuse. Dar el se „hrăneşte" din asumarea amintirii a ceea ce ai fost, intensificând nevoia de a te recunoaște într-un plan al mărturisirii gândurilor și sentimentelor.

Acumulările succesive de răspunsuri obținute din impulsul mărturisirilor formează adevărate pietre de temelie ale cadrului tău actual de gândire și acţiune.

Poți să faci din lumea pe care o divulgi un punct de referinţă al viitoarelor tale recizelări dacă înveţi să îmbunătăţeşti nu doar specificul mărturisirilor tale, ci mai ales conţinutul de adevăruri și falsuri acumulate. Nu lăsa uitării contribuția și impactul lor. Întoarce-te la arhetipul tău prin utilizarea Trigger-ului de tip „Before Delete". Acest trigger capătă valenţele de accesoriu al justificării putinţei de a te confrunta cu tine însuți în contextul unei priviri detaşate faţă de lumea turnată în tiparele unei judecăţi universale a destinului uman.

Puneţi-mă față în față cu ideea unui fragment din povestea mea, redată printr-o confesiune incitantă şi interesantă care, paradoxal, este opusul a ceea ce cred că se așteaptă de la mine.

Asta constituie cea mai banală scenă din reprezentaţia unei dispariţii, urmată de o apariţie fulminantă, demnă de orice magician. Is it just me, I'd like to know / Or are we all just a little blind?

Un om urcă scările de bloc. Pe la etajul şase, pe pânza memoriei lui apare o pată de lumină. Conturul ei are forma unei rame ovale care, din respect şi alte sentimente ascunse pentru fiinţa din tabloul compus instantaneu în amintire este, desigur o ramă Empire.

Toţi suntem captaţi de imaginile vii ale unui ecran modelat de experienţele trecute, realizându-se o simbioză cu invenţia minţii în care imaginile adevărurilor retrăite sunt un factor influenţabil.

Cel mai înalt punct de referinţă al viitoarelor tale recizelări se măsoară după timpul pe care îl acorzi acelui fragment din povestea vieţii tale care exprimă ideile şi sentimentele cuprinse între ceea ce numeşti realitatea imediată şi ceea ce derivă din ceea ce percepi a fi lumea exterioară.

Thing Called Love aduce în prim plan ideile şi sentimentele care te-au format, devenind structuri de suport ale actualizării tale ca om al momentului.

Dacă vrei să te situezi în topul preferinţelor oamenilor care citesc şi încearcă să te cunoască, mai întâi pune-i faţă în faţă cu ideea unui fragment din povestea ta. Asumă-ţi putinţa de a te confrunta cu tine însuţi, îmbunătăţind conţinutul de adevăruri şi falsuri acumulate de-a lungul timpului.

Uneori fragmentul cel mai interesant din povestea ta se referă la rolul pe care ţi-l asumi în momentul în care te decizi să accepţi o realitate care îţi depăşeşte aşteptările prin faptul că te aduce într-un plan de existenţă străin aspiraţiilor tale fireşti.

Distanţează-te de monopolul finitudinii, prin asumarea conştiinţei „totului” din care devii parte integrantă.

Toate îşi aveau intrările şi ieşirile lor. Toate marile încercări de a juca un rol semnificativ într-un context diferit, modificat dinamic prin introducerea unui no one in front of me . Toate micile compromisuri „merge și așa” lăsau să se instaleze un nothing behind . Toate străbăteau până în adâncul conştiinţei mele, asemenea unor întrebări la care nu primeşti niciun răspuns. „Only a fool in here would think he's got anything to prove.”

Neobosit, spiritul meu rătăcea în capriciosul labirint al meandrelor ambiţiilor de universalitate, indirect ale intelligence-ului fără sfârşit care producea totul. Tot ce exista în lume căpăta o relevanţă sporită. Eram un circuit de combinaţii complicate, alimentat cu gânduri intense dispuse pe linia unei continuităţi ce se manifesta prin stare de confuzie. Un amplificator de referinţe şi asocieri care producea constant o pozitie de câştig prin păstrarea distinctivităţii, dar în acelaşi timp o distanţare de ceea ce constituia formarea individualităţii. „Any minute now I'm expecting all hell to break loose”.

Filosoful englez, John Locke, autor al lucrării "Extras asupra dimensiunilor umane" a demonstrat, contrar principiilor carteziene, cum provine cunoaşterea din experienţă, respectiv din senzaţiile ajutate de gândire. Dar este omul destul de gânditor ca să se distanţeze de monopolul staticului şi al finitudinii, încât să-şi accentueze esenţialitatea?

Leadership: Trăirea vieții conform imperativului schimbării necesită o permanentă împăcare cu sine și o disponibilitate de a evolua în echilibrul dinamic dintre "căutare" și "regăsire"?

Un astfel de om se găsea într-un câmp de forţe periodice, într-un perpetuum mobile autoalimentat dintr-un transfer de acumulări succesive, datorită unui izvor de oscilaţii între tot şi nimic. Vorbele scriitoarei Ana Blandiana "Orice dependenţă de materie mi se pare de nesuportat, pentru că orice posesie este o dependenţă" prezentau o mare importanţă.

Să generez trăiri şi înţelesuri făcând din ele un pustiu total sau un tărâm populat de virtuţi şi senzaţii de împlinire, era doar un soi de mişcare de rezistenţă în faţa puterii de a-mi îndura cu stoicism variabilitatea şi ambivalenţele: "I'm not that eager to make a mistake".

Eram oare destul de puternic pentru a-mi urma propriile legi, înfăptuite după modelul unei forme de intensitate a proiecţiei mele pe ipotenuza unui suport existenţial flexibil? Sau mă aflam într-o pauză interesantă de suspans psihologic? „People are crazy and times are strange.”

Leadership: Accepți ca probă de cunoaştere doar ceea ce ai constatat prin experimentare directă, sau indirect prin valorificarea unui intelligence fără sfârşit care produce TOTUL?

Rezultatul intrării tale într-un spaţiu de cunoaştere nou, în raport cu tot ceea ce există şi te interesează într-un fel sau altul, în cazul elaborării unei creaţii obţinute din formarea unor combinaţii complexe ale unor resurse deja existente, poate să scoată la iveală tot ceea ce tu nu pari a fi.

Acţionând ca un perpetuu inovator care se eliberează de monopolul staticului sau al finitudinii, prin asumarea conştiinţei „totului" din care devii parte integrantă, te apropii de ceea ce te poate îmbogăţi cu adevărat: capacitatea de a fi o manifestare a unei continuităţi de gândire.

Nu este vorba de o realitate reflectată de acea oglindă perfectă a esenței care te întregeşte ca personalitate, ci de realitatea în care te pierzi în sutele de gânduri, idei, păreri, alegeri care ţi se învârt în mintea învelită într-un cearceaf de ceaţă. Singura scăpare este reprezentată de tendinţa de a te retrage din mijlocul lumii şi a evenimentelor, nu ca o dovadă de egoism, ci ca o măsură de îndreptare a erorii numite: "dependenţa de capriciile celorlalţi".

În timp ce Intelligence-ul este o formă de a te conecta cu universul din jurul tău prin găsirea unui sens de îndeplinit care să te elibereze de povara numită: "dependenţă de sine".

A exista la modul cel mai îndoielnic posibil, având ca prim pas extragerea cunoaşterii din experienţa de utilizare a „totului", respectiv o cunoaştere relevată din senzaţia că poţi să interpretezi şi controlezi ceea ce vizualizezi, tot ceea ce există ca şi creaţie sau concept, se aplică în cazul în care eşti purtătorul unei culturi superioare. Dar acest mod de a exista totodată presupune să te desprinzi de obişnuit, cu riscul de a-ţi consuma sau exagera esenţialitatea.

În acest caz leadershipul, care prin procedeele diferite de stocaj a informaţiei obţinute prin pătrunderea şi redefinirea „totului" realizează deschiderea omului spre o ipostază nouă a erudiţiei, este supus unei anumite presiuni. În sensul că nu mai poţi facilita o operaţiune amplă de cucerire a unei viziuni coerente despre lume şi viaţă, sau una despre cine vei fi, ce vei face şi de ce contează. Ci mai degrabă o acceptare a ceea ce nu poate fi cuprins decât cu imaginaţia.

Leadershipul se poate distinge prin relevanţa pe care ţi-o dă acea activitate sau obiectiv pe care vrei să-l atingi, schiţând din haosul subiectiv de impresii şi posibilităţi nelimitate de adâncire şi prelucrare a elementelor „totului" o anumită structură ordonată, coerentă de idei, diferită de varianta actuală pe care o utilizezi.

Poţi să-ţi raportezi această modalitate de gândire la o anumită unitate sau cantitate dintr-un tot, astfel încât să obţii un raţionament mai apropiat de un model de acţiune neprevăzut?

Totul este ceea ce te impulsionează să devii o mai bună variantă a ta într-un context de tipul: "ceilalţi sunt manifestări ale acelor părţi din mine pe care le credeam pierdute".

Esenţialitatea omului este cuprinsă între ceea ce este capabil să devină prin raportarea la anumite trăiri prezente în viaţa altora şi ceea ce este capabil să suporte prin raportarea la sine.

Things Have Changed evidenţiază efortul personal de eliberare de monopolul finitudinii, prin asumarea conştiinţei „totului" din care devii parte integrantă. Totodată condensează marile încercări de a juca un rol semnificativ într-un context diferit, modificat dinamic prin introducerea unui „ no one in front of me".

Dezvoltă-ţi identitatea prin atingerea libertăţii de a fi, gândindu-te la ceea ce îţi pasă chiar dacă lucrurile se schimbă.

O anumită perturbare a sinelui se dezvoltase subit în decursul unui ciclu nou de producţie a unui loc de virtute, în desfăşurarea acelui dialog asurzitor ce aproape îmi marcase destinul. Dintre două perspective distincte: una a înălţimii ameţitoare şi una a unui personaj fictiv asupra unor evenimente reale care trebuiau depăşite. Totul părea încurcat. Am constatat cu stupoare că ajunsesem aproape de locul pe care-l părăsisem. „This place ain't doing me any good."

Nu vreau să spun lucruri absurde sau surprinzătoare venind dinspre propria-mi interioritate, aşa cum face un scriitor atunci când se inspiră dintr-un puternic simţ al identităţii şi îl dezvăluie pe ascuns pe tot parcursul romanului, ca răspuns dat poziţiei sale filosofice. Ci vreau să le văd cum se manifestă ele pe cont propriu, aceste lucruri care doar se presupun a fi şi se exprimă doar prin forme de artă atunci când locul la care îmi programez existenţa, căpătând o anumită apreciere epistemică, devine înzestrat cu raţiune şi semnificaţie. "I'm locked in tight, I'm out of range".

A deveni „altcineva" înseamnă să inițiezi o schimbare profundă, asumându-ți responsabilitatea față de rațiune și experiențele care ți-au marcat parcursul, ajustându-ți voința și percepția într-o direcție nouă.

Omul, acest circuit rigid de parcurs de cunoaşterea aflată într-un câmp de forţe conducătoare, acest suflet proactiv servit de organele de reproducere ale unei beatitudini fără margini, pe care nimic nu-l poate smulge ca pe o buruiană din calea destinului, a trecut odată printr-un tunel întunecat, fiind predispus la o formă de protest: "I used to care, but things have changed".

Încet-încet, s-a stabilit un dialog dintre ceea ce pur şi simplu se întâmpla în afara voinţei mele şi ceea ce gândeam despre mine ca fiind altcineva, de unde puteam să mă inspir cu încredere. Un dialog al cărui resort şi călăuză era însăşi propria mea libertate de a fi, de a da socoteală numai raţiunii pe care se întemeiază acea dispoziţie a putinţei de a crea un nou profil, aşa cum se întâmplă atunci când un scriitor caută să-şi integreze viziunea despre lume într-un roman plin de suspans. Eram, cum se zice: "A worried man with a worried mind".

Leadership: Îţi intensifici tentativele de dirijare a instinctelor şi inclinaţiilor spre o anumită raţiune, ca fiind adevărate pietre de temelie la construirea unui „acum" de care să fii mândru?

Identitatea pe care o dezvolţi prin atingerea libertăţii de a fi, făcând din leadership o conexiune între cunoaştere, viziune şi voinţa de a crea o nouă experienţă de viaţă - toate focalizate spre un loc potrivit în care să găseşti refugiu, elimină acele modificări ale gândirii care nu au impact considerabil asupra direcţiei pe care doreşti să o imprimi filosofiei şi schimbării tale.

Liderii cei mai buni îşi intensifică tentativele de dirijare a instinctelor şi inclinaţiilor spre o raţiune de tip „ gândeşte-te la ceea ce îţi pasă, chiar dacă lucrurile se schimbă ", una care pretinde să readucă o stare de bine. Instinctele şi inclinaţiile, purtătoare a unor profunde trăiri anterioare în momente ulterioare şi a unui randament superior de procesare a tot ceea ce îi defineşte pe aceşti artizani ai schimbării, incluzând atât calităţile, dar şi defectele, sunt adevărate pietre de temelie la construirea unui „acum” de care ei pot să fie mândri.

Leadership: Ai capacitatea de a te reinventa constant, folosind experiențele trecutului pentru a crea un nou profil al percepției și autocorectării?

Prin faptul că reuşeşti să gândeşti despre tine ca fiind altcineva, de unde te poţi inspira cu încredere, într-un timp al căutării, al regăsirii, al împăcării cu sine, îţi poţi trăi viaţa aşa cum cere imperativul categoric al schimbării.

Dar a fi altcineva cere un preţ mare. Înseamnă să dai socoteală raţiunii pe care se întemeiază acea dispoziţie a voinţei de a crea un profil nou al percepţiei de a te autocorecta prin consumul de experienţe care te marchează în profunzime.

Percepţia, după cum preciza cineva pe web reprezintă un salt mare în cunoaştere care depinde de modul în care selectezi, organizezi şi interpretezi informaţiile receptate din mediul extern. În leadership, a crea un nou profil al percepţiei este echivalent cu a investi în tine tot ceea ce constaţi în urma ta, în trecutul tău, prin eforturile de a depăşi anumite stări sau prin eforturile de a-ţi menține status-quo-ul.

"Acum" trebuie să fie stadiul în care te recunoşti aparţinând unei viziuni absolut noi despre existenţă şi realitate care să faciliteze descoperirea însemnătăţii tale din perspectiva unei deschideri către nevoia de a fi altcineva.

Această viziune cuprinde dimensiunea lucrurilor care te fac mândru de tine însuţi şi te diferenţiază de restul lumii.

Things Have Changed evidenţiază acea forță a schimbării, impulsul de care ai nevoie pentru a deveni altcineva, stabilind prin ceea ce se deosebeşte o gândire axată pe sine şi o gândire axată pe seama unor evenimente care trebuiesc depăşite.

Depinde de tine cum îţi valorifici şansele de a exploata sinergiile dintre aceste două gândiri, încât să obţii o identitate care să te reprezinte ca o versiune mai grandioasă a Sinelui tău.

Tic tac ! Tic tac ! Tic Tac !

Implementează cu tact măsurile ce se impun prin leadershipul tău, convingându-i pe oameni de valoarea ta prin eficienţa lor.

Ai citit „ Furtuna ” de William Shakespeare? Dacă da, atunci îţi aminteşti acea de furtună atât de puternică ce s-a iscat pe când Alonso, regele Neapolului, şi suita lui traversau marea. Cel care s-a ridicat la înălţimea potenţialului său de conducător în acel moment de cumpănă, nu a fost Alonso, ci şeful de echipaj.

Văzându-l pe şeful de echipaj cu câtă fermitate a tratat problema apărută, cu câta tragere de inimă le dădea indicaţii preţioase marinarilor, Gonzalo, bătrânul şi credinciosul sfetnic al regelui, a exclamat:

- Prind inimă când îl văd pe individul asta. Nu cred că i-a fost scris să se înece. Pun rămăşag că n-o să se înece, chiar dacă vasul n-ar fi mai tare decât o găoace de nucă şi găurit ca un ciur.

Leadership: Ai tendinţa de a-ţi duce la îndeplinire acţiunile de schimbare şi de a merge mai departe prin respectarea obligaţiei de a fi transparent cu privire la condiţiile unei realităţi din care nu poţi găsi nicio scăpare?

Modul în care funcţionează leadershipul la unii lideri este ca un ceas din acela valoros care se opreşte brusc. Şi, ca nişte meşteri plini de pricepere, îl demontează cu grijă; observă că arcurile sunt în stare bună şi rotiţele sunt la locul lor. Aşa că le remontează cu şi mai mare grijă; dar în ciuda priceperii lor, nu reuşesc să facă ceasul să meargă. De ce?

Pentru că totul are o limită. Soluţia nu este la îndemâna fiecăruia. Leadershipul de care avea nevoie în acel moment regele Alonso s-a oprit brusc, ca un ceas mecanic defect, atunci când ar fi trebuit să-şi impună autoritatea. Ca urmare, el nu a putut să insufle încredere membrilor echipajului. Pendulul ceasului leadershipului său nu a avut nimic magic în sine şi nici vreo putere extraordinară, fiindcă în loc să fie orientat spre eficienţă, spre rezultate, s-a oprit brusc exact în momentul când ar fi trebuit să "ticăie".

Pe de altă parte, şeful echipajului, ţinând mult la viaţa lui şi a echipajului, nu s-a lăsat dominat de frică. Probabil din acest motiv a fost capabil să comande atât de prompt şi de eficace în acel moment de cumpănă. Spre deosebire de regele Alonso, a cărui spaimă l-a cuprins instantaneu, şeful de echipaj, cu o însufleţire de nedescris, chiar glorioasă aş spune, nu a ezitat să se confrunte cu noua provocare.

Măsurile pe care le-a luat şeful de echipaj (precum aplanarea conflictelor, combaterea oricăror forme de nesupunere, consolidarea relaţiilor prin promovarea spiritului de cooperare) s-au dovedit eficace – iar asta este dovada unui leadership de calitate. El a fost, deci, un agent de schimbare a oamenilor.

Prin urmare, a fi transparent cu privire la condiţiile unei realităţi din care nu poţi găsi nicio scăpare înseamnă să-ţi foloseşti voinţa şi perspicacitatea în colaborare cu discernământul unui parcurs vizionar (hrănit dintr-un plin de mândrie) aşa încât la vederea unei privelişti splendide orice tensiune să dispară.

Leadership: Eşti pregătit să te supui unei largi varietăţi de condiţii dinamice şi să oferi o alternativă de acţiune care să-ţi exprime personalitatea unică, încât ceea ce ai decis să împărtăşeşti cu ceilalţi să fie mai mult o necesitate dect un factor complementar?

Deseori oamenii sunt înclinaţi să creadă că liderul este tipul care face lucrurile să meargă. Este adevărat într-o mare măsură. Un lider adevărat este înzestrat cu o mare putere de pătrundere a evenimentelor, el înţelege întotdeauna ce se petrece în sufletul oamenilor şi ştie să-i scoată din starea de latenţă, de monotonie, din starea psihică negativă în care se cufund, determinându-i să accepte orice provocare şi să simtă împlinirea reuşitei chiar şi atunci când totul pare fără speranţă.

Tu laşi ca evenimentele îngrijorătoare care apar pe parcursul misiunii tale să te facă să pierzi din vedere ceea ce trebuie de fapt să realizezi? Eşti un nepriceput care nu poate să ia decizii de mare amploare atunci când circumstanţele le impun? Îţi utilizezi la maxim abilităţile în momentele dificile?

Şeful de echipaj s-a ridicat la înălţimea reputaţiei lui de conducător fiind în stare să facă faţă primejdiei cu acel elan lăuntric, viu şi înălţător, cu acel entuziasm impetuos pe care numai oamenii cu adevărat dârzi îl au, îndeplinindu-şi în acelaşi timp atribuţiile de serviciu, şi asumându-şi responsabilităţile funcţiei, în timp ce regele a rămas în umbră, pălind de frică, tulburat în adâncul sufletului până la lacrimi, dar care a înţeles şi s-a supus ordinelor primite.

ntotdeauna tăria de a recunoaşte greutatea realităţii este o necesitate în situaţiile limită, în timp ce fapta glorioasă este doar un factor complementar. Tu eşti în stare să conduci cu acelaşi elan lăuntric? Te ridici la înălţimea reputaţiei tale? Creezi o atmosferă în care oamenilor să le fie mai uşor să reuşească? Poţi să generezi o activitate productivă? Eşti un agent de schimbare?

De multe ori leadershipul este ceea ce ai decis să fii în urma înţelesului pe care l-ai dat unei fapte care nu poate fi corectată, ci doar oprită din evoluţie.

Tic tac ! Tic tac ! Tic Tac ! este sonorul ceasului care funcţionează. În leadership, răspunsul că potenţialul tău funcţionează la maximă capacitate este pulsul oamenilor în momentele dificile.

Eşti capabil să-i scoţi din starea de latenţă, de monotonie, din starea psihică negativă în care se cufund, şi să-i determini să accepte orice provocare şi să simtă împlinirea reuşitei chiar şi atunci când totul pare fără speranţă?

Tic tac ! Tic tac ! Tic Tac ! Este simbolul timpului ce se scurge necontenit dar, totodată, este sonorul perceput de lider, al instrumentului numit ceas, care măsoară timpul – semnificând faptul că el funcţionează şi-şi îndeplineşte menirea, chiar şi în situaţii critice. În acest scop liderul trebuie să dovedească pe parcursul activităţii sale că are abilităţile şi competenţele adecvate pentru a-i conduce pe oameni, să dispună de tactici şi metode adecvate în toate situaţiile.

Tu îi poţi convinge pe oameni de valoarea ta prin eficienţa măsurilor pe care le iei?

Găseşte o explicaţie a modului cum te-ai format în orizontul necesar al autenticităţii, eliminând îndoielile cu privire la ceea ce trebuia să fii și nu ai fost.

Îmi încep ziua prin a-mi aminti ce am făcut ieri, în încercarea de a înfrunta acea voce interioară care nu-şi găseşte calea de pătrundere într-un ciclu nou de transformări. Un răspuns se tot repetă de-a lungul acestor reflecţii, dar este prea incoerent ca să poată fi aliniat unei învăţături morale.

Răspunsurile vagi captează momentele cheie, trezind instantaneu cheful de detecţie al unui "uncertain outcome" . Ele mă introduc degrabă înlăuntrul fenomenelor de neînţeles, izvorâte dintr-o gândire pre-ştiinţifică. Tomorrow is calling, iar eu încă îmi târâi paşii printr-un soi de consecinţă a unor interacţionări virtuale cu ceea ce mi s-ar potrivi şi m-ar identifica în momentul trecut.

Tentaţia spre zona misticului, mesajul codat căruia trebuie să-i găsesc cheia de decodare, poate fi concluzia acestui important reper de orientare printre aspecte neclare şi informaţii derutante. Aidoma unui artist pasionat pentru arta lui, pe care o vrea ridicată la un înalt nivel de măiestrie, încerc să caut resorturile puternice ale propriului Eu, prin intermediul concepţiei privitoare la alcătuirea unui rost în lume. Memories can be taken away.

Leadership: Experienţa cunoaşterii pe care o abordezi, asumată printr-o accepţie a ambiguităţii, se înrudeşte cu un compus numit "factor intrinsec" care dezvăluie o realitate cu mai multe interpretări?

Nu ne-a spus oare scriitorul Maurice Leblanc că, în fond, viaţa însăşi este trăită într-un fel de rezumat, cu furtunile şi măreţiile ei, cu monotonia şi diversitatea sa. Şi iată de ce, poate, gustăm cu o grabă febrilă şi o voluptate cu atât mai intensă această scurtă călătorie, al cărei sfârşit se întrevede chiar din momentul în care începe.

Bine sau rău este să găsesc un loc în timp care să mă zguduie puţin, cum numai o putere dumnezeiască poate. Într-o altă formă decât cea obişnuită, una folositoare eliberării de imperfectul din mine şi din preajma mea. Ceea ce pare a fi un conflict intrinsec se dovedeşte de fapt o rătăcire la întâmplare, o confuzie a minții, un haos sufletesc, un "walking on an endless lane" , antrenând o accelerare a zonelor de umbră şi vulnerabilitate.

Două interpretări pot fi date realităţii pe care o percep adevărată: mai întâi, tot ceea ce mă înconjoară este oricând gata să sufere o transformare cu ajutorul substituţiei, iar apoi, tot ceea ce captez vizual poate fi exprimat şi codat prin cuvântul scris.

Iată de ce totul pare a avea o puternică componentă mistică şi misterioasă pentru mintea unui cititor, pentru că tot ceea ce mă motivează în demersurile mele este o singură întrebare pe care mi-am adresat-o eu însumi uneori: până unde eşti dispus să urmezi un drum care se doreşte a fi o construcţie pur subiectivă, o încercare de a recrea intensitatea originală a senzaţiei de incertitudine?

Trebuie să mă introduc constant în ele, să reuşesc să le stăpânesc, să le folosesc in avantajul meu. Dar la fel cum un comediant mediocru îşi controlează inflexiunile vocii fără să-i pese de ceea ce exprimă, urmărind efectul asupra publicului cu o temătoare trufie, nici eu nu reuşesc să mă debranşez de la metehnele zilei trecute, decât printr-o dispoziție care seamănă unei distrageri de la ceea ce trebuie să cred.

Leadership: Te îndepărtezi de la ceea ce ai fost condiționat să fii, îndreptându-te spre cine îți amintești că ai fost?

Parcurgerea unei succesiuni de aduceri aminte este, în primul caz, o explicaţie a modului cum te-ai format în orizontul necesar al autenticităţii. Iar în cel de-al doilea, este o metodă de autocritică la adresa poziției tale faţă de ceea ce ți-a scăpat, faţă de ceea ce nu știai despre tine în ambiguitatea unor situații care au obstaculat realizarea răspunderii.

Ain't nobody that can buy me peace of mind. Strania călătorie este, în felul care mi-o închipui reflectând la momentele de viaţă, un transfer de experienţă în teritoriul unei obsesii derutante, o grea lovitură dată prezentului - numită "I can never move away from who I was", pe care o învârte neîncetat roata timpului.

Uneori ziua de ieri, căruia timpul îi estompează şi îi şterge detaliile cele mai fine, este asemenea unei călătorii: începi să o înțelegi cu adevărat abia atunci când s-a sfârşit. And the future is uncertain, just like yesterday.

Leadershipul, aducând o confirmare elocventă identităţii condiţionate de o cunoaştere care îți dă răspuns la întrebările ce te preocupă, poate avea ca punct de forţă concluzia acestui important reper de orientare printre aspectele neclare şi informaţiile derutante din tot ceea ce ai fost, raportate la ceea ce ai devenit.

Modul cum te formezi în orizontul necesar al autenticităţii ţine de capacitatea ta de a sugera o realitate a cărei acceptare şi înţelegere îl ancorează pe cititor într-un spaţiu al unităţii în sine însuşi, un spaţiu al totalităţii, al fiinţei perfecte şi al unei existenţe absolute.

Un om cu calități de lider se îndepărtează de la ceea ce a fost condiționat de împrejurări să fie, apropiindu-se de acea superioritate misterioasă pe care o conferă statutul de artist al exprimării frapante şi memorabile. Este singura cale de a se corecta și de a-şi depăşi starea de inferioritate (necunoaştere + incertitudine) sau starea de inadecvare care îl încearcă atunci când se găsește în faţa unei uși închise, a unei gândiri contradictorii.

Din acest motiv una din semnificaţiile atribuite expresiei „ Dragons that I used to chase / Tease me from inside " este aceea de a nu cădea victimă propriilor tale îndoieli cu privire la ceea ce trebuia să fii și nu ai fost, având repercusiuni asupra a ceea ce ai devenit.

Frământările născute din intensificarea exploatării momentelor trecute, ele însele legate mai degrabă de aparenţe decât de esenţă, sunt seminţele unei stări de repaus aflată într-o descompunere a cărei densitate de semnificaţii are expresia unui transfer leneş de concluzii pripite.

Forţa autenticităţii se obţine eliminând îndoielile cu privire la ceea ce trebuia să fii și nu ai fost, când nu eşti sigur de ceea ce crezi despre tine, dar eşti dispus să te uiţi diferit la ceea ce te ţine pe loc printr-un microscop al cărui reglaj îl stăpânește doar artistul, poetul sau prozatorul.

Nu uitaţi ce spunea scriitorul Mihai Gojgar: "Un poet sau un prozator trebuie să „jongleze" cu regulile stilistice şi să-şi ordoneze devierile în aşa fel încât să-şi obţină efectul dorit."

Time Flies scoate în evidenţă acea formă de a te cunoaşte prin reflectarea la o serie de aspecte pe care de multe ori le treci cu vederea. Ai grijă ce descoperi la ziua de ieri înainte ca timpul să-i estompeze detaliile. Ele pot fi dovezi ale unei continuităţi permanente sau ale unei rupturi de ceea ce te-ai învățat să fii.

Timpul câştigat în alunecarea spre trecut

Revizuieşte-ţi convingerile despre cine eşti cu adevărat, căutând urmele naturii tale interioare în propria ta viaţă.

După ani de zile în care, cu o însufleţire fără mărgini şi-a dedicat viaţa cinematografiei, marele regizor rus, Serghei Eisenstein, este internat. Un infarct al miocardului. Dar boală nu-l doboară. Încă o dată fantastica lui vitalitate biruie criza.

În spitalul Kremlinului, imobilizat la pat, condamnat la inactivitate, maestrul meditează asupra lucrurilor din jur, asupra vieţii sale. Acum o va putea înţelege. "Când viaţa s-a sfârşit, rămâne doar un post-scriptum. Acum pot face tot ce vreau." Cere să i se aducă cărţi în spital, citeşte mult. Se hotărăşte să scrie un post-scriptum util: să-şi redacteze memoriile, sub acest imbold el începe să-şi scrie amintirile. "Dar oare va avea cineva nevoie de acestea în afară de mine?"

"Ei bine, acum pot mărturisi: nu am înţeles nimic. Nici viaţa. Nici pe mine. Nici cei patruzeci şi opt de ani trăiţi de mine. Nimic, poate doar un singur lucru. Că am trecut prin viaţă în goană. Că nu m-am uitat nici în dreapta, nici în stânga... Atenţia mi-a fost oprită întotdeauna asupra clipei. Ca şi cum m-aş fi grăbit undeva. Ca şi cum n-aş fi vrut să întârzii. Ca şi cum aş fi vrut să ajung acolo. Ca şi cum aş fi vrut să gonesc mai departe. Totul mi-a alunecat printre degete ! N-am ştiut să apuc, să păstrez..."

Leadership: Tu încerci să înţelegi mai bine viaţa, meditând asupra lucrurilor din jur, adică sub imboldul de a-ţi scrie amintirile, ştiind că ceea ce cauţi poate fi găsit doar în interiorul tău?

Leadershipul presupune nu numai drepturi şi obligaţii, nu numai o pregătire profesională bună şi o bună coordonare a celor din subordinea ta. Ci, mai întâi de toate, presupune să-ţi setezi limitele propriilor tale valori după care îţi aliniezi viaţa în raport cu nivelul conştiinţei tale. Numai înţelegând cu adevărat viaţa, şi cântărind cu mult discernământ rolul pe care singur l-ai ales să-l joci în lume, vei putea să te înţelegi pe deplin.

Serghei Eisenstein şi-a dat seama cel mai bine cine este el cu adevărat, reuşind să dea un sens vieţii sale, abia la sfârşitul carierei sale, abia atunci când boala l-a imobilizat la pat. Leadershipul poate fi şi un instrument de măsură a propriilor tale capacităţii, nevoi, dorinţe, nemulţumiri şi frustrări, căci după acestea îţi croieşti drumul în viaţă, ceilalţi oameni raportându-se la tine, şi urmând aceeaşi cale pe care o urmezi tu.

Felul deosebit de a-ţi judeca viaţa, propriile trăiri, de a te bucura de ea, felul de a te conduce în împrejurările complicate, care se succed de-a lungul timpului în favoarea sau în defavoarea ta, îţi permite să conştientizezi ceea ce faci pentru a avea o cunoaştere de sine cât mai clară, şi, de asemenea, te ajută să conştientizezi tot timpul în ce măsură acţiunile tale afectează viaţa celorlalţi.

Leadership: Imaginea ta în văzul lumii reprezintă un mijloc de a-ţi întări Ego-ul astfel încât să faci faţă compromisului pe care ai fi dispus să-l faci pentru aţi recăpăta puterile interioare pe care le-ai pierdut sau de care ai uitat?

Cursul vieţii tale se poate desfăşura asemenea unui calculator care se stinge şi se aprinde singur, după cum îl programezi tu. Însă leadershipul nu urmează întocmai comenzile pe care i le dai tu dacă nu descoperi şi dacă nu controlezi toate acele lucruri care dau semnificaţie vieţii tale.

Ca şi lider, trebuie mai întâi de toate să fii sculptorul propriei tale fiinţe, apoi să încerci să-i modelezi pe ceilalţi oameni după voia ta. Însă dacă goneşti neîntrerupt prin viaţă, fără să-ţi opreşti atenţia asupra clipei, ce sens va avea viaţa ta? Cum să te transformi într-o fiinţă mai simţitoare decât ceilalţi, mai vibrantă, dacă nu-ţi defineşti cum trebuie scopul, valorile, principiile, dacă nu-ţi cultivi acea personalitate puternică, definită prin nobleţe, dacă nu-ţi dezvolţi acea individualitate care să-ţi asigure acceptul şi susţinerea celorlalţi?

Aşa cum un regizor îmbină într-un mod armonios sunetul, culoarea, imaginea cu scopul de a crea o capodoperă cinematografică – tot aşa şi tu trebuie să îmbini în mod armonios o gamă mai largă de emoţii, dorinţe, motivaţii, eforturi constructive şi realizări pentru a da vieţii tale un scop, şi pentru înţelege mai bine cine eşti tu cu adevărat. Revizuieşte-ţi convingerile despre cine eşti cu adevărat, căutând urmele naturii tale interioare în propria ta viaţă.

Compromisul pe care un lider îl face cu el însuşi este de a se înţelege mai bine din prisma a ceea ce reprezintă ca şi creaţie a unei minţi care încearcă să înţeleagă resorturile fenomenului numit: "Autoreflecţie".

Un lider se explorează în mod deosebit pe sine, în cadrul unui prces creator, atât prin intermediul autoreflecţiei, al introspecţiei solitare, cât şi cu ocazia diverselor activităţi pe care le desfăşoară (în special activităţile cu caracter determinist pentru care manifestă o chemare deosebită).

Timpul câştigat în alunecarea spre trecut simbolizează autocunoaşterea pe care trebuie s-o traversezi pentru a te "reîntâlni" cu tine, pentru a face cunoştinţă cu cine eşti cu adevărat. Dacă nu recunoşti stimulii psihologici, emoţionali ai dezvoltării tale, nu vei putea urma niciodată calea cea mai bună spre succesul total, şi cu siguranţă nici nu vei fi o călăuză sigură pentru ceilalţi din jurul tău.

Concluzie: Prin cercetarea trecutului propriu – analizând capacitatea şi limitele proprii, eşecurile şi victoriile precum şi stabilirea clară a locului pe care vrei să-l ocupi şi pe care l-ai obţinut în raport cu ceilalţi – vei putea întrezări evoluţia ta ulterioară şi perspectivele care se deschid în faţa ta.

În trenul vieţii trebuie să te decizi care loc vrei să-l ocupi, în vagonul de clasa întâia sau cel de clasa a doua - mai ieftin, mai accesibil dar mai incomod? Vrei să ocupi locul mecanicului ce conduce trenul sau simplu pasager ce aşteaptă să ajungă la destinaţie fără niciun efort? La fiecare haltă trebuie să te evaluezi, căci o dată ajuns la destinaţia terminus, este prea târziu să faci acest lucru.

Timpul petrecut în umbră are preţul său

Controlează factorii nefavorabili care îţi condiţionează percepţia asupra vieţii, asumându-ţi acea realitate a sinelui care te mobilizează în procesul de transformare şi ascensiune.

De cum s-a trezit, Cosette a dat fuga la papuc. Găsise în el o monedă de aur. Fu orbită. Nu ştia ce va să zică o monedă de aur, nu văzuse aşa ceva niciodată. O ascunse repede în buzunar, ca şi cum ar fi furat-o. Simţea totodată că e a ei, ghicea de unde-i venea darul, dar bucuria pe care o avea era plină de frică. Era mulţumită. Dar mai cu seamă uimită. Lucrurile astea atât de minunate şi de frumoase nu i se păreau adevărate. Şi păpuşa pe care o primise cadou, i se păreau toate căzute din cer. Tremura în faţa acestor măreţii.

Numai străinul n-o făcea să tremure. Dimpotrivă, îi dădea curaj. Din ajun, printre toate clipele de uimire, prin somn, mintea ei de copil se gândea la omul acela care părea bătrân, sărac şi atât de trist, şi care era, cu toate astea, atât de bogat şi de bun. De când îl întâlnise în pădure, totul i se părea schimbat.

Cosette, mai puţin fericită decât cea mai mică dintre păsările cerului, nu ştiuse niciodată ce înseamnă a fi ocrotit în umbra mamei şi sub o aripă. De cinci ani, adică de când putea ţine minte, biata fetiţă tremura şi clănţănea. Fusese întotdeauna goală-goluţă sub vântul cel aspru al durerii. Acum i se păru că e îmbrăcată. Altădată simţea că-i era frig în suflet. Acum îi era cald. Parcă nu-i mai era teamă nici de doamna Thenardier, care o bătea mereu. Căci acum nu mai era singură. Avea pe cineva alături. *****

Leadership: Te vezi ca o creaţie îngreunată de un alibi sufletesc care se conturează în urma impactului cu existenţa dată, cu deschidere către reperele cauzale ale unei realităţi necunoscute?

Leadershipul, ca o constantă de integrare a laturii tale emoţionale în spaţiul măreţiei de a fi tu însuţi, în realităţile cu ceilalţi, aduce un plus de experienţă de viaţă, pornind de la o înţelegere mai profundă a ceea ce eşti şi a modului în care trăirile şi gândurile interacţionează şi colaborează. Sarcina ta primordială, ca lider, este aceea de a conştientiza felul în care ai putea să contribui, în mod sistematic, pe măsură ce înveţi să trăieşti, la construirea unui univers accesibil celorlalţi, care poate uneori îţi scapă, chiar dacă faci parte din el continuu.

Devii o creaţie îngreunată de un alibi sufletesc care se conturează în urma impactului cu existenţa dată, atunci când nu te poţi regăsi pe tine, atunci când nu conştientizezi acea parte mai nobilă din tine din care își trag energia toate rolurile pe care trebuie să ţi le asumi în orice punct al evoluţiei. Ai deschidere către reperele cauzale ale unei realităţi necunoscute atunci când te laşi condus de hazard spre experimentarea unei realităţi conform dorinţelor tale.

Manifestarea intenţiei de a conlucra cu o lume schimbătoare, diferită de universul prezentului creat anterior, rămâne o constantă de tip întreg. Valoarea acesteia este cuprinsă între cauzele unor stări de conştiinţă înceţoşate, cu puţine zone limpezi, prin răscolirea trecutului care stă între tine şi prezent. Şi explorarea personalității tale prin intermediul construirii unei identități ideale, şi a modului în care această identitate este percepută nu doar de susţinători, ci în special de Eul condiţionat de modelul existenţial în care te simţi confortabil.

Leadership: Poţi să priveşti dincolo de hotarul unui sine care trebuie să lupte pentru proeminenta lui putere de a se autoregla, fără să te ridici deasupra grijilor lumii?

În cadrul tuturor domeniilor cu impact asupra viitorului, liderii trebuie să se apropie sensibil de acea ştiinţă care studiază în mod specific părţile din umbră ale fiinţei umane, de care ea caută să se elibereze prin găsirea unui sprijin puternic din exterior. Aceste părţi tenebroase implică sărăcia, tristeţea şi nefericirea, iar ele pot să dobândească măreţia caracterului unei persoane dacă intervin în evoluţia evenimentelor desfăşurate sub egida sa.

Leadershipul implică o înțelegere a esenței omului, numai în măsura în care liderul, ca iniţiator al unei creaţii care cu greu se poate delimita clar de dominaţia inferiorului asupra superiorului, deţine perspectiva unui câştig semnificativ de ataşament faţă de un Ego dominat de îndoială şi slăbiciune. Devii erou in povestea unui om slab atunci cand reusesti sa rescrii capitolele cele mai importante din viata lui.

Liderul este întotdeauna împins de conştiinţă să se ridice deasupra grijlor lumii din jur prin valorificarea unor acţiuni morale din care rezultă intenţia sa de a accepta provocarea schimbării. El este conştient că deseori sentimentele înalte ale unui om sunt puse în valoare tocmai de sărăcia, tristeţea şi nefericirea pe care le suportă în locul oricărei fărădelegi.

Aşa cum seva urcă din rădăcini până în ultima frunză a copacului, tot aşa factorii nefavorabili care îţi condiţionează percepţia asupra vieţii tind spre redefinirea a ceea ce înseamnă să fii prizonier sau gardian al unei identităţi care nu face niciodată saltul către un destin propriu, în deplină concordanţă cu frumosul şi sublimul.

Leadershipul are deschidere către valorile şi reperele care te definesc ca om de mare caracter atunci când faci din aspiraţia de a intra în contact cu un sentiment înalt o înțelegere a esenței tale ignorate.

Timpul petrecut în umbră are preţul său vizează plasarea omului într-un trecut complicat, căruia chiar el îi dă viață dintr-un impuls emoţional negativ, ignorând realitatea creată de scenariile unei lumi axate pe deplina libertate de exprimare a individualităţii sale. Un om devine mulţumit de el însuşi, nu doar atunci când are pe cineva alături, ci atunci când ajunge în stadiul în care îşi înţelege identitatea şi îşi urmează traiectoria către ceea ce-şi doreşte să fie, către ceea ce este el cu adevărat.

Ţine ochii deschişi şi priveşte cu atenţie

Adevărata menire a privirii este să sporească potențialul de creație, dând sinelui permisiunea momentană să înţeleagă ce vrea, cu ochii care prezintă o fotografie.

Privesc valurile, sclipirea razelor de soare cum se reflectă în mare. O doamnă își caută de cinci minute loțiunea de plajă, dar nu-și dă seama că i-a căzut sub șezlong. Băiatul bronzat, cu covrigii de vânzare, își face traseul zilnic, încercând să vândă ceva. Undeva în larg se zărește o barcă micuță de pescari. Pescărușii sunt peste tot. Oamenii la fel. Nisip și scoci peste tot.

Eu n-am intrat în scenă, dar o voi face imediat. Citesc Wilhelm Hauff, ceva care mi-a scăpat din bibliotecă. În același timp ascult Roudeep. Sunt în miezul gândirii sistematice, încercând să aflu ceva despre relația artelor plastice cu natura.

Socotesc că este mai profitabil să deslușesc intenția pur artistică a omului de a se încadra într-un peisaj de vis, decât a face observați privitoare la cât de necesară este o perspectivă riguros științifică asupra artei.

Aşadar, marea încă păstrează ceva din capacitatea mea de a visa, de a spera, privind totul prin lentila unei vârste fără de bătrâneţe. Cred, până la urmă, că adevărata știință a artei începe cu privitul: să încerci să sesizezi acel "Unu Absolut" care apare în natură sub diverse întruchipări sau determinări. Iar tu să rămâi identic cu tine, peste tot, în aceste întruchipări și determinări.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi hrăneşti sinele din Creaţia ta, dând unui spaţiu de coexistenţă proporţii vizuale fără limite prin intermediul unei imagini dominante, în conformitate cu înţelesul mai larg al expresiei "A bright ray of sunshine" ?

Privind marea, frumuseţea ei, privind în ea reflexia soarelui, mi-am dat seama că lucrul cel mai bun şi mai sigur pe care-l am de făcut este să mă ţin de o imagine care nu pâlpâie în faţa adevărurilor lumii, o imagine care îşi dezvoltă propriul gen de frumuseţe vizibilă – aceea a culorilor care devin tot mai transparente pe măsură ce mintea explorează simbolul, ajungând la idei care se află dincolo de puterea de cuprindere a raţiunii.

Şi dacă este aşa, că gândurile-mi străbat fără grabă orizontul unui spaţiu deschis, fără limite, şi un spaţiu al întemeierii de sine, pe măsură ce privesc frumuseţea direct vizibilă din lumina soarelui care atinge suprafaţa mării, mai întâi într-un mod destul de natural, apoi într-un mod destul de intensiv, atunci nu-mi mai rămâne decât să mă bucur de o privelişte superbă într-o vacanţă de vis.

Leadership: Schimbarea profundă vine din modul în care selectezi și interpretezi ceea ce ai trăit, creând astfel o viziune care îți permite să te regăsești în esența ta autentică?

Dar arta ce are de spus în acest sens? Iar estetica nu cred că este singura care să aibă margini discutabile la noţiunile de oceanografie sau despre fotografierea peisajelor marine. Numeroase sunt argumentele zadarnice, asupra faptului că dacă un anumit gen de priveliște îmi bucură ochiul, sufletul şi mintea, asta ar satisface cumva condiţiile necesare cerute de un alt mod de cunoaştere a lumii prin artă, prin jocul spontan al imaginaţiei creatoare.

În sfârşit, dacă încerc să mă privesc cu aceeaşi linişte cu care privesc marea, şi dacă fac din această linişte un proces de ascultare a chemării mării, ca o linie melodică în surdină, atunci arta ar căpăta o faţă nouă, un alt mesaj, o tentă de grandoare. Iată de ce este important să-mi ascult privirea când străbate întinsul unui spaţiu unitar, depozitul colosal de energie neliniştită: fiindcă nu pot să mă leg intim de un anumit proces creativ, altfel decât dacă îmi transform privirea într-o rază de soare strălucitoare.

Expresia "a bright ray of sunshine" are înţelesul de convenţie între ceea ce transformă priveliştea într-o adevărată bucurie a sufletului, şi ceea ce emite sinele tău din perspectiva manifestării unei tendinţe de hiperrealism.

În leadership, asta se traduce prin: "ceea ce vezi schimbat la tine este ce te aștepți să vezi în imaginea pe care o admiri."

Ţine ochii deschişi şi priveşte cu atenţie imaginea care te atrage la orizont, fiindcă este imaginea prin care Sinele tău Superior îţi transmite ceva ce tu altfel nu ai putea să cunoşti prin intermediul experienţei de viaţă sau a raţionamentului.

În artă este important să nu pierzi nimic din vedere, nici măcar aparenţele atunci când faci distincţia între ceea ce se datorează unei perspective de ansamblu asupra ideii de "unitate", deci ceva în conexiune strânsă cu Sinele, şi ceea ce se datorează proceselor de identificare a unor noi abordări estetice.

Ţinta dificilă din boxa acuzaţilor

Modul în care înfrunţi realitatea pe care ceilalţi intenţionează să ţi-o impună, este rezultatul procesului de transformare care te aduce faţă în faţă cu tine însuţi.

A fost ceva cu totul neaşteptat. Femeia se cutremură la vederea asasinului, ca şi cum ar fi fost atinsă cu un fier roşu, căci simţise un fior cutremurător trecându-i prin tot corpul, incinerându-i toată speranţa, toată forţa ascunsă în subconştient, toate trăirile nemanifestate.

Inocenta ei şi justiţia lui se întrepătrundeau cu o voinţă şi cu o determinare ameţitoare. De parcă între ei doi ar fi existat o paralelă unică, directă şi tulburătoare: slăbiciunea ei, educarea ei în spiritul bisericii - şi instinctul lui de asasin, la care se adaugă rolul lui de verigă intermediară între "excepţiile de procedură şi apărările de fond", între o acceptare pură şi renunţarea la principii.

Biata femeie îşi dădea seama că îi sunase ceasul. Devenise fără voia ei o ţintă. Sosise clipa când avea să fie pusă la încercare. I se strânse inima. O clipă se simţi transportată într-o altă lume, a învinşilor, a surghiuniţilor, a celor scoşi de sub apărarea legilor. Prinse o clipă prielnică şi privi în ochii asasinului, cumpănind totul. Era cu neputinţă să fugă. Din toate părţile o pândeau legile de fier ale justiţiei lui. Se afla într-o boxă a acuzaţilor.

Leadership: Lecţia pe care ţi-o dă hazardul este aceea că ai capacitatea de a diminua potenţialul unui pericol înainte ca acesta să lovească?

O realitate impusă cu scopul de a deturna opţiunile individului. Cuprinsă de un sentiment de revoltă, de culpabilitate înrădăcinat atât de adânc, încât nici logica şi nici raţiunea nu ar fi putut vreodată să-l anihileze, femeia îşi adună tot curajul inimii şi spuse:

- N-ai niciun motiv să-mi faci rău...

- Nu, dar mi-am dat cuvântul, răspunse asasinul. Soţul tău a avut oportunitatea de a te salva. Dar s-a folosit de tine ca să încerce să se salveze el.

- Nu trebuie să faci asta, răspunse femeia cu o voce de înger.

Ca un om superior, ca un judecător milostiv care acordă o ultimă şansă celui condamnat la moarte, Anton Chigurh aruncă în sus o monedă de douăzeci şi cinci de cenţi, o prinde şi-i spune:

- Bine, asta e tot ce pot face pentru tine. Alege.

- Nu ! N-am să aleg ! răspunse categoric femeia cu un curaj izbitor, demn de un luptător. Moneda n-are nimic de spus. *

Leadership: Poţi să te analizezi din perspectiva unei înțelegeri de sine stătătoare prin trăirea acelui sentiment al distanței faţă de suferinţa ce cunoaște foarte puține legături cu prezentul, dar care te face să crezi că aparţii de ceva sau cineva?

Cineva remarca bine: "Realitatea pe care o trăieşti este oglinda ta şi reflectă tot ceea ce eşti în interior: compasiune, speranţă, umanitate, solidaritate, gânduri pozitive, iertare, pace interioară, încredere şi credinţă."

Dacă această realitate în care te regăseşti îţi este furată, modificată după voinţa celorlalţi, subordonată unor alte criterii decât cele care ar trebui să primeze, atunci se va produce un declic în felul tău de a fi.

În loc să evoluezi spre un nivel mai înalt al conştiinţei tale cu care să rezonezi 100%, deci spre o înţelegere profundă a esenţei din care eşti plămădit, vei fi ancorat ca o epavă ruginită într-un spaţiu închis, neaerisit, în care "nimicul" va prinde rădăcini. Un flux al unui proces de schimbare anormală, forţată, care depășește uneori cu mult acea formă a realității pe care ai pretins-o de-a lungul timpului.

Leadershipul se poate dovedi inutil, lipsit de fond, dacă îşi reduce gradul de rezistenţă şi protecţie în coliziunea cu un pol opus. El se poate transforma într-un agent al unei rupturi de tine însuţi şi de natura pe care o creează, de resursele pe care ţi le pune la îndemână pentru a-ţi menţine statutul de om de mare caracter.

Un fel de sabotare din exterior, din direcţia imprevizibilă a unei elite condusă de alte principii, nesănătoase, şi în alţi termeni care nu-i sunt caracteristici, care nu onorează cele mai de bază valori.

Leadership: Poţi să înfrunţi incertitudinea unui rezultat final, printr-o abatere de la regula generală conform căreia pe parcursul vieţii plăteşti mai mult pentru ceea ce primeşti decât pentru ceea ce dai?

Devii fără voia ta o ţintă a realităţii altora? Cum îţi manifeşti personalitatea la contactul cu o altă realitate? Te simţi transportat într-o altă lume, a învinşilor? Te afli într-o boxă a acuzaţilor? Cum poţi să-ţi menţii stabilitatea în conflictul dintre acuzatori şi apărători?

Nu poţi fi un om mare, dacă continui la nesfârşit să rămâi mic în ochii celorlalţi, dacă te laşi prins, ca un bulgăre de zăpadă într-o continuă rostogolire, în diverse situaţii în care îţi este dificil să acţionezi.

Dacă sursa de valori care îţi alimentează convingerile îşi încetează funcţionarea, drumul tău spre atingerea perfecţiunii se va surpa şi va continua să alunece până ce nicio intervenţie, nicio manifestare de amploare a voinţei tale nu va mai fi folositoare.

Leadership: Poti sa înfrunţi realitatea pe care ceilalţi intenţionează să ţi-o impună într-o lume în care nimic nu pare ceea ce este și în care orice, absolut orice, se poate întâmpla?

A înfrunta realitatea pe care ceilalţi încearcă să ţi-o impună este ca şi cum ai colecţiona oglinzi, suprafeţe neutre în faţa cărora te poţi arăta slab sau puternic pentru a te vedea reflectat. Este o încercare de a-ţi destăinui fără reţinere fidelitatea faţă de propria ta identitate, o formă de manifestare a celei mai pure laturi a sinelui tău care veghează constant asupra ta, mai ales în condiţii vitrege.

Pentru ca dezvoltarea ta să fie cât mai sănătoasă încearcă să urmăreşti cu atenție firul roşu al întâmplărilor care te provoacă, independent de voinţa sau raţiunea ta, care te nelinişteşc şi te implică într-un joc riscant. Încearcă să intuieşti ceea ce nu se potriveşte în vreun fel căutărilor tale şi să nu te laşi capturat de acea forță stranie a hazardului și a coincidențelor care face ca, la un moment dat, fiecare să se afle în apropierea celuilalt, căutându-se sau doar intersectându-se fără voia lui.

Dincolo de valorile şi convingerile tale pe care le creezi prin construirea relaţiilor, fiind vorba de un proces constant, oricare dintre perspectivele care te fac să înţelegi adevărata esenţă a propriei personalităţi trebuie să fie în orice moment şi în orice condiţii, posibilă.

Raţionamentul precar care permite existenţa factorului numit "resemnare" interferează cu ceea ce constaţi că trebuie schimbat la lume începând cu ceea ce ţi se întâmplă într-un mod care vede dincolo de limitările realităţii imediate şi de hazardul faptelor care ţi se înlănţuie în viaţă.

Ţinta dificilă din boxa acuzaţilor reprezintă omul care, depinzând de hazard, este condamnat fără voia lui să-şi schimbe destinul. El trece de la o etapă de acceptare la una de supravieţuire.

Eşti pregătit să iniţiezi o evaluare a realităţii pe care o trăieşti atunci când eşti supus influenţei celor străini de principiile sănătoase ale leadershipului? Graniţa dintre a accepta realitatea lor sau de a o respinge, fiind oricum, extrem de fragilă.

A accepta realitatea pe care ceilalţi încearcă să ţi-o impună necesită permanent o evaluare a propriilor principii, sentimente şi modalităţi de acţiune. Accepţi să te transformi într-un gropar al realităţii pe care o trăieşti, sau să devii arhitectul ei?

Ca lider, trebuie să fii în concordanţă cu realitatea, dar şi cu tine însuţi – acel tot unitar (format din idei, concepţii, principii şi sentimente) consolidat în timp. A accepta o realitate impusă, în discordanţă cu ceea ce eşti, te poate trimite în boxa acuzaţilor. Fii fidel principiilor tale şi Eu-lui tău, fii tu însuţi un judecător imparţial a aceea ce eşti şi îţi vei demonstra nevinovăţia şi fidelitatea faţă de tine şi faţă de oamenii care te-au investit cu încrederea lor.

Modul în care înfrunţi realitatea pe care ceilalţi intenţionează să ţi-o impună, este rezultatul procesului de transformare care te aduce faţă în faţă cu tine însuţi.

Ţinutul în care nu ajungem niciodată la timp (II)

Transformă-ţi identitatea într-o formă a revelaţiei de sine, asigurând o integrare perfectă a idealurilor tale în realitatea care te caracterizează.

O evadare dintr-un spaţiu închis este aparent imposibilă, mai ales pentru cine se simte condamnat la un exil absolut. Realitatea crudă devenise culcuşul confortabil al unui ego răvăşit, stingher, alinat doar de vântul slab al schimbării. Niciodată înfăţişarea şerifului Ed Tom Bell nu fusese mai ciudată şi mai de nerecunoscut. Vădit, era mistuit de o frământare lăuntrică neînţeleasă, ca un recipient etanş cu un conţinut aflat sub presiune.

El ar fi vrut să-i spună bătrânului de lângă el: " Bătrâneţea este un ţinut complicat, mai întunecat decât amurgul. Într-o zi vom pleca împreună acolo, unde nimeni altcineva nu ne va deranja. "

Chemarea unei alte lumi se aude din umbră, reprezintă inevitabilul morţii, dar mai întâi de toate soarta muribundului cochetează cu poezia destrămării şi a singurătăţii. Neadaptarea lui Ed Tom Bell la o realitate implacabilă a dat naştere unei dezorientări care durea ca un pumnal înfipt într-o rană deschisă. O acceptare necondiţionată a propriei persoane, o sferă, o lume proprie care nu dispunea de interese majore sau de planuri veritabile de viitor.

Avea ceva în suflet, o urmă de regret, pe care voia s-o ascundă. Părea că şi-a dat de mult seama de relativitatea valorilor umane, de fragilitatea convingerilor care limitează omul, poziţionarea noilor fundaţii în raport cu nişte abordări rezonabile consacrate.

Nu era deschis schimbărilor neaşteptate. Viaţa lui nu se scurgea aşa cum voia el, ci în ritmul unui monometru ce funcţiona după legi stricte. Realitatea era în conflict cu firea sa. În ceasul din urmă, se poate observa încă acea disciplină şi acel spirit ostăşesc care făceau dualismul vieţii sale, amândouă împinse până la un eroism sublim.

Valul doarme, liniştit. Printre unde, de un vânt blând trase, plutesc cu drag ultimele rămăşiţe ale celui ce-a fost, odată, un om. *

Leadership: Poţi să repui în valoare semnificaţia pe care o atribui vieţii printr-o acceptare necondiţionată a propriei persoane, fără să devii cumulul tuturor experienţelor trăite într-un moment de cumpănă?

Omul care se pune necondiţionat în slujba unei existenţe care se dovedeşte plină de incertitudini, pândită pe alocuri de nonsens, în cadrul unei orientări dominante către sfârşit, nu poate stabili valori de pregnanţă asupra rodirii unei gândiri profunde. Atenţie. Gândirea care se anulează pe sine, gândirea care se înţelege greşit pe ea însăşi, nu se poate desfăşura obiectiv în cadrul faptelor, ci se hrăneşte cu reprezentarea unui caracter „episodic" al existenței situaționale.

O astfel de gândire, confruntată cu adaptarea la o viaţă care se împlineşte prin acceptarea suferinţei şi a nemulţumirii, se raportează în permanenţă doar la ceea ce se poate întâmpla mai rău în prezent şi viitor. Iar semnificaţia pe care o atribui vieţii şi orientarea pe care o dai cunoaşterii bazate pe experienţă, reprezintă cele două componente fundamentale ale procesului de dezvoltare care oferă leadershipului un suport deplin şi permanent.

Leadershipul, care îşi dovedeşte relevanţa în ignorarea sau tratarea acestei experienţe de viaţă dominată de prejudecăţi, superstiţii şi constrângeri, evoluează numai printr-un proces de raţionare complex şi de pledare până la autoconvingere a necesităţii schimbării. Şi nu a vinovăţiei pentru înţelegerea greşită a determinărilor care conferă întâmplărilor o notă de cauzalitate.

Trecerea de la o mentalitate închistată şi conservatoare la o mentalitate de tipul "anticipează şi îmbunătăţeşte" se face prin relaţionarea analizei cauzelor fenomenului "vinovăţiei faţă de situaţiile eşuate din viaţă" cu definirea riguroasă şi bine întemeiată a unei noi variabile de cutezanţă: "eliberează-ţi conştiinţa de patimi".

Identitatea este o formă a revelaţiei de sine, instaurată sub semnul întrebărilor „ cine sunt?" şi „cine pot fi?" care pot produce o deturnare a direcţiei vieţii. Iar leadershipul este strâns legat de integrarea eforturilor de ameliorare a calităţii vieţi. Nevoia acceptării de sine, corelată cu imaginea de sine, se află în spatele tuturor deciziilor şi acţiunilor noastre, iar înţelegerea acestora ar putea avea un impact major în optimizarea interpretării pe care o atribuim rezultatelor obţinute prin perceperea realităţii din unghiul unei minţi ce caută măsura şi echilibrul în toate.

Un număr mare de nevoi, aparent distincte, pot crea confuzie, iar administrarea lor într-un anumit plan existenţial poate fi anevoioasă. Factorul pe care trebuie să-l urmăreşti când te pregăteşti să faci saltul spre marea evoluţie a propriei persoane, în contextul în care viaţa se îmbină cu viziunea, este numit „Trezirea Minţii".

Ei bine, trezirea minţii este în parte jurnalul unei căutări a sensului vieţii şi în parte o explorare a fundamentelor de definire a identităţii care se simte asediată de limitele unei resemnări datorate epuizării propriilor idealuri. Iar leadershipul se formează nu doar ca un prestigiu al forței morale, ci ca o evidență a idealului spre care te înalţi, cerându-se în permanenţă satisfăcut printr-un act de voinţă asumată - de a-ţi reconstrui sinele şi lumea din jurul tău.

Acceptarea necondiţionată a propriei persoane se prezintă sub forma cauzei pe care o slujeşti din perspectiva unei retrageri în tine însuţi, din care trebuie să transpară o preocupare mai intensă pentru impunerea unor principii de viaţă solide de la care să nu abdici în nicio situaţie.

Ţinutul în care nu ajungem niciodată la timp redă de fapt acea particularitate a realităţii numite „viaţă" puse sub semnul îndoielii. Numai răspunzând de conţinutul lui „cine sunt eu" sau „cum sunt eu" , vei putea să-ţi încadrezi atitudinea şi trăsăturile de personalitate în aria leadershipului care se întinde pe măsura acceptării circumstanţelor care te-au adus până într-un anumit punct. De multe ori, acest punct se numeşte "Abandon".

Ţinutul în care nu ajungem niciodată la timp (I)

Oferă-ţi posibilitatea unei autoevaluări riguroase şi corecte, făcând analiza retrospectivă a propriilor limite, constrângeri, căutări şi aşteptări.

Doi bătrâni stăteau faţă în faţă. Unul din ei era şeriful Ed Tom Bell. Cine ar analiza mai bine această conştiinţă dreaptă, limpede şi cinstită, în momentul acela când toate amintirile i se revărsau, când toate încordările, extenuante şi sterpe, se manifestau sub forma unor rezerve, şi-ar fi spus cu o umbră de îndoială: "Ce s-o fi petrecut oare cu el?"

Tot ce era îngăduit de societate îl determina să se scufunde sau se înnămolească tot mai tare într-o lume proprie, tot mai rigidă. Cuvintele lui se roteau în jurul destinului, confuzia drastică care precede o schimbare de direcţie: " Mă simt copleşit. Mi-am imaginat mereu că, atunci când voi îmbătrâni, Dumnezeu îmi va intra în viaţă. Şi nu a venit. Nu-i vina lui. În locul Lui, aş avea aceeaşi părere despre mine ca şi El. "

Lipsit de vitalitate, fără cale de atac, Ed Tom Bell, stătea în aceeaşi nepăsare pe care o arata cavalerul Gaudin de Sainte-Croix atunci când se văzu faţă în faţă cu fatalitatea - arestul inopinat, care, întocmai ca infernul, îi înghiţea orice speranţă de viaţă.

O epuizantă rătăcire care-l ducea la damnare. Totul în el era pus sub semnul întrebării. Se aştepta la tot ce-i mai rău. Şi el fusese prins şi "arestat" în acea tragică încăierare dintre trecut şi prezent, suspendat într-o stare de acceptare a inevitabilului. Oare se aştepta să ajungă într-un alt tărâm, unde nu exista atâta răutate, atâta patimă, atâta deşertăciune?

Dar, răbdare, de ce atâta grabă? Izbăvirea întotdeauna cere aşteptare. Înaintea raiului se află infernul care te ţine prizonier, ca un vrăjitor puternic, în propria ta viaţă, potrivnică ţie. Iar acest vrăjitor care porunceşte spiritului, mai ameninţător ca oricând, avea un plan în ce-l privea pe bătrânul Ed Tom Bell. *

Leadership: Cum îţi îndeplineşti rolul de a susţine exprimarea emoţiilor provenite din experienţele semnificative de viaţă, cât şi pentru controlul şi inhibarea acestora, din punct de vedere al percepţiei unei realităţi care te depăşeşte şi căreia nu i te poţi sustrage?

Eşti deschis schimbărilor neaşteptate? Totul în tine este pus sub semnul întrebării? Eşti prins în acea încăierare dintre trecut şi prezent, suspendat într-o stare de acceptare a inevitabilului? Cazi pradă unei frământări lăuntrice? Existenţa ta stă sub semnul unei dezorientări generale? Viaţa te se scurge în ritmul unui monometru ce funcţionează după legi precise?

Un lider poate fi construit, în ani de zile. Dar la fel de bine, el poate fi dărâmat, într-o clipă. Atunci când călătoria minunată şi plină de satisfacţii ajunge la final, atunci când, în faza superioară a existenţei sale, raţiunea, simţirea, credinţa, pasiunea - cârmele şi pânzele corăbiei destinului, navigând în derivă, nu mai prezintă garanţii. El trebuie să-şi îndeplinească rolul printr-o ciudată simetrie a reversibilităţii întâmplărilor, faptelor şi intenţiilor sale, adică să facă dovada unui permanent Deja Vu care poate avea alt final.

A refuza să te ancorezi în realitate, a refuza să accepţi o certitudine dictată de propria gândire şi de un raţionament obiectiv, negarea flagrantă a propriei tale fiinţe, determină apariţia unei crize existenţiale, impunând o schimbare radicală şi profundă de conţinut, nu de suprafaţă. Realitatea căreia trebuie să-i acorzi mare atenţie şi să o priveşti cu responsabilitate maximă este asemenea unei cărţi pe care nu o poţi deschide la orice pagină cu intenţia de a o înţelege de-a întregul, ci trebuie să parcurgi fiecare enunţ din întregul ei conţinut care este dedicat unei zone diferite de reprezentare a lumii şi a legilor ei.

Leadershipul vine azi, mâine trece, sau nu e aşa? În funcţie de preţul rezonabil pe care ţi-l stabileşte existenţa. O subtilă deviaţie de la direcția de mers sub influența lipsei de fermitate în luarea deciziilor şi în acţiune este dovada nesiguranţei în faţa unei realităţi care te depăşeşte şi căreia nu i te poţi sustrage.

Leadership: Abordezi problema realităţii văzută ca o sumă a percepţiilor negative faţă de calitatea vieţii, deci care se pretează denaturării unor acțiuni și evenimente care au avut loc printr-o schimbare a imaginii de sine la nivel de evaluare subiectivă a valorilor care te reprezintă?

De regulă, atunci când te loveşte partea neagră a existenţei, o face cu sete şi înverşunare, ca un utilaj care taie copacii fără milă, şi o face hotărâtor şi implacabil pentru totdeauna. Eşti nevoit să accepţi situaţia, oricât eşti de uimit, de intrigat.

Când oare vei înţelege că viitorul leadershipului nu aparţine unei existenţe sfâşiate, trepidante? Leadershipul se hrăneşte din alchimia unei existenţe în echilibru, autentice, victorioase, printr-o luptă permanentă în vederea creşterii performanţelor, prin măsura valorii pe care o aduci în lume, aplicând cunoștințele dobândite în ipostazele cotidiene ale vieții.

Viaţa este o consumare rapidă a tinereţii sau o prelungire anevoioasă bătrâneţii, în funcţie de îndoielile şi rătăcirile pe care le suferi atunci când ţi se răstoarnă sistemul de valori. În leadership este nevoie de o nouă abordare fundamentală care să aibă o dimensiune morală şi sentimentală puternică, nu de o falsă metamorfoză prin care te pierzi tu însuţi. Leadershipul nu suportă procesul lent, greoi şi dureros de formare a unei noi personalităţi.

Degeaba îţi împingi limitele până la un eroism sublim, dacă cedezi în faţa realităţii complexe, alarmante, dezamăgitoare, sărace în minereu nobil. Mai ales dacă esenţa firii tale, în conflictul cu realitate, este caracterizată de tot mai mult de laşitate şi slăbiciune în tăria înțelepciunii tale. Schimbarea imaginii de sine la nivel de evaluare subiectivă a valorilor care te reprezintă se produce atunci când tratezi ideea fatalităţii imuabile cu nepăsarea unui om lecuit de iuțeala cu care aleargă timpul.

Leadershipul tău, de asemenea, va fi lipsit de esenţă şi tărie dacă existenţa ta se va scurge în ritmul unui monometru ce funcţionează după legi stricte.

Leadership: Poţi să transformi un moment important din viaţa ta într-o experienţă de neuitat care să completeze perfect conţinutul vizual al imagini nerealiste care te îndeamnă să-ţi restrângi orizonturile?

Cu leadershipul nu se negociază şi nu se dau întâlniri. Este efemer, schimbător, demontabil, repetitiv, plutitor, colector de aluviuni, măsurabil, adaptabil, cu cheiţă sau cu telecomandă – depinde de modul cum te comporţi, cum îl înţelegi, cum îl tratezi, mai ales dacă reuşeşti să te adaptezi la tandemul " Tu " şi " El ".

Te simţi urmărit din spate? Sunt prea moi paşii ce numără firimiturile umbrei tale pe pământ? Te împiedici? Teama de urmăritor îţi paralizează pe jumătate fiinţa hăituită?

Nu, nu poţi scăpa de urmăritor decât înfruntându-l direct, cu convingere, cu probe şi argumente, cu sabia laser a demnităţii. Întoarce curajos capul. Cine este? Regresul? Stagnarea? Neputinţa? Căderea? Damnarea? Monotonia? Singurătatea? Barierele reprezentate de modul diferit de viaţă şi de convingerile fragile care te situează în tabere opuse? Cruda realitate te-a ajuns din urmă?

Dacă nu eşti în stare să aduci permanent o valoare în plus experienţelor tale, dacă vieţii tale nu-i mai poţi adăuga noi orizonturi, şi simţi doar crucea neputinţei, dacă nu mai poţi repeta paşii care te duceau înainte spre succes, dacă existenţa ta profesională nu mai poate crea şi administra un portofoliu consistent de realizări, şi cu toate acestea continui să pledezi pentru un ideal fantastic, înseamnă să comiţi o crimă. Înseamnă că îndrăzneşti să sfidezi raţiunea şi să te laşi pradă unei feerii de-o clipă, ce poate fi numită nebunie sau iluzie deşartă.

Duci o luptă dreaptă. Dar una care este deja pierdută?

Imaginea de sine este părerea pe care ţi-o formezi despre tine în acea perioadă în care ai acumulat experienţele de-a lungul vieţii devenind astfel mai înţelept, raportată la o clipă în care simţi că totul se năruie sub spectrul singurătăţii.

Ţinutul în care nu ajungem niciodată la timp marchează începutul sfârşitului, este semnul deprecierii propriei persoane, inadaptată la un mediu nou, tot mai complex şi mai alarmant.

Aşa cum într-un roman poliţist foarte bun nu există nicio propoziţie, niciun cuvânt lipsit de semnificaţie, tot astfel într-un leadership în care performanţa are un rol critic nu poate exista nicio convenţie, niciun interimat cu cei care a căror existenţă se scufundă sau se înnămoleşte tot mai tare în derizoriu şi nesemnificativ, în mlaştina adâncă a eroziunii.

Oferă-ţi posibilitatea unei autoevaluări riguroase şi corecte, făcând analiza retrospectivă a propriilor limite, constrângeri, căutări şi aşteptări.

Ţinuturile necunoscute ale realităţii

Optimizează-ţi performanța în dezvoltarea relaţiilor interumane, prin cultivarea capacităţii de a diferenţia ceea ce ştii de ceea ce nu ştii.

Era ceva atât de nevinovat în Ellie, atât de simplu, aproape înduioşător de pur, încât eram mirat să văd cât de bine se descurcă în afaceri şi cât lua de bun din ceea ce i se spunea. Şi totuşi, nu mă înşelam în privinţa ei. Ştiam prea bine ce fel de fiinţă era. Îi cunoşteam prea bine de acum simplitatea, afecţiunea ce mi-o purta, blândeţea-i naturală.

Numai că ea cunoştea doar o felie, destul de subţire a fiinţei mele. Nu ştia mai nimic despre lumea mea, o lume în care erai obligat să şterpeleşti ca să zici că ai câştigat ceva. Nu ştia ce înseamnă să fii crescut şi educat modest, dar cinstit, însă cu o grijă permanentă pentru ziua de mâine, pentru bani, de o mamă care şi-a tocit degetele pentru a te face respectabil, convinsă că băiatul ei trebuie să ajungă bine în viaţă.

Ellie îmi descoperea lumea aşa cum eu o descopeream pe a ei. Amândoi descopeream ţinuturi necunoscute. [1]

Leadership: Poţi să stabileşti o valoare de referinţă prin intermediul unei cunoaşteri aprofundate între două lumi total diferite, încât să accentuezi latura personalităţii tale care îţi cere să fii altcineva indiferent de situaţie?

Latura personalităţii tale care îţi cere să fii altcineva, indiferent de situaţie, se poate manifesta ca o extensie a capacităţii de a diferenţia ceea ce ştii de ceea ce nu ştii în cazul apropierii de o realitate pe care o recunoşti ca fiind umbra ta, o prezenţă cotidiană setată să se impună ca o consecinţă a împrejurărilor de viaţă, dar care nu este îngăduită în propria cale de urmat.

Practic, latura ascunsă a personalităţii tale se relevă atunci când te vezi ca o victimă a împrejurărilor exterioare şi a constrângerilor interioare pe care le observi în cazul altcuiva, cineva pe care îl admiri, dar nu-l poţi copia. Sau cineva, pe care îl crezi într-un fel, iar într-o situaţie de criză îţi dai seama că persoana respectivă nu a făcut decât să te amăgească.

Leadershipul este un mijloc al profundei cunoaşteri umane în şirul mult mai numeros al observaţiilor privind corespondenţa dintre certitudine şi incertitudine pe care o implică eventuala "negociere" asupra semnării acordului de asociere la o realitate obiectivă. El devine "un jucător de top" pe segmentul construcţiilor de percepţii care favorizează înţelegerea şi stabilirea relaţiilor interumane.

Leadership: Eşti în stare să experimentezi aplicarea a două efecte de imagine simultan la acelaşi personaj, încât personalitatea ta să capete o anumită independenţă faţă de cauzalitatea fenomenelor şi evenimentelor vieţii?

Două efecte de imagine pot fi aplicate la acelaşi personaj al vieţii cotidiene: instantaneul unei experienţe de conştiinţă extinsă, când trebuie să iei seama de tot ceea ce nu te califică drept un "om al transformărilor de sine", şi durata unui eveniment în mişcare care se întâmplă în timpul unui studiu despre o altă formă de a gândi viața.

Practic, independenţa ta faţă de cauzalitatea fenomenelor şi evenimentelor vieţii se capătă numai printr-o formă de reacţie în faţa mulţimii de păreri pe care le emiţi cu privire la cineva sau ceva care intră în raza ta de acţiune.

Ce este specific pentru lideri rezidă în faptul că ei nu gândesc în termeni comparativi, ci în termeni de "lecţii învăţate". Imaginea ta în văzul lumii, o lume în care poţi fi orice, reprezintă un mijloc de a-ţi întări Ego-ul al cărui caracter reprezentativ rezidă în faptul că nu se ascunde după măştile sociale, după obsesii, moralitate şi presiunile externe, adică nu se alimentează din experienţele celorlalţi, ci din propriile experienţe.

Cineva preciza: " Relaţiile interindividuale constituie un proces continuu, în desfăşurarea căruia se produce şi o modificare a ponderii elementelor determinante. La început, factorul cel mai important în modelarea atitudinii faţă de individul nou întâlnit îl constituie binecunoscuta „prima impresie". Dar, treptat, aceasta este înlocuită sau corectată de elementele reieşite din cunoaşterea mai profundă a însuşirilor pozitive şi negative ale celui în cauză. "

Leadership: Poţi să analizezi omul în oglinda celor mai variate aspecte ale personalităţii sale, încât să obţii o explorare a vieţilor şi a ideilor semnificative a două figuri principale?

Aidoma unei ciocănitoare care se mută din copac în copac, neobosită, după reguli numai de ea ştiute, curăţându-i de insecte, leadershipul iscodeşte mereu în trunchiul marelui stejar al adevărului, stabilind o valoare de referinţă faţă de care se trasează conturul unor imagini mai clare despre oameni. Această valoare se poate seta numai prin intermediul unei cunoaşteri mai aprofundate a omului luat ca individ, dar şi în interacţiune cu alţii.

Leadershipul, a cărui elemente de fond sunt preluate de o gândire axată pe principiul " nu ai cum să cunoşti dacă nu crezi şi nu ai cum să crezi tot ceea ce cunoşti ", constituind o măsură de pătrundere în spaţiul unei realităţi distincte, îşi extinde regulile privind modul de administrare a relaţiilor dintre indivizi. Până în cele mai mici amănunte nu poţi cunoaşte pe nimeni, dar poţi stabili într-o măsură destul de bună potenţialul fiecăruia.

Privind mai îndeaproape omul, analizându-l în oglinda celor mai variate aspecte ale personalităţii sale, ferindu-te de tentaţia de a emite ipoteze apriori, vei putea efectua acele mutări succesive şi bine calculate de la un plan care nu permite definitivarea uniunii dintre două sau mai multe tipuri de mentalităţi, la un plan care optimizează performanța în dezvoltarea interumană. Prin cultivarea capacităţii de a diferenţia ceea ce ştii de ceea ce nu ştii.

A te privi în oglindă sub forma a două figuri principale înseamnă să te eliberezi de Ego-ul care te face să judeci lumea din jur, fără să te simţi claustrat într-un univers mental precar şi blindat. Înseamnă să te învălui cu misterul unei realităţi bifurcate: o parte în care îţi poţi depăşi cele mai ascunse temeri şi o parte în care toate fenomenele vieţii se unesc, interacţionează şi dau un înţeles totalizator.

Ţinuturile necunoscute ale realităţii sunt acele elemente componente ale factorului uman care favorizează sau nu performanţa individuală şi colectivă, prin aspectele motivaţionale, uneori schimbătoare.

Cunoaşterea cât mai profundă a acestei necunoscute numite "om" este esenţială în leadership. A cărui claritate şi previzibilitate în ceea ce priveşte evoluţia şi tendinţele omului de stabilire a relaţiilor, compatibile cu performanţele ridicate, oferă numeroase moduri de evaluare şi întreţinere a acelor orientări fundamentale care au un impact puternic asupra societăţii.

Ţipetele mistuitoare ale mieilor

Acţionează în baza celor mai profunde structuri de control care îţi maximizează influenţa, astfel încât să înţelegi mai în profunzime originile şi evoluţia omului.

- Era încă întuneric. Am auzit un zgomot ciudat. Un fel de ţipăt. Ca vocea unui copil.

- Ce ai făcut apoi, Clarice? întreabă Hannibal Lecter. Omul acesta sigur pe el însuşi, sistemul acesta dur ale cărui legi de funcţionare includ şi derivă din legile nescrise ale vieţii, urmăreşte permanent obţinerea unei cât mai profunde înţelegeri a fenomenelor care acţionează asupra celor mai ascunse şi mai elementare simţuri. Provocându-le în cele mai neaşteptate moduri. Încercând parcă să formuleze o nouă lege cu valabilitate restrânsă.

- Am coborât scările. M-am furişat în şopron. Mi-a fost aşa frică să mă uit înăuntru, dar a trebuit.

- Ce ai văzut, Clarice? Ce ai văzut? sună din nou ameninţătoare vocea din spatele gratiilor, guvernată parcă de o forţă maximală care se situează aproape în totalitate dincolo de puterea de înţelegere a savanţilor.

Leadership: Opera marii tale raţiuni se constituie într-o demonstraţie a necesităţii constituirii unei ştiinţe redusă la conştientizarea emoţiilor celorlalţi, într-un context favorabil de afirmare a convingerilor care te motivează să aparţii unei singure entităţi de control?

- Mieii. Ţipau. Erau sacrificaţi. Am încercat să le dau drumul. Am deschis poarta, dar nu au fugit. Stăteau acolo, confuzi. Aşa că am luat un miel şi am fugit cât am putut de repede. Nu ştiam încotro. Nu aveam mâncare, nici apă. Şi era foarte, foarte frig. Credeam… Credeam că dacă salvez măcar unul… Dar… Era aşa de greu. Prea greu.

- Încă ţi se întâmplă să te trezeşti noaptea, nu-i aşa, Clarice? Te trezeşti în întunericul de nepătruns şi auzi mieii ţipând. Şi crezi că dacă l-ai prinde pe Buffalo Bill tu singură şi, dacă o salvezi pe biata Catherine, ai putea opri mieii să ţipe. Crezi că şi ei se vor simţi uşuraţi şi nu te vei mai trezi noaptea auzindu-i ţipând, nu-i aşa?

Simţim în tensiunea pe care Lecter o generează şi o întreţine continuu cu aceeaşi intensitate, asemenea unui regulator cu acţiune integrală, încercarea sârguincioasă de a scoate la iveală noi probe, amănunte şocante, dovezi tulburătoare, noi dedesubturi ale înţelegerii realităţii trăite de Clarice la un moment dat.

El menţine la cote înalte principiile relevante parcurgerii căii către o nouă "deșteptare". Revine subtil la funcţia implicită de manipulare a semnalului "luminos", transmis printr-un cablu de legătură invizibil care dă energie stărilor sufleteşti, împingându-le către punctul critic, scoţând la iveală noi detalii despre originile şi evoluţia lui Clarice.

O singură entitate de control pare să-l motiveze pe Hannibal în a înţelege dedesubtul emoţiilor oamenilor, disimulat într-un aer de superioritate morală, şi anume: adâncimea filozofică a valorii vieţii lor. Ştiinţa lui nu iese din încordarea forţelor active ale omului, ci din realitatea originară a naturii pe care omul trebuie s-o accepte şi s-o umple cu un sens.

Leadership: Funcţionează bine formele procesului de validare a propriei tale persoane generate prin obiectivarea unor aspecte ale existenţei cu care tu însuţi te-ai luptat?

Ca să încadrăm zona de influenţă a liderului în nişte coordonate fixe, care să permită cunoaşterea şi evaluarea potenţialului oamenilor supuşi forţei implacabile a propriei lor robiri, accentuate pe fondul unor anumite reacţii negative, este necesară respectarea unei anumite forme de "deschidere" şi de "dezvoltare" a procesului de validare proprie în faţa lor.

Având la bază anumite rigori şi un anumit control, aceste forme de deschidere şi de dezvoltare, în condiţiile în care mediul de transmitere a influenţei nu este accesibil pentru a garanta o apropiere şi o consolidare a relaţiilor, simultan continuând să fie imprevizibil şi extrem de împovărător, reprezintă de fapt o sumă a celor mai profunde stări sau manifestări, inspirate din anumite experienţe, care au putere de transformare pozitivă sau negativă.

De aceea, susţinerea acelor structuri de competenţă care permit contracararea eficientă a efectelor negative, fundamentate pe o abordare prudentă, echilibrată, progresivă, dar şi pe principiile complementarităţii şi sprijinului reciproc, depind de voinţa de a face o schimbare reală în viaţa individului.

O abordare mai pretenţioasă a forţei de "presiune" se impune, deci, în scopul explorării adânci a individului pentru a înţelege mai în profunzime originile şi evoluţia lui, bineînţeles prin înlăturarea oricăror suspiciuni care să pericliteze cunoaşterea şi cercetarea sa.

Leadership: Aparţii unei singure forme de răspuns la întrebarea: "cum poţi guverna o viaţă din perspectiva filozofică a valorii pe care ea ţi-o poate aduce" ?

Sunt foarte multe iniţiative favorabile şanselor de maximizare a eficienţei în utilizarea persuasiunii, pe care însă nu întotdeauna avem posibilitatea să le întreţinem şi consolidăm în cadrul unei singure direcţii de influenţă. Dar le instalăm pe micul ecran al leadershipului şi le rulăm în orice moment de spontaneitate, efectuând mutări de natură să pună pe picior greşit interlocutorul.

De aceea, încercarea sârguincioasă de a scoate la iveală noi probe, amănunte şocante, dovezi tulburătoare, noi dedesubturi ale înţelegerii clare a realităţii, devin unelte ajutătoare pentru uşurarea navigării prin meandrele psihicului uman şi ale concretului. Este un procedeu de mare importanţă, un veritabil act de dominare, o sclipire care pătrunde într-un spaţiu închis, umbrit şi apăsător, având drept scop principal producerea conştientă a unei stări de intensă conştientizare interioară, prin declanşarea unei sensibilităţi şi încordarea ei la maximum.

Nu poţi să obligi un om să se conformeze propriei tale cerinţe, fără ca mai întâi să stabileşti o relaţie cu el. Orice minte inteligentă care încearcă să înţeleagă cu sinceritate şi deplinătate psihicul uman în totalitatea sa, ca relevanţă pentru formarea şi dezvoltarea abilitaţilor de interacţiune, trebuie să-şi susţină dezvoltarea în lumina a două coordonate compatibile în orice punct de interes. O coordonată de credibilitate şi o coordonată de control. Ele trebuie să permită manifestarea omului în starea care i-a fost generată în mod direct.

Dacă nu reuşeşti să incluzi în structura de rezistenţă a omului semnalul "luminos", ca forţă suplimentară, dacă nu reuşeşti să dai energie stărilor sale sufleteşti, împingându-le către punctul critic, atunci nu vei putea să scoţi la iveală detaliile cele mai fine despre el care să-ţi construiască o imagine dincolo de rigorile intelectuale şi profesionale.

Dacă aspiri atât de mult la un leadership eficient, atunci acţionează în baza celor mai profunde structuri de control care îţi maximizează influenţa, astfel încât să înţelegi mai în profunzime originile şi evoluţia omului.

Vei putea guverna înţelegerea vieţii din perspectiva filozofică a valorii pe care ea ţi-o poate aduce, numai printr-o domolire a încordării forţelor active care condiţionează manifestările şi capacitatea oamenilor de a fi diferiţi.

Utilizarea unor noi metode de investigare a naturii umane poate rezulta din caracterul explicativ al unei ştiinţe care este obligată să folosească un complex de proceduri de constatare a fenomenologiei potrivit căreia omului nu i se poate confisca libertatea de a se deschide în faţa ta, făcându-se apel la tehnici sugestive, metaforice, de întărire a imaginii de sine şi de auto-acceptare.

Ţipetele mistuitoare ale mieilor semnifică acele evenimente ce se petrec pe parcursul vieţii unui om, cu un impact major asupra psihicului şi care frânează într-o măsură importantă evoluţia lui ulterioară.

Descoperirea şi anihilarea efectelor acestor evenimente care provoacă de cele mai multe ori un blocaj, o frână, inclusiv în acţiunile voluntare impuse de realităţile prezentului, necesită metode deosebite de cunoaştere şi influenţare a psihicului uman. Având drept scop o mai bună cooperare cu liderul în vederea atingerii ţelului comun.

T.N.T. For The Brain

Învaţă să comunici cu genele Inteligenţei Infinite, poziţionându-te în situaţia unui alchimist care imită natura şi îşi pătrunde destinul cu ea.

Eram programat de o forţă străină să merg pe o singură cale, bătătorită de constrângerile unei cunoaşteri bogate şi asemănătoare, de genul matematicii, chimiei sau fizicii, văzute ca pe un adevăr din care izvorăşte arta binemeritată a unui început fără sfârşit, din care sunt extrase esenţele unei muzici fără seamăn.

De pretutindeni, se auzeau sunetele suferinţei, zgomotele unei creaţii din care se naşte spiritul divin, arătând o viaţă ce fremăta, pulsa, se agita sub domnia unei naturi spirituale noi, a unei versiuni de energie existenţială, alta decât cea pe care o prevăzusem demult. If there's no pain / Rules are still the same.

Cel ce îşi găseşte inspiraţia în adevărurile unei revelaţii extrase din grandoarea unei muzici cosmice, fără să mai trăiască obsesia începuturilor de poveste – surde ca o slabă imitaţie de fals, va reuși poate să se plaseze pe orbita unei stele plină de lucire, în care sunt scrise versurile unei înţelepciuni de peste veacuri.

Leadership: Valoarea artistică a operei pe care o zămisleşti depinde de circumstanţele receptării unei realități cu vădite caracteristici metafizice și epistemologice?

Fără să măsurăm vreodată nici raza soarelui şi nici apusul, aşa cum nicio creaţie nu trebuie înţeleasă în mod mecanic, ci prin intermediul credinţei într-o revelaţie naturală şi una supranaturală, trebuie să aprindem fitilul unei dinamite spaţio-temporale, T.N.T. for the brain . Să-i măsurăm zgomotul şi să-l pictăm în măreţia unei experienţe fantastice, pe cât de misterioasă, pe atât de fascinantă şi provocatoare.

Aidoma unui alchimist care își extrage esenţa lucrării din a treia lume - situată între macrocosmos și microcosmos, mă simţeam desprins dintr-o judecată universală, dintr-o imagine de fundal unde lucrurile ar fi trebuit văzute în marea lor complexitate ireductibilă. O complexitate direct proporţională cu clarobscurul refugiului meu într-o reverie imaginară, în jurul năzuinţei fără seamăn ce influenţa întreaga mea viziune despre cosmogonie, despre existenţa văzută ca spaţiu al dialogului cu o infinitate de înţelesuri.

Un glob de cristal se învârte dinaintea uşilor închise. Ele pot fi pătrunse numai prin vizorul optic al unei cunoaşteri primejdioase şi ameninţătoare, dar cu spirit, în jurul unei valori de timp nespecificate. Nu vezi rezultatul decât după ce ai experimentat un intens trip audio-vizual. De unde vin iluziile, toate aceste exagerări ale unui sistem expert de convingeri lansat în execuţie prin comanda "Feel your breath" ? Don't be scared and have no fear !

Leadershipul cel mai înalt s-ar putea sincroniza cu măreția de a te surprinde în cadrul unei lumi dominată de complexitatea acelei realități care face posibilă utilizarea unor alternative multiple de a te recunoaște stăpân deasupra înţelegerii umane obişnuite.

Dincolo de uşile zăvorâte cu grijă într-o beznă absolută, pătrunsă uneori de câte un licăre de lumină, altă beznă decât cea pe care o învinseseră eroii lui Stephen King, are loc scena unei reprezentații în curs. Un spectacol al măştilor, fără a ajunge la adevăratele chipuri, fără de care ne este frică să trăim şi în spatele cărora nu putem trăi, într-un cumul al ceasurilor mişcătoare care arată ora unei prefaceri radicale a naturii omului. I'm with you, just lead me. I'm ready to play !

Focului sacru de culoarea smaraldului i se permite excepționalismul unei singularităţi irepetabile: What you feel is insane ! Strălucirea picăturilor de cristal, în care se reflectă vocea şi imaginea unei realităţi desprinse din modul determinat al identităţii cu sine, se completează cu dansul plin de senzualitate al umbrelor, ca într-un teatru chinezesc. I hope I'll understand some day / What's the meaning of this crazy game.

Ochiul artistului surprinde, ca într-un vis etern, mişcarea de rotaţie a unor elemente născute din spiritul unei inteligenţe atotcuprinzătoare, ca într-o pânză de păianjen izvorâtă dintr-o pură imitaţie a unui material natural cu o mare sensibilitate, ca simbol al faptelor superficiale. Fiecare determinare se constituie din precedenta, ca sinteză cu grad sporit de totalitate.

Leadership: Totalitatea ființei tale se afirmă prin esenţa unei conștiințe a autoexilului într-un univers paralel care ar putea reprezenta neuronul unei Fiinţe Mult Mai Superioare?

Compozitorul acela sublim din romanul "Doctor Faustus", de Thomas Mann, fără a avea nicio pretenţie de la norma sincerităţii în care era încorporat imnul gloriei de a fi promotorul unei lirici definită ca act de recreaţie a spiritului, implora mult lumea ca, dacă nu-i putea înţelege profunzimea, măcar să-i sesizeze frumuseţea. "Priviţi cel puţin cât sunt de frumoasă ! "

Maniera în care compoziţia lui se avânta din dificultăţile măsurii profunzimii, din confuzia artificială, din strania frământare a versurilor, în lumea diafană a clamării finale şi se dizolva înduioşător în ea, o găsea mereu mai minunată, fără a face niciun secret din admiraţia tot mai entuziastă pentru ea.

Să comunici cu Dumnezeu, cu marea inteligenţă infinită, prin ascunsurile unei lirici înălţate din mistica începuturilor de cărți mari și a muzicii fără vârstă, unde forma, materia încinsă este topită în creuzetul magic al imaginaţiei, aceasta nu este doar simpla esenţă a creaţiei, ci debutul şi finalitatea experienţei de a aparţine forţei universale.

Înseamnă să te poziţionezi în situaţia unui alchimist care imită natura şi îşi pătrunde destinul cu ea, accentuând frumuseţea trăsăturilor ei pentru a ajunge la forme desăvârşite de exprimare - prin artă, culoare, versuri, sunet și imagine, distribuite cu chibzuinţă în masa produsului final.

Arta unui om universal se măsoară prin obţinerea „rezonanţei" în actul chemării şi al intervenţiei unei fiinţe superioare în dezvoltarea unei teme de mare răsunet în spaţiul gândirii.

T.N.T. For The Brain simbolizează incursiunea într-un univers paralel din care izvorăşte marele ecou de peste veacuri, asemenea luminii unei stele ce vesteşte eternităţii, că acolo, într-un colţişor de Univers, străluceşte sufletul unei conştiinţe superioare, a unei inteligenţe infinite care şi-a făurit şi rafinat propriile instrumente pentru a-şi potenţa şi exercita puterea nelimitată.

Tortura necontenită a necunoscutului

On Iunie 30, 2010

Ascunde-ţi bine neliniştile şi frustrările, pentru a nu induce echipei aceleaşi stări.

La 20 septembrie 1519, flota lui Fernando Magellan s-a despărţit de ţărm. Numai Dumnezeu ştie prin câte a trecut acest sobresaliente , soldatul anonim, ca să facă rost de toate cele necesare pentru a putea iniţia această grea misiune, a cărei durată nu a fost determinată.

Mai bine tristul adevăr, decât veşnica îndoială. Luni de zile flota lui Magellan s-a îndreptat spre un punct necunoscut pe hartă. Deseori s-a abătut de la cursul stabilit. Uneori s-a învârtit în cerc. Şi, cu toate acestea, nici urmă de vreo strâmtoare. Membrii celor cinci corăbii au devenit tot mai îngrijoraţi, mai ales că Magellan era tot mai tăcut, mai rece, mai distant.

Înainte de a iniţia această călătorie, Magellan intrase în posesia unei hărţi inexacte a celebrului cosmograf Martin Behaim, care indica locul unde s-ar fi aflat strâmtoarea. Dar abia atunci, după aproape un an de navigare în derivă, în voia valurilor, el şi-a dat seama că a căzut victima unei confuzii crunte. Clipa aceasta, a adevărului, fu cea mai cumplită pentru inima lui Magellan. Cât de falsă s-a dovedit a fi ruta lui. Datele furnizate de acea hartă şi de raportul respectiv erau cu totul greşite, fanteziste. A pornit în căutarea unei himere. Strâmtoarea nu se afla nicidecum acolo unde era indicată pe hartă.

Tu navighezi în derivă? Avântul tău spre reuşită este o pierdere de timp? Îţi permiţi să treci cu vederea realitatea?

Leadership: Tu eşti sclavul cuvântului tău?

Şi-a dat cuvântul, a jurat că va găsi strâmtoarea, dar acum se îndoia de el însuşi. Mintea tulburată i-o spunea, iar inima înflăcărată i-o repeta, că nu-şi va putea îndeplini misiunea. Zi şi noapte Magellan era torturat de gândul vinovăţiei, şi totodată de gândul că va izbucni o răzmeriţă a echipajului său care pătimea de frig, de foame, de oboseală şi lipsuri. Ce-o să le spună oamenilor, ce scuză să inventeze pentru a-şi susţine nevinovăţia? Să-şi continue călătoria susţinând în continuare că-şi va atinge scopul, după atâta timp în care n-au descoperit nimic, ar fi o nesăbuinţă. Căci numai un om care nu-şi dă seama de nebunia lui, poate să susţină că poate îndeplini lucruri ce-i depăşesc puterile.

Oamenilor nu le-a fost greu să citească pe faţa lui Magellan ce i se petrecea în inimă. Căci omul acesta, atât de înflăcărat la început, atât de încrezător în reuşita misiunii pe care singur şi-a ales-o şi pe care şi-a asumat-o, era tot mai abătut. Îl încerca tot mai mult nevoia de a rămâne singur.

Atitudinea ta, cuplată cu atmosfera din cadrul echipei tale, poate îndemna oamenii la realizări mari? Performanţele tale generează avântul lor spre atingerea scopurilor urmărite? Trebuie să creezi avântul înainte de a le cere să se schimbe? Le pui mereu la dispoziţie toate resursele necesare pentru mai buna lor funcţionare?

Când necunoscutul îşi face dramatic apariţia, neliniştea pune stăpânire pe sufletul omului

Să alergi ani de zile după ceva şi să nu găseşti, e o adevărată tortură, un adevărat iad. Magellan ştia că flota lui plutea în derivă, că s-a rătăcit, că s-a pierdut în necunoscut.

Simţurile lui ascuţite şi instinctul său presimţeau tot mai mult primejdia. Necunoscutul pe care s-a încăpăţânat să-l exploreze nu-l mai atrăgea, nu-l mai încânta, ci începuse să-l sperie, să-l ameninţe, să-l intimideze. Necunoscutul pusese stăpânire pe toată fiinţa lui şi l-a forţat să se descurajeze, să se simtă neliniştit şi neajutorat. Magellan era la un pas să cedeze presiunilor membrilor echipajului său.

Rezultatele pe care le obţii îţi stimulează încrederea? Stimulează ele colegialitatea între membrii echipei tale? Ce schimbare trebuie sa efectuezi pentru a crea un climat mai bun?

Numai primejdia scoate la iveală calităţile ascunse într-un om

Scriitorul austriac Stefan Zweig, autorul celebrei biografii a lui Magellan, a enunţat un mare adevăr: „ Caracterul unui om nu se cunoaşte niciodată mai bine decât după felul cum se poartă în momentele hotărâtoare. "

Magellan nu a lăsat ceasornicul să-şi urmeze liniştit drumul. Dumnezeu l-a ocrotit într-un fel dându-i puterea de a trece peste acel hop emoţional. Deşi umbrit de o adâncă tristeţe, el nu s-a lăsat doborât.

În faţa unui om perseverent toată lumea se pleacă cu resemnare. Magellan a reuşit să-şi ţină în frâu echipajul, a potolit o răscoală şi, după ce a navigat în derivă vreme îndelungată, a reuşit până la urmă să găsească strâmtoarea ce-i poartă şi azi numele. El a dovedit cine este, din ce material e croit - dintr-un material dur, foarte rezistent. Siguranţa şi fermitatea sa lăuntrică nu l-au lăsat la greu, ci au izbucnit chiar atunci când a avut mai mare nevoie de ele.

Concluzie: Marele „necunoscut" care intervine intempestiv chiar şi-n viaţa liderului, nu ar trebui să aibă efecte devastatoare asupra acestuia mai ales atunci când există o motivaţie puternică, mai ales atunci când munca cu oamenii devine dificilă. Un lider trebuie să-şi ascundă bine neliniştile şi frustrările pentru a nu induce echipei aceleaşi stări. Dimpotrivă, o atitudine „pro-activă" dar temperată este indicată, concomitent cu împărtăşirea situaţiei reale.

Totul este în ochiul celui care priveşte

Numai în momentul în care înţelegem cauza care a dus la o anumită manifestare a prezentului putem să ne schimbăm modul de a vedea lucrurile și realitatea.

Soarele tocmai apunea. Pe cer, câţiva nori îşi făcuseră apariţia, însă nu cred că aduceau precipitaţii. Legănat sufleteşte de un vis înaripat, priveam cum lumina se scurgea din întinsul mării și al cerului, întrebându-mă dacă decizia de a părăsi litoralul este bună sau nu. Ceva mă împingea să plec acasă, departe de litoral, altceva mă îndemna să rămân acolo, aproape pe atmosfera vacanţei de vară, în mijlocul freamătului de trăiri, năzuințe și emoții care-i animă doar pe artiştii străluciţi: ei iubesc viaţa şi arată cât este de frumoasă.

O sclipire de bucurie apăruse în ochii mei, discretă dar de efect, chiar atunci când soarele roşiatic lumină ultima oară orizontul. La urma urmei, cea mai grăitoare dovadă a înţelegerii artei, sesizarea fidelităţii faţă de natură (într-o operă de artă) este să observi un fenomen care-ţi dă şansa să fii cu adevărat altcineva, să te implici emoţional într-o circumstanţă care poate fi apreciată ca fiind extrem de importantă, declanşând actul de rememorare a unei zile trecute, plină de melancolie.

Iar dacă e adevărat ce spunea cineva, că artistul trebuie să fie în opera sa precum divinitatea în creaţie, invizibil şi atotputernic, adică să fie pretutindeni simţit, însă nicăieri văzut, atunci eu cred c-am simţit în mine o putere superioară: puterea de a mă inspira din experienţa prezentului, puterea de a mă contopi cu TOTUL din jur, departe de a fi un fel de univers închis în el însuşi.

Cumva, am simţit că mă înalţ spre divinitate prin faptul excepţional de a da impresia că am făcut lumină acolo unde apusul a lăsat loc de interpretare. Fenomenul acesta plin de mister, dar absolut natural şi firesc, Treastemiraz Inspha Saptarhio (prezența simțită a trăirii durabile), mă va ridica mereu în ochii privitorilor artei mele.

Leadership: Ai deschis ochii privitorilor artei tale, sau ţi-ai deschis mai bine ochii sugerându-ţi multiple perspective de conlucrare între câmpul perceptibil şi cel imperceptibil?

Impresia de pătrundere în adâncul spaţiului formează de veacuri măsura artei prin acţiunea valurilor aflate într-o continuă mişcare, care se transformă prin refracţie în perle magice sau în bucăţi de sticlă. Nu trebuie pierdut din vedere faptul că văzul se află aproape de auz, și în această măsură față de simț, pentru că ceea ce văd în mine însumi nu este altceva decât simț integrat în auz. Dacă în acest sens îmi pun întrebarea: "ce este văzul? ", atunci mă găsesc în aceeași situație a bătrânului acela care, privind în largul mării, în bătaia vântului, se întreba ce este auzul în câmpul simțirii profunde.

Succesiunea nuanțelor realiste, sclipirile de sens din jurul valurilor, tot mai fidele unei stări spirituale, pare distribuită în părți neuniforme, căci fiecare val se deosebește de celălalt prin ceva abia perceptibil de la distanță, cum sunt aripile unui pescăruș sau clipocitul domol al vreunei corăbii. Privind în jur cu naturaleţe, fără să comand ochilor mei să privească doar ceea ce sunt pregătiţi să vadă, am simţit pentru câteva secunde un fel de inspiraţie divină, ca un fel de perplexitate, pentru că n-am înţeles mare lucru, dar mi-a plăcut la nebunie. Aş zice că acesta este câmpul imperceptibil celor străini de lumea artei.

De ce spun asta? Fiindcă am simţit că fac parte dintr-un vis care a emis o strălucire neobișnuită, un vis care aş vrea să nu se mai sfârșească, un vis pe care l-au visat şi alţi visători al căror vise îndeplinesc principiul artei pure, libere, nestanjenitoare. Onbasha-Ushastes - arta de a visa conştient. Acesta este câmpul perceptibil celor care ştiu să aprecieze ceea ce sparge benefic monotonia cotidianului.

Fără să mă răzvrătesc cumva împotriva vreunei laturi a ştiinţei observaţiei, voi continua să suprapun ceea ce văd peste ceea ce se poate anticipa prin intermediul simplităţii, naturaleţii şi profunzimii simbolurilor. Mai amplu vorbind, aparența tinde să devină realitate la sfârşitul unei analize vizuale care nu şi-ar justifica pe deplin strădania de a percepe "particularul" din hotarele compoziţiei şi coloristicii, traversând absolut orice lucru, decât dacă reuşesc să văd totul prin ochiul îndepărtat al unui fotograf, şi cu imaginaţia unui designer grafic.

Leadership: Poţi să controlezi ceea ce se vede, în încercarea de a recunoaşte o realitate care nu admite decât reprezentări concrete ale lumii?

Tot atunci, pe când marea îşi repeta eternul ritm lovindu-se de ţărm, mă gândeam la omul acela care trăia parcă în afara timpului, în veşnicie, în lumea lui plină de vise. Pentru a mai adăuga o întâmplare zilei pe care o trăise în preajma mării, a hotărât să citească şi să lase impresia că nu s-a întâmplat nimic în viaţa lui. A deschis cartea "O mie şi una de nopţi", şi a început să întoarcă paginile, răsfoindu-le fără băgare de seamă, ca şi cum ar fi vrut să ignore realitatea. Dintr-o dată, a văzut numele lui scris cu litere mari, undeva pe la mijlocul cărţii. Şi pentru ca această coincidenţă să fie şi mai mare, personajul ce purta numele lui era chiar de-o vârstă cu el, se născuse în acelaşi oraş şi la aceeaşi oră, avea aceeaşi statură şi suferea de aceeaşi afecţiune: miopie. Nu-i venea să creadă. Apoi, ceva l-a făcut să devoreze cartea până la ultima pagină. Și, ca să vezi şi să nu crezi: ultima pagină lipsea. Abia atunci a dezlegat el taina înţelepciunii: ceea ce te aştepţi să vezi nu este conform cu ceea ce trebuie să ştii.

Omul este ceea ce nu este, şi nu este ceea ce crede că este. Cauza acestui principiu existenţial îşi are sursa în ceea ce vezi atunci când încerci să recunoşti o realitate care nu admite decât lucrurile concrete. Aş zice că vederea este totodată o necesitate psihologică, o corecţie a distanţei dintre realitatea efemeră şi imaginea remanentă, în încercarea modestă a omului de a preconiza viitorul dorit, lăsându-se târât de emoţii într-o necesitate nelămurită de a lumina necunoscutul, provocarea aceasta fiind adresată Ego-ului care spune „ştiu eu mai bine", „am citit", "am mai întâlnit".

În urma unor astfel de învăţături, omul a ajuns treptat la ceea ce este azi, adaptându-se încet, supunându-şi natura, devenind unica fiinţă înzestrată cu conştiinţa faptului de a vedea, eliberându-se de incidenţa oricăror procese mentale analitice. De aceea, natura nu mai este o taină pentru el, nici întinderea din jurul lui nu mai este o necunoscută. Le-a cucerit, le domină parcurgând drumul uriaş de la imaginar la vederea concretă, de la vizualizarea unei imagini inspirate din clișee, din cutume, din automatisme, la o realitate în care nimic nu mai este aşa cum era înainte.

Un factor acordat suplimentar leadershipului este că vederea cea mai profundă şi mai cuprinzătoare ascultă numai de ochii care ştiu să observe natura în stare pură, încercând să o înţeleagă şi să descopere tainele ei, fără să se obişnuiască cu o realitate primordială, incertă și intangibilă.

Totul este în ochiul celui care priveşte, inclusiv fenomenele naturii fac parte din capacitatea vederii specifică unui pictor, unui „analist perceptiv" care îşi reînnoieşte constant inspirația, optica și procedurile artei sale. Iar dacă te raportezi la artă, realitatea presupune a prezenta simțurilor tale un mediu înconjurător generat virtual, ca un duplicat al spațiului fizic, pe care îl poţi explora în diferite feluri.

După cum aţi observat, am putut să-mi schimb modul de a percepe realitatea numai în momentul în care am înţeles cauza care a dus la o anumită manifestare prezentului (prin formă şi culoare). Cauza a fost contemplarea ideii de frumos în prezenţa unei stări sufleteşti care este o rană vie: "Între răsăritul de soare şi-apusul de soare / sunt numai ţină şi rană" (Lucian Blaga - Psalm)

Tragedia unui destin care îşi caută bătrânul

On Decembrie 29, 2012

Fii tu însuţi un judecător imparţial a ceea ce eşti, spre a-ţi demonstra nevinovăţia, dar şi fidelitatea faţă de tine şi faţă de oamenii care te-au investit cu încrederea lor.

Totul se stârnise în ea, ceva făcea ravagii ca o puternică rafală de vânt printre nişte frunze căzute, nestrânse de nimeni. O resemnare adâncă, un grăunte de nebunie sclipind cu duşmănie în balta vieţii suferinde.

Toată nădejdea şi-o pusese în şeriful Ed Tom Bell, bătrânul. Iar acum acesta, închizând pe jumătate ochii, scoţându-şi respectuos pălăria – în semn de omagiu adus celui trecut în nefiinţă, o întâmpină însoţit de gândul neplăcut al morţii soţului ei, ca un rival prin forţa destinului.

În faţa Carlei Moss stătea un bătrân fără voce, o victimă a propriei sale incompetenţe, un perdant în faţa adversarului cu mari pretenţii – onoarea. Un bătrân zăpăcit şi speriat de lacrimile ei, cărora le simţea durerea, întregul chin al sentimentului de vinovăţie, nemăsurata spaimă. Toată acea apăsare sufletească căreia nicio iertare, nicio împăcare cu sine şi cu soarta nu i se putea împotrivi, nu mai putea dispărea.

Tot mai sus şi mai greoi se ridica zidul imens al suferinţei lui, poate mai accentuat decât al ei; orice încercare, mereu repetată de a-l dărâma fiind de prisos. Bătrânul Tom, acum o fiinţă pierzătoare, o fiinţă neputincioasă în a stăpâni acea umbreluţă pe care vântul puternic - responsabilitatea - i-a dat-o peste cap. Părea mai degrabă gata să-şi curme zilele în loc să-i aducă alinare femeii. Cuvintele erau de prisos. Imaginea de nedescris.

Leadership: Îndrăzneşti să te pui de-a curmezişul în faţa destinului, fără să influenţezi relaţia dintre ceea ce eşti în realitate şi imaginea pe care o nu doreşti s-o păstrezi despre tine?

Nimeni n-ar fi putut spune ce se petrecea într-însul, nici chiar el însuşi. Ca să-ţi dai seama trebuie să te gândeşti la tot ce poate fi mai crud, faţă în faţă cu tot ce poate fi mai blând.

Ochii femeii plini de spaima propriei singurătăţi fără leac. Ca un pârâu lacrimile-i şiroiau pe obraji. Tom Bell se adâncea parcă într-o contemplaţie adâncă, pe care numai păcătoşii o cunosc: " Ce-am făcut, o Doamne ?" Ţipele înfundate ale conştiinţei sale, cu tristeţe se topeau în neant ca un cornet de îngheţată lăsat în soare. În locul lor făcându-şi loc cumplita ură, denigrarea, intoleranţa tot mai acută faţă de "Omul" din el.

Destinul l-a căutat. Şi l-a găsit, dar nu în formă, şi nu la postul datoriei lui. Asemenea unui Jean Valjean pus în faţa unui impas al destinului, înfăptuind un lucru nedrept, tot mai regretabil - lui Tom Bell, disperată, inima îi striga: " Sunt un mare ticălos ". I se părea că însuşi Satana îşi găsise sălaşul în fiinţa lui; o inimă fără puls, într-un piept golit de orice însuşire sufletească. Nu avea puterea să spună absolut nimic, ruşinat parcă de propria sa lipsă de omenie.

Un singur gând părea să-l mai aline, printre bătăile inimii tot mai slăbite de propria-i conştiinţă, un gând din acela care înviorează doar pentru o clipă raţionamentul înainte de marea decădere: " Cât timp voi mai fi o parte a acestei lumi? " *****

Leadership: Cum îţi poţi demonstra nevinovăţia în faţa conştiinţei fără să rămâi martorul unei drame care ar trebui să fie limita oricărei porniri spre autoritarism sau spre grandoare?

Considerarea "Omului din tine" drept un monstru, drept un mecanism care produce durere prin lipsa unei demarcaţii clare între lumea ta şi a celorlalţi, este de fapt consecinţa existenţei proprii şi existenţei unui complex de factori responsabili de propria ta evoluţie. Aceşti factori fiind diferenţiaţi între ei prin natura, rolul şi participarea ta la procesul de transformare a celorlalţi oameni cu care interacţionezi.

Ce se întâmplă atunci când pui faţă în faţa ceea ce poate fi mai crud, cu tot ce poate fi mai blând din tine? Ai curajul să pui faţă în faţă două tabere adverse, a căror poziţii diferite sunt susţinute cu argumente contradictorii? Cântărind totul cu mare atenţie şi cu imparţialitate, ce concluzie vei reuşi să tragi? Te va ajuta această concluzie să faci alegerea cea mai bună, să distingi ce şi cine eşti cu adevărat?

În maniera fulger a acestei întorsături de 180 de grade, în mişcarea şi ritmul măsurat al metamorfozei personalităţii tale – trecerea de la " a fi " la " ar trebui să fii ", se impune să dai dovadă de un grad de aplomb care să-ţi favorizeze circumstanţele de a ajunge la esenţa umanităţii din tine". De a ajunge acolo unde responsabilitatea şi onoarea, aceşti jucători de bază ai caracterului care se îmbină într-o singură persoană, pot fi asumate şi cuantificate. O ramură abia vizibilă a leadershipului care merge pe noile drumuri ale adevăratei cunoaşteri de sine.

Dacă cauţi să-ţi demonstrezi nevinovăţia în faţa conştiinţei, fără să rămâi martorul unei drame care ar trebui să fie limita oricărei porniri spre autoritarism sau spre grandoare, mai întâi trebuie să-ţi formezi deprinderea de a te împăca cu situaţiile în care te simţi neajutorat. Memoria şi faptele nu se şterg aproape niciodată. Trebuie să accepţi situaţiile în care îţi măreşti solidaritatea faţă de o experienţă care încă îşi lasă amprenta pe tine, zilnic.

Nu poţi să sari peste un zid dacă nu accepţi ideea că el este acolo.

Leadership: Cum se reflectă neputinţa faţă de propria ta persoană prin luarea în considerare a realităţii aflate în spatele experienţelor care te individualizează prin împărtăşirea lor?

O câmpie cu un lan de grâu poate fi la fel de frumoasă ca un ocean care se întinde dincolo de orizont, dar niciodată această imensitate nu se va ridica la nivelul aşteptărilor tale dacă nu exprimă ceva anume, dacă nu aduce în planul conștiinței noi senzații și trăiri, sau dacă nu este înţeleasă ca o asociere de valori și viziuni.

A fi un om bun, cu sentimentele şi trăirile cele mai alese, nu este de-ajuns, nu este criteriul de bază pentru a deveni un lider, tot aşa cum sucul îţi poate potoli setea, nu însă şi foamea. Este doar un memento , o conjunctură care poate dura relativ puţin, o stare de mulţumire care te înalţă o clipă în proprii ochi - care poate fi transformată radical de o situaţie sau de o altă persoană.

A fi un om bun poate fi şi o aparenţă de a fi altcineva, o fiinţă profund socială dar lipsită de o platformă solidă (caracterul) care să-i susţină înclinaţia spre depăşirea adversităţilor. Numai a fi un caracter puternic, împăcat cu situaţia în care te găseşti, face ca verdictul dat de propria-ţi conştiinţă să fie unul favorabil în relaţia cu sinele-i propriu şi cu ceilalţi oameni.

Capacitatea ta de a te direcţiona mai bine spre zona umană a leadershipului, nu spre cea

"tehnico-economică", depinde de felul cum reacţionezi la o imputare dreaptă sau nedreaptă. Mai întâi trebuie să-ţi demonstrezi nevinovăţia în faţa conştiinţei tale, apoi în faţa celorlalţi. Participarea "omului din tine", cu toate trăsăturile definitorii, la acest proces de reînnoire este primul pas spre a îndrepta o situaţie de tip: " eu însumi " versus " ei înşişi ".

A-ţi împărtăşi experienţa de viaţă cu altcineva, sau prin intermediul unei întorsături a destinului, înseamnă să faci apel la o realitate care nu se poate ascunde în spatele circumstanţelor care fac din tine un om mai bun.

Tragedia unui destin care îşi caută bătrânul ilustrează perfect situaţia când simţi nevoia să-ţi pui întrebări, când te îndoieşti de felul tău de a fi. Atunci când nu te admiri şi nu eşti admirat pentru ceea ce ai făcut, fapt care te poate copleşi, într-o primă fază, apoi putând a te atrage în conjuncturi mai delicate – o remuşcare totală care îţi poate frânge sufletul, care îţi poate măcina treptat stabilitatea psihică.

Destinul te va căuta. Şi întotdeauna te va găsi. Dar vei fi în formă, te va găsi prezent la postul tău? Vei avea tăria de caracter să te izbeşti de o situaţie incomodă? Vei avea tăria să te ridici deasupra marelui zid al regretelor şi remuşcărilor? Sau vei spune: " Gata ! Nu voi mai fi o parte a acestei lumi ! " Concluzie: Se spune că „ cine n-are bătrâni, să-şi cumpere" . Adică să ai înţelepciunea celora care izbindu-se de greutăţile vieţii au reuşit să iasă din impasurile inevitabile pe care "karma" le-a rezervat-o. Să atingi maturitatea.

Fii tu însuţi un judecător imparţial a ceea ce eşti, spre a-ţi demonstra nevinovăţia, dar şi fidelitatea faţă de tine şi faţă de oamenii care te-au investit cu încrederea lor.

Există momente în viaţa fiecăruia când, privindu-se în oglindă, sau mai bine zis contemplându-şi viaţa, rămâne surprins de ceea ce vede. Remuşcările, nemulţumirile faţă de sine fiind inutile sau tardive.

De aceea, fiecare dintre noi trebuie să fie conştient că are de îndeplinit o datorie, o responsabilitate faţă de sine şi faţă de ceilalţi pe tot parcursul vieţii.

Traiectoria biruitoare a fiinţei omeneşti

Stimulează conexiunile profunde din interiorul fiinţei tale, în aşa fel încât maniera în care avansezi în leadership să nu-ţi pericliteze identitatea.

Avea să se dea o luptă. Iar eu urmam să iau parte la ea cu un soi de incertitudine perpetuă care mă punea faţă în faţă cu mine însumi. O năzuinţă febrilă, crescândă, spre o schimbare de profunzime a percepţiei realităţii personale care conducea la o transformare a conştiinţei, mă învăluia ca într-o mantie pseudo-spirituală.

Un soi de derută, o tatonare a spiritului, repetiţia insinuantă a unei idei sofisticate care mă urmărea de câtva timp, ascunsă parcă după un colţ, gata să-mi sară în faţă şi să mă împingă spre un adevăr incert şi necunoscut. Eram încă nepregătit s-o potrivesc, s-o introduc în circuitul valorilor mele.

O luptă, dar totodată o îngemănare a celor două ipostaze ale aceluiaşi individ, o obsesie ostilă ce se dezvolta gradual, în funcţie de coliziunea, răsturnarea, schimbarea celor doi poli ai existenţei sale.

Leadership: Dorinţa ta de a ieşi din starea de incertitudine a propriei individualităţi se exprimă prin încercarea de a face o punte de legătură între esenţă şi creaţie?

Lupta pentru Eu-l cel adevărat. Eu şi adversarul tăcut, nevăzut, nepăsător şi nesimţitor. Două atitudini acţionând reciproc într-o tensiune continuă pulsatorie. Coerenţa unei intrigi bine concepute şi riguros selectate. Două trasee care se intersectau hotărâtor şi nemijlocit, exercitând asupra mea într-o formă când directă, când subtilă, o presiune mai mult sau mai puţin evidentă, fiind parcă supus unui proces competitiv. O rivalitate între două tabere, între două constante psihologice, între două tipuri de personalitate: ca între legendarul Robin Hood – apărătorul, şi a adversarului său, Șeriful de Nottingham – uzurpatorul. Unul sigur trebuia eliminat.

Ceva în mine a plesnit atunci, a zvâcnit a protest, fără să pot ascunde asta. Dar rămâneau atât de multe care trebuiau cenzurate. Ieşisem din nou în noapte. Priveam doar fereastra zidului după care mă ascundeam.

În mod inevitabil, trecutul revenise între mine şi continuitatea prezentului, în căutarea viitorului. Asemenea unui om care se evită pe sine însuşi pentru a nu se hrăni cu himere care îi pot amorţi toate aşteptările, n-aveam niciun chef să mă joc de-a v-aţi ascunselea. Dar nici nu aveam de gând să mă desprind din uriaşa plasă de păianjen care prinsese totul din conştiinţa mea, din trăirile mele, în firele ei lipicioase.

Leadership: A te autocorecta prin experiențele marcante înseamnă să îți creezi o nouă percepție despre tine, una care reflectă echilibrul dintre esență și creație?

Esenţa care mă bulversa cu totul era un tumult de emoții conflictuale care păreau să lase în urmă doar o mizerie haotică de impresii referitoare la cine sunt cu adevărat. Creaţia care mă ridica deasupra sinelui se datora modului în care îmi exprimam sentimentele şi trăirile, schimbările ce aveau lor în interiorul meu, astfel încât, în cele din urmă, să dispară căutarea înfricoșătoare a proprilor limite şi vanități, iar reaitatea să devină o experienţă din care să ies îmbogăţit – şi la propriu, şi la figurat.

Eram pe pilot automat, fără să fiu atent la drum, în căutarea unui viitor necunoscut care putea genera o înţelegere între cele două părţi din mine aflate în conflict, o înţelegere care să mă ajute să-mi revin, jucând cu mine însumi rolul de justiţiar care decide între "esenţă" şi "creaţie".

M-am trezit în faţa celui mai bun prieten al meu, a celei mai bune alternative. Am devenit conştient de distanţa mare care ne despărţea. Am ieşit din spatele zidului după care mă ascundeam. Şi am văzut lumina.

Leadership: Joci rolul de justiţiar care decide între cele două tipuri de compromis: o totală uitare a esenţei care te reprezintă sau o frână a creaţiei care te îmbogăţeşte?

Leadershipul este rezultatul anilor petrecuţi într-un mediu de conducere. Dar, în acelaşi timp, este şi un motor al auto-cunoaşterii, un rezultat al dobândirii unui alt tip de personalitate prin încercarea de a te reinventa, de a deveni congruent cu tine însuţi.

Două trasee sunt justificabile în viaţa ta, putând a te separa de cine eşti cu adevărat. Şi pe care, ca orice alt lider, trebuie să le traversezi nemijlocit: distanţa de la esenţă la creaţie, şi invers. Două constante care se ordonează în opoziţii regulate, care se condiţionează şi se susţin reciproc, contribuind la formarea ta, exercitând asupra propriului tău fel de-a fi, într-o formă când directă, când subtilă, o anumită presiune, o influenţă care se resimte direct în circuitul valorilor tale şi care îţi poate decide viitorul.

Porneşti în căutarea unui viitor necunoscut care poate genera o înţelegere între cele două părţi din tine aflate în conflict? Care este ipostaza în care te identifici acum? Implică ea aspiraţia de a depăşi limitele condiţiei tale de "Om" supus naturii sale proprii? Sau te regăseşti mereu în ipostaza de a-ţi dezvolta capacităţile de lider, fără să-ţi verifici şi să-ţi asumi adevărata identitate?

Reuşita în leadership depinde de acea parte a personalităţii care se află în contact nemijllocit cu realitatea guvernată mai mult de forţa "creaţiei" decât de dezvăluirile "esenţei".

Traiectoria biruitoare a fiinţei omeneşti poate fi interpretată ca un proces al devenirii sinelui, al dezvoltării personale, căruia trebuie să i te supui. O desăvârşire a propriei tale personalităţi. Desemnează temelia schimbării pline de satisfacţii şi succes, deopotrivă pentru tine ca "Om", nu doar ca "Lider".

Arta de a te autodescoperi şi de a-ţi înţelege menirea în lume, presupune să înţelegi acea opoziţie dintre ceea ce este profund şi ceea ce nu este, dintre ceea ce eşti şi ceea ce vrei să fii. Înseamnă să biruieşti rivalitatea între cele două tabere, între cele două constante psihologice, între cele două tipuri de personalitate: realist-nerealist, apărător-uzurpator, care îţi pot ruina capacitatea de decizie în momentele cheie ale vieţii.

De aceea responsabilitatea şi luciditatea tentativelor tale prospective presupune nu numai redefinirea propriei identităţi, dar şi conştientizarea a ceea ce te aşteaptă ca replică nedorită a modului în care te percepi şi te manifeşti.

Cunoaşterea acestei "replici" nedorite, dar posibile, întrucât exprimă – şi în cazul leadershipului, de pildă – convingerile şi sensul acţiunilor preconizate, obligându-te pe deoparte la mai multă atenţie în vederea evitării unei dedublări a personalităţii, iar pe de altă parte, la fermitate în găsirea acelei părţi din tine care te priveşte din interior, în timp ce îţi interpretezi rolul în modelarea realităţii sociale.

Ai fi dispus să-ţi tratezi cu îngăduinţă sau nepăsare acele părţi din tine care te definesc, ca simple bizarerii fără importanţă? Cât de corect eşti cu tine însuţi?

Traiectoria biruitoare a fiinţei omeneşti reprezintă, totodată, rezultatul anilor de căutări, întrebări cu sau fără răspuns, a luptelor "interne" pentru definirea propriului Eu şi al potenţialului propriu.

Caută în trecut şi în interiorul fiinţei tale, corelează rezultatele analizei dintre ele cu prezentul şi astfel drumul spre reuşita viitoare este prefigurat, mai ales dacă eşti corect cu tine însuţi, tenace, riguros, dacă nu rupi conexiunile cu exteriorul şi cu realitatea ce te înconjoară, şi dacă selectezi acele elemente care te favorizează.

Stimulează conexiunile profunde din interiorul fiinţei tale, în aşa fel încât maniera în care avansezi în leadership să nu-ţi pericliteze identitatea.

Traiectoria unei minţi rătăcitoare

Extinde-ţi permanent limitele realităţii, prin reprezentarea vizuală a unui întreg fictiv care să facă deosebirea între compoziţia artistică şi perspectiva narativă pe care o propune viaţa ta.

Din suma tuturor experiențelor de viață pe care le-am exprimat în artă, şi aşa destul de puternic impregnate în compoziţia unor imagini de genul "eveniment de neuitat" destinate să pună în valoare subiectul unei aventuri cu o incitantă simbolică încifrată, am extras ca dintr-o singură rotire a câmpului vizual acea fracţiune de secundă care face ca o amintire să devină actualitate.

Nu este un lucru uşor să creezi o artă a cărei imagine, expusă unui subiectivism absolut, deci expusă unui singur ochi și asociată cu un tablou impresionist, profund şi încântător, să poată cuprinde ego-ul într-un organism fizic prin intermediul cuvintelor. Chiar mai greu decât atât, construcţia acestei imagini am fixat-o în orizontul sensibilităţii estetice având ca punct de referinţă planul abstract al unor înțelesuri de adâncime incluse într-un plan figurativ, de suprafață.

Însăşi arta mea, subtilă, modernă, obţinută printr-o transcendere a vieţii cotidiene, mi-a apărut ca o ştafetă a Dumnezeirii, furnizându-mi imagini de călătorie convingătoare, de o uimitoare și complexă structură perspectivală. Incluzând folosirea mai multor arte luate la un loc, această artă – pentru care nu este posibilă aplicarea timbrului artelor plastice, am închipuit-o cu tărie ca pe o oportunitate de a interpreta o imagine a aşteptării şi a întâlnirii cu un Tachyaruvis (formularea unei reprezentări virtuale a unui întreg fictiv).

Leadership: Creaţia cu care te identifici cel mai bine transmite sugestia unei reprezentări veridice a imaginii cu care extinzi limitele realităţii, prin asociere cu conceptul de "You must constantly remind yourself in a picture" ?

Aş spune, de fapt, că arta mea se deschide în faţa idealului de stea luminând universul printr-o imagine care se raportează la un „dincolo" misterios, fascinant sau angoasant, pecete a unei existenţe care se refuză privirii curioase a trecătorului şi se închide în sine. O imagine care se poate interpreta în diverse maniere distincte, cu uşurinţă gravându-se în memoria timpului, luând ca exemplu trăirile inedite ale unui artist care împodobește cu ajutorul pensulei un canevas alb pe realitatea unei lumi închise marcate de întuneric.

Da. Este o raritate să te recunoşti artist în fiecare împrejurare a vieţii, luând ca punct de reper un fel de realitate în afara Sinelui care parcă te face să te gândeşti la romanul „Piranesi" de Susanna Clarke. Aici arhitectul italian Giovanni Battista Piranesi, părea să fie motivat exclusiv de cercetarea lumii:

Aici se confirmă alegerile mele în materie de creaţie. În fiecare moment de avânt al artei mele, pentru a aduce roade conotative cât mai bogate, a trebuit să dovedesc că întregul curs al vieţii mele urmează traiectoria unei minţi rătăcitoare care se încurcă prin culoarele unui multi-univers de forme ce exprimă sintetic experiențe umane inimaginabile, survolând universurile paralele, în căutarea unei lumi utopice. Dar n-am renunţat să pretind că sunt şi posibile…

Un concept care poate fi aplicat şi în leadership este acesta: numai cine ştie să construiască o reprezentare propusă de imaginaţie va putea să surprindă minunatele detalii ale unei imagini autonome numită: "realitate augmentată".

Traiectoria unei minţi rătăcitoare este drumul străbătut de un artist în căutarea inspiraţiei, chiar dacă mintea se duce mai departe de ceea ce ochii pot vedea. Desigur, am fost revoluționar de când mă știu, în special pe plan artistic. M-am opus timpului, m-am opus normelor şi structurilor stabilite de normalul acceptat, și asta m-a făcut să fiu mereu în căutare de ceva nou, nonconformist…

Orientează-ţi gândirea spre dezvoltarea unei creaţii originale care să fie în deplină concordanţă cu prevederile ştiinţei delegată să clarifice elementele de manifestare a unor concepţii viitoare.

Deocamdată creaţia regizorului Eisenstein nu este iscată dintr-o gândire sistematică, dintr-o concepţie precisă asupra artei spectacolului. Practica regiei începe să clarifice elementele unei concepţii viitoare. Dar fiecare pas aduce după sine, organic, pe următorul şi devenirea lui Eisenstein urmează o linie clară, precisă, parcă calculabilă ca traiectoria unui astru.

Dacă Parcele ar fi avut un serviciu de calcul astronomic, ar fi putut desena anticipat curba traiectoriei destinului lui Eisenstein. Biograful descoperă perfecta geometrie a traiectoriei: fenomenele se înlănţuie într-o logică matematică parcă. Şi întrebarea iniţială a lui Eisenstein începe să capete un răspuns limpede. Fiecare fapt se repercutează asupra celui următor, îl determină într-o reacţie în lanţ – cum ar spune azi Eisenstein – al cărui mecanism se dezvăluie cu limpezime. *****

Leadership: Poţi să manevrezi o variabilă de tip "output" pe măsura puterii de înţelegere a intelectualilor rafinaţi, încât opera ta să capete virtutea unei arte de subtilitate estetică?

Se spune că fiecare pas aduce după sine, organic, pe următorul şi devenirea liderului-creator urmează o linie clară, precisă, parcă calculabilă ca traiectoria unui astru. Fiindcă perfecţiunea de neegalat nu poate fi scoasă de pe ordinea de zi a evoluţiei la scară mare, ci continuă să se extindă prin noi lansări de produse ştiinţifice, spre segmentele de consumatori care răspund favorabil acestor inovaţii.

Marea Ştiinţă este inspiraţia pe care ţi-o găseşti într-o situaţie de viaţă sau într-o lume imaginară, redată într-o concepţie sau constare proprie care nu trebuie să depăşească limitele de înţelegere a celorlalţi. Înainte de a accede la proximitatea marii ştiinţe trebuie să alcătuieşti părţile planului de finalizare a unei idei (concepută mai întâi intuitiv), apoi să o studiezi din toate punctele de vedere, iar scopul ei trebuie sprijinit cu dovezi şi argumente ca să poate fi luat în considerare de lume.

Arta regizorală capătă o subtilitate estetică numai atunci când dialogul dintre experienţa vizuală şi experienţa de reprezentare a realităţii favorizează apariţia unei forme de fineţe în alegerea detaliilor de decor, dar şi a unei forme de eleganţă în exprimarea emoţiilor trăite de eroii povestirii.

Tu eşti hotărât să concepi o ştiinţă bogată în necunoscute, plină de taine greu de pătruns? Asta ar însemna să activezi o opţiune de respingere pentru cei neavizaţi în domeniu. E ca şi cum ai îndemna pe cineva să urce 100 etaje cu o greutate în spinare, uitând că, în orice clipă, el poate să cadă.

Şi totuşi, creatorii de noi orizonturi, exact asta şi fac, manevrează pe măsura puterii de înţelegere a intelectualilor rafinaţi o variabilă de tip "output", un model ştiinţific de o factură aparte, admis ca un adevăr ştiinţific, având drept scop prezentarea directă şi personală a unei idei, a unui proiect, a unui produs sau unui serviciu. Cu excepţia faptului că a lor creaţie se adresează cu precădere producătorilor, distribuitorilor şi comercianţilor de "ştiinţă", deci celor ce se află în vârful piramidei cunoaşterii.

Altfel spus, ştiinţa ta trebuie să se contopească cu logica raţionamentelor inedite ca să se poată ridica la nivelul unei creaţii autentice, dominate de factorul high-intelectual-quality admis numai de cei cu adevărat avizaţi. Iar opera ta poate să capete virtutea unei arte de subtilitate estetică atunci când ideile şi elementele care compun o anumită temă sunt evaluate într-un mod depersonalizat, decuplate de tine (de persoana care le dezvoltă şi le împărtăşeşte).

Leadership: În relaţie cu lumea, ce însemnătate are un creator care este el însuşi produsul unei creaţii intelectuale autonome?

Chiar dacă înţelegem însemnătatea unei creaţii autentice, izvorâte din raportul sugestiv dintre artă, ştiinţă, trend şi cultură, este foarte dificil să mai vedem "peisajul" abandonării a tot ceea ce este dincolo de dimensiunea esenţială în care liderul-creator evoluează. E greu să sesizăm la liderul-savant acel "aşa cum este" în interacţiunea cu ştiinţa şi atributele ei – performanţă, excelenţă, competiţie.

Creaţia intelectuală autonomă poate fi considerată drept o desfăşurare grandioasă de la un „început" la o finalitate de succes, în termeni de orientare a ideilor spre a dirija evoluţia anumitor concepte. Iar o reîntoarcere la începuturile activităţii de cercetare, concretizată prin elaborarea unui program de pregătire şi dezvoltarea unui produs nelivrabil, pus în slujba viitorului, înseamnă mai mult o cunoaștere teoretică, cu sens de opinie, un mod specific de a vedea lumea prin convingeri şi concepte.

Ceea ce putem sesiza la un artist al transformărilor de idei, rezultate şi metode, cu o oarecare predilecţie pentru calitatea dusă la extrem, după ce a parcurs ciclul corespunzător al vizualizării şi al dezvoltării mijloacelor de producere a creaţiei, este traiectoria carierei sale profesionale. Dar nu putem, decât cu mare greutate, să aprofundăm şi să susţinem înţelegerea lui vizavi de lume.

Pe un astfel de lider îl putem vedea mai mult în termenii unor serii de schiţe şi tipare, răzvrătindu-se împotriva unei gândiri logice elementare, sistematice, uniforme, obişnuite, încercând să răspundă la întrebări nerezolvate şi să rezolve contradicţiile insolubile ale artei. Dar nu-i vom putea niciodată ghici logica din spatele raţionamentelor, la fel cum el nu se va detaşa niciodată de „universul" în care trăieşte.

A fi produsul unei creaţii intelectuale autonome înseamnă să-ţi asumi destinul de rătăcitor pe meleagurile mirifice ale ştiinţei, cu riscul de a nu lua în considerare cel mai important aspect al procesului de auto-perfecţionare: echilibrul dintre muincă şi timpul liber.

Traiectoria unui astru vizează drumul parcurs de aceia care doresc şi realizează o artă din ştiinţă, strălucind îndelungat pe firmamentul conceptelor viitoare ale propriei lor experienţe şi raţiuni.

Traiectoria unui glonţ rătăcit în incertitudine

Fii conştient de consecinţa unui raţionament profund şi subtil, pentru ca acţiunile tale să nu aducă prejudicii de ordin funcţional celor din jurul tău.

Timpul s-a oprit pentru o clipă la etajul al treilea. Doar o fracţiune de secundă, cât să alarmeze toţi ofiţerii de poliţie. Dar care este forţa aceasta necunoscută, autoritatea aceasta străină definită prin raportul a două dispersii, teama cea mai cumplită şi îndoiala cea mai apăsătoare, care intră într-un scurt respiro înainte de a parcurge vertiginos distanţa spre ieşire?

Reacţiile se produc cu viteze extrem de mari, intensificarea lor fiind determinată de conştientizarea factorilor de risc care duc la producerea unui fenomen în desfăşurare, ce pare că nu poate trece dincolo de limitele minţii. Creşte producţia de adrenalină. Şi, ca la comandă, se blochează starea de nelinişte în poziţia ON. Înmărmuriţi, toţi ochii sunt îndreptaţi spre liftul groazei. Electronii sar de la un nucleu de contradicţii la un altul, coagulat cu sudoarea funcţii, care activează la graniţa cu imposibilul.

Viteza acestei forţe necunoscute, a cărei putere de manevră este direct proporţională cu riscul asumat, nu se poate măsura. Căci inerţia ei poate apărea numai în urma accelerării sau frânării. Şi poate creşte semnificativ în urma unei variaţii de concentraţie al unui component reactant. Indescifrabilă, ea pare că se manifestă şi se transformă continuu în funcţie de timpul de reacţie al poliţiştilor.

Leadership: Poţi să te impui într-o situaţie neaşteptată ca o mare descoperire ce pare să ia minţilor celorlalţi, prin aplicarea acesteia la studiul diferitelor manifestări vitale evidenţiatoare de potenţial creativ?

Se observă creşterea dimensiunii frământărilor spre nişte valori maxime, accentuând neliniştea. Zbaterile continue, ca nişte lovituri tăioase de bici, rămân constante în imediata vecinătate a zonei de incertitudine.

Hannibal Lecter menţine interesul şi încordarea până la evenimentul anticipat, cu precizia unui glonţ care iese din puşca unui vânător redutabil - scăparea, pe care o întrezăreşte datorită fluidităţii coerente a gândirii. Neaşteptat, glonţul se sparge de zidul subţire al minţilor firave, producând o încordare vecină cu haosul. Această experienţă este consecinţa premeditată a unui raţionament profund şi subtil. O răsturnare a tuturor certitudinilor care populează realitatea. Parte a unui lanţ nesfârşit de cauze şi efecte.

Dar marea artă, lovitura de maestru care îşi atinge ţinta fără ca nimeni să observe traiectoria conduitei sale, este felul cum Hannibal tratează experienţa aceasta sub aspectul cel mai favorabil. Căci, cel mai adesea, trebuie să ajuţi puţin faptele pentru ca ele să se amestece cu ficţiunea la adăpostul unei intenţii private. În cazul acesta se poate invoca o descoperire care pare să contrazică anumite principii şi legi universal valabile, una care se lasă aşteptată, fiindcă are puterea de a zgudui toate destinele aflate în calea ei.

Contrar eroului lui Cervantes, Hannibal nu satisface deloc condiţiile şi regulile cavalerismului, nu cedează cu bunăvoinţă avantajele ambiguităţilor. Ci pledează în favoarea unei realizări fără precedent. Transformarea sa într-o umbră nedefinită pe care niciun artist n-o poate prinde în schema grafică, o umbră pe care trebuie să o confunzi cu realitatea.

Leadership: Oscilezi între extremele care te pot determina să sari peste normalul convenienţelor acceptat unanim de o conştiinţă a convenţionalităţii, în cazul unei traiectorii de asimilare a practicilor care încalcă principiul transparenţei?

Ce se întâmplă atunci când, în condiţiile unei creşteri a preciziei intuiţiei sau a exercitării unei activităţi excesive a imaginaţiei, trebuie să optezi pentru mai multe modele de personalitate – deopotrivă corespunzătoare scopurilor propuse şi răspunzând din punct de vedere funcţional cerinţelor leadershipului?

În faţa acestei situaţii, statutul tău de lider, iniţiat în arta manipulării în masă, trebuie modificat. Căci dacă dimensiunea funcţională este dublată de o capacitate mare de sugestionare, accentuând inteligent sentimentul de ambivalență, atunci oamenii nu se vor putea hotărî ce cale să aleagă. Practic vor fi prinşi în capcana indeciziei şi nu se pot orienta în privinţa paşilor ce trebuie făcuţi.

Aşa cum între două sau mai multe obiecte cu aceeaşi funcţionalitate individul obişnuit îl va prefera pe cel care corespunde mai mult gustului său estetic, tot astfel liderul, în intenţia de a oferi o posibilitate de afirmare, va alege între două sau mai multe alternative morale şi drepte în ele însele, care respectă cele mai exigente standarde ale leadershipului. Asta, numai în situaţia în care nu efectuează concomitent o mişcare în direcţia opusă. Sau, mai bine spus, când nu efectuează o dublă mişcare cu o deschidere foarte serioasă spre necunoscut, spre compromisul care poate să altereze realizarea obiectivului urmărit.

Liderul se vede obligat, în aceste condiţii, în mijlocul unei noi controverse, să ţină seama şi de perspectiva pozitivă a dezvoltării sale – supusă, deseori, unei traiectorii închise. Fenomenul psihic care îl caracterizează pe lider în acest caz nu este reprezentat de o sensibilitate care îi permite să se adapteze mediului, ci este cauzat de schimbările bruşte de plan legate de declanșarea unor evenimente neprevăzute care accelerează acele manifestări de voinţă aflate în contradicţie cu legea.

Ca să conducă eficient, el nu trebuie să oscileze între extremele care îl pot determina să sară peste normalul acceptat, iar puterea de manevră de care face uz să fie direct proporţională cu riscul asumat. Căci o creştere a puterii de influenţă spre nişte valori negative, care continuă să trezească curiozitatea fiecărui om prins în cadrul leadershipului, menţinând interesul şi încordarea până la evenimentul anticipat, poate avea repercusiuni asupra poziţiei liderului.

Leadership: Ce personalitate poţi ascunde în spatele unei dubluri care prezintă într-o manieră uşor diferită posibilitatea de a da un şah definitoriu tuturor celor care îi contestă autoritatea?

E un drum lung şi anevoios spre obţinerea acceptării depline din partea oamenilor, mai ales dacă ei continuă să se situeze în imediata vecinătate a zonei de incertitudine. Iar acest drum poate conduce, de la primele tentative de a realiza o dublă valenţă leadershipului, în vârtejul unei curiozităţi bine plasate şi orientate către o nouă abordare a procesului de influenţă în situaţiile limită, la o stare psihotică, de pierdere a simţului realităţii. Este de acceptat oare o astfel de manevră care dă puţine şanse leadershipului de a fi acceptat pe deplin?

Dacă îţi ascunzi personalitatea în spatele unei dubluri care intervine în mecanismul de reglare a influenţei, cu scopul de a salva partida de leadership datorită posibilităţii de a da un şah definitoriu tuturor celor care îţi contestă autoritatea, acţiunile, reuşitele sau calităţile, atunci toate iniţiativele tale vor fi privite cu suspiciune.

Prin urmare, dacă vrei să pledezi în favoarea unei realizări fără precedent şi să te transformi într-o "umbră nedefinită" ce corespunde unei realităţi pline de contradicţii, ia în calcul şi retragerea poziţiei tale din perimetrul de acceptare pe care îl administrează susţinătorii tăi.

Autoritatea, din punct de vedere al neprevăzutului unei situaţii, pare o manifestare de voinţă care plasează individul la limita dintre ceea ce este adevărat şi ceea ce nu este, dintre ceea ce este acceptat şi ce este considerat ofensator la adresa corectitudinii.

Traiectoria unui glonţ rătăcit în incertitudine scoate în evidenţă posibilitatea ca leadershipul să genereze haos şi, astfel, noţiunea de leadership să se piardă în neant. Un lider duplicitar, oscilant, dar cu o capacitate mare de sugestie, va genera dezorientare în masele de oameni. Şi, în final, neîncredere şi acţiuni haotice.

Trăieşte-mă prin tine ca să te trăiesc mereu acelaşi

Învaţă să fii un spirit roditor în reflexia legăturii strânse dintre ideea imitaţiei naturii și modul de a percepe arta ca o formă de comunicare vizuală.

Trandafirul din dreapta mea, atât de calm, liber, tandru, mă priveşte pe furiş precum un martor al unei poveşti de viaţă care va supravieţui tuturor întâmplărilor de acum înainte, îndeosebi prin posibilitățile inepuizabile ale jocului numit "longevitate prin cultură". Pare că-mi ştie dinainte răspunsurile la dilemele existenţiale, din înaltul unei pretinse cunoaşteri absolute, încadrată într-un conţinut de gândire bine organizat, ca şi când el însuşi şi-ar dori să facă parte din viaţa unui scriitor care reconstituie numai din cuvinte armonioase, umil spuse, filmul unei vieţi privite în curgerea ei, în optica de ansamblu a unei sinteze de tip "compendiu".

Privirea lui este oare în direcţia dictată de gândurile mele pline de candoarea artei şi a frumosului? Poate că şi trandafirul a crescut în climatul aplecării pline de respect asupra artei, prin puterea divină a cuvântului ingenios Arusnieshtu , însemnând expresia unui act de valorizare estetică în sesizarea unei opere de artă explicată printr-o apropiere de pulsaţia existenţei bazată pe sentimente şi senzaţii unice.

Întreaga artă a expresioniştilor se desfăşoară într-un context cvasi-figurativ.

Aşa se clădesc amintirile frumoase, din cuvintele pe care ţi le dăruieşte natura, în schimbul ascultării şi înfrumuseţării ei cu mijloacele şi artificiile artei, cu intensitatea ei, cu analogiile ei. Şi atât de mult îndrăgeşti o amintire caldă, plină de culoare, de nostalgie, pe cât de mult îţi este de dragă prezenţa unei fiinţe metafizice a naturii în tabloul vizual, sugestiv, al sentimentelor împărtăşite de la artist la observator, dintre afirmarea unei picturi de inspiraţie simbolistă şi afirmarea unei imagini a realității înconjurătoare.

Leadership: Arta ta poate să dea expresie unui moment de "contact improvisation", încât să producă o înaintare spre înţelegerea dualităţii simbolului într-o configuraţie mai bogată numită "compoziţie a trăirii prin priviri" ?

Comunicarea vizuală conține aspecte ale unei imagini ce poate fi interpretată subiectiv din perspectiva unui narator sensibil, susţinut de un spirit ordonator, adică prin prisma relaţiei dintre vibrația trăirii care impregnează scriitura şi prospeţimea trăirii care-l cucereşte pe privitor permanent.

Nici trandafirul, nici artistul, nu se vor bucura pe deplin de rostul lor în lumea aceasta până nu vor simți apropierea dintre frumosul şi subtilul unei sensibilităţi a sufletului, care face posibilă expresia stărilor emoţionale sau dispoziţionale din actul de creaţie. Însăşi simţul purităţii şi al sacrului, curgându-le amândurora prin vene, înveşmântat cu orizonturile unei priviri care îşi păstrează expresivitatea, poate aduce atingere unei armonizări ulterioare cu vibraţia naturii, cu măreţia ei, cu liniştea ei calmă, prinsă aici în notaţii scurte, extrem de sugestive.

Până la urmă, este şi asta o confirmare a posibilităţii de a da expresie unui moment de "contact improvisation", a unui loc în care cineva, răsfoind cartea fiinţei mele, ar putea să aibă pornirea şi curajul de a se deprinde cu privirea "de aproape" a unei eleganţe simple, plină de bun gust, plină de discreţie, plină de naturaleţe. Ceea ce place privirii sunt ochii cunoscători care ştiu să aprecieze arta în funcţie de deschiderile sensibilităţii, de specificul gândirii prin interceptarea de imagini unice, dar mai ales în funcţie de intensitatea trăirii prin valori poetice.

Credeţi-mă, ochiul artistului refuză a se adapta într-o lume a tiparelor şi a producţiei în serie, el caută mai degrabă să se recunoască ca o oglindire a creatorului în sufletul naturii, fiindcă el trebuie permanent să experimenteze trăirea divinităţii, sentimentul sinelui subiectiv și al scopului mai profund în viață. Poate că o spunea mai bine decât mine criticul literar Vasile Lovinescu: "A trăi simbolic lumea înseamnă a o recunoaşte ca oglindire analogică a unui plan superior."

Nu-i de mirare că în faţa delicateţei şi rafinamentului de care dă dovadă trandafirul meu, fără să istovească culoarea şi linia în hăţişurile reprezentării fidele a realităţii, mă simt ca în prezenţa unei puteri covârşitoare, deoarece el există totdeauna ca un mod complet proaspăt şi inovativ de a picta orice formă, textură, fiinţă.

Leadership: Realitatea pe care îţi fundamentezi creaţia poate fi percepută ca ceva nou integrat în sânul naturii, capabil să existe prin el însuşi şi având ca punct de sprijin un follow-up spiritual?

Nu mă voi oprit aici, căci arta se întregeşte prin continuitatea cu care pictorul îşi alimentează sentimentul de împlinire sufletească, de linişte interioară, intuiţia rară de a genera noi câmpuri de coexistenţă într-un peisaj fragmentat. În privinţa asta, artistul întâlneşte splendoarea trandafirului într-un monolog din "Trilogia New York-ului ", scris de Paul Auster, când personajul principal încearcă să se raporteze la lumea materială, având ca punct de sprijin un follow-up spiritual:

"Vedeţi voi, lumea este făcută din bucăţele. Nu numai că ne-am pierdut simţului finalităţii, dar am pierdut şi limbajul prin care să-l putem exprima. Premiza premizelor, întocmai, asta e, metoda de operare. Fără îndoială că acestea sunt chestiuni spirituale, dar ele îşi găsesc corespondentul în lumea materială. Am avut ideea genială de a mă limita la nivelul lucrurilor fizice, la zona imediatului şi a tangibilului. Motivele îmi sunt nobile, dar munca mea se desfăşoară în spaţiul cotidianului. De aceea sunt înţeles greşit atât de des. Dar nu contează. Am învăţat să nu acord importanţă acestor lucruri."

Ce se întâmplă în sufletul trandafirului, privindu-l cu luciditatea pe care o dă retrospecţia şi introspecţia? Ei bine, dacă aş încerca să răspund la această întrebare, cu multă pretenţie artistică, m-aş simţi ca şi când aş crea o poveste în interiorul unei imagini tipărite pe o simplă hârtie: va trebui să mă transform într-un personaj literar care exprimă în mod veridic esenţa realităţii.

Un follow-up spiritual este o examinare sau observare suplimentară a intervenţiei artistului în puritatea naturii, pe teritoriul unei realităţi care ne scapă mereu printre degete: fiecare oglindire în sufletul naturii este rezultatul unei gândiri care asigură evoluţia artei.

Trăieşte-mă prin tine ca să te trăiesc mereu acelaşi. Numai astfel vei putea să percepi realitatea, printr-o sinteză a conținutului simțitor pe care vrei să-l redai în artă. Simplitatea de care dă dovadă un artist al genului literar, căruia interiorul îi este apropiat de sufletul naturii, este premisa cea mai importantă a transformării sale într-un personaj imaginativ: trebuie să fie veridic, să exprime o anume pretenţie artistică, să existe prin nemărginire.

Trandafirul continuă să existe prin urma întipărită peste generaţii a ceea ce artistul gândeşte, simte şi făptuieşte.

Trăirea credinţei vărsată într-un moment astral

On Decembrie 10, 2020

După ce treci prin foc şi sabie, n-o să-ţi mai fie frică nici de foc şi nici de sabie.

Vine un moment în viaţa ta (şi în viaţa fiecărui om), un soi de provocare cu rezonanţă spirituală, când universul îţi vorbeşte aşa cum îi vorbeşte unui înger, plin de tărie sufletească: "Numai tu poţi face lucrul acesta ! ".

Unii aud glasul misterios, alţii nu-l aud sau pur şi simplu nu-s interesaţi. Unii dintre cei care aud glasul, uitând orice legătură strânsă ce există între suflet şi univers, trăiesc sentimentul eronat că totul este o şaradă, o capcană întinsă timpului acordat unui proiect prea ambiţios pentru nivelul lor de putinţă. Ei ironizează lupta lui Iacov cu Îngerul.

Şi mai sunt aceia ce au auzit glasul, i-au înţeles esenţa, mesajul, şi au ştiut că este singura lor şansă de a răzbi într-o luptă fără compromisuri, cu mize uriașe. Înălţător, însufleţitor, cu pulsaţie imanentă, aceştia din urmă au urmat cu stăruinţă, tot mai departe, un singur drum: cel hotărât de un glas la fel de puternic ca şi voinţa lor neînduplecată.

Poate că unii au fost pregătiţi mai dinainte cu greutăţile, cu lipsurile şi ispitele de tot felul, ceea ce a provocat înăuntrul lor o trăire de natură volitivă pe care o are cineva în prezenţa a ceva sfânt, tainic, indicibil, dar cu efect compensator în timp. Sau, poate că voinţa lor a fost mai puternică decât tăria unui astru care poate controla soarta fiinţelor de pe planeta noastră.

Iată concluzia: Orice rezonanţă cu revelaţia unei schimbări definitorii, provocând o trăire a credinţei vărsată într-un moment astral, nu este altceva decât repercusiunea unei hotărâri pronunţate asupra unei persoane care face parte dintr-o cauză exterioară şi superioară.

Nu-ţi fie teamă dacă eşti ultimul din lume, fie-ţi teamă să nu pierzi din vedere momentul astral care te poate trimite direct în fruntea lumii. Nu ironiza lupta lui Iacov cu Îngerul.

Leadership: Cum se stabileşte corespondenţa dintre interioritate şi subiectivitate atunci când eşti pus să alegi între o căutare curajoasă a adevărului despre existență şi conștientizarea faptului că eşti ceva mai mult decât "un om obişnuit"?

Cercetând fără teamă natura misterioasă a vieții, determinând-o prin expresia unei culturi spirituale ce prezintă lumea prin intermediul lucrărilor ştiinţifice sau artistice, şi pe care un suflet nobil ar situa-o la un nivel de "sentiment exprimat în acţiune", am început să conștientizez faptul că sunt ceva mai mult decât un om obişnuit. De fapt, orice om obişnuit poate deveni un om de mare valoare dacă dă ascultare glasului divin şi dacă se lasă călăuzit (în direcţia artelor sau ştiinţelor cele mai de seamă) de un sentiment care se trăiește prin hazard, care se simte prin vibraţia unei înfrăţiri fabuloase. În afară de asta, nu poţi fi decât mândru atunci când ţi se revelează latura subtilă a semnificaţiei vieţii.

Îmi asum orice binecuvântare spirituală. Aici intervine corespondenţa dintre interioritate şi subiectivitate, ca o călătorie umană magnifică printre aştrii unei experienţe onirice, ceva care te întregeşte prin adaosul unei realităţi exterioare, exercitând o atracţie covârşitoare, şi în care recunoşti parcă o identitate formativă primordială, un fel de întoarcere la izvoarele unei misiuni care nu este lucrarea ta, ci a intervenţiei divine.

Iar dacă îmi regăsesc spiritul omului astral în sânul materiei fizice, conştientizând faptul că sunt ceva mai mult decât corp, că sunt o minte şi un suflet care trimit semnale spre un Univers determinist, ca o relaţie cauză-efect, atunci revelaţia misiunii mele în această viaţă este de a face legătura dintre efemer şi etern într-o luptă permanentă pe frontul cunoașterii metafizice. Ceilalţi oameni trebuie să fie egali în această bătălie.

Momentul astral care mă poate trimite direct în fruntea lumii trebuie socotit ca o izbândă a luminii asupra întunericului, sau ca o izbândă a unei minţi creatoare asupra lucrurilor, fiinţelor şi faptelor ce corespund realităţilor în transformare dinamică.

Am trecut prin foc şi sabie, de aceea nu-mi mai este frică nici de foc şi nici de sabie, mai ales când tind spre un spaţiu al schimbării permanente. Spun asta asemănându-mă cu un astru ce trece prin eter, din emisfera invizibilă în cea vizibilă, pe care numai noaptea îl luminează şi îl înfrumuseţează, transformându-l printr-un înnoit mod de a fi, într-un Luceafăr nemuritor care captează însăşi esența Marii Opere: comunicarea cu Dumnezeu, dincolo de esenţa unei axe temporale evidente.

Într-un singur moment neaşteptat, mi-am dat seama că sunt mai mult decât "un om obişnuit" atunci când spiritul meu în plan astral a devenit un Luceafăr care luminează cerul şi pământul printr-o metafizică cu implicaţii profunde în evoluţia creaţiei universale. Spre deosebire de alte stele de multe ori căzătoare, dăruind lumii întregi lumina lor doar pentru o clipă, Luceafărul în care s-a întrupat spiritul meu aparţine unui plan astral prin care este prevăzută o trecere a destinului existenţial prin cel universal, adică prin preluarea şi aplicarea cunoaşterii avansate în realitatea transcendentală.

Poate că, totuşi, a existat de la început în mine o atracţie inexplicabilă faţă de misterele Universului, o subtilă amplificare şi rafinare a sentimentului de apartenenţă la infinitate, una garantía de éxito más allá de la niebla . Iar sufletul plin de experiențele vieților trăite aprioric mi-a asigurat forţa de atracţie a universului fizic creat, care ţine la un loc toate formele de energie prin care au prins viață gândurile și sentimentele de superioritate. Aşa am ajuns să fiu mai mult decât cine am sperat vreodată să fiu.

Temelia credinţei necesară leadershipului de înalt nivel spiritual este esența unei vieți câștigată prin revelaţia unei schimbări definitorii în planul superior universal.

Trăirea credinţei vărsată într-un moment astral se referă la mâna nevăzută a destinului care m-a condus spre culmi măreţe, nu spre abisuri înfiorătoare, cu singura menţiune ca încă mai există provocări cărora va trebui să le fac faţă cu stoicism, atunci când va veni vremea. De exemplu, va trebui să-mi obişnuiesc spiritul cu trecerea spre cele nemuritoare, la care au acces doar întruchipările perfecţiunii.

Trăirile unui artist fascinat de minuţiozitatea pasiunii lui

Învaţă să priveşti lumea prin intermediul a ceea ce ai în interiorul tău, pentru că numai astfel poţi vedea realitatea propriei viziuni asupra lumii, în esenţa ei.

Trandafirul. Un etern model de sensibilitate, un mediatore tra il regno celeste e il mondo terreno . În atitudinea şi pe figura lui e linişte şi graţie, o dovadă de claritate în adaptarea vederii de la lumină la întuneric, respirând un aer de străveche nobleţe, de sinceritate, ca şi când ar trebui să-şi revadă trecutul în prezentul unei istorii care nu trebuie lăsată să se repete, ci doar împărtăşită prin puterea magică a artei.

Viaţa lui este povestea unei lumi făcută să trăiască discret, prin stil, sottigliezza estetica , care încetul cu încetul se stinge pentru a începe o alta, la fel de sugestivă, ai cărei profeţi nu sunt întotdeauna de bună-credinţă artistică.

Vorbesc în primul rând despre trandafiri în tehnica folosirii pensulei pentru că ei mă învaţă să mă înţeleg pe mine însumi într-un mod în care n-am mai făcut-o niciodată, fără să simt nevoia presantă de a fi înţeles de ceilalţi oameni. Până la urmă, este şi aceasta o cale de revitalizare a sentimentului estetic faţă de natura care, în sfera propriei mele personalităţi menite să asigure caracterul neîntrerupt, connotativo e sacro , al artei moderne, se poate traduce prin sporirea interesului faţă de reprezentările unei conştiinţe ce s-a desprins din frământările epocii în care trăieşte.

Nu-mi pot ascunde un început de zâmbet când mă gândesc la faptul că tot ce-am izbutit să recuperez din înalta tensiune a trăirii unui moment de maximă sensibilitate, prin decupajul unei imagini sublime dintr-un decor perfect curat şi lustruit cu nevoia de a vorbi despre mine însumi, o configuraţie pură, spontană, ce evocă fizionomia unui lucru capabil să simbolizeze energia radiantă a unui artist plin de vervă, are ca şi corespondent nevoia de comunicare a unui conţinut estetic foarte accesibil, care încântă privirea, mintea şi sufletul privitorului.

Leadership: Poţi să proiectezi claritatea unei imagini către formularea unui punct de vedere artistic asupra lumii care te înconjoară, în legătură cu compoziţia unei estetici care dă naştere unui sentiment de catharsis particular?

O parte din viaţa trandafirului o dedic pasiunii de a trăi plenar în bucurie, comparabilă cu o reflexie a stării mele lăuntrice într-un univers mai simplu, liniştit şi profund, la care doar puţini au acces. Ca şi când, împreună, am forma o fiinţă cu o puritate de factură aparte. Aşadar, s-ar spune că lumea mea este o reflexie a experienţelor de viaţă trăite sub egida unei activităţi artistice susţinută de o accentuată conştiinţă a fragilităţii, sub egida unei maniere de abordare vii, inconfundabile, a ceea ce înseamnă "cea mai veche operă figurativă cunoscută".

Dar, în acelaşi timp, arta de a prelungi însemnătatea trandafirului, de a lămuri semnificaţia deosebit de profundă a unei aşteptări care îi marchează existenţa, mă face să intru în pielea Mirandei Grey, personajul din „Colecţionarul" lui John Fowles, care e prinsă în „opera" unui artist al entomologiei:

conştientă că trebuie să fiu modelul unei arte noi din care răzbate o stare de ingenuitate, de abandonare a oricărui eșafodaj artistic.”

Trandafirul creează condiţiile pentru aprofundarea unei arte a modificării intime a fiinţei, ca extensie reflectată a sinelui în adevărata lumină a unei prezenţe tulburătoare şi misterioase, dominând destinele tuturor celor care tânjesc după artă, după simbolistică, după senzaţii tari. I-am zâmbit, aşa cum îi zâmbesc unui artist care nu cunoaşte frontiere, dându-mi toată silinţa să pretind că îmi place totul la el. N-a dat niciun semn că ar putea să dispară din actualitatea avangardiştilor în viitorul apropiat.

Simpla lui prezenţă acţionează imediat asupra mea liniştitor şi pozitiv, precum puritatea pe care o poți găsi în tratarea unui subiect sensibil, la puterea interioară pe care ți-o dă contactul cu natura.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi formezi o viziune abordabilă prin intermediul unei experienţe de viaţă între ceva care se simte veşnic şi un moment efemer, fără să te desprinzi de obiectul creaţiei tale?

Trandafirul. Îl descriu ca pe tâlcul unei arte pe cale de dispariţie în societatea actuală: arta de a înnobila o cultură a prezentului prin negocierea cu istoria, şi de a crea sentimentul de stabilitate, conexiune spirituală, apartenenţă la un scop mai înalt, în căutarea unei frumuseţi ambientale atemporale. Îl simt mirosul îmbietor, îi simt emoţia, un elemento importante nell'esperienza artistica , situându-şi suflul de popularitate la nivelul senzaţiilor şi instinctelor pe care un colorist de mare virtuozitate, un artist prins în mrejele unei pasiuni copleşitoare, niciodată nu le poate reprima. Exact ca la vederea unei persoane deosebit de atractive.

A face din artă un fel de desfătare estetică înseamnă să modelezi o realitate mai puţin cunoscută prin intermediul formei, culorii şi mişcării pe care o descrie gingăşia unei flori, a unui fluture, a unei frumuseţi care învinge orice sentiment de răutate. Iată-mă, aşadar, interpretând rolul unui pictor care controlează culoarea cea mai veselă prin spirit şi raţiune pentru a surprinde momentul în care trandafirul îşi croieşte propriul drum, graţios şi nobil, elegant şi romantic ca o poezie adresată aştrilor, spre o recunoaştere de excepţie atribuită numai unei fiinţe perfecte.

Ce-i spunea Miranda Grey colecţionarului de fluturi rămâne, în întreaga strălucire a trandafirilor, o experienţă plină de învăţăminte şi edificatoare: „Când desenezi un obiect, îl vezi cum prinde viaţă, iar când îl fotografiezi moare.”

Valoarea reală a unei picturi este o recunoaştere a trandafirului în ipostaza de fiinţă plină de farmec care străluceşte de viaţă, dincolo de aspect şi culoare, cu condiţia de a nu fi imortalizată într-un moment efemer.

O gamă diversă de sentimente de la durere la mângâiere, de la acceptare la contestare şi apoi din nou la recunoaştere, domină opera căreia artistul îşi consacră încă o pagină din cartea vieţii sale. Uimirea a tot ce înseamnă „suprarealul” devine o axă a cunoaşterii, mai mult o judecată clarvăzătoare decât o intuiţie lucidă, pe care eu mi-o asum ca pe o călătorie într-un univers creat de natură în mod armonios, dezvăluit prin simbol şi înfăţişat ca un personaj sensibil şi nemuritor.

Trăirile unui artist fascinat de minuţiozitatea pasiunii lui (trăiri precum liniştea sufletească, seninătatea, bucuria) sunt în strânsă legătură cu sentimentul de identificare cu o minune a naturii - să trăieşti cu ea ca şi când te-ai uita într-o oglindă care nu reflectă imagini, ci suprapune idealuri de frumuseţe peste fapte de viaţă, de cultură, de spiritualitate, de orientare artistică, totdeauna înviorătoare şi de lungă durată.

Pasiunea unui artist, fără a se înscrie totuși într-un curent de gândire sociologic, constă în descrierea nemărginită a unei imagini mai profunde, unei sincerităţi totale, parte din natură, parte din fiinţa umană, ascunse în dinamica vieţii. Minuţiozitatea lui, la o adică destul de pricepută în a alege cu discernământ fiecare părticică din întregul unei imagini, pe care de atâtea ori o poate modifica prin schimbarea filtrului de culoare, a fundalului și a obiectelor ataşate la ea, trebuie abordată ca o lege nescrisă a evoluției artistice. Pictorii sunt păstrătorii unei arte vechi, sacre, pe care puţini o pot cuprinde în adevărata ei profunzime.

Trandafirii au un background trăit la înălţime

Marea Știință este ceea ce spui unui trandafir, cu naturalețe, pentru ca el să se simtă înzestrat din belșug cu darul vorbirii.

Este simplu să vorbesc cu tine, la fel de simplu cum vorbesc cu mine, fără ca nimeni din jur să ne audă. Şi dacă aş şti să fiu mai simplu în exprimare, cu mai multă putere într-un scris fără varietate, atunci sigur mi-ai admira cuvintele pentru a lor simplitate. Adaug aici o lămurire: pentru mine tu ai însemnat o prietenie trăită la înălţimea augustă a veşniciei artei, ce lasă frâie libere tinereţii fără de vină, visului împlinit al unui artist plin de culoare.

În felul acesta, fie că mâna depărtează sau apropie un obiect, ochii îl văd mereu în aceeaşi lumină a unui arbust uşor de întreţinut, pe care dacă îl cuprinzi cu mintea, cu gândul, cu vocea, cu sufletul, te simţi purtat într-un tărâm de poveste în care verile durează decenii, deci unde spaţiul şi timpul dobândesc o logică proprie. Astfel a ajuns trandafirul să reprezinte o continuare a poveştii mele peste veacuri, dar şi primul pas al expunerii a ceea ce scriu.

Cât despre cele depărtate, nimic nu poate limita vederea celor apropiate. Trandafirul a apărut de nicăieri în viaţa mea, aşa cum o dorință apare dintr-un buchet de trandafiri ce te farmecă la prima vedere, sau poate dintr-o simplă luare în considerare a unui fenomen izolat, da un semplice punto di vista visivo , datorită căruia am învăţat că legătura între frumosul artei şi aşa-numitul frumos din natură înseamnă să distingi diferenţa dintre imaginea iniţială şi cea obţinută prin inspiraţie la fiecare pas.

Leadership: Creaţia ta exprimă acele lucruri sau idei care îţi vorbesc despre actul de percepţie al realităţii exterioare, susţinut de imaginea ca reprezentare a unui Eu în raport cu Celălalt?

Eu, cu mine şi cu trandafirul "Double Delight" formăm un lanţ al cărei verigă principală este reflectarea unei realităţi profunde într-o oglindă cu iluminare şi cu zoom, din care arta, exerciţiul spiritului, procedeele de schimbare a realităţii, sunt doar o reflecţie a unei stări interioare sau a unei situaţii de inspiraţie. Dar această impresie de autenticitate, că totul este ceva natural, mai măreţ decât măreţia însăşi, variază proporţional cu distanţa dintre mine şi mine, dintre ideal şi realitate, căci şi imaginaţia scade sau creşte în acelaşi proporţii.

Exact aşa. Conştiinţa de sine evadează în uitare şi în derizoriu în faţa unei Opere care te lasă cu gura căscată, dar care se regenerează necontenit în lumea spirituală prin întindere, prin materialitate şi prin contraste puternice de culoare. Mai exact, această Operă se remarcă prin materialitatea unei realități care îşi construiește sensul în afara sensului intrinsec al vieţii, din acea materie a cuvintelor care se află de aceeași origine cu forma unei creaţii particulare.

Şi iată de ce trandafirul este rezultatul cuvintelor mele, întru totul dedicate artei. Fiindcă datorită lui am zărit un spaţiu întins de la vedere la viziune, de la vedere la dorința de a atinge, de la contemplare la empatie. În el, în acest univers în miniatură, răzbate tot ceea ce este mai adevărat şi mai viu în fiinţa mea, mobilul săvârşirii unui act de frumos, în conexiune cu declanşarea unei interpretări imaginative a privitorului care ne surprinde pe amândoi cu o reacţie de tipul: "Look for those things that speak to your heart".

Leadership: Sursa creaţiei tale poate fi atașată cunoașterii unei teme care nu dispare în timp, ci evoluează odată cu unicitatea modelului tău de vizualizare a unei imagini de sine mai cuprinzătoare?

Uneori desluşesc în existenţa trandafirului, purtând zilnic un dialog cu el, parcă în virtutea unui „act conştient avangardist”, voinţa de cristalizare a unei concepţii de tipul Parexpriothyss conform căreia atenţia spiritului de artist nu trebuie îndreptată doar spre exersarea permanentă a atitudinilor de responsabilitate faţă de natură şi mediu. Ci, mai cu seamă, spre virtutea de a-şi îmbogăți viziunea prin permiterea accesului intelectual la mecanismele de funcționare a realității lăuntrice.

Din aceeaşi sferă a înţelesurilor atribuite realităţii pe care am descoperit-o cu ajutorul trandafirului, din care se alimentează Occulta Philosophia , face parte şi tema romanului “Piatra Filozofală”, scris de Marquerite Yourcenar, când la un moment dat întâlnim, în mod cu totul fugitiv, un personaj destul de interesant:

”Omul era de acord să i se deschidă în faţă o nemurire fericită sau nefericită de care era direct răspunzător, dar să nu fie înconjurat de pretutindeni de o durată veşnică din care făcea şi totodată nu făcea parte. Era eroarea lui Origene, veşnicia sufletului, fapt ce ducea la indignare pentru că reducea aventura imediată la nimic.”

Avem de-a face aici cu acea parte a sufletului care este, prin natura sa, atașată cunoașterii unei teme care nu dispare în timp, ci evoluează odată cu unicitatea modelului meu de vizualizare a unei imagini de mare artă. Este vorba, în special, de o imagine care surprinde durata unei stări de spirit emergente, niciodată destul de încordată, făcând trecerea de la virtual la real, iar această stare reuşeşte să se materializeze într-un act de percepţie a sentimentului de alteritate.

Alteritatea înseamnă să fii cineva cu care merită să te întâlneşti ori de câte ori îţi doreşti să fii singur, cu tine însuţi, într-un mod plin de originalitate (şi plin de semnificaţie).

Trandafirii au un background trăit la înălţime dacă stăm să ne gândim că fiecare artist are o lume proprie ce reprezintă valoarea cognitivă a unei creaţii menite să cuprindă, în orizontul ei de frumuseţe şi de semnificaţie, sufletul, să-l răscolească şi să-l încânte cu ecouri ce durează dincolo de hotarul clipei.

Remodelează-te creând un spaţiu fertil de auto-analizare, din care să reiasă diferenţa clară dintre ceea ce este autentic și ceea ce percepi în mod limitat.

Simţeam că doresc să trăiesc pentru o versiune nouă a fanteziei ce palpita în mine, ademenitoare prin tendinţa de a mă afla peste tot şi nicăieri, trăind experienţa unui personaj de care nu mă mai puteam desprinde. Un shadow, asemenea unui Casper - the Friendly Ghost - ce trebuie să distrugă spiritele bântuitoare ieșite din underground pentru a-i opri misiunea. Este o artă să ştii să te integrezi în decorul unui spațiu-timp circumscris realului nedeterminat, fantastic, prin promovarea unei cooperări mai apropiate între artist și creaţia lui.

Dorinţa aceasta veselă, fără seamăn, atrăgătoare prin suspansul şi misterul pe care doar poveştile ştiu să-l transmită, eu fiind în pielea celui de dincolo de graniţele acceptabilului, s-a trezit în mine când am intrat pentru prima oară în universul secret al unui thriller cu o complexitate epistemică ridicată, menţinut de greutatea ficţiunii de prima clasă.

O luasem înaintea tuturor faptelor mele, înaintea fiecărei dorinţe care mi se opunea, înaintea fiecărui vis, înaintea fiecărei clipe care-mi alimenta rostul vieţii. Prin intensitatea experienţei de prelucrare a invizibilului, dominând orice Ars combinatoria , favorizam actul de înființare al noului realism într-un mult aşteptat "episod următor".

Leadership: Consideri că recunoașterea progreselor tale în studierea underground-ului pe care îl dezvolţi ar putea fi subliniată mai clar prin introducerea unei perspective de finalizare al unei monitorizări din afară?

Imperioasa motivaţie de conştientizare a unor contexte de dispariţie din realitate şi integrare în decorul atipic al unui spațiu-timp, din alte unghiuri de abordare a complexei mele personalităţi, ar fi putut sa coloreze sentimentul că m-am descoperit într-un anumit sens: eu însumi eram creaţia mea.

Să ne amintim ce-i spunea chirurgul Lamartiniere regelui Louis al XV-lea, analizând bucuria şi suferinţa acestuia, încercând să-i găsească un remediu, un mijloc de apărare împotriva plictiselii:

- Sire, cumpăniţi bine la ce vă spun acum. A fost odată un rege foarte inteligent, pe nume Sardanapal, tot atât de inteligent ca şi Maiestatea Voastră, cu toate că a trăit cam cu vreo două mii opt sute de ani înaintea ei. I-a plăcut viaţa şi a avut grijă s-o folosească bine. Ştiu că a căutat amănunţit mijloacele de a exersa corpul şi spiritul la descoperirea plăcerilor celor mai puţin cunoscute. Ele au dus la un singur rezultat: transformarea totală.

Un singur fel de plăcere nu-l experimentase regele Sardanapal, şi l-a păstrat pentru la urmă: plăcerea de a arde pe rug împreună cu bogăţiile lui. Este şi asta un fel de dispariţie.

Underground-ul pe care îl dezvoltă un om este asemenea înfățișării unei scene din viaţa sa într-o reprezentare de ansamblu: mai întâi trebuie să potriveşti nuanţa popriei creaţii la o poveste de acţiune cu eroi de legendă, apoi trebuie să monitorizezi secvenţele principale şi elementele cheie prin prisma unei priviri secundare care percepe lucrurile din perspectivele cele mai neobişnuite.

Leadership: Poţi să-ți construieşti personalitatea sub formă de răspuns la întrebarea: „în ce fel te-ai surprins în propria ta creaţie"?

Misterul şi suspansul, dus până la cote extreme, creează sentimentul că te pierzi de tot într-o poveste interesantă, deconectându-te de lumea reală. Însă trebuie să cunoşti clar limitele până unde poate să se întindă misterul şi suspansul.

Leadershipul, conform zicalei " Niciun om nu a urmat cursurile artei de a trăi, până ce nu a fost ispitit de capriciile neînţelesurilor ei ", constă în îmbinarea, după posibilităţi, a acelor stiluri de gândire şi idei necesare pentru crearea unui spaţiu fertil de auto-analizare din care să reiasă diferenţa clară dintre ceea ce este autentic și ceea ce percepem în mod limitat.

Socrate spunea că secretul schimbării este de a-ți concentra toată energia nu asupra luptei cu ce e vechi, ci asupra construirii noului. Reformulând și completând, putem spune că leadershipul este un produs al backgroundului în care sunt încorporate toate încercările de a te regăsi în altcineva, cu scopul de a te respinge sau de a te accepta la aflarea necunoscutelor din ecuaţia noului.

Fiecare om îşi caută transformarea, într-un fel sau altul, şi o găseşte în altă parte decât unde şi-ar fi putut închipui. Pentru a vedea dintr-un loc ascuns animaţia tabloului numit viață, omul îşi construiește identitatea în cuprinsul unei lumi imaginare, desprinsă din filme sau din cărţi, ca remediu împotriva plictiselii de a se situa în perimetrul obişnuitului.

Deseori personalitatea unui lider se construieşte sub formă de răspuns la întrebarea: „ în ce fel te-ai surprins în propria creaţie? , conţinând o descriere a valorilor unei imagini-inversate a fiinţei sale, din care se poate naşte senzaţia de apartenență la un alt story, la un alt prezent și viitor, la un alt personaj.

Creaţia din care este alcătuită existenţa omului cere o concentrare a propriilor gânduri, intenții și senzații într-o direcţie întâmplătoare, dar unică prin expresivitatea cu care transmite o ştire de ultima oră, apreciată de „cititori".

Transformare Totală este consecinţa depăşirii graniţelor acceptabilului, prin „dispariţia" si plasarea ta într-un real ce poate reprezenta promisiunea unui alt soi de revedere cu tine însuţi.

Întotdeauna în demersurile propriilor tale căutări şi formări vei fi condus de vectorul „shadow" al personajului de care nu te mai poţi desprinde.

Transformarea energiilor statice în dinamism artistic

Adevărata autonomie se exprimă atunci când refuzi confortul artificial și rămâi fidel valorilor tale, demonstrându-ți puterea de a păstra o viață simplă și autentică, chiar și atunci când normele sociale sugerează altceva.

După ce Degas împlinise șaptezeci de ani, doctorul s-a gândit că aerul din atelier nu-i pria.

— Trebuie să vă impuneți să ieșiți la aer, și pe urmă are să vă și distreze.

— Bine, dragă, da' dacă pe mine mă plictisește să mă distrez?

Dar n-avea importanță, dacă așa spuneau doctorii! Degas s-a hotărât să ia câteodată aer; ceea ce numea el «să ia aer» era să se urce în omnibusul cel mai apropiat și, când ajungea la cap de linie, să se urce în alt omnibus și pe urmă în al treilea.

Puteți să vă închipuiți, cunoscută fiind antipatia lui Degas pentru flori, în ce măsură plimbările astea în omnibus îi erau nesuferite duminica vara, ținând seamă de «furia» cu care parizienii aduc buchete de flori de la țară. În zilele acelea Degas își făcea «promenada igienică» printre maldăre de liliac și de trandafiri.

Îmi spunea într-o zi ce plăcere-i făcuse o plimbare la țară, într-o mașină deschisă; ce aer curat respiri, domnule Degas, nu m-am putut opri să-l întreb, de ce n-aveți mașină?

S-a uitat la mine cu o uimire în care se putea vedea un pic de supărare:

— Eu să-mi cumpăr mașină? Dumneata vrei să vezi un artist umblând în "echipaj"?...

Autenticitatea personală se manifestă prin abilitatea de a-ți menține preferințele și stilul de viață, chiar și în fața sfaturilor bine intenționate.

Uneori, ceea ce alții consideră recreere sau necesar pentru sănătate poate fi resimțit de un individ ca o obligație neplăcută, lipsită de sens personal, în funcție de propriile preferințe și percepții. Fiecare persoană are propria definiție a confortului și relaxării. Ceva impus din exterior poate părea lipsit de sens pentru cineva care nu împărtășește aceeași viziune.

Reacțiile de substituție în atelierul unui artist sunt procese fundamentale în chimia creației, deoarece permit transformarea energiilor statice în dinamism artistic. În aceste reacții spontane sau mai curând deliberate, un dram de plictiseală dintr-o zi de rutină este înlocuit cu o scânteie de inspirație, facilitând astfel procesul creativ. Este bine să lași lucrul deoparte și să te odihnești, pentru ca sănătatea să nu fie afectată. Programul de odihnă și natura promenadei, ca un fel de măsuri igienice finale, depind de mai mulți factori, inclusiv de structura organismului pe care îl are artistul. Substituția aerului proaspăt, de exemplu, implică inhalarea de substanțe bogate în energie asupra unui centru de letargie artistică.

Aceste reacții pot dezvolta stări de distracție sau de plictiseală, în funcție de condițiile de reacție și de natura mediului - fie ea naturală sau mașină personală. Aerul curat sau mirosul de flori pot cataliza sau inhiba procesul de creație, în funcție de afinitatea artistului pentru elementele naturii. Plimbările, deși uneori nesuferite din cauza saturației de zgomot social, sunt esențiale pentru menținerea echilibrului chimic al creației, fiindcă sănătatea mentală și fizică a artistului este crucială.

Refuzul conformității poate fi o expresie a integrității artistice, așa cum Degas a respins ideea de a avea o mașină pentru a-și păstra identitatea.

Ceva impus din exterior poate părea lipsit de sens pentru cineva care nu împărtășește aceeași viziune cu tine. Ideea este că menținerea valorilor personale în fața presiunilor externe poate duce la experiențe unice și autentice, chiar și în situații aparent banale. Esența leadershipului constă în a găsi echilibrul între nevoile personale și așteptările altora, așa cum Degas a găsit o cale de a "lua aer" fără a-și compromite preferințele.

Să o spun altfel. Atelierul creativ, asemenea unei camere de ardere a inspirației, este locul unde artistul își injectează ideile și le aprinde cu pasiune. Procesul artistic începe în acest spațiu intim, unde doctorul imaginației prescrie aer proaspăt pentru a optimiza performanța creatoare. Expansiunea rapidă a gândurilor rezultate împinge artistul într-o promenadă igienică prin viața cotidiană, rotind arborele cotit al percepției sale unice.

Această mișcare de rotație a inspirației este apoi transmisă către diverse componente ale operei sale, permițând funcționarea artei în societate. Eficiența procesului creativ este crucială pentru performanța generală și consumul de energie artistică. Artiștii lucrează constant pentru a-și optimiza designul interior și funcționarea, îmbunătățind comprimarea emoțiilor, distribuția ideilor și controlul plictisului. Fie că folosesc omnibusul urban sau o mașină a imaginației, ei caută să transforme combustibilul experienței în energia mecanică a creației, chiar dacă uneori găsesc nesuferite convențiile sociale, precum obsesia pentru flori în plimbările de duminică.

Leadershipul implică uneori să mergi împotriva curentului, să refuzi conformitatea, precum Degas care a respins ideea de a avea o mașină pentru a-și păstra identitatea de artist.

Transformarea energiilor statice în dinamism artistic este posibilă atunci când îți permiți să explorezi libertatea creativă, deoarece doar astfel poți accesa surse noi de inspirație într-un mod profund și personal. Spun asta deoarece actul creativ nu vine doar din tehnică, ci și din capacitatea de a canaliza energia interioară într-o formă de expresie autentică, care transcende limitele convenționale.

Influența unei opere de artă este evidentă în modul în care transformă percepția spectatorului asupra realității înconjurătoare.

Contactul cu filmul expresionist german era prezentat frecvent la Moscova. Regizorul rus, Serghei Eisenstein vede aceste filme şi este cu neputinţă să nu le fi urmărit cu pasiune. Cu atât mai mult cu cât, ca mijloace de expresie, întâlnea aici adeseori ceea ce încercase rudimentar în teatru.

Mai târziu avea să declare că filmul expresionist abia a lăsat urme în arta tinerilor cineaşti sovietici, deci şi în a sa. Dar adăugă îndată, poate fără a-şi da seama de legătura ce se poate face, că nici condiţiile tehnice moscovite nu permiteau realizarea acestor "fantasmagorii". Or, influenţa expresionistă asupra operei lui Eisenstein este evidentă. Suntem convinşi că filmele germane văzute de el în acea epocă au avut un rol definit în formarea sa cinematografică, chiar dacă mai târziu, dintr-un motiv sau altul, se va dezice de această influenţă.

Leadership: Poate puterea creaţiei tale să schimbe percepția spectatorilor asupra realității, încât să asigure coerența și impactul vizual dorit asupra unei arii mai largi de autonomie artistică?

Procesul de transformare a percepției spectatorului asupra realității prin arta cinematografică presupune o serie de etape artistice riguroase, menite să asigure calitatea operei finale. Influența filmului expresionist este esențială pentru a menține standardele de producție artistică. În fiecare fază a creației cinematografice, se utilizează tehnici avansate și proceduri bine stabilite. De la concepția inițială la filmare și până la editarea finală, fiecare pas este monitorizat și ajustat pentru a optimiza expresivitatea și a reduce incoerențele.

Filmele, ca opere de artă, au puterea de a influența profund percepția spectatorului asupra realității înconjurătoare. Influența tehnică și stilistică a expresionismului german, de exemplu, se manifestă prin utilizarea umbrelor, contrastelor puternice și a unghiurilor de cameră neobișnuite, toate contribuind la crearea unei atmosfere distincte. În acest context, chiar și în condiții tehnice limitate, geniul artistic găsește mereu o cale să se exprime și să influențeze generațiile viitoare.

În cele mai dure condiții, geniul artistic găsește mereu o cale să se exprime și să influențeze generațiile viitoare.

De asemenea, aceste etape artistice nu sunt diferite de rigorile unui proces de fabricație industrială, unde controlul calității și atenția la detalii sunt cruciale. În cinema, fiecare scenă și fiecare cadru sunt supuse unui control strict al calității pentru a asigura coerența narativă și impactul vizual dorit. Astfel, filmele devin nu doar opere de divertisment, ci și instrumente de transformare a percepției realității prin influențele lor tehnice și artistice. Aceasta demonstrează modul în care condițiile tehnice și influențele culturale contribuie la formarea viziunii artistice, la fel cum procesele industriale asigură calitatea și eficiența produselor finite.

Sensibilitatea artistică a unui regizor poate să amplifice vulnerabilitatea și conexiunea cu realitatea, revelând astfel o operă care transcende imediatul prin viziunea expresionistă.

Transformarea percepției prin arta regizorală reflectă modul în care experiențele vizuale și estetice pot redefini viziunea unei persoane asupra lumii, așa încât fiecare cadru să devină o poartă spre o nouă înțelegere a realității. Să nu uităm, de asemenea, că intuiția empatică a unui creator poate consolida capacitatea de înțelegere profundă și legătura cu circumstanțele autentice, dezvăluind astfel o abordare care depășește superficialul prin perspectiva să distinctă.

Transmutaţia elementelor şi a faptelor măreţe

Extinde-ţi parametrii minţii, căutând să atribui o semnificaţie integrală, complexă şi de acută sugestivitate descoperirilor tale.

Totul din real trebuia recoltat într-un recipient universal, conţinând un volum dintr-un larg ocean de magmă, într-un schimb de interacţiuni cuprinse în potenţialul forţei desfăşurate între ardere şi mistuire. Importantă era explozia produsă în urma erupţiei de foc pentru ca descoperirea ce urma să o fac să aibă configuraţia unei vieţi închinate artei, cu scopul atingerii unei măiestrii înţelese că o aspiraţie către victoria unui nou sistem de valori asupra nivelului de împlinire în viaţă.

Neîndoios, o ştiinţă viitoare va descoperi aceste relaţii necunoscute, între traseele de legătură ce stabilesc valoarea intensităţii radiaţiei de energie şi compoziţia chimică a materiei incandescente din care se creează arta transmutării elementelor nediferenţiate. Adică, puterea creatoare. Lumea va avea nevoie de un atlas al materiei compuse din substanţele volatile, sublimabile sau inflamabile, de o enciclopedie a structurii şi încărcăturii ei cu potenţial de acţiune, conducând spre acea tainică sursă a necuprinsului care face din ştiinţă o lucrare a inteligenţei superioare.

N-am uitat nicio clipă ce-i spunea Gargantua fiului său, în opera lui François Rabelais:

"Fiule, te-aș sfătui să folosești anii tinereții tale cu silința învățăturii cele mai alese, întărindu-ți fără încetare puterile minții și ale sufletului. Să nu rămână nicio cronică pe care să nu o știi pe de rost și să cercetezi cu de-amănuntul toate cele scrise în cosmografia învățaților care s-au îndeletnicit cu știința asta."

Leadership: Este oportună intervenţia ta în activitatea de creaţie prin care orice neînţeles se transformă în neînţelesuri şi mai mari, în sensul trasării unui nou drum de acces la tainele unei ştiinţe străvechi capabile să ofere noi perspective de interpretare a Marii Opere?

Neînţelesul este o surprindere în forma concretă a unei realităţi pricepută în mai multe secvenţe de timp, prin diferite operaţii unitare, numai de către artiştii care ştiu să descifreze o parte din misterele universului, traduse prin expresii sugestive, dar învelite cu înţelesuri multiple. Marea operă este arta de a trăi aceste înţelesuri din adâncul lucrurilor, ca pe un dar de la Dumnezeu, totodată ca pe un moment în care Dumnezeu se justifică pentru suferințele pe care le-a tolerat de la începutul lumii.

Amintiţi-vă ce spunea Heinrich Cornelius Agrippa: "Însuşi Iisus Hristos, cât timp a trăit pe Pământ, a vorbit în aşa fel încât numai cei mai apropiaţi discipoli au înţeles misterul cuvântului lui Dumnezeu, pe când ceilalţi au înţeles doar parabolele. Aşadar, nu se cade ca acele lucruri secrete, deţinute de puţini oameni înţelepţi şi transmise din gură în gură să fie scrise pentru oamenii de rând. De aceea vă rog să mă iertaţi dacă voi tăinui multe şi importante lucruri…"

Mi-e teamă că va trebui să punem la dispoziţia lumii, înverşunându-ne să născocim alte formule de extracţie a „soarelui negru" din minereurile de sulfuri, diferite sensuri care să dea naştere la noi logici şi raţiuni. Deci, haideţi să ne însuşim această capacitate de extracţie a informaţiei Beta care ne permite să orientăm toate resursele, disponibile doar prin cataliză şi transmutare, spre filozofia ştiinţei.

Leadership: Ştiinţa de care aparţine zona de interpretare a Marii Opere este inclusă în funcţia de acceptabilitate a ascunsului, în dorinţa deosebită de a-ţi afirma existenţa cugetătoare, plină diversitate şi însemnătate?

Ştiinţa, în faţa avântului ce aparţine unei puteri magice concentrate într-o singură secundă explozivă, alocând un procent din exploataţia a ceea ce există în natură, în stare liberă sau în combinaţii, se comportă deseori asemenea unei mingi de foc ce străbate cerul pentru câteva minute şi apoi se prăbuşeşte. Câţi vor putea să integreze cosmosul, ştiinţa, elementele şi toate fenomenele naturale, într-un demers artistic?

O persoană originală, care face combinaţii îndrăzneţe, respinge o mulţime de vizibilităţi fiindcă ele ar bruia raţionamentele acceptate unanim. Dar întotdeauna ia în calcul ascunsul din care emană tot ceea ce există în orice formă şi care în esenţa sa rămâne pretutindeni variabil.

Ascunsul este concepţia unei perfecţiuni care nu s-a întâlnit încă în experienţă, punând în dificultate mintea creativă care se tot zbate ca un fluture de noapte să intre într-o realitate pe care doar visul pare că o mai face suportabilă.

Cristofor Columb căuta o cale maritimă spre India, şi până la sfârşitul vieţii sale a fost convins că nu ajunsese pe noul continent, ci undeva în apropierea gurilor Gangelui. El n-a realizat niciodată importanţa unei descoperiri colosale, fiindcă ştiinţa lui nu era inclusă în funcţia de acceptabilitate a ascunsului - şi doar prin acest germinator se putea asigura crearea aşteptării şi a înţelegerii care completează acţiunea şi o perfecţionează.

Probabil filosofia marelui conquistador era implementată adânc într-o mentalitate care implică o anumită reticenţă în a accepta faptul că lucrurile ascunse sunt mai tari decât cele neascunse. El nu s-a debarasat de tendinţa de a crede în ceva aparent superior perspectivelor sale, nu s-a eliberat de acea autoritate a uzurii excesive stabilite de gradul de toleranţă la ceea ce îi convenea să înţeleagă.

Popularizarea ştiinţei se realizează prin accentuarea celei mai mici nuanţe afective şi cu caracter de introspecţie din spatele incomprehensibilităţii şi inefabilităţii misterului lui Dumnezeu.

Ştiţi de ce un magician îşi primeşte întotdeauna binemeritatele aplauze? Fiindcă punctul culminant al spectacolului îl constituie o iluzie, un efect halucinant, o perfecțiune care pune în dificultate mintea spectatorului. Nu ştii cum s-a făcut trucul, nu ştii cum se aplică, nu ştii cum funcţionează, nu-l poţi copia. Dar efectul lui ia altitudine şi îţi intensifică privirea, starea pozitivă, dorinţa de a descifra mecanismul gândirii din spatele aşezării lucrurilor, oferindu-ţi impresia că trăieşti o altă realitate, într-o fază avansată de structurare simbolică, ca într-o conversație despre fizică avansată.

Practic el nu a adâncit un mister care se dezvăluie pe bucăţi, întotdeauna acolo unde e bezna mai adâncă, fapt care demonstrează legăturile sale cu o realitate experimentată ca efect secundar. El nu a înţeles semnificaţia şi unicitatea descoperirii, fiindcă pentru el noţiunea de „necuprins” nu era definită ca oportunitate de trecere la un alt nivel de cunoaştere. Călătoria lui nereprezentând altceva decât un mijloc de atingere a unui obiectiv major, însă fără a-i conferi un plus de sugestivitate, autenticitate şi relevanţă.

Încrezându-se doar în orizontul său temporar definit, el nu a atribuit sensul şi semnificaţia care trebuie unui nou început, unei noi poziţionări, unui anumit set-up. Sensul pe care îl acorzi realităţii este direct proporţional cu valoarea pe care o acorzi descoperirilor tale. Iei în calcul ascunsul din care emană tot ceea ce există în orice formă şi care în esenţa sa rămâne pretutindeni variabil?

Columb a dat dovadă de un leadership care nu îşi întinde aria de acţiune asupra întregului ce adăposteşte şi „ascunsul", nu doar cunoscutul. El nu a fost alimentat cu acea ştiinţă prin care se descoperă relaţiile între necunoscutele care pot fi exploatate şi transformate în poveşti de succes, în comori de mare preţ, într-un instrument de evaluare a însemnătăţii actului de descoperire.

El s-a mărginit la a semnala doar existenţa unei zone geografice, dar nu a fost susţinut de existenţa unei anumite înţelegeri care să-i susţină cauza, efectele descoperirii.

Evoluţia lucrurilor este parcă menită să dovedească, până la cea mai mică nuanţă, în ansamblul fenomenelor de lungă durată, că nimic nu rămâne ascuns, şi că totul este rezultatul unei revelaţii câştigată prin aşteptarea ce o suscită însăşi călătoria spre bucuria descoperirii.

Transmutaţia elementelor şi a faptelor măreţe au ca principal punct comun determinarea „ascunsului" şi adâncirea a ceea ce doar se crede, dar nu se ştie cu certitudine. Mare dreptate avea scriitorul Daniel R Castro când spunea: "oamenii au tendinţa de a vedea numai lucrul asupra căruia se concentrează, nu ceea ce se află acolo în realitate".

Ascunsul poate fi determinat numai prin dimensiunile şi semnificaţiile pe care le poartă. Iar faptele măreţe se pot transforma într-o mare lecţie de leadership dacă le vezi ca tendinţă de a exprima ceea ce se omite.

Trebuie să ai un haos în tine pentru a da naștere unei stele

Idealul de împlinire liberă constă în a deveni parte a unui tot mai mare, în a canaliza energia colectivă și individuală într-un mod care contopește eforturile cu natura.

În labirintul verde al înălțimilor, unde natura sălbatică și cerul albastru se contopesc într-o "Xenthoria Ulmivent", un fel de taină a vieții, sora mea, Oana Fântânaru, își țese propriul parcurs de curaj, la semimaratonul "Ciucaș Trail". Cărările sinuoase ale muntelui, toate acele răscruci abrupte și ascunzișuri misterioase, nu sunt doar trasee greu de parcurs, ci portaluri către dimensiuni necunoscute ale propriei ființe, unde fiecare cărare devine o pagină din cartea vieții, scrisă cu sudoare și determinare. În fond, provocările naturii dezvăluie profunzimi nebănuite ale spiritului de alergător, transformând fiecare pas într-o călătorie de autodescoperire.

În timpul alergării montane, fiecare pas devine o forță universală a procesului de auto-descoperire, iar fiecare vârf cucerit devine o treaptă spre iluminare. În acel cadru competițional, o vedeam pe sora mea cum înaintează cu pași repezi. Oana era artistul căruia muntele îi oferea inspirație și provocare, iar eu eram privitorul care îi admiram tabloul vieții, martor al creației sale. Era ca și când muntele însuși respira odată cu ea, fiecare stâncă și fiecare copac deveneau martori tăcuți ai transformării sale interioare. De parcă gravitația însăși își pierdea puterea în fața voinței sale de fier, iar aerul rarefiat al înălțimilor devenea un elixir al transcendenței. Mai ales arta, adevărata putere de expresie a Oanei, se manifesta printr-o mișcare grațioasă și determinată.

Ochii se pierd în verdele nesfârșit al naturii, descoperind adâncimi ale sinelui. O priveam pe Oana cum aleargă, atât de mult îi simțeam determinarea și energia. Cu siguranță, contopirea omului cu natura și alinierea acțiunilor individuale în fluxul curgător al acesteia reprezintă esența unei spiritualități bine definite, capabilă să creeze o imagine vibrantă, ca o pânză în care fiecare tușă se integrează perfect într-un tablou mai vast. Era ca și cum alergarea ei ar fi devenit o notă într-o simfonie cosmică, iar respirația o pulsație care se îmbina cu vântul și cu bătăile inimii Pământului, oferind spectacolul unei arte vivante și autentice.

Leadership: Armonia dintre tine și natură poate să creeze o imagine vibrantă, unde fiecare "intensitate" a trăirii se îmbină perfect cu elementele naturii, construind o artă vie și autentică?

Nu doar că aleargă între vârfuri și văi, dar se și "adâncește" în ele, asemenea unui căutător al înțelepciunii ascunse, care găsește lecții în fiecare piatră, în fiecare colț de pădure, dincolo de orice aparență superficială. Întotdeauna, Oana își ține sub observație propriile limite la concursuri, de parcă ar privi un vast teritoriu neexplorat, analizând fiecare mișcare nu doar cu ochiul critic, ci cu sufletul căutător. Ochii care scrutează potecile abrupte devin martorii unui proces de autoexplorare, în care fiecare dificultate se relevă ca o nouă perspectivă asupra sinelui.

Am înțeles. Știu asta foarte bine. Pentru Oana, fiecare competiție devine o "Epedysasis Harrexhium", o chemare eternă a depășirii de sine pe firul de pasiune intensă a unei arte care traduce experiențele în mișcare, prin intermediul corpului și al minții, reușind să comunice emoții universale. Mai e ceva. Cronometrul nu măsoară doar timpul, ci și evoluția spiritului ei, fiecare secundă fiind o pensulă pe pânza existenței, pictând un tablou al devenirii umane demn de "Țipătul" lui Edvard Munch, unde timpul se topește și realitatea se îndoaie sub greutatea voinței pure. Întâlnind drumuri neexplorate, ochii Oanei reflectă curajul ascuns în ea, pe când fiecare bătaie a inimii pulsează din chimia unei determinări absolute, completând tabloul unui suflet neînfricat.

"El camino hacia la cumbre es el camino hacia uno mismo," șoptea parcă vântul printre crengile brazilor, în timp ce Oana își croia drum prin propriul labirint interior. În acest context, intervin cuvintele lui Friedrich Nietzsche: "Trebuie să ai un haos în tine pentru a da naștere unei stele." Ce se zbate în inima ei știe doar ea, dar ceva, în timpul alergării, este evidențiat subtil, corpul îi trădează fiecare bătaie de voință, iar gândurile ei fiind niște curenți nevăzuți care o împing mai departe, își croiesc un drum către victorie.

Vederea unui nou orizont trezește în noi dorința de a merge mai departe, în timp ce fiecare obstacol parcurs o aduce mai aproape de noi înșine.

Leadership: Viziunea ta inspirată de natură presupune capacitatea de a-ți alinia acțiunile cu fluxul natural de efort, creând o artă autentică în călătoria ta spre auto-descoperire?

O artă autentică spre auto-descoperire reprezintă capacitatea de a te confrunta cu propriile limite. O priveam cum aleargă, și aleargă, fără să se oprească nicio clipă, nici măcar la punctele de hidratare. De ce oare? Poate dialogul cu ea însăși, acel monolog interior din timpul efortului intens, nu îi cerea nimic mai mult decât să continue, să nu se oprească. În mintea ei, poate, se formau simboluri ale unei călătorii mistice, pe care conștiința, mijlocul unic de înțelegere, făcea trimitere spre auto-descoperire. Totuși, ceva în ea părea să vorbească cu o determinare neclintită:

- Am senzația că drumul spre vârf nu este altceva decât o călătorie spre esența mea, un urcuș prin umbrele propriilor mele temeri și dorințe, ca punct de pornire a unei vaste experiențe de auto-descoperire. Vântul îmi vorbește în șoapte, mă cheamă spre înălțimi, iar fiecare pas, fiecare răsuflare, îmi dezvăluie o fărâmă din acel haos interior neîmblânzit, haos care, deși mă sfâșie uneori, poartă în el promisiunea unei stele. Corpul meu trădează fiecare efort, fiecare bătălie dusă cu sinele, iar acești curenți nevăzuți de gânduri mă împing mai departe, transformând încercarea în creație, haosul în lumină.

Această pasiune care strălucește ca o stea nestinsă îi dă surorii mele puterea să continue mereu, indiferent de obstacolele ce apar pe parcurs. Întotdeauna munții și dealurile sunt precum "strigătele ancestrale" care o cheamă, o ispită căreia nu îi poate rezista, iar răspunsul ei este o odă cântată pe ritm de pași grăbiți, unde fiecare urcare devine un omagiu adus propriei sale perseverențe. Asemenea filosofului german care căuta supraomul în înălțimile munților, Oana descoperă în fiecare cursă montană o oportunitate de a-și depăși limitele umane, transformând haosul interior într-o stea a performanței atletice.

Iar artisticul, eleganța ritmică a mișcărilor, se vede în coregrafia spontană a urcușurilor și coborâșurilor, în felul în care corpul se adaptează și se contopește cu terenul accidentat.

Marea capodoperă a artei redă imaginea omului în natură atunci când energia și determinarea lui se manifestă în acțiuni care devin parte integrantă dintr-un tablou mai mare.

Trebuie să ai un haos în tine pentru a da naștere unei stele ca să strălucești, dincolo de limitele proprii, încât să atingi măreția. Spun asta deoarece, prin comparație cu arta, alergatul creează stele, formând un tablou al puterii interioare, tot așa cum pictorul își proiectează viziunea pe pânză.

Trecerea progresivă de la static la dinamic

On Martie 05, 2009

Promovează-ţi valorile personale autentice ca să fie vizibilă construcţia definitivă a modelului tău de leadership.

Dintotdeauna mi-a plăcut seria de filme al cărui personaj este „Zorro", singur, izolat, rebel. În „ The legend of Zorro (2005) ", soţia contelui Alejandro de la Vega, alias Zorro, este răpită şi obligată sub presiunea ameninţărilor să colaboreze, în calitate de spion, cu guvernul Statelor Unite ale Americii.

Stăpânit de groaza cea mai adâncă, deznădăjduit de ideea aceea înspăimântătoare, că viaţa soţiei lui este în mare pericol, Alejandro de la Vega, alias Zorro, deghizat astfel ca să nu se compromită, cu masca ce-i ascundea identitatea, porneşte cu toată inima şi cu mult curaj pe urmele conspiratorilor cu scopul de a o salva - aidoma unui luptător neînfricat care e ferm convins că poate răzbi în faţa unei provocări nemaivăzute, Cu al său spirit cuprinzător, limpede şi pătrunzător, cu zelul său neobosit şi plin de viaţă, el se avântă, nu orbeşte, ci cu chibzuinţă pe căi întortocheate, neaşteptate şi necunoscute, pentru de a-l deconspira pe vinovatul cel mai de temut, cel mai înverşunat şi mai hain dintre duşmanii săi: contele Armand, noul iubit al Elenei, al soţiei lui.

Armand, dibaci ca o vulpe care intuieşte ce capcană i-a întins vânătorul, ştie cum să-l fenteze pe Zorro şi, ferindu-se de justiţie, reuşeşte să-şi asigure reuşita prin combinaţii iscusite. Dar Zorro, acest om neobişnuit care ghiceşte totul, nu se lasă mai prejos ci, mergând pe firul evenimentelor, concentrându-şi întreaga pricepere, putere şi inteligenţă, reuşeşte printr-un plan iscusit să anihileze complotul. Păstrându-şi hotărârea până la capăt, dar punându-şi în pericol atât propria viaţă cât şi pe cea a soţiei şi a copilului său, el reuşeşte în final, dar numai printr-o minune, să-şi atingă ţelurile.

Leadership: Poţi să te afirmi ca o unitate de decizie şi acţiune capabilă să schimbe cursul evenimentelor în nişte împrejurări în care o persoană vătămată nu are posibilitatea să perceapă vizual agentul cauzal al unei intervenţii salvatoare?

Reţine ce îţi spun acum. Nu spectacolul pe care îl face Zorro este esenţial la el, ci psihologia lui, care apare mai clară tocmai în momentele când se dedică unui scop eroic. Meritul lui cel mai mare este că întotdeauna a sesizat primul inadvertenţă inadmisibilă dintre vorbe şi faptele neetice, care contraveneau oricăror norme prevăzute de lege. Obsesia aceasta, continuu latentă, de a-şi ascunde identitatea şi de a se pune în valoare dând curs chemării interioare de a se ridica la înălţimea idealurilor sale înalte devenea din ce în ce mai acută în cele mai neaşteptate momente, exact atunci când oamenii aveau mai multă nevoie de ajutor.

Zorro apare întotdeauna ca o unitate de decizie şi acţiune. El îşi găseşte resursele necesare menţinerii şi continuării procesului de transformare al leadershipului său personal dând curs puternicului simţământ de înalt respect şi de cea mai înaltă consideraţie pentru fiinţa umană. Zorro stabilea mai întâi ce vroiau oamenii cel mai mult, apoi îşi punea la bătaie abilitatea de a se impune în mod direct în orice situaţie.

Rezultatele excelente pot fi uşor obţinute atunci când unitatea de baza a leadershipului pe care îl practici este bine stabilită şi foarte trainică. Aceasta unitate de bază implică abilitatea ta de a decide faptul că o anumită situaţie se afla în atenţia ta şi sub controlul tău, dezvoltând cea mai buna strategie de realizare a scopurilor propuse, asumându-ţi răspunderea pentru orice eşec.

Leadership: Îndeplineşti condiţiile unei imagini de sine pozitive care permite o evaluare cauzală din preajma realităţii pe care o ţi-o impui ca verdict al judecăţii propriei conştiinţe, fără ca ea să se suprapună cu spaţiul de manevră al sensibilităţii tale?

Aşa cum rinichiul are un rol deosebit de important în reglarea umorală a tensiunii, tot aşa abilitatea ta de a te integra în viaţa celorlalţi, transmiţându-le propriile sentimente și starea de spirit, are un rol important în reglarea şi bună desfăşurare a activităţilor tale. Este adânc înrădăcinată concepţia că formă de manifestare a fiinţei care ia progresiv cunoştinţă de ea însăşi nu poate să fie decât o unitate închisă, aşa cum ne demonstrează acea realitate acceptată şi trăită printr-un amestec de constrângere afectivă sau morală.

Bineînţeles că, înainte de a analiza starea de spirit a unui "salvator", trebuie să analizăm starea de spirit a celui care este prins în capcana realităţii unui sine afectat, sensibil la context, cum era Elena din film. Conţinutul ei sufletesc se raporta la nişte împrejurări neprielnice pe care nimeni nu le elucidase, iar tendinţa ei spirituală era să redefinească spațiul propriei sensibilităţi, iar privitorul care ar fi încercat să pătrundă în ansamblurile vibrante ale acestui spaţiu nu ar fi ştiut cu siguranță unde exact se află.

A nu te implica în acţiuni menite să-ţi demonstreze responsabilitatea şi să-ţi pună în valoare aptitudinile e ca şi cum ai locui într-o cameră întunecoasă din care, aparent, nu poţi ieşi. Vestea bună e că poţi programa cantitatea de lumină care să pătrundă în casă prin transformarea ta în ceva mai bun, eliberându-ţi resursele interioare pentru exteriorizarea şi înţelegerea intenţiilor personale. Intensitatea cu care te implici în desfăşurarea activităţilor tale depinde de cantitatea de „lumină” cu care îţi alimentezi leadershipul – prin configurarea adecvată a potenţialului tău şi a motivaţiilor personale, şi de gradul de promptitudine a "activării" emoţiilor tale.

Leadershipul are ca determinant principal o formă de manifestare a fiinţei care ia progresiv cunoştinţă de ea însăşi, în lumina unei realităţi care nu a fost descifrată pe deplin în toate consecinţele ei.

Trecerea progresivă de la static la dinamic are rolul de a semnifica „deşteptarea” ta prin cultivarea acelui sentiment de apartenenţă la comunitate, sau la un grup de oameni, şi prin alinierea ta la aşteptările şi nevoie lor.

Întotdeauna pentru a realiza ceva măreţ, şi pentru a menţine bunele relaţii cu ceilalţi oameni, este necesară o autoritate supremă, irezistibilă, absolută. Această autoritate trebuie să întrunească următoarele calităţi: supremaţie, înţelepciune, bunătate şi forţă. Aceeaşi autoritate de care întotdeauna a dispus Zorro. El şi-a promovat valorile personale autentice (precum onestitatea, integritatea, respectul, comunicarea sau compasiunea), conturând astfel construcţia definitivă a modelului său de leadership.

Concluzia: Trecerea de la static la dinamic înseamnă a părăsi acea stare de expectativă (chiar dacă vorbele abundă) la acţiune, la o acţiune motivată de sentimente de dreptate şi justiţie în favoarea celor care sunt în suferinţă.

Valoarea ta sporeşte dacă o faci fără ostentaţie şi fără să aştepţi recunoştinţa veşnică a oamenilor. Faptele, şi nu vorbele, sunt cele care contează. Ele sunt cele care exprimă valorile tale personale.

Trei temeri, trei bucurii

Ridică-te deasupra propriilor tale slăbiciuni, fără să afectezi esenţa bine conturată a leadershipului tău.

Lordul Glenarvan împreună cu micul său echipaj din care făceau parte şi Mary si Robert Grant, s-au avântat în necunoscut cu gândul de a da de urma căpitanului Grant. Luni de zile au străbătut mări şi oceane, fără niciun rezultat. Ajungând pe ţărmurile Australiei, s-au împotmolit de-a binelea în căutări, mai ales că vasul lor, Duncan , fusese avariat. Se simţeau ca nişte excursionişti părăsiţi de călăuză pe o insulă pustie.

Cu totul întâmplător, în căutările lor pe insulă l-au descoperit pe scoţianul Ayron, unul dintre naufragiaţii de pe vasul Britannia , al cărui căpitan era Harry Grant. Lordul Glenarvan, care era iniţiatorul expediţiei de căutare, şi totodată conducătorul întregului echipaj, conştient că drumurile li s-au înfundat şi că în acel moment erudiţia lui era zadarnică, a făcut apel la părerea lui Ayron, cerându-i sfatul, şi rugându-l să-i conducă prin pădurile provinciei Victoria până la coasta orientală. Ayron a acceptat:

- Vă mulţumesc, milord, pentru încrederea pe care mi-aţi acordat-o şi nădăjduiesc să fiu demn de ea. Cunosc întrucâtva această ţară, şi vă voi fi de folos.

Leadership: Situaţiile pe care le traversezi prin accesarea unui rol de ghidare modifică treptat şi fundamental ceea ce se întâmplă cu imaginea pe care o descoperă privirea înălţată spre un punct invizibil?

Când se schimbă muzica, se schimbă şi dansul. Nimic nu este mai de invidiat decât destinul acelor eroi care au realizat lucruri mari. Dar important este cel care i-a condus spre reuşită. Ayron, care s-a impus încă de la început printr-o personalitate bine conturată, a devenit singura garanţie pentru salvarea lui Harry Grant. Prezenţa lui a fost o forţă de neînvins. Energia morală şi fizică a micului echipaj condus de Lordul Glenarvan, ajunsă la intensitate maximă, ar fi cedat dacă n-ar fi apărut în peisaj salvatorul lor - care le-a prevăzut o viitoare îndeplinire a scopurilor propuse, strecurând astfel speranţa în sufletul lor.

Principala provocare căreia trebuie să-i facă faţă liderul o constituie rezultatele dezamăgitoare. Aruncaţi pe ţărmurile Australiei, Lordul Glenarvan, pe ale cărui cunoştinţe de ghid s-a sprijinit întreg echipajul în fiecare clipă a călătoriei, ajunsese în momentul în care nu mai avea nicio putere. Era momentul când, pentru prima data forţele îl părăsiseră şi nu mai avea aceeaşi încredere în sine. Pentru prima oară a împărtăşit echipajului temerile sale. Căci vasul lor Duncan era avariat, iar ei nu aveau nicio hartă pe care să se bazeze pe pământul australian. Pe lângă asta, nu înaintaseră deloc în căutările lor pentru găsirea căpitanului Grant.

Un punct invizibil este o probă de apreciere a distanţei pe care o străbaţi fără ţintă precisă, pe fondul unor provocări care îţi testează limitele abilităţilor de a gestiona anumite situaţii din care se poate întâmpla să nu existe ieşire. În leadership acest lucru se poate traduce prin următoarea sintagmă: omul nu-şi mai aparţine lui, ci evenimentelor de care nu se consideră vinovat.

Leadership: Te înscrii în planul tendinţei de a fi autosuficient în fazele realităţii pe care o explorezi?

A te înscrie în planul tendinţei de a fi autosuficient în fazele realităţii pe care o explorezi, înseamnă să-ţi conştientizezi condiţia efemeră de lider şi să încerci să te poziţionezi pe o altă poziţie de forţă, care include o anumită comprehensiúne de sine. Încearcă să-ţi cunoşti limitele implicării tale într-un proiect de mare anvergură, înainte să-ţi dezvolţi o perspectivă obiectivă asupra rolului pe care îl ai de jucat în dinamica evenimentelor.

Ştiinţa de a te exercita ca lider, alături de ştiinţa de a te păstra la distanţă de „efectele primordialului", pentru a putea observa, judeca şi analiza obiectiv faptele, poate primi lecţia cea mai de preţ pe care ţi-o poate da urmărirea unui lung şir de adversităţi.

Omul care se reînnoieşte permanent merge mai departe şi îşi extinde privilegiile asupra experienţei de tip Spaţiu-Timp , fructificând sâmburele de raţional al teoriei conform căreia "o privire din afară îți poate da o perspectivă mai bună, în timp ce o privire dinăuntrul limitelor îţi prelungeşte imprudenţa ".

Dispărând legăturile leadershipului cu privilegiul de a te detaşa de realitatea pe care o experimentezi, automat te vei dispensa de aportul vocii lăuntrice care îşi şopteşte necontenit "Eşti conştient de propria incapacitate de a face totul?" De aici se trage neînţelegerea direcţiilor de abordare a leadershipului, cauzele ce determină apariţia şi proliferarea fenomenului de profunzime numit "reflectare".

Să identifici lacunele propriei autocunoaşteri pentru a le umple ulterior, asta nu te va încuraja să iei atitudine şi să mergi până-n pânzele albe. Dar va trezi o anumită doză de vigilenţă care va îndepărta oprobiul şi desconsiderarea celorlalţi.

Leadership: Poţi să acorzi mai multă atenţie poziţiei tale faţă de ce ţi-a scăpat din vedere, luând în calcul probabilitatea de a rămâne prea mult într-un singur loc?

Un dram de înţelepciune. În viaţa fiecărui conducător vine o vreme când totul pare că se prăbuşeşte. Înţelepciunea îl îndeamnă atunci să lase locul altuia ce va fi mai de folos decât el.

În acel moment de cumpănă, Lordului Glenarvan i-a fost testată înţelepciunea, nu curajul, şi nici spiritul de iniţiativă. Întâlnindu-l pe Ayron, el i-a cedat acestuia locul său, poziţia de conducător, căci nu se mai simţea în stare să-şi atingă scopul. Ar fi fost o decizie greşită dacă s-ar fi încăpăţânat să continue expediţia de căutare fără să ştie încotro s-o apuce.

Nu poţi să progresezi stând pe loc. Uneori trebuie să renunţi la poziţia de lider şi să transferi toate drepturile conferite de această funcţie altcuiva, pentru a păşi spre un viitor încrezător, pentru a evolua. Toate formulele calculului probabilităţilor nu ar fi dat echipajului decât puţine şanse de reuşită cu Lordul Glenarvan în frunte, oricât de autodidact era. Toată ştiinţa lui nu ar fi putut să dea vreun rezultat comparativ cu priceperea scoţianului Ayron, care cunoştea teritoriul şi ştia aproape cu certitudine unde se afla căpitanul.

Ceea ce îţi poate scăpa din vedere pe tot parcursul călătoriei, ca manifestare a unei încercări conştiente de a forţa schimbarea evenimentelor, este o generalizare a suspiciunii şi a fricii într-o zonă a ridicolului, când devii înspăimântat de ce ai putea găsi la destinaţie; darămite să mai doreşti să te întorci "în civilizaţie", la vechea poveste de viaţă.

Să înfrunţi greutăţile şi pericolele călătoriei înseamnă să depinzi cu totul de capacitatea personalităţii tale de a hotărî ceea ce este cel mai bine pentru tine, fără să stai în calea reuşitei care îi aşteaptă pe cei care te urmează.

Trei temeri, trei bucurii. După părerea mea un lider se teme de trei lucruri: să-şi piardă puterea de influenţă din cauza rezultatelor lui dezamăgitoare (ceea ce înseamnă să fie demis din poziţia pe care o are), să-şi exprime sentimentele în mod deschis, şi să-şi facă duşmani.

Lordul Glenarvan a dat dovadă de o mare maturitate în gândire şi de o capacitate de înţelegere ridicată cedându-i poziţia de lider scoţianului. El a înţeles că echipajul său nu avea sorţi de izbândă cu el în frunte. Astfel, s-a ridicat deasupra propriilor sale slăbiciuni, fără să afecteze esenţa bine conturată a leadershipului său.

Nu poţi să-i reţii, să-i legeni, să-i îndrumi pe oameni cu făgăduinţe zadarnice. Nu poţi să-i conduci trăind cu regretul că nu ştii care e direcţia bună pe care trebuie s-o urmezi.

A fost însă o mare bucurie pentru lordul Glenarvan şi pentru echipajul său să stea în preajma celui care, dedicându-se cu totul unei misiuni primejdioase, o putea duce la îndeplinire. A fost o mare bucurie pentru el să poată comunica cu Ayron în mod liber, fără să existe niciun conflict de interese. A fost o mare bucurie să scape de povara ruşinii şi chiar a conştiinţei că nu a fost capabil să-şi atingă scopul.

Leadershipul este călătoria spre un NECUNOSCUT care te ademeneşte în multe feluri prin stârnirea curiozităţii, dar care îţi lasă un mesaj mohorât în conştiinţă: "odată ce-ai păşit pe calea mea, nu mai poţi renunţa la mine."

Concluzie: Ca orice om care are un nivel de influenţă superior, liderul are temerile şi bucuriile sale ce apar fie în situaţii critice când i se pare că nu mai sunt mijloace de ieşire din impas, fie în situaţiile de reuşită care bucură pe toată lumea. Aidoma unui soare care răsare şi apoi apune, liderul trebuie să ştie când şi cum să predea ştafeta pentru ca scopurile iniţiale să fie realizate.

Atunci când cele trei temeri devin reale, şi mai ales atunci când se iveşte un alt om mai competent decât tine, trebuie să recunoşti şi să-i cedezi locul, indiferent cât de dureros ar fi acest lucru. Fii bucuros că există totuşi cineva capabil să duca la îndeplinire ceea ce ai început tu.

Ridică-te deasupra propriilor tale slăbiciuni, fără să afectezi esenţa bine conturată a leadershipului tău.

Tremurul sufletului

On Aprilie 19, 2010

Pune-ţi la încercare putinţa de a te raporta mai mult la oameni, reglând sensul leadershipului tău după natura ta sufletească.

Ascensiunea trebuia să se realizeze sub conducerea unei călăuze obişnuite cu pericolele muntelui şi cu lucrul în echipă. Montgomery Wick era singurul în stare să ducă la capăt această misiune de salvare plină de responsabilitate, o misiune extrem de periculoasă a cărei îndeplinire, ce merita încurajată şi susţinută, depindea nu numai de voinţa celor şase alpinişti, ci şi de noroc. Nu era prima oara când lui Montgomery Wick, acest bărbat înalt, viguros, îndrăzneţ, de o sănătate ce ar fi putut sfida toţi medicii, i se încredinţa o astfel de misiune dificilă, însă de data aceasta mulţi se îndoiau de reuşita ei. Şi asta deoarece fiecare dintre membrii grupului trebuia să urce muntele cu o anumită cantitate de nitroglicerină în spinare, ce putea exploda în orice moment.

Ai urmărit filmul „ Vertical Limit (2000) "? Montgomery Wick reuşeşte să ajungă împreună cu restul echipei sale la caverna, acoperită de avalanşă, în care se aflau supravieţuitorii, cei pe care îi căutaseră cu atâta însufleţire. Dar aici are loc o scenă plină de dramatism, plină de emoţii, plină de suflet.

Leadership: Poţi să produci o modificare a sensului acordat trecerii tale prin fazele inevitabile ale unui act de determinare în cadrul experienţei finale a unităţii?

Chiar atunci când încercau să-i ridice cu ajutorul unei frânghii pe cei doi supravieţuitori, o bucată de gheţar s-a desprins din peretele grotei şi, pentru că erau prinşi de aceeaşi frânghie, toţii patru au căzut în adâncul grotei. Frânghia de care erau legaţi îi putea susţine pe toţi patru, dar pioleţii nu mai rezistau şi mai aveau puţin până să sară din locaşurile în care erau bătuţi. Părea că nimic nu-i mai putea salva. Dintr-o clipă în alta se putea întâmpla tragedia. Dorinţa de viaţă era puternică, dar sufletele le erau cuprinse de o spaimă de moarte. Panica se dezlănţui de-a binelea şi nimic nu mai putea să o oprească. Toţi patru, pradă unei nelinişti îngrozitoare, cu sufletele îndurerate, cuprinse de o deznădejde crâncenă, îşi aşteptau cu înspăimântare sfârşitul.

Caracterele tari se văd numai în momentele grele, numai atunci când se confruntă cu acele realităţi sensibile, nedorite, numai atunci când, găsindu-se faţă în faţă cu primejdia, sunt nevoite să facă anumite compromisuri, anumite alegeri dictate atât de raţiune cât şi de suflet.

Montgomery Wick, liderul echipei, însufleţit mai mult de un singur simţământ - dragostea pentru soţia sa care murise pe munte şi pe care abia acum, în această misiune o găsise îngheţată, cugetă o clipă, apoi cu o ultimă sforţare, cu o ultimă dorinţă de viaţă, îşi scoate briceagul. Închide ochii preţ de câteva secunde, spune în gând o ultimă scurtă rugăciune – rugăciunea unui muribund, apoi îi redeschide. Şi, ca un servitor credincios care îşi dă viaţa pentru stăpânul său, dobândind astfel fericirea supremă, taie frânghia salvându-i pe Peter şi Annie, care se aflau deasupra lui pe frânghie. Dar din nefericire – sau poate ca o pedeapsă dumnezeiască, Elliot Vaughn, cel de-al doilea supravieţuitor, care era de fapt şi responsabil pentru moartea soţiei lui, se prăbuşeşte împreună cu el în hăul adânc al grotei.

Sensului acordat trecerii tale prin fazele inevitabile ale unui act de determinare în cadrul experienţei finale a unităţii poate fi acela de "neschimbat, atât de prins în propriile nonvalori". În alt caz, sensul poate fi acela de extindere a câmpului conştiinţei sau de "aventurier". Sau poate fi acela al unei greutăţi apăsătoare , al unei dureri continue care te trage parcă în jos, din cauza căreia nu poţi avansa în viaţă. Care din ele te face cel dintâi?

Leadership: Realitatea îţi dă dreptul să impui un anumit model de interpretare a ceea ce simţi şi percepi într-un plan de existenţă străin aspiraţiilor tale fireşti?

Unul din rezultatele leadershipului, indiferent că ne referim la felul nostru de a ne raporta la o realitate diferită, sau la arta de a ne schimba pe noi înşine, controlându-ne reacţiile şi atitudinea, sau la orice altă formă de a impune un anumit model de interpretare a ceea ce simţim şi percepem, este acela că ne prezintă noi îmbinări ale actului de cunoaştere de sine şi a rezultatului lui: conştiinţa.

Alte elemente aflate în afara continuumului de experienţe mai puţin agreabile şi neaşteptate, la care nu poţi să asişti ca un spectator care observă cumva din afară evoluţia evenimentelor, fără să se implice, pot aprinde sau stinge acea flacără a dârzeniei de a deveni slujitor al unei cauze nobile, dar cu mize foarte mari.

Aşa încât, pentru a ne însuşi arta conducerii, trebuie să începem să înţelegem existenţa mai multor posibilităţi de receptare a realităţii decât consideram, anterior, că există. Chiar ceva mai mult. Aceleaşi mize suplimentare, generând o atitudine care poate nu se bazează pe raţiune, pe lege, pe reguli, ci pe instinctul de reacţie, supravieţuire sau de apartenenţă la un cadru nou de afirmare (prin sacrificiu), vor fi folosite iar şi iar, cu însemnate repercusiuni.

Modelele mai cuprinzătoare de "intervenţie" implementate în circumstanţe în care angajamentele asumate sunt garantate de conştiinţă şi de capitalurile proprii de emoţii. Ele înnobilează lupta pentru existenţa unei noi versiuni a leadershipului - bazate pe înălţimea propriei greutăţi morale, înălţimea propriei tale viziuni asupra a ceea ce eşti, care să evite căderea într-un derizoriu dezamăgitor.

Leadership: Poţi să avansezi în găsirea calităţilor bune punându-ţi la îndoială prezumţiile de nevinovăţie în virtutea unui acord între ceea ce te distrage de la prezent şi măsura în care prezentul se abţine să contrazică o realitate de care se dezic toţi?

Întorci spatele naturii tale sufleteşti atunci când dai de greu?

A te afla în fruntea oamenilor poate fi atât o binecuvântare, cât şi un blestem. Pe de o parte, ca lider, exercitând o mare influenţă asupra oamenilor, îi poţi stăpâni şi controla, bazându-te astfel pe sprijinul lor şi pe dăruirea lor totală. Adică te poţi bucura de poziţia pe care o ai, te poţi bucura de faptul că ai în jurul tău o echipă de oameni devotaţi, dispuşi să facă multe eforturi numai pentru a te putea ajuta să-ţi atingi scopurile propuse mult mai uşor. Pe de altă parte, dacă tu şi echipa ta sunteţi puşi în situaţii limită, ei bine, în acest caz tu trebuie să fii acela cu o voinţă puternică care să se bată pentru fiecare suflet din echipă.

Poţi oare bănui ce are să-ţi rezerve viitorul? Îţi pui la încercare putinţa de a te dărui celorlalţi atunci când urci pe pante abrupte? Sau eşti genul acela care preia o însărcinare şi o părăseşte când se apropie momentul culminant al misiunii? Ai putea îndura simţămintele care îi covârşesc pe oameni în situaţiile limită? Întorci spatele naturii tale sufleteşti atunci când dai de greu?

Liderii cei mai buni conduc nu numai cu mintea, ci şi cu sufletul. Dacă eşti liderul unui grup montan este de datoria ta să te asiguri de reuşita misiunii ce ţi-a fost încredinţată, chiar dacă te vei izbi de dificultăţi aparent imposibil de depăşit. Asigură-i pe oameni că nu îi ameninţă nicio primejdie, sau, în caz contrar, pune-i în gardă şi acţionează în comun acord cu ei.

Dovada propriei valori este dată de acordul încheiat între motivele dificultăţilor aparent imposibil de depăşit şi putinţa de a te opune drumului tău până în adâncul sufletului.

Tremurul sufletului este acea vibraţie interioară, acel sentiment de responsabilitate faţă de oamenii din echipă, pe care un lider trebuie să-l aibă în orice situaţie, dar mai ales în situaţiile critice. Susţinerea morală poate avea efecte benefice, iar sacrificiul suprem poate salva sufletele uneori, dar alteori este inutil.

Oare câţi lideri au acest sentiment de responsabilitate faţă de cei din echipă? Puţini ! Aceştia sunt însă acei lideri care nu au uitat, mai întâi de toate, că sunt oameni.

Pune-ţi la încercare putinţa de a te raporta mai mult la oameni, reglând sensul leadershipului tău după natura ta sufletească.

Trepiedul înflăcărat de unde preoteasa îşi rosteşte oracolele

Numai dorinţa de a merita laudele ce ţi se aduc îţi întăreşte virtutea, iar acelea care se aduc spiritului, valorii şi frumuseţii, contribuie să le mărească. (François de la Rochefoucauld)

- Ba, dimpotrivă, zise Olympia. Teatrul este piedestalul, este trepiedul înflăcărat de unde preoteasa îşi rosteşte oracolele în faţa mulţimilor şi revărsa asupra lor harul divin care o devoră. Dumneavoastră, însă, doriţi să cobor de pe trepied şi să mă târăsc pe pământ. Vreţi să sting flacăra divinităţii din sufletul meu, ca să redevin femeie.

- Nu doresc asta, răspunse lordul Drummond cu un patos neobişnuit englezului flegmatic, nu doresc să stingeţi flacăra divinităţii. Vreau doar ca ea să nu ardă decât pentru mine. Vreau să fiu singurul posesor al acestor daruri cereşti pe care dumneavoastră le răspândiţi; nu vreau să le împart cu nimeni. Ah ! vă implor, Olympia, nu vă bateţi joc şi nu răpiţi orice nădejde patimii bizare pe care o resimt în preajma dumneavoastră. Nu mă pedepsiţi pentru că vă iubesc altfel decât pe o femeie. Să reflectăm, în cazul că v-aş iubi cu o dragoste comună, cu ce aş fi mai câştigat, când dumneavoastră sunteţi mai rece şi mai pură ca o marmoră? N-aţi răspuns dumneavoastră cu nu la toate declaraţiile şi toate rugăminţile pe care le meritau frumuseţea şi geniul dumneavoastră?

Toate strădaniile, toate insistenţele, toate eforturile, toate încercările de a vă cuceri, n-au fost oare zadarnice? Ei, bine, deoarece nu doriţi să fiţi iubită ca o femeie de rând, lăsaţi-mă să vă iubesc altfel. Sunteţi născută să înţelegeţi o inimă ca a mea, să satisfaceţi setea mea de artist, dumneavoastră care nu trăiţi decât pentru artă, preoteasă a muzicii, pentru care Opera este o mănăstire şi care n-a avut niciodată alte pasiuni decât pentru întruchiparea unor roluri măreţe şi alţi iubiţi decât Mozart şi Cimarosa. În numele lui Rossini, înţelegeţi-mă şi îndepliniţi-mi dorinţa ! Geniul dumneavoastră, sufletul, vocea, daţi-mi-le doar mie. În schimb, veţi avea de la mine tot ce doriţi, averea, numele, viaţa chiar. Oh ! Dacă aţi vrea să ne căsătorim ! Soţie fiindu-mi, aţi fi constrânsă să mă ascultaţi şi să-mi sacrificaţi acest cumplit rival, pe care-l preferaţi, teatrul !

Lordul Drummond vorbea cu un accent atât de convingător încât, fără să vrea, Olympia se emoţionase.

- Milord, zise ea, sunteţi aproape tot atât de înduioşător pe cât sunteţi de absurd. Forţa mea de a emoţiona oamenii este mai mare decât forţa dumneavoastră de a mă avea doar pentru sine. Aşadar, voi refuza să vă plac pe plac şi niciodată nu voi fi prizoniera egoismului de care daţi dumneavoastră dovada. Adio !

Leadership: Eşti în stare să comiţi o faptă impardonabilă şi să nu îţi dai seama de caracterul prejudiciabil al urmărilor ei, manifestând necesitatea unei restructurări radicale a ideilor fundamentale despre natura realităţii pe care o percepi?

Dacă a crezut cineva de cuviinţă să aştearnă cu duioase cuvinte în sufletul omului puţinele momente ale unei vieţi destul de deşerte şi de neînsemnate, înseamnă că s-a crezut vrednic de o faptă care prezintă pericolul de a crea bariere considerabile în calea procesului de conştientizare a emoţiilor. În acest caz, eleganţa şi rafinamentul prezintă pericolul de a fi folosite în combinaţii kitsch de către persoanele cu o educaţie estetică îndoielnică.

Cât despre forma emoţiilor (emoţiile fiind cele care menţin unitatea Sinelui), dacă se va socoti că sunt imperfecte, atunci este mult mai bine ca ele să nu se manifeste la vedere, deci emoţiile trebuiesc ascunse până ce va veni să le caute şi să le găsească acel căruia i-a fost menită comoară din templul sufletului. Şi, în continuare, aş adăuga că o emoţie care nu este simţită ca un întreg de o mare forţă de atracţie, în măsura în care sentimentele sunt la bază senzaţii, nu apare decât după ce te simţi deschis la noi experienţe de cunoaştere, de trăire şi acţiune. Sună destul de ciudat, dar aşa este !

Leadership: Îţi aloci o mică posibilitate de a-ţi accepta sinele autentic chiar şi în cazul în care gândul, ideea, intenţia şi natura realităţii stau la baza alegerii unei alternative la felul cum utilizezi raţionamentul pentru a trage concluzii?

Oamenii nu vor de obicei să dea o formă ridiculă emoţiilor pe care le crează în jur, iar dacă sunt greşeli din partea lor, abia atunci încearcă să cântărească orice cuvânt pe care îl rostesc. Urmează apoi rugămintea stăruitoare de a ţine seama de o întreită dorinţă şi anume, să nu se schimbe nimic din ceea ce trăiesc, din ceea ce simt, fiindcă este singura posibilitatea de a se accepta pe sine, de a crede că sunt iubiţi. Numai că din ceea ce făptuiesc, îndată ce practicile lor ies din tiparele normalul acceptat, cu nedreptatea lor, în acel moment răspunderea greşelilor îi priveşte doar pe ei.

Memorabilă este această mărturisire a sentimentului de răspundere cu care cuvintele Lordul Drummond au fost cumpănite înainte de a intra în graţiile Olympiei, de unde şi dreptul lui de a nu face concesii de niciun fel pentru a-şi păstra privilegiile unui om de mare caracter sau pentru a-şi apăra teritoriul de influenţă. Şi, apoi, avertismentul Olympiei în legătură cu greşelile sale de abordare a realităţii, izvorât din teama de a nu se altera relaţia dintre ei, de a nu se strica un anumit tipar de conduită, desemnează o geometrie a discernământului şi a expresiei de sine, imaginată ca fiind singura ce trebuie să poarte şi să păstreze marca gândirii riguroase şi a modelarii emoţionale.

Leadershipul este o înţelegere satisfăcătoare a legăturii dintre gânduri, emoţii şi fapte, capabile să dirijeze conştient acţiunile corporale, verbale şi morale, spre transmiterea unui mesaj demn de Platon: "Faptelor urâte le urmează ca sancţiune ruşinea; celor frumoase, râvna pentru cinstire."

Trepiedul înflăcărat de unde preoteasa îşi rosteşte oracolele desemnează acea personalitate care vrea să transmită un mesaj: "Forţa mea de a emoţiona oamenii este mai mare decât forţa dumneavoastră de a mă avea doar pentru sine. Aşadar, voi refuza să vă plac pe plac şi niciodată nu voi fi prizoniera egoismului de care daţi dumneavoastră dovadă."

Tristeţea unui înger care şi-a pierdut cerul

On Decembrie 10, 2010

Înalţă-te deasupra celorlalţi oameni, stabilind un acord bine fundamentat între bucuria vieţii tale şi a lor.

Undeva, în adâncul inimii, visul său era încă viu – voia să ajungă scriitor. Dar viaţa pe care o trăia aducea mai mult a coşmar. Eşuase în mod groaznic. Căci deşi scria mult, nu reuşea să vândă niciodată nimic, nici măcar un singur material de umplutură. Rămas fără bani, s-a angajat agent de asigurări. Dar oricât de mult şi oricâte ore muncea, era mereu înglodat în datorii. Şi ca orice om înglodat până la gât în datorii, s-a ascuns de realitate şi şi-a găsit alinarea în băutură. Ceea ce a determinat-o pe soţia lui să-şi ia fetiţa şi să-l părăsească. Astfel a rămas şi singur.

Un înger părăsit de Dumnezeu. Din rai şi până în iad nu-i decât un singur pas, un pas pe care orice înger îl poate face dacă îi lipseşte credinţa. Aşa se face că într-o dimineaţă rece de iarnă, înconjurat de temeri, dureri şi îndoieli, sărmanul om, aflându-se în una din cele mai sumbre părţi ale oraşului Cleveland, fără pardesiu, tremurând de frig şi nemâncat, a zărit prin fereastra unui raft dintr-un centru de amanet un pistol. "Această armă va pune capăt tuturor problemelor mele", şi-a spus el cu amărăciune. Avea de gând să cumpere pistolul, să ia nişte gloanţe şi în camera întunecată în care locuia, să apese trăgaciul.

Inutil, fără nici o valoare, fără speranţă, a aşteptat cu inima zvâcnind în piept, un semnal. Ceva îi şoptea totuşi inimii sale să se îndepărteze de acel magazin. Şi-a ascultat vocea interioară şi a pornit prin ploaie până ce a ajuns pe treptele unei biblioteci publice. A intrat. O căldură plăcută l-a cuprins. Plimbându-se printre culoarele cu cărţi, a ajuns la acea secţiune de cărţi motivaţionale ce se găseşte în toate bibliotecile. A pus mâna pe minunata carte "Succes through a positive Attitude" , scrisă de W. Clement Stone, şi a început s-o citească. Începând din acea zi, viaţa lui s-a schimbat.

Leadership: Experimentezi o stare finală în evoluția unei căutări de sine eliberatoare prin asumarea unei suferințe produsă ca urmare a apropierii de cele spirituale?

Portiţa deschisă spre Rai. Cel despre care tocmai v-am povestit, a trăit 73 de ani şi devenit o adevărată Legendă. Cărţile sale încă se vând ca pâinea caldă. S-a scris despre el în aproape toate revistele din întreaga lume. Mulţi i-au venerat succesul. Mulţi îi urmează şi îi vor urma întotdeauna sfaturile şi învăţămintele. Poate aţi auzit de acest om care, surprinzător, a descoperit într-un moment de cotitură al vieţii sale portiţa "spre Rai" - într-o bibliotecă din oraşul Cleveland. Sau poate că aţi auzit de celebra lui carte: "Cel mai vestit vânzător din lume" . Numele lui este Og Mandino.

Og Mandino este personificarea unui moment special în evoluţia unei vindecări de nefericire, de răni sufletești, anxietate sau depresie, prin contribuția psihicului care poate face un salt de la îndoială la speranţă, de la neîncredere la certitudine cu privire la eficienţa unei intervenţii "divine" în experienţa personală, în acţiunile şi deciziile zilnice, în situaţii deosebit de grele şi complicate.

A-ţi pune toată nădejdea într-o intervenţie divină este sinonim cu a lupta împotriva actelor îndreptate contra vieţii. Este ca şi când ai fi orb, nu vezi şi nu apreciezi calitățile a tot ce vine din altă direcţie, a tot ceea ce întâlnești în viață, decât atunci când ajungi la limita dintre călduţ şi rece, dintre lumea materială şi lumea spirituală, adică atunci când eşti pe punctul de a renunţa.

Renunțarea este actul de a te separa de experiența unei căutări de sine în timpul unei căutări de răspunsuri și întrebări în care sunt specificate limitele admisibile de relaționare între ceea ce presupui că este partea nevăzută dar înţeleasă din poveste şi ceea ce presupui că este realitatea care te domină prin reducerea ei la un univers minuscul.

Cu mulţi ani în urmă am citit, cu aceeaşi bucurie cu care îmi plăcea să citesc toate cărţile de dezvoltare personală, cartea scriitorului Og Mandino, intitulata "Secretele fericii şi succesului" , în care şi-a povestit cu însufleţire viaţa – de la eşec la succes. Iar ceea ce am înţeles din ea, din toate capitolele ei, din perspectiva lui Og Mandino, este că nu succesul precede fericirea, ci fericirea precede succesul. Mai întâi trebuie să preiei controlul asupra vieţii tale, asupra evenimentelor care te pot influenţa, şi să porneşti de la premiza că totul va fi bine. Apoi calea spre succes ţi se va deschide singură.

Leadershipul tău reuşeşte marea performanţă de a crea o punte între lumea percepţiei individuale şi lumea experienţei împărtăşite?

Oamenii de valoare, cărora o anumită faţadă a vieţii le-a demonstrat cât sunt mai presus de propriile limite, de tot ceea ce gândesc în mod predominant, optează pentru o anumită formă de autoguvernare şi automotivatie, uneori de scurtă durată, dar declanşatoare de noi orizonturi, de noi începuturi.

Orice situaţii de handicap moral, emoţional şi existenţial generează în rândul oamenilor cu potenţial de lider forme complexe de discernământ, întregite printr-un impuls de validare a unei remarcabile schimbări de direcţie. Un punct de maximă trăire, care odată atins, are formidabila capacitate de a produce mai întâi un fel de formă de "rezistenţă indusă", apoi o formă de reacţiune de sens contrar, propulsându-l pe om spre o viaţă mai plină de sens.

Leadershipul, cu aceeaşi forţă cu care ne emoţionează în genere o poveste frumoasă, reuşeşte marea performanţa de a crea o punte între lumea percepţiei individuale şi lumea experienţei împărtăşite, o dată cu încercarea omului de a se reinventa prin recursul la o "emblemă" integratoare: maleabilitatea.

Prin explicarea cauzelor succesului obţinut ulterior (neaşteptat), pus pe seama continuităţii de a performa prin îmbunătăţirea capacităţii de a schimba ceea ce nu poate fi acceptat, se definesc o serie de poziţii care iau în considerare individualitatea, maturizarea şi abordarea psiho afectivă.

O poziţie de tip "I've got nothing to hide" prin care îţi comunici absenţa posibilităţii de a determina impactul concret al convingerilor tale asupra vieţii. Sau o poziţie de tip analitic - experienţa în prelucrarea propriilor emoţii, cu identificarea situaţiilor ce pot declanşa un comportament de ocrotire din partea celorlalţi oameni sau din partea unei entităţi mai înalte (Dumnezeu).

Abordarea procesului de reinventare personală susţine că succesul se datorează nivelului sporit al inteligenţei individului de a înţelege o situaţie prin prisma propriilor crezuri. Această poziţie de învingător a avut şi mai are încă susţinători în rândul oamenilor care încearcă să-şi descopere menirea şi să-şi valorifice vocaţia, deşi implicaţiile sale în plan social, moral şi pedagogic, pot fi extrem de inechitabile.

Leadership: Începi să te apropii de ceea ce înseamnă "misiunea personală" atunci când nu te mai mulţumeşte cam nimic în viaţa ta?

Cred că pot să fiu luat în serios când spun că aceasta este una dintre cele mai bune definiţii ale leadershipului pe care am îndrăznit s-o formulez vreodată: leadershipul e un acord între fericirea ta şi fericirea celorlalţi oameni. Poţi fi un om cu influenţă, dar să nu obţii niciodată fericirea. Însă dacă obţii fericirea, atunci vei putea avea o mare putere de influenţă. Căci toată lumea admiră oamenii fericiţi, nu-i aşa? Ce model de valori solide poţi să le oferi oamenilor care te urmează, dacă eşti nefericit? Cine va îndrăzni să te aleagă drept mentor, dacă nu eşti un exemplu de om care îşi iubeşte viaţa cu pasiune?

Când intri în relaţie cu oamenii, ei se aşteaptă de la tine să le ridici moralul şi să le induci optimismul. Dacă te arăţi obosit şi plictisit de tristeţile vieţii, toate demersurile tale vor păli. Vei fi asemenea acelui rege care, după ce i s-au perindat prin faţă clipă de clipă multe persoane şi le-a ascultat păsurile, cu neputinţă de îndeplinit, a căzut de oboseală şi a ajuns să se întrebe de fapt ce vor oamenii de la el.

Pe blogul doamnei Liliana Constantinescu stă scris: "Consecinţele întreruperii legăturii cu divinitatea reprezintă consumul vitalității, care, în timp, se transferă în planul vizibil, pe corpul fizic. Omul modern s-a dezvoltat foarte mult pe orizontală (focusat pe îndeplinirea nevoilor de bază), uitând că prin natura sa este creator, este parte activă a propriei realităţi, deci este în acelaşi timp iniţiatorul şi producătorul propriei suferinţe."

Aşa cum pământul se degradează continuu prin poluare şi supraîncălzire, tot aşa şi leadershipul tău se va degrada dacă nu ai puterea să controlezi împrejurările, să te lupţi cu viciile şi să-ţi menţii la suprafaţă spiritul şi atitudinea de om entuziasmat şi plin de energie.

Nu poţi progresa în leadership dacă îţi pierzi "cerul".

Cerul simbolizează un punct de apropiere de tine însuţi dinspre genul de filosofie care te poate orienta inteligent în fiecare moment al vieții spre genul de atmosferă care te face să îți dorești să acționezi pentru “the greater good” - ceea ce face parte, în mod fundamental, din natura ta: spiritualitatea.

Mulţumirea de sine este ceea ce câştigi atunci când spiritualitatea devine la fel de importantă ca materialitatea, chiar dacă se prezintă sub gestul oferirii sau al primirii de sprijin necuvenit.

Tristeţea unui înger care şi-a pierdut cerul desemnează acea stare de depresie profundă care îţi înmoaie zidul de apărare din jurul inimii şi te face vulnerabil în viaţă (în faţa stresului şi a grijilor), şi totodată în faţa celorlalţi oameni. Fă tot posibilul să o învingi, căci dacă te loveşte, dacă pătrunde adânc în sufletul tău şi câştigă bătălia cu tine, ea nu va mai putea fi alungată prea uşor.

Forţa ta, ca lider, stă în capacitatea de privi mereu înainte, indiferent de împrejurare şi de a avea viziunea viitorului, un viitor cât mai bun şi cât mai luminos. Însă dacă "îţi vei pierde cerul", dacă ridici steagul alb al tristeţii şi al renunţării, atunci nu vei mai reuşi să te înalţi niciodată deasupra celorlalţi oameni.

Concluzie: Un lider copleşit de tristeţe şi de necazuri induce aceeaşi stare de spirit şi colectivului pe care-l conduce. Este aidoma unui înger care şi-a pierdut cerul şi, în consecinţă, îşi va pierde şi adepţii care l-au ales. Dimpotrivă, atunci când liderul este optimist şi plin de viaţă, va ridica totdeauna tonusul moral al echipei, creând condiţii optime dezvoltării unei atitudini deosebite. Gândirea pozitivă va avea rezultate benefice, în timp ce opusul ei va destabiliza şi va nimici totul.

Nu vei putea să joci un rol important în viaţa oamenilor, dacă nu descoperi mai întâi bucuria vieţii.

Triumful dulce al unui coregraf desăvârşit

On Aprilie 03, 2009

Deschide poarta spre inimile oamenilor, consolidând acele calităţi foarte importante care trebuie relevate în leadershipul tău.

- Ai vrea să înveţi să dansezi tango, Donna? o întrebă locotenentul colonel Frank Slade pe tânăra domnişoară de la masă, pe care abia o cunoscuse. Ce spui?

Aşa cum aparatele de filmat înregistrează fiecare mişcare, Frank simţea urmărea fiecare expresie de pe chipul fetei. Părea neliniştită.

- Cred ca mi-ar fi puţin frică, …frică să nu fac greşeli ! spuse ea cu o voce dulce, dar tremurândă.

Frank sesiză că fata s-a destins, că îl aprobă. Ca s-o încurajeze, îi spuse:

- În tango nu există greşeli, nu-i ca viaţa. E simplu. Asta face tango atât de extraordinar. Dacă faci o greşeală şi încurci paşii, continuă să dansezi.

Leadership: Comportamentul tău este mai bine înţeles dacă este privit în funcţie de percepţia pe care o au cei din jur asupra contextului obiectiv, decât în funcţie de senzaţiile pe care ei le primesc de la stimulii tăi?

Amănuntul care a schimbat tot. Dacă ai văzut filmul „ Parfum de femeie (1992) " probabil îţi aminteşti acel splendid dans pe care l-au făcut Frank şi Donna pe ringul de dans, în mijlocul oamenilor din acel restaurant select. Această scenă scoate foarte bine în evidenţă maniera de apropiere între două părţi – una care conduce, cealaltă care îl urmează.

Frank a condus dansul cu multă graţie, cu o măiestrie neîntrecută. Iată cum un orb, deşi ajuns la bătrâneţe, a reuşit să ia hotărârile ce i-au călăuzit nu doar lui paşii, ci şi pe ai unei frumoase domnişoare. Dorinţa aceasta izvorâtă din nevoia de a se impune şi de a-şi folosi influenţa nu s-a stins o dată cu tinereţea. L-a însoţit toată viaţa. El putea uimi o sumedenie de oameni prin simplitatea purtărilor sale, dar şi prin ascuţimea minţii, prin măreţia sau prin calităţile sale, prin rafinament şi bun gust.

Donna nu a fost impresionată de contextul în care se exercitau calităţile de dansator formidabil ale lui Frank, deoarece contextul reprezintă doar o acţiune de constatare a unui fapt divers care poate avea loc oriunde, deci a trebuit să fie obiectivă numai în privinţa felului ei de a se prezenta, de a se manifesta, de a se face plăcută şi apreciată. Aş spune mai bine că senzaţiile de măgulire şi bună dispoziţie pe care le-a primit de la stimulii de echilibru ai lui Frank, care ştia să atingă o floare încât ea să înflorească cu graţie, au determinat-o să îşi dorească să continue.

Urmărindu-i şi admirându-i pe amândoi cum îşi potriveau ritmul, cum îşi alegeau cu grijă paşii, pot spune că am asistat de fapt la dezvoltarea unei game largi de emoţii şi stări pozitive. Cuvintele, gândurile şi atitudinea lui Frank se împleteau ca o vrajă cu cele ale fetei. Ea a simţit vibraţia lui lăuntrică, intenţiile sale prieteneşti, fineţea, căldura sufletească – calităţi preţioase pe care orice femeie le apreciază enorm la un bărbat. Acestea au fost calităţile importante care au creat acea sudură între graniţele care delimitau fără echivoc

Leadership: Poţi să te adaptezi la coordonatelor interioare ale celorlalţi încât rezultatul emoțiilor și al gândurilor tale să determine o senzaţie de tipul "A fost ca într-un vis", dar nu orice vis, ci un vis al cărui conţinut merge în direcţia opusă poziţiei tale actuale?

Perceperea adevăratelor gânduri şi valori ale fetei a avut o mare importantă pentru reuşita lui Frank, conducând ulterior la orientarea emoţiilor ei către o acţiune pozitivă. De parcă nişte forţe nevăzute îl împingeau spre o stare de spirit deschisă, spre o înflorire a propriei fiinţe, spre o lume neexplorată, şi, bineînţeles, spre o singură concluzie: că se poate adapta foarte uşor propriilor ei aspiraţii, propriilor ei coordonate interioare, şi-n acelaşi timp putea să-şi impună propriul ritm şi propria-i manieră de a se plasa într-o lumină pozitivă.

Este interesant că erau într-atât de puternice aceste forţe de care dispunea bătrânul Frank, încât au avut efect formidabil asupra fetei, asigurându-i o poziţie dominantă pe „teritoriul" ei.

Poţi să-ţi pui uşor în valoare personalitatea, dar modul în care te conectezi la ceilalţi este în corelaţie cu emoţia pe care o transmiţi lor în cursul unei acţiuni. Poţi aduce mai multă armonie in relaţiile cu ceilalţi dacă îţi joci bine rolul de partener, canalizându-ţi acţiunile şi sentimentele în mod pozitiv şi constructiv spre o direcţie care să capete sens în ochii celorlalţi. Dacă orientarea sentimentelor tale este diametral opusă faţă de sentimentele lor, dacă nu există o asemănare interioară între maniera de a aborda acelaşi „dans", dacă nu îi aduci în acel stadiu de a se raporta la tine şi de a acţiona în ritmul tău, atunci înseamnă că rolul pe care îl joci în viaţa lor este de „incomod".

Un vis al cărui conţinut merge în direcţia opusă poziţiei tale actuale este un concept pentru măsurarea "perfecţiunii" în funcţie de societate sau de standardele altora, care transformă orice atitudine de "alertă" (de prudenţă), într-o atitudine de mândrie şi respect faţă de propria persoană.

Triumful dulce al unui coregraf desăvârşit este o mărturie a măsurii în care Frank a fost capabil să se încadreze în tiparul după care Donna îşi modelase propriile aşteptări. Ca să ajungi la inimile oamenilor trebuie să-ţi construieşti o imagine prin care să accentuezi calităţile tale, şi să-ţi asumi rolul dincolo de limitele stricte ale statutului tău.

Concluzie: Un lider trebuie să aibă capacitatea de a cunoaşte oamenii şi sentimentele lor ca şi aşteptările şi speranţele lor. El trebuie să se adapteze la ei, dar în acelaşi timp să-i determine pe aceştia să se adapteze şi să urmeze ritmul, căile şi metodele lui. Acest „dans" al liderului şi al celorlalţi, trebuie să-i transforme într-un „cuplu" armonios în care fiecare partener să-şi cunoască rolul, adaptându-se celuilalt şi completându-se reciproc.

Triumful magicianului

Exploatează-ţi la maxim potenţialul de lider, fără să te îndepărtezi de realitatea pe care o percep ceilalţi.

Spectacolul era pe sfârşite. Lumina, care scălda scena, se făcuse roşie ca sângele şi începuse să piardă tot mai mult din intensitate. Ştiam că ceva important urma să se întâmple. Tobele încetaseră să bată. În sală era o linişte mormântală. Şi un întuneric de nepătruns, adânc şi dens. Publicul era cuprins de o teamă plăcută.

Deodată s-au auzit paşi. Undeva în stânga scenei, o umbră vagă s-a zărit schimbându-şi uşor poziţia. În clipa următoare am gândit că nu poate fi decât el, creatorul de iluzii. Am avut dreptate. Magicianul reapăruse, într-o ţinută deosebită, cu masca pe faţă, emanând o notă aparte şi creând o atmosferă plină de mister. După ce a ajuns în mijlocul scenei, pe un ton impunător a rostit nişte cuvinte ciudate: „Acta est fabula ! ”. El a vrut de fapt să spună: „ Piesa a fost jucată. Am hotărât să vă arăt cine sunt. ”

Discret, s-a apropiat de spectatori. Privea în întuneric, ca şi cum totul ar fi fost normal, ca şi când putea vedea clar pe oricine. Începusem să cred că, în sfârşit, voi avea prilejul să aflu ce se ascunde în spatele măştii sale.

Leadership: Profiţi întotdeauna de pe urma meşteşugului tău în condiţiile interpretării unui rol care te reprezintă printr-o imagine de tip montaj?

Magicianul se pregătea să-şi dea jos masca de pe faţă. Toată lumea se arătă mirată faţă de decizia pe care o luase, de a se dezvălui, de a ne arăta adevăratul său chip, mai ales că la spectacolele sale anterioare promisese solemn că niciodată, nimeni, nu va descoperi ce se află în spatele măştii, cine este el cu adevărat. Magicianul ascundea multă profunzime, iar sub masca sa, frumos lucrată în stil veneţian, se ascundea cu siguranţă forţa sa reală. Aerul de mister pe care îl emana producea o senzaţie stranie asupra mea şi a celorlalţi spectatori.

Adevărul din spatele adevărului. Momentul mult aşteptat veni. Magicianul şi-a dat jos masca. Dar mare ne-a fost mirarea când am observat că, în spatele măştii se afla, o altă mască. Din nou, alt joc, altă provocare, alt mister. Treziţi dintr-o iluzie, am căzut pradă altei iluzii. Abia atunci mi-am dat seama că nimeni nu va putea să controleze mai bine realitatea decât el, Magicianul, Creatorul de iluzii. Ca principal realizator al spectacolului, este îndreptăţit să ne impună să recunoaştem propria lui realitate. O realitate pe care vrem nu vrem, chiar dacă nu o înţelegem, trebuie să o acceptam, negreşit, cu toţii.

Şi tot atunci am înţeles că niciodată, cu nici un chip, un magician desăvârşit nu se va lepăda de masca sau de măştile sale, pe care le va afişa mereu în spectacolele sale, ci îşi va păstra întotdeauna misterul pentru a întreţine şi spori curiozitatea tuturor, pentru ca puterea lui de convingere şi influenţă să nu se piardă niciodată. Misterul este factorul care va trebui întotdeauna să persiste în spectacolele sale. Ar fi fost desigur o imprudenţă dacă şi-ar dezvălui adevărata identitate.

În asta constă triumful unui magician, în misterul pe care îl ascunde şi pe care îl lasă în urma lui. În simbolurile sale, în iluziile pe care le creează, în propria sa identitate neştiută de nimeni şi mai ales în trucurile sale secrete, păzite cu străşnicie.

O imagine de tip "montaj" este vecină cu intrarea într-o lume care nu aparține niciunuia dintre spectatori, este o rezumare excelentă a unei intrigi adesea încărcată de tensiunea unor posibile întrebări fără răspuns, ţinând în suspans publicul prin scenariul conceput la limita dintre real şi fantastic. Magicianul este un om care ştie să se transforme într-un personaj care nu a mai existat niciodată, misterios şi în acelaşi timp de temut.

Autenticitatea înseamnă să marchezi cum se cuvine momentul de înaltă încărcătură expresivă printr-un act artistic numit "alternarea intre redarea riguroasă a unui efect de irealitate şi efectul unei realităţi cu totul necunoscute".

Ceea ce contează la leadership, din prisma dimensiunii valorice şi a parametrilor funcţionali, este aspectul relevant al compoziţiei din care „fabricat". O compoziţie care să integreze cât mai bine elementele de bază: abordarea, menţinerea atenţiei, eliminarea riscurilor, gândirea sistematică, profunzime în mesajul transmis. La aceste elemente adăugându-se, bineînţeles, ca factor de modelare şi de întreţinere a efectului de armonizare, contestaţia celor care te evaluează.

Evaluatorii, oamenii care îţi testează acţiunile şi îţi estimează extrem de bine calificarea şi valoarea, reţin în mod special aspectele superficiale care nu reflectă performanţa, sau cele profunde care trezesc interesul, diferenţiindu-te de ceilalţi aspiranţi la statutul de om de frunte. Ei reţin gesturile şi atitudinile care contribuie la creşterea rankingului şi a notorietăţii tale, atribuind leadershipului tău o semnificaţie aparte, sau catalogându-l drept un show de prost-gust.

Nimic însă din farmecul irezistibil ce te face să fii admirat, nimic din experienţa unică ce vine din impactul cu adevărata artă care te poate identifica clar drept un maestru, din impactul cu creaţia ta căreia îi pot fi atribuite calităţi ideale, nu poate fi obţinut la nivelul unei copii rudimentare realizate la scară industrială.

Ca şi magia, leadershipul impune o altă realitate, care învăluie cu putere oamenii trezindu-le o anumită stare de spirit, tentându-i să cadă într-o anumită dependenţă. În caz contrar ei vor ajunge să se refere la arta pe care o realizezi prin intermediul unei copii alterate din punct de vedere al conţinutului.

Leadershipul poate fi privit ca o magie care nu aşteaptă decât să o descoperi. Poate fi privit ca un produs unicat realizat în serie limitată. Şi, dacă vrei ca leadershipul tău să nu apară ca degenerat sau nociv, trebuie să accepţi "comenzi" doar pentru produse personalizate după dorinţele şi nevoile oamenilor. Trebuie să creezi un spectacol unic, să te situezi mai aproape de o artă angajată care să servească drept un reper de neocolit, decât de o ştiinţă exactă care nu are niciun punct comun cu interesele şi cu tiparul dorit de oameni.

Leadership: Convingi oamenii să vadă lucrurile în adevărata lor măsură, sau aşa cum doreşti tu să le vadă?

Un lider foarte bun ştie că poate deţine puterea absolută numai şi numai dacă reuşeşte să controleze realitatea care îl înconjoară. Iar dacă nu o poate controla, atunci trebuie să convingă lumea să creadă că el o controlează. În totalitate. Un lider îşi poate impune supremaţia, dacă şi numai dacă este capabil să-i determine pe oameni să creadă că el deţine controlul absolut asupra oricărei situaţii. Asupra tuturor evenimentelor, dorite sau nedorite. Asupra oricăror schimbări. În orice moment. Oamenii pe care îi conduce trebuie să vadă lucrurile nu în adevărata lor măsură, ci mai întotdeauna aşa cum doreşte el să le vadă.

Dacă lumea îi dă crezare şi-l urmează atunci el se poate numi, pe drept cuvânt, un lider desăvârşit. Căci numai un lider desăvârşit reuşeşte să stăpânească oamenii: prin idei şi concepţii inedite, printr-o atitudine win-win, prin argumentaţii foarte clare, prin discursuri mobilizatoare, prin stilul personal, prin noi abordări, prin viziunea sa unică şi viabilă.

Un lider are puncte comune cu un magician dar se deosebeşte de acesta prin faptul că el nu creează iluzii ci se bazează pe realitate şi fapte concrete. Prin prisma unui „spectator”, al unuia neimplicat în munca pe care o depune un lider, acesta poate fi considerat în mod simplist un magician. Iar „triumful magicianului” ascunde multă muncă, abilitate, competenţă şi profesionalism, dar şi secrete păstrate cu străşnicie.

Exploatează-ţi la maxim potenţialul de lider, fără să te îndepărtezi de realitatea pe care o percep ceilalţi.

Leadershipul este magia născută dintr-o realitate pe care uneori ne este atât de greu să o acceptăm.

Triumful oamenilor grandioşi

On Aprilie 05, 2020

Grandorii îi trebuie doar o picătură de iniţiativă, o dovadă de ambiţie colosală şi un vis plin de sens ca să se manifeste ca o garanţie a nemuririi sufletului.

Am văzut de curând pe discovery un documentar despre piramida lui Khufu (Kheops). Mii de oameni au muncit din greu la această uriaşă construcţie. Au fost implicate toate rangurile şi specializările posibile, de la arhitecţi până la bucătari. Şi se spune despre Khufu că ar fi fost un conducător tare aprig, dar un visător plin de idealuri şi un foarte bun organizator. Gradul responsabilităţii sale era direct proporţional cu măreţia visului său, vis ce părea să împodobească marele lăcaş al zeilor.

Un singur lucru este cert. Au trecut aproape 5.000 de ani de când a fost terminată piramida, ani care s-au scurs atât de repede pentru marea istorie a lumii. Şi nimeni nu-şi aminteşte de armata de oameni care a muncit din greu la construirea ei. Din zecile de mii de muncitori care au contribuit la antica construcţie, istoria nu-şi aminteşte nici măcar de unul.

Cu toate acestea, piramida stă în picioare şi azi, nimeni nu îi poate contesta rezistenţa, nimeni nu îi poate şterge imaginea, iar timpul nu poate să-i şteargă ridurile din blocurle de piatră. Istoria răsună încă de numele lui Khufu, la fel de măreţ ca al unui zeu atotputernic, ca atunci când simţi o chemare din altă dimensiune a timpului și mergi pe treptele acestui timp vreme îndelungată.

Aşadar, iată concluzia: istoriei nu-i pasă de cei care muncesc din greu, nu este interesată dacă eşti bun sau rău, ci îl păstrează în nemurire pe acela care are o idee grandioasă şi o duce la materializare. Oamenii grandioşi au idei grandioase, iar prin grandoarea lor devin nemuritori, pentru că nemuririi îi place să pună deoparte numai materialul dur din care este plămădită şi idealizată o idee grandioasă.

Leadership: Întreaga perspectivă a existenţei tale face posibilă acea sclipire de creator ce se reflectă în fenomenul inspirației vizionare chemată să apere gloria unei materializări care duce Esenţa spre Tot?

Şi uită-te la oamenii care zilnic îşi măresc averile, sau râvnesc la plăceri trecătoare. Se îmbolnăvesc, mor, şi nu lasă nimic în urma lor. Mulţi se mândresc cu veleităţi de intelectual, dar numai impresii şi îngâmfare se revarsă în personalitatea lor. Virusul Covid-19 îi reduce complet la tăcere, de parcă fără virus ar fi avut ceva important de spus sau de făcut. Oricum nu lasă nimic în urma lor. Nimic grandios. Fiindcă nu au nimic grandios în ei înşişi...

Când Galileo Galilei a rostit expresia Eppur si muove ("Și totuși se învârte"), în perioada inchiziţiei, el n-a făcut dovada vreunei averi impresionante, n-a strălucit sub risipa de aur şi nestemate. Dar a dat un avânt nemaintalnit oamenilor de ştiinţă, care au contribuit şi mai mult la progresul omenirii. El a fost grandios prin curajul de a duce cu un pas înainte ştiinţa în nişte vremuri când ştiinţa era renegată. Grandorii îi trebuie doar o picătură de iniţiativă, o dovadă de ambiţie colosală şi un vis plin de sens ca să se manifeste ca o garanţie a nemuririi sufletului.

Iar când Iisus a spus: "Cerul și pământul vor trece, dar cuvintele Mele vor rămâne" , el şi-a câştigat nemurirea numai prin această frază. Nu i-a trebuit o avere pentru asta. Nu i-a trebuit nicio funcţie de conducere că să pună bazele unei religii care domină lumea de azi. El a fost grandios, fiindcă a avut dreptate în privinţa cuvintelor sale. Nebunia totală a grandorii constă în subtila definire a unui ideal de gândire, îmbrăţişat de dragostea adevărată, pe care trebuie să-l atingi înainte de a te declara un sfânt.

Istoria ne învaţă să fim nemuritori, nu simpli muritori. Iar pentru asta, trebuie să învăţăm să fim grandioşi. Asta este ceea ce istoriei îi este necesar în relatarea anumitor episoade de neuitat: capacitatea de idealizare a unei mişcări de creaţie şi de creatori care să împingă lumea către un nivel superior de dezvoltare. Iar gloria unei materializări ce duce Esenţa spre Tot se referă la încercarea omului de a se ridica la statutul de Creator prin iniţierea unei schimbări mici care poate avea un impact major asupra evoluţiei lumii.

Satisfacţia de a fi părtaş la triumful total al grandorii trebuie să respecte acea lege întipărită de Creator în sufletul fiecărei fiinţe umane: "Tot ceea ce laşi bun în urma ta rămâne înscris în veşnicie".

Triumful oamenilor grandioşi poate fi obţinut prin implicarea totală a oamenilor în proiecte stabile de viitor care verifică ecuaţia veşniciei: "Tot ceea ce schimbi pozitiv în această lume se simte într-o altă lume la care doar celor merituoşi le este dat să o cunoască."

Triumful spiritului asupra timpului

On Ianuarie 10, 2025

Ceea ce trăiești cu adevărat este ceea ce dăinuie pentru totdeauna.

Ieri am urmărit pe YouTube un spectacol grandios susținut de trupe legendare din anii '80, invitate la un eveniment colosal organizat în Rusia. La peste 60 de ani, vocea vibrantă a artistei Precious Wilson părea un miracol viu, o forță care transcende timpul, păstrându-și vioiciunea aproape mai bine ca la 20 de ani.

Mi-am dat seama că aceasta este esența unui VIBE autentic: să sfidezi barierele timpului, să porți în glas ecoul vârstei de aur și să reverși pe scenă o energie ce transcende limitele biologice. Mai curând, prestația ei a fost o demonstrație de forță interioară, o explozie a sufletului care vibra pe ritmurile vieții fără oprire. Asemenea unui vin nobil care devine mai prețios cu fiecare an, artistul adevărat își rafinează expresia artistică până când vârsta devine irelevantă. Nu-i aşa?

Leadership: Cum poate procesul de auto-întreținere spirituală să conducă la transcenderea vârstei, înscriindu-se în dinamica unei creații perpetue?

Energia ei radia din fiecare mișcare scenică, părând să sfideze legile fizicii. Y con el espíritu de una juventud eterna, vibe-ul ei susţinea demonstrația vie a faptului că timpul poate fi învins atunci când pasiunea arde cu flacără nestinsă. Vocea, la fel de tânără, neînfrântă de timp, a strălucit încă o dată prin acea măiestrie unică, printr-un soi de magie scenică, făcând ca vârsta să devină irelevantă.

Privind această demonstrație de vitalitate, îmi amintesc cuvintele lui Goethe: „Tinerețea nu este o perioadă a vieții, ci o stare de spirit." Artistul adevărat nu îmbătrânește niciodată, ci doar își adaugă noi straturi de profunzime la expresia sa artistică, tot așa cum un arbore își învăluie trunchiul cu inele ce povestesc despre fiecare anotimp trăit. Tot aici se împletește, ca într-o țesătură fină, o scenă din povestea lui Andersen:

Leadership: Poate fragilitatea unui moment încărcat de emoție să devină fundamentul puterii tale interioare de neclintit, fără să te pierzi în amintiri copleșitoare?

În grădina înflorită a unui castel vechi, într-un amurg de vară când aerul era încărcat cu parfum de trandafiri, doi tineri își trăiau ultima lor întâlnire. Un silf curios, o făptură delicată a aerului, plutea nevăzut printre flori, atras de emoția pură a momentului. Cu inima grea, fata știa că această despărțire era inevitabilă - războiul îl chema pe iubitul ei departe. Printre lacrimi, ea alese cel mai frumos trandafir din grădină, șoptindu-i parcă un secret când îl sărută. În acea clipă de tandrețe, petalele se deschiseră ca prin magie, oferind silfului un adăpost perfect pentru a fi martor tăcut al acestei povești de dragoste.

Fata plângea și îi dărui tânărului un trandafir. Dar înainte de a i-l întinde, depuse o sărutare atât de caldă și duioasă pe petalele lui, încât acesta se deschise. Atunci micul silf zbură înăuntru și-și sprijini capul pe petalele gingașe și înmiresmate. Acum putea asculta în liniște cuvintele de despărțire ale celor doi. Simți apoi cum trandafirul fu așezat la pieptul tânărului. Vai, cum îi mai bătea inima flăcăului ! Zvâcnea atât de tare, încât silful nu putea dormi.

Leadership: Ce impact are armonizarea dintre trăire și expresie asupra consolidării unei prezențe autentice, în relație cu crearea unor momente eterne?

Adevărata artă este precum un trandafir sărutat în pragul despărțirii: cu cât timpul apasă mai greu, cu atât deschide mai adânc petalele emoției. Iar după părerea mea, există un „Luminaris Vitae Synoptix", un punct magic unde experiența și energia se îmbină perfect, creând o prezență scenică ce radiază mai multă vitalitate decât mulți artiști aflați la început de drum.

Uneori, forța interioară devine atât de intensă încât timpul se frânge în fața ei, iar emoția devine veșnică. Iar când vocea și inima se unesc, ele păstrează vie o strălucire care nu se stinge niciodată. Fie spus, sufletul autentic păstrează puritatea emoției în momentele de maximă intensitate, reflectând astfel miracolul vieții: o armonie perfectă între trăire și expresie, care atinge inimile și inspiră generații.

De fapt, numai în ceea ce pui suflet şi pasiune, rămâne nemuritor.

Vibe-ul artistei întrece orice așteptare. Este ca și cum timpul însuși ar face o plecăciune în fața unui astfel de suflet, recunoscând că nu poate învinge ceea ce este impregnat de esența pură a artei. Pentru mine arta ei este ca o revelație: „Ceea ce trăiești cu adevărat este ceea ce dăinuie pentru totdeauna."

Adevărata artă a comunicării constă în mesajul care ajunge la ceilalți, chiar și atunci când vocea și expresia dispar.

Triumful spiritului asupra timpului se reflectă în capacitatea de a transcende limitele fizice și de a lăsa o amprentă eternă prin autenticitate și pasiune. La urma urmelor, această energie rezultată din măiestria armonizării profunde dintre trăire și expresie nu este întâmplătoare. Este rezultatul unui proces de auto-întreținere interioară.

Triunghiul Abstract

Povestea cea mai lungă a Creaţiei este împlinirea ştiinţei de a fi tu însuţi o ştiinţă.

Frumoase sunt poveștile, dar lumea a uitat de ele. Nimeni nu le mai trăiește cu intensitate, nimeni nu le mai citeşte cu sufletul la gură, mulţi au uitat de ele, sau nici măcar n-au auzit. O asemenea poveste este "Neverending Story". O citeam prin anul întâi de facultate, dar am văzut ecranizarea ei prin clasa a 2-a. Acestei povești memorabile, diferită de toate celelalte, i se poate atribui acea trăire a divinităţii într-un vis misterios, apropiată de acea trăire a unei vieţi pline de suspans şi necunoscut, fiindcă pare a fi scrisă de o mână care instinctiv ştie totul despre sufletul oamenilor liberi, visători, idealişti.

Și tot nu pot uita cele trei mari probe, foarte grele, prin care a trebuit să treacă personajul principal, pe nume Bastian: proba Sfincșilor, proba Oglinzilor și proba Norocului.

Curajul era doar începutul, întotdeauna curajoși găsești peste tot. Dar mai departe toți dădeau greș...

Leadership: Creația ta reprezintă oglinda unei realități superioare, construită după ideea: "Învață să separi Divinitatea ta personală creatoare în cele trei persoane ale Trinității"?

Pe parcursul cărţii am încercat să găsesc piatra filosofală numită "încredere", pe care altădată Voltaire o confundase cu "adevărul" într-un context cvasi-figurativ. Dar găsirea pietrei filosofale era de departe o operațiune prea delicată pentru cine nu era pregătit spiritual să se schimbe. Mai importante erau acele câteva chei secrete de înţelegere, de mare încărcătură mistică, pe care nimeni nu le putea distinge prea bine doar prin vizionarea filmului (ce-i drept, excepțional realizat), ci doar citind cartea le puteai găsi, iar asta numai dacă știai unde să îți focalizezi atenția.

În asta constă diferența dintre oameni. Nu este vorba despre învingători și învinși, despre religii sau despre cultură, despre încredere sau despre adevăr. Este vorba că unii au visat, au căutat, au știut unde să privească și au descoperit cheile care i-au ajutat să treacă cu brio cele trei probe fatale.

Un cabalist adevărat ar fi rezumat astfel subiectul cărţii: "Învață să separi Divinitatea ta personală creatoare în cele trei persoane ale Trinității".

Prin urmare, luați seama la Triunghiul Abstract care nu piere odată cu lucrurile create în această lume. Prefer aici să mă gândesc la cartea fundamentală a unei literaturi bine scrise, dincolo de gusturi şi curente, dar şi la importanţa unei ştiinţe despre suflet care studiază realitatea profundă din universul stărilor mentale, mai cuprinzătoare decât universul strict fizic. Bastian este doar un personaj obişnuit pentru cei mai mulţi cititori, dar pentru cei iniţiaţi în tainele cunoaşterii, el reprezintă oglinda unei realităţi superioare.

Leadership: Cum te raportezi la trăirea unei vieţi plină de iluminare, în condiţiile de validare a unei ştiinţe considerată ca făcând parte dintr-o existenţă ce merită povestită în altă variantă de expunere a conţinutului ei?

Succesiunea cuvintelor de care m-am ataşat, citind o poveste plină de tâlc, ascunzând multe emoţii, îmi dezvăluie o hartă pe care doresc cu nerăbdare să o parcurg pentru a mă regăsi pe mine şi pentru a avea din nou încredere în puterea mea sacră. Există cuvinte ce pot vindeca, cuvinte ce pot alina, cuvinte ce pot ajuta. Iar toate cuvintele care îmi atrag atenţia despre posibilitatea existenţei mele într-o carte plină de amintiri, plină de emoții, plină de ezoterisme şi de locuri îndepărtate, au o putere magică pentru că aduc în prim plan împlinirea mea spirituală.

Cuvintele pot să furnizeze interpretări ale unor experienţe transformatoare personale, iar eu încerc să interpretez concluziile lor din punct de vedere al unui creator de poveşti adevărate care ştie să scrie o capodoperă printr-o persoană interpusă (un personaj autentic). Iar calitatea de a fi un Creator emană din atitudinea mea faţă de efectele ştiinţei pe care o cultiv, aceasta putând fi etichetată drept o odisee a spiritului ludic şi imaginativ. În sfârşit mă simt parte din cuvintele unei poveşti care cere uzul inimii şi minţii.

Leadership: Știința ta îți cere să încetezi să fii pasiv într-o realitate fără perspective, fără pretenții de exclusivitate, fără vise, învățând să te exprimi în termeni de "călătorie"?

Un cuvânt este o lume, atât de aproape de un alt cuvânt, deci de o altă lume. Plecând de la acest considerent, am învăţat să fiu eu însumi o ştiinţă, transformându-mi viaţa într-o poveste care nu aş vrea să se mai sfârşească. Cred că asta înseamnă să iubeşti ştiinţa, să încetezi să fii pasiv într-o realitate fără perspective, fără pretenţii de exclusivitate, fără vise, şi să înveţi să te exprimi în termeni de "călătorie" care începe şi se termină cu viziunea deschisă asupra unei realităţi ignorate de toţi.

Spun asta deoarece povestea cea mai lungă a Creaţiei este împlinirea ştiinţei de a fi eu însumi o ştiinţă. Însăşi ştiinţa povestirii este tot o poveste, la fel de lungă ca şi împlinirea unui vis care schimbă viitorul, în momentul când prezenţa ta se loveşte de o realitate care spune mai mult decât orice cuvânt. Această realitate trebuie să ofere prilejul descoperirii unei alte feţe a propriei mele personalităţi, o trăire a vieţii fără lupte, încrâncenări şi frustrări, în temeiul unei modalităţi de cunoaştere a unei realităţi suprasensibile, coborând de la universal la particular.

Leadership: Conţinutul poveştii tale de viaţă are puterea să valideze o ştiinţă a cărei pregnanţă este evidentă în cauzalitatea legăturii dintre ceea ce se exprimă prin cuvinte și ceea poate fi exprimat printr-o interiorizare a cuvintelor?

O existenţă ce merită povestită în altă variantă de expunere a conţinutului ei este expresia unei transformări profunde a realităţii în care condiția omului este reprezentată fără prea multă consistenţă, într-o realitate mai largă, printr-o viziune care înseninează orizontul ideilor pure.

Aici îşi face loc o exprimare deosebită, prin cuvinte ce pot fi interiorizate drept ceva dedus aprioric din ideea de "Sânul Infinit al Duratei", la modul că tot ceea ce mintea concepe şi crede cu adevărat, poate să devină o realitate firească în cadrul diferitelor moduri de raportare la timp, la ştiinţă şi la viaţa de dincolo de oglindă.

Cred că povestea în care mă regăsesc cel mai bine este asemenea unei amprente energetice provenită din experienţa vieţii, a cărei unicitate îi sporeşte misterul. La fel de bine poate fi o formă de ameliorare a existenţei, o formă de spiritualizare a unui artist care se hrăneşte cu euforia creaţiei. Asta este, de fapt, o viaţă plină de iluminare: este procesul dezvoltării acelui simţ al adevărului din fiinţa ta care reacţionează la cauzalitatea unei poveşti spusă cu tâlc, cu măiestrie, prin experiența definitorie a dualităţii dintre trup şi suflet, dintre vis şi realitate.

Modul de manifestare al leadershipului depinde de capacitatea omului de a se exprima şi de a-şi susţine cu îndrăzneală opiniile, ca şi când ar fi manifestarea alegerii de a experimenta viaţa din perspectiva unei poveşti care îşi păstrează conţinutul pe o durată nelimitată.

Triunghiul Abstract cuprinde trei realităţi diferite care alcătuiesc esenţa unei poveşti nemuritoare (prin însăşi conţinutul ei atât de sublim): o realitate numită Lumea Spirituală, o realitate numită Vis (sau plenitudine indivizibilă în mişcare curgătoare) şi o realitate numită Timp. Mai trebuie să luăm în calcul un aspect privilegiat pentru ca lumea să aibă acces la sfera emoţională a subiectului: să fim noi înşine o creaţie care are curajul de a coborî în teribilul joc al încarnării.

Povestea merge mai departe...

Tronați în chip de Isus pe Golgota cinematografiei?

On Iunie 5, 2011

Un artist adevărat poate să păstreze intensitatea suflului revoluționar, evitând acomodarea cu mediocritatea care slăbește spiritul creativ și energia inovatoare.

Mi-e teamă, tare teamă. Și, totuși, faptele sunt de partea mea. Este vorba de faptul că încetăm să fim frondeurs. Devenim călători. Am impresia că marele suflu al lui 1917, care a lansat cinematografia noastră, începe să se disperseze… Devenim clasici. Rănile sângerânde sunt vindecate – nu mai există prilejul de a lansa strigătele ascuțite care sfâșie tradițiile peliculei! Torțe cu frișcă – simboluri ale dulcii împăcări – în locul urii demontate! Ne pierdem dinții. Încetăm să fim luptători. Devenim rentieri. Foarte rentieri și foarte mici! Ne pierdem dinții pentru că nu mai avem nevoie de ei: nu e nevoie să mesteci ceea ce iese din gură! Și este foarte greu să nu vomiți când curentul te duce spre insula „mediei juste".

Această medie justă, aceste "aproape" în loc de DA și NU. Îți răscolesc sângele. Îți răstoarnă măruntaiele… Dacă îmi spuneți că tronați în chip de Isus pe Golgota cinematografiei, eu, la rândul meu, nu mă simt mai puțin spânzurat alături de dumneavoastră. În chip de bun sau rău tâlhar – asta nu pot spune. (Se va vedea: dacă sucomb, va însemna că am fost cel rău.) Dar, în orice caz, cu pieptul străpuns!

Leadership: Cum poate un organism creativ să regăsească energia luptei inițiale, chiar și atunci când sistemul artistic devine mai tolerant și mai puțin combativ?

Marele suflu revoluționar al cinematografiei trece prin faze de agresivitate și atenuare, asemenea sistemului imunitar. În fazele active, reacția artistică era violentă, cu strigăte ascuțite care sfâșiau tradițiile și răni sângerânde care mobilizau energia creatoare. În timp, această reactivitate se dispersează, sistemul artistic devenind mai tolerant, mai puțin combativ - pierdem dinții luptătorilor. Cum spuneam mai devreme, această adaptare la media justă răscolește sângele și răstoarnă măruntaiele creative, indicând o slăbire a capacității de revoltă împotriva agenților conformismului.

În aceeaşi direcţie, pieptul străpuns al artistului devine un simptom al acestei toleranțe excesive, unde sucombarea în fața mediocrității reprezintă diagnosticul final al unui organism creativ care și-a pierdut capacitatea de a respinge compromisurile.

Da. Există o teamă profundă în orice domeniu creativ de a ajunge la o stagnare, unde faptele confirmă o pierdere a impulsului inițial, acel suflu care naște luptători ai ideii promulgatoare de nou. În loc de inovatori, devenim călători care se complac în obiceiuri sigure, pierzând din intensitate și din sângele viu al începuturilor. Apar tot mai multe tradiții care înlocuiesc rădăcinile curajoase și sângerânde ale creației, iar strigătele ce odată sfâșiau limitele sunt înlocuite de conformism. Cu siguranţă, această transformare ne erodează, lăsându-ne clasici, lipsiți de vigoare, aproape ca niște rentieri, împăcați cu liniștea și fără răni deschise.

Așa cum mediul industrial transformă inovația în rutină, media justă devine o forță care absoarbe extremitatea și își pierde marginea ascuțită. Creativitatea e afectată și, deși trupul rămâne, sufletul parcă este spânzurat, simțindu-se străpuns. Astfel, există riscul de a sucomba sub aceste presiuni, devenind tot mai mici, tot mai docili, ca și cum idealurile de altădată sunt înghițite de un curent al conformismului. Este o luptă interioară între a accepta această stare de echilibru mort și a rămâne fidel unei creații vii, chiar dacă prețul este să sucombăm în încercare.

În leadership, forța creativă se opune curentelor de compromis, înscriindu-se în dinamica unei lupte continue pentru autenticitate artistică. De fapt, leadershipul creativ își menține forța contestatară, opunându-se sistematic tendințelor de standardizare care diluează arta.

Tronați în chip de Isus pe Golgota cinematografiei? Aceasta este întrebarea pe care trebuie să și-o pună toți acești artiști care s-au îndepărtat de viziunea lor originală, fiindcă orice compromis artistic înseamnă o trădare a spiritului revoluționar, prin faptul că diminuează autenticitatea creației. Spun asta pe fondul unei profunde îngrijorări pentru viitorul artei, întrucât mediocritatea începe să devină normă – fenomen adiacent unei pierderi generale a curajului creator.

Tu cum îţi demonstrezi performanţa?

Manifestă-ţi preţuirea pentru calităţile tale deosebite, ca să câştigi o acceptare deplină din partea celorlalţi oameni.

În webinarul "Convinge-mă că eşti în viaţă" am povestit despre cunoscutul actor român, Puiu Călinescu. Aş dori, şi de această dată, să prezint un moment din viaţa lui profesională, pentru a evidenţia mai bine principiul pe care vreau să-l exprim.

Realizatoarea emisiunii "Profesioniştii", Eugenia Vodă, l-a întrebat pe Puiu Călinescu dacă i-a fost vreodată rănit orgoliul în munca lui profesională. El i-a răspuns într-un fel anume, amintind de un alt moment din viaţa lui actoricească:

În tinereţe îmi fusese scos un rinichi. De aceea aveam uneori crize de rinichi chiar şi pe scenă. Când venea o criză, nu mă programa. La una din crizele de pe scenă am ieşit să-mi facă doctorul o morfină. A dat pantalonii jos. A băgat acul. Dar exact în momentul când mi-a băgat acul, mi-a venit rândul la scenă. Aşa că am tras imediat pantalonii peste ac, şi am intrat cu acul în mine.. şi cu acul ăla în mine am dansat... Asta-i meseria. Dacă vrei s-o faci. Dacă nu, lasă-l pe altul s-o facă.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi împingi limitele propriei fiinţe dinspre eventualitatea prezenţei unei suferinţe statornice care pare a se prelungi până dincolo de ceea ce sigur te formează, spre o versiune de sine pe care nu ai luat-o în considerare?

Viteza cu care acţionezi sau implementezi o decizie în viaţa profesională este vitală pentru îmbunătăţirea performanţelor tale, care la rândul lor depind de "platforma" pe care se poziţionează şi se dezvoltă abilităţile tale. Dacă cauţi să excelezi în viaţa profesională, atunci trebuie să fii pregătit să-ţi joci rolul şi să-ţi asumi responsabilitatea pe drumul greu spre performanţă.

Adică, trebuie să-ţi activezi "serviciul de plată" - care vădeşte capacitatea ta psihologică de a accepta momentele dificile şi încercările la care eşti supus şi de a-ţi juca în continuare rolul la cote înalte. Acest "serviciu de plată" este un mod de a-ţi testa limitele propriei performanţe profesionale, şi totodată de a-ţi împinge limitele propriei fiinţe, atât fizice cât şi psihice, către un nivel superior de profesionalism şi eficienţă.

Da, şi tu vei avea de cotizat la acest "serviciu de plată" dacă vrei să primeşti bile albe din partea celor care te înconjoară. Cum? Prin sacrificiu şi prin concentrare în momentele de cumpănă, prin credinţa ta, prin forţa abilităţilor tale şi a dedicării pe care o arăţi în slujba leadershipului tău, a idealurilor şi valorilor tale. Leadershipul care nu rezistă în timp este supus continuu unui proces de deteriorare, datorat în principal slabei performanţe a acelui individ care nu reuşeşte să se apropie de recordul de eficienţă pe care trebuie să-l înregistreze ca să poată să beneficieze de sprijinul total al oamenilor.

Omul care a dobândit puterea de a crede cu adevărat în realizările sale, şi pe care eu îl numesc performer, se află într-un continuu proces de evaluare a eficienţei. Deseori lumea nu înţelege deciziile unui astfel de om, nu poate să desluşească ceea ce urmăreşte el prin atitudinile sale şi prin acţiunile pe care le iniţiază în momentele cele mai dificile. Lumea nu înţelege cauza şi consecinţele gândirii şi emoţiilor unui performer. Cert este că el face dovada excelentei sale pregătiri într-un domeniu, a calităţilor sale deosebite, integrându-se în rolul său printr-o "calibrare" a sacrificiilor, printr-o concentrare adecvată (fizică, psihică şi emoţională), indiferent de postura în care este pus.

Leadership: Poţi face dovada calităţilor tale deosebite integrându-te cât mai bine în rolul tău, în orice fel de situaţie, fără să provoci efectul unei simţiri revoltate?

Îţi împingi limitele propriei fiinţe, atât fizice cât şi psihice, către un nivel superior de profesionalism şi eficienţă - făcând sacrificii, acceptând compromisuri în situaţiile delicate? Îţi vei continua drumul spre performanţă atunci când nu reuşeşti să "conduci" excelent?

Te întreb, viitor lider, care este preţul pe care îl plăteşti pentru transformarea ta spre un statut concordant cu nivelul tău de aspiraţii? Actorul român, Puiu Călinescu, a intrat cu acul în dânsul pe scenă şi a dansat. El a plătit preţul pentru a se menţine la cote înalte, conferind leadershipului său o strălucire aparte prin capacitatea lui unică de a-şi înfrunta slăbiciunile, de a-şi minimaliza durerea şi disconfortul, punându-şi în scenă talentul şi abilităţile de actor într-un spectacol de-a dreptul vibrant.

Construirea unei atitudini de conştientizare a dificultăţilor şi a impactului pe care acestea le pot avea asupra stării tale de spirit, deci a unei atitudini care te menţine în contact cu tine însuţi - face parte din obiectivele tuturor orientărilor tale spre sporirea performanţelor. Ca lider te vei simţi deseori dezechilibrat în momentele grele, te vei confrunta cu tendinţa de a-ţi ascunde emoţiile, manifestată printr-o anumită duplicitate, printr-o mască, prin croirea unei noi identităţi. Dar în orice situaţie te vei afla, întotdeauna va trebui să te concentrezi asupra calităţilor tale cele mai evidente, profitând de toate talentele pe care le ai pentru a-ţi juca rolul impecabil şi pentru a avea succes.

Ţi-ai dezvoltat o atitudine de conştientizare a dificultăţilor? Cum ţi-ai putea defini atitudinea în momentele dificile? Cum va funcţiona atunci performanţa ta? Atitudinea te ajută să-ţi pui în valoare cel mai bine abilităţile şi calităţile? Cum testezi şi cum îţi dovedeşti performanţa? Recurgi la schimbarea atitudinii tale sau îţi păstrezi într-un colţişor ultimele forţe, hrănindu-te doar cu speranţa?

A provoca efectul unei simţiri revoltate înseamnă să interpui o cauză propice dezvoltării tale în anumite situaţii ce ar putea antrena un febril proces de conştiinţă din care iese, aparent, o nouă certitudine: omul nu îşi poate resimţi acţiunea ori trăirea ca fiind cu adevărat pline de sens.

Primul lucru necesar în leadership este un mic proces de conştiinţă ca să priveşti cu luciditate situaţia.

Tu cum îţi demonstrezi performanţa? Cum ţi-ai propus să începi drumul spre performanţă? Ce acţiuni întreprinzi ca să excelezi în relaţia ta cu ceilalţi oamenii? Cât de mult ţi-ai dezvoltat capacitatea de a accepta erorile sau, după caz, deficienţele propriei activităţi? Cum îţi testezi limitele propriei performanţe profesionale?

Slujeşte-ţi cu sinceritate şi putere, încât tot ceea ce-ţi trădează deficienţa de "a fi" să fie îmbrăcat cu un nou înveliş protector al identităţii tale.

Ceea ce-mi străbate acum trupul mişcându-se din celulă în celulă, punându-mi sângele într-o mişcare accelerată, ceea ce-mi zvâcneşte zgomotos în tâmple punându-mi nervii la încercare este acel fior răscolitor dat de senzaţia de deja vu . Iluzia ciudată că am mai trăit cândva o experienţă intensă asemănătoare, într-un decor departe de lumea actuală, care îmbina deopotrivă o atmosferă plăcută şi atrăgătoare cu una aparte, ostilă şi sufocantă.

A fost ceasul în care m-am recunoscut pentru întâia oară. Îmi amintesc cu exactitate fiecare amănunt, căci atunci a început viaţa pentru mine. Tot ceea ce trăda durerea mea, şi care a găsit suport la tine, a fost acoperit cu o aură de energie pozitivă. Camera obscură în care mi-am închis toate gândurile şi sentimentele s-a luminat. Şi în această lumină, la început foarte slabă, apoi din ce în ce mai strălucitoare, îmi închipuiam că voi trăi totul. Fără să exist într-o dualitate cu tine, cu mine însămi, cu lupte, limitări şi multă suferinţă.

Am reuşit pe parcursul timpului să ajung directoare, singura directoare de sex feminin din compania "London Diamond". Acum, nu mă mai încântă deloc nici măcar să-mi amintesc de acele vremuri, de aceeaşi Laura Quinn supusă rătăcirii. Şi totuşi, ştiu că între mine cea de acum şi cea care am fost atunci, există o anumită complicitate ce poate definită în termenii tranșanți de opoziție versus colaborare.

Tu şi eu, eu şi cu mine însămi. Dulcea şi blânda ecuaţie cuprinsă între haos, stres, incertitudine şi neînţeles, în care au pătruns calmul, inteligenţa, subtilitatea şi mai ales dragostea. Toate dezlănţuindu-se cu o forţă teribilă, având un efect de estompare a elementelor exagerate ale timpului, care în combinaţie cu resorturile de la extremităţile condiţiei de "a fi" au întărit devotamentul nostru. *****

Leadership: Felul în care iţi dezvălui personalitatea slujeşte rolului pe care urmează să îl joace viziunea propriei tale măreţii într-o realitate care este în acelaşi timp unitate deschisă şi pluralitate complexă?

Simţi acel fior dat de senzaţia de deja vu? Exişti în dualitate cu tine însuţi, cu lupte, limitări şi multă suferinţă? Între tine cel de acum şi cel care ai fost există o anumită complicitate ce poate fi definită în termenii tranşanţi de opoziţie versus colaborare?

De cele mai multe ori obiecţiile şi reproşurilor aduse omului şi metodei sale de interpretare a realităţii (care accentuează lupta dintre " a fi " şi " a nu fi ", dintre bine şi rău, corect-greşit, lumină-întuneric), vizează, în ultima analiză, printr-un adaos de înţelegere a trecutului, concepţia relaţiilor dintre atitudinea subiectivă, părtinitoare faţă de cineva sau de ceva, şi atitudinea imparţială care reclamă o independenţă de judecată şi obiectivism.

Chiar acolo unde aceste două atitudini existenţiale ale omului se mărginesc la a fi de acord sau în dezacord faţă de luările de poziţie atât de tranşante ale ieşirii din stadiul de epuizare psihic şi emoţional, putem foarte uşor să adăugăm, şterge sau comuta noi elemente, creând noi legături în întregul său sistem de funcţionare.

În felul acesta lumea de dincolo de oglindă în care omul se reflectă de obicei, va depăşi în esenţa ei superficialitatea. Datorită dependenţei de a se consuma cu propriile gânduri amare, cu îndoielile şi complexele aferente stării de discontinuitate, omul, nereuşind să fie pe placul lui, pe aceeaşi lungime de undă cu propriul sine, primeşte cea mai puternică lovitură a destinului. Este aruncat într-un decor ostil, în care nu se mai recunoaşte pe sine.

Dar viaţa poate oricând să renască din propriile-i neajunsuri, omul poate oricând să scoată ceva bun dintr-o rătăcire, devenind un împlinitor al progresului propriu. Tot ceea ce-i trădează durerea, şi care găseşte suport în însăşi autoritatea propriei fiinţe, poate să fie îmbrăcat cu un nou înveliş protector care să întărească aspectele pozitive ale identităţii sale. Camera obscură în care îşi închide toate gândurile şi sentimentele se va lumina doar dacă va trăi în dualitate cu el însuşi, încât să fie mai presus de orice limitări.

Leadership: Validarea imaginii tale de sine în faţa lumii implică o situaţie ce este relevantă doar într-o perspectivă spirituală care nu poate fi observată la prima vedere, dar care îţi salvează demnitatea?

Leadershipul este produsul exclusiv al omului, iar această ştiinţă se perfecţionează numai dacă se acordă interesul cuvenit asupra identităţii pe care el şi-o făureşte trăgând învăţături din lecţiile vieţii, deci din trecutul său, din situaţiile care l-au aruncat într-o lumină nefavorabilă.

Leadershipul intervine cu forţe noi de sprijin atunci omul ascunde cutia plină de gânduri şi trăiri negative într-un loc străin, uitat, încât să reuşească să se detaşeze de tot ceea ce nu se încadrează în standarde de convingeri pozitive, în standardele înalte de siguranţă personală.

Vizavi de această chestiune, politicianul german Ernst Thalmann, ţinea să precizeze: " În amintirile noastre, trecutul ne stă viu în faţă, tocmai pentru a sluji viitorul şi nu ca o contemplare deznădăjduită ."

Liderul nu are valoare fără existenţa unor condiţii adecvate progresului său. Virtutea lui este generată prin cunoaşterea trecutului, deci de provocările timpului, care în combinaţie cu structura lui funcţională i-au întărit credinţa şi convingerea că numai astfel poate exista.

Leadership: Înţelegerea trecutului te ţine captiv într-o stare incertă de aşteptare nedefinită, din care nu poţi să te detaşezi decât printr-o analogie cu schimbarea ordinii propriilor convingeri necondiţionate de vreo "tarifare" ulterioară?

Temeiurile cele mai solide ale concepţiei finale asupra formei de manifestare a omului, în special, prin înţelegerea trecutului care, poate, l-a ţinut captiv într-o stare incertă de "a fi", fundamentează valoarea leadershipului, constituind o fereastră de iluminare în atitudinile și convingerile sale viitoare.

Este însă un adevăr uşor verificabil, dar totodată uşor de contestat, că orice insuficienţă sau fisură în metoda proprie de interpretare a trecutului, atât de bogat în învăţăminte, care poate dezlega tainele desăvârşirii şi reuşitei depline, îşi are în mod logic rădăcinile în înseşi premisele şi articulaţiile sistemului de gândire şi de valori a omului.

Fără să negăm valoarea înţelesului atribuit trecutului, acumulând învăţămintele rezultate şi încadrându-le în marea unitate a personalităţii noastre, vom putea obţine o nouă combinaţie complexă, direct proporţională cu proprietăţile stabile de a fi, de a gândi, de dăruire şi iubire.

Astfel vom deveni stăpânii incontestabili ai propriei fiinţe. Dacă înainte viaţa era numai ceva tulbure şi tern, dintr-o dată ea va prinde culoare, devenind mai interesantă.

Felul în care te priveşti din perspectiva a ceea ce te face să suferi este o renaștere la altceva decât ceea ce erai înainte, ceva care te împinge să trăieşti mai prezent clipa de faţă, în apreciere faţă de micile daruri ale vieţii.

În leadership acest lucru se poate exprima printr-o metaforă: "încearcă să vezi mai departe printr-o lacrimă decât printr-un telescop".

Tu eşti eu, iar eu sunt tu (II) desemnează acea latură ascunsă în tine care îşi aduce contribuţia la dezvoltarea întregii tale fiinţe, îndepărtându-te de pe drumul rătăcirii. În grădina vieţii (ce poate fi un paradis), nu ai timp să-ţi reproşezi neatenţiile şi greşelile. Poţi doar să-ţi slujeşti cu sinceritate şi putere, încât tot ceea ce-ţi trădează deficienţa de " a fi " să fie îmbrăcat cu un nou înveliş protector al identităţii tale.

Cu alte cuvinte, analizează-ţi trecutul, implică-te în prezent şi vei putea să dai cortina timpului de-o parte, întrezărind viitorul.

Tu eşti eu, iar eu sunt tu (III)

Încearcă să dobândeşti acea cunoaștere de sine care poate să-ţi ofere răspunsul la întrebarea „încotro?", facilitând ancorarea atitudinii lăuntrice într-o gândire reflexivă.

Un organism cu o anumită structură temporară, dar bine funcţională, născut în mine ca din senin şi dezvoltat odată cu trecerea timpului, îmi dicta precis fiecare fibră din corp, stimulând fiecare bătaie a inimii prin semnale electrice care treceau prin toţi nervii, neputând fi depistate de niciun aparat. Un organism numit EMPATIE. Prin integrarea lui în mine s-a obţinut o nouă combinaţie complexă, invers proporţională cu proprietăţile mele de a fi, de a gândi, de dăruire şi iubire.

De atunci totul s-a schimbat, am devenit un alt om. Dacă înainte viaţa mea era numai ceva tulbure şi tern, în care fericirea nu apărea niciodată, dintr-o dată ea a prins culoare, a devenit mai interesantă. În această aventură a deschiderii şi a diversităţii în atmosfera încordată, fiorii începeau să îşi facă simţită prezenţa la fiecare pas. Suspansul potenţat de întrebări care nu-şi găseau răspunsul, misterul de a descoperi imprevizibilul, de a şti cum vor evolua lucrurile, de a sluji necunoscutului, se conturau tot mai pregnant.

Oare ce va urma? Oare va fi aşa cum cred eu, aşa cum mi-am dorit dintotdeauna? Mereu şi mereu aceleaşi întrebări îmi puneau inima la încercare. Am ieşit din inerţie !

Leadership: Bucuria de a te reinventa la un nivel nou calitativ al vieţii ascunde o poveste în care cuvântul de ordine este de a nu vorbi despre "umilinţa" de a te supune tuturor ipostazelor momentului?

Funcţionarea acestui organism tenace, tendenţios, de neclintit, rezultat parcă din reacţii chimice celulare eliberatoare de energie indispensabilă procesului vital al transformării mele, producea rezultate benefice de fiecare dată. Putând fi observată în orice moment al vieţii, în orice hotărâre pe care o luam.

Un sentiment teribil stăruia în mine, acea siguranţă nesfârşită, acea regăsire a liniştii interioare care mă desprindea complet de toate frământările vieţii. Făcându-mă să simt că zbor, ca într-un vis nemaipomenit, alături de un joc spectaculos de-a prinselea. Voiam să prind ce mai rămăsese bun şi pur în mine, să prind cerul liber, răsăritul, şi să înţeleg azurul.

Ascultă-mă, tu, care n-ai obosit să-mi fii alături în momentele zbuciumate ! Numai datorită ţie am reuşit să fiu altfel. Acum, după atâta vreme, mă simt uşurată de cea mai grea povară. Visurile mele s-au împlinit. Totuşi, ceva iritant, ceva persistent arde atât de puternic în pieptul meu, declanşator de emoţii, determinând reacţii intense în suflet.

Pot, oare, să am speranţa că-mi vei transmite mereu aceeaşi stimuli puternici ai extazului, acelaşi impuls binecuvântat spre fericirea deplină? Ipostaza momentului care m-a provocat să depăşesc o barieră a fost starea de spirit care m-a făcut să fiu altcineva, atrăgând sensul unei vieţi extraordinare, semnificaţia unei misiuni mai înalte în lume, atingerea unui ideal intelectual.

Leadership: Dovedeşti flexibilitate în a segmenta reţeaua proprie de trăiri în zone noi de putere, fără să te supui contradicţiei dintre versiunea perfectă a propriei persoane şi recomandările unei conştiinţe care se vede confruntată cu un sentiment apăsător?

Calitatea inerentă omului care nu se lasă în voia sorţii, lăsând viaţa să lucreze în favoarea lui, este acea cunoaștere de sine care poate să ofere răspunsul la întrebarea „încotro?” Adică acea parte de sine, conferind o anumită flexibilitate în abordarea diferitelor de criză, care îl determină să fie total conectat la ceea ce simte, prin ceea ce crede în privinţa experienţelor trăite.

Este, dacă se poate spune aşa, atitudinea care nu îl părăseşte pe cel sincer şi simplu în aspiraţie, acea predispoziţie care condiţionează orientarea, o cauză ascunsă sau relativ inconştientă, făcând să vibreze acea coardă care antrenează toată existenţa sa într-o aventură minunată. O aventură a deschiderii către noi posibilităţi de împlinire, ale căror noduri sunt compuse din valori de adevăr exclusive, de tip "challenge".

Transformarea de sine, în condiţiile unui consum zilnic de stări emoţionale nepotrivite atingerii obiectivului dorit, joacă totuşi un important rol în consolidarea puterii de sine, cu impact particular, care include posibilitatea unei mai bune gestionări a lecţiilor oferite de acea parte a vieţii care provoacă suferinţă. În leadership este absolut necesară, pentru o mai bună implementare a modelului propriu de orânduire a cumpătării şi măsurii, acea componentă a vieţii psihice care reflectă în forma unei trăiri subiective o anumită intensitate şi de o anumită constantă.

Zona de putere care te cucereşte prin ineditul unei noi semnificaţii atribuite vieţii este dată de relaţia dintre impulsul de a te împăca cu tine însuţi şi o atitudine care, exersată zilnic, devine un nou mod de a te caracteriza.

Intensitatea te ajută să te descoperi în cadrul unor anumite cauze variate, care ţin şi de interacţiunea cu mediul de interes, responsabilizând autorealizarea. În timp ce constanta este dată de virtutea care nu îşi modifică valoarea în timp - virtutea de a fi răbdător şi de a te comporta disciplinat în mijlocul dezordinii. A practica această virtute în fiecare etapă a vieţii, transferând momentului prezent acea intensitate a trăirii de conştiinţă, numită inductivitate, înseamnă a te ridica mai sus de ceea ce ţi se întâmplă şi de a accede la un nivel mai înalt de gândire reflexivă.

Această atitudine lăuntrică, ancorată într-o gândire reflexivă, poate fi mai greu definită şi explicată decât orice teorie a evoluţiei, dar în schimb, aplicarea ei intuitivă, din inimă, are efecte superioare. Este adevărat că, prin obţinerea măiestriei în mânuirea acestei atitudini, omul poate (auto)induce starea de imunitate asupra valorilor care conferă sens pozitiv leadershipului.

Dar cum ea este adesea trecătoare, proporţională cu energia de viaţă implicată în procesul de ascensionare spre un mai bun "Eu", rămâne deseori în urma ei un gust amar, de deşertăciune şi iluzie. Senzaţia că eşti sufocat de un spaţiu mic şi îngust în care eşti nevoit să-ţi petreci viaţa.

Recomandările unei conştiinţe care se vede confruntată cu un sentiment apăsător sunt acestea: păstrează-ţi entuziasmul începutului de drum pe care ţi-l doreşti înfloritor şi alege să mergi doar în direcţia sistemului de valori care face ca orice lucru să fie frumos la vremea lui.

Tu eşti eu, iar eu sunt tu redă acea transformare de personalitate care depinde de atitudinea adoptată pe parcursul etapelor dificile ale vieţii. Leadershipul este un răspuns la ceea ce se numeşte a te baza pe tine însuţi, prin practicarea atitudinii lăuntrice în relaţie cu ceilalţi oameni.

Să ne amintim ce spunea scriitorul Anthony Silard: "A te baza pe tine însuţi înseamnă să trăieşti conform conştiinţei şi valorilor tale, iar nu pentru a fi acceptat de ceilalţi. Când restul lumii nu este de acord cu faptele tale, îi vei lua în considerare opiniile numai atunci când ai ceva de învăţat de la ele."

Tu eşti eu, iar eu sunt tu (I)

Reabilitează-ţi interiorul întregii fiinţe, astfel încât să întăreşti acel sentiment de identitate ce poate revela adevărul necondiţionat al existenţei tale.

Vreau să cunoşti întreaga mea viaţă care întotdeauna ţi-a aparţinut şi despre care n-ai ştiut niciodată nimic. Plinul care umple golul din mine, golul care, luând forme invizibile, l-ai umplut numai cu dorinţe şi speranţe. Numai ţie vreau să-ţi vorbesc, pentru că tu eşti singura care mă cunoşti, care îmi păzeşte în întregime tainele cele mai fragile de sub învelişul propriei mele interiorităţi.

Cu fiecare răsuflare îmi simt sângele cald străbătându-mi organismul, coagulându-se rapid în contact cu veninul trufiei care îmi întunecă dreapta judecată. Trecerea timpului este şi ea paralizantă. Dar în fiecare clipă ştiu că sunt un alt om, mai fericit când mă trezesc, fiindcă acum am dat un sens vieţii mele îngheţate, un sens căruia nu-i găsesc un nume, căruia nu pot să-i dau de capăt, dar căruia îi corespunzi tu. Da, tu. Sprijinul meu real, pe care viaţa tumultoasă şi confuză mi l-a cedat printr-un gest de bunătate supremă, prin acceptare, printr-un transfer de compasiune.

Nu te teme de vorbele mele, mă cunoşti prea bine, ştii bine că tot ceea ce mă trădează este neputinţa mea de a fi acelaşi om de ieri, aceeaşi Laura Quinn, aceeaşi ciocârlie care îşi ia zborul ori de câte ori vede că nu e ascultată. Şi se întoarce mereu la cuibul ei. Rece, plin de amăgiri.

Acum, nu mai cer nimic de la mine, dar cer ceva de la tine. Să împarţi cu mine bucuria de a fi, în toate zilele ce vor urma. Să ne contopim într-o singură conştiinţă aşa cum lumina se îmbină cu întunericul formând una din cele mai magice frumuseţi ale naturii. Atâta te rog: să mă crezi, să ştii că pentru mine eşti totul. Eşti viaţa, existenţa care palpită cu frenezie într-un colţ retras din mine. Iar eu sunt acel ceva tulbure şi tern în care mă cufund deseori ca într-o hrubă în care totul e acoperit de praf şi uscat.

Leadership: Înţelesurile care se înscriu în substanţa fiinţei tale lasă urme definitive într-o unitate spirituală pe care o dă experienţa unei emoţii de care se poate ataşa cineva drag ţie?

Poate că nu-ţi mai pasă de mine, fiindcă adeseori te-am tratat cu nepăsare. Fără să ştii că nepăsarea ta, mânia ta, aprinderea ta faţă de mine a fost întotdeauna mai puternică, descurajantă.

Alteori, cuprinsă de-un extaz mistic, aproape nebunesc, m-am repezit eu la tine, cu teamă, cu disperare, cu acea nerăbdare de a întări sentimentul de identitate, de unitate. Numai ca să te simt aproape, numai ca să nu mă urăsc pe mine însămi pentru că te-am tratat cu dispreţ mai înainte. Şi tot de fiecare dată te-ai mâniat pe mine, te-ai întors împotriva mea. Haide, aminteşte-ţi ! Aminteşte-ţi !

Tu eşti eu, iar eu sunt tu. Tu care mă asculţi neîncetat, eu care n-am obosit să te accept în viaţa mea, aşa cum eşti. Eu sunt Laura. Iar tu eşti esenţa puternică şi caldă din micul meu lăcaş, prăfuit de regrete şi amăgiri, dar înnobilat de speranţe şi vise frumoase, care adeseori este zguduit, ca de-un cutremur, de cele mai întunecate gânduri şi trăiri.

Inima. Mereu trează, mereu plină de surprize, ne-a ţinut la adăpost, ne-a întărit, ne-a apropiat tot mai mult. Iar noi două, cu o comportare ideală, am stabilit o legătură între volumul şi presiunea sentimentelor resimţite. Triste sau vesele, instinctul nostru comun a răspuns într-un fel oarecare, dintr-o necesitate de supravieţuire.

Chiar şi atunci când te arătai tristă, sau te fereai de mine, eu rămâneam întotdeauna în urma ta, parcurgând acelaşi drum sinuos al vieţii. Ceva mă ţinea legat de tine, chiar dacă de-atâtea ori m-ai făcut să mă răzgândesc, să mă dau puţin înapoi. Alteori, furat de simţul ajungerii din urmă, ţi-o luam înainte, dar eram întotdeauna aproape de tine. Chiar şi atunci când îmi strigai vorbe de ocară, eu te ascultam. Cu drag, sau cu mâhnire. Dar niciodată cu regret. Ci întotdeauna cu speranţă, plină de visuri. Haide, aminteşte-ţi !

Ştiu că atunci când diamantele vor fi găsite, dacă ni se va dovedi vinovăţia, vom fi amândouă puse în aceeaşi situaţie disperată. Dar vom fi împreună, la bine şi la rău, nu-i aşa? Vom fi întotdeauna aproape, închise în acelaşi lăcaş primitor al întregii noastre fiinţe. Nu-i aşa?

Fiindcă tu eşti eu, iar eu sunt tu. Un întreg care există, autoritatea centrală conducătoare a unei singure fiinţe. Eu însămi. Laura Quinn.

Leadership: Te laşi învăluit de senzaţia de învârtire în două sensuri opuse atunci când complexul interacţiunilor în care eşti angajat depinde de experienţa unei emoţii care nu este recunoscută?

Aparţii de cineva ascuns care ştie totul despre tine? Cum te ajută el să dai un sens vieţii tale? Pe cine adăposteşti în lăcaşul primitor al întregii tale fiinţe? Te temi de tine însuţi, de ceea ce eşti, de ceea ce simţi? Ce anume te determină să te socoteşti superior sau inferior ţie însuţi?

În leadership, fiecare om este în acelaşi timp spectator, regizor, actor, dar mai ales un înger cu o singură aripă, şi nu poate zbura decât îmbrăţişându-şi prietenul cel mai bun. Pe el însuşi, acea forţă interioară, nevoiaşă, singulară, care se manifestă asupra fiinţei sale în tranziţia spre maturitate. Plinul care umple golul din întreaga lui fiinţă, golul care, luând forme invizibile, îl umple numai cu dorinţe şi speranţe.

Naşterea leadershipului, cristalizată în principalele sale axe şi categorii de excelenţă, încă de la primele semne de apariţie, este strâns legată de definitivarea omului ca întreg, pentru a asigura progresul spre stadiul lui avansat de " a fi ", înainte de a se produce transformarea spre stadiul de excelent. Practic omul este plasat într-o dinamică proprie care depinde de complexul interacţiunilor în care este angajat şi al efectelor neprevăzute pe care trebuie să le înfrunte, să le controleze, şi în final să le gestioneze impecabil.

În funcţie de concepţia, consideraţiile, viziunea asupra raporturilor Me – Him, Omul şi Ego-ul său, în marea aventură a cunoaşterii depline, putem descrie produsul celor două determinante ca pe o capodoperă care te poartă prin toate trăirile posibile, înfăţişând universul omului în mod realist. În timp ce energia şi rezistenţa omului la tensiunile generate de însăşi existenţa de zi cu zi, ne permite să-i ţintim performanţele şi să intrăm în contact direct cu punctele sale esenţiale. În special atunci când se adaptează la orice greutăţi.

Când omul este învăluit de senzaţia de învârtire în două sensuri opuse, deci când se află la marea intersecţie dintre benzile " a fi " şi " a nu fi ", abia atunci Ego-ul său, impregnat de atâtea adevăruri sau discontinuităţi din câmpul existenţei, ajunge să-i vorbească, să se înfioare, să-i răspundă, şi să controleze situaţia.

Leadership: Eşti în stare să te angajezi într-o întrecere cu propriul sine atunci când atitudinea ta angajează o miză mult superioară destinului individual?

Este posibil ca omul să adopte o gândire concentrată, pe sine, numai atunci când este înconjurat de " Him ", de esenţa sa, ducând la o dublă subordonare ce poate crea uneori confuzii. Un dualism care trebuia conciliat, reunit pentru a crea acel tot unitar nedezmembrabil, acea forţă care atinge desăvârşirea.

Iată ce spunea scriitorul american Baird T. Spalding: " Devii ceea ce încorporezi. Acesta este întregul secret al puterii, dar, pentru a manifesta acea omnipotenţă care ne aparţine, trebuie să ne supunem sursei sale şi să încorporăm, să asimilăm caracteristicile pe care le posedă ea. "

Convingerea fermă a gânditorului era că numai dobândirea unei concepţii despre tine mai mlădioase şi mai flexibile, bazată pe interacţiunea cu Eul tău, deci mult mai intensă şi prin urmare cu adevărat obiectivă, decât cea impregnantă de o realitate foarte diferită, poate face posibilă trecerea finală de la retrogradare - la promovare şi succes. Adoptarea unei asemenea atitudini faţă de sine este legitimă pentru analiza leadershipului, îngăduind să fie abordat întregul omului într-o nouă lumină.

Reabilitează-ţi interiorul întregii fiinţe, astfel încât să întăreşti acel sentiment de identitate ce poate revela adevărul necondiţionat al existenţei tale.

Efectul pe care oamenii îl produc asupra altora se află într-o relaţie directă cu destinul individual al fiecăruia atunci când emoţiile unuia se acumulează în fiinţa celuilalt, răsfrângându-se în mod tainic asupra posibilităţilor fiecăruia de a se reinventa.

Tu eşti eu, iar eu sunt tu aduce în prim plan întregul omului, o sumă de calităţi şi defecte, o sumă de aspiraţii, regrete şi refulări. Modul său de operare depinde de interiorul său, de acel lăcaş intim bine alcătuit şi păstrat, uneori cu uriaşe eforturi, în limitele normalului unanim acceptat.

Tunelul de tranziţie spre limanul devenirii

Întregeşte-ţi propriul fel de a fi, pentru ca menirea leadershipului să se împace cu "destinul" propriei tale funcţionări.

Uneori, realizam cu surprindere că mă îndepărtez de elementele în care credeam. Totul părea confuz, ca o amnezie temporară. Mă abăteam de la drumul benefic evoluţiei mele şi ajungeam la gura tunelului spre întunericul rece, neliniştitor, lipsit de orice fel de orientare. Un întuneric copleşitor şi deprimant care îmi bloca cunoaşterea de sine, decuplându-mă de la realitatea lumii, a naturii, a universului pe care eu singur îl plăsmuisem.

Simţeam cum fremătau în mine o mulţime de emoţii, raţionamente, calcule, credinţe, ape reci, valuri mari, care uneori se puneau de acord, alteori se băteau cap în cap. Eram condus de ceea ce îmi dicta conştiinţa critică, nu de acea raţiune pură care primează. Depindeam de ceva imaginar. Şi înşelător. Oscilam de la o stare la alta, încercând să fac pe plac acelei părţi din mine care nu funcţiona normal, care îşi pierduse temporar sensul. Ca şi cum o pată neagră ar fi mânjit tot ce era mai frumos în mine, alterând aproape în totalitate structura mea psihică şi morală.

Universul propriei mele cunoaşteri, materialul revelator al inspiraţiei, forma cea mai cuprinzătoare de exprimare a Eu-lui meu, absorbea cu o forţă care atrăgea fără putinţă de scăpare orice diferenţieri, orice fulguire de gânduri, orice urmă de energie, orice strop de înţelegere, ordonând cu precizia unui ceas elveţian încetarea bruscă a existenţei mele creatoare, stimulatoare. Percepeam lucrurile în adevărata lor lumină?

Interiorizarea este acea tendinţă a raţiunii care se explică prin faptul că urmăreşti să-ţi explici lumea şi să o formulezi în virtutea experiențelor proprii şi a ancorării într-o realitate bazată pe imaginaţie.

Am reuşit să ies din "tunel". Ce se întâmplase de fapt? Asemenea unui personaj al lui John Fowles trăisem acea dislocaţie pe care o simţi după o călătorie lungă, când totul, chiar şi peisajele cele mai familiare par ireale. Ca şi cum cea mai mare parte din mine ar fi rămas acolo de unde am plecat. Bătusem pasul pe loc într-o fixaţie mentală care otrăvea tot ceea ce iubeam, tot ce era pozitiv la mine însumi.

Pe măsură ce progresam în studiul ştiinţei conducerii, îmi descopeream şi deficienţele. Nu-mi prea era clar de unde se trăgea ceaţa aceea care mă împresurase atât de hotărâtor, şi pe care numai o clipă de luciditate a reuşit s-o risipească. Cert e că ceva nou, înălţător, se reflecta în mine. Ceva care crea un contrast cu cel care am fost, care mă transforma… care mă întărea… mă susţinea… mă menţinea în concordanţă cu mine însumi şi cu ceea ce voiam să devin.

Plătisem poliţa extrem de scumpă pentru a mă asigura împotriva unei deprecieri a Eu-lui meu. Era o parte a întregului, o etapă dificilă de descoperire de sine, un rezultat dintr-un proces de transformare care m-a adus faţă în faţă cu mine însumi. Trecusem de jumătatea drumului spre potenţarea dezvoltării şi devenirii mele, ca un om care rivalizează cu el însuşi pentru a evolua şi a creşte în împrejurări adverse.

Ceea ce tindea să mă caracterizeze de atunci era o continuare a maturizării mele, o întregire a propriului meu fel de a fi.

Leadership: Eşti suficient de sensibil să percepi poziționarea ta lăuntrică într-un fragment de "jurnal", dincolo de limitele unei realități înțelese ca expunere a rațiunii de a privi dincolo de sensurile cuvintelor?

Arta ta de a conduce va fi gata să se împace cu "destinul" propriei tale funcţionări, doar atunci când exprimarea Eu-lui tău se va resimţi în jurul tău. A privi dincolo de sensul cuvintelor pe care le exprimi într-un jurnal al amintirilor, cu trimiteri la alte opere, la alte lumi si alte personaje, înseamnă să surprinzi ceea ce credeai c-ar putea ieşi extrem de sensibil, de fascinant, de relevant pentru descrierea expresiei tale de forţă şi creativitate cu care eşti înzestrat.

Fiecărui aspirant la o poziţie de lider i se atribuie responsabilitatea pentru formele concrete de configurare a expresiei sale de "forţă". O formă vie de expresie a sentimentelor şi trăirilor, transpusă într-un jurnal, nu se poate produce de la sine. Mai întâi trebuie să îmbunătățești relația cu acea parte din tine care a ştiut dintotdeauna că poţi fi mai mult decât eşti, prin trimitere la alte realități şi structuri de gândire care îţi dau atât forma (modul de argumentare, expunerea anumitor puncte de vedere), cât şi conţinut general (ideile fundamentale).

Dacă baţi pasul pe loc într-o fixaţie mentală care otrăveşte tot ceea ce iubeşti, tot ce este pozitiv la tine însuţi, aşa cum li se întâmplă tuturor oamenilor cu aspiraţii înalte care sunt supuşi la caznele schimbării, nu vei reuşi să percepi lucrurile în adevărata lor lumină, nu vei reuşi să treci de jumătatea drumului spre potenţarea dezvoltării şi devenirii tale.

Leadership: Sensul cuvintelor care te susţin în crearea unei realități unice sunt cuprinse între valorile de tip "împăcare cu lumea în secret" şi valorile de tip "mărturie vie a felului cum abordezi subtilitatea în observaţie" ?

Indicele unei maturităţi depline şi al funcţiei vital-stimulatoare al artei de a crea noi forme de impact este determinat de rezultatul unui proces de transformare a formelor de comunicare a trăirilor şi gândurilor, care te aduce faţă în faţă cu tine însuţi.

A depinde, sau a te concentra asupra acelei părţi din tine care şi-a pierdut "sensul" este ca şi cum ai fixa un preţ foarte mare pe un anumit tip de produs care nu se vinde. Precum acel vânzător de covoare persane de calitate superioară, care a fixat un preţ aşa mare pe ele, încât nimeni nu şi le-a putut permite.

Mărturia vie a felului cum abordezi subtilitatea în observaţie se obţine prin transformarea virtualității în atingerea realităţii, în cuvinte care definesc o descoperire individuală cu atât mai fascinantă cu cât poate fi o experienţă de viaţă. Totul depinde de Eul pe care l-ai creat din combinația trăirilor şi gândurilor, care nu-şi pierd sensul odată cu sacrificiu adus practicii numit "expresie artistică".

O împăcare cu lumea în secret devine un dialog cu ideile pe care le au alţii despre tine, fără a le combate, ci dându-le o interpretare prin prisma propriilor valori şi experienţe de viaţă.

Tunelul de tranziţie spre limanul devenirii este pasul crucial pe care îl vei face spre înţelegerea, spre deschiderea propriului tău Eu. Marchează responsabilitatea pe care ţi-o asumi pentru formele concrete de configurare a viitorului tău, respectiv a Eu-lui tău în baza experienţei trecerii de la o stare la alta.

În ce momente rivalizezi cu tine însuţi pentru a evolua şi a creşte în "împrejurări" adverse?

Percepi realitatea care te defineşte în adevărata ei lumină? Ai reuşit să ieşi din "tunelul" copleşitor care îţi blochează cunoaşterea de sine? Sau, cea mai mare parte din mine a rămas acolo de unde nu poţi progresa? Depinzi de ceva imaginar şi înşelător?

Concluzie: Momentele de cumpănă din viaţa unui lider, atunci când se poate produce o destabilizare a propriului său Eu, pot fi cu atât mai dese cu cât procesul de desăvârşire al artei de a conduce este incomplet.

Depinde de el dacă vrea să-şi desăvârşească această artă.

Întregeşte-ţi propriul fel de a fi, pentru ca menirea leadershipului să se împace cu "destinul" propriei tale funcţionări.

Turnul de fildeş al lui Leon

Explorează latura sensibilă a personalităţii tale, pentru a înlesni fuziunea dintre lumea ta şi a celorlalţi.

De cum păşi pe culoarul din faţa uşii apartamentului ei, Mathilda realiză că se întâmplase ceva groaznic. Trupul tatălui ei zăcea pe podea chiar la intrare. Fără îndoială şi restul familiei ei împărtăşise aceeaşi soartă, executată în stil mafiot. Sângele îi îngheţă în vine. Se auzeau voci în apartament. Un individ cu o înfăţişare înfiorătoare, cu arma în mână, stătea chiar lângă uşă.

Trebuia să se prefacă nepăsătoare. Aşa că, prevăzătoare şi plină de tărie, îşi ascunse tulburarea şi fiorul şi merse mai departe. Dar individul o privea cu neîncredere.

A ajuns în faţa uşii de la capătul culoarului. În care, de puţină vreme, se mutase Leon. Asasinul. Profesionistul.

Leadership: Eşti pregătit să încerci a determina posibilităţile reproducerii anumitor fapte sau circumstanţe de tipul "absentare nemotivată", în condiţiile determinate de timpul şi de spaţiul stabilit de cerinţele unei intruziuni paşnice în viaţa ta?

Ceasul marii probe. De partea cealaltă a uşii, Leon, cu pistolul în mână, privea atent prin vizor. Era surprins: nu se aşteptase la o asemenea manifestare din partea gingaşei domnişoare care avusese puterea extraordinară de a-şi controla reacţiile emoţionale, de a-şi înfrâna neliniştea sufletească. Însă vocea lui interioară îi şoptea: "Fii cu băgare de seamă, struneşte-ţi dorinţa de a te implica emoţional în problemele altora şi respectă toate regulile şi toate procedurile."

Întristată, cu ochii scăldaţi în lacrimi, purtându-şi în suflet durerea ca pe o stâncă în inima ei, Mathilda a bătut la uşă. O dată, şi încă o dată. Ca şi cum ar fi locuit acolo şi s-ar fi aşteptat ca cineva apropiat ei să-i deschidă. Simţea fiorul spaimei străbătându-i tot trupul. Dacă individul acela înfricoşător, înarmat, care se afla în faţa uşii ei, şi-ar fi dat seama cine era ea de fapt, ar fi ucis-o imediat. Trebuia să aibă încredere în instinctele ei profunde, trebuia să aibă credinţă, trebuia să spere că Leon îi va deschide uşa, deşi nu era prea sigură de sine. Fiecare clipă însemna o veşnicie.

Leon, dominat de seriozitate, dar şi de scepticismul caracteristic tuturor asasinilor profesionişti, era încă nehotărât. În sinea lui îşi spunea: "Mathilda e doar un copil, nu are nicio urmă de răutate – dar poate fi oare de încredere?"

Privirea fetei, a cărei expresie deznădăjduită i-ar fi mişcat chiar şi pe tigri, i-a răscolit sufletul lui Leon. Înfiorându-se simţind cât e de neajutorată, şi nemaiputând îndura greutatea gândurilor, el i-a deschis fetei uşa şi a lăsat-o să intre înăuntru. A salvat-o.

Poţi să câştigi acea autonomie şi acel control de care leadershipul se poate folosi pentru a crea un rol de responsabilitate?

Rolul de responsabilitate îi revine omului care poate să dea o semnificaţie diferită evenimentelor neinteligibile sau adverse, astfel încât să schimbe complet perspectiva deznodământului care poate încheia destinul său.

Dacă multiplicăm canalele de căutare a convingerilor omului, în posibila lui ipostază de victimă a circumstanţelor, prin care circulă imaginile reprezentative ale sinelui, croite de către ego-ul ascuns, nu se poate întâmpla oare ca noi să le prelucrăm şi, eventual, să pompăm nişte energie pozitivă, puţină culoare de fundal? Cel puţin până îl aducem pe om la stadiul de prototip de sistem de siguranţă, sau până la stadiul generator de exemplaritate.

La unele nivele de dificultate ale existenţei, puse în slujba unei puteri de tranziţie spre o anumită stare de spirit dătătoare de încredere şi stabilitate, oamenii sunt bombardaţi cu imagini venind pe atâtea canale încât nu le mai putem cataloga, clasifica şi utiliza. Acele imagini ale unui sine pierdut, în esenţă vulnerat, angajat în faza insuficienţei spirituale.

Brusc, ei se blochează în stadiul în care nu-şi mai pot reconsidera poziţia faţă de versiunea realităţii pe care o regizează în mintea lor. Iar o posibilă revenire la normalul acceptat, mai mult ca o condiţie pentru dobândirea unei flexibilităţi în relaţia cu ceilalţi, dar mai ales în relaţia cu ceea ce ei resimte din exterior, devine mai mult o experienţă psihologică şi emoţională.

Ca să câştigi acea autonomie şi acel control de care leadershipul se poate folosi pentru a crea un rol de responsabilitate, trebuie să cobori de pe piedestalurile ignoranţei şi slăbiciunii morale - în mijlocul freamătului vieţii şi al oamenilor care rămân blocaţi în subteranul acelei zone vulnerabile în care trăirile, căpătând o intensitate maximă, sfidează orice raţiune.

Leadership: Ai curajul să explorezi latura sensibilă a personalității tale, fără să afectezi valoarea unei imagini care se perpetuează între oglinzi paralele?

Îţi aminteşti de romanul "Contele de Monte Cristo"? Mai ţii minte ce i-a spus Mercedes lui Edmond, atunci când acesta i-a cruţat fiul de la moarte? - "Este frumos, este măreţ, este sublim să ierţi aşa cum ai iertat tu."

Dar despre fapta lui Leon, din filmul "Leon – The professional", ce se poate spune? Nu-i aşa? Cât de frumos a fost din partea lui, cât de măreţ a fost ceea ce-a făcut ! Cât de sublimă a fost fapta sa.

Mathilda a văzut în Leon ceea ce nu vedeau alţii. Iar Leon a văzut în ea propria lui esenţă, partea lui bună, mult prea ascunsă, mult prea adânc îngropată în el.

Imaginea ta se perpetuează între oglinzi paralele atunci când reflecţia a ceea ce pare să fie atitudinea ta cea mai reprezentativă se manifestă la nivelul cel mai profund al compoziţiei de însemnătate pe care o dau faptele tale în viața spirituală a celorlalţi.

Una dintre aceste oglinzi este sentimentul de apartenenţă la o conştiinţă a responsabilităţii, cealaltă este un exces al sentimentului de vinovăţie care te încearcă atunci când ştii că poţi greşi prin invocarea absenţei tale din mijlocul evenimentelor care schimbă cursul vieţii altora.

Leadership: Apartenenţa ta la un cadru mai larg de acţiune decât cel care îţi validează constant calităţile, obligă la o compromitere a credibilităţii tale în tentativa de a afirma: "evenimentul acesta va fi memorabil" ?

Deşi era un asasin de excepţie, Leon nu-şi pierduse căldură sufletească, şi de aceea nu şi-a înfrânat sentimentele. A ajutat-o pe Mathilda, a salvat-o şi chiar a "înfiat-o". A fost îmblânzit de sufletul ei pur de copil care i-a acordat credibilitate – pentru că în adâncul inimii ea a simţit că el, în esenţa lui, este un om bun şi sensibil, chiar dacă fusese antrenat să ucidă.

Din momentul în care a înfiat-o pe Mathilda, viaţa lui Leon a luat o altă turnură. Nu a mai fost omul singuratic, pustiu, lipsit de sentimente şi dorinţe. Ci a dobândit o nouă personalitate, a devenit o fire mai deschisă, mai sociabilă, mai comunicativă şi chiar romantică, capabilă să preţuiască mai mult pe cei din jur şi lucrurile din jur.

Explorează latura sensibilă a personalităţii tale (cea mai autentică latură a ta), pentru a înlesni fuziunea dintre lumea ta şi a celorlalţi. Ascultă şi învaţă să ai încredere în intuiţia ta şi în emoţiile tale. Leadershipul tău va avea enorm de suferit dacă nu îţi exprimi sentimentele cele mai adânci. Vei sfârşi prin a deveni cu totul insensibil în relaţiile cu ceilalţi – iar de aici şi până la eşec nu este cale lungă.

Evenimentul care îţi celebrează personalitatea este extensia imaginii pe care ţi-o creezi în ochii celorlalţi, dincolo de aparenţa durităţii cu care îţi impui regulile în procesul de reflectare a realităţii sub forma trăirilor care trebuiesc condamnate.

Leadershipul nu este un "Turn de fildeş" în care poate avea acces doar un singur om, nu este o zonă interzisă în care nu are nimeni voie sa pătrundă. Ci dimpotrivă, trebuie să fie o zonă transparentă, uşor de cunoscut şi de pătruns, o zonă în care trebuie să le deschizi celorlalţi "uşa" ca să aibă acces la lumea ta.

Explorând latura sensibilă a propriei tale personalităţi dar şi a celorlalţi poţi găsi punţi de legătură care să asigure o armonie în echipă, spre beneficiul tuturor. Izolarea ta ca lider într-un "turn de fildeş" va fi întotdeauna în detrimentul tău.

Uite, primeşte acest trandafir, de dorul unei mângâieri

Un artist de mare simţire îşi exprimă emoţiile prin schiţarea subiectului unui tablou cu totul diferit, de unde nu mai poate ieşi odată ce s-a integrat în atmosfera lui.

De fiecare dată când sunt înconjurat de trandafiri mă simt eliberat de o greutate apăsătoare, sunt cuprins de un sentiment de pace şi recunoştinţă ca la vederea unui lucru unic, desăvârşit, din care se compune viaţa plină de sens a unui pictor care nu cunoaşte adversitatea în artă, în revelaţii, în vise. Aprecierea pentru frumuseţea naturii stârneşte o senzaţie de proaspăt, ceva viu, delicat, vrednic de admirat, posibil de atins doar prin limbajul sufletului, ca într-un tablou cu artă abstractă susceptibil de a fi înţeles doar de minţile deschise senzaţiilor şi impresiilor de ordin estetic.

Regatul trandafirul, admirat în toată nemărginirea timpului sub forma unui moment de înduioşare care nu şi-a consumat valorile, aspiraţiile, reperele de simţire, lasă lesne să se întrevadă un soi de nobleţe, te cucereşte prin simplitatea unei linii de contact între adâncul care îţi răscoleşte sufletul şi şoapta discretă a unei mărturisiri ardente, subliniind parcă un soi de eleganţă atemporală. Simt că nu mai sunt acelaşi om atunci când privesc o creaţie a naturii care, la fel de bine, prin asemănare, devine însăşi varianta mea de frumuseţe, de candoare, bun gust, nestinsă de vreo putere de resemnare în felul de a mă exprima, de gloria unui trecut strălucit sau de puterea ce-o strigă împrejurările unui sfârşit de lume.

Semnificaţia existenţei raportată la frumuseţea unei naturi feerice, care pulsează de speranţă, de dor, de gândire cosmică, se află în unitatea cristalizării de viziuni şi idei noi, binevenite şi familiare reformatorilor de pictură, distingându-se prin atenţia acordată aspectelor vieţii într-o desăvârşită armonie de culori şi printr-o caldă armonie de linii generoase care redau expresivitatea unei lucrări numită sugestiv "Înnoirea Omului".

Este ca şi când ar trebui să-mi exprim emoţiile prin schiţarea subiectului unui tablou cu totul diferit, de unde nu mai poţi să ieşi odată ce te-ai integrat în atmosfera lui. Iată, în sfârşit, un mod simplu de evocare a unei privelişti aducătoare de pace, un bun prilej de a savura o formă de artă asociată cu meditaţia, pe care o pot înţelege doar prin simţuri, prin sensibilitatea deosebită în îmbinarea culorilor. Toate acestea fiind închinate pictorului care îşi etalează umilinţa de factură sublimă ce se degajă din sinceritatea trăirii unei opere de artă originale.

Leadership: Încercarea continuă de a expune şi valida estetic un sine "identic şi felurit" devine un fel de supra-temă a operei tale, din care natura îşi ia toate avantajele în ceea ce priveşte formarea unei personalităţi armonioase?

Delicată, uşoară ca vântul primăvăratic, mângâierea pe care mi-o dăruieşte arta este mai degrabă un dialog al sufletului, un compromis al mentalităţii estetice destinat unei înlănţuiri de variaţii în idei şi exigenţe de metodă, ordine şi rigoare. Pe această linie de reflecţie am încercat să iau cuvintele celebrului iubitor de artă Lodovico Dolce drept învăţătură a unei trăiri mai adânci decât trăirea socială, dintr-un moment special care nu se consumă niciodată prin asemănarea cu un simbol al frumuseţii, al pasiunii şi iubirii:

"Pictura nu este altceva decât imitarea naturii şi, cu cât operele o redau mai îndeaproape, cu atât maestrul e mai desăvârşit. Un pictor este cu atât mai bun şi mai mare cu cât operele lui sunt mai asemănătoare lucrurilor naturale."

Trandafirul este reflectarea frumuseţii naturii într-o persoană înclinată spre artistic, aducând în prim planul privitorului acea măreţie a sufletului care surprinde foarte bine realitatea unei sensibilităţi acute, căreia îi place să se povestească. El se prezintă ca un servitor umil care face ca totul să se întâmple în mod natural, în opera unui creator al frumosului şi al adevărului, conform unei mişcări delicate de pensulă care denotă tocmai capacitatea de a te identifica cu înţelepciunea universală, superioară și bună, care ține totul la un loc.

Mi-am însuşit povestea lui de viaţă, preocupările sale de estetică, pe care natura le traduce printr-o dinamică perpetuă a creaţiei niciodată finite. Trandafirul este un colecţionar de emoţii, la fel ca şi pictorul, având un singur numitor comun: culoarea care atrage atenţia, care vrăjeşte, care exprimă viziuni, dorinţe, apartenenţa la universul frumosului natural, subliniind senzualitatea unei vieţi pasionale, factorul declanşator al unei înlănţuiri de stări, mişcări, gesturi, atitudini, de ipostaze.

Din toate aceste, eu aleg să transmit un mesaj despre felul Creatorului de a se reinventa:

Încearcă să surprinzi foarte bine realitatea dintre două prezenţe asemănătoare, încât arta pe care o obţii prin aportul esteticii să fie o mărturie a puterii tale de caracter şi o mărturie a simţirii pe care ţi-o impune un exemplu uimitor de minune a naturii.

Uite, cititorule, primeşte acest trandafir, de dorul unei mângâieri ca semn de recunoştinţă pentru faptul că m-ai citit până aici şi ai înţeles că cine sunt cu adevăr contează doar prin prisma a ceea ce simt atunci când privesc o lucrare originală a naturii, ca şi când aş fi eu însumi garanţia ei de bună execuţie.

Marea operă a creaţiei este rezultatul necesităţii naturii de a fi dominată prin superioritatea spiritului de observaţie şi prin sensibilitatea vie a artistului fermecat de frumuseţea care nu se scurge odată cu viaţa.

Două imagini se ciocneau în capul meu, pline de farmec, pline de culoare, pline de emoţie, ca şi când ele ar fi făcut parte din creaţia unui pictor care nu și-a putut expune la timp pânzele pictate cu multă grijă şi mult suflet, pierzând astfel șansa de a fi înţeles în toată splendoarea genialităţii sale.

Prima imagine, a unei frunze care goneşte, goneşte şi iar goneşte spre acea implacabilă chemare a unui timp posibil numai într-un peisaj de poveste, inclus într-un vis plin de vrajă. A doua imagine este descrierea artistică a unui trandafir de mai, proaspăt îmbobocit, pregătit pentru o aventură unică într-un peisaj de o frumusețe rară, unde timpul pare să fi rămas în loc.

Dacă nu aş fi fost prizonierul minţii mele care aparţine unui vis despre marile reprezentări ale artei, fiindcă şi visul este o plăsmuire a minţii mele umplute cu încărcătura simbolică pe care doar natura o poate înţelege, cu siguranţă mi-aş fi îndreptat mai mult cugetul şi privirea asupra unei vieţi de dincolo de vraja unei mângâieri divine. Fiindcă natura, cu toate elementele ei, sublimă prin crearea gustului de frumos şi de măreţ, a dat putere ochilor mei să privească spre ceea ce nimeni nu poate să vadă, să ghicească sau să descopere, transformând realitatea într-un vis plin de imagini sublime.

Şi iată că frunza din vis se desprinde din mintea mea încet, cu multă compasiune, cu mult avânt, şi se face văzută prin micile semnificaţii ale asocierilor dintre credinţă şi ştiinţă, dintre creaţie şi creator. Ochilor mei nu le trebuie mult timp ca să se împace cu o vedere desprinsă din Exuviile lui Simona Popescu, surprinzând un verde dezlănţuit ce se întinde în caractere inegale mai departe: "Nimic nu e mai nobil ca singura privire ce leagă două inimi cu o singură privire."

Leadership: Creaţia ta deţine acea calitate unică a observaţiei şi acea putere a ochiului de a pătrunde în adâncul unei realităţi care oferă un conţinut vizual bazat pe ideea de aspiraţie spre înaltul unei lumi spirituale?

Şi iată că frunza îmi aduce aminte de mine, de chipul meu, admirat în splendoarea traiectoriei unui artist cu adevărat vizionar, în altă stare a naturii. Cred că în adâncul sufletului ei ţinea la mult la mine, căci se învârtea în jurul meu ca în jurul infinitului, sperând să se bucure de desfătarea ochilor mei în spaţiul unei transparenţe superioare a amintirii, în aşa măsură încât să se producă o dedublare a fiinţei într-o nouă unitate. Simţea şi ea că este împinsă de o forţă nevăzută spre a-mi face cunoştinţă cu o cale aparte de a descoperi arta din viaţa Creatorului.

Orizontul meu devine transparenţa unui infinit superior încărcat cu farmecul amintirii fiinţei mele, într-un vis surprins de ochii care nu se mai satură a privi marea metamorfoză a Creaţiei, în care eu însumi sunt fermentul, generatorul emblematic al unei semioze infinite de metafore care valorizează elementele alfabetului vizual.

Ochii mei înţeleg vorbele frunzei prin intermediul limbajului vizual, aşa încât pictorul să poată surprinde un moment psihologic aparte din viaţa modelului, chiar pe linia unei exacerbări a coordonatei artistice. Într-atât îmi doresc să fac parte din forma şi culoarea ei, încât simt că ceva din dumnezeirea naturii, din măreţia ei, se sincronizează cu bătăile inimii mele.

Aşadar, ideea de aspiraţie spre înaltul unei lumi spirituale provine din sincronizarea actului de creaţie cu acea particularitate a naturii de a fi în permanent dialog cu propria ei imagine prin intermediul unei înţelegeri iluminate, a unei experienţe mistice.

Leadership: Poţi să îmbogăţeşti conţinutul perceput în mod vizual cu un conţinut imaginat pus în valoare prin rostirea ascunsă, intrinsecă a mijloacelor de expresie?

Am înţeles de ce frunza mă lasă s-o ating fără să se tulbure, parcă plecând capul în faţa bucuriei de fi parte din universul meu, acceptându-mi atingerea fără să se suprapună cu realitatea unui creator care înfrânează haosul, lăsându-mă să extrag singur imaginile artistice din ceea ce se vede în profunzimea ei. Fiindcă şi ea trăieşte o bucurie imensă, aceea de a nu fi uitată, pierdută din vederea unei arte de o splendoare şi de o sensibilitate de nedescris, pe care numai artistul o poate descoperi într-o poveste plină de culori şi farmec.

Acordurile cromatice, contrastul dintre lumini şi umbre, personificarea unei impresii concrete, memoria atingerii unei forme exterioare a naturii, forma de receptare a frumosului într-un decor plin de fantezie şi savoare, îşi fac simţite prezenţa prin stările sufleteşti care, adunate la un loc, dau naştere energiei spirituale menită să întreţină o personalitate plină de sensibilitate. Oare eu sunt simbolul unei fiinţe a naturii pe care nimeni nu o înţelege şi nu o percepe ca fiind un arhetip al sensibilităţii umane?

Am fost frunza care a căzut pe umărul împăratului Maxentius, înainte ca el să se înece în Tibru, în bătălia de la Podul Milvian. Asta mă face să cred că aparţin unui descendent al regilor, magia atingerii mele, duioase şi însufleţitoare, fiind ultima lui amintire din Tărâmul Vederii cu Ochi de Nemurire. Timpul, natura, vântul, m-au dus în calea privirii care nu uită nicio clipă frumuseţea unei lumi pierdute într-un amestec bizar şi confuz de istorie, de idei, limbi şi dialecte.

Şi numai tu, Cel ce scrie în glasul universal, ai dreptul să mă plasezi undeva într-un peisaj de Dalí, cu ceasuri lichefiate în prim-plan. Iar dacă eu sunt Creatorul nesfârşit al Universului, singurul în stare să vorbească naturii, să se preschimbe într-o frunză pentru ca ea să fie martorul principal la toate momentele importante ale istoriei, şi căreia nimeni nu i-a răspuns cu privirea potrivită, atunci mie îmi revine sarcina de a rosti aceste cuvinte, care sper să nu fie deşarte:

O privire care dăinuie şi trece testul timpului este manifestarea puterii ochiului de a vedea în fiecare fiinţă o rază luminoasă, şi în fiecare element al naturii o fiinţă plină de slavă şi măreţie.

Ultima amintire din Tărâmul Vederii cu Ochi de Nemurire a fost când am întâlnit o frunză, sau mai bine zis, când frunza a apărut în câmpul vederii mele pentru a fi imortalizată ca o lume aflată sub vraja unei poveşti ce nu are capăt.

Îmi ridic privirea cu un vis de tainic dor după o fiinţă dragă şi mă uit în ochii plini de culoare care cuprind măreţia naturii. Ai dreptate, îmi răspunde natura, ochii tăi îmi sunt tot atât de dragi încât niciodată nu mă va părăsi dorul de ei.

Ultima confesiune a unui asasin

Optimizează-ţi personalitatea emoţională, focalizând antenele sufletului tău spre profunzimile interioare ale celorlalţi oameni.

Trecutul se amestecase cu viitorul şi nimic altceva nu mai exista în afara acelei ultime clipe, pe care timpul avid n-o mai putea smulge fără a lăsa o urmă – clipa când Dumnezeu îţi dăruieşte din prea plinul său de bunăvoinţă o ultimă şansă de a-ţi mărturisi gândurile şi sentimentele ascunse.

Glonţul trecuse prin Leon, dar nu-l omorî imediat. Stansfield, poliţistul corupt, cu sânge rece, se apropie de victima lui, ţintuită în sfârşit la pământ. Cei doi ucigaşi se aflau faţă în faţă.

Brusc, amintirile s-au întors vii în cugetul lui Leon şi a văzut încă o dată imaginea Mathildei - mai frumoasă, mai încântătoare decât în toate amintirile lui. Pentru prima oară exista în sufletul lui de asasin ceva mai măreţ şi mai ambiţios decât crima. Era senzaţia conştiinţei curate. Dragostea, tulburătoarea ei poveste, deschisese abisurile secrete ale fiinţei lui - pentru că, odinioară, o judecată a lui Dumnezeu l-a silit să se îndrăgostească.

Leadership: Partea grea a deznodământului pe care ţi-l prezice destinul este "curajul paradoxal" de a renunţa la tine în folosul sensului pe care-l dai vieţii?

Esenţa ultimelor cuvinte. Stansfield se aplecă asupra trupului vlăguit şi plin de sânge al victimei sale. Atunci Leon, cu ultimele puteri, scoase cuiul de siguranţă de la una din grenadele prinse de vesta sa şi îl puse în mâna rivalului său. Apoi îi spuse dintr-o suflare, cu toată umilinţa din inima lui: "Asta e din partea lui Mathilda ! "

Spuse aceste ultime cuvinte ca şi cum ar fi dorit să-şi destăinuie conţinutul sufletesc, să-şi spele păcatele ca şi cum ar fi dorit să se absolve de toate crimele înfăptuite, de îngrozitoarea lui vinovăţie mai înainte de a se risipi din această lume.

De parcă sufletul Mathildei ar fi tresărit în conştiinţa lui şi, pătruns de o dragoste pură faţă de această micuţă fiinţă ce-şi făcuse loc în viaţa lui, împins de cele mai pioase gânduri, de cele mai calde sentimente, să răzbune moartea părinţilor ei ucişi de Stansfield, făcându-i astfel un serviciu. Aceasta a fost singura lui faptă bună într-o viaţă de om - să ucidă un alt criminal din consideraţie pentru fiinţa dragă. Printr-un veritabil act de conştiinţă, Răul învinge Răul. BOOM !

Leadership: Realitatea ta a ajuns o experienţă nedorită, căreia nu-i poate opune rezistenţă decât manifestarea opusă personalităţii tale?

Dacă vrei să adaugi semnificaţie vieţii tale, mai întâi adaugă semnificaţie lumii pe care ţi-o dezvăluie ataşamentul faţă de cineva sau ceva. Ca să te apropii de principiile artei de a conduce trebuie să rămâi tot timpul tu însuţi – profund în felul de a gândi, integru în adâncul sufletului, adică iubindu-ţi intens fiinţa, cu toate atributele şi calităţile unei imagini despre un "Celălalt" prea puţin luat încă în seamă.

Manifestarea opusă personalităţii tale, prin crearea forţată a unei realităţi paralele, se realizează prin presiunea permanentă pe care o exercită asupra ta obligaţia de a te pune pe primul loc în viaţa altcuiva, sau invers, de a pune o altă persoană pe primul loc în viaţa ta.

Dacă nu se zăresc nicăieri în fiinţa ta acele trăiri benefice, care însumate să dea valoare existenţei tale, călăuzindu-te pe o cale mai bună, dacă nu eşti animat de idealul cunoaşterii de sine atunci leadershipul tău îşi va pierde expresivitatea şi veridicitatea. În altă ordine de idei, vei deveni orb şi insensibil la tot ceea ce se petrece în tine şi în jurul tău.

Aşa cum rinichiul elimină substanţele care nu mai sunt folositoare organismului uman, participând astfel la procesul de detoxifiere, tot aşa şi tu, ca să asiguri temelia sufletească a fiinţei tale, trebuie să-ţi supui leadershipul unui proces de "detoxifiere" - adică să elimini acele trăsături de personalitate care îţi ştirbesc Eul.

Ca să răzbaţi atunci când ajungi pe panta abruptă a unei înălțimi care nu conferă amplitudine viziunii, mai întâi caută să te întreci pe tine însuţi revenind la acele sentimente care atrag atenţia asupra insuficienţei de a recupera memoriile unui trecut care se încăpățânează sa nu mai treacă.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi manifeşti personalitatea într-un mediu lipsit de ecou, fără să uiţi tot ce e în tine?

Un mediu lipsit de ecou este un spaţiu în care te simţi deopotrivă acasă şi străin, fără ca cineva să-l alimenteze cu pasiunea pentru viaţă în răbdarea momentul prezent. Este un loc închis unde emoţiile există, dar nu sunt niciodată scoase la lumină. Simbolizează uitarea de sine în seama voinței unei Providenţe care dă sens vieţii numai când faci din dragoste punctul de referintă al centrului numit "deviere de la obişnuit".

Îţi aminteşti de poemul „Manfred" de George Gordon Byron? Spiritele îi propun lui Manfred anumite avantaje, dar eroul byronian rămâne la singurul lucru pe care-l vrea, uitarea: "Atât vă cer, să nu uit tot ce e în mine ."

Exact ceea ce a făcut şi Leon, eroul filmului " Leon – The professional (1994) " - n-a uitat tot ce era bun în el însuşi în ultima clipă a vieţii sale. Mathilda a contribuit la revenirea lui la sentimentele umane, inducându-i capacitatea de a-şi exprima acele trăiri care avuseseră forţa de a-i ordona lumea interioară.

Tu cum fortifici personalitatea celor din jurul tău? Reuşeşti să faci dintr-un om o fiinţă mai bună, îmbogăţindu-i şi completându-i trăirile intense, umanizând esenţa firii sale? Ai capacitatea de a exprima trăiri care pot induce altora aceleaşi trăiri sau asemănătoare?

Reuşeşti prin intermediul leadershipului tău să imprimi în conștiința oamenilor cele trei impulsuri ale devenirii umane: idealul sufletesc, idealul raţiunii şi idealul cunoaşterii?

Fii tot ceea ce poţi să fii, indiferent de contextul în care te afli şi în care se produce schimbarea, urmându-ţi emoţiile cele mai puternice.

Ultima confesiune a unui asasin evidenţiază elementul ce explică şi ne face să înţelegem sufletul celui de lângă noi, punându-ne în faţa ochilor, în chip concret, sensibilitatea şi starea emoţională care îi domină gândurile şi acţiunile, adică existenţa lui spirituală, de care aceste gânduri şi emoţii sunt dependente.

Eşti posesorul acelei excepţionale puteri de pătrundere a eului individual al omului?

Această forţă este în primul rând consecinţa unei consideraţii deosebite pentru cei ce nu-şi cunosc adevăratul Ego, pentru orice sentiment vibrant şi pentru felul cum acest sentiment se exteriorizează.

Acceptă egalitatea. Priveşte-i pe oameni fără prejudecăţi, fără ură, ci cu pasiunea liderului iscusit preocupat îndeosebi de natura umană, cognitivă sau comportamentală. Optimizează-ţi personalitatea emoţională focalizând antenele sufletului tău spre profunzimile interioare ale celorlalţi oameni.

Concluzie: Se spune că inima cunoaşte căi pe care mintea nu le bănuieşte. Înţelegându-i pe oameni, cunoscându-le cele mai ascunse taine ale sufletului, vei putea să-i orientezi, speculând acele calităţi ascunse de care nici ei nu sunt conştienţi, în favoarea atingerii excelenţei.

Ultima poruncă a diavolului

Cultivă-ţi acele virtuţi morale care să se potrivească conceptului de leadership unanim acceptat de toţi oamenii, înainte să-i călăuzeşti spre o cale nouă.

După mai bine de două mii de ani, împăratul Qin Shi Huang, a fost trezit din morţi. El apare în faţa oştenilor săi, ce numărau câteva mii, ieşiţi cu toţii din infern ca să-l ajute să-şi ducă la capăt diabolicul plan. Aliniaţi în rânduri paralele, neclintiţi ca nişte santinele în post, înfricoşători ca nişte lupi flămânzi, toţi îl privesc pe Anticrist cu atenţia încordată.

Nicio trăsătură nu-i trădează vreo slăbiciune acestei fiinţe reci, meschine, doar pe jumătate om, călită parcă din oţel, înzestrată cu o voinţă covârşitoare, şi care nu acceptă decât biruinţa. În dosul acestei maşini gata de luptă vibrează nervi febrili, cumplit de încordaţi, care înspăimântă şi radiază numai frică şi ură.

Cu privirea fixă, cu mâna întinsă în faţă, cu o răceală tot mai vădită, împăratul se adresează oştenilor cu o voce fermă:

- Azi vă readuc într-o lume scufundată în haos şi corupţie. Eu voi reinstaura ordinea. Voi revendica ceea ce-i al meu. Voi distruge orice idee de libertate. Voi ucide fără milă. Voi jefui fără compasiune. Vă voi îndruma dincolo de zid, iar după ce-l veţi trece, veţi deveni invincibili. V-am readus la viaţă cu un singur scop. Să faceţi ca întreaga lume să-mi dea ascultare şi să mi se supună.

- Trăiască împăratul ! Trăiască împăratul !

Împăratul Qin Shi Huang, personajul principal din filmul „ The Mummy – Tomb Of The Dragon Emperor (2008) ”, prin discursul său simplu dar autoritar, n-a căutat altceva decât să le transmită oştenilor săi (sculaţi din mormânt pentru a-l ajuta să-şi ducă la îndeplinire demonica misiune) forţa sa fizică şi spirituală, aceea a unui invincibil. Iar imaginea pe care şi-a creat-o, de "salvator mesianic", le-a adus acestora speranţă şi o încredere de nezdruncinat. Păstrându-şi înfăţişarea necruţătoare, înfricoşătoare, rostindu-şi discursul pe un ton mânios, agresiv şi rece, el a demonstrat o dorinţă înfocată de a fi în mijlocul lor în misiunea de a cuceri lumea.

Leadership: Creşti rezonanţa acelei zone de umbră protectoare care creează coeziunea între "deficitul de putere" şi "fenomenul de adâncime"?

O atitudine aspră de tipul: "sunt împotriva tuturor", cu scopul de a declanşa în cadrul unui grup o emoţie cutezătoare de tipul "o să vedeţi voi de ce sunt eu în stare", nu poate fi confruntată direct decât prin valoarea unei idei cu un puternic potenţial spiritual şi emoţional, ca justificare a unei acţiuni cu impact moral.

Trebuie să ştii că orice om se simte puternic atâta vreme cât nu este vulnerabil la propriile sugestii de teamă, confuzie şi neîncredere, unde trecutul se dovedeşte cu atât mai neliniştitor cu cât prezentul devine mai problematic. Omul păstrează în permanenţă o marjă de nedeterminare: chiar şi atunci când este dispus să rişte totul pentru a atinge un scop cutezător, este înfrânat de teama repetării trecutului. Aşadar, în anumite graniţe individul fuge de sine.

Trecerea de la durere la disperare spre o dimensiune cu şi mai multă vitalitate, dar cu mai puţină afecţiune, presupune parcurgerea unui labirint la capătul căruia se deschide un alt labirint care nu se va dovedi mai luminat pe dinăuntru: "Cunoaşte-te pe tine însuţi." Pentru a se produce spirit în combinaţiile ideilor de asigurare a supremaţiei, e nevoie de inteligenţa de a şti că, după furtună, vine soarele, dar după soare apar norii - durerea cruntă a regretului de a nu mai şti cine eşti de fapt.

Avea dreptate cine spunea că aversiunea omului faţă de lume este în primul rând marca a regretului de a nu-şi fi găsit nici o urmă de satisfacţie în formă de manifestare a spiritualului colectiv.

În această situaţie putem constata o dublă direcţie evolutivă a conceptului de model de lider: ca “expresie a unui deficit de putere disponibilă” sau ca “exponent al unui fenomen de adâncime, ascuns, nevizibil”, care este tocmai starea de conştiinţă."

Această formă vizibilă a certitudinii de a trăi în mod autentic sentimentul de superioritate, transformat într-o obsesie copleşitoare, se poate traduce prin tendinţa de a-i trata pe ceilalţi oameni ca pe nişte mini-afaceri, provocând un soi de dependenţă de putere, similară cu cea de droguri şi alcool.

Iar extinderea puterii spre extremităţile unei axe continue de dependenţă nu este un non-sens care trebuie demascat şi distrus, ci une grave maladie , un sindrom de supraestimare a propriei personalităţi printr-un comportament adesea lipsit de valoare socială. Acest comportament trădează o gândire cu oarecare tendinţe paranoice de tipul: "Dacă voi nu mă vreţi, eu vă vreau ." În cazul ăsta, o consecinţă ar fi pierderea demnităţii prin limitarea atotputerniciei.

Printre incertitudinile şi dilemele etice, printre iluziile de grandoare de pe ecranul imaginaţiei care se delectează cu duplicitatea şi super-orgoliile, printre confirmările de poziţie fără justificări plauzibile, leadershipul reprezintă o suferinţă care se prelungeşte, într-o agonie lentă, în interacţiunea cu ceilalţi - în sânul unei lumi pline de conflicte, tensiuni, răzbunări şi ură.

Leadership: Răspunzi cu un „DA” trădător principiilor folosirii puterii, chiar şi atunci când puterea este deghizată în spatele imaginii unei apărări vulnerabile?

Virtuţile şi principiile călăuzitoare sunt cele care dau tonul, lucru valabil nu numai pentru lider, ci şi pentru adepţii lui. Un lider fără priceperea de a-şi manifesta cele mai de preţ valori, cele mai grandioase dorinţe în spiritul celei mai profunde autenticităţi şi în spiritul celor mai nobile trăsături morale, va eşua în cele din urmă.

Dacă ai urmărit filmul, ştii că domnia Împăratului Qin Shi Huang a fost de scurtă durată, aşa cum o ultimă rază de soare se iveşte înainte de a se pierde în nori. El s-a reîntors de unde a venit, din morţi, odată pentru totdeauna. Căci nimic nu-l poate "însănătoşi" pe cel care boleşte de dorinţa de putere absolută, în afară de moartea veşnică.

Care sunt convingerile morale care stau la baza personalităţii tale? Spui „da” celor mai josnice păcate, celor mai imorale interese atunci când de fapt trebuie să te conformezi celor mai de preţ virtuţi care formează un caracter adevărat? Îţi lipseşte acea calitate umană esenţială care confirmă că eşti cu adevărat binecuvântat să fii iubit? Te consideri un lider invincibil care se poate impune numai prin forţă? Sau te impui prin palmaresul tău de calităţi care te desemnează drept cel mai empatic şi mai „uman” lider?

Aşa cum ideile bune reprezintă elementul cheie în rezolvarea problemelor legate de creativitate, tot astfel abilitatea de a nu te abate de la legile şi normele morale stabilite de către societate reprezintă elementul cheie în ceea ce priveşte evoluţia leadershipului tău.

Virtuţile tale morale se potrivesc conceptului de leadership unanim acceptat de către toată lumea? Credinţa, echitatea, solidaritatea, umanitatea, sunt încă în stadiul „de aşteptare” pentru tine?

Puterea ta este deghizată în spatele imaginii unei apărări vulnerabile atunci când versiunea ta de individ obsedat de control se modifică conform instrucţiunii de tip: "aşteaptă să se întâmple inevitabilul".

Concluzie: Ca lider, e o mare greşeala să te consideri invincibil şi să crezi că doar tu deţii adevărul absolut. Dar, într-adevăr ca să ai susţinători trebuie să dovedeşti că eşti îndeajuns de puternic şi inteligent pentru a face faţă tuturor situaţiilor. Iar un comportament adecvat muncii în colectiv îţi va duce mai mult succes decât atitudinea dictatorială. Şi mai ales nu fă promisiuni deşarte şi nu-ţi amăgi colaboratorii, căci altfel „domnia” ta va fi scurtă.

Ultima rază de lumină din iadul negru

Întoarce-te spre tine însuţi, ca să te poţi raporta la ceea ce simt ceilalţi faţă de tine.

Şi-a dat seama într-o clipă că se afla în faţa celei mai mari încercări din viaţa ei, şi nu prea ştia cum să-i facă faţă. Oamenii legii, mascaţii din trupele Swat, o înhăţaseră pe coridorul ce ducea la apartamentul ei. În care se afla "părintele ei adoptiv", Leon, asasinul, profesionistul. Unul dintre bărbaţi îi puse mâna la gură şi o întrebă pe un ton care inspira numai teamă:

- Este singur? Te aşteaptă? Există vreun cod sau un mod de a bate la uşă prin care el ştie că eşti tu?

Mathilda a înţeles numai decât la ce alte nenorociri trebuia să se aştepte. "Leon va muri, dacă nu-l ajut cumva", îşi spunea în gândul ei. Gândul acesta a aruncat-o într-o deznădejde fără margini; preţ de câteva secunde a stat în cumpănă. Era imposibil să nu-i dea ascultare acelei voci ce-i înspăimânta sufletul. Aşa că, chemându-şi în ajutor toată puterea, tot curajul inimii, îi arătă bărbatului un cod (fals) pe care chipurile îl folosea pentru ca Leon s-o recunoască.

Leadership: Poţi să realizezi o modelare a însuşirilor tale prin intermediul contribuției tuturor acelor aspecte care te desăvârșesc în punctul culminant al existenței tale?

Nu a rămas insensibilă la influenţele lui. Prin gestul ei plin de afecţiune din acel moment de cumpănă, Mathilda a făcut dovada însuşirilor preţioase pe care le avea, precum umanismul, mărinimia, compasiunea şi loialitatea. Fără nicio îndoială, ea era pentru Leon genul acela de prieten pe care eşti sigur că-l vei găsi pururi însufleţit de dorinţa de a-ţi fi folositor şi care să-ţi sară în orice moment în ajutor.

Dacă ai urmărit filmul "Leon – The professional" , ştii că numai Mathilda a reuşit să-i lumineze sufletul lui Leon, fiindu-i aproape în toate clipe grele. Şi asta deoarece el a avut puterea să o determine să-l placă, să creadă în el, fiindcă a avut puterea să nască în ea dorinţa de a-l înţelege, de a-l accepta în viaţa ei şi de a se ataşa de el.

A te desăvârşi în fiinţa ta înseamnă să atragi în viaţa ta admiraţia oamenilor compromişi care îţi oferă o altă alternativă de a trăi. Iar punctul culminant al existenței tale este momentul când conştiinţa morală şi sensibilitatea se dezvoltă pe deplin, permiţându-ţi să-ţi asumi responsabilitatea completă pentru acţiunile tale şi pentru modul în care îţi faci cunoscută intenţia de a reînvia din lumea obscură pe care ţi-a inoculat-o frica de a fi respins de ceilalţi.

Leadership: Îţi exerciţi autoritatea asupra oamenilor printr-o continuă validare a valorii lăuntrice pe care ei o posedă într-un grad înalt al puterii de a îndura o viaţă dură?

Omul cu calităţi de lider are capacitatea de a lărgi concepţia evolutivă despre posibilităţile de a construi un mod de viaţă virtuos, bazat pe o formă de transmitere a sinelui către persoanele care se raportează la el, nu o corvoadă care nu aduce nimic bun. Şi prin aceasta cred că o funcţie de reprezentare a unei noi perspective, declanşatoare de noi trăiri şi atitudini, activată în trepte, evitând orice inconvenienţe de construcţie a unei noi direcţii, este îndeplinită şi de leadership în situaţia în care liderului nu îi este subminată autoritatea.

În acest sens, al unui nou început, al unei abordări care se vrea superioară îmbinând respectul pentru buna desfăşurare a vieţii cu sinceritatea şi afecţiunea, s-ar putea susţine că leadershipul slujeşte lărgirii "repertoriului" moral, emoţional şi comportamental al omului - ca factor al devenirii.

Liderul face posibilă intersectarea mai multor forme alternative ale acţiunilor viitoare, vizând o mai bună aprofundare a ceea ce înseamnă şi cum este exercitată autoritatea sa asupra oamenilor, printr-o continuă validare a valorii lăuntrice pe care ei o posedă.

De aceea, probabil, leadershipul slujeşte funcţiei adaptative în perioadele de transformări accelerate, cum este de pildă cea a impactului cu o mentalitate dificilă între limitele căreia nu se poate integra o nouă viziune.

Este ceea ce eu numesc „funcţie de transfer” a modelului propriu de reprezentare a lumii şi a vieţii, care tratează diferit noua concepere a relației dintre intrarea și ieșirea unei noi conştiinţe, resimţite ca o binefacere, a unei invariante în timp.

Liderii care dispun de o cantitate imensă de căldură sufletească reuşesc să producă aceşti factori cheie ai experienţei umane, furnizând dovezi semnificative de sprijin cu ajutorul cărora pot genera o nouă lumină asupra vieţii oamenilor. În acest sens putem spune că liderii constituie o parte din "sistemul de orientare" al societăţii. Nu degeaba ei lucrează cu sârg în acest sens, fiindcă deseori sunt percepuţi ca nişte izvoare de lumină ce strălucesc în mijlocul întunericului lumii.

Leadership: Tu pui accentul pe “Cine eşti cu adevărat” în veriga unui lanţ continuu care te leagă de un „Eu” ce devine poate cel mai greu lucru de definit?

Criteriul după care leadershipul poate fi socotit bun sau nu, este dat de măsura în care el exprimă într-o formă nouă şi personală sentimentele pe care le ai pentru ceilalţi. Indiferent de obiectivul tău final, trebuie să pui întotdeauna accentul pe “Cine eşti cu adevărat”. Întoarce-te spre tine însuţi ca să te poţi raporta la ceea ce simt ceilalţi faţă de tine.

Aşa cum imaginea unui pictor se alcătuieşte din reacţia simţurilor sale faţă de model, tot aşa percepţia oamenilor despre tine se alcătuieşte din reacţia percepţiilor lor faţă de plusul de umanitate pe care îl manifeşti faţă de ei. Dacă vrei ca reacţia celor din jurul tău să fie una pozitivă, nu neglija niciodată elementul uman în viaţa de zi cu zi, nu neglija niciodată importanţa vocii interioare care te ajută să-ţi exprimi afecţiunea faţă de ceilalţi, şi care strigă să faci binele aşteptat de către toţi.

Abilitatea de a construi şi menţine relaţii sănătoase este factorul determinant al modului în care oamenii se vor raporta la tine în momentele de cumpănă.

Deşi Leon părea genul de om care nu reuşeşte să se înţeleagă cu nimeni, iată că pentru Mathilda inima lui s-a deschis larg aşa cum floarea îşi desface petalele în bătaia soarelui. Poţi determina apariţia unei încrederi reciproce dacă interacţionezi cu oamenii şi numai dacă îi împlineşti sufleteşte.

Şi, mai ales, dacă Eu-l tău te plasează acolo unde are cele mai mari şanse de a fi observat, făcând deliciul unei situaţii în care atitudinea şi starea afectivă se raportează la procesul de identificare cu un model de comportament şi cu o viziune despre lume ale cărei valori existenţiale şi realitate paradigmatică pot fi recunoscute ca emblematice, definitorii şi reprezentative.

Ultima rază de lumină din iadul negru este vocea din spatele minţii căreia trebuie să-i dai ascultare în momentele de cumpănă, care îţi spune: "Fii bun şi ajută". Este acea voce interioară care îţi pune în evidenţă tot ce e mai bun în tine, care îţi luminează sufletul şi viaţa.

Tu dai ascultare acestei voci? Sau îţi este foarte greu să-i dai crezare?

Liderii cei mai iscusiţi pun preţ pe abilitatea oamenilor de a-şi exprima emoţiile şi sentimentele în cele mai frumoase moduri, în clipele cele mai grele.

Ultima sută de metri

On Februarie 12, 2009

Împiedică procesul de eroziune a potenţialului tău, creând un impact pozitiv asupra acţiunilor tale.

A fi cel mai bun, a ajunge în fruntea clasamentului nu este tocmai lucrul cel mai uşor de realizat. La proba de rezistenţă, atleţii care ocupă mereu primele locuri pe podium sunt aceia cu adevărat hotărâţi să câştige. Adică aceia care acţionează cu mai multa intensitate, cu mai multă dăruire şi care dau totul mai ales în ultimul moment, spre capătul sursei. La fel ca la proba de rezistenţă, performerii de vârf măresc viteza exact pe ultima sută de metri în drumul lor spre excelenţă.

Înainte de a ajunge pe culmile succesului, performerii de vârf au fost nevoiţi să înfrunte foarte multe obstacole şi au trecut prin numeroase încercări care nu s-au soldat cu reuşite. Dar pentru ei acest urcuş a constituit proba de rezistenţă, marele antrenament care i-a condus spre reuşită.

Leadership: Poţi să adaugi valoare rolului pe care ţi-l asumi, pretinzi constant că eşti altcineva decât eşti în realitate?

Valoarea noastră personală şi profesională izvorăşte din adâncimea propriei noastre fiinţe. Prin asta mă refer la amploarea pe care o capătă încrederea noastră, credinţa şi voinţa noastră atunci când ne exercităm competenţele. Putem să împiedicăm procesul de eroziune a potenţialului nostru (care asigură acea notă diferenţiatoare de care avem nevoie pentru a funcţiona eficient) creând un impact pozitiv asupra acţiunilor noastre.

Analiza hărţii fiinţei noastre ne vine în ajutor, permiţându-ne să constatăm slăbirea propriei noastre puteri de rezistenţă şi a tenacităţii (care dau vigoare şi strălucire potenţialului nostru) şi să eliminăm acele situaţii limită în care nu ne putem pune în valoare calităţile. O astfel de hartă poartă denumirea de „harta adâncimii” fiindcă fragmentează fiecare element al personalităţii eliminând acei factori care influenţează într-un mod negativ caracterul şi împiedică funcţionarea noastră cât mai eficientă.

Deci, pentru o apreciere mai exactă a acelor parametri care nu conduc la optimizarea funcţionării tale, este necesar să recurgi la analiza unei hărţi speciale pe care sunt redate diferenţele dintre atitudine, caracter, talent şi inteligenţă. Ştii să te orientezi pe această hartă? Ştii unde să-ţi îndrepţi atenţia şi energia astfel încât performanţa ta să crească şi să îţi atingi obiectivele?

A pretinde constant că eşti altcineva înseamnă să-ţi asumi o identitate care nu este suficientă sieşi, ci este definită de raporturile cu trofeele biruinţei câştigate prin identificarea unei direcţii de acţiune plasată în mijlocul "neaşteptatului".

Aşa cum gripa este provocată de un virus, nu de temperaturile scăzute, tot astfel diminuarea potenţialului tău se datorează erodării pârghiei de creare a valorii tale, nu neapărat a capacităţii şi performanţei profesionale slabe. Această pârghie are un „arc” care te împinge înainte, care te ajută să faci nişte salturi în propria-ţi dezvoltare - numai dacă îţi defineşti atitudinea vizavi de viaţă, vizavi de acele calităţi care îţi sunt cu adevărat necesare, vizavi de eficienţa acestora în practica şi de compatibilitatea cu propriile abilităţi.

Contele Zeppelin a rămas în istoria cuceririi văzduhului nu atât prin intermediul faimoasei descoperiri - dirijabilul zburător - ci prin faptul că şi-a impus cu toată puterea un crez care are ecou în preajma veşnicei: "E învins numai cel care crede că este învins ! "

Nu există eşec decât pentru oamenii care renunţă pe ultima sută de metri. Ca ţiganul la mal, ei se îneacă chiar atunci când sunt foarte aproape de obiectivul pe care şi l-au stabilit. Prin urmare, tot ceea ce au făcut, tot ceea ce au îndurat a fost în van. Totul a fost o muncă titanică fără sens. Şi nu mă refer aici la oamenii leneşi şi lipsiţi de ambiţie, ci la cei harnici şi capabili de mai mult, care au avut într-adevăr dorinţa de a se afirma, dar care nu au avut "rezistenţa" necesară pentru a ajunge la final, pentru atingerea scopurilor propuse.

Rolul pe care şi-l asumă un lider este precum steaua bună a descoperitorilor ce se iveşte atunci când trăieşti experienţa întregii unităţi a vieţii în însăşi unitatea misiunii pe care Dumnezeu însuşi a stabilit-o pentru tine.

Învingătorii se remarcă pe ultima sută de metri. Ei merg înainte chiar şi atunci când cred că nu mai au putere. Pe ei nimic nu-i doboară, nimic nu le încetineşte ritmul oricât de grea ar fi situaţia la un moment dat. Sunt atât de încăpăţânaţi şi de neclintiţi în privinţa deciziei pe care au luat-o, aceea de a câştiga, de a răzbi în orice conjunctură, încât sunt dispuşi să facă oricât de multe eforturi. De aceea în cazul lor succesul nu are nimic de-a face cu destinul, ci cu hotărârea de a fi învingători. Iar învingătorii ştiu că rezultatul eforturilor precedente se vede spre capătul cursei, pe ultima sută de metri.

Împiedică procesul de eroziune a potenţialului tău creând un impact pozitiv asupra acţiunilor tale.

Ultima treaptă a slăbiciunii

Menţine echilibrul întregii tale fiinţe, identificând cauzele oscilaţiilor de personalitate modificate de vibraţiile periodice lăuntrice.

În faţa unui om de treabă lumea îşi ridică pălăria cu respect şi fără umbră de suspiciune. Dar nimeni nu bănuieşte că omul acesta blând, retras într-un loc izolat, este mai prigonit şi mai primejduit decât o fiară. El poartă stigmatul şocurilor existenţiale, un imens foc intern anulând frecvent starea de echilibru a sectorului său mental.

O nebunie de moment, un avânt neaşteptat plin de forţă nu-i sunt proprii acestui om paşnic, ci aparţin unei puteri malefice concentrate într-o doză de curaj nemilos. O exaltare a sentimentului personalităţii îl aruncă pe acest biet diletant spre o altă dimensiune a existenţei, spre metamorfoză şi violenţă, ca un proiectil lansat cu precizie de o catapultă în partea de teren fertil transformării. Iar satisfacerea dorinţelor incandescente, alimentate de senzaţii electrizante resimţite tot mai acut, îi lezează caracterul etico-moral.

Puterea de distrugere a catapultei se face simţită în momentele maxime de "îndrăgostire" de sine, de bucurie pasională care ţâşneşte din adâncuri cu o presiune reglată necorespunzător. Abia atunci bolnavul mental se poate folosi de vibraţia lăuntrică pentru a dobândi o stare de plinătate sufletească. Tot atunci se reglează mecanismul transformator în jurul unui oscilator care fluctuează peste valorile normale, cuplat la singură sursă de energie reînnoibilă: obsesia paranoică de a adopta o altă înfăţişare.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi creezi un Ego diferit de "produsul unei realităţi dure", încadrându-te într-o poziție de flexibilitate faţă de cerinţele stării sufleteşti care te apasă, dar totodată te îndeamnă la o faptă bună?

Omul care are o dublă personalitate, singurul care îşi osteneşte ambiţiile chinuindu-şi trupul peste măsură, aproape întotdeauna arborează o atitudine rezervată şi modestă. Ca şi cum ar păstra doar pentru sine un secret imens, pe care nimeni nu-l poate descoperi. Este o realitate. Jack Gordon, alias Buffalo Bill, trebuie neapărat să se fi alimentat dintr-un foc subteran, care de la început până la sfârşit rămâne ascuns. Oferindu-i totodată un extaz din acela nebunesc, cvasi-sexual, nestăpânit, care face să dispară diferenţele dintre cele două fiinţe contradictorii în care se întruchipează.

Numeroasele neajunsuri de ordin intern nu pot regla pendulul însufleţitor care oscilează cu amplitudini diferite în jurul celor două axe: a feminităţii şi a masculinităţii. Din acest motiv, sistemul său de orientare şi adaptare în orice împrejurare se măsoară, în principiu, în funcţie de procesele periodice de comutare la tensiunile interne care îi acţionează fluxul de energie necesar alimentării ambiţiilor personale.

Aşa cum cavalerul Gaudin de Sainte-Croix descoperea veninul atât de toxic care putea omorî numai prin mirosul său, Buffalo Bill descoperă ceea ce îl uneşte de deplinătatea sufletească prin activarea unei mize secrete, a unei extraopţiuni care reformatează nevoile sale afective şi inclinaţiile de "stânga". Dacă Sainte-Croix moare răpus de propriul său venin în mijlocul experimentelor, pe Buffalo Bill instabilitatea emoţională şi psihică îl duc în punctul mort în care nu se mai poate identifica cu sine însuşi.

Leadership: Eşti conştient de anormalitatea în care eşti împins de căutările tale spre împlinirea personală, în conformitate cu ceea ce te reţine din a fi cu adevărat virtuos?

Te alimentezi dintr-un foc subteran, care de la început până la sfârşit, rămâne ascuns? Atingi extazul acela nebunesc, nestăpânit, care te îndepărtează de cine eşti cu adevărat şi te transpune într-o zonă de turbulenţe?

Prima îndatorire a liderului este de a-şi proteja teritoriul funcţional. Astfel încât, în faza de profunzime a evoluţiei sale să nu cadă în acele extreme insuportabile manifestate în mod ambiţios. Când firea omului nu poate fi controlată de influenţa gândurilor negative, el nu se mai poate supune categoriei "calităţii", situaţie ce ar trebui să-l preocupe. Astfel, ceea ce se numeşte leadership capătă brusc o nouă semnificaţie, o coloratură iraţională cu o paletă foarte îngustă de eficacitate ce funcţionează doar pe anumite benzi de abordare.

O lume interioară construită pe nefericire, acaparată de o irealitate stridentă care acţionează din afara limitelor autoimpuse, şi care e atât de prezentă încât te sufocă, reprezintă aş zice eu principala cauză a neputinţei de a contracara iraţionalul. Într-adevăr, nenumărate deosebiri şi piedici, aparenţe şi realităţi, stau în calea studiului propriu al potenţialului de conducere care se sprijină pe o temeinică însuşire a cunoaşterii de sine şi a cunoaşterii naturii umane. A legilor care ne guvernează viaţa şi a extremelor în care cădem.

Ca lider, eşti supraveghetorul echilibrului dintre bine și rău. Poţi să înclini balanţa către normalitate în a cuprinde viaţa în aspectele limită, sau către anormalitate în ceea ce priveşte abundenţa de nevoi şi lipsuri. Dacă eşti conştient de anormalitatea în care eşti împins de căutările tale spre împlinirea personală, înseamnă că ai luat în calcul configuraţia tuturor acelor aspecte ale vieţii care te mulţumesc şi care nu te mulţumesc.

A fi cu adevărat un om virtuos înseamnă să cinsteşti ceea ce primeşti de la viaţă, dar în aşa fel încât atunci când zilele devin grele sau insuportabile să realizezi că tocmai acestea sunt referinţele experienţelor care te vor face să evoluezi şi să te transformi în ceea ce vei fi în viitor.

Leadership: Alegi să îţi schimbi efectiv firea, raţiunea, conceptul şi starea sufletească, intrând în rezonanţă cu motivul schimbării pe care o întreprinzi atunci când trebuie să iei în considerare elementele definitorii ale orientărilor spre noi idealuri ce ţin de asigurarea decentă a existenţei tale?

În cartea sa " Hocus Pocus ", Kurt Vonnegut scria: " Alt defect care face parte din caracterul omului este faptul că vrea să construiască, dar nimeni nu vrea să se ocupe de întreţinere. "

Poţi să urci pe ultima treaptă a slăbiciunii făcând din tine un pilon al involuţiei, construindu-ţi o personalitate păgubită de numeroasele neajunsuri de ordin intern. Sau poţi să urci pe treptele respectului de sine, eliminând tendinţa de epuizare emoţională şi psihică, făcând din tine un caracter puternic care luptă cu propriile limite şi defecte.

Evoluţia oscilantă între progres şi regres este cauzată de tulburarea echilibrului dintre elementele definitorii ale orientărilor tale de orice fel, cu impact semnificativ din punct de vedere evolutiv. În funcţie de configuraţia personalităţii tale şi în funcţie de dorinţele tale dominante poţi aduce, înainte de toate, o nouă tendinţă în tipul trecerii de la stadiul de intenţie la cel de acţiune.

Ai grijă care latură dominantă o declanşezi pe parcursul evoluţiei. Reglează din timp pendulul însufleţitor care oscilează cu amplitudini diferite în jurul personalităţii tale. Dacă te supui unor directive venite din afara limitelor zonei de putere, vei putea să stingi acel imens foc intern care îţi anulează frecvent starea de echilibru. Continuă să-ţi experimentezi numai latura dominantă pozitivă, prin încercarea de a oferi valoare în moduri unice şi noi.

Menţine echilibrul întregii tale fiinţe, identificând cauzele oscilaţiilor de personalitate modificate de vibraţiile periodice lăuntrice. Nu uita că sistemul tău de orientare şi adaptare în orice împrejurare se măsoară, în principiu, în funcţie de procesele periodice de comutare la tensiunile interne care acţionează fluxul de energie necesar alimentării ambiţiilor personale.

Apartenenţa stării tale de spirit la dezvoltarea personalităţii poate fi observată în modul în care îţi exprimi necesitatea de a-ţi asuma deplinătatea sufletească într-o situaţie în care eşti constrâns să lupţi chiar împotriva ta, în spaţiul unei realităţi care depăşeşte capacitatea ta de a o înţelege.

Ultima treaptă a slăbiciunii evidenţiază momentul când propriul tău decident este atât de lezat, încât te orientează spre o latură negativă a personalităţii.

Ca orice om, eşti un amestec de bine şi rău în proporţii diferite. Şi ideal ar fi ca binele să fie dominant, sau măcar în echilibru cu răul. Numai decidentul tău intern stabileşte încotro înclină balanţa. El este un ansamblu de componente judicios îmbinate, câştigate prin educaţie, cultură şi comportament.

Ultimul glas din ceasul morţii

Deschide-ţi propriul drum spre performanţă şi succes, fără să te depărtezi de valorile pe care se clădeşte potenţialul tău de lider.

Martor îi e Dumnezeu că este complet nevinovată. Dar nu poate protesta în niciun chip, nu poate schimba sentinţa dată de judecători, nu poate chema pe nimeni în ajutor, nu mai poate face nimic. Cine să-i dea dreptate, când toţi sunt împotriva ei, când toţi o urăsc de moarte şi ar fi foarte fericiţi să n-o mai vadă regină? Cine s-o mai iubească după ce a pierdut două regate, după ce a păşit pe calea cea neagră a crimei îngropând doi soţi şi după ce din cauza unui amant nemilos şi fără scrupule, contele Bothwell, singurul bărbat pe care ea l-a iubit vreodată şi pe care l-a urmat cu tot entuziasmul până la capăt, s-au dus bătălii sângeroase în care au pierit atâţia şi atâţia oameni? Şi, mai ales, cine să-i facă dreptate, acolo unde nu există dreptate, ci numai o dorinţă fără margini pentru putere şi control?

Totuşi, până în ultimul moment, ea îşi păstrează măreţia regească. În faţa eşafodului, înainte de a îngenunchea, înainte ca preotul să-şi termine predica, Maria Stuart sărută crucifixul, îşi face cruce şi rosteşte ultimele cuvinte: „ Primeşte-mă şi pe mine, Isus Christos, în braţele tale milostive, larg deschise cum sunt pe crucea aceasta, şi iartă-mi toate păcatele mele. Amin. " Apoi îngenunchează, securea cade cu toată greutatea şi toată forţa şi o dată cu ea se pierde orice suflu de viaţă a celei ce a fost regină încă de la vârsta de 6 zile. În sfârşit Maria Stuart nu mai contează, e uitată...

Leadership: Rolul încordat pe care ţi-l asumi este de fapt o variantă de conflict de rol care apare la nivelul aceluiași status?

Toţi conducătorii gândesc la scară mare, ţintesc sus şi îşi atacă obiectivele cu mult curaj şi tenacitate. Cu ajutorul viziunii pe care o au şi pe care, de altfel, o insuflă şi celor din jurul lor, ei îşi planifica pas cu pas, cu un simţ al răspunderii destul de mare, cursul specific acţiunilor pe care le vor întreprinde. Dar, din fericire sau din nefericire, iar istoria dovedeşte cu prisosinţă acest lucru, numai cei agresivi, competitivi, conduşi de o ambiţie colosală, animaţi de dorinţa de a se afla tot timpul în vârful piramidei puterii, vor putea să domine până în ultima clipă scena politică a unei ţări.

Numai acele voinţe neclintite în împrejurări aspre, cu tendinţe puternice de comandant, mânate de dorinţa de supremaţie, vor fi capabile să se împotrivească pe faţă oricăror uneltiri şi vicleşuguri şi, luptând vitejeşte, neîncetat, să câştige orice bătălie şi să-şi păstreze poziţia în vârful piramidei.

O inimă prea nobilă, dar o inimă prea slabă. Maria Stuart a posedat puterea, primind titlul de regină chiar în primele zile de la naştere, dar i-au lipsit calităţile esenţiale unui lider puternic: curajul, chibzuinţa, tăria de caracter şi voinţa de fier - care se dezvoltă în timp, i-a lipsit fără îndoială acel imbold nemăsurat specific liderilor dârzi, aspri şi neînduplecaţi, care ştiu să-şi impună voinţa şi interesele, şi care acţionează fără să stea prea mult pe gânduri. Mai mult decât atât, ea s-a îndepărtat de valorile pe care se clădeşte potenţialul şi valoarea unui lider foarte bun: integritatea, solidaritatea, dreptatea, moralitatea şi simţul datoriei.

Conflictul de rol apare atunci când îţi asumi o poziţie care nu poate fi acceptată decât cu preţul părăsirii ei. Începi să te simţi străin de lumea în care te-ai dezvoltat, te simţi copleşit de responsabilitatea uriaşă a tot ce ţi se întâmplă, situaţie care culminează cu ascunderea umilă în tine însuţi pusă pe seama ruşinii de judecata şi gura lumii.

Şarmul, frumuseţea şi eleganţa nu i-au adus reginei decât un scurt moment de glorie, ea a ştiut să capteze atenţia oamenilor prin apariţiile ei pline de gratie şi feminitate, dar nu a ştiut să controleze „mingea pe terenul propriu”, deşi a avut o bună bucată de vreme sfetnici foarte devotaţi şi înţelepţi. Mai mult decât atât, de nenumărate ori, din nenumărate direcţii, a primit semnale clare, i s-au dat sfaturi preţioase, toate venite în sprijinul ei ca să-şi poată îndrepta paşii în direcţia cea mai bună.

Dar ea a greşit încercând mereu să-şi clădească viitorul pe nădejdea că, fiind regină, i se cuvine totul şi va fi ferită de orice fel de necazuri. Iar asta a condus-o, încet, încet, la eşafod, spre pierzanie. Cine pariază totul pe un singur număr, are mai multe şanse să piardă, decât să câştige.

Leadership: Alegi între a fi conducător sau marionetă din unghiul unei puteri care îşi disimulează adevărata natură pe termen lung?

Cel mai eficient lider este acela care este destul de inteligent pentru a se înconjura de oameni valoroşi, de o echipă de profesionişti pe care să se sprijine mereu, mai ales în clipele grele, care să-i furnizeze informaţii importante şi un sprijin optim, astfel încât să-l ţină la distanţă de orice i-ar putea dăuna în vreun fel imaginea sau cariera, astfel încât să nu fie niciodată „prins pe picior greşit”, sau mai rău, să nu fie niciodată călcat în picioare.

Un lider care crede că poate reuşi să-şi atingă scopurile având în jurul lui numai marionete, se înşală amarnic. O marionetă poate fi numai folosită, niciodată ea nu va îndrăzni, nu va da dovadă acel impuls creator, dătător de forţă şi energie, care să o împingă să acţioneze din propria iniţiativă. Ea trebuie să se supună, să slujească, fiind manipulată. Ea poate fi de partea învingătorului, dar niciodată, cu niciun chip nu poate fi ea însăşi un învingător.

Puterea care îşi disimulează adevărata natură pe termen lung este o luptă pierdută împotriva ta, creând modele de gândire bazate pe remușcări, nostalgii, disperări, îndoieli în legătură cu etica faptelor comise, ceea ce face mai greu pentru tine să performezi cum vrei.

Maria Stuart, deşi regină, a fost o marionetă grozavă în mâinile versatului conte de Bothwell, concubinul ei, care avea interese mult mai mari decât şi-ar fi putut ea imagina. De fapt, toate problemele reginei s-au datorat întru totul acestui Don Juan, acestui seducător fără margini, cu o capacitate formidabilă de a descoperi slăbiciunile omeneşti, care cuprins de o singură dorinţă, motivat de un singur scop – acela de a pune mâna pe putere, a împins-o la cele mai mari fărădelegi.

Iar Maria Stuart, dominată de acel sentiment deosebit pe care îl au numai oamenii înlănţuiţi de o singură dragoste, o dragoste fără margini, ce se doreşte a fi împlinită, s-a dăruit lui complet, i s-a supus cu toată fiinţa, slujindu-l cu o credinţă vie, cu devotament şi pasiune, până în ultima clipă.

Înainte de a aborda leadershipul încearcă să te raportezi la nivelul de experienţă pe care încă nu-l posezi - experienţa de a fi regină pentru o zi, ultima zi din viaţa ta.

Poţi suporta experienţa de a fi cuprins de ceva care e mai puternic decât tine? Cum tratezi neputinţa de a fi cuprins de limitele sensibilităţii?

Dar, iubirea fără raţiune îl duce pe om într-o direcţie nefavorabilă. La fel ca în orice tragică poveste de iubire, şi unul şi altul, şi soţul şi soţia (căci da, s-au căsătorit), au avut parte de un sfârşit cutremurător: mai întâi el, apoi ea, după măsura păcatelor, ca o pedeapsă pentru toate crimele şi fărădelegile comise.

Şi conducătorul şi marioneta au împărţit în final acelaşi destin funest: o moarte rapidă, dar înfricoşătoare, şi numai un singur lucru le-a mai încălzit sufletele în clipa cea din urmă, un singur gând, un ultim glas: „Amin".

Ultimul glas din ceasul morţii este de fapt o atenţionare de care trebuie să ţii cont atunci când te urci pe scaunul împărăţiei: judecata este fără milă pentru cel care îşi pierde caracterul.

Ultimul nivel al leadershipului

On Februarie 10, 2014

Ţine-te de ceea ce eşti tu cu adevărat în vederea creării unei opere care să constituie o strălucită a încununare a unui destin fără seamăn.

Scriitorul Mihail Sebastian, apărător al bunului gust, ar fi putut scrie un studiu despre opera lui Proust dacă zarurile n-ar fi căzut atât de tragic. Căci încheind volumul care priveşte Corespondenţa, el spune aceste cuvinte pentru noi astăzi atât de dureroase: "Nu ne putem despărţi de cărţile şi de amintirea lui decât cu sentimentul că această despărţire e trecătoare şi că într-o zi, nu prea departe, le vom regăsi."

Mihail Sebastian nu le va regăsi. Dar aici, în acest volum, "Corespondenţa lui Marcel Proust," noi îl vom regăsi pe Mihail Sebastian în fiecare rând în care retrăieşte firesc şi cu toate valenţele sufleteşti ale prezentului subtilitatea proceselor de conştiinţă, atât de unduioase, cu ecouri atât de durabile, de tulburătoare, climatul intelectual şi moral al scrisorilor de esenţă atât de puternic proustiană.

Orientarea lui către scrisori, scotocirea lor pasională, a fost fructul unei înclinaţii naturale, al convingerii că aici, în aceste confesiuni, în aceste notaţii întâmplătoare, directe, va găsi elementele de reconstituire a celui mai discutat proces de creaţie, că numai tălmăcirea lor poate întregi imaginea, în gândul cititorilor, a unei pasionante personalităţi.

Profesorul Al. Rosetti scria despre Mihail Sebastian: "Ascuţimea judecăţii sale critice de care dă dovadă în studiul consacrat Corespondenţei lui Marcel Proust justifica speranţa ca el să devină un critic cu renume mondial. Scrisă în limba franceză, lucrarea de mai sus s-ar fi bucurat de adeziunea unui public internaţional. În această intenţie a lui Sebastian de a depăşi cercul strâmt al cititorilor şi de a păşi în arena internaţională prin tratarea unor subiecte de interes general era o justă apreciere a propriilor sale forţe. Opera lui constituia o strălucită prefaţă pentru o bogată activitate viitoare."

Leadership: Te laşi vrăjit de freamătul vital al vieţii pe care o imaginezi doar ca pe o pregătire pentru biruinţa profesională, fără să iei în calcul gradul de tărie sufletească pe care trebuie să-l suporţi sub presiunea unei originalităţi al cărei nume nu este limpede conturat?

O remuşcare intensă îţi dă forţa de a te angaja într-o depăşire de sine? Eşti acaparat de o presiune puternică venită din afara propriei zone de confort? O poftă cumplită de te înălţa deasupra propriei persoane pare că te năpădeşte? Ceea ce este ascuns în tine se revede tot mai mult în ceilalţi?

Singura remuşcare a unui artist este de a nu-i fi răsplătite eforturile de creaţie în urma cărora s-au schimbat coordonatele unei anumite viziuni. Ca remediu: să-şi îndrepte atenţia şi activitatea spiritului în altă direcţie, să-şi pună mândria în înfrângerea sa, ceea ce ar însemna să-şi piardă orice motivaţie de a mai face ceva. Numele originalităţii care defineşte un artist, aducând un aport inedit la genul sau de activitate, poate fi conturat numai printr-o carieră de excepţie care să cuprindă numeroase premii şi distincţii, în virtutea unei importanţe nemăsurate.

Problema greu de rezolvat a căderii în gol, dacă o pot numi aşa, apare atunci când omul alunecă spre una din extremele de "a fi" şi îşi neagă cu obstinaţie individualitatea. Atunci când i se pare că a dăruit destul şi nu a primit suficient. Sau, invers, când nu dăruieşte nimic, dar consideră că i se cuvine totul. Aceste extreme necesită şi o altă analiză, una calitativă şi comparativă cu leadershipul.

Dacă omul este supus unei anumite presiuni, de ordin moral, emoţional sau material, care-i nu dă forţa de a se angaja într-o depăşire de sine, probabil acest lucru se datorează circumstanţelor şi greutăţilor întâmpinate pe parcursul timpului. Dar se datorează şi unui anumit mod specific al celorlalţi de a reacţiona, încadrându-l într-o categorie a bizarului, dintr-o lipsă profundă de înţelegere.

Consider că ceea ce influenţează în mod fundamental şi incontestabil gândirea omului, care aşteaptă doar o formă de ajutor pentru a "renaşte", sunt reacţiile nepotrivite în raport cu nevoile şi aspiraţiile lui.

Leadership: Poţi intra în conştiinţa unei fiinţe umane când nimic altceva nu o mai ajuta să simtă motivaţia unei viziuni inspiratoare, cu condiţia de a-ţi ţine în frâu dezinteresul pentru atingerea unui ideal?

A intra în conştiinţa unei fiinţe umane când nimic altceva nu o mai ajută să simtă motivaţia unei viziuni inspiratoare, înseamnă să te pui în locul ei şi să simţi cauza unei stări sufleteşti şi morale din perspectiva unui drum care nu există. Sau înseamnă să pretinzi că vâsleşti în aceeaşi direcţie şi eşti cu adevărat în aceeaşi barcă cu cineva, fără a sacrifica confortul pe distanţe lungi. Înseamnă să îmbrăţişezi doar ideea de succes, fără iei în calcul eşecul unei anumite acţiuni datorată unor factori pe care nu îi poţi controla.

Nu poţi ajunge nicăieri prin descurajare, tresăltând de bucurie la interesele şi pretenţiile unei lumi meschine axate pe principiul "care pe care". Fii pregătit tot timpul să-i recunoşti celui de lângă tine succesele ca pe nişte constante în a-şi etala viziunea, valorile, abordările şi misiunea. Învaţă să cultivi într-însul exact ideea opusă a ceea ce el fost condiţionat să creadă despre sine, despre viaţă, despre succes. Nu uita că omul îşi poate creea o viaţă nouă începând cu schimbarea gândirii şi a convingerilor care îl blochează.

Convingerile care îl blochează pe un artist să se afirme ţin de interpretarea pe care o dă unor evenimente din care are mai mult de suferit decât de câştigat, fiindcă tot ceea ce preţuieşte cel mai mult poate fi luat oricând printr-o moarte prematură.

Convingerile precum "nu te încrede în nimeni" sau "trebuie să mulţumesc pe toată lumea" sau "dacă exprimi ce simţi eşti vulnerabil”," precum şi limitele autoimpuse, sunt prezente în orice conjunctură în care stresul şi durerea pune stăpânire pe un artist. Viaţa lui este ca un parcurs plin de hopuri şi fără întoarcere, a cărui destinaţie se poate afla prea târziu. S-ar zice că destinul lui este asemenea unei opere de artă: nu o poţi aprecia la adevărata ei valoare decât atunci când el nu mai este.

Atingerea unui ideal de viaţă călăuzitor se învecinează cu ideea de a contribuit la o forţă de creaţie a cărei energie este profitabilă tuturor prin expresivitatea unei gândiri originale care se laudă cu faptul că „a trăit tot ce a spus”.

Există un soi de lege a acţiunii, a schimbării şi a strădaniei care stăpâneşte infinita lume interioară a omului, ce poate facilita intrarea lui într-un ritm normal de funcţionare. Iar această lege, având la bază un concept simplu: "Decât să fii altcineva, mai bine fii tu însuţi", întăreşte ideea că absenţa oricăror conflicte interioare este condiţia esenţială pentru accederea la excelenţă. Bineînţeles, la această schimbare de mentalitate, o contribuţie esenţială o are liderul şi echipa lui.

Îmi vine în minte un citat care îmi este de folos în această ecuaţie cu multe necunoscute a omului : "Nu se întâmplă nimic până când persoana care simte impulsul nu iniţiază procesul."

Leadershipul nu are la bază atât reguli şi principii predefinite, cât mai degrabă idealurile de judecată şi de înţelegere a omului din spatele regulilor şi principiilor care îl guvernează în relaţia cu ceilalţi oameni.

Leadershipul trebuie să depisteze acele caracteristici fundamental semnificative ale omului, să-i perceapă punctele tari şi slabe, să le ierarhizeze după multiple criterii şi, în final, să iniţieze procesul lui de transformare, dându-i impulsul de a se angaja într-o depăşire de sine - benefică tuturor şi lui însuşi.

Leadership: Aduci la numitor comun adevăratele elemente care pot să încurajeze stabilirea relațiilor extinse spre tendinţa de a fi apărătorul unui destin artistic oarecum neobişnuit?

Toată lumea admiră un scriitor bun, îi dedică multe momente de meditaţie, îi împărtăşeşte chiar scopul căutărilor sale. Dar nimeni nu se încumeta să travarseze aceleaşi praguri existenţiale. Una este să fii scriitor, alta este să vrei să fii scriitor, şi cu totul altceva este să scrii despre un scriitor în loc să dai explicaţii despre viaţa ta.

Ceea ce este ascuns în tine se întrezăreşte tot mai mult doar în acei oameni care ajung să te înţeleagă foarte bine. Bineînţeles, asta este admis doar când funcţionează principiul "Cine se aseamănă, se adună." Neglijând partea aceea înălţată a punţii care ţine laolaltă elementele aparent disparate dintre tine şi ceilalţi, nu vei reuşi niciodată să aduci la numitor comun adevăratele elemente care pot să încurajeze stabilirea relațiilor cu ei.

Gândul că trebuie să împărţiţi credinţa de a reuşi, palpită nestăpânit în tine? În timp tu tremuri de mânie la acest gând, cei de lângă tine tremură de îndoială?

Acest aspect demn de luat în calcul reprezintă doar o cutumă care bântuie des prin societate, şi care nu îndeamnă la participare, ci la supunere şi conformitate. Or consistenţa leadershipului depinde de forma evolutiva a parteneriatului care uneşte cele două fundaţii cu rol de susţinere, configurate după capacităţile fiecăruia de a fi "apărătorul" celui de alături.

Deci, în acest caz, consistenţa leadershipului este mai degrabă de ordin intern, psihologic, decât de natură propriu-zis tehnică sau strategică. Ea condiţionează deschiderea omului spre un nou fel de a fi care să-l conducă spre deplinătate şi desăvârşire, implicând prin aceasta alungarea acelui sentiment de reţinere, de remuşcare, care îi îngrădeşte gândirea şi îi opreşte transformarea.

A fi apărătorul unui destin artistic oarecum neobişnuit înseamnă să umpli cupa unei minţi de geniu cu visul unei fericiri fără sfârşit, numită adesea: "Nemurire".

Ultimul nivel al leadershipului este valoarea contribuţiei aduse la făurirea unui destin măreţ care chiar dacă își conturează prematur finalitatea, chiar dacă este scris doar în câteva rânduri, îşi asumă o istorie îndelungată. Fiecare mare artist simbolizează romanul unei istorii care trăieşte prin memorii, iubire şi printr-un respect demn de admirat pentru "ceea ce a fost odată".

Ultimul refugiu al unei minţi neconformiste

Existența unui artist poate fi surprinsă numai prin comparație cu liniștea impunătoare care dă hotărâri definitive, dar poate fi înțeleasă intrând într-o lume agitată.

Tare mult mi-a plăcut filmul acesta când eram mic, Once Upon A Time In West (1968). Scena finală este una memorabilă, şi este jucată „foarte încet, foarte încet". Nu este vorba despre doi pistolari neînfricaţi care îşi testează cu un singur glonţ limita vieţii, dintr-o apropiere care parcă nu cunoaşte depărtarea. Nu este vorba de nişte conturi mai vechi care trebuiau neapărat "reglate", acum sau niciodată. Unul fiind bântuit de durerea trecutului îndepărtat, celălalt fiind bântuit (imperceptibil) de egalul lui însuşi.

Ci este vorba despre momentul acela de linişte monumentală, când fiecare caută privirea celuilalt, într-o singură secundă se derulează tot trecutul, şi dintr-o dată se întâmplă inevitabilul: omul nu mai este făuritorul propriului destin, ci devine prizonierul propriului său eşec, de care nu se poate elibera decât prin moarte. Momentul acesta este bântuit de o acalmie fără cusur.

De multe ori caracterul omului se manifestă printr-o năzuinţă care este pusă la grea încercare pe durata vieţii, o năzuinţă profundă care provine nu numai din inimă sa, ci răsună ca un strigăt de luptă în orizontul evenimentelor variate şi neaşteptate. Asta, până în momentul decisiv când acea linişte a spiritului, netulburată de cugetări, îi aminteşte ce-a devenit.

Ai devenit un nou Eu, trofeu al unei bătălii decisive, trofeul unei „intransigenţe" dincolo de bine şi de rău, sau, poate, ultimul refugiu al unei minţi neconformiste?

Leadership: Poţi să realizezi integrarea ta prin cauzalitate într-o întrecere pentru o aparentă supremaţie, prin optimizarea raportului dintre cauză şi efect, dintre începutul şi împlinirea unui act de control?

Ca un soldat umil şi modest, însă devotat unei cauze nobile, pistolarului nu-i este teamă de prima picătură de sânge care slujeşte devotamentului său pentru mental şi fizic, iar în adâncul interesului său pentru armele de foc nu se găseşte nici cea mai măruntă amărăciune, poate doar puţină durere emoțională asociată cu pierderea, dezamăgirea, doliul, nedreptatea.

Dar nici celălalt pistolar nu este mai prejos. De departe de a-i condamna ambiţia pe care o putem aprecia la orice om neînfricat, el pare să aibă dublul avantaj al discreţiei: are calitatea de a păstra o taină, de a fi rezervat în atitudine, vorbe şi fapte. Prin intermediul unui intimidant Urtysnepajdú , vibrația nebună a unei lumi aflate în agonie, el refuză să devină victima neputincioasă a unei lumi fără sens, căreia îi rezistă prin ironie şi zeflemea, afişând un zâmbet viclean pe faţă.

Dar oare, nu este în interesul esenţial al cauzei însăşi, ca cei mai înflăcăraţi slujitori ai ei să deţină o pondere mai însemnată într-o vulnerabilitate menită să piardă orizontul oportunităților, faţă de alte activităţi? Sau nu, mai bine ar fi să nu-ţi sacrifici doar libertate, ci şi pe tine însuţi, sub pretextul abnegaţiei care te face să pui între paranteze orice visuri?

- Meritul discreţiei ! asta-i totul. Singurul lucru pe care îl ştii bine, ca pistolar, dar nu poţi să-l divulgi, chiar dacă numai după chip s-ar putea distinge adevărul, este acel soi de presiune, nevoia de a te încadra într-un anumit tipar al oamenilor puternici, activi şi energici, care ştiu că pot orice, şi mai ştiu că nimic nu este întâmplător pe acest pământ. Da, este un soi de presiune intimidantă pe care trebuie să o folosești în favoarea ta, şi care nu se rezumă doar la a privi impasibil, ci la a face şi mult rău dacă este necesar. Nu se rezumă doar la "making things look good", ci şi la recompensa primită după îndeplinirea rezultatului final.

Artistul unei lumi agitate se descoperă prin discreţia pe care el o manifestă într-o situaţie urgentă în care se menţine posibilitatea de a produce ceva captivant.

El este artist pentru că promovează o stare de spirit care reflectă esenţa sufletului uman, prezent peste tot şi în toate: aceea de a evada din realitate pentru a se aventura alături de eroi în lumi necunoscute. De fapt, asta face un artist: el pleacă de la elemente din realitate pentru a contura un univers imaginar, modelat după viziunea sa.

Ultimul refugiu al unei minţi neconformiste este povestea unui artist care şi-a redesenat cu îndrăzneală viaţa, construindu-şi personajul din stările diverse de spirit pe care le încearcă modelele sale preluate din planul realităţii obiective. El se numeşte artist fiindcă opera sa corespunde realităţii, dar în acelaşi timp oferă o imagine evocatoare a unei lumi pierdute.

Umbra fină din spatele leadershipului

Fă uz de nivelul de înţelegere a naturii umane, raportându-te cu înţelepciune şi cumpătare la axa de referinţă a influenţei tale.

Hannibal Lecter constituie o egalitate între două expresii psihologice latente: un comportament de animal şi o gândire extrem de calculată. Nu trebuie să crezi nimic, ci doar să accepţi totul în această ecuaţie subtilă a invizibilităţii mijloacelor concentrate de electrizare a minţii. Unde, în chip atât de neobişnuit, o singură necunoscută poate fi selectată, pusă într-un nou background şi transformată în sentinţă capitală: actul reflex, răspunsul automat la interacţiunea cu un anumit conţinut umanist.

Tăria extazului de a face uz de nivelul suprem de înţelegere a naturii umane, absoarbe lacom, ca un burete, orice urmă de sensibilitate şi sentimentalism. O trăire individuală, un fior subtil, un gând nemilos, o emoţie negativă în timp real, o ancoră mentală puternică, toate sunt concentrate într-un poliedru al forţelor în care oricare faţă are proprietatea de a activa vibraţii puternice, trezind partea ascunsă şi extremistă din natura celui care îşi suplimentează constant energiile.

Momentul forţei de străpungere a scutului mental, dezasamblând componenta de protecţie a subiectului ţintă prin emiterea razei pulsatorii de înaltă frecvenţă, se repetă şi acum într-o manieră stranie, dovedindu-se dezastruos.

Leadership: Te socoteşti necesar tranziţiei spre un "absolut imposibil" datorită cuvintelor încărcate cu forţa de a dezvălui adevăratele semnificaţii ale unei emoţii puternice?

Dacă asupra unei minţi şubrezite acţionează o forţă opusă, care este condiţia ca acea minte să funcţioneze în echilibru, la parametri normali?

Asemenea unui jucător la bursă care face să explodeze în momentul potrivit marea lovitură ce-o pregătise în tihnă, Hannibal Lecter întrerupe fiecare circuit conductor de raţionament şi autocontrol din mintea omului, amplificând frecvenţa câmpul de energie care exercită o acţiune paralizantă şi ireversibilă. El se socoteşte necesar tranziţiei spre un "absolut imposibil" atunci când reuşeşte performanţa de a-şi câtiga încrederea deplină a omului de lângă el, sugestionându-l negativ prin suferinţa pe care i-o inoculează prin intermediul unei imaginii care conţine suficientă informaţie încât să şocheze până la oripilare.

Lecter prinde clipa fugară când poate duce pe om la cădere. Exact clipa când Miggs, închis în celula alăturată, este pe punctul de a destrăma, pe fondul tensiunilor continue pe care el însuşi le-a generat cu dibăcie prin forţa sugestiei. Miggs are de învins nişte forţe cu acţiune opusă, dar nu se poate opune căderii la vale, nu poate reacţiona de-a lungul axei de corecţie, penalizare şi control pe care se plasează intervenţiile verbale ale lui Lecter.

Vestea se răspândeşte imediat. Miggs a murit. Şi-a înghiţit limba cu puţin înainte de revărsatul zorilor. Lecter i-a sugerat, aşa crede Dr. Frederick Chilton, directorul spitalului. Paznicul de noapte l-a auzit pe Lecter vorbindu-i încet lui Miggs. I-a spus ceva, dar paznicul nu a putut auzi ce anume. Miggs a plâns un timp, apoi s-a oprit. Pentru totdeauna.

Nimeni nu ştie cum a reuşit Hannibal Lecter să-l convingă pe Miggs să recurgă la un astfel de gest. Dar aşa cum Peyrade, informatorul din opera lui Balzac, începând cu miezul nopţii înăbuşea cu vată soneria imobilului ca să nu ştie nimeni cine urcă la el, tot astfel Hannibal Lecter, începând cu primul moment în care s-a adresat lui Miggs, practic i-a activat pornirile primitive, anulând instantaneu câmpul forţei sale de rezistenţă, fără ca el să-şi dea seama ce i se întâmplă cu adevărat.

Leadership: Poţi să elimini factorii de ordin secundar ce au la bază forțele de respingere?

Putem examina o importantă cantitate de "suplimente" complexe ce susţin eficienţa leadershipului, pornind de la influenţa pe care o are liderul asupra individului obişnuit aflat sub monitorizare, analiză şi control.

Influenţa, care întotdeauna ameninţă să-şi extindă efectele de "agăţare" şi de "salt înainte", fiind selectabilă, configurabilă şi activabilă la orice nivel de decizie, devine singura bătălie care se dă pe teren străin. Coordonatele ei, descifrate în întregime de liderii cei mai talentaţi, şi sfera ei de cuprindere, de aplicabilitate şi acţiune creează în jurul leadershipului o anumită potenţialitate care tinde să se desăvârşească până la perfecţiune.

Factorii de ordin secundar ce pot interveni în evoluţia leadershipului au la bază forțele de respingere între lider şi indivizii obişnuiţi, manifestându-se constant prin schimbări de mentalitate, de atitudine şi comportament, controlabile sau incontrolabile, generate predictibil sau prin constrângere. Aceşti factori privesc în special acele convingeri sau forme de gândire limitative care pot să apară în procesul de analiză şi evaluare: ţinând de viaţa intimă socială şi profesională a indivizilor.

La rândul lor, aceste convingeri sau forme de gândire limitative pot fi treptat modificate ori schimbate numai în condiţiile unei influenţe faste şi a unei abordări înţelepte, promovate prin intermediul valorilor de calitate superioară. Şi numai dacă nu sunt încadrate în circumstanţe inadecvate scopului final, care este egalizarea de potenţial.

În leadership forţele de acţiune de sens contrar trebuie eliminate înainte de a exercita o presiune prea mare în zona de similarităţi şi modele comune de gândire, înainte de a produce o ruptură ireparabilă.

Leadership: Poţi să stabileşti echilibrul între cei doi factori ai egalităţii, fără să devii o constantă a atitudinii de protest împotriva unei de sine care extinde capacitatea de a fi receptiv la sugestiile altora?

Perspectivele expansiunii leadershipului spre excelenţă, în lumea de mâine, se cer înţelese profund, pornind în primul rând de la constatarea că există un echilibru stabil şi durabil între posibilităţile de influenţare şi cele de câştig.

Făcând uz de nivelul de înţelegere a naturii umane, fără însă a te raporta cu înţelepciune şi cumpătare la axa de referinţă a influenţei tale - " puterea personală de infiltrare şi invadare ", practic vei dezasambla componenta de protecţie a leadershipului. Care, numai creând o compatibilitate de 100% în gândire se poate opune "căderii la vale" a celorlalţi oameni la care te raportezi.

Imposibilitatea de a identifica, a înţelege, a vindeca anumite pattern-uri mentale, sau dimpotrivă, redimensionarea sau demontarea lor, îşi are în realitate rădăcinile înfipte adânc într-un volum de influenţă de dimensiuni variabile, în funcţie de performanţele individuale de leadership şi de valoarea "coeficientului" de persuasiune. Şi, în acelaşi timp, depinde de puterea de sugestie a liderului ca şi de nivelul sugestionalibilităţii maselor.

Poţi să stabileşti echilibrul între cei doi factori ai egalităţii: o egalitate a valorilor şi credinţelor proprii, eliminând acea egalitate între mentalitate şi scopuri diferite, doar dacă reuşeşti să elimini partea ascunsă şi extremistă din natura ta.

Leadershipul nu este un sistem de obiecte capabile să producă satisfacţie la simpla lor contemplare sau care poate fi mutat în aşa fel încât să îţi completeze decorul dorit. Ci este mai degrabă o incursiune într-un spaţiu străin, iniţial necunoscut, în care introducerea controalelor la "frontierele interne" ar trebui să fie o excepţie. Iar elementul empatie, mai degrabă decât elementul de persuasiune, trebuie să fie bine pus în valoare.

Partea ascunsă şi extremistă din natura omului se relevă atunci când suferinţa de a nu fi recunoscut de ceilalţi se manifestă ca un refugiu al lipsei de empatie sau ca un crescendo al disperării de a te considera o putere invincibilă.

Umbra fină din spatele leadershipului semnifică acea capacitate deosebită a liderului de a influenţa masele folosindu-se de puterea de persuasiune şi sugestie, susţinută de elemente mai mult sau mai puţin reale.

Liderul, "inductorul" sugestiei, trebuie să aibă parte de un "captator" de sugestie (masele de oameni). Succesul lui depinzând în mare măsură de raportul inductor-acceptor de sugestie. Bineînţeles sugestia poate fi utilizată în scopuri benefice sau malefice, poate fi pozitivă sau negativă. Însă istoria a demonstrat că marii lideri care au folosit sugestia în scopuri malefice, mai mult sau mai puţin personale, au sfârşit mai devreme sau mai târziu în mod lamentabil. Sau au intrat pe "uşa din dos" a istoriei ca exemple negative.

Prin urmare, fii atent cum şi în ce scopuri foloseşti sugestia.

Umbra neagră a demonului de ocazie

Aşează pe un piedestal mai înalt putinţa de a te înţelege, astfel încât să menţii coeziunea internă a structurii tale definitorii.

Totul era atât de întortocheat, dens precum un nor globular care odată ce-ţi invadează mintea te împiedică să gândești clar sau să apreciezi cu discernământ propriile gânduri. Posomorât, pătruns până în adâncul fiinţei de acel sentiment de dominaţie pe care conştientul îl refuză dar nu i se poate împotrivi, mă agăţam de nişte aparenţe înşelătoare. De acel minus schimbător pe care nu-l puteam înţelege, pe care nu-l puteam accepta, determinându-mă să intru nepregătit într-un delir demonic.

În această relaţie de unu la unu, dintre dezorientare şi amorţeală, care a deschis drumul fenomenului individual de pierdere de sine, mărimile locale ale câmpului de toleranţă variau armonic cu aceeaşi pulsaţie, însă cu faze iniţiale diferite. Eram nevoit să fac o distincţie între cele două direcţii perpendiculare: o direcţie generatoare de cauze şi o direcţie generatoare de efecte. Şi să clarific relaţiile de autoritate şi responsabilitate pe care le aveam cu entitatea mea definitorie.

Nu realizam pe atunci că, asemenea unui Faust vândut Diavolului, mă aflam în căutarea lucrurilor imposibile. Piatra filozofală a integrării într-o nouă structură a devenirii, presupusul leac al acestei tendinţe de dezintegrare a coeziunii interne dintre elementele mele constitutive, era doar o măsură tranzitorie în vederea instalării unei stări de calm şi relaxare. Presiunea dintre raţiune şi disperare rămânea constantă, nu trecea de nivelurile critice, dar nici nu scădea spre nivelul normal acceptat.

Leadership: Continui să trăieşti prin ceea ce ai fost mereu, negând ceea ce eşti într-o luptă cu aparenţele înşelătoare ale unei realităţi care se încăpăţânează să-ţi reziste?

Conştient de ceea ce mi se întâmpla, mă retrăgeam în propria dezamăgire, în umbra unui demon, creaţia propriei mele minţi ajunsă la disperare, concretizată într-o nemulţumire de sine intensă. Tot mai mică era posibilitatea de a mă agăţa de ceva, de vreo experienţă, de vreo realitate, de vreo convingere, de vreo inspiraţie de moment care să-mi ofere un sprijin în abisul de dubii creat de propriile-mi gânduri şi percepţii.

Realitatea trăită prin acumularea semnelor de întrebare, dincolo de pornirile naturale spre a privi lucrurile altfel decât am crezut că le ştiu, de unde şi această tentativă de a mă împotrivi aparenţelor înşelătoare, se situează în umbra unei anumite deformări sufleteşti de tipul "A life that lost its focus". Era un fel de greutate în întunericul unei imense tristeţi, o convergenţă a unor fracturi interioare cu marile fracturi ale preferinţelor pentru aflarea unor tărâmuri neexploatate, cu care sensibilitatea mea încerca să potențeze valoarea intrinsecă a fiecărui lucru examinat într-un context mai larg.

Ca să capăt sentimentul de stăpânire de sine, ca să simt înălţarea spre culmi a putinţei de a mă înţelege, ca să-mi unesc forţele şi valorile într-un tot unitar care să facă posibilă coordonarea centralizată a tuturor funcţiilor de protecţie şi comandă, trebuia să explorez şi să descopăr noi moduri de abordare a lumii mele interioare.

Sensul rezultantei interacţiunilor cu diverse stări de spirit copleşitoare trebuia să fie identic cu sensul forţelor componente ale propriei mele personalităţi. Rezultanta trebuia să fie echilibrul.

Leadership: Continui să rămâi cantonat într-o nemulţumire surdă, fără să schimbi efectul acesteia, sau te ambiţionezi să cuprinzi nemărginirea întâmplării de a fi tu însuţi în exerciţiul unei temporalităţi subiective?

Lumina călăuzitoare a omului, marea piatră de încercare a caracterului şi atitudinii care sudează personalitatea, intră adesea în conflict cu fenomenul individual de pierdere de sine care se manifestă printr-un sentiment constant de tensiune, de disconfort, de lipsă a valorii şi prin lipsa de interes faţă de lumea înconjurătoare. Acesta este momentul declanşării incertitudinii, când omul se retrage din activitate anulându-şi acordul de voinţă. Eul său este un altul, un străin, un necunoscut indiferent.

Realitatea omului, fondată dintr-un imens conglomerat de motive, temeri, împliniri sau neacceptări, este susţinută de acele eforturi de inovare a caracterului, în scopul de a facilita accesul la găsirea unui teren rodnic şi benefic continuităţii calităţii vieţii. O tendinţă nemărginită spre autocunoaştere, dar şi o concretizare a iniţiativei privind apariţia, de-a lungul timpului, a unei noi modalităţi de percepţie a experienţei de viaţă, poate însemna un avantaj enorm pentru un sistem funcţional uman care se doreşte a fi îmbunătăţit.

Leadershipul capătă o nouă dimensiune odată cu luarea în considerare a factorului numit "rutină", transformat într-o adevărată corvoadă la nivel existenţial de către indivizii care nu reuşesc să-şi proiecteze în zona gândirii o schemă de sprijin. Stabilirea unei direcţii focusate nu spre abstract, ci spre un concret care "muşcă cu putere" din realitate, poate pune la dispoziţie suficiente motivaţii şi justificări pertinente cu privire la gradul său de discernământ, de stabilitate şi de evoluţie.

Leadership: Te concentrezi asupra a ceea ce este important să te înconjori prin examinarea lucrurilor dintr-o serie de posibile alternative, fără să-ţi arăţi puterile ascunse într-o pustietate ostilă?

A continuia să trăieşti prin examinarea lucrurilor dintr-o serie de posibile alternative, fără să-ţi arăţi puterile ascunse într-o pustietate ostilă, înseamnă să accepţi termenii de utilizare a unei realităţi care se întinde dincolo de înţelegerea ta, fără să te gândeşti la ce spun cei din jurul tău.

Modul de gândire şi acţiune al unui om se poate modifica în timp, în funcţie de natura proceselor interne ce au loc în timpul fazei de dezorientare. Leadershipul va demonstra o slabă eficienţă în acest caz. Omul se poate autodistruge dacă nu reuşeşte să clarifice relaţiile de autoritate şi responsabilitate pe care le are cu entitatea lui definitorie, determinând afinităţi de structură între formele diverse de reflectare şi investigare ale realităţii, în cazul de faţă, între ceea ce este, ceea ce crede că este şi ceea ce a devenit.

Experienţa nu te ajută întotdeauna să intuieşti foarte clar apariţia acelor trăiri şi stări, determinate de o realitate accidentală, care nu pot da claritate şi coerenţa lumii interioare. Este ca şi cum ai vrea să-ţi arăţi, cel dintâi, puterile ascunse într-o pustietate ostilă, semi-aridă, suficient de percutantă şi pentru modul tău propriu de viaţă. Dacă nu vrei să te pierzi într-un decor existenţial neprietenos, mai întâi aşează-ţi pe un piedestal mai înalt putinţa de a te înţelege, astfel încât să menţii coeziunea internă a structurii tale definitorii.

Leadershipul nu are nicio şansă de extindere dacă mintea omului este găzduită într-un decor neprietenos sau necondiţionat. El nu poate supravieţui tuturor proceselor de analiză şi decizie, nu poate permite evaluarea performanţei omului, fiindcă totul este atât de întortocheat în această fază a negaţiei de sine. Dacă intenţionezi să te lansezi în domeniul conducerii, cu siguranţă vei experimenta noi roluri şi responsabilităţi, dar şi noi trăiri, noi trenduri de manifestări.

Omul ce-şi arată puterile ascunse într-o pustietate ostilă este acelaşi plăsmuitor de lumi care investighează toate aspectele realităţii prin intermediul cugetării asupra experienţei sale de viaţă care îi confirmă repetat că nimic nu e tot ceea ce pare şi tot ceea ce pare nu e altceva decât o imagine a propriei tale subiectivităţi.

Umbra neagră a demonului de ocazie desemnează acea situaţie de dezechilibru intern ce apare ca urmare a unei discordanţe, fie ea şi temporară, între structura definitorie a omului şi capacitatea sa de înţelegere a unor situaţii neprevăzute şi neanticipate.

Umbra

Recunoaşte-te în umbra ta, fără să te simţi asuprit de stăpânirea ei.

Ori de câte ori îmi citesc scrierile, cu plăcerea neasemuită a unui Michelangelo mulţumit de David, prin puterea raţiunii care se pleacă în faţa sensibilităţii, sunt împins de o forţă stranie într-o frenezie a posesiunii reciproce. Între sentimentul de siguranţă şi cel de acaparare şi control a unei alte lumi, într-un univers mai cuprinzător.

Recurgerea la spaţiu şi timp, pe care numai izbânda unui anumit ideal, a unui "next level" în gândire o poate aduce, strecurând mici amănunte în cele mai autentice expresii care desemnează nu doar lucruri frumoase, ci admiraţia mea faţă de valorile pure care au în ele cunoaşterea adevărată, este o măsură extremă. Care are pretenția de a-mi prelungi orizonturile.

Între materie şi non-materie, pe care plăsmuirea şi destrămarea unei lumi pretind întotdeauna un altceva decât ceva-ul propagat până acum, un soi de cooperare între două matrice transpuse, având acelaşi rang, una a afirmării naturii pozitive a alterităţii şi cealaltă a supunerii naturii mele negative, există o tensiune, un anumit raport şi o anumită temperatură.

Totul se aprinde într-o incandescenţă surprinzătoare, asemănătoare focului care odată încins, e greu de stins. Fiecare replică, fiecare cuvânt, fiecare expresie este o parte din mine, măsurată prin puterea posesiunii unei forţe abstracte ce mă depăşeşte printr-o conexiune salvatoare cu ceea ce pare atât de diferit la mine.

Leadership: Cum te vezi prin asociere cu un "Eu Însumi" marcat de un grad înalt de personalizare a imaginii de 100% revelatoare, care îşi cere dreptul de a-şi afirma suveranitatea în dublul unei realităţi care depăşeşte imediatul?

Un om pleacă în căutarea sa. Trecând prin Regent's Park este întâmpinat de o umbră, umbra lui. După o lungă conversaţie, ca între două părţi egale, identice ori asemănătoare, ca între două creaţii obţinute din aceeaşi materie, putând fi uşor confundate, umbra dispare brusc. Ia-o de unde nu-i. Disperat, omul porneşte în căutarea umbrei, căci ea părea să fie jumătatea dintr-însul care-l interesa cel mai mult. Ajuns într-un colţişor mai ferit, undeva la marginea parcului, umbra a reapărut brusc. Atunci omul s-a recunoscut pe sine.

Ideea de a scrie, înşiruind printre fraze proiecţii ale stărilor mele sufleteşti, afirmate şi rostite numai prin comparaţie cu un om care pleacă în căutarea sa, îmi pare atât de firească şi atât de potrivită statutului meu de cercetător, încât nu-mi vine a crede că trebuie sugerată. O imagine de 100% revelatoare este rezultatul vizualizării unei experienţe de viaţă trăită în lectura unei cărţi semnate "Eu însumi", din care alegi doar acel fragment care conţine forţa de pătrundere în adâncimea personajului despre care nu s-a mai auzit, acel personaj care îţi permite să-ţi ajustezi cu adevărat performanța individualităţii care nu se loveşte de finitudine.

Astfel, pot să proiectez ceea ce nimeni altcineva nu a proiectat şi nu a îndrăznit înaintea mea, un lucru unic pentru studiul ştiinţific al imposibilului omenesc: de a mă recunoaşte în umbra mea, fără a mă simţi asuprit de stăpânirea ei. Asta, dintr-o necesitate a îndepărtării de mine însumi și apropierii de ceea ce caut dacă aș merge puțin mai departe de punctul stabilit iniţial.

Leadership: Te lupți cu izbânda unui „next level", care implică realitatea faptului că s-ar putea să nu ai curajul de a sări peste umbra ta?

Unul din elementele care alcătuiesc esenţa fiinţei tale, în corelaţie cu leadershipul care participă la toate semnalele schimbării orizonturilor de sens pe care le accepţi drept obligaţie în extinderea libertăţii de conştiinţă și de alegere a drumului de parcurs în viaţă, este necesitatea apropierii de ceea ce cauţi dacă ai merge puțin mai departe de punctul stabilit iniţial.

Umbra reprezintă procesul descoperirii de sine, rezultat în urma acelei căutări ce capătă caracter grandios prin faptul că propune ca nou ideal de existență unirea ta cu dublul tău, prin forța de revelare a unei alte realităţi. Umbra este acea parte din tine, măsurată prin puterea posesiunii unei forţe abstracte care te depăşeşte printr-o conexiune salvatoare cu ceea ce pare atât de diferit la tine.

În acest caz, nu ești ceea ce crezi că ești atunci când te concentrezi asupra a ceea ce-ţi lipseşte ca să fii împlinit. Ci ești ceea ți se întâmplă atunci când te concentrezi asupra a ceea ce urmăreşti să ajungi din urmă: acea parte din tine care vine din afara ta și care reușește să te convingă de autenticitatea ta.

Ceea ce vine din afara ta, rămânând tot timpul în perimetrul conştiinţei, este senzația unei apropieri de ceva în care crezi, foarte prezent în anumite situații, neputând fi ignorat, care te pune pe gânduri, te atrage tocmai prin elementele de sens care îţi definesc existenţa și te ajută să înaintezi în „şotronul" evoluţiei tale.

Dublul unei realităţi care depăşeşte imediatul este asociată cu maximizarea impactului de imagine rară, aparţinând unui scenarist care impresionează de fiecare dată cu puterea de a se transforma în personajul pe care îl interpretează în viaţa reală.

Fiecare schimbare de sens, fiecare „puţin mai departe" pe care îl realizezi spre descoperirea valorilor pure care au în ele cunoaşterea adevărată, fără a condamna eșecul anumitor evenimente sau concursul de împrejurări nefavorabile care îți pot afecta parcursul, te aduce mai aproape de un sine care este determinat să nu se lase înfrânt de dificultăţile întâmpinate.

A te lupta cu izbânda unui „next level" în zugrăvirea unei evoluţii ce are în prim plan căutarea unui Alter-Ego, muncind fără încetare pentru cucerirea unui adevăr despre care nu știi încă nimic, aduce mai degrabă cu atitudinea celui care a înţeles că numai exagerându-şi voit imaginea de sine, importanța identităţii, poate acapara o anumită putere. Puterea de a te ridica mai presus de ceea ce nu eşti.

Puterea de a fi altcineva are ca miză de prim plan susţinerea individualităţii care răspunde într-o lume metafizică, prin faptul că ceea ce te motivează este atingerea unei experienţe unice, mai presus de realitatea existenţei finite.

Umbra este reacţia puternică a unui om aflat in perpetuă căutare de sine, care îşi aplică lui însuşi legea conform căreia nu poţi să pătrunzi tainele lumii interioare decât dacă te confunzi cu o altă realitate, cu o imagine nouă, cu un alt rol, cu o altă personalitate... sau chiar cu Universul şi cu elementele sale.

Dar fără să persişti într-o stare de iluzie, într-o situaţie confuză.

Umbrela nu mai este o umbrelă

Sporeşte-ţi capacitatea de a evalua valoarea justă a unui activ, concentrându-te în mod deosebit asupra ponderii sale de utilizare.

Întrebarea este următoarea: ce se întâmplă atunci când un obiect nu îşi mai îndeplineşte funcţia? Continuă să fie acelaşi obiect sau se transformă în altceva? Când smulgeţi materialul de pe umbrelă, acea umbrelă mai este în continuare o umbrelă? O deschideţi, ridicaţi spiţele deasupra capului, ieşiţi afară în ploaie şi vă udaţi leoarcă. E oare cu putinţă să mai numim acest obiect o umbrelă?

În general, lumea aşa face. Cel mult, spune că umbrela este stricată. Din punctul meu de vedere, aceasta este o greşeală gravă, sursa tuturor problemelor noastre. Din momentul în care a încetat să servească scopului său iniţial, umbrela nu mai este o umbrelă. S-ar putea să semene cu o umbrelă, s-ar putea să fi fost o umbrelă odinioară, dar acum s-a transformat în altceva. " *****

Leadership: Faci distincţie între importanţa întregului schelet pe care se susţin componentele unul model de consum şi abordarea deformării acelui model?

Înainte de a organiza leadershipul într-o nouă direcţie de propagare a gândirii, prin exploatarea informaţiilor provenite din surse variate, mai întâi trebuie să înveţi să-ţi extinzi cunoaşterea despre lucruri. Acea cunoaştere, mai presus de înţelegerea nevoii de personalizare a experienţelor de inovaţie, de a separa „activul" de „pasiv", sau de a separa o resursă de tip indicator de o resursă de tip consumabil.

Să faci distincţie între importanţa întregului schelet pe care se susţin componentele unul model de consum şi abordarea deformării acestui model, modificând percepţia asupra valorii lui, aceasta este abordarea care intră în categoria creşterii calitative a performanţelor tale de bun evaluator. Un lider evaluează gradul de utilitate al resurselor care pot asigura calitatea unei noi abordări şi posibilele modificări pe care acestea le vor aduce unui context stabilit de cizelare a perspectivelor şi a ideilor directoare.

Este abordarea de care trebuie să ţii cont la evaluarea dimensiunii fenomenului de „consum", în baza transformării unor resurse pentru necesitatea identificării altor resurse. Un fel de depistare a valorii adăugate sau reduse, obţinută pe fiecare segment de nişă pe care îl dezvolţi, definit prin intercalarea funcţiilor sale de divizare şi modelare. Aceste funcţii sunt folositoare în scopul creşterii productivităţii în procesul de exploatare a implicaţiilor practice ale viziunii alese.

Leadershipul este o proiecţie a obiectului din care rezidă o imagine de ansamblu mai vastă asupra dorinţelor, nevoilor și credințelor consumatorilor. El poate implica, de asemenea, descoperirea modului în care funcţionează piaţă.

Leadership: Obiectul la care îţi raportezi scopurile îndeplineşte funcţia de fond a acţiunii de selecţie a unui model de cunoștințe privitor la transfomarea unei experienţe de "consumator" într-o experienţă de "creator"?

Modelul de consum reprezintă o resursă obligatorie de utilizat în vederea producerii de idei şi transformării ideilor în noutăţi utile în viitor, având o contribuţie importantă la înlocuirea vechilor tipare de gândire şi a convingerilor limitatoare. Capacitatea de analiză şi sinteză de care trebuie să dai dovadă este o competentă cheie în leadership, ca în toate celelalte domenii care au ca obiectiv dezvoltarea sau îmbunătăţirea unui sistem de gândire.

Deci, nu ar trebui să faci abstracţie de consecinţele deformării resurselor care nu mai servesc drept „valoare”. Ele devin un factor de referinţă al analizei aspectelor de comparaţie în încercarea de a adecva cât mai eficient cerinţele de interpretare şi extrapolare a unor concluzii particulare. Aceste concluzii, obiectivizându-se în elaborarea unor teorii, concepţii, doctrine, principii, conduc la dezvoltarea domeniului practicat printr-o operaţie a gândirii care pune lucrurile într-o altă perspectivă.

Iniţiativa de a realiza un fundament din ceea ce poţi pune mai bine în valoare, are ca scop cunoaşterea ponderii de utilizare a conţinutului resurselor din sfera utilităţii abordărilor tale. Numai concentrându-te asupra caracteristicilor lor, asupra mijloacelor lor specifice de transformare, vei putea să-ţi sporeşti capacitatea de analiză şi sinteză.

Să vezi un obiect cu ochii minţii este o experienţă de tip "creator" care duce la conturarea unor abordări distincte ce aparţin diverselor orientări psihologice, artistice, culturale, educative, determinative, existând aşadar, o multitudine de combinaţii atribuite reprezentării unei personalităţi autonome.

Umbrela nu mai este o umbrelă sugerează acea disociere între aspectele concrete şi generalităţile abstracte, între aspectele de formă şi conţinut ale aceleiaşi resurse - exploatate în vederea creării unei noi valori. Este o disociere între asemănările şi diferenţele aceleiaşi entităţi de referinţă, care delimitează coordonatele unui model de gândire şi creaţie - specific întreprinzătorilor care ştiu să gestioneze puterea de identificare şi sporire a valorii materiale a lucrurilor.

Umple-ţi ochii cu ştiinţa vederii în “Perpetuum Mobile”

Toate secretele "Marii Ştiințe" se află chiar în fața ta, cu toate acestea tu le vei căuta în altă parte. Nu-i așa?

Privesc marea în raport cu infinitatea impulsului cunoașterii, mai degrabă decât cu plinătatea infinită a vieții pe care artistul cel mai de seamă o transpune ca atare într-un simbol puternic. O recunosc drept apropiata mea, având blândețea neclintită a unui confesor privilegiat, o amplificare uriașă a profunzimii mele, fără de care nicio operă nu și-ar putea găsi deplinătatea.

Şi încă şi aşa, tot nu voi putea să-i înţeleg tainele, in forme e segni visti, un fel de next level în reprezentările simbolice cu o importantă încărcătură subiectivă din punct de vedere al manifestărilor raţionale ale naturii. Marea încă mă iniţiază în tainele sale, în tainele necunoscutului...

Poate că în acest punct trebuie să mă caut pe mine însumi, în raport cu o construcție nemărginită a naturii, care tace când este soare, dar vorbește loud pe timp de furtună. O construcţie numită tranzitoriu Isastrampikos , o realitate spirituală care se potriveşte în multe puncte cu imaginea Creaţiei, din care artistul invită la un strict conformism perpetuu, cum s-ar crede, dar un conformism al nonconformismului, unde viziunea și informația își dau mâna pentru a desena arhitectura unei furtuni într-o serie de peisaje marine.

Exact ca arta, marea nu cunoaște încheiere nici atunci când în prim plan trece o determinare particulară, cum este regretul de a nu fi cunoscut aspectele afective ale unui moment care a ajuns în profunzimea texturii sociale, sau aspectele afective ale unui loc care îți vorbește în orice colț te-ai uita. Şi dacă m-aş uita din nou şi din nou spre largul orizontului, încercând să măsor largul viu al vieţii, marea mi-ar rămâne martora fidelă a privirii care mi-o aruncă un pictor atunci când vrea să suprapună într-o armonie perfectă realitatea cu ficţiunea.

Leadership: Creaţia ta poate fi comparată cu un exerciţiu de reflecţie focusat asupra unei imagini cuprinzătoare, unde viziunea despre lume are sensul extins de “intensitate a emoţiei propriei capodopere” ?

Da. Marea este o pătrundere în adâncimea proporțiilor uriașe, nu o pătrundere în labirintul vieții, între uitare și regăsire, ci mai degrabă o extragere a Totului din “întâmplător” spre a-l aduce dincolo de timp, în straturile ce nu pier ale simbolismului. Tipare constante, scheme universale şi chiar un fel de mecanisme neînţelese de percepţie ale lumii se amestecă cu uimirea privirii mele rămase așa în urma momentelor de infinită măreţie pentru mine.

Ceva îmi spune că toate se repetă în timpuri paralele, iar privirea mării caută parcă şi ea o realitate care să o înveţe să trăiască prin intermediul viziunii artistului vizual care îşi imortalizează impresiile cele mai tainice în faţa existenţei zilnice. Privind marea cu ochi de artist, una riformulazione di alcuni risultati già fatti , nu vei găsi în ea obsesia permanentă de a păstra planurile vieții în echilibru, dar vei găsi acea intensitate a capodoperei naturii de care are nevoie spiritul iscoditor pentru a-şi debloca potențialul infinit creator.

Artisticul nu prea se leagă de frământările vieții, ci de sensibilitatea din spatele înălțimilor spirituale la care aspiri. Și da, de aceea ai nevoie de o evadare la mare. Ca să înțelegi că nimeni nu-ți poate lua în stăpânire simțirea, nimeni nu îți poate răscoli intimitatea adâncă, cu o singură condiție: trebuie să te simți ispitit să corectezi temeiurile armoniei care te încântă.

Armonia dintre universul nemărginit și lumea creată de tine...

Leadership: Viziunea ta poate scoate în evidenţă continuitatea unei creaţii legată la o imagine a eternităţii, ţinând cont de ipoteza rupturii radicale presupuse de trecerea de la prezenţă la amintire?

Uită-te atent, ce este acolo în zare? Căci mai mult decât splendoarea albastră din largul mării nu poate plăcea ochiului decât creaţia artistului care ştie să privească, cu o anumită uimire, spre o suprafaţă nelimitată, nedisimulată, necondiţionată, pentru a reda imaginea unei noi povesti despre existenţa unei realităţi transcendente în eternitate. O eternitate într-o singură clipă, iată ceea ce îmi îmbunătăţeşte vederea atunci când privesc o imensitate albastră de la marginea mării, într-o singură amintire: amintirea vie a valurilor mării ce îmi sărută, an de an, gleznele.

Totul lucrează fără voia pictorului, natura fiind cea mai bună plăsmuitoare a unor noi înlănţuiri de sunete, culori şi simboluri. Practic, eu n-am făcut decât să privesc în depărtare ceea ce din apropiere nu ar fi stârnit niciun interes, nicio emoţie, nicio pasiune, nicio preocupare, şi mi-am încântat privirea cu peisajele superbe pe care artistul ştie să le surprindă în întreaga lor splendoare, şi cărora le imprimă o atmosferă grandioasă. Aici intervine arta...

În sprijinul observaţiilor mele, vin cuvintele exprimate de scriitorul Artur Silveştri, în binecunoscuta lui creaţie, "Perpetuum Mobile":

"Am înţeles că totuşi, o anumită agregare se constituise până la sfârşit. Piesele improvizate aveau, deci, ceva care le unificase şi le făcea să se aşeze împreună cu o posibilă coerenţă. Întâi de toate, ele arată o anumită percepţie a timpului, văzut ca Elementul principal ce defineşte viul. Toate încep şi se orânduiesc în funcţie de timpul unde s-au ivit prin potrivirea neînţeleasă, ori într-un anume timp din infinitele lumi posibile. Să fie însă acestea mai mult decât o ipoteză? Şi, dacă le-am putea înţelege rostul de a fi, atunci însăşi enigma ce ne înconjoară s-ar fi putut dezlega? "

Leadershipul este prezenţa totalităţii tale pe care o emană acea căutare a viziunii ce nu apare decât în momentul în care ai înţeles că ceea ce te înconjoară este manifestarea unei depărtări din apropiere.

Umple-ţi ochii cu ştiinţa vederii în "Perpetuum Mobile" ori de câte ori încerci să construieşti o nouă imagine asupra orizontului, considerând că tot ceea ce vezi este doar suma unor detalii aparte, doar nişte piese improvizate pe care cineva sau ceva le-a unificat şi le-a făcut să se aşeze împreună cu o posibilă coerenţă.

Să ştii să priveşti din depărtare ceea ce nu se distinge cu uşurinţă din apropiere, acesta este secretul "Marii Ştiinţe". Cu toate acestea, nimeni nu ştie unde să se uite... Iar aşa-zisele minţi luminate rareori fac dovada unei sclipiri de geniu, ci devin tot mai confuze.

Un ajutor de nădejde

Descoperă-ţi calităţile de coechipier prin prisma felului în care eşti perceput de ceilalţi.

Aţi citit povestea fraţilor Wright? În noaptea de 2 octombrie 1902, Orville care nu închise deloc ochii gândindu-se la eşecul primului prototip zburător, era măcinat de o singură întrebare: "Ce-ar fi dacă ar construi o coadă mişcătoare verticală, în locul celei fixe? Împreunând mişcările cozii cu ale cârmei din faţă, poate că planorul n-ar mai ameninţa să cadă în cap..."

A doua zi, Wilbur, aflând ideea fratelui său, rămase o clipă pe gânduri, apoi zise:

Orville, mi se pare că ai dreptate. Hai s-o încercăm !

Peste două zile fraţii Wright zburau cu un planor, mult mai uşor de mânuit. *

Valoarea pe care o atribui unei "opere de artă" demonstreaza sincronizarea perfectă a reacţiei dintre ceea ce te face să simţi chemarea unei fiinţe mai înalte decât tine si ceea ce ti se pare imposibil de înfăptuit.

Dacă după o zi grea de muncă nu ai reuşit să termini ce ţi-ai propus, nu este o mare nenorocire. Dar, dacă acest lucru se întâmplă frecvent, atunci cu siguranţă ai nevoie de ajutor. Nu vei putea obţine niciodată rezultate spectaculoase într-un timp foarte scurt dacă nu îţi găseşti un ajutor de nădejde care să continue munca grea pe care ai început-o de unul singur.

Munca în echipă îţi permite să realizezi ceea ce nu poţi realiza de unul singur. Sunt convins că ai cunoscut destui oameni care au eşuat în afaceri, sau în jobul lor, încercând să facă totul pe cont propriu. În mod sigur fără o echipă loială, puternică şi motivată, pe termen lung nu vei reuşi să duci la bun sfârşit ceea ce ţi-ai propus.

Sugeram la un moment dat faptul că suntem martorii unei treceri de la "colecţia" de bune practici la "colecţia" de experienţe, care formează un lider complet: experienţa interacţiunii cu semenii, experienţa vocii interioare şi experienţa transformării.

Leadershipul capătă aici o poziţie dominantă printr-o subtilă oglindire a realităţii care se regăseşte în felul cum întrebuinţăm experienţa, dar şi prin măsurarea stabilităţii legăturilor pe care le creăm între noi şi ceilalţi. Aşadar, ne îndreptăm, cred, spre ceea ce numesc arta "experimentală", acea artă de a ne descoperi calităţile prin prisma felului în care suntem percepuţi de ceilalţi - coechipier sau adversar. Dacă această ipoteză este corectă, ea implică şi alte mari schimbări.

Leadership: Poţi să dai o valoare de tip "RETURN TO A NEW ENDING" unei oportunităţi pe care ai avut-o sau ai de gând să o ai, prin expansiunea câmpului conştiinţei asupra ceea ce lipseşte dintr-un ansamblu?

La un meci de rugby, jucătorul loveşte balonul şi iniţiază atacul pasând mingea unui alt coechipier. La rândul său, acesta pasează mingea la un alt coechipier în timp ce aleargă spre linia de ţintă. Şi tot aşa, pasând mingea din mână în mână, uşor, uşor, jucătorii avansează.

La fel cum un jucător de rugby nu poate avansa de unul singur spre linia de ţintă, nici tu nu vei putea avansa în carieră, în cadrul unei companii, de unul singur. Cu siguranţă vei avea nevoie de o echipă loială care să te sprijine permanent în activităţile pe care le desfăşori. Iar ca să vă atingeţi obiectivele la termenul stabilit, trebuie să pasezi membrilor echipei tale sarcinile pe care nu le poţi executa de unul singur. Nu contează cât de talentat eşti, în mod cert n-o să poţi duce la îndeplinire anumite proiecte dacă nu soliciţi sprijinul altor persoane. Asta este realitatea. Unele sarcini nu pot fi realizate decât prin efortul combinat al mai multor persoane.

Va veni un moment în care vei avea de făcut o alegere dificilă: să acţionezi singur, cum ştii tu mai bine, sau să apelezi la ajutorul altor persoane. Te previn că alegerea ta te va însoţi tot restul vieţii, atât la bine, cât şi la greu.

Eşti pregătit să înfrunţi cu stoicism provocările de unul singur? Gândeşte-te foarte bine înainte a porni la drum.

A trăi cu conştiinţa clară a valorii pe care o are o anumită "operă de artă" înseamnă să beneficiezi de o autonomie care se mulţumeşte cu o muncă a cărei formă de utilizare este hotărâtă de altcineva care sfidează definiţia a ceea ce înseamnă "imposibil de înfăptuit".

Un ajutor de nădejde este norocul care te pândeşte la fiecare pas, printr-o idee, o sugestie sau o sesizare, îndrumându-te spre finalizarea unei munci în care puţini au crezut, o muncă în care uneori nu primeşti nici mulţumiri, dar care îţi aduce tot ceea ce ochii visează sau tot ceea ce inima doreşte.

Eşti dotat cu proprietatea de a fi perceput ca un "frate" de mare valoare care sfidează definiţia a ceea ce înseamnă "imposibil de înfăptuit".

Un alt determinant al leadershipului

Exprimă-ţi gândurile în termeni de imagini încât să evidenţiezi legătura dintre ce te "ține" pe dinăuntru și ce se impune evaluării din exterior.

Mi-am descoperit pasiunea pentru scris în acelaşi fel în care pictorul îşi creează capodoperele: încercând să găsesc o cale de a comunica o viziune şi de a o împărtăşi unui public cât mai numeros. Negreşit, mi-am dat seama că eram "just an ordinary guy with nothing to lose", prizonierul unui destin boem, dar obsedat de ideea unui destin mare.

Desigur, pasiunii mele nu îi lipsea acea vibraţie a conştiinţei care mă conducea spre întâlnirea cu polul experienţei subiective, nu îi lipsea privirea unui îndrăgostit de cărţile pline de înţelepciune, dar părea totuşi să existe o anumită spaţialitate între virtutea de a gândi prin cuvinte şi slăbiciunea de a pune totul sub semnul înţelegerii.

Fapt din care reieşea o nevoie acută de a-mi articula o calitate superioară şi sensibilă totodată: puterea de a reda ceea ce simţeam, şi cu egală măiestrie să pătrund într-o realitate ocultată căreia să-i ofer conotaţii artistice puternice, mai apoi să fac din ea o capodoperă a gândirii creative, cheia cunoaşterii universale.

Arta autentică este o căutare continuă a adevărului, unul care transcende rațiunea simplă, exercitând autonomia expresivă de a modela mesajul transmis în funcție de realitățile interne și externe.

O astfel de calitate putea fi o manifestare a conştiinţei, a sincerității și onestității intelectuale, o continuă mărturisire menită să exprime nesiguranţă, dar totodată uimire. În privinţa a ceea ce tindeam să portretizez, conştient de autonomia expresivă a mijloacelor formale de construire a mesajului, încă nu eram decis ce model să aleg.

Aş fi putut să fiu chiar eu centrul întregii creaţii ce urma să o folosesc drept argument esenţial în definirea unei noi direcţii de studiu al vizualului literar - trecut prin imaginarul unei minţi complexe. În acest caz, cel mai probabil cititorii m-ar fi putut evalua drept prizonierul unui destin aparte, un Hamlet cu sabia în mână aflat în căutarea unui adevăr care transcende raţiunea omenească.

O altă viziune a aceluiaşi tablou sugerat de un artist este şansa unei experienţe de alteritate care te face să te simţi fabulos într-o metafizică a revelaţiei despre modul cum poate fi îmbunătăţit omul şi realitatea lui.

Ca să fiu mai mult decât eram, purtând de grijă gândirii şi aducând-o astfel în esenţa ei, trebuia să-mi arăt disponibilitatea de a răspunde cerinţelor de transparenţă ale unei călătorii în timp, în paginile unei cărţi înălţătoare. Nimic nu e mai absurd decât să te recunoşti învins de spaţiul unei lumi care stă să se scunfunde, sau să guşti victoria posibilităţii de a salva o lume pierdută.

Experimental, dacă ar fi fost să mă integrez în romanul "Numele Trandafirului" de Umberto Eco, probabil m-aş regăsi în personajul Adso din Melk, la sfârşitul lui 1327, care mărturisea la un moment dat:

"Mi-am dat seama cu timpul că ceea ce părea nesiguranţă era în schimb numai curiozitate, pe care o credeam mai degrabă o înclinaţie a sufletului lacom, socotind că sufletul chibzuit nu trebuie să se hrănească cu aşa ceva, înfruptându-se numai cu adevărul, care (gândeam) se cunoaşte chiar de la început."

Artistul din mine încă se mai întreabă cu nedumerire: până unde pot să lungesc discuţia despre artă, astfel încât textul să capete valenţe de metaforă şi cod vizionar, dar fără să mă satur de personajul surprins cu sinceritate în propria-mi realitate - a cărei valoare poate că va rămâne valabilă peste veacuri?

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi extinzi viziunea asupra sentimentelor și rațiunii care stau la baza performanţei şi evoluţiei tale, în virtutea unei conştiinţe estetice care îşi este propriul obiect de cercetare?

Nu s-ar putea opri aici tot ceea ce am învăţat să redau prin cuvinte, tot ce-am trăit, tot ce-am descoperit, tot ce-am dobândit în timp, pentru ca diversitatea formelor de expresie din artă să fie revelatoare în ceea ce priveşte lumea ideilor. Negreşit, trebuie să-mi plasez arta pe linia groasă a unor convingeri ce se doresc a avea ecou în lumina eternităţii.

Explicaţia este simplă: orice conversaţie poate facilita accesul la un nou mod de comunicare a mesajului declanşator de emoţii care să fie în acelaşi timp cuvântul cheie al demersului de raţiune în alegerea semnificaţiei acordate ineditului cu potenţial de apreciere a distanţei dintre text şi ilustraţie.

O conştiinţă estetică se evidenţiază prin puterea creaţiei a cărei temelie este relaţia dintre tine şi modelul pe care îl alegi să te reprezinte în planul idealizării unei situaţii concrete de aplicare a teoriilor de inspiraţie. Ea devine un obiect de cercetare pentru dimensiunea personală atunci când se prezintă ca un procedeu de reflecţie asupra realităţii pusă în slujba înfăptuirii unei noi forme de artă vizuală.

Totodată, mai sunt tentat să trag concluzia că o conştiinţă estetică este un dram de luciditate aplicat afectivităţii cu care impregnez oamenii, obiectele şi faptele, cu o notă personală, conform unei cromatici și simbolistici vii, seducătoare, astfel încât să se producă senzaţia de plutire într-un ocean de sentimente, într-un univers plin de visare.

Leadership: Încerci să-ţi creezi un crescendo al experienţei de a fi pus în relaţie cu un personaj total diferit de tine, dar apropiat de acea autonomie a artei de a produce o cunoaştere alternativă mai amplă?

Privită dintr-un alt unghi, inspiraţia de care mă agăţ tot mereu spre reconstruirea unui profil de perfecţiune cu reprezentare înaintea frumuseţii unei figuri în ansamblul ei, este o formă de a-mi exersa răbdarea în aşteptarea unui răspuns la apelul de plăsmuire a unei alte realităţi. Este o formă de a pune pe hârtie, pânză sau orice fel de material, gândurile, trăirile, preluarea unor momente de mare coincidenţă între două lumi: cea a pictorului şi cea a scriitorului, perspectiva autorului şi abordarea convingătoare şi sensibilă a personajului cu care el se identifică.

Urmează apoi o mică schiţă a desenului menit să amplifice printr-o simbolistică fascinantă viziunea unei ieşiri din timpul şi spaţiul real: viaţa şi moartea. Două personalităţi îşi încheie conversaţia printr-o formulă extrem de sugestivă: arta este înregistrarea revelaţiei de Sine a lui Dumnezeu către om.

"Nu mai avem înţelepciunea anticilor, s-a sfârşit vremea uriaşilor" , spunea maestrul sticlar

Nicola din Morimondo.

A avea o conştiinţă estetică înseamnă să faci dovada unei viziuni inedite asupra artei, prin plasarea unor gânduri şi revelaţii despre sine în completarea unui tablou în care culorile nu sunt aşezate după legile fireşti ale faptului cotidian. Ci, ele urmează legea anti-naturalului într-un spaţiu abstract în care se boltesc analogiile şi se încrucişează cele mai variate direcţii din desăvârşirea spiritului, din roadele spiritului lui Dumnezeu.

Punctul de pornire al cunoaşterii cele mai înalte este reflectat de capacitatea de a te identifica atât de sublim cu emoțiile şi gândurile unui personaj dintr-o carte impresionantă, să te pui total în pielea lui, deci acordându-i o importanţă mai mare decât ţi-o acorzi ţie.

Un alt determinant al leadershipului este factorul “comparaţie” între tine şi modelul pe care îl alegi să te reprezinte în planul idealizării unei situaţii concrete de aplicare a teoriilor de inspiraţie.

Vei putea mai uşor să gândeşti o imagine nouă despre tine dacă te inspiri din lumea celor care au traversat înaintea ta calea vieţii trecând de la păcat la sfinţenie, de la ignoranţă la cunoaştere, de la experienţă la înţelepciune.

Leadershipul este imaginea cu care te prezinţi în faţa unei lumi pe care ai avut prilejul să o cunoşti de aproape, dar şi de departe, din experienţa personală şi mai ales din înţelepciunea anticilor.

Un aspect care nu trebuie neglijat

On Aprilie 17, 2009

Foloseşte-ţi autonomia pentru a putea găsi cea mai bună formulă de schimbare, focalizându-ţi întreaga atenţie asupra modului în care regulile trasate de ceilalţi îţi permit o flexibilitate în tratarea schimbării.

Ieri după-amiază citeam în scrânciobul din grădina din spatele casei mele când, deodată, din curtea vecină o aud pe noua proprietară adresându-se copiilor care veniseră la ziua de naştere a fiului ei în vârstă de patru anişori.

"Bun copii, acum ne vom juca de-a v-aţi ascunselea. Este un joc nou, dar o să vă placă la nebunie, o să vedeţi. Eu mă voi întoarce cu faţa la perete, iar până ce termin de numărat voi trebuie să vă ascundeţi oriunde vreţi voi în curte. Dar atenţie, nu vă ascundeţi în casă, sunt destule locuri unde vă puteţi ascunde în curtea asta mare."

Zis şi făcut, începe numerotarea: "1, 2, 3... 10. Cine nu-i gata îl iau cu lopata." Însă nici bine nu s-a întors doamnă că am şi auzit: "Ionuţ, te-am văzut. Poţi să te dai jos de pe capota maşinii. Ţi-am spus să te ascunzi, nu să te urci pe maşină."

Spre deosebire de ceilalţi copii care s-au ascuns prin toată curtea, Ionuţ s-a aşezat la vedere, şi asta pentru că mama lui nu i-a explicat suficient de clar ce înseamnă "să te ascunzi". Dacă însă ea le-ar fi spus copiilor să se aşeze într-un loc în care să nu poată fi văzuţi şi găsiţi, poate că Ionuţ ar fi înţeles mai bine ce trebuie să facă şi nu s-ar mai fi urcat pe maşina ci, cel mai probabil, s-ar fi pitulat în spatele ei.

Leadership: Prin intermediul căror indicatori poţi să măsori factorul claritate al imaginii care te face să crezi că te afli în mijlocul acţiunii neterminate, acolo se doreşte un efect echivalent al deciziei ce trebuie respectată întocmai?

Succesul unei companii depinde în primul rând de angajaţii săi şi de calitatea serviciului oferit clienţilor. O companie va ieşi învingătoare chiar şi în momentele cele mai dificile dacă angajaţii au înţeles foarte clar ce au de făcut şi dacă se implică în găsirea soluţiilor şi în implementarea acestora. Nu este deloc surprinzător faptul că angajaţii care sunt instruiţi cum trebuie dau întotdeauna randamentul dorit, spre deosebire de aceia cărora nu li s-a oferit o intruire eficientă.

Idealul oricărui specialist de resurse umane este de a găsi angajaţi dornici să facă performanţă, capabili să obţină rezultate din ce în ce mai bune. Apoi el trebuie să se asigure că angajaţii pricep care este rolul lor în cadrul companiei, că ştiu de ce fac munca pe care o fac şi că înţeleg foarte clar care este scopul acestei munci. Dacă angajaţii nu înţeleg ce au de făcut, mai mult ca sigur nu se vor implica în munca pe care o fac şi nu-şi vor îndeplini obiectivele şi sarcinile prevăzute în fişa lor de post.

Doi indicatori pot să măsoare factorul claritate al imaginii care te face să crezi că te afli în mijlocul acţiunii neterminate, acolo se doreşte un efect echivalent al deciziei ce trebuie respectată întocmai: capacitatea de a te diferenţia de ceilalţi şi modul tău de răspuns la aplicarea unor noi reguli.

Parafrazând-o pe Anda Racsa, managerul general al companiei Abc Training Consulting: "Dacă angajaţii nu înţeleg foarte bine ce se cere de la ei, se poate întâmpla ca rezultatul sarcinilor delegate să fie nesatisfăcător şi să influenţeze nefavorabil şi alte activităţi din cadrul departamentului sau al companiei.”

Incontestabil, gradul în care managerul sau specialistul de resurse umane reuşeşte să formuleze sarcinile de lucru ale angajaţilor determină gradul de implicare al acestora în activitatea companiei. Aşadar, sarcinile de lucru trebuie să fie cât mai clar formulate.

Leadership: Energia debordantă de care dispui te împiedică să te apleci cu atenţie asupra unor aspecte cheie ale situaţiilor în care se trece de la o "probă" impusă - la o regulă care îţi limitează capacitatea de manevră?

O regulă care exprimă autonomia individului spune că indiferent care este ţelul urmărit, indiferent care este specialistul care îţi trasează direcţia, poziţia pe care ţi-o asumi trebuie să fie aceea pe care cu adevărat eşti încântat să o trăieşti şi pe care nu eşti dispus să o aplici la îndemnurile sau presiunile celorlalţi.

Este un semnal de alarmă pentru companii atunci când angajaţii încep să nu mai fie interesaţi de îndeplinirea sarcinilor de serviciu ce le revin. Asta poate fi o consecinţă a faptului că ei ori nu îşi doresc să muncească, ori nu ştiu concret ce anume trebuie să facă. Degeaba au companiile clar definite standarde şi proceduri de lucru care le dau posibilitatea angajaţilor să evolueze dacă aceştia nu pricep ce anume se doreşte de la ei.

De aceea rolul specialistului de resurse umane este esenţial în tot ceea ce priveşte evoluţia unei companii. El, împreună cu cadrul tehnic, trebuie să clarifice sarcinile angajaţilor şi să urmărească modul de îndeplinire a acestor sarcini, să le explice ce au de făcut şi să le arate cum trebuie să lucreze.

Ceea ce predomină la orice om, la fel ca orice angajat, este capacitatea de a se diferenţia nu atât prin calităţile ce le posedă, ci prin atitudinea adoptată în pofida influenţei altora. Asta e diferenţa dintre anjatatii de rând şi cei formidabili: primii acceptă orice îndemn şi se conformează regulilor, ceilalţi sunt dispuşi să-şi susţină până la capăt propriile puncte de vedere în ciuda regulilor trasate de manageri.

Nu lăsa ca statutul tău de angajat să se transforme într-un post de marionetă uşor de manevrat într-un joc ce nu-ţi aparţine.

A fi angajat nu înseamnă a fi un sclav sau o marionetă, ci înseamnă că eşti contractat pentru a aduce o schimbare în companie. Trebuie să te priveşti ca o persoană absolut necesară. Când managerul îţi trasează o sarcină trebuie mai întâi să te întrebi dacă nu cumva ai devenit spectacolul din culise mai picant decât cel de pe scenă. Nu cumva ai devenit prea predictibil? Acţiunile tale sunt prea uşor de citit? Nu cumva ai devenit un „cal de bătaie”, un „clovn” de pe spatele căruia alţii profită din plin?

Un angajat veritabil gândeşte astfel despre manager: tu eşti cel care se schimbă mai întâi, apoi eu îmi activez opţiunile care pot aduce beneficii companiei.

Un bun recrutor

On Martie 18, 2009

Identifică esenţa tărâmului psihologic al celui care te evaluează, menţinându-te în acel spaţiu în care capacităţile voastre se întrepătrund.

Un club de fotbal a organizat nu demult o preselecţie pentru copiii născuţi între anii 1996-2000. Copiii au fost testaţi de antrenorul principal care totodată era şi un reprezentant al Federaţiei Române de Fotbal. Ca prim selecţioner, antrenorul i-a supus pe copii la mai multe probe dificile: slalom cu balonul de fotbal printre jaloane, jonglări, dribling şi pase, şuturi la poartă de la anumite distanţe, şi în final jocul de echipă. În funcţie de abilităţile şi talentul fiecăruia, antrenorul a decis cine poate intra sau nu în clubul de fotbal.

Foarte mulţi copii care se prezintă la o preselecţie se emoţionează, ca înaintea oricărui examen, şi din această cauză pot comite unele greşeli. Din această cauză este atât de necesar ca antrenorul să se folosească de fler şi intuiţie ca să observe ce se ascunde în spatele aparenţelor, să-şi dea seama de potenţialul ascuns al fiecărui copil.

Mai mult, el trebuie să ştie să plaseze cei mai buni jucători pe posturile care li se potrivesc cel mai bine. De exemplu, s-ar putea ca unii copii să fie mai buni în apărare decât în atac, alţii să fie mai buni mijlocaşi decât fundaşi. Un bun antrenor îşi va da seama care sunt abilităţile fiecărui copil, şi în funcţie de acestea îi va aşeza pe posturile potrivite în teren. Succesul echipei lui depinde în mare măsură de selecţia pe care a făcut-o printre copii şi de dispoziţia lor în echipă.

Leadership: Eşti pregătit să experimentezi o întâlnire profundă cu tine din perspectiva unui spirit abstract şi obiectiv?

A-ţi etala calităţile pe teren în faţa selecţionerului este ca şi cum te-ai afla în faţa unei făpturi invizibile - trebuie să vezi ceea ce nimeni altcineva nu e capabil să vadă la el, trebuie să percepi necunoscutul, adică să identifici esenţa propriului său tărâm psihologic, felul în care judecă lucrurile, menţinându-te în acel spaţiu în care capacităţile voastre se întrepătrund. Trebuie să ai puterea de a-ţi manifesta forţa propriului spirit şi de a spulbera toate îndoielile lui privitoare la performanţa şi talentul tău. Trebuie să-i susţii idealurile de excelenţă şi să-i înţelegi felul de a gândi, ceea ce majoritatea ratează să facă.

O întâlnire cu tine este o demonstraţie clară a eforturilor de voinţă şi de concentrare a atenţiei asupra acelor aspecte ale dezvoltării care duc interactivitatea la un alt nivel: să ai libertatea de a te exprima prin intermediul talentului, al interesului faţă de competiție, prin intermediul unor indicatori fizici şi valorici, prin intermediul reflexului de orientare în alergare şi mai ales prin intermediul altora.

Când e vorba de o preselecţie contează foarte mult prestaţia ta, dar la fel de mult contează felul în care îţi direcţionezi concentrarea şi energia. Trebuie să adaugi o imensă semnificaţie jocului tău fără să pierzi din vedere idealul de fotbalist pe care îl poartă în inimă antrenorul. Poţi fi extrem de talentat, dar dacă nu te încadrezi în tiparele lui, atunci eşti pierdut din start. El se poate transforma într-o fiinţă invizibilă pentru tine, iar asta înseamnă să-ţi etalezi calităţile în van.

Cu alte cuvinte trebuie să faci în aşa fel încât selecţionerul să fie „vizibil", adică să-l ai tot timpul în câmpul tău vizual - iar la rândul tău să fii mereu în atenţia lui. Păstrează-ţi atitudinea potrivită, nu-ţi pierde niciodată speranţa în legătură cu acele situaţii în care îţi este frică cel mai mult de tine însuţi – atunci când simţi că îşi întoarce faţa de la tine.

În fond, totul se rezumă la capacitatea selecţionerului de a discerne asupra ta, şi la capacitatea ta de a discerne asupra lui.

Leadership: Cât de abil te dovedeşti în a conta pe tine într-o zonă în care accesul este restricţionat?

Când vine vorba de preselecţie, miza este întotdeauna dată de cine se dovedeşte mai abil în mânuirea balonului – deci de calităţile care îi fac speciali pe jucători, precum şi de angajamentul şi de perseverenţa lor.

Pentru a-i putea selecţiona pe copii, antrenorul trebuie să îndeplinească o condiţie esenţială: trebuie neapărat să aibă experienţă practică în domeniu, adică să fi fost jucător de fotbal. Numai un antrenor care are cunoştinţe profesionale solide şi abilităţi sportive poate să evalueze corect aptitudinile şi nivelul de pregătire al candidaţilor - dacă acestea corespund sau nu cu cele necesare postului respectiv din echipă. Nicidecum selecţionerul unei echipe de fotbal nu are cum să fie de profesie doctor, inginer, arhitect, economist sau fizician.

Răspunderea pentru succesul sau eşecul unei organizaţii revine, la fel, recrutorului care are obligaţia să selecţioneze şi să pregătească cei mai buni oameni în vederea obţinerii unui rezultat cât mai bun. Procesul de identificare şi angajare a personalului nu este unul foarte simplu, şi nu oricine este capabil să o facă bine. Prin urmare, recrutorii care nu au o instruire prealabilă în domeniul în care activează, care nu au acumulat o experienţă profesională suficientă, vor fi lipsiţi de fler în alegerea celor mai buni candidaţi.

O zonă în care accesul este restricţionat sugerează asumarea unei poziţii de control care elimină confruntarea şi judecata apriorică, permiţând aplicarea standardelor de "corectitudine", "bun-simţ" şi "raţionalitate" într-un context de tipul: "Omul potrivit la locul potrivit".

De multe ori am spus, şi repet, un recrutor trebuie să observe care sunt abilităţile pe care le posedă candidatul pentru a răspunde cerinţelor postului care urmează să-l ocupe, ce anume îl face potrivit pentru acel post, iar acest lucru nu se poate realiza prin studierea cv-ului şi scrisorii de intenţie ci prin verificarea aptitudinilor profesionale şi personale ale acestuia.

Când angajezi o persoană trebuie să începi să scormoneşti mai adânc, să pui întrebări bune, să ceri explicaţii atunci când este cazul şi să afli soluţii. Şi, întocmai ca la fotbal, trebuie să-l treci pe candidat prin mai multe etape practice, şi în funcţie de felul în care se descurcă să-l plasezi pe postul cel mai potrivit.

Leadershipul este o formă de răspuns la acumularea de experienţă în exercitarea controlului pe care o pretinde demonstraţia de aptitudini susţinută prin arta de a te ridica în ochii celorlalţi.

Un cec pentru schimbarea ta

On Octombrie 05, 2010

Ia în considerare ritmul tău de evoluţie fără să reduci costurile formării tale.

Un mare conducător pregătea o campanie militară agresivă pentru cucerirea unui teritoriu străin. După ce s-a consultat cu cei mai buni comandanţi ai săi în privinţa alegerii celei mai bune strategii de atac, au hotărât de comun acord că cea mai bună soluţie este de a porni un atac pe mare. A doua zi marele conducător s-a adresat oştenilor săi:

- Dacă vrem să câştigăm acest război va trebui să atacăm de pe mare. Dar mai întâi trebuie să învăţăm să navigăm fiindcă nu avem suficientă experienţă în manevrarea bărcilor.

Leadership: Manifeşti o preocupare permanentă pentru a asigura evoluţiei tale o finalitate care este in favoarea coordonării "la nivel orizontal" a unei decizii luate prin analiza stării generale?

Numai experienţa poate susţine ritmul de funcţionare al unui leadership de calitate. Experienţa este o parte necesară în evoluţia ta spre un statut concordant cu nivelul tău de aspiraţii. Şi de aceea este necesară o valorificare critică a aspectelor legate de caracterul tău şi de cât eşti dispus să dai, pentru ca procesului tău de evoluţie să îndrepte orice lipsuri şi orice lucru care merge prost.

Manifeşti o preocupare permanentă de a asigura evoluţiei tale o finalitate care să fie în favoarea leadershipului tău? Trăieşti printre acei oameni care încearcă să te scoată răspunzător pentru anumite împrejurări în care nu ţi-ai folosit cum trebuie potenţialul de lider?

Evoluţia ta profesională este precum un cec pe care îl primeşti prin poştă în fiecare săptămână, care îţi reglează parţial situaţia ta financiară, dar nu-ţi garantează succesul. Acel cec confirmă faptul că ţi-ai achitat o anumită perioada de timp obligaţiile care îţi revin. În acelaşi timp, cecul reprezintă valoarea a ceea ce eşti în stare să construieşti înainte să plăteşti preţul unei victorii colosale.

Leadershipul trebuie în primul rând înţeles, susţinut şi apoi valorificat. Pentru ca el să evolueze trebuie să ştii să te foloseşti cât mai dibaci de acele “cecuri de valoare” pe care nivelul tău de performanţă ţi le pune la dispoziţie pentru a-ţi regla ritmul de dezvoltare. Cecurile sunt destinate să aducă o contribuţie modestă (dar semnificativă) la însuşirea trăsăturilor, calităţilor şi cunoştinţelor asimilate de-a lungul timpului pentru a te putea ajuta să te descurci foarte bine în orice situaţie care ameninţă reputaţia ta sau care împiedică îndeplinirea scopurilor propuse – deci în acele situaţii care necesită efectuarea unei schimbări de planuri.

Leadershipul este o formă de manifestare a legii cauzalităţii şi exprimă procesul de autodeterminare a unor fenomene care sunt greu de previzionat, fiind de fapt și rezultatul unor tendințe de evoluție conturate cu o anume fermitate.

A asigura evoluţiei tale o finalitate care este în favoarea coordonării "la nivel orizontal" a unei decizii luate prin analiza stării generale, înseamnă să urmăreşti o satisfacție strict individuală plătită fără pierderi personale în beneficiul altora. La ce mă refer când spun despre coordonare "la nivel orizontal"? Mă refer la faptul că trebuie impuse nişte reguli sau măsuri pentru toată lumea, prin care se poate facilita o coeziune la nivel de grup. De asemenea, aceste reguli sau măsuri trebuie să justifice o acţiune menită să asigure un climat de ordine, să menţină potenţialul de dezvoltare al oamenilor şi să promoveze exemple de bună practică.

Felul cum îţi organizezi resursele determină performanţa ta. Ce este războiul dacă nu o confruntare de durată între două sau mai multe tabere rivale? Fiecare dintre ele urmărind să câştige confruntarea întrecându-şi adversarul în eficienţă, în inventivitate, în mânuirea armelor si în ocuparea teritoriului dorit. Pe parcursul bătăliilor fiecare tabără are parte de succese sau eşecuri. Chiar dacă una din ele a pierdut o bătălie, încă mai poate câştiga războiul în funcţie de strategia pe care o aplică pe parcurs.

Dar oricât de eficace ar fi strategia pe care o aplică o armată, niciodată aceasta nu va putea porni un război şi nu se va putea implica în nicio bătălie dacă nu este pregătită să câştige sau să suporte consecinţele în cazul în care pierde. Într-un război armata cea mai bine pregătită câştigă, rareori iese "remiză", mai ales atunci când nu sunt stabilite anumite reguli sau când acestea nu sunt respectate.

Un lider va trebui sa-si justifice investiţia în manevrarea unor tehnici, abordări alternative şi practici inovatoare, ca un fel de corolar al legii cauzalităţii care nu poate fi un simplu rezultat dedus din faptele experienței, pentru că el însuşi este ordonatorul acestei experiențe.

Pregătirea este mai mult decât necesară. Trebuie să te asiguri că oamenii sunt bine instruiţi şi că au înţeles ce anume aştepţi de la ei, şi neapărat trebuie să dispui de resurse materiale şi mijloace financiare pentru a-i întreţine pe tot parcursul războiului. În termeni mai simpli, dacă nu ştii să-ţi organizezi resursele necesare (cum ar fi timpul, baza materială, baza umană, etc) nu vei putea întreprinde acţiuni eficiente în vederea prevenirii unui eventual eşec.

Ia în considerare ritmul tău de evoluţie fără să reduci costurile formării tale. Dacă ştii să-ţi organizezi resursele necesare care să contribuie la formarea ta ca lider, asigurându-ţi din timp o pregătire care să dea posibilitatea abilităţilor tale să se dezvolte, atunci reuşita ta va fi asigurată.

Manifeşti tot interesul faţă de formarea ta? Evoluţia ta oglindeşte înţelegerea cât mai profundă şi mai cuprinzătoare a propriului tău potenţial de lider ?

Leadershipul este oportunitatea de a învăţa să te cunoşti prin exerciţiul de a te privi din perspectiva altor persoane, încât ceea ce îţi favorizează evoluţia să fie dat de motivaţia lor spre eficienţă.

Un cec pentru schimbarea ta reprezintă acel minim de ajutor prin care poţi să progresezi cu adevărat. Este un ajutor care valorează mult, şi pe care tu însuţi ţi-l acorzi prin formarea şi dezvoltarea ta. Ca să capeţi suficientă experienţă în manevrarea leadershipului trebuie să înveţi să navighezi printre opţiunile tale de formare şi prin diferitele tipuri de abordări pe care le adopţi care au menirea de a evalua gradul tău de eficienţă.

Concluzie: Competenţele ca şi experienţa se obţin în timp. Uneori eşti stimulat să te dezvolţi ca lider, dar de cele mai multe ori trebuie să investeşti tu însuţi pentru a învăţa şi a te perfecţiona. Uneori primeşti diferite recompense chiar şi materiale, alteori reuşitele tale nu sunt nici măcar recunoscute decât foarte târziu.

Atunci când vei fi recunoscut ca fiind cel mai bun, poţi să consideri că ai primit cec-ul cel mai consistent – adevărata răsplata pentru tenacitatea şi sârguinţa ta.

Un chinuitor Adagio al sângelui

Descoperă algoritmul care permite crearea unui profil mai bine definit al personalității tale, experimentând o altă dimensiune a leadershipului.

Senatoarea Ruth Martin se adresează omului care i-a răpit fiica. Din cuvintele atât de adânci şi afectuoase pe care numai un suflet inocent le poate gusta, sub tensiunea unei încleştări lăuntrice dintre două forţe de sens opus, dintre David şi Goliat, dintre putinţă şi prăbuşire, răzbate acea înlănţuire de gânduri, emoţii, dorinţe, care trebuie cu orice preţ să pună la încercare mintea bolnavă a răpitorului. A fiorosului criminal, Buffalo Bill.

Oscilaţia energiei interne, în etapa transformării de sine, are loc în condiţii de stres şi îngrijorare, putând fi măsurată prin intermediul căldurii sufleteşti care răzbate cu intensitate din glasul care strigă îndurare. O parte din această fiinţă blândă tace, tremură, rămâne ascunsă în spatele temperamentului paşnic şi liniştit. În timp ce o altă parte din ea se înfioară şi se aruncă în luptă cu priceperea latentă, cu pasiunea nestăvilită a jucătorului care nu-i dispus să piardă.

Dar în temniţa gândirii e zidit un fir prea subţire de speranţă. Inima ostenită a femeii, sistemul acesta pulsatoriu care se dilată şi se contractă ritmic la temperaturi tot mai înalte, adăposteşte numai zgomote surde şi inexplicabile, creând vârtejuri covârşitoare. Puternice turbulenţe care se extind conform legii instabilităţii spre o altă dimensiune a sinelui. Frecvenţa de descărcare a stimulilor pozitivi e greu de estimat. Determinismul ei, efectele reacţiilor de propagare a undelor de presiune negativă, sunt extrem de dificil şi costisitor de investigat experimental cu vreun instrument psihologic de măsurare a stimei de sine.

Leadership: Poţi să obţii o anumită intensitate a performanţei de a fi mai plin de semnificaţie, mai dependent de reperul unei noi poziţionări în cadrul sferei de cunoaştere a omului, încât să produci o nouă versiune a viziunii privind valoarea vieţii?

Unele cristale, puse pe foc, mai întâi se topesc şi apoi se volatilizează. La fel şi inima, pusă la grea încercare, se înfioară până în temeliile ei şi apoi se cutremură până când intră în colaps. Analiza chimică a sângelui ar scoate la iveală noi compuşi degradaţi care reduc pulsul inimii, senzori semiconductori de mare sensibilitate care încetinesc circulaţia sangvină. Sângele pompat de inimă intră tot mai lent în sistemul arterial, creând o tensiune oscilantă. Nervii se autoapelează şi se transformă într-un algoritm împrăştiat care modifică variabilele de funcţionare, făcând ineficientă abordarea ei.

Vibraţiile sonore trebuie să creeze o stare de spirit dătătoare de profunzimi şi impulsuri, redând cu deosebită sensibilitate imaginea sfâşietoare a unei răscoliri sufleteşti de neconceput. Dar efectul nu este cel scontat, abordarea femeii nu provoacă decât o mare doză de incertitudine şi dârzenie în acelaşi timp. Buffalo Bill devine mai închis şi mai calculat în decizii, dar în niciun caz mai temperat.

Ecoul vocii nu are acea bătaie lungă, stimulatorie, relevantă creării unei sfere de influenţă pozitivă. Nu poate forma un întreg perfect, acea fundaţie stabilă pentru leadershipul ce intenţionează să-l impună.

Viziunea senatoarei privind valoarea vieţii fetei ei nu ajunge la inima criminalului tocmai fiindcă este simbolizantă, se întemeiază pe lungimea de undă a poziţiei ei politice, mai puţin pe teritoriul empatiei. Viziunea trebuie să fie mai întâi o deschidere a sinelui spre celălalt, apoi să schimbe direcţia unei convingeri spre împlinirea unei misiuni.

Poţi să îţi întregeşti poziţia de lider prin autoreglarea dimensiunii sufleteşti atunci când eşti constrâns de împrejurări să experimentezi durerea propriei conştiinţe?

Atât prin temperamentul personalităţii sale promovat în cadrul "turneului" de calificare în primul eşalon al excelenţei în leadership, cât şi prin mijloacele proprii de analiză cu care este înzestrat, liderul îşi poate aşeza confortabil modelul dominant în poziţie accesibilă. De regulă el funcţionează ca un mecanism obiectiv, dotat cu pârghii de autoreglare şi autocontrol bine definite, încât să nu-şi destrame starea de sine pozitivă. Această stare se poate roti la 90 de grade printr-o simplă expunere într-un cadru sumbru dintr-un moment dificil al vieţii, şi se poate transforma într-o stare de abandon total.

Jorge Luis Borges, unul dintre cei mai importanți scriitori ai secolului al XX-lea, spunea: " Există un moment în viaţa fiecărui om când află cine este. " Această autocunoaştere nu este rezultatul vreunei puteri miraculoase neînţeleasă de nimeni, ci doar modul în care recunoaşterea inconştientă a vieţii noastre interioare şi identificarea cu acele trăiri care pot fi recunoscute în noi înşine, joacă un rol important în asigurarea stabilităţii.

Sentimentele puternice și uneori violente care copleșesc omul, întunecându-i adesea dreapta judecată, au loc în cadrul experimentării unei alte dimensiuni a leadershipului. O dimensiune în care predomină compasiunea, înţelegerea şi iubirea. Dar acest amestec sufletesc poate face loc slăbiciunii, prin punerea la punct şi aplicarea unor abordări, poziţii şi norme diferite.

În jocul de şah, poziţia este considerată de către ambii jucători ca fiind perfect egală şi fără nicio şansă de pătrundere în dispozitivul advers al vreuneia dintre părţi. În momentele existenţiale cele mai grele, poţi să îţi întregeşti poziţia de lider prin autoreglarea dimensiunii sufleteşti, dar astfel vei îngrădi orice schemă logică de elaborare a unei strategii viabile. Din păcate, minţile puternice cedează foarte greu în faţa ingenuității. Deci, nu căuta să descoperi în ingenuitate nişte forţe considerabile de influenţă.

Leadership: Cum îţi evaluezi abilitatea de a face faţă unei situaţii limită în care o secundă de emoţie se dovedeşte mai puternică decât o mie de imagini?

Însufleţit în mod permanent de un spirit inovator, renunţând definitiv la orice tendinţe care nu reprezintă o atitudine fundamental psihologică şi la orice tip de gândire care nu se axează pe convingeri şi emoţii pozitive, liderul pune la dispoziţia propriei voinţe şi autoconstrângeri anumite facilităţi, idei, scenarii şi mijloace convingătoare de exprimare şi de percepţii. Prin experimentarea unor noi abordări, conduite, atitudini şi comportamente, el trebuie să facă dovada virtuţii şi moralităţii sale, oferind temei unei calităţi autentice: de a cântări, de a judeca, de a fi înţelept.

O oscilare între doi poli opuşi nu duce la o "nebunie", ci la o înţelegere a inefabilului existenţial. Sub tensiunea unei încleştări lăuntrice dintre două forţe de sens opus, dintre David şi Goliat, dintre putinţă şi prăbuşire, răzbate acea înlănţuire de gânduri, emoţii, dorinţe, care pune la grea încercare caracterul şi personalitatea omului. Iar aceasta reprezintă singura şi cea mai dificilă cale de explorare a leadershipului în situaţii tensionate.

În aceste momente, numai cine are curajul să întoarcă lupa atenţiei către sine va putea surprinde "insesizabilul", măsurat prin intermediul căldurii sufleteşti care răzbate cu intensitate din spatele motivaţiilor sale. Dar în acest caz, singurul lucru sesizabil este doar fenomenul psihic faţă de care leadershipul asistă neputincios.

Ai grijă ! Poţi ajunge să te blochezi în vederea luării unor decizii mai bune dacă principiul călăuzitor al responsabilităţii tale este supus sentimentului de "pierdere de sine" în favoarea emoţiilor care conferă un fundament valoric mesajului tău referitor la existenţa unui nucleu comun al umanităţii.

Un chinuitor Adagio al sângelui este o metaforă care exprimă profunzimea suferinţei omului în încercările sale de a-şi rezolva chestiunile sufleteşti. Exprimă starea lăuntrică a omului conştient de propriile-i limitări, în încercarea de extindere a puterii sale de influenţă, sau măcar de menţinere a poziţiei sale de conducere.

Un clasic al trandafirului roșu

Năzuieşte către ceva bine definit, apoi fă ajustările corespunzătoare pentru a-l oferi drept imagine al unei destinaţii artistice de excepţie care nu va înceta niciodată să fascineze.

Nu mi-am putut închipui niciodată că un trandafir abia înmugurit ar putea revărsa asupra mea atâta îmbelşugare la nivelul câmpului semantic al creaţiei, indiferent de suportul ori de forma de exprimare a informației, introducând în spaţiul acestei confesiuni densitatea vizuală a detaliilor care fac dintr-o scenă din viaţa obişnuită constatarea unei comparaţii inovative.

Interesant cum o expresie simbolică a nemărginirii spaţiale, extrasă din elementul pământ şi anexată la îndeplinirea unui vis frumos, secondată de o renaștere mistică în sfera spirituală, poate veni în întâmpinarea unei concepţii artistice, precum: "fascinaţia purităţii într-un univers fără sfârşit".

Orice frumuseţe îşi câştigă admiraţia şi aprecierea în jurul revelaţiei unui scris consistent, plin de viaţă, abia cules dintr-un spaţiu al verosimilului artistic. Dacă grădina nu mi-ar fi prilejuit oprirea unei clipe într-un moment de neuitat, traversând un profund sentiment de apartenenţă la un cadru de comparaţie mai larg cu un cuvânt-imagine, probabil aş fi riscat să îmi formez idei şi păreri preconcepute despre ceea poate echilibra o situaţie confuză, cum este acea când nu ştii ce rost are lumea într-o perspectivă a esteticii disponibilă într-o serie de finisări şi culori vii.

În artă trebuie să iei în considerare factorul "frumos" din perspectiva exemplului care îţi este cel mai la îndemână, un exemplu de înaltă inteligenţă a naturii care să reprezinte totodată un simbol al eternei splendori a vieţii.

În acelaşi timp, trandafirul se poate face răspunzător de acceptarea unei noi viziuni de interpretare şi de edificare a unei arte plină mister, într-un anotimp fără nume, pentru care un artist ar garanta premisele elementare ale profunzimii unei abordări de substanţă în relieful virtual născut din opoziţia formă-fond. Contemplarea acestui material realizat în întregime optic nu costă decât un minim de deschidere în faţa unei abundenţe de emoţii pusă sub semnul prelungirii unei lumi tot mai fragile.

Pentru întâia oară am parcurs distanţa de la admiraţie la regret, de la esenţa unei dispoziţii lăuntrice superioare până la frumuseţea uitată a vieţii care se refuză oricărei îngrădiri şi etichetări, oricărei fixări conceptuale sau lingvistice, oricărei încadrări artificiale in un mondo vivente . Sensul pe care îl căutam într-un mod neostoit la o artă deschisă interpretării, prin evacuarea criteriilor estetice clasice, a prins viaţă dintr-un arbust erect care înfloreşte de la sfârşitul primăverii, până toamna târziu. Iarăşi spun: Senzaţional !

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi încadrezi experienţa cotidiană într-un exerciţiu util de virtuozitate care să constituie o prelucrare liberă a unei teme delicate, atât de complexă din punct de vedere emoţional?

Desigur, dacă aş lua în calcul opiniile altor admiratori de frumos, cu o duioasă băgare de seamă, imaginându-mă creatorul unei forme mai elevate de cultură a imaginii, tot ceea ce ştiu despre acest living entity in her own right , aş fi probabil tentat să apreciez o operă de artă din punct de vedere al culorilor, pendulând între nuanțe de galben, roșu, alb, mov sau chiar multicolor.

Dar eu prefer întotdeauna roşul, fiindcă imită sângele provenit dintr-o sângerare a culorii care străbate infinitul, marea circulaţie universală, ca într-un fragment de manuscris timpuriu asociat cu un titlu construit din două formulări independente: "A thousand shades of passion" şi "The Magic Illustration of a Sunset" . La fel de bine ştiu să folosesc şi celelalte culori, în proporţia cuvenită realizării unei imagini mai complete asupra evoluției unei ştiinţe considerate fară precedent.

Virtuozitatea, specifică unui maestru al cuvintelor, impune o anumită tendinţă spre perfecţiunea conceptului pur izvorât din efervescenţa cotidianului, dintr-o sursă vie de inspiraţie, pentru a-l oferi drept imagine al unei destinaţii de poveste. În timp ce ponderea dominantă a unei imagini-simbol este dată de relaţia dintre expresivitate şi elaborare lăuntrică (actul dăruirii de sine).

Probabil cer de la mine mai mult efect de adâncime, dominant prin convertiri optice dintre plinuri şi goluri vizuale, asupra caracterului conceptual al reprezentării unei lumi cu însuşiri estetice diferite. Un artist al fineţii, dincolo de putinţa de a efectua străpungerea unui univers dominat de firescul supravieţuirii prin cunoaştere, alege de regulă seturile de reprezentari esenţiale formate din mixturi de culori pentru a integra o anumită interpretare într-un scris de mâna îngrijit şi plin de sens.

Aşadar, ceea ce mă ajută să mă simt preţuit, urmărind o profundă idee filosofică ca întindere spaţială cu trimitere la un proces de reflecţie asupra unei realităţi simbolice, este tocmai mândria de a recunoaşte că am găsit un model de comparaţie între viaţa mea şi un univers suav, delicat şi plin de farmec.

Leadership: Poţi să argumentezi imperativul unor eforturi echilibrate de constituire a unei viziuni artistice, în vederea valorificării ei din variate perspective durabile a diversității zonelor de conţinut?

S-ar spune că imperativul eforturilor mele de constituire a unei viziuni artistice, în vederea valorificării ei din variate perspective durabile a diversității zonelor de conţinut, ţine mai mult de semnul vizual sau de o apariţie formală, un dar făcut de Venus Pământului, un concept al Creatorului de Frumos căruia îi acord mental atributele unei întinderi spaţiale nelimitate.

Lucrurile create de Dumnezeu sunt înţelese prin curiozitatea infinită faţă de expresiile multiple ale emoţiilor care pot apărea la unele întâlniri fie ele romantice, fie îndelung închise şi încătuşate undeva în corpul unui simbol al perfecţiunii, al purităţii şi graţiei.

Trandafirul sprijină ochiul în măsurarea adâncimii scenei unei lumi cu prea puţine zgomote, făcută dintr-o apercepţie a profunzimii în om şi în artă. Ca mecanism combinatoriu menit să ducă de la simplu la complex, la construirea idelor mai complicate din senzaţii simple, trandafirul relaţionează foarte bine cu operaţii precum atenţia, înţelegerea, discernământul, considerarea sentimentelor, reconcilierea dintre două sau mai multe tradiţii, justificarea preferinţelor estetice pentru peisaj, aprecierea bogăţiei de simboluri, dobândirea unei noi identităţi, etc.

Folosind toate mijloacele artei în punctul înţelegerii mecanismului generator de expresivitate şi metamorfozare al cuvintelor străbătute de vibraţia unor pete de culoare, am întrezărit o nouă concepţie: “Remind yourself of the beauty that surrounds you”. Trebuia neapărat să o asociez leadershipului pe care l-aş defini ca un produs al artei de a trăi înţelesurile unei lumi care nu îşi are realitatea ei proprie, ci o realitate concepută ca o nesfârşită ordine providenţială de către un mare plăsmuitor de imagini şi metafore revelatorii.

Excelenţa estetică a unui limbaj vizionar-artistic decurge din expresivitatea cu care articulezi o idee a cărei valoare este general recunoscută, dar a cărei însemnătate o înţeleg foarte puţini.

Un clasic al trandafirului roșu este opera unui artist stăpân pe mijloacele artei sale, una desenată, pictată, sculptată sau fotografiată, care îşi poate găsi oricând corespondent într-un stil spontan al scrierii care te absoarbe, te face parte dintr-o poveste magică capabilă să atragă nu pentru că e atât de rară, ci pentru că este atât de delicată, atât de complexă din punct de vedere emoţional.

Un colac de izbăvire pentru toţi acei care se îneacă

On Iulie 30, 2012

Şlefuieşte-ţi cunoaşterea de sine, pentru a spori valoarea Eu-lui tău pozitiv.

Îmi amintesc de un moment important din viaţa mea, când privindu-mă în oglindă mi-am spus: " Nu-mi pasă cine sunt ! Nu-mi pasă de mine ! "

O spartană dorinţă de autodistrugere, datorată diminuării capacităţii de autodepăşire, se dezlănţuia în mine, rece şi necruţătoare. Ca un om care s-a descotorosit categoric de balastul incomod al unor principii morale eterne, mă simţeam nevoit să împing tot mai departe, cu sânge rece, în ritm alert, până la epuizare, imensul bloc de gheaţă al fatalităţii, apărut parcă să mă termine.

O cenzură interioară îmi bloca vigilenţa spiritului, îndepărtând grabnic şi impunător orice rămăşiţă a curiozităţii mele nepotolite de a cunoaşte, de a vedea ce are înăuntru, mai de preţ, " Omul ". Un fel de răceală timpurie se revărsa cu putere în mine, condiţionând orice modalitate de a mă regăsi, de a mă înţelege mai bine. Mă simţeam străin de mine însumi, dat la o parte, abandonat în mijlocul unei furtuni înspăimântătoare prin proporţiile ei, prin neprevăzutul ei. Purtat încoace şi încolo precum un val de mare, lovit cu intensitate, zvârlit fără milă în marele abis din mine însumi.

Dar, aveam să constat mai târziu, tocmai această bizară frământare de moment, acest covârşitor zbucium al întregului meu univers, descărcarea inevitabilă, cu toată siguranţa, a tensiunii directe induse de o gândire negativistă şi în contradicţie cu realitatea, m-a ajutat, printr-o analiză la rece, să fiu mai hotărât, poate mai înţelept, călindu-mi spiritul şi făcându-l mai puternic.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi asumi o perspectivă nouă asupra fundalului pe care se constituie reflectarea propriei existenţe, la limita dintre incertitudinea intenţiilor care te animă şi trăirea revelatoare a împărtăşirii gândurilor care te bântuie?

Această supraîncordare nervoasă, capricioasă, neînfrânată, căreia un altul poate nu i-ar fi putut rezista mai mult de câteva ceasuri, mă rodea ca un ghimpe, îmi punea sufletul, gândurile, toate puterile la grea încercare. Căci o sforţare atât de constant amplificată într-un interval de timp atât de scurt pretindea o atenţie desăvârşită şi o forţă absolută, intensă, hotărâtoare de a schimba aspectele negative pe care aveam tendinţa să le trec cu vederea.

Un moment de slăbiciune mă azvârlise de pe puntea corăbiei cunoaşterii de sine. Alunecam, ca un pietroi de granit, la fundul celui mai adânc ocean. Oceanul adevărului, al conştiinţei şi al trăirilor interioare, al morţii şi al învierii spirituale. Mă cufundam într-o stare de gravă incertitudine, în apa extrem de rece şi tulbure a dezgustului, a deznădejdii, rătăcind ca un pai pe ape mari.

Singura cale de a mă reîntregi spiritual, singurul colac de izbăvire, era să întrerup şirul gândurilor care mă răscoleau, şi să recunosc " Omul " din mine, adevăratul meu adversar. Să câştig întrecerea cu mine însumi. Şi să mă ridic deasupra apei învolburate, deasupra a tot ceea ce simţeam.

Omul raţional din mine, omul real s-a recunoscut în cele din urmă.

Leadership: Informaţia acumulată din experienţele traversate şi învăţăturile acumulate, devine un fel de memorie externă pe care o poţi accesa oricând atâta timp cât ai disponibilitatea de a înţelege specificul unei minţi care se gândeşte pe sine?

Nu poţi să fii mai mult decât încerci să obţii de la tine în momentele de cugetare, în primul rând prin împărtăşirea gândurilor care te macină, dacă reprezentarea pe care ţi-o faci despre propria realitate nu este un mod de a dialoga cu propriul trecut, dar şi o explicită construcţie a identităţii, devenind un fel de memorie a emoţiilor şi a cogniţiilor.

"Destinul" leadershipului, al artei cele mai rafinate de a forma oamenii, al operei de formare a personalităţi, se ascunde în spatele propriei tale putinţe sau neputinţe de a depăşi momentele în care nu-ţi recunoşti inamicul numărul unu: omul din tine. Acest destin se poate dezbina, măcina asemenea solului care devine în timp nisip fin, în mare măsură din cauza unei gândiri defectuoase, a trăirilor care ies la suprafaţă atunci când nu mai reuşeşti să faci faţă adevărului, de care te îndepărtezi din cauza diminuării capacităţii de autodepăşire.

Iar atunci când în momentele hotărâtoare din viaţa ta te simţi străin de tine însuţi, apare pericolul prăbuşirii leadershipului.

Leadership: Cum poţi folosi în avantajul tău o cunoaştere bazată pe învăţătura acumulată din experienţele trăite în lumea propriilor gânduri?

Ai văzut cum se redresează o barcă gata să se scufunde? Îţi dai seama că nu i s-a întâmplat nimic grav – că într-un fel, chiar şi lunga perioadă cât fusese pe punctul de a se scufunda, avea părţile ei bune.

Te arunci într-un un moment de slăbiciune de pe puntea corăbiei cunoaşterii de sine? Sau găseşti o cale de a te înţelege mai bine, de a vedea ce ai "înăuntrul" tău, mai de preţ? Ai puterea de a te îndepărta de întinderea necuprinsă a furtunii care îţi îngustează orizonturile, de a-ţi reorienta Eul spre o scară valorică mai bine definită şi de a-ţi schimba atitudinea? Care sunt părţile bune ale perioadei cât ai fost pe punctul de a te "scufunda"?

Probabil Friedrich Nietzsche a pus punctul pe I atunci când a relatat în memoriile sale: " Când te uiţi îndelung într-un abis, abisul se uită şi el la tine. "

Iată elementul suprasensibil de care te loveşti la tot pasul - incertitudinea, înstrăinarea, profunda criză datorată pierderii de identitate sub impactul conştiinţei de sine. În prelungirea leadershipului acest abis reprezintă amestecul de contradicţii ce resoarbe gândirea aplicativă şi inovativă (fapt ce are o importanță deosebită pentru evoluţia ta) destabilizând etapele cheie ale relaţiei cu tine însuţi. Sau, dimpotrivă, printr-o întorsătură de situaţii, poate constitui un prilej de redescoperire a capacităţilor şi limitelor proprii.

Trecând prin filtrul de analiză a unui judecător fiecare încercare de a trasa o anumită direcţie în mişcarea vieţii, fiecare aspect relevant pentru delimitarea coordonatelor de singularitate (fapt care te poate aduce mai aproape de adevărul a cine eşti cu adevărat) vei putea să urmăreşti modul cum se reflectă în timp gândirea ta - care se poate materializa fie sub forma implicată a unor simple intuiţii şi ipoteze, fie în mod explicit şi sistematic, în abordările de tip afectiv sau cognitiv-comportamentale. Care, la rândul lor, au o mare rezonanţă asupra leadershipului practicat.

Cunoaşterea de sine este acea mică fâşie îngustă din zona ta de responsabilitate primordială pe care trebuie s-o menţii nealterată. Taina artei de a te putea conduce pe tine însuţi constă în a-ţi cunoaşte cu adevărat adversarul, în a pătrunde în abisul propriei tale fiinţe atunci când eşti prins în mijlocul unei furtuni puternice, în a-ţi revitaliza conştiinţa. Îi vei permite adversarului tău cel mai de temut, acelui Alter-Ego distructiv, să te tragă în adâncul rece al instabilităţii?

Şlefuieşte-ţi cunoaşterea de sine, pentru a spori valoarea Eu-lui tău pozitiv.

Avantajul unei cunoaşteri bazată pe învăţătura acumulată din experienţele trăite în lumea propriilor gânduri este că, dacă acestea sunt împărtăşite şi ascultate, ele permit verificarea acelor caracteristici de personalitate care contează pentru oameni.

Un colac de izbăvire pentru toţi acei care se îneacă semnifică atitudinea ta atunci când eşti pus faţă în faţă cu realitatea cruntă a unei conştiinţe grevate de anumite aspiraţii, idealuri sau valori care nu corespund propriului tău potenţial; atunci când omul raţional din tine, când omul real nu se recunoaşte pe sine.

Sunt momente de cumpănă în viaţa fiecărui om, şi bineînţeles în viaţa fiecărui lider, momente de deznădejde când apare conflictul dintre aspiraţii şi posibilităţi, momente deprimante când apare neîncrederea în sine. Singurul prieten de nădejde care îţi aruncă colacul de salvare, eşti tu însuţi, găsind acele resurse interioare şi forţa necesară de a depăşi aceste momente.

Depinde de tine ce alternativă alegi: să pluteşti ca un pai pe ape mari? Sau să navighezi spre destinaţia propusă?

Un creuzet în care soarta îl aruncă pe om

Încearcă să ajungi la acea maturitate în care apreciezi la maxim ceea ce ai, chiar dacă ceea ce ai corespunde cerinţelor spiritualităţii înalte, nu cerinţelor propriei tale logici.

Viaţa începu să fie grea pentru Marius. Nu fusese de ajuns că-şi mâncase hainele şi ceasul. Acum se hrănea cu ceea ce se numeşte răbdări prăjite. E un lucru groaznic, care înseamnă zile fără pâine, nopţi fără somn, ceasuri de seară fără lumânare, vatră fără foc, săptămâni întregi fără lucru, viitor fără nădejde, haine rupte în coate, o pălărie veche de care râd fetele, uşa pe care o găseşti încuiată pentru că n-ai plătit chiria, obrăznicia portarului şi a birtaşului, batjocura vecinilor, tot felul de umilinţe, demnitatea înăbuşită, acceptarea oricărui fel de muncă, dezgust, amărăciune, descurajare. Marius se deprinse să le înghită pe toate şi află că sunt adesea singurele lucruri cu care te hrăneşti.

În clipa aceea, când omul are nevoie de mândrie, pentru că are nevoie de dragoste, el se simţea luat în râs, fiindcă era prost îmbrăcat, şi caraghios, fiindcă era sărac. La vârsta la care tinereţea îşi umple inima cu o semeţie împărătească, el îşi plecă adesea privirea spre ghetele lui rupte şi cunoştea nedreptele ofense şi ruşinea umilitoare a mizeriei. Minunată şi grozavă încercare, din care cei slabi ies ticăloşi, şi cei tari sublimi. Un creuzet în care soarta îl aruncă pe om de câte ori vrea să aibă o puşlama sau un semizeu !

Pentru că în luptele mărunte se săvârşesc o mulţime de fapte mari. Sunt puteri, încăpăţânate şi necunoscute care se luptă în umbră, pas cu pas, cu năvala de neînlăturat a nevoilor şi a mârşăviilor. Victoria nobilă şi tainică, pe care n-o vede nici o privire, pe care n-o răsplăteşte nici un renume şi n-o salută nici o fanfară. Viaţa, nenorocirea, singurătatea, părăsirea, sărăcia sunt câmpuri de bătaie care-şi au eroii lor, eroi necunoscuţi, mai mari uneori decât eroii celebri.

În felul acesta se zămislesc firile puternice şi tari. Mizeria, aproape totdeauna vitregă, e câteodată mamă adevărată, sărăcia dă naştere puterii sufletului şi a minţii; deznădejdea e doica mândriei; nenorocirea e un lapte bun pentru cei mărinimoşi. *****

Leadership: Poţi să transformi conţinutul unei învăţături înalte despre viaţă într-o înrâurire profundă asupra spiritualităţii care îţi conferă valoare şi unicitate aparte prin limitele pe care le poţi suporta?

Oricine poate să adopte, după bunul său plac, o schimbare pe care s-o vadă în lume, cu singura condiţie de a nu-şi însuşi fără drept victoria unei tendinţe de sensibilitate într-o altă modalitate de manifestare a concretului vieţii.

Aceasta este sensibilitatea de care se loveşte o viaţă tristă: demnitatea înăbuşită, viitorul fără nădejde, ruşinea umilitoare a mizeriei, şi iată de ce este nevoie ca omul să dezvolte o manifestare adecvată a trăirilor emoţionale, pentru ca sensibilitatea caracterului său să nu se reducă la încercări şi lupte fără niciun sprijin, fără succes, fără folos.

Câmpul tău de bătălie trebuie să se umple rapid cu stări de spirit ce nu cunosc rupturi, cu armonia dintre ce spui, ce gândeşti şi ce faci, aşa încât mândria lui să nu aibă de suferit, sau dacă are de suferit, să sufere fără să lase urme în vreo direcţie sau alta. Iar dacă viaţa omului e grea, din pricina lipsurilor, aceasta este din cauza faptului că întreg câmpul de bătălie pe care el se plasează este zdrobit de indisponibilitatea sufletului de a se uni cu credinţa şi de a merge mai departe spre desăvârşire, spre mântuire, spre noi orizonturi şi noi împliniri.

Iată ce ne furnizează conţinutul unei învăţături înalte despre viaţa: analizează-ţi neajunsurile prin prisma succesul la care speri să ajungi, încât să te ridici deasupra a ceea ce crezi că eşti, deasupra a ceea ce te afectează, deasupra a ceea ce te ţine prizonier.

Iar sensibilitatea se tratează uneori prin intermediul atitudinii de a vedea mai ales partea goală a paharului, laturile nefavorabile ale unei situații, în perspectiva unei neîncetate asemănări cu o sămânţă care suferă şi moare în pământ, dar din care apare o plantă nouă.

Luptele mărunte pe care le dai cu viaţa sunt singurele caracteristici persistente ale caracterului tău, aducând în prim plan suportabilitatea ta de a recunoaşte realitatea în care trebuie să faci efort să distingi lucrurile, să scoţi la suprafaţă sensurile unei lumi aflată într-o cumplită transformare.

Sensibilitatea, falsa spiritualitate, este mândria de a fi tu însuşi într-o situaţie care îşi cere să fii altcineva. Aminteşte-ţi mereu de infinită putere a sufletului care poate lăsa în urmă dezamăgirile și neîmplinirile, spre calea regăsirii acelor lucruri care îţi lipsesc și care, tocmai pentru că îţi lipsesc îţi dau avântul de a le afunda în existenţă, nu în gândire.

Poate că şi tu vezi viaţa ca o pânză, plină de culori îndrăzneţe, sau ca pe o interminabilă călătorie, sau ca un potenţial pericol, un proces dificil prin care treci şi nu ştii ce anume te aşteaptă. Oare fiindcă te afunzi prea mult într-o gândire care s-a obişnuit să includă în percepția realității tot ce servește prejudecățile, dogmele și imaginile tale idealizate?

Adevărata spiritualitate este strâns legată de mândria de a te simţi puternic în orice circumstanţă care te trage mai jos de limitele tale de suportabilitate a vieţii.

Emoţiile care creează blocaje sau limite în tot ceea ce vrei să ţi se întâmple, pe care le exprimi cu greutate în relaţiile cu ceilalţi oameni, sunt aceleaşi emoţii care te ţin captiv în experienţele trecute ale vieţii. Chiar dacă ele sunt considerate nedorite sau inacceptabile din punct de vedere social, chiar dacă te încearcă şi te urmăresc constant în viaţă, aminteşte-ţi întotdeauna ca un fluture care nu care nu îşi deschide aripile şi nu zboară, el nu-și are rostul în lume.

Un creuzet în care soarta îl aruncă pe om se măsoară prin intensitatea propriilor emoţii și trăiri, cărora trebuie să le acorzi o atenție specială dacă vrei să te adaptezi la provocările şi vicisitudinile vieţii. Toate provocările și vicisitudinile sunt topite într-un creuzet al voinţei pe care trebuie să-l foloseşti pentru a-ţi căli caracterul, fiindcă soarta unui om puternic să măsoară prin intensitatea emoţiilor şi trăirilor pe care le înfruntă în fiecare zi.

Un dar nepreţuit din partea naturii

Învaţă să observi cât mai profund lumea şi viaţa, dar de fiecare dată ca o experienţă diferită.

Îmi privesc zilnic grădina cu satisfacţie, aşa cum îşi priveşte un pictor capodopera, ca pe un exemplu de împlinire a unui vis obsedant care niciodată nu se va şterge din memoria vieţii. E ca o alinare dulce pentru suflet, la fel ca atunci când asculţi marea, valurile, când simţi nisipul arzând sub tălpile desculţe, când soarele şi vântul îşi împărtăşesc zâmbetul cu tine. În orice clipă te simţi ca în paradis. În faţa măreţiei naturii emoţia este imensă.

Dar nu tot ce te încântă este menit să reziste în timp, amănuntele pălesc, detaliile se șterg. Uneori îmi simt doar căderea sufletului în abis, o provocare din partea naturii care mă împinge să o consider tot mai mult o gaură neagră. Alteori simt miracolul unei alte lumi, alta decât cea redusă la om şi paradis. Tot ce mă încântă şi mă fascinează inevitabil, mă face să cad pe gânduri, încât simt că fac parte dintr-un roman de John Fowles unde trebuie să fac o alegere între destin şi înţelepciune.

Una din florile din faţa ferestrei mele dă semne evidente că se pierde. Culorile frunzelor şi-au pierdut mult din intensitate, tulpina pare tot mai uscată, lipsită de vlagă, suficient cât să mă lase mut în faţa deznădejdii de care este cuprins un artist atunci când îşi vede tabloul făcut bucăţi, neputând parcă să respire, fără să mai poată schimba nimic.

Nici eu nu sunt nemuritor, şi numai simţământul aceasta neliniştitor mă îmbătrâneşte puţin câte puţin. Încă vreau să sorb din binecuvântarea de a fi fericit în mijlocul unui timp care trece prea repede.

Leadership: Poţi să te înscrii pe un parcurs al privirii aruncate spre fragilitatea unei emoții trăită în mod genuin şi văzută ca totalitate a unei lumi interconectate?

Pe de altă parte, crinii lalelele, narcisele, trandafirii, rododendronii şi hortensiile se află în plin proces de înflorire. Observându-le gingăşia, mă apropii vrăjit de ele şi le vorbesc tot atât de natural precum un pictor care odată ce întinde culoarea pe şevalet îşi exprimă sentimentele faţă de peisajul surprins într-o zi toridă de vară.

Viziunea unui artist este înălţimea maximă a unei flori din grădină care îşi prelungeşte durabilitatea cu cât este expusă mai mult la lumina naturală. Dar poate fi şi o petală a unei minunate flori pe care o ia vântul dacă nu cuprinde în ea acea plenitudine a adevăratei călduri vitale (spirituale) dată de statornicia unei simţiri cultivată în spirit livresc.

În leadership, totul începe cu privirea aruncată înăuntrul a ceea ce se petrece cu adevărat în faţa ochilor tăi, ca atunci când vrei să vezi povestea din spatele tabloului pe care oricum l-ai descrie, el rămâne un obiect pe care timpul îl răneşte şi îl jefuieşte de splendoare.

Nu fi trist pentru că una din florile tale preferate se ofileşte, ca şi când ai fost o parte din identitatea ei, o transpunere din limbajul naturii. Mai degrabă, încearcă să te simţi binecuvântat fiindcă ai parcurs distanţa de la admiraţie la afecţiune, echivalând cu o formă de nediferenţiere, o atitudine de apropiere, o puternică legătură între tine și o creaţie a lui Dumnezeu pe care timpul nu o va transforma nici în nostalgie, nici în elegie, nici în uitare, ci i-a păstrat un loc viu în nemurire.

O floare ofilită este imaginea unei călăuziri printre reflecţiile unei realităţi care nu poate fi cunoscută pe calea minţii, ci doar a sufletului.

Un dar nepreţuit din partea naturii poate fi o lecţie de viaţă din care e bine să înţelegem că totul este interrelaţionat şi interconectat, numai că de multe ori alegem individualismul şi separarea de cele spirituale atunci când totul pare pierdut.

Un departe care poate deveni tot mai Aproape

Învaţă sa faci diferenţa între ceea ce îţi este dat sa iei parte şi ceea ce recepţionezi, pentru a obţine o perspectivă diferită asupra parcursului şi evoluţiei tale.

Cochetam cu ideea de a mă strecura într-o parte neaşteptată a dimensiunii mele superioare, de a mă afla permanent în dinamismul sănătos al unui parcurs având ca obiect tocmai pasiunea mea pentru leadership. Era ca şi când ar fi trebuit să întâlnesc nişte bucăţi pierdute din mine, forme care le iau adevărurile unor idei periculoase, în inima unei realităţi care întrece orice aşteptări prin forţa care ordonează infinita mişcare a lumii.

Era numai o credinţă care întrecea experienţa interioară, necutezând a o contesta în vreun fel, întovărăşind anticipaţia unui "departe" ce se arăta destul de convingător, dinspre partea unei dovezi că existam prin prezenţa integratoare a unei conştiinţe frământate, aflate în perpetuă căutare de răspunsuri, ce acum se confesează. Eternitatea devenise brusc doar o clipă, iar eu mă preschimbasem într-un înţeles al ei, rămas acelaşi până la instaurarea hazardului.

Dar înainte de a dezvolta simptomele asociate unui nou început de lume, trebuia să port cu mine, inexorabil, infernul unui capăt de drum, întrevăzut prin lentila clarificatoare a unui intelect cunoscător, diferit de orice altă producţie de percepţii a realităţii în permanentă schimbare. Pe care le consideram trebuincioase în urma experienţelor de viaţă trăite, în care binele depăşise cantitativ răul.

Leadership: Contribui la evaluarea propriei funcţionalităţi din perspectiva unei gândiri care se implică propriu-zis în evenimentul revelării unui nou sens al existenţialităţii, cel al descoperirii lumii unui protagonist pus să înfrunte consecinţele unei apropieri de reperele unei identităţi inalterabile?

Leadershipul era asemănător cu un deşert cu foarte puţine oaze, dar nesfârşit de lung, în care naufragiase speranţa de a-mi găsi un rost în planul înalt al unei raţiuni care se credea atotputernică. Tot timpul eram înconjurat de un misterios proces numit încurcătură, o imagine a unui parcurs care se extindea progresiv spre cursul unei învârtiri în jurul conceptului de "operă literară".

Minutus Lausus Manilianus, membru al senatului Romei, îl încuraja pe Flavius Vespasian, după ce acesta a fost încoronat împărat într-o perioadă de instabilitate politică (război civil) și criză economică:

- Ai fost ales de zei, Flavius, şi fără îndoială că vei fi un împărat bun. Aminteşte-ţi de acel tată care dorea ca fiul lui să înveţe să cânte la flaut şi l-a trimis la cel mai puţin talentat profesor. Când toată lumea s-a mirat de alegerea lui, el a spus: "Aşa va învăţa cum nu trebuie să cânte" . La fel ai procedat şi tu, i-ai urmărit de la distanţă pe atâţia împăraţi lipsiţi de înzestrări, că acum ştii cu siguranţă ce nu trebuie să faci.

Când opera literară absoarbe total expresia unei gândiri care se străduieşte să dezvăluie totul a priori, menţinându-şi transparenţa simbolică, deschiderea spre alteritate, atunci vorbim despre competenţa autentică de a te proiecta în planul unei realităţi metafizice. Un nou sens al existenţialităţii devine cuprins între raţiunea de a te pune în valoare şi prilejul conţinu de te împăca cu tine însuţi în ipostaza unui protagonist pus să înfrunte consecinţele unei apropieri accentuate de reperele unei identităţi inalterabile.

Leadership: Întovărăşeşti anticipaţia convingătoare a unui "departe", dinspre partea unei dovezi că exişti prin prezenţa integratoare a unei conştiinţe aflate în perpetuă căutare de răspunsuri?

Pentru ca forța rezultantă a devenirii tale să nu fie nulă, trebuie să devii un proiectant al evenimentelor în al cărui centru se află detaliile unei experienţe anterioare. Să faci diferenţa dintre ceea ce ai trăit şi ce trăieşti în prezent, găsind satisfacţie în determinarea a ceea ce trebuie să știi, ce aptitudini trebuie să deprinzi pentru a-ți lămuri rostul în lume, este un proces de dezvoltare calitativă, de adăugare a cunoştinţelor noi la cele vechi.

Pentru ca devenirea ta să corespundă imaginii proprii leadershipului, depinzând de anticipaţia pe care o reprezintă orice proiectare a ta în viitor, fiind altcineva decât ai fost iniţial, trebuie să te descoperi dintr-o altă perspectivă de abordare a experienței de sine, într-un context mai larg. Ea trebuie controlată asemenea unei idei periculoase care nu trebuie să circule în lume, dar care totuși trebuie demonstrată pentru a dovedi dezarmarea ei în faţa fatalităţii.

Imaginează-ţi un oraș care a suferit pierderi majore, precum Roma incendiată de Nero, oamenii înfometați luptă pentru fiecare casă, pentru fiecare fărâmă de pâine, iar focul și groaza continuă să se răspândească.

Experiența aceasta, amestecându-se într-o încăierare generală de negări și visări, lupte și neputinţe, dinspre partea unei lumi rănită de atâtea încercări și dezamăgiri, îţi poate asigura o varietate de contexte ale învăţării din ceea ce nu-ți place, din ceea ce nu te ajută și n-are ce căuta în povestea ta.

Leadership: Care este amănuntul care defineşte unicitatea relaţiei tale dintre ceea ce simți că nu ai putut controla și ceea ce ți se întâmplă acum?

Învaţă sa faci diferenţa între ceea ce îţi este dat sa iei parte şi ceea ce recepţionezi, pentru a obţine o perspectivă diferită asupra propriei realităţi, asupra parcursului şi evoluţiei tale. Experiența anterioară poate să faciliteze plasarea ta într-un fel de oglindă a realităţii care întrece orice aşteptări prin forţa care ordonează infinita mişcare a lumii. A recepţiona înseamnă să preiei doar învăţătura acelor capitole parcurse din povestea lumii necesare evoluţiei tale.

Nu este vorba doar de a nu rămâne sclavul unei interiorități solitare, incapabil să-ţi mai întăreşti crezurile, sau să le pui în practică. Ci mai cu seamă de refuzul de a te privi ca simplu accident al unui Carpe Diem care nu are niciun fel de valabilitate asupra intenţiei de a îmbunătăţi „întregul" unui mare destin.

Numai omul superficial vrea să atingă o formă de absolut care să dea un sens mai profund vieții, fără să-și încredinţeze năzuinţele acelei versiuni a sinelui ce se arată destul de interesat să înțeleagă, să folosească lumea și de a trăi în ea, prin acea manevră de a scoate în evidenţă amănuntul care colorează parcursul evoluţiei sale.

Care este amănuntul care defineşte unicitatea relaţiei tale dintre ceea ce simți că nu ai putut controla și ceea ce ți se întâmplă acum?

În cazul împăratului Flavius Vespasian, amănuntul a fost modul în care s-a raportat la evenimente, chiar și atunci când ele erau ambigue, fiind întovărăşit de anticipaţia convingătoare a unui "departe" care a devenit tot mai Aproape, benefic revelării unei faţete noi ale realităţii în care el urma să ocupe locul central.

Leadershipul, ca expresie a creaţiei literare, este locul central pe care îl ocupi în interiorul unei realităţi diferite de tot ce cunoşteai despre tine, care devine imprevizibilă pe măsură ce devii protagonistul unei poveşti adevărate începute cu mult timp în urmă de altcineva.

Un departe care poate deveni tot mai Aproape este ceea ce aştepţi să ţi se întâmple, hotărât de Ego-ul care îţi supra-încarcă mentalul cu o sumedenie de întrebări a căror răspuns, la multe dintre ele, ţi-l relevă numai maturitatea şi experienţa de viaţă.

Un ecou viu în sprijinul lui Clarice

Ajustează-ţi automat parametrii de funcţionare, printr-o focalizare consecventă pe calităţile necesare condiţiei de a fi lider.

O clipă întunericul distorsionează realitatea. Tot ceea ce o reprezintă pe Clarice Starling ca om pe harta bine întocmită a forţei generatoare de impulsuri şi energii pozitive, se cufundă în haosul fatalităţii. Starea aceea de mulţumire sufletească îmbogăţită până atunci cu ecouri de vitalitate, cu nuanţe subtile ce o îndepărtau de marginile trăirilor capabile să o arunce în cele mai adânci abisuri, pentru prima oară se destabilizează.

Se produce un fel de repoziţionare sumbră între două oscilaţii neregulate care compromit parametrii de funcţionare a lui Clarice. Una de tensiune maximă, dăunătoare, ce nu poate fi decât temporar potolită, distribuită în spaţiu după relaţia "timp-incertitudine" şi care capătă proporţii. Şi una de fază inversă, minimală, care amplifică cumva sentimentul de încredere, exercitând un control moderat asupra psihicului, permiţând un oarecare echilibru şi mobilitate. Prin acţiunea simultană a celor două oscilaţii se produce o efervescenţă interioară care generează o alterare a simţurilor.

Şi dintr-o dată se aude. Vocea înspăimântată a lui Catherine Martin, transmisă cu un efect de reacţie negativ, declanşând un amestec de groază şi nesiguranţă. Iar expresia aceasta a sufletului ei, care nu şi-a pierdut total validitatea, conţinând multă sensibilitate şi înverşunare totodată, alungă îndoielile lui Clarice. Deci, este în viaţă, Catherine trăieşte !

Unde eşti Catherine? De unde vine glasul tău? Întunericul pare să se reducă din intensitate la auzul fin al vocii tremurânde, dar creşte simţământul temător al morţii. Cum să acţioneze când Buffalo Bill este undeva în preajmă, aşteptând s-o înhaţe ca un lup flămând?

Leadership: Eşti în stare să-ţi maximizezi impactul asupra faptelor care urmează unei copleşitoare întâmplări, funcţionând sub umbrela unui imperativ de tipul: "Nu-i de-ajuns să vezi omul, trebuie să şi trăieşti pentru el" ?

Acum, toate simţurile sunt activate la maximum. Clarice se află în situaţia unei mame care şi-a regăsit copilul, dar nu poate să stea lângă el. Ca un ecou viu, îi revin parcă în minte cuvintele domnului Madeleine, din opera lui Victor Hugo, care punea la încercare voinţa de neînfrânt a bietei Fantine în clipa morţii: " Câtă vreme vei fi în starea asta, nu dau voie să ţi se aducă fetiţa. Nu-i de-ajuns s-o vezi, trebuie să şi trăieşti pentru ea. "

Iar aceste cuvinte, însufleţite cu adevărat de elanul credinţei, la a căror auz orice fiinţă s-ar avânta spre noi experienţe, dar pe care numai ea le trăieşte acum cu stoicism, răsună ca un stimulator al energiei interne, eliminând într-o anumită măsură confuzia şi sentimentul înfrângerii.

O izbucnire vulcanică pornită din adâncurile fiinţei, când toate necunoscutele din ea ard şi se înlănţuie ca nişte nebuloase, sfărâmă întreg perimetrul deznădejdii şi consolidează întreaga structură a încrederii: " Catherine, te voi scoate de aici ! "

În acest moment tensionat două fiinţe se unesc prin emoţiile pe care le transmit reciproc de la distanţă. Acum Clarice este una cu Catherine. Două suflete cu multă afecțiune împărtăşesc aceleaşi gânduri şi trăsături definitorii, rămânând alături în orice situaţie.

Leadership: Cum relaţionezi cu facultatea predominantă a emoţiilor cele mai profunde prin intermediul unei motivaţii care stârneşte o anumită mirare despre felul cum te simţi într-o situaţie care nu se poate schimba peste noapte?

În leadership, ca punct de referinţă pentru stabilirea legăturilor calitative, este fundamentală sensibilitatea, facultatea predominantă a emoţiilor cele mai profunde şi mai directe atunci când "întunericul", corelat prin incapacitatea de a reduce simptomele căderii morale, a pierderii valorii, îţi acaparează întreaga zonă funcţională. Prin lipsa unei perspective reale de depăşire a propriului nivel de ambiţie se poate ajunge la un rezultat slab în ceea ce priveşte schimbarea unei situaţii care te marchează, oricât ai încerca să te detaşezi.

Mirarea lui Clarice constă nu atât în faptul că a regăsit-o pe Catherine în viaţă, ci în faptul că nu ştie cum se va schimba viaţa amândurora atunci când se vor întoarce acasă cu sentimentul că totul este posibil să se întâmple într-o lume nebună. Tendinţa subtilă de a sesiza permanent în jur trăiri, emoţii, sentimente şi pasiuni umane, de a le pătrunde forţa, de a-ţi confrunta cu ele propriile sentimente şi emoţii, poate reduce bruiajul care intervine între tine şi leadership, suplimentând nivelul de conştiinţă, vitalitate şi încredere.

Ele reuşesc o evadare plină de emoţii, chiar spectaculoasă, din casa criminalului, Buffalo Bill. Ieşirea din "adâncul întunericului" necesită o reevaluare a propriei poziţii faţă de sine şi faţă de ceilalţi care intră în raza ta de influenţă, dar şi un răspuns rapid la întrebările: cine sunt, ce vreau şi ce anume mă împiedică să acţionez.

Această ieşire, soluţia minune care asigură o mobilitate fără restricţii şi o funcţionalitate excepţională, trebuie cumva măsurată în funcţie de "indicatorii de referinţă" care îţi orientează motivaţia (caracterul, intelectul şi valorile), şi în funcţie de obiectivele stabilite. Şi trebuie reglată astfel încât să corespundă parametrilor de performanţă autoimpuşi.

Leadership: Eşti în stare să te lupţi cu momentul cheie dintr-un eveniment major care îţi dă şansa să câştigi experienţă profesională, ca soluţie la temeiul fiinţei de a se recunoaşte dependentă de o realitate care sabotează construcţia oricărui sens al vieţii?

Clarice a făcut dovada mai multor calităţi unice: curajul de a se confrunta cu un rău de neimaginat, curajul de a se afirma ca om liber în pofida prezenţei negativităţilor existenţei, afecţiunea faţă de o altă femeie în afară de ea, capacitatea de a se controla atunci când este pusă în situaţii limită, capacitatea de a se pune în situația altuia, inovaţia de a combina două identităţi într-una singură. Aceste calităţi i-au îmbogăţit experienţa profesională.

Poate că în aceeaşi situaţie, altcineva ar fi intrat într-un şoc major, fapt atât de grav, încât şi-ar fi sabotat construcţia oricărui sens al vieţii. Fiindcă atunci când eşti înconjurat de cel mai groaznic coşmar, când criminalul este lângă tine şi nu-l vezi, iar scăparea este aproape imposibilă, realitatea devine o „fată morgana" tremurândă, care te prinde-n ţesutul ei invizibil, mortal, şi nu-ţi mai dă şanse să-ţi revii din depresie.

Fără îndoială, însă, că vom găsi şi un set de puncte comune prin care se aseamănă cele două subsisteme, integrate în sistemul personalităţii tale, care pot influenţa în mod pozitiv atingerea obiectivelor. Un subsistem activ, delimitat doar de marele zid al încrederii, eficient în activitatea de monitorizare şi supraveghere a paşilor ce trebuie urmaţi pentru realizarea unei mai bune coordonări şi gestionari a gândurilor şi emoţiilor (resursele cele mai de preţ), în situaţii limită.

Şi un subsistem pasiv care sporeşte într-o anumită măsură confuzia şi sentimentul înfrângerii, dezactivând simţurile până la următorul "impuls de comandă", iniţiator de acţiune, care îţi dictează că trebuie să te revanşezi ca să nu rămâi mai prejos de tine însuţi. De aşteptările tale, de performanţă, de imaginea puternică pe care ţi-ai construit-o şi întipărit-o în minte. Şi care îţi reaminteşte mereu să îndrăzneşti să acţionezi în conformitate cu propria-ţi conştiinţă.

Astfel, dacă leadershipul are ca un prim punct de reper, pentru o abordare între limitele acceptate de simţuri şi judecăţi, imaginea pe care ţi-ai format-o despre tine (care nu trebuie să-ţi compromită parametrii de funcţionare), înseamnă că, pe lângă asumarea responsabilităţilor de lider în situaţiile limită, îţi revine sarcina de a veghea şi de a lua toate măsurile necesare pentru a-ţi proteja latura care asigură controlul gândirii, emoţiilor şi acţiunilor.

Leadershipul este efectul sentimentului că acţiunile tale sunt validate de cei din jurul tău cu condiţia ca atunci când întâlneşti o situaţie nouă şi nu ştii cum să acţionezi, să nu devii prizonierul temerilor care îţi lezează împlinirea sufletească.

Cea mai mare dorinţă a liderului este să imprime evenimentelor propria sa perspectivă despre cum pot fi acestea schimbate. Iar cea mai mare împlinire a lui este să se alăture emoţiei pe care o traversează oamenii din jur.

Un ecou viu în sprijinul lui Clarice evidenţiază reactivarea acelui sistem intern ce permite repoziţionarea punctelor de referinţă care delimitează scopul iniţial, precum şi înlăturarea acelor bruiaje generate de influenţele cu efect negativ de origine externă sau internă. Adică să revii la răspunsurile iniţial date de tine însuţi la întrebările: cine sunt, ce vreau şi, mai ales, ce anume mă împiedică să acţionez.

Un excelsior al căutării divinului în Creaţie

Fii la înălţimea creaţiei pe care o proiectezi în atingerea idealului alterităţii, acordând prioritate valorii enciclopedice a unei imagini faţă de măiestria ei artistică revelată în natură.

M-am retras în propria mea lume, o lume a reveriei, o lume a închipuirii, o lume a rafinamentului absolut, stând împrejurul altor arbuşti din aceeaşi specie cu mine, Rosa Damascena, ca o sferă de lumină galben-roşiatică din realitatea vizibilă a unei lucrări tainice. Cu răbdare şi cu luare aminte, ascult timpul cum îşi menţine ideea de Prisofindesyum , prima linie de apărare impotriva efemerului desprins din condensarea experienţei totale a unei lumi dominată de interese mercantile, dată uitării de toţi aceia care-şi reneagă calea, religia, menirea. Aş fi putut oare, prin vreo izbucnire, prin vreo hotărâre supremă, s-o salvez de la uitare?

Mi-ar fi plăcut ca oamenii să comunice liber şi nestingherit cu mine, aşa cum vorbesc ei între ei, fără intenţii ascunse, fără ezitări. Să încerce a se apropia de prietenia mea (Lucrarea lui Phe) prin transferul emoţiilor de la discret la vizibil, prin intermediul atenţiei acordate fiecărui fior de plăcere - pe care sper că îl simt la vederea mea. Mi-ar fi plăcut să nu fiu văzut doar ca un obiect de admiraţie, proiecţia unei imagini în oglinda unor saloane de frumuseţe, ci mai degrabă asemenea unui partener loial de confesiune, în efortul de a sonda interpretativ orice durere, orice bucurie, orice eveniment.

Eu pot să înţeleg orice lacrimă din ochii oamenilor, dar nimeni nu vărsa vreo lacrimă pentru mine. Iar un trandafir care înţelege lacrima vărsată cu umilinţă de ochii unui muritor de rând, nu poate fi decât opera sufletească a unui creator care ştie să aşeze împreună imaginea unui om transfigurat de harul lui Dumnezeu şi spiritul viu al naturii.

Dacă sunt legat de lumea oamenilor printr-un singur ochi, pentru că celălalt nu poate vedea, atunci acest ochi este secretul aurei de sub pana unui creator plin de sensibilitate, care îşi substituie cuvintele în conţinutul presimţit al unor reprezentări simbolice. Elanul spre transcendenţă, spre sublim, spre frumos şi ideal, prin împletirea de vise şi interpretări de poetică sincretică, trebuie considerat primul pas spre definirea unei încărcături de farmec şi eleganţă, sublimată şi spiritualizată prin artă, conectată la şansa înălţării unui destin estetic autentic.

Leadership: Ai în vedere împrejurarea prin care opera ta se oferă drept spaţiu plin de aluzii transcendente, prin întreaga sa înfăţişare exprimată în termenii unei oglindiri de maximă fidelitate în interiorul unei imagini cu mare putere de evocare?

Mi-am găsit artistul, sau artistul şi-a găsit opera în mine. Cu însufleţire, cu determinare, cu mărinimie, am ajuns să fiu preferatul stăpânului meu, nu un trandafir oarecare, ci Double Delight, care ştie să înflorească superb în jurul mărturiei artistice şi revelatoare presărate cu frumuseţea naturii în ocrotirea arcelor de boltă care împlinesc aspectul inedit al Casei Venerate în Unu . Nu-i aşa că ştiu să vă surprind mereu cu o altă înfăţişare, cu alte culori, cu alte cuvinte?

Aici, în singurul lăcaş creştin rămas ca empirie determinată a altei vieţi şi caracteristică altei epoci istorice, fără să scape privirii cunoscătoare însăşi factorul viu şi expresiv al liniilor şi culorilor specifice impresionismului din compoziţia imaginii oprită discret la limita naturaleţei, além de qualquer tendência passageira , se poate recunoaşte valoarea desăvârşită a unei singure întrupări tainice: a viselor cereşti şi a clipelor de strălucire în favoarea lui Ab Aeterno.

Să nu ocolim acest spaţiul sacru, questo spazio che provoca la tua immaginazione , mărit cu forţă de iradiere în exigenţa estetică a cărţilor scrise de antici, acceptate firesc în compoziţia unei lumi care se deschide mereu mai departe.

Ca să vorbesc în termeni de „Sanctitate A Divinului", trebuie mai întâi să demonstrez că între creator şi suflet, între viaţă, artă şi natură există o legătură permanentă. Exemplul artistic al unei flori cu origine divină este ideal în spaţialitatea unei imagini vii, colorate, captivante şi în deplină relaţie cu percepţia unui artist seducător ce are o stare înaltă de pace interioară şi dovedeşte o vibraţie de înaltă trăire sufletească în procesul de contemplare a unei picturi clasice.

Leadership: Poţi să concepi o viziune a transcenderii efemerităţii, trăind sub semnul orizonturilor deschise ale unei identităţi intangibile care se prelungeşte la nesfârşit într-o formă de spiritualitate universală?

Trandafirul furnizează forma materiei active, numită suflet, sub forma cea mai subtilă a parcugerii cu sfinţenie a "Cufărului lui Newton". Cine mă înţelege cu adevărat, acela care şi-a făcut un obicei din a mă privi cu ochi de artist şi cu pricepere de alchimist, va utiliza reprezentarea cu totul specială a lui Iov deasupra sferei lui Ain-Soph în spaţiul stărilor de spirit subiective, cu o idee: „perceperea concretului din abundenţa unei existenţe fără finalitate, ce se vrea a fi trăită plenar, absolut, se explică numai prin asemănarea cu o operă de artă".

Am fost oare proiectat spre scrutarea adâncurilor, în căutarea permanentă a unei alterităţi consubstanţiale? Efectuând o căutare a ceea ce este etern în suspinul adânc, reţinut, al unei identităţi intangibile care trimite spre lumea misterului divin, am perfectat legătura dintre modelarea sentimentului pur şi automodelarea "Fiinţei Fără Timp". Sau, cum spunea foarte bine scriitorul Cornel A. Ailincăi: "Nimic nu poate fi mai provocator decât să găseşti o permanentă deschidere, în forme nenumărate, spre o relaţie cu un altul şi o impenetrare cu forma acestuia."

Plin de emoţiile unei realităţi Benedicte utilizată în practicarea virtuţilor vitale ale Ochiului Elenistic , învăluit de mirosul plăcut al parfumurilor diverse din elixirele afiliate unei minţi scormonitoare, drumul vieţii mele cred că rezonează tot mai mult cu o realitate exterioară, antică şi medievală, corespunzătoare unei arte singulare. Poate că a fost scris să fie aşa, sau poate că am adăugat scrisului o nuanţă nouă de apartenenţă la Lumea Cerului fecundat In Vitro.

Leadership: Îţi poţi raporta viziunea artistică la introducerea temporalului în eternitate, încât să-ţi acorzi şansa înălţării spiritului şi inimii către Marele Creator la nivel de imagine a momentului vivant reflectat în „Corpul Însetat de Perfecţiune şi Frumos" ?

Un trandafir văzut printr-un ochi de artist trădează conştiinţa unei stări sufleteşti care stăpâneşte mintea cea mai preţuită, deseori neînţeleasă, investită cu o bună capacitate de sinteză prin prisma unui sistem care creează modele, făcând-o atât de uşoară încât să poată pluti în minunatul univers al alterităţii.

Nu-ţi voi permite nicidecum să mă numeşti Aproapele Tău prin intermediul percepţiei drumului invers sublimării care stă în faţa sensului primitiv al termenului simbol, fără să găseşti mai întâi asemănare, o întrupare, o noimă, o lucrare a milostivirii dumnezeieşti, o împlinire a profeţiilor, sau fără să recunoşti „Înfăţişarea măsurii lui Unu în manifestarea Totului".

Acest l'angle de vue suprême, permiţând artistului să cunoască lumea ca pe o sursă bogată de sensuri, traversează sigiliile magice şi spiritele lui Mercur printr-o singură adâncire în operaţiile codificate alegoric de un maestrul emerit în metodele personificării şi ale artei de a transcende vizibilul. Cu ajutorul unui corpus odemycros, suspectat de deformările unor nume proprii într-o manieră specifică cabalei străvechi, artistul priveşte cu ochiul admiraţiei principiul diferenţei dintre "Cel de Ieri" şi "Cel de Azi", fără a se închide total în universul imaginar al lumii lui Ain Soph.

Bine spunea cineva, că ori de câte ori există o intensificare a evenimentelor haotice, există, de asemenea, o convergenţă de multiple linii ale timpului. Oare cât de bine mă cunoaşteţi prin îmblânzirea destinului divin, prin hărţuiala clipei şi arderea fiinţei în durată, încât să vă acordaţi vouă înşivă, concomitent, şansa înălţării spiritului şi inimii către Marele Creator la nivel de imagine a momentului vivant reflectat în „Corpul Însetat de Perfecţiune şi Frumos" ?

Existenţa unei forme de spiritualitate universală în sfera vizualului constă în perceperea concretului din abundenţa unei existenţe fără finalitate, ce se vrea a fi trăită plenar, absolut, numai prin asemănarea cu o operă de artă.

Un excelsior al căutării divinului din creaţie se leagă de premisa investigării vizualului puternic oferit de o abordare interpretativă deosebită, de o sursă bogată de sensuri atribuite unei lumi imaginare care poate oricând să prindă viaţă prin încercarea artistului de a ilustra pe pânză întreg depozitarul memoriei sale afective.

Un exemplu uimitor de leadership

Degeaba înţelegi leadershipul, dacă nu ştii să te foloseşti cu înţelepciune de esenţa lui.

Scriitorii de succes, Napoleon Hill şi W. Clement Stone, relatează în cartea "Succesul şi atitudinea" o povestioară minunată. Într-o dimineaţă, un pastor încerca să-şi pregătească predica în condiţii grele. Soţia lui era plecată la cumpărături. Era o zi ploioasă, iar băieţelul lui era neastâmpărat şi plictisit, neavând nimic de făcut. În cele din urmă, disperat, pastorul luă o revistă veche şi o răsfoi până când dădu peste o poză în culorii vii, reprezentând o hartă a lumii. Rupse foaia din revistă, o făcu bucăţele şi le împrăştie pe podeaua sufrageriei, spunând:

- Johnny, dacă poţi să le pui la un loc, îţi dau 25 de cenţi.

Pastorul se gândi că asta o să-l ţină pe Johnny ocupat aproape toată dimineaţa. Dar peste zece minute auzi un ciocnit la uşa biroului său. Era băiatul lui, cu jocul de puzzle rezolvat. Pastorul fu uimit când văzu că Johnny reuşise să termine atât de repede, aranjând frumos toate bucăţelele de hârtie şi refăcând harta lumii.

- Băiete, cum ai terminat atât de repede? întreabă pastorul

- A, păi a fost simplu, spuse Johnny. Pe partea cealaltă era poza unui om. Am pus o foaie de hârtie dedesubt, am refăcut poza omului, am aşezat deasupra o altă foaie, apoi am întors-o. M-am gândit că dacă pun omul în ordine, şi lumea o să fie în ordine.

Leadership: Tu accepţi realitatea înainte de a te concentra asupra lucrurilor pe care crezi că le cunoşti, considerând că ceea ce vezi este o imagine neplănuită care se construieşte treptat?

Tu cât de bine te integrezi în lumea "făcută din bucăţele" a celorlalţi oameni? Trebuie să insist încă o dată asupra faptului că viziunea din care se compune o imagine constituie esenţa leadershipului. Iar liderul rămâne integrat întotdeauna, dacă nu în realitatea imediată, în orice caz în matricea internă a imaginii pe care şi-a construit-o despre realitate, adică într-o lume interioară în care imaginea nu ar putea exista fără el.

Un lider care începe să clacheze în faţa mentalităţii şi atitudinii oamenilor, deci care nu poate să redirecţioneze emoţiile oamenilor către el, nu-şi va putea ridica niciodată nivelul de influenţă.

Deci, el trebuie să-şi construiască o imagine impozantă din piesele pe care oamenii le strâng şi le pun laolaltă, pentru a-şi forma o orientare spre un viitor bazat pe expertiză și viziune. Mai mult decât atât, liderul trebuie să-şi formeze un cult al personalității concentrat în jurul figurilor centrale, deci să efectueze o căutare combinată a unei imagini cu o anumită realitate pentru a scoate în evidenţă diferenţa de abordare a unui demers de cunoaştere.

Johnny şi-a jucat excelent rolul de "formator de oameni", transmiţându-i tatălui său, cu toată convingerea, faptul că un om poate fi "în ordine" dacă reuşeşte să-l modeleze (tot aşa cum un sculptor îşi modelează operele, după voia sa, dar după propriul lui fel de-a fi). Orice om poate fi schimbat, în funcţie de ce ai vrea tu să vezi la el, după propriile tale criterii, cu condiţia să reuşeşti să te integrezi în lumea lui – deci, cu condiţia ca el să te accepte ca "modelator" şi îndrumător.

Dacă te consideri un expert în domeniul conducerii, dacă vrei să-ţi creşti performanţa şi să atingi un nivel înalt de influenţă, atunci caută să te raportezi cât mai bine la oameni, învaţă să aranjezi acele "bucăţele" din care este constituit fiecare din ei şi să le alimentezi cu acea energie definitorie pentru fiinţa lor, pentru viitorul lor, deci cu un stimulent care să le înviorezi spiritul. Dacă performanţa ta nu creşte nivelul de performanţă al celorlalţi, atunci e numai vina ta.

Leadership: Prestigiul tău se reflectă asupra imaginii pe care o construieşti treptat despre viziunea ta, acceptând o anumită formă de compromis înainte de a te concentra asupra realităţii pe care o cunoşti?

Imaginea pe care o construieşti despre viziunea ta este expresia convingerii tale semnificative despre două realităţi opuse: o realitate care se schimbă lent, atâta timp cât oamenii continuă să avanseze pe o cale bătătorită, şi o realitate care nu se poate manifesta, care este doar în mintea ta, deci este de fapt o fantezie. Iar singura formă de compromis pe care trebuie să o accepţi înainte de a te concentra asupra realităţii pe care o cunoşti este de a nu te implica total în căutarea unei viziuni care nu poate ieşi la suprafaţă.

Aşa cum oamenii primitivi nu cercetau niciodată boala care îi lovea, ci îl căutau pe Dumnezeu – tot aşa şi în cazul tău, degeaba cauţi să obţii succesul dacă nu-ţi cercetezi propria fiinţă, dacă nu gândeşti ca un lider de nivel înalt care ştie exact care sunt punctele tari şi cele slabe ale oamenilor pe care îi conduce. Când îţi cercetezi şi înţelegi propria fiinţă, propriul Eu, propriul caracter, simţi cum ai mai câştigat o dată lupta cu tine însuţi, simţi că avansezi, că progresezi. Simţi că ţii lucrurile sub control, că păstrezi o anumită stabilitate, că ai răspuns la orice întrebare. Îţi linişteşti mintea, conştiinţa şi sufletul ştiind că principiile pe care ţi le-ai impus a le respecta nu sunt încălcate prin îndoială sau nepăsare.

Măsura leadershipului tău e dată de modul în care te concentrezi asupra celorlalţi oameni, când îţi focalizezi atenţia şi grija asupra Eu-lui lor. Aşa cum un pictor urmăreşte să sublinieze prin lumină şi umbră individualitatea fiecărui obiect aflat în spaţiu, tot aşa şi tu, ca lider, trebuie să subliniezi prin intermediul leadershipului tău individualitatea caracterului deosebit a celorlalţi oameni, în virtutea acelui sentiment de nobleţe care le pune în valoare frumuseţea interioară.

Degeaba te simţi confortabil vizavi de ideea că toţi ceilalţi te ascultă şi îţi urmează exemplul, oferindu-le responsabilităţi şi autoritatea de care au nevoie, căci e posibil ca leadershipul tău să nu aibă substanţă, şi să te înşeli în privinţa a ceea ce eşti cu adevărat. S-ar putea să fii doar un şef, nu un lider carismatic şi iubit.

Esenţa leadershipului este să nu-ţi conturezi o viziune care te face să nu mai distingi realitatea de simularea "realităţii îmbogăţite".

Un exemplu uimitor de leadership are de-a face cu implicarea ta într-un joc cu două realităţi opuse: o realitate care îţi scapă din vedere, şi o realitate care se află în faţa ta, care este obiectivă. Ceea ce determină imaginea unui lider este viziunea care izvorăşte din aceste două realităţi, capabilă să inspire genul de angajament și de energie de care el va avea nevoie pentru a-şi scoate la iveală potenţialul creativ.

Un fior de gheaţă în amintirea călătorului pierdut

On Februarie 10, 2012

Fă dovada unei solide capacităţi de conducere, evaluând evoluţia trăirilor oamenilor în elementele care constituie realitatea vieţii lor.

Eva de Chazelay fusese parcă blestemată de la naştere să sufere de idioţie, şi numai un singur om din lume, tânărul doctor Jacques Mérey, reuşise s-o vindece complet, rupând blestemul, transformând-o într-o făptură nespus de frumoasă, atât de delicată, cultivându-i cele mai alese însuşiri datorită cărora chiar şi cei mai puternici conducători ai vremii, cei mai talentaţi muzicieni şi artişti le-au salutat cu cel mai adânc respect, şi chiar cu invidie.

Cât de fericită poate să fie o femeie ajunsă atât de frumoasă, atât de înţeleaptă, cu purtări atât de alese - alături de vindecătorul ei, iubitul ei, atât de bun, atât de frumos, atât de iubitor. Şi cât de nefericită poate fi ea atunci când evenimentele haotice, pe care numai Dumnezeu şi planurile sale le pot cuprinde, îl despart de iubitul ei, punându-i sufletul, voinţa, mintea, devotamentul, la grea încercare.

Leadership: Urmezi tendinţa progresivă de a accepta ceea ce ţi se întâmplă mai degrabă decât încercarea de a influenţa ceea ce simţi într-un context care îţi oferă ocazia de a te dezvălui lumii întru totul?

Revoluţia îi despărţise. Eva intră în cercul celor mai influente persoane din Franţa datorită averii ei atât de mari, şi a calităţilor ei deosebite. Dar cu toate că îşi clădise o reputaţie de invidiat, cu toate că avea totul, sufletul îi era totuşi îndurerat. Numai speranţa că îl va reîntâlni pe singurul om pe care sufletul ei îl putea accepta ca şi iubit, o mai ţinea în viaţă. Dar asta până la un punct, atunci când se consumă şi ultima nădejde.

- Ah, izbucni Eva, tu ştii bine, Thérésia, draga mea prietenă, singurul om care putea să-mi dea fericirea a murit. La ce bun să aştept un călător care nu se poate întoarce? L-am pierdut. Mai bine să mă duc să-l întâlnesc acolo unde se află, în mormânt. Vreau să mor !

- Vai, urâte gânduri ! răspunde Thérésia. Cum pot ieşi asemenea cuvinte dintr-o gură tânără şi proaspătă ca a ta? Mormântul, - peste şaizeci de ani să ne tot gândim la el. Ah ! Trăieşte, trăieşte, frumoasa mea Eva, vei vedea ce paradis vei trăi !

Inima Evei simţi atunci o atingere uşoară, ca şi cum aceste cuvinte ar fi venit din partea celui ce-l iubea, ca şi cum acestea fuseseră emise şi transmise în spaţiu, producându-i un nou suflu de viaţă: "Ne vom reîntâlni, Eva ! Aşteaptă şi nădăjduieşte ! "

Leadership: Este nevoie să faci o diferenţiere între tendinţa de a fi prea activ în relaţii şi tendinţa de a experimenta o bucurie lăuntrică dătătoare de vitalitate autentică?

Tu cât de bine te integrezi în lumea realităţii oamenilor? Cum evaluezi evoluţia trăirilor oamenilor din jurul tău? Care sunt elementele ce compun lumea lor şi cum se comportă ele faţă de altele? Ce anume trebuie să faci pentru ca oamenii să-şi păstreze farmecul propriei lor frumuseţi morale şi emoţionale?

Cele mai importante lucruri pe care le înveţi în relaţii sunt la fel de necesare ca tendinţa de a experimenta o bucurie lăuntrică dătătoare de vitalitate autentică.

Diferenţa este că în primul caz depinzi de o anumită perioadă de timp, de o anumită conjunctură şi de datoria de fi recunoscător celorlalţi. În al doilea caz depinzi de speranţă, de concesia pe care o faci candorii de a îmbrăţişa misterul vieţii şi esenţa ei, folosind termenul "motivat", atunci când când tot ceea ce iubești îți este furat, dar ştii că îţi va fi înapoiat la un moment dat.

Trebuie să insist încă o dată asupra faptului că emoţiile şi sentimentele constituie fondul leadershipului. Liderul rămâne, dacă nu în realitatea imediată, în orice caz în matricea internă a tuturor, adică într-o lume interioară în care nu ar putea exista ei fără el, şi nici el fără ei. Un lider care nu poate să redirecţioneze emoţiile oamenilor către el nu-şi va putea ridica niciodată nivelul de influenţă.

Misterul vieţii are ca fundament o emoţie numită "recunoştinţă" care la un moment dat se va transforma într-o nesiguranţă ce se va dovedi la fel de benefică pentru spiritul tău cum este credinţa în cazul unei reîntâlniri speciale.

Thérésia şi-a jucat excelent rolul de îndrumător şi formator sufletesc de oameni, transmiţându-i Evei, cu toată convingerea, certitudinea că iubitul ei este în viaţă - într-o manieră simplă, originală reuşind să scoată în evidenţă profunzimea realităţii prin aluzia la “paradisul” pe care Eva îl va trăi, radiind exact acele trăiri profunde, intense şi neaşteptate, acele senzaţii spirituale magnifice – controlate – care, lăsându-şi amprenta asupra psihicului ei, să-i îndulcească existenţa.

Dacă ai citit minunatul roman, “ Doctorul Misterios ”, al scriitorului Alexandre Dumas, atunci ştii că Eva a trăit, a nădăjduit - la îndemnul Thérésiei, şi în cele din urmă s-a reîntâlnit cu Jacques Mérey, s-au căsătorit şi au trăit acea viaţă atât de frumoasă şi interesantă pe care numai două suflete calde şi iubitoare o pot împărtăşi.

Poţi să diminuezi sau să faci să dispară acele trăiri negative care dezumanizează, care denaturează esenţa fiinţei umane? Ceasul cu alarmă al leadershipului tău funcţionează perfect şi poate să producă la timp acel declic pozitiv în existenţa oamenilor?

Această incursiune în viaţa omului care nu-şi mai poate hrăni existenţa cu nicio speranţă este ca un ceas cu alarmă care îl forţează pe acel om să-şi trezească toate simţurile, să-şi repună în funcţiune propria reţea de sentimente, emoţii, valori şi convingeri.

Ca lider, ai datoria să te asiguri că acest ceas cu alarmă funcţionează perfect şi poate să producă la timp acel declic în existenţa oamenilor, declanşând în ei acele trăiri intense, copleşitor de frumoase, care îşi lasă amprenta asupra psihicului lor producând transformarea lor radicală spre bine.

Leadershipul este acel "aşteaptă şi nădăjduieşte" pe care îl insufli celor care îţi recunosc puterea de a fi prezent într-un moment care oricând poate constitui un nou început de schimbare a vieţii.

Un fior de gheaţă în amintirea călătorului pierdut desemnează acea trăire mistuitoare care se instalează în viaţa oamenilor deconectaţi de la realitatea benefică; a acelor oameni care cedează în faţa probei de devotament faţă de credinţele şi aşteptările lor - acea unică trăire care se risipeşte şi trece fără să aducă nimic în bun în sufletul lor.

Aşa cum ochiul unui pictor se opreşte deseori pe eleganţa unui gest, pe avântul unei aripi, pe dramatismul unui atitudini, pe o pată de culoare, pe puritatea unei linii - tot aşa şi leadershipul tău, ca să capete semnificaţie, trebuie să simţi ce anume contează la oameni, trebuie să acţionezi la timp în virtutea rolului tău reprezentativ, raportându-te la lumea lor.

Trebuie să-ţi opreşti atenţia asupra acelor erori de conştiinţă, asupra acelor elemente pur personale, iraţionale, emoţionale care şi-au pus amprenta asupra realităţii vieţii lor (precum durerea, tristeţea, ura, frica, etc.) şi să înlături trăirile care îi pot duce la o "paralizie" emoţională care, odată ce le inundă existenţa, nu mai pot fi decât foarte greu schimbaţi.

Concluzie: Susţine-i pe oameni, încurajează-i, şi prin sugestii pozitive să-i determini să fie alături de tine. Sugestia pozitivă determinată de un pozitivism al gândirii va fi o armă adecvată de anihilare al pesimismului, inactivităţii şi lipsei de iniţiativă.

Un fond de măreţie pentru evoluţia ta

On Aprilie 17, 2009

Evaluează-ţi retrospectiv leadershipul observând sentimentele celorlalţi faţă de tine şi modul în care ei te-au perceput.

Pentru Bill Parrish, directorul general al Parrish Communications, nu exista decât o singură lume: lumea aceasta. Până în momentul când soarta i-a scos în cale un om al cărui suflet i-a fost luat de Prinţul Întunericului care vroia cu orice preţ să întreprindă o călătorie pe pământ.

Totul în Bill s-a schimbat atunci când l-a întâlnit pe Joe Black. Stăteau unul în faţa celuilalt ca doi războinici cu armele ascunse, ca doi potrivnici ce-şi ascund gândurile, pentru a şi le da în vileag numai când vor porni la atac. Bill nu ştia ce anume doreşte Joe de la el, dar simţea că acesta dispunea de o mare putere.

O privire fugară, neliniştită şi nesigură în direcţia lui Joe, în aşteptarea a ceea ce va urma, privire care spunea multe despre felul în care funcţiona psihicul lui Bill în acel moment. Pentru prima dată marele Bill Parrish simţea o teamă de ceva, de necunoscut, o nesiguranţă pentru sine, pentru viaţa lui, ce izvora din gândul că Moartea, în persoana lui Joe Black, îl va despărţi definitiv de această lume.

Bill simţea superioritatea lui Joe, pentru că nu ştia ce gândeşte, ce urmăreşte, şi prin ce mijloace poate obţine ceea ce vrea de la el. Putea să-l privească deschis, dar nu putea să-i intuiască intenţiile. Nu ştia nimic despre Joe, nici despre ceea ce ar putea vorbi cu el. Nu putea să zărească niciun fel de punte de legătură între ei.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi formezi imaginea unei stime de sine echilibrată, în funcţie de manifestările însuşirilor pe care trebuie să le demonstrezi ca fiind o recunoaştere a superiorităţii tale în faţa altora?

Ai văzut filmul „ Meet Joe Black (1998) ”? Bill îl întreabă pe Joe: “De ce eu? De ce m-ai ales tocmai pe mine?”

Iar Moartea îi răspunde că nu putea să-şi găsească, drept ghid, un om mai potrivit decât el. Trăsăturile de caracter ale lui Bill se potriveau perfect nevoilor Sale. L-a ales pe Bill pentru ceea ce era el, pentru însuşirile minţii sale, ale inimii şi temperamentului său, pentru puterea lui de a “mişca” lucrurile. Era un om care nu vedea niciodată lucrurile în negru, ci în culori trandafirii, un om care avea curajul să dea piept cu viitorul. Mai presus de toate era un om a cărui bunăvoinţă şi înţelepciune nu puteau fi contestate.

Pentru a stabili de ce anume ai nevoie ca să-ţi defineşti corect imaginea pe care o au ceilalţi despre tine trebuie să-ţi priveşti obiectiv părţile bune şi cele slabe. Bill s-a ridicat la nivelul aşteptărilor lui Joe datorită calităţilor lui deosebite. Felul în care a fost abordat, felul în care a interacţionat Joe cu el, asigurându-i acea doză constructivă de încredere în potenţialul său de lider şi de ghid, toate acestea l-au ajutat pe Bill să-şi definească în mod clar identitatea proprie.

Calităţile şi aptitudinile tale te însoţesc oriunde, ca un martor discret la ceea ce se întâmplă în viaţa ta, la toate sentimentele tale, ca un martor cheie care îţi indică dacă ai vreo uşă deschisă spre evoluţia ta personală, o uşă deschisă spre o bună comunicare şi colaborare cu ceilalţi.

A-ţi demonstra însuşirile ca fiind recunoaşterea superiorităţii tale în faţa altora înseamnă să-ţi individualizezi partea lăuntrică, ca într-o minunată panoramă, încât să nu fie atinsă de graniţele prejudecăţilor pe care le ai despre ceilalţi, şi ceilalţi despre tine. Prejudecăţi, precum: „este nasol că s-a schimbat planul" sau "niciodată lucrurile nu merg".

Iar pentru a crea și a dezvolta o relație bună și cât mai aproape de ceilalți oameni, mai întâi trebuie să te străduiești să faci ceva extraordinar, să ai niște realizări care să-i uimească pe toți oamenii, care să-ți sublinieze calitățile și aptitudinile. Oamenii trebuie să-ți aprecieze virtutea și înțelepciunea, să te admire pentru ceea ce simți și gândești, să te aprecieze ca persoană care cunoaște semnificația valorii la toate nivelurile.

Stima de sine este asemenea unei cărţi: ai ajuns cu citirea la jumătatea ei şi îţi dai seama că nu-ţi place, iar pierderea este mai mare dacă o abandonezi decât dacă ajungi la ultima pagină. La final, poţi avea măcar satisfacţia de a scrie o recenzie bine documentată, dar totuşi să primeşti pentru ea o singură stea.

Un fond de măreţie pentru evoluţia ta constituie garanţia realizărilor tale. Îţi poţi acoperi o bună parte din imperfecţiuni şi îţi poţi crea o imagine care să inspire respect şi admiraţie, care să transmită celorlalţi un sentiment de încredere în potenţialul tău numai dacă investeşti permanent în tine însuţi, în dezvoltarea ta personală şi profesională. Ca să devii o persoană unică şi valoroasă trebuie să-ţi aduni resursele care îţi alimentează în mod constant potenţialul şi să le foloseşti pentru a-ţi maximiza şansele de a fi ales drept partener potenţial sau drept model de urmat pentru ceilalţi.

Felul în care te aliniezi pretenţiilor celorlalţi îţi determină imaginea de sine. Întâlnirea cu Joe a fost pentru Bill un prilej de a-şi evalua, într-o manieră convingătoare, abilităţile şi calităţile. Puntea prin care îi poţi câştiga pe oameni de partea ta, prin care poţi trece peste orice neînţelegeri şi orice conflicte, puntea prin care poţi realiza o comunicare eficientă cu ceilalţi, care să-ţi reflecte viziunea şi obiectivele, derivă din potenţialul tău de a fi în acord atât cu tine însuţi, să fii congruent cu propriile valori şi convingeri - cât şi cu ceilalţi, să te ridici la înălţimea pretenţiilor lor, şi să fii congruent cu valorile şi convingerile lor.

Trebuie să simţi că ai potenţialul de lider şi de ghid pe care şi-l doresc oamenii. Aşa cum unele companii ar trebui să-şi îmbunătăţească strategia curentă, şi abia apoi să caute să dezvolte o strategie mai bună – tot aşa şi tu, mai întâi trebuie să-ţi îmbunătăţeşti calităţile şi aptitudinile personale, şi abia apoi să încerci să dezvolţi relaţii cu ceilalţi oameni.

Concluzie: Se spune că înainte de a părăsi această lume, ţi se perindă prin faţa ochilor toată viaţa ta, cu bune şi cu rele, cu realizări şi eşecuri, când afli de fapt totul despre tine. În momentele cruciale (nu numai înainte de moarte), îţi faci bilanţul vieţii tale şi afli de cele mai multe ori părerea altora despre tine.

Îţi poţi evalua retrospectiv leadershipul observând sentimentele celorlalţi faţă de tine în momentele cruciale ale vieţii tale, sentimente ce rezultă din modul în care ai fost perceput şi evaluat.

Un gând negru împotriva propriului tău Eu

On Iunie 16, 2011

Felul în care te raportezi la propriile valori şi convingeri scoate în evidenţă adevărata ta capacitate de conducere.

Ieri am găsit pe Google o ştire importantă legată de accidentul nuclear de la centrala Fukushima, provocat de cutremurul urmat de tsunami de la 11 martie.

Pe 20 mai, deci la mai puţin de trei luni de la producerea catastrofei, preşedintele companiei de electricitate Tokyo Electric Power (TEPCO), Masataka Shimizu, a anunţat că va demisiona şi va numi un succesor. Decizia lui a venit după ce TEPCO a anunţat o pagubă netă cifrată la aproximativ 11 miliarde de euro pentru anul fiscal care s-a încheiat la 31 martie, ceea ce reprezintă un record negativ în cadrul unei companii nipone.

Poţi să pui un diagnostic pozitiv leadershipului prin investigarea adecvată a realităţii tale emoţionale şi psihice?

Ceea ce fundamentează raţiunea de a te opri din a merge mai departe, în măsura limitării propriei identităţii este tocmai perspectiva de a nu mai putea lua decizii inspirate, pe fondul ameninţării de ordin moral. Devine din ce în ce mai frecventă o artă a renunţării, a pierderii protecţiei de sine, în care frumuseţea obligativităţii de a garanta un randament al eficacităţii nu mai are atât o însemnătate şi o semnificaţie substanţială, cât una de sens contrar evoluţiei, ce îndeamnă la cumpătare şi chibzuială în ceea ce transmiţi ca şi sentiment.

Diagnosticul leadershipului se realizează prin investigarea adecvată a unei atari realităţi emoţionale şi psihice, cu o accentuată structură responsabilă, desfăşurată pe fondul construirii identităţii, într-un spaţiu al idealităţii în afara căruia nu este posibilă formula "Mă tentează să continui, dar nu ştiu dacă am să reuşesc."

În acest caz, procesul maturizării gândirii şi cel al emancipării voinţei de a te manifesta în conformitate cu sentimentele cele mai ascunse, ne indică o permanentă deplasare a intereselor de dezvoltare. Interesul pentru semnificaţia a ceea ce a fost stabilit de împrejurări nefaste, cedează locul interesului pentru funcţia "zoom" a efectelor constatate în sensul de subaprecierii valorii, la întâlnirea cu ridicolul diverselor ipostaze pe care le traversezi.

Leadershipul, ca rezultat al manifestării spiritului uman, în deplina lui putere de a se releva în orice situaţie, depinde de existenţa construcţiei identitare şi a crizelor de conştiinţă care se pretează, în analiza succeselor şi eşecurilor, la sublinierea discontinuităţilor dintre cele două zone de siguranţă, eliberate de constrângerile onestităţii. Zona extinderii de potenţial şi zona extinderii de influenţă.

Leadership: Cum te antrenezi pentru bătăliile care vor avea loc în universul tău lăuntric?

Leadershipul nu este un paradis care poate fi descoperit urmând anumite hărţi cu indicii despre paşii ce trebuie urmaţi. Chiar dacă ai instrumentele de navigare care să te poată conduce în direcţia aleasă de tine (o direcţie care să-ţi fie folositoare şi să se potrivească ambiţiei şi potenţialului tău), rămâne totuşi un singur lucru pe care nu-l poţi lăsa în seama nimănui şi pe care uneori o să-ţi vină greu să-l accepţi: structura ta lăuntrică. În special tăria şi consistenţa ta lăuntrică care se reflectă în orice aspect al vieţii tale, la trecutul, prezentul şi viitorul tău.

Cheia succesului tău personal rămâne, mai degrabă, în tine însuţi. Vei putea să faci din leadership locul mult visat numai dacă îl clădeşti cu propriile tale mâini, şi doar dacă – repet – doar dacă te antrenezi pentru bătăliile care vor avea loc în universul tău lăuntric. Aşa cum un pictor se impune prin calitatea operelor sale, prin felul în care redă realitatea, prin felul în care reuşeşte să surprindă personalitatea modelului şi prin tehnica de culoare - tot aşa şi tu îţi vei putea impune valoarea printr-un caracter puternic şi bine orientat, şi prin felul în care te raportezi la convingerile tale. Potenţialul tău lăuntric te va ridica pe scara valorilor, sau te va coborî în cazul unui eşec.

Aşa cum blândeţea însoţeşte întotdeauna adevărata bunătate, tot aşa convingerile şi valorile tale îţi însoţesc întotdeauna paşii spre un viitor mai luminos, sau dimpotrivă, mai sumbru. Felul în care te raportezi la propriile trăiri, valori şi convingeri scoate în evidenţă adevărata ta capacitate de conducere. Oamenii vor vedea ce fel de om eşti în funcţie de deciziile pe care le iei în situaţiile grele şi în funcţie de modul tău de acţiune. Dacă te consideri slab sau nepotrivit pentru funcţia de conducere, atunci vei ceda repede locul tău altuia.

Un gând negru împotriva propriului tău Eu este acel gând care te înfioară şi te ţine în suspans atunci când te afli la ananghie. Este gândul de care trebuie să-ţi faci griji în ceasul marii confruntări cu tine însuţi, cu valorile şi convingerile tale. Este acel gând nociv care te frământă, care te chinuieşte şi te determină să renunţi la idealurile şi năzuinţele tale, în ciuda celor mai admirabile eforturi de a face faţă situaţiei cu mult curaj. Este acel gând care revarsă asupra sufletului tău o imensă tristeţe şi sentimentul penibil al unui sfârşit. Este gândul care te face să-ţi fie ruşine de tine însuţi şi care te determină să te scufunzi în mlaştina vinovăţiei. Este gândul care te împinge către cumplita etapă a resemnării.

Sunt multe lucruri de asimilat în leadership. Trebuie să porneşti de la a învăţa cum să-ţi asumi anumite riscuri, cum să înfrunţi eşecurile şi dezaprobările celorlalţi, până la a avea încredere în instinctele tale şi a nu te abate niciodată de la sarcinile pe care trebuie să le îndeplineşti cu un înalt profesionalism şi conştiinciozitate.

Începe să reflectezi asupra modului în care vei acţiona atunci când te vei afla la ananghie. Acesta este pasul cel mai important către adevărata cunoaştere a liderului din tine.

Un gest de iubire într-o lume digitală

Leadershipul emoțional constă în capacitatea de a construi "punți fragile peste abisuri", recunoscând că fiecare conexiune creată poate umple golurile dintre oameni și poate aduce înțelegere acolo unde există nesiguranță.

În palma lui, telefonul părea să pulseze cu promisiunea unor conexiuni nevăzute, o punte fragilă peste abisul tăcerii care uneori se căsca între ei. Ochii băiatului, două lacuri adânci de speranță și nesiguranță, se oglindeau în ecranul încă întunecat, căutând parcă confirmarea că alegerea sa va fi înțeleasă în profunzimea intenției sale.

Cutia, deși nu purta sigiliul ultimei inovații, era împachetată în straturi de gânduri nerostite și vise împărtășite în șoaptă. Fiecare zgârietură microscopică de pe carcasă era o mărturie tăcută a eforturilor sale, a orelor petrecute calculând, economisind, renunțând la micile plăceri pentru a-i oferi ei această bucată de tehnologie care, în mintea lui, reprezenta mult mai mult decât suma componentelor sale.

Când i l-a întins, gestul său a fost precum oferirea unei inimi bătânde - vulnerabil, plin de emoție și speranță tremurândă. Degetele lui, ușor tremurânde, păreau să transmită un mesaj codificat prin atingerea metalului rece: "Ție îți ofer nu doar un dispozitiv, ci o parte din mine, din timpul meu, din visele mele".

Autenticitatea unui gest cu adevărat emoțional este reprezentată de puterea de a oferi nu doar un rezultat, ci și o parte din sine – timpul, efortul și visele – încât cei din jur să simtă valoarea personală a contribuției și să fie inspirați să răspundă cu aceeași dedicare.

În acel moment de tăcere încărcată, aerul dintre ei vibra cu intensitatea emoțiilor nerostite. Era ca și cum întregul univers își ținea respirația, așteptând reacția ei, fiecare secundă dilatându-se într-o eternitate de posibilități.

Zâmbetul ei, când în sfârșit a înflorit, a fost precum răsăritul soarelui după o noapte de furtună - strălucitor, cald și plin de promisiunea unei noi zile. În ochii ei, două galaxii de recunoștință și afecțiune, se reflecta nu marca sau modelul telefonului, ci imaginea băiatului care pusese atâta gândire și sentiment în acest dar.

Când l-a luat în mâini, gestul ei a fost precum îmbrățișarea unei comori de neprețuit. Degetele ei au mângâiat suprafața netedă cu o tandrețe care vorbea despre înțelegerea sacrificiului din spatele cadoului. În acea atingere se citea un jurământ tăcut de a prețui nu obiectul în sine, ci dragostea care l-a inspirat.

Fiecare decizie implică o bucată din identitatea sa, recunoscând că fiecare gest al tău poate fi o punte spre înțelegere reciprocă, dar și o extensie a gândurilor sale nerostite.

Cuvintele de mulțumire, când au venit, au fost precum picături de ploaie într-un deșert al îndoielilor, hrănind și făcând să înflorească încrederea în relația lor. Fiecare silabă era încărcată cu o recunoștință care depășea valoarea materială a darului, atingând corzile invizibile ale conexiunii lor emoționale.

În acea clipă, telefonul a devenit mai mult decât un simplu dispozitiv de comunicare. Era un simbol al devotamentului lor, o capsulă a timpului care încapsula momentele lor împreună și promisiunea celor ce vor urma. Era dovada tangibilă că, în era digitală, gesturile autentice de afecțiune încă au puterea de a transcende limitările materiale, conectând suflete într-o melodie a iubirii care rezonează dincolo de specificațiile tehnice sau ultimele tendințe.

Conexiunea nevăzută dintre doi oameni poate fi creată prin gesturi mici, precum un zâmbet discret sau o strângere ușoară de mână, ca mesaj codificat al dorinței de a te conecta și de a împărtăși o parte din sine.

Un gest de iubire într-o lume digitală se reflectă în orice acțiune online, luând în calcul importanța gesturilor mici dincolo de lipsa contactului fizic. Privind astfel interacțiunea umană, după modelul unui mesaj de noapte bună care arată preocuparea pentru celălalt, ideea că chiar și cele mai mici gesturi digitale au un impact profund devine valabilă.

Un grăunte de nisip în nesfârşitul deşert al lumilor

Intervino în evoluţia celorlalţi oameni fără să denaturezi perspectivele tale de calificare în marea finală din procesul transformării.

Îşi supunea raţiunea când bătăilor inimii, când ritmului respiraţiei. Amploarea evenimentelor îl angajaseră într-o continuă şi nestăvilită răzvrătire interioară, care avea loc pe fondul aprofundării conflictului determinat de ostilitatea "lumilor paralele". Îşi conducea existenţa sub influenţa unor entităţi discriminatorii, a unor duşmani invizibili, a unor procese de înceţoşare a realităţii şi încrederii în sine. Lucrări şi proiecţii conturate sub sfera de influenţă a unor legi aspre. Stranii şi confuze.

Llewelyn Moss, din " No Country for Old Men (2007) ", trebuia să facă un compromis cu el însuşi, să regăsească acea hartă cu puternică încărcătură spirituală la care să se raporteze permanent tot restul vieţii. Dar tragica absurditate de a trăi după nişte tipare impuse de evenimentele deznădăjduitoare, pe care o simţea în toată cruzimea ei, şi necesitatea de a privi în faţă destinul necruţător, nu făceau casă bună cu speranţa în viitorul său.

Ca un om care ispăşeşte o pedeapsă pentru care legea nu prevede nici o limită şi a cărei durată nu este determinată odată cu pronunţarea hotărârii, Llewelyn Moss începuse să simtă nevoia unui loc unde să se retragă, să se odihnească. O închisoare. Cu gratii foarte dese. Era tentat să se complacă în starea de haos spiritual cauzat atât de propria lui persoană, cât mai ales de limitele impuse de lumile care îl înconjurau, insuportabil, ca un gard din sârmă ghimpată.

Leadership: Ştii cum să pătrunzi valoarea regăsirii de sine în cuprinsul unei căutări care returnează rezultate exacte atâta vreme cât nu procedezi la ieşirea din limitele cauzalităţii?

Llewelyn Moss era străin de ştiinţa de a aduce o lumină oportună vieţii. De a se adapta unei lumi de care să se poată servi în voie, în care să judece, după echitate, oamenii şi faptele lor. Şi să se slujească de ea, ca un joc în care toată lumea are de câştigat. Căci tot ce fusese viaţa lui de altădată se ştersese, şi altceva, mai curând apăsător, inextricabil, căpătase brusc o vibraţie aparte.

Exista un fir care-l lega de destinul "lumilor paralele", în pofida tuturor încercărilor de a se impune lor, sau măcar de a le descifra rostul. Mai întâi era lumea celor care îl despărţeau de visuri. Apoi lumea celor care îl obligau să ia parte la jocul lor, prins ca un peşte într-o plasă ermetică, lumea asasinilor. Mai era şi lumea celor care nu se implicau în derularea evenimentelor, a observatorilor. Şi acea lume orientată de intelect, în opoziţie cu alta mânată de instincte. Dar şi o lume a necuvântătorilor, cu propriile ei legi, cu o dimensiune bine stabilită şi care pentru el trecea neobservată. Lumi care evoluau în paralel.

Hotărâtor, o doză de luciditate îi dicta refuzul de lua parte la un joc în care toată lumea trişa – prin degradarea voinţei celor slabi, şi prin minimalizarea acelei realităţi care dădea un înţeles pozitiv vieţii. De parcă s-ar fi aflat în mijlocul unei fantasmagorii şi ceea ce vedea din univers era pur şi simplu efectul coşmarului din somnul greu care era viaţa. Un teren arid al suferinţei.

Llewelyn Moss mergea către descompunere. Trecuse de partea perdanţilor datorită neputinţei de a domina hazardul. Ajunsese într-un punct critic al transformării profunde. Lumea lui putea să încapă într-un grăunte de nisip, din nesfârşitul deşert al unor lumi stranii. Lumi care, direct sau indirect, voluntar sau involuntar, se întrepătrundeau parcă cu scopul de a-l localiza şi de a-l elimina complet din oricare din ele. Nu era cea dintâi victimă a acestui paralelism absurd, împovărător. Mai fuseseră şi alţii.

Şi toţi sfârşiseră la fel.

Leadership: Ai în vedere constituirea unei noi imagini despre tine ca dependent de o gândire care se prezintă prin reprezentări, fără cuvinte, capabilă să conducă la o schimbare în percepţia de sine?

Cele mai importante lecţii pe care le înveţi ca lider îţi sunt împărtăşite din ambele părţi, cu dublu impact: a conştiinţei pe care vrei să o păstrezi curată, şi amprenta pe care o laşi în conştiinţa celor cu care interacţionezi în orice moment. O conştiinţă care te apăra, la care te raportezi toată viaţa, şi cea pe care o transmiţi celorlalţi, care te poate acuza, debranşându-te de la recunoaşterea statutului tău de om de mare caracter.

Conştiinţa este firul care te leagă sau te îndepărtează de "lumile paralele", părţi ale acelei realităţi cu care te identifici în încercarea de a adera la excelenţă. În timp ce o depărtare de la normele şi regulile pe care le creează conştiinţa curată, echivalează cu uitarea, cu tendinţa crescândă a tăia rădăcinile propriilor valori şi convingeri. Este resortul propriului regres, care vine în contradicţie cu termenii şi condiţiile pe care le impune leadershipul, şi care se manifestă prin indiferenţă, prin îngroparea acelor lucruri care te pot conduce în direcţia cea bună.

Leadershipul este o manifestare a condiţiei umane în contextul unei existenţe dificil de traversat, în care triumfă un un singur lucru: frumuseţea spiritului uman în faţa a tot ce îi stă împotrivă.

Condiţia omului, văzută prin focul încercărilor vieţii, este o subclasă a cauzalităţii care angajează atât psihicul, cât şi liberul arbitru, din care rezultă interdependenţa dintre suprimarea autonomiei şi intensificarea procesului de creare a unei noi realităţi.

A te îndepărta de la codul leadershipului, care se subordonează conştiinţei, este ca şi cum ţi-ai conduce existenţa sub influenţa unor entităţi discriminatorii care aparţin unor duşmani invizibili. Pui astfel în mişcare mecanismul de declanşare a unor procese de înceţoşare a realităţii şi încrederii în sine. Iar, drept consecinţă, leadershipul îşi pierde farmecul, magica-i atracţie; ca o casă banală, care se tot micşorează până la zero, până la dispariţie.

Leadership: Te dezvolţi ca o consecinţă a cauzalităţii unei lumi pline de contraste şi stringenţe, după care toate evenimentele se justifică printr-o motivare intrinsecă?

Impui anumite limite celor din jurul tău? Te loveşti de refuzul lor de lua parte la un "jocul" tău? Minimalizezi acea realitate care dă un înţeles pozitiv vieţii lor?

Ceea ce contează, prin prisma leadershipului şi al caracteristicilor de bază care îl întregesc, este să vezi în ce măsură demersul esenţial al gândirii tale regăseşte o altă autoritate care să-ţi verifice corectitudinea faţă de principiile majore care îţi guvernează elementele de autenticitate. O autoritate care să-ţi auditeze propriile performanţe din perspectiva valorilor şi a rolului care te leagă de ceilalţi din jur.

În procesul transformării tale de la o condiţie deznadajduitoare la una de control, ca factor major de atingere a excelenţei, se cere o anumită finisare a reperelor care îţi compun caracterul, dând un sens mai adânc vieţii şi personalităţii tale. Se cere o continuitate la nivel de conştiinţă, deci în ordinea morală a valorilor şi normelor ei.

Leadershipul tău transformă realitatea celorlalţi oameni într-un teren arid al suferinţei? Poţi să găseşti un teren de împăcare între tine şi ei? Existenţa ta se îndreaptă spre descompunere?

Percepţia de sine se poate constitui ca un apel la responsabilitate și la o acțiune etică în baza asumării unei situaţii de viaţă ce are potenţialul de a-ţi anula convingerile deţinute ulterior şi de a-ţi întări valorile referitoare la iertare, uitare, generozitate, înduplecare, compasiune, stimă de sine, intenţie pozitivă, facerea de bine, acceptarea celorlalţi.

Un grăunte de nisip în nesfârşitul deşert al lumilor sugerează acel ceva neînsemnat, acel element individual din arsenalul omului supus unei realităţi perisabile, care nu mai poate să evolueze şi să se transforme într-un alergător de cursă lungă.

După cum "frumuseţea ţine de geometrie şi numai sentimentul îţi dă posibilitatea să sesizezi formele ei cele mai delicate", tot astfel leadershipul ţine de percepţiile tale asupra celorlalţi oameni. Şi numai realitatea pe care o trăieşti alături de ei îţi dă posibilitatea să apreciezi cele mai fine piese de rezistenţă din mecanismul care-l pune în mişcare, asigurându-i buna funcţionare.

Intervino în evoluţia celorlalţi oameni fără să denaturezi perspectivele tale de calificare în marea finală din procesul transformării tale – spre evoluţia conştiinţei, care te menţine permanent vigilent la orice deviere de la regulile şi reperele cele mai importante ale arhitecturii leadershipului; spre găsirea echilibrului necesar pentru a putea merge mai departe pe drumul spre desăvârşire.

Concluzie: Fără a abdica de la morală, deontologie şi…propria conştiinţă, un lider trebuie să găsească soluţii adecvate pentru a anihila legal efectele create de situaţiile când unul este împotriva tuturor şi toţi împotriva unuia. Autoanaliza ca şi analiza colectivă presupune şi chiar impune existenţa unei comunicări de ambele părţi.

Lipsa de comunicare ca şi analiza unilaterală, retragerea în propria lume, constrâns sau nu de evenimente, de mediu, de relaţii, de schimbări, nu înseamnă altceva decât atingerea acelui " borderline " dintre normal şi patologic, ceea ce de cele mai multe ori echivalează cu prăbuşirea.

Un ideal măreţ închinat fiinţei umane

Facilitează accesul oamenilor la leadershipul tău, sădind în conştiinţa lor interesul faţă de adevăratele tale idealuri, virtuţi şi calităţi.

În filmul „ Lionheart (1990) ", despre care am discutat şi în articolul precedent, personajul principal, Lyon Gaultier dezertează din Legiunea Străină şi ajunge în Statele Unite ale Americii. Îl găseşte pe fratele său între viaţă şi moarte şi pe soţia acestuia, fără banii necesari pentru a-şi îngriji copilul. Pentru a o ajuta el se implică în luptele ilegale.

Dar pe urmele lui sunt trimişi doi ofiţeri straşnici, lipsiţi de orice filozofie proprie - nişte executanţi perfecţi, neînsufleţiţi de nicio convingere, de nicio formă de bunăvoinţă şi empatie - două caractere dure, create parcă de un creator tehnologic lipsit de orice urmă de sentiment. Oriunde se afla Lyon, îşi făceau şi ei doi apariţia, tot mai mânioşi, îmboldiţi de o voinţă tot mai acerbă de a-l prinde şi de a-l aduce înapoi în legiune.

În finalul filmului, Lyon reuşeşte să câştige cu mare dificultate lupta împotriva lui Attila. Epuizat, clătinându-se pe picioare, şovăitor, încredinţat că va simţi curând pedeapsa de care au parte toţi dezertorii, îşi priveşte o clipă „umbrele", apoi se lasă complet în mâinile lor. Îşi ia rămas bun de la soţia şi fiica fratelui său, singurele rude care i-au mai rămas, pentru care făcuse toate aceste sacrificii. Apoi este urcat în maşină, flancat între cei doi ofiţeri.

Dar ceva se întâmplă. Ceva neaşteptat. Dintr-o dată, după câteva sute de metri, maşina se opreşte. Cei doi ofiţeri îşi întorc capul spre Lyon cu mândrie. Pentru prima oară pe chipul lor era întipărit sentimentul de înțelegere, alimentat de un dram de admiraţie - ca şi cum un spirit fugar, altruist, s-ar fi strecurat în fiinţa lor şi s-ar fi pierdut în labirintul existenţei lor, făcându-i generoşi - declanşând în ei, ca nişte curente electrice, toate trăirile, toate valorile, toate emoţiile pe care o fiinţă umană este capabilă să le resimtă.

- Eşti liber, Lyon. Întoarce-te la familia ta. Mult noroc !

Leadership: Imaginea a ceea ce eşti în realitate prinde contur în momentul în care ţi se revelează condiţia de a vedea lumea în raport cu ceea ce te face să te simţi liber?

În ce situaţie neaşteptată survine momentul în care ţi se revelează valoarea de fiinţă cauzală, despre care toată viaţa ai crezut că nu te defineşte? Probabil în acea situaţie în care reuşeşti o evadare dintr-un context dur cum ar fi stăruinţa asupra imposibilului sau izolarea totală de lume în mijlocul unui pseudo-univers artificial şi lapidar construit.

M-a impresionat încărcătura filozofică a următoarei afirmaţii, aparţinând scriitorului Ştefan Zweig: "Omul trebuie să fie predispus de a atribui voinţei o putere ce se exercită asupra spiritualului, repercutându-se prin el în lumea materială."

Voinţa unui om de a se depăşi pe sine, consolidată prin extinderea propriilor orizonturi, a propriilor competenţe şi valori, este însoţită constant de un val de modificări care îi poate îndrepta paşii către o mai bună valorificare a propriilor puncte tari, a propriilor lui puteri interioare. Vindecându-l pe această cale de orice manifestări duşmănoase şi extremiste, de orice vicii, de orice firimitură de conţinut uman dăunător, de orice stare de spirit malignă.

Eficienţa ta în leadership rezidă tocmai din această valorificare a punctelor tari, de îndepărtare a „reziduurilor” lăuntrice emoţionale şi mentale, prin descoperirea şi împărtăşirea valorilor, din redirecţionarea propriilor tale trăiri, a propriei tale lumi de gânduri, spre acea realitate în care înţelegerea devine posibilă şi acceptată unanim de oamenii din jur, şi care creează anumite obligații morale de ambele părți.

Ceea ce te face să te simţi liber este oportunitatea de a trăi măreţia neprevăzutului ca răspuns la activarea nevoii de a schimba sensul unei existenţe din care neantul a muşcat adânc.

A încerca să-i aduni pe oameni în jurul tău fără să determini transformarea lor prin întărirea legăturii tale cu ei, prin desăvârşirea şi practicarea propriilor tale virtuţi, – este ca şi cum ai încerca să construieşti un turn care se dărâmă continuu. Te vei întoarce mereu şi mereu de unde ai plecat, vei cădea în patima cărămidarului, încercând să aranjezi din nou şi din nou, aidoma unor piese de puzzle, cu un reînnoit şi totuşi atât de istovitor elan, cărămizile de bază ale leadershipului - fără de care evoluţia ta nu va putea fi posibilă.

Tu cazi în patima cărămidarului?

Abilitatea de a te raporta emoţional şi moral la ceilalţi oameni este întotdeauna limitată de efortul tău de a descoperi faţa ascunsă a suferinţei, deznădejdii şi neputinţei, experimentate datorită unei nedreptăţi sau a unei erori de judecată.

Leadership: Poţi să dobândeşti o înţelegere corectă şi completă a dimensiunii vieţii printr-o asumare a răspunderii faţă de rezultatul unei experienţe de transformare indusă de ceea ce nu poţi controla?

Ca lider, ai datoria să-ţi menţii constant caracterul nobil, să anulezi orice idealuri, valori şi convingeri care nu-ţi conferă stabilitate în relaţiile cu ceilalţi oameni. Deci, trebuie să-ţi înzestrezi leadershipul cu însuşirea de a respinge orice element de conţinut cu caracter defectuos, şi de a-ţi menţine constant echilibrul sufletesc şi moral.

Ce anume i-a determinat pe cei doi ofiţeri atât de reci în simţire şi în fapte să se răzgândească la sfârşit şi să-şi abandoneze crunta misiune de a-l aduce pe Lyon înapoi în legiune? Şi-au recăpătat aşa, dintr-o dată, omenia, nefiind influenţaţi de niciun factor? Şi-au liniştit ei firea ranchiunoasă, sorbind o licoare miraculoasă, tămăduitoare, dotată cu proprietatea de a le curăţa întreaga fiinţă şi de a-i face mai buni, forţându-i să găsească calea cea mai adecvată de a se raporta la cei din jur?

Ca să reuşeşti să modelezi materia din care e făcut omul, aşa cum un meşteşugar priceput modelează lutul ca un adevărat creator, ca să înfrumuseţezi trăsăturile sale, ca să-i modifici trăirile - atribuindu-le o cu totul altă caracteristică, mai întâi trebuie să sădeşti în conştiinţa lui interesul faţă de adevăratele tale idealuri, virtuţi şi calităţi.

A accepta un rezultat pe care nu-l poţi controla este o virtute care constă în puterea de a îndura greutățile și neplăcerile vieții. A reuși o transformare în pofida acestui rezultat este măsura valorii pe care o aduci în lume.

Un ideal măreţ închinat fiinţei umane indică orientarea ta şi a leadershipului tău spre ceea ce este cu adevărat important atât pentru tine cât şi pentru cei din jur - care te înţeleg, care adoptă convingerile tale şi îţi acceptă trecutul, care te sprijină în prezent şi te încurajează în viitor.

Leadershipul implică modificări ale comportamentului şi gândirii umane, atât în ceea ce priveşte liderul - prin propria investigare a Eu-lui, prin autocunoaştere şi evaluare, cât şi a oamenilor în fruntea cărora se află şi asupra cărora trebuie să aibă o înrâurire binefăcătoare.

Binecuvântat este leadershipul ce are încorporat acest ideal măreţ închinat fiinţei umane.

Un început al timpurilor nesfârşite

Încearcă să-ţi asiguri o libertate tenace şi vizionară, o libertate care se adaptează timpurilor, fără a pierde nimic din vitalitatea momentelor de reflecţie asupra vieţii interioare.

Ascult o melodie intitulată "In 100 years", şi o ascult cu multă plăcere şi cu entuziasm, cu simţirea omului simplu care îşi poartă anii cu atâta nobleţe şi seninătate. O ascult ori de câte ori simt că nu mă ascultă nimeni, ştiind că dacă aş fi fost ascultat cu mai multă sinceritate şi deschidere, poate aş fi fost înţeles mai bine ca om al timpurilor nesfârşite. Căci nimeni nu înţelege cât de înşelătoare şi dezamăgitoare poate fi simţirea pe care o acorzi anilor trecuţi, dar prezenţi şi neosteniţi numai pe ritmul muzicii.

Şi în timp ce o ascult cu drag, şi în timp ce mă zbânţui prin cameră pe ritmul ei dinamic, intervine un refren care îmi atrage atenţia, într-un spaţiu al emoţiei versatile, poetice, pure: "Outside the gates of Heaven, oh, there lives a unicorn". Ce vrea să spună versul acesta altceva decât că, probabil, în spatele a tot ceea ce ai trăit cu multă simţire stă cineva ascuns în anonimat, cineva greu de găsit, greu de accesat într-o realitate care se schimbă de la un punct la altul, într-un spaţiu al transcendenţei inaccesibile.

Toate imaginile şi sunetele din această melodie se întrepătrund într-o geometrie universală a emoţiei, toţi anii pe care i-am trăit cu grabă, dorindu-mi parcă nespus de mult să nu fi trecut cu atâta grabă, încă mă opresc în loc, într-o aparenţă a separării de restul lumii, la fel cum o notă muzicală se odihneşte în pauza dintre ritm şi voce. Iar dacă mă simt diferit, puţin nostalgic, dar şi foarte energic, este pentru că anii ce au trecut m-au făcut diferit, chiar dacă diferenţa dintre mine cel de atunci şi cel de acum este la fel de mică precum distanţa de la o notă muzicală la alta.

Chiar şi notele muzicale au în spate o istorie vastă...

Leadership: Eşti pregătit să te accepţi pe tine însuţi în lupta cu timpul care îşi povesteşte existenţa cu multă sinceritate şi într-un mod la fel de captivant în pauza dintre două note muzicale?

O melodie este o trecere a anilor peste momente de neuitat, le strângi pe toate în căuşul minţii de artist şi le transformi într-un buchet de trandafiri ce uimeşte printr-o incomparabilă putere a culorilor vii, pline de emoţie. Evident, nu încerc să transform relaţia cu mine însumi într-o filosofie a emoţiei faţă de domeniul artistic sau muzical, ci mai degrabă încerc să creez o apropiere de o temă ce răzbate din versurile lumii mele. Ele anunţă multă tăcere pentru o prezenţă prea subtilă care îşi trăieşte anii prin reamintire, alteori prin uitare, dar mai ales prin odihna liniştitoare a sufletului.

Despre asta este vorba aici, despre muzica vieţii trăită pe ritmul unei găsiri de sine. Căci, nimic nu este mai important decât să te accepţi pe tine însuţi într-o buclă a timpului care se tot repetă, indicând legătura dintre "Memo" şi "Domini", dintre Andante şi Allegro, dintre Do şi Si. Iar pauza dintre notele muzicale care îmi acompaniază trecutul şi prezentul, fiind o formă superioară de conştientizare a emoţiilor şi gândurilor care ştiu să spună o poveste, se prelungeşte la fiecare acord între sentimentul identităţii şi percepţia sinelui.

Anumite momente de viaţă încă mă mai urmăresc printre aceste note, puţine urme au mai rămas din ele, acestea fiind proporţionale cu somnul minţii obiective.

Poate că trebuie să mă întorc la cel care am fost, plin de hotărâre, truditor, energic, ca să înţeleg că anii nu se numără, ci sunt exact ca boala, se răspândesc de la distanţă, pretutindeni. Îi simţi peste tot în jur, şi în cărţi, şi în locurile de promenadă, şi în muzică, dar nu le poţi găsi vreo alinare, ci doar o fecundă aspiraţie spre altceva. Spre ceva mult mai înalt, mai armonios, spre ceva care este generat tocmai prin actul creaţiei şi al perseverenţei în creaţie.

Iar dacă aş trăi 100 de ani, atunci emoţiile mele vor anunţa încă 100 de ani de reamintire şi retrăire a momentelor fugare de bucurie ale vieţii. Până la urmă, sunt măsura schimbărilor şi transformărilor cu privire la „înainte" şi „după", şi dacă aş fi putut să fiu altcineva decât cel ce am fost, atunci aş fi dorit să fi fost un vers dintr-un hit al anilor '90, compus tot de Modern Talking: "We'll take the chance, we will again".

Leadership: L-ai îndemnat pe "Tine-Cel Prezent" să acorde o atenţie sporită momentelor de reflecţie asupra vieţii interioare, amintindu-i că eşti dispus să identifici perspectivele de interpretare ale unei realităţi trăite prin rularea aceleiaşi "muzici" ?

O reevaluare a limitelor timpului pe care mi-l acord mie însumi ca să înţeleg cunoaşterea fiinţei originale, sau mai bine zis nevoia fiinţei plăsmuite de a reintra în dialog cu Cel care a creat-o, mă pune în acord cu inspiratul punct de vedere al lui Marcus Aurelius:

"Gândeşte-te că nu peste mult timp nu vei mai fi decât nimeni de nicăieri, că nu va mai exista nici unul dintre lucrurile pe care le vezi acum, nici vreunul dintre oamenii care trăiesc acum. Fiindcă orice lucru este prin natura lui făcut să se transforme, să-şi schimbe starea şi să dispară pentru ca altele să poată să-i urmeze."

Cred acelaşi lucru, dar merg şi mai departe de atât. Din dorinţa de a menţine şi de a dezvolta contactul direct dintre mine, cel din trecut, şi cel ce sunt acum, pe această cale fiind stimulat de capacităţile intelectuale, cu deosebire spiritul analitic şi discernământul fin pe care-l dezvoltă şi îl întreţine studiul filosofiei, voi face o călătorie dus-întors spre acea parte din colţul unei lumi plină de taine omeneşti.

O lume plină de cuvinte pricepute, sugestive, însufleţitoare, ce se retrăieşte printr-o visare care te îmbată şi care te face să spui: "Pot mai mult...vreau mai mult".

Voi încerca să mă aflu mereu într-un loc al întâlnirii cu mine însumi și cu celălalt, pentru a simți și învăța că ceea ce este neaşteptat la mine, cel de atunci, poate fi găsit numai la mine, cel de acum. Şi ceea ce găsesc că este minunat la mine, cel de acum, se armonizează cu o parte a expresiei unei reacţii la sentimentul de libertate pe care ţi-l dă melodia: "In 100 years".

Da, sunt liber, fiindcă m-am regăsit pe mine într-un spațiu dedicat exclusiv bucuriei. Am fost, sunt şi voi fi suma unor gânduri exprimate prin sunete...

Un creator este o prezenţă care îşi poartă anii cu demnitate, este măsura schimbărilor şi transformărilor cu privire la „înainte" şi „după", exact ca viaţa dintre două cărţi care tratează aceleaşi subiecte fără să se influenţeze într-un fel sau altul.

Un început al timpurilor nesfârşite se caracterizează printr-o trecere necontenită de la o stare la alta, de la o etapă la alta a vieţii, pe ritmul unei muzici fabuloase pe care, adesea, o auzi doar tu însuţi.

Un creator desăvârşit poate fi perceput ca un acord dintre două note muzicale care se adaugă la o melodie, pentru a-i reliefa conturul, pentru a-i împodobi linia melodică. El poate să reflecte viaţa trăită de un singur om în momente de timp diferite, cu stări de spirit diferite: el va da judecăţi de valoare diferite asupra aceleiaşi muzici. Sau, după cum bine spunea cineva pe internet:

"Poate ar fi interesant de ascultat chiar două sau mai multe interpretări în paralel ale aceleiaşi piese muzicale, asta ne-ar dezvălui amprenta personală a celui ce interpretează; ne-ar arăta cât de diferiţi suntem în înţelegerea aceleaşi muzici şi totodată cât de frumoşi suntem în unicitatea noastră."

Un indiciu rar al personalităţii

Dezvăluie-ţi sentimentele cele mai adânci, pentru ca oamenii să descopere adevărul despre cine sunt ei cu adevărat.

În filmul „ Meet Joe Black (1998) ", Susan Parrish, fiica miliardarului William Parrish, poartă o ultimă conversaţie cu Prinţul Întunericului, în persoana lui Joe Black. Ea îi mărturiseşte acestuia cu o adâncă nesiguranţă gândurile ei. Îi era teamă. În adâncul sufletului ştia că Joe nu spunea adevărul. Căci se simţea o undă de amărăciune în glasul lui, ca o durere fără sfârşit, golit de orice energie, de orice încărcătură spirituală.

Uitându-se la ea cu durere în ochi, simţind frământările ei lăuntrice, Joe îşi recunoscu pentru prima oară adevărata fire, sub impulsul unei adânci convingeri, adevăratul sine. Îl cuprinseseră brusc cele mai apăsătoare simţăminte: de vinovăţie, de îngrijorare, de tristeţe şi deznădejde, care deveniseră adevărate. Primul lui sentiment dominant a fost compasiunea; al doilea un gol imens, de nimic, ca şi cum n-ar mai fi contat ziua de mâine. Voinţa de a se lupta cu propria lui conştiinţă, cu tentaţiile sale, cu propria lui identitate, cu propriile sale slăbiciuni a fost marea încercare care i-a fost dată, pe care n-o anticipase şi de care nu putea trece.

În finalul filmului, Prinţul Întunericului, în persoana lui Joe Black, părăseşte această lume, dar nu înainte de a-şi îndeplini promisiunea: îl readuce la viaţă pe adevăratul Joe, acel tânăr chipeş cel pe care Susan îl cunoscuse la cafenea şi de care se îndrăgostise enorm.

Leadership: Pe ce se bazează convingerea ta că ştii adevărul despre ceilalţi oameni din jur, indiferent de ceea ce esti dispus să încerci ca să susţii argumentat nişte puncte de vedere absolut incredibile?

Nu prin gândire, ci prin contemplare şi simţire (în mijlocul oamenilor) Joe Black – Prinţul Întunericului, a fost determinat să înţeleagă, să trăiască sentimente similare şi o personalitate apropiată de cea a oamenilor. Susan, prin al ei sufletul curat, prin a ei sensibilitate, prin a ei aplecare către spiritualitate, a trezit în el simţul dreptăţii, al credinţei adevărate, al adevăratelor şi înălţătoarelor idei umaniste, declanşând o ruptură în structura lui de rezistenţă.

Toţi oamenii ar trebui treziţi şi îndemnaţi să îndrepte ceea ce au stricat în viaţa altora, sau ceea ce este strâmb în viaţa lor. Dar cum? Prin sentimente. Prin schimbarea stării lor sufleteşti. Aşa cum Susan, destăinuindu-i lui Joe Black adevăratele ei trăiri, gânduri şi temeri, a reuşit să trezească în el cele mai umane simţăminte, tot aşa şi tu, ca să-ţi uşurezi conştiinţa, ca să le arăţi oamenilor adevărul despre cine sunt ei cu adevărat, trebuie să-ţi dezvălui sentimentele cele mai profunde.

Exprimarea adevăratelor sentimente şi trăiri - aceasta este puterea care îl defineşte pe un om de o nobleţe şi cu o bogăţie sufletească extraordinară. Foloseşte-ţi această putere cu chibzuinţă, cu un discernământ pozitiv, demn de apreciat. Astfel vei fi mai împăcat cu tine însuţi, iar cei din jurul tău vor fi întotdeauna mai câştigaţi. Ca să-ţi pui în relief aspectul pozitiv al personalităţii tale trebuie să imprimi corect în mintea şi în sufletul celorlalţi oameni propriile tale convingeri şi percepţii.

Leadership: Personalitatea ta poate să transmită profunzime în lupta dintre ego și suflet, raportându-te la nişte convingeri şi puncte de vedere de care trebuie să ţii cont dacă vrei să-ţi scoţi din minte un adevăr care te obsedează?

Procesul de cunoaştere a celorlalţi oameni este ca un ciudat labirint, asemănător cu acel joc pentru copii în al cărui grafic complicat trebuie să găseşti calea care duce din centru în afară, spre ieşire. Nu-i vei putea cunoaşte mai bine dacă nu-i înţelegi, dacă nu găseşti calea care duce în străfundul minţii şi sufletului lor, şi dacă nu îi determini să-şi scoată la iveală partea negativă sau pozitivă a personalităţii lor, cele mai bune calităţi ale lor, sau, dimpotrivă, cele mai puţin lăudabile.

Aşa cum înţelegerea mai bună din partea pacientului a bolii de care suferă creşte spectaculos gradul de implicare a acestuia în urmarea tratamentului - tot aşa conştientizarea şi înţelegerea mai bună din partea oamenilor a celor mai profunde sentimente ale tale va creşte spectaculos gradul lor de implicare în procesul de schimbare a personalităţii lor.

Leadership înseamnă să judeci oamenii şi realitatea lor conform crezurilor pe care le ai, nu după nişte puncte de vedere care invocă vreun adevăr absolut. De fapt, crezurile pe care le împărtăşeşti te vor ajuta să înțelegi importanța a ceea ce ţi se întâmplă, indiferent de voinţa ta.

Care este crezul pe care îl cuprinde toată învăţătura ta? Crezul tău este să relatezi adevărul complet și imparțial? Aşa cum spunea cineva, crezul este înfăţişarea pe scurt a învăţăturii pe care trebuie s-o creezi şi s-o mărturiseşti.

Un indiciu rar al personalităţii este adevărul de care nu vrei să te dezlipeşti, dar pe care trebuie să-l accepţi, fie că vrei fie că nu. Convingerea lui Joe Black de a se purta sincer cu Susan s-a bazat în exclusivitate pe dispreţuirea acelui Alter-Ego care aproape îi substituise întreaga ființă, dar care n-ar avea nimic de-a face cu sine, ci cu tânărul căruia el îi furase identitatea.

Decât să fii un diavol deghizat în om, mai bine să suferi că un om liber care dispune de soarta și de actele sale.

Un joc complicat

On Februarie 14, 2009

Extinde-ţi graniţele influenţei, adoptând o poziţie fermă faţă de hotărârea ta de a-ţi impune caracterul.

Drumul către o carieră de succes poate fi extrem de alunecos. Într-una din cele mai renumite cărţi despre şah, " Principii şi tactici ", Anton Berger specifica în primul capitol cele trei reguli importante din şah: "Atenţie, atenţie, atenţie ! "

Pe măsură ce înaintezi în carieră, fii convins că te vei confrunta cu numeroase greutăţi şi te vei lovi de foarte multe obstacole care te vor ţine departe de scopul pe care ţi l-ai propus, de visele pe care le nutreşti. Foarte mulţi oameni invidioşi sau dornici să avanseze în postul pe care îl urmăreşti tu, vor încerca să te împiedice să faci un pas înainte. În astfel de momente va trebui să iei o hotărâre: ori înaintezi cu prudenţă ori te resemnezi.

Leadership: Caracterul care decide rezultanta tuturor forţelor tale este în acord cu asumarea unui ego care nu permite compromisuri?

Margaret Thatcher, premierul Marii Britanii intre anii 1979-1990, a ştiut mai bine ca oricine cum să acţioneze astfel încât să nu fie ţinută în şah de către ceilalţi aspiranţi la scaunul confortabil de premier. Ca şi la jocul de şah, Margaret Thatcher a fost foarte chibzuită şi extrem de atentă la demersurile pe care urma să le facă, iar odată ce lua o decizie nu se mai răzgândea asupra ei. A spus-o chiar ea: " Dumneavoastră vă puteţi răzgândi, dacă vreţi. Doamna nu se răzgândeşte. "

Poate că şi tu vei dori să ocupi o funcţie înaltă de conducere şi să-ţi măreşti puterea de influenţă. Te previn însă, că nu vei fi singurul care îşi doreşte acest lucru. Cu siguranţă vor exista şi alte persoane dornice de succes şi de ascensiune profesională.

Ca să câştigi în faţa oponenţilor tăi, va trebui să înveţi să joci dur, dar cu prudenţă ca Margaret Thatcher. Cumpăneşte bine mutările pe care doreşti să le faci, apoi acţionează decisiv. Aminteşte-ţi că, întocmai ca la şah, mutările o dată făcute nu le mai poţi schimba, iar o mutare greşită ar putea însemna sfârşitul partidei prin a fi făcut mat. Aşa că, preia controlul asupra jocului înainte ca adversarii tăi să o facă.

Ego-ul poate fi ieşirea ta din starea de inerţie auto-impusă numai dacă există o şansă de victorie asupra unei forţe foarte mari, al cărei rezultat te face să crezi că ceva mai presus decât tine veghează asupta ta, te călăuzeşte şi te protejează.

Tu ai abilitatea de a înţelege şi utiliza leadershipul ca instrument de asigurare a succesului? Capacitatea ta de a te menţine ferm pe poziţie este „marca distinctivă" a puterii tale de influenţă? Care e „piesa" cu cel mai mare potenţial pe care o foloseşti ca să-ţi controlezi oponenţii? Poţi crea puncte tari care să nu poată fi uşor atacate de către adversari? Te diferenţiezi de aceştia prin atenţia deosebită acordată demersurilor pe care le iniţiezi?

Extinde-ţi graniţele influenţei, adoptând o poziţie fermă faţă de hotărârea ta de a-ţi impune caracterul.

Poţi face o diferenţiere între Liderul-comun şi Liderul-de-elită, fără să fie nevoie de cunoaşterea în amănunt a proceselor de realizare a obiectivelor planificate?

Leadershipul în ansamblul său are la bază o sumă de principii, practici, convingeri şi strategii, ale căror raporturi și interferențe cu omul şi circumstanţele în care se află generează, în ultim stadiu, acel elan lăuntric şi acel tip de valoare de care liderul are nevoie pentru a se impune în faţa celorlalţi. Dar mai întâi de toate în faţa lui.

Se impune deci crearea unei dihotomii între liderul-comun și liderul-de-elită în care se poate transforma individ ul la un moment dat. Diferenţa cea mai grăitoare dintre cele două tipuri fiind dată de jocul la care concurează fiecare, în pofida presiunilor, distragerilor, încercărilor de intimidare şi comploturilor de orice fel. Dintre cele două tipuri, numai liderul-de-elită reînvie în el acea magie ciudată care îi strânge la un loc energiile cele mai puternice şi uneltele spirituale folositoare transformării, benefice unei funcţionări sigure şi unei evoluţii contra curentului.

Luând exemplul lui Margaret Thatcher, ştim prea bine cum încearcă să joace liderul-de-elită în întunecatul infern al întorsăturilor de situaţii şi al marilor schimbări, concentrate uneori într-o singură clipă. Încearcă să joace "nepiratat", adică legal, fără să încalce drepturile şi libertăţile celorlalţi oponenţi de a strădui să dobândească titlul de maestru. Ci doar păstrându-şi poziţia fermă, punându-şi în prim plan îndrăzneala care se duce către oportunitate, conştientizând valoarea oricărei acţiuni întreprinse.

Cunoaşterea în amănunt a proceselor de realizare a obiectivelor planificate nu se poate realiza decât printr-o introducere personală în decorul unei "prestaţii live" care contribuie la depăşirea stării de risc în care se află un întreg ce poartă o realitate diferită de cea a părţilor care-l compun.

Poziţia de titular în leadership se obţine când te decizi să lupţi pentru o cauză mai presus de tine şi să te concentrezi pe ceea ce te face să mergi mai departe într-o direcţie imposibilă.

Dar cum percepe acest joc liderul-de-elită? Dacă, de exemplu, i-am ridica liderului-comun această problemă, cu siguranță ne-am lovi de slăbiciunea sa, de neștiința de a gestiona mai multe teritorii străine, de indiferența cu care tratează o serie de factori strategici caracteristici fiecărei poziţii, și de ignoranța de a acţiona după un plan în acel moment care necesită idei novatoare.

În toate epocile liderul-comun de la baza societății a ignorat aceste mijloace de probare a valorii sale. Deși, paradoxal, el a fost principalul actor pe scena istoriei universale, jucându-şi rolul continuu, inconştient de nepotrivirea sa la conducere, motivat doar sub impulsul dorinţei de a fi în frunte.

În consecință, se pare că victoria este produsul aproape exclusiv al personalităților bine formate în luptele pentru supremaţie. Personalități ce totuși nu ar fi putut să își spună cuvântul fără susținerea unui joc complicat, la nivel superior, care constă în tendinţa de acumulare a unor avantaje poziţionale sau materiale, dezvoltate ulterior până la forme cu caracter decisiv.

Obligaţia pe care ti-o asumi ca lider nu trebuie niciodată interpretată ca o clauză de răzgândire în cazul traversării unui drum anovoios, ci ca o clauză de risc voluntar spre identificarea si dezvoltarea zonelor de favorabilitate înaltă care te ţin în formă.

Un joc complicat devine un adevărat spectacol demn de marile personalităţi ale istoriei atunci când cele două reprezentaţii "caracterul puternic" şi "un ego care nu face compromisuri" se prelungesc peste măsură. Dar merită să iei parte la el, fiindcă înveţi cum să-ţi găseşti motivaţia într-un cadru ce nu permite favoruri, ci doar manifestarea mândriei.

Cred că vorbele scriitoarei de origine română, Irina Binder, exprimă cel mai bine atitudinea unui lider prins într-un joc riscant: "Dacă vreodată voi ţine capul jos,va fi doar ca să-mi admir pantofii."

Un leadership lipsit de strălucire

On Februarie 20, 2011

Evită să te pierzi in iluzia unei realităţi care nu corespunde aşteptărilor celorlalţi.

Am ajuns la o concluzie uimitoare bazată pe fapte. Şi anume, că în ziua de azi oricine ştie leadership. Oricine poate fi invitat la o conferinţă pentru a-şi exprima punctele de vedere, propria viziune şi filozofie vizavi de leadership. Nu trebuie să deţii cunoştinţe solide de leadership pentru a sustine o prezentare, ci doar un strop de inspiraţie pe ultima sută de metri, şi norocul de a fi invitat la o conferinţă.

Sala era învăluită în răceala tăcerilor, acele tăceri resemnate pe care le au spectatorii străbătuţi de deziluzii, dezamăgiri şi de sentimentul că au fost induşi în eroare. Precis în sinea lor mulţi dintre ei îşi ziceau: "mai mult nu ai ce să ceri de la el." Căci susţinătorul prelegerii, considerat ca fiind un expert în domeniul conducerii, jongla în permanenţă cu vorbele, cu ideile şi cu interpretările sale, încercând cu mult elan şi patos să puncteze câteva elemente legate de impactul leadershipului asupra societăţii actuale – tot aşa cum un fotbalist jongează cu mingea, apoi o pasează mai departe.

Este de admirat efortul prezentatorului de a-si expune punctele de vedere. Însă sensul pe care el l-a atribuit leadershipului nu a fost deloc unul încărcat cu puternice semnificaţii, nu ascundea lucruri surprinzătoare, nu întrunea cerinţele şi aşteptările celor din public. El nu a reusit să confere prezentării sale acel aer aparte, de lucru bine făcut, pe care doar profesionistii reuşesc să-l transmită. Nu e de mirare că impresia celor prezenţi în sală a fost aceea de pustiu sterp.

Leadership: Demersurile de a pune la dispoziţia oamenilor perspectiva ta de a vedea lucrurile facilitează asimilarea unor indicatori de impact definiţi în acord cu posibilităţile lor de a-ţi exploata potenţialul la maxim?

Era o chestiune de aderenţă: ce rămâne fixat în mintea oamenilor şi ce nu.

Dacă ar fi fost intr-adevar un expert, atunci susţinătorul prelegerii ar fi reuşit să uimească publicul prin inedit şi prin consecvenţa ideilor susţinute, tot aşa cum un pictor uimeşte privirile prin expresivitate şi plasticitate. Şi, la fel cum un pictor reuşeşte să-şi încarce creaţia cu simţiri şi cu sensuri adânci, susţinătorul prelegerii ar fi trebuit să-şi încarce prezentarea cu atâta "vrajă" încât să trezeasca în cei din public o sete nemărginită de cunoastere, înviorându-le sentimentele şi starea de spirit.

Lipsa de perspectivă, de coerenţă şi de continuitate în idei au fost cateva dintre lucrurile care i-au deranjat pe cei prezenţi în sală. Noaptea părea că se înfăşoară în jurul lor. Pretutindeni domnea o senzaţie de suspendare, liniştea uriaşă din fiecare coltişor al sălii păstra aparenţa, doar aparenţa că prezentatorul este ascultat cu mare băgare de seamă. El trecea de la o idee la alta fără a face vreo legătură între ele, fără să păstreze un anume curs al discursului, fără să dea posibilitatea nimanui să se concentreze mai bine la un anumit lucru. Fiindcă atunci când spui o mie de lucruri fără cap şi fără coadă, fără o legătură logică între ele, oamenii doar te ascultă, dar nu te şi înţeleg.

Indicatorii de impact care declanşează o serie de aşteptări celorlalte persoane sunt măsuraţi prin intermediul caracterizării pe care o faci transformării tale produse în timpul propriei experienţe de conducere.

Indicatori precum: Energia investită într-o formă de câştig sau în popularitate. Venitul și capacitatea acestuia de a asigura satisfacerea adecvată a tuturor trebuințelor individuale. Volumul tău de obligaţii cu impact social pozitiv. Riscul asumat pentru libertatea de expresie. Mulţumirea de sine într-un context de viaţă în care domină regulile unei arte sau a unui curent artistic. Sentimentul puternic de optimism pe care îl dăruieşti cu riscul propriei banalizări.

Leadership: Îţi permiţi să pui accentul pe împărtăşirea unei experienţe perceptive particulare care nu e întotdeauna relevantă în contextul unei legi de evoluţie care modifică viziunea asupra lumii sau asupra unui anumit domeniu de activitate?

O simplă căutare pe google mi-a confirmat bănuiala. Ei bine, susţinătorul acelei prezentări avea intr-adevar o experienţă îndelungată în câmpul muncii - asul lui din mânecă. Problema e că nu deţinea o funcţie importantă de conducere, nu publicase în întreaga lui carieră nici măcar un singur articol referitor la leadership, nu avea o carte scrisă despre leadership. Nimic, nu avea nimic palpabil care să confirme experienţa sau cunoştinţele sale în domeniul conducerii.

Nu-i de mirare că prezentarea lui a fost un eşec total, rezumată la câteva idei fantastice, precum, citez: "Pentru mine leadershipul înseamnă să fiu fericit, să fiu alături de familia mea, să mă uit la televizor ca să fiu la curent cu noutăţile şi să-mi ajut colegii de muncă" - idei corelate în cel mai ciudat mod posibil cu leadershipul.

Hai să fim cinstiţi şi să recunoaştem. Nu trebuie să deţii niciun fel de experienţă sau cunostinţe de leadership ca să spui astfel de lucruri "extraordinare". Nici nu-i de mirare că tot mai mulţi indivizi ajung să dea lecţii, să emită numeroase judecăţi şi să ofere cât mai multe opinii legate de leadership. Mai rău e că nu reuşesc să scrie niciodata nimic despre ceea ce ştiu.

Adevăraţii experţi îşi exprimă leadershipul sub formă de legi sau principii.

Trebuie sa fie înţeles un lucru foarte bine. Simplul fapt că cineva deţine o experienţă practică îndelungată, nu înseamnă că are aptitudini de lider şi cunoştinţe de leadership. Clar.

Un adevărat profesionist are sute de articole, numeroase cărţi scrise pe această temă. Cum reuseste? Ei bine, el are cunostinţe solide. Ai posibilitatea să-ţi faci o idee despre ceea ce ştie, şi dacă merită sau nu să mergi la un curs susţinut de el, prin simpla accesare a blogului său personal. Dacă nu-ţi plac temele pe care el le abordează acolo, n-o să-ţi placă nici prezentările lui, fii sigur de asta.

Iar dacă nu-ţi formezi o idee despre ce anume ştie el, dacă omul nu are un blog, articole, cărţi scrise, etc, te vei risca să scoţi din buzunar câteva zeci, sau chiar sute de euro pentru a-l asculta la o conferinţă? Cineva a remarcat bine pe web: "O grămadă de specialisti apar ca ciupercile după ploaie…" . Ţine cont de lucrul acesta.

Valoarea ta, ca lider, rezultă din puterea influenţei tale, care la rândul ei rezultă din principiile pe care ţi le-ai însuşit de-a lungul timpului. Iar aceste principii, la rândul lor, reflectă nivelul leadershipului tău. Cu cât ştii mai multe despre leadership, cu atât este mai probabil să susţii şi o prezentare mai energică şi mai plină de inspiraţie. Pe de altă parte, cu cât ai mai puţine cunoştinţe, cu atât prezentarea ta va fi mai searbădă, lipsită de acea scânteie capabilă să aprindă în inimile oamenilor flacăra entuziasmului.

Leadershipul este valoarea acordată propriei persoane în prezentarea pe care o realizezi privind reflectarea corectă a realităţii care te-a înzestrat cu aptitudinii deosebite.

Un leadership lipsit de strălucire desemnează acea abordare deloc orientată spre calitate, prea puţin creativă sau prea puţin dezvoltată, pe care pun accentul unii lideri în încercarea lor de a se raporta la aşteptările şi nevoile oamenilor. Desemnează ineficacitatea ansamblului lor de cunoştinţe care constituie esenţa leadershipului lor.

Oamenii te judecă dupa ceea ce eşti şi după ceea ce ştii, după felul în care îţi exprimi punctele de vedere vizavi de modul în care înţelegi şi abordezi leadershipul. Reflectează mai mult asupra punctului tău de vedere în ceea ce priveşte calitatea leadershipului tău, înainte să-l promovezi. Şi evită să te pierzi în iluzia unei realităţi care nu corespunde aşteptărilor celorlalţi.

Un lider cu autoritate

Felul în care creezi schimbarea determină cât de departe vor ajunge cei ce te urmează.

Dacă ai văzut filmul " Masca lui Zorro (1998) ", precis îţi aduci aminte de Alejandro, tânărul recalcitrant care dorea cu orice preţ să răzbune moartea fratelui său. N-ar fi putut însă niciodată să-şi atingă scopul dacă nu l-ar fi întâlnit pe Don Diego de la Vega (Zorro).

Zorro a apărut în viaţa lui Alejandro exact la momentul potrivit şi l-a îndrumat în formarea sa; l-a învăţat să lupte şi cum să se comporte în societate, cum să îşi clădească o faimă de invidiat şi cum să fie iubit de oameni. În final, Alejandro ajunge să îi ia locul lui Don Diego de la Vega şi devine el însuşi noul erou al oamenilor, noul Zorro.

Leadership: Atitudinea pe care o ai faţă de tine însuţi, datoria faţă de lume şi răbdarea pe care o ai faţă de un străin, pot să determine viitorul performanţei unui nou mod de gândire?

Ai găsit o persoană pe care s-o instruieşti după chipul şi asemănarea ta, căreia să-i dezvolţi întreaga compunere a devenirii sale într-o formă elegantă, severă, ştiinţifică şi spirituală, ca temei al filosofiei care tratează "împăcarea antagonismelor"?

Nu cred că mă înşel când afirm că nimeni nu reuşeşte de unul singur să facă faţă unor provocări serioase. Odată ce ai ajuns într-o funcţie de conducere, fără îndoială va trebui să transmiţi cunoştinţele şi experienţa acumulate de-a lungul timpului unei alte persoane care are nevoie de ele, pentru ca la rândul ei să-şi poată atinge scopurile şi să poată ajunge la un nivel la fel de înalt ca tine. Rolul tău este să o aduci pe acea persoană până în punctul în care să-ţi poată lua locul atunci când nu vei mai "funcţiona" la capacitate maximă.

Într-un cuvânt, va trebui să devii un maestru care să "antreneze" persoană cea mai potrivită şi s-o mobilizeze într-o direcţie constructivă. Să o aduci până în punctul în care să te poată înlocui, continuându-ţi munca. A avea puterea de a-l face pe altul mai bun decât tine, mai priceput într-un domeniu, mai abil în a-şi juca rolul de conducător în cadrul companiei, este ceea ce îţi conferă valoare şi te transformă într-un mentor desăvârşit. Totodată este important să-i recunoşti meritele astfel încât el să se simtă valoros şi să muncească mai bine.

Leadershipul prin exemplu este o modificare a atitudinii faţă de tine însuţi în faţa statorniciei şi răbdării faţă de cineva cu vederi mai înguste, din care răzbate performanţa unui mod de gândire original.

Leadership: Ceea ce simţi şi înveţi de la oameni, poate deveni o experienţă definitorie pentru judecata şi înţelegerea unor explorări asupra extremelor credulității umane?

Cultivi în oameni acel simţ aparte care le permite să-şi desăvârşească potenţialul? Sau îţi arăţi perfecţiunea în a transmite o anumită credulitate care face apel la tendinţa oamenilor de a fi conduşi şi exploataţi?

Ai grijă cum conduci, credulitatea are o limită care se numeşte răzvrătire. Alejandro a fost aproape tot timpul pe punctul de a împotrivi deciziilor lui Don Diego de la Vega.

Aşa cum un maestru în arta şahului îşi pregăteşte şah-matul cu o iscusinţă aparte încă de la începerea partidei, tot aşa şi tu, în relaţia cu oamenii trebuie să te concentrezi încă de la început în a observa particularităţile lor. Şi în funcţie de „pachetul" lor de talent şi de calitatea aptitudinilor lor, să le cultivi acel simţ aparte care să le permită să-şi desăvârşească potenţialul.

Un simţ al datoriei faţă de ceva mai presus de ei, faţă de drumurile pe care păşesc numai cei cu adevărat virtuoşi, pregătiţi să câştige confruntarea dintre o viaţă plină de primejdii şi binecuvântarea deplină a puterii.

Leadership: Îţi analizezi parcursul pe care îl urmezi din ipostaza persoanei care ai devenit într-un punct în care ţi se cam închid uşile spre ceea ce visai să atingi?

A avea autoritate înseamnă să te impui, să te faci ascultat, să fii stăpân pe situaţie. Tu stabileşti regulile şi iei toate deciziile, de la tine pleacă totul. Dar asta nu înseamnă nicidecum că trebuie să abuzezi de funcţia pe care o ai. Trebuie să cauţi în permanenţă căi de a inspira încredere celui care doreşti să te urmeze şi să-l ajuţi să-şi şlefuiască talentul.

Ţine minte că atunci când apare o criză el trebuie să fie omul potrivit care să se ocupe de situaţie, să găsească soluţii optime de rezolvare a problemelor în locul tău, de aceea este imperios necesar să-l încurajezi să-şi dezvolte aptitudinile de care are nevoie pentru a se putea descurca în orice fel de situaţii, în orice fel de condiţii.

Potenţialul tău de lider se reflectă în capacitatea de a căuta cu orice preţ o împăcare între punctul de sprijin al unei satisfacţii morale şi acele alternări ale momentelor dureroase în care aspiraţia de echitate, justiţie, eleganţă, fair-play, colaborare vor începe să se exprime profund în schimbările sociale, fiind facilitate uneori de poziţia "învins".

Cineva spunea: "Ceea ce pare la un moment dat greu, devine brusc foarte uşor dacă ai lângă tine o persoană care te îndrumă şi care îşi dă tot interesul să te cizeleze." Asta este şi ceea ce trebuie să faci tu: să-l ajuţi pe ucenicul tău să-şi dezvolte potenţialul, astfel încât lucrurile să i se pară cât mai uşor de realizat. Ajută-l să devină cât mai competent pentru ca el să poată face faţă cu succes noii funcţii de răspundere.

Leadershipul este simţul datoriei pe care îl câştigi atunci când începi să investeşti din acele resurse pe care nu ai ştiut niciodată că le ai, sub aspectul contextului general al cauzei pe care o slujeşti spre îndreptarea unui drum pe care îl vezi fără întoarcere.

Un lider cu autoritate se ghidează dupa formula: felul în care creezi schimbarea determină cât de departe vor ajunge cei ce te urmează.

Un loc în care spaţiul nu există (II)

Încearcă să duci un fenomen complicat la un nivel de însemnătate, preluând controlul asupra a ceea ce nu poate fi exprimat decât printr-o negaţie.

Momentul tainic în care am devenit conştient de puterea mea de despicare a lumii „reale” în „ideale”, cu repeziciunea unei scântei întâmplătoare de genialitate, survenise în încercarea de personalizare a adevărului de dincolo de neant. În jurul unui nucleu de năzuinţă spre dăinuire.

Cheia întregii şarade era însăşi esenţa de subiectivism care domina experienţa de cunoaştere a timpului şi spaţiului, prinsă de relativismul unei minţi care se juca suveran cu adevăruri când grave, când facile, dar păstrând întotdeauna măsura unei credinţe în Dumnezeu.

Aparent, trăiam într-o atitudine de suverană detaşare faţă de moartea unei vieţi şi înlocuirea ei cu o alta, dominat de pulsaţii pornite din cămările secrete ale fiinţei mele pline de un gol infinit. Cred că acesta era trofeul umilinţei faţă de aşa-zisa mea unitate.

Era ca şi cum ar fi trebuit să scot dintr-o fântână seacă 100 de litri de apă, şi neavând cum, trebuia să improvizez o reţea de apă curentă dintr-o altă sursă de alimentare care funcţionează doar prin puterea credinţei. Realitatea nu este un simbol al unităţii şi eternităţii, ci un semn vizibil al prezenţei lui Dumnezeu într-o creaţie extinsă pe o durată nelimitată.

Leadership: Cum se reflectă personalitatea ta în sfera unei realităţi lipsită de o semnificaţie profundă, dar care te împlineşte din punct de vedere a ceea ce ea poate să devină?

Dar o îndelungată experienţă în căutarea Misteriosului Magic îl poate îndepărta pe om de realitate, întorcându-l decisiv – în felul cum o stâncă poate fi dominată cu privirea de dincolo de "tablou", către o sceptică analiză de sine însuşi. Stânca maiestuoasă, ce nu poate fi atinsă decât după regulile unei lumi care ar putea fi cea viitoare, urcând mereu spre ciudatele valuri ale irealului, devine începutul unui proces de transformare a gândirii şi fiinţei în mersul ei spre noi creaţii.

Misteriosul Magic, în clipa când îţi închipui o realizare de dincolo de posibil, poate fi de felul unei opere de artă care ascunde detalii pe care pictorul nu a mai vrut să le înfăţişeze, sau de felul unui mecanism constrângător care leagă imaginea cuvântului de emoţia unei taince destăinuiri făcută departe de ochii lumi.

Realitatea acestei simbolizări speciale, desemnând o realitatea vagă, cu limite neclare și cu un conținut imprecis definit, pare lipsită de o semnificaţie profundă, dar te împlineşte prin faptul că devine începutul unui proces nesfârşit de reflecţie.

Leadership: Cu ce trebuie umplut spaţiul dintre ceea ce cunoşti şi ceea ce nu cunoşti, punând în paranteză atributul unei realităţi secunde, astfel încât să acorzi trăsături originale universului care te reprezintă?

Simţeam puternic atracţia unei schimbări care se manifesta prin gândire, dar aşa cum gândeşte cineva la ceva mai adânc, într-un crescendo al curiozităţii măsurate doar de elanul unei aspiraţii demne de Marion Bradley, trezit ca dintr-un vis revelator de vraja perfecţiunii creative. Vizibilul era conectat cu invizibilul în multe feluri.

La un moment dat, m-am trezit singur în Casa Viitorului, construită de Robert A. Heinlein. Odată ce intri în ea ajungi literalmente într-un vid infinit. Încerci să priveşti afară... nimic. Absolut nimic. Ce culoare are nimicul? Ce formă are? Forma este atributul a ceva. Dar aici nu există nici dimensiune, nici formă. Nici măcar negrul ca tenebrele. Este nimic. Un loc în care spaţiul nu există.

Realitatea care mă făcea să mă întreb cărei lumi aparţin era un fel de existenţă pe care nu o percepeam decât cu spiritul, cu Ego-ul care cerea disperat o punte de legătură între simbolurile unei idei abstracte, simbolurile unei vieţi interioare şi simbolurile unei lumi neterminate.

Spaţiul dintre ceea ce cunoşteam şi ceea ce nu cunoşteam, punând în paranteză atributul unei realităţi secunde (acela de identificare a cauzelor şi efectelor unor trăiri mai profunde), trebuia umplut cu elemente diferite de reflecţie, precum: timpul ireversibil, soarta nestatornică, zădărnicia tuturor acţiunilor omeneşti, viaţa ca iluzie, moartea atotstăpânitoare, etc.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi schimbi perspectiva asupra realităţii prin intermediul percepţiei asupra a ceea ce nu poate fi înţeles şi controlat în totalitate, folosind ca mijloc probator ştiinţa simbolizării?

Vidul, spaţiu în care nu există nimic, nicio formă de materie, nu este cumva o noţiune abstractă care aduce o controversă cu privire la cunoştinţele tale? Totuşi, vidul poate fi examinat printr-o delimitare de ceea ce constituie o impresie de moment, în condiţii determinate de interesul extinderii capacităţilor de percepţie asupra a ceea ce nu poate fi înţeles şi controlat în totalitate.

Vidul nu este o realitate fizică sau abstractizată, ci este o resursă inepuizabilă de interpretare a anumitor puncte de vedere dintr-un unghi sensibil. Vidul capătă însemnătate prin diversele interpretări care i se dau, deci nu trebuie localizat doar la nivel material, ci mai cu seamă la nivel de simbolizare. Da, vidul este o lipsă de conținut, dar la nivel de simbol el poate desemna goliciunea spirituală, liniştea uitării peste nesfârşita suferinţă, dulcea otravă a opiului, etc.

Ceea ce rămâne de definit după ce-ai folosit tot ce-ai învăţat de-a lungul timpului, conţinând la început doar o negaţie a ceea ce urmează să fundamentezi, este o aproximaţie a unei dimensiuni privind un fenomen a cărui excepţionalitate şi chiar singularitate poate fi exprimat ca un simbol sau ca o referinţă de neocolit care indică o nouă orientare.

Fantezia se alătură ştiinţei în încercarea de personalizare a adevărului de dincolo de neant, ca un model de gândire dezvoltat în interacţiune cu o abordare asupra a ceea ce nu poate fi exprimat. Dacă o statuie are drept obiect imitarea cât mai îndeaproape a unui subiect uman adevărat, atunci cunoaşterea ştiinţifică porneşte de la premisa că nu există nimic în care să crezi.

Marea ştiinţă se găseşte în golurile pe care nu le cunoşti. Sau, mai bine zis, ea este rezultatul a ceea ce obţii după ce-ai înfruntat un spaţiul gol, un cadru în care legile pe care se întemeiază convingerea şi credibilitatea iau o formă particulară.

A oferi continuitate ştiinţei într-un câmp de căutare a răspunsurilor la misterele vieţii, ale lumii şi universului, înseamnă să evoluezi cu ajutorul unui proces de transformare a gândirii spre o înţelegere superioară care îşi găseşte posibilităţile de creaţie în ceea ce nu se poate cerne sau explica.

Un loc în care spaţiul nu există este acel „ceva" rămas nelămurit într-un fel sau altul. Dar el devine o forţă evaluată prin efectele ei în afara a ceea ce nu poate fi aflat, deci prin efectele ei asupra cunoaşterii induse de un anumit grad de incertitudine.

Un om al creaţiei reuşeşte să ridice în faţa ştiinţei o nouă „Scară a lui Iacob", având două speţe de putere - una prin care încearcă să reconstituie un fenomen aparte şi să-l ducă până la o valoare de însemnătate, cealaltă prin care îşi anulează decizia de validare a ceea ce crede.

Versurile poetului francez Guillaume Apollinaire rămân sută la sută geniale: „ Acolo-s focuri noi şi culori nemaivăzute, mii de vedenii uşoare ca visul care cer întruchipare. " Vidul nu reprezintă nimic atâta timp cât este perceput ca o entitate existentă prin sine. Dar el capătă valenţe extinse atunci când îi este atribuit un înţeles prin interpretare.

Tranziţiile de fază ale vidului semnalează încercările succesive prin care încerci să duci un fenomen complicat la un nivel de însemnătate, preluând controlul asupra a ceea ce nu poate fi exprimat decât printr-o negaţie: „Nu ştiu".

Dacă vrei ca ştiinţa ta să capete valoarea unei surse nesecate de revelaţie şi creaţie, trebuie să porneşti doar cu o anume încredinţare fără să ştii dinainte unde ai să ajungi.

Un loc în care spaţiul nu există (I)

Dezvoltă-ţi puterea de imaginaţie specifică Creatorului, axându-te pe ideea de a fi complet chiar şi în afara spaţiului de raţionalitate admis de propria ta conştiinţă.

Inteligenţa nu-mi mai era legănată decât de înflăcărarea cu care încercam să dau naştere unor noi reprezentări ale realităţii. Încetul cu încetul, viaţa se transformase într-un permanent joc de autoapărare în faţa grelelor întrebări care se ridicau fără răspuns la fiecare pas. Incitant. Păream să fac parte din romanticul vis al unei spiritualităţi universale, prin coordonarea progresivă a experienţei de migraţie spre un stabiliment al ficţiunii - cu invizibilele ei tentacule înfăşurate în jurul raţiunii, care s-ar fi putut dovedi de atâtea ori otrăvitoare. Fapt ce îmi permitea să obţin o anumită autonomie faţă de ştiinţă. Dar una relativ limitată.

Un fel de ieşire la adevăr a omului care face un salt plin de avânt spre drumul care-l aduce de la sine înapoi în locul de unde plecase. Ce să fie? Un miraj? Căci o răvăşire a spiritului străbătut de înţelesuri care scapă distincţiei dintre adevăr şi simbol se dezvăluie doar prin pătrunderea într-o lume paralelă, printr-o anulare temporară a timpului, alcătuind miezul unui vârtej capabil să-l absoarbă şi să-l desfiinţeze.

Ceea ce rămânea dupa investigarea analogiilor între lucruri, fenomene şi senzaţii, între teorii şi aplicaţii practice, era propria mea poveste, trăită nemijlocit într-un cadru diferit - între mori de vânt mişcătoare, una autoindusă de creierul în care zvâcneau toate fibrele şi căutau o eliberare, accelerând brutal activitatea neuronilor până aproape de limita imposibilului. Eram ţintuit într-un loc în care spaţiul nu există.

Leadership: Îţi manifeşti interesul pentru aprofundarea unei realităţi mai presus de aprecierea ta, spre dobândirea unui nou mijloc de exprimare a unui adevăr interior pe care îl parcurge numai un artist în ascensiunea creaţiei sale?

Tot regăsindu-mă printre înţelesuri în auzitul crescând al înfioratului dor de viaţă, m-am trezit brusc închis într-un absolut al neantului, cuprins în sufletul unei lumi imateriale - devenită o amintire care se insinua pe oriunde treceam. Asemenea unui căutător de comori care se angajează pe un drum riscant, dar provocator, şi ajunge într-un final să se integreze într-un vis care nu prea mai există.

Cumva, eram fascinat de aceeaşi frumoasă himeră care umplea viziunile lui Cyrano de Bergerac despre celelalte lumi, cum că în afară de suflet şi spirit ar mai exista o a treia substanţă intelectuală, având funcţii şi organe proprii. Dar pentru a inhala un gram din această substanţă trebuia să mă las călăuzit de natura experienței perceptive. Şi să mă acomodez cu puterea sugestibilităţii.

Cel mai important adevăr interior pe care îl parcurge un artist în ascensiunea creaţiei sale este următorul: ceea ce trăieşti pe parcusul căutării unor răspunsuri referitoare la transformarea lumii pe care vrei s-o înţelegi şi în care vrei să fii înţeles, depinde de felul cum reacţionezi la eventuala corectare a unei creaţii şchioape sau neterminate.

Această creaţie se numeşte reprezentativ "Obscure Limited", fiindcă în încercarea de a-ţi testa limitele minţii, ca şi cele mai profunde temeri referitoare la adoptarea unor perspective noi asupra realităţii, punându-ţi întrebări asupra rolului imaginarului în conturarea acesteia, ţi se pare că străbaţi un teritoriu restrâns de acţiune unde nu prea ai posibilitatea de a schimba ceva, o lege sau vreun principiu.

Cel mai uşor, exprimarea adevărurilor interioare se poate realiza prin trăirile de extaz în faţa a tot ceea ce există fără să pui nimic în loc, prin intermediul imaginaţiei care filtrează din realitate spectaculosul, ineditul şi plasticitatea unor imagini memorabile.

Leadership: Decorul în care trebuie să te integrezi de minune este creat în aşa fel încât să poţi contura existenţa unui model unic de expunere a unei teme de reflecţie asupra relaţiei dintre "Originalitate şi Diversitate"?

Tranziţia ta spre o etapă deplină a cunoaşterii începe printr-un sacrificiu. Printr-o ieşire din sine şi din limitele obişnuitului. Chiar dacă asta poate echivala cu o rătăcire. Comparaţia cu această rătăcire poate fi întregită prin ipoteze şi consideraţii speciale asupra realităţii experimentate înscrise într-un cadru de analiză a filosofiei minţii, cu posibilitatea de prelungire a înţelegerii lumii sau a anumitor fenomene necunoscute, dar care să nu obstrucţioneze fantezia şi acţiunea.

În ceea ce priveşte leadershipul, reprezentat de psihologia şi viziunea unei persoane particulare, esenţialul nu este de a călca pe urmele altor predecesori care s-au înecat la mal în căutarea răspunsurilor ce ar fi putut să-i ajute la înţelegerea evoluţiei şi cunoaşterii lumii. Ci trebuie să mergi pe urmele proprii şi să eviţi cărările altora. Asta înseamnă să fii original.

Decorul în care trebuie să te integrezi de minune pentru reuşi dezvoltarea unei înţelegeri mai nuanţate şi mai adânci asupra lumii pe care ţi-o creezi şi o experimentezi trebuie să fie rezultatul unei acumulări, al unor căutări de informaţii şi răspunsuri. Iar fiecare element adăugat în plus gândului pur trebuie să fie un ideal de adevăr care transcede totul, mergând către absolut.

Leadershipul se pliază perfect pe ceea ce încerci să realizezi în deplina libertate de a fi acolo unde nu a ajuns nimeni, în termenii descoperirii unui adevăr care schimbă ceva din rostul unei lumi.

Puterea ta de creator este notabilă prin faptul că generezi un echilibru între ceea ce vrei şi ceea ce poţi, dintre real şi ideal, fundamentând judecăţi de valoare prin care se derivă cunoştinţe noi din cunoştinţe vechi. Puterea de imaginaţie specifică Creatorului constă în transformarea unui ideal din realitate în ficţiune, în aşa fel încât spaţiul creat din această nouă perspectivă să capete proporţii şi să se extindă, chiar dacă în final pare că ai de-a face doar cu o iluzie.

Omul care are conştiinţa originalităţii ideii şi a concepţiei de schimbare, legănându-şi inteligenţa de înflăcărarea cu care încearcă să dea naştere unor noi reprezentări ale lumii, ale realităţii şi ale ipoteticului, înaintează întotdeauna pe o potecă pavată cu noi perspective de interpretare a experienţelor şi trăirilor derulate zilnic.

A fi original înseamnă să renunţi la a avea dreptate în ceea ce priveşte limitele care marchează trecerea de la o realitate la alta. Înseamnă să identifici un cadru alternativ de reprezentare a lumii şi a realităţii prin care să te redefineşti. Ci nefiind un copist, un imitator orb al unor tipare de gândire, de percepţie şi de acţiune, vei fi obligat să treci dincolo de cunoscuta potecă pentru a străbate drumuri neexplorate.

Legătura dintre originalitate şi diversitate este dată de viziunea pe care ţi-o creezi despre o realitate în care adevărurile nu sunt numai îndoielnice, dar provoacă chiar dispute, prin analogie cu o lume care îţi impune anumite reguli pe care nu ai voie să le pui sub semnul întrebării şi pe care trebuie să ţi le însuşeşti.

Un loc în care spaţiul nu există desemnează acea ieşire din cursul natural al dezvoltării, virila asumare a riscului de a te pierde în labirintul misterios al înţelesurilor care pot să sporească rezonanţa a ceea ce înseamnă să fii vizionar.

Un Matrix Al Lumii Poetice

Construieşte-ţi un nou orizont despre ceea ce eşti şi ceea ce mereu vei fi, reprezentându-ţi poziţia faţă de lume ca o persoană obişnuită eliberată din capcana unei existenţe marcate de inerţie.

Mă gândeam la o întoarcere către un timp pe care nu l-am cunoscut niciodată, dar pe care mi l-am imaginat întotdeauna grandios, incendiar, plin de inspiraţie. Într-o oarecare măsură datorită nevoii de a-mi însuşi învăţătura cea mai folositoare şi ştiinţa cea mai înaltă, deoarece rămăsesem cu adevărat dator mie însumi să-mi depăşesc complexele şi neputinţele. Dar cheia muncii de schimbare se putea reiniţializa numai după o scurtă suspendare a prezentului, contribuind concret la refacerea unei punţi peste real.

Însoţit de convingerea electrizantă că scânteia de inspiraţie închisă în mine poate să aprindă focul cel mai puternic, am început să cred tot mai mult în logica şi raţiunea mea. Care însă erau necristalizate într-un sistem de expunere a realităţii care să poată fi utilizat pentru însuşirea, aprofundarea şi recapitularea cunoştinţelor trebuincioase devenirii mele.

Iar acest foc, puternic, nu avea decât un singur obiectiv: să pătrundă în inima materiei pentru a extrage, realizând o operaţie dureroasă, măduva substanţială, culoarea noii versiuni a realităţii, prin deschiderea ferestrei timpului. Focul este o poartă de integrare într-un imaginar recreat, o formă de exprimare prin desen şi literatură, cu accent pe scrisul de mână, sugerând intensitatea şi culoarea profundă cu care arde combustibilul numit "revelaţie".

O incursiune într-un imaginar straniu şi confuz, structurat după legi de funcţionare proprii şi aparte, avea să mă scoată din rutina cu care m-am obişnuit, stârnindu-mi dorinţa de a traversa acel segment temporar al nemulţumirii faţă de propriile rezultate nesatisfăcătoare. Reintegrând totodată culoarea vie a timpului într-o singură formă, pe o singură suprafaţă de referinţă.

Leadership: Cum se reflectă personalitatea ta în sfera unei realităţi cu o largă semnificaţie profundă, dar care nu te împlineşte din punct de vedere a ceea ce eşti în stare să concepi ca posibilitate de reprezentare credibilă a vieţii lăuntrice?

Dar în loc să descui poarta timpului, am ajuns prizonierul lui. Simţeam că sunt încuiat într-un loop temporar, sufocat de un noian de întrebări dificile, de paradoxuri, ambiguităţi şi decalaje între semnificaţie şi sens. Scăpări de înţelegere a cauzelor şi efectelor. Distanţarea tendinţelor vechi de cele existente care diferenţiau atât de tare cele două regiuni ale zonei transfrontaliere vizate. Ceea ce trezea o teamă nejustificată de tipul " cine mă poate oare salva? "

Trăiam cu rezultatele unui experiment de accelerare a neobişnuitului prin absolutizarea unei experienţe de navigare într-un soi de Matrix, într-o lume iluzorie, într-un spaţiu ficţional. Care în loc să revoluţioneze îndată modul în care vedeam lumea, mai mult reducea energia de activare a reacţiei de orientare. Mai mult îmi avaria posibilitatea de a cuprinde în chip pozitiv misterele lumii între firele unei reprezentări viabile.

Matrix, ca ecou al gândurilor, este o realitate cu o largă semnificaţie profundă deoarece furnizează coordonatele unei forme de manifestare a Egoului: "mi-e frică de lucrurile fireşti". Privind lucrurile din acest punct de vedere, al omului care ştie că a dat greş în încercarea de a resuscita o gândire avansată şi de a duce până la capăt o idee stranie, pot spune că focul a scăpat de sub control şi a mistuit în mare parte Ego-ul încordat de dorinţă şi speranţă.

Cumva, personalitatea mea părea să se reflecte ca o tainică îmbrăţişare a unei psihologii înşelătoare, asupra condiţiei de nemuritor într-o lume care funcționează după propriile legi, incompatibile cu cele ale lumii reale. Într-o singură clipă am înţeles totul. Am învăţat că pot să mă agăţ de iluzii, aproape ca o plutire prin secvenţe spaţiale, comune scriitorilor şi oamenilor de ştiinţă. Dar trebuia să evit să se folosească ele de mine.

Leadership: Poţi să realizezi o expunere a unei realităţi de care mulţi nu ştiu prea multe, fără să depinzi de un loc care oricând se poate destrăma?

Rămâi dator ţie însuţi, cu adevărat, să-ţi depăşeşti complexele şi neputinţele? Cheia muncii de schimbare se poate reiniţializa numai după o scurtă suspendare a prezentului? În loc să descui poarta timpului, ai ajuns prizonierul lui? Trăieşti cu rezultatele unui experiment de accelerare a neobişnuitului?

A realiza o punte peste realitate înseamnă să-ţi fabrici temporar o altă lume, în care totul este posibil şi unde orice dorinţă poate fi îndeplinită. În termeni scriitoriceşti, asta înseamnă să experimentezi o "furie a cunoaşterii transcendentale" şi o "febră a inteligenţei creatoare".

Oricine se poate transforma într-un bloc de energie de creaţie concentrată, un super erou al experienţelor de influenţare a realului, care sparge cu uşurinţă îngustele prejudecăţi şi mecanisme de gândire nefondate pe o bază solidă de autenticitate şi adevăr. Însă omul excepţional, creatorul care ştie să-şi gestioneze propria identitate într-un mod desăvârşit, este acela care recunoaşte cât de mult datorează lui însuşi, propriei sale gândiri, înţelepciuni şi iscusinţe (de care este nevoit să ţină seama că să-şi reconsidere impresia, atitudinea, poziţia faţă de adevărurile naturii şi ştiinţei).

Ori să pătrunzi în inima materiei pentru a o extrage, lansând o nouă versiune a realităţii prin deschiderea ferestrei timpului, deci făcând apel la cunoaşterea totală, inaccesibilă minţilor obişnuite, înseamnă uneori să te descalifici în faţa obişnuitului şi familiarului unei linii de gândire. Înseamnă să părăseşti câmpul cunoaşterii acceptabile de majoritatea, să te îndepărtezi de standardul încadrat în segmentul cheie al vieţii: fericirea de a trăi clipa prezentă.

Felul cum te raportezi la două lumi, cea creată şi cea familiară, depinde de metafora cu care descrii realitatea pe care mulţi refuză să o accepte sau nu pot să o înţeleagă.

Conform dicţionarului, metafora este o figură de stil prin care se înlocuieşte o imagine obişnuită cu o alta mai expresivă pe baza unei comparaţii subînţelese. Prin metaforă se urmăreşte atât o descriere personală cât şi o interpretare unică a unor fapte, credinţe, idei. Ea generează o atitudine de aşteptare pozitivă, inspiră o abordare nouă a ficţiunii din perspectiva lumilor posibile şi intră în numele unui secol destinat marilor provocări şi viziuni.

Paulo Coelho a exprimat metaforic foarte bine un adevăr: " Priveşte toate minunile lumii, dar nu uita niciodată de cele două picături din linguriţă ." Adică, creează-ţi o imagine nouă despre aria de experienţă în care trăieşti şi te scufunzi cu privirea, dar să nu depinzi prea mult de "iluminarea" ei.

Lumea poate reprezenta un loc al gândirii de noi idei şi orizonturi, printr-o reconsiderare prealabilă a realităţii exterioare, dar totodată poate reprezenta un loc care oricând se poate destrăma dacă te pierzi în varietatea infinită a experienţelor de unificare a realului cu imaginarul. Ceea ce garantează unicitatea unui sciitor, dincolo de rândurile în care îşi exprimă liber trăirile, este similitudinea dintre "lumea de jos" şi "lumea de sus".

Ficţiunea este arma Universului împotriva căreia nicio forţă militară mondială nu se poate împotrivi, dar pe care puţini o pot stăpâni pentru a schimba coordonatele acestei lumi.

Scriitorul este servitorul revelaţiei încadrată într-un tablou virtual. Premisele elementare ale profunzimii în relieful acestui tablou, născut din opoziţia formă-fond, trăire-visare, sunt următoarele:

Lumea poetică este o lecţie scriitoricească de leadership care ne ajută să înţelegem mai bine următoarea constatare:

A privi dincolo de acel orizont pe care îl ai "by default" echivalează cu acceptarea necondiţionată a unei noi imagini despre sine cu referire la o fiinţă supratemporală şi supramaterială, investită cu caracteristici ce depăşesc orice imaginaţie.

Un Matrix Al Lumii Poetice este o sumă a viziunilor, miracolelor, a viselor şi a poveştilor fără sfârşit, care îndeplinesc funcţia de "producător" al unei realităţi mai vaste, dar greu de acceptat pentru minţile mărginite de prevederile prezentului care „niciodată nu este destul de bun”.

Un memento al omului destinat lui însuşi

Fii expresia experienţei de a avea propria lume, înainte să poți controla o serie de idei cu curgere liberă, fără limitări.

Am ajuns acasă, mi-am făcut ceva de mâncare. Eram pe punctul de a-mi exersa skillurile de gătit, când deodată am zărit pe o farfurie de alături doi ciorchini de struguri cu boabe din acelea mari, gustoşi, suculenţi, aromaţi, fragezi. Propunerea aceasta, venită din partea unui gust mai atrăgător, apetisant, pronunţat, a fost mai convenabilă decât alternativa unui hamburger făcut la repezeală, totuşi destul de bogat în carne, deci având un conţinut relativ de proteine, binevenit pentru un atlet de cursă lungă.

Priveam strugurii cu nesaţ, măsurându-i din priviri cu poftă, după însuririle dorinţei atipice de a gusta dintr-o experienţă unică, mai dulce, mai suavă, mai liniştitoare, chiar dacă această experienţă de a-mi potoli foamea semăna destul de bine cu posibilitatea de a gusta dintr-o sursă semnificativă de fructoză și glucoză, adică zaharuri ușor de asimilat de către organism care pot fi ușor transformate în grăsime.

Aşadar, am avut de ales între un hamburger cu cartofi prăjiţi şi un fruct cu un conținut bogat în vitamine, minerale, antioxidanți polifenolici. De asemenea, nu am încercat să trag concluzii pripite, să atribui cauzalitatea unor lucruri care n-au nicio legătură cu prezenţa mea într-un spaţiu multifuncţional, ci am încercat să simt doar acea rupere de lumea cotidiană, şi să o amplific până la a se transforma în fericire, să simt acea libertate pe care nu ţi-o dă decât sentimentul de voie bună şi libertate absolută.

Am ales strugurii, evident. Nu ştiu de ce, poate din cauza lenei de a mai găti la ore târzii, sau poate din cauza dorinţei de a mă simţi mai plin de energie, deoarece zaharurile conținute de fructe, în general, conferă energia necesară organismului în mod natural. Tot atunci, mi-a venit ideea să găsesc, ca fapt justificativ, reţeta unui preparat trecut de mine în lista experimentelor culinare, să slujesc cu folos unui mic artificiu bucătăresc, ba mai mult, să născocesc alte reţete, alte probe de îndemânare cărora să le dau numele meu şi, astfel, să-mi simt numele impregnat în gustul unei trufandale descoperite întâmplător.

Leadership: Atitudinea ta poziţionată într-o direcţie stimulativă este o încercare de a depăşi orice limitare a ideii de cauzalitate obiectivă pe toată durata experienţei de a exista ca fiinţă ce-şi doreşte să afle mai multe despre sine?

Bineînţeles, trebuie să reflectezi la orice mic aspect al cauzei care te provoacă la gândire. La un moment dat, mi-am spus că un gust mai bun decât altele nu mă face să mă simt un altul, mai bun sau mai rău, ori mai diferit de ceilalţi oameni. Sunt acelaşi eu, doar puţin mai îndulcit de un gust natural.

Şi cred că aici voiam să ajung, în lumina unei taine care şi-a creat efectul la prima săvârşire. Orice gust depinde de o simţire pe care o cunoşti doar trăind-o personal, pe care o poţi umple apoi cu un conţinut reprezentativ de gândire, aflat la îndemână, şi care te detaşează de toate noțiunile referitoare la identitățile tale anterioare, de amintirile pe care ţi le procură sentimentul de "acasă".

La urma urmei, poate că actul de a gândi este asemănător cu abilitatea de a gusta dintr-un strugure la ore târzii: se exprimă prin modalităţile extrem de variate de a face posibilă legătura dintre ceea ce se petrece în interiorul tău și ceea te lasă cu un gust dulce (foarte important pentru calmarea și întărirea Qi-ului și sângelui).

Iar dacă mi-aş dori să fiu mai bine înţeles, să simt acea încredere acordată cuvintelor mele, ca să pătrund mai uşor în spaţiul dintre momentele în care îmi pun gândurile în ordine, atunci aş încerca să gândesc mai mult în termeni de cooking: să-mi folosesc măiestria de a îmbina arome, gusturi și texturi, pentru a obţine o nouă nuanţă de bun gust, o senzaţie complet nouă de delicateţe şi rafinament.

A fi expresia experienţei de a avea propria lume înseamnă să recunoşti oportunitatea de a reflecta asupra unei situaţii de viaţă, în lumina feedbackului primit din partea propriei formaţiuni de reprezentare a unei realităţi percepută printr-o stare de suflet (sau prin imaginea a ceea ce eşti dincolo de toate aparenţele).

Rămâne ca tu să reflectezi asupra experienţei de a savura un moment de profundă satisfacţie, printr-un Remisthesyon , o conştientizare a nuanţelor şi multiplelor laturi ale construcţiei tale interioare, o aspiraţie spre sursele augmentate ale realităţii din care îţi sorbi tacit cuvintele, seninătatea, gândirea, energia pozitivă. Iar asta înseamnă să extragi semnificația înţelegerii şi a cunoașterii suprasensibile, operante, folositoare, din tot ceea ce ţi se întâmplă, din miezul trăirilor tale, din individualitatea ta, atunci când prepari ceva neobişnuit din ceva dulce.

Cu siguranţă vei simţi nevoia de iluminare a minţii în acord cu ideea de a folosi ceva ce nu i-ar da nimănui prin cap să utilizeze într-o astfel de rețetă de ingrediente simple: darul de a transforma o persoană căreia nu îi plăcea să stea în bucătărie într-o persoană pasionată de acel loc.

Un memento al omului destinat lui însuşi pune în prim plan consecinţa unei experienţe pe care a trăit-o prin natura ta într-un cadru îmbietor, într-un moment când nu ai avut resursele necesare să explorezi și alte explicaţii cu privire la ceea ce ţi se întâmplă sau la ce te înconjoară în viaţa reală.

Un memento al vremurilor demult apuse

Integrează în propria ta gândire marile învăţături ale ştiinţei, stabilind legătura între "credinţa într-o entitate superioară" şi ce se întâmplă în tine însuţi.

Reîntors la Chateau D'if, contele de Monte Cristo îngenunche pios înaintea rămăşiţelor patului din care moartea făcuse pentru el un altar. Abatele Faria fusese pentru el, în timpul detenţiei, ceea ce ştiinţa este pentru Dumnezeu înaintea universului.

- Tu, care mi-ai fost al doilea tată - spuse el - tu care mi-ai dat libertatea, ştiinţa, bogăţia, tu care, asemeni fiinţelor superioare nouă, aveai ştiinţa binelui şi a răului. Dacă în fundul mormântului mai rămâne ceva din noi ca să tresalte la glasul celor rămaşi pe pământ, dacă în schimbarea suferită de cadavru mai pluteşte ceva însufleţit prin locurile pe unde am iubit mult şi am suferit mult, inimă nobilă, spirit înalt, suflet adânc, te conjur, în numele dragostei părinteşti pe care mi-ai dăruit-o, şi al respectului de fiu pe care ţi l-am închinat, înlătură-mi prin vreun semn, prin vreo revelaţie oarecare, restul acesta de îndoială care, dacă nu se schimbă în convingere, va deveni remuşcare.

Paznicul îi întinse fâşiile de pânză pe care abatele Faria îşi revărsase toată comoara ştiinţei lui. Manuscrisul era marea lucrare a abatelui asupra regalităţii în Italia. Monte Cristo îl luă cu grabă şi ochii îi căzură mai întâi asupra inscripţiei de la început. El citi:

„ Vei smulge dinţii balaurului şi vei călca în picioare leii, zis-a Domnul ".

- Iată răspunsul ! Gândi contele. Îţi mulţumesc, tată, îţi mulţumesc ! *

Leadership: Îţi reglezi sentimentul valorii prin reluarea şi recontextualizarea tainelor superioare ale ştiinţei, punând în prim planul vieţii apropierea faţă de spirituale care se cer trăite şi înţelese prin întoarcerea ta la cele trecute, dar primordiale?

Taina superioară a ştiinţei constă în a şti ce să faci cu ce-ai învăţat, după ce-ai realizat cine eşti. Scriitorul român, Ion Moja, care a înţeles acest lucru, adăuga în acest sens: să fii în stare să învingi întunericul, vizualizând cât se poate de expresiv modul cum fluidul cunoaşterii învinge tainele şi dezvăluie lucrurile, prin suferinţă şi speranţă – două stări de spirit prin ale căror logodnă abia raţiunea ajunge înţelepciune.

Taina ştiinţei, aidoma unui organism care funcţionează prin contribuţia sistemelor sale, îşi consolidează proprietăţile prin trecerea de la imperfecţiune la perfecţiune, de la întuneric la lumină, sau metaforic vorbind, de la moarte la viaţă. Facem referire aici la conceptul esoteric „Trezirea omului adormit", pe care foarte puţine conştiinţe au ştiut să-l înţeleagă şi să-l stăpânească pentru a avea acces la o nouă deşteptare şi pentru a se regăsi în gândirea „Totului" - prin forţele motivate ale raţiunii care, la momentul oportun, impun facerea binelui şi evitarea răului. Ca să nu te cufunzi în mocirla remuşcărilor şi îndoielii, trebuie să reînvii permanent acea flacără care îţi încălzeşte sufletul.

A-ţi regla sentimentul valorii prin reluarea şi recontextualizarea tainelor superioare ale ştiinţei nu înseamnă să lupţi pentru o perfecţiune ce nu poate fi atinsă, ci să-ţi reduci cât mai mult posibil imperfecţiunile prin punerea în practică, prin modalităţi adecvate, a cunoştinţelor noi dobândite pe parcursul vieţii. Asta te face să vezi lumea dintr-o altă perspectivă.

Leadershipul, impus prin prezenţa unei entităţi umane superioare, dobândeşte semnificaţia revelării unei nou sens al existenţialităţii, cel al descoperirii lumii văzute diferit, prin prisma cunoaşterii mult mai cuprinzătoare. Într-un leadership avansat putem surprinde acea formă de manifestare a raţiunii care poate face posibilă cunoaşterea realităţii de dincolo de fiinţă, de dincolo de gratiile reci ale întunericului şi sentimentului de vulnerabilitate, prin trezirea şi expansiunea conştiinţei, care poate fi urmată de o mobilizare amplă pentru construcţia unei noi identităţi.

Leadership: Poţi să introduci în relaţia slujire-virtute un model de extensiune mentală aflat într-o configuraţie „multi-link" care să cuprindă şi să exprime un "înafară" dinspre interiorul fiinţei?

Tentativa de ameliorare a statutului de utilizator final al ştiinţei, în condiţiile de comparare cu un standard relevant de superioritate sau, mai bine zis, cu un etalon de perfecţiune, o constituie viziunea introducerii în relaţia slujire-virtute a unui model de extensiune mentală, aflat într-o configuraţie „multi-link" - care aduce posibilitatea de accesare a unor resurse de formare continuă, de forţă şi curaj. Acestea creează mai multe legături spre versiunea full a propriei tale deveniri, care are, ca punct terminus cunoaşterea Sinelui, iluminarea.

Este vorba de slujirea unui anumit exemplu de conştiinţă şi raţiune, înaintat prin semnificaţia pe care o atribuie sensului vieţii şi, apoi, de acea virtute supranaturală implantată în tine, care dacă nu acţionează constant asupra ta prin trăiri pozitive, se anulează prin îndoieli şi remuşcări.

O configuraţie „multi-link" care cuprinde şi exprimă un "înafară" dinspre interiorul fiinţei este o totalitate inepuizabilă de ştiinţă şi înţelepciune care îl include pe Dumnezeu în planul existenţei, subordonându-şi părţile cu o pronunţată coeziune determinată de un scop comun, cu un limbaj conotativ, cu o funcţionalitate şi o finalitate relativ autonome. Ea reprezintă atât un scop în sine, cât şi o uşurare a conştiinţei, un motiv ce te ajută să mergi înainte pe calea către cele "înalte", valoroase şi veşnice.

Leadership: Îţi îndeplineşti menirea cea mai nobilă de a susţine o altă făptură în descoperirea de sine şi, odată cu aceasta, de a oferi cu generozitate darul vieţii unei fiinţe care să ducă mai departe povestea unei împliniri sufleteşti şi spirituale?

Ştiinţa spirituală ne arată că între moarte şi o nouă naştere omul întâlneşte anumite entităţi - şi aş adăuga aici, printr-o accepţiune care trece dincolo de simplul înţeles, că aceste entităţi odată ce se ataşează şi se dezvoltă, nu se mai separă niciodată integral. Rămâne întipărită acea voce a sufletului, gândul unei experienţe prea bogate, care deschide noi orizonturi, ale cărei elemente poartă accente puternice de inspiraţie.

Prima, entitatea superioară - te învaţă şi te călăuzeşte prin genialitatea extrasă din înţelepciune, prin alipirea la spiritul lui Dumnezeu, să-ţi sporeşti acea curiozitate intelectuală înnăscută spre a-ţi forma competentele necesare integrării şi performării în primul planul unui prezent etern. A doua, entitatea de rezistenţă - te reprezintă atunci când îţi cauţi calea printre piedicile şi constrângerile impuse transformarea ta într-un alt tip de om.

Liderul care ştie să privească mai departe, dar care nu-şi demonstrează puterea de a privi în urma sa, nu a descoperit şi nu este motivat de acea genialitate care are la bază două treimi suflet şi o treime inteligenţă. Ceea ce surprinde măreția spiritului şi sensibilitatea sufletului, este tocmai acea trăsătură de personalitate ce conferă posesorului abilitatea de a-şi arăta considerația față de contribuabilii la propria lui formare - pentru a se adapta mai uşor la cerinţele unui leadership tot mai performant.

Experienţa plină de privaţiune care suplineşte rănile emoţionale cu acea forţă intelectuală apropiată de cel ce mântuieşte cu adevărat, seamănă cu sinceritatea şi puritatea unei fiinţe care va rosti cu bucurie, la sfârşitul unei vieţi pline de sens şi speranţă: "Îţi mulţumesc, Dumnezeu".

Un memento al vremurilor demult apuse vizează acea calitate rară de a nu-ţi uita „rădăcinile" dezvoltate uneori într-un climat necorespunzător, dar cu toate acestea fertil obţinerii superiorităţii autoimpuse sau impuse de către o autoritate străină.

Consolidează-ţi permanent „Trunchiul" cu noi cunoştinţe şi învăţături ale predecesorilor, pentru ca „Coroana" a ceea ce eşti să se înalţe spre culmile performanţei şi ale perfecţiunii. Esenţa leadershipului poate fi înţeleasă prin cele ce trec, dar nu se uită niciodată, la fel ca învăţătura primită din partea unui părinte ce nu se rezumă doar la informaţie, ci la dreapta credinţă care te face să le depăşeşti pe toate prin nădejde şi dragoste.

Un miel rătăcit în adâncul întunericului (II)

Deschide-te în faţa autenticităţii experienţei, stimulând capacitatea de a te situa deasupra a ceea ce nu cunoşti.

Nimeni n-ar putea spune ce se petrece în ea, dar este îngrozită. Tremură, se clătină, se împiedică. Se află în acel stadiu al incertitudinii care nu permite conştiinţei să creeze stăpânirea de sine, ci o determină să experimenteze anevoios trăiri necunoscute, în funcţie de cumplita disperare care o încearcă tot mai mult.

"What am I doing here alone?" Este singura suflare pe care o exprimă în mijlocul întunericului de nepătruns. Unde cineva o priveşte cu atenţie şi cu suspiciune, ca pe-o victimă a circumstanţelor, neajutorată, scufundată în bezna tăcerii ca un miel rătăcit în orele nopţii, în pustietate.

Gândurile îi repetă cu insistenţă, cerând explicaţii şi răspunsuri: "Cine eşti tu oare, tu care mă priveşti cu dinţii încleştaţi? La ce te gândeşti?"

Clarice pare că experimentează îndeaproape acel sentiment ciudat, acea simţire de neîmblânzit, ca o groaznică lovitură de cuţit în adâncul inimii, ce o apropie de fatalitatea sentinţei definitive. Provocându-i o puternică tulburare a zonelor nervoase. Un fel de slăbire a resurselor vitale. Instantaneu intră într-o criză de personalitate. Nu mai este ea însăşi, Clarice cea curajoasă. Ci, Clarice cea temătoare.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi pui în valoare o puternică trăsătură de caracter, generată de o înţelegere superioară din interiorul cauzei unei izolări şi nu din afara ei?

Caracterul omului puternic, în zona liniilor principale ale unei situaţii periculoase, funcţionând după modelul unei conştiinţe care îi este propriul obiect de cercetare, se impune ca parte a tendinţei de apropiere de factorul cauzal al relaţiei dintre acţiune şi inacţiune.

Cauzabilitatea, văzută ca un început al unei noi reguli și nu ca o excepție de la regulă, este conţinutul determinării care are nevoie de condiţii cu totul specifice pentru a se putea produce, condiţii de tipul: "Dacă nu eşti acolo atunci când trebuie… degeaba eşti altădată".

Un asemenea om purcede la încercarea de a contracara efectele negative ale fobiilor sale, mutându-şi atenţia de la ceea ce nu ştie, spre ceea ce ştie. Şi invers. Înţelegerea superioară pe care ţi-o conferă izolarea într-un spaţiu instabil, al tensiunilor, al presiunilor, al riscurilor şi ameninţărilor, este aceea că eşti constrâns să te bazezi doar pe tine însuţi, fără să te compari sau să fii în competiţie cu alţii, fără contradicţii şi artificialităţi, fără ca alţii să te judece.

Căci, în contextul lipsei de înţelegere corectă a situaţiei de care depinzi, se pune întrebarea: ce poţi să devii dacă nu reuşeşti să îţi accepţi menirea de a te echilibra lăuntric prin deschiderea în faţa autenticităţii experienţei?

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi alimentezi conştiinţa cu asumarea unei realităţi covârşitoare, ştiind că orice tentativă de a te dovedi mai puternic impune o anumită regulă de alegere între diferite reacţii emoţionale?

O trăsătură puternică de caracter poate lăsa loc de "cale de scăpare" şi poate ţine locul unei tendinţe de autovătămare, dacă ştii să îngrijeşti cum se cuvine propria conştiinţă şi s-o alimentezi cu încercarea de asumare a unei realităţi care îţi demonstrează încă o dată că drumul pe care l-ai parcurs este cel mai bun pentru a face trecerea de la o postură la alta. De la postura de învins, la cea de învingător.

Două reacţii emoţionale schimbă definitiv caracterul omului: uimirea şi frustrarea. Fii atent cum te raportezi la ele în orice situaţie.

A-ţi pune în valoare o puternică trăsătura de caracter, generată de o înţelegere superioară din interiorul cauzei unei izolări şi nu din afara ei, presupune mai întâi de toate să probezi o noutate, cu un anumit factor de risc, care provoacă senzaţia de rătăcire şi pierdere de sine. Iar pentru a nu-ţi prelungi cât mai mult starea de a fi afectat, creează-ţi o nouă capcană, o nouă incertitudine și începi să te miști către ea.

Cel mai mare atu al uei personalităţi puternice este reacţia emoţională pe care o ai cu propria ta viaţă în contextul unei însingurări care nu trebuie să te descurajeze, căci prin ea nu cauţi să fii singur pentru totdeauna, ci doar pentru puţin timp şi cu scopul de a te cunoaşte drept altcineva, mai dispus să te maturizezi prin provocări, decât să te supui totalmente voinţei împrejurărilor.

Proba de caracter este o abordare spontană şi nonconvenţională a relaţiei de depăşire a oricăror fobii, rezumată în felul următor: între starea de pasivitate şi starea de determinare se află întotdeauna capacitatea de a te situa deasupra a ceea ce nu cunoşti.

Un miel rătăcit în adâncul întunericului este omul care ştie să probeze o situaţie nesigură, simulând o intrare într-un cadrul plin de suspans, plin de emoţii, pentru a fi sigur că este cu adevărat pregătit să facă faţă provocărilor reale ale transformării sale de la tentaţie la impulsul de a crea noi modalități de a acționa.

Un miel rătăcit în adâncul întunericului (I)

Stabileşte o corespondenţă între cele două feţe ale tale, fără să-ţi laşi sugrumată raţiunea de nişte coordonate impuse de forţe externe.

Clarice Starling reuşeşte să dea de urma criminalului, cunoscut ca Buffalo Bill. Ajunge chiar în casa acestuia, în blestematul loc al groazei. Simte că viaţa îi este în pericol, singură în adâncul întunericului care produce spaima cea mai cumplită, îngheţându-i elanul de a face ceva constructiv. Necesitatea menţinerii compoziţiei de material dur din care este croită, faţă de mediul neobişnuit în care se află, impune un curaj peste limitele normalului, furnizând o energie care însă tinde să o epuizeze.

Forţa ciudată care o încearcă dintr-un unghi dificil de sesizat, înconjurând-o aproape paralizant în această arie neprotejată, îşi schimbă sâcâitor poziţia mărind astfel coeficientul de variaţie a tensiunii. Terifiantă, forţa aceasta emite vibraţii cu intensităţi diferite şi tot mai accentuate, produce fiori şi palpitaţii la inimă, însoţite de o indispoziţie puternică.

Brusc, totul capătă o conotație sumbră. Inabilitatea de a tolera sentimentul de inhibare şi frustrare o deprimă pe Clarice. Ea pare a fi cuprinsă de un flux abundent de căldură ce tinde să-i deregleze funcţiile vitale. Fluxul acesta sporeşte transferul energiei de agitaţie a moleculelor din sânge, provocând o sporire a presiunii arteriale. Creierul intră într-o stare de inerţie a gândirii care slăbeşte capacitatea de reacţie. Energia nervoasă atinge maximul de intensitate, determinând o uzură rapidă a simţurilor.

Leadership: Cum îţi evaluezi nevoia de a te înţelege pe tine însuţi în timpul unei experienţe de pericol iminent, atunci când tot ceea ce se manifestă ca sensibilitate are potenţialul unei consecinţe de tipul "declinării identităţii" ?

Nefiind o raritate, probabilitatea de a cădea în mijlocul necunoscutului, negăsind modalitatea optimă de a evita pericolul (echivalent cu incapacitatea propriei tale personalităţi de a se exprima liber), presupune existenţa unei incidenţe crescute a evenimentului de referinţă în care eşti implicat. Acest fapt îţi pune judecata şi trăirile în situaţia de a suferi o înfrângere, uneori catastrofală. Leadershipul devine în anumite circumstanţe destul de anevoios, foarte dificil de tratat.

Leadershipul, ca mijloc favorabil ieşirii din acest necunoscut care nu-ţi cere permisiunea de a te sabota dacă nu eşti atent, poate dezbina toate convingerie pe care le reprezinţi, sensibilitatea sau confortul psihic şi emotional. Iar raţiunea necesită o anumită flexibilitate în crearea unei imagini corecte şi relevante a cine eşti cu adevărat în aceste momente. Asta, prin faptul că raţiunea unei viziuni diferite faţă de tine însuţi este principala componentă a schimbării, asigurând o viziune corectă care nu te cramponează în apărarea unui model neperformant de a fi, şi dedicarea necesară pentru materializarea acesteia.

A-ţi declina identitatea într-o situaţie de pericol, când eşti ferm convins că nu există decât o singură cale de ieşire (curajul nebănuit), este similară cu a încerca să compari o prună cu un cactus: trebuie să guşti dintr-o experienţă de savurare a unei plăceri în durere, învecinată cu sentimentul de a fi neputincios într-un mediu ostil.

Leadership: Ce poziţie adopţi în perceperea unei experienţe de limită între viaţă şi moarte, în legătură cu o cauză evenimenţială care anulează orice încercare de a te transforma tu însuţi într-o formă semnificativă a realităţii menită să dea sens traiectoriei individuale?

Îmi amintesc cu drag cuvintele lui Victor Hugo: " Care dintre noi n-a intrat măcar o singură dată în viaţă în această peşteră întunecată a necunoscutului? Nici unul din actele conştiinţei nu este definitiv. "

Prin asta el trage un semnal de alarmă care nu poate fi ignorat, asigurând leadershipului o anumită funcţiune, aceea de preîncărcare a imaginii care te reprezintă cu o rezoluţie extrem de neclară a unei suferinţe care poate fi multiplicată la nesfârşit. Leadershipul este un proces permanent de autocorectare a erorilor de judecată care pot crea un blocaj mental în momentele de teamă şi incertitudine. Hugo lasă să se înţeleagă că scăparea din zona care ridică probleme şi creează nesiguranţă este dincolo de viziunea îngustă despre tine însuţi pe care ţi-o dă mintea zdruncinată de luptele interioare.

Nimic nu te face mai nesigur decât o formă de luptă, cu un caracter neobişnuit, adoptată fără o analiză prealabilă a impactului produs asupra ta. Ajungi să te zbaţi într-o inerţie a inacţiunii şi a propriei neputinţe atunci când procesele şi etapele fluxului de "căldură", exemplificat prin acele gânduri negative care curg necontenit prin mintea ta, nu sunt evitate. Iar leadershipul se anulează automat dacă te zbaţi între propriile suspiciuni și propriile forţe.

Ar fi minunat dacă ai urma acest sfat ori de câte ori experimentezi îndeaproape acel sentiment ciudat, acea simţire de neîmblânzit datorată unei identităţi prost definite: " Deschide bine ochii pentru ca viziunea care îţi este profund împăienjenită să îţi fie reîmprospătată. Şi orizontul care îţi este învăluit de o ceaţă groasă să devină din ce în ce mai limpede. "

Leadership: Îţi poţi depăşi limitele de suportabilitate a durerii în raport cu transformările apărute ulterior desfăşurării evenimentelor care te-au marcat prin însăşi impactul lor?

Stimulii provenind din mediul străin sunt preluaţi de organele de simţ. Iar cu cât stimulii sunt mai puternici şi mai frecvenţi, cu atât mai rapid se pot depăşi limitele gândirii şi raţiunii. Dacă aceste limite nu sunt depăşite în raport cu transformările ce au survenit ulterior adoptării unor decizii rapide şi nefundamentate, atunci nu vei putea asigura evitarea conflictului cu tine însuţi.

Şi astfel, cele două părţi adverse, cele două feţe ale tale, cea curajoasă şi cea temătoare, se vor ameninţa direct sau indirect, ducând la distrugerea prin sacrificiu a poziţiei tale de referinţă. Această poziţie funcţionează fără întrerupere, dacă acul indicator al leadershipului care îţi validează reacţiile şi superioritatea este în raport cu cele două feţe.

Ca să nu atingi limita cantitativă a incertitudinii, stabileşte o corespondenţă între cele două feţe ale tale, fără să-ţi laşi sugrumată raţiunea de nişte coordonate impuse de forţe externe. În orice situaţie, durerea pe care o simţi poate fi depăşită prin imperativul unei meniri mai înalte, aceea că tot ceea ce ţi se întâmplă negativ este un mijloc de a te păşi pe tine însuţi.

Liderul este persoana care îşi gestionează temerile cu calm şi încredere, capabilă să trăiască sentimentul de control asupra situaţiei pe care o trăieşte.

Un miel rătăcit în adâncul întunericului scoate în evidenţă posibilitatea de a cădea în extrema negativă a leadershipului, atunci când nu vrei să-ţi depăşeşti propriile limite în condiţiile intensificării unor stimuli supraliminali de natură externă, dar şi internă.

Un mister nedesluşit

On Decembrie 15, 2008

Ceea ce facem şi cine devenim depinde într-o mare măsură de lucrurile sau evenimentele care ne menţin în priză.

- Se petrec lucruri, domnule, pe care nu le înţeleg.

- Lucruri? Ce fel de lucruri?

- O să mă credeţi nebun, domnule… O să spuneţi că nu e nimic… Dar trebuie să fie o explicaţie, domnule. Trebuie ! Pentru că nu are nici un sens…

- Ei, omule, spune-mi despre ce e vorba. Nu mai vorbi în şarade ! spune răspicat detectivul Poirot.

Rogers înghiţi iar:

- Este extrem de mult sânge domnule. Peste tot în jur este numai sânge. Şi nicăieri niciun cadavru.

- Da, este surprinzător. Chiar n-am mai întâlnit aşa ceva.

- Şi domnule detectiv, mai este un lucru care mă deranjează.

- Ce anume?

- Uşa era încuiată pe dinăuntru. Cum putea cineva să se încuie înăuntru, să săvârşească această crimă oribilă, şi să se evaporeze împreună cu cadavrul, aşa, pur şi simplu? Trebuie să existe o explicaţie.

Leadership: Viziunea ce se desprinde din încercarea de a percepe un întreg plin de curiozitate este aceea a unui creator ce are datoria de a potenţa noi valori?

Ţi-ai dat seama cine este făptaşul?

Precis nu ţi-ai dat seama cine este adevăratul criminal, nu-i aşa? Ei bine, nici nu aveai cum să-ţi dai seama. Mai întâi pentru că nu ţi-am expus toate datele problemei, apoi nu ţi-am oferit informaţii concrete referitoare la toate personajele din acest scenariu. Dar, recunoşti că ţi-am stârnit curiozitatea, măcar un pic? Nu-i aşa că ai fi dorit să afli posibila explicaţie despre cum a fost înfăptuită crima? Nu-i aşa că ai fi vrut să elucidezi acest mister aparent greu de descifrat?

Cu toţii avem reguli şi standarde diferite care guvernează ceea ce simţim în legătură cu lucrurile care se petrec în viaţa noastră. Iar în final, ceea ce facem şi cine devenim depinde într-o mare măsură de lucrurile sau evenimentele care ne menţin în priză, care ne alocă timpul, care ne stârnesc interesul şi de care nu ne putem despărţi. E ca un mister care trebuie desluşit. E ca un roman poliţist scris de Agatha Christie pe care dacă începi să-l citeşti, nu-l mai poţi lăsa din mână. Dar ce este acest "ceva"? Ce anume dă forţa tuturor acţiunilor noastre, şi nu ne putem descotorosi de el până nu ajungem la rezultatul final?

Ceea ce te poate apropia de resorturile cele mai puternice ale motivaţiei, punându-te în situaţii noi şi dându-ţi nişte senzaţii tari, este forţa motoare a unei gândiri care te inspiră, aşezând posibilitatea unui răspuns la o anumită căutare într-o sferă cât de cât îndoielnică.

Prezenţa unei asemenea gândiri este cheia de boltă a unui întreg care te fascinează teribil şi pe care îl consumi altfel, un întreg care îţi împlineşte existenţa şi de care nu te poţi lipsi, un întreg care trebuie menţinut. Un întreg care formează mesajul: "Poţi aprinde în întuneric lumina adevărului".

Măsura valorii tale de facilitator al unei reflecţii noi, neobişnuite în aria ştiinţei, recompune neîncetat şi certitudinea apartenenţei la un mister, imposibil de dezlegat, ca toate misterele, dar a cărei "eternitate" o poţi simţi într-o clipă. Valoarea omului se generează din ceea ce i se întâmplă când este motivat a fi tot mai curios.

Leadership: Poţi ajunge la certitudine din ceea ce deduci din indiciile unei teme de cercetare, altfel încât să progresezi spre acel nivel de performanţă de care ai nevoie ca să rulezi toate noutăţile în materie de psihologia încălcărilor de reguli?

În mod clar, motivaţia este ca un „medicament" foarte eficient şi folositor, care reduce nivelul de stres pentru cei cu resurse limitate. Motivaţia te ridică în picioare atunci când simţi că îţi pierzi echilibrul. Motivaţia îţi poate oferi un pas înainte spre excelenţă ajutându-te să găseşti modelul de leadership cel mai bun pentru tine însuţi, netezindu-ţi calea spre înţelegerea şi dezvoltarea propriului tău potenţial.

Gandeşte-te bine ce fel de lider vrei să devii, fiindcă numai motivaţia îţi poate stabili calea, încurajându-te, creând o temelie solidă, emoţională şi profesională pentru potenţialul tău. Procesul de cultivare a modelului tău de lider începe printr-o asigurare propriilor tale resurse de rezolvare a enigmelor ce se ascund în fiecare ungher din jurul tău.

Singurele reguli de care trebuie să ţii seama sunt doar cele impuse de tine, pe care trebuie să le încalci prin asimilarea unei alte perspective, mai profunde asupra realităţii. Totodată, pot fi încalcate prin intermediul unui proces de reinterpretare a lucrurilor şi prin crearea unei tensiuni în conştiinţă care creşte dorinţa de a sesiza sensul unei noi înţelegeri a sursei care furnizează informaţia cea mai cuprinzătoare.

Leadership: Răspunzi pozitiv la orice stimul care poate contribui la propria ta formare, făcând apel la o formă de provocare care te ajută să imortalizezi fiecare moment al unei experienţe pline de învăţăminte?

Aşa cum creionul este pentru scris, aşa cum pantoful este pentru încălţat, aşa cum maşina este pentru condus, tot aşa motivaţia este pentru oamenii care îşi perfecţionează mereu abilităţile. Motivaţia te ajută să răspunzi pozitiv la orice stimul care poate contribui la propria ta formare, îţi dă acel imbold puternic de a te concentra mai mult asupra rezultatelor pozitive, aducându-ţi un plus de valoare experienţei.

Oamenii motivaţi sunt cei care manifestă o pasiune puternică faţă de munca pe care o desfăşoară. Iubesc atât de mult ceea ce fac, încât sunt dispuşi să rămână chiar şi după program ca să-şi termine treaba. Motivaţia îi menţine tot timpul în priză şi nu-i oboseşte niciodată. Nimic nu este mai plăcut decât să întâlneşti un astfel de om care îşi iubeşte meseria cu atâta pasiune, cu atâta poftă de viaţă. De aceea afirm: binecuvântat este omul care şi-a găsit "misterul".

Ca lider, datoria ta este să încurajezi motivaţia oamenilor prin menţinerea unui climat de mister. Să-i motivezi să treacă la acţiune şi să-i călăuzeşti spre obţinerea unor rezultate optime. Trebuie, deci, să începi să trezeşti în rândul oamenilor o puternică conştiinţă a lucrului bine făcut, a libertăţii de exprimare, astfel încât aceştia să nu se simtă niciodată ameninţaţi sau intimidaţi. Dacă vrei să te apropii mai mult de oameni şi dacă doreşti ca aceştia să obţină rezultate excepţionale, nu le minimaliza meritele. Încurajează-i să vină cu propriile soluţii, şi laudă-i ori de câte ori merită.

Vei putea să atingi cele mai înalte cote ale dezvoltării doar dacă ceilalţi din jurul tău vor deveni mai buni şi mai productivi. Liantul care uneşte desăvârşirea ta de a lor este motivaţia.

Leadershipul este asemenea unei enigme: oricât de mult ai încerca să găseşti o rezolvare la apariţia unei situaţii imprevziibile, trebuie să fii capabil să-ţi asumi urmările interpretării greşite a realităţii pe care se sprijină adevărul.

Un mister nedesluşit este o provocare ce nu poate fi ignorată, putând face mintea să se înfioare și să se înalțe deasupra limitarilor de moment ale unei perspective de suprafaţă asupra lucrurilor. Claritatea de care un lider dă dovadă nu este legată atât de înţelegerea motivului care stă la baza elucidării unor aspecte complexe, cât de explicaţia pe care o dă punctelor cheie ale gândirii axate pe rezolvarea problemelor, cum ar fi: analiza, sinteza, imaginatia, comparaţia, anticiparea, concretizarea, generalizarea sau abstractizarea.

On Ianuarie 18, 2011

Fii pregătit să serveşti drept îndreptar pentru ceilalţi oameni, rezonând cu acea realitate care să le dea acestora impulsul necesar pentru a atinge excelenţa.

Vreau să vă reţin atenţia, în cele ce urmează, asupra unui aspect destul de important. Şi pentru aceasta am să fac încă o dată referire la filmul "Pretty Woman (1990)" , pe care personal îl găsesc drept o excelentă demonstraţie de leadership.

Controversatul om de afaceri, Edward Lewis, a angajat o prostituată, Vivian Ward, pe post de damă de companie. Timp de o săptămână ei au locuit împreună într-un apartament de lux, au mers împreună la reuniunile lui de afaceri. Mai mult decât atât, datorită lui Edward, ea a pătruns în saloanele cele mai exclusiviste ale înaltei societăţi. Tot el a învăţat-o să fie o femeie cu stil, a învăţat-o cum să intre în restaurante şi ce să comande acolo, cât bacşiş să dea şi când trebuie, ce trebuie să bea la anumite feluri de mâncare, etc. A învăţat-o să se exprime cum se cuvine într-un mediu de elită, într-un mod civilizat şi de bun simţ.

La multe capitole, prin rafinament şi eleganţă, şi mai ales cu frumuseţea ei eclatantă, cu sensibilitatea şi temperamentul ei, Vivian Ward a reuşit să atragă atenţia tuturor dovedind printr-un mod cu totul deosebit că este mai mult decât o prostituată, că este o femeie de înaltă clasă, cu o personalitate puternică, distinsă şi plină de viaţă, cu aspiraţii înalte şi obiective îndrăzneţe.

Leadership: Direcţia în care îţi manifeşti afecţiunea este forma finală a modului în care alegi să-ţi exprimi emoțiile şi gândurile în vederea unei afirmări tot mai hotărâte a apartenenţei la o conştiinţă care şi-a pierdut cândva şi undeva, speranţa?

În "Metamorfozele X" , poetul roman Ovidiu povesteşte despre vestitul sculptor grec, Pygmalion, din Cipru. Pe scurt, legenda spune că Pygmalion a sculptat într-un trunchi de fildeş alb ca zăpada o femeie, căreia i-a dat numele de Galathea. Deşi nu era interesat de femei în mod special, el i-a dat statuii o frumuseţe pe care nici o femeie nu o putea avea de la natură. A fost atras atât de mult de acea statuie încât s-a îndrăgostit de ea şi a rugat-o pe zeiţa Afrodita să-i dea viaţa. După ce statuia a fost însufleţită, Pygmalion s-a căsătorit cu ea.

Puterea unei mari iubiri s-a exercitat şi în viaţa lui Edward Lewis. Îndrăgostindu-se de Vivian, stimulat de puternice sentimente pentru ea, el a reuşit să o "însufleţească" conferindu-i un nou "look" pentru o nouă viaţă. El a servit drept îndreptar pentru ea, a oglindit o nouă realitate, dându-i impulsul necesar pentru dobândirea unui nou statut, a unui alt viitor.

Leadership: Atitudinea ta în faţa imaginii unei realităţi care se încăpăţânează să-ţi reziste este determinată de valenţele ei reprezentative?

Vă amintiţi de colonelul Pickering, din filmul "My Fair Lady (1964)" ? El a spus o frază rămasă celebră: "Orice florăreasă poate fi o lady, şi orice lady se poate transforma într-o florăreasă."

Finalul filmului "Pretty Woman (1990)" este unul plin de învăţăminte. Vivian, având acea mândrie cât şi conştiinţa că se poate schimba, s-a hotărât să-şi continue studiile şi să-şi construiască o carieră. Ea a ajuns la concluzia că are capacitatea de a merge mai departe şi de a se ridica mai presus decât ceea ce era – o prostituată, şi să devină o "lady". A ajuns la această concluzie după ce a păşit în acea lume "sofisticată", o lume mai educată, cu o anumită cultură, cu anumite maniere, mai ales cu cultura banului, care era inaccesibilă ei.

Iată ce poate face farmecul unei lumi noi. Iată ce pot face "mâinile unui artist" care ştie să pună în valoare personalitatea unui om.

Sistemul de "creaţie emoţională" specific leadershipului va rămâne în continuare dominat de principiul originalităţii şi deci al rarităţii operei, concepute dintr-un act de sinceritate, înaintea a tot şi a toate, al valorilor unice sau relativ ridicate. Cel care se interesează de marea operă a liderului, supusă aprecierii, va percepe o anumită simetrie între cele două roluri: de factor determinant în remodelarea umană şi de factor întăritor al unităţii şi dragostei reciproce.

Leadership: Valoarea imaginii tale se defineşte în nemijlocit contact cu ceea ce este semnificativ şi viu în tine?

Se cere reţinută şi observaţia cu privire la faptul că leadershipul aduce întotdeauna în prim plan un sistem de gândire care nu neagă existenţa tăriei sufleteşti. Această ştiinţă posedă, în mod autonom, o valoare utilă şi, în acelaşi timp, o valoare estetică prin încercarea continuă de a prinde realitatea în cristalizări deosebite la lumina unor împrejurări neprevăzute, în care liderul acţionează ca înfăptuitor de miracole.

Din acest punct de vedere, ar fi necesar să se opereze o distincţie între "moda" de a fi actor pe scena vieţii altora şi "moda" de a fi artist al remodelării caracterelor, pe care adeseori unii le confundă, percepându-le cumva drept valorificări ale mitului lui Pygmalion ca factor de creştere a calităţii relaţiilor interpersonale, a coeziunii sociale, a imaginii personale.

Cele două tipuri de modă privesc un sistem de investiţie solid folosit în armonie cu oportunităţile propriei vieţi, a căror valoare se defineşte numai în raport cu ceea ce resimţi, cu emoţiile tale, dar şi cu ceea ce pretind ceilalţi de la tine. Însă dincolo de posibilitatea de a fi considerat de ceilalţi drept o persoană încântătoare, sau, în acelaşi timp, un ignorant al sufletului, se profilează la orizont şi acea ieşire din sfera a ceea ce se numeşte modă.

Spre deosebire de ceea ce am putea fi tentaţi să credem, cele două tipuri de modă ar aduce nişte beneficii de ordin mental şi emoţional în dezvoltarea leadershipului. Deci, un sistem de stabilizare a imaginii promovate, a cărei valoare se defineşte în nemijlocit contact cu ceea ce este semnificativ şi viu în lider. El este menit a-şi desăvârşi opera de artă, în condiţiile în care, prin intermediul puterii dobândite de conştiinţa de a se replia asupra lui însuşi, luând în posesie un sine care odată redescoperit permite reformularea relaţiei cu ceilalţi, i se asigură o configuraţie identitară inedită, impunându-se ca sursă de inspiraţie şi speranţă.

Leadershipul tău aduce în prim plan un sistem de gândire care neagă existenţa tăriei sufleteşti?

Tu ai harul lui Edward Lewis, de a intra pe scena vieţii oamenilor şi de a determina transformarea lor? Ai capacitatea să modifici în bine viitorul celor care au nevoie de sprijin, şi apoi să îl faci să devină o realitate? Faci uz de toată influenţa pe care o ai spre a le netezi celorlalţi calea spre afirmare? Poţi să le oferi oamenilor un nou "look" pentru o nouă viaţă?

Dacă nu ai capacitatea să le oferi celorlalţi o nouă orientare, înseamnă că leadershipul tău are nevoie de îmbunătăţiri. Trebuie să dispui de o adevărată pricepere în dezvoltarea relaţiilor umane, trebuie să-i "educi" pe oameni cu răbdare şi perseverenţă dacă vrei ca ei să-şi atingă desăvârşirea.

Schimbă în bine viitorul celorlalţi din jurul tău, tratează-i cu afecţiune şi stimă, dă-le impulsul de care au nevoie pentru a-şi dori o schimbare radicală în viaţa lor. Asta este ceea ce va conferi calitate leadershipului tău, ceea ce te va diferenţia de ceilalţi aspiranţi la statutul de lider.

Valoarea imaginii tale este dată de estetica construirii unui ataşament autentic faţă de impresia pe care ţi-o lasă la prima vedere o conştiinţă căreia nu-i dă nimeni atenţie.

Un nou look pentru o nouă viaţă este acea transformare care produce o mare satisfacţie, rezultând în urma unui proces de schimbare simţit de toţi acei oameni care au avut capacitatea de a merge mai departe, de a se ridica mai presus decât condiţia lor şi de a-şi construi o carieră.

Este dovada puterii tale dar şi a dorinţei tale de a schimba lucrurile în bine, este dovada că poţi intra cu graţie în viaţa oamenilor şi să conferi calitate transformării lor. Oferă-le oamenilor un nou "look" pentru o nouă viaţă, iar ei vor fi stimulaţi de puternice sentimente de recunoştinţă pentru tine. Dacă reuşeşti această performanţă, atunci ei vor putea spune despre tine că eşti mai mult decât un "pasager" în viaţa lor, că eşti un lider.

Foloseşte-ţi puterea şi talentul încât să-i atragi pe oameni spre rezultate pozitive şi spre performanţă. Fii pregătit să serveşti drept îndreptar pentru ei, rezonând cu acea realitate care să le dea impulsul necesar pentru a atinge excelenţa.

P.S. Un lider iscusit poate induce schimbarea pozitivă şi să contribuie la construirea unui nou "look" nu atât din punct de vedere fizic, cât mai ales din punct de vedere al gândirii şi mentalităţii oamenilor. Succesul va fi al ambelor părţi şi toţi vor fi câştigaţi din această transformare pozitivă. Depinde însă şi de...oameni.

Un ochi care să vadă şi o minte care să înţeleagă

Numai într-un decor discret se întâlnesc şi se completează spiritele asemănătoare, cele de mare subtilitate şi originalitate.

Magicianul mi-a spus cândva un secret despre Dumnezeu, într-o intimitate unde nimeni şi nimic nu se afla la locul lui, pentru că aşa era prevăzut în scenariul derulării spectacolului. Totul trebuia să trădeze un mister sporit în prezenţa unor lumini gata să se stingă. Curiozitatea şi groaza mă ţintuiau într-o neputinţă nemărginită, într-o stare de încordare în care acceptam fără crâcnire condiţiile unei imagini a falsităţii.

Cum că Dumnezeu ar fi fost, la rândul lui, un magician plin de mister, pe care efectele magiei neputându-l substitui într-un termen rezonabil, îl transformaseră într-o ficţiune a percepţiei de tip Kafkian care putea deveni realitate numai într-o formă de artă remarcabilă. Aflând acest lucru, secret bine păzit, deja mă simţeam mai presus de restul lumii.

Şi totuşi, continuam să mă simt claustrat într-un spaţiu întunecos, îndepărtat de orice urmă de sentiment, apropiat de o mistică tenebroasă din care adevărurile cu greu îşi pot găsi rostul. Cu ce ar fi putut lumea să mă îmbie dacă ştie mai puţin decât mine, mai ales că de atâtea ori am mizat, cu răbdare, cu interes, cu cinste faţă de natura lucrurilor simple, pe faptul că totul este aşa cum trebuie să fie, nu aşa cum pare să fie.

Chiar şi privirea cea mai slabă îşi are lăuntricul ei, chiar şi priveliştea cea mai nefamiliară îşi are specificitatea ei.

Adevărul era dincolo de înţelegerea mea. Intrasem într-un gol, o prelungire în exuberanţa pustiului subiectiv, pe marginea abisului fără fund al tăcerii pustii şi încordate. Cumva, mă simţeam de prisos, aidoma unui pictor care nu-şi găseşte inspiraţia atunci când trebuie să amestece culorile cele mai simple. Consolator, cu umilinţă, printr-o intuiţie simplificatoare, mi-l închipuiam pe Dumnezeu ca fiind un glas ţâşnind din nevăzut, ecoul unei creaţii desăvârşite în tensiunea crescândă a unei aşteptări care nu se va încheia niciodată.

Leadership: Poţi să simplifici informația vizuală aflată în fața ta și să o transpui într-o imagine sugestivă, prelungită prin continuitate compozițională în favoarea unei arte originale care nu se supune modelelor obişnuite de receptare a realităţii?

Persista în aer senzaţia unei aşteptări mistice. Dumnezeu se amuza pe furiş, în spatele cortinei înalte şi impunătoare, în timp ce magicianul îmi înşiruia vrute şi nevrute despre îngrămădirea clandestină a tuturor ispitelor la care te supune magia. N-am vrut să privesc în faţă adevărul, nici falsitatea, dar trebuia să mă las condus de opera unei imagini fascinante, ca atunci când pictorul îşi manifestă spiritul de observaţie, puterea de convingere, talentul de transfigurare artistică a etapelor procesului de creaţie - într-o atracţie iremediabilă.

Asta doar pentru imortalizarea momentul plin de încordare. Şi fiindcă n-am vrut să fie astfel, s-a întâmplat să fie tocmai pe dos faţă de cum am vrut eu să fie.

Un loc străin de fiinţa mea, dar apropiat de artă. Aici, un magician şi un Dumnezeu îmi dădeau peste cap toate ideile cu privire la articulaţiile teoriei creaţiei adevărurilor eterne, nefiind în substanţa lor parabolică, perspectivală, decât o simplă circumstanţă naturală a elanului vital atât de omenesc, dar şi atât de imperativ, de a domina realitatea într-un moment în care cuvintele mele erau constant "nu mai pot, nu înţeleg nimic".

Leadership: Începi să conştientizezi că informaţia vizuală înseamnă a fi cu un pas înaintea experienţei efective a realităţii, ţinând cont de faptul că menirea unei creaţii este de a induce o stare de deplinătate care aparţine alterităţii?

După puţin timp s-a lăsat tăcerea, o suspendare a libertăţii de a înţelege realitatea, o intrigă demnă de un roman cu răsturnări de situaţie. Magicianul s-a făcut nevăzut în dosul cortinei. Iar Dumnezeu a ieşit la iveală, în sfârşit, luând un aer sobru şi distant, ca într-un tablou dinamic al cărui construcţie suferea câteva erori de logică. Ghiceam că totul este o farsă bine jucată, o falsificare a unei credinţe mai vechi prin redarea unei poveşti care are ca efect apariţia bruscă a unei scântei de inspiraţie.

Şi cu toate acestea, simţindu-mă cuprins de un tremur invizibil, am învăţat cum să contribui la construirea memoriei altor personaje fictive cu care m-am identificat adesea. Fiecare construcţie surprinsă de mine, fiind categoric analizată cu ochi de artist, devine reper fundamental pentru deschiderea altor orizonturi artistice. Şi acelaşi reper care poate fi înfăşurat într-o magie nebănuită, atât de iscusit ticluită, îndeplineşte o funcţie universală, şi una particulară, mai ales dacă fac din povestire un act de creaţie ce are în compoziţia lui îndoita tentaţie a secretului şi a accesibilităţii lui Dumnezeu, cât şi persistenţa celui ce se uneşte cu El.

Un magician este un Dumnezeu pentru că ştie să povestească despre Dumnezeu ca despre un magician ascuns după o cortină impenetrabilă, desemnând o metaforă într-un joc de compoziţii, acolo unde numai Dumnezeu îl poate vedea şi înţelege printr-un secret căruia nimeni nu-i poate afla cheia de descifrare. Întregul tablou mistic a fost conturat de un artist spontan, care nu este artist genial decât prin actul de concretizare a realităţii ce va rămâne peste ani şi ani în amintirea pe care a pus-o în cel mai profund loc din sufletul celorlalţi magicieni, care se ambiţionează să fie Dumnezei.

Leadership: Varietatea sensurilor pe care le atribui realităţii trădează o viziune simplificată asupra finalităţii creaţiei tale, fapt ce indică dispoziţia artei spre deschiderea unei perspective de lungă durată?

Luminile s-au stins încet, aşa cum se scurge timpul când îl priveşti într-o pictură de Salvador Dali, dar în întuneric se putea distinge licărirea slabă a unei simultaneități și a unei rezonanțe de tipul sufletului care tânjeşte să fie cu adevărat creator. Am înaintat la voia întâmplării într-un întuneric de necuprins, care devenea din ce în ce mai întunecos pe măsură ce încercam să-mi duc creaţia la nivel de magie, cu eforturi supraomeneşti. Dar mă simţeam mult prea cuprins de magie, pe măsură ce însăşi creaţia, ascunsă sub zeci de măşti, mă apropia de Dumnezeu, invitându-mă la înţelegerea artei într-o lume duală. Totul e imagine. Spectacol. Artă. Magie.

Informaţia vizuală se referă la modalitatea de descriere a unei imagini cu contrast ridicat, ancorată la o anumită realitate, la un anumit reper, la o anumită situaţie. Este ceea ce surprinzi în realitate sub forma unei imagini care se pretinde a fi importantă şi pozitivă pentru realizarea ideii de "miraculos" în spaţiul vital al creaţiei.

Iar dacă mă voi opri aici, pentru a nu înviora prea mult privirile înceţoşate, este pentru că vreau ca finalul romanului "Numele Trandafirului", de Umberto Eco, să vă facă să înţelegeţi magia, chiar dacă puţini dintre voi sunteţi pregătiţi să o înţelegeţi din punct de vedere al informaţiei vizuale:

sufletul se sfârşeşte cu adevărat fericit. Mă voi cufunda în întunecimea lui Dumnezeu, într-o tăcere mută şi într-o contopire inefabilă, şi în cufundarea aceasta se va pierde orice egalitate şi orice neegalitate, şi în hăul acela spiritul meu se va pierde pe sine, şi nu va mai cunoaşte nici egal, nici neegal, şi nimic altceva: şi vor fi uitate toate deosebirile. Voi fi în temelia simplă, în pustiul tăcut unde nicicând nu se văd deosebirile, în intimitatea unde nimeni nu se afla la locul lui anume. Voi cădea în dumnezeirea tăcută şi nelocuită, unde nu există operă şi nici imagine."

Doar magie.

Perspectiva de durată care influenţează leadershipul (de înalt nivel) este produsul contopirii a două entităţi distincte: un magician şi un dumnezeu, o temă care se vrea materializată într-o lume a miraculosului şi o viziune care se vrea atinsă exclusiv prin hrănirea credinţei într-o lume transcendentă.

Un ochi care să vadă şi o minte care să înţeleagă sunt două entităţi distincte ale unei autorităţi numite „Creator", ale căror imagini se oglindesc reciproc, se suprapun numai prin reflectare într-un plan al evidenţei şi într-un plan al discreţiei.

Un ochi sănătos nu-și uită vederea în urmă

Nu încerca să vezi ceea ce pare inaccesibil, atunci când îndoielile îți întunecă perspectiva.

Există lucruri în ochii mei care nu îndrăznesc să-mi mărturisească nimic, dar aș vrea să le rog să mi se dezvăluie. Spun asta fiindcă mi-am pierdut cheile de la intrarea în casă. Deși am mai găsit chei, inclusiv de mașini, niciodată nu m-am gândit că le voi pierde în parc, în timp ce alergam. Conform zicalei "Nu pierzi în viață decât ceea ce trebuie să pierzi", m-am gândit la o întregire a personalității mele fără a mă atașa de lucrurile efemere care, deși par esențiale într-un moment dat, nu sunt decât niște simple trepte pe drumul evoluției mele personale.

Atunci, curios fapt, am experimentat ipostaza în care omul, liber în acțiunile sale, trăiește o aventură pe măsura destinului de căutător de lucruri pierdute, asemenea unui detectiv care încearcă să dezlege misterul unei dispariții. Este acea ipostază privilegiată a omului care trăiește în orizontul căutării și în grija de a gândi pierderea drept "păstrare" mai degrabă decât "uitare". Astfel am ajuns sa ma intreb cum pot menține vie amintirea unui lucru pierdut fără să-l uit. Doar gândindu-mă la el? Scriind despre el? Spunând o poveste care detaliază o lecție de viață? Asta nu-i de ajuns. Poate ar trebui să-i atribui acestei întâmplări care mi-a mișcat spiritul în direcția introspecției un caracter evenimential, un fel de epifanie, așa încât să nu se piardă în neantul uitării.

Așa am ajuns la scenariul înfruntării dintre pierdere și uitare, așa am ajuns să înțeleg că temeiul unei obligații, unei clauze compromisorii cuprinse într-un conflict cu mine însumi, este acela de a-mi folosi experiența și cunoștințele acumulate de pe urma acestei întâmplări, pentru a reusi să-mi ghidez rațiunea practică în procesul de înțelegere a unui nou stadiu de evoluție și maturizare. Și, ajungând la un alt nivel de mă raporta la mine însumi, prin prelungirea ideii pierderii unui obiect care la prima vedere pare banal, am descoperit un punct de plecare pentru o aventură neașteptată și îmbogățitoare

Leadership: Ai conștientizat vreodată că pierzând ceva de valoare din propria voință, te-ai aflat în același loc, confruntându-te cu inevitabilitatea destinului?

Greșeala mea a constat în faptul că mă așteptam să găsesc cheile în același loc, două ore mai târziu. Așa că am pierdut restul timpului încercând, stupid și inutil, să găsesc ceea ce nu era nicidecum vizibil. După aceea a urmat o tăcere ciudată, un disconfort psihic, un intermezzo între nimic și cuvânt, ca și cum aș fi ajuns la un punct final, ca și cum ar fi trebuit să reacționez într-un mod diferit: să mă enervez sau poate să fiu șocat. Era semnul unei lupte interioare, ca și cum trebuia să aleg o altă reacție la situația dată.

Atunci, ceva din mine s-a maturizat. Brusc, m-am dat seama că aveam capacitatea de a mă comporta ca un om scandalizat, ca un școlar de bani gata, sau ca un adult ce nu se autodevalorizează din cauza oricărui fleac. Încerc să înțeleg lucruri pe care până acum nu le-am dat suficientă atenție.

În romanul „Inelul lui Polycrates” de Friedrich Schiller, conducătorul din Grecia Antică, pe nume Polycrates, pierde intenționat un inel de mare valoare, aruncându-l în mare pentru a evita un vechi proverb care spunea că cei prea norocoși vor suferi în cele din urmă o pierdere mare. El credea că pierzând ceva de valoare din propria voință, ar putea păcăli destinul. Cu toate acestea, când inelul i se întoarce, găsit în burta unui pește, Polycrates realizează că nu își poate controla destinul și că pierderea și regăsirea inelului sunt simboluri ale ciclicității norocului și ale inevitabilității destinului.

Prin pierderea și ulterioara regăsire a inelului său, Polycrates este forțat să înfrunte ideea că viața și destinul nu pot fi controlate prin simple gesturi simbolice. Inelul, ca obiect material, devine catalizatorul unei profunde introspecții și al recunoașterii limitelor propriului control asupra vieții.

Leadership: Poți să atingi o revelație care să te facă să înțelegi că sinele și existența ta sunt profund influențate de o reprezentare vizuală care să ilustreze relația dintre cauza-efect?

Mai cred că dacă eu aș gândi precum celebrul conducător, atunci un singur lucru m-ar face mai matur: să conștientizez că toate lucrurile pe care le dețin sunt trecătoare și că adevărata înțelepciune și maturitate provin din capacitatea de a accepta schimbarea și incertitudinea ca parte integrantă a existenței. Numai această acceptare mă poate elibera de iluzia controlului absolut, permițându-mi să trăiesc mai plenar, să apreciem momentul prezent și să valorizez experiențele autentice mai mult decât posesiunile materiale.

După cum s-a observat, m-am recunoscut drept un protagonist în actul pierderii acelui lucru care mi-a deschis ani la rândul intrarea în casă. Iar această întâmplare, folositoare într-un anumit fel mai ales fiindcă nu reprezintă o pierdere majoră, poate fi gândită ca desfășurare a unei acțiuni inițiatice, prilej pentru a mă cunoaște mai bine, chiar și fiind neatent la detalii. Câți oameni nu trec prin întâmplări zilnice, fără să știe să le vadă poveștile, la fel cum nu știu nici să povestească despre ele, nici să le transformeze în ceva semnificativ.

De această dată, dintr-o întâmplare banală am învățat că echilibrul și armonia interioară nu provin din a avea, ci din a fi; nu din a acumula, ci din a înțelege și a aprecia frumusețea și fragilitatea vieții. Obiectul gândit și simțit are importanță, nu posesia lui, nu forma lui de a exista.

Leadership: Ai experimentat vreodată momente când emoția și rațiunea au fost intensificate de reprezentarea mentală a sentimentelor inspirate de un eveniment ce a schimbat profund modul în care percepi o imagine vizuală?

Obiectul a încetat să fie mediu de utilitate devenind simbol al transformării personale, punându-mă în ipostaza de căutător al semnificațiilor ascunse ale vieții. Așadar, obiectul renaște în locul în care s-a instalat uitarea lui, simultan cu un efort de trezire a memoriei. Trebuie să existe o relație de inteligibilitate între receptor și obiectul receptat pentru ca imaginea pierderii să investească obiectul cu sens.

În acel moment nu am putut să mă declar centru și stăpânul lucrurilor mele, fiindcă asta ar cere o conștientizare deplină. Și nu doar atât, ci faptul că am pierdut un lucru înseamnă că nu am control total asupra lui. Semăn într-o oarecare măsură cu un personaj din romanul "Colecționarul" al lui John Fowles care spunea la un moment dat:

Întotdeauna a existat în capul meu ideea că voi înțelege. Ideea în sine nu mă preocupa, dar s-a întâmplat să dau cu ochii de un anunț tocmai când eram pe punctul să întorc pagina: "Departe de ceea ce credeam că este esențial, am găsit o eliberare de constrângeri."

Această eliberare de constrângeri poate fi văzută ca o deschidere către noi posibilități, eliberându-mă de rutina zilnică sau de responsabilitățile care păreau să-mi limiteze experiența de viață. Totodată, noua perspectivă mi-a deschis ochii spre o lume unde obiectele și întâmplările cotidiene nu sunt doar ce par a fi la suprafață, ci poartă în ele povești, lecții și simboluri care așteaptă să fie descifrate. Prin această schimbare de rol, de la un simplu observator al vieții la un interpret al simbolurilor sale, voi începe să trăiesc cu o mai mare conștiință a profunzimilor și a posibilităților infinite pe care le oferă fiecare

Înca îmi pun întrebarea: "Cum pot să păstrez un lucru, pierdut, fără să-l uit?"

Transformându-l în poveste, în simbol, în lecție de viață, în punte de legătură între mine și mine însumi.

Leadershipul poate fi văzut ca o deschidere către noi posibilități de înțelegere a experiențelor de viață, prin eliberarea constrângerilor impuse de atașamentele materiale.

Un ochi sănătos nu-și uită vederea în urmă atunci când explorează noi perspective, tot așa cum un actor nu își poate uita rolul atunci când interpretează o nouă scenă pe tot parcursul spectacolului. Iar dacă aș dori să mă reintorc într-un loc în care am pierdut un lucru, vizualizându-l constant ca pe un reper al unei lecții învățate, poate că ar trebui mai întâi să recunosc valoarea experienței prin care am trecut și să îmbrățișez transformarea pe care mi-a adus-o, înainte de a încerca să-l regăsesc.

Un om mai puţin cunoscut

Angajează-te într-un proces de revizuire a modului de raportare la situații neaşteptate, punându-ţi amprenta în mod fast asupra evoluţiei contextului de apartenență la tine însuți.

Conversaţiile cu Chaplin îi dezvăluiră lui Eisenstein un om mai puţin cunoscut. Odată, când Chaplin îl vizitează acasă, se joacă aici un joc de societate: cineva trebuie să iasă din încăpere, iar ceilalţi îi dau note, de la 1 la 5, pentru anumite calităţi ale sale: inteligenţă, farmec personal, umor, etc. În acelaşi timp, cel vizitat îşi dă singur note la aceleaşi întrebări. Apoi răspunsurile sunt confruntate şi hazul se naşte din neconcordanţa părerilor celui anchetat cu aprecierile asistenţei.

E rândul lui Chaplin. Iese din bucătărie şi-şi completează formularul. Ceilalţi îi pregătesc o farsă: regele umorului primeşte de la toţi nota 4. "O să înţeleagă el oare umorul acestei situaţii?" se întreabă Eisenstein.

Chaplin nu-l înţelege însă. Se simte jignit ! "Celebrul oaspete nu are destul umor pentru autoironie – constată amuzant Eisenstein – astfel nota 4 se dovedeşte a fi fost pe deplin meritată." *

Leadership: Ai puterea să-ți asumi apariţia trecătoare și înşelătoare a unei note mici după care poți pune „smile", evaluând o imagine despre oameni care cuprinde mesajul unor gânduri exclusiv personale despre ceva ce cunoști vag?

Privilegiul omului de a fi mult mai mult decât știe că este nu aparține aceluia care, dintr-o amplă explozie de reacţii și emoții de moment, se ridică de la masă și se rupe de propria lui interioritate. Ci aceluia care reușește să-și reprime impulsul de a se măsura cu percepţia asupra lui însuşi, îndurând ruşinea și vinovăţia, sau lipsa prezenţei de spirit. De altfel, caracterul omului este în strânsă legătură cu meritul său de a se conforma normelor contradictorii pe care le impune o anumită situaţie.

Percepţia asupra sinelui este uneori ca o floare care se vestejeşte din pricina lipsei căldurii soarelui. Omul care în mica lui lume se măsoară cu acea neînvinsă stare de spirit apăsătoare, relaţionând cu experienţa din fiecare moment, făcând judecăţi morale, cu alură de predictibilitate asupra performanţelor sale, nu va reuși să se manifeste niciodată ca o forță infinit de puternică și imparabilă.

Dacă este adevărat ceea ce spunea criticul rus de artă Vissarion Belinsky, că numai la om se dezvoltă tendinţa de a fi așa cum de fapt el nu poate fi, atunci în ceea ce privește leadershipul voi adopta o poziție mai dură, ca principală sursă a unei reflecţii scurte, și voi spune că de regulă oamenii de succes își prezintă deseori personalitatea ca fiind marcată de tot soiuri de neajunsuri.

Acest gen de oameni își pun amprenta în mod nefast asupra evoluţiei contextului de apartenență la ei înșiși, înclinați spre o anumită exigenţă faţă de ceea ce scapă experienţei şi raţiunii lor, surprinzând ca principal izvor al absurdului tot ceea ce este mărunt, ridicol, nefavorabil, josnic în fiecare situație. Mai ales atunci când adevărul este ascuns în spatele unei „note" fictive sau conceput special în defavoarea lor.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi construieşti o imagine despre tine însuţi plecând de la percepţia unei situaţii mai puţin familiară sau confuză, încât să dovedeşti că eşti în stare să te lansezi în provocări mai mari?

Cu cât firea omului este mai sensibilă, cu atât este mai înclinată să-și reprezinte propria natură pe un fond de slăbiciune, insuportabil, răscolitor. Fiind cumva împins să lovească în optimismul altora, în spiritul jocului de-a puterea, din egoism și trufie, din acţiunile sale corelate cu frica de a nu mai fi important, el se reîntregeşte doar prin întoarcerea opiniei emisă de ceilalţi.

Autoironia, la fel ca stima de sine, este un proces de declanşare a orgoliului care trebuie învins. A-ți învinge orgoliul este o putere pe care numai un lider poate s-o stăpânească.

Cunoaşterea condiţiilor și acceptarea situaţiilor care înlesnesc apariţia răspunsului la sugestiile celorlalți, constituie de fapt, într-o atare experienţă de viață - cu iz de învăţare, o pregătire în faţa perspectivei de renunţare la așteptările înalte (o perspectivă percepută drept amenințare).

Omul care nu va avea puterea să producă acest ansamblu „cunoaştere-acceptare", nu va putea să facă nici din el însuși un cadru de referinţă pentru progresul în accesarea Sinelui Superior, deoarece nu-şi va asuma apariţia trecătoare și înşelătoare a unei note mici după care se poate pune „smile".

În leadership, părerea celorlalţi vizavi de tine este asemenea unui măr care se usucă: nimeni nu-l mai doreşte, dar fiecăruia îi pare rău că nu i-a simţit savoarea la timpul potrivit.

Un om mai puţin cunoscut este omul de succes al cărui caracter și personalitate se dovedesc a fi, în împrejurări cu totul neaşteptate, cu totul diferite faţă de cele care au captivat atenţia întregii lumi. Faţă de ceea ce cunoşteai la el.

Un om se caută pe sine

Evaluează-ţi viziunea asupra vieţii, experienţei şi ştiinţei, ridicându-le la cote înalte pe măsură ce acumulezi în tine timpul.

Eisenstein îşi cercetează în acelaşi timp şi opera, meditează asupra ei. Dar am temeiuri să presupun că şi în operă se caută acum tot pe sine. Face, de pildă, în această perioadă, o asemenea afirmaţie: "…şi tocmai de aceea în geneza operei, aşa cum se întâmplă deseori, se reflectă nu numai faptele, ci şi dinamica procesului de creaţie".

Se gândeşte acum mult la moarte. Şi la nemurire. Caută urmele temei morţii în propria sa opera. Şi se gândeşte poate, că, implacabilitatea oarbă, care înaintează fatal în toate operele sale mereu sub altă înfăţişare a pătruns acum şi în viaţa lui. Infarctul, cu aceeaşi oarbă fatalitate implacabilă, l-a asediat de atâtea ori, l-a izbit acum grav şi înaintează, înaintează pentru a lovi mortal cine ştie cât de curând.

În aceste momente Eisenstein încearcă să reţină fiecare amănunt care "pleacă". Are senzaţia timpului care se pierde, care s-a pierdut în alunecarea spre trecut. Îşi aminteşte de aserţiunea unui anglo-saxon care spunea că trăim de parcă am avea în faţă un milion de ani. Poţi trăi acumulând în tine timpul, sau cheltuindu-l raţional, sau neraţional, sau, în sfârşit, pierzându-l. Este tocmai senzaţia pe care o încearcă. Îşi trăieşte cu intensitate drama. *

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi formezi o cultură amplă asupra operei pe care ţi-o împlineşte viaţa pentru toate realizările tale, fără să te blochezi în încercarea de a reţine fiecare amănunt care "pleacă"?

Manifestarea sentimentului de comuniune cu lărgirea orizonturilor vizavi de anumite proiecte şi impactul lor, cu baza temporală, ca stări distructive sau constructive ale sinelui ce emană din sursa creaţiei, îşi găsesc deseori ecoul în alunecarea spre adâncimile deprimantului. Sau spre extrema unei înălţimi care descalifică acel „a putea" al obligaţiei de a suporta greutăţile, prezentându-se ulterior sub formă de lecţii de viaţă cu totul neaşteptate.

Faptul că sentimentele, izbucnite din focul ambiţiilor şi căutărilor de noi modalităţi de creaţie, se desfăşoară între contraste ca: gravitatea şi voioşia, plăcerea de a descoperi şi neplăcerea de a-ţi face drum printre efectele istovitoare ale gândirii, poate fi recunoscut că una din caracteristicile primordiale ale navigării către nebunia unui joc al vieţii. Spre finalul unui joc dominat de la un capăt la altul de temeri şi îndoieli, reflecţii şi meditaţii.

Opera care împlineşte viaţa unui artist este însăşi tema unei filosofii a cărei diversitate atestă şi exprimă conştiinţa unui scop final care aduce valoare unei gândiri de tipul: "Tot ce mi-am dorit a fost să arăt ceea ce sunt."

Leadershipul, conform principiului „eşti ceea ce trăieşti în jocul propriei tale minţi", captează senzaţia intensă pe care o încerci - ca autor al unei opere-model, atunci când cumulezi în tine timpul, cheltuindu-l raţional, sau neraţional, sau, în sfârşit, pierzându-l. Adică, senzaţia de gol sau de plin pe care o experimentezi în călătoria meditaţiei în fiecare moment din viaţă.

Această operă-model nu reprezintă, la un echilibru stabil al elementelor ei componente, doar sinteza indisolubilă a ideii cu forma, nu atât imaginea unei împliniri marcante, ci mai degrabă o cerinţă absolut necesară a evaluării viziunii asupra vieţii, experienţei şi ştiinţei conform unei acumulări de excese şi erori.

Leadershipul este viziunea pe care ţi-o dă experienţa de model din punct de vedere al determinării, disciplinei, forţei şi rezistenţei pe care ţi-o conferă opera numită "observarea de sine" într-o supraproducţie semnată "Trăieşte ca şi cum ai avea un milion de ani".

Un om care se caută pe sine îşi cercetează în acelaşi timp şi opera, meditează asupra ei, pentru a se înconjura, la nivel moral şi spiritual, cu o bariera de protecţie atunci când se simte invadat de proiecţiile negative ale eforturilor sale de a-şi finaliza compoziţiile artistice.

Nu uita că în geneza operei, aşa cum se întâmplă deseori, se reflectă nu numai faptele, ci şi dinamica procesului de creaţie. Să încerci să creezi o operă, care ulterior te poate aduce în pragul nebuniei, este o modalitate riscantă de a-ţi înţelege rostul, de a te construi şi modela, de a evolua şi de a te defini conform amănuntelor de ordin determinant care „pleacă”.

Poţi lăsa în urmă excesele şi erorile, dar consecinţele lor rămân ca un fel de martor al evoluţiei spre o cunoaştere de sine mai amplă.

Un om trece prin ceață apropiindu-se de sine

Pune-ţi la încercare capacitatea de a depăşi momentele dificile de îndoială, astfel încât să progresezi în cunoaşterea de sine.

Nicio întrebare nu poate fi formulată mai repede şi mai uşor decât: " de ce? ". Şi ea devine atât de insistentă încât trebuie să-i răspunzi neîndoielnic, dacă poţi. Un simbol al conştiinţei care demarează începutul frământărilor, al cărui înţeles restrâns nu poate fi pătruns decât de cel ce deţine cheia decodificării lui. Numai de omul care scapă din strânsoarea de fier a gândurilor şi emoţiilor intense, neoprite din acţiunea lor continuă, întreţinută de setea de a se impune.

Şi numai această încleştare a forţelor interne, dintre substanțialitățile fenomenelor produse în starea de haos, numai interacţiunea câmpurilor de tensiuni ce coagulează în nişte structuri noi, face diferenţa dintre un învingător şi un învins. Numai zbuciumul unei uluitoare experienţe, testarea capacităţilor la presiune constantă, oferă omului posibilitatea deschiderii unui alt orizont de înţelegere a lumii interioare. Numai mijloacele concentrate, coordonate de o singură voinţă, instinctuală, pot fi semnificative în procesele de stabilire a echilibrului său.

Leadership: Predictibilitatea evoluţiei tale este de limitată de reperele unei decizii de conjunctură ce are ca efect secundar căderea într-o postură de victimă care te obligă la confruntarea cu tine însuţi?

Clarice Starling nu bănuieşte implicaţia profundă a deciziei şefului ei, în misiunea încredinţată. Nu cunoaşte adevărata faţă a lucrurilor. Instinctul ei pare îngropat în acel colţ al cimitirului de confuzii, plin de erori de judecată, unde nu se plăteşte taxă de tranzit, care e al nimănui şi în care se pierde orice fel de reper.

Practic ea este folosită drept momeală pentru obţinerea unor informaţii de la singurul om care ar putea furniza indicii preţioase în această anchetă delicată, Hannibal Lecter. " A matter of routine ", o dezinformare bine plasată, dar care accentuează o trăsătură neglijentă de personalitate, acea slăbiciune de care se poate profita.

Clarice cade forţat în capcana întinsă cu dibăcie de şeful ei şi se vede constrânsă, pentru a ieşi cu stima de sine curată şi neatinsă de vreun orgoliu păcătos, de imensul chin al gândurilor de a se ridica la un nivel înalt de profesionalism, să reia, în pofida turbulenţelor resimţite în ultima vreme, cercetarea anchetei. Ceea ce o duce curând la progrese decisive.

Abia în acest moment, când se simte abandonată pe teritoriul plin de capcane al marelui psiholog, Hannibal Lecter, ea începe să se confrunte cu propria minte, cu propriul potenţial de analiză specific cunoaşterii veritabile. O victimă uşor de manipulat, dar înzestrată cu calităţi excepţionale de detectiv.

Un om trece prin ceaţă apropiindu-se de sine, de adevărul acceptat ca răspuns la frământările sale. Tăinuirea adevărului din partea şefului ei în toată această schemă a căutărilor, a întrebărilor şi răspunsurilor, creează cumva sentimentul de lipsă a valorii. În acest caz, scăparea lui Clarice se regăseşte într-o formă de evadare din tumultul necunoaşterilor şi temerilor, dintr-un orizont fără ieşire şi reaşezarea într-un orizont al înnoirii interioare.

Dar în acelaşi timp, o asemenea misiune stârneşte interesul pentru explorare, escaladarea unui pisc abrupt şi deosebit de semeţ. Reuşita ei ar fi însemnat avansarea spre atingerea unui nivel adecvat de dezvoltare, promovarea ei pe o treaptă superioară în divizia FBI.

Eşti pregătit să accepţi încercarea de a te abate din calea deznodământului unei intrigi de deducţie, fără să diminuezi rezistenţa leadershipului în condiţii de izolare?

O revigorare a puterii de înţelegere a sinelui, aruncând o privire chibzuită asupra ceea ce înseamnă să fii "conectat" la evenimentele externe aflate în desfăşurare, oferă leadershipului un anumit puls, un anume fel de a surprinde esenţialul omului.

Prin mijloacele specifice leadershipului, utilizate pe cât posibil pentru a surprinde aspectele fragmentare ale existenţei care îl preocupă cu adevărat pe om, nu numai raţionamentele inovative şi motivaţiile generatoare de valori morale pe care el pune accent, se urmăreşte o lămurire a ceea ce înseamnă adevăr personal.

Leadershipul este precum prezenţa tablourilor în sala de expoziţie, nu poţi să-l priveşti şi să-l cunoşti întru totul pe "artistul" din spatele operelor care-i poartă numele. Ele dezvăluie doar fragmente surprinse de pictor, redate în manierea personală care l-au impresionat. Dar privitorii nu le-au cunoscut niciodată, după cum nu l-au cunoscut niciodată pe omul din spatele lor.

Dacă crezi că tablourile au reuşit să-i redea foarte bine trăsăturile aparte, e doar o iluzie, pentru că este posibil ca în mintea lui să domnească haosul. Prezenţa tablourilor este doar o aparenţă care în faţă reproduce ceea ce pare definitiv. Dar în realitate, ceea ce nu se zăreşte şi ascunde o mare doză de adevăr, este caracterul a ceea ce este variabil.

Cine reuşeşte să surprindă omul care acceptă absurdul şi izolarea, cine reuşeşte să câştige experienţa a ceea ce este dincolo de orizontul existenţial al omului supus robiei ego-ului, acela poate face din leadership un amplificator al cunoaşterii umane.

Însă, totodată, leadershipul îşi diminuează rezistenţa în condiţiile în care "accesibilitatea" la natura omului nu se menţine în timp sau se reduce doar la măsurarea potenţialului său. Şi mai ales dacă nu conduce la favorizarea deschiderii omului spre o configuraţie stabilă.

Leadership: Ai puterea să te distanţezi de mediocritatea care indirect îţi este inoculată de circumstanţele unei forme de răspuns la stimulii unei forme de realitate care nu trebuie arătată, ci trebuie doar să-i scoţi în evidenţă esenţa?

La partea opusă liderului se află susţinătorul, omul obişnuit care stă parcă sub comanda unei forţe implacabile. Să accepte sau nu această realitate? Acest spirit dependent de dorinţa de a crea valoare, cunoaşte deseori neliniştea tocmai datorită implicaţiilor profunde ale deciziei liderului.

Setea de a se impune, nevoia intrinsecă de a cunoaşte adevărata faţă a lucrurilor şi de a se distanţa de mediocritatea care indirect îi este inoculată şi pe care o urăşte atât de mult, îl prinde şi mai mult strânsoarea de fier a gândurilor şi emoţiilor intense. Se zbate ca un peşte pe nisip în apropierea apei, trăind cu speranţa că un val de cunoaştere îi va intensifica din nou elanul spre un întreg uşor de asamblat – spre valorificarea deplină a potenţialului.

Omul care doreşte să cunoască totul, sperând la un progres decisiv, dar care oscilează între " a fi " şi " a nu fi " la dispoziţia liderului, se vede constrâns de stările sufleteşti şi de conştiinţă, pentru a ieşi cu stima de sine curată şi neatinsă de vreun orgoliu flămând, să-şi redobândească voinţa de a se implica într-un joc care de multe ori nu-i aparţine.

Acţiunea acestui joc greu de câştigat ţine de schema căutărilor, a întrebărilor şi răspunsurilor. Dacă el nu produce dezechilibru în abilitatea de a refuza o comandă sau o sarcină de serviciu, deci dacă ai curajul să spui ferm şi senin " Nu " liderului, atunci îţi va oferi posibilitatea deschiderii unui alt orizont de înţelegere a lumii interioare.

Să treci prin ceață, să nu crezi exclusiv în arta ta de a înscrie goluri în poarta celui mai accesibil adversar, este obligatorie pentru participarea la jocul numit "viaţă", având ca şi coechipier leadershipul. Este momentul când te poţi apropia de tine însuţi mai mult ca oricând. Sau te poţi pierde în rătăciri şi să te îndepărtezi definitiv de libertatea pe care ţi-o dă atingerea unui nivel adecvat de dezvoltare.

O realitate care nu trebuie arătată, ci trebuie doar să-i scoţi în evidenţă esenţa, are ca principal corespondent acea abordare a umanului bazată pe incertitudine pe care tinzi să o neglijezi tocmai datorită subevaluării propriilor capacităţi de a te descurca singur şi de a decide singur cursul unei misiuni.

Esenţa unei realităţi greu de acceptat reprezintă adesea o aparenţă a unei viziuni admirabile asupra propriei tale personalităţi care depinde de gradul de receptare a unei experienţe dramatice.

Un om trece prin ceață apropiindu-se de sine desemnează acea trecere prin nebuloasa cunoaşterii de sine. Este un proces mai mult sau mai puţin îndelungat prin care liderul se maturizează şi îşi dezvoltă imunitatea faţă de deznădejde, frică şi îndoieli.

Un vechi proverb italian spune că omul care nu trece prin durere, rămâne veşnic copil. L'uomo non educato dal dolore rimane sempre bambino. Sau, altfel spus, un lider care nu ajunge să fie un trecător prin ceaţa cunoaşterii de sine, nu se va maturiza niciodată.

Un outsider al lumii încadrate în programul Normal-Mode

Declanşează scânteia de inspiraţie care dă unicitate spaţiului tău de excelenţă intelectuală, anulând "programarea" creată prin interacţiunea dintre sensurile şi înţelesurile cunoaşterii unanim acceptate.

Ceea ce caracteriza sensul evoluţiei ştiinţei mele, corespunzător diferitor niveluri de acces la quinta essentia care stătea la baza construirii Marii Opere, era acea luciditate fervidă ce îşi propunea să înfrunte inerţiile de sorginte: „ It Can't Be Done ". Printr-o reinventare a limbajului pur universal al cunoaşterii. A actului creator debarasat de balastul conceptual de tip utopic. A făptuirii. Era acea luciditate care face din incertitudine un creaţionismul ştiinţific inconturnabil, sub forma unui intelectualism superior care macină ideile la nesfârşit, repunând în valoare instanţele unei judecăţi de mult apuse.

Cu orice preţ, voiam să profit de ştiinţa de a pătrunde înţelesurile de dincolo de înţelesurile din înţelesuri. Care se dezvăluiau printr-o succesiune de operaţii elementare, efectuate cu ajutorul unor instrucţiuni foarte abstracte, într-un limbaj de programare simplu care viza interacţiunea şi cooperarea între simboluri, metafore, sensuri, informaţii şi semnificaţii.

Evoluția intelectuală depinde de capacitatea de a intercepta și interpreta semnale aleatorii din supraconștient, transformându-le în înțelesuri profunde.

Prometeu a adus "focul" omenirii, dar din pricina neascultării şi încălcării ordinelor, a fost pedepsit cu severitate de Zeus, înlănţuit de o stâncă pe un pământ arid, vizitat zilnic de un vultur uriaș care îi devora ficatul. Din întâmplare însă, pe acolo trecea Heracles, în drum spre Grădina Hesperidelor. El a ucis vulturul cu una din săgețile sale otrăvite, eliberându-l pe Prometeu. Ce splendidă alegorie !

Particular, aveam senzaţia că mintea-mi era formată dintr-o scoarţă elastică, supusă unor mişcări alternative în sus şi în jos, care sub acţiunea continuă a unui câmp electric exterior producea un impuls suficient de puternic pentru declanşarea scânteii de inspiraţie ce dădea unicitate spaţiului meu de excelenţă intelectuală.

În mod cert, factorii care declanşau dispoziţia prielnică gândirii de a efectua interceptarea semnalelor de tip " Encoder ", transmise total aleator de supraconştient, aveau ca rezultat activarea şi proliferarea înţelesurilor şi subînţelesurilor necesare în evoluţia creaţiei mele ştiinţifice.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi extinzi înţelegerea despre o realitate în care se ilustrează o circumstanţă experimentală de utilizare a efectelor ştiinţei constituite ca expresie a însuşirii unei noi concepţii despre lume?

Chiar dacă progresul tău în ipostaza de "actor" pe scena marii ştiinţe, consumatoare de combustibili informaţionali şi inovaţionali, nu este resimţit imediat pe linia preocupărilor de autorealizare, totuşi el există în străfundul propriei tale conştiinţe care, niciodată adormită, strigă cu mult aplomb: " Modelează ! Finisează ! Îmbină părţile diferitelor construcţii ale cunoaşterii ! Du la bun sfârşit opera căreia îți vine să-i dai Like ! " eveniment din propria experienţă de viaţă, care ţi-a trezit anumite sentimente, prin prisma a ceea ce el poate produce la nivel de schimbare de mentalitate.

Una din circumstanțele experimentale de utilizare a efectelor ştiinţei constituite ca expresie a însuşirii unei noi concepţii despre lume este reprezentată de posibilitatea de a crea un

Abordările leadershipului, raportate la criteriul de optimizare a ştiinţei moderne, care adună şi procesează cunoştinţele vitale pentru organizaţii, sunt rezultatul unei „iluminări” născute din miezul fiinţei. Ca o clarificare a condiţiilor unui parteneriat bine definit cu şirul mult mai numeros al observaţiilor care atestă manipularea fără precedent a acelor înţelesuri din spatele experienţelor care activează imaginaţia, acceptabilă ca exercitare a libertăţii de gândire.

Una din noile concepţii despre lume poate fi definită astfel: "O orientare fundamentală a inimii poate fi exprimată sub forma unei naraţiuni dacă totalitatea cunoştinţelor tale sunt cuprinse în modelul unui erou care triumfă şi ia în stăpânire simbolul Vieţii."

Leadership: Îţi lipseşte capacitatea de a plasa bătălia cu ştiinţa în spaţiul nelimitat al libertăţii de gândire căreia îi este atribuită o piesă dintr-un puzzle pe care trebuie să-l descifrezi?

Capacitatea de a plasa bătălia cu ştiinţa în spaţiul nelimitat al libertăţii de gândire este sinonimă cu conştiinţa bogăţiei, căci ea aduce cu sine libertatea de a crea, dând frâu liber imaginaţiei, orice tip de conţinut care adaugă un plus de valoare leadershipului.

Întotdeauna în ilustra galerie a acceptabilităţilor contextelor de utilizare a materiei din care este constituită ştiinţa, de dincolo de frontierele unanim acceptate de adepţii leadershipului, poate să răzbească un om cu vederi înaintate, un outsider al lumii încadrate în programul ce rulează în “Normal Mode” - program care amplifică rutina în relaţie cu ştiinţa.

Şi numai un astfel de om va putea să releve sau să activeze posibilităţile de transformare a elementelor ştiinţei trecute cu vederea chiar şi de către cei mai cutezători exploratori de noi ţărmuri ale cunoaşterii, chiar şi de către naturile cele mai imaginative şi mai creatoare.

O piesă dintr-un puzzle pe care trebuie să-l descifrezi poate fi o prezentare sensibilă a unei lumi aparte, o năzuinţă permanentă spre revelaţia unui adevăr, reflecţia unei lecţii de viaţă, o circumstanță experimentală de utilizare a unei creaţii personalizate, sau folosirea unui scenariu care oferă o imagine inedită a realităţii care te înconjoară.

Ştiinţa este ceea ce aduci în plus povestirii tale inspirată din experienţa vieţii, dar care te nominalizează drept rezultat al un puzzle care compune personalitatea unui personaj nu dintr-odată, ci treptat şi în contexte diferite, şi de fiecare dată sub altă formă.

Un outsider al lumii încadrate în programul Normal-Mode reprezintă acel lider care are disponibilitatea de a găsi alternative de creaţie, fără a situa leadershipul în afara unei ştiinţe unanim acceptate.

O ştiinţă unanim acceptată este precum rezolvarea unui puzzle la care te întorci fără să vrei, încercând să pui de fiecare dată o nouă piesă la locul ei.

Un paradis pentru Mathilda

Pune-ţi în valoare resursele pentru a evolua, fără să îţi pierzi puterea de a fi stăpânul propriilor tale emoţii şi trăiri.

În filmul " Leon: The Professional (1994) ", micuţa Mathilda, în vârstă de numai 12 ani, se împrieteneşte cu Leon, asasinul. La insistenţele ei, el o învaţă arta de a ucide şi de a fi "profesionist". Astfel ea intră în acea lume nouă a armelor şi a asasinatelor. O apucă pe drumul fără întoarcere spre "sublimul paradis" al lumii interlope – căzând în "plăcerea" veşnică de a ucide şi de a face bani grei din asta.

Pentru prima oară începe să se întrevadă adâncul prăpastiei în care era împinsă. Viaţa pe care o ducea semăna tot mai mult cu a unui proscris. Nu ieşea din casă decât înarmată. Această fiinţă neliniştită, blajină şi prietenoasă, în loc să vegheze fără încetare asupra ei, luase chipul unui asasin îmbrăţişând această meserie cu nepăsarea celui care nu cunoaşte pericolul sau îl dispreţuieşte.

La un moment dat Mathilda porneşte singură să-şi facă dreptate, să-l ucidă pe acel poliţist corupt care îi ucisese familia. Dar se loveşte de realitate. Cade în capcana întinsă cu abilitate de victima ei, fiind la un pas de moarte. Scapă ca prin minune datorită intervenţiei de ultim moment al lui Leon.

Leadership: Te supui unei restrictii de caracter care începe cu creşterea nevoii de afirmare, urmată de o repoziţionare a sensului vieţii?

Duci o viaţă de prizonier? Mathilda o apucase pe un drum greşit, pe care voia să meargă împreună cu cineva care îi putea asigura un viitor mai bun. Însă ea nu cunoştea cu adevărat lumea crimei în care se învârtea şi în care încerca să se integreze. Voia să practice o meserie datorită căreia nu putea învăţa să trăiască, ci să moară. Nu ştia ce viaţă de prizonier este o asemenea existenţă.

Ea nu era stăpâna propriei sale vieţi, ci se supunea unei realităţi conduse de oameni meschini, învinsă la rândul ei de propriile ei gânduri de răzbunare. Fără îndoială cunoştea o felie destul de subţire a umanităţii şi a celor mai înalte idealuri ale ei. Asta din cauză că nimeni nu îi oferise înţelegere, protecţie, iubire şi bunătate într-un mod necondiţionat – nu cunoscuse compasiunea, înţelegerea, iertarea. Toate acestea i-ar fi ridicat moralul. I-ar fi îmbunătăţit imaginea despre sine. I-ar fi revigorat mintea, viaţa. I-ar fi înălţat aşteptările.

Mathilda a adăugat semnificaţie existenţei sale abia atunci când s-a izbit de realitate, atunci când a fost la un pas de moarte, abia atunci când Leon a fost ucis. Sensul vieţii ei s-a schimbat brusc, fiind uşor de descifrat: dobândirea unei noi stări de conştiinţă şi o intensificare a dorinţei de mai bine şi mai frumos.

Leadership: Îţi simplifici conştiinţa sau ţi-o îngreunezi în momentul aplicării a ceea ce ştii despre tine?

Leadershipul de calitate începe să prindă contur odată cu îmbunătăţirea imaginii despre tine şi despre lumea din jur. Iar îmbunătăţirea imaginii personale nu se poate realiza când refuzi să aderi la acele convingeri şi preferinţe sănătoase pe care credinţa adevărată şi simţămintele tale cele mai profunde ţi le dictează neîncetat.

Alături de "ieftinătatea" realităţii omului, induse de evoluţia precară a conştiinţei sale, e necesar să avem în vedere şi o altă notă specifică proprietăţilor din sistemul leadershipului - variabilitatea - cu respectarea condiţiilor prevăzute de apariţia unor noi forme de organizare a vieţii, dar şi noi forme de putere. Cum ar fi puterea de a-ţi lumina propria viaţă, dând naştere la propria-i fericire şi satisfacţie.

Variabilitatea este acea capacitate a omului de a se diferenţia de tot ceea ce-l înrobeşte, printr-un ansamblu de procese de prelucrare a realităţii.

Leadershipul este conceput să servească şi să placă pentru orice perioadă a vieţii, căreia un rol important îi revine sensul pe care îl dă omul eforturilor sale de a-şi produce mai multă bucurie, fără a metamorfoza realul. Dacă într-o bună zi nu va mai plăcea această existenţă bazată pe sensul atribuit propriului "conţinut", omul are libertatea să-şi conceapă altă formă de putere, cum ar fi puterea de a accepta ceea ce nu se poate schimba. Îmbunătăţind eventual şi dimensiunea propriului sine, prin studiul puterilor sale, în contextul activităţilor ce urmează a fi efectuate.

Sensul pe care îl dai vieţii este o reîntoarcere la condiţia ta iniţială, privind-o cu gândul la o accesare şi o coordonare ulterioară a laturii tale sensibile.

Aşa cum chimistul simplifică nenumăratele combinaţii ale naturii scoţând în evidenţă elementele care o compun - tot aşa şi tu trebuie să-ţi simplifici conştiinţa şi nu să ţi-o îngreunezi, scoţând în evidenţă elementele tale bune care îţi compun caracterul.

Pentru ca conştiinţa ta să se trezească pe deplin, trebuie să-ţi obligi psihicul într-un fel sau altul să stea în contact cu stimulii noi o mai lungă perioadă de timp – aceşti stimuli noi fiind activaţi prin contactul cu o realitate benefică, care să nu te marcheze în mod negativ – acea realitate a inimii tale, a părţilor tale bune pe care deseori nu le iei în considerare.

Lasă latura bună din tine să asculte şi să judece argumentele relevante şi corecte care îţi susţin hotărârea de a nu te îndepărta de la valoarea ta morală, şi împiedic-o să ia în seamă calificativele negative pe care sentimentele de vină ţi le atribuie. Fii întotdeauna mândru de a fi tu însuţi, fii conştient de ceea ce ştii, de ceea ce eşti, de ceea ce simţi, de ceea ce gândeşti, chiar şi atunci când eşti înconjurat de un mediu străin şi negativ.

Cineva spunea că dintre aptitudinile cu care ne-a înzestrat natura, prima este forţa raţiunii, care ne înalţă deasupra propriilor noastre patimi şi slăbiciuni şi care ne face să ne cârmuim chiar şi calităţile, talentele şi virtuţile.

A încerca din răsputeri să te ridici deasupra propriilor "intoxicări" cu gânduri şi emoţii negative, a încerca să fii mai bun, mai blând, mai corect, mai curajos – ca într-un final să constaţi adevărul despre propriile tale sentimente – îţi va determina atitudinea, comportamentul, şi îţi va amplifica potenţialul pozitiv al conştiinţei tale.

Conţinutul pe care doreşti să-l adaugi vieţii este dat de motivaţia cu care intri în acord cu imaginea pe care o ai despre tine proiectată în exterior.

Un paradis pentru Mathilda scoate în evidenţă vulnerabilitatea propriei tale fiinţei, a propriei tale lumi de gânduri, dorinţe, sentimente şi realităţi false în care alegi să trăieşti.

Ca şi lider eşti ceea ce ai vrut să fii, adică propria ta “creaţie”. Această creaţie depinde de educaţie, cultură, mediul de dezvoltare a conştiinţei, de capacitatea de a te încadra şi adapta la realitatea obiectivă de zi cu zi, de voinţa proprie de a opta şi de a te orienta spre un pozitivism constructiv. A-ţi crea un fals paradis este ceva periculos – atât pentru tine, cât şi pentru societate - care în cele din urmă te va împinge la marginile ei.

Tu ştii încotro te îndrepţi? Te dai bătut şi admiţi să te încadrezi în limitele unui mediu defavorizant? Atitudinea te face să nu te descurci cum trebuie când viaţa îţi ridică oprelişti? Cât de mare este forţa raţiunii tale? Poţi să te înalţi deasupra propriilor patimi şi slăbiciuni? Ai curajul să stai faţă în faţă cu adevărul despre tine? Ce oglindeşte acest adevăr?

Un pas important în domeniul ştiinţei

Învaţă să faci din tine însuţi amintirea unei invenţii care să-ţi poarte numele în sferele superioare ale divinului.

Un muncitor din Lyon, pe nume Joseph Jacquard (1752 - 1834) a găsit într-o bună zi piesele care cândva alcătuiseră războiul de țesut mecanizat al lui Vaucanson. Cineva le adusese la muzeul de arte și meserii unde zăceau grămadă într-un colț. Jacquard le-a luat cu el, le-a reparat, le-a montat și a început să-i aducă perfecționări. A introdus cartele perforate, creând astfel "una dintre cele mai frumoase invenții mecanice industriale ale secolului" cum s-a afirmat. Și care-i poartă numele. Numele lui Jacquard. De fapt, erau niște cartoane prevăzute cu găuri, dispuse în așa fel încât se obținea imprimarea mătăsii. Schimbându-se cartonul se imprima alt model, iar pentru imprimarea stambei se foloseau cilindri gravați, puși în mișcare de forța aburului.

În loc de 200 de muncitori, care iniţial făceau această muncă manual, nu mai era nevoie decât de unul singur, ajutat de un copil care, cu o mașină scotea 28 de iarzi de stambă imprimată în patru sau șase culori, pe minut. Ideea lui Jacquard însă l-a inspirat pe Herman Hollerith (1860 - 1929), care, în 1871, a construit, pe acest sistem, o mașină de calcul. Când în 1940, Norbert Wiener a ajuns la concluzia că mașina de calcul rapidă pentru rezolvarea ecuațiilor cu derivate parțiale trebuie să fie o mașină electrică cifrică în baza doi - cum ar fi prezența sau absența unei găuri într-o cartelă - și-a amintit de mașinile Hollerith, fabricate de Internațional Business Machines Corporation. A fost un pas important în domeniul calculatoarelor electronice. *****

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi exprimi atitudinea faţă de conţinutul realităţii în care te dezvolţi, cu motivaţia care stă la baza acţiunilor de creaţie, prin mijlocirea materiei din care toți și toate sunt făcute?

O soluţie tehnică a unei probleme descoperită prin intermediul elementelor tehnice, iată ce îţi trebuie ca să devii inovator, încât tu însuţi să devii expresia unei voinţe creatoare. Pentru a trece la un nivel înalt performanţă, încât să apropii esenţa existenţei tale de esenţa divinului, trebuie mai întâi să dovedeşti competenţă, independenţă şi consecvenţă numai prin modelarea materiei din care orice e constituit, precum şi spaţiul şi timpul, în termenii cărora este descrisă versiunea ta de a fi un adevărat Creator.

Când vorbim despre divin, ne gândim la cele câteva mijloace spirituale absolut trebuincioase pentru evoluţia lumii: creaţie, descoperire, cercetare, experiment, reflecţie, explorare, toate acestea pornind de la o atitudine de acceptare obiectivă a realităţii şi continuând cu imitarea realităţii în folosul împlinirii Marii Opere. Şi pornind de la divin putem să ne definim pe noi înşine ca fiind oameni de ştiinţă prin prisma a ceea ce suntem capabil să devenim după ce ne punem la bătaie capacitatea de a gândi, de a ne înălţa gândurile, convingerile şi acţiunile la rang de "înfăptuiri mărețe".

Încearcă să-ţi înţelegi menirea prin sensul pe care îl dai unui singur lucru. Însuşi acest lucru trebuie să admită posibilitatea de reevaluare a existenţei tale din moment ce divinul din tine rezonează cu introducerea unui pas nou în domeniul ştiinţei. Ceea ce adaugi existenţei tale trebuie să ţină cont de ceea ce adaugi înfăptuirilor tale încât să devii indispensabil pentru realizarea unei invenţii brevetabile. Divinul este partea creativă din tine care se ridică peste marginile lumii, în faţa căreia nimic nimic nu este ascuns, nimic nu-i poate sta în cale.

Dumnezeirea (sau divinul) se descoperă prin contribuţia pe care ţi-o aduci la dezvoltarea disciplinei care te face renumit.

Urmarea unei chemări lăuntrice este revelarea unui Dumnezeu care a dat viață omului pentru a reflecta și sprijini evoluția științei sale. Cine n-a făcut nimic pentru ştiinţă, n-a făcut nimic nici pentru Dumnezeu. Însăşi viața este o stea aflată în constelația științei. Fără știință viața nu ar fi putut căpăta strălucirea unei stele.

Fiinţe ale divinului, vă rog cu stăruinţă să fiţi asemenea Creatorului, cineva care nu se mai satură să-şi extindă câmpul ştiinţei. Sferele superioare ale divinului sunt acele minuni ale creaţiei, diversificate, care arată puterea adevăratului Dumnezeu.

Un pas important în domeniul ştiinţei este realizat doar de către acei oameni deosebiţi, dinainte aleşi de Dumnezeu pentru a duce lumea la un nivel înalt de spiritualitate. Iar spiritualitatea este acea forţă a ştiinţei de a interpreta, de a anticipa şi prognoza în câmpul de reflecţie şi de acţiune o nouă înţelegere a conceptului de realitate.

Un pas înainte spre întărirea imunităţii

On Aprilie 10, 2009

Întăreşte imunitatea leadershipului tău, asigurând o ordine morală care să-ţi pună în lumină valorile bazate pe virtuţi înalte.

Vreau să vă relatez în cele ce urmează un moment din viaţa generalului francez Charles François Dumouriez, din timpul războaielor revoluţionare franceze, aşa cum îl prezenta celebrul scriitor Alexandre Dumas, in celebrul sau roman „Doctorul Misterios".

Într-o zi sosise un detaşament mai mare de voluntari, rebeli, care trebuiau să se alăture armatei lui Dumouriez. Însă printre ei se aflau şi foarte mulţi răuvoitori – instigatori, criminali, trădători. Dumouriez ordonă soldaţilor săi să fie pregătiţi în poziţie de luptă. Când rebelii se apropiară suficient de mult, el le-a adresat următorul mesaj:

– Armata mea nu primeşte în rândurile ei decât buni patrioţi şi oameni cinstiţi. Armata îi dispreţuieşte pe fugari şi are aversiune faţă de asasini. În mijlocul vostru sunt mizerabili care vă împing la crimă. Alungaţi-i singuri dintre voi ! Dacă nu, dau ordin artileriştilor să tragă, şi eu cu husarii mei voi trece prin sabie pe toţi cei care vor mai rămâne în picioare. Trebuie să înţelegeţi: în rândurile voastre, fără asasini, fără călăi. Izgoniţi-i ! Deveniţi buni, bravi şi mari, ca acei printre care aveţi cinstea şi onoarea să fiţi admişi !

Care credeţi că a fost rezultatul? Ei bine, cincizeci sau şaizeci de oameni fură izgoniţi; se făcură nevăzuţi de parcă ar fi intrat în pământ. Restul rămăseseră în rândurile armatei şi se conformară spiritului ei.

Leadership: Avansarea ta spre ceea ce te integrează într-un rol mare, poate fi o determinare a unor fenomene externe, sau aparține unei figuri care relaționează cu un fundal neutru?

"Sănătatea" leadershipului tău nu este hărăzită prin firea lucrurilor, ci se cere multă chibzuinţă şi responsabilitate în a şti să-ţi defineşti cu exactitate intenţiile, să evaluezi foarte bine motivele care stau la baza acestor intenţii, şi să acţionezi fără să dăunezi cu ceva propriului stil de conducere pe care îl adopţi. Viruşii împotriva căruia anticorpii tăi trebuie să lupte sunt: superficialitatea, lipsa demnităţii, lipsa loialităţii.

Ştiinţa conducerii rămâne indisolubil legată de poziţia avantajoasă pe care o ai în cadrul grupului în momentele cheie, atunci când eşti nevoit să iniţiezi o schimbare de ansamblu care să aibă ecou în sufletul celorlalţi, şi care să nu-ţi primejduiască ascensiunea. Numai prin prisma unui ansamblu de valori (bazat pe disciplină, nevoie de adevăr, integritate) prin care oamenii să se identifice cu modelul tău, vei putea să-ţi păstrezi intactă relaţia cu ei.

A accepta să te îndepărtezi de la principiile pe care le care le-ai stabilit şi pe care le susţii în prezenţa celorlalţi e ca şi cum, brusc, s-ar năpusti asupra ta o boală pe care n-ai prevenit-o şi pe care nu îndrăzneşti s-o diagnostichezi. Boala nu îţi apare fiindcă este cauzată de ceva sau cineva, ci pentru simplul motiv că nu eşti îndeajuns de pregătit să te lupţi cu propriile tale limite, fiindcă nu eşti îndeajuns de analitic ca să observi fisurile ce se produc în leadershipul tău pentru a le acoperi în timp util.

Avansarea ta spre ceea ce te integrează într-un rol mare poate aparține unei figuri care relaționează cu un fundal neutru, atunci când ceea ce te reprezintă poate duce la împlinire o acţiune care nu este supusă unei constrângeri de subordonare.

Alcătuirea unei echipe de sprijin este un ingredient important pentru activităţile tale. La fel cum este făina pentru o prăjitură de ciocolată pufoasă. Generalul francez Dumouriez şi-a întărit imunitatea leadershipului său, asigurând o ordine morală menită să-i pună în lumină codul de valori bazat pe virtuţi înalte. El s-a adresat acelor oameni care nu corespundeau propriilor sale criterii şi aşteptări, idei şi aspiraţii, şi le-a spus să se îndepărteze de zona lui de acţiune. Potrivnicii cei mai primejdioşi care se abăteau de la principiile sale nu trebuiau să intre în rândurile armatei lui.

Dumouriez ştia prea bine că singura cale de a păstra unitatea unui grup, şi nu s-o rupă, era să îmbine toate acele elemente necesare pentru ca leadershipul său sa capete o semnificaţie mai înaltă în ochii celor pe care îi conducea. Cu alte cuvinte, trebuia să prevină "boala" înainte ca ea să evolueze până în punctul de a-i pune în pericol poziţia.

Aşa cum un medic se preocupă de vindecarea bolilor, tot aşa şi tu, cu o înţelegere generală, trebuie să cuprinzi într-un tot simptomele răzleţe ale "bolii" ce îţi poate afecta relaţiile cu ceilalţi, să ştii care sunt factorii de risc şi să acţionezi preventiv. Nu poţi să întâmpini boala cu mâinile deschise şi s-o stăpâneşti, ci trebuie s-o stârpeşti de la rădăcină, din faza de debut, să te opui pe toate căile de a se instala şi de a se agrava.

Leadershipul este rolul decisiv pe care îl joci într-o acţiune de mare anvergură al cărei curs nu-l poţi modifica decât schimbând ceea ce este în exces, cu ceea ce este prioritar pentru obţinerea unei structuri echilibrate de energie umană.

Un pas înainte spre întărirea imunităţii desemnează acea latură din noi înşine care încearcă să ne salveze de la o umilitoare retrogradare. Ca lider, ai datoria, de mare însemnătate, de a localiza orice eventual „focar de infecţie" cercetându-i originea şi eradicându-l înainte de a se răspândi şi a crea complicaţii ulterioare.

Totodată, un pas înainte spre întărirea imunităţii o constituie instituirea şi adoptarea unor măsuri preventive eficiente, iar în momentul apariţiei (în ciuda prevenţiei aplicate) a primelor simptome de boală, este necesară eradicarea focarelor sau a bolii prin mijloace energice.

În leadership, de mare ajutor sunt oamenii cu o „imunitate" naturală solidă. Cu cât ei sunt mai mulţi, cu atât mai uşor poţi interveni asupra celorlalţi care sunt minoritari. Cu alte cuvinte este esenţial pentru un leadership de calitate, selecţia personalului şi intervenţia prin măsuri energice împotriva acelora care din diverse motive pun „beţe în roate" şi-i împiedică pe ceilalţi să urmeze calea spre performanţă. După cum toată lumea vrea recompense, tot aşa cu toţii trebuie să înţelegem că trebuie să ne conformăm unor cerinţe şi toţi trebuie să înţelegem că există şi pedepse uneori foarte dure pentru insubordonare, pentru încălcarea principiilor etice şi a prevederilor legale.

Un pas uriaş spre orizonturi înguste

On Martie 18, 2009

Porneşte în căutarea adevărului despre tine ori de câte ori îţi pierzi "coordonatele".

Ieri am primit pe email de la un prieten "bancul zilei":

O vrabie zbura cu viteză la nivelul solului. Din faţa ei vine un BMW…Vrabia zboară cu viteză spre BMW, se izbeşte de maşină şi cade complet ameţită. Şoferul opreşte, o ridică, o ia acasă, o pune în colivie, îi pune nişte pâine, îi pune nişte apă…

Se trezeşte vrăbiuţa la un moment dat şi se uita buimăcită în jurul ei: vede gratii, vede apa, vede pâinea…

– Vai, Doamne ! L-am omorât pe ală cu BMW-ul !

Leadership: Ai tăria de a recunoaşte greutatea realităţii la care te vezi martor, fără să tinzi spre un model îmbunătăţit al propriei persoane?

Pentru ca leadershipul tău să obţină un punctaj ridicat trebuie să te concentrezi asupra modalităţii de abordare a cunoaşterii de sine, şi asupra unei perspective mai apropiate de realitate. Consider că prioritatea ta trebuie să fie îmbunătăţirea performanţei în ceea ce priveşte acele aspecte pe care le ignori, pe care le treci cu vederea, pe care nu le sesizezi.

Pragul de intrare în adevăratul tău sine nu este nici subaprecierea, nici să te consideri autorul acţiunii realizate, ci este tăria de a recunoaşte greutatea realităţii. Trebuie să știi să te ridici desupra propriilor ambiții rănite sau peste adversitatea firească față de alții. De fapt, din acţiunile tale se recunoaşte existenţa Sinelui Superior şi importanţa sa în îndeplinirea unui anumit scop, chiar dacă ridici realitatea pe un palier anume, sau în totalitate, chiar dacă te ridici desupra ambiției de a te afirma.

Oricum ar fi, trebuie să-ţi ţii sub control subaprecierea, adevăratul să nu capete prea mare greutate, şi în acelaşi timp să-ţi menţii tăria interioară de a reuşi şi mai departe în viaţă.

Vei putea să asiguri elementele de bază ale leadershipului tău – precum claritatea, echilibrul şi eficienţa doar dacă îţi menţii la un nivel optim şi constant capacitatea de judecată, doar daca reuşeşti să incluzi în propria ta gândire ingrediente precum coerenţa şi obiectivitatea care te ajută să-ţi atingi obiectivele, şi mai ales dacă nu te deconectezi de la realitate.

Leadership: Poţi să te integrezi într-o imagine care se schimbă treptat într-o altă imagine, pe măsură ce realitatea din jurul tău creşte şi evoluează mai repede decât înţelegerea ta?

Aşa cum dezvoltarea unei afaceri necesită o combinaţie de viziune în ceea ce priveşte clienţii şi concurenţii, sisteme de afaceri bune şi o cultură adecvată, tot astfel dezvoltarea ta personală necesită o combinaţie de realitate şi de adevăr, adică să fii conştient de tine însuţi şi de lumea ce te înconjoară. Nu vei putea niciodată să-ţi dezvolţi potenţialul dacă idealurile tale nu se regăsesc în valorile tale, sau dacă aşteptările tale sunt mult prea mari - şi vei ajunge să nu le poţi controla. Cu alte cuvinte, valoarea ta se va ridica doar dacă rămâi întotdeauna convins de calităţile tale şi dacă nu te vei îndepărta niciodată de la cine eşti tu cu adevărat.

Fii analitic cu tine însuţi înainte de a te raporta la ceilalţi. Porneşte în căutarea adevărului despre tine ori de câte ori îţi pierzi “coordonatele”. Regândeşte-ţi orientarea şi posibilităţile de manifestare, şi abia apoi conectează-te la ceilalţi oameni. Cel mai bun lider este cel ce ştie să distingă acea linie subţire care-l desparte de adevăratul său eu, care ştie să distingă acea gamă de tonuri ce reţine detaliile cele mai fine ale variantei originale a realităţii.

Pragul de intrare în adevăratul tău sine este garanţia ta spre performanţa. Ca să dai avânt leadershipului tău nu te opri la acel prag în care punctele vulnerabile intervin în dezvoltarea ta.

Supraestimarea este o imagine care se schimbă treptat într-o altă imagine, mai ales atunci când ceea ce vezi la tine într-o anumită împrejurare poate să culmineze prin apariţia unei frontiere dure, numită: "Este doar în capul tău ! "

Un pas uriaş spre orizonturi înguste evidenţiază acea etapă din progresul tău personal care în loc să-ţi maturizeze gândirea şi leadershipul, te aruncă cu doi paşi înapoi.

Tu îţi concentrezi eforturile şi viziunea în direcţii greşite? Elementele distincte ale leadershipului tău sunt perspectiva clară şi atitudinea corectă faţă de realitate? Reuşeşti să distingi care sunt chestiunile cu adevărat importante din viaţă ta, din leadershipul tău, atunci când are loc o schimbare? Cum reacţionezi când are loc o “schimbare de decor”? Adopţi întotdeauna o gândire în concordanţă cu cine eşti cu adevărat?

Concluzie: Leadershipul se bazează pe o realitate obiectivă iar liderul trebuie să fie bine ancorat în realitate. Analizând trecutul şi implicându-se in prezent el va putea să tragă o ocheadă, dând cortina timpului de-o parte, în viitor. Căci viitorul depinde mult de trecut şi de prezent. Un lider adevărat nu-şi poate crea iluzii, nu poate vinde iluzii, deci este inutil să-şi creeze viziuni utopice căci acestea nu-l vor propulsa, ci dimpotrivă, după ce a făcut un pas înainte, va face doi sau mai mulţi paşi înapoi.

Un pătrat negru în albul orbitor

Viziunea pe care ţi-o formezi despre ştiinţă este progresul pe care îl obţii prin alăturarea propriului potenţial, lângă intenţia amplificării imaginii care te întâlneşte venind "din faţă".

La 30 noiembrie 1841, "Philadelphia Public Ledger" anunţa pentru prima oară că poliţia franceză foloseşte invenţia lui Niepce şi a lui Daguerre pentru identificarea criminalilor. În momentul când cineva realizează o invenţie ştiinţifică (scria ziarul) el nu cunoaşte încă toate laturile posibile ale întrebuinţării acesteia. Invenţia magică a lui Daguerre, care constă în a picta cu ajutorul razelor solare, a fost utilizată de către poliţia din Paris în lupta împotriva crimei. În Franţa, când se arestează un criminal sau un suspect, poliţiştii fac imediat un daghereotip şi întocmesc un fişier din portretele astfel obţinute. Oamenii lumii interlope, pentru a împiedica acest procedeu, fac uneori grimase oribile ca să-şi deformeze faţa...

Sherlock Holmes nu a fost înzestrat de către creatorul său cu înalte cunoştinţe ştiinţifice. Dar, din păcate, Connan Doyle nu i-a "permis" să se folosească nici de cele existente pe vremea sa. Iată, de pildă, fotografia, care astăzi ocupa un loc de frunte în cercetarea criminalistică. Prima fotografie, realizată de Nicephore Nieppe în jurul anului 1829, reprezentând o natură moartă, era mai aproape de un desen impresionist decât de ceea ce numim azi fotografie. Totuşi, această placă de sticlă anunţa nu doar viitoarele radiografii, cinematograful, fotografii ale aştrilor invizibili, ale particulelor cosmice, dar şi viitoarele fotografii ale amprentelor digitale, fără de care anchetatorii ar fi rămas la lupa lui Sherlock Holmes.

Leadership: Expunerea cunoştinţelor tale în faţa unei eventuale descoperiri este recomandată datorită viziunii pe care o oferă imaginea putinţei tale de a schimba un mod de a face lucrurile, prin parcurgerea unei traiectorii de tip "dublă legătură"?

Un singur adevăr poţi să extragi de aici: tot ceea ce inventezi este rezultatul unei viziuni care îmbunătăţeşte capacitatea de a gestiona orice resurse ai la îndemână pentru a face o descoperite importantă într-un domeniu. Adevărul acesta este imaginea sensibilităţii care îmbrăţişează nevoile omului de ştiinţă de-a unei lungul unei viziuni care este cu atât mai profundă cu cât este extrasă din rezultatele muncii tale. Încearcă să pătrunzi cu ochi de inventator în toate, încearcă să însufleţeşti şi să conduci orice lucru din cuprinsul materiei, asigurând parcurgerea unei traiectorii de tip "dublă legătură": între teorie şi cercetare, între descoperire şi valorificare.

Un pătrat negru în albul orbitor poate fi considerat drept o reprezentare a adevărului din jurul viziunii pe care o creezi cu un singur scop: ca să contribui la realizarea unei descoperiri a cărei utilizare se va extinde mulţi ani înainte. Pătratul reprezintă viziunea ta, pe când albul orbitor din jur este dat de leadershipul pe care îl cunoşti, pe care îl practici şi pe care îl reprezinţi. Aceste două elemente merg mănă în mâna armonizându-se permanent până la obţinerea rezultatului final care se numeşte "performanţă". Poţi îmbogăţi perspectivele domeniului ştiinţific, îţi poţi mări puterea de influenţa, dacă "pătratul şi albul" sunt menţinute la un nivel cât mai înalt de calitate.

Aşa cum inteligenţa şi capacitatea noastră de a judeca şi de a ne aminti lucrurile ne ridică deasupra celorlalte animale, tot aşa "pătratul şi albul orbitor" (spun orbitor fiindcă ştiinţa conducerii este o piatră de hotar pentru modul în care interacţionezi, comunici şi aduci valoare în abordarea unui domeniu ştiinţific), dacă aceste două elemente sunt concepute din start cu gândul la adevăratele aşteptări ale oamenilor. Dacă sunt bine aplicate în mod adecvat şi întreţinute cu simţ de răspundere, atunci ele ne vor ridica deasupra propriilor noastre limite.

Leadership: Cum răspunzi la un context mai larg de construire a viziunii care accelerează expansiunea conștiinței tale într-o zonă a puterii de a accepta condiția unui descoperitor care a pătruns la adevăr după secole de eroare?

Imaginea care te întâlneşte venind "din faţă" este de fapt o ilustrare a ideii de a gândi în afara tiparelor, punând în prim plan acea parte a descoperirilor care va rămâne definitiv o extensie a ariei de creştere a valorii persponale. Numaidecât, imaginea aceasta este se situează între concret şi abstract, între real şi ideal, între sensibil şi inteligibil, fiind totodată rezultatul interacţiunii dintre datele obiective ale realităţii şi implicarea creativă a unei subiectivităţi intermediare din cursul unor evenimente de largă anvergură.

De multe ori, însă, va trebui să accepţi condiția unui descoperitor care a pătruns la adevăr după secole de eroare. Spun asta deoarece este greu să dobândeşti ştiinţa necesară identificării unei descoperiri colosale, şi este posibil ca tu să fii cel ce începe acţiunea de "excavare" şi altcineva o va continua în locul tău (mulţi ani după ce tu nu vei mai fi). Important este să ai ceea ce trebuie ca să te numeşti descoperitor: trebuie să ai curajul şi determinarea să te avânţi în necunoscut, fără să ştii cu adevărat ce vei găsi.

1. Eşti atât de prins în activitatea ta de lider încât să nu mai vezi importanţa "pătratului şi a albului orbitor"?

2. Cum contribui la realizarea şi consolidarea relaţiei dintre aceste două elemente? Percepi tabloul întreg, imaginea de ansamblu a lucrurilor cu adevărat importante înainte de a te raporta la practicile şi accentele leadershipului tău? Cum te poţi folosi de aceste două elemente pentru a oferi adepţilor tăi un climat de siguranţă în care să poată creşte şi să se poată forma?

3. Poţi folosi aceste două elemente ca să te întreci pe tine însuţi, să intri pe un teren nou şi să reuşeşti o mare transformare?

De modul cum răspunzi la aceste întrebări depinde succesul tău ca lider. Prin urmare: Exprimă-ţi viziunea în aşa fel încât să-i determini pe oameni să acţioneze în spiritul ei.

Leadershipul este viziunea care povestește o descoperire genială din perspectiva unui călător curajos pornit într-o mare aventură a cărei a cărei finalitate va fi păstrată în memoria lumii pentru eternitate.

Un pătrat negru în albul orbitor reflectă darul viziunii de care trebuie să dai dovadă pe parcursul unei călătorii în care şansele de reuşită sunt greu de estimat. Dar viziunea trebuie să rămână a ta, a celui care a început călătoria, altfel există riscul ca, după o perioadă, să nu te mai regăseşti chiar tu în acea parte a călătoriei care se termină. Învaţă să călătoreşti de dragul de a călători. Dar marea aventură este să te pui în mişcare şi, la sfârşit, să faci o descoperire uimitoare.

Un plus de valoare

On Ianuarie 28, 2009

Atribuie potenţialului tău forţă dinamică, creând o pârghie care să-ţi amplifice la maximum eficienţa.

O fetiţă în vârstă de numai şapte ani intră cu încredere pe patinoar. La prima vedere nu pare că se deosebeşte cu nimic de ceilalţi copii de vârsta ei care se prezintă zi de zi la antrenamente. Patinează cu aceeaşi viteză, repetă aceleaşi mişcări de braţe încontinuu şi, la fel ca şi ceilalţi copii, învaţă zilnic noi figuri din patinaj şi noi mişcări de dans.

Dar dintre toţi copiii, ea este singura care patinează şi în timpul pauzelor. Este singura care rămâne pe gheaţă încă un sfert de oră după terminarea programului. Şi este singura care are cele mai multe vânătăi pe picioare şi pe mâini.

Observând dăruirea cu care această fetiţă se străduia să execute fiecare mişcare după terminarea orelor de antrenament, un angajat al patinoarului îl întreabă pe antrenor:

- După atâtea căzături şi după atâtea vânătăi căpătate în timpul antrenamentelor, de ce oare mai continuă fetiţa aceasta să patineze chiar şi după program?

Cu multă convingere, antrenorul îi răspunde:

- Ambiţia ei este să continue să se perfecţioneze; visul ei este acela de a deveni cea mai bună patinatoare din lume.

Leadership: Îţi actualizezi imaginea implicării tale concrete în dinamica unui proces de tranziţie, de la stadiul de "test al propriei tării lăuntrice" la stadiul de "cost al exploatării potenţialului maxim"?

Unicul factor important în clădirea propriului tău caracter ţine de felul cum cucereşti acel teritoriu vast, limitat de mulţi dintre cei din jurul tău, care îţi uneşte forţele psihice de cele fizice. Îl poţi cuceri printr-un hotărâtor act de credinţă şi voinţă. Capacitatea ta de a conta pe tine însuţi, pe dăruirea cu care te implici în susţinerea propriei atitudini este cea mai înaltă răsplată pe care o aduci progresului tău personal şi profesional. Trebuie să creşti în tine însuţi înainte de a ajunge un alergător de cursă lungă.

Performanţa este un proces complex, împletind într-un tot sudat şi armonios temperamentele şi trăsăturile felurite ale oamenilor. Oricât de diferită ar fi structura interioară a fiecărui individ, performanţa nu se poate crea decât prin înmănuncherea acelor părticele din el însuşi care, scoţându-le la lumină, şlefuindu-le prin muncă şi dedicaţie, îl aduc mai aproape de excelenţă, transformându-i potenţialul în avantaj.

Performanţa este acea nuanţă de suferinţă pe care o trăieşti prin dedicarea ta constantă faţă de împlinirea unei pasiuni autentice.

A încerca să devii un performer, fără să încerci să scoţi maximum din potenţialul tău e ca şi cum ai intra în posesia unui bec ultrasofisticat, dar locuieşti într-o zonă care nu e racordată la electricitate. Mai întâi trebuie să faci rost de o sursă de energie, de un generator puternic – cum ar fi ambiţia de a fi cel mai bun, să vădeşti o preocupare consecventă şi adâncită pentru fiecare din etapele hotărâtoare ale concretizării propriilor năzuinţe, şi abia apoi să-ţi racordezi abilităţile la obţinerea de rezultate.

Energia, aşa cum remarca odată cineva pe web, este forţa care face să treacă „ceva” din potenţial în dinamică sau invers, deci o forţă aplicată, care produce o schimbare de stare.

Poţi să atribui potenţialului tău forţă dinamică, creându-ţi o pârghie (acea formă de energie deosebită) care să-ţi amplifice la maximum eficienţa?

Tu poţi să produci o schimbare în starea ta de spirit? Ce este acel „ceva” din potenţialul tău pe care doar dacă aplici o anumită forţă poate deveni activ şi suficient de energic încât să-ţi ridice nivelul de competenţă necesar dezvoltării tale profesionale?

Leadership: Prin experienţa, priceperea şi dedicarea ta poţi să aduci o contribuţie personală la atingerea unor valori de referinţă în cazul atingerii unui prag de exhaustivitate a sferei tale de activitate?

Tăria lăuntrică surprinde acea manifestare a caracterului tradusă prin cultivarea şi trăirea sentimentului de superioritate. Iar costul exploatării potenţialului maxim, responsabil de producerea fenomenului de rezonanță prin care sufletul, mintea şi corpul devin o entitate unică şi binecuvântată, ţine de ceea ce realizezi în timp ce încerci să îţi depăşeşti limitele.

Performerii de elită sunt şi ei oameni, la fel ca fiecare dintre noi - au pasiuni, năzuinţe, idealuri, gânduri îndrăzneţe şi temeri. Chiar dacă vei citi multe lucruri formidabile despre ei, tot oameni sunt. Şi, în egală măsură, de-a lungul vieţii ei au trecut prin multe încercări şi eşecuri, la fel ca şi ceilalţi oameni.

Însă există un singur lucru care îi diferenţiază de toţi ceilalţi: un plus de valoare. Altfel spus, ei continuă să se perfecţioneze şi după orele de program, atunci când toţi ceilalţi încetează munca. Valoarea lor creşte, în mare măsură, datorită efortului în plus pe care îl depun în vederea perfecţionării.

Nu trebuie să fii o persoană extrem de inteligentă pentru a deveni un performer de elită, dar trebuie să fii dispus să îţi dezvolţi potenţialul ca să poţi evolua în cariera pe care ţi-ai ales-o. Dacă nu continui să te dezvolţi, să progresezi, să te perfecţionezi mai mult decât restul lumii, vei rămâne blocat în rutina mediocrităţii, şi, deci, nu vei atinge niciodată excelenţa.

Pragul de exhaustivitate a sferei tale de activitate este atins atunci când munca pe care o faci cu pasiune se identifică cu principiile călăuzitoare asumate, ducând la o încălcare a limitelor de rezistenţă întâmpinate pe parcursul formării.

În acest caz, valoarea ta de referinţă este dată de raportul dintre disponibilitatea de a suporta orice sacrificiu şi ambiția atingerii unui ideal înalt de performanță.

Un prim-plan al unui fundal plin de simţire

On Martie 29, 2021

Fii pregătit să dai un sens nou modului de a te simţi, în baza unei experienţe care produce modificări de durată în relaţia dintre ceea ce te conţine şi ceea ce te respinge.

Mă întorc spre casă, chiar dacă sunt încă departe de locul care îmi oferă întotdeauna căldură sufletească. Din fericire, ploaia s-a oprit la timp, altfel m-aş fi întors cam leoarcă acasă, fapt ce ar fi prefigurat o stare emoţională neconfortantă, un soi de frământare în labirinturile unei minţi care se îndoieşte adesea de trup, nemaigăsindu-şi nicăieri impresionare.

Este şi asta o normalitate meteorologică, pe care mi-aş dori s-o ignor pe cât posibil. Parcă aş fi al nimănui, în mijlocul pustiului, dar important este că mă am tot timpul pe mine în mijlocul gândurilor mele. Să pot să mă contopesc cu mine, să uit de aşteptările celorlalţi, încât sistemul de acţionare al corpului meu fizic, aflat în mişcare, să capete amplitudinea unui sistem dinamic pulsatoriu aflat la originea unui optimism gnoseologic. Cât de sublim sunt sugerate trăirile mele în vederea exprimării unui punct de vedere personal !

Or în fiecare pas pe care-l fac, oarecum grăbit, apăsat, spornic, se simte acea trăsătură a omului care îşi permite armonizarea cu natura şi cu totul din jur. Dar, mai mult decât atât, se simte acea distincţie a omului care ştie să fie demn şi care îşi impune respectul prin acea atitudine de deschidere creativă capabilă să exprime noi perspective de observaţie asupra vieţii.

Leadership: Tu poţi să redai ce conţine interiorul tău prin prisma a ceea ce se întâmplă în exteriorul tău, luând în considerare o acţiune care te face să vrei să trăieşti mai intens un moment care nu mai trece?

Observaţiile acestea sunt suficiente pentru a mă face înţeles. Încă se simte vântul cum bate dinspre apus, s-a făcut frig, tot mai frig, iar paşii mei nu lasă nicio urmă pe străzile umede. Cred că orice pas nu este cu nimic mai presus decât vântul pe care îl simţi cum te pătrunde până la oase, făcându-te să tremuri puţin, dar sigur uiţi de el imediat ce intri undeva la căldură.

Iată. Am ajuns acasă. Chiar dacă ploaia mi-a oferit noi perspective de a privi și a înțelege arta stradală, unde linştea şi întunericul se constituie într-un fel de realism spontan, al tratării tematicii sociale printr-o cromatică mai rece, totodată ea mi-a furnizat o lecție adâncă: o stare care este temporară poate dura mai mult decât una care este permanentă.

Starea care te traversează când eşti singur cu tine însuţi depinde de modul cum îţi înţelegi propria persoană în relaţie cu o acţiune care te face să vrei să trăieşti mai intens clipa în care timpul încremeneşte.

Da, consider că există un fel de profunzime ascunsă în fiinţa mea, ce nu iese la iveală decât în preajma gândurilor pe care mi le făuresc singur printr-o focalizare eficientă asupra trăirilor care m-au condus acolo unde mă aflu.

Sunt poate un om care a știut să desprindă din încâlcita și varietatea preocupărilor sale de moment, direct și simplu, o trăsătura de profunzime ascunsă: sinceritatea de a fi eu însumi, sinceritatea de a spune exact ce simt chiar și în cele mai discrete momente.

Leadershipul este sinceritatea de a mă vedea aşa cum sunt şi de a mă accepta cu tot ce însemn eu, rămânând aceeaşi, în fiecare moment în care nimeni nu este cu ochii pe mine.

Un prim-plan al unui fundal plin de simţire aduce în prim plan înţelegerea pe care şi-o oferă omul în momentul când este singur, fără să se auto-suspende într-un prezent care se scurge rapid, ci punându-şi toată capacitatea de reflecţie în sprijinul nevoii de a se cunoaşte mai bine pe sine însuşi.

Pe această cale, este bine să nu uităm cuvintele scriitoarei Adela Toplean: "Va fi mereu o luptă între ceea ce te conține (cu deriva ta interioară cu tot) și ceea ce te respinge (orizontul lumii celorlalți)."

Un prim val care se retrage încetul cu încetul

On Martie 30, 2014

Extinde fondul valabil al fiinţei tale, fără să te mulţumeşti cu stăpânirea unui colţ îngust din natura a ceea ce este infailibil.

Sosise timpul ca absurdul să se mulţumească cu stăpânirea unui colţ îngust din natura a ceea ce era infailibil, majorând veniturile acelor gânduri cauzative zămislite imaginar, care nu izvorau din neant, ci din impulsurile pline de învăţăminte pe care mi le dădea viaţa. Un mesaj găsit întâmplător într-o sticlă plutind pe apele destinului se transformase anormal într-o ezitare prelungită la nesfârşit în faţa unor drumuri încrucişate.

Pentru funcţionarea unei asemenea înţelegeri de sine, singur în lupta cu suferinţa sau fericirea, uneori în minciună şi alteori în adevăr, singur între aceste două bobine rezistente care prezentau inductanţă mutuală, era important ca raportul lor, numit randament, să fie întotdeauna unitar. Inefabilul este ceea ce încercam să reprezint pe fundalul unei realităţi care se năruia de fiecare dată când încercam să accesez o nouă linie dominantă a viitorului pozibil văzut din prisma înţelegerii vieţii.

Un lider autentic își satisface nevoia nativă de a emite judecăți asupra fenomenelor neînțelese, pentru a descifra mesajele continue ale vieții.

Nu pentru că ar fi fost ceva în neregulă cu mine, contribuind treptat la formarea unui miez dens de energie concentrată în jurul unei palete de nuanţe expresive şi vibrante. Nu pentru că pătrunsesem în spaţiul prietenos al ideilor ce meritau răspândite, în care accesul era limitat.

Ci pentru că, asemenea unei făpturi care extrage din propria fiinţă accentul energic şi profund, puteam în sfârşit să menţin în bună stare alianţa intimă şi creatoare dintre spirit şi materie. Înflăcărarea datorată reacţiei de răspuns la un stimul de intensitate crescută, ardoarea pentru noutatea care trebuia să-mi dea de gândit.

Cauzală, întâietatea de a arbitra ceea ce se întâmpla cu mine, reconfigurând combinaţiile de stări, judecăţi, gânduri, zgomote şi vibraţii care se găseau în armonie sau dizarmonie în natura fiinţei mele, era doar un prim val care se retrăgea încetul cu încetul.

Trebuia să-mi satisfac nevoia nativă de a emite judecăţi pe marginea fenomenelor neînţelese, ca să înţeleg ceea ce-mi transmitea continuu, viaţa.

Leadership: Ce calităţi îşi dispută întâietatea de-a lungul întregii tale evoluţii ca să obţii victoria regăsirii de sine într-un context de expunere a unor frânturi de gânduri generate de o realitate care nu există decât ca presupunere?

Frânturile de gânduri generate de o realitate care nu există decât ca presupunere te ajuta să înţelegi mai uşor ce se întâmpla în interior şi în exterior, să vezi lucrurile dintr-o nouă perspectivă şi să descoperi idei în locuri nebănuite, chiar dacă nu eşti total verosimil în ceea ce exprimi şi în ceea ce transmiţi.

S-ar putea că reprezentarea actualei tale realităţi (timpul ţi-o va arăta) în direcţia rezultantei unui sistem de forţe care acţionează asupra punctului tău de reper – autoanaliza – revendicând acele părţi din tine care fac posibilă înţelegerea vieţii, să fie purtătoarea unui sens atribuit experienţei, care poate să-ţi motiveze convingerile şi deschiderea către nou.

Calitatea de a evidenţia existenţa unei anumite realităţi, chiar dacă ea încearcă forţarea unor graniţe unanim acceptate, este precum reflecţia unei lecţii de viaţă: te poate ajuta să clarifici o situaţie confuză.

Leadershipul eficient necesită abilitatea de a arbitra propriile experiențe, extrăgând din propria ființă lecțiile profunde ce modelează deciziile viitoare.

Leadershipul se dezvoltă prin înţelegerea de sine, prin conştientizarea acelei realităţi care te ajută să îţi etalezi amalgamul de însuşiri acaparate de experienţa vieţii, odată cu înaintarea în vârstă, din lupta cu suferinţa sau fericirea (a căror raport trebuie să fie unitar). Mulţumirea de sine, gândirea critică, bucuria sau tristeţea, răbdarea sau renunţarea, înţelegerea, cumpătul, obişnuinţa, curiozitatea, etc.

De aceea întâietatea de a arbitra ceea ce se întâmplă cu tine, reconfigurând combinaţiile de stări, judecăţi, gânduri care se găsesc în armonie sau dizarmonie în natura fiinţei tale, este o însuşire la fel de prezentă ca Ego-ul. Şi la fel de importantă cum este oxigenul pentru trup, cum este adevărul pentru sistemul de gândire.

Leadership: IP-ul tău poate fi suspendat prin Ping-uri succesive la o distanţă apropiată de maniera subiectivă de înţelegere a unei acţiuni sau situaţii?

Leadershipul se conectează numai la acel IP al omului pe care viaţa, oricât de grea şi de zbuciumată, nu reuşeşte să-l suspende prin Ping-uri succesive care suprasolicită conştiinţa de sine. În acest caz, IP-ul reprezintă vederea singulară pe care ţi-o formezi faţă de o realitate care te provoacă să o descoperi cu mult entuziasm în contextul încercărilor de a înţelege noi aspecte ale vieţii prin prisma focalizării gândurilor asupra universului interior cât şi prin prisma trăirilor avute.

De aceea conchid că fundalul solid în leadership se poate asigura numai prin intermediul căutării pe care o trăieşti pe parcursul întregii existenţe, concretizându-se în regăsirea de sine, prin analiza stărilor cu care te confrunţi zilnic. Asta e mai greu decât a scoate aur din pământ. E mult mai greu decât a te impune printr-o comanda internă. Iar pentru aceasta trebuie să-ţi satisfaci nevoia nativă de a emite judecăţi pe marginea fenomenelor neînţelese, ca să înţelegi ceea ce-ţi transmite continuu, viaţa.

Dar spiritul lucid al omului care porneşte în căutarea unui sens ce nu se poate fi cucerit decât prin redundanța unor gânduri, unor scheme ale imaginarului, unor roluri mai multe sau puţin mature, unor clişee vizavi de tipul Who You Are and Who You Choose to Be, este mult prea întins pentru a-şi putea afla loc în cadrul unei singure etape de viaţă.

Căci aşa cum în artă, atitudinea estetică se naşte din capacitatea de a crea şi a percepe frumosul, tot astfel demersul tău de a accede la un nivel superior de evoluţie se naşte din atenţia diferită şi mereu alta pe care o acorzi vieţii.

A te mulţumi cu stăpânirea unui colţ îngust din natura a ceea ce este infailibil înseamnă să-ţi rezumi implicarea în viaţă la nişte pretenţii mici, uneori absurde, sub nume de normalitate şi firesc al lucrurilor.

Ping-urile succesive care suprasolicită conştiinţa de sine sunt date de încercările de a te înțelege pe tine însuţi în totalitatea vieții trăită prin identificarea gândurilor care te conduc la emoție, care te animă, care se revărsa asupra unei părţi din lumea care te înconjoară.

Un prim val care se retrage încetul cu încetul este semnul unei tendinţe de interiorizare conforme cu aspecte vieţii care necesită atenţie în prezent şi solicită o nouă perspectivă. Evidenţiază necesitatea unei analize atente al întregului fond al leadershipului, fără a te axa pe elementele lipsite de importanţă ale acestuia.

A stabili " cine eşti " şi " cine vrei să fii " este esenţial în leadership ca şi găsirea căilor de valorificare a potenţialului propriu prin extinderea frumosului şi adevărului din tine.

Un regizor este obligat să apere cultura

Studierea și înțelegerea contribuțiilor anterioare la moștenirea artei ne pregătesc să exprimăm "noul cuvânt" al vieții.

Totodată continuă şi munca pentru filmul "Ivan". În aceste zile monstruoase ale războiului, regizorul Serghei Eisenstein socoate ia în calcul lupta armată împotriva fascismului, fiind obligat să apere cultura. Îl îndurerează fiecare nouă barbarie: distrugerea inegalabilelor fresce medievale de la Pskov şi Novgorod, a palatelor şi a fântânilor arteziene din secolul al XVIII-lea de la Leningrad, a catedralelor de lângă Moscova, a hidrocentralei de pe Nipru... Îl doare cumplit jertfa de vieţi omeneşti care se pierd înfruntând urgia nemţească.

Dar totodată se gândeşte încă de la început la zilele de după război, la ziua de mâine a culturii şi a artei pe care şi el este chemat să o asigure făcând orice jertfă pentru grăbirea venirii ei şi fiind gata înarmaţi până în dinţi cu experienţa trecutului pentru ca făcliile din mâinile noastre, din mâinile celor care aşteaptă lumina să fie curate şi pregătite pentru acea clipă când arta noastră va trebui să exprime noul cuvânt al vieţii.

Sarcina sa principală însă o socoate a fi apărarea, prezervarea culturii. În acelaşi august termină studiul său despre El Greco, redactează o versiune engleză a studiului despre Griffith şi a istoriei montajului în diferitele arte şi pregăteşte şi o privire de ansamblu asupra ideii de prim plan de-a lungul istoriei artelor.

Leadership: Cum poți să scoți esența sufletului tău și să o dăruiești lumii printr-o capodoperă, în ciuda deplasării imaginilor de la „frumos" la „urât" și a scăderii importanței muncii de creație?

Efectul pe plan mondial al distrugerii artei, este deplasarea clară a unor imagini de la stadiul de "frumos" la stadiu de "urât", fapt ce scade importanţa muncii de creaţie. Numai ecranizările păstrează (şi vor păstra în perioada imediat următoare) o bună parte din creaţii, şi fotoreproducerea imaginilor pentru generaţiile următoare, sau cărţile care redau adevărul timpurilor, încât beneficiarii ocazionali de artă să asimileze mai mult din aspectele lumii vechi şi noi.

Sistemele tehnice de realizare a filmelor, înregistrări, prelucrări, stocări, transmiteri şi redări în clar a imaginilor, datorită complexității tehnologiei şi a volumului deosebit de mare de stocare a informaţiilor, evoluau ceva mai lent pe timpurile lui Eisenstein, decât în prezent. Cu toate astea, evoluţia atinsă și tendinţele observate stabileau încă de atunci foarte clar modul de prelucrare a imaginilor în vederea pregătirii viitoarei generaţii de artişti, preluând responsabilităţile tradițional regizorale. Din acest motiv trebuie să înţelegem durerea unui regizor: de a nu putea cuprinde într-o singură filmare toate imaginile care vor face istorie, chiar şi după ce realitatea va fi sumbră.

Leadership: În ce mod munca ta reflectă angajamentul tău profund față de cultură și cum poți integra acest angajament în propria ta creație așa încât să transmită un mesaj autentic și puternic?

În timpul acestor zile "monstruoase" ale războiului, Eisenstein considera esențială nu doar lupta armată, ci și apărarea tezaurului cultural, pe care războiul tindea să-l distrugă. Totdeauna munca unui regizor se concentrează pe salvarea și prezervarea elementelor de patrimoniu - fresce medievale, palate, catedrale, chiar și infrastructura tehnică, cum ar fi hidrocentrale. Aceasta reflectă angajamentul lui profund față de "cultură și artă" și dorința de a asigura că "făcliile" de cunoaștere și inspirație sunt păstrate curate pentru a lumina zilele de după conflict.

Acest angajament este vizibil nu doar în acțiunile sale imediate, ci și în munca pe termen lung, pregătind studii despre figuri marcante cum ar fi El Greco și Griffith, sau despre tehnici semnificative în artă, precum istoria montajului. Astfel, Eisenstein nu doar că protejează patrimoniul cultural existent, dar și contribuie la dezvoltarea continuă a discursului artistic.

De aceea, acest "nou cuvânt al vieții" ar putea fi interpretat ca o dorință de a aduce o perspectivă nouă și mai profundă asupra condiției umane, prin artă. În timpul războiului, Eisenstein simțea nevoia de a proteja cultura și de a exprima adevărul despre ororile la care era martor. Totodată, își punea speranțele în posibilitatea ca, după război, arta și cultura să poată exprima o lume mai bună, mai echitabilă, mai justă și mai umană.

În acest sens, "noul cuvânt al vieții" ar putea simboliza o schimbare în modul în care oamenii se raportează la artă și cultură, și modul în care acestea pot contribui la reconstrucția morală și spirituală a societății după război. Arta ar trebui să devină un instrument puternic pentru promovarea păcii, dreptății și progresului, reflectând astfel valorile și aspirațiile unei noi ere.

Ca să devii un artist adevărat trebuie să integrezi în creația ta tehnici semnificative în artă, precum istoria montajului, pentru a exprima "noul cuvânt al vieții" în ciuda realităților vremurilor.

Nimeni nu ştie ce se petrece în sufletul unui regizor, în afară de acei artişti care s-au confruntat cu problemele muncii de creaţie în timpul vremurilor de criză. Un artist trebuie să își mențină creativitatea și să își urmeze viziunea chiar și în momente dificile, făcând abstracţie de obstacolele din jur.

Un salt într-o nouă calitate a structurii sonore din film

Artistul nu percepe coloana sonoră ca o ilustrație a imaginii, ci ca un element integrant al acesteia, sincronizat cu o acțiune specifică.

La Berlin, regizorul Eisenstein colaborează cu Edmund Meisel pentru a pune la punct muzica pe care acesta o compune special pentru filmul „Potemkin". Colaborarea lui cu compozitorul este deosebit de importantă, deoarece, în acel an, înainte de apariția filmului sonor, prin partitura muzicală pentru „Potemkin", Eisenstein pune primele jaloane ale viitoarei cinematografii sonore. De aceea, remarcă întotdeauna cu atâta amărăciune cât de ciudat este că el, tocmai el, a ajuns, din cauza împrejurărilor extraordinare, ultimul la întâlnirea cu filmul sonor, realizându-l pentru prima oară abia în 1938.

Muzica pentru filmul "Potemkin" este net diferită de cea practicată în acea vreme. Deși scurtă, colaborarea cu compozitorul se desfășoară în felul în care se conlucrează astăzi pentru alcătuirea unei piste sonore. Eisenstein îl convinge pe Meisel să renunțe la funcția pur ilustrativă a muzicii și să accentueze, în schimb, anumite „efecte". Acestea izbucnesc mai ales în „muzica mașinilor" din secvența finală a întâlnirii crucișătorului cu escadra. Regizorul îi cere categoric compozitorului să renunțe la melodia obișnuită, bazându-se în schimb pe bătaia ritmică a percuțiilor, și solicită ca, în acest moment, muzica să urmărească, ca și filmul, un salt într-o nouă calitate a structurii sonore. Astfel, imaginea fuzionează organic cu sunetul și, în locul unui film mut cu ilustrație muzicală, apare de fapt un film sonor.

Leadership: Creația ta poate fi considerată mai mult decât un acompaniament, ci o formă de expresie ce evocă o energie adânc înrădăcinată în imagini?

În sistemele moderne de creație cinematografică sonoră, colaborarea dintre regizor și compozitor funcționează precum un sistem de control integrat, în care muzica nu mai este doar un senzor pasiv care captează emoțiile filmului. Partitura muzicală devine o unitate centrală care analizează și ajustează parametrii artistici, renunțând la funcția pur ilustrativă. Efectele sonore sunt programate să accentueze momentele-cheie, precum în secvența mașinilor, unde percuția ritmică înlocuiește melodia tradițională. Tranzițiile între imagini și structura sonoră trebuie să fuzioneze organic, evitând ilustrația muzicală convențională. Sincronizarea dintre elementele vizuale și cele sonore devine categoric esențială, urmărind o nouă calitate a sistemului cinematografic, în care sunetul și imaginea operează ca un tot unitar, nu ca două componente separate.

La Berlin, colaborarea dintre Eisenstein și Edmund Meisel pentru filmul "Potemkin" a fost similară cu un experiment de inginerie acustică, în care muzica devine un element esențial al structurii filmului. În locul unei partituri pur ilustrative, Eisenstein îi cere compozitorului să accentueze vibrațiile ritmice și să elimine tonurile melodice obișnuite, un proces prin care sunetul devine aproape palpabil în secvențele de tensiune. Această metodă de a manipula sunetul, asemenea accentuării frecvențelor dorite în designul acustic, creează o „muzică a mașinilor" în secvența întâlnirii cu escadra, unde percuția capătă un rol dominant.

Printr-o abordare neconvențională, Eisenstein urmărește să fuzioneze organic imaginea cu sunetul, creând nu doar un fundal muzical, ci o nouă structură sonoră ce transformă întreaga experiență vizuală. Astfel, ritmurile percutante ale muzicii de film devin fundamentul cinematografiei sonore moderne, în care sunetul intensifică imaginea, oferindu-i o calitate senzorială profundă, care transcende funcția ilustrativă.

A fi cu adevărat lider în cinematografie înseamnă să transformi tensiunea dintre funcția ilustrativă și potențialul expresiv într-o fuziune organică ce revelează noi dimensiuni ale percepției artistice.

Un salt într-o nouă calitate a structurii sonore din film presupune o sincronizare perfectă între imagine și sunet, o interacțiune profundă între cele două elemente și o utilizare inovatoare a sunetului ca instrument narativ și emoțional.

Iată câteva aspecte-cheie ale acestei noi calități sonore, așa cum se manifestă în ecranizarea "Potemkin" și în filmele sonore care au urmat:

- Sincronizare precisă: Sunetul nu mai este doar o ilustrație muzicală a imaginii, ci un element integrant al acesteia. Fiecare sunet este sincronizat cu o acțiune specifică de pe ecran, creând o senzație de unitate și coerență.

- Amplificarea emoțiilor: Sunetul este folosit pentru a intensifica emoțiile transmise de imagini. De exemplu, muzica dramatică poate sublinia tensiunea unei scene, iar sunetele ambientale pot crea o atmosferă specifică.

Un scurt ecou pictat pe umbra veșniciei

Găsește un sens nou reprezentării tale ca artist prin prisma mentalităţii unei lumi mici care continuă să se lărgească către ceva mai măreț decât tine însuți.

Ce rost are universul, cu ale lui enigme încă nedescifrate, trecute prin filtrul unui timp ce nu există decât ca noţiune abstractă? Ce motiv are el să se extindă la nesfârşit, asemenea semnificaţiilor deduse dintr-o privire aruncată în treacăt înăuntrul unui labirint realizat în stilul unui Dede Eri Supria? De ce oare Dumnezeu, care înseamnă tot şi toate, fără de care nimic nu este cu putinţă, acceptă nebunia de a fi veşnic?

Mi-am început ziua ieşind în grădină, ea însăşi primordială prin setea de creaţie pe care o generează lectura poeziei sale, în care versurile de gingăşie, carismă, puritate şi răbdare, aparţin unei fragilităţi existenţiale superlative pe care reprezentările naturii, personificată ca o mare fiinţă, le inserează în universul meu.

Aici îmi regăsesc pacea, o nemaipomenită senzaţie de confort şi libertate, respirând aerul proaspăt al liniştii. Mă simt în largul meu, ca şi când tristeţea cu ale ei prăpăstii fără sfârşit nu ar ajunge până la mine, în această grădină cu balansoar, cu mult spaţiu verde şi unde trandafiri de toate felurile îmi reflectă personalitatea plină de ambiguităţi, totuşi fermecătoare.

Revenirile mele în acest loc reprezintă fundalul pe care se desfăşoară o extraordinară poveste, ca o sumă a rătăcirilor mele într-un context de tipul: "Există o privire pentru că există ochiul care o cheamă".

Frumuseţea nu constă în a-mi admira aranjamentele „ton pe ton”, ci în a le dărui mereu o nouă semnificaţie ce rezonează mai degrabă cu temele favorite ale artiştilor de geniu, asigurând modelarea raporturilor tainice dintre Creator şi Marea Operă.

Leadership: Creaţia ta îşi găseşte o binecuvântată finalitate ca urmare a faptului că ai căutat o viaţă întreagă echilibrul şi armonia într-un loc care pare încremenit în timp?

La fel cum căpitanul Nemo nu se putea îndepărta de obiectul creaţiei sale, la îndemnul misterios al inimii care nu suportă despărţirile, tot aşa mă simt eu în vastitatea propriei mele creaţii transpusă într-un univers al cuvântului descătușat de gravitatea terestră într-un plan fizic, pornită de la necesitatea de a mă destinde şi ajunsă apoi la o formă de artă inedită.

După cum se poate bine intui, niciodată nu ajung prea departe să călătoresc, aşa cum au îndrăznit Magellan, Amundsen sau Columb, decât cu mintea, dorul fiind infinit mai puternic: nu mă pot despărţi de grădina mea.

Ţin atât de mult la ea, încât simt că dacă n-aş mai fi, nici ea nu ar mai continua să existe. E un fel de legătură de rudenie, o reciprocitate în diferite formalisme, o abordare cuprinzătoare a universului care promovează cooperarea centralizată între o autoritate deplină şi o fundaţie cu aceleaşi iniţiale: "Numărul 17", pe care Dumnezeu l-a ales ca un simbol al bunăvoinţei sacrului.

Universul, încă atât de nepătruns, continuă să se extindă pentru că grădina mea, prin grija pe care i-o port zilnic, continuă să se deschidă gradual în faţa învăţăturii mele. Pot obţine oricând o vedere generoasă demnă doar de un tablou ficţional al lui Jim Warren, o sensibilitate spectaculară din care se desprind eonii, o minune dintr-un basm al lui Wilhelm Hauff, reprezentând totodată subiectul principal al unei arte care va străbate secolele şi continentele, ca o piatră magică cu forţă de simbol care prin puterile ei realizează orice dorinţă a celui care o posedă.

Leadership: Îţi evidenţiezi calităţile pe care le dobândeşti în prezenţa unor opere nemuritoare, conform unei revelaţii în care doar cei aleşi îşi găsesc mărirea definitivă?

Dumnezeu a ales veşnicia pentru ca toate lucrurile create de El să capete un rost pentru însăşi muritorii de rând. El îşi găseşte un sens de a exista etern nu atât prin actul de creaţie atribuit unui artist care caută mereu să aducă ceva nou în Eden, încercând să scoată mereu altceva din piatră seacă, ci pentru că dacă el n-ar mai fi El, nimic n-ar mai fi, şi toată strădania milioanelor de ani ar deveni doar o pură formalitate, determinată de capricii subiective - ceea ce seamănă cu egoismul.

Ştiţi de ce 'David' a lui Michelangelo continuă să existe ca un compromis între univers şi omenire? Fiindcă sufletul artistului încă se află în opera sa. Tot astfel arta mea va traversa multe secole de acum înainte fiindcă e venită din inima şi roadele grădinii mele.

Dacă ar trebui să-mi găsesc un corespondent în istoria secolelor, probabil m-aş identifica cu nimeni altul decât Nicolas Flamel, şi el avea o grădină asemănătoare cu a mea, iar marea lui ştiinţă mi-a fost revelată numai mie, bineînţeles într-o formă adecvată gândirii prezentului. Probabil sufletul lui s-a condensat ca o „esență divină" în acordurile unice ale naturii şi s-a oprit asupra unui singur om.

Sufletul artistului este etern nu fiindcă îşi caută un loc care să-i hrănească legenda, ci pentru că îşi găseşte un alt suflet care să-i continue munca, împlinind astfel destinul unei generaţii.

Leadership: Poţi face din opera ta o necesitate a viului în misterul îmbrățișării universului care îţi deschide ochii prin ceea ce reuşeşti să cuprinzi într-un mic spaţiu ce se măreşte pe măsură ce înaintezi spre miezul unei alte înţelegeri?

Nikos Kazantzakis a exprimat o idee care se potriveşte de minune orizontului artei mele, căreia şi Flamel sau Michelangelo i-au conturat un rol permanent:

Doamne, spune-mi până unde să merg?"... iar Dumnezeu i-a răspuns cu glas senin :

- "Mergi până unde poţi ! "

- "E prea puţin, Doamne ! Cere-mi mai mult ! ", s-a îndârjit omul. Dumnezeu i-a răspuns cu glas la fel de senin :

- "Mergi până unde nu mai poţi "...

Geometria universului este plăsmuită de spiritele supreme care înconjoară planul al optulea, cel al Absolutului Divin, avântându-se acolo unde imaginaţia umană eşuează.

Ecuaţia existenţei acestor forme de reprezentare a lui Dumnezeu în concept, într-o lume materială, este cuprinsă în posibilitatea de a te retrage într-un loc al tău şi de a descoperi acolo tainele marilor forţe ale creaţiei ce pot modela percepţia asupra lumii.

Leadershipul se aseamănă cu misteriosul magnetism al unei creaţii rare: este nemuritor atâta timp cât îşi păstrează faima şi, în acelaşi timp, latent în cercul unui destin care îşi asumă o istorie a prezenţei lui Dumnezeu în lume.

Un scurt ecou pictat pe umbra veşniciei marchează momentul în care creaţia personală, dezvoltată în jurul unei entităţi singulare, capătă dimensiunea unei istorii care se repetă în felurite chipuri odată cu fiecare generaţie, cu fiecare rotire cosmică, spre modelarea destinului unei lumi întregi.

Destinul unei lumi întregi se comprimă în destinul unui singur om care şi-a păstrat tăinuit semnificaţia într-un univers care parcă îi şopteşte: "Niciodată nu poţi pleca dintr-un loc care continuă să se lărgească".

Un soare aflat pe drumul spre apus

On Septembrie 18, 2010

Găseşte căile hotărâtoare pentru a-ţi asigura excelenţa, forţând limitele leadershipului tău de dragul unei chemări mai înalte.

Căpitanul Rhodes către echipa de comando condusă de locotenentul Waters:

- Domnilor, ştiu că aţi avut mult de furcă, dar trebuie să vă trimitem înapoi. Aveţi de îndeplinit o misiune foarte importantă. Principalul obiectiv este s-o găsiţi şi s-o recuperaţi pe doctoriţa Lena Fiore Kendricks de la Crucea Rosie Internaţională. Obiectivul secundar este să recuperaţi două călugăriţe şi un preot care au un adăpost în apropiere de Yolingo, Nigeria. După ce recuperaţi ţintele, mergeţi spre zona de retragere Alpha. Mult succes.

Locotenentul Waters şi echipa lui de comando, ajung în sătucul în care se aflau cei trei, însă, la insistenţele doctoriţei, care se ataşate de populaţia din zonă, acceptă să ia cu ei mai mulţi localnici. Cele două călugăriţe şi preotul refuza să plece, căci oamenii de acolo aveau mare nevoie de ajutorul lor.

După aproape două zile de mers prin munţi, ajung la zona de retragere Alpha. Atunci locotenentul Waters îi abandonează pe localnici, o urcă pe doctoriţă în elicopter şi părăsesc zona, fără să-i pese de soarta bieţilor oameni care au rămas singuri în munţi, expuşi pericolului. N-avea de ales, trebuia să-şi îndeplinească misiunea, nu s-o pericliteze, căci soldaţii generalului Mustafa Yakubu erau pe urmele lor şi aveau să-i ucidă fără milă.

Leadership: Depinzi de existenţa unei abordări a conceptului "suflet" dintr-o perspectivă psihologică asupra puterii de care dispui, cu sensuri mai adânci decât le poate da evenimentul unei alegeri greşite de moment?

Elicopterul în care se aflau locotenentul şi doctoriţa trece la un moment dat deasupra sătucului în care fuseseră cu două zile în urmă. Priveliştea era cutremurătoare. Satul ardea în flăcări, pe câmp zeci de cadavre zăceau la întâmplare. În aer plutea duhoarea morţii.

Doctoriţa era speriată şi stăpânită de gânduri negre. Era profund afectată de ce se întâmplase şi se temea că oamenii ce fuseseră abandonaţi vor împărtăşi aceeaşi soartă. O podidise plânsul, de parcă inima i s-ar fi frânt pentru totdeauna.

În ochii locotenentului Waters se putea citi mâhnirea şi îngrijorarea. Vederea acelei imagini de coşmar îi strecură în suflet revolta. Rămase un minut pierdut pe gânduri. O privi pe doctoriţă ca într-o rugă nesfârşită, nefiind în stare să pronunţe niciun cuvânt. Şocul produs de vederea acelor oameni morţi era prea mult pentru el. Îl scârbea cruzimea aceasta neumană. Fu brusc cuprins de remuşcări pentru faptul că-i abandonase pe localnicii aceia pe câmp.

Nu putea rămâne indiferent, nu era în stare să comită o asemenea infamie. " N-aş putea să-i abandonez ", îşi spuse în sinea lui. Apoi, în sfârşit, rosti acel cuvânt tainic, al omeniei sale, ce venea din adâncul sufletul său: „ Întoarce elicopterul ! "

Leadership înseamnă să rămâi fidel principiilor morale chiar şi atunci când rămâi captiv în capcana unui sacrificiu pe care nu doreşti cu adevărat să-l faci pentru altcineva.

Dacă aţi urmărit filmul “ Tears în the sun (2003) ”, vă amintiţi că în loc să-şi conducă echipa de comando şi pe doctoriţa Kendricks în siguranţă spre destinaţia “Acasă”, îndeplinindu-şi astfel misiunea, locotenentul Waters a luat hotărârea să se reîntoarcă la zona de retragere Alpha, locul unde îi abandonase pe localnici, şi să-i călăuzească pe aceştia pe jos, prin munţi, spre Camerun, unde ar fi fost salvaţi.

Nu a respectat ordinele clare pe care le primise, punându-şi întreaga echipă, ca şi pe doctoriţă, într-un pericol permanent. Căci din momentul când a dat ordinul de întoarcere, totul s-a schimbat, a început adevăratul calvar. Cariera lui se afla în declin.

Misiunea a fost îndeplinită, dar nu în totalitate. Numai patru membri ai echipei de comando au rămas în viaţă iar ei au fost grav răniţi, printre care şi Waters, dar cea mai mare parte a localnicilor au supravieţuit. Doctoriţa a reuşit să scape cu răni uşoare. Se poate spune totuşi că misiunea a avut un succes deoarece, în schimbul a câtorva vieţi, au fost salvate numeroase vieţi omeneşti.

Leadership: Ce anume te restricţionează să fii om? Privești empatia ca pe o precondiție a prejudecăţii, sau ca un substituent al acesteia?

Cât de bogată în surprize neplăcute poate fi viaţa unui conducător. Decizia luată de locotenentul Waters a fost o uriaşă încercare a tăriei sale de caracter, a demonstrat nobleţea sentimentelor sale, ale unui om care îşi asumă riscuri şi îşi forţează limitele de dragul unei chemări mai înalte.

Liderii ca Waters sunt mistuiţi de un puternic simţ al dreptăţii şi al omeniei. Ei nu radiază o atitudine de genul: “ Fie ce-o fi ”, ci una bazată pe altruism: “ Voi sări în ajutorul tău. Dacă nimeni nu face ceva pentru tine, eu am de gând să fac ceva. ” În străfundul fiinţei lor zace un dram de smerenie. Ei sunt preocupaţi de bunăstarea oamenilor, reuşesc să construiască o legătură puternică cu ei.

Ceea că faci are întotdeauna consecinţe. În leadership totdeauna este loc de noi manevre, mai ales dacă eşti forţat de împrejurări să le aplici, dar dacă te îndepărtezi de la scop, fie şi din pricina sentimentelor, atunci poţi da greş.

Un om este cu adevărat măreţ atunci când nobleţea sentimentelor sale dă sens unei vieţi experimentate cu o conştiinţă trează.

Concluzie: În viaţa fiecărui lider pot exista momente de cotitură când este obligat să se abată de la drumul pentru atingerea scopului propus iniţial, deoarece apar motivaţii care impun acest lucru. Deciziile luate în aceste momente de cumpănă, sunt cruciale pentru lider. Dacă rezultatul acestor decizii este benefic şi se soldează cu victorii, liderul devine un erou, iar dacă nu, liderul ajunge “un soare aflat pe drumul spre apus”.

Tu poţi să îmbini fermitatea cu apropierea afectivă?

Găseşte căile hotărâtoare pentru a-ţi asigura excelenţa, forţând limitele leadershipului tău de dragul unei chemări mai înalte.

Un spectacol în onoarea vieţii

Pune-ţi la încercare tăria de caracter, făcând din leadership un principiu de viaţă.

De curând, celebrul actor Michael Douglas a fost invitat la cunoscutul talk show de televiziune "Late Show with David Letterman" difuzat pe CBS. Poate cel mai important moment al talk show-ului a fost acela când s-a adus în discuţie cancerul la gât în stadiul I cu care a fost diagnosticat Michael. Acesta a menţionat, cu mândrie, că, în ciuda bolii, va continua să filmeze în filmul "Haywire".

David Letterman, care nu-l slăbise pe Michael din ochi nicio clipă pe tot parcursul interviului, văzând că acesta nu pălea deloc când vorbea despre starea lui de sănătate, l-a întrebat: " Arăţi foarte bine, nu pari a fi un om care s-a îmbolnăvit de cancer. Cum reuşeşti asta? "

Cu toată puterea sa de stăpânire bine cunoscută, nelăsând să se vadă nicio urmă de nelinişte, Michael a răspuns fără şovăire: " Deoarece sunt pe scenă ! "

Leadership: Care este Sinele pe care doresti să îl exprimi în plinătatea dinamică a vieţii ca urmare a folosirii forţelor actoriceşti?

Răspunsul celebrului actor hollywoodian sugerează încrederea fermă pe care i-o conferă scena pe care a debutat şi unde şi-a construit bogata carieră, scena pe care a slujit-o şi o va sluji mereu cu credinţă şi devotament, scenă care, deşi îl epuizează fizic deseori, îi dă în acelaşi timp un suflu şi o energie puternică în plan emoţional.

Scena este locul unde se face legătura cu viaţa. Întreaga lume a unui artist adevărat este scena, şi atâta timp cât i-a fost dat să interpreteze un rol, el trebuie să-l joace bine şi constant.

A juca un rol este poate cea mai mare bucurie şi fericire pe care o simte un artist adevărat. Scena îi dă puterea de a se dărui liniştit muncii sale, abordându-şi rolul cu o pasiune vibrantă, cu o profunzime şi un aplomb rar întâlnite, deseori în ciuda numeroaselor greutăţi pe care le întâmpină în viaţa reală. Vioi, inteligent şi foarte însetat după excelenţă, dominat, între altele, de un accentuat spirit al încrederii şi al speranţei, el va păstra pe scenă o consecvenţă uimitoare în atitudinea cu care apare pe scenă şi cu care abordează tema rolurilor.

Sinele pe care doreşti să îl exprimi în plinătatea dinamică a vieţii, ca urmare a folosirii forţelor actoriceşti, ascunde o interiorizare a imaginii celorlalţi despre tine în cazul unei situaţii în care nu ai certitudinea că ai făcut totul pentru a fi la nivelul aşteptărilor lor. Acest sine este de fapt latura ta cea mai expresivă, mai penetrantă şi mai vulnerabilă, mai expusă ochiului critic şi vigilent privitorului care este interesat de fapte, şi nu de relatarea arbitrară a acestora.

Leadership: Poţi să fii strălucit în ambele laturi principale ale terenului tău de evoluţie?

Tu ce poţi spune despre caracterul fiecărui om pe care îl întâlneşti? Înţelegi trăsăturile care îl individualizează? Ce anume stă la baza propriei sale evoluţii? Credinţa în calităţile lui este puternică? Atitudinea lui îl face să se descurce atunci când viaţa îi ridică oprelişti? Acceptă limitările fireşti pe care i le impune viaţa?

Răspunsul celebrului actor, Michael Douglas, vine să desemneze tocmai o asemenea realitate, în care omul se simte esenţial angajat în relaţia "viaţă-scenă", amândouă puse cumva pe aceeaşi linie de ordine faţă de axa fundamentală a leadershipului - care conţine în structura lui putere, virtuţi și trăsături de caracter.

Pentru realizarea unui leadership trainic, nu unul trecător care va rămâne doar în amintiri, trebuie să creezi o punte de încredere între tine şi potenţialul tău de a fi strălucit în ambele laturi principale ale terenului de evoluţie: viaţa şi cariera.

Asemenea unui surogat de artă care devine astăzi un adevărat pericol estetic, leadershipul poate deveni mai degrabă o corvoadă, o piedică sau o dilemă, decât o desfăşurare naturală a aptitudinilor personale în împrejurări care includ răspunderea faţă de sine. Asta în cazul în care, pentru realizarea de rezultate efective, liderul nu reuşeşte să se înscrie pe o direcţie clară de evoluţie, axându-se prea puţin pe înţelegerea impactului propriilor performanţe asupra calităţii prestaţiei sale pe scena vieţii.

Se poate ajunge astfel în următoarea situaţie. Ca în locul leadershipului autentic, bazat pe relaţia dintre personal şi profesional, liderului să i se ofere, prin reţeaua propriilor concepte, idei, filozofii, percepţii şi puncte de referinţă, un înlocuitor tentant de leadership, un punct slab în mijlocul evoluţiei sale, exprimat printr-un amestec concentrat de inferioritate şi nesiguranţă în ceea ce priveşte locul lui în structura socială şi existenţiala.

Tu ce fel de lider eşti? Cât de mult te implici în relaţia scenă-viaţă?

Leadership: Rămâi ancorat în ceea ce ai plăsmuit drept o imagine a perfecţiunii din miezul căreia se naşte îndoiala asupra propriei condiţii şi valori, în conformitate cu rezultatul interpretării unui rol realizat într-un spectacol public?

Un lider adevărat se ridică la un nivel înalt de gândire şi de interpretare artistică. Liderul seamănă mai degrabă cu un actor care-şi încropeşte cu talent un rol important în cadrul organizaţiei din care face parte. Este de datoria lui să se identifice total cu personajul pe care îl interpretează, chiar dacă uneori îi este teamă de intensitatea propriilor lui trăiri atunci când îşi joacă rolul îndrumător.

Ca lider, preferi să interpretezi roluri tragice, cum e acela al unui părinte care asistă neputincios la chinurile suferite pe nedrept de propriul copil, pe care îl vede murind?

Sau adopţi tot timpul aceeaşi postură pe care a zugrăvit-o actorul Michael Douglas la cunoscutul talk show de televiziune al lui David Letterman - postura omului încrezător, optimist, care, sănătos sau bolnav, îşi joacă rolul constant cu o energie extraordinară?

Michael are meritul incontestabil de a fi străbătut de un înflăcărat avânt, de o viguroasă încredere în viitorul său. Şi tu trebuie să ai aceeaşi atitudine. Dar pentru asta trebuie să-ţi faci din leadership un principiu de viaţă.

Rolul tău, ca lider, este să duci organizaţia înainte. Însă sarcina de a fi conducătorul şi călăuzitorul transformărilor necesare nu este atât de uşoară pe cât ar putea părea. Oamenii tind să-şi exprime nemulţumirea crescândă faţă de prestaţia ta în cazul în care nu-i conduci în direcţia cea mai favorabilă.

Liderul un este nicidecum un simplu artist, ci un adevărat interpret care rămâne devotat muncii sale şi tăriei lui de caracter. Plin de talent şi, căutând necontenit prin intermediul artei sale să se menţină pe locul pe care îl ocupă în organizaţie, va reuşi să realizeze tot ceea ce şi-a propus.

Rezultatul interpretării unui rol realizat într-un spectacol public este cuprins în conţinutul raportului dintre ceea ce încerci să proiectezi asupra celorlalţi şi ceea ce se întoarce înapoi la tine prin descoperirea a ceea ce însemni pentru întreaga lume.

Un spectacol în onoarea vieţii poate fi numită prestaţia unui lider care nu depune armele şi nu se lasă bătut în circumstanţele dramatice. Viaţa unui lider este şi ea un spectacol, în care el deţine rolul principal - rol pe care trebuie să-l interpreteze cu o consecvenţă uimitoare. Iar felul în care îşi conduce propria existenţă, spune multe despre capacitatea lui de a-i conduce pe ceilalţi oameni.

Dacă vrei să funcționezi la cel mai bun nivel și să fii o persoană cu realizări mari, pune-ţi la încercare tăria de caracter, făcând din leadership un principiu de viaţă.

Un spirit care iradiază

On Martie 09, 2009

Călăuzeşte-i pe oameni spre o viziune comună, făcând apel la valorile lor cele mai profunde.

"Începând de azi, trebuie să ne ridicăm şi să ne ştergem de praf. Trebuie să reafirmăm măreţia ţării noastre. " Asta a declarat preşedintele american Barack Obama în cadrul discursului său de după investirea sa în funcţie.

Dând curs acestui îndemn, Obama a urmărit să câştige încrederea oamenilor şi suportul lor. Oamenilor le trebuie tenacitate, unitate de scop şi un spirit de cooperare compatibil, asta a încercat el să reliefeze prin discursul său, şi a reuşit să se facă ascultat. Toţi cetăţenii americani au înţeles solidaritatea şi spiritul acestui indemn, şi au avut convingerea că lucrurile se vor îndrepta şi vor intra din nou pe un făgaş normal.

Singurul mod în care poţi clinti din loc nu un singur om, ci o întreagă naţiune, este să faci apel la valorile naţionale - eroism, victorie, devotament, iar pentru asta ai nevoie de o forţă uriaşă de convingere. Trebuie să arăţi tuturor că ai foarte multă încredere în tine şi în soluţiile pe care le propui, că nu îţi este teamă de schimbare şi că te vei implica cu seriozitate şi profesionalism în rezolvarea tuturor problemelor. Şi mai presus de toate, trebuie să fii capabil să înlături gândurile negative ale oamenilor şi să le redai optimismul de care au cu toţii nevoie.

Ai identificat valorile morale fundamentale ale oamenilor înainte de a le împărtăşi viziunea ta? Ce ramură a personalităţii tale trebuie să cultivi pentru a reuşi să influenţezi lucrurile în favoarea ta?

Leadershipul tău îşi verifică valoarea prin dezvoltarea unor motivaţii admisibile sau inadmisibile?

Un alt aspect al mentalului general, care caută să atribuie un sens oricărui acţiuni, gând, sentiment insuflat de lider, îşi încearcă o definire prin termenul de "concret", introdus mai mult ca o instanţă menită să hotărască cu privire la temeinicia apelului care îndeamnă la atitudine, implicare şi luptă. În mod evident se pot formula numeroase critici la adresa acestui concept, însă el pare a se aplica foarte bine în acele perioade de stagnare sau de involuţie, străbătute de oameni pe parcursul desfăşurării procesului de schimbare sau de adaptare la nou.

Leadershipul comportă în esenţa sa o dihotomie între modul în care liderul creionează viitorul şi modul în care percep oamenii mesajul său. În perioade tulburi şi nesigure, lipsa solidarităţii se resimte în sufletul oamenilor mai mult ca oricând, fiecare individ trăind pentru "sinele colectiv".

De aceea este presant ca liderul să stabilească un plan de "joc", precum şi exprimarea sa în practică, care să fie uşor de înţeles, apoi acceptat şi de susţinut, prin lansarea unui îndemn concret spre solidaritate în vederea integrării viziunii sale într-un sistem de gândire general valabil, cu slabe tendinţe de împotrivire, care să asigure şi să urgenteze luarea unor măsuri de redresare.

Leadershipul tău îşi verifică valoarea prin dezvoltarea unor motivaţii admisibile, atunci când reuşeşti să-i convingi pe oameni de un lucru şi să-i faci să fie fermi în această convingere. Sau prin dezvoltarea unor motivaţii inadmisibile care nu susţin o cauză în care se crede, sau care nu se conformează unui model de gândire care actualizează nevoia de unitate între oameni.

Leadership: Care sunt indiciile maximizării aptitudinilor tale pentru arta înţelegerii autenticităţii trăirii şi a descoperirii psihologice care fac obiectul unei convingeri bine întemeiate?

În ce ritm evoluează leadershipul tău? În ritmul cu care puterea unei convingeri, considerată relevantă pentru modificarea intenţiilor de demarare a anumitor acţiuni sau decizii, este convertită într-un acord permanent acord cu ceea ce spui?

Un lider are o responsabilitate uriaşă: el răspunde în faţa oamenilor pentru felul în care alege să rezolve problemele şi pentru felul în care îi îndrumă. Un lider în niciun caz nu se poate ascunde în spatele echipei sale în cazul unui eventual eşec. Cu alte cuvinte, el este pe cont propriu în faţa riscului şi răspunderea finală este doar a lui.

Descoperirea psihologică care te poate contrazice oricând ţine de modul în care îţi expui convingerile acolo ele unde nu există sau nu sunt cunoscute. Psihologia în leadership face distincţie între forma de a te exprima prin diferite forme de comunicare şi forma de a te promova cu ajutorul ocaziilor de a te implica efectiv în ceea ce crezi.

A defini psihologia liderului înseamnă să-l caracterizezi, să-i descifrezi semnificaţiile gândirii atunci când afirmaţiile pe care obişnuieşte să le repete frecvent se raportează nu la autoritatea pe care o reprezintă, ci la înţelegerea aşteptărilor pe care le au ceilalţi oameni faţă de el.

Indiciile maximizării aptitudinii tale pentru arta înţelegerii autenticităţii trăirii şi a descoperirii psihologice care fac obiectul unei convingeri bine întemeiate sunt procesate prin joncţiunea dintre autoritatea pe care ţi-o dă o anumită calitate sau situaţie şi responsabilitatea pe care o ai faţă de eşec.

Aşa cum paşii de dans se fac în anumite direcţii, urmăresc anumite ritmuri şi sunt influenţaţi foarte mult de starea de spirit a dansatorilor, tot aşa drumul tău spre excelenţă se face prin fiecare pas pe care îl faci tu împreună cu ceilalţi oameni, în sensul pe care îl induci tu, un sens care antrenează trăiri, sau cel puţin le potenţează. Cu alte cuvinte, oamenii trebuie să perceapă acordurile tale interioare, valorile şi convingerile după care te ghidezi tu în viaţă, ca să se poată ataşa de tine. Convingerile pe care le ai şi pe care le transmiţi celorlalţi prin intermediul discursurilor, îţi vor netezi drumul sau îţi vor pune bariere.

Leadership: Reuşeşti să trasezi un sens al propriei importanţe prin rotirea sau răsturnarea unei imagini care produce un efect hipnotic?

O cale uşoară de a te face iubit şi admirat de toţi oamenii este să-ţi asumi responsabilitatea şi-ţi respecţi cuvântul dat. Nu-i de-ajuns să-i încurajezi pe oameni să se ridice şi să meargă înainte cu fruntea sus în situaţii de criză. Trebuie să te implici personal în rezolvarea problemelor şi să devii un model demn de urmat pentru toţi. Oamenii te vor urma numai atunci când vor vedea rezultate concrete, palpabile, în urma punerii în practică a soluţiilor pe care le propui şi pe care le implementezi. Deci, oferă oamenilor motive serioase să te urmeze.

Deviza oamenilor cu adevărat competenţi este: " Azi, nu mâine. " Nu vei reuşi să atragi simpatia şi respectul oamenilor dacă nu eşti gata să preiei iniţiativa şi să-ţi pui ideile în practică imediat. Trebuie să-ţi impui să acţionezi rapid şi eficient, astfel încât rezultatele să nu întârzie să apară şi să fie cât mai bune. S-ar putea să nu obţii rezultate spectaculoase într-un timp record, dar dacă oamenii nu vor sesiza nicio îmbunătăţire a situaţiei lor, niciun progres real cât de mic, atunci rişti să-ţi pierzi credibilitatea.

Doreşti să fii un lider respectat, iubit şi admirat? Dacă da, atunci oferă oamenilor soluţii ce se pot materializa, nu doar vorbe pline de dulceaţă.

Efectul hipnotic se produce atunci când convingerile tale năvălesc cu forţa în obiectivele pe care ceilalţi oameni nu trebuie să le rateze.

Un spirit care iradiază este omul care îi călăuzeşte pe oameni spre o viziune comună, făcând apel la valorile lor cele mai profunde. El reuşeşte prin aceasta marea performanţa de a suprapune convingerile pline de nobleţe cu imaginea personală în favoarea rezultatelor care sunt în concordanţă cu aspiraţiile de moment, sau de perspectivă, ale societăţii.

Un spirit care se înalță deasupra vâltorilor vieții

Curajul de a păși în necunoscut îți oferă un aliat neașteptat, fiecare pas determinându-te să te apropii mai mult de adâncul ființei mele, trezind ecouri ale unui eu uitat.

Simțeam cum fiecare pas pe acest tărâm necunoscut reverbera în adâncul ființei mele, trezind ecouri ale unui eu pe care abia începeam să-l descopăr. Nu eram doar o simplă alergătoare rătăcită; mă simțeam precum un explorator cosmic, cartografiind constelații necunoscute ale propriului suflet.

În acele momente de incertitudine sublimă, simțeam cum înțelegerea mă inunda precum un val de lumină celestă. Arta de a trăi, realizam eu, era asemenea unei simfonii nescrise, ale cărei note se compuneau din curajul de a păși în necunoscut. Simțeam cum acest curaj creștea în mine, nu precum o flacără violentă, ci ca o lumină blândă, dar neclintită, transformând frica într-un aliat neașteptat.

Fiecare bătaie a inimii mele o simțeam ca pe o incantație tăcută, un ritm ancestral care declara război limitărilor autoimpuse. Era ca și cum fiecare pulsație șoptea un secret cosmic, dezvăluind treptat misterele universului interior pe care îl purtam în mine.

"Sunt mai mult decât credeam vreodată că voi fi", îmi șopteam, simțind cum această revelație îmi impregnează fiecare fibră a ființei. Eram precum un alchimist al propriului destin, un țesător al viselor, un spirit care se înălța deasupra vâltorilor vieții precum un vultur maiestuos.

Leadershipul constă în arta de a descoperi un sine nou, în fiecare ecou trezit în adâncul ființei prin pașii făcuți spre necunoscut.

Simțeam o dualitate fascinantă în mine: puterea și vulnerabilitatea coexistau într-un dans cosmic, creând un echilibru delicat, precum firul de păianjen în bătaia vântului. Cu o claritate aproape dureroasă, conștientizam că lupta mea nu era o simplă încercare trecătoare, ci o odisee eternă de autodescoperire, o călătorie fără sfârșit prin labirintul propriei conștiințe.

Necunoscutul, odată un monstru înfricoșător ce pândea în umbre, se metamorfoza acum sub privirea mea uimită. Îl simțeam transformându-se într-un tărâm magic, un sol fertil din care răsăreau florile rare ale adevăratei mele forțe interioare. Fiecare provocare întâlnită o simțeam ca pe o nouă piatră de temelie în edificiul sinelui meu autentic, o oportunitate de a sculpta din marmura brută a existenței o capodoperă a devenirii.

În acel moment de claritate copleșitoare, simțeam cum toate misterele universului se condensau într-o singură picătură de înțelepciune. Necunoscutul nu mai era un dușman de temut, ci un maestru Zen, un ghid tăcut pe calea iluminării personale. Fiecare obstacol întâlnit îl simțeam ca pe o treaptă într-o scară spirituală ce urca spre cerul infinitelor posibilități.

Și astfel, în mijlocul acestei rătăciri aparente, simțeam cum descopăr comoara cea mai de preț: esența mea pură, nealterată de temerile și limitările lumii exterioare. Mă simțeam renăscută, nu doar ca o alergătoare mai puternică, ci ca o ființă cosmică, în armonie cu ritmurile secrete ale universului, gata să danseze pe muzica sferelor în marea simfonie a existenței.

Fiecare pas pe care îl faci în adâncul ființei tale trezește ecouri ale unui eu pe care, dacă îl descoperi cu adevărat, aduce cu sine o nouă înțelegere a Artei de a trăi.

Un spirit care se înalță deasupra vâltorilor vieții reușește să vadă dincolo de tumultul prezentului, găsind liniștea interioară necesară pentru a naviga prin furtuni, cu o claritate profundă și o încredere nestrămutată în propriile resurse. Fiindcă adevărata putere vine din acceptarea vulnerabilităților, din recunoașterea propriilor limite și din curajul de a le depăși cu încredere și înțelepciune.

Un suflet chinuit în infern

Cel care nu este înzestrat cu talentul conducerii nu va fi în stare să ia asupra lui o mare povară şi s-o transforme într-un succes.

Profetul porni spre palatul regelui Israelului, Sedechia. Trebuia cu orice preţ să-l avertizeze de pericolul ce-l ameninţa. Dacă regele nu-l asculta, nu mai era nicio posibilitate de salvare pentru el, pentru copiii săi şi pentru poporul său.

- Predă-te, i-a spus profetul. Predă-te şi îngenunchează la picioarele lui Nabucodonosor, regele Babilonului. Nu este cale de scăpare. Predă-te şi roagă-l să aibă milă de tine. Poate că-ţi va cruţa familia şi poate că va lăsa neatinsă şi casa Domnului.

Dar Sedechia, în ciuda avertismentului profetului său, n-a vrut să se predea. Mintea lui clocotea de planuri ambiţioase. Era orbit de strălucirea visului său, acela de a-şi elibera poporul de sub dominaţia Babilonului şi de a-şi lua pământurile înapoi. Era ferm convins că-şi poate îndeplini visul.

Profetul însă îl privi pe Sedechia cu tristeţe, îşi dădu seama că era pierdut. Căci îl sfătuise să trăiască in pace, dar el a vrut războiul. Iar un război pornit împotriva unui rege atât de puternic ca Nabucodonosor, însemna sinucidere curată.

Leadership: Îţi extinzi posibilitatea de a vizualiza cu adevărat efectele faptelor tale experimentându-le din perspectiva unui joc de rol improvizat din simţul înalt al mândriei de a-ţi exprima personalitatea?

Începutul unui nesfârşit infern. Aflând că Nabucodonosor îi nimici o mare parte din armată, regele Sedechia, împreună cu cei trei fii ai lui, părăsiră în cea mai mare grabă palatul şi ajunseră în câmpia Hebronului, unde se retrăsese restul armatei israeliene. Dar nici nu apucă să-şi tragă bine sufletul că văzu, deasupra platoului care se înălţa deasupra oraşului, un nor de praf şi înăuntrul norului, răspândite pe toată lăţimea orizontului, carele de luptă babiloniene.

Imediat Sedechia ordonă armatei sale să ia poziţie de luptă şi să i se aducă de îndată caii. „Stăpânul va lupta cot la cot cu voi şi diseară veţi ajunge ca învingători în oaza Be'er Sheva” le-a spus el.

Însă nimeni nu observă că pe chipul lui Sedechia îşi făcu loc groaza. Niciun soldat nu-şi putea închipui că, de fapt, stăpânului lor i se înmuiaseră genunchii atunci când observă sutele de care de luptă coborând într-o viteză ameţitoare spre el.

Leadership: Lucrezi la acceptarea propriilor tale fațete pe care nu le poți accepta și a căror vibrație atrage situații pe care le experimentezi în starea de fiinţă aflată sub semnul fatalităţii?

Un suflet torturat de teama morţii. Celebrul scriitor Valerio Massimo Manfredi nu s-a înşelat când a spus: „ Atunci când un rege se simte ajuns la mâna inamicului, deznădejdea şi spaima lui cresc peste măsură, de mii de ori mai mult decât ar simţi cel mai sărman şi mai umil dintre supuşii săi care ştie de când lumea că este gol şi lipsit de apărare. "

Sedechia fu cuprins de panică. Câte simţiri nu-i frământau în acel moment sufletul. Era cuprins de o groază crescândă de fiecare dată când îşi vedea duşmanii apropiindu-se vertiginos, simţind pericolul iminent. Se gândi la ferocitatea lui Nabucodonosor şi simţi pe şira spinării fiorul îngheţat al spaimei. Ştia că dacă el şi copiii lui vor fi prinşi, Nabucodonosor ar fi născocit pentru ei pedepse cumplite, poate că ar fi găsit o modalitate de a-i ţine în viaţă săptămâni, poate luni, poate ani creând pentru ei un infern nesfârşit. Cine ştie la câte şi mai câte suplicii şi sacrificii ar fi fost supuşi tot restul vieţii.

Cu fiecare clipă care se scurgea, Sedechia îşi dădea tot mai mult seama că se afla într-o situaţie grea şi periculoasă, o situaţie pe care nu o putea controla. Carele de luptă babiloniene se apropiau tot mai mult, şi, ca o furtună, distrugeau şi omorau tot ce le ieşea în cale.

Leadership: Te bazezi pe acceptarea unor valori coborâte ale modulului de a proiecta o viziune, îmbrăţişând o atitudine din care rezultă clar că eşti adversarul unui destin din care se răsfrânge resemnarea?

Nu poţi fugi de greşelile tale. Sedechia nu voia să moară. Trebuia să fugă, trebuia să-şi salveze propria viaţă şi pe cea a copiilor lui. Cu inima străpunsă de teama morţii, luându-şi inima în dinţi, el îşi părăsi armata, săvârşind astfel o greşeală de neiertat. Căci nimănui nu-i plac conducătorii laşi.

Fără conducător, orice bătălie e pierdută. Întreaga armata a lui Sedechia intră în panică şi oamenii o rupseră la fugă în toate direcţiile. Războinicii babilonieni i-au urmărit cu carele prin deşert, ca şi cum ar fi fost la vânătoare de animale sălbatice, nimicindu-i pe toţi.

Aşa cum spuneam şi într-un articol precedent, destinul regelui Sedechia şi a copiilor săi, a fost tragic. Au fost prinşi şi încătuşaţi. Copiii săi au fost executaţi de faţă cu el, într-un mod barbar, iar lui i-au fost scoşi ochii şi dus în Babilon, să trăiască veşnic în întuneric, purtând în suflet durerea pierderii copiilor lui. Valorile, cum sunt toleranța și refuzul violenței, nu i-au putut inocula o viziune sănătoasă asupra viitorului.

Mircea Eliade avea dreptate când spunea: "Celor care n-au îndurat niciodată lupta pentru împlinirea unei absurdități li se pare nebunie orice le depăşeşte slăbiciunea şi mediocritatea."

Deschide bine ochii şi vezi cine eşti ! Sedechia a fost un conducător cu idealuri înalte, dar un caracter slab, fără spirit de luptător şi totodată nerealist. Conştient de faptul că armata sa nu avea nicio şansa împotriva armatei lui Nabucodonosor, care era mult mai bine pregătită, mult mai bine dotată şi avea la dispoziţie mult mai mulţi soldaţi, el totuşi s-a decis să pornească războiul, în ciuda avertismentelor profetului său. Astfel el s-a făcut vinovat de nimicirea întregii sale armate şi de uciderea fiilor săi. Iar pedeapsa pe care a primit-o, aceea de a-şi petrece restul zilelor bâjbâind în întuneric, în abisul singurătăţii, batjocorit de toţi, a fost pe măsura îndrăznelii şi curajului său nemaipomenit.

Puterea, onoarea şi sufletul i-au fost puse la grea încercare lui Sedechia, care n-a fost capabil să prevadă viitorul în întregime şi să ia măsuri în consecinţă. El nu s-a dovedit capabil să stăpânească evenimentele pe care el însuşi le-a provocat şi să fie un conducător adevărat pentru oamenii săi. Numai cele mai înaintate minţi omeneşti, cele cu adevărat dârze şi înzestrate cu talentul conducerii sunt în stare să ia asupra lor o mare povară şi s-o transforme într-un succes. Nu firele neîncrezătoare, iresponsabile, laşe ca Sedechia, care-şi abandonează misiunea şi oamenii pentru a-şi salva propria viaţă.

Dar tu? Eşti un conducător adevărat? Priveşte adevărul cu ochii deschişi. Eşti un conducător cu idei măreţe, dar care rătăceşte pe cărări greşite pentru îndeplinirea ţelurilor propuse, aşa cum a fost Sedechia?

Leadershipul este rezultatul avertismentelor care trebuie inscripționate pe suprafața propriei conştiinţe ca gând, imagine, dorinţă, teamă, din care poţi trage o învăţătură importantă: "Dacă vrei să faci slujba de păstor, să nu uiţi niciodată ale cui sunt oile."

Concluzie: A porni un război fără a avea muniţie sau o strategie adecvată, este un război pierdut de la început. Un conducător adevărat trebuie să fie în primul rând corect cu sine însuşi, să fie în stare să se autoevalueze corect cu privire la ce şi cât poate face, nu să se mintă singur punându-şi toată nădejdea în iluzii deşarte.

Nesăbuinţa, laşitatea, deciziile aberante, evaluările incorecte, aroganţa vor avea repercusiuni asupra tuturor, dar mai ales asupra liderului. Panica va pune stăpânire pe el în momentele dificile. Iar o dată consecinţele negative apărute şi imposibil de remediat, regretele nu-i vor mai fi de folos şi el nu va rămâne nimic altceva decât... un suflet chinuit în infern.

Un suflet pentru biruinţă

Pune-te complet în slujba unui scop nobil, fără să te desprinzi de conştiinţa ta.

E mare lucru să ai un nume şi o înaltă poziţie socială. E mare lucru să fii soţia devotată a unui om foarte înstărit. Numele tău este vestit şi devine aproape la fel de important ca al soţului tău. Dar în acelaşi timp, uneori, în anumite circumstanţe, acest lucru poate fi un iad. Şi încă ce iad !

Sunt împrejurări care spulberă orice viziune şi depăşesc toate prevederile omeneşti, punând voinţa umană la grea încercare. Elena de la Vega, mult iubita soţie a contelui Alejandro de la Vega, o inimă atât de curată, o floare a nevinovăţiei, un suflet atât de gingaş, a fost constrânsă de către agenţii guvernului Statelor Unite ale Americii, Pike şi Harrigan, să joace rolul de spion.

Ca o oaie bună de sacrificat, ca un suflet sortit de la început pieirii, Elena a fost trimisă într-o misiune deosebit de primejdioasă, fără ca celor doi agenţi să le pese vreun pic de soarta ei. Ea trebuia să câştige încrederea maleficului conte francez Armand, conducătorul legiunii secrete Orbis Unum, şi să afle modalitatea prin care acesta voia să distrugă America. Nu avea voie să acţioneze după voinţa proprie ci numai după voinţa agenţilor; nu avea de ales, trebuia să se supună cu stricteţe, punându-şi astfel viaţa în pericol.

Dacă ai urmărit filmul „ The legend of Zorro (2005)" probabil îţi aminteşti finalul. Elena, împreună cu soţul ei, concentrându-şi întreaga pricepere, putere şi inteligenţă, reuşesc printr-un plan iscusit să-i deconspire pe organizatorii complotului împotriva Americii şi să-şi salveze propria lor viaţă.

Leadership: Preţuieşti fiecare viaţă în mod responsabil în funcţie de poziţia pe care o ocupi în contextul unei durate mai mari de exploatare a posibilităţilor de afirmare - pentru care pot fi luate măsuri de constrângere nefavorabile?

Elena de la Vega a fost o victimă a împrejurărilor, obligată să acţioneze pe un teren minat. Poate pentru o cauză bună, poate nu, dar cu siguranţă pentru biruinţă. Era doar un suflet nevinovat, dar ce contează un suflet când sunt atâtea sute, mii, sau sute de mii de suflete de salvat, nu-i aşa?

Iată o întrebare la care un lider trebuie să cumpănească foarte bine. E aceeaşi întrebare, mereu aceeaşi de mii şi mii de ani, pe care şi-au pus-o aproape toţi regii şi împăraţii: ai avea curajul, tăria sufletească, să sacrifici un suflet nevinovat în schimbul a sute de mii de suflete?

Încă ceva. Dacă ai avea de luat o astfel de decizie, de a sacrifica un suflet nevinovat cu scopul de a salva alte mii de suflete, ai fi cuprins de emoţii, ai fi măcinat de remuşcări? Gândul acesta ţi-ar umple sufletul de nelinişte? Ai suporta moral să te faci vinovat pentru o singura acuzaţie, chiar dacă în folosul a sute, mii, sute de mii de oameni? Numai gândul acesta, că ai săvârşit cel mai mare păcat, chiar dacă indirect, nu ţi-ar măcina conştiinţa?

Măsurile de constrângere nefavorabile pe care posibilităţile tale de afirmare le impun, ca atribut şi finalitate a modului în care trebuie să gestionezi o criză de identitate, se clasifică în două mari categorii: o intensificare a sensului de vinovăție în prezentul unei conștiințe care se alienează şi o declarație emoționantă de responsabilitate împinsă până la sacrificiu.

Tăria virtuților tale, deduse din năzuința spre valori şi idealuri sănătoase, stă în atitudinea cu care te raportezi la ceea ce simți că eşti într-un anumit mod care nu-ţi permite să accepți nici măcar ideea de miracol. Îți pierzi controlul asupra virtuților tale atunci când toate tendințele naturii tale spirituale au sfera de incidență restrânsă la faptele ce intră în sfera noțiunii de "contribuabil la schimbarea în bine a lucrurilor".

Leadershipul tău este reprezentat de un caracter cu valoarea zero în circumstanţele particulare ale unui destin care nu îţi stă până la capăt în mâini?

Una din principalele linii de forţă ale leadershipului este reprezentată de caracterul complex a ceea ce eşti pe cale să devii într-o conjunctură instabilă. Care se defineşte printr-o corespondenţă exactă între poziţia pe care o adopţi în momentele de cumpănă şi concepţia ta vizavi de superioritate, uneori chiar respingând-o în condiţiile unui climat neprielnic înaltei performanţe. Atâta timp cât caracterul este păstrat intact, indiferent de starea conjuncturii şi transformarea concepţiilor privind viaţa, leadershipul va supravieţui şi va prospera.

În caz contrar, dacă leadershipul este reprezentat de un caracter cu valoarea zero, deci în care pot fi identificate nuanţe specifice ale unor norme şi reguli care nu pot să asigure (pe baza unor principii strict conturate) o protecţie suficientă şi corectă împotriva influenţelor exterioare, se ajunge la o situaţie ciudată. Când raportarea la Artă se face în lumina unui univers de surogate şi substituente, moduri de gândire şi acţiune disfuncţionale, de mare varietate, apelându-se la criterii de judecată improprii „ operei de artă " adevărate. Mă refer la Arta de a te căuta pe tine însuți în sufletul celorlalţi oameni.

Te poţi considera pierdut din punct de vedere spiritual în măsura în care demnitatea ta se hrănește din năzuința spre nişte valori pe care în mod normal nu le ai. Iar dacă realitatea condiţiei tale de ființă supusă arbitrariului existențial se conturează din neputinţa de a atinge o formă definitivă de recunoaştere din partea societăţii, atunci leadershipul pe care ţi-l conturezi este unul bazat pe aleatoriu, nu pe principiile conştiinţei.

Un studiu asupra propriei tale meniri care propune o analiză a receptării înnoitoare faţă de continutul unei percepții determinate, oferind o anumită "demnitate" imperativelor categorice ce se deschid odată cu alegerea unui mod de specific de gândire şi acţiune, se poate prezenta ca un îndrumar de orientare în hăţişurile încurcate ale conştiinţei. Gradul tău de dăruire şi de întrajutorare îţi oferă accesul la nivelele înalte ale înţelegerii propriei fiinţe.

Leadershipul este arta de a te căuta pe tine însuți în sufletul celorlalți oameni într-un punct de cotitură care potenţeaza sensul și scopul existenței tale.

Pot fi întâlniţi şi astăzi oameni în măsură să susţină schimbări reale în societate, în viaţa celorlalţi semeni, cu ajutorul aceloraşi doi complici: un Alter-Ego intolerant şi un Alter-Ego extremist. Cu ajutorul lor transformând leadershipul într-un surogat, într-un inautentic produs de dezvoltare a performanţelor, consumat. Mai ales dacă e să luăm în calcul faptul că de-a lungul timpului compoziţia de elemente definitorii, materiale şi spirituale, care se regăsesc în complexitatea realităţilor pe care le trăim, suferă mutaţii importante.

Leadershipul nu este o joacă. Eşti pregătit pentru dezamăgiri? Cu cât te poziţionezi mai sus în ierarhie cu atât ai de luat decizii mai grele, cu atât mai mult trebuie să-ţi asumi responsabilitatea morală şi sufletească pentru faptele tale.

Un lider, ca un om înţelept ce înţelege urmările oricărei fapte pe care voit o săvârşeşte, prudent în concluzii, chibzuit în acţiunile sale, trebuie să lucreze pentru binele comun, adică pentru binele tuturor şi al fiecăruia în parte, asumându-şi responsabilitatea pentru fiecare mică greşeală pe care o face.

Ca să-şi simtă conştiinţa împăcată el trebuie să dea dovadă de o nobleţe sufletească fără margini, de echitate, de o cinste aparte, să aibă grijă de siguranţa personala a tuturor celor pe care îi conduce, şi, cu o hotărâre fermă, cu tăria şi perseverenţa de a se pune pe sine complet în slujba celorlalţi, să ia în orice împrejurare deciziile cele mai favorabile care să nu primejduiască viaţa nimănui.

Un lider adevărat are sfera de autoritate să controleze în ce fel de împrejurări s-a născut hotărârea de tip "efect neaşteptat" care de fapt stă la baza unui demers de conştientizare a rolul pe care şi-l asumă pe măsura responsabilizării consecinţelor faptelor, gâdurilor şi sentimentelor, asupra integrităţii sale.

Concluzie: Un lider poate fi pus în situaţia de a lua decizii în defavoarea unora, dar nu în defavoarea tuturor, şi bineînţeles aceste decizii trebuie să aibă un temei legal. Alteori, din nefericire, e nevoit să sacrifice viaţa unor oameni pentru a-i salva pe alţii, ceea ce constituie o decizie grea, bazată pe multă responsabilitate.

Ideal ar fi ca liderul să se sacrifice pe sine în favoarea tuturor, dar oare există asemenea lider?

Pune-te complet în slujba unui scop nobil, fără să te desprinzi de conştiinţa ta.

Un suflet prins în plasa timpului

On Septembrie 27, 2011

Dezvăluie oamenilor adevărata natură a caracterului tău, administrând corect calităţile pe care ei le aşteaptă de la tine.

Sfârşitul filmului „ Meet Joe Black (1998) " este foarte bine realizat. Susan Parrish, fiica miliardarului William Parrish, îl priveşte pe Joe Black cum se îndepărtează în zare alături de tatăl ei. Se grăbeşte să-i ajungă din urmă. Ajunge la podul care făcea legătura cu proprietatea tatălui ei.

Şi, dintr-o dată, Joe îşi face apariţia. Era singur. Părea că nu ştia unde se află, îşi întorcea privirea în toate părţile.

Susan se apropie de el. Îl priveşte cu atenţie. Ceva nu era în regulă. O îndoială vagă, totuşi perceptibilă, îşi deschisese drum în inima ei, ducând la sporirea sentimentului de nelinişte şi incertitudine.

- Unde te-ai dus? îl întreabă ea cu o licărire de teamă în suflet.

- Nu ştiu… M-ai înţelege dacă ţi-aş spune că nu cred că voi şti niciodată?

Un alt om, se simţea, incontestabil, în Joe. Lucru care îi provoca lui Susan un fel de nostalgie după vechiul lui fel de-a fi, dorinţa de a regăsi ceea ce îndrăgise în aşa măsură la el, la personalitatea ce o reprezenta el.

Prinţul Întunericului îşi luase rămas bun de la lumea aceasta. În locul lui apăruse adevăratul Joe.

Leadership: Exersezi acceptarea a tot ce ţi se întâmplă în cazul în care nu îndeplineşti condiţia de raportare la un spațiu limitat de explorat?

Trecerea spre o nouă realitate a dus la o serie de modificări de echilibru în universul sufletesc al lui Joe Black. El se afla la graniţa nesigură dintre realităţi. Se afla într-un anume loc, fără să ştie cum a ajuns acolo. Şi nu era vina lui că nu-şi amintea nimic.

Cineva spunea că nimic nu se judecă mai fugitiv decât firea omului. Susan l-a acceptat pe adevăratul Joe în viaţa ei, datorită calităţilor lui afective şi emoţionale - însuşiri esenţiale ale caracterului său, şi fiindcă întreaga lui fiinţă radia acea căldură sufletească, tainică, acea frumuseţe interioară proprie omului care poartă în sine nu doar un farmec aparte, ci şi un anume magnetism, dublat de o mare fineţe.

Schimbările excepţionale prin care treci până la un anumit punct de apropiere sufletească sunt caracteristicile întâmplătoare ale împrejurărilor care te-au dus la acele gânduri şi simţuri aparţinând condiţiei de rătăcitor în lumea altora?

Un spațiu limitat de explorat este reprezentat de acel nivel al realităţii posibil revelabil numai prin acceptarea aparenţelor dincolo de experimentarea amăgirilor, nostalgiilor şi împlinirilor eferente. Când te-ai decis că vrei să cunoşti pe cineva, el poate să devină centrul lumii pe care tu însuţi ai creat-o dacă ai potențialitatea de a deveni o răscruce a două trasee: o călătorie de poveste şi un destin de sacrificiu.

Leadership: Cum se realizează orientarea ta în întunericul unei realităţi care-şi caută o ţintă sugestivă?

Leadershipul poate fi surprins într-o poveste, în parte ca o succesiune de întrebări fără răspuns, un cumul de plusuri şi minusuri care, la finalul a ceea ce cauţi, răbufnesc şi îşi dezvăluie o faţetă la care în nici un caz nu te-ai fi gândit. Astfel eşti determinat să-ţi reconsideri poziţia faţă de ceilalţi oameni, faţă de tine, faţă de viitor, privind totul dintr-o nouă perspectivă.

Pe scurt, în finaluri imprevizibile se ascunde un amalgam de gânduri, idei şi întâmplări, care se cer a fi devorate cu puterea minţii şi a inimii, punând accentul pe felul în care te pot ajuta posibilităţile lor de a se manifesta ca factor activ în procesul de formare a personalităţii în viaţa de zi cu zi.

Poţi supravieţui în realitatea pe care n-o înţelegi doar sporindu-ţi potenţialului de a te adapta la "neaşteptat".

Aici luăm în vedere apropierea de o altă lume, diferită, deci potenţial ostilă, pentru că nu cuprinde nicio certitudine a întoarcerii la trecut. Ea trebuie explorată şi înţeleasă ca exponent al unei deveniri ce judecă paşii clipei ce trebuie să dispară, dar rămâne unică.

Orientarea ta în întunericul unei realităţi care-şi caută o ţintă sugestivă, pusă pe seama unei încercări izbutite de a recunoaşte valoarea adevăratului potenţial al oamenilor din jur, se concretizează într-un produs de existenţă nefalsificabil potrivit pe de-a întregul structurii tale psihice-emoţionale.

Nu poţi să descoperi latura nevăzută a omului dacă nu eşti pregătit să înţelegi adevărul pe care se susţine lumea lui, revelat în feluri diferite.

Leadership: Te conectezi la esenţa celor de lângă tine judecănd paşii clipei ce trebuie să dispară, dar rămâne unică?

Numai un om care poartă în sine germenii unui caracter bun, care răspândeşte lumina magică pe care o poartă în el însuşi (prin prezenţa sa, prin atitudinea sa, prin simţămintele sale, numai un om care radiază o aura de credibilitate şi un suflu nou, prin dăruirea sinceră şi totală de sine), numai acela are şi potenţialul de se conecta la esenţa celor de lângă el, dobândind o mare înrâurire asupra lor.

Nu poţi să-i amăgeşti pe oameni cu o aură de om bun şi sincer, nu poţi să le inoculezi o imagine extraordinară despre tine. Nu poţi să legi o mare prietenie cu ei dacă ai o atitudine duplicitară, dacă te îneci în falsitate, dacă îţi menţii prea multă vreme în umbră adevărata identitate şi dacă eziţi să-ţi exprimi sentimentele. Trebuie să-i învălui cu şuvoiul energiei tale pozitive, să te situezi exact la nivelul aşteptărilor lor generând o stare emoţională cât mai intensă.

Care sunt calităţile esenţiale ale caracterului tău care îi ajută pe ceilalţi să vadă mai clar cum eşti tu cu adevărat?

După cum sângele, netratat de niciun chimist, îşi creează singur antitoxinele – tot aşa şi caracterul tău, dacă nu este alterat de niciun factor negativ, se desăvârşeşte şi îşi creează singur şansele de a se ridica la standardele şi aşteptările celorlalţi. Îţi creezi singur cele necesare pentru impactul pozitiv pe care îl vei avea în viaţa celorlalţi în funcţie de adevăratele sentimente pe care le nutreşti faţă de ei şi, respectiv, în funcţie de disponibilitatea lor de a se apropia de tine şi de a te accepta în mijlocul lor.

Frumuseţea şi puritatea interioară sunt calităţile esenţiale ale caracterului tău, sunt singurele atuuri ale personalităţii tale care îi ajută pe ceilalţi să vadă mai clar cum eşti tu cu adevărat, şi în urma unei analize atente să decidă dacă meriţi, sau nu, un plus de recunoaştere şi apreciere. Dezvăluie oamenilor adevărata natură a caracterului tău, administrând corect calităţile pe care ei le aşteaptă de la tine.

Adevăratul Joe şi Vechiul Joe sunt două feţe ale aceluiaşi om, dar în planuri diferite de cunoaştere: una care se întinde dincolo de experienţa obişnuită a vieţii şi una care se dobândeşte doar prin acceptarea unei clipe trecătoare care îţi dă implulsul de a te regăsi în altcineva.

Dacă vrei să înţelegi profund esenţa fenomenului numit "redescoperire de sine" priveşte dincolo de experiența acestor doi indivizi.

Un suflet prins în plasa timpului accentuează ideea de transformare a propriei tale persoane în funcţie de caracterul tău şi de intensitatea sentimentelor pe care le exprimi faţă de ceilalţi. Dă-le oamenilor şansa să-ţi cunoască adevărata frumuseţe interioară, dă-le timp să se adapteze la propria ta personalitate. Încearcă să petreci mai mult timp cu ei. Învaţă să-i apreciezi pentru ceea ce sunt, încearcă să ai mai multă încredere în ei.

Fii mai sincer cu tine însuţi şi îndrăzneşte să-ţi exprimi adevăratele sentimente, nu le ascunde sub o mască a aparenţelor, pentru ca ei, la rândul lor, să fie mai îndrăzneţi şi mai generoşi cu tine, şi să-ţi împărtăşească aceleaşi sentimente. Dacă vrei cu adevărat mai mult de la cineva, învaţă să dai ceva mai mult de la tine. Curaj !

Un trainer adevărat

On Ianuarie 04, 2009

Fă din arta ta un lux care să asigure garanţia originalităţii, fără să oferi prea multă valoare în avans.

Un vechi proverb arab afirmă: " Omenirea se împarte în trei categorii: cei care pot fi mişcaţi, cei care nu pot fi mişcaţi şi cei care se mişcă. " În acest articol mă voi adresa doar acelor persoane care au nevoie de un impuls ca să se „mişte" pentru a-şi ridica nivelul de performanţă.

Dacă vrei să obţii rezultate mai bune decât cele pe care le-ai obţinut până acum, dacă vrei să atingi un nivel profesional ridicat, atunci trebuie să găseşti pe cineva care este mai bun decât tine în domeniu care să te ajute să te mişti mai uşor şi mai repede în direcţia dorită. Procesul de pregătire este însă lent şi implică foarte multe ore de studiu, iar găsirea unui mentor înţelept care să te ajute în acest sens nu este tocmai floare la ureche.

Leadership: Îţi construieşti elementele esenţiale ale planului de instruire şi formare profesională, punând mai mult accent pe latura artistică a compoziţiilor tale?

Cel mai scurt drum spre atingerea performanţelor profesionale este să participi la cursuri periodice de instruire şi de perfecţionare susţinute de traineri serioşi şi pricepuţi. De cele mai multe ori, însă, s-ar putea să descoperi că trainerul nu este deloc un bun profesionist, ci doar un excelent manipulator care nu urmăreşte altceva decât să-şi însuşească profituri materiale de pe urma oamenilor creduli şi neştiutori care pot fi cu uşurinţă înşelaţi.

Am întâlnit persoane care rămân profund impresionate atunci când un trainer le furnizează diverse informaţii, fără să ştie că de fapt acele informaţii se regăsesc în mai toate cărţile din domeniu apărute pe piaţă, sau informaţii preluate şi neprelucrate (uneori puţin studiate) de la adevăraţii profesionişti.

Cum să recunoşti un profesionist? Un foarte bun trainer nu reproduce ideile altora. Ci îşi aduce el însuşi contribuţia la explicarea unor elemente sau procese din domeniul respectiv. Iar fiecare dintre aceste elemente, rezultând dintr-o tehnică a asocierii expresive, este un spaţiu cu o personalitate grăitoare de sine, despre care în decursul existenţei îţi faci o idee în raport cu perspectiva pe care o ai asupra realităţii. Aceste elemente trebuie sa se suprapună cu finalizarea imaginaţiei într-un concept.

În artă, ca şi în domeniul predării şi al coachingului, nu contează doar reprezentarea imaginaţiei, ci mai ales calităţile impregnate imaginaţiei din care emană idei, viziuni şi teorii. Aceste calităţi sunt fluiditatea, plasticitatea şi originalitatea.

Leadership: Poţi face dovada unicităţii ideilor tale printr-o reprezentare puternică a imaginaţiei din punct de vedere al sintaxei artistice?

Încă de la mijlocul secolului al XIX-lea datează o idee ingenioasă: arta este un "lux", pentru că producerea ei era apanajul unor fiinţe rare, a unor oameni dotaţi de către natură cu aptitudini aparte - cei ce posedă "geniu" sau cel puţin "talent".

Am întâlnit traineri care au participat la rândul lor la diverse cursuri de specialitate în străinătate şi se reîntorc în ţară unde prezintă cap coadă tot ceea ce au predat cei dinaintea lor. La fel ca telefonul fără fir, astfel de indivizi, care la prima vedere ne eclipsează cu totul, nu fac altceva decât să redea la cursurile lor - cuvânt cu cuvânt - tot ceea ce au prezentat alţii, mult mai buni decât ei. Iar uneori denaturează realitatea. Ei îşi oferă în „avans" valoarea printr-o inginerie desăvârşită de a prosti lumea, prezentându-se drept buni cunoscători, axaţi pe o anumită problematică.

Se pot numi aceştia „curaţi" profesionişti? Se poate spune despre arta lor de a transmite cunoştinţe că este un „lux"? Au acea scânteie de geniu?

Îţi atrag atenţia să nu cazi în plasa falşilor experţi, foarte abili în a fura ideile altora şi prezentându-le ca şi cum ar fi ei autorul lor. Repet. Faptul că un trainer vorbeşte mult, frumos şi cu intonaţie nu înseamnă absolut deloc că este şi un bun profesionist.

Adevărații profesioniști fac dovada unicității ideilor lor printr-o reprezentare puternică a imaginaţiei din punct de vedere al sintaxei artistice, care presupune a pune în relaţie după o ordine prestabilită o selecţie de elemente, motive, forme de expresie, după o logică a pregnanţei maxime care face posibilă o interpretare unică.

Leadership: Poţi să folosești şi să împărtășești o tehnică simbolică plecând de la faptul că fiecare lucru, oricât de insignifiant sub aparența lui precară, ascunde o alteritate fundamentală?

Un trainer adevărat reuşeşte să-i convingă pe oameni că realmente este un bun profesionist. Iar un bun profesionist îşi foloseşte libertatea de gândire, se remarcă prin ideile proprii şi originale, nicidecum "împrumutate" de la alţii. Un trainer adevărat are mai mult ca sigur un blog şi cel mai probabil a scris şi câteva cărţi.

Este însă foarte greu să depistezi un bun profesionist dacă nu eşti foarte bine pregătit şi dacă nu eşti în temă cu toate noutăţile din domeniu. De aceea te sfătuiesc ca înainte să participi la diverse cursuri de pregătire să te informezi cu privire la toate aspectele care te interesează.

Parafrazându-l pe scriitorul Mika Waltari, aş spune că informaţiile pe care unii traineri le oferă sunt ca pietrele aruncate în apă. Când arunci o piatră în apă, se aude un zgomot puternic şi apa se agită, dar după câteva clipe suprafaţa apei devine netedă şi nu se mai vede nicio urmă pe care piatra s-o fi lăsat.

Dacă informaţiile furnizate de trainer nu-ţi folosesc la nimic înseamnă că ele au făcut doar un mic „zgomot" , înseamnă că întreaga lui ştiinţă nu lasă urme în gândirea ta. În acest caz trainerul nu este deloc un bun profesionist.

Totuşi, am întâlnit şi traineri extraordinar de buni, care într-adevăr au avut ce spune şi participanţii au avut ce învăţa de la ei; ei nu transmiteau pur şi simplu informaţie, ci ştiau să o facă interesantă, cât mai provocatoare, cât mai "orange", ştiau să capteze atenţia ascultătorului. De fiecare dată când m-am aflat în preajma lor, am ştiut că voi afla lucruri noi. Ei sunt însă o raritate, mai ales la noi în ţară, în acest moment.

N-aş dori să lungesc prea mult acest articol, de aceea mă voi opri aici. Sper să ai norocul să cunoşti traineri care vin cu idei noi şi originale şi care merită să fie ascultaţi. Fereşte-te de impostori !

Leadershipul este arta de a fi profesionist într-o direcţie pe care o urmează toată lumea, dar în care tu eşti etichetat drept mintea cea mai strălucită, un reformator al cultului pentru valorile perene precum: “impact”, “autenticitate”, “inovare”.

Un trainer adevărat poate fi un artist care ştie că, atunci când talentul este autentic, el nu are nimic de pierdut prin iniţierea unor creaţii şi demersuri care, în idealismul lor generos, recurg la o motivaţie puternică: fecundarea unor idei care merită promovate.

Un artist veritabil îşi asumă unicitatea marcată de explorarea unui colţ viu din natură, dar cu pecetea pe care providenţa o pune asupra unei imagini simbolice.

O excelenţă singulară în viaţa mea ce îmi vine în ajutor în arta portretului şi a peisajului, derivă dintr-un identificator recunoscut internaţional „Double Delight", specia unui trandafir hybrid, de talie medie, care emană puritate şi frumuseţe neobişnuită, culorile sale predominante constând într-un galben aprins ca polenul, împletit într-o coroană roşie care parcă marchează punctul de întâlnire al Apusului cu Răsăritul.

Când încerc să redau în ulei povestea mea, îmi închipuiesc că sunt chemat să răspund provocării de a imortaliza în același timp, veșnicia naturii și efemeritatea omului, aflate doar aparent în opoziție.

Iată că tablourile mi-au umplut atelierul, dar fără prea multă pompozitate. Fiecare atingere a trandafirului alcătuind familia unor culori, chipuri, forme complementare de expresie, de apropiere sau depărtare faţă de un subiect dezbătut mai puţin, un curcubeu deasupra orizontului de vise: simţirea unei imagini pierdută în adâncul sufletului.

Astfel, viaţa mea capătă alura unei extinse confesiuni pe care un artist veritabil încearcă s-o articuleze cu elaborarea progresivă a unei viziuni despre forţă creatoare, ca un fel de probă a sincerităţii faţă de idealul ales, al frumuseţii, al cinstei faţă de ştiinţele naturii şi al exigenţei faţă de ideea de particular, asociată noţiunii de portret.

Leadership: Poţi să atribui creaţiei tale rolul de facilitator al reprezentării perfecţiunii, prin promovarea continuă a unei abordări consensuale bazată pe unitate, coeziune şi solidaritate faţă de anumite forme de expresie umane?

Trandafirul este un temei solid de admiraţie a vieţii mele, făcând parte din imaginea unei consistenţe de ansamblu a ideii de pasiune, o alegere conştientă şi o acceptare a altcuiva în perimetrul operei de artă.

Ascult tot ce-mi spui, numai mie. În fiecare zi învăţ de la tine câte ceva nou. Te privesc cu respect, cu evlavie, cu nostalgie, cu uimire, ca şi când aş privi o fiinţă desprinsă dintr-o gamă de senzaţii, o fiinţă cu multe calități ascunse (melancolie, blândețe, dar şi vanitate), supusă unor forme subtile de expresie (precum charisma, atracţia, magnetismul, simplitatea, ambiţia), constituind o capodoperă a creaţiei strălucitoare prin efect, dar armonioasă prin semnificaţie.

Te-ai întrebat vreodată cum ar fi, să te priveşti pe tine pentru o zi? Ai înţelege de ce acum te-ai oprit din drum. Pentru că ascensiunea în artă nu înseamnă doar să ştii să pictezi un ideal de frumuseţe, să-l surprinzi într-o ipostază de vis, în culorile cele mai vii. Ci, mai degrabă, înseamnă să observi prin ochii altcuiva eterna glorificare a unui act de creaţie în reprezentarea perfecţiunii divine, întemeiată prin râvna credinţei.

Asemănarea dintre mine şi această fiinţă plină de puritate, este modalitatea trandafirului de a exprima, în sensul profund al unei imagini sacre, eleganţa figurativă a unei idei de tipul: "începutul unei lumi noi".

Leadership: Toposul creaţiei tale posedă un fir narativ și o identitate care se descoperă pe măsură ce sunt asimilate sursele de spirit şi de naturaleţe ale experienţei de mare fineţe în interpretarea unei realităţi duale?

Atenţia asupra privirii aruncate în miezul realităţii obţinută prin abordări consensuale, bazată pe unitate, coeziune şi solidaritate, este modul prin care Alexandre Dumas exprimă în "Doctorul misterios" apropierea personajelor sale:

"Permanenta relaţie în care trăiau Jacques şi Eva crease (şi pe zi ce trecea se strângea mai tare între ei) o simpatie unică şi fără limite. Erau, evident, sub totala putere a acelei legi universale pe care savanţii o atribuie lumii, iar poeţii – indivizilor; pe care primii o numesc atracţie şi ceilalţi dragoste."

Când încerci să ilustrezi existenţa unei alte realităţi se întâmplă uneori să te pierzi printre nori, imagini false, iluzii încerci uşor să le atingi. Trandafirul ascunde entuziasmul artistului de a afla mai multe despre imaginea lui în oglindă, sau despre inspiraţia lui înfăţişată într-o ipostază de o naturaleţe tulburătoare, prin intermediul unui exerciţiu pentru spirit, prin vibraţia unei aşa zise înfrăţiri de gânduri: "Ştiu ce ascunzi în sufletul tău, ştiu ce simţi, ştiu ce e rău".

Cred că tot ceea ce mă conduce spre un nou izvor de înţelegere a "Mobilului Tresanti" din sfera operei de artă, prin meditaţia spiritualităţii pe care o simbolizează numai o experienţă de gingăşie şi puritate, este tocmai impregnarea unei idei despre liniştea sufletească cu o altă semnificaţie despre Logos şi energiile increate. Două fiinţe asemănătoare prin grija şi respectul ce o poartă una faţă de cealaltă, de unde şi termenul de "emanazione del mondo sensibile" , sunt uşor de recunoscut în aspectul spiritual al unei creaţii unde predomină culoarea roşie, dar şi acea energie invizibilă pe care o percepem şi curge prin mediu înconjurător.

Toposul creaţiei mele este garantul care autorizează trecerea de la argument la concluzie, fiindcă tot ceea ce aduc în prim plan are ca finalitate de ordin spiritual un îndemn la cultivare, cunoaştere, descoperire, privire în perspectivă, experienţă artistică.

Ancore de putere şi de spiritualitate se fac simţite în vibraţia unei lumi menită să inspire, o lume în care trandafirul, posedând în el spiritul artistului ca asociat unic al existenţei, îşi creează o altă identitate (mai complexă) care se distanţează de trecut, uitându-şi astfel nevoia firească de a rămâne un mister al naturii: „Ai vrea să crezi că n-ai pierdut tot ce-ai avut."

Leadership: Viziunea ta artistică poate să asigure o reprezentare a felului în care te simţi împlinit sub bagheta unei sensibilităţi aparte, printr-un fel de alegorie care te ajută să depăşeşti concretul vizual şi să surprinzi chintesenţa desăvârşirii operei imperfecte a naturii?

Am încercat să te-nţeleg, am încercat să cred . Să cred că tot ceea ce mă face să fiu mai bun, mai subtil în arta portretului şi peisajului, căci arta mă obligă să-mi recunosc doza de „iubire necondiţionată" şi echilibru din mine, este mai bine redat ca formă de exprimare a unui univers nelimitat într-un soi de apropiere de un Spirito Puro , dornic de soare şi căldură, a cărei identitate devine aproape perceptibilă dacă nu-i acord atenţia şi grija potrivită.

Aşadar, lumea în care mă învârt cu efectul infinitului, cu gândul unei experiențe de mare rafinament, cu pensula, cu primii fiori ai dragostei, cu admirația frumuseții necunoscute și exotice, cu deschidere spre spiritul naturii, este celebrată şi cultivată numai de un artist care magnetizează instantaneu orice privire în fiinţă şi în faptă, orice dovadă de preţuire, orice reverie, orice mişcare alertă, respectând astfel condiţiile debitării unei puteri într-un spaţiu redus, uşor de stăpânit.

Un spirit ce devine fiinţă, cu necesitate în a-şi recunoaşte predispoziţia spre imortalizare a concretului în plan artistic, are un impact colosal asupra înţelegerii vieţii pe care două entităţi asemănătoare (care acţionează în sens emoţionant) le experimentează printr-un soi de alegorie a aventurii umane între Creaţie şi Creator: "Dacă Jacques devenise un fel de dumnezeu pentru Eva, o făcuse numai pentru a desăvârşi în ea opera imperfectă a naturii."

În încheierea acestui articol, nu-mi voi asuma doar rolul de artist, ci şi unicitatea marcată de explorarea unui colţ viu din natură, cu pecetea pe care providenţa o pune asupra unei imagini simbolice. Trandafirul, cu luminozitatea lui de zi însorită, îşi încheie monologul printr-o mulţumire adresată cerului, cu aprecierea pe care o fiinţă frumoasă, atât de naturală şi plină de puritate ca Eva de Chazelay, o poartă exploratorului lumii ei sensibile:

"Nu există momente mai plăcute în viaţa spirituală şi în viaţa fizică, decât atunci când, după o totală disperare, începi să nădăjduieşti puţin şi când, după vijelie şi trăsnete cerul se înseninează şi-şi reia culorile de azur. Întoarcerea soarelui desăvârşeşte efectul fizic. Te iubesc, Jacques Merey !

Şi, astfel, uşa căsuţei se închidea în urma celor mai fericite fiinţe din lume.

Latura artistică a pictorului trebuie desluşită prin intermediul unei imagini simbolice, ca formă de încadrare a naturii într-un plan spiritual înalt, cu referire la ajutorul Providenţei care ştie să conducă „întâmplarea" spre împlinirea unui destin măreţ, deoarece scopul Creatorului este totdeauna în favoarea Creaţiei sale.

Unde Eşti marchează începutul căutării unui punct de sprijin în realizarea Marii Opere, care începe cu o tuşă de rafinament integrată perfect în mijlocului decorului naturii şi se încheie cu titlul unui destin spiritual fără seamăn: „Regăsirea a două suflete destinate să fie împreună".

Unde inima nu minte, unde dorul nu înşală

On Februarie 04, 2011

Sporeşte-ţi abilitatea de a deveni un model concludent de urmat, exteriorizându-ţi lumea interioară.

În finalul filmului "Leon – The professional" , Mathilda urmează sfatul pe care Leon – asasinul, singurul şi cel mai bun prieten al ei, i-l dăduse cu puţin timp înainte să moară. Deci, neavând alte opţiuni, ea merge la Tony, "tatăl adoptiv" al lui Leon, care îi promisese acestuia că va avea grijă de Mathilda, în cazul în care va fi ucis.

Luând o atitudine prietenească, Tony îi dă fetei o bancnotă de o sută de dolari – bani de distracţie, şi îi promite că o va ajuta mereu.

- Nu pot să iau o slujbă pentru asta? îl întreabă Mathilda, în cinstea preţuirii pe care o avea pentru Leon.

- O slujbă? Ce ştii să faci? o întreabă de curiozitate Tony.

- Ştiu să ucid.

Doi oameni, aceleaşi afinităţi. Crescută de Leon, Mathilda a început să semene din ce în ce mai mult cu el. El a devenit expresia sufletului ei, un exemplu de urmat pentru ea – bun şi concludent, chiar dacă era doar o copilă şi nu cunoştea îndeajuns viaţa. El a rămas în inima ei. Ideile şi îndrumările pe care i le-a dat, vizavi mai ales de "arta" de a ucide (substanţa însăşi a leadershipului său) încă mai trăiau, încă mai luminau întreaga ei fiinţă.

Percepându-şi vocea interioară care îi şoptea: "Fii un asasin, fii ca Leon ", Mathilda a avut sentimentul că viaţa ei a căpătat un sens, un scop, o perspectivă.

Leadership: Statutul tău de beneficiar al unui bagaj emoţional consistent facilitează trecerea oamenilor de la stadiul de "experiment" la stadiul de "sistem unitar"?

Leadership înseamnă să intri în armonie în primul rând cu tine însuţi şi apoi cu ceilalţi. Este doar un mijloc de a te ridica mai sus decât ceea ce poţi avea şi dărui, decât ceea ce eşti în spatele unor măşti prefabricate, într-un anume sens, încă nedezvăluit.

Vei putea oricât să apelezi la stimularea perspectivelor de abordare a unei noi gândiri în privinţa a ceea ce consideri a fi cu adevărat valoros pentru transformarea ta, în bine sau în rău, dar şi la numeroase alte procedee de evaluarea a constantei tale de a fi. Toate aceste aşteptări, previziuni, socoteli, intenţii şi reglări de direcţie, oricât ar fi de condamnabile sau lăudabile, în relaţie strânsă cu formele de cunoaştere nemijlocită, sunt în măsură să asigure condiţii de exploatare, întreţinere şi valorificare a leadershipului.

Dacă am încerca să investigăm "rădăcinile" omeneşti, ca esenţă a unui adevăr valabil numai în plan individual, prelevând un eşantion de referinţă la nivel de comportament şi manifestare a trăirilor, am putea mai uşor să determinăm tipul de relaţie ce se stabileşte între indivizi.

Starea de bine şi motivaţia pe care ţi-o insuflă întâlnirea extraordinară cu o gândire şi o simţire de sens opus nu se potriveşte foarte bine cu mecanismul nevoilor tale decât atunci când te simţi dezamăgit de tine.

Să ne imaginăm o mişcare lăuntrică, un simţământ aparte ce izvorăşte din dezvoltarea unei noi raţionalităţi care bulversează contextele profesionale, şi care începe apoi să contribuie la îmbogăţirea experienţei de viaţă. Ceea ce acum se poate numi disponibilitatea de a te adapta la o nouă viaţă, luând ca model un om mult mai bogat sufleteşte, dătător de linişte şi echilibru în viaţă, poate fi înlocuit cu disponibilitatea de a te autodepăşi prin lărgirea sferei conştiinţei şi îmbogăţirea repertoriului comportamental.

Psihologic vorbind, are loc trecerea individului obişnuit de la stadiul de "experiment" al condiţiilor vitrege de viaţă, la stadiul de "sistem unitar" de gândire şi simţire, care comportă o structură asemănătoare cu modelul urmat, creând valoare adăugată şi ulterior separată, determinând apariţia unui om nou: Beyond the old darkness.

Leadership: Adevărul care dă restart principalului tău scop în viaţă se ghidează după motto-ul: "Mai uman decât mă cunosc eu însumi"?

Fără nicio îndoială, inima nu minte, iar dorul nu înşală atunci când există un raport direct între tine şi ceilalţi, o întrepătrundere a sentimentelor tale cu ale lor.

Ca să-i poţi influenţa pe cei din jurul tău, ei trebuie să regăsească în tine un model demn de urmat, trebuie să descopere la tine acele calităţi deosebite pe care le apreciază enorm. Cu alte cuvinte, ei trebuie să fie în concordanţă cu ceea ce vrei tu, cu realitatea vieţii tale, cu propria ta personalitate - cu ceea ce eşti, cu ceea ce simţi şi cu idealurile tale. Astfel ei vor fi pătrunşi de acea dorinţă puternică de a aspira la a fi neîncetat ca tine.

Exteriorizându-şi lumea interioară, Leon a intrat în armonie cu Mathilda. A avut o mare influenţă asupra ei - iar ea, simţind un sentiment profund de respect, admiraţie, atracţie, a dorit să ajungă ca el, un asasin, poate chiar mai bun decât el. Sentimentele ei s-au dezvoltat deoarece el a fost alături de ea în momentele critice din viaţa ei, şi neavând un alt model de urmat s-a afundat în singura realitate pe care a putut să o cunoască.

Această lumină spirituală care a înconjurat-o pe fată, pozitivă din punctul ei de vedere, i-a impulsionat viaţa şi i-a dat un sens. Lucru care a făcut să păstreze în făptura ei ceva din Leon.

Adevărata bogăţie a sufletului este nevoia de a te simţi apreciat de lume atunci când capacităţile tale sunt eliberate prin devoţiunea faţă de ceva mai măreţ decât ceea ce gândeşti despre tine însuţi.

Unde inima nu minte, unde dorul nu înşală desemnează apropierea între două personalităţi care, chiar dacă nu sunt împreună, manifestă aceleaşi însuşiri, aceleaşi emoţii şi aceleaşi extreme.

Ca lider poţi influenţa viaţa oamenilor în bine sau în rău. Depinde în primul rând de valorile pe care le-ai dezvoltat şi le-ai promovat în viaţa ta şi a celorlalţi. Depinde de calitatea ta, dar şi a celorlalţi. Iar dacă eşti cu un pas înaintea celorlalţi, dar aceştia nu vor să te urmeze, atunci e mai bine să te retragi.

Dimpotrivă, atunci când găseşti un lider bun care îţi înţelege munca şi punctele tale de vedere, care oferă un mediu prielnic dezvoltării tale, se va găsi motivaţia de a merge mai departe împreună.

Under Pressure

On Iulie 25, 2016

Raportează-te la ceea ce ți se întâmplă, ocupând locul exact în centrul efectului general al evenimentelor pe care trebuie să le accepţi ca fiind şansa de a-ţi îndeplini destinul profetic.

Aproape toată lumea era contaminată, rănită, gemând de durerea morţii, datorită unei forţe majore care transformase totul într-un pustiu al resemnării, o forţă apărută în mod particular pe care doar oamenii de ştiinţă ar fi putut s-o îmblânzească, dar nu s-o elimine. Împotriva unei morţi inevitabile nu poţi lupta, pustiul însuşi devine o forţă a resemnării, transformând totul într-o lume contaminată, în pofida ştiinţei actuale despre care ai fi crezut că a avansat atât de mult. Ştiinţa nu găsise niciun leac. Încă. Fac referire aici la filmul World War Z.

Într-o lume care nu se poate reanima de la sine, exercitând o influenţă dominantă nefastă asupra impresiei generale, unde înţelegerea sensului unei etici a jertfei se subordonează măreţiei creaţiei ştiinţifice, întotdeauna supravieţuieşte un mic Zorro - dar fără mască, ci dotat cu capacitate ridicată de analiză şi sinteză, care poate să oprească extinderea răului.

Numele lui este Gerry Lane. Fost angajat al Naţiunilor Unite. El se lansează într-o cursă contra cronometru pentru a găsi "The Cure", trecerea spre normalitate, revenirea tuturor acelor undead being la viaţă.

Omul care înţelege durerea lumii pe planul conştiinţei se raportează la leadership prin accesarea evenimentelor grave la nivel de comparaţie cu un campion olimpic care este forţat să se reveleze drept o minune a experienţei de sacrificiu.

Acest om de ştiinţă, atât de stupefiat de ceea ce se întâmplă, dar în acelaşi timp entuziasmat peste măsură, se implică cu toată fiinţa lui, ca un adevărat chimist, în căutarea formulei revelatoare a compoziţiei antidotului, substanţa binefăcătoare, încercând a înţelege totalitatea cauzei determinante a epidemiei. Practic, el merge pe firul cauzei care generează efectul prin descompunerea ei în elementele constitutive: materiale şi umane interconectate.

După panica de la început, când întreaga lume părea a se învârti necontrolat în jurul unei nebunii înăbuşite şi misterioase, progresând continuu dinspre suferinţă spre tragic, o curiozitate ciudată îl ia în stăpânire pe Gerry, o atracţie irezistibilă faţă de diverse tipuri de reacţii umane şi aspecte cantitative ale acestor reacţii, precum şi clase de compuşi organici cauzali, care îi dau posibilitatea de completare a cunoştinţelor profesionale. Şi, în consecinţă, este vizibil efortul său de a găsi sens celor ce se întâmplă peste tot în jurul lui.

Leadership: Ești creativ în încercarea de a înţelege „totalitatea" unei cauze determinante prin descompunerea ei în elemente constitutive, astfel încât să generezi o altă atitudine la nivel de fiinţă care îşi înfruntă destinul ca un efect conjugat al providenţei şi al acţiunilor umane?

Întotdeauna liderul ocupă locul exact în centrul efectului general al evenimentelor pe care trebuie să le accepte ca fiind şansa de a-şi îndeplini destinul profetic. El nu se poziţionează niciodată ca victimă, ci ca unic moderator al evenimentelor incerte, trecând dincolo de tehnici şi de tot ceea ce se mişcă în jurul unui rezultat aflat în zona imprevizibilităţii. Un rezultat ce așteaptă să fie găsit şi acceptat de majoritatea celor conectați la dimensiunea lui de propagare.

Dacă impresia pe care o lasă toate aceste „dezordini” lumeşti este strâns legată de imprecizia găsirii cauzelor ei declanşatoare, datorată noutăţii cu totul frapante, atunci efortul de a da sens celor ce se întâmplă îi revine numai unui om înzestrat cu toate laturile pozitive pe care un savant ar trebui să le deţină: dorinţa de a căuta, chiar dacă este străbătut de fiorul tragic dat de conştiinţa faptului că nu mai are nimic de găsit.

Acel „eu însumi” mai bun din punct de vedere personal și profesional, la care omul aspiră cu un discernământ adecvat situației declanşate de o cauză aparte, este dirijat contrar forţei care transformă totul într-un pustiu al resemnării. A fi creativ în încercarea de a înţelege totalitatea cauzei determinante, aflate mai presus de voința ta, prin descompunerea ei în elemente constitutive, este clar modul tipic în care sinele tău atotputernic abordează totul.

Leadershipul reproduce imaginea rezultatului proceselor de găsire a „totalităţii” unei cauze determinante, derulate la două niveluri:

Pe de o parte, moderatorul evenimentelor incerte percepe informaţia care nu este la îndemâna oricui, într-un anumit fel, în contextul preferinţelor, experienţei şi informaţiei deţinute din alte surse decât cele dinspre cauza pe care o studiază. Pe de altă parte el proiectează şi transmite o imagine dorită, favorabilă, ceea ce echivalează cu ieșirea din starea de orbire, adică cu dependenţa rezultatelor cercetării de posibilitățile de redescoperire de sine.

Liderul se poate considera un profet atunci când reuşeşte să previzualizeze rezultatul posibil al unui efect compensatoriu şi benefic, în funcţie de evoluţia unui eveniment nesigur, făcând posibilă delimitarea dintre protecţie şi control, dintre lumea prezentă şi cea trecută.

Numai într-o stare Under Pressure omul își canalizează întreaga atenție pentru a-şi surprinde inteligenţa şi reacțiile la acțiunile sale în cadrul evenimentelor dificile.

Un asemenea om învață, în primul rând, să se raporteze la ceea ce i se întâmplă, la ceea ce vede în jur, la ceea ce trebuie să știe. Apoi, învață să se recunoască el însuşi în tot ceea ce descoperă, găsindu-şi cu ușurință locul în spațiul de producție a unor noi mostre de raţionament.

Under suspicion

Extinde nivelul de conştientizare a realităţii pe care o reprezinţi, în funcţie de nivelul de acceptabilitate a realităţii percepute de cei din jurul tău.

Mă întrebam dacă era adevărat. Poate să vă pară ciudat dar nu-mi prea venea să cred. Simţeam că există în sufletul Elliei convingerea că Greta, cu toate iniţiativele ei practice, nu fusese îndeajuns de apreciată. Ellie, eram convins de asta, ar fi acceptat orice idee pe care şi-ar fi dorit-o ea însăşi să o aibă. Greta îi insuflase Elliei dorinţa de rebeliune. Iar Ellie singură dorise să se revolte, numai că nu ştia cum s-o facă.

Însă, acum, când ajunsesem s-o cunosc pe Ellie mai bine, înţelesesem că era una din acele persoane simple care aveau rezerve neaşteptate. Aveam convingerea că Ellie ar fi fost în stare să-şi manifeste opinia dacă într-adevăr ar fi vrut aşa ceva. Problema era că nu dorea prea des să se facă simţit acest lucru şi m-am gândit după aceea cât de dificil era pentru cineva să înţeleagă aşa ceva. *

Leadership: Aprobi "facsimilul" unei realităţi care nu a fost întru totul analizată prin prisma aprecierii de care eşti strâns legat în încercarea de a deveni altcineva?

Orice lider îşi micşorează considerabil avantajul indus de factorul "devotament", dacă din planul secund al imaginii pe care şi-o construieşte despre alţii nu face lumină asupra aparenţelor. Fără să caute să descopere omul real din spatele acestor aparenţe coruptibile, ţinând morţiş să aprobe "facsimilul" unei realităţi care nu a fost întru totul sau deloc analizată, liderul îşi reduce şansele de a accede la profunzimea cunoaşterii umane.

În domeniul conducerii, cheia eficienţei în a percepe corect omul stă în capacitatea de a te adapta la realitatea subtilă a acestuia, examinată doar din perspectiva convingerilor personale. Facsimilul realităţii pe care o aprobă omul doritor de a fi apreciat, vorbind numai despre lucruri care atrag atentia, reprezintă de fapt copia imaginii pe care el şi-a format-o despre sine sub influenţa convingerii că poate obţine o poziţie fruntaşă în faţa celorlalţi. Dar nimeni nu-l poate recunoaşte fruntaş pe omul care caută cu orice preţ să fie altcineva decât este cu adevărat.

Dacă nu vrei să te transformi într-un om superficial care pune preţ pe aparenţe fără conţinut, trebuie să-ţi creezi o imagine a omului dincolo de zidul gros al presupunerilor, dincolo de pereții pretențioși ai falselor constatări aflate la baza unor judecăţi sumare, dincolo de ceea ce poate oferi psihologia, logica, ştiinţa recunoaşterii intenţiilor din spatele comportamentului uman.

Leadership: Accepţi ideea de extindere a zonei tale de încredere de la "known" la "unknown", manifestându-ţi consideraţia despre un ideal de "a fi" care nu se justifică prin acceptarea termenului de "acceptare firească a realităţii" ?

Reciproca e mult mai pregnant resimţită. Conform legii lui Coulumb, modulul forței electrostatice între două sarcini electrice punctiforme este direct proporțional cu produsul celor două sarcini electrice și invers proporțional cu pătratul distanței dintre sarcini. Aşa şi cu aprecierea pe care ţi-o acordă ceilalţi oameni, uneori în defavoarea relaţiei tale cu ei, este direct proporţională cu triumful idealului lor, comparativ cu realitatea, şi invers proporţională cu încrederea pe care o transmiţi.

La rândul tău, devii ţinta unor amănunţite şi sistematice observaţii şi evaluări. Ajungi să te întrebi dacă este adevărat ceea ce cred alţii despre tine, cu toată neliniştea pe care o poate simţi un om care se îmbolnăveşte peste noapte, sau care e diagnosticat cu o boală transmisibilă pe care nimeni nu şi-o doreşte. Poate să ţi se pară ciudat, dar nu-ţi prea vine să crezi, cu atât mai mult cu cât nimeni nu-ţi dă asigurări că nu sunt motive de îngrijorare.

Simţi că există în sufletul celorlalţi o anumită convingere, aspră, neliniştitoare, dincolo de limita admisibilului, care asemenea unei oştiri înarmate ce se ridică contra împărăţiei ei, îţi pune la încercare tăria de caracter, puterea de a face faţă presiunilor şi de a-ţi menţine individualitatea şi trăsăturile esenţiale intacte.

Acceptarea firească a realităţii înseamnă să-ţi păstrezi mintea deschisă în faţa oportunităţii de fi altcineva, dar conformându-te numai naturii raţionale de a fi tu însuţi într-o continuitate care exclude orice manifestare a contradicţiei dintre "situaţia actuală" şi "scopul propus".

Ideea de extindere a zonei tale de încredere de la " known " la " unknown " evidenţiază incertitudinea care apare în momentul conştientizării unui efect pe care, în fond, nu-l doreşti. Ca o consecinţă a unei aprecieri formale, bazate pe necunoaştere, dezinformare sau interpretare.

Oamenii se racordează la realitatea pe care tu o transmiţi, definită şi redefinită după propriile lor criterii, deseori subiective, prin formarea unor tipare comparative, prin disocierea aprecierii calităţii tale şi alterarea acesteia. Această tendinţă de a te simţi cumva neîndreptăţit, limitat, exclus din cercul încrederii, se justifică prin acceptarea termenilor şi condiţiilor de înţelegere şi conştientizare a realităţii percepute de ceilalţi.

Dacă vrei ca leadershipul să nu se transforme într-o conexiune criptată de false supoziţii, extinde-ţi nivelul de conştientizare a aspectelor mai puţin vizibile pe care le construiesc ceilalţi oameni, considerate problematice, din perspectiva accesului lor la propria ta realitate.

Leadershipul este realitatea pe care o transmiţi lumii după criteriul că orice te defineşte se naşte din îndemnul inteligenţei de a te subordona numai putinţei de a te autodepăşi prin muncă, prin realizări, prin încrederea în tine însuţi.

Under suspicion evidenţiază importanţa de a te arăta în lumina reală a ceea ce eşti şi a ceea ce ai devenit, pentru a înlătura orice îndoială legată de tine şi acţiunile tale. Doar extinzând nivelul de conştientizare a realităţii pe care o reprezinţi sub îndemnul inteligenţei tale unice vei putea identifica corect oamenii şi realităţile lor.

Unealta numărul unu a leadershipului

Învaţă să iei asupra ta momentele în care celălalt nu este aliniat la sine, şi să le metamorfozezi în experienţe de viaţă care încep cu intensitatea emoţiei pe care i-o transmiţi cuiva într-o împrejurare mai presus de voinţa sa.

Am găsit ieri pe website-ul www.alinastoicovici.ro această poveste. Este despre un om de știință din Phoenix, Arizona, care a vrut să testeze o teorie. Avea nevoie de un voluntar care nu avea nimic de pierdut. În cele din urmă l-a găsit, era un condamnat la moarte care urma să fie executat în scaunul electric, în penitenciarul St. Louis din statul Missouri.

Omul de știință a propus condamnatului următoarele: să participe la un experiment științific ce consta în efectuarea unei mici înțepături, cu scopul ca sângele său să se scurgă încet până la ultima picătură. El a explicat voluntarului că are șanse minime să supraviețuiască, dar oricum, moartea lui ar fi fără suferință sau durere; nici nu ar fi observat.

Omul condamnat a acceptat, pentru că a muri în acest fel era mai bine decât să moară în scaunul electric. L-au pus pe o targă și i-au legat corpul astfel încât să nu se poată mișca. Apoi au făcut o mică tăietură pe încheietura mâinii și au pus sub mâna acestuia un mic borcan de aluminiu.

Tăietura era superficială, doar până la primele straturi de piele, dar era suficientă pentru ca el să creadă că i s-au tăiat efectiv venele. Sub pat, a fost plasată o sticlă de ser cu o mică supapă care regla trecerea lichidului, sub formă de picături în borcanul de sub mâna acestuia. Condamnatul, putea auzi picurarea și număra fiecare picătură din ceea ce credea că este sângele lui.

Omul de știință, fără ca cel condamnat să-l vadă, închidea supapa, astfel încât picurarea să scadă treptat, cu intenția ca acesta să creadă că sângele lui se termină.

Odată cu trecerea minutelor, chipul acestuia își pierdea tot mai mult culoarea. Ritmul cardiac i-a crescut și l-a făcut să-și piardă aerul din plămâni. Când disperarea a ajuns la punctul maxim, omul de știință a închis complet supapa și apoi condamnatul a suferit un atac de cord și a murit.

Omul de știință a reușit să demonstreze că mintea umană respectă cu strictețe tot ceea ce percepe și ceea ce individul acceptă, fie pozitiv, fie negativ, acționând asupra întregii noastre părți psihice și fizice. Totodată această poveste ne lasă o învățătură foarte interesantă. Omul de știință i-a dat omului o posibilitate de viață, dar aparent condamnat, omul a pierdut-o.

Leadership: Intensitatea trăirilor pe care le generează autoritatea ta are un puternic impact asupra tuturor formelor de manifestare ale oamenilor cărora nu le este frică să experimenteze un nou fior ca să se elibereze de orice durere?

Unealta numărul unu a leadershipului este transpunerea ta în trăirile celorlalţi, ca mijloc de expunere a unei imagini care deschide orizonturile, dar fără să creezi o lume ireală. Asta nu înseamnă să îţi limitezi activitatea ştiinţifică la trăirile greu de suportat ale altora, refuzându-le micile "alinări" de moment. Dar ca să te regăseşti în trăirile oamenilor, ca să simţi trăirile lor în sufletul tău, ca să le ghidezi trăirile în direcţia dorită de tine, trebuie să le înfăţişezi o imagine care nu aboleşte realul, ci îl lărgeşte şi îl adânceşte dincolo de întruchipările sale imaginare.

De fapt, leadershipul vizează interacțiunea omului cu o imagine indusă în conştiinţă şi în suflet, având o importanță deosebită în stimularea intelectuală și lărgirea orizontului. Cel mai mare impact îl are liderul, sau omul de ştiinţă care reuşeşte să captureze toate detaliile unei poveşti de viaţă senzaţionale pentru a oferi omului o imagine completă asupra unui personaj excepţional. Iar cea mai senzaţională poveste de viaţă o reprezintă confruntarea omului cu sinele.

Trebuie să mergi până în punctul de maximă tensiune unde abia mai e posibil ca omul să-şi trăiască viaţa, acolo unde se află reflexul pur al spiritului liber, liber de a lumina începutul, şi să-i redai omului întregul trăirilor pe care le poate avea în preajma unui om de excepţie.

Ceea ce ar trebui să îi liniştească pe oameni (şi să îi ghideze în trăirile lor) este extinderea posibilităţii de viaţă la nivel de emoţie, improvizând o metamorfozare între corpul uman şi mediul înconjurător. Fii un regizor, învaţă să improvizezi o metamorfozare între faptele sociale ce se succed în curgerea vremii şi potenţialul de maximă de acţiune al oamenilor, astfel încât să contribui la armonizarea trăirilor lor sufleteşti cu ceea ce ce petrece în mediul înconjurător.

Ceea ce spun acum cu atâta încredere, tu însuţi vei fi capabil să transformi în realitate cu autoritatea propriei experiențe. Sunt alţii care caută într-o experienţă de viaţă tocmai lucrurile care li se par imposibile în trăirile lor spunând „gata, te-am demascat", în timp ce alţii caută provocarea înainte de expirarea timpului de viaţă.

Leadershipul reprezintă testul la care eşti supus atunci când tu însuţi îi supui pe ceilalţi oameni la acelaşi test intermediar care îţi trădează slăbiciunea: "nevoia de a crede în ceva până la capăt."

Unealta numărul unu a leadershipului este trăirea căreia încerci să-i grăbeşti manifestarea într-un moment în care cineva se consideră pierdut, dar care nu trebuie să aibă efect de bumerang asupra conştiinţei care îţi spune că n-ai făcut bine. Mai bine este să-i oferi omului o oportunitate de a reflecta la trecut, decât să-l supui unui experiment ştiinţific care îi pune la grea încercare nervii şi emoţiile.

Fii capabil să te transpui în trăirile celor din jur înainte de a fi tu însuţi corabia care se scufundă.

Unicul vinovat în întâmplarea ce i-a fost fatală

On Octombrie 30, 2012

Pledează pentru valoarea ta morală în faţa "Onoratei Instanţe" a Leadershipului, fără să te faci părtaş la procesul de judecată intentat împotriva omului şi a vieţii.

Nu putea să definească prea bine ce i se întâmpla. Căzuse ca o frunză la picioarele asasinului ce cutreiera necunoscutul în căutarea unui scop care să dea sens vieţii sale. Doar un vis urât? Sau cel mai negru coşmar?

Era doar om simplu, n-avea duşmani, doar un singur prieten loial care-l urma peste tot: bătrâneţea. Şi, dintr-o dată, acest suflet atât de mare, atât de temător de Dumnezeu, atât de fragil prin natura lui, se prăbuşi în cel mai adânc abis al nenorocirii. Pierdut dincolo de marginile înţelegerii, într-un loc unde nu se mai vedea nimic, dar care releva clar şi ameninţător ironia sorţii.

Asasinul, aflat la volanul unei maşini de poliţie furate, îl somase să tragă pe dreapta. Apoi, îl rugase politicos să coboare din maşină.

Bietul om ! Ar fi putut el oare să ridice încă o dată mingea tinereţii la fileul spectaculosului, dinamicului, suspansului, să regizeze o fugă ca în filme, şi să dispară de sub filajul falsului poliţist? O astfel de mutare riscantă se impunea în momentul respectiv. Dar, asemenea unui defavorizat al sorţii, el rămase pe loc.

Leadership: Porţi semnul unei personalităţi unitare şi consecvente în tendinţele sale esenţiale, manifestate într-o singură poruncă: a fi anti-alegere în privinţa dreptului altcuiva de a trăi?

Bătrânul se uită temător la individul necunoscut care-l ţintuia cu privirea la doar un singur pas distanţă, părând mai degrabă o nălucă care abia aşteaptă să se înfrupte din blândeţea sa, ca apoi să dispară, à volatiliser sans laisser des traces.

Totul era atât de sinistru, de parcă se afundase într-un cerc vicios. Transformat instantaneu de o soartă ostilă în protagonistul central al unei îngrămădiri haotice de legi şi prejudecăţi proprii, ale căror contururi nu le putea defini, din uriaşa piramidă a vieţii şi a realităţii.

Simţea cum cineva, o forţă a răului, îi apăsa pe creştet întreaga povară a lumii temute din societatea omenească. O societate îndreptăţită să-i condamne pe membrii ei cei mai bătrâni, la suferinţă.

Şi deodată năluca, cu chip de Joker, dintr-un impuls de sălbăticie, forma unei dorinţe nelămurite, continue şi brutale de a face rău oricui nimerea în cale, îşi armează arma, instrumentul fatal – un tub de oxigen. Apropie încet pistonul de fruntea bătrânului. Şi, "Poc ! ", declanşează jetul de aer comprimat, făcând un mare gol în cutia craniană a acestuia. Lăsându-l fără viaţă.

Totul în această păţanie se redusese la o rece şi tristă convenţie. În care se stabilise un fel de raport strict între părţile contractante: între creştinism şi totalitarism, între bătrâneţe şi eternitate, între blândeţe şi cruzime, între bun şi rău, între viaţă şi moarte, între Da şi Nu. *

Leadership: Continui să uimeşti prin întărirea contrastului dintre esenţa propriilor experienţe de viaţă şi aparenţa însemnătăţii tale la stabilirea relaţiilor cauzale între acţiuni şi evenimente?

Nu trebuie să fii expert pentru a înţelege ceea ce este esenţial în leadership şi nu trebuie să fii preşedinte al unei companii pentru a aplica aceste lucruri, aceste învăţături definitorii propriei tale personalităţi.

Primul pas în dezvoltarea ştiinţei conducerii constă în a învăţa să ocoleşti capcanele unor mutări riscante, care se impun la un moment dat. Găsirea unui refugiu înaintea unei eventuale decăderii definitive, o asigurare împotriva unor consecinţe imprevizibile este obligatorie.

Defineşte foarte bine ce ţi se întâmplă, în raport cu lumea, evenimentele, realitatea din jur. Fără să te ascunzi la umbra unei rătăciri ireparabile, dincolo de marginile înţelegerii realităţii şi a naturii umane. Într-un loc unde nu se mai poate vedea nimic, unde nu se mai poate îndrepta nimic, unde nu-ţi poţi fortifica imunitatea, în locul în care nu se mai poate trăi decât cu preţul uciderii libertăţii de a fi mai bun.

Poţi conferi leadershipului tău statutul de "judecător" care te împinge să-ţi ierţi faptele şi deciziile nechibzuite, pentru a te elibera de orice legătură cu cerinţele unei motivaţii experimentale ce poate să-ţi îngreuneze ascensiunea?

Leadershipul se menţine şi se înnoieşte printr-o continuă reîntoarcere la sine, prin tendinţa unei aplecări spre virtute, prin găsirea unei căi de a te regăsi pe tine însuţi în relaţie cu responsabilitatea de a te elibera de orice constrângere morală, ascunsă sub învelişul preţios al unei înnoiri totale de personalitate.

Leadershipul are în vedere contrastul dintre esenţă şi aparenţă a omului din tine, dintre "a fi" şi „a nu fi", o analiză a părţilor tale bune şi a celor rele, în favoarea conştiinţei (forul tău interior de judecată) căreia nu-i poţi ascunde nimic. Te poţi însă împiedica de singura cerinţă a unei motivaţii experimentale ce poate să-ţi îngreuneze ascensiunea: dorinţa de a-ţi împinge limitele spre extremele vieţii, ca atunci când eşti curios să afli dacă poţi comite o nedreptate fără să suporţi consecinţele.

Noţiunea de leadership reflectă calitatea omului care îmbracă mantia reînnoirii, a omului ca unitate armonioasă şi echilibrată. Aşa cum doctorul nu tratează durerea pacientului până când nu află sursa ei de provenienţă, tot astfel acţiunile tale nu se pot finaliza cu succes până ce cunoaşterea, înţelegerea şi gândirea matură nu îşi direcţionează "voturile" spre o profundă investigare a aspectelor fiinţei umane.

Dacă nu devii tu însuţi: mai întâi inculpat, apoi avocat, apoi propriul tău judecător care să pronunţe sentinţa nemiloasă, ireversibilă: " Coupable ou non coupable" , te vei prăbuşi în adâncul abis al decăderii umane.

Resemnarea este o manifestare de profundă emoţie ce apare ca urmare a tendinţei omului de a-şi accepta soarta hotărâtă de latura sa moralizatoare.

Ca o cerere de revizuire a unei hotărâri preliminare formulată de o instanţă subtilă, foarte puternică, leadershipul (vizat de conştiinţa ta, de tăria caracterului tău, de responsabilitatea ta faţă de societate şi faţă de om) îşi poate lua în primire statutul de "judecător" printr-o expertiză temeinică a acelor vulnerabilităţi sau nereguli care te fac nepotrivit cu calitatea de model uman. Dar, el nu trebuie să se pronunţe înainte ca noua configuraţie a personalităţii tale să fie stabilită.

Iar această tentativă de a-ţi ridica leadershipul la rang de judecător, despre care se ştie cât de dificilă este, nu trebuie să se încline în direcţia opusă Eu-lui tău.

Bucuria victoriei fără să umileşti, fără să pui frână condiţiei omului de a-şi făuri singur soarta, este o luptă în numele dreptului la viaţă care necesită o armătură spirituală solidă, desfăşurându-se pe planul unei realităţi din care se poate salva puţin, câte puţin, latura ei cea mai sensibilă: conceptul de non-dualitate.

Ai devenit protagonistul central al unei îngrămădiri haotice de legi, prejudecăţi, ale căror contururi nu le poţi defini? Leadershipul tău se reduce la o rece şi tristă convenţie care prevede reducerea "omului" la un sclav, un membru pasiv al societății? Cât timp îşi poate păstra leadershipul tău statutul de "judecător"?

Pledează pentru valoarea ta morală în faţa "Onoratei Instanţe" a Leadershipului, fără să te faci părtaş la procesul de judecată intentat împotriva omului şi a vieţii.

Unicul vinovat în întâmplarea ce i-a fost fatală aduce în prim plan acea paralizie a voinţei, neputinţa de a reacţiona în faţa unor situaţii de moment. Un salt înspre necunoscut, înspre o nouă stare, înspre un alt fel de "a fi", pe care dacă nu-l faci în baza unui impuls de natură pozitivă sau constructivă, rişti să pierzi vagonul rezervat exclusiv celor care şi-au întregit leadershipul şi şi-au asumat menirea de lideri.

Unitatea leadershipului

Eşti creatorul propriului destin atunci când înţelegi că ceea ce poţi deveni depinde de ceea ce eşti capabil să ceri de la ceilalţi.

Steven Spielberg a visat cândva să facă un anumit film. Avea scenariul, dar nu şi producătorul care să îl finanţeze. Într-o zi, pe când se plimba pe plajă, el s-a întâlnit "accidental" cu un om bogat dispus să investească într-un regizor tânăr. Cu banii primiţi de la acest producător (un străin pe care nu-l văzuse niciodată până atunci), Spielberg a putut filma Amblin , o producţie cinematografică ce a primit o menţiune de onoare la festivalul de film de la Veneţia, atrăgând atenţia asupra lui la Hollywood.

Această povestioară pe care am găsit-o în cartea "How to Think Like a Millionaire", scrisă de Mark Fisher, ne arată că cei care devin lideri, mai întâi de toate ştiu să se facă remarcaţi. De asemenea, liderii ştiu să observe puterea unui brand în căutări, care de fapt este rezultatul gândirii lor finalizat printr-un proiect ambiţios. Iar tu, ca să devii un lider, trebuie să ştii să observi rapid punctul în care se află un om, îndrumându-l către următorul nivel al parcursului său profesional.

Leadershipul are ca nucleu şansa ta de a te face remarcat printr-o idee care, în mod normal, nimeni nu ar lua-o în calcul, dar care în anumite condiţii ar putea fi o mină de aur.

Iar totul unitar al leadershipului exprimă cel mai bine rezultatul impactului pe care îl ai asupra vieţii celorlalţi oameni. Te legi de oameni prin ceea ce eşti, prin fiinţa ta, prin ceea ce te motivează, prin strădaniile tale de a te raporta la ei căutând să lămureşti şi să rezolvi problemele comune. Uneori vei izbuti să clatini convingeri, să pui pe gânduri chiar şi spiritele cele mai refractare la mesajul pe care încerci să-l transmiţi, la ideea că tot ce înseamnă om presupune, mai întâi de toate, omenie.

Leadershipul este un ansamblu de elemente tehnice, strategice, dar şi cu o puternică încărcătură de sentimente specific umane. El nu poate fi împărţit sau separat în componentele sale constitutive, ci este un tot unitar.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi păstrezi mintea deschisă în faţa oportunităţii de fi altcineva, dar conformându-te numai naturii raţionale de a fi tu însuţi într-o continuitate care exclude orice manifestare a contradicţiei dintre "situaţia actuală" şi "scopul propus" ?

Spuneam într-unul din articolele mele de pe blog următoarele: "Ceea ce constituie unitatea leadershipului nu este compoziţia de valori şi de virtuţi conţinută, ci felul magistral în care liderul, destinat să-şi ateste coeficientul de nobleţe, le gestionează. Aşa cum într-un roman, specificul personajelor, caracterul lor, reies din semnele particulare pe care le observă autorul lor - tot astfel trăsăturile particulare de caracter ale liderului, care îl împiedică să se bucure de binele pe care l-ar fi putut oferi celorlalţi, recăpătându-ţi astfel stima de sine, reies din propria sa auto-observare."

Iar pentru ca leadershipul tău să aibă un impact mai mare, trebuie să operezi asupra oamenilor şi asupra societăţii. Ca lider, trebuie să fii capabil să le transmiţi oamenilor, într-un mod extrem de convingător şi mobilizator, un îndemn spre unire, spre mobilizare atunci când situaţia este gravă. Apelurile la înţelegere au un mare avantaj: îi încurajează pe oameni să se implice mai mult în viaţa comunităţii şi să se străduiască să acţioneze cu mai mult elan în acest scop.

Ce impact are leadershipului tău asupra celorlalţi oameni? Eşti capabil să le transmiţi oamenilor un îndemn spre unire? Cum îi încurajezi pe oameni să se implice în activităţi de natura profesională? Te concentrezi numai asupra slăbiciunilor supărătoare ale oamenilor? Stimulezi mediocritatea în care "rătăcesc" oamenii, sau stimulezi creşterea lor? Cum anume?

Felul în care te raportezi la oamenii de jur, la nevoile lor, acceptându-ţi întotdeauna partea ta de responsabilitate, contează la fel de mult ca şi cantitatea de vitamine şi minerale pe care trebuie să le asimileze un sportiv de performanţă pentru a-şi creşte masă musculară, sau un bolnav pentru a se însănătoşi. Nu te gândi să înzestrezi oamenii din jur, sau să le fii mentor, sau un ajutor de nădejde, fără ca mai înainte de toate, să stabileşti o compatibilitate între tine şi ei. Niciun fel de instruire din lumea asta, nici un fel de compromis, niciun fel de influenţă nu va face din tine tipul de lider dorit de ceilalţi oameni, dacă nu ai chemare şi dorinţa de a-i sluji.

Leadership: Cum privilegiezi schimbarea celor de lângă tine, aşa încât să-ţi reprezinţi experienţa concretă ca pe un interes circumstanţial legat de un efect de oglindire în istorie, care a devenit o parte din tine?

Tendinţele de supraevaluare a propriei persoane nu-ţi conferă stabilitate în relaţiile cu ceilalţi oameni. Ceea ce te ridică la nivel de lider, la nivelul unui om cu o importantă influenţă, este capacitatea şi modul în care te raportezi la oameni. Eşti gata să selectezi oamenii cei mai de calitate, să-i înzestrezi cu tot ce au nevoie pentru a fi performeri pe termen lung? A fi performer înseamnă să îmbini leadershipul cu caracterul propriu, înseamnă să îmbini cunoştinţele cu personalitatea care te defineşte – în folosul tău, dar şi în folosul celorlalţi oameni.

Performer este omul care, nesupus influenţelor străine, aprinde lumina speranţei şi bucuriei în sufletul oamenilor, prin puterea lui de a le schimba percepţiile - ajutându-i să obţină rezultate concrete în sfera dezvoltării personale.

Performerul identifică nevoile de înzestrare ale oamenilor din jur, selectează calităţile lor cele mai pregnante care sunt necesare pentru a-şi schimba statutul, caracterul, personalitatea.

Performer este liderul care promovează schimbarea celor de lângă el prin însăşi natura sa, prin felul său de a fi, prin ideologia sa, izolând sau neutralizând orice element non-integrabil în arhitectura propriei lor fiinţe.

Liderul este omul care poate face performanţă prin şlefuirea materiei din care e compusă fiinţa umană. Este cel care reuşeşte să elimine petele întunecate ale gândirii, ale înţelegerii şi simţirii - nerentabile – din mulţimea de Ego-uri, tratându-le cu decizii înţelepte şi noi orientări de cea mai bună calitate.

Leadershipul înseamnă să faci acea schimbare de care te temi cel mai tare, cu acordul direct al ambiţiei de a nu aparţine altcuiva decât propriei tale personalităţi.

Unitatea leadershipului este formată din două elemente: abilitatea de a te face remarcat şi capacitatea ta de a performa la cote maxime. Oamenii pe care îi ajuţi reprezintă, de fapt, un efect al oglindirii tale în istorie?

Tu cum privilegiezi schimbarea celor de lângă tine? Care este lucrul care te face să te simţi continuu împlinit? Îţi petreci 80% din timp făcând lucrul care îţi solicită cea mai mare pricepere? Cum îţi înzestrezi propria fiinţă pentru a-ţi desăvârşi leadershipul? Ce anume poate face din tine liderul dorit de ceilalţi oameni? Nu uita ce spunea odată expertul în materie de conducere, John Maxwell: "Oricât de grozav este jucătorul, dacă nu poate face un joc de echipă, el nu va ajuta niciodată organizaţia".

Sfat: Reglează-ţi ştiinţa conducerii astfel încât să uşurezi procesul de promovare a valorilor tale cele mai înalte.

Unitatea organică dintre formă şi conţinut

On Iunie 18, 2014

Eliberează-ţi capacităţile constructive de sub imperiul limitărilor impuse de reperele stilistice convenţionale, concepând o ştiinţă nouă fundamentată pe interpretarea conţinutului ei.

Noutatea filmului "Greva" constă atât în ineditul temei, cât şi în cel al formei ei de expresie. În acelaşi timp, şi de atunci adeseori, se practică o separare arbitrară între inovarea de conţinut şi de formă pe care o reprezenta "Greva".

Se pomeneşte adeseori separat de faptul că acest film era primul care aducea pe ecran lupta de clasă şi care prezenta pentru prima oară poporul ca erou principal al evenimentului, pe de o parte. Şi despre faptul că "Greva" aducea noi soluţii în privinţa expresiei cinematografice, pe de altă parte. Până şi polemica din acea vreme, dusă în jurul filmului şi continuată de fapt până în zilele noastre, se bazează pe această segmentaţie arbitrară a unei unităţi organice dintre formă şi conţinut.

În intervenţia sa la discuţie, marele regizor Eisenstein semnala anomalia şi adăugă, în ciuda criticilor săi, că de fapt, "forma s-a dovedit mai revoluţionară decât conţinutul". Pentru Eisenstein forma nouă era exprimarea, concretizarea unei noi concepţii, a unui nou mod de abordare a fenomenelor, deci a unei noi ideologii. În timp ce inovarea formală era izvorâtă din noutatea conţinutului. Căci aşa cum spunea, locomotiva nu a fost creată prin revoluţionarea formelor trăsurii, ci prin înţelegerea tehnică a noii descoperiri, aceea a formei de manifestare a energiei cuprinsă în aburi. *****

Leadership: Poţi să efectuezi un upgrade sau o resetare a ştiinţei fără să compromiţi stabilitatea formei ei de manifestare?

Trecerea treptată de la problemele de cercetare, enunţate în plan teoretic şi soluţionate în mod practic prin concretizarea unor noi concepţii, la reconstrucţia unei opere ştiinţifice prin alegerea şi perfecţionarea unor idei bune, face ca întregul demers de asumare a eforturilor personale de conturare a unei direcţii de realizare profesională să se concretizeze într-un edificiu impunător.

Cercetarea este un instrument cu ajutorul căruia se „circulă" pe drumul cunoasterii şi al artei. Ea îndeplineşte o sarcină concretă în construcţia şi organizarea experienţei, prin excelenţă una de fond: eliberarea capacităţilor constructive de sub imperiul limitărilor impuse de reperele stilistice convenţionale.

Întrebarea "Când vei putea să realizezi ce nu mai poţi realiza? " este de fapt rodul observării unei realităţii care nu a fost încă depăşită, o continuare a încercărilor de articulare a unor formule imposibile de realizat, şi de punere sub control a fundamentelor ştiinţei. Dacă compromiţi stabilitatea formei de manifestare a ştiinţei, prin asocieri necorespunzătoare de fundamente şi elemente noi creaţie, atunci nu vei putea realiza decât un modest update, care nu modifica valoarea produsului final.

Să cauţi să descoperi comorile ştiinţei, dar mai presus de toate să înţelegi complicaţiile şi dificultăţile de integrare a unei noi ideologii în cadrul unei expresii cinematografice, fără să schimbi paradigma gândirii de cineast sau a modului în care percepi şi interpretezi răspunsul la întrebările ei, este o muncă de concepție care necesită creativitate.

Leadership: Îţi reglezi valoarea gândirii în direcţia “avansat” spre conceperea unei ştiinţe care îndeplineşte toate rigorile unei viziuni inspirate?

Întreţinerea zonei de performanţă în care ştiinţa şi arta formează un sistem coerent, clar şi unitar, reglând valoarea gândirii în direcţia “avansat” prin desfăşurarea activităţilor creative şi inovative, completează fondul de descoperiri necesar susţinerii leadershipului. Întotdeauna ”dialogul” între cercetare, practică şi producţie a noilor perspective ştiinţifice, aplicând rezultatele teoretice la nivel de principii şi arhetipuri, poate deveni eficient prin prisma raportului formă-conţinut.

În timp ce “ conţinutul ” păstrează parametrii înalţi de calitate ai ştiinţei, prin integrarea inovaţiei în leadership, “ forma ” este o expresie a necesităţii de consum a conţinutului, care creează soluţia convenabilă pentru o afirmare puternică: unicitatea. Sau, cum spunea marele regizor Eisenstein, forma nouă este exprimarea, concretizarea unei noi concepţii, a unui nou mod de abordare a fenomenelor, deci a unei noi ideologii. În timp ce inovarea formală este izvorâtă din noutatea conţinutului.

Leadershipul se produce atunci cand "forma" se dovedeşte mai revoluţionară decât conţinutul.

Ştiinţa se manifestă în primul rând ca factor de producţie a descoperirilor. Decât să analizezi mai adânc ceva ce în mod evident nu ai putut analiza ca lumea de prima dată, mai bine schimbă-ţi viziunea de a modela ştiinţa prin introducerea unor forme noi de expresie care să evidenţieze şi să amplifice esenţialul din conţinut.

Nu uita că locomotiva nu a fost creată prin revoluţionarea formelor trăsurii, ci prin înţelegerea tehnică a noii descoperiri, aceea a formei de manifestare a energiei cuprinsă în aburi.

Unitatea organică dintre forma şi conţinut desemnează acea unitate de gândire şi modalităţile de acţiune, bazate pe legi unanim acceptate, dar în acelaşi timp bazate pe o interpretare inedită a conţinutului lor. Ascensiunea pe scara valorilor şi departajarea de diversitatea non-constructivă existentă simultan, presupune o viziune modernă şi deosebită, ca şi o manevră de abordare unică şi neimitabilă.

Universul cunoaşterii fără nume

Realizează o prospectare de control a ştiinţei tale, prin conceperea leadershipului ca instrument de manipulare a cunoaşterii.

Mă aflam în faţa unui fenomen bizar care sfida regulile ştiinţei inovatoare, pe care eu însumi le formulasem. Necontenit, ca urmare a jocului liber al imaginaţiei, urmam calculat un raţionament care se regăsea într-un precedent aproape inexplicabil. Trebuia să merg mai mult înapoi, ca să pot vedea înainte.

Ştiinţa este o lecţie a prezentului din care îţi fabrici o nouă realitate, fără să ţii cont neapărat de ceea ce te afectează prin întâmpinarea acestei realităţi. Vorba aia „de ceea ce te temi, peste aceea dai". Dezechilibrul conştient al axelor mele de existenţă progresa spre echilibrul acceptabil al unei traiectorii stabile şi predictibile. Influenţate de valoarea actualizată a fluxului de perspective în care puteam să mă joc cu posibilităţile de dezvoltare aduse de ştiinţă, aproape nelimitate.

Nu poţi să înţelegi dedesubturile cunoaşterii cu adevărat înalte fără să realizezi o conexiune între două entităţi conceptuale diferite, de o cu totul altă formă, compoziţie şi să trăieşti într-o realitate cu totul diferită de a ta. Atomii stabili construiţi în jurul ştiinţei mele, născuţi aparent într-un Big-Bang din care se forma noul univers al cunoaşterii fără nume, fără egal şi fără sfârşit, mişunau continuu în jurul întrebării pe care şi-o tot punea biologul olandez Jan Swammerdam: " Cu ce este mai prejos micul cărăbuş de strălucita pasăre de peste mări? "

Construcţia cunoaşterii înseamnă să ţii cont de ceea ce te face să te simţi împlinit la nivel de intruziune într-o realitate cu care nu eşti complet de acord, făcând din existenţa ta un spectacol de idei care se revelează gradual publicului.

Amănuntul acesta îmi revenea mereu în minte, tot mai pregnant, ca un secret sedimentat parcă pe fundul unui ocean care adăpostea o nouă viaţă. Pesemne că mergeam tot înainte. Iar ca protector al propriei mele ştiinţe, îmi revenea sarcina să descopăr diferenţele importante care apăreau între forţa de rezistenţă a unei gândiri planificate şi forţa motoare a unei gândiri care intra în dialog cu altă gândire.

Amândouă forţele erau rezultate din constatarea următoarei disparităţi: crearea de forme derivate a conţinutului de idei şi concepţii se substituia unei neîncetate opţiuni pentru interpretarea şi reprezentarea unei realităţi pe care nu o cunoşteam în mod direct. Acesta era pasul înapoi care mă ajuta să îmi pun în valoare tehnica de lucru, potenţialul creator şi cunoştinţele acumulate, punând în aplicare ce îmi vorbea instinctul.

Eram mereu gata să prelungesc, cu un devotament aproape de neînţeles, modul de a concepe raportul dintre experienţele trăite şi eforturile susţinute de eficientizare a potenţialului meu de a genera ordine în haosul numeroaselor mele incursiuni în lumea ştiinţei. Întru racordarea la standardele unei cunoaşteri intuitive, superioare altor mijloace de cunoaştere, pe care numai adevărul şi conţinutul ei unic mă făceau liber să înţeleg şi să-mi controlez facultăţile intelectuale.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi activezi capacitatea de a efectua un query de tip "update" folosind funcţia "search"?

Ştiinţa echilibrează forţa de care dispune liderul pentru realizarea misiunii cu care a pornit la drum. Asemenea unei făclii care nu ştie să se stingă şi te face să-ţi găseşti drumul prin întunericul generat de limitele propriilor percepţii şi raţiuni, experienţe şi capacităţi, ştiinţa îşi extinde zona de identificare a celor mai bune sau mai importante practici pentru implementarea unor noi invenţii şi criterii de comparaţie cu alte modele de realitate.

Dar pentru ca ştiinţa să treacă la cârma leadershipului, ea trebuie să fie autentică, să nu poată fi încătuşată de prejudecăţi care i-ar putea denatura de la bun început menirea. Şi numai urmând calculat un raţionament care se regăseşte într-un precedent aproape necunoscut, ştiinţa ta va putea să ţină pasul cu noile tendinţe, devenind o putere semnificativă în lume, în centrul unui joc în care durităţile din "teren" trec deseori de limita oricăror regulamente.

Din acest motiv, analizând orice aspect care îţi dă de înţeles că e cazul să ridici nivelul de producţie al suprafeţei de contact cu excelenţa, trebuie să te supui unui joc în care trebuie să ghiceşti variantele corecte ale formulelor de continuare a cercetărilor, în sensul perfecționării. Adică să-ţi activezi capacitatea de a efectua acel query de tip "update" folosit de funcţia "search" pusă la dispoziţie de cunoaştere, pentru completarea oricăror lipsuri de natură necunoscută ştiinţei actuale.

Liderul ar trebui să încerce să descopere dubla valoare a experienţei sale de cunoaştere şi simţire în creaţia pe care o întruchipează.

Un query de tip "update" este o solicitare de informații dintr-o bază de date de tip "relaţional" a cărei procesare şi întreţinere presupune o investiţie substanţială în posibilitatea realizării unei comparaţii între ceea ce vezi diferit la tine şi ceea ce este dincolo de ideile tale preconcepute.

Nu degeaba afirma scriitorul Andre Maurois că ştiinţa este o lungă şi sistematică curiozitate. Trecând de la o evoluţie oscilantă, presărată cu greşeli, la una reglată prin precizie şi fiabilitate ridicată, leadershipul capătă noi proporţii dezvoltate în jurul curiozităţii de a cerceta tainele cele de nepătruns ale unor noi regiuni de cunoaştere experimentală.

Dincolo de simplismul unor legi care, prin natura lor, supun cunoaşterea unei relaţii determinate pe cale analitică, identificate prin calcul şi intuiţie, liderul ar trebui să caute să descopere dubla valoare a experienţei sale în creaţia pe care o întruchipează - o valoare de simbol, o valoare de parabolă, o valoare de direcţie, o valoare de mit, o valoare de deja-vu. Si mai trebuie ţinut cont de valenţele estetice în jurul căruia se dezvoltă orice spaţiu de compunere a aspectelor ce fac obiectul "revelaţiei privilegiate a realităţii".

Care este limita maximă pe care ştiinţa ta o atribuie fundamentului pe care se sprijină leadershipul, din perspectiva trecerii la un alt context de raportabilitate: inversiunea de rol?

Leadershipul este permis numai în cadrul unor limite ale unor condiţii strict definite. Dar atunci când vine vorba de abordări inovative care încurajează orientarea spre un stil nonconformist, care să nu intre în niciun fel de tipare, nu există certitudini sau garanţii 100% că nu va sfida regulile şi normele existente.

Asta se traduce prin expresia: " Trebuie să mergi mai mult înapoi, ca să poţi vedea înainte. " Adică, să realizezi o prospectare de control a ştiinţei tale prin conceperea leadershipului ca instrument de manipulare a unei cunoaşteri tot mai complexe. Care prin experienţă şi erudiţie, poate conduce la un solid sentiment de competenţă exclusivă. Să mergi înapoi înseamnă să te reîntorci la ceea ce te pricepeau tu mai bine să faci, încât cunoaşterea să devină sursa bucuriei de a te afla faţă în faţă cu ceea ce numeşte "să fii mereu acelaşi".

Ca să te întâlneşti pe tine însuţi în ipostaza de creator trebuie să experimentezi respectul de sine, adică să te afli constant faţă în faţă cu ceea ce ai învăţat despre tine, nu cu ceea ce nu cunoşti sau cu ceea ce cred alţii. Acest "tu însuţi" este o accentuare a virtuţii de a împărtăşi ceva din propria obiectivitate, virtutea de a aduna la un loc trăiri şi percepţii ca un impuls de a acţiona, virtutea de a da şanse afirmării unei identităţi coerente, diferenţiate.

Limita maximă pe care ştiinţa ta o atribuie fundamentului pe care se sprijină leadershipul este dată de configuraţia aleasă pentru organizarea teritoriului de exprimare, de găsire a celor mai inteligente metode de update la standardul de gândire adoptat. De aceea, ca protector al propriei tale ştiinţe, îţi revine sarcina să descoperi diferenţele importante care apar între forţa de rezistenţă a unei gândiri planificate şi forţa motoare a unei gândiri care intră în dialog cu altă gândire.

Inversiunea de rol este o reacţie de depăşire a rutinei profesionale provenită din condiţionarea minţii de a percepe o altă persoană în procesul de creaţie, astfel încât efortul de a construi o viziune să permită ipostazierea unui Alter-Ego.

Universul cunoaşterii fără nume vizează analiza retrospectivă a cunoştinţelor în domeniul conducerii, care permite o îmbogăţire şi o reactualizare a acestora în vederea atingerii unor performanţe deosebite. Cunoaşterea nu are un nume care să-i acopere întreg teritoriul plin de mister, ci are o întreagă poveste în spate pe care nu vei ajunge niciodată să o isprăveşti. Dar căreia îi poţi adăuga oricând un nou capitol. Iar dacă îi înţelegi tâlcul, îi poţi găsi oricând şi un titlu nou.

Ai puterea să înaintezi printre jaloanele fixate de teritoriul unei poveşti fără sfârşit?

Universul imaginativ al Creaţiei fără margini

On Noiembrie 23, 2020

Omul este mai mult decât o minte şi un corp, iar prin reunirea cu dimensiunea spirituală ecoul sinelui său se transformă major într-o operă de creaţie.

Încerc să transpun în pictură cuvintele unui univers lăuntric pe care nu-l pot explica prin viu grai, ci doar prin emoţia cu care vreau să reprezint cadrul unei realităţi mai profunde, mai apropiată de vădita predominanţă a unui cer plin de linişte, cu descifrarea logicii unei legi ce reglementează forma pe care trebuie să o îmbrace acordul artistului cu esenţialul din rosturile existenţei. Sunt pe cale să reuşesc.

Tot timpul pensula îmi vorbeşte prin culori, indicându-mi trăsăturile esenţiale ce stau la baza existenţei, formând o unitate armonică: spaţiul, timpul, ordinea, determinarea, toate acestea variind de la recreere la spiritual. Din anumit punct de vedere, pensula este o eliberare şi libertate în acelaşi timp, căci îmi lasă spaţiu de reflecţie, mă ajută să mă relaxez, să mă calmez, în timp ce mânuirea ei cu fineţe, cu graţie, cu acea libertate care merge de la exprimarea francă a sentimentelor de apartenenţă la un univers suprapus, este forma mea de comunicare cu ochiul unei forme imaginare de exprimare, de la fantastic la abstract.

Arta scoate în evidenţă unitatea multiplicităţii realităţii în care mă încadrează actul de creaţie. Nici nu-i de mirare. Condus de o anumită dispoziţie metafizică, am ajuns să cred că sunt doar transpunerea în scris a unui univers ce are identitate în mintea şi sufletul unui pictor care îşi îmbracă pânza cu forma imaginară a unei geometrii vizibile doar în modul de vedere mistic, spiritual. Cuvintele exprimă cu greu dimensiunea lucrurilor în care cred, ci mai degrabă arată dimensiunea unei epopei interioare ce nu-şi va consuma niciodată posibilităţile ei de interpretare.

Leadership: Creaţia demiurgică a sinelui tău se orientează spre o nouă variantă şi tendinţă stilistică, abordând în tematica ei o reinterpretare a mesajelor artei care se îngemănează cu religiosul?

S-ar spune că opera pensulei este opera de iluminare a sufletelor şi a cugetelor libere, aducându-mi aminte că nu am mai privit de mult o floare a paradisului, cerul în furtună, sau acel "dincolo de stele" care freamătă a zbor deasupra unei vieţi întregi. În artă, imaginea redată în scris sau prin stratul pictural al pânzei, poate să reflecte un limbaj exclusiv simbolic, strâns legat de partea religioasă a liricii. Arta face lucruri pe cale senzitivă, plăsmuieşte visuri pe calea unui ideal de raportare la univers, acela al purităţii existenţei şi al mişcării corpurilor, al pluralităţii viziunilor, al afişării simultane a tuturor virtualităţilor existenţiale şi a micilor frumuseţi cotidiene.

Prin virtutea celestă pe care mi-o conferă binecuvântarea unei depline sfinţiri alchimice, cu trecere spre microconglomerate şi concreţiuni sporadice de metafore active, o sfinţire pe cât de solitară pe atât de grăitoare, am reuşit să produc un tipar nou de transmitere învăţăturilor antice, la alt nivel de expresivitate. Chiar şi astrologic privind, atât pensula cât şi stiloul, pot să dezvolte nişte aspecte pur teoretice, având o dualitate mai extinsă, cea dintre elementul intelectual şi cel afectiv, unul fiind exprimat prin ochi, celălalt prin cuvinte.

Creaţia demiurgică a sinelui meu este o manifestare a instinctului emoţional turnat în forme artistice de liberă exprimare a trăirilor (de o înaltă expresivitate), care indică o prezenţă imuabilă prin har şi prin logos. În acest caz, tendinţa stilistică care îmi influenţează creaţia coincide cu dorința sinelui meu de a fi recunoscut și apreciat pentru ceea ce este, ca să mă descopăr mai bine, nu să fug de mine, şi să folosesc util tot ce am descoperit spre a reface armonia universului literar-artistic.

Leadership: Poţi să explici motivul căutării sinelui în sine prin felul de a fi al artei care se realizată prin opere sau acțiuni cu semnificații estetice bine gândite?

Cine ştie, poate că eu însumi sunt opera de înfrumuseţare prin cuvinte a unui Ego care se crede mai presus de iluzia unei lumi plină de sens, mai presus de cele pământeşti şi cereşti, fără să stau smerit în faţa altarului tăcerii, în imperiul semnelor fără sens şi al simbolurilor fără corespondent revelator, oricum greu de descifrat.

Iar dacă mă implic într-un joc de îndemânare pentru exersarea scrisului, cu însufleţire, plin de lirism, din instinctul de explorare a sinelui, ca o chemare profetică de-a lungul timpului, este pentru că încerc să scot la iveală, măcar parţial, rodul unui act de creaţie declanşat spontan de tainele spiritualităţii.

În această ordine de idei, sunt un artist prin puterea picăturilor de înţelepciune vărsate în memoria timpului, prin alegerea sensurilor cuvintelor pe care le aude cineva ai cărui ochi ştiu să privească cu multă atenţie o creaţie intelectuală şi să recunoască, să recepţioneze acea realitate a existenţei mele interioare ce rezonează la frecvența conștiinței universale.

Sunt un artist al emoţiilor desfăşurate în imperiul unui cer care nu este decât un vis, în imperiul unui fluture umplut cu multe culori, care surprinde o lume lirică prin fragilitate și elan. În zborul său uşor, liber, neatins de patimi neiertătoare, fluturele a reuşit cumva să atingă norii, să atingă cerul. Până la urmă, am reuşit să ating sublimul zborului său prin simpla atingere a unei pânze cu o pensulă. Stiloul este martorul acestei însufleţiri artistice.

Motivul căutării sinelui în sine poate fi acela de a da sens unei dimensiuni spirituale ce îşi are originea în actul de creaţie care începe cu atenţia îndreptată spre ascultarea lăuntrului dintr-un preaplin al geografiei ființiale.

Universul imaginativ al Creaţiei fără margini surprinde caracteristica principală a sinelui ce se oglindeşte în opera veşnică a creaţiei, fiind o transpunere a gândurilor şi trăirilor într-o simbioză a spațiului şi a timpului în care mi-am însușit datoria de a fi liantul dintre minte şi spirit.

Totodată, sunt liantul dintre codurile personale şi cele ale textului literar, sunt liantul dintre materie şi substanţa conceptuală de sorginte simbolică. Sunt vocea universului pentru că am stiut să ma întroduc în universalul unei lumi cuprinsă tocmai într-un incomensurabil model de exprimări şi de cuvinte.

Universul omului dezorientat în faţa unei uşi întredeschise (II)

On Decembrie 16, 2012

Sporeşte-ţi performanţele de procesare a viziunilor şi revelaţiilor, realizând saltul în acea conştiinţă aflată în permanent impact cu realitatea subiectivităţii şi idealităţii.

Păşeam nesigur într-un necunoscut care se extindea cu cât înaintam mai mult. Şi cu cât înaintam mai mult, cu atât se schimba mai mult peisajul, din color, în alb şi negru. O altă lume, un alt timp, un alt tărâm, un alt sistem cognitiv, un alt fel de a fi, în totală discordanţă cu aspiraţiile mele anterioare.

Totul părea o păcăleală, o amăgire, o tristă ficţiune de minţi imature. Mă lansam într-o căutare a răspunsurilor asemeni unei făpturi care, cu un singur creier, cu o singură inimă, printr-o aprigă lovitură a destinului, se întrupează în altcineva şi trăieşte toate evenimentele timpului şi ale vieţii. Dar care, reacţionând la diverşi factori definitorii, se putea deteriora pe durata transformării.

Ca Raşid, califul din opera lui Hauff, supus capriciilor transformării sale, ajunsesem la uşa marilor taine, ce părea întredeschisă. Desluşind îndărătul ei suspine şi scâncete. Sunete amplificate ale îndoielii şi neliniştii, reperele propriei mele deveniri, un fel de colaj al concretelor care aproximau media expectanţelor mele prin raportare la obiectivele-cadru şi la dimensiunile personalităţii mele. Nu-mi puteam reveni din uimirea, nebunia, curiozitatea care torenţial mă cuprinseseră.

Am împins uşa, dar m-am oprit mirat în prag. În spatele ei se ascundea "alteritatea", o lume care se auto-susţinea prin exploatarea şi susţinerea inadecvată a realităţii, a cunoaşterii, a orientării, a înţelegerii, a ştiinţei şi a efectelor ei dominante. Ca şi cum n-aş fi trăit viaţa mea, ci alte vieţi, anterioare, atât de răsucite şi confuze, atât de neexplorate şi variate, încât aveam impresia că întreaga lume se clătină. Şi odată cu ea răsăreau aspecte necunoscute ale ştiinţei mele.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi selectezi dimensiunea de explorare a existenţei ca mod de înţelegere a trăirii evenimentului dincolo de faptul particular care generează realitatea?

Niciun fan al literaturii fantastice nu ar fi ştiut să îmbărbăteze culoarea viziunii mele. Cu vădită surprindere, eram transpus într-o altă realitate, a noului, a schimbării, a unei creaţii existenţiale mereu în transformare. Evoluţia faţă în faţă cu revoluţia. O mângâiere, dar una dureroasă. Un changement de perspective sur les attaques extérieures. Un nou statut, un alt fel de a fi care se încadra într-un soi de schemă, o hartă abstractă în care erau trecute datoriile importante faţă de percepţii, interpretări şi ipostaze, precum şi relaţiile dintre ele.

Şi, totuşi, numai adevărul din spatele uşii, acceptul lui justificat, m-ar fi putut salva de la o absurdă şi totală rătăcire. Amplificarea propriei personalităţi printr-o supunere în faţa forţelor vieţii, ale timpului, ale extraordinarei alcătuiri a realităţii. O însuşire continuă a ştiinţei de a avea acces la adevărurile fundamentale despre Om şi esenţa lui în lume.

Poate chiar ştiinţa de a fi mai mult decât Om, de a fi o întreagă lume, un univers. Dimensiunea de explorare a existenţei mele se putea măsura prin forţa de expresie cu care încercam să redau mesajul unei noi direcţii de gândire.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi consolidezi forţa de răspuns la întâmplările trăite experimental, printr-o abordare holistică a cunoaşteri ştiinţifice?

A încerca să înţelegi leadershipul, fără să te supui unui proces de transformare, este ca şi cum ai ridica receptorul telefonului şi ai forma un număr, dar un număr care nu figurează în cartea de telefon. Vei continua să aderi la o realitate pe care n-o percepi şi care nu este conformă sau compatibilă cu sistemul de convingeri care ghidează liderii veritabili pe drumul cel bun. Sau, la o realitate care se lăsă aşteptată la nesfârşit.

Un soi de negare a tot ceea ce ai acumulat în prezent, prin forţa de răspuns la întâmplările trăite experimental sau chiar aprioric, printr-o abordare holistică a cunoaşterii ştiinţifice şi existenţiale. Ceea ce poate conduce la sporirea performanţelor de procesare a viziunilor şi revelaţiilor, a inspiraţiei şi intuiţiei, trebuincioase satisfacerii intenţiilor de a afla, de a şti şi de a descoperi lucruri noi, pe tot parcursul vieții. Te poţi deosebi de ceea ce este limitat numai prin mijloacele puse la îndemână de conştiinţa care înlătură neştiinţa şi ignoranţa, înştiinţându-te asupra pericolului care te paște atunci când refuzi să-ţi urmezi imboldurile de înnoire.

Saltul în acea conştiinţă aflată într-un permanent impact cu realitatea subiectivităţii şi idealităţii (conştientizarea propriilor gânduri şi trăiri). Imboldul de a căuta în momentul imediat următor ceva ce crezi că nu găseşti în clipa de faţă - este una din cheile leadershipului spre a obţine acea împlinire de a fi mai presus de prejudecăţi, de tine însuţi, de a trece peste toate barierele, fie ele reale sau imaginare. Doar astfel poţi demonstra bogăţia şi superioritatea individualităţii tale.

Vei aştepta ca cineva să răspundă la apelul tău, pledând în acest timp pentru o schimbare, o evoluţie graduală, în care raţiunea şi creaţiunea să se potenţeze mereu, şi benefic. Dar cine oare să-ţi răspundă de acolo de unde nu există orizont, de unde nu există conformare?

Un conflict de sincronizare între realitate şi alteritate se produce atunci când nu se pot reconcilia diferențele dintre ceea ce încerci să oferi prin experienţa acumulată și exerciţiul de testare a puterii de a te reinventa.

John Maxwell, expertul în materie de leadership, mărturisea într-una din cărţile sale că a muncit atât de mult, vreme de mai bine de patruzeci de ani, pentru a învăţa despre leadership şi pentru a extrage pepitele de aur. El a văzut ce poate face leadershipul bun, care contează cu adevărat. A observat că leadershipul bun poate transforma organizaţii şi poate avea un impact pozitiv asupra vieţilor a mii de persoane.

John Maxwell a ridicat receptorul şi a format numărul potrivit care figura în agenda transformării sale. El a parcurs acel "timp" limitat al schimbării, care nu curgea în zadar, ca o ploaie de scurtă durată. Ci a trecut peste punctul de mijloc al liniei care desparte cele două coloane ale existenţei: "a fi" şi "a deveni".

O continuă auto-depăşire a ştiinţei de a avea acces la adevărurile fundamentale despre Om şi esenţa lui în lume. Evoluţia fata în faţă cu revoluţia. Adoptând un nou statut, un alt fel de a fi, bazat pe o preocupare intensă, ca pe o continuare a căutării performanţei la un nivel superior.

Ca şi alţi profesionişti din domeniu, el a ajuns la acea "uşă întredeschisă" spre o altă dimensiune a universului uman, a timpului, a evenimentelor vieţii, colindând necunoscutul în încercarea de a colecta ştiinţa şi cunoaşterea deplină, de a se plasa pe traiectoria corectă a performanţei.

Leadership: Valoarea de conţinut a realităţii pe care o experimentezi este egală cu valoarea de conţinut a unei gândiri din care rezultă necesitatea unor alegeri de tipul "în afara propriei conştiinţe"?

" Cine sunt? Unde mă aflu? Până când?" Sunt cele trei nestemate care au stat la baza devenirii sale. El a împins uşa, nu a zăbovit în pragul ei ca un om care se loveşte de un zid invizibil. Ci a acceptat adevărul din spatele ei, care l-a salvat de la o absurdă şi totală rătăcire.

Iar acest adevăr, ca o baterie de artilerie care trage o sută de lovituri de tun pentru a anunţa începutul unei schimbări majore, acceptat pe deplin, i-a deblocat orice îndoială cu privire la angajamentul său faţă de sine în atingerea performanţei.

Acest adevăr a fost dat de o siguranţă mai mare în gândire, un factor cheie în înţelegerea celor mai delicate aspecte a mecanismelor care guvernează viaţa, omul, timpul, procesul lor de transformare – cu toate adaosurile lor. A fost punctul de mijloc al desăvârşirii ştiinţei sale, înclinaţia de 180 de grade, de la simplu la complex, de la basic la avansat, un fel de clopoţel al schimbării care i-a reamintit constant cine este şi încotro se îndreaptă.

O alegere de tipul "în afara propriei conştiinţe" se face atunci când nu eşti pe deplin convins de realitatea pe care o experimentezi în direcţia opusă a ceea ce te aştepţi să crezi despre toate lucrurile care îţi vin în minte, schimbându-ţi astfel percepţia despre ceea ce eşti cu adevărat.

Universul omului dezorientat în faţa unei uşi întredeschise vizează acea incursiunea în dimensiunea universului propriu, care interacţionează cu realitatea numai într-o manieră direcţionată şi gândită într-un mod cu totul nou, mai larg şi mai cuprinzător. Acest tip de gândire care nu se încapsulează în reguli și norme riguroase, impune întotdeauna congruența sau compatibilitatea cu leadershipul transformaţional.

Universul omului dezorientat în faţa unei uşi întredeschise (I)

On Decembrie 15, 2012

Răspunde întrebărilor impuse de propria ta evoluţie, ca să-ţi facilitezi accesul la adevărurile fundamentale despre Om şi esenţa lui în lume.

Nu îmi propusesem şi nu credeam că mă voi expune atât de mult unei lumi întregi, unui factor de înfruntare. Era o reflexie a legăturii care exista între mine şi altă fiinţă, continuându-se printr-o învăluire intensă, de esenţă, a ceea ce eram, în contrast cu ceea ce puteam deveni.

Simţeam pământul lunecându-mi de sub picioare. Temerile mele mai mult sau mai puţin vagi de până atunci aveau motive serioase să se preschimbe în spaimă. Inexplicabil, eram prins într-un vârtej existenţial, într-un stol de gânduri neliniştitoare, într-un sistem de axe ale îndoielii care îmi blocau cu mult elan optimismul şi entuziasmul. Şovăitor, mă clătinam în umbra unei nesiguranţe în gândire, frământat de numeroase întrebări confuze, cuprins de o apăsătoare aşteptare şi înfricoşat de urmările ei.

Fiecare fază a evoluţiei mele era o parte a ştiinţei de pretutindeni, mărturia unei lumi pe care o doream reînviată, în măsura în care ştiinţa de pretutindeni venea să rezolve întrebările pregătitoare impuse de propria bătălie cu morile de vânt. Cine eram? Unde mă aflam? Până când? Aveam senzaţia că fusesem creat să mă potrivesc unei etichete care poate nu mi se potrivea, înlăuntrul unei lumi înconjurătoare care se impunea numai prin constrângere şi, preventiv, izbucnea dorinţa în mine de a face cu totul altceva cu viaţa mea.

Un moment scurt de tatonare, iute ca un flash, o stare de luciditate forţată în care, asemeni unui Prometeu înlănţuit de o stâncă enormă, îmi erau devorate, fără excepţie, toate sursele de inspiraţie şi motivaţie. Toate firimiturile din energia care mă caracteriza le lăsăm în urmă, nu le strângeam într-un mănunchi nou al strădaniei de validare a propriei persoane, ci le lăsam să se împrăştie singure până la sublimare.

Leadership: Cum tratezi depăşirea dualităţii dintre a fi în sine un obiect al obsesiei faţă de propria persoană şi a fi principala modalitate de a menţine o stare-limită specifică unei conştiinţe bântuite de tentaţia neantului?

Simţi pământul lunecându-ţi de sub picioare? Eşti prins într-un vârtej existenţial, într-un sistem de axe ale îndoielii care îţi blochează optimismul şi entuziasmul? Te clatini în umbra unei nesiguranţe în gândire? Eşti frământat de numeroase întrebări confuze, cuprins de o apăsătoare aşteptare şi înfricoşat de urmările ei? Cine eşti? Unde te afli? Până când?

De ce ar trebui să te chinui atât de mult pentru a răspunde la aceste întrebări? Fiindcă doar astfel poţi înţelege leadershipul, această scară spiralată a ascensiunii, dar şi a riscurilor, care poate fi parcursă numai prin înţelegerea esenţei, ascunsă şi imuabilă, a naturii umane. O privire "dinăuntru", acea reflectare a spiritului confuz care experimentează noi ipostaze ale realităţii, este necesară pentru o mai bună urmărire a modului de îndeplinire a obligaţiei de asigurare a transformării care succede linia măreţiei incomensurabile.

Singura mea dovadă de măreţie a fost că niciodată nu m-am simţit pierdut, abandonat, în toată acea confruntare dintre ceea ce îmi altera realitate şi ceea ce mă reprezenta ca stil, viziune şi spirit. Purtarea pe umeri a unei asemenea măreţii, în opoziţie cu orice semn al delăsării care-mi bântuia neîncetat mintea, cugetările şi sufletul, este dovada credinţei de a respinge orice slăbiciune a raţiunii în faţa forţelor de nepătruns ale neantului.

Neantul se reduce la traversarea experienței de viaţă pe care nu o accepţi ca şi garanţie a intrării tale în acea ordine a spiritului care te poate ajuta să-ţi redefineşti părerea despre propria persoană, despre sistemul de valori, şi limitele din această relaţie. Se poate spune că eşti un obiect al obsesiei faţă de propria persoană când ajungi să te consideri înfrânt de o realitate care parcă nu-ţi mai aparţine, care parcă nu mai are niciun sens, fiind incapabil de a-ţi găsi direcția și motivația pentru a continua să te dezvolţi pe toate planurile.

Leadership: Care este poziţia ta faţă de ceea ce ţi se întâmplă într-un cadru de tip "manifestă-te prin forţa individualităţii tale" atunci când trebuie să validezi cauza adevărată a trăirilor tale?

Bunul pe care-l posezi nelimitat, şi pe care leadershipul îl admite ca pe un vast teritoriu al răspunderii faţă de ceea ce te motivează, dobândit ca urmare a eforturilor intense de a face ceva important cu viaţa ta, este de fapt valoarea pe care ţi-o dai tu singur, nu oamenii din jur. Este valoarea pe care ţi-o dă legătura dintre ceea ce ai fost, în contrast cu ceea ce poţi deveni; este valoarea pe care ţi-o dă experienţa sinelui câştigată printr-o diversitate apreciabilă a abordărilor de tip realist.

Natura ta se va afla într-o continuă modelare sub influenţa societăţii, dar şi a propriei tale treceri spre o realitate mereu schimbătoare. O punte a unei înţelegeri tainice a ceea ce te defineşte ca Om, pe care, traversând-o în condiţiile impuse de propria ta cunoaştere, în înţelegerea şi cuantificarea procesului de transformare, va crea posibilitatea de a putea răspunde la întrebările care ascund atâtea dubii şi presupuneri referitoare la "cine eşti", care este rolul tău în lume şi încotro te îndrepţi.

Cauza adevărată a trăirilor tale poate fi aflată prin mijlocirea altcuiva sau prin autostudierea tendinţelor tale. Amândouă modalităţile trebuie să se remarce prin descoperirea viciilor din tine, urmată de eradicarea oricărui defect prin dezvoltarea calităţii care îl va distruge, nu prin luptă împotriva răului, ci prin biruinţa spirituală asupra superiorităţii inteligenței.

Când te simţi confuz, înseamnă că dialogul cu tine însuţi a fost bruiat de acea tendinţă a inteligenţei de a accesa o nouă formă de manifestare a existenţei, străină de propria ta structură de referinţă.

Cum parcurgi scara spiralată a ascensiunii tale? Privind înapoi spre ceea ce pare lipsit de orice importanţă, sau înainte spre ceea ce n-are să mai fie? Dacă vrei să te ridici la nivelul leadershipului care susţine potenţialul necesar pentru realizarea continuă a schimbării, mai întâi trebuie să identifici noutatea care poate da vieţii tale un sens, o anumită direcţie, o anumită valoare.

Noutatea este mărturia unei lumi pe care o doreşti reînviată, este condiţia ştiinţei de a explora o realitate care se îmbogățește în permanență cu fascicule de semnificații, conferindu-ţi acea unicitate, atât de necesară pentru a deveni un om mare.

Valoarea omului este determinată de volumul adevărului pe care îl poate tolera despre el însuşi în acea circumstanţă a vieţii care îl însingurează.

Universul omului dezorientat în faţa unei uşi întredeschise oglindeşte acea parte ascunsă a ştiinţei şi a cunoaşterii "Omului" ce iese la iveală câtă vreme eşti conectat la o realitate cu semnificaţie diferită. O experienţă voluntară, un salt spre o altă înţelegere, care îţi poate permite să progresezi, îmbogăţindu-te cu cunoaşterea proprie, cu cunoaşterea vieţii, a timpului şi a universului uman.

Aşa cum pictorul îşi pregăteşte pânza înainte de a pune culorile, tot aşa şi excelenţa în leadership, pentru a fi atinsă, trebuie să-i aloci mai întâi resursele proprii care pot determina o schimbare, să-i reînnoieşti cunoaşterea şi ştiinţa înţelegerii naturii umane, a Omului din tine, apoi a celorlalţi din jur, înainte de a le folosi.

O uşă deschisă este o invitaţie de a intra într-un spaţiu uneori necunoscut, unde nu ştii ce te aşteaptă şi ce vei găsi. Dar odată ce ai trecut de ea înseamnă că ţi-ai asumat responsabilitatea de a înfrunta "necunoscutul", cu armele cunoaşterii potenţialului pe care ţi l-ai dezvoltat permanent.

Universul unui artist care se hrăneşte cu euforia creaţiei

On Iunie 14, 2016

Lărgeşte-ţi orizonturile de percepţie a realităţii existenţiale etalându-ţi meritul de a pune în discuţie subtilităţile unei gândiri sensibile, specifică artiştilor care cunosc modul de funcţionare a mecanismelor simbolice.

Mi-a plăcut enorm de mult să-l citesc pe Victor Ieronim Stoichiţă nu doar pentru talentul de a prezenta marele capodopere ale artei picturale, ci pentru meritul de a pune în discuţie subtilităţile unei gândiri sensibile, specifică artiştilor care cunosc modul de funcţionare a mecanismelor simbolice. De exemplu, în cartea lui "Cum se savurează un tablou", suntem mişcaţi de posibilitatea savurării mai multor tablouri prin inteligenţa de fond a unei exprimări capabile să eficientizeze, substanţial, comunicarea chiar şi cu cei lipsiţi de exerciţiul practic al artei.

Dar în primul rând, suntem introduşi într-un univers al percepţiilor de apartenenţă şi de interconectare la un univers plin de culoare intensă, plin de personalitate şi forţă expresivă. Să luăm ca exemplu un pasaj din minunata sa lucrare despre artă, cu trimitere spre o pagină de istorie:

"Într-o pagină celebră a Salonului din 1767, Diderot exclamă în faţa unui tablou anticipator al viitorului pictor al Luvrului:

În ce enormă profunzime obscură şi mută se va rătăci acum ochiul meu? La ce distanţă prodigioasă este trimisă bucata de cer pe care o întrezăresc prin această deschidere ! Uimitoarea degradare a luminii ! Cum se diminuează ea coborând din înaltul bolţii, de-a lungul coloanelor ! Cum sunt împinse tenebrele de lumina zilei de la intrare şi de la ieşire ! Nu te mai saturi să le priveşti. Timpul se opreşte în loc pentru cel plin de admiraţie. Ideile pe care ruinele le trezesc în mine sunt măreţe. Totul dispare, totul piere, totul trece, doar lumea rămâne, doar timpul durează. Cât de veche e lumea aceasta ! Păşesc între două eternităţi. Un torent înghesuie naţiunile unele peste altele în fundul unei prăpăstii comune. Eu, doar eu vreau să mă opresc la marginea ei şi să evit şuvoiul care curge pe lângă mine."

Leadership: Iei în considerare tendința esențială a unui artist care se revealeaza ca o ocheadă aruncată peste timpul istoriei și care pretinde să se realizeze ca atotcunoscător printr-o experienţă de viaţă îndelungată?

Poţi să pui într-o lumină favorabilă ceea ce resimţi la nivel de cunoaştere, din perspectiva unei libertăți de autodeterminare fără frontiere, atunci când începi să faci o juxtapunere între cele două părți din cuprinsul expresiei: nimic nu se pierde, totul se transformă. Și, în același timp, trebuie să știi să le aplici în cazul explicării anumitor fenomene și procese importante pentru dezvoltarea personală. Cum ar fi fenomenele de interferenţă între logică, ştiinţă şi libera imaginaţie, sau procesele de producere a ideilor și a combinaţiilor dintre viziune și negaţie.

Artistul îşi măsoară talentul cu un supererou dintr-un univers paralel printr-un act de reflexie devenit nu doar posibil ci necesar, ca într-un joc de oglinzi, având o pensulă în mâna stângă şi câteva culori ale paletei în mâna dreaptă, fapt ce prilejuieşte introducerea unui alt spaţiu şi alt timp. El este trecutul şi viitorul aceleiaşi imagini, evocând o atmosferă şi o stare de spirit în mintea privitorului căruia parcă îi este sugerată bucuria de a se privi în oglinda unei realităţi fictive, păşind între două eternităţi: o eternitate a lui "acum şi aici" şi eternitatea unei vieţi glorioase.

Compatibilitatea cu precizia măsurătorii parametrului "Sunt un Univers" poate fi afectată de ceea ce resimţi la nivel de cunoaştere în cazul în care nu reușești să atingi un nivel înalt de gândire, deci atunci când nu poți spune răspicat despre tine însuți că reprezinţi o "Totalitate". Ei bine, în cazul lui Diderot, această totalitate reprezintă o cunoaştere aleasă privind modul de funcţionare a mecanismelor simbolice care construiesc sensul unei noi atitudini de tipul „omul nou" într-un tablou anticipator al viitorului.

Omul care aspiră la noi culmi de progres este rezultatul amestecului celor două identităţi, cu deosebită însemnătate, pe care şi le asumă în plan existenţial şi profesional. Numai prin acest amestec devine posibilă modificarea structurii unei relații funcţionale, exprimate printr-un "Sunt un univers?", cu sprijinul unui experiment psihologic și revelator care pune în prim plan profunzimea spiritului de a încorpora totul la un loc, oricât de mic şi neînsemnat - dar care poate fi oricând transformat.

"Nimic nu se pierde, totul se transformă" - este deviza minţilor sclipitoare care au înţeles cum funcţionează Universul şi cum să se integreze ei înşişi în El, încât să producă o extindere necontenită a materiei.

Leadership: Principiile expuse în creaţia ta corespund modelului de dezvoltare acceptat de o expresie regulată, simplă, de genul: "tot ce te înconjoară devine o extindere a unei singure semnificaţii?"

Privite ca trepte ale unei piramide pe care poţi urca numai în conformitate cu anumite reguli (elaborarea cât mai clară conceptelor de leadership, organizate într-o expunere logică şi coerentă, cât mai convingătoare şi potrivite cu mesajul pe care îl transmiţi), aceste reprezentări trebuie să-ţi garanteze valoarea, un tip de pondere, o anumită greutate, asigurându-ţi undă verde către zona de interes, de competenţă şi de formare a susţinătorilor tăi.

Grecii aveau pentru artă un termen care poate părea ciudat: tehné, însemnând meşteşug. Pentru ca leadershipul încorporat în "creaţia" ta să poată înfrunta orice critică, orice scut, orice oprelişti de natură intelectuală, ideologică, educativ-informativă, este necesar ca mesajele, noţiunile, principiile pe care le transmiţi să corespundă modelului de dezvoltare acceptat de ei.

Acest mecanism de monitorizare şi evaluare a modului în care îţi faci cunoscută creaţia, este bazat pe raporturi de tip "Tu - Ei" inedite?

Leadershipul are la bază cunoaşterea "Artistului" din tine. Iar această cunoaştere, plină de trăiri, plină de adevăr, diferenţiată de un orizont de tranziţie care îţi poate face accesibilă evoluţia, devine în concepţia vremurilor noastre, singura cale posibilă către atingerea perfecţiunii.

Mesajul unui artist care se priveşte pe sine cu înţelepciune este reprezentarea reală a unei imagini aleasă dintr-o cunoaştere adâncă a vieţii pusă sub semnul unei adânci semnificaţii: "Totul dispare, totul piere, totul trece, doar lumea rămâne."

Universul unui artist care şi-a găsit expresia plenară

Modelează-ţi realitatea prin intermediul unei virtuţi care să redea într-o imagine cât mai elaborată şi artistică personalitatea ta unitară şi bine articulată.

Grădina îmi este leacul nemuririi, o inflorescenţă a spiritualităţii care impresionează prin puritate şi pozitivitate. Îngrijirea ei fiind atât de meticuloasă, încât alţii s-ar opri înainte de a începe, se înscrie în aceeaşi muncă cu a pictorului care ştie să aleagă cu fineţe şi tact elemente din lumea înconjurătoare pentru a oferi stimularea potențialului creativ de care are nevoie privitorul pentru a se transpune într-o lume ideală.

Acest mediu de viaţă, căruia i se mai adaugă un plus de valenţe artistice meritorii, îmi dă responsabilitatea şi simţul care mă ajută să disting acea cunoaştere fundamentală a frumuseţii de dincolo de estetica tradiţională a proporţiilor de forme, tendinţe şi tonuri, dincolo de rigiditatea cuvintelor aşternute cu atâta silinţă pe hârtie.

În fiecare dimineaţă şi seară, grădina pe care numai un spirit foarte cultivat ar fi putea să o îngrijească ca pe un gardian al inimii, mă întâmpină cu o atmosferă de har, plină de farmec, primitoare şi relaxantă, la cea mai mică adiere a vântului înfăşurându-mă ca într-o vrajă a fantasticului dispus să poarte amprenta unei înalte înțelepciuni prevăzute în planul Creației divine. Încă mai vreau să cred că ne asemănăm atât de mult, că avem sentimente ce deseori coincid în situaţii diverse.

Un dialog viu şi cald, într-o zonă retrasă a grădinii, trebuie să înceapă cât mai curând. Trebuie să vorbesc cu fiecare floare în parte, ca prin aceasta să mi se împodobească mintea şi sufletul cu gândurile lui Dumnezeu de-a lungul unui moment predestinat pentru doi prieteni apropiaţi.

Dacă ar trebui să mă adresez grădinii, aşa cum m-aş adresa unui pictor care ţine universul în mâinile sale pline de culoare şi energie, mâini care clădesc, mângâie, modelează şi luminează, i-aş spune doar atât: "Maestre, mulţumesc pentru Invictus". Vorbă veche, dar special aleasă pentru o minte plină de pace.

Leadership: Poţi să evidenţiezi caracterul "conceptual" al reprezentării unei realităţi particulare, adică încercarea de a reda într-o imagine expresivă tot ceea ce ştii despre un univers guvernat în totalitatea lui de sistemul sugestiv al corespondenţelor cu natura?

Un ciripit discret de rândunică, o frunză galbenă rămasă singură printre firele de iarbă, o albinuţă învârtindu-se în jurul primelor crizanteme, totul din jur mă integrează într-un joc magic, ca într-o vrajă a coincidenţelor multiple, privind acel ceva nedescifrat de dincolo de realităţile simultane a tuturor elementelor constitutive ale grădinii.

Arta grădinăritului nu este o entitate separată de viaţă. Mai întâi mă confrunt cu realitatea unei naturi care e supusă unei voințe libere, cum că toate lucrurile vii depind de un Creator şi de un stăpân etern al lumii. Apoi este realitatea unei transformări de vis, subordonată unei viziuni de ansamblu și de detaliu a ceea ce oferă peisajul grădinii, care trece prin conștiența relației dintre ceea ce creez cu gândurile şi privirea, şi efectul unei transfigurări a lumii reale în spiritul miraculosului.

Orice suflu de viaţă care, iată, se simte în fiecare detaliu al florilor, în orice colţ al grădinii şi în orice clipă, ca indice temporal al unei cărţi menită parcă să împrăştie de jur împrejur adevărul din gândirea înţelepţilor lumii, amplifică trăirile unui suflet care încearcă, cu nesfârşită umilinţă, să descopere cheia cunoaşterii lui Dumnezeu.

Caracterul conceptual al reprezentării unei realităţi particulare ţine de formularea unui răspuns la întrebarea: "Ce trebuie să conţină grădina ta pentru a te bucura de frumuseţea ei în spiritul unei nestramutate supuneri faţă de voinţa lui Dumnezeu?"

Leadership: Cum te îngrijeşti de imaginea virtuţii şi a purităţii care propune un mod de viaţă exemplar, în contextul unei influenţe care se alătură naturii pentru a o întregi cu sensuri mistice?

Grădina este destinul unei stele plină de culoare. Sincer cred că semănăm, rezonăm ca două surâsuri pentru încântare şi aş vrea să se creeze o comparaţie între mine şi ea, că între două tablouri mirosind încă a ulei proaspăt, marcând parcursul unui simbol al esenţei umane descătuşate de orice patimi sau griji. Mai mult decât atât, grădina îmi dă această impresie de forță protectoare și de nestăvilit datorită ideii de a fi dependent de inteligenţa superioară a materiei care include toate imboldurile spiritului din întreaga Creaţie, adică de Dumnezeu.

Manifestarea unui sentiment de respect faţă de viaţă poartă amprenta unui mod special de organizare a spațiului care îmi prilejuieşte calmul şi liniştea sufletească. Virtutea care mă caracterizează în totalitate, a cărei dobândire am râvnit-o parcă de secole, este aceea a omului care dă verticalitate sufletului, ferindu-l de regrete şi remuşcări, sub lumina căruia respir un alt destin, mai împăciuitor. Demnitatea este caracterul iertător al lui Dumnezeu ce străluceşte prin fiecare floare şi firicel de iarbă.

Umberto Eco, prietenul meu de nădejde în descoperirea semnificaţiilor ascunse dincolo de orice element nou şi plin de viaţă, n-a ştiut atât de bine ca mine să atingă sublimul unei trăiri estetice prin referinţa imaginii la originalul unui tablou ce dă valoarea unui text plin de savoare şi spirit. Cu toate acestea, încă ţin cont de felul în care el admira grădinile cele mai bine păzite de chestiunea sugestivităţii:

"Divinităţile ne vorbesc prin mijlocirea viselor şi a enigmelor. Aşa sunt şi grădinile astea. Fiecare aspect al acestei terase reproduce un mister al artei alchimice, dar, din păcate, nu mai suntem în stare să-l citim, nici măcar gazda noastră nu poate. Întreaga grădină e lizibilă ca o carte, ca un descântec, ceea ce, până la urmă, e acelaşi lucru. Ați putea, dacă aţi ști, să rostiți cu voce scăzută cuvintele pe care le spune grădina, și ați fi în stare să dirijați una dintre nenumăratele forțe care acționează în lumea sublunară. Grădina e un aparat pentru a domina universul."

Poţi să compari leadershipul tău cu o activitate de grădinărit capabilă să atragă atenţia prin disputa în jurul "frumosului natural" şi a "frumosului artistic", urmând cu entuziasm o viziune pe care ţi-ai însuşit-o ca pe filosofie de viaţă?

Cea mai elementară formă de exprimare a unui simbol în planul vieţii se realizează prin inserarea unei imagini convenţionale în spaţiul unei lumi superioare, care poate fi înţeleasă doar prin prisma circumstanţelor în care a apărut, fiind mai degrabă un dialog al ideilor de unitate dintre Călătorie şi Paradis, dintre Natură şi Dumnezeu.

Din grădinărit se desprinde o anumită filozofie de viaţă, disponibilă prin expunerea propriilor opinii şi sentimente în faţa datului de moment, fără a-ţi permite excese sau dezechilibre. O astfel de filosofie poate fi exprimată astfel: "Învaţă să observi cât mai lucid lucrurile din jur, dar de fiecare dată ca o experienţă diferită de vizualizare a unei producții artistice care se lasă trădată de senzațional, evoluând în fantastic pentru a-şi varia înfăţişarea".

Mai mult decât atât, grădinăritul leagă conţinutul activităţii de conducere cu experienţa personală de creaţie artistică prin „invitaţia” la autoobservaţie şi introspecţie, culminând cu expunerea propriilor viziuni asupra binelui şi frumosului, în temeiul armoniei dintre corp, minte şi spirit, dintre personalitate şi suflet, dintre sine şi spiritul universal.

Grădinăritul oferă mai multă libertate profunzimii minţii, diminuează comportamentele agresive, te provoacă constant la un exerciţiu de concentrare, dar mai ales facilitează acea adeziune intimă la sugestivitatea mistică: "sunt una cu natura". Iar a-ţi lăsa amprenta asupra frumosului ce caracterizează o lume plină de secrete, un mondo di meraviglie , prin munca pe care o depui spre a popula cu imaginaţie toată suprafaţa grădinii, este o experienţă atât de înălţătoare, încât putem doar să-i mulţumim lui Dumnezeu pentru acest minunat dar, numit: simţ artistic.

A face din grădinărit un reper pentru o analiză a esteticii înseamnă să îmbrăţişezi arta de a face dintr-o temă oarecare un concept al Creatorului de Frumos căruia să-i acorzi mental atributele unei întinderi spaţiale nelimitate.

Universul unui artist care şi-a găsit expresia plenară cuprinde tăcerea unei naturi nebruiată de influenţele unei societăţi dinamice, complexe şi agresive, şi apropierea de un Creator care în inteligența şi înțelepciunea sa infinită ne-a dăruit și nouă această comoară infailibilă, și anume dragostea faţă de tot ce este frumos şi util pentru formarea noastră ca personalitate unitară şi bine articulată.

Am învăţat să înţeleg importanţa grădinii. Sunt bucuros că ceea ce am învăţat aici, în grădina mea, pot pune în aplicare în leadership şi în viaţa de zi cu zi.

Universul unui scriitor pierdut în lumea artei

On Februarie 14, 2019

O pictură frumoasă poate aminti de viaţa unui om, astfel născând în sufletul privitorului scânteia unei iluminări de moment.

Totdeauna când scriu îmi imaginez că port o discuţie cu un pictor doritor să revoluţioneze formele cele mai autentice de manifestare ale artei, pendulând între "cândva" şi fabulosul "odată ca niciodată", ceea ce mă eliberează de obligaţia unei descrieri sociale a vreunui mod de viaţă particular.

Perfecţiunea este o asemănare dintre două fiinţe, o coincidenţă de nume şi poate de destin care s-ar putea dovedi providenţială în interiorul unui timp care curge încet, beyond the narrative borders . Discuţiile închipuite ajută la exersarea reprezentărilor de la concret la abstract. De aceea, când ilustrez trăirea vieţii dintr-o altă perspectivă, dintr-o altă fiinţă, simt că trăiesc atât de pregnant o senzaţie de curgere a materiei spre spirit, o desăvârşire determinată de o acumulare de efecte, încât totul începe să vibreze spre dimensiunea sensibilului din adâncul psihologiei unei experienţe existenţiale paralele.

Din punct de vedere estetic, destinul meu pare să traverseze liniar chemarea unei gândiri superioare către autenticitatea unei ştiinţe experimentale aflată în vecinătatea imediată a unei realităţi frumos închipuită artistic, în ideea optimizării relaţiei dintre pictor şi revelaţia unei lecturi captivante. Cu migală, din solemnele mărturii ale inspiraţiei pe care singur o produc, închipuindu-mă că exprim acea stare de beatitudine pe care trebuie s-o simtă pictorul la conturarea unui tablou menit să redea specificul unei minţii vii, îmi extrag ideile şi viziunile în felul cum se amestecă culorile: prin colorarea succesivă a aceleiaşi zone.

Când încerci să redai un simţământ prin intermediul culorii eşti tentat să abordezi o lume “împinsă” către spiritualizare, ca expresivitate a limbajului poetic, ca alternativă a posibilităţii trecerii fiinţei într-o altă alcătuire, într-o altă formă, într-o altă unitate spaţiu/timp.

Fapt ce nu este lipsit de importanţă, fiindcă cine reuşeşte să concentreze într-un singur loc central o întreagă suită de nuanţe, sugerând mai mult decât o simplă psihologie de manipulare vizuală, poate fi demn să se alinieze marilor curente de pictură. Dacă ar fi să născocesc o nouă teorie sau un nou concept despre artă, în care culoarea prinde viaţă prin emoţiile unui duel extrem de strâns cu un timp care nu moare, aş fi probabil tentat să mă rezum la mine însumi ca la spaţiul unei totalităţi de semnificaţie a temei numită "alibiul unei exprimări simbolice".

Dintotdeauna arta a integrat spiritualitatea în spaţiul de manifestare a creativităţii prin lansarea apelului la o formă simbolică de iluminare într-ale înţelepciunii şi cunoaşterii umane care pune la încercare capacitatea pictorului de a reconstrui realitatea, de crea un aspect care devine unul cu celelalte, presupunând unitatea sa cu sursa oricărei creaţii într-o anumită perioadă de timp.

Argumentele se subţiază in absenţa unor criterii de apartenenţă la stilul livresc. Din acest motiv, claritatea compoziţiilor mele denotă o combinare parţială a culorilor, asociate unor emoţii, senzaţii, gânduri, toate fructificate prin diferite modalităţi de a privi lumea cu ajutorul trăsăturilor de pensulă vizibile, chiar cu o notă agresivă de protest la adresa curentelor literare moderne.

În sfârşit, la o asemenea gamă largă de contopiri de semnificaţii, alternanţe de puncte de vedere, teme, influenţe, imagini vizuale, se cere un echilibru estetic: interiorizarea unei vorbiri care curge continuu, iar mai puţin imaginea unei vorbiri care lâncezeşte într-o apatie condamnabilă. La urma urmei ce m-au învăţat conversaţiile cu Rafael sau Dürer altceva decât faptul că trebuie să-mi intuiesc limitele talentului propriu înainte să poleiesc cu aură de geniu o realitate greu de justificat.

Leadership: Poţi să faci din viaţa ta o perspectivă de profunzime asupra unui corpus de scrieri formate în baza unor imagini cheie, din punctul de vedere al structurii unui şir de gânduri care se exteriorizează instinctiv într-un tablou de la care nu-ţi poţi desprinde ochii?

Talentul de a reda o conversaţie într-o singură îmbinare de cuvinte, sau chiar într-un singur cuvânt gen "Varietate" menit să exprime necesitatea artei de a se recrea, capătă proprietăţile unui tablou care prezintă locul permanent de întâlnire a spiritului cu materialul, a revelaţiei de sine cu respingerea elementului de învăţătură plină de autoritate.

Gândirea creează premisele pentru o trăire autentică a educaţiei artistice. Poate că intenţionez să transform arta într-un joc-exerciţiu de alcătuire a unui text în baza imaginilor-cheie ale unei forme de vizionarism cu un titlu gen "Gânduri către mine însumi". Dar chiar şi acest lucru cere o anumită corelare între mistic şi estetic, între acțiunile personajelor în care mă transpun și expresivitatea chipurilor lor.

Sincer să fiu, nu ştiu dacă tot ce trăiesc în cuvinte, în splendidele reflexii ale unor personalităţi marcante, se acordează cu resorturile unei adeziuni la constituirea unui "Art Nouveau" ori cu resortul unor dramatice descătuşări din jugul educaţiei intelectuale precoce, deformată de fiecare obiect de modernitate.

Dar, cu siguranţă, forma esenţială a creaţiei pe care mi-o asum are dimensiunea unei poveşti scrisă de mai mulţi autori, are funcţia anticipării unei lumi virtuale, a idealurilor ei de frumuseţe şi perfecţiune. Iar asta se numeşte fuziune a conţinutului estetizant cu virtutea unui "apriorism livresc".

Leadership: Poţi face din sinceritatea unei mărturisiri artistice un ecou al îndemnului lăuntric de a fi prezent într-o lume părând a fi descifrată doar din imaginea ei reflectată într-o oglindă?

De curând, într-o carte a scriitoarei Mary Balogh am descoperit cu reală plăcere o conversaţie dintre Camile şi profesorul de artă Joel Cunningham:

"Eu nu te voi picta cu un zâmbet afectat pe faţă sau ţinând un evantai care nu are niciun rol, în afara celui decorativ. Nu voi aşeza un căţeluş ca o jucărie în poala ta ca să trezească sentimentele privitorului. Nu te voi picta cu ochi morţi şi cu o perfecţiune nefirească a trăsăturilor şi tenului. Ci, te voi picta aşa cum m-aş vedea pe mine într-o oglindă magică care îmi îndeplineşte cea mai arzătoare dorinţă."

O pictură frumoasă aminteşte mai puţin de viața artistului, cât mai mult de acea gingăşie rară a modelului de frumuseţe care îmbogăţeşte realitatea sa, fără a denatura originalul, astfel născând în sufletul privitorului scânteia unei iluminări de moment. Ea poate fi definitivată nu doar prin adăugarea detaliilor mai mult sau mai puţin strălucitoare, ci mai ales prin adăugarea unei oglinzi bine poziţionate care măreşte probabilitatea producerii unei alterităţi.

Triumful deplin al artei înseamnă să devii tu însuţi personajul zugrăvit într-un tablou care intersectează fapte şi evenimente petrecute în timpuri şi locuri diferite. Pictorul din mine încă se mai întreabă: până unde pot să lungesc discuţia despre artă, astfel încât textul să capete valenţe de estetică?

Totodată, o pictură poate să declanşeze un joc de cuvinte (analogii, metafore, personificări, hiperbole) extras dintr-un caleidoscop de culori constituit prin alternarea nuanţelor vibrante cu cele neutre, astfel încât rişti să nu mai poţi face diferenţa dintre ceea ce simţi şi ceea ce exprimi în însăşi abordarea actului de creaţie.

Dacă ar trebui să ofer o definiţie despre pictură în faţa reprezentării de artă a unui creier ce se remodelează constant, aş spune că ea reprezintă modalitatea sublimă de a da viaţă unei realităţi a cărei imagine poate fi reflexia mea într-o oglindă, emoţia mea creionată într-un text de mare forţă narativă sau gândul unei călduri sufleteşti înrâurită prin exprimare simbolică.

Improvizaţia care stimulează creativitatea în slujba artei este oglinda unei experienţe de alteritate care te face să te simţi fabulos într-o viziune a scriitorului despre el însuşi.

Universul unui scriitor pierdut în lumea artei cuprinde toate modalităţile de investigare şi abordare a unei teme de interes artistic prin raportare la elementele de construcţie a unui text vizibil în relaţia dintre inspiraţia de moment şi revelaţia unei realităţi ascunse, percepută doar prin prisma imaginaţiei.

Urma pierdută a unui drum unic printre întinderile astrale

On Septembrie 15, 2018

Fii în stare să-ţi asiguri vizibilitatea în modul de a-ţi pune amprenta asupra lumii, constituindu-te drept rezultat al unui eveniment care se întâmplă chiar acum sau s-a întâmplat deja.

Excursia mea în timp a continuat ca atunci când totul pare desprins dintr-o amintire magică, îndepărtată ca şi cea a stelelor, dintr-o imagine a plăsmuirii unui drum aflat în trecutul unei memorii istorice neîmpărtăşite, dintr-o şoaptă a luminii peste care s-a lăsat noaptea, sau dintr-o privire a Creatorului cuprins de nostalgia unei lumi apuse.

N-a fost o călătorie obişnuită, o năzuinţă tainică de a afla rostul unei lumi accesibilă doar unei descrieri narative, aşa cum se întâmplă în cazul scriitorilor banali aflaţi în căutarea unui subiect miraculos. Ci, mai degrabă, a însemnat descoperirea unei aspiraţii stăruitoare spre clarviziunea gândirii, spre ecoul unei măreţii nebănuite, de altădată. Orice clipă trecătoare poate deveni oricând mărturia unei poveşti nemuritoare.

Nu voi cere nimic de la mine însumi, nimic altceva decât stăruinţa de a înţelegere promisiunea unei arte de a-şi salva artistul din sfera fenomenalului, transformată în bizar, de la singurul lucru care nu este niciodată prezent în visele sale: caracterul finit al lumii în care trăieşte. Călătoria mult dorită, cu deschidere de noi porţi de percepţie a artisticului şi proliferării esteticului, se opreşte într-un moment din eternitatea destinului ascuns în spatele unui singur nume: Albrecht Dürer.

El constituie biruinţa care se bizuie pe trăirea profundă şi intensă a unei opere de artă, o fărâmă de frumusețe și de armonie neînchipuită în mişcarea axei Pământului, similară cu cea a unui titirez, spre destinaţia unei simpatii deosebite pe care o port doar aştrilor ce trăiesc doar cu amintirea luminii lor, fără să-i părăsească vreodată.

Leadership: Ai încercat vreodată să ieşi din tiparele unei relatări obişnuite despre evenimentele trecute, fără să-ţi doreşti să arăţi o altă faţetă a unei imagini care oglindeşte întregul univers cuprins într-o singură clipă?

1496. Am ajuns lângă Durer, la fel cum a ajuns poetul persan Abu Nuwas în preajma califului Hārūn al-Rashīd, doar printr-o întâmplare, printr-o schimbare a ordinii cosmice, printr-o nesocotire a împlinirii semnelor timpului. În noaptea aceea cu lună plină m-am întrebat, cu libertatea pe care mi-o dădea depărtarea de lume şi apropierea de stele, dacă aş fi în stare să-mi părăsesc atribuţiile de pionier în explorarea spaţiului pentru a mă potrivi momentului prezent care trece atât de repede.

La lumina lumânării se oglindea mai acut universul complex, atât de contradictoriu, al artistului care abia schiţa "Portretul lui Friedrich Cel Înţelept". Atins de suflul Renaşterii, Durer încerca să redea cu o eleganţă nepăsătoare un chip sobru, dar plin de izvoare de lumină, încât să ofere privirilor imaginea unei personalităţi condusă nu de convingeri religioase, ci mai degrabă de convingerea sa într-un garant al protejării statului de drept.

Sunt sigur că prezenţa mea inopinată l-a inspirat să contureze cu tact şi măiestrie, din câte o tuşă de culoare, un profil psihologic al fermităţii şi vitalităţii, un promotor al echilibrului şi al îngăduinţei, aducând totodată o perspectivă spirituală asupra înţelepciunii reincarnată mereu în fiecare generaţie. Clipa când l-am întâlnit se caracteriza printr-o intensă concentrare introspectivă ce putea fi accesată, de altfel, la oricare din portretele sale.

Portretele deveniseră nişte voci ale universului, componente intime ale unui spaţiu închipuit fără margini. Datorită mie, Durer a înţeles că singura cale de a determina trăsăturile alese ale unui caracter astral, este să încerci să naşti o nouă cosmogonie aşezând soarele în spaţiul interplanetar, sau să-ţi arogi dreptul de a stăpâni universul prin imaginea cu care se confruntă umanitatea într-o necuprinsă întindere de ruini, de lucruri şi de lumi.

Leadership: Te poţi gândi la tine ca la explorarea unei enigme care a contrariat cele mai luminate minţi ale lumii vreme de sute de ani, fără să-ţi reduci credibilitatea şi imaginea la ceva care se împotriveşte oricăror clipe trecătoare?

Totul. În liniile neprecise, în graţia mişcărilor cu care amesteca culorile răspândite doar de lumina caldă a lumânărilor, era nădejde, încredere în viaţă. S-ar zice că voia să croiască inovativ o imagine pentru eternitate, o imagine care-i permitea să înfrunte lumea într-un timp al acumulărilor creatoare, un timp al unor fulmitoare schimbări la faţă, al unor dezvăluiri şocante, care parcă se repetă o dată la fiecare secol.

Stăteam lângă el, nemişcat, ca un model de înţelepciune care continuă să dăinuie peste veacuri, oglindind clarviziunea unor taine de nimeni dezlegate în afară de el. Cumva, l-am inspirat să trăiască mistuitoarea dorinţă de unicitate şi de autodepăşire, prin proiecţia portretelor sale în plan spiritual. Durer devenise mai mult decât un pictor, devenise conştiinţa fermă a individualităţii artistice în care se oglindeşte complexitatea tematică a unui univers fără măsură temporo-spaţială.

Ceea ce se face din pornire naturală, se face întotdeauna cu drag. Trebuia să-i dau impresia că-i liber în orice gest creativ, cu trimitere în universal. Şi, totuşi, nu mă puteam împiedica să-mi pun întrebări despre întrebările pe care, probabil, şi le punea el despre mine în timp ce-mi arunca priviri pline de nădejdi înăbușite, rugăminţi aruncate cu ardoare despre ceva care nu poate exista decât ca şi consecință a unui altceva.

O explorare a unei enigme ce nu poate fi pe deplin elucidată începe cu o imagine a răsturnării firescului. Simţeam că-mi ascunde ceva, o pornire spre revoltă în tot ceea ce face, o lucire a frumoasei structuri a adevărului în locul erorilor dărâmate, pentru a putea cuprinde o realitate pentru care doar ficțiunea sau nonficțiunea sunt insuficiente. Dar nu am insistat să-i deschid ascunsurile, l-am lăsat să se piardă în necunoscutele prezenţei mele.

Leadership: Poţi să justifici circumstanţele credibilităţii de a-ţi livra arta ca potenţiator de expresivitate a unei imagini de mare intensitate, fără să legi destinul tău de împrejurările exterioare ale unui eveniment memorabil?

Când portretul a fost terminat, expus în faţa unei ferestre deschise, eu deja nu mai eram acolo. Timpul nu mi-a permis să rup mai mult din solemnitatea momentului meu istoric. Universul avea nevoie de mine în altă parte. Dar a fost suficientă şederea mea, de-o clipă astrală, cât să-i induc maestrului ideea că viaţa sa şi destinul său au ceva divin, că orice gest şi faptă a sa vin de la Dumnezeu.

El a continuat să privească spre cer în fiecare noapte. Asta se întâmpla deoarece el continua să ştie tot, să vadă tot, să audă tot ce-am vorbit împreună, fiindcă prezenţa mea a rămas pentru totdeauna întipărită în memoria şi în sufletul lui.

Câteva secole mai târziu, într-o noapte plină de stele, am surprins în faţa unui şevalet destul de rudimentar, un bărbat care îmi amintea mult de pictorul de care fusesem încântat în Nürnberg. În toate privinţele cunoaşterii artei semăna cu Durer. Într-o dezordine de casă, el şedea pe un cufăr şi vorbea în şoaptă cu cineva care părea mai curând un portret incert, fără contur, colorat într-un stil conservator.

Apoi, dându-şi seama de prezenţa mea, începu să se îngrijoreze. M-a simţit, dar aşa cum îşi face universul cunoscută prezenţa, printr-un impuls de creaţie amplificat de apariţia unei inspiraţii de moment. De atunci, talentul lui a luat un avânt considerabil. Lumea îşi va aminti de el ca fiind autorul a 600 picturi, 300 gravuri și peste 2000 desene. Numele lui e Rembrandt.

Iar eu, încă nu mi-am terminat călătoria. Stelele încă strălucesc în noapte, în fiecare clipă când un artist îşi caută originalitatea şi expresia sinelui. Voi fi întotdeauna prezent lângă cel care cheamă hazardul în ajutorul dezvoltării sale artistice. Voi rămâne fondul secret al memoriei cosmice care se lasă apelată de imaginaţia şi puterea de expresie a celui care încearcă să transfigureze materia istorică în materie de artă, opunându-se amorfului.

Leadershipul este prezenţa pe care omul şi-o asumă într-un cadru de raportare la timp în care el însuşi devine împrejurarea şi totodată întâmplarea ce marchează momentul decisiv al întâlnirii unui destin cu harul de a așeza cea mai profundă expresie a creativității în zona spiritualităţii.

Urma pierdută a unui drum unic printre întinderile astrale evidenţiază capacitatea omului de a se constitui el însuşi ca parte integrantă a universului atunci când contribuţia pe care şi-o aduce la extinderea lui este reprezentată de impactul pe care îl are în timp asupra istoriei lumii.

Vă voi lăsa libertatea de alegere

On August 23, 2010

Învaţă să gestionezi cum trebuie o situație în care eşti pus într-o poziție dificilă, în încercarea de a găsi adevărul care te împuterniceşte, sau de a-ţi justifica acțiunile fără să-i răneşti pe ceilalţi.

V-am insultat. Desigur că-mi veţi cere o reparaţie. V-o ofer. La ora şase, chiar astăzi, să fiţi pe podul de la Saint-Denis. Traversaţi-l, îndreptaţi-vă la stânga şi mergeţi de-a lungul fluviului timp de vreo zece minute. Când veţi ajunge în dreptul unei perdele dese de plopi, dacă nu mă veţi vedea, să mă aşteptaţi Să veniţi singur. Şi eu voi veni tot singur. Voi aduce cu mine două pistoale. Unul singur va fi încărcat.

Vă voi lăsa libertatea de alegere. Dacă mă ucideţi, scrisoarea însăşi vă va sluji ca justificare. Recunosc că v-am provocat şi pălmuit, că v-am pus într-o situaţie de absolută necesitate, sub ameninţarea de a fi dezonorat în mod public, şi că eu am hotărât şi am cerut condiţiile duelului. Dacă vă omor, nu trebuie să vă neliniştiţi de soarta mea, sunt într-o situaţie când nu mă mai sperie nimic.

Dar trebuie ca unul dintre noi doi să moară. Măcar unul, poate amândoi. Sunt prea nefericit şi dumneavoastră sunteţi prea ticălos, Julius von Eberbach.

Scrisoarea aceasta stinse ultima licărire de speranţă din inima lui Lothario. Nu spunea nici un cuvânt despre supărarea pe care o avea contele von Eberbach împotriva nepotului său, şi solicitând un duel fără martori, îl lipsea pe Lothario de orice şansă de aflare a adevărului. Totuşi, el simţea din ce în ce mai mult că la baza cumplitei situaţii se afla o oribilă confuzie pe care trebuia s-o limpezească cu orice preţ. Degeaba îşi scotocea amintirile, nu făcuse nimic care să îngăduie şi nici măcar să justifice minia unchiului său.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi formezi o perspectivă obiectivă asupra propriei persoane într-un context de tipul: "Adevărul nu-l pot cunoaşte dacă nu cunosc cauza", pentru a indica faptul că nu ar trebui să te supraestimezi sau să te subestimezi?

Greşise, poate, faţă de unchiul său. Logodit şi căsătorit de el cu Frédérique, nu menajase, poate, îndeajuns susceptibilităţile unei situaţii delicate şi cu totul neobişnuite. Nu respectase, poate, gelozia contelui von Eberbach, nu avusese destulă grijă să nu ofere pretexte bănuielilor lui, nu ţinuse seama de ordinele lui, revăzând-o pe Frédérique de două sau de trei ori, pe drumul dinspre Enghien.

Dar de la aceste neascultări, scuzabile la vârsta sa, datorită iubirii sale şi relaţiilor pe care însuşi contele le stabilise între el şi Frédérique, de la aceste chiuluri ale dragostei, la învinuiri reale, la o insultă serioasă, la o injurie care să justifice represaliile contelui von Eberbach, era o adevărată prăpastie. Cu siguranţă nu la astfel de greşeli se referea unchiul său când îi atribuia cuvântul cu care îşi încheia scrisoarea: un ticălos.

Da! dedesubtul lucrurilor acestora se afla ceva, vreo uneltire, vreo trădare ! Dar cine să-i dezvăluie mobilul acestei enigme?

Leadership: Poţi să stabileşti o legătură de cauzalitate și de tensiune între eforturile de a-ţi scotoci amintirile şi șansa de a afla adevărul, fără să te expui în faţa pericolului de a fi umilit sau discreditat în public?

Ca să se ducă direct la unchiul său şi să-i ceară o explicaţie, obligându-l să spună tot, Lothario nici nu putea să se gândească. Ar fi însemnat să se expună la noi violenţe în faţa oamenilor care ar fi fost de faţă, a servitorilor, a întregii lumi. Şi se făcuse şi aşa destulă vâlvă în jurul tristei şi lugubrei întâmplări.

Şi apoi, oricâte sentimente filiale ar fi avut Lothario şi oricât de deznădăjduit se simţea pentru că trebuia să se lupte cu acela care fusese totdeauna atât de bun cu el, tot sângele i se revoltă la gândul că era obligat să ceară explicaţii unui om care-l pălmuise de două ori într-o singură zi, o dată cu mânuşa şi acum cu această scrisoare.

Cui să se adreseze? poate că domnului Samuel Gelb ! Da, domnul Samuel Gelb le dăduse dovezi de prietenie sinceră, lui şi Fredericăi. El, care o iubise pe Frédérique, care era stăpânul viitorului ei, subjugând-o atât prin trecutul ei cât şi prin jurământul pe care ea i-l făcuse, avusese mărinimia să renunţe la ea şi să i-o dăruiască lui Lothario. Iar după aceea, generozitatea lui nu se dezminţise nici o singură clipă. Totdeauna lua partea Fredericăi şi a lui Lothario, împotriva urzelilor contelui von Eberbach. Era într-adevăr un prieten de nădejde, care nu l-ar fi dezamăgit într-o împrejurare atât de hotărâtoare.

Ca să avansezi în cunoaşterea leadershipului trebuie să consideri esențial să ai o perspectivă obiectivă asupra propriei tale persoane în multe contexte "de negare a adevărului cu preluarea puterii", pentru a evita supraestimarea sau subestimarea de sine. Numai astfel vei putea să menții un echilibru realist și sănătos al auto- percepţiei tale.

Vă voi lăsa libertatea de alegere ori de câte ori vă veţi confrunta cu mine, cu adevărul, cu adevărul despre ceea ce încă nu ştiţi despre propria dumneavoastră persoană, lăsând pe seama lui Dumnezeu rezultatul judecaţii finale. În orice caz, lupta pentru adevăr este importantă atâta vreme cât "oponentul" dumneavoastră nu este orgoliul de a vă simţi mai puternic decât sunteţi cu adevărat, sau dacă nu cumva este ambiţia de a vă satisface capriciile.

Valenţele unei capodopere numită leadership

On Ianuarie 17, 2013

Identifică-te cu imaginea unei depărtări spre care nimeni nu se va îndrepta vreodată, fără să te pierzi într-o euforie a reuşitei totale.

Iată un om care, fiind îmboldit de o mare idee, dar indus în eroare de o informaţie vagă (şi care s-a dovedit cu totul inexactă), şi-a impus ca ţel suprem al vieţii sale să descopere locul de trecere din Oceanul Atlantic în Oceanul Pacific, şi astfel să găsească cel dintâi şi calea în jurul lumii. Graţie voinţei sale demonice, el a înfrânt rezistenţa materiei, a găsit oameni care să-l ajute în planul său aproape irealizabil, a căpătat prin puterea de sugestie a ideii sale o flotă de la un monarh străin – şi cât a avut de luptat pentru aceasta ! Apoi a condus cu bine flota până la coasta americană, coborând spre sud, mai departe decât ajunsese vreodată un navigator înaintea lui. A biruit valurile şi furtunile oceanului, a reprimat rebeliunea; nicio piedică, nicio dezamăgire n-a putut frânge până acum fanatica sa credinţă, că nu mai e departe de acest paso, că trebuie să fie chiar foarte aproape de ţelul acesta al visurilor sale.

Şi tocmai înainte de victoria cea mare, privirea ageră, adânc pătrunzătoare a acestui vizionar lucid se întunecă deodată. Se părea că zeii, care nu-l iubeau, l-ar fi legat din rea voinţă la ochi. Căci în ziua aceasta de 24 august 1520, când Magellan porunceşte echipajului său să rămână iarăşi pe loc, pierzând astfel încă două luni, el se află de fapt în locul mult căutat. Trebuia să străbată încă două grade de latitudine, numai câteva leghe mai mult, după miile şi miile de leghe pe care le-a parcurs până acum; îi mai trebuiau două zile de navigaţie după cele trei sute de zile de căutare, şi sufletul său adânc tulburat ar fi putut tresări cu un strigăt de bucurie.

Dar – batjocură şi răutate a destinului – năpăstuitul amiral nu ştie şi nici nu presimte cât de aproape e de ţelul urmărit. Timp de două luni, atât de lungi şi de goale, două luni de neîncredere şi de griji, el aşteaptă şi tot aşteaptă primăvara la gura acestui mic fluviu, aşteaptă la ţărmul acesta pustiu şi uitat de oameni – asemenea unui biet rătăcit surprins de viscol, dârdâind de frig, ghemuit în faţa propriei sale colibe, fără să bănuiască însă că trebuie să mai dibuie puţin, să înainteze doar cu un pas şi ar fi atunci la adăpost. Două luni nesfârşite şi fără rost şade Magellan în pustietatea aceasta şi se frământă şi se tot întreabă dacă va ajunge sau nu la paso – şi numai la o depărtare de două zile îl aşteaptă strâmtoarea care va purta pe veci numele său ! Până în ultima clipă, omul care vrea să smulgă pământului ultima taină trebuie să simtă tortura îndoielii, ca eternul Prometeu sfâşiat de ghearele vulturului.

Leadership: Poţi fi tu însuţi mărturia unei călătorii fără sfârşit, ca deschizător al unui drum spre regăsirea de sine şi spre iluminarea spirituală pe care o poţi obţine doar atunci când faci ceva care te aduce mai aproape de un scop mult prea îndepărtat?

Ceea ce numesc "geneza interioară a unei călătorii fără sfârşit" (geneza care se defineşte prin referire la raportul dintre experienţa de învăţare şi chestiunea morală, dintre anticipaţie şi inovaţie, dintre influenţă şi asimilare creatoare), poate fi interpretat dintr-o altă perspectivă, aceea a unei posibile corespondente intre "limbajul interior" al unei depărtării în care poţi să dispari oricând şi planul spiritual al unei existenţe anonime.

Şi, ca orice călătorie îndelungată, un largo camino a ninguna parte , Fernando Magellan a făcut dovada unei triple bucuri: anticiparea, realizarea, rememorarea. Când faci ceva nemaipomenit și te gândești că „așa ești tu”, eşti făcut pentru a privi în depărtări, pentru a le sonda şi pentru a face noi descoperiri, nu ai niciun motiv pentru ca, într-o situație similară viitoare, să alegi diferit. Nu-i aşa? De fapt, orice faptă măreaţă are gustul unei depărtări în care ai vrea să ajungi, şi nu doar să ajungi într-o loc nemaivăzut de nimeni, ci să-l faci demn de a fi perceput de tine ca o acţiune de mare-credință.

Magellan a oferit un exemplu revelator despre cât de departe se poate ajunge când eşti liber cutreieri lumea întreagă sub stindardul superiorităţii în credinţă, însemnând capacitatea omului de a crede cu tărie într-un absolut ascuns într-o „realitate invizibilă”. Dar fi liber înseamnă, înainte de toate, a fi responsabil faţă de tine însuţi în cadrul unei misiuni fără mari şanse de reuşită, ca şi când te-ai confrunta cu o situaţie-limită, sub pretextul unui eveniment revelator care nu s-a mai întâmplat, sau care are legătură cu simbolismul religios din viaţa ta.

E vorba de controlarea situației în care nu se poate prezice rezultatul final, și totodată este vorba de nişte circumstanţe evenimenţiale percepute de către tine ca fiind perfecte pentru un viitor lăsat în grija lui Dumnezeu, nu despre nişte argumente logice privind prezenţa ta într-un loc al nimănui. Lumina care nu însoţeşte paşii nimănui, şi visul unei depărtări în care poţi dispărea, pot să formeze un orizont neimaginat de vast, dincolo de care sunt posibile diverse încercări de mare credinţă, încercări de foc la care nimeni nu se gândeşte vreodată.

Leadershipul este visul unei depărtări în care poţi dispărea fără urmă, doar ca să cuprinzi cu ochiul liber un orizont dincolo de care nimeni altcineva nu poate vedea "valoarea unei mâini întinse de Dumnezeu".

Valenţele unei capodopere numită leadership pot fi de două feluri: o valenţă a euforiei sentimentului de putere şi intangibilitate obţinut din postura unui observator ce se deplasează în zig-zag pe axa timpului. Şi o valenţă de simbol al existenţei, caracterizat de un semn al prezenţei divine. Un lider face din aceste două valenţe însăşi triumful misiunii sale pe pământ.

Valoarea unei dimensiuni care îşi extinde efectele

On August 20, 2014

Descoperă aspectul concret şi realist al compoziţiei leadershipului care face posibilă accesarea unei noi dimensiuni de evoluţie, încât elementele sale de valoare să poată atinge scopul propus în proporţia dorită.

Serghei Eisenstein urmărea înainte de toate transpunerea cinematografică a montajului de "şocuri". Vorbea chiar despre o ştiinţă a şocurilor. Astfel montajul de atracţii căpăta o nouă exprimare pe peliculă. Filmul "Greva" este de fapt un film experimental. Eisenstein spera că a descoperit conţinutul unui film în seria de şocuri înlănţuite într-o secvenţă şi îndreptate asupra sensibilităţii spectatorilor. Ordonarea acestui material trebuie făcută în legătură cu principiul care duce la efectul dorit. Iar forma era înţelegerea şi realizarea acestor elemente, în limitele materialului specific, astfel ca ele să poată atinge scopul propus în proporţia dorită.

Marele regizor vedea în aceasta aspectul concret şi realist al compoziţiei. Era deci preocupat, încă de la primul său film, de problemele compoziţiei. Şi nu se poate să nu remarcăm totodată această obsesie a preciziei matematice, care l-a însoţit în toată creaţia sa. *

Tu influenţezi procesul trecerii de la o linie discontinuă la una continuă în leadership prin creşterea opţiunilor valorice ale ştiinţei?

Bagajului cultural, la un nivel mai profund, cunoaşterea de sine şi opţiunile valorice ale ştiinţei pe care ţi-ai însuşit-o, pot atinge multe din formele de manifestare a unei realități de ordin superior în procesul trecerii de la o linie discontinuă la una continuă în leadership. O linie discontinuă este un proces de constituire a unei ştiinţe care nu-şi găseşte finalitatea în nicio creaţie impresionantă, pe când o linie continuă prezintă o infinitate de posibilităţi diferite de exprimare, percepţie şi cunoaştere prin care se poate crea o nouă compoziţie artistică.

Această realitate, învăluind conştiinţa şi deschizând noi posibilităţi de accesare a unui larg fond de cunoaştere, bine structurat, extinde experienţa şi valoarea liderului spre o dimensiune a reinventării care, în prima secundă pare neexplorată, nepopulată. Dar totuşi cu mari valenţe de „punct de cotitură" spre o nouă artă.

Se înţelege că o asemenea lărgire a domeniului în practică, pentru dezlegarea misterului artei, creând efecte de tranziţie spre o nouă formă de reprezentare şi punere în valoare a ştiinţei, va face mai puţin dificilă abordarea unor noi stiluri, sprijinite exclusiv pe norme de cercetare şi pe raţiune. Leadershipul este, mai întâi de toate, un model experimental de verificare a nivelului de ştiinţă la care ai ajuns, şi apoi un model de serie care trebuie să depăşească graniţele gândirii clasice.

Opţiunea valorică a ştiinţei ce maximizează rezultatele actului de creaţie, prezentată în mod inedit într-o versiune compactă a conceptului numit "Flux de prelucrări", se află între o abordare speculativă ori generalizatoare, şi experienţa concretă a dialogului dintre artă, viaţă, morală şi sentiment. De aceea, aspectul concret şi realist al unei compoziţii este dat de efectul pe care doreşti să-l obţii de la protagonişti încât să poţi multiplica efectul produs asupra spectatorilor.

Leadership: Cum se reflectă relaţia dintre valoarea calităţii tale şi descătuşarea potenţialului de creaţie în faţa ştiinţei care îşi extinde relevanţa?

Să descoperi conţinutul a ceea ce se numeşte, mai nou, „ reinventare ”, apoi să îndrepţi o anumită formă de impact asupra sensibilităţii celor care sunt expuşi la procesul de prelucrare şi valorificare a ştiinţei, făcută în legătură cu principiul care duce la efectul dorit, reflectă de fapt atingerea unei noi dimensiuni de evoluţie, a cărui creator eşti.

Iar forma pe care o ia leadershipul depinde de înţelegerea şi realizarea acestor deziderate, în limitele materialului de construcţie a unei noi gândiri, astfel ca ele să poată atinge scopul propus în proporţia dorită.

Orice act de creaţie, presupunând multă concentrare şi răbdare, are un început care se realizează prin deducţie, raţiune sau inspiraţie, în urma experienţei şi observaţiei. Cu cât avansezi mai mult în munca de cercetare, cu atât ştiinţa ta îşi extinde relevanţa, adică devine atât un produs destinat satisfacerii nevoilor de afirmare profesională, cât şi un prilej de introspecţie defensivă. Dar în mod cu totul necesar ştiinţa devine un instrument redutabil care atribuie un plus de valoare vieţii tale şi a celor din jur. Leadershipul este indicatorul efectului semnificativ al acestei valori.

O ştiinţă care îşi extinde relevanţa seamănă cu descoperirea conţinutului unui film îndreptat asupra sensibilităţii spectatorilor: înseamnă să vezi ceea ce nu există la oameni, dar care poate să schimbe viaţa lor într-o nouă versiune a actului de a trăi experienţa emoţiei.

Valoarea unei dimensiuni care îşi extinde efectele dă măsura a ceea ce realizezi, a ceea de devii prin actul creaţiei şi a ceea ce oferi în limitele calităţii conţinutului ştiinţei exploatate, astfel încă să poţi atinge scopul propus - promovarea leadershipului - în proporţia pe care o cer nevoile momentului.

Leadershipul, devenit o veritabilă ştiinţă cu dimensiuni nemăsurabile, este recunoscut ca performant atunci când este îmbrăţişat şi urmat de toţi cei implicaţi în atingerea unui ţel comun. Este un domeniu în care „şocurile inovative”, bine argumentate, pot aduce un plus de valoare numai atunci când ele au un impact pozitiv asupra motivaţiei şi productivităţii celorlalţi.

Punctul terminus când un lider se poate considera împlinit, este momentul în care toţi susţinătorii progresului au certitudinea împlinirii idealului pe care şi l-au propus.

Valorile afective ale artiştilor

On Iulie 27, 2023

Felul cum se exprimă pictorul în utilizarea tehnicii de pensulă serveşte ca argument pentru a da caracteristicilor sale o anumită profunzime şi subtilitate într-o temă care cuprinde emoţiile şi trăirile umane cele mai pregnante.

Este emoţionant acest fragment din cartea lui Alexandru Vlahuţă, fiindcă are ceva magic, o privelişte aparte, un loc de poveste în care te pierzi şi te regăseşti totodată, un spaţiu bine individualizat întreţinut cu acea sensibilitate a unui pictor care conturează trăirile cu expresivitate, cu emoţie, cu delicateţe şi subtilitate.

Nicolae Grigorescu era, de felul lui, foarte friguros. Iarna era pentru el mai albă ca mormântul. Își închirie un atelier la Paris. Avea adunate, din atâtea călătorii, o mulțime de lucruri de artă: mobile vechi din Normandia, goblenuri, stofe orientale, covoare, arme, vase, şi, cu darul lui de a însufleţi lucrurile prin felul cum ştia să le grupeze, să le armonizeze între ele, îşi făcu un interior artistic, de pace şi de vis, unde toate vorbeau încet, cu glas din alte vremi.

Poetul liniștii, bunătăţii şi blândeţii, poetul luminii şi al cerului albastru e chemat să cânte întunericul şi viforul morţii, să găsească pe paleta lui colori pentru cea mai îngrozitoare privelişte pe care o poate înfățișa sălbătăcia nedomolită încă a neamului omenesc. Şi n-a fost pictor pe lume care să le fi găsit mai bine ca el. Pare că toată viaţa lui nu făcuse decât asta. În rând cu soldaţii, înfruntând moartea, a privit de aproape toate atrocitățile războiului, a înţeles cine sunt adevăraţii eroi, și lor le-a închinat toată iubirea şi toată admiraţia sufletului lui; pe ei, pe opincarii aceia uscați şi vânjoşi, care se azvârleau cu frenezie în brațele morţii, pe ei, mai ales, i-a nemurit în puternica lui operă – cea mai mișcătoare epopee a vitejiei neamului nostru. Da. Erau fraţii lui aceia.

Şi cum îi semănau ! Fraţi buni, punându-şi, ca şi el, tot sufletul în ceea ce făceau, muncind din greu, luptând din greu, jertfindu-se, fără nici un gând de răsplată, simțind în tot ceasul, asupra destinului lor, o poruncă ce vine mai de departe. Şi poruncește mai straşnic decât cea pe care le-o strigă împrejurările. În faţa îngrozitoarei tragedii a războiului, un pictor nou se deştepta în Grigorescu.

Leadership: Creaţia ta reflectă acele stări date de situaţii sau circumstanţe care pun în lumină conţinutul concret al gândirii tale şi care îţi imprimă o anumită gravitate, un anumit caracter, o anumită coloratură şi semnificaţie proprie?

Valorile afective, prin intermediul unei teme psihologice, deci caracterizată printr-o conștiință estetică liberă, reprezintă o categorie de valori care arată starea emoțională sau afectivă a unei persoane în acord cu anumite lucruri, idei, comportamente sau circumstanțe. De acestea trebuie să ţii cont ca să te poţi dărui în întregime, fără piedici, vocaţiei pe care o însufleţeşti cu talent şi imaginaţie, cu măiestrie artistică, făcând-o vie.

Aceste valori, rare şi sincere, pot să varieze în funcție de artist, în funcţie de munca alocată actului de creaţie, reflectând preferințele și evaluările subiective ale artistului pentru compoziţie şi echilibru. Pozitive sau negative, neobişnuite sau neaşteptat de ample, valorile afective de care voi vorbi în continuare pot influența atitudinile și comportamentele artiştilor, mai ales dacă iau în considerare preferințele și evaluările lor subiective pentru profunzimea perspectivelor pe care le oferă.

De exemplu, dacă un pictor atribuie o valoare afectivă pozitivă legăturii lui faţă de artă, înrudirii dintre pensulă şi culoare, el va avea o atitudine favorabilă față de mediul şi faţă de tema abordată, căutând să-și petreacă timpul mai mult în mijlocul naturii, decât alături de prieteni. Pe de altă parte, dacă el atribuie o valoare afectivă negativă kitsch-urilor, falsităţii cu care este tratată arta, atunci va avea o atitudine negativă față de minciună, precum imaginile "de pe ambalaj", și va evita astfel să fie înconjurat de "reclame".

Într-adevăr, valorile afective cu care este înzestrat artistul pot fi influențate de experiențele de viață, mediul social, educația și cultura în care a crescut şi cu care şi-a întrepătruns nevoile spirituale, ele putând fi, de asemenea, subiectul schimbării și evoluției pe parcursul vieții (cu care este de acord să facă un pact de mare apropiere sufletească şi divină în acelaşi timp). Altfel spus, valorile afective reprezintă evaluările subiective și emoționale pe care le artistul le atribuie unor aspecte ale vieții sale, ele având o influență semnificativă asupra comportamentului și asupra alegerilor pe care el le face pentru a deveni mai creativ, mai idealist în ce priveşte capacitatea artei de a aduce schimbări pozitive în lume.

Leadership: Imaginea pe care o reflectă creaţia ta poate să fascineze privitorii dacă însăşi imaginea ta personală păstrează urmele vieţii afective anterioare subiectului transpus pe pânză?

Un pictor adevărat își poate baza munca și creațiile pe o varietate largă de valori afective înclinate spre utilizarea subtilităţii în pictură, fără de care riscul căderii în caricatura grosieră ar fi fost enorm. Mai jos sunt doar câteva exemple de valori afective pe care un pictor le poate deţine, într-un procent majoritar, cu toate că importanța și prioritățile de realizare a lucrărilor pot varia de la un artist la altul, în funcție de experiențele, interesele și perspectivele lor individuale.

Aprecierea estetică: Un pictor de mare fineţe apreciază în special armonia și frumusețea izvorâte din actul creaţiei. El caută să producă lucrări unicat care să atragă din punct de vedere estetic și care să ofere plăcere vizuală și emoțională, în special printr-un ambient general dominat de linişte şi armonie.

Expresia personală: Capacitatea pictorului de a-și exprima emoțiile, gândurile și viziunile prin utilizarea culorilor, formelor și compoziției, într-un simbolism cu semnificaţii ascunse, este poate cea mai mare valoare a artei sale. Spun asta fiindcă tot ceea ce are pictorul de împărtăşit se compune din experienţele, rătăcirile şi pasiunile sale cele mai nemijlocite. Pe această cale, pictorul încearcă să transmită identitatea sa artistică și autenticitatea sa în lucrările realizate ca "noutate".

Comunicarea emoțională: Un pictor iscusit reuşeşte să exprime sentimente intense și să provoace reacții afective la public, numai dacă imaginea personală păstrează urmele vieţii afective anterioare subiectului pe care îl abordează. Adesea, el foloseşte lumina, culorile și alte elemente artistice pentru a transmite bucurie, tristețe, melancolie sau uimire, ştiind că orice interpretare a tabloului necesită complicitate din partea privitorului.

Explorarea și experimentarea: Un pictor poate să dea dovadă de explorare și experimentare în arta sa, prin aceasta înţelegându-se faptul că el este în stare să abordeze o abordare uimitoare și deschisă în procesul artistic, căutând noi direcții, tehnici, stiluri sau teme. Dorind să-și extindă limitele și să descopere noi modalități de expresie, pictorul trebuie să iasă din zona de confort și să exploreze noi posibilități și idei în lucrările sale artistice, încât să străbată mai uşor linia de demarcaţie dintre stilul realist, abstract şi impresionist.

Impactul social și cultural: Un pictor de mare fineţe apreciază capacitatea artei de a transmite mesaje puternice și de a provoca schimbări sociale, mai ales atunci când mesajul este repetat de un număr foarte mare de ori în lucrările sale. Prin munca sa de creaţie el caută să abordeze probleme sociale, politice sau culturale și să inspire reflecție și conștientizare în privitorii săi, cu condiţia să nu se avânte prea mult în "nebunia" sa, către planete şi lumi îndepărtate.

Sensibilitatea şi povestea locului: Într-adevăr, importante sunt capacitatea de a observa și de a reprezenta stările de spirit în lucrări care sugerează o anumită perspectivă asupra transformării omului într-o oglindă emotivă, într-o exprimare estetică a sufletului, împletind realitatea chipurilor într-o simfonie de culori. Mai mult decât atât, pictorul cultivă sensibilitatea şi capacitatea de a desprinde, cunoaşte şi înţelege frumosul din natură, nu doar viaţa secretă a indivizilor, fiindcă omul nu se poate înțelege pe deplin fără conexiunea cu natura, mai ales într-o poveste pictată.

Empatia şi promovarea dialogului: Un artist excelent caută să scoată în evidenţă capacitatea sa de a simți și de a se conecta emoțional cu alții printr-o atitudine afectivă explicită asupra potenţialităţii lui expresive (adică prin posibilitățile de a-și exprima creativitatea, emoțiile, gândurile și viziunea personală în lucrările sale artistice).

Prin intermediul dialogului dintre culori vibrante și subtile, linii expresive și forme fluide, efecte luminoase și umbre misterioase, pictorul caută să transmită emoții profunde și să ofere o experiență emoțională autentică privitorilor săi, exprimându-și înțelegerea și compasiunea față de condiția umană prin arta de a face din amestecul elementelor picturale o armonie vizuală captivantă.

Leadershipul reprezintă acel schimb de valori între tine şi creaţia ta, din care interpretarea operei de artă devine o călătorie captivantă în lumea senzațiilor și emoțiilor, dar şi o călăuză către introspecție și auto-descoperire.

Valorile afective au un impact major, fie pozitiv, fie negativ, asupra modului în care pictorul se percepe pe sine, în comparaţie cu lumea din jur. Deci, aici mă refer la "autopercepere" - felul cum pictorul se percepe pe sine şi cum percepe lumea este un aspect foarte complex al psihologiei pictorului. În mare pare, ţine de atitudinea şi motivaţia cu care el insistă să scoată în evidenţă un subiect menit să frământe minţile privitorilor.

La modul general, dacă consideri cu adevărat că prietenia este importantă pentru tine, şi că ea trebuie să fie un cerc deschis spre întreaga umanitate pentru a cuprinde ca pe nişte fraţi toţi oamenii, atunci vei căuta să-ţi petreci timpul cu anumiţi prieteni. Şi invers, dacă consideri că minciuna are o valoare afectivă negativă, deci nu poate fi încorporată într-un tablou prin intermediul metaforei, atunci vei dezvolta o atitudine negativă față de minciună și faţă de oamenii mincinoşi, şi cu siguranţă vei evita să “minţi” realitatea în creaţiile tale.

Aşadar, valorile afective reprezintă o categorie de valori care arată starea emoțională sau afectivă a unei persoane în legătură cu anumite subiecte, lucruri, idei, comportamente sau circumstanțe, toate făcând parte din arsenalul propriei decizii libere de a-şi comunica opera publicului într-un mod original. Aceste valori destul de pronunţate, realiste, devotate unei perspective aparte, pot varia în funcție de persoană și reflectă preferințele și evaluările subiective ale pictorului pentru portretistică, ilustrând emoții puternice și conexiuni interioare între el și subiect.

Vârful roşu de sânge al glonţului care pune punct

Controlează-ţi cu stricteţe sistemul de valori, făcându-l imbatabil în faţa emoţiilor trecătoare.

Noua lume a lui Kevin Lomax începea să se contureze. Cea veche fusese aproape în totalitate nimicită. Timpul bătea ca o uriaşă inimă a lui Dumnezeu, lărgindu-se şi contractându-se. Frumoasa Christabella Andreoli, a cărei putere de seducţie era atât de grăitoare, renunţă la rochia de pe ea. Kevin privea cu voluptate trupul ei gol şi înfierbântat care îşi cerea "drepturile", - în timp ce Diavolul însuşi, în persoana multimiliardarului John Milton, savura această etapă de iniţiere a fiului său, în lumea păcatului.

- Hei, peste două minute o vei uita pe Mary Ann, îi şopti Christabella privindu-l în ochi cu înflăcărare. Îşi apropie buzele voluptoase de ale lui, îl sărută cu cea mai desăvârşită pasiune, apoi îşi undui trupul pe masa de altar, intensificându-şi aroma senzualităţii, motivându-şi cu pricepere şi cu ardoare dorinţa de a fi atinsă şi supusă în totalitate fiinţei lui.

Leadership: Partea grea a sensului pe care-l dai vieţii este "curajul paradoxal" de a renunţa la tine în folosul deznodământului pe care ţi-l sugerează credinţa?

Şi, dintr-o dată, la auzul numelui soţiei sale, Kevin, în inima lui, a tăinuit următorul gând: "Da, te doresc Christabella când eşti doar o fantezie în capul meu. Dar sunt un bărbat care îşi iubeşte nespus soţia, în afară de asta, încă simt o imensă tandreţe pentru ea, chiar dacă nu mai este."

Era doar o nevoie, o nevoie a trupului, dar care nu putea învinge nevoia sufletului. Aceleaşi lanţuri, minunatele lanţuri ale dragostei, îi intraseră în carne. Norii dorinţei se răriră, dispărură la fel cum au venit. Kevin se cufundă în transa propriei minţi. Simţi cum totul în jurul său se mişcă într-o ordine inversă, de parcă ar fi explodat ceva în fiinţa lui.

Finalul filmului „ The Devil's Advocate (1997) " este genial prin mesajul pe care îl transmite. Kevin, cuprins de cea mai mare vină, simţi o durere îndepărtată, care se manifestă în altă dimensiune şi pe care trebuia să o primească. Îşi scoase pistolul de la brâu. Apăsă pe trăgaci. Glonţul îi penetră capul şi ieşi iute pe partea cealaltă, evacuând o mare cantitate de sânge din rana deschisă. Vârful roşu de sânge conturând calea spre sfârşitul fiinţei lui.

O jertfă pentru mântuirea sufletului. Gestul acesta trebuie să fi venit din străfundurile sufletului. Iubirea nu oboseşte, nu dispare. Ci salvează şi osândeşte sufletul. Glonţul i-a adus mântuirea. Sufletul său se eliberă de păcat, readucându-l înapoi la viaţa plină de candoare alături de soţia lui, Mary Ann.

Leadership: Trebuie să iei atitudine împotriva construirii unui destin sărăcit de conţinut, îndreptându-ţi atenţia spre pierderea pe care o simţi când eşti inclus într-un plan mai înalt decât nivelul tău de aşteptări?

Un lider adevărat îşi asigură mijloacele de a-şi contura calităţile şi de a le face cunoscute, orientându-şi deciziile în direcţia sentimentelor şi a trăirilor sale profunde. Poţi recunoaşte aluatul din care este făcut liderul, urmărind felul în care el îşi diminuează sau îşi amplifică strălucirea sufletească. El poate cuceri piscurile cele mai înalte ale leadershipului numai printr-o nouă şi deplină înţelegere a esenţei sale, redând partea pozitivă a fiinţei sale în toată intensitatea ei – ajustând contrastele puternice între aparenţă şi realitate, păstrând o cumpănă dreaptă a judecăţii, fără să accepte prea multe îngăduinţe.

Dezvoltarea ta, ca şi lider, trebuie să înceapă cu stabilirea şi stăpânirea unei scări de valori şi promovarea valorilor proprii, care să stimuleze progresul tău personal şi să-ţi menţină echilibrul sufletesc.

Aşa cum volumul sanguin este indisolubil legat de compoziţia sângelui, tot aşa “metabolismul” leadershipului tău, care reduce sau accentuează trăsăturile tale negative de personalitate, determinând reacţiile faţă de acţiuni - este indisolubil legat de nevoile elementare ale sufletului tău. Cu alte cuvinte, stabilitatea ta emoţională poate să fie zdruncinată la impactul cu o oarecare “agresiune” exterioară, dacă ea nu se bazează pe reale valori bine înrădăcinate în tine.

Proba de caracter începe prin a accepta că reprezinți mai mult decât ceea ce îţi este scris să devii într-un moment de destin în care eşti constrâns să experimentezi sacrificiul de sine.

Eşti pregătit să devii un martir sau un sfânt?

Adoptarea unei atitudini care nu iţi garantează obţinerea unei reacţii emoţionale pozitive este ca o mică fisură dintr-un dig care se poate transforma într-o breşă mai mare prin care apa ţâşneşte cu tot mai multă forţă.

Aproape în acelaşi fel, tranzitul tău spre terţe valori care nu sunt în concordanţă cu credinţa ta şi nu-ţi motivează existenţa, va crea o “fisură” în leadershipul tău din care vor ţâşni numai judecăţi dezaprobatoare şi acţiuni neprofitabile şi chiar sinucigaşe.

Mărturia supremă a credinţei este un act instinctiv al sacrificiului de sine din care răzbate mântuirea sufletului.

Vârful roşu de sânge al glonţului care pune punct vizează adoptarea acelei atitudini care trebuie să-ţi pună în valoare calităţile cele mai de preţ, precum “căldura sufletească” şi “datoria morală”. Totodată, exprimă momentul în care revii la treptele înalte ale scării tale de valori, demonstrându-ţi capacitatea de a fi în primul rând, propriul tău lider.

Controlează-ţi cu stricteţe sistemul de valori, făcându-l imbatabil în faţa emoţiilor trecătoare.

Vechiul şi Noul din aria extinsă a regiunii ştiinţifice

On Iulie 13, 2014

Asigură continuitatea perfectă, armonioasă a creaţiei şi gândirii, încât rezultatele ştiinţei tale să te califice drept un "high performer" în domeniul conducerii.

Lucrurile par mai complicate la prima vedere, este necesar un efort pentru a le urmări dacă vrem să înţelegem vreodată mersul gândurilor lui Eisenstein. Cu atât mai mult cu cât importanţa acestui film este deosebită în creaţia artistului. Este un moment de răscruce. Pentru prima oară apar căutări în domeniul culorii în preocupările sale creatoare. Montajul armonic conţine şi culoarea ca "rezonator armonic". În al doilea rând, cu toate nereuşitele sale inerente unui experiment, "Vechiul şi Noul" este încununarea unei suite de creaţii şi de reducţii teoretice, este punctul culminant al filmului mult practicat şi cercetat pe plan estetic de Eisenstein.

Continuitatea perfectă, armonioasă a creaţiei şi gândirii sale ajunge, prin acest film, la cinematografia sonoră, pasul următor fiind celebrul său montaj vertical, audio-sonor, ale cărei premise există deci de la "Potemkin" încă. De altfel în tipul lucrului la "Vechiul şi Noul", în vara lui 1928, Eisenstein scrie celebrul manifest care stă şi azi la baza esteticii filmului sonor, în care expune ideea contrapunctului orchestral între imaginea vizuală şi auditivă. Şi încă lucrând la "Vechiul şi Noul", el proiectează o sonorizare a acestui film, care însă nu a mai fost realizată niciodată. În această epocă Eisenstein vede viitorul cinematografiei numai în filmul sonor. *

Leadership: Poţi pătrunde în spaţiul cunoaşterii avansate, fixându-ţi realist limitele de expunere la îmbunătăţirea performanţelor ştiinţifice?

Leadershipul pătrunde în spaţiul cunoaşterii avansate, suportând o combinatorică a puterii extrem de incitante a creaţiei şi a receptării de noi descoperiri – în care interesul, imaginaţia, experienţa, preferinţele teoretice ale cercetătorului, concură la realizarea unei abordări inedite, şi de conţinut, facilitând coordonarea unor noi sisteme şi procese de gândire.

În sensul restrâns al conceptului de leadership, încununarea unei suite de creaţii, alternative teoretice şi practice, nu are doar un efect de valorizare şi promovare a unei gândirii generatoare de noi principii şi accente. Ci implică şi o anumită doză de exagerare a tiparelor de gândire, prin faptul că omul îşi adjudecă o cotă ridicată de rentabilitate schimbând legile constructivităţii în ştiinţă. De aceea continuitatea perfectă, armonioasă a creaţiei şi gândirii, devine o experienţă de dominare a ştiinţei, care oferă o calitate superioară pregătirii practice.

A pătrunde în spaţiul cunoaşterii avansate, fixându-ţi realist limitele de expunere la îmbunătăţirea performanţelor ştiinţifice, înseamnă mai întâi să-ţi reevaluezi importanţa cu care întâmpini şi abordezi creaţia din perspectiva resorturilor ei de transfigurare a lumii şi a realităţii în plan artistic. Mai înseamnă să atribui ideilor tale acea emoţie a propriei tale experienţe de creaţie, imaginându-ţi că şi ceilalţi oameni simt aceeaşi emoţie.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi însuşeşti "inaccesibilul" printr-o bună gestionare a calităţii de autor al inovaţiilor ştiinţifice, fără să schimbi continuitatea pe care o dă funcţionarea creaţiei într-o nouă formă?

Inaccesibilul nu este altceva decât o avuţie a ştiinţei care este doar a ta şi o păstrezi fără a o împărţi cu ceilalţi. Nu degeaba se spune că inaccesibilul este invariabil seducător, pentru că nu lasă la vedere decât imaginea creaţiei, nu şi actul sau raţionalitatea acesteia. Calitatea de autor al inovaţiilor ştiinţifice poate da dreptul la evidenţiere şi promovare în grade profesionale, dincolo de înaltă calificare în domeniu, dacă inaccesibilul creează premisele unei extinderi ample a privilegiilor de acces la un nivel superior.

Iar calitatea de autor al inovaţiilor ştiinţifice nu se înclină niciodată în faţa unei autorităţi de ordin restrictiv care nu promovează o orientare în practică şi o anumită direcţie de exprimare. Iar ca să asiguri continuitatea perfectă, armonioasă a creaţiei şi gândirii, încât rezultatele ştiinţei tale să te califice drept un "high performer" în domeniul conducerii, trebuie să te legi de această calitate şi să o introduci frecvent în orice context de mobilitate profesională.

Această calitate oscilează între două constante. Prima este dată de beneficiul ştiinţific obţinut în urma realizării unui proces de distilare a elementelor de structură care deschid continuu noi posibilităţi de creaţie, pentru a obţine un produs-leadership cu calităţi superioare. A doua depinde de trebuinţele pe care individul le resimte din perspectiva de abordare a unui subiect de cercetare, care se încadrează în aria tematică promovată, dar care este insuficient studiată sub toate aspectele sale datorită vastităţii sale.

Continuitatea pe care o dă funcţionarea creaţiei într-o nouă formă este dată de curiozitatea cu care pătrunzi într-o lume, îi schimbi coordonatele realităţii şi îi asiguri o structură solidă care să caracterizeze în mod direct perspectiva ta asupra unui spectacol captivant numit "viaţă" - privit ca o abordare alternativă de promovare a artei centrată pe imaginea vizuală.

Vechiul şi Noul din aria extinsă a regiunii ştiinţifice sunt două poluri opuse care se atrag sau se resping în funcţie de calitatea "materialului" utilizat la construcţia unor noi sisteme de gândire, pe care ştiinţa poate să le accepte ca alternative de reinventare a stilului de leadership.

Ştiinţa reprezintă un produs în care creativitatea și originalitatea regizorală se îmbină cu inovația și tehnologia pentru a realiza o operă cu un impact determinant în dezvoltarea artei de a recompune realitatea.

Vederea are atât de multe de spus ochilor

On Aprilie 24, 2023

Ochiul artistului privește printr-un cadru și vede lumea așa cum este, dar, ea fiind așa cum este, este de fapt altfel.

Am citit aseară povestea italiană "Ce povestesc soarele şi vântul". Vederea mea, deschisă, riguroasă, caracterizată de procesul imaginativ, şi-a folosit stimulii necesari unei bune munci cognitive ca să descopere ceea ce este de nedescoperit în lumea reală, încât eu însumi să devin parte a unei miraculoase Asheravceda Uidem, o ieşire din sine, o pătrundere dincolo de graniţele normalului şi ale obiectivităţii.

Nu degeaba vederea îmi este încă asaltată de imaginile unei necontrafăcute experienţe de expansiune a Sinelui spre alteritate, fiindcă dintr-o dată simt că sunt o altă persoană.

La modul sublim, citirea poveştii mi-a asigurat locul în epopeea unui om transfigurat de revelația inconștientului său, rătăcit în destinul ameţitor de "zbor înalt" efectuat în urmărirea imaginilor sufletului, vibrând pe aceeaşi lungime de undă cu opera unui pictor care încearcă să reprezinte „sufletul lucrurilor", rezonanţa lor, fără să cadă în exagerare. Timid, curios, cu multe speranţe, un asemenea pictor creează sugestia unei ambianţe peisagistice în reflectarea directă a luminii solare de către oglinda unui imaginar care, îmbrăcând diverse forme, operand o selecţie a trăitului convenabil, instaurează prezenţa unei conştiinţe apriorice.

Când Soarele văzu că Vântul este în vârful muntelui, alergă să se ascundă îndărătul unui nor. Dar Vântul îl chemă din nou, zicându-i: "Soare, Soare, vino încoa ! Şi verdeţii şi florilor le este dor de tine. O, să nu-ţi fie frică de mine. Ştii că sunt bun şi blând. Însă Soarele nu voia să iasă dindărătul norului. Atunci Vântul suflă, goni norul şi descoperi frumoasa faţă a luminosului Soare.

Leadership: Viziunea ta păstrează acea măreţie dobândită a reducerii la esenţă, căreia îi dai semnificaţia revelării unei alte feţe a existenţei, mereu refuzate?

Evident, această relatare este înveşmântată în mantia unei imaginaţii deosebit de bogate. În cazul în care observatorul ar fi obligat să postuleze o formă oarecare de "memorie" în seva unei imaginaţii aprinse, şi dacă memoria aceasta călduţă ar fi cuprinsă în câmpul vederii unui pictor strălucit, atunci contactul meu cu arta ar fi o ieşire din timp într-o lume despre care nu mai ştiu dacă e adevărată sau e vis.

Tot ce ştiu este că, adesea, ochii mei visează că sunt pictaţi într-un tablou fantastic în care visul însuşi devine vedere. Astfel se nuanţează o altă faţă a existenţei mele, mereu refuzată pe parcursul trecerii de la real la ireal: apare posibilitatea de a experimenta traiectoriile individuale ale artiștilor, de a urmări diversitatea de medii abordate și de a înțelege semnificațiile unei opere nesfârşite.

Presimt că vederea mai are multe de spus ochilor mei, mai ales dacă soarele nu orbeşte ochiul ce caută visarea, şi mai ales dacă vântul tăios din serile de primăvară timpurie nu-mi duce gândurile în depărtări înnorate unde nu există viaţă, şi nici moarte, ci doar un imens haos întunecat şi rece. La urma urmelor, mi-aş dori să fiu un strop din lumină, un strop din nemurire, sau doar o picătură din eter, încât să reuşesc o pătrundere în spaţiul unei viziuni metafizice moderne pe care să o pot împrăștia pe pânză doar cu forţa gândului.

Leadership: Urmăreşti modelul unor reprezentări simbolice a căror imagine se păstrează pe parcursul unei viziuni capabilă să se concretizeze într-o operă de artă?

Când pictezi într-un plan tangibil, atunci dimensiunea şi forma pensulei sunt orientate pentru a corespunde perspectivei planului, cu menţiunea că planul acesta reprezintă locul în care lumea "orizontală" îşi caută rostul adânc în jurul unei lumi verticale constituită din entităţi de limbaj şi viziuni, angrenate în "aventuri" quasi-manipulabile.

Iată de ce, citind povestea Soarelui şi a Vântului, am recunoscut în mine talentul pictorului de a scoate în evidenţă personajul portretizat prin proiectarea lui într-un fond monocrom uniform, care străbate timpul.

S-o spun mai simplu. Ceea ce ochiul oglindeşte într-un alt univers, într-un fel plin de savoare şi sensibilitate, derivă din expansiunea frontierei care delimitează realitatea de ficţiune, prin intermediul unui personaj simbolic care încearcă să facă din însăşi viaţa lui o operă de artă. Din acest motiv sunt înclinat să iau locul soarelui şi să vorbesc cu vântul ca şi când aş vorbi cu un vechi prieten, cu multă apreciere, cu acurateţe, cu respect, pe tot parcursul unei viziuni care se concretizează într-o pictură.

Pretutindeni am putut observa această consecvență distinctă în alăturarea părților aflate în relaţie directă, în măsura în care ele pot fi obținute prin citirea şi retrăirea în imaginaţie a unei poveşti care devine realitate. De fapt, artistul care își pune la încercare ochii pentru a obține adevăratul "văz" în contururi puternice de peisaje, de personaje sau obiecte, toate acestea aflate într-un fundal neutru, trebuie mai întâi să se considere el însuși model de căpătâi al unei reprezentări simbolice într-un moment de oglindire a realului în imaginar.

Marea putere a artei presupune să pătrunzi în intimitatea unei lumi despre care ai doar o vagă idee, axându-ţi vederea pe dualitatea ideal-real, unde aparenţa unei viziuni nonfocalizate este completată de imaginaţie.

Leadershipul modern face apel la asemenea artă pentru a schimba perspectiva asupra lumii.

Vederea are atât de multe de spus ochilor atunci când ştie că poate cuprinde, pe fond artistic, o lume fabuloasă din care artistul nu mai poate ieşi decât fermecat şi schimbat. Iar ochiul artistului privește printr-un cadru și vede lumea așa cum este, dar, ea fiind așa cum este, este de fapt altfel. Este o lume concentrată, esenţializată pe imaginile unei lumi ce merită să înfrunte timpul într-un peisaj dintr-o operă de artă.

Vederea Ascunsă îşi dezvăluie Secretele

On Noiembrie 09, 2023

Cu cât vezi mai adânc, cu atât vezi mai departe.

Marea. Spațiul acesta nemărginit în frământarea sa, plan rotunjit de visare, perceput ca o invitație la căutarea profunzimii subacvatice, se oglindește ca o suprafață de sticlă de nestrăbătut de cel care încearcă să-l pătrundă. Stăpânind orice acces de mișcare a valurilor printr-un fel de magie, ea se predă unui efort de construcție volumetrică așa încât să capteze misterul profundității marine.

În mod evident, imaginea mării față de care trebuie să-mi mărturisesc venerația respectuoasă, ottenere un'esperienza di espansione della visione, mă captivează ca o punere în scenă a frumuseții naturii. Iar prin pensula mea abilă, plină de culoare, delicată la atingere, încerc să dezvălui fiecare nuanță a mării și a orizontului, într-o manieră care să-mi atingă sufletul și mă transpună într-o lume a artei, a frumosului și a contemplării.

Astfel, în opera sa, artistul reușește să captureze esența acestei forțe naturale și să o transforme într-o expresie artistică fascinantă și profundă. El introduce în scenă imensa perspectivă a unei picturi renascentiste, de tip abstract, în care imaginea se dezvăluie ca o pânză vastă și nesfârșită, un canvas infinit de nuanțe și stări, înălţându-se într-un dans armonios între culori și forme, aducând în prim-plan frumusețea mării și a litoralului într-un mod plin de sensibilitate artistică.

Leadership: Te poți transforma în subiectul unei imagini care se concentrează aproape exclusiv în jurul unui concept abstract, astfel încât să te desprinzi de ceea ce este tangibil?

Urmărind aceeaşi fascinaţie pentru misterul și splendoarea adâncimilor marine, așa cum sunt prezentate în opera "20.000 de leghe sub mări" de Jules Verne, mă voi transforma eu însumi în subiectul tabloului, un subiect care îmbină elemente ale naturii cu esența mea interioară, creând astfel o operă de artă unică și personală, menită să reflecte percepția mea asupra lumii și a frumuseții care mă înconjoară.

"Cu lanterna în mână, am plecat să explorez adâncurile oceanului, iar ceea ce am descoperit acolo a fost ca o adevărată pictură subacvatică. Peștii de forme și culori variate înotau în jurul meu ca niște tablouri vii. Mai mult decât atât, în momentele de liniște de sub apă, am avut ocazia să meditez la frumusețea acestei lumi subacvatice. Privind creaturile marine în mișcare lentă, am simțit cum timpul încetinește, cum încep să mă conectez cu ritmurile naturii. Totodată, într-una din experiențele de sub apă, am întâlnit un recif de corali uimitor de frumos, cu culori vibrante și forme intricate. Am stat lângă el, meditând la frumusețea naturală și la complexitatea acestei vieții întunecate, dar totuşi plină de viaţă, însufleţitoare."

Prin puterea de a asocia percepției frumosului, Jules Verne mi-a dezvăluit adâncimile subacvatice ca un fel de sursă inepuizabilă de inspirație artistică, un Idemicorale Sulhabatto, un fel de existență transpusă pe planul eternității. Cu ochii atinși asupra celor ce nu se pot vedea în mod obișnuit, mi-ă arătat un colț al lumii plin de mister și splendoare. Aceste adâncimi ascund secrete și comori, iar prin arta și imaginile create de mine, împărtăşite cu un elan înverşunat, pot deschide o fereastră către un univers subacvatic care mă invită să explorez mereu, să visez și să contemplu frumusețea ascunsă a unei lumi ascunse, nevăzută decât de ochiul care își contemplă taina.

Pe bună dreptate, împărtăşesc aceeaşi idee exprimată de autorul cărţii "Pictura ca rugăciune". Până la urmă, arta este capacitatea de a mișca omul în străfundurile ființei sale, de a provoca în chip nemijlocit o experiență și un răspuns creator, cu anevoie de exprimat în cuvinte.

Leadership: Îmbinând elementele naturii cu esența ta interioară, poţi să creezi o operă de artă unică care să reflecte percepția ta asupra unei lumi ascunse, nevăzute?

Mă simt ca și când pictorul din mine și-ar fi găsit potențialul nelimitat într-un mediu neexplorat de alte entități, un mediu în care pot să explorez și să-mi exprim stările sufleteşti într-un mod unic și captivant. Adâncimile subacvatice reprezintă un teritoriu vast și neumblat, iar în fiecare colț al acestui univers subacvatic, găsesc mereu noi surse de inspirație și de dezvoltare artistică. Este ca și cum m-aș afla într-o călătorie fără sfârșit, o căutare interioară a sensului atribuit vieții, în care pot să explorez infinitul potențial artistic și să mă conectez cu esența ascunsă, tăcută, nevăzută a fiinţei mele.

Aşa este. O lume nevăzută, precum adâncul mării, este o panoramă imaginară creată de un artist care pătrunde în ea cu sufletul său, focalizându-se asupra contopirii dintre umbră şi spectaculozitate.

Fiecare întâlnire cu creaturile marine și peisajele subacvatice devine un tablou în mișcare, iar momentele de liniște sub apă devin o oportunitate de meditație asupra bogăției naturii și a conexiunii noastre cu aceasta. Numai prin puterea de a asocia arta percepției frumosului, în concordanţă cu sfera unui orizont tăinuit, pot deschide o fereastră către infinita capacitate de a înțelege și aprecia frumusețea din jurul meu.

Un singur lucru e cert. Masele se echilibrează printr-un dans în timp ce volumele se compensează printr-un joc de straturi de aer subtile care își dobândesc astfel o respirație misterioasă. Pe lângă asta, marea stăpânește o zonă luminată de strălucirea organismelor marine, un fel de poveste, dar și o zonă de întuneric în așa fel încât, suprapunându-se aceste planuri, pot să creez un tablou în care se contopesc armonios lumina și umbra, dezvăluind astfel profunzimea și complexitatea peisajului subacvativ. Prin urmare, voi captura acest joc subtil dintre lumină și întunericul mării, aducând la viață o reprezentare fascinantă a contrastelor și a frumuseții care caracterizează lumea subacvatică.

Locul unde se naşte arta este determinat de reprezentarea imaginilor unei lumi care ascunde întuneric şi lumină în fiecare colţ neatins de pensulele colorate ale experiențelor vieții.

Iar locul unde se naşte leadershipul este determinat de fuziunea dintre ceea ce ești când construieşti imaginea unei lumi aparte, și ceea ce ești când imaginea devine un instantaneu al realităţii tale interioare.

Vederea Ascunsă își dezvăluie Secretele prin intermediul sinelui unui artist care, în momentele de creație devine o punte către lumile misterioase și fascinante, ascunse dincolo de aparențele obișnuite. Aşa stau lucrurile. Prin arta mea, încerc să explorez aceste secrete ascunse și le transpun în lucrări capabile să dezvăluie profunzimea și înțelepciunea mea, oferindu-le privitorilor o perspectivă nouă și captivantă asupra lumii mele interioare.

De fapt, vederea ascunsă seamănă cu introducerea artistului într-un soi de labirint al gândurilor şi percepţiilor, în care acesta trebuie să exploreze şi să dezvăluie secretele şi frumuseţile ascunse ale lumii, străbătând drumuri nebănuite şi găsind noi perspective menite să inspire, să transmită acea profunzime şi complexitate pe care numai arta o poate dezvălui.

Vederea ca imagine dintr-un vis

Omul văzut ca parte a Creaţiei este un Sine distinct format din conexiunea ce se stabileşte cu o lume infinită, pe fondul unei experienţe subiective.

M-am văzut într-un vis al cărui sens nu reușesc să-l înțeleg. Imaginile apăreau diluate, difuze, neclare, ca şi când aş fi intrat într-un soi de transă adâncă în care mintea îmi era focalizată asupra unei părţi dintr-o oglindă cu refracţie în plan vizual 3D. Faptul acesta părea corelat cu distanţa dintre o lentilă şi punctul în care este focalizată imaginea unui obiect aflat la infinit.

Visul indică distanţarea de reflectarea realistă, iar eu, fără îndoială, mă aflam în interiorul unei oglinzi care măsura timpul, mărind prin deformare orice reflectare a realităţii. Inevitabil poziţionată, ca o reacţie la reacţie, ca într-o pictură în care se găseşte doar culoarea alb, în genul celei realizate de Kazimir Malevich, reflexia mea stăruia să se reveleze într-o infinitate de forme. A mă constitui sub o anumită formă, nu era de ajuns.

Dintr-o dată, în faţa mea, s-au deschis 3 uşi egale, paralele, dar fără unghiuri drepte. Fiecare din ele reprezenta un alt vis, o altă tentativa de exprimare a realului prefăcut într-o iluzie suficient de puternică pentru a-mi păcăli reflexiile de imagine. Si tocmai aceste reflexii plurivalente, ireale, dar neaşteptat de captivante, triplau efortul impunerii subconștiente a personalităţii mele în acelaşi spectru al luminii care străbate un anumit mediu cu un indice de refracție diferit.

Da, erau 3 uşi într-un vis care îşi caută visătorul în oglindă. Nu ştiam pe care din ele să intru, incapabil să-mi dau seama cum să înaintez, deoarece fiecare uşă ducea în altă direcţie. Aşa că le-am închis la loc pe toate, sperând să găsesc altundeva un alt vis, dar unul care să fie activat prin deblocarea unei singure uşi.

Leadership: Imaginea care îţi ilustrează personalitatea cuprinde varietatea punctelor de vedere care dau importanţă gradului de expunere a Sinelui tău într-un context de „incursiune într-o realitate duala" ?

Spaţiul în care eram închis cu totul, fără de scăpare, era mărturia unei existenţe manifestată printr-un Infirhaevah aktha Esvaistyhan, adică "încearcă să vezi fără să crezi". Iar spaţiul acesta avea profilul unei fantezii de-a lui Coleridge. Un om visează că străbate paradisul şi drept dovadă i se dă o floare. Când se trezeşte, floarea se află lângă el. Evident că dorința lui Coleridge era de a urmări sufletul vag, invizibil și relativ infinit al artistului în opere de artă concrete, limitate, vizibile, în încercarea fabuloasă de a pătrunde în fenomenele „acoperite cu un văl".

Nu peste mult timp am dat peste o altă oglindă, care la fel ca cea precedentă, deschidea alte 3 uşi, deschizătoare de alte 3 perspective. Nu ştiam care dintre ele este cea bună, ochii mei nu erau siguri de vederea lor, nu se puteau distanţa de fantasma unei existenţe care scoate la iveală acea iluzie a admirării cerurilor cu ale lor constelaţii sclipitoare. Iar vederea nu îmi indica nicio oportunitate de a-mi realiza vreo dorinţă. S-ar spune că exista o corelaţie cu o îndoială profundă. Părea doar o abundenţă de incursiuni în trecutul meu, sau în viitorul neaşteptat. Poate că oglinda însăşi era doar o distanţare faţă de reflectarea realistă, iar cele 3 uşi ilustrau - fiecare din ele - o călătorie în alt spaţiu al vieţii mele din altă dimensiune?

Din instinct, am ales uşa din mijloc, dar cu aprobarea minţii care a lansat ideea de "autonomie a imaginii poetice cvasi independentă de creator", prin raportare la spaţiul intersubiectiv care unifică sufleteşte emoţia cu imaginea. Şi, astfel, am intrat pe uşa din mijloc, într-o oglindă care controlează visele, le dirijează, le forțează să se înmulțească, le reglează pe cele de intrare, asigurând astfel, conexiunea inversă cu o lume nelimitată. Şi am devenit parte din ea, parte dintr-un vis care se recunoaşte doar într-o oglindă.

Leadership: Percepţia pe care o ai despre tine însuti şi tot ceea ce te reprezintă poate să includă unicitatea unei experienţe subiective formată la un moment de timp îndepărtat, dar rememorat prin imagini suprapuse?

Apoi, m-am trezit din vis. Oglinda din camera mea era tot acolo. Şi când m-am privit în ea atent, cu o curiozitate infinită, cu reflexia universului în ochi, mi-am amintit că am intrat prin ea şi am pătruns într-un vis al cărui sens îl înţeleg, abia acum, simultan în termeni reali. Nu voi putea separa niciodată ceea ce-am văzut, de ceea ce va rămâne o amintire...

Razele de lumină se propagau într-un plan perpendicular, pe un tărâm imaginar, ca într-o iluzie optică care nedumerește și păcălește creierul. Nu-mi dau seama prea bine dacă ceea ce am văzut, într-un vis care adăposteşte alte vise, era parte dintr-o pictură avangardistă reflectată în forma unei trăiri subiective, sau dacă această viziune hipnotică, adunând o întreaga naraţiune, era doar o colecţie de imagini suprapuse într-un real care emană revelarea vreunui rost.

Însă, prin extrapolare, fiecare noutate poate duce la crearea unui mic univers cuprins între Ego şi Alter Ego, un dualism metafizic al cărui divizare în părţi egale se face neîntrerupt până la revenirea personalităţii de bază. Şi, trebuie s-o spun răspicat: într-adevăr, eu trăiam concomitent în două universuri: realitate și vis.

Leadership: Poţi să te reprezinţi într-un proces de receptare a unei imagini ce transcende timpul şi spaţiul, ca într-un prezent continuu care te implică în mod misterios într-un dialog virtual cu tine însuţi?

Oglinzile se înmulţeau şi ele, uşile erau nenumărate, albul predomina peste tot. Pe de o parte exista hazardul şi automatismul psihic, de cealaltă parte îşi făceau loc armoniile unei lumini înteţite într-o metafizică latentă, capabile să tălmăcească sublimat stări sufleteşti. Toate făceau trimitere spre punctul de vedere al lui Brion Marcel:

"Misiunea artei rămâne aceeaşi: să comunice invizibilul prin reprezentări accesibile simţurilor şi minţii, dându-ne siguranţă că această reprezentare este cu totul asemenea cu ceea ce a fost înfăţişat, având aceleaşi însuşiri şi aceleaşi merite ca şi imaginea originară, la fel ca şi urma pecetii faţă de pecetea însăşi, ca şi umbra faţă de trup".

O voce din off, latentă, imposibil de definit, îmi poruncea cu voce scăzută: "Să nu pomeneşti de nimic din toate acestea cu voce tare, şi să revii în altă vreme". Nu ştiu cum se face, dar vocea asta necunoscută, profundă, răsunătoare, exprimată printr-un paradoxal "dicteu dialogat", a avut un efect considerabil asupra mea. De parcă ceva sau cineva ar fi vrut să-mi înfăţişeze pe ascuns o panoramă strălucitoare a viitorului meu, fără să-mi compromită imaginea cu care îmi împart spaţiul construit al visului, al somnului.

Am rămas cu un singur gând: ceea ce am fost interesat să văd la mine însumi, în vis, este o reacţie la realitatea pe care doar ochiul de artist o înfăţişează.

Leadershipul trebuie reluat în cazul manifestării actului de creaţie, printr-o infiltrare a construcţiilor visurilor în gândirea dualistă, de unde rezultă o altă imagine a sinelui: „ceea ce crezi cu adevărat despre tine însuţi nu este întotdeauna realitatea în sine, ci doar o memorare a ceea ce nu s-a manifestat încă".

Vederea ca imagine dintr-un vis se manifestă în cazul creatorilor care îşi amplifică experienţa vizionară cu noi incursiuni într-un imaginar pe care şi-l asumă, trăindu-l în totalitate cu sufletul şi mintea.

Tot ceea ce credeam despre actul creaţiei, este invers proporţional cu viziunea onirică pe care universul mi-a plantat-o în creier. Sinele meu, format în sfera misticului, a dumnezeiescului, a cunoaşterii intuitive, mi-a dezvăluit o altă faţă a creaţiei, opusul a ceea ce credeam iniţial. Astfel, mi se va putea imputa vina, mie ca şi pictorilor post-impresionişti, de a lansa ideea că - de fapt - creaţia reprezintă conexiunea pe care am stabilit-o cu o lume infinită, pe fondul unei experienţe subiective.

Vederea care stagnează, nu este acţiunea care schimbă

On Aprlie 13, 2024

Impactul unei persoane în societate nu se măsoară prin pasivitatea evlaviei, ci prin curajul de a interveni în cursul evenimentelor.

Nu poţi să crezi fără să vezi, dar poţi să vezi fără să crezi. Într-o dimineață însorită, când timpul părea să-și încetinească cursul pentru a asculta mai atent ecoul paşilor pierduţi, am întâlnit neaşteptat un profesor universitar, corespondent al unei figuri desprinsă parcă din romanele lui Balzac. Drumul său către mitropolie, parcurs cu pași măsurați, orientat către o depăşire a temporalului, părea o simplă deplasare fizică, la prima vedere. Dar, poate că era o călătorie simbolică spre descoperirea și recunoașterea unui sine care căuta să se regăsească și să se împlinească.

Discuția noastră, lipsită de înțelesuri profunde, a explorat contrastul dintre valorile atemporale și pulsul accelerat al progresului tehnologic. Acest profesor absolut anonim în lume, având totuşi în spate o carieră dedicată slujirii educației, părea să se fi distanțat enorm de "zgomotul asurzitor" al evoluţiei erei digitale. Bineînţeles, realizările sale (dacă există) nu se pot regăsi nicăieri pe internet, la fel ca în cazul oricărui om modest în ceea ce priveşte perspectiva asupra ştiinţei şi tehnologiei.

Mă gândesc că lipsa oricărui talent l-a îndepărtat de nevoia de recunoaștere virtuală. Modestia este luxul celor care nu au nimic de arătat.

"Nu am nimic de arătat lumii pe internet," și-a exprimat el credința, o mărturie a unei simplități nobil de rară. Și chiar dacă ar fi avut ceva de arătat, nimeni nu ar fi văzut, iar ecoul muncii sale nu ar fi avut răspuns. Oricât ar fi de profundă ar fi natura omului, nu se ajunge nicăieri dacă nu prezintă un minim de compasiune pentru a progresa. Până la urmă, omul cu adevărat modest este cel care își păstrează esența ascunsă, nesolicitată de aplauze exterioare.

Leadership: Ai curajul de a interveni în cursul evenimentelor, într-o lume care măsoară valoarea prin vizibilitate, similar cu impactul produs de o rază de lumină în întuneric?

Într-o eră în care tehnologia redefinește limitele posibilului, impactul personal nu este măsurat doar prin ritualuri tradiționale sau repetiții formale, ci mai ales prin implicare activă și adaptabilitate la schimbare. Este ca în filmul lui Hitchcock, dacă vă amintiţi "Family Plot (1976)". Scena de milioane care face toată splendoarea !

În mijlocul catedralei, cei doi escroci, soț și soție, îl răpesc pe episcop în văzul sutelor de credincioși și enoriaşi. Uimiţi, toţi realizează că ceva este în neregulă, se ridică în picioare, dar nu fac nicio mişcare, nu se implică cu nimic, efectiv stau cu gurile căscate în timp ce răpitorii îşi fac drum afară, lejer, fără ca nimic să-i împiedice. Sedat, apoi luat pe umeri în văzul tuturor, episcopul este escortat încet şi fără gălăgie, afară. Vorba aia: "De-ai luat pe umeri Crucea, Și-ai pornit la drum cu ea, Du-te frate cu răbdare, Și din Cruce nu tăia !"

Oameni buni, nu stați neclintiți în fața schimbării, precum credincioşii din filmul lui Hitchcock ! Învățați să mișcați lucrurile, sau veți deveni victime ale unei evlavii pasive. Impactul unei persoane în societate nu se măsoară prin pasivitatea evlaviei, prin conformism și politețe, ci prin curajul de a interveni în cursul evenimentelor.

Leadership: Simți că eliberarea prin informație este de fapt o expunere mult mai rapidă a potențialului tău de evoluție, conform unei perspective care valorizează cunoașterea devenită un reper vizual omniprezent?

Actualmente, tehnologia ne provoacă să depășim formalitățile și să contribuim autentic la binele comun. Spun asta pentru că măreția nu derivă din ritualuri sau formalități, ci din angajamentul autentic și inovativ față de progresul uman. Extrapolând ideea din filmul lui Hitchcock, tăcerea și inacțiunea în fața posibilităţii de a contribui prin creație și descoperire la progresul zilelor noastre, în care internetul este omniprezent, pot fi echivalente cu complicitatea la stagnare și inerție.

Eliberarea prin cunoaștere este o fărâmă de eternitate prinsă în cleștele prezentului.

Într-o lume a tehnologiei, impactul personal este sculptat de curajul de a explora teritorii neumblate și de a aduce lumina în zone întunecate. Cine face totul pentru ştiinţă, face totul pentru Dumnezeu. De fapt, știința este adevărata lumină care ne călăuzește în întuneric. Iar răul în lumea asta îl constituie oamenii care nu se implică, prin creaţie şi descoperire, la schimbare. Ei lasă lucrurile să se petreacă de la sine, fără să intervină în niciun fel, şi de aia răul se răspândeşte tot mai mult în lume. Dacă faceţi o statistică, veţi vedea ca oamenii, cu cât se consideră mai evlavioşi, cu atât sunt împotriviţi progresului.

Leadership: Receptarea realităţii imediate poate transforma percepția vizuală personală într-un background din altă minte, într-un deplin acord cu vastitatea unui început care își susține continuitatea?

Reflectând asupra întâlnirii cu profesorul universitar, un gând încă persistă în mintea mea: în această eră digitală, unde fiecare fragment de existență pare a fi capturat și etalat, ce este cu adevărat de valoare pentru progresul nostru colectiv? Tradițiile, cu apelul lor la contemplație și comuniune spirituală, sau contribuția, oricât de mică, la vastul univers de cunoaștere online?

Ce contează mai mult pentru progresul lumii? Este oare mai valoros să urmăm tradițiile, mergând la biserică și rugându-ne pentru un viitor mai bun, sau să contribuim, chiar și în cea mai mică măsură, la vastul ocean de informații de pe internet? Când e vorba de internet, s-ar putea să-i daţi dreptate scriitorului Glenn Bland când spunea: "Fii receptiv la ideile pe care ţi le dau alţii, pentru că ceea ce pare umbra nopţii într-o minte se transformă în rochiţa rândunicii în cealaltă minte."

Omul nu ştia să vadă realitatea prezentului, sau vedea fără să creadă. Ei bine, acest profesor universitar, cu o vedere precară, părea să fi rămas în limitele unui trecut nespectaculos, destabilizator. El a argumentat în mod evaziv că dedicarea față de tradiție și rugăciune este mai importantă decât contribuția la avansul societății. Oamenii au mai mare nevoie de Dumnezeu, pace lăuntrică, decât de ştiinţă, de internet şi de prea multe ore pierdute în faţa laptopului.

Într-adevăr, adevăratul progres nu se măsoară în acumularea de like-uri sau în vizibilitatea digitală, dar nici nu te izolează într-un cocon de protecție izvorât din prea multă evlavie. Progresul nu te felicită dacă singurul tău aport este o umbră efemeră pe zidurile virtuale, dar supremația faptelor în realitatea concretă depinde totuși de fundamentarea în știință a aportului tău adus progresului.

Leadership: În ce măsură poți folosi accesul la cunoaștere ca pe un reper călăuzitor care să separe elitele de cei neprivilegiați, în efortul de a construi o viziune incluzivă și deschisă către noi posibilități de afirmare?

Departe de a fi un simplu schimb de replici, dialogul a reprezentat un manifest pentru esența umană în era tehnologiei: adevăratul impact se naște nu din cât de des mergi la biserică, ci din profunzimea și autenticitatea contribuțiilor tale la dezvoltarea ştiinţei. Profesorul acesta nu era nicidecum un bastion al dedicării și al înțelepciunii, nu avea darul creatorului de a inspira, îi lipsea evident spiritul căutătorului de comori în teritorii neexplorate. Cumva, el mi-a reamintit că măreția unui cadru didactic derivă mai mult din ego umflat, decât din angajamentul neclintit față de îmbunătățirea condiției umane.

Întâlnirea mea cu profesorul nu a fost doar o lecție despre prioritățile vieții, ci și o interogație asupra semnificației progresului într-o lume interconectată.

În universitățile din România, dar nu numai, se observă constant o tendință îngrijorătoare de comercializare a educației. Accesul la cunoaștere este în continuare condiționat de plata unor sume adesea substanțiale, de aceea educația a devenit un lux pentru "elite" sau pentru cei dispuși și capabili să plătească. În ultimii 30 de ani, învățământul superior s-a transformat într-un „circuit închis", unde cei săraci sau mai puțin privilegiați au fost lăsați pe dinafară. De fapt, această comercializare a educației a întărit disparitățile sociale și încă limitează progresul societăţii pe termen lung. Aşa că singura scăpare, singurul factor de echilibru, este internetul.

Măreția unui vizionar nu derivă din ritualuri sau formalități, ci din angajamentul autentic și inovativ față de progresul uman. Profunzimea contribuțiilor tale la dezvoltarea științifică definesc cu adevărat amprenta ta în lume.

Vederea care stagnează, nu este acţiunea care schimbă, mai ales dacă te bazezi pe considerentul că totul se va rezolva de la sine. Oamenii care nu se implică sunt acei evlavioși care își găsesc scuza în credință pentru a rămâne pasivi.

Educația, când este tratată ca un bun de lux, limitează progresul societății prin excluderea celor defavorizați. Aş zice că în universități, accesul la cunoaștere ar trebui să fie un drept, nu o marfă vândută la prețuri exorbitante. De vină sunt profesorii, lipsiți de orice capacități inovative în direcţiile științifice. De fapt, ei sunt falşii învăţători de care aminteşte biblia !

În ultimii 30 de ani, comercializarea educației a creat un decalaj între cei privilegiați și cei lipsiți de resurse, subminând egalitatea de șanse. Profesorii nu au un blog, nu au nicio activitate online, totul este pus sub cheie într-un circuit închis universitar. Totul se reduce la bani în aceste instituţii !

De aceea internetul, cu ajutorul inteligenței artificiale, a devenit eliberarea din "ghearele diavolului". Internetul oferă șanse tuturor la egalitate în ceea ce privește accesul la informație și procesul de învățare.

Vederea celor tăinuite în adânc

On Decembrie 09, 2014

Realizează transformarea totală a concepţiei despre cine eşti, raportându-te la o experienţă mai adâncă.

Amintirile pe care le adunam nu erau lipsite de valoare. Eram capabil să mă inspir din experienţa vieţii, pe alocuri imprecisă, din lecţiile pline de învăţăminte ale trecutului învolburat de aşteptări înalte, admise de conştiinţa dreaptă care îşi aştepta înţelegător transformarea. Nu m-ar putea înţelege nimeni. Cumva, simţeam că înot prin undele unei ficţiuni transgresive, prin câmpul abandonat al trăirilor misterioase din care se prelingeau înţelesuri şi interpretări variate. Cu cât îmi aminteam mai multe, cu atât totul mi se părea mai fascinant.

Experienţa aceasta sintetizată sub forma unui indice al orientării mele în timp, îmbrăca forma transparentă a unei lămuriri de cu totul alt gen, relevând o răspundere fundamentată obiectiv pe nişte raționamente care mă puteau apropia sau îndepărta de mine însumi. Lămuriri care ar fi putut să încurce acea componentă a concepţiei despre cine aş fi putut fi, în relaţie cu cine am devenit.

Era un fenomen aproape inexplicabil, evoluat într-o chimie imprevizibilă cu prezentul, construit ca un set de concluzii pe mai multe coincidenţe, într-un câmp al ipoteticului reprogramabil. Tot ceea ce încercam să-mi însuşesc din trecut, la nivel de conştiinţă, părea mai degrabă o extensie a legii lui Kirchoff: în orice punct în care se întâlnesc mai multe conductoare, suma intensităţilor curenţilor care vin spre acel punct fiind egală cu suma intensităţilor care pleacă din acel punct.

Prezentul devenea un agent al revelaţiei filtrate prin lentilele aleatorului căreia i se aplica acea tensiune de nepotolit zăcută în adâncul gândurilor ascunse, captive în contextul variat al trecutului. O porţiune neramificată dintr-un circuit al aducerii aminte cu mai multe noduri de ping , trimiţând mesaje echo request către un host emiţător ce analiza evenimentele şi corecta erorile. Trebuia să iau în calcul întârzierea cu care mi se întorceau răspunsurile.

Leadership: Ai nevoie de înţelegerea faptului că în spatele fiecărui scenariu al vieţii stau de fapt emoţiile nedigerate din trecut, pe linia trasată de o conştiinţă care nu mai este captivă în lumea măruntă a Eului?

Care este elementul de care omul nu se poate despărţi, purtat mereu în suflet ca pe un secret nepreţuit, ca pe o temelie a caracterului, ca pe o cicatrice a timpului în deplina cunoaştere a efectelor impactului cu propria conştiinţă? Amintirile. Ele prefigurează orice viitoare configurare a unei lumi care te face să uiţi tot acel "intuneric" al trăirilor şi gândurilor pline de constrângeri care ţi-au marcat într-un fel existenţa.

Amintirile sunt rezultatul unor experienţe de viaţă pe care le-ai bifat la un moment dat ca default pentru deschiderea unor noi orizonturi de cunoaştere de sine, indiferent care ar fi maniera de a înţelege raportul dintre ceea ce constituie un model de înaltă ţinută intelectuală și ceea ce se afirmă ca inovație de excepţie specifică interpretării pe care o dai realităţii.

Cine încearcă să se poziţioneze mai bine în câmpul trăirii unei minunate povești personale de descoperire de sine şi să-şi reinventeze sentimentul de valoare personală trebuie să trăiască la timpul trecut starea numită "minte alertă". Este starea prin care omul încearcă să cunoască ceva nou, să raspundă la întrebările existenţiale care l-au frământat mereu, dintre care: "Ce înseamnă să trăieşti?"

La rândul ei, conştiinţa extrasă din calitatea conţinutului şi a însuşirilor amintirilor, poate fi considerată drept purtătoare a unor valori indirecte, drept suport relevant pentru respectiva combinaţie dintre caracter şi acceptarea de sine care susţin leadershipul. Experienţa de viaţă, fără acest soi de conştiinţă, nu poate prezenta funcţii de corectare a erorilor de personalitate, evidenţiindu-se mai mult sau mai puţin pe una din acele trepte de aşteptare care nu îmbogăţesc funcţionalitatea şi nu deschid noi orizonturi.

O conştiinţă care nu mai este captivă în lumea măruntă a Eului este o izbucnire de energii creatoare, precum viziunea şi forţa intelectuală rebelă, din cuprinsul unei tentative de înţelegere a coordonatelor vieţii care rămân constante în diverse variante interpretative.

Leadership: Îţi manifeşti disponibilitatea de a te plasa într-o zonă de tip „poartă” cu un anterior existenţial care prefigurează orice viitoare configurare a unei lumi care se vrea autonomă?

Aici se cuvinte să apelăm la un citat aparţinând avocatulului specializat în litigii economice, Daniel R. Castro: „ Omul are o dorinţă nesfârşită de a înţelege de ce, aşa încât să poată ataşa o semnificaţie evenimentelor şi a aprecia importanţa lor. ”

Acest amalgam de cunoştinţe, provenite dintr-un trecut neuitat prin prisma amintirilor, care neîncetat bântuie inima, mintea, cugetările, umplându-ne de regrete sau de mulţumiri, poate crea un focar de instabilitate din punct de vedere al trăirilor, dar totodată unul stabil din punct de vedere al reglajului şi preciziei de a trece la etapele de dezvoltare următoare.

Leadershipul, luând ca reper meritul poziţionării tale pe axa timpului, prin întoarcerea la ceea ce îţi este propriu, subiectiv, influenţat de povestea vieţii tale, întâmpină o perspectivă care, de fapt, cuprinde mai multe faze de evoluţie. O fază de investigare a faptelor, o fază de vibraţie cu ceea ce crezi că este bine şi corect, şi o fază de restart care permite schimbarea convingerilor limitative şi dezlănţuirea adevăratului potenţial.

Leadershipul poate funcţiona cel mai bine numai într-un cadru neviciat de impactul experienţelor anterioare, în care semnificativul nu este sufocat de apăsările sufleteşti ascunse. În sprijinul completării personalităţii, analizate în scopul identificării punctelor slabe care pot fi corectate, trebuie să ţinem cont de sfatul marelui om de ştiinţă, Georges Cuvier: "Nu vă lăsaţi furaţi de exterior. Mai importante sunt cele tăinuite în adânc."

A te raporta la o experienţă mai adâncă presupune să te analizezi din perspectiva acelor trăiri care, nefiind date uitării niciodată, îţi transformă realitatea într-un tablou exclusivist care te ajută să priveşti viaţa altfel decât este, mai interesantă, mai conformă înţelesului pe care îl atribui noţiunii de "revelaţie".

Vederea celor tăinuite în adânc desemnează acea lumină a gândului şi a aducerii aminte, din sfera înţelegerii aspectelor mai puţin evidente, dar grăitoare pentru complexitatea propriei alcătuiri şi pentru îmbunătăţirea poziţionării tale într-un context al vieţii care se împletește cu alte roluri, obligatoriu asumate, menite să-ţi maximizeze potenţialul de lider.

Dacă vrei să ataşezi o semnificaţie evenimentelor care te asaltează şi să apreciezi importanţa lor, mai întâi realizează transformarea totală a concepţiei despre cine eşti, raportându-te la o experienţă mai adâncă, la un anterior existenţial care poate genera noi adevăruri despre tine.

Vederea clară ascultă numai de ochii care ştiu să vadă

Degeaba ai ochi ca să vezi, dacă vederea ta nu se încadrează în domeniul interpretării imaginii care te îndeamnă (ca privitor) să îţi extinzi percepţia vizuală în afara "tabloului".

Iau loc pe un scaun din aeroport şi aştept. Este doar un scaun banal, monoton, mărginit, printre alte scaune libere care totuşi au un scop precis: acela de a oferi confort tuturor pasagerilor care urmează să se îmbarce în avion. Într-adevăr, era deja un scaun părăsit când l-am văzut, radiind un soi de tristeţe amară şi de însingurare, ochii trecătorilor percepându-l ca fiind un spaţiu impersonal, un lucru mărginaş, lipsit de istoricitate.

Fără idei, impasibil, netulburat de nimic, scaunul nu pare deloc afectat de percepţiile ochilor străini în situaţia de "fără reacţie" în care el se găseşte. El pur şi simplu așteaptă ca evenimentele să se desfășoare în ritmul lor.

Ceva îmi scapă? Pentru că scaunul acesta, o fuziune perfectă între artă şi ştiinţă, sărmanul meu prieten din aeroport, nu este atât de naiv să creadă că pot să manipulez timpul în favoarea lui, încât să păstrez locul cald următorului venit. El simte că trebuie să plec în doar câteva minute, şi apoi... apoi va fi din nou rece, nepăsător, apatic. Oriunde mă voi duce, îmi voi aminti de acest scaun - asta ca să nu existe interpretări pentru simpla situaţie în care mă regăsesc, pentru că orice variantă aş alege sunt găsit în regulă prin raportare la o singură unitate de măsură: necesitatea de a mă simți mare în fața lucrurilor mici.

Toţi au ocolit acest scaun, au trecut pe lângă el fără să-i acorde atenţia cuvenită, fiind dezinteresaţi de tematica vederii, nepreocupaţi de redarea vizibilului, tangibilului şi definitului la nivelul experienţei sau al emoţiei, prin urmare neputând să-l vadă aşa cum îl vede un artist: printr-un caleidoscop de culori, de gânduri, emoţii, teme sau noi posibilităţi de expresie. Nu-i aşa că nu a văzut nimeni scaunul acesta? A conştientizat careva prezenţa lui? Iar dacă l-a văzut vreun trecător, în afară de mine, cum l-ar fi putut imortaliza într-o imagine accesibilă doar prin intermediul sufletului?

Leadership: Lucrul pe care l-ai ales să se potrivească personalităţii tale te ajută să-ţi utilizezi vederea ca o garanţie a faptului că sufletul tău poate să interacţioneze cu o imagine formată în oglindă?

Lucrurile pe care nimeni nu le vede sunt cele aflate la vedere, chiar în preajma ta. Vai, şi sunt atât de multe lucruri într-o încăpere – cele mai multe din ele fiind trecute cu vederea, la fel de multe câte scaune neocupate se află acum în acest aeroport. Dar, degeaba ai ochi să vezi dacă nu ştii să vezi lucrurile cu un ochi de artist, şi degeaba ai ochi să vezi dacă vederea ta nu se încadrează în domeniul interpretării imaginii care te îndeamnă (ca privitor) să îţi extinzi percepţia vizuală în afara "tabloului".

Iar eu m-am aşezat pe acest scaun singuratic, aşa cum se aşează un pictor în faţa şevaletului, cu spatele drept, cu ochii îndreptaţi spre partea opusă sursei de lumină, şi mi-am exersat privirea din asamblarea însuşirilor acestui obiect vintage autentic, precum: stabilitatea, confortul, flexibilitatea şi funcţionalitatea.

Sunteţi de aceeaşi părere cu mine? Aş spune că vederii de artist îi este necesară acea calitate a ochilor de a focaliza obiectele apropiate ca şi când ar fi nişte personaje "din umbră" care funcţionează perfect doar într-o serie rară de cărţi, prin raportare la un Alphisinous

Escheronaria, un absolut ascuns într-o „realitate invizibilă". Prin urmare, iată ce gândește scaunul cu adevărat despre mine, subliniind că nu i-am mărturisit nimic despre suspiciunile mele vizavi de domnia sa:

- O e un vis, își spune el cu amărăciune, uitându-se în podea fără ca eu să fiu atent la privirea lui, în timp ce murmura: o fi un explorator de legendă sau un nobil de viță veche cu pasiune pentru artă, un bărbat pe cinste, ce mai !

Nici nu-l contrazic, sunt aşa cum crede el că sunt. Şi, până la urmă, scaunul mi-a ţinut companie minute întregi, a zâmbit întruna, mi-a mângâiat realitatea cu acea atingere de căldură pe care sufletul o preţuieşte mult mai bine decât mintea, dar n-a scos niciun cuvânt. Un sentiment copleșitor părea să izvorască din simțirea prezenței lui, relaţional cu ideea de robusteţe, cu putinţa de a reda expresivitatea unui profil de design atent elaborat.

Leadership: Locul în care te afli îţi permite să stabileşti semnificaţiile particulare ale unei imagini fixe de fundal, dincolo de ceea ce privirea normală acceptă ca sugestie pentru proiectarea unei imagini artistice realiste?

Nici dacă eşti premiant la matematică, nici dacă ai trei doctorate în filosofia ştiinţei, nici dacă beneficiezi de titlul de doctor, vederea ta tot n-ar fi fost interesată de fascinația acestui obiect care parcă, într-un moment ca acesta, ar fi vrut să câștige lupta cu timpul. Ca şi când ar fi fost încuiat într-o lume simbolică, într-o apropiere de realitatea artistică, într-un spaţiu impersonal, unde tot ce contează este obţinerea unei imagini statice (o imagine optică sau o imagine grafică) care are nevoie de o panoramă ca să producă o idee, un fenomen estetic, un efect mai mare decât suma efectelor, într-un cadru fix.

Evident, scaunul poartă semnificaţiile unui sentiment copleşitor izvorât din simţirea prezenţei unui pictor care preţuieşte acel lucrul capabil să-i confere o imagine unică, autentică. Aici, spaţiul artistic se extinde cu ajutorul unei priviri "conceptuale" spre o imagine dilatată a realului, revărsându-se nestingherită ca într-o pictură cubistă spre perspectivele remarcabile şi proaspete ale unor lucruri pe care le-aş fi considerat, altminteri, neinteresante. Încă simt că mă aflu sub impresia unui nou univers care se extinde constant folosindu-se de modelele unei asocieri structurale între fragmentele separate de fenomene, nuanțe subtile, reflexii, umbre, emoții nedefinite, toate sub copertina unei explorări subiective de locuri, fapte, procese și concepte definitorii.

Scaunul mi-a cântărit rapid greutatea corporală, mi-a luat pulsul, mi-a simţit vibrația sufletului şi nu m-a privit deloc cu suspiciune, dându-şi seama că repetă ceva absolut ridicol: sentimentul de a fi expus unui același Visus Supra Imaginationem (vederea dincolo de imaginaţie), la modul că nu trebuie să fie influenţat semnificativ de puterea de acomodaţie a ochiului meu cu realitatea lui, astfel încât prin ochii mei el să-şi menţină statutul de idee personificată.

Leadershipul survine în împrejurarea în care lucrul care îţi atrage atenţia, şi pe care vederea ta îl consideră ca fiind purtătorul unei imagini universaliste, devine reflectarea anumitor circumstanțe legate de meritul tău de a pune suflet în tot ceea ce îţi oferă inspiraţie.

Nu uita că orice lucru din jur este o reflectare a lumii tale interioare. Uite, alege chiar acum un lucru din jurul tău, căruia nu i-ai acordat nicio atenţie. Ce anume poate să spună el despre tine? Ce anume poţi spune tu despre el, aşa încât el să devină o reflectare a sufletului tău?

Vederea clară ascultă numai de ochii care ştiu să vadă, şi spun asta gândindu-mă că ceea ce am văzut la un scaun părăsit în aeroport, însufleţit doar de mirajul unei imagini care poate deveni amintire, dincolo de ceea ce privirea normală ar fi acceptat ca sugestie pentru proiectarea unei imagini artistice realiste, reprezintă de fapt explorarea unei lumi necunoscute, dar apropiată de orizontul propriei mele înţelegeri.

Cumva, prezența mea acolo în aeroport, însuflețind toate lucrurile din jur, ar fi putut merge și mai departe de atât: scaunul acesta era cât se poate de plăcut în asemenea momente în care așteptare devenea tot mai confortabilă, făcându-mă să mă simt ca un "decor influencer" care ştie să amestece elementele din jur în aşa fel încât să obţină o imagine aparte.

Vederea dublă a ochilor din care provine inspiraţia

On Octombrie 12, 2022

Încearcă să ilustrezi o imagine a prezentului în care afli, ştiind că ceea ce vezi depinde numai de ceea ce aştepţi să vezi.

Marea m-a învăţat să privesc nisipul ca pe o parte din vastitatea de ei. Aplicând acest aspect în cazul științei, prezentată în genere ca o expansiune a infinitului în finit, unde nisipului nu i se pot număra boabele, și unde valurilor nu li se poate reduce numărul, conchid că din punct de vedere ideal părţile care se leagă de eternitate, de ceea ce e cu adevărat întreg, depind de existenţa simultană, în valoare absolută, a tuturor elementelor de imagine dispuse în intervalul de timp alocat unui cadru de referinţă absolut: prezentul.

Aici, şi numai acum, trebuie să folosesc procedeul FREEZE (îngheţarea imaginii), potrivit unghiului de privire ales, ca să disting părţile ce nu se prezintă separat de întreg şi, astfel, să evit conflictul pe care-l produce iluzia tridimensională într-o suprafaţă plană, mult prea întinsă.

Mă surprind şi eu, adesea, că mă frapează câte o scenă augmentată 3D, mă străpunge o senzaţie venită de undeva din altă parte decât de aici, pe care aş vrea să o reţin pe retina memoriei pentru valoarea ei unică şi irepetabilă. Căci ori de câte ori privesc suprafaţa mării, spaţiul acesta mistic, sugerând valoarea tăcerii, mă simt ca şi când aş intra într-o lume aflată dincolo de sfera mea de experienţă, fără să pot face vreo schimbare într-o realitate care oferă mai multe decât un miraj virtual. Da, este o realitate incompletă. Cu toate astea, ea oferă privitorului posibilitatea să își imagineze modalități variate de a completa o narațiune ciclică, plină de vigoare şi captivantă, despre vizionarii al căror zel şi imaginaţie concurează cu marile descoperiri ale ştiinţei actuale.

Leadership: Poţi să formezi un nou model de realitate atunci când reconstitui o singură imagine din percepția a două imagini plane și diferite, provenind din fiecare ochi?

Ochii îmi sunt încă prinşi între suprapunerile a două imagini transformatoare: una numită Syternathis (manifestarea adoraţiei pentru miracolul realităţii) şi cealaltă numită Terrsenauthis (fondul unei amintiri care nu se uită niciodată), fiecare din ele având rolul de a stabili identitatea unei alte dimensiuni a creaţiei care răspunde într-un mod mai profund ideii formulate de scriitorul Mario Vargas Llosa: „Ficţiunea nu este viaţa trăită, ci altă viaţă inventată cu materiale oferite de prima viaţă şi fără de care viaţa adevărată ar fi mai sordidă şi mai sărăcăcioasă decât este."

Şi încă îmi cunosc ochii atât de bine, şi-n suflet îmi scrutează ei orizonturile, ca-n poveşti, cu intensitatea efectivă a unei lumini intermitente egală cu intensitatea unei lumini fixe, încât reuşesc să sprijin menţinerea funcţiei cognitive şi a unei vederi optime. Sunt convins de acest lucru, fiindcă astfel pot să explorez uşor, în manieră proprie, adevărurile profunde ale unei lumi care parcă mă absoarbe înăuntrul ei, dar nu se scufundă niciodată.

Cu intensitatea trăirii unui moment de adâncire în ireal, extinzând sfera de lumină din jurul unui câmp cosmic de energie care interacţionează cu tot ceea ce există în jur, îmi asum o inspiraţie brodată pe marginea adevărului suprem: "ceea ce văd depinde de ceea ce mă aştept să văd."

Leadership: Poţi să creezi o reprezentare vizuală care să comunice acele emoţii exprimate prin vizualizarea a două imagini separate sau suprapuse ale aceluiași moment de reflecţie?

Iar când privesc marea, cu visare şi cu nostalgie, mă gândesc ce s-ar întâmpla dacă vântul serii de toamnă târzie ar lua nisipul şi l-ar duce în depărtări senine unde, nu există viaţă, şi nici moarte, ci doar un imens haos întunecat şi rece. Cum ar mai putea visătorul să fie prins în vraja mării încă de la primele pagini al romanului său neterminat, cum ar putea el să simtă fiecare trăire a protagonistului care parcă îl ştie de-o viață, el însuşi fiind propria lui creaţie?

N-am niciun dubiu că ceea ce îmi întăreşte şi mai mult pretenţia de autenticitate este tocmai "vederea dublă", adică vizualizarea a două imagini separate sau suprapuse ale aceluiași moment de reflecţie, atunci când ar trebui să fie văzută doar una singură. Eu şi creatorul, regizorul şi personajul-narator al aceluiaşi roman.

În acest caz, imaginile cu care mă confrunt, cele care mă frapează sau mă emoţionează, pot fi alăturate, una deasupra celeilalte sau o combinație a celor două. O imagine în care marea îşi sparge valurile pe nisipul fin al unei plaje mirifice, valurile muşcând din nisipul plajei, ducându-l spre largul mării. Şi o imagine în care eu sunt strâns legat de natură, unde dorul după o lume nouă, în sublimul unei demonstraţii de o clipă, este personificat prin zborul firelor de nisip purtate de vânt odată cu trecerea timpului, amintirile înconjurându-mă ca nişte pescăruşi ce-şi iau zborul spre infinit.

Declararea leadershipului în spaţiul creaţiei se realizează prin intermediul unei imagini în care te implici emoţional, cu menţiunea ca ceea ce se vede în imagine, şi căreia i se asociază o sursă a amintirilor, este o descriere a ceea ce stă în puterea ta să reinventezi.

Tu poţi să reinventezi povestea vieţii tale apelând la forţa sugestiva a unei imagini?

Vederea dublă a ochilor din care provine inspiraţia este strâns legată de două imagini surprinse simultan, dar percepute diferit: una care te face să te pierzi pentru minute bune într-un vis frumos, şi alta care se realizează „aici și acum”, în condițiile acțiunii stimulilor și obiectelor asupra organelor de simț.

În Coran, există un paragraf care mi-a atras atenţia de curând: “Dumnezeu l-a ţinut mort pe un om o sută de ani, apoi l-a înviat şi l-a întrebat. Cât ai zăcut acolo? Iar omul a răspuns: O zi, sau chiar mai puţin.”

La fel de bine ştiu şi eu cum e cu timpul şi cu spaţiul în care mi-am petrecut timpul. La un moment dat am visat că alergam pe nisipul pustiu, înconjurat numai de mare, având în faţă un orizont foarte vast. Nu izbuteam să-mi dau seama dacă se va sfârşi marea sau nisipul. Apoi m-am trezit din vis. Şi nici până în ziua de azi n-am încetat să-mi amintesc visul acesta în care am rătăcit cu orele, fără să mă trezesc. Vis pe care uneori îl creează un artist, şi de o mie de ori îl plămădeşte viaţa...

Vederea îşi urmează ochii oriunde există o imagine figurativă

Ochii nu pot să distingă întotdeauna forma necesară unei reprezentări intuitive, dar pot să tolereze mai uşor sensul cuprinzător al unei figuri-cheie aflată în poziţie verticală.

Ochii mei încă n-au uitat să vadă aspectele idealizate ale lumii vizibile, la fel cum n-au uitat să vadă mediul real sau logic în care se dispun lucrurile în spaţiu pictural, întrucât vederea se îmbunătăţeşte de la observaţie la observaţie, de la generalizare la generalizare, cu ajutorul unei viziuni pătrunzătoare şi unificate.

Şi fiindcă ochii artistului sesizează chiar şi cea mai mică alterare a strălucirii diamantului, precum şi cea mai mică pată de culoare dintr-un tablou abstract, chiar şi o fărâmă de lumină închegată, rătăcită pe pământ, sunt de acord întru totul să-mi dedic atenţia unei sarcini mult mai dificile: să simt prin văz frumuseţea unui fir de iarbă. Doar atât, să simt, să văd, să gust acea tehnică a sugestiei generatoare de emoţii vagi, prin observarea acestei imagini pline de sensibilitate.

Fragil, suav și plăcut vederii artistice, firul acesta de iarbă merge pe linia adevărului, nu a imitației, iar spiritul i-a rămas liber. Este mereu surprins în poziţie verticală, precum un ac de seringă ce nu trebuie sterilizat cu o privire insistentă ca să se simtă util în observaţia cuiva. Simpla lui prezență reduce la tăcere orice tumult, orice torent de argumente şi trăiri. Privit îndeaproape, decojt de aparenţă, îndepărtându-se de sfera clarobscurului, el se păstrează numai în sfera unui colorit simplu şi banal, fapt ce îmi aminteşte de privirea scrutătoare asupra unui monument de contemplaţie când omul redescoperă lumea şi se regăseşte pe sine, neverosimil modificat în timp.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi îmbunătăţeşti capacitatea de a cuprinde un ansamblu şi totodată de a înregistra detaliile semnificative, plasând elementele din planul apropiat în relaţie perceptivă cu conţinutul unei imagini parţial figurative?

Prin linii întortocheate şi reflectate de lumina solară, în ceea ce priveşte activitatea de asigurare a transparenţei şi uniformităţii unui ANONIMAT divers, ochii nu pot distinge verosimilul unui efect artistic, forma necesară unei reprezentări intuitive, dar pot să tolereze mai uşor sensul cuprinzător al unei figuri cheie aflată într-o corespondenţă directă cu linia verticală din cadrul geometriei plane.

Şi de această dată, capacitatea de a cuprinde un ansamblu şi totodată de a înregistra detaliile semnificative, uneori supraestimând proporţia dintre închipuire şi scânteia unui dor de frumusețile naturii neaoșe, îmi schimbă în mod repetat vederea şi o angajează într-un fel de interogaţie sau investigaţie, de la depărtare la apropiere și înapoi.

Într-un fel, mă simt urmărit de datoria artistică de a vedea firul de iarbă ca pe ca un fel de forță eternă, vie, impregnată cu un misticism al cărui început a fost alchimia arabă, un misticism al cărui secret nu îndrăznește nimeni să-l pătrundă. Sunt, nu-i aşa, autorul unei picturi care depăşeşte operele omeneşti prin subtile speculaţii. Şi, se vede că tot mai mult îmi asum forţa de a întrevedea frumuseţea acolo unde nu aşteaptă nimeni să o găsească în mod natural.

După aceste considerații pot reduce imaginea unui fir de iarbă orientat către simțire, nu către formă, la acea noblețe a calmului, a sănătății, a deschiderii către preocupările impresioniștilor, mai mult prin intermediul luminii decât al umbrei. Posedând o forță superioară de exprimare a realului, departe de contrastele violente ale altor culori, pripite și stridente, firului de iarbă i se poate atribui nu doar calmul în măreție, ci și acea latură simbolică pe care o dobândește un tablou semnat Pablo Picasso.

Leadership: Poţi să pătrunzi prin sensibil în inteligibil cu ajutorul proiecţiei unui orizont lăsat în voia geometriei, dar şi al mirajelor înlănţuite de reverii cromatice?

Cu profunzimea dată de stupoarea admirativă într-un spaţiu redus la o reverie a infinitului, plasând elementele din planul apropiat în relaţie perceptivă cu conţinutul unei imagini parţial figurative, voi încerca prin sensibil să pătrund în inteligibil, cu ajutorul proiecţiei unui orizont lăsat în voia geometriei, dar şi al mirajelor înlănţuite de reverii cromatice.

Chiar dacă pentru unii acest tablou pare lipsit de viață, sau neatrăgând atenția nimănui, el totuși este conceput în sensul acela al liniștii, ca un fel de mandală ce acționează cu efect de psihoterapie, autohipnoză, conversație cu sine. Este un fel de Sondirthimia , ceva este de natură nobilă, determinat prin forme de natură intelectuală în acest tablou în care o rază de soare răzleață, pogorâtă din cer, din mâna nevăzută dar simţită a marelui Dumnezeu, îţi dă o veste bună: "Tot ce este frumos reprezintă de fapt o nouă modalitate vizuală de a organiza idei, de a crea legături și relații între lucruri".

Totodată, pe linia pe care o trasează ochiul de artist datorită stimulării vizuale suficiente, trebuie să văd în câmpul firelor de iarbă principalele elemente ale frumuseţii matematicii: ordinea, simetria şi determinarea, aşa cum sunt ele exprimate de Proclus în "Comentariile asupra lui Euclid":

"ORDINEA se constată în geneza secundarului şi multiplului din ceea ce este primordial şi simplu. Căci întotdeauna următorul depinde de antecedent şi unul are valoarea de principiu, celălalt are valoarea de consecinţă din cele mai înalte supoziţii. SIMETRIA" se observă în concordanţa reciprocă a demonstraţiilor. Iar DETERMINAREA se observă în ideile invariabile şi durabile, căci cunoştinţele sale nu sunt în continuă schimbare cum se întâmplă cu simplele opinii şi cu percepţiile simţurilor, ci ea se expune totdeauna prin forme de existenţă intelectuală. Dacă frumuseţea se sprijină în special pe aceste puncte, iar matematica îşi capătă profilul său tocmai prin aceasta, atunci este evident că şi matematicii i se poate atribui frumosul."

Când leadershipul provine din sesizarea unor aspecte specifice percepţiei, concentrând într-un spaţiu infim totalitatea universului, abia atunci spaţiul artei (în care se adună viaţa sau crâmpei din aceasta) capătă virtuţi autonome de expresie şi semnificare.

Acestea fiind spuse, conchid ca ceea ce socotesc a fi pe plac ochiului sensibil al artistului, vrând să stăpânească realitatea, nu s-o modifice sau s-o exploateze, este acea perfectă solidaritate estetică când fiecare punct, fiecare linie şi fiecare formă în parte se integrează armonios cu ansamblul, creând impresia de totalitate.

Vederea își urmează ochii oriunde există o imagine figurativă, dovedind că rolul artistului-ilustrator nu este cel de observator neutru al realității, ci de a asimila vizualitatea unui ansamblu nelimitat de forme, culori, elemente plastice, mai ales de a exprima o vizualitate a cărei frumusețe se lasă mai greu descoperită, pentru a o preface în act spiritual.

Sensul cuprinzător al unei figuri-cheie aflată în poziţie verticală este acesta: oricât de mult mi-aş înălţa vibraţiile la frecvenţele dimensionale ale Pământului, privirea nu va înceta să penduleze între realitate şi ficţiune.

Vederea lăuntrică dezvăluie noi orizonturi

On Septembrie 25, 2024

Un lider inspirațional vede dincolo de ambiția arzătoare, accesând o mistică interioară care transcende limitele obișnuite și deschide noi orizonturi.

Sora mea, Oana Fântânaru, a obținut în acest an numeroase medalii la concursurile de semi-maraton montan. Laudabile recorduri. Dar toate aceste binemeritate medalii, aceste realizări se datorează antrenamentelor zilnice desfășurate pe fondul dăruirii și perseverenței. Iar antrenamentele sale nu erau simple pregătiri; deveneau o formă de meditație dinamică, un echilibru delicat între forță brută și claritate mentală, un "dans" între minte și trup, asemenea unui yoga al mișcării. Respirația devenea mantra, iar pașii - versuri ale unui poem nesfârșit, în care fiecare detaliu conta. Era ca și cum întregul univers se plia în jurul ritmului ei, susținându-i cursa, ghidându-i direcția. Alergarea se transforma într-un pact sacru, o unire cu forțele naturii, în care scopul nu era doar atingerea unei limite fizice, ci transcenderea acesteia, spre acea perfecțiune mentală și spirituală.

Calea către recorduri nu era iluminată doar de ambiția arzătoare, ci de o mistică interioară. Această mistică, însă, nu era ușor de definit; părea să vină din adâncurile ei, dintr-un loc inaccesibil rațiunii obișnuite. Era ca și cum o energie subtilă, nevăzută, îi însoțea fiecare pas, ghidând-o nu doar pe traseul fizic, dar și pe cel interior, către o conștientizare mai înaltă a propriilor posibilități. Această energie era ghidul său tainic, lumina neapropiată ce o conducea departe de îndoieli, căci alergarea devenea o formă de rugăciune, un apel la divinitate, o invitație la comuniunea cu esența pură a vieții.

Își optimiza antrenamentele nu prin tehnici clasice sau reguli stricte, ci printr-o permanentă dialogare cu propriul corp și propria minte. Fiecare ajustare era o cale spre o mai mare conștientizare, fiecare ajustare un pas către perfecțiune, nu doar a tehnicii, ci a sufletului. Alergarea, pentru Oana, era un ritual sacru, un moment de comuniune cu forțele invizibile, cu acea materie subtilă care există dincolo de percepția obișnuită. Era ca și cum fiecare alergare devenea o rugăciune, iar drumul, o cale sacră de autocunoaștere și de apropiere de divinul din sine.

Leadershipul constă în ghidarea pașilor către autodepășire prin comuniunea dintre minte, trup și forțele subtile care definesc destinul.

Astfel, antrenamentele de alergare ale Oanei nu mai erau doar o pregătire pentru performanță, ci o călătorie spirituală, în care corpul și sufletul se împleteau într-o armonie perfectă. Fiecare moment pe traseu îi dezvăluia o altă fațetă a existenței sale, o altă parte din acea energie universală ce curge prin toți și toate, dar pe care puțini o simt cu adevărat. Pentru Oana, alergarea era un mod de a se reconecta nu doar cu natura, ci și cu acea parte din ea însăși care tindea spre infinit. În fiecare pas era un univers ascuns, iar alergarea nu mai era doar un sport, ci o formă de artă, un dans cosmic pe care îl repeta, zi de zi, cu o precizie aproape divină.

Vederea clară a propriului scop se reflectă în fiecare pas pe traseu. Așadar, fiecare competiție nu era doar o probă de viteză sau de rezistență, ci o încercare de a ajunge tot mai aproape de acea esență pură, acea energie care părea să pulseze sub fiecare fir de iarbă, sub fiecare răsuflare de vânt. Alergarea o transforma, o elibera de toate constrângerile cotidiene, o învăța să asculte ritmul tainic al lumii, să devină una cu tot ce o înconjoară.

În definitiv, alergarea era mai mult decât o provocare sportivă; era o chemare spre sine, spre acel "acolo" inaccesibil ochilor exteriori, dar atât de viu și de prezent în fiecare pas, în fiecare moment trăit pe culmile vieții. Era, într-un fel, drumul ei spre veșnicie. Aici trebuie o precizare: nu doar alergarea fizică, ci și cea spirituală îi contura calea spre autodescoperire. Efortul fizic constant poate deveni o meditație în mișcare, echilibrând mintea și trupul într-o uniune perfectă.

Leadershipul adevărat nu se măsoară în recorduri, ci în capacitatea de a transforma fiecare obstacol într-un moment de conștientizare și evoluție personală.

În timpul antrenamentelor de alergare, corpul și sufletul sunt supuse unor forțe de armonie și echilibru, ceea ce le permite să atingă o stare de transformare profundă. Fiecare pas al acestei călătorii spirituale este important pentru a ajunge la o pregătire atât fizică, cât și mentală. Existența umană trebuie să fie rezistentă, dar și flexibilă, pentru a se adapta la complexitățile vieții. Controlul asupra energiei interioare este esențial pentru a menține echilibrul între minte și trup, iar fiecare mic detaliu în ritmul alergării poate avea un impact major asupra artei pe care o reprezintă această formă de sport.

Pentru a iniția o călătorie spirituală bine proiectată, este esențial să respectăm principiile de armonizare a corpului și sufletului. Fiecare pas trebuie să fie clar definit și să îndeplinească o funcție specifică. Scopul armoniei este de a permite o dezvoltare eficientă, iar energia universală urmărește să asigure o interacțiune armonioasă între diferitele universuri ascunse. Transformarea continuă și analiza performanței spirituale sunt fundamentale pentru a identifica erorile și a optimiza sistemul interior. Performanța unei alergări nu este doar o chestiune de viteză, ci și de stabilitate și eliberare, permițând corpului și sufletului să evolueze în mod constant spre infinit.

Așadar, alergarea nu este doar un mijloc de a atinge o performanță fizică, ci devine o călătorie către veșnicie. Fiecare competiție este o oportunitate de a ajunge mai aproape de acea esență pură, o experiență care transcende constrângerile cotidiene și ne reconectează cu universul din noi înșine.

Leadershipul este acea formă de rugăciune activă, un echilibru între forța brută și meditația profundă, care duce la o perfecționare continuă.

Mai bine zis, alergarea Oanei funcționează ca un circuit spiritual complex, permițând fluxul controlat al energiei universale. Componentele precum respirația, pașii și bătăile inimii modulează intensitatea experienței, creând efecte specifice de armonie și reconectare. Legea efortului descrie relația dintre distanță, viteză și rezistență interioară, fiind esențială în proiectarea antrenamentelor.

Energia subtilă ce însoțește fiecare pas poate fi văzută doar de ochiul interior, atent și concentrat. Aș zice că fiecare cursă devine un circuit elaborat care procesează semnalele corpului, stochează amintiri și efectuează calcule subconștiente, formând baza transformării personale. Alergarea nu este doar o activitate fizică, ci un dans cosmic pe traseul infinitului, unde Oana devine atât conductor, cât și curent, într-un circuit ce tinde spre veșnicie.

Leadershipul înseamnă să îți conduci călătoria nu doar prin ambiție, ci printr-o legătură sacră cu propriul potențial interior și lumea din jur.

Vederea lăuntrică dezvăluie noi orizonturi atunci când mintea și corpul se aliniază într-o armonie profundă, permițând accesul la sursa autentică a energiei interioare. Mai ales când reușești să te eliberezi de distrageri și să te concentrezi pe momentul prezent, descoperind forța latentă din tine însuți.

Vederea nu se mulţumeşte doar cu decorul care place ochiului

În leadership, la fel ca şi în artă, nu este vorba doar de a surprinde ceva cu privirea, ci de a simţi totul cu ajutorul vederii periferice.

Vederea ochilor mei, ca element definitoriu într-o creaţie artistică a cărei principală trăsătură este autenticitatea, surprinde mereu şi mereu, ca o fotografie adusă la viaţă într-un prezent mult prea grăbit, acea realitate pe care pictorii o abordează printr-o stato d'animo chiamato grandezza, încât propria-mi lume pare să sfideze înrudirile posibile cu provocările unei generaţii aflate între experiment şi divertisment. Şi cum s-ar putea stimula creaţia unei naturi sensibile altfel decât urmărind cu atenţie, cu sufletul şi mintea, destinul transformărilor minore sau majore din planul evoluţiei formelor de expresie vizuală.

Chiar acum privesc în zare. O imagine inimaginabilă, plăcută ochiului, cu marea albastră strălucind ca un covor luminos, pe care îmi este greu s-o deosebesc de simbolul împlinirii unui vis neobişnuit: Serintoyphia Cuseffer , visul despre eternitate din care nu te mai trezeşti niciodată pentru a muri. Şi uitaţi cum îmi apare marea: precum tabloul unei vieţi solitare şi liniştite aflat departe de forfota de fiecare zi a societăţii. Pentru alţii, ea apare ca simbol al infinitului secular, dar şi ca un element multilateral care face legătura abstractă între planul terestru şi cel cosmic, prin faptul că atinge linia orizontului care pare a despărţi cerul de suprafaţa Pământului.

La rândul lui, visul plăsmuit din însăşi simţul primordial (prin care sunt determinate forma, mărimea, înălţimea şi lungimea unui spaţiu privat, neocupat de descompunerile profanatoare ale devenirii) tinde să mă închidă într-un triunghi al Bermudelor unde lucrurile dispar fără să le pot găsi o explicaţie. Se pare că mi-am văzut răpit visul de o altă privire, provenită dintr-o altă lume, aruncată într-o vastă operă a pictorului Jim Warren, şi am realizat că ceea ce dispare din faţa ochilor mei nu este doar realitatea consumată prin melancolie sau adoraţie, ci şi actul de savantă imitare a naturii. Nu pot să copiez ceva care se face nevăzut în faţa unei vederi care judecă totul după formă şi culoare...

Leadership: Este posibilă definirea unei imagini cât mai sugestive prin realizarea unui JOIN între o vedere estetică şi o vedere asupra sinelui, incluzând clauza GROUP BY "unidirectional interaction"?

Îndărătul valurilor, la capătul celălalt al privirii, stă ascunsă o forţă imensă de atracţie: bogăția, frumusețea și marea diversitate a formelor de viață pe care le-a creat natura. Peștișori colorați și recifurile uimitoare de corali, toate sunt găzduite într-un spaţiu relativ restrâns al fiinţei mele. Închid ochii și le simt, le simt în centrul inimii. Dar timpul le va şterge pe toate încet şi nu va mai rămâne nimic, la fel cum natura senzaţiilor şi acuitatea vizuală se deteriorează pe măsură ce îmbătrânim şi, în cele din urmă, toate dispar din câmpul utilităţii artistice imediate.

Nu este vorba numai de a surprinde ceva cu privirea, ci de a simţi cu ajutorul vederii periferice care se referă la viziunea laterală a ochiului, permiţându-mi să văd obiectele din jur fără a fi nevoie să întorc capul sau să-mi mișc ochii. Încercare, de altfel, mult prea temerară. Cumva, marea însăşi, cu ale ei valuri sclipitoare în lumina cerului, îmi eclipsează vederea cu ale ei minuni ce nu pot fi surprinse totdeauna în imagini, provocând o dilatare a lumii mele interioare, a fiinţei în care se zbate, cu atâta îndoială, profunzimea unei cunoaşteri metafizice.

Dacă nu ar exista zborul imaginaţiei, deschizând spaţiul profunzimilor unei lumi ce îşi orânduieşte mersul în adâncul omului, atunci spectatorul ar fi complet dezorientat la vederea lucrurilor care se învârtesc în toate sensurile, aduse de valuri la ţărm, în jocurile de lumini şi umbre ce sunt încredinţate să evidenţieze piste proaspăt trasate cu contururi bizare şi deconcertate, urmărindu-le cu degetul pentru a afla unde duc şi de ce au fost deschise.

Nu-i aşa că ochii dispun de suprema validare a profunzimii spiritului? De altfel, gândirea periferică înseamnă să percepi realitatea care ţi se relevă în faţă, doar ceea ce există în prim plan, acest "acum" atât de magic şi de plin de posibilităţi, fără a-ţi pierde concentrarea asupra simbiozei dintre formă și culoare în timp ce aderi la o viziune care la început pare să poarte un caracter utopic.

Deci, pot spune că interacţiunea unidirecţională între vederea estetică şi cea utilă se poate realiza prin intermediul creării unei imagini duble: o imagine în care tu însuţi te oglindeşti în tot ceea ce te înconjoară şi o imagine în care totul arată diferit faţă de realitate. Ca artist, va trebui să îţi formezi din această imagine dublă o altă imagine în care culorile sunt alăturate, dar fără a se combina între ele, exact ca într-un tablou impresionist.

Leadership: Se poate oare sincroniza vederea ta, trecută prin izolarea Sinelui de lume, concomitent cu reflectarea asupra unei imagini care continuă să persiste în subconştient?

Or așa cum lumina influențează nemijlocit întunericul, tot așa felul cum eu privesc valurile, prin actul replăsmuirii idealului în real, mă îndeamnă să inițiez în mod cu totul independent reprezentarea unei forme de comparație față de efectele naturale și artistice ale culorilor. În special combinația albastru cu verde. Dar se poate oare sincroniza vederea mea, trecută prin izolarea eului de lume, simultan cu reflectarea asupra unei imagini care continuă să persiste în subconştient?

Uitaţi cum se manifestă acest univers lăuntric în personajul Miranda, dintr-un celebru roman al lui John Fowles:

"Întuneric, întuneric şi iar întuneric. Nu numai că n-am mai avut senzaţia asta niciodată, dar nici nu mi-am imaginat că e posibilă. E mai mult decât ură, mai mult decât disperare. Nu poţi să urăşti ceea ce nu poţi atinge. Nici măcar nu poţi să simţi ceea ce majoritatea oamenilor consideră că este disperare. E ceva dincolo de disperare. E ca şi când n-aş mai putea simţi absolut nimic. Văd, dar nu pot simţi. O, Dumnezeule, dacă există un Dumnezeu. Urăsc dincolo de ură."

Da, după cum vedeţi, îmi place marea. O privesc ca pe un foc lăuntric, o văpaie care-mi mistuie sufletul, dar nu întotdeauna o privesc cu bucurie, cu inspiraţie şi cu dor. Uneori, se întâmplă s-o privesc cu durere și suferință, simţind cum ea se îndepărtează de mine, estompându-se într-o umbră albastră la orizontul îndepărtat, ca un fel de incertitudine a artei picturale. Da, văd marea, dar nu pot întotdeauna să simt dispoziţia ei fericită pentru pictură, chiar dacă este imaginea de fundal a modelului meu de univers în plan artistic.

O vedere trecută prin izolarea Sinelui meu de lume se referă la acea zonă de cuprindere a realităţii care nu a fost încă întrezărită, nu a fost scoasă în evidenţă datorită faptului că sunt adânc înrădăcinat într-un amestec de "ideal greu de transpus în imagine" şi acea zvâcnire a inimii mult mai puternică decât amintirea propriu-zisă.

Vederea nu se mulţumeşte doar cu decorul care place ochiului, ci trebuie stimulată de acea putere interioară și de asumarea de care e nevoie pentru a recunoaște că nu poți lupta cu umbra lucrurilor care nu se văd într-un tablou plin de culoare.

Ia aminte ! Viaţa ta găzduieşte imaginile cele mai frecvente din visele tale, într-un spaţiu relativ restrâns pe care mintea îl poate folosi în ghidarea interioară ca pe un exerciţiu artistic, sau ca pe un privilegiu ceresc, sau ca pe un soi de transformator simbolic care schimbă toate informațiile din paradisul amintirilor.

Vederea ochilor care îşi reconsideră privirea

On August 02, 2021

Cea mai mare greşeală a unui artist este să încerce să prindă din urmă acel „foarte târziu", rigid și taciturn, care anulează orice expresivitate estetică.

Am alergat ieri la cursa de 15 km, de fapt au fost vreo 17 km. Și alergam, uneori mă opream, priveam în jur, admiram peisajele pe care soarele le face întotdeauna pline de căldura unei lumi de basm. Cred că soarele iubește munții, comunică cu natura, dar face deseori cu ochiul mai ales alergătorilor care știu să admire frumusețile unei vieți simple, să îndepărteze perdeaua rutinei și să pătrundă într-o altă realitate.

Spun asta fiindcă am învățat să apreciez o alergare fără viteză, fără rezistență, fără dorința de a fi printre cei mai buni. În acest caz, mi se pare firesc să apreciez bucuria momentului și să dau o valoare imensă bucuriei pe care numai artistul o simte atunci când vederea lui începe să dea strălucire tonurilor pe care se întemeiază cromatica lucrării sale.

Este explicabil cum poate un atlet să vadă totul prin ochii artistului: punându-şi la încercare privirea, alunecând în voie de la un element de decor la altul, receptând ceea ce se află dincolo de cuvinte.

Dacă alergi fără să te bucuri de frumuseţea peisajului este ca atunci când soarele încearcă să îşi strecoare razele strălucitoare printr-o pânză deasă de tifon: nu vei cunoaşte niciodată pe deplin trecerea de la o culoare la alta. Iată ce înseamnă să alergi doar pentru câștigarea unui loc pe podium: este reflectarea unei frânturi din frumusețile trecătoare ale vieții, este o experienţă a rupturii de imaginar, o ezitare în fixarea accentului pe revelarea contrastelor de forme şi tonalităţi, o cruce strălucind ca o flacără silenţioasă (întrebuințată ca simbol al unei superiorităţi evanescente).

Este prea târziu să mai dau timpul înapoi ca să mai privesc o dată la ceea ce ochii mei au pierdut din vedere: obţinerea unui loc binemeritat pe podium. Pentru moment, mă mărginesc să notez că un om care privește în jur și nu știe cu ce să își bucure ochii, este prizonierul unui context al performanței care nu va fi niciodată mulțumitoare. Asta înseamnă să fii viu în unitatea ta, dar mort în totalitatea ta.

Leadership: Eşti nevoit să porneşti de la constatarea unei realităţi oarecum neaşteptate, ca să poţi să exprimi într-un mod deosebit ceea ce e dincolo de orizontul vizibil?

Chiar și cel mai îndepărtat ascunziș al locurilor pe lângă care treceam își restituia secretele, tablou după tablou, eveniment după eveniment. Iar dacă voi participa la viitoarele curse de running, voi fi mai atent să nu pierd din vedere frumusețea naturii, priveliștile minunate, aspectele diferite ale locurilor. Sunt sigur că ochii mei limpezi, veseli, inconfundabili, vor rămâne deschişi în faţa oricăror imagini de vis cărora numai pictorii ştiu să le citească fundalul plin de viaţă, adaptându-l la alcătuirea unei realități alternative, transcendente, simbolice.

Vă rog mult, consideraţi-mi spusele drept o mărturie a faptului că tot ceea ce ochii mei au observat în jur poate să atragă atenţia asupra unei revelaţii producătoare de sens ultim, Evedeschantiss , adică ceea ce a devenit inspiraţie este tocmai rodul a ceea ce am admirat cu precădere. Căci ochii a căror vedere seamănă a vis sunt ochii a căror vedere nu se închid după miezul nopții, şi a căror sclipire se întrezăreşte de fiecare dată când lumina atinge un model repetat de unghiuri și râuri.

Aşadar, se observă tendința care predomină în spațiul artiștilor, afirmând gândirea lor dominantă: ei adună laolaltă tot ce văd, și transformă totul într-o amintire de lungă durată.

În consecinţă, un ochi clarvăzător nu este niciodată un ochi care fuge, ci unul care vede de departe ceea ce este destul de aproape. Am ajuns un pic mai târziu la finnish, dar fondul estetic pe care se desfăşoară înţelegerea propriu-zisă a reprezentărilor naturii mi-a deschis un orizont mult mai spectaculos, cărora numai ochii cu adevărat pătrunzători îi pot cuprinde imensitatea.

Leadership: Ce anume a generat în realitatea ta adevărul că dincolo de orizontul pe care îl ai în vedere se afla acea linie vizibilă a evoluţiei artistice indicată de tendinţa Eului tău Înalt de a uita anumite conţinuturi încărcate afectiv?

Vederea peisajelor splendide m-au făcut să uit de dorinţele şi acţiunile riscante care m-ar fi putut conduce la ocuparea unui loc pe podium. Frumuseţea naturii, egalată de frumuseţea sufletului, sunt mult mai importante decât un obiectiv îndepărtat care nu-ţi asigură celebritatea, ci doar justificarea unei mândrii eliberată în doze mici şi pentru durate reduse.

În timp ce ochii mei priveau măreţia naturii, încercam să mă raportez la conţinutul romanului "Exuvii" scris de Simona Popescu. Ea putea să vadă cu ochii ei şi să înţeleagă mult mai clar lucrurile decât mine, deşi se gândea la o sumedenie de minunate aiureli, făcând şi desfăcând lumi miraculoase, în care ea însăşi era involuntar personajul cel mai interesant:

"Se făcea că derulam înainte şi înapoi o bandă imaginară. Priveam secţionări, divizări, coagulări. Arabescuri ciudate. Rozete ameţitoare ca în caleidoscopul meu vechi de carton. Apoi ceva nedesluşit mi-a îndreptat privirea spre un colţ al camerei. Era acolo un tablou negru în care stătea ascunsă o hologramă secretă. Şi o voce distonantă parcă-mi spunea: Ţi-e frică? Şi apoi, nu mai ştiu...aş fi vrut să mă mişc, dar se făcuse foarte, foarte târziu."

Într-adevăr, este greu să-mi imaginez o realitate de la care ochii mei să nu-şi poată lua privirea, cu atât mai mult cu cât ceea ce mi s-a întâmplat a pivotat în jurul unei lumi străine de felul meu de a înţelege lucrurile. Un alergător foarte bun a câştigat de partea sa, prin minunea artei, graţia şi măreţia unui Eden izvorât din admiraţia pentru înălţimea conştiinţei artistice.

Iar dacă vreodată ochii mei se vor concentra la un final de cursă de-a dreptul palpitant, dar fără prea mare preţuire în aria artistică, îmi voi aminti că cea mai mare greşeală a unui artist este să încerce să prindă din urmă acel „foarte târziu", rigid și taciturn, care anulează orice expresivitate estetică.

Eul Înalt de care un artist trebuie să fie întotdeauna conştient - are ca fundament angajamentul de a descrie o viziune nouă asupra lumii într-un mod realist, printr-o mare subtilitate, în aşa fel încât imaginea proiectată de el pe fundalul unei opere de artă să nu se piardă niciodată.

Vederea ochilor care îşi reconsideră privirea aparţine întru totul acelor oameni înzestraţi cu spirit de artist care ştiu să vadă o operă de artă, în toată splendoarea ei, chiar şi în spatele unei poze colorate, dar şi în jurul unei imagini dinamice.

Vederea ochilor care se privesc în chip tainic pe ei înşişi

On Iulie 27, 2021

Un artist este totdeauna prins între două lumi diferite, şi totuşi asemănătoare, atunci când îşi concentrează eforturile spre afirmarea creaţiei sale.

Nu ştiu dacă vi s-a întâmplat vreodată să priviţi în ochi, preţ de o singură clipă, o fiinţă a cărei privire nu v-o mai puteţi scoate din minte şi chiar privind-o cu atenţie v-aţi da seama că este altcineva decât aţi crezut vreodată că este. Vă spun asta fiindcă m-am privit pe mine însumi în oglindă, mai schimbat decât de obicei, crezându-mă un fel de Atreyu aflat faţă în faţă cu Oglinda Fermecată, mare şi tulbure, unde se vedea neclar pe sine, încercând să treacă prin ea (numai dacă ar fi avut îndrăzneala necesară).

Abia aici lucrurile devin cu adevărat complicate !

Într-adevăr, mă lăsam condus de un calcul lucid, de luare în seamă a tuturor lucrurilor pe care le ştiam şi nu le ştiam despre mine însumi, un calcul matematic şi de imagine, comparabil cu menţinerea conversaţiei în faţa unei oglinzi care străbate timpurile fără să le altereze esenţa, puţin similară monologului unui artist care se hrăneşte cu euforia creaţiei sale în încercarea de a găsi acel Genexyrthus (punctul referenţial spre care converg timpurile, destinele umane).

Privirea este un „instrument” special de lucru al artistului care poate furniza ochilor o viziune nouă despre ceea înseamnă vizualizarea esteticii care se manifestă în toate. Or privindu-se pe sine, artistul se vede centrat în jurul unui sine curios, deschis la nou, uimit de o imagine care pâlpâie în faţa adevărurilor lumii.

Această clipă mă surprinde cu totul. Mai ales acum, când oglinda pare să răspândească o lumină tot mai difuză, din toate direcţiile, dar de intensitate mică, imitând lumina unei lumânări.Se vede că nu am ochi decât pentru mine atunci când mă privesc în altă versiune a mea, ca un simbol al cunoaşterii de sine şi al înțelepciunii, fapt care necesită plasarea unei porţi mistice între realitate şi iluzie. De ce-aș avea ochi pentru altcineva care nu este ca mine?

Leadership: Imaginea care te compune este imaginea care te inspiră să fii tu însuţi într-o lume care încearcă constant să supravieţuiască prin poveste?

Şi iată de ce m-am privit pe mine însumi cu alţi ochi decât mă privesc de obicei, încercând să intru mai amănunţit în labirintul oglinzii fermecate. Fiindcă în faţa privirii mele drepte, adânci şi sensibilizatoare, se desfăşoară intrarea într-un fel de loop al căutării sinelui de dincolo de limitările cotidiene, de dincolo de tumultul inerent al vieții, de dincolo de măştile rolurilor convenţionale cu care ajunsesem să mă identific adesea.

Mai interesant este faptul că în faţa oglinzii se exteriorizează un suflet atât de curat, sincer, creativ, unic doar prin felul lui de a transmite minţii un impuls asociat cu o schimbare de imagine ce este resimţită intens de către psihic. Bineînţeles că lucrurile pe care le văd şi le constat privindu-mă în oglindă sunt insesizabile ochiului omului obişnuit, mai ales dacă este vorba despre o oglindă fermecată la fel ca cea din "The NeverEnding Story":

"Despre ea nu-ţi pot spune nimic din propria observaţie, ci numai ceea ce am adunat din diverse rapoarte. De fapt, această oglindă reprezintă o poartă care este atât deschisă, cât şi închisă. Pare năstruşnic, nu? Poate ar fi mai potrivit să spunem că nu-i nici închisă şi nici deschisă. Deşi lucrul acesta e la fel de năstruşnic. Pe scurt: e vorba despre o oglindă mare, sau cam aşa ceva, deşi nu-i nici din sticlă şi nici din metal. Nimeni nu mi-a putut spune din ce e. În orice caz, când te afli în faţa ei te vezi pe tine însuţi - dar nu ca într-o oglindă obişnuită, se înţelege. Nu vezi aspectul exterior, ci adevărata fiinţă lăuntrică, aşa cum este ea în realitate. Cel care vrea să treacă prin poartă trebuie să pătrundă în sine însuşi - ca să mă exprim aşa."

Leadership: Exercițiul de a vedea dincolo de orizontul propriei persoane presupune acceptarea unei reflecţii care constituie dimensiunea unui spaţiu care îşi pierde atributele materiale?

După cum vedeţi, am ajuns să prezint un decor realist într-o ficţiune a reprezentărilor metaforice imanente. Căci dacă consider privitul în oglindă ca fiind o trecere în alt plan de realitate, spiritual şi imaterial, este pentru că numai astfel s-ar putea făuri imaginea unei durate anterioare şi posterioare a unui film de lungmetraj în care firescul depăşeşte imaginaţia, şi te ţine cu sufletul la gură.

La rândul ei, oglinda mă priveşte ca şi când s-ar vedea pe sine reflectată într-un dublu al ei, fapt care o ajută să-mi capteze imaginea şi să o transmită către matricea unei transformări liniare, unde imaginea este convertită în tonuri mai calde sau mai gri. Or a aduce în prim plan această privire a oglinzii este o încercare de a deştepta dispoziţia afectivă a ochilor care cuprind latura artistică a frumosului numai cu sufletul unui narator aflat în afara universului strict pe care îl evocă cu emoţie, cu sinceritate, cu multă căldură, acordându-i înalta sa preţuire.

Vă rog să înţelegeţi. Oglinda nu are nici ideea veşniciei, nici pe cea a imensităţii spaţiului, ci numai naratorul îi poate furniza în chip strălucit un alimentator de înţelesuri într-un limbaj metaforic, spiritual și fermecător. Iar operaţia de transpunere a omului într-o imagine din oglindă este matricea unei amprente stilistice inconfundabile.

Mai spun că o simplă oglindă îţi poate influenţa decisiv starea. Simt anumite senzaţii de bucurie în clipa de faţă, amintindu-mi că am încercat să văd prin sticla oglinzii însăşi propria-mi dublură prinsă într-un univers paralel, atât pentru a înţelege diferenţa dintre ceea ce cred că ştiu deja cu mintea, şi adevărata cunoaştere ce vine din coeziunea cu esenţa unei idei vizuale şi a unei viziuni ideale.

Leadershipul conţine felul cum te vezi într-o oglindă spaţio-temporală, singura în măsură să reflecte natura sinelui tău tratată ca variabilă de ieşire dintr-un exterior care nu admite viaţa interioară.

Vederea unor ochi care se privesc în chip tainic pe ei înşişi este identică cu vederea unui artist care ştie să-şi impună viziunea producând expresii vizuale bine integrate realităţii timpului actual.

Acest artist este totdeauna prins între două lumi diferite, şi totuşi asemănătoare, între două infinituri transformatoare care se înghesuie unul în altul, sincronizându-se într-o simbioză eonică, tinzând spre un materialism absolut care poate orbi raţiunea omului normal aflat în faţa adevărului pe care îl descoperă despre el însuţi.

Ţi s-a întâmplat vreodată să fii uimit de propria-ţi reacţie într-o situaţie în care imaginea care te compune este imaginea care te inspiră să fii tu însuţi într-o lume care încearcă constant să supravieţuiască prin poveste?

Vederea rămâne clară în întunericul care îţi ia ochii

On Aprilie 16, 2023

Numai recunoscând existența miracolului și a sacrului, oamenii pot depăși lipsa de sens a vieții cotidiene și înțelege adevăratul sens al existenței lor.

Îmi îndrept privirea în sus, spre cerul nopţii calde de primăvară. Întunericul îşi strânge tăcerile într-un mănunchi de stele care pare să proiecteze asupra întregii mele fiinţe aura a ceva ce poată fi numit destin, dincolo de acel moment, izbitor realist, rezemat pe spaţiul unei potenţiale întâlniri între cer şi pământ.

Aş vrea să adorm uitându-mă la stele recunoscător, cu o admiraţie sinceră faţă de cele nesfârşite, privindu-le într-un mod cu totul aparte, cu un ochi magic de artist care vede eternitatea într-un tablou de vis a cărui armonie de culori slujeşte un suflet vizionar şi generos. Şi în vis, absolut senzaţional, să simt că sunt o stea strălucitoare ce luminează în culorile unui peisaj de primăvară.

În acelaşi timp ţin în mâna dreaptă o carte a cărui personaj extras din "O mie şi una de nopţi", îmi îmbracă visarea tăcută într-un plan al reveriei, umplând golul din jumătatea unei vieți care nu îmi aparține, dar îmi recunoaşte realitatea.

Said din Bassora, tânăr chipeş, cu privirea semeaţă şi dârză, era încredinţat că încă de la naştere fusese ocrotit de o stea norocoasă, şi drept dovadă, simţea că ceva tainic îl urmărea peste tot. Primise de la tatăl său un fluieraş în dar, ca să cheme la nevoie zâna protectoare, şi astfel a scăpat din toate pericolele, devenind mai apoi Stăpânitorul Bagdadului.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi exprimi viziunea cât mai vizibil posibil într-un cadru de spirit care stimulează anticiparea evenimentelor, prin împărtăşirea unei poveşti care s-a petrecut deja?

Şi în acest întuneric de o linişte desăvârşită, nu te poţi bizui decât pe auzul ascuţit, dar mai ales pe ştiinţa prevestirii, drept cunoaştere a viitorului. Normal, cunoaşterea aceasta este un pol refuzat al reveriei idealizante, depinzând de capriciile unei variabile aleatoare: puterea de a străbate întinsul unui deşert care stăpâneşte pământul şi unde îşi dispută întâietatea forţele răului sub comanda lui Mephisto.

Şi pentru ca steaua Sirius să te ocrotească, trebuie să treci (încă de la naştere) testul de a străbate nevătămat un întuneric care îţi fură sufletul când nu eşti atent.

Aşadar, există o presupusă inevitabilitate cu privire la întunericul care cade asupra celor născuţi sub o stea norocoasă, un întuneric care-i cuprinde prin toate mijloacele posibile. Din această cauză ochii care ştiu să privească lumina în întuneric, ochii care se comportă ca nişte stele ce luminează întreaga lume, pot da înţelesuri foarte diferite cuvântului Egohewenahis care exprimă de regulă "încredinţarea celor nădăjduite". În consecinţă, proprietăţile ochiului nu sunt acelea ale unui simplu organ senzorial, ci ale unei "codificări" mai subtile.

Leadership: Viziunea ta poate să completeze repovestirea unui conținut plin de sugestivitate pe care te bazezi ca să creşti probabilitatea de producere a unui eveniment însemnat?

După cum observaţi, corpurile naturale și cele cerești fac parte din câmpul vederii mele. O stea pe cer şi o carte în mână, norocul şi cunoaşterea, două direcţii pline de sens spiritual. O parte o purifică şi o intensifică pe cealaltă. Amândouă par să-şi răsfrângă lumina în cu totul alt mod decât m-am așteptat.

Mai trebuie să remarc faptul că sistemul alcătuit din două asemenea entităţi simetrice, pozitiv definite, trecute printr-un amestec aproape alchimic dintre real şi ireal, este determinist prin lansarea scenariilor futuriste. Prin urmare ochii care se uită din cer la mine se comportă numai cu anumite probabilităţi de manifestare strălucitoare.

De aici trag concluzia că cu cât un obiect este mai îndepărtat, cu atât vederea pierde din intensitate (la fel ca în cazul culorilor), în timp ce nuanțele neînsemnate ale degradeurilor se estompează la rândul lor, sau apar într-o culoare cu adevărat deschisă. Și pentru că orice clarobscur are la bază o proeminență vizibilă, și pentru că vederea complet ideală se află constant sub efectul luminii, înseamnă că un corp care devine monocrom a fost marcat de o reducere a intensității luminii.

În viziunea lui Eliade, lumea are două planuri: un plan al lumii cauzale, obiective, și un plan al lumii tainelor, iar omul trăiește la intersecția celor două planuri, unde interferează energiile individuale cu energiile cosmice. De fapt, cam toate nuvelele lui Eliade exprimă strădania autorului de cunoaștere a tainelor universului și de accedere în planul sacru.

Şi tocmai din acest motiv încerc să-mi îndrept ochii asupra cerului, stelele fiind călăuzele mele în lumea cărţilor, la schimbarea zilei în noapte, fiindcă ceea ce văd prin filtrul unei sclipiri care îmi şopteşte viitorul - este chiar ceea ce voi primi.

Leadership: Îţi evaluezi probabilitatea de manifestare a trăirilor interioare, ghidându-te după coordonatele unui Self Univers?

Ochiul meu privește în această depărtare ghidându-se după coordonatele unui Self Univers: "eu exist într-o singură stare în Lumea Infinității, dar ea este ascunsă de văzul lumii".

Se vede bine că în absoluitatea ochiului de artist nu există un frumos anume, ci doar o multitudine de fețe ale aceluiași frumos, la fel cum nu există doar o unică culoare a ochilor care să atragă privirile. Însă, trebuie evitate iluziile de mărire a realității în care se măsoară criteriul sublimului preconizat de arta oglindirii într-un "celălalt" imaginar, fiindcă ele pot exprima în identitatea lor atât diferența cât și diversitatea a ceea ce poate fi cuprins în conceptul de "spațiu infinit".

Iar dacă vederea imaginativă, concretizată în realizarea unui Self Univers, se autoinserează într-o ontologie generală a infinităţii materiei în spaţiu şi timp, deci a unei ontologii generale a finitudinii umane, atunci simpla contemplare a lucrurilor naturale îmi arată doar cum se prezintă o imagine dintr-un anumit punct de vedere, fără a mă preocupa de felul cum se înfățișează lumina cu ajutorul cărţilor.

Dovadă e faptul că forţele ce luminează stelele noaptea, îmi luminează şi mie sufletul atunci când privesc dincolo de aparenţe, dincolo de prezent, dincolo de orizont. Trebuie să văd doar ce este scris pentru mine.

De fapt, ceea ce evidențiază în mod nemijlocit imposibilitatea de a explica prezenţa divinului impenetrabil, Yimetasenahi, prin intermediul legilor văzului, legi valabile numai în cadrul opticii geometrice care studiază intensitatea luminii, este tocmai încercarea dispoziției senzitive de a birui o perspectivă bine determinată în sfera infinitului autentic.

Vederea de dincolo de viziune se situează în apropierea unui model de reprezentare a realităţii care cuprinde toate aspectele unei poveşti pline cu tâlcuri, în măsura în care povestea devine o modalitate de conectare la un univers mai mare.

Vederea rămâne clară în întunericul care îţi ia ochii atunci când ceva te conduce spre dimensiunea unei realităţi văzute prin ochii unui artist care doreşte să transmită imaginea lui într-o temă simbolistă, putând deschide calea către spațiile onirice, către visare.

Scriitorul român Matei Călinescu a spus-o cel mai bine: "Numai recunoscând existența miracolului și a sacrului, oamenii pot depăși lipsa de sens a vieții cotidiene și înțelege adevăratul sens al existenței lor."

Vederea unui bătrân îşi caută dezvăluirea

On Septembrie 16, 2022

Ceea ce vezi într-o imagine care este totdeauna concretă şi individualizată, depinde de ceea ce vezi la tine însuţi într-un mod contrar timpului.

Tot ceea ce văd în jurul meu, marea, valurile, nisipul, scoicile mărunte, plaja scăldată de razele soarelui de vară, nu se întruchipează cu atâta realism decât în înţelepciunea unui bătrân care, simțind în mod clar natura ca un fel de forță eternă, vie şi universală, îşi recunoaşte micimea în faţa măreţiei unui drum care duce către necunoscut. Dincolo de compararea unor influenţe mistice din stilistica unei imagini imprimată în mod deosebit în imaginaţia mea, care parcă ascunde ceva, absenţa şi absentul, eu cu mine şi în mine, se află incertitudinea staţionării într-un timp al neuitării.

Soarele, poate cel mai frumos ca figură staţionară din simbolismul illuminati, ai zice că este un drumeţ care venind de departe, rupt de oboseală, se opreşte în faţa unei oaze pentru a-şi răcori sufletul. Numai marea îndepărtează excesul de căldură al soarelui, în timp ce asupra mea, ca o povară materială, apasă noianul unui timp interiorizat, trăit în universul paralel al nostalgiei, visării şi duioşiei.

Înţelepciunea bătrânului se arată continuu în acest scenariu al nostalgiei, într-o căutare perpetuă de noi forme şi culori menite să completeze cât mai perfect schema de decorare a unei imagini trecută de testul timpului. Şi dacă aş încerca să decorez din nou codul timpului cu amintiri de neuitat, bătrânului nu i-ar mai rămâne decât să pornească în căutarea perfecţiunii tabloului dictat de calitatea imaginii trecută prin testul continuu al culorilor, încât să-şi perpetueze emoțiile generate de acea visare, continuă şi nevinovată, care încă îi îmbogăţeşte realitatea.

Leadership: Imaginea cu care îţi testezi memoria vieţii este vizibilă din exteriorul unei creaţii care îşi iubeşte atât de mult creatorul, încât îl absoarbe în interiorul ei?

Încă nu-mi pot da seama prea bine dacă vederea ageră, deschisă în faţa frumosului, atât de dornică să cuprindă orizontul, îmi este susţinută convenabil de raportul dintre receptarea unei duble feţe a imaginarului şi receptarea unei lucrări de artă într-un spațiu dat. Un singur lucru este cert: acolo sus, în limpezişul cerului, unde timpul curge după alte tipare, niciun norişor nu pare însângerat de metamorfozele realului în care bătrâneţea se apleacă spre vreun lucru al patimilor omeneşti, precum trestiile în bătaia vântului.

În notele sale despre un zugrav, pictorul Henri Matisse, aflat la pragul bătrâneţii, a precizat: "Compoziția este arta aranjării într-o manieră decorativă a diverselor elemente, la comanda pictorului, pentru ca el să-și exprime sentimentele".

Îi dau dreptate. Privind peisajul mării, aşa cum este dat de frumuseţea naturii, îmi dezvolt mai uşor arta spre măiestria unui stil care se îndepărtează oarecum de tendinţele universaliste ale abstracţiei moderniste. Chiar şi în ciuda limitărilor pe care le impune limbajul privirii, sau chiar sesizând starea fără de moarte a lucrurilor, bătrânul artist nu se va putea elibera de povara comparaţiei, ce presupune aducerea celor 4 componente ale tabloului (culoarea, tonul, linia, forma) la stadiul de înfăţişări geometrizate, purtătoare de simboluri accentuate. Asta chiar dacă în artă iluzia este o creaţie a unirii celor 4 componente fundamentale care, la rândul lor, pot avea ca şi corespondent neutru cele 4 semne zodiacale: pământul, apa, focul şi aerul.

Leadership: Eşti pregătit să faci saltul de la imaginea vizual-statică pe care o arăţi lumii, la acea etapă realistă din existenţa ta în care întâlneşti contrastul dintre aparenţă şi esenţă?

Tot făcând trimiteri la artă, dincolo de compararea unor influenţe artistice, îmi amintesc de o secvenţă dintr-o frumoasă carte a lui Eric-Emmanuel Schmitt. Bătrânul artist convinge un tânăr disperat, aflat în pragul sinuciderii, să-şi refacă existenţa cu o singură condiţie: să-l transforme într-o operă de artă. La urma urmei, nu are nimic de pierdut, în afară de libertate. Bătrânul s-a întors spre tânăr. I-a întins mâna luminându-se la faţă, iar ridurile i-au dispărut într-un zâmbet, pentru a forma din nou chipul unui tânăr cu trăsături delicate. Nu după mult timp, cu noua sa identitate de statuie vie, Adam a devenit mai celebru decât Gioconda.

Singura cale de a fi altcineva în artă, este să percepi marea ca pe-o fiinţă ce trăieşte din plin, deşi imaginea ei n-o cunoşti decât din vestigii neclare sau cel puţin neconcludente.

Numaidecât, atunci când privesc întinsul mării, învăluit de şoaptele ei suave şi sărate, mai ales când valurile şlefuiesc pietrele făcându-le netede şi mătăsoase la atingere, îmi dau seama că ultimul ciclu al vieţii omului nu se termină cu acea clipă de pace în plină furtună, ci cu o descoperire tristă: aş fi putut fi mai mult decât am fost.

Se simte emoţia aceasta dureroasă pe chipul bătrânului, nu doar privind marea ca pe o posibilitate de relaxare a minţii, ci asociind-o cu sfârșitul tinereții, privind-o ca pe o limită a declinului de responsabilitate, o graniță dincolo de care să nu vrei să treci, o răspântie dincolo de care poţi aştepta fie dezastrul, fie mântuirea.

Leadershipul se racordează la vârsta unor mari trasee simbolice: porneşti din locul în care te simţi tu însuţi, real şi prezent, şi termini luând locul unei imagini de iluzie accentuată de contrastul dintre spaţiul libertăţii absolute şi constrângerile unei memorii care îţi depăşeşte cu mult propria existență.

Marea, locul paşnic al nostalgiei, dar împovărat de amintiri, este un imbold al întoarcerii, al revenirii la tine însuţi măcar pentru o veșnicie provizorie. Ea îşi găseşte uşor corespondenţa cu personalităţi din lumea artei care au vrut să surprindă în creaţia lor spaţiul "tinereții fără bătrânețe". Ca să nu mai zic că întinsul mării din care se înalţă tristețea, surprinsă în pictură prin umbra îndepărtată a unei bărci rătăcite, sau ancorate în larg, deseori surprinde o vârstă dincolo de care viaţa e un pic diferită.

Vederea unui bătrân îşi caută dezvăluirea este o lupă emoţională pe care o foloseşti fără să-ţi dai seama de efectele unei supradoze de realitate, atunci când creezi în sinea ta imaginea celui dorit.

Dacă vrei să fii altcineva, mai întâi trebuie să întâlneşti bătrânul a cărui imagine poate fi percepută ca o metaforă a mării: trebuie să te simţi ca şi când ai fi o insulă pe care se află un castel în ruină. Ca să-i refaci splendoarea trebuie să-l desenezi mai frumos decât a fost vreodată, înfăţişându-l ca un vis, ca o iluzie optică, chiar dacă realitatea este că timpul lui s-a încheiat.

Trebuie să-ţi recunoşti fragilitatea în leadership, privind realitatea în faţă. Bătrâneţea este un castel de nisip care poate fi spulberat doar de o adiere de vânt. Sau, cum spunea Jimi Hendrix: "Toate castelele construite din nisip se prăbușesc în mare, în cele din urmă."

Vederea Vederilor

Atunci când priveşti ceva cu atenţie, realitatea acelei imagini se imprimă în tine.

Merg spre casă. Şi ce văd? O coajă de portocală aruncată parcă înadins la picioarele mele. Ştiu că este o coajă de portocală, fiindcă ştiu cum arată o portocală, de un orange aprins, chiar dacă este uşor acoperită cu zăpadă. Numai să ai ochi s-o observi la timp, căci enorm de multe ai de văzut în jur, enorm de mult adevăr ascuns în fragmente de realitate care, în mod bizar, pare să deschidă o altă lume înainte.

Şi ce este o coajă de portocală? Este o lume a viului tradusă într-o experienţă a culorii îndrăzneţe, şi totuşi delicate, dusă într-o zonă vintage – retro, exprimată printr-o siguranţă accentuată în privinţa simţului estetic.

O ridic de jos, o curăţ de zăpadă. Forma cojii de portocală, de forma unui cerc asemănat cu o parabolă sau cupolă, şi care dacă ar fi transpus în desen s-ar transformat într-un halou de lumină protector, calmant şi tonic, dezvăluind o anumită stare de reverie, ne invită în bogata lume imaginară a artiştilor. O anumită semnificaţie plasează coaja de portocală într-o sferă de relaţii noi între culoare şi percepţie, între emoţie şi aroma unui parfum nostalgic.

O asemenea apropiere de formă şi culoare, ar prezenta o curioasă analogie, în concepţie şi factură, în maniera în care Salvador Dali a redat scurgerea timpului, pe care şi eu o simt într-un fel sau altul, mai acut sau mai lent.

Coaja de portocală pare a fi acoperită de un mister, o realitate ascunsă şi inaccesibilă, redată automat într-o expunere logică făcută după cele mai fireşti reguli ale unei clipe de evadare din tabloul unei societăţi în schimbare, într-o zonă de tip "open plan" în care difuziunea şi puţinele accente de lumină se concentrează ici-colo asupra unor figuri geometrice specifice culturii tuarege. Vederea îndreptată spre ea afectează simultan atât spiritul, cât şi tehnica de a produce imagini pe o suprafaţă plană, de obicei hârtie, prin intermediul unor semne grafice care servesc pentru a distinge minimalismul în interiorul esenţialismului.

Leadership: Poţi să schimbi rezultatul impactului pe care îl ai asupra procesului de creaţie, printr-un efort al sinelui de a se manifesta ca un efect de "transparenţă" pe fundalul unei imagini statice?

Simplitatea voluntară este inima picturii, la fel cum este şi starea cojii de portocală atunci când o privesc printr-o fereastră manieristă, sau printr-un filtru existenţial care unifică totul într-o tonalitate mai caldă, declinată în nenumărate tonuri şi nuanţe de galben, oranj şi roz. Iar dacă aş privi-o printr-un ochean a cărui lentilă decupează fâşii de realitate şi, după ce le-aş mări, apropiindu-le pentru o clipă de alte aspecte ale mediului înconjurător, aş obţine o temă plină de sensibilitate şi lirism.

Dacă o privesc mai atent, aşa cum artistul îşi priveşte opera în curs de desăvârşire, îmbinând părţile unui întreg, aş putea să redau strălucirea potolită a unui tablou de sfârşit de iarnă în care s-ar distinge de la distanţă sclipirea a ceva auriu. Aici sarcina mea este de a reda un element din natură care, exprimat prin afecţiunea călduroasă a unei figuri plane, sau a unui corp tridimensional în racursi, să poată declanşa un "re-paint" direct sau indirect. Şi nu numai atât. Coaja de portocală trebuie să transmită multă emoţie, să poată să anime şi să schimbe complet înfăţişarea unui decor capabil să inducă o dispoziţie melancolică.

Dar oricât de abandonată ar fi în faţa noutăţilor clipei şi cotidianului atât de divers, coaja de portocală îmi redă, dincolo de retina ochilor unde mă regăsesc într-un punct temporal, o imagine identică probabil, dar nu identitară, a sinelui coeziv, elevat, înzestrat cu o oglindire empatică suficientă.

Leadership: Poţi să creşti vitalitatea unei imagini statice încât să dezvolţi o viziune mai realistă asupra tranziţiei de la certitudinile unui prezent uşor de înţeles - la nivelul de dezvoltare al unei experienţe de revelare a sinelui?

Da, aş putea să păstrez în minte mult timp ideea de a folosi o coajă de portocală pentru a-mi hrăni şi pentru a-mi exprima sinele autentic într-un soi de falsă taină, prin mijlocul unei algebre de imagini. Dar până ce coaja de portocală nu se conturează într-un desen simplu în care devin vizibile şi cele mai mici accente de admiraţie faţă de înălţimea expresiei, nu mă voi putea elibera de senzaţia vie de a fi legat de cineva sau ceva.

Însăşi sinele meu este o reflectare a atitudinii creatoare, nu doar o contemplare liberă asupra frumosului, de-a lungul unei priviri care alunecă din adâncul sufletului în direcţia unui efect de oglindire (în care planul reflectant este ales arbitrar).

Eu, care ştiu a preţui orice element al naturii, ca nimeni altcineva, eu care pot să ridic la rang de muză o coajă de portocală prin importanţa intrinsecă pe care o emană sinelui meu, în funcţie de interpretarea pe care o dau formei şi prezenţei ei într-un decor haşurat în creion, pot să apreciez tot ce mă înconjoară la adevărata sa valoare. De fapt, unitatea spirituală a unui lucru rezidă în felul cum artistul reuşeşte să îi redea acea vitalitate inepuizabilă pe care doar fiinţele umane o posedă, fără a fi obligat să apeleze la o “repovestire” prin aranjarea imaginilor din natură într-o ordine nefirească.

Accentul cade pe posibilitatea de a înţelege o imagine care devine dublă, pe de o parte simbol, pe de altă parte personificare. Coaja de portocală, ulterior colorată într-un spaţiu tridimensional şi privită ca obiect cu feţe plate, două la vedere şi două văzute prin transparenţă sau difuziune, aduce în atenţie meritul incontestabil al artistului de a-şi sonda Egoul printr-o metamorfoză: "devii rezultatul a ceea ce creezi".

Experienţa de dezvoltare a sinelui presupune de fapt o raportare a experienţei privirii la elaborarea unei imagini subiective a cărui conţinut este definit printr-o interogare: “Ce anume este unic şi se găseşte în toate?”

Vederea Vederilor reflectă capacitatea artistului de a-şi raporta Egoul la sensul atribuit unei imagini în al cărui prim plan se află un lucru aparent neînsemnat. Pe această cale, amintesc de Marcus Aurelius care îndemna fiecare om să-şi definească şi să descrie obiectul a cărui imagine îi apare la nivelul sufletului:

“Formulează întotdeauna definiţia şi o descriere a obiectului a cărui origine a operat asupra capacităţii tale reprezentative, aşa încât să-ţi dai seama ce este, în substanţa sa goală, în întregul sau sub toate aspectele sale, şi să-i indici, în sine însuşi, propriul său nume şi numele elementelor din care este alcătuit şi care urmează să se descompună.”

Vederea vorbeşte doar pe limba ochilor

Numai un creator de mare sensibilitate vizuală poate să domine haosul ce rezultă dintr-o lume care dispare şi alta care se constituie.

Trebuie doar să observi un fir de iarbă ca să produci o inovație de mari proporții în orice domeniu, mai ales în medicină, fizică, artă, biologie, chimie. Și tocmai cei așa zis "învățați" nu știu să observe un fir de iarbă, la fel cum nu sunt conştienţi de principiile sau teoriile de bază ce unifică toate domeniile biologiei: teoria celulară, teoria genelor, homeostazia și teoria evoluției. Cu alte cuvinte, degeaba priveşti lucrurile din jur, dacă privirea ta nu nu ia în considerare acele date ale ştiinţei care explică şi condiţionează fenomenele din natură.

Eu fac mai mult decât atât. Privesc lucrurile din jur cu mult suflet, ele par dispuse aleator într-o imagine formată din puncte, linii, forme și culori diverse. Iar ceea ce îi dă ochiului o clipă de răgaz, fără a exersa nicio alegere în privința fondului de culoare pe care se instituie forma fiecărui lucru în parte, este libertatea de a compune o poveste detaliată pe baza unei imagini concrete, dar una care are profunzimea corespunzătoare a unui spirit bogat și în același timp independent.

Astfel se mai stabilește o calitate excepțională a ochiului viguros, de pildă, el poate să prefere desenul ca formă reală în cadrul picturii, sau poate să prefere clarobscurul ca simplă formă de detașare față de evenimentele lumii. Cu precădere, cine cunoaște toate tainele artei știe să vorbească despre darul vederii ca funcție principală de percepție a particularității cuprinsă în absolut, fără a cuprinde clarobscurul în sfera luminii continue.

Un artist de mare calibru poate surprinde, de exemplu, bolta unui cer care aproape că se uneşte cu pământul, sau albastrul unui cer care nu mai este pătat de galben. Sau un cer care, deși este albastru, arată incolor, fără soare. Sau, o strălucire a cerului care poate stinge stelele. Sau un fir de iarbă constituit ca o fărâmă într-un univers nemărginit. Sau un fir de iarbă constituit ca un Alter-Ego prizonier într-un univers paralel, înălţat la rang de simbol prin imaginarul suprarealist.

Leadership: Eşti dispus să accepţi natura finită a lumii tale când, în aparență, ea acceptă autoritatea unei naturi superioare ce nu poate fi stăpânită decât prin ideea că "întregul este format din frânturi izolate"?

Impresia armonioasă pe care o dau ochii, mai ales cei căprui (poate fiindcă sunt cei mai frumoși ochi din lume), menține sufletul în zona cea mai înaltă a subiectivității. Aici, detaliului trebuie să i se acorde dreptul de a întregi o realitate supusă schimbării, bazată pe dimensiunea decorativă, astfel încât efectul armonios să nu se bazeze deloc pe intensitatea unei imagini fixe, așa cum aș fi tentat să mă bazez, ci pe calitatea compoziției de a se constitui într-un întreg coerent capabil să mă provoace să mă descopăr în timp ce redescopăr spațiul paralel în care toate elementele naturii sunt puse in valoare.

Da. Ca temei etern al oricărei vederi, ochiul artistic își poate dovedi puterea de a cuprinde linia orizontului în triplul raport cu lumina extrasă din realitatea exterioară care face posibilă reprezentarea picturală, chiar dacă îi vine greu să surprindă Frumusețea Supremă în "tot ce este muritor". De fapt, ochiul artistic se atașează de particular chiar și în cele mai mici raporturi ale formei pe care o îmbracă fiecare lucru în parte, făcând posibilă ideea că întregul este format din frânturi izolate de frumuseţi care, dacă le ştim culege, ne încântă fiinţa.

Nu doar atât. Arta cere permanent noi personaje cu un Ego puternic. Mergând pe această linie, focalizându-mi atenţia asupra elementelor din jur, îmi răsună în minte vorbele unui personaj dintr-un roman scris de Alexandre Dumas: "Voi fi puternic, voi fi ceea ce voi dori, voi domina haosul ce rezultă dintr-o lume care dispare şi alta care se constituie."

Leadership: Scopul creaţiei tale este de a valida imagini izolate ale naturii, ca formă distinctă de validare a dualităţii dintre sensibil şi inteligibil, pe calea constituirii unui univers autonom?

Dacă ochiul este catalizatorul reprezentării unor lucruri luminate excesiv de discul solar, fără să tindă efectiv spre reprezentarea spațiului din jur (precum este peisajul în pictură) atunci el nu va fi în măsură să evidențieze semnificația a ceea ce poate fi experimentat de realitate. Nu-i aşa că mintea, cu cât se străduieşte să memoreze mai multe elemente, privindu-le cu ochi de artist, ajunge să se concentreze mai degrabă asupra formelor şi culorilor, decât asupra disponibilităţii lor de a valida dualitatea dintre sensibil şi inteligibil, pornind de la premisa că natura este practic imprevizibilă?

Iar dacă menirea ochiului se împlinește prin suprema menire a coloritului în cadrul întregului peisaj, lumina însăși devenind subiect activ în modificarea formei lucrurilor (în acumulări de reverberații ale sugestivității), atunci el va depinde de atâtea lucruri întâmplătoare încât îi va fi greu să surprindă acea intensitate de viață, de emoție, ce se răsfrânge asupra întregului. Şi, doar aşa, datorită ochilor care observă totul, eu însumi am reuşit să mă privesc ca un univers autonom, situat dincolo de percepţia imediată a realului, şi să mă consider drept un destăinuitor al vederii totalizatoare care luminează sufletul lumii şi al naturii.

Bineinteles că ochiul are nevoie de o vedere bazată pe sensiblitate, compasiune, empatie, nu doar de imaginatie. Din acest motiv, pentru a arăta cât de mare este sensibilitatea vizuală, trebuie să ridici lucrurile din jur (şi diverse elemente din natură) la rangul de simboluri cu o importanţă mai mare decât cea aparentă la prima vedere. Fiecare din ele trebuie să reprezinte emoţii, să exploreze slăbiciunile și sentimentele de fragilitate, având destinaţia de a reprezenta sau a transmite o informaţie secretă...

Arta este o explorare a galaxiei de simboluri ce emană din lucrurile aparent banale. Iar leadershipul se inspiră din aceste simboluri ca să creeze niste imagini de fundal care susţin "ceea ce lipseşte" dintr-o perspectiva globală şi subiectivă.

Vederea vorbeşte doar pe limba ochilor atunci când ochii sunt copleşiţi de sentimentele care însoţesc vederea în procesul imortalizării unei imagini care încearcă prin sensibil să pătrundă în inteligibil. Şi dacă ochii mei, dispuşi să privească îndelung o asemenea imagine, îşi vor reconstitui efectele de sens manifestate în planul figurat, poate că voi reuşi să îmi creez din nou şi din nou o altă realitate, transfigurată artistic, închipuită de energia sufletească.

Verdictul final al juraţilor

Valorifică-ţi la maxim calităţile de lider, legându-te de oameni printr-un liant spiritual invizibil care să dea şi să păstreze o coeziune continuă între tine şi ei.

Ieri am citit un articol interesant despre un om de afaceri care a împrumutat un milion de euro în numele angajaţilor săi. Mai mult de o sută de salariaţi au acceptat "afacerea" pentru că şeful lor le-a promis că o să plătească ratele. Însă mare le-a fost mirarea când, zilele trecute, oamenii s-au trezit cu executorul silit la uşă, pentru că şeful lor n-a mai plătit la banca din 2009.

Mai mulţi dintre foştii angajaţi ai omului de afaceri au depus plângere la poliţie. Se pare că acesta a plătit acele credite, cu rate eşalonate în fiecare lună, până în 2009, când datorită crizei, firma lui a intrat în incapacitate de plată.

Leadership: Asumarea responsabilităţii va fi simţită ca o creştere a propriei puteri de a face lucrurile corect sau ca o evadare din constrângerea de a-ţi recunoaşte limitele conştiinţei?

Celebrul scriitor Alexandre Dumas avea o vorba pe care o consider adevărată: "Nu tulbura oamenii fericiţi din fericirea lor." Nu încape îndoială că omul de afaceri respectiv nu a putut anticipa evenimentele, nu a fost precaut şi nici nu şi-a estimat corect forţele şi responsabilităţile în situaţii de criză economică.

Degeaba ai o viziune care este îmbrăţişată de mulţi oameni (fiindcă ia în calcul interesele lor), dacă dezamăgeşti prin superficialitatea tratării acesteia, prin neluarea în calcul a acţiunilor de prevenire a efectelor negative care pot apărea. Degeaba ai o idee bună, dacă ea nu e dusă la bun sfârşit şi, mai mult decât atât, dacă aceasta îi afectează pe toţi cei care au susţinut-o. În final, în cazul unui eşec, vina va fi doar a ta, fiindcă a fost iniţiativa ta.

A conduce înseamnă să te dezvălui drept cunoaştere a unei experienţe de reflectare asupra rezultatelor obţinute în condiţiile unei creşteri exponenţiale a puterii tale de caracter.

Nu ştiu în ce măsură îţi doreşti să le fii de folos oamenilor, dar în orice împrejurare, te rog să te asiguri că dispui de toate pârghiile prin care să rişti mai puţin. A-ţi respecta întotdeauna principiile fondatoare, sănătoase, care stau la baza propriei personalităţi este esenţial pentru tine, ca lider, mai ales când sunt în joc viitorul şi bunurile materiale ale oamenilor care te-au susţinut şi te-au urmat.

Dacă vrei să fii întotdeauna întâmpinat cu respect şi bunăvoinţă trebuie să dispui de toate resursele necesare prin care să le inspiri până la capăt oamenilor un puternic sentiment de solidaritate şi încredere. Trebuie să pătrunzi în acea cămăruţă a sufletului lor şi să te legi de ei printr-un liant spiritual invizibil care să dea şi să păstreze o coeziune continuă între voi. Pentru asta ei trebuie să vadă la tine nu doar dovada unei hotărâri de a acţiona în favoarea lor, ci şi seriozitatea ta, respectarea cuvântului dat şi achitarea promisiunilor.

Leadership: Pe unde treci, paşii tăi lasă urme?

Străduieşte-te să realizezi un echilibru armonios şi consecvent între tine şi ei, ca răspuns al chemării lor, fără să încerci nicidecum să maschezi intenţiile tale. Aşa cum sângele este materia cea mai preţioasă a vieţii, tot aşa integritatea este „materia" cea mai preţioasă a leadershipului tău. Tot ceea ce faci trebuie considerat ca o faptă bună, ca un accept din partea lor care îţi permite să-ţi formulezi viziunea şi să o duci la bun sfârşit.

Să-ţi dai seama de natura omului nu e greu: unde trece, paşii lui lasă urme. Fii sigur că orice acţiune pe care o întreprinzi sau orice obligaţie pe care ţi-o asumi lasă un ecou durabil în urma ta. Vei avea nevoie de ceva timp ca să restabileşti pe o temelie solidă imaginea pătată.

Aşa cum un pictor dovedeşte o preocupare susţinută pentru zugrăvirea modelului ales - tot aşa şi tu trebuie să dovedeşti o preocupare susţinută pentru explorarea valorilor şi sentimentelor oamenilor care te-au acceptat la conducerea lor.

Caracterul te face om. El are ca element de bază motivul care te face să te întrebi cine eşti atunci când te redescoperi consternat de falsitatea imaginii care a devenit adevărul de care te înconjori zi de zi.

Verdictul final al juraţilor desemnează momentul hotărâtor în care oamenii au decis, în urma evaluării acţiunilor şi faptelor tale, să te stigmatizeze sau să nu te stigmatizeze pentru un timp îndelungat. Este momentul în care eşti judecat după felul în care ai contribuit la binele lor, după felul în care ţi-ai onorat promisiunile şi obligaţiile. Ei sunt juraţii care, conştienţi de faptele tale şi de urmările lor, vor decide şi vor da verdictul final: vinovat sau nevinovat.

Se spune în popor: "Să te ferească Dumnezeu să fii judecat de oamenii din jurul tău" . De ei, de verdictul lor final depinde viitorul tău ca lider, mai ales atunci când le-ai înşelat încrederea şi speranţele legate de existenţa lor prezentă şi viitoare. În acest moment al verdictului final prin care eşti „declarat" vinovat, se rup orice legături între tine – liderul - şi ei, iar liantul spiritual, invizibil care a păstrat o coeziune între voi, dispare pentru totdeauna.

Versiunea originală a unei creaţii abracadabrante

Continuă să-ţi pui amprenta asupra evoluţiei leadershipului, introducând un ritm de dezvoltare constructiv în tot ceea ce secondează cursul posibilităţilor de stimulare a creaţiei.

Viziunea lui Eisenstein este halucinantă şi cuceritoare. Ca şi gândirea. În filmele sale, foloseşte deseori imagini vizuale. Informe. Cu sunet. Sincronizat sau nesincronizat. Ori imagini sonore, sunete obiectiv închipuite… Apoi vorbire pasionată discontinuă. Nimic decât substantive. Sau numai verbe. Apoi interjecţii. Cu zigzaguri, forme lipsite de sens rotindu-se sincronizat cu acestea. Imagini vizuale în goană, peste o linişte desăvârşită. Apoi înlănţuite cu sunete polifonice. Apoi imagini polifonice. Apoi ambele deodată. Apoi intercalate în desfăşurarea exterioară a acţiunii, apoi elementele intercalate ale acţiunii exterioare introduse în monologul interior.

Marele regizor Eisenstein, recunoaşte că literatura lui James Joyce pare abracadabrantă pentru "cititorul laic", deoarece scriitorul spărsese tiparele fundamentale ale literaturii. De aceea s-a gândit să facă acelaşi lucru în domeniul filmului. Joyce, de asemenea, l-a înţeles. Deşi aproape complet orb, doreşte să vadă fragmente din filmele "Potemkin" şi "Octombrie".

Discuţiile cu Eisenstein îi lasă o asemenea impresie lui Joyce, încât îi va spune unui prieten că dacă vreodată "Ulysses" va fi transpus pe ecran nu vede decât doi oameni capabili să o facă: W. Ruttman sau Eisenstein. *

Leadership: Performanţa şi puterea de înrâurire a creaţiei tale este dată de o gândire reorganizatoare care îşi propune să reflecte cât mai fidel prezenţa unei unicităţi în materie de subiecte abordate şi mijloace de expresie?

Performanţa şi puterea de înrâurire a creaţiei este dată de ceea ce înţeleg eu prin noţiunea de “gândire reorganizatoare”. O cale de creştere a valorii personale prin folosirea unor metode specifice de stimulare a creativităţii. Respectiv un proces de restructurare a cunoştinţelor ştiinţifice şi a metodologiilor existente, necesare pentru o mai bună înţelegere şi cuantificare a relațiilor funcționale dintre proporția combinării unor variabile multiple de creaţie şi posibilitatea lor de a se aranja într-o formă anume de independență în raport cu o autoritate exterioară propriei tale gândiri.

Impactul şi efectele acestora asupra materialului propriu de construcţie a unei perspective şi a unei poveşti vizuale, fie prin ceea ce ele reprezintă, fie prin intermediul mijloacelor tehnice folosite, sunt principalele atuuri ale rezultatelor creşterii valorifice a creaţiei personale.

Dar aici leadershipul poate suferi o anumită deformaţie, o "anomalie" de dezvoltare, deoarece creaţia se manifestă din exterior spre interior, doar în timpul diferenţierii identităţii dobândite în avans. În acest caz, realizarea ta pe plan profesional nu mai urmează acea linie clară, precisă, anterior întocmită. Ci o linie neregulată, şerpuită, cu vârfuri şi depresiuni, cu grade variate de densitate.

O gândire reorganizatoare care îşi propune să reflecte cât mai fidel prezenţa unei unicităţi în materie de subiecte abordate şi mijloace de expresie este o relaţie dintre om şi ceea ce-l înconjoară, o succesiune de operaţii care duc la dezvăluirea unor aspecte importante ale realităţii, o posibilitate de a vedea adevărul și de a aborda obiectiv anumite lucruri. Dar uneori aceatea implică o distragere a atenţiei, o turbulenţă în forţa de sugestie remarcabilă a expresiei plasată între realitate şi poveste.

Leadershipul tău se poate extinde spre un plus de valoare, folosind proporţiile resurselor din relaţia cu o autoritate exterioară?

Această linie care se întinde paralel cu modul tău principal de gândire, introducând totuşi un ritm de dezvoltare constructiv în tot ceea ce secondează cursul posibilităţilor de stimulare a creaţiei, se situează la graniţa dintre unicitate şi similitudine, dintre uniformitate şi diversitate.

Asta înseamnă să tinzi spre o perfecţiune imperfectă, să înţepeneşti într-un fals conflict cu impact asupra evoluţiei şi să obţii, dacă luăm drept modul dimensiunea valorică a rezultatelor, doar o superficială cosmetizare a zonei de inovaţie.

Liderul-artist este mai hotărât să-şi pună amprenta pe întregul registru al experienţei sale de creaţie, numai dacă traseul liniei este rezultatul unei înţelegeri coordonate de complexitatea de factori care sparg tiparele unei doctrine ce favorizează numai schimbări pozitive în structura ştiinţei sale.

Leadershipul nu se poate extinde spre un plus de valoare, folosind proporţiile resurselor puse la dispoziţie de relaţia cu o autoritate exterioară, dacă creaţia este realizată printr-o deformare excesivă a esenţialului pe care l-ai inclus în coordonatele ştiinţei tale. Ai grijă de la cine te inspiri, ai grijă ce elemente preiei de la o autoritate de rang superior, încât creaţia ta să nu se transforme într-un produs de variabile care nu pot fi ţinute sub control.

În ceea ce priveşte regia tehnică, montajul şi tematica scenariului, o autoritate superioară reprezintă o etalare plenară a unei gândiri bine articulate în folosirea informaţiei practice, în modalităţi acceptate un anumit complex de împrejurări care devin ulterior adevărate cadre de poveste.

Versiunea originală a unei creaţii abracadabrante evidenţiază maniera particulară de abordare şi de dezvoltare constructivă a leadershipului, veritabilă creaţie a unei gândiri reorganizatoare cu un impact deosebit asupra celor care sprijină şi susţin originalitatea în creaţie, în stil şi în idei.

Vezi ceea ce nu se vede?

On Decembrie 15, 2024

Cu cât accepți mai mult natura haotică a evenimentelor, cu atât începi să vezi ordinea ascunsă pe care ele o dezvăluie.

M-am simțit adesea ca o piatră brută, aruncată într-un ocean de necunoscut. Am căutat refugiu în povești, în lumi imaginare, unde totul părea mai simplu. Dar, la fel ca Atreyu, din "The NeverEnding Story" am înțeles că adevărata aventură nu se găsește în cărți, ci în propria viață. Adesea m-am trezit pierdut, cuprins de un sentiment profund de inutilitate, ca și cum lumea mea s-ar destrăma înainte ca eu să apuc să-i înțeleg sensul.

Dar cartea aceea magică, poarta aia fermecată a cărei cheie stă ascunsă în curaj, putând să deschidă lumi ascunse în mine, ea mi-a oferit o cale. Am deschis paginile, una câte una, căutând să deslușesc fiecare simbol ascuns în spatele fiecărui paragraf, fără să știu că, de fapt, mă deschideam unei transformări interioare, chemându-l pe Atreyu – acea parte a mea pe care o credeam pierdută, dar care își dorea cu disperare să lupte, să caute, să descopere.

Când am pornit pe drumul Fantasiei, nu aveam nimic, absolut nimic. Fără arme, fără ghid, fără prieteni, fără vreo idee clară despre cum să mă opresc din prăbușirea ei, sau a mea. Dar, cumva, tocmai această lipsă era ceea ce aveam nevoie. Piatra aceea brută, acel început lipsit de formă, îmi aparținea. Astfel m-am agățat de curajul meu, de voința mea, singurele mele calităţi ocrotitoare, asemenea unui sculptor care își folosește mâinile goale pentru a modela un viitor din nimic. Nu a fost ușor. Luptele, şi aşa destul de grele, păreau interminabile, iar rezultatele zdrobitoare. Dar fiecare pas înainte mi-a dat o formă, conturând sensul unui nou început.

Leadership: Cum te raportezi la dimensiunile creației atunci când simți că fiecare reflexie profundă a introspecției îți oferă o nouă șansă de a rescrie propria viziune?

De multe ori, am simțit că trăiesc între două lumi – una reală, adesea cenușie, și alta fantastică, plină de potențial, dar îndepărtată. Era ca și cum aș fi fost prins între paginile unei cărți care refuză să se termine, fiecare capitol oferindu-mi o nouă șansă de a-mi rescrie destinul. Până la urmă, am înțeles că sunt atât Bastian, cel care visează din spatele unei cărți, cât și Atreyu, cel care luptă pe câmpul vieții din povestea citită de mine.

Astfel, misiunea mea era să privesc dincolo de ceea ce credeam posibil, să găsesc în nimic puterea de a crea. Și am creat. Am salvat Fantasia, am salvat o lume care decădea constant din cauza unei realități contrafăcute, dar mai mult decât atât, m-am salvat pe mine însumi.

Da. Sunt atât Bastian cât și Atreyu, două fețe ale aceleiași oglinzi, două părți ale aceleiași lupte. Precum Bastian, stau în lumea reală, simțindu-mă ca o piatră brută pe care nimeni nu o vede cu adevărat. Precum Atreyu, sunt războinicul care trebuie să salveze nu doar o lume fantastică, ci însăși esența a ceea ce sunt. Iar când privesc în oglindă, atât cât a mai rămas dintr-un vis neterminat, văd aceeași nesiguranță pe care o simțea Bastian în biblioteca aceea prăfuită.

Leadership: Poți accepta faptul că fiecare iluzie creată cu măiestrie este, de fapt, o expresie a unei povești mai profunde, scrisă de Creatorul din tine?

În același timp, simțeam în mine curajul lui Atreyu, acel vector dinamic "Esithizma Unosymus", forța care te împinge să mergi mai departe chiar și când NIMICUL amenință să înghită tot ce cunoști. Cum spuneam, nu am avut niciodată avantaje. Nu am avut arme magice sau hărți care să-mi arate drumul. Tot ce am avut a fost această dorință arzătoare de a transforma piatra brută a existenței mele în ceva măreț.

În adâncul sufletului, știam că am puterea de a-mi sculpta propria existență. Dar îndoiala mă rodea: cine eram eu să creez ceva din nimic? Cine mă credeam? Cu fiecare pas înainte, mă îndoiam mai puțin. Precum Atreyu traversând Mlaștina Tristeții, și eu am urcat pe munți ai disperării, dar fiecare pas devenea o lecție despre rezistență și transformare.

Per aspera ad astra, drumul spre stele trece prin încercări, iar fiecare obstacol este o nouă oportunitate de a da formă pietrei brute a existenței. Tot ce aveam nevoie era curajul de a porni la drum, același drum străbătut de un vestit magician: "Într-o zi drumul s-a bifurcat, iar eu, eu l-am ales pe cel mai puțin umblat - și asta a facut diferența."

Leadership: Cum folosești spațiul metamorfozei pentru a crea o iluzie bine meșteșugită ce dezvăluie adevărul esenței tale?

Din întâmplările mărunte se nasc revelații mari. Inițial, Robert-Houdin a fost ceasornicar. A comandat într-o librărie niște cărți despre orologerie, dar, printr-o confuzie, a primit un volum despre magie. Așa a devenit magician, și unul de referință din istoria magiei. De fapt, atât de influent a fost încât, după ce a scris mai multe cărți, a inspirat un tânăr maghiar care a citit această carte veche cu sufletul la gură, ca și când ar fi fost pe cale să descopere Sfântul Graal. Acest tânăr maghiar se numea Erik Weisz și, fiind atât de impresionat de conținutul cărții, a decis să devină magician. Și-a început cariera schimbându-și numele de scenă în Houdini.

Atunci când confuzia devine revelație, înțelegi că viața este asemenea unei cărți de magie, unde fiecare accident fericit îți deschide porți către destine neașteptate. Iar atunci când întâmplarea te surprinde, descoperi că viața, asemenea unui artist desăvârşit, își creează capodoperele din cele mai neașteptate momente. Eu insumi am constatat, printr-o întorsătură neașteptată a destinului, că viața este o scenă de magie, unde fiecare greșeală aparentă devine o iluzie bine meștesugită. Ca un regizor tăcut, am învațat să joc rolul Creatorului.

Astăzi, mă văd fiind un sculptor care lucrează la cea mai importantă operă de artă: propria viață. Cu fiecare decizie, cu fiecare acțiune, adaug o nouă lovitură de daltă, dezvăluind treptat forma care se ascunde în interiorul meu. Nu știu încă cum va arăta capodopera finală, dar știu că voi continua să lucrez la ea până în ultima mea zi.

Leadershipul se manifestă în abilitatea de a vedea dincolo de imperfecțiuni, de a modela destinul din ceea ce pare pierdut, de a avea curajul să urmezi calea necunoscută.

Cartea vieții mele va fi și ea martoră la un număr de magie, într-un formidabil spectacol de iluzionism, în care personajul principal nu este doar un erou, ci o metaforă pentru fiecare dintre noi atunci când ne confruntăm cu necunoscutul. Și poate că Bastian, cu timiditatea și nesiguranța lui, este o lecție mai mare: că fragilitatea nu este un defect, ci un început.

Vezi ceea ce nu se vede? Este o întrebare al cărei răspuns îl poate da numai cel ce are curajul să privească dincolo de aparențe, dincolo de limitele impuse. Ceea ce nu se vede, apare totdeauna când nu te aștepți.

Orice roman ce abundă de o sensibilitate deosebită, aduce în discuție sentimente felurite, te poartă prin meandrele sufletului omenesc, făcându-te să îți imaginezi fiecare eveniment, trăind sentimentele personajelor într-un mod intens. Descrieri ale naturii conturează un peisaj mirific, purtându-te dincolo de real, într-o lume de basm, în care totul pare posibil.

"Nu te teme de provocări", îmi șoptește chiar acum sufletul, trecând printre amintiri cu acea determinare neînfricată a lui Atreyu, umplut cu intensitatea inocentă a lui Bastian, și regăsit fară egal în măiestria lui Houdini.

Vezi doar ceea ce te aştepţi să vezi?

Momentele ce decid cursul unei vieți se consumă adesea în fața ochilor orbi, nepregătiți să prindă esența profundă a realităţii.

S-a întâmplat în faţa tuturor, dar ca şi cum nu s-ar fi întâmplat nimic. Pe pajiștea verde a platoului din dealul Copoului, în lumina sclipitoare a soarelui, s-a desfășurat o scenă de tragedie, fără ca nimeni să bage de seamă. Omul era pe punctul de a-și încheia cursa vieții, un sfârșit aproape poetic, asemeni legendarului concurs de la Maraton. Alergătorul cu experiență bogată în atletism a trecut linia de sosire, apoi a căzut brusc la pământ, ca secerat de o cumplită epuizare, pe fondul unei Herongia Anteatum, o cauzalitate precară între dozele mari de adrenalină. Căzuse, la fel ca un soldat răpus pe câmpul de luptă, fără ca nimeni să acorde importanţă acestui moment nefast.

Fiecare final poate fi un început, dar nu toți sunt pregătiți să-l vadă astfel. Posibilitatea accidentării, sau a vreunei crize la nivel psihic, nu a fost o opţiunea luată în calcul de acest alergător care a ajuns pe locul al doilea. Cu certitudine, nu i-au trecut prin minte imagini ale unui final dezastruos, nimic nu i-a stopat avântul spre "nemăsurat", urmând calea nefirească ce decurge dintr-un Ego care i-a repetat tare şi răspicat: "Doveşte că poţi !"

Experienţa lui bogată în atletism, a mascat lucrul (cu adevărat important) la care a trebuia să se concentreze. Şi-a comparat percepţia iniţială cu realitatea evidentă, ignorând indiciile corpului care arătau o slăbiciune tot mai precară. Aş zice altfel. Să insiști asupra pasiunii, în pofida a tot ce ți se poate întâmpla, înseamnă să dai viață unei picturi, fără să o protejezi împotriva vicisitudinilor.

Așteptările lui au fost mai puternice decât mesajul conștiinței care l-a avertizat cu privire la ceea ce i se putea întâmpla. Practic, a ignorat ceea ce majoritatea ar fi văzut într-o situaţie critică: "În fața încercărilor vieții, adevăratul curaj constă în a recunoaște limitele și a acționa în consecință."

Leadership: Cum scoți din tine esența sufletului, atunci când realitatea îți impune să te oprești înainte de a atinge imposibilul?

Natura impasibilă asistă la tragedii umane ce se consumă ca niște flăcări solitare, nevăzute de ochii multora. Între soarele și pământ, un fir se rupe, lăsând o viață să se odihnească pe culcușul uitării tăcute. Alergătorul şi-a revenit până la urmă, datorită echipajului de la SMURD care a intervenit prompt, reușind să prevină inevitabilul. Dar ceea ce avem de învăţat este aceasta: "Urmărirea obsesivă a pasiunii poate orbi față de avertismentele ființei, ducând la ignorarea limitelor proprii, cu consecințe potențial tragice."

A scoate din tine esenţa sufletului, înseamnă să-ţi recunoşti propria ignoranţă şi să o transformi în avertisment, înseamnă să-ţi recunoşti neputinţa atunci când corpul te impinge la cădere. Aceste recunoașteri te ajută să fii mai umil și mai conștient de limitele tale, ceea ce poate fi crucial pentru creșterea personală și evitarea unor situații tragice.

Alergătorul nu este un zeu. Experiențele sale de-a lungul anilor l-au învățat să ignore durerea, să-și suprime semnalele de avertizare ale corpului. Acest considerent nu a făcut din el un erou, decizia lui de a-și risca viața la o competiție locală dovedindu-se a fi o încercare hazardată de a-și întrece limita normală a corpului. În sufletul său s-a dat o bătălie mult mai dură decât cea a cursei, o luptă între a-și urma ambiția și a-și recunoaște slăbiciunea. Tu vei alege să te oprești și să verifici realitatea înainte de a te avânta să ajungi erou?

Leadership: Poți recunoaște că experiențele anterioare nu te pregătesc întotdeauna pentru momentele critice, conform unei viziuni care separă realitatea de ideal?

E simplu. Nu a putut face faţă situaţiei. Tot ce i s-a întâmplat până atunci, toată experienţa căpătată la zecile de concursuri, nu l-au pregătit pentru acest moment critic. Nimeni nu devine erou dacă moare după ce-a trecut linia de finnish, ci dacă reuşeşte să înfăptuiască imposibilul în lupta cu viaţa. Când te afli într-o situație critică, ia în calcul responsabilitatea de a te opri, altfel circumstanțele îți vor perturba concentrarea la fiecare pas.

Percepția individuală corespunde unui anumit mod de funcționare a organelor vitale, unui anumit ritm, predilect organismului fiecăruia. În cazul alergătorului, posibilitatea accidentării sau a unei crize nu a fost niciodată luată în calcul. Nu i-au trecut prin minte imagini ale unui final dezastruos, deși semnele au fost evidente pe ultima sută de metri. Așteptările sale, mai puternice decât realitatea, l-au împins să ignore pericolele. Cu fiecare pas, corpul său i-a trimis semnale, dar mintea sa a refuzat să le accepte. Ego-ul a fost mai puternic decât raţiunea.

Leadership: Ai curajul să-ți expui perspectiva asupra unui eveniment declanșator de destin fatidic, evidențiind astfel contrastul dintre ambiție și fragilitate?

Decizia de a-și risca viața într-o competiție locală s-a dovedit a fi fatidică. În loc să devină erou, alergătorul a devenit un exemplu de avertisment, pe care eu îl pot formula în felul următor: "Intensitatea trăirilor noastre poate fi o sursă de putere, dar și o cale spre autodistrugere." Să reţinem, deci, că receptarea experiențelor traumatice este o modalitate a conștiinței de a se institui pe sine nu doar în calitate de posesoare al durerii, ci de creatoare a ei.

Cred că slăbiciunea sportivului constă în a trăi o viață plină și puternică, dusă la maxim în direcția unei ambiții nesfârșite. Dar numai cei cu simțul tragic al existenței pot sesiza violența tăcută a evenimentelor decisive, sub aparențele efemere. Aici se nimeresc perfect cuvintele scriitorului Ion Frunzetti: "Răsunetul plăcerii de a ne depăși limitele ne îndumnezeiește brusc, triumful nostru asupra lumii părând astfel asigurat. Plăcerea este beție sacră, chiar dacă asfințitul ei ne aruncă în iad."

Marea artă a leadershipului constă în a ne desăvârși aspirațiile nobile, dar protejându-le împotriva propriilor vicisitudini interioare. Curajul de a ne accepta limitele este adevărata măreție.

Vezi doar ceea ce te aștepți să vezi atunci când Ego-ul, mult prea mare, îți cere să împlinești imposibilul. Mai mult decât atât, îți îngustezi orizonturile prin faptul că refuzi să vezi dincolo de propriile convingeri. Aşa cum spuneam la început, momentele ce decid cursul unei vieți se consumă adesea în fața ochilor orbi, nepregătiți să prindă esența profundă a realităţii.

Vezi, într-adevăr, lucrul acesta?

Privirea care interoghează tăcerea, găsește deseori răspunsuri în ecoul clipei care trece.

Duminică m-am plimbat prin Parcul Expoziţiei. Într-un colț al aleii principale, l-am revăzut pe bătrânul cu acordeonul, despre care v-am mai povestit. Dar nu mai era omul cu zâmbet pe chip de săptămâna trecută, ci un om tăcut, singur și reflexiv, cu obrajii brăzdaţi de urme ale tristeții, abia așteptând să-și găsească alinarea. Contau doar banii pe care trecătorii îi aruncau în cutia milei, dintr-o veche amintire a tinereţii, pentru pasiunea care altădată îl însufleţise cu adevărat.

În armonia unei melodii, fiecare suflet își găsește povestea. Cu oarecare nedumerire, dintr-un fel de complezenţă, îl priveam şi îl ascultam în timp ce acordeonul lui interpreta melodia "El Paso". La început punea suflet, edificându-și parcă propria lume sonoră, de unde și varianta unei adânciri în realitatea evadării din cotidian, organizată parcă în perimetrul acțiunii virtuale a unei iluzii. Suspicios, dezaprobator, se uită fugitiv la mine ca și cum ar fi trebuit să fie arestat imediat pentru nu știu ce păcat, ca un reper pentru propria-i dezamăgire, într-o cronologie a contrastelor metro-ritmice sui generis.

Omul nu spune nimic, dar sufletul pune pe note tăcerile, iar acordeonul le dă glas, transformându-le în melodii melancolice care plutesc în aerul rece al serii. Cumva, sufletul lui rezonează parcă cu simţirea unui personaj al lui Erich Maria Remarque din romanul "Arcul de triumf":

- Aş vrea să plec departe de toate astea. Departe de locul ăsta, departe de ceea ce fac, departe de ceea ce ştiu, departe de ceea ce trebuie să arăt, departe de ceea ce mi se întâmplă. Departe ! Departe ! De ce trebuie să duc viaţa asta? Nu pot trăi ca ceilalţi oameni care se iubesc? Nu pot fi împreună cu cineva şi să avem în jurul nostru lucruri care să ne aparţină, nu pot avea seri liniştite şi sigure, în locul acestui vid fizic particular, în locul acestor zile pustii şi al acestui "il momento prima" unde mă simt străin de mine însumi?

Leadership: Cum s-ar transforma percepția ta despre realitate dacă linia orizontului ar fi doar o interpretare subiectivă, modelată de conștiința individuală concretă?

În momentele de așteptare, inima învață limba întrebărilor fără cuvinte. Discret, pe fondul unei sensibilităţi răscolitoare, îl priveam pe bătrân în timp ce interpreta un solo cu o ritmică pulsatorie, reliefată și mai pregnant de opoziția simultană a sunetelor grave și a celor înalte. Melodia este un limbaj universal, vorbind direct sufletului. Chipul lui era de nedescifrat, ca și cum ascundea un secret profund, iar ochii săi reflectau o tăcere fragilă, gravă, putând fi descris de un artist doar printr-un soi de melancolie discretă, dar pregnantă. Așadar, a sosit și momentul acesta al privirii care cere întrebări. Îl aşteptase şi el de câtva timp.

Reflecția adâncă deschide porțile înțelegerii, chiar și în absența cuvintelor rostite. Şi iarăşi, acelaşi ton al personajului din romanul lui Remarque, mi-a trezit parcă un sentiment zguduitor:

- Mă vede cineva acum, acum, pe mine astfel, cântăreţul anonim şi sărac? Altă lume are toate astea! Căldură, lucruri comune, câteva odăi unde dacă închizi uşa, neliniştea se duce şi nu se strecoară în suflet, ca aici. Nimeni nu ştie ce este realitatea, toţi acceptă doar visul. Schimbarea este singura constantă în viață, iar adaptabilitatea este cheia supraviețuirii emoționale.

În acordurile unui acordeon, se ascunde o poveste neexprimată, căci pe chipul bătrânului se citea o umbră de tristeţe, un soi de Asseata Inahoriza Obekabees, lipsa unui răspuns din rugile sale. Nu e singurul motiv. Mai e și un altul, dar îl ascundea sub o neliniște ascunsă, sub nevoia de a pune capul în pământ decât să simtă cum îl priveşte lumea - ca pe un cerşetor, nu ca pe un muzician. O lume mare este pentru cineva o lume mică, chiar mai mică decât şi-ar putea cineva închipui.

Leadership: Percepția ta asupra lumii poate fi modelată prin intermediul imaginii la care te raportezi atunci când surprinzi esența vieții, sub îndrumarea unei compoziții în care dominanța sonoră reflectă emoția autentică?

Un parc este asemenea unei oaze. Înveți să prețuiești iarăși lucrurile simple. Plimbarea. Respirația. Priveliştea. Iar în fiecare întâmplare pe care ochii o sesizează se ascunde o promisiune de inedit și de neuitat. Şi nu-i aşa că experiențele neobișnuite sunt cele care ne modelează și ne definesc existența? Așadar, într-o lume în care toţi suntem înconjurați de tehnologie, există încă locuri și momente în care esența umană se manifestă în cea mai pură formă a sa, prin artă, muzică și contemplare. Tot ce vedem este o lecție despre valoarea momentelor autentice și despre puterea artei de a conecta oamenii cu natura, de a ne emoționa și de a ne îmbogăți existența.

După cum aţi observat, abilitatea mea constă în surprinderea și alegerea optimă a acelui "moment banal", când protagonistul și ambianța sunt în realitate directă, unde ambianța este puritatea conținutului pe care îl exprimă muzicianul, captând esența și emoția pură. Fără să compromit în vreun fel înțelegerea sensurilor profunde ale mesajului: "muzica este o reflectare a vieții însăși", cred că muzicianul este OMUL TOTAL, al totalității reprezentării vieții pe scena unei imagini, apropiindu-se de un mediu particular în care realitatea și visul se întrepătrund, creând o punte între lumea interioară și cea exterioară.

Aşadar, imaginea surprinsă de ochii mei are darul să îmbrățișeze într-un singur cadru o situație de compromis a realității actuale, între sensibilitate și percepție, cu trimitere la poetica lui Borges: "surprinderea vieții în însuși actul de a fi trăită", încât realitatea să se dezvăluie în straturi complexe de înțeles. De fapt, imaginea și sunetul (la fel ca în cinematografie) reprezintă un topos. Depinde de locul în care este amplasat privitorul, încât el să le perceapă mai mult sau mai puțin divizat, disociat, corespunzând unei experiențe care variază în funcție de perspectivă și interpretarea fiecăruia.

Leadership: Poţi să captezi esența unui moment nealterat de prejudecăți sau constrângeri exterioare, într-un mod care să rămână fidel esenței tale?

Fără a persista ca o utopie pozitivă, cum că viața se poate transfera, intactă și neimediată pe ecranul ochilor mei, capturând esența momentului, am încercat să evidențiez modul în care imaginea și sunetul se îmbină pentru a crea o experiență multisenzorială. În acest fel, percepția nu s-a limitat doar la ce am văzut sau am auzit separat, ci la felul cum aceste două simțuri lucrează împreună pentru a-mi oferi o înțelegere mai profundă și mai completă a momentului captat.

Fără a avea nevoie de cuvinte, arta mea vorbește direct din inimă, demonstrând că, într-un prezent adesea dominat de imagini efemere și de o realitate virtuală tot mai invazivă, puterea creaţiei trăite și experimentate direct, "în carne și oase", își păstrează valoarea inestimabilă.

În acest cadru, muzicianul cu acordeonul devine pentru mine un simbol al autenticității și al conexiunii umane autentice, reamintindu-mi de nevoia profund umană de frumos, de adevăr și de artă ce răzbate dincolo de ecranul digital.

Da, este posibil să captezi esența unui moment fără să te limitezi doar la ceea ce ai văzut sau auzit separat. Percepția ta despre un moment poate fi influențată de mai multe aspecte, inclusiv emoțiile, experiențele anterioare și interpretarea personală a contextului. Astfel, poţi integra informații din toate experiențele tale anterioare pentru a-ţi forma o percepție mai cuprinzătoare și mai autentică a momentului respectiv. Acest lucru îţi permite să captezi esența și semnificația unui moment într-un mod mai complet și mai profund.

Ajustează-ţi perspectiva asupra vieţii urmărind modul în care se articulează esenţa unui moment trecător, astfel încât percepția ta să alunece înspre introspecţie.

Vezi, într-adevăr, lucrul acesta? Întreabă-te dacă ești cu adevărat conștient de ceea ce ochii îți revelează în momentele trecătoare ale vieții, dacă vrei să înțelegi cu adevărat lumea şi pe tine însuţi, astfel încât tot ceea ce experimentezi să devină o lecție valoroasă.

Viaţa de dincolo de experienţa vieţii

On Aprilie 30, 2014

Conferă ştiinţei tale calitate, fără să faci din viaţa ta o imitaţie.

Pătrundeam treptat într-o lume de valori şi semnificaţii care ajungea mai reală şi mai plină de drepturi decât lumea experienţei obişnuite, în care totul începea şi se termina cu mine. Sau mai degrabă cu dublura mea, imitându-mă în tot şi în toate, existând doar pentru a concretiza trecerea mea prin această lume. O lume văzută constrângător printr-un val de metafore, suportând parcă o conexiune cu un satelit artificial aflat în mişcare orbitală apropiat de un astru neidentificat, care creştea, descreştea şi dispărea.

În compoziţia acestei lumi create cu puterea gândului, o bijuterie cu mai multe perle perfecte se putea mai frumos înlocui cu un lanţ de acţiune plin de neprevăzut, susţinut de un ritm alert, imaginaţie şi originalitate. Numai pe fondul de experienţe şi înţelegeri imaginative. Continuu, păream însufleţit de acea arie a ştiinţei subiective care oricât ai încerca să-i conferi calitate, inerent încărcată cu producţie de complexitate mică sau medie, rămâne doar o imitaţie a vieţii.

Straniu, simţeam interminabil că mi s-a administrat o doză unică de bogăţie intelectuală, ca şi cum m-aş fi întors plin de învăţăminte valoroase dintr-o expediţie plină de neprevăzut care mă purtase prin cele mai încântătoare colţuri ale lumii fantastice, stăpânite de o forţă de cunoaştere superioară. Investisem timp într-un proiect inovator, într-o viziune dincolo de "simplu", dincolo de experienţa propriei mele vieţi, devenind treptat un extinzător al potenţialului interior neştiut.

Examinând în forul meu interior viaţa pe care aveam s-o duc, o puteam oare socoti potrivită pentru acea dezvoltare armonioasă, atât de mult râvnită, spre un necunoscut înalt?

Fenomenul invers: Poţi să pui în ajutorul leadershipului dependenţa ta de a fi conectat la o artă improbabilă, imaginându-te parte a unei lumi anonime care influenţează parcursul definirii unui ideal mai înalt de raportare la o nouă versiune a ta?

Liderul are în el, pentru misiunea ce-o are de îndeplinit ca înfăptuitor al unei gândiri care demonstrează mult-râvnita superioritate a omului faţă de tot ceea ce reprezintă ştiinţa, două centre: creierul şi inima. Amândouă îi întăresc imunitatea împotriva bolii foarte răspândite numite "dependenţa de a fi altcineva".

În timp ce preocuparea unui scriitor de ficţiune, esenţială dintre artă şi viaţă, este de a se transporta într-un viitor îndepărtat, dialogând cu universul într-un limbaj neştiut de nimeni. În arta scrisului, încercarea de a atinge ineditul printr-o formă de pact imaginar cu altă realitate ajunge să constituie o modă care se reîntoarce, un obicei care nu se mai pierde.

Din punctul meu de vedere, versiunea omului care întrezăreşte viitorul şi care aspiră să-l domine este fix combinaţia dintre dimensiunea viziunii liderului şi dimensiunea creatoare a scriitorului. Primul construieşte imaginea ideală a ceea ce îşi doreşte să realizeze în viitor printr-o gândire mai realistă, aprofundată, inovatoare şi mai adaptată diverselor situaţii de viaţă. Celălalt creează empatie faţă de personajele sale, faţă de povestirea sa, provocându-i pe cititori la o aventură intensă şi neobişnuită pornită dintr-un punct A stabil şi continuată până într-un punct B fără întoarcere.

Aici trebuie avut în vedere considerentul dependenţei de sine, având ca şi constituent de bază experienţele şi înţelegerile imaginative - rezultatul fiind dublura ta într-un spaţiu de interferenţă a realităţii cu povestea unui intelectual ajuns într-un punct fix al lumii, de unde cercetează semnificaţiile frontierei cu o altă lume.

Idealul de raportare la o nouă versiune personală priveşte acea cunoaştere izvorâtă din amestecul de stăpânire de sine, motivaţie, empatie, gândire liberă, tact, diplomaţie, şi procesul de transformare a unei plăsmuiri în adevăr, a cărei unică destinaţie este posibilitatea de a te deschide către alte moduri de a crea o realitate.

Leadership: Poţi să creezi o realitate care să existe doar prin prisma a ceea ce spui despre tine într-o formă de poveste, servind la a pune lucrurile în alte perspective sau de evidenţia un aspect nerezolvat în fiinţa ta?

Devii un agent virtual atunci când existenţa ta devine o poveste inventată doar pentru a justifica trecerea ta prin această lume. În acest caz, dependenţa de sine înseamnă o reîntoarcere continuă la ceea ce nu se poate schimba, indiferent de timp şi circumstanţe. Nu mai trăieşti prin altcineva şi pentru altcineva, ci trăieşti doar prin tine şi pentru tine, toate "minunile" lumii fiind văzute doar ca nişte factori inerţi.

Aceasta este o artă improbabilă, arta de a te pierde înainte de a te regăsi. Rămâne doar o singură paranteză de rezolvat: "Singurul meu regret este singurătatea."

Devii un robot care trebuie să găsească cea mai scurtă cale dintre un punct de pornire, susţinându-te şi impulsionându-te atunci când vrei să faci schimbări reale pe frontul larg al ştiinţei. Sau poţi să devii punctul final de destinaţie din interiorul unui spaţiu existenţial real populat cu multe clişee şi lacune.

Viaţa de dincolo de existenţa vieţii nu este doar o realitate creată cu scopul de a deveni parte dintr-o lume concurenţială, ci evidenţiază un aspect nerezolvat în fiinţa ta: nehotărârea de a alege între impulsul sentimentului de uimire în faţa altei realităţi şi impulsul sentimentului de nesiguranţă în faţa viitorului.

Poţi să pui în ajutorul leadershipului dependenţa dulce de a fi conectat la arta de a funcţiona ca un robot? Acest mod improbabil de "a fi", evident câştigă teren în faţa progresului, dar numai ca un "bun" de redusă utilitate, în condiţiile în care demersurile tale ştiinţifice cresc peste normal. Practic ajungi în situaţia de a nu-ţi mai putea onora obligaţiile de viaţă, limitându-le. Sau, altfel spus, viaţa ta ajunge o imitaţie care slujeşte unor scopuri exterioare ei, mai presus de tine însuţi.

Aici are loc fenomenul invers. În loc să faci tu din leadership o ştiinţă, leadershipul realizează din tine un produs menit să satisfacă toate trebuinţele ştiinţei existente, în legătură cu obţinerea unor noi variabile de diferenţiere individuală.

Leadershipul se poate prezenta ca o manifestare a propriului temperament estetic-creativ care rezidă în capacitatea de a surprinde spontan şi prompt frumosul unei realităţi particulare. O realitate construită pe baza aprofundării unui ideal de raportare la o lume de care oricine se poate apropia şi începe s-o cunoască până ce ajunge să facă definitiv parte din ea.

Viaţa de dincolo de experienţa vieţii scoate în evidenţă acea abatere de la regulă prin sporirea gradului de cunoaştere, care influenţează negativ sensul vieţii. Vizează acea apartenenţă la o lume plină de provocări, dar în acelaşi timp plină de întrebări şi prejudecăţi, prin care liderul-creator încalcă obligaţia de a respecta normele privind asigurarea unei contribuţii suplimentare la fondul său propriu de strălucire.

Nu poţi să "străluceşti" dacă rămâi tributar unei concepţii dualiste care postulează o distanţă între ştiinţă şi viaţă, între lumea ireală şi sinele tău.

Viaţa, moartea, nemurirea

Încearcă să evaluezi ponderea creaţiei tale menită să funcţioneze ca o formă de verificare practică a unei imagini vizuale, ţinând cont de faptul că lumea obiectivă prezintă un aspect empiric specific dezvoltării spirituale.

Tema de bază a filmului "Que viva Mexico" este: viaţa, moartea, nemurirea. Gânduri proprii, mai vechi, se amestecă aici cu cele născute din ambianţa Mexicului. Artistul îşi pune problema morţii şi a nemuririi. Biologic suntem muritori. Nemurirea o putem atinge doar prin contribuţia noastră la activitatea socială. Suntem câte unul din cei ce predăm ştafeta evoluţiei de la generaţia precedentă la cea următoare. "Scopul luptei noastre pentru nemurire, a oamenilor trecuţi prin vulcanul revoluţiei socialiste – se gândeşte regizorul Serghei Eisenstein – este libertatea omenirii".

Gândurile iscate de luptele de tauri, care simbolizau, metaforizau ideea generală în concretul lor, renasc acum în gândirea artistului cu altă forţă, la alte dimensiuni. Acum are loc geneza acestui fir conducător care ordonează toate impresiile din aceste lumi, care transformă învolburarea senzaţiilor într-o precisă desfăşurare a temei. În gestaţia operei se oglindeşte astfel nu numai multitudinea de fapte percepute, ci însăşi dinamica procesului de creaţie.

Drumul acesta înălţător către o viaţă nouă, către ideile noi nu mai este o simplă formulă compoziţională, ci tema însăşi în forma unei imagini vii, plastice, născută din nenumăratele chipuri, imagini, evenimente, obiceiuri, festivităţi, întâmplări, în care zeii vieţii şi ai morţii îşi încrucişează drumurile. Este aici un joc al vieţii şi al morţii, o întrecere între viaţă şi moarte.

Leadership: Ştii să-ţi valorifici calitatea de a împărtăşi lumii lecţii importante de creaţie în sensul unei valori acordate relaţiei directe dintre "multitudinea de fapte percepute diferit la vârste diferite" şi forma unei imagini vii a spiritualizării?

Explicaţiile şi ideile pe care le aduci domeniului artistic, prin revenirea la "detaliul surprinzător", nu printr-o luptă a gândurilor, ci printr-una a faptelor ce reies din câmpul vieţii şi din pildele unor oameni care și-au lăsat adânc amprenta în istoria omenirii, ajută la evocarea unei imagini vii a luptei actuale dintre forţele spirituale şi cele materiale, dintre lumină şi întuneric.

Iar dacă eşti un regizor care se bazează pe forţele spirituale, precum sunt creaţia sau libertatea de exprimare sub toate formele sale, atunci forma imaginii pe care o dai spiritualizării va fi dezvoltată corespunzător temei: "întâlnirii dintre bine şi frumos". De fapt, dezvoltarea artei sub aspectul spiritualizării este în strânsă legătură cu forţa şi expresia unei imagini care redă întâlnirea creativă dintre forma şi conţinutul "Operei de artă" menită să scoată în evidenţă frumosul unei lumi care îşi merită cealaltă jumătate într-o realitate mult visată.

Cea mai importantă lecţie de creaţie este miracolul unei lumi aflată în veşnică schimbare, surprinsă într-o clipă de eternitate.

Dacă ne gândim la faptul că cea mai înaltă aspiraţie a fiecărui suflet de artist este să dea sens unei vieţi capabile să oglindească o lume paralelă, şi dacă dinamica procesului de creaţie trebuie să urmeze forma unei imagini vii a personalităţii artistice, atunci ceea ce poţi împlini la un nivel de subiectivitate este trecerea de la planul apropiat la cel îndepărtat. Aici, totodată, ne putem referi la trecerea de la partea sensibilă a sufletului, la partea "eternă" a unei minţi atotcuprinzătoare.

Chiar şi conştiinţa, hrănindu-se prin cuvântul "schimbare", îşi face aici loc prin existenţa eternă a unei minţi atotcuprinzătoare care amestecă timpurile şi emoţiile, vieţile şi destinele, în aşa fel încât lecţia de creaţie să înceapă cu valoarea acordată relaţiei directe dintre multitudinea de fapte percepute diferit la vârste diferite şi forma unei imagini vii a spiritualizării. Asta înseamnă, de fapt, să priveşti arta prin prisma unei vieţi care îşi continuă cursul într-o manieră compoziţională, la nivelul vizualului, ceea ce face ca imaginaţia spectatorului să treacă dincolo de limitele unei realităţi directe.

Astfel, forma unei imagini vii a spiritualizării reiese din nemurirea pe care o asiguri prin contribuţia ta la activitatea artistică, prin intermediul unei creaţii care îşi extinde realitatea spre o uşoară fantezie menită să aducă viziuni noi despre posibilităţile de abordare a lumii care nu încetează să se reflecte permanent în altă lume.

Leadershipul este imaginea schimbarii pe care se contureaza viitorul interacţiunii dintre actul creaţiei şi conştiinţa spirituală asumată prin lucrarea sentimentului de însemnătate pe care ţi-l conferă o realitate mult visată.

Viaţa, moartea, nemurirea sunt cei trei factori care contribuie la realizarea libertăţii de creaţiei ştiinţifice şi artistice, din care cauză ea se mai numeşte şi creaţie continuă, într-o transformare ciclică, şi numai oamenii de înaltă valoare le marchează succesiunea printr-o ceremonie cu forme, cromatică, imagini, concept, decor, mesaje idei, senzaţii, emoţii şi căutări.

Dezvoltarea spirituală începe prin învăţarea artei, aşa cum "Facerea" începe prin relatarea creaţiei lumii. Deci, numai prin coerenţă artistică se poate atinge miracolul unei lumi noi.

Viaţa unui bătrân pusă în slujba deşertăciunii

On Septembrie 30, 2012

Felul cum abordezi realitatea celorlalţi oameni, poate să îţi ridice sau să îţi dărâme lumea interioară.

O scenă din filmul " No Country for Old Men (2007) ". Anton Chigurh, asasinul cu sânge rece, se opreşte la o benzinărie, undeva în mijlocul pustiului. Era tipul de om care nu ţintea spre o anumită morală, dar credea într-o orânduire a tuturor lucrurilor de pe această lume; o forţă malefică, un rătăcitor care ameninţa să condamne pe toată lumea la damnare. Avea tendinţa să trateze lumea cu o autoritate pe care toţi o primeau destul de prost.

Politicos, bătrânul de la tejghea, în timp ce calcula preţul benzinei, încearcă să poarte o conversaţie cu Chigurh, străinul. O greşeală fatală. Asemenea unui personaj al lui Victor Hugo, niciun viitor deosebit nu părea să-l mai aştepte. Niciun mugure al ambiţiei nu se încumeta să mai înflorească în umbra sa. De bună voie şi-a săpat mormântul.

Chigurh scoase din buzunar o monedă de douăzeci şi cinci de cenţi şi o aruncă în sus, făcând-o să se învârtă în lucirea rece şi albăstruie a lămpii fluorescente de deasupra. O prinse şi-o trânti pe dosul antebraţului.

„Alege, zise el."

Ca un om prins în angrenajul unei sorţi inexorabile, bătrânul răspunse neliniştit:

"N-am pus nimic în joc."

"Ba da, ai pus. Ţi-ai pus în joc toată viaţa. Numai că nu-ţi dai seama."

„N-are nici o logică ce spui, domnule."

„Alege ! "

Ce nerăbdătoare-i moartea ! Bătrânul pus în faţa unui proces existenţial. O confruntare între refuz şi acceptare, între moarte şi viaţă, între ghinion şi noroc. O reacţie decisivă la climatul de insecuritate în care se trezise brusc. Ca şi cum toate forţele destinului s-ar fi unit împotriva sa. Credo in parem ! *

Ce încurcătură de neînţeles, ca o reţea de cabluri încâlcite conectate la un generator propriu. I se cerea parcă să ducă de bună voie în spinare o imensă cruce, o luptă stabilită probabil de mult cu sine însuşi, deşertăciunea unei singure aruncări a zarului. Câtă minte îi trebuie unui om ca să-şi pună astfel viaţa în slujba deşertăciunii?

„Atunci, să fie cap."

Leadership: Ţi-ai pus problema distincţiei între "Liberul arbitru" şi "Înfricoşătorul promontoriu al gândirii"?

Felul cum contribui la înţelegerea realităţii conturează acea buclă de responsabilitate care te înconjoară, te izolează şi te trage spre o stare de perfectă liniște sufletească prin detașarea de frământările lumii. Sau, invers, te trage spre o stare de înstrăinare de sine, respectiv de a nu te putea vedea pe tine însuţi aşa cum credeai că te ştii.

În momentul unei experienţe de viaţă diferite devii mai conştient de acel Eu care experimentează deplinătatea sensibilității, a slăbiciunii şi indeciziei, care înseamnă aspiraţia spiritului uman spre ceea ce este adevărat, bun şi frumos.Eu, care la rândul său, îţi pune în valoare calităţile, convingerile, structura psihică şi emoţională.

Sau, cum spunea cineva, tu eşti creatorul propriei tale realităţi prin gândurile pe care le pui laolaltă pentru a forma imaginea de ansamblu, pe care apoi, prin observare, o materializezi în plan fizic.

Liberul arbitru ne poate îndemna să credem că sfârşitul existenţei noastre ca fiinţe libere, dotate cu conştiinţă, va veni o dată cu trecerea anilor, o dată cu decizia de a ne separa de convingerile noastre în favoarea acceptării deciziilor altora mai autoritari, mai buni administratori ai campaniei de transformare a realităţii obiective. Prin tot ceea ce suntem şi facem în trecerea spre o etapă mai responsabilă a maturizării, prin raţiunea şi emoţiile noastre, devenim mai conştienţi de impactul nostru asupra a ceea ce ne înconjoară şi de ceea ce primim în schimb de la ceilalţi.

Liberul arbitru apare atunci când devenim conştienţi de gândurile noastre şi le ţinem sub control. El este responsabil de ceea ce creăm în realitatea noastră atunci când hotărâm alegerea acţiunii.

Victor Hugo a spus superb în tulburătorul studiu despre Shakespeare: "Orice om poartă în sine un Pathmos. El e liber să se ducă sau nu pe acest înfricoşător promontoriu al gândirii unde se zăresc tenebrele".

În acest caz, "înfricoşătorul promontoriu al gândirii unde se zăresc tenebrele" vizează tocmai îngrădirea liberului arbitru. Este ruptura dintre lumea noastră interioară şi exterioară, spre folosul altcuiva. Este neîncrederea care se naşte din propriile noastre convingeri, care ne îngrădeşte libertatea de alegere, ne limitează şi ne transformă în sclavii absoluţi ai unei realităţi străine şi prea invazive. Este rezultatul unei lupte prestabilite cu noi înşine. Deşertăciunea unei singure aruncări a zarului. O confruntare între refuz şi acceptare, între ghinion şi noroc.

Câtă minte ne trebuie ca să punem astfel viaţa în slujba deşertăciunii?

Leadership: Ţi se cere să porţi o vină care nu îţi aparţine?

Singuri ne prindem în propria noastră cursă, induşi în eroare de acea stare de a ne simţi înfrânţi, distruşi, pierduţi asemenea unui vultur orb în căutarea prăzii. Ca un fel de cedare de suflete, de mentalităţi, atitudini, la comanda unei autorităţi supreme. Consecinţa unei reacţii decisive la climatul de insecuritate în care ne trezim brusc. Ca şi cum toate forţele destinului s-ar fi unit împotriva noastră, ne îndepărtăm de la drumul bun în favoarea unui altceva, nedrept şi nesigur – o îndepărtare de la libertatea de a fi ceea ce suntem de fapt.

A ne conecta la realitatea oamenilor care nu tolerează prea bine ideea unei egalităţi, armonizându-ne cu ei la nivel psihic şi emoţional printr-o atitudine de om înfrânt, este ca şi cum cineva ne-ar cere să purtăm o vină care nu ne aparţine, şi să trăim cu ea pe veci. O vină care ne izolează automat, îngrădindu-ne toate drepturile şi libertăţile, impunându-ne alte legi, alte drepturi şi alte datorii.

Principala dificultate a omului supus îndoielii este de a ajunge la nişte concluzii mai sigure în ceea ce priveşte susţinerea solidarităţii faţă de o raţiune mai de puternică care ştie cum să se pună în valoare în raport cu însuşirile sale de referinţă şi să se folosească de ele în propriul său scop.

A urca pe acel promontoriu al conştiinţei pline de regrete şi vină înseamnă să te apropii de acea parte din tine care este încă rănită de agresorul numărul unu: acceptarea de a fi o fiinţă limitată.

Încercarea de a te apropia de un nivel de conştiinţă mai înalt este o călătorie fără sfârşit în căutarea adevărului interior, a virtuţilor cele mai înalte care fac din tine un supravieţuitor al fenomenului numit "liberul arbitru" sau un maestru al jocului mental.

Viaţa unui bătrân pusă în slujba deşertăciunii desemnează partea întunecată a realităţii care ne călăuzeşte de-a lungul transformărilor pe care le trăim. Un soi de replică la ceea ce se întâmplă atunci când acceptăm ca lumea exterioară să domine lumea noastră interioară, în matricea hazardului.

Dumnezeu ne-a creat cât mai puţin posibil, spunea cineva. Libertatea, această putere de a fi călăuză, această facultate a meritului, vrea ca omul să se refacă el însuşi… prin maximizarea capacităţii sale de a fi ceea ce este de fapt, sub umbrela liberului arbitru.

Felul cum abordezi realitatea celorlalţi oameni, poate să îţi ridice sau să îţi dărâme lumea interioară.

Viciul sufletelor mărunte

On Martie 06, 2014

Sondează-ţi limitele identităţii, făcând trecerea de la structura superficială a propriei tale fiinţe la structura profundă a acesteia.

Există anumite secrete pe care un om nu e dispus să le împartă cu nimeni. Nu că aveam prea multe, dar nu-mi plăcea să mă gândesc la ele. De fapt, nu-mi plăcea să mă gândesc la primul din ele. O chestie prostească. Puerilă. Nimic important. Avusesem şi eu o dorinţă de a avea un ceas de mână, pe care un băiat - un coleg de clasă - îl primise de la un naş de-al lui. Tânjeam şi eu după aşa ceva. Costa o grămadă de bani. Da, voiam ceasul şi nu ştiam dacă aveam vreodată norocul să am ceva asemănător. Şi într-o zi ne-am dus să patinăm împreună.

Gheaţa nu era destul de groasă ca să ne ţină. Iar noi nu ne gândiserăm la aşa ceva. Gheaţa s-a spart. Am patinat spre el. Se apucase cu mâinile de marginea copcii. Gheaţa îi tăia mâinile. M-am aplecat ca să-l trag afară, desigur, dar în minutul ăla am zărit strălucirea ceasului. Şi mi-am spus: "Să presupunem că se duce la fund şi se îneacă. Cât de uşor ar fi fost să..." *****

Leadership: Care este valoarea totală a tranzacţiilor de tip „Read-Only" pe care le generezi ca afiliat al realităţii materiale?

Nu poate deveni lider omul nemulţumit de propriile limite, impuse de neîmpliniri de ordin material, care se vede nevoit, de personalitatea-i duplicitară, să păstreze acea aparenţa de realitate ce devine certitudine prin raportarea la fapte. Dorinţa de a avea un ceas la mână poate reprezenta prilejul săvârşirii unei fapte mai puţin onorabile, prilejul unei uletiri perfide, dar totodată poate fi prilejul unei mereu reînnoite întâlniri cu sinele, pentru că ceea ce naşte monştri este chiar frământarea sufletului care nu suportă o limitare a puterii personale, deci o limitare aprecierii pe care o primeşti din partea oamenilor din jur.

Când omul se ataşează de o realitate materială, creând ritmic o atitudine de respingere a tot ce-l poate hrăni spiritual, sub influenţa unei conştiinţe şubrede care nu încearcă să-l oprească de la decizii ticăloase, el pierde contactul cu ceilalţi, fiind tras în jos spre spaţiul umbros al alterări de sine, al renegării tuturor principiilor morale.

Efectele leadershipul, generate de construcţia şi reconstrucţia realităţii pe care îşi lasă amprenta etică individul, sub influenţa experienţelor, conduitelor şi facultăţilor perceptive nedeformate ale propriei fiinţe, ca potenţialităţi de care se simte direct responsabil, se pot extinde masiv pe termen lung. Şi se dovedesc greu de calculat din cauza imposibilităţii determinării "materiei" din care omul este alcătuit, existente în stare neutră până ce este personalizată cu accente şi semnificaţii negative sau pozitive.

O tranzacţie de tip „Read-Only" pe care o generezi ca afiliat al realităţii materiale se referă la influenţa reciprocă dintre conştiinţă şi dorinţa de a avea mai mult, încât să fii singurul răspunzător de ceea ce eşti pregătit să tăinuieşti în tine ani buni.

Ca lider, ca om ce caută folos în cunoaşterea de sine pentru a-şi lărgi spectrul de referinţă - căruia îi corespunde un complex de directive ce în esenţă întăresc practicile curente, primeşti puncte de integritate şi credibilitate doar dacă iei în calcul valoarea totală a tranzacţiilor de tip „ Read-Only ".

Acestea nu sunt altceva decât nişte proceduri de mentenanţă a personalităţii, pe fondul unor particularităţi roditoare ale gândirii, asigurând derularea unor acţiuni care nu încalcă normele morale unanim acceptate de societate, sau termenii şi condiţiile de utilizare a realităţii îmbogăţite cu dorinţe şi aspiraţii ancorate la nivel spiritual.

Semnul unei alunecări în panta viciului este rezultatul unui Ego care cere totul din partea celorlalţi, dar nu este capabil să-şi învingă teama de a nu se fi ridicat la înălțimea așteptărilor lor.

Viciul sufletelor mărunte evidenţiază posibilitatea alunecării într-o zonă amorală pentru cei cu o structură superficială a propriului Eu. Liderul este propria lui creaţie. Şi ceea ce este şi îl defineşte s-a construit în timp, în baza unor jaloane stabilite prin educaţie şi autoeducaţie, respectate riguros toată viaţa.

* Notă: Agatha Christie - Endless Night

Victoria lui Romulus

On Aprilie 21, 2009

Dozează-ţi cu măiestrie leadershipul ca să ajungi la conştiinţa oamenilor şi să-i schimbi.

Pentru prima oară în viaţa lor, Eliot şi Romulus, tatăl şi fiul, se află faţă în faţă, urându-se de moarte. Romulus îşi plănuise cu grijă fiecare mişcare. Se aşeză la o masă, îşi întoarse capul spre bătrân şi îl privi în plin, aţintindu-şi cu încăpăţânare ochii asupra profilului zbârcit. Îşi concentră toată puterea în ochii tatălui său vitreg de parcă focul privirii sale ar fi putut să facă o gaură în ţeasta lui.

Tot felul de scenarii îi invadau mintea lui Eliot. În ce măsură este posibil ca toate aceste scenarii la care s-a gândit să se întâmple? Într-o mică măsură? Câteodată este util să ai o imagine clară a adevăratului dezastru, pentru că îţi poate da încrederea necesară pentru a-ţi asuma riscuri. Adevărul e că îl folosise pe Romulus, care fusese antrenat de mic copil în activitatea de spionaj, în toate acţiunile lui murdare. Dar cel mai rău lucru pe care îl făcuse a fost că l-a omorât pe Remus, fratele lui Romulus, al doilea fiul al său.

Romulus continua să-l aibă în faţa ochilor, imitându-i toate gesturile în mod intenţionat. În spatele acestei imitări de gesturi, ticuri şi tăceri se găsea o coerenţă, o ordine, o sursă de motivaţie. Eliot era descurajat, gata să lase totul baltă. La urma urmei era un bătrân nebun care îşi uitase fiul. Însă încă mai era şeful CIA, destul de dibaci şi agil în gândire. Nu vroia să se lase cuprins de panică. Într-un efort de a se stăpâni, încercă să-şi imagineze lucrurile în lumina cea mai bună posibilă. Însă nu avea idee cât de viclean putea să fie Romulus. Şi cât de răbdător.

În cele din urmă, învins psihologic de atitudinea lui Romulus, Eliot se ridică de la masă şi părăseşte încăperea. Prima înfrângere din viaţa unui om lipsit de orice sentimente, care îşi controla stările de spirit mai bine ca oricine, care era capabil să stăpânească complexitatea şi confuzia.

Leadership: Identificarea nevoii de a fi influencer poate reprezenta un mod de poziţionare a minţii tale spre angajarea gândirii pe traseul interogaţiei cu privire la sensului omului într-o capcană a iluziei?

Tu ai curajul să intri pe un teren nou? În leadership suişurile şi coborâşurile nu sunt întotdeauna unul şi acelaşi lucru. Cei care contribuie la succesul tău, la îmbunătăţirea calităţilor tale de leadership, pot fi tocmai aceia care te doboară.

În filmul "Brotherhood of the Rose (1989)", Romulus s-a transformat dintr-un simplu executant docil, într-un iniţiator de toată isprava. Potenţialul său de lider nu ar fi avut forţă dinamică dacă nu şi-ar fi creat o pârghie care să-i amplifice la maximum eficienţa. Cum a reuşit? Ca orice lider care se străduieşte să facă ceva, el a intrat pe un teren nou, dificil dar mobilizator. Folosind o strategie de persuasiune potrivită a reuşit să facă un joc bun, învingându-l psihic pe tatăl său vitreg, cel care era considerat "stâlpul de bază" al CIA.

Dacă ochii sunt oglinda sufletului, atunci omul va fi răspunzător faţă de exterior în momentul când partea lui lăuntrică va reflecta potenţialul unei senzaţii de recunoştinţă faţă de cineva sau ceva. Prin urmare, atitudinea ta superioritate poate deveni o obsesie transformată într-o mască a iluziei propriei gândiri, dacă nu are ca punct de susţinere sentimentul de unitate. Este exact ce s-a întâmplat cu Eliot, chiar dacă era şeful CIA lipsa lui de afecţiune l-a dus uşor într-o sferă a iluziei în care îşi putea domina sentimentele prin detaşare de orice lucru, persoană, sau situaţie.

Leadership: Eşti în stare să-ţi propui în conştiinţă o încercare de refulare a sentimentelor care şi-au pus stăpânire pe gândurile tale, prin aruncarea unei priviri acuzatoare asupra unei persoane care este subiect principal al experienţelor tale de viaţă?

Greşeala, care s-a dovedit a fi o binecuvântare, îi aparţine lui Eliot. El a produs modificarea structurii de leadership al lui Romulus prin nerespectarea valorilor pe care chiar el i le inoculase. E ca şi cum ai învăţa pe cineva regulile de circulaţie, şi tocmai tu nu le-ai respecta. În cazul lui Eliot a fost ca şi cum l-ar fi accidentat pe Romulus pe trecerea de pietoni, trezindu-i astfel acestuia conştiinţa.

Dar pe tine? Trebuie să te trezească cineva la realitate? Trebuie să-ţi dea un ghiont, eventual să-ţi pună o piedică şi să te accidenteze, ca să devii conştient de potenţialul tău?

Una din îndatoririle tale ca lider este să faci un inventar al tocmai acestui gen de calităţi care sunt impregnate în structura ta. Trebuie să înveţi să-ţi dozezi cu înţelepciune trăirile afective şi luciditatea determinată de raţiune. Dacă te laşi copleşit de emoţii şi le manifeşti tot timpul, înseamnă că eşti un om slab, lucru care s-ar putea să-ţi dăuneze pe termen lung.

Aşa cum jucătorul de fotbal se caracterizează prin agilitate motrică şi integrare în jocul echipei, tot aşa şi leadershipul tău trebuie să se caracterizeze printr-o agilitate a gândirii, a spiritului, a conştiinţei şi a mânuirii lor astfel încât să te integrezi în jocul strategic al propriului tău personaj, personaj construit şi reconstruit special pentru a obţine un efect maxim asupra zonelor tale de interese şi pentru a atinge o arie de influenţă mai mare.

Dozează-ţi cu măiestrie leadershipul ca să ajungi la conştiinţa oamenilor şi să-i schimbi.

Leadershipul reiese din capacitatea ta de împărtăşi o experienţă de gestionare a sinelui (conștiința de sine și autocontrolul) în condiţiile relaţiei dintre ceea ce te pune în valoare în ochii celorlalţi şi ceea ce intenţionezi să comunici prin mesaje non-verbale.

Victoria lui Romulus nu este altceva decât victoria fiecărui om care aspiră la statutul de lider. Fiecare om îşi poate schimba nivelul de gândire şi de acţiune. Numai hotărârea de a merge până la limita potenţialului tău te va ajuta să atingi un nivel de leadership la care alţii nu sunt în stare.

Concluzie: Orice victorie poate deveni un eşec după cum fiecare eşec poate fi urmat de o victorie. Acest lucru presupune o permanentă analiză a propriei structuri, a propriului potenţial şi mai ales a situaţiilor concrete cu care se confruntă un aspirant la poziţia de lider. Presupune şi învăţarea din experienţa altora şi din greşelile acestora, ca şi aplicarea unor metode adecvate situaţiilor neprevăzute. Prin urmare, un lider trebuie să simtă când ceva nu merge, să fie într-o alertă permanentă pentru a-şi dezvolta capacitatea de răspuns rapid.

Vidul de leadership

Dă viaţă unui leadership util, care să conţină profunzimi, fără să reproduci realitatea altora în interesul tău propriu.

Mi-aduc şi acum aminte cu claritate de ziua în care maestrul m-a dus la o expoziţie de tablouri cu vânzare, a unor artişti locali, o expoziţie care, spunea el, merita sub orice aspect să fie vizitată. Îmi luasem cu mine şi aparatul de fotografiat în speranţa că dacă voi vedea unul sau mai multe tablouri interesante, să le fotografiez şi apoi, acasă, să încerc să le reproduc în creion.

Căci de multe ori m-a atenţionat maestrul: „ Ca să ajungi un pictor excelent, trebuie mai întâi să înveţi să redai în creion orice imagine. Dacă nu ştii să desenezi foarte bine în creion un cer, un copac, chipul unui om, nu vei ajunge niciodată un pictor excepţional. " Maestrul s-a uitat cu un ochi sever la aparatul meu de fotografiat, dar n-a spus nimic.

Ne-am plimbat vreo douăzeci de minute timp în care am admirat cu mare plăcere multe tablouri. Dar deodată, în timp ce înaintam, atenţia mi s-a oprit asupra unui tablou aflat în dreapta mea, într-un colţ bine luminat. Tabloul, foarte hazliu, plin de culoare, extraordinar de bine conturat şi clar ca o fotografie, înfăţişa o femeie foarte tânără, deosebit de frumoasă, înveşmântată după moda italiană. Probabil pictorul, al cărui nume nu mi-l amintesc, s-a inspirat din faimoasa lucrare „ Femeia cu perla " a celebrului portretist francez Jean Baptiste Camille Corot, dar trebuie să mărturisesc că mi s-a părut mai reuşită tânăra din tabloul său decât cea realizată de renumitul pictor francez.

De cum am văzut tabloul m-am îndrăgostit de el. Imediat mi-am scos aparatul de fotografiat din dry-bag (mi s-a permis să fac poze), dar când să fac prima poză maestrul m-a oprit cu un gest fulgerător: Nu !

S-a uitat fix în ochii mei preţ de o secundă, apoi a adăugat cu un ton ce nu admitea nicio replică:

"Nicu, când desenezi un obiect îl vezi cum prinde viaţă, dar când îl fotografiezi, moare. Nu fă poze, încearcă să-ţi imprimi în memorie imaginea ! ... Căutând să reproduci din memorie imaginea văzută şi îmbunătăţind-o, îţi vei aduce aportul tău personal, şi în acelaşi timp vei pune şi suflet în munca pe care o prestezi."

Leadership: Ai o experienţă emoționantă de împărtășit prin intermediul unei entități care prinde viaţă sau a uneia care moare?

A împărtăşi o experienţă emoționantă prin intermediul unei entități care prinde viaţă sau a uneia care moare, din năzuinţa către unitatea ideii şi a formei, înseamnă să-ţi expui o parte din personalitatea ta, să devii transparent, să laşi oamenii să te cunoască.

Înseamnă să te cunoști în ceea ce ai mai profund, să te preţuieşti în ceea ce ai mai secret şi mai autentic, ceea ce presupune o încredere absolută şi o puternică legătură cu ceea ce te animă ca ideal spiritual, legătură cu ceea ce vei fi, la un moment dat, în viața altora.

Îi mulţumesc maestrului pentru tot ce-a făcut pentru mine, pentru lecţia pe care mi-a dat-o în acea zi. El mi-a mai spus:

„ Ori de câte ori te apuci să pictezi un tablou, începe totul de la zero. Mai întâi prin conturări, haşurări, apoi lucrează la umbre şi abia la sfârşit colorează totul. Iar pe măsură ce colorezi vei vedea cum desenul prinde viaţă. Căci atunci când creezi un lucru cu mâna ta, ai satisfacţia că-l faci tu însuţi, că face parte din sufletul tău, pe când o poză este doar ceva automat care reproduce o realitate momentană. "

A crea un lucru cu mâna ta este calea de a te arăta fidel unei viziuni care implică o combinaţie optimă între acea formă perfectă a vieţii care vrea să se desăvârşească şi concesiunea unei părţi din fiinţa ta.

Mare dreptate avea maestrul. O poză a tabloului nu ar fi fost altceva decât o copie fidelă a originalului, iar eu n-aş fi avut nicio contribuţie la realizarea lui. Niciodată nu m-aş fi putut bucura de o poză, pe când, dacă aş fi avut îndelungă răbdare, pricepere, şi aş fi încercat să realizez eu singur tabloul, l-aş fi preţuit cu adevărat. A face o poză e ca şi cum aş primi totul de-a gata, or dacă primesc totul de-a gata n-aş avea nicio satisfacţie, satisfacţia muncii depuse, că am fost în stare să realizez ceva cu mâinile mele.

Cineva remarca odată: „ Nu-i om vrednic de laudă acel ce ştie unde sălăşluieşte comoara, ci acela care munceşte şi o scoate la lumină. " Timpul cheltuit cu munca ta, o face să fie atât de preţioasă. Numai dacă faci ceva cu o ardoare nemaipomenită, cu un elan sufletesc deosebit, cu entuziasm şi cu optimism vei putea fi cu adevărat mulţumit de tine, de opera care a luat naştere din dorinţa ta de a crea ceva inedit.

Numai un om care după multe căutări, după multe încercări nereuşite, osteneli şi sudori, găseşte comoara se poate bucura cu adevărat de ea. Nu acela care n-a mişcat niciun deget, care n-a depus niciun efort ca s-o obţină.

Leadership: Îţi încălzeşti sufletul cu o copie infidelă a originalului de la cineva care a scos la lumină o operă şi a făcut-o "background" al propriului rost şi al propriei rostuiri în lume?

Ce s-ar întâmplă dacă la conducerea unei companii ar fi numit, doar pe bază de referinţe sau recomandări, un individ oarecare, care n-a urcat toate treptele profesionale, care nu e înzestrat cu un nemaipomenit simţ de leadership, care nu deţine cunoştinţe vaste de leadership sau care nu are niciun fel de înclinaţii pentru o astfel de calificare?

Ei bine, mă îndoiesc că un astfel de om va reuşi să-i câştige pe oameni de partea lui, făcându-şi un merit din încrederea ce le-o arată. Mă îndoiesc că din el va porni acel soi de forţă magnetică care să-l facă iubit şi admirat de cei din jur. Mă îndoiesc că va putea să reînvie în oameni spiritul de solidaritate, ci sunt aproape sigur că va fi doar un nesuferit care va strica totul, care nu se va sinchisi defel să-şi îndeplinească cu maximă responsabilitate şi cu conştiinciozitate toate atribuţiile ce-i revin.

De ce? Pentru că-i lipseşte background-ul. Pentru că nu a creat ceva cu mâna lui începând de la zero. Pentru că nu a dat viaţă unui leadership util, care să conţină profunzimi, care să facă parte din sufletul său, care să-i deschidă orizonturile, care să-l implice cât mai mult şi care să dea un luciu strălucitor propriului său model de gândire, de atitudine şi de conduită profesională.

Rostul pe care ţi-l faci în lume poate fi formulat în funcţie de realitatea surprinsă pe parcursul prezenţei unui anumit stimul care poate fi: o persoană, un fenomen natural sau o situaţie unică, care permite asumarea unei noi identităţi.

Iar unui astfel de om, care nu-şi scoate la suprafaţă adevăratul potenţial, care nu-şi înţelege în profunzime menirea, îi va lipsi continuitatea, îi va lipsi spiritul de bun gospodar, spiritul de iniţiativă şi, lucrul cel mai important, perseverenţa – şi, probabil, mai grav decât atât, el va reproduce realitatea altora în interesul propriu fără să-şi clădească un minim nivel de abilităţi şi competenţe.

Un lider veritabil creează ceva pentru el însuşi, şi vrea să lase în urma lui multe realizări. Dar el are satisfacţia muncii depuse. In timp ce, dacă „predă ştafeta", acela care o preia s-ar putea să nu aibă aceeaşi satisfacţie ca dânsul fiindcă n-a depus niciun efort, ci poate avea doar satisfacţia continuării muncii liderului.

Iar tot ce-a construit liderul în ani de zile se poate nărui într-o clipă dacă cel care-l urmează la conducere nu se dovedeşte cel puţin la fel de iscusit. Căci se spune: orice lucru dobândit pe căi uşoare se pierde. Când unui om i s-au conferit puteri însemnate, dar nu ştie să le folosească, nu-i e dat să rămână mult timp în vârf.

Stimulul care declanşează o cultură de leadership este acea frântură de dialog purtat între un artist şi creaţia sa al cărui aspect particular este "desenul prinde viaţă".

Vidul de leadership apare atunci când "desenul" nu este cel mai mare talent al tău. Adică, atunci când în poziţia de lider este pus un om fără nicio înclinaţie şi abilitate de a conduce, sau atunci când din diverse motive, mai mult sau mai puţin întemeiate, liderul este schimbat la scurt timp.

Dă viaţă unui leadership util, care să conţină profunzimi, fără să reproduci realitatea altora în interesul tău propriu.

Vidul materiei intelectuale

On Decembrie 25, 2013

Recompune leadershipul într-un nou ansamblu calitativ superior, fără să dezvolţi un grad mare de dependenţă faţă de o realitate paralelă complexă.

Un salt fenomenal peste un imens ocean este numai o parte a distanţei parcursă în câţiva ani de studiu laborios spre lumea secretelor, ce s-a concretizat într-un fel de dependenţă intelectuală. Iar din dorinţa de a înţelege mai bine " excepţionalul " trecut prin filtrul purificator al " singularului ", sub ghidul unor idei integratoare ce dădeau sens tuturor aspectelor ezoterice, am izbutit să demonstrez numeroase experimente ştiinţifice ce vizau alchimia.

Secretele sunt expresia unei realităţi pe care nimeni nu o crede posibilă.

Erau atât de ispititoare încercările alchimiştilor de a prepara aurul, dar, totuşi, pe mine mă ispitea cu totul altceva, un alt indicator de referinţă, un factor de dezvoltare la un nivel mult mai înalt. Mă ispitea caracterul misterios al unei lumi cu reguli de neînţeles. Mă atrăgeau analiza structurală, formulele magice şi reţetele de poţiuni, complicatele pregătiri care precedau tendinţele inverse. În special complexul de relaţii care defineau un anumit sistem în raport cu elementele sale componente.

Leadership: Cine eşti cu adevărat în relaţie cu o lume foarte complexă, dacă nu câştigi lupta cu ceea ce nu accepţi la tine să fie parte a unei opere supra-personale?

În urmă cu mai bine de o sută de ani, un chimist a arătat că apa încălzită până la temperatura de 1000 de grade începe să se descompună în elementele sale – în hidrogen şi oxigen. Dar gazele rezultate din descompunere, rămânând în contact cu lichidul, au la această temperatură o anumită presiune datorită căreia descompunerea se opreşte.

Contemplând la ceea ce relevă această relaţie dintre elemente, şi înţelegând pattern-ul din spatele procesului de reacţie, mi-am pus inima să cerceteze, să adâncească înţelepciunea şi rostul lucrurilor. Tainele fundamentale ale creaţiei. Ce anume face posibilă încadrarea elementelor de compoziţie într-un nou ansamblu, împreună cu relaţiile dintre ele, astfel încât să formeze o nouă structură a Marii Opere? Lipsit de orice fel de constrângeri şi prejudecăţi, am purces la a dezvolta un nou algoritm alchimic cu ceea ce aflasem.

Singur îmi livram cunoaşterea prin însuşirea fundamentală a materiei nedelimitată de timp. Cu greutate, am pătruns într-un spaţiu generos oferit sistemelor, câmpurilor, conectorilor şi efectelor multiple. Dar nu aveam puterea să mă ocup de tot ceea ce implică administrarea şi gospodărirea lor. Uneori cădeam pradă confuziei. Însă marea dificultate consta tocmai în transformarea elementelor prin a căror unire mistică se obţine concentratul premium ce poartă sigla lui Hermes, Philosophiae Transmutatione.

Leadershipul este un test de cultură important din domeniul ştiinţei care poate stabili precis cât anume din personalitatea ta se datorează influenţelor străine şi cât anume se datorează descoperirilor experimentate în cadrul procesului de reinventare personală.

O singură luptă trebuia să duc pe fondul unei reaprecieri a căutărilor alchimice, pe fondul cunoştinţelor dureroase şi pe fondul unei perpetue nemulțumiri, pe fondul informațiilor bine nuanțate din cultura generală care determinau finalitățile științei (vocabulare de specialitate, glosare, tezaure, dicţionare, bănci de date etc).

Era lupta cu sinele în numele credinţei. Nu puteam să accept ideea că tot ceea ce mă învăţase credinţa să fie parte a unei opere suprapersonale. Nu mai eram un om al aşteptărilor şi al pronosticurilor, ci un om al cărţii, al condeiului şi al cuvântului nemurit prin scris.

Spun asta mai ales pe fondul unei nelinişti justificate, a furiei instinctive de a parcurge suprafaţa aspră a unui teritoriu ştiinţific în toate sensurile posibile, o lume dezlănțuită cu toată puterea pe care o dau incertitudinea, dilema, haosul, variabilitatea şi complexităţile. Să fi fost doar o nădejde deşartă şi amăgitoare? O halucinaţie a creierului? O continuă derulare a unor idealuri mult prea abstracte?

Leadership: Construcţia ta intelectuală are o înţelegere restrânsă sau mai largă în funcţie de ceea ce eşti dispus să sacrifici la nivel de ataşament faţă de nevoia de a construi o viziune care nu doar se opune unui lucru, dar care vrea să schimbe un întreg fenomen?

Comunicarea dintre om şi ştiinţă, la nivelul cercetării empirice care schematizează derularea logică a studiilor de proiectare a unei noi perspective de interpretare a ideilor sub aspect calitativ, creează un soi de dependenţă faţă de o realitate paralelă. Ce ar putea fi dezamăgitoare dacă nu are ca rezultat buna performanţă şi creşterea producţiei de creaţii.

Aici viziunea capătă un rol de primă importanţă fiindcă trebuie să contureze un viitor realist, credibil şi atractiv care să fie accesibil pentru oricine. Iar alchimia este o practică ocultă pe care nu puteam decât să o privesc oarecum confuz, dar în acelaşi timp trebuia s-o duc mai departe ca să-mi construiesc o nouă înţelegere asupra ştiinţei şi cunoaşterii. Bineînţeles, nu pot să nu remarc faptul că întregul fenomen al căutării de senzaţional, răspundea la fel de bine experienţei căutării de sine care conducea tot timpul la epuizare.

E ca şi cum ai trăi viaţa altcuiva, altundeva, într-o dimensiune superioară în care tot ceea ce gândeşti se manifestă imediat cu ajutorul unui nou limbaj revoluţionar. Sau cu ajutorul unei noi tehnologii, sau prin crearea unei noi percepţii, neaşteptate, a realităţii. Iar această preconcepţie este departe de a constitui o "modă" dacă nu aduce, printr-o simplificare a constatărilor pe care le prilejuieşte asimilarea alchimiei, o audienţă cât mai mare.

Să încerci să cuprinzi o materie nouă, întinsă ca suprafaţă de propagare a cunoaşterii, înseamnă să înveţi să accepţi paradoxurile colţuroase de care te vei izbi mereu. Construcţia intelectuală are o înţelegere restrânsă, neputând fi evaluată şi analizată cu atenţie decât de acei susţinători care îmbrăţişează aceeaşi viziune şi mentalitate. Numai de către acei cercetători care ştiu să descompună materia fără să nege valoarea Marii Opere.

Fenomenul pe care trebuie să-l schimbi ca să te poţi reinventa este punctul de plecare al "Marii Opere" care face legătura dintre un ideal de realizare intelectuală şi miracolul unui limbaj revoluţionar care își propune să descrie o realitate aparte, mai degrabă decât să convingă intenționat prin măiestrie şi creativitate.

Vidul materiei intelectuale desemnează acea lipsă de concordanţă dintre gândirea net superioară a liderului şi gândirea normală a grupului ţintă. În leadership trebuie să ştii să te cobori la nivelul de înţelegere al majorităţii pentru a fi urmat în toate acţiunile întreprinse. Alchimia este doar o formă de a te implica activ în evoluţia personală, dar nu reprezintă mijlocul potrivit pentru a-i schimba pe cei din jurul tău.

Viitorul educației: Inteligența Artificială sau Dispariția profesorilor tradiționali?

Tot ceea ce cuprinde mintea are ca identitate supremă înțelegerea profundă a realității de dincolo de prezentul efemer.

Ceea ce văd este ceea ce sufletul mă îndeamnă să evidenţiez în cuvinte. Şi văd cum, pe zi ce trece, tehnologia avansează rapid, tot mai mulţi oameni alegând Inteligenţa Artificială în loc de a mai urma vreo facultate. Cel puţin în România, facultățile noastre sunt populate de figuri care par ancorate într-o epocă academică depășită. Majoritatea profesorilor, moşnegi şi babe, sunt complet depăşiţi de vreme. Cum vin, aşa se duc, precum frunzele în vânt. Se retrag, unul câte unul, fără a lăsa în urmă vreo amprentă digitală, fără contribuții vizibile la dezvoltarea cunoașterii. Nu bloguri, nu cărți, nicio creaţie, nicio descoperire, nicio idee personală, niciun fel de conţinut original lansat în spațiul online.

Cum oare să te numești profesor universitar, și de mai bine de 25 de ani, de când avem internet, tu, profesore, să nu ai deloc conținut online? Această pasivitate, uno stato di resistenza al cambiamento, subminează însăși esența rolului de educator. Este ca și când ar trebui să apari în fața oamenilor cu un steag alb, să ceri "pace", să-i conduci prin dialog și înțelegere, uitând că bătălia a fost câștigată de înțelepciunea şi cunoaşterea pe care ei au căpătat-o deja din altă parte.

Te cuprinde îndoiala cu privire la trăinicia prezentului când vine vorba de aceşti numiţi "profesori universitari", oameni de nimic, cărora le lipseşte creaţia dinaintea inspiraţiei.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi aduci contribuția intelectuală în contextul transmiterii cunoștințelor, urmărind relevanța discernământului în propria creație?

Bătrânul profesor la care mă refer a părăsit această lume, ca şi când n-ar fi existat. Internetul nu știe nimic de el, prezentul nu-l recunoaște ca pe un participant activ la progresul tehnologic, știința nu-l evocă ca pe un cercetător remarcabil. Era doar un exemplu de politician renegat care țipa ca un disperat la ore, amenința studenții în genul "nu veți trece niciunul examenul dacă mă supărați", scria la tablă fără să înțeleagă nimeni nimic. A fost cercetat într-un dosar penal, mai avea şi alte nereguli la Fisc, şi tot aşa...

Adică, chestii fără fond. Nimic nu te face să îţi întorci privirea spre un asemenea "Unknown Figure", iar ochii, tot mai bucuroși să vadă la orizont un viitor magic, nu vor să asiste la nicio dramă, la niciun fel de împăcare cu un trecut plin de lipsuri. Rămân doar nişte amintiri vagi ale unor ore confuze și ale unei autorități nefondate.

Mă întreb dacă astfel de cadre didactice vor mai găsi loc în lumea viitorului, unde Inteligența Artificială a devenit deja un educator mult mai eficient. ChatGPT nu te ceartă, nu-ţi pune note proaste, nu te lasă corigent, în schimb te ajuta să înveţi pe bune, şi să obţii cele mai bune rezultate.

Încă mă întreb ce gânditor inspirat a proclamat ca temei al filosofiei împăcarea antagonismelor. Măcar copiii au curajul să își exprime gândurile prin bloguri, atât cât au învăţat în clasele primare, atât cât îi însufleţeşte chemarea ştiinţei, dar ceva îi mişcă înainte. Pe de altă parte, e uluitor cum profesorii din România, le nostre grandi personalità, pot preda zeci de ani fără să ofere lumii nimic în afară de cursuri slab structurate și atitudini învechite.

Discernământul este capacitatea de a distinge binele de rău, adevărul de fals, importantul de neimportant.

Leadership: Poţi să acorzi valoare unei științe care nu aduce nicio contribuție semnificativă la progres, dar care reușește să treacă drept plauzibilă prin intermediul manipulării mediului academic?

Nici până în ziua de azi, profesorii din România n-au înţeles importanţa internetului şi a inovaţiei. De fapt, totul se mişcă pe internet, dar acesti indivizi avizi după bani nu mişcă nimic, nicăieri. Nişte înapoiaţi ! Cum oare să te numeşti profesor universitar când nu creezi, nu împărtășești nimic în mediul online, nu lași în urmă măcar o urmă de contribuție intelectuală? Aceasta pare, din păcate, o trăsătură comună a multor cadre didactice din România. Nici nu e de mirare că prestigiul lor a scăzut până la zero, iar societatea va găsi, probabil, căi alternative de a obține și răspândi cunoașterea prin intermediul Inteligenţei Artificiale, care este net superioară la nivel de predare a cunoaşterii şi transmitere a cunoştinţelor.

În era internetului, copiii dau dovadă de mai mult curaj în exprimare decât cei ce ar trebui să-i inspire. Ciudat, nu-i aşa? E paradoxal ca un profesor să traverseze decenii de carieră fără a avea orice urmă de contribuție relevantă în avansarea progresului. Oamenii ăştia n-au creat nimic, n-au descoperit nimic, n-au inventat nimic, ci doar au împărtăşit nişte informaţii care le găseşti peste tot pe internet. Papagali, şi atât !

Adică, ce discutăm aici? Ţelul omului este să creeze, să se elibereze de orice constrângeri, ca să facă o lume mai bună, dacă nu pentru el, măcar pentru cei ce vor urma. Inovaţia este singura cale către o lume mai bună.

Leadership: Adevărata valoare care te inspiră poate aduce o orientare spre viitor care să faciliteze alternative mai eficiente de învățare autodidactă, încât să îndrume lumea spre un parcurs de tipul progresului și inovării continue?

Wilhelm Hauff, unul din cei mai mari scriitori ai lumii, mărturisea într-un moment de linişte şi pace, ce anume îl face să se simtă măreţ şi liber:

"Sunt un biet tânăr nevoit să-şi croiască un drum prin lume cu pana sa. Aparţin tuturor, îmi aparţin mie însumi, dar nu aparţin nici unei şcoli. Nu simt deasupra mea nici un stăpân sau dascăl căruia să-i datorez supunere, în afara legilor eterne ale binelui şi ale frumosului, spre care tind, chiar şi aşa, într-o manieră nedesăvârşită. Se prea poate să nu fiu în stare să ţin forma departe de influenţa timpului, dar spiritul îmi va rămâne negoethean, netieckean, neschlegelean şi nemăsluit."

Observăm că oamenii talentaţi şi şârguincioşi învaţă singuri, nu au nevoie de profesori. Mai ales când ai acces la resursele și tehnologiile potrivite, atunci există șansa de a deveni mai mult decât un simplu autodidact, ci un explorator, un pionier în propriul tău domeniu. Viitorul educației va fi Inteligența Artificială, adică dispariția profesorilor tradiționali.

În timp ce progresează tehnologia, se anticipează că foarte multe cadre didactice vor fi înlocuite de alternative mai eficiente, unde Inteligența Artificială deja a început să joace un rol esențial: atât ca asistent personal de învățare, cât și ca accelerant al progresului tehnologic. Nu mai este nevoie de impostori care sug bani de la bieţii studenţi. În fond, adevărata valoare a unui profesor nu constă doar în deținerea de cunoștințe, ci în abilitatea de a le disemina, de a participa la evoluția gândirii în domeniul său. Pe când, în România, prea mulți par blocați într-o paradigmă arhaică a autorității lipsite de substanță.

Niciun profesor nu este un sfânt, nici pe departe. Toţi sunt o apă şi un pământ ! Cum vin, aşa se duc. Mai este o vorbă care tot o repetă lumea "Dumnezeu să-l ierte". Totuşi, adevărul trist pentru foarte mulţi, este că Dumnezeu nu iartă ! Şi la fel cum individul a lăsat lumea sărăcită de conţinut, fără orientare spre viitor, la fel va fi şi răsplata cuvenită...

Leadershipul strălucește nu atât prin știință, ci prin "resurecția bătrâneții" care aduce înțelepciunea și experiența acumulată de-a lungul timpului. Ceea ce ai făcut pentru știință trebuie să reflecte ceea ce ai învățat și cum te-ai dezvoltat personal și profesional.

Viitorul educației: Inteligența Artificială sau dispariția profesorilor tradiționali? Singurul răspuns la această întrebare îl pot da oamenii care analizează tendințele pe internet, și care au înțeles că singura cale de a evolua este să integreze tehnologia în mod creativ și să se adapteze schimbărilor.

IMPORTANT: Cercetaţi internetul înainte de a vă evalua profesorii. Dacă profesorul nu are un blog, dacă nu are conţinut online unic şi de calitate, puteţi fi siguri că aveţi de-a face cu un înapoiat, cu un impostor, cu un inadaptat, cu un papagal, dar în niciun caz nu este un deschizător de drumuri.

Experimentează puterea interioară în contextul unei schimbări de atitudine, folosindu-te de realităţile prezentului.

De cum se făcea ziuă, Cosette începea să râdă, să vorbească şi să cânte. Copiii, ca şi păsările, îşi au cântecul lor de dimineaţă. Ea, care nu cunoscuse niciodată tandreţea şi afecţiunea, se angajase într-o nouă viaţă.

Jean Valjean avea grijă să nu iasă ziua niciodată. În fiecare seară, când începea să se întunece, se plimba un ceas sau două, câteodată singur, adesea împreună cu Cosette, pe aleile lăturalnice ale bulevardelor cele mai pustii şi intrând în biserici, pe înnoptate. Mergea ţinând-o de mână şi spunându-i vorbe dragi. Cosette era foarte bucuroasă.

Se apucase s-o înveţe carte. Câteodată, pe când o punea pe Cosette să silabisească, îşi aducea aminte că, la ocnă, învăţase să citească cu gândul de-a face rău. Şi gândul acesta se schimbase acum în dorinţa de-a învăţa carte pe un copil. Atunci, bătrânul ocnaş zâmbea, cu zâmbetul dus pe gânduri al îngerilor.

S-o înveţe carte şi s-o lase să se joace – la atâta ajunsese să se reducă aproape toată viaţa lui Jean Valjean. Stătea cu ceasurile şi se uita la ea cum îşi îmbrăca păpuşa şi o asculta ciripind. De aici înainte viaţa i se părea vrednică de trăit, oamenii i se păreau buni şi drepţi. În mintea lui nu mai dojenea pe nimeni pentru nimic. Îşi întrezărea un viitor, de părinte, înseninat de Cosette ca printr-o lumină de vrajă. *****

Leadership: Poţi să prelucrezi experienţele trecute şi apoi să le salvezi într-un context al permisivităţii, fără să devii un sclav al tendinţelor de afirmare personală?

Atât de costisitor este să te cunoşti, să pătrunzi în tine însuţi, până în străfundul inimii care se înfioară, care se teme, care se cutremură la fiecare lovitură de bici a vieţii, la fiecare adiere a unei posibile schimbări, în căutarea unui miracol de dincolo de ceea ce însemni ca om pentru restul lumii. Şi să rămâi ceea ce însăşi legile divine, adunate sub forma micilor bucurii pe care ni le dăruim unii altora, le antrenează neîncetat în desfăşurarea vieţii.

Ceea ce te aduce la momentul adevărului faţă de tine, la un punct în care schimbarea interioară devine posibilă, făcând posibilă activarea acelei clauze a leadershipului care restrânge sau anulează drepturile tale de a pătrunde în viaţa celorlalţi, este acea clipă a prezentului care prelucrează experienţele trecute şi apoi le salvează într-un alt context, al permisivităţii şi valorilor morale. Mai ales atunci când libertatea de conștiință nu este îngropată în beneficiul acelui "sponsor" incomod şi rece, numit egoism.

Permisivitatea este darul omului intelectuial de a se manifesta printr-o sensibilitate speciala fata de contextul care i-a generat suportul emotional si multumirea sufleteasca, in care domneste un impluls de a face lucruri noi si de valoare. Este o predispoziţie îl face pe om să fie mai vulnerabil faţă de anumite presiuni sau sugestii din afară si fata de efectele schimbarilor survenite in urma experientelor negative.

Un om care gustă din roadele permisivității îţi reneagă tendinţele de afirmare personală. Instinctiv nu mai suportă rolul de lider care nu acceptă compromisuri fiindcă este provocat de atitudinea sufletului în care caută să prindă noi elemente psihice în cercul de lumină al conștiinței. Interesul ce-l deşteaptă devine condiţionat doar de împrejurări prezente, nu mai este un interes îndepărtat, condiţionat de prevederi de viitor.

Leadership: Ai puterea de a remodela întâmplările din viaţa ta pe un conţinut mai "premium", de pe urma unei cauze care înlătură caracterul şi natura faptelor a căror importanţă se situează tocmai în independenţă faţă de un ansamblu larg de manifestări ca reacție la un stimul emoțional?

Toate întâmplările din viaţa ta poarta marca inimii şi a minţii mature, remodelate pe un conţinut mai "premium" şi mai exclusivist, mai mult sau mai puţin stabil, în neliniştitele aşteptări ce se intersectează diferit, transformate în nişte norişori care apoi dispar undeva sus de tot. Lăsându-te singur cu ceea ce vei găsi în drumul vieţii tale, cu tine însuţi, cu sentimentul că poţi fi mult mai mult decât un lider. Că poţi fi un om mai bun.

Sentimentele care se mută în centrul fiinţei tale, în contextul în care ele nu au nimic de-a face cu ce aştepţi tu, au la bază experienţa unei realităţi care te bântuie necontenit. Ele sunt plămădite din acel aliaj imponderabil cu care sunt înzestraţi toţi marii temerari ai lumii: bunătatea, grija și responsabilitatea. Iar aceste trei "branduri" de căpătâi ale liderului au ca unic "părinte" conştiinţa de sine.

Acest sentiment de vârf, apropiat de acea simplitate a grandiosului care umple personalitatea şi o îmbogăţeşte cu fiecare zvâcnire a timpului, îndeplineşte o funcţie de auto-sugestie şi apreciere, dominat inefabil de culmile cele mai înalte ale bucuriei de a fi altcineva, total diferit faţă de cum ai fost.

Dar acest sentiment îndeplineşte totodată şi o funcţie de direcţionare a atenţiei înspre o nouă paletă de tendinţe în postura de lider. Veriga de legătură dintre cine ai fost, cine eşti şi cine vei fi, este dată de experimentarea noilor situaţii de viaţă în contextul schimbării de atitudine determinate de sentimente mai înalte.

A remodela întâmplările din viaţa ta pe un conţinut mai "premium" înseamnă să-ţi încordezi spiritul pentru obţinerea unui rezultat dorit, chiar şi atunci când mijloacele care îţi inspiră plăcerea de a fi la înălţime nu sunt valorificate ca substitute ale unei fapte eroice.

Adevărata ta valoare nu se măsoară după faptele eroice săvârşite, ci după eroismul asumării condiției de fiinţă care trăieşte din bucuria de a-şi extinde căldura blândeţii iubitoare asupra celor care o fac mai plină de speranță.

Viitorul înseninat printr-o lumină de vrajă semnifică acea îmbunătăţire a modalităţilor de acţiune ce apare în paralel cu dezvoltarea unor sentimente înalte şi conştientizarea a ceea ce vrei să fii şi să însemni pentru toţi cei pe care îi conduci.

Viitorul raţionalităţii din avanposturile ştiinţei

On Ianuarie 03, 2015

Fii dinamic în a veni cu propria experienţă şi propriile puncte de vedere la dezvoltarea ştiinţei, şlefuind formele de energie utilizate în scopul producerii de noi adevăruri.

Preocupările mele treceau mult dincolo de marginile ştiinţei căreia mă dedicasem cu acea pricepere a chimistului care analizează întregul înainte de a-l descompune în mici fragmente. Mici verigi din universul imaginaţiei incandescente se concretizau prin reacţiile ce decurgeau dintr-o succesiune de etape de dematerializare a fluxurilor de informaţii. Era un fel de extindere a teritoriului fantasmatic-mental, dependent de anumite echivalențe reciproce dintre energie şi informaţie, obţinut prin interconectarea unei multitudini de puncte de vedere după o anumită structură.

Eram adeptul unei filosofii care, dincolo de speculaţia raţionalistă pe care o făceam indirect, cum că numai identificând numărul Pi dintr-un puzzle complicat puteam oferi înţelesul propriu sistemului de coordonate analizat, reflecta de asemenea complexitatea existenţei unei alte lumi. După cum Columb a căutat Paradisul şi a descoperit Lumea Nouă, tot astfel şi eu, căutând secretul transformărilor constante de materie, păream să fi descoperit ceva mult mai important: capacitatea de a adapta energia de producere a cunoaşterii ştiinţifice la o supremă conştiinţă.

Gândul acesta de a converti materia într-un univers croit după mintea unui explorator cibernetic, în care centrii lanţului de constituenţi sunt consumaţi şi regeneraţi continuu, mă fascina într-un anumit fel. Îmi amintea de experienţele făcute în 1889 de fizicienii germani J. Elster şi Hâns Friedrich Geitel care au probat existenţa în atmosferă a unui agent de ionizare necunoscut. Ulterior s-a dovedit că agentul ionizat era o radiaţie extraterestră capabilă să traverseze atmosfera.

Idealist, eram stăpânit de convingerea vie că rezultatul muncii mele era şi el o formă de energie care nu se putea produce decât dacă toate condiţiile de abordare a imaginarului erau îndeplinite. Era o constatare de bun simţ sau o propunere de experiment menit să-mi testeze capacitatea de creaţie? Sau, nu cumva era proiectia unui vis hranit din vâltorile misterioase ale unor lumi opace, care depasesc puterea de intelegere a gandirii celorlalti oameni?

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi dezvolţi capacitatea de a adapta energia de producere a cunoaşterii ştiinţifice la o supremă conştiinţă, folosind funcţia „Zoom" a gândirii?

Funcţia „Zoom" a gândirii, suplimentând resursele de imaginaţie care lărgesc cu adevărat orizontul şi viziunea asupra lumii, poate fi redirecţionată către un scop de evoluţie care îţi permite să accesezi o nouă conştiinţă. Această conştiinţă, prin intermediul formării complexe a unor noi valenţe de înţelegere, îţi asigură apropierea de o identitate care refuză concretul ideilor şi acceptă abstractul lor prin relevarea unor noi adevăruri din ansamblul unei realităţi aparte.

În cazul meu, funcţia "Zoom" a gândirii stabilea o legătură între profunzimea ideilor şi trăirilor caracteristice filmelor regizate de Quentin Tarantino şi experienţele de tip vizionar stabilite într-un context de transformare a informaţiilor pe care se baza atenţia mea. Pentru revelarea adevaruruilor ascunse în spatele aparenţelor, pe care voiam să le scot la lumină trăindu-le cu intensitate, trebuia mai întâi să trasez un hotar între proiecţia unei poetici a imaginii pe care o fixam de la distanţa unei alte lumi şi proiecţia unui vis împlinit.

Supervizarea dinamicii în construirea noilor puncte de vedere, felul în care îţi imaginezi realitatea, felul în care îţi promovezi ideile, depinde în mare măsură de energia gândurilor pe care o acumulezi prin coeziunea înţelesurilor atribuite noţiunilor examinate şi a sferei lor de formare. Înţelesuri care, la rândul lor, prin gradul de noutate şi complexitate, pot fi atinse prin extinderea teritoriului fantasmatic-mental, dependent de anumite echivalențe reciproce dintre energie şi informaţie.

Cunoaşterea ştiinţifică se poate produce din concluziile pe care le trage o existență aflată în confruntare cu rezultatele evoluției umanității în general sau din "saltul la concluzii" pe care îl stârneşte viziunea faţă de un alt model de realitate. Mai ales, ea se poate produce din interpretarea concluziilor formulate în baza anticipării unor fenomene sau pentru înțelegerea derulării lor.

Leadership: Poţi demonstra o deosebire esențială a imaginii pe care o creează sufletul de imaginea pe care și-o imaginează rațiunea, ţinând cont de relaţia stabilită între simbolic, real şi material?

Leadershipul nu se reduce la a „marca goluri" într-un domeniu în care miza este lucrul eficient cu oamenii, fixând nivelurile de rezultate şi performanţe aşteptate de la fiecare. Liderul viitorului trebuie să fie musai un cultivator de adevăruri şi perspective ştiinţifice, capabil să-şi reevalueze experimentele şi îndoielile, nu numai certitudinile, asta pentru a da dovadă de complexitate cognitivă. Numai cine îşi va răsturna certitudinile conformiste va ieşi din dulcele somn al mediocrităţii.

Filosoful român, C. Rădulescu Motru scria: „ Adevărul ştiinţific trebuie considerat ca o formă de energie pe care sufletul omenesc, în tendinţa sa de a se adapta mediului extern, o desfăşoară alături de multe alte forme ale energiei sale. "

Aşadar, căutând secretul transformărilor constante de „materie", poţi descoperi ceva mult mai important: capacitatea de a adapta energia de producere a cunoaşterii ştiinţifice la o supremă conştiinţă. Ce este această energie, altceva decât o formă de manifestare a materiei în mişcare, cum bine preciza cineva. Ceea ce asimilezi prin intermediul cunoaşterii se transformă într-un limbaj universal care ştie să exprime în mod fidel esenţa naturii?

Forma de energie pe care o utilizezi în scopul producerii de noi adevăruri, care te va plasa deasupra tuturor celor care nu cunosc semnificaţia şi puterea ştiinţei, oferind avantajul de a putea fi uşor transformată, are efect asupra experienţei de a-ţi asuma conştiinţa înfăptuirii durabilităţii unei viziuni progresiste.

Deosebirea esențială a imaginii pe care o creează sufletul de imaginea pe care și-o imaginează rațiunea, ţinând cont de relaţia stabilită între simbolic, real şi material, constă în durata, calitatea, varietatea şi cantitatea informaţiilor obţinute prin interconectarea unor multitudini de puncte de vedere care nu reprezintă opinia majoritară dintr-o societate, ci doar perspectiva particulară a unei lumi care se îngemânează într-un spaţiu foarte aproape de vis.

Existenţa unei raţionalităţi care transcende planul material se leagă de ştiinţa pe care ţi-o însuşeşti din creaţia unei realităţi foarte apropiată de vis, pe care puţini şi-o pot imagina, mult mai puţini o pot înţelege, iar cei mai mulţi nu o vor recunoaşte ca fiind valabilă.

Viitorul raţionalităţii din avanposturile ştiinţei relevă continuitatea acelei realităţi care permite ideea de progres. Un lider creator îşi întemeiază superioritatea pe acea conştiinţă a diferenţelor, adică pe un model de gândire care ţine de realitatea integrării unor forme alternative de energie.

Vindecătorii

On Februarie 17, 2010

Conferă leadershipului tău continuitate, ordonându-ţi practicile într-un mozaic care să alcătuiască un tablou precis al performanţei.

Ultimul dintre pacienţi fu o fetiţă de numai 10 ani, însoţită de mama ei. Se plângea de dureri în piept şi în zona inimii. Respira puţin greoi, tuşea şi se îneca din când în când. Nu a putut dormi toată noaptea. Mama ei era foarte îngrijorată, credea că are tuberculoză.

Fetiţa se întinse pe pat la cererea medicului. Cu nerăbdare aştepta cuminte şi speriată verdictul acestuia.

Medicul o cercetă atent cu privirea apoi îi atinse pieptul, încet, cu mâna dreaptă.

- Nu cumva doare aici?

- Nu.

Apoi medicul îşi mută mâna puţin mai jos, în dreptul stomacului.

- Aici?

- Da, spuse fetiţa cu un început de lacrimi în ochi şi cu voce tremurândă.

Medicul îşi puse stetoscopul, îi ascultă inima şi plămânii. În cele din urmă veni şi verdictul. Fetiţa nu avea nimic la inimă sau la plămâni, iar durerea provenea de la o colită şi iradia înspre torace producând tulburări respiratorii şi tuse. Medicul îi dădu un tratament simplu care se dovedi eficient.

Leadership: Îţi confirmi participarea la un eveniment de tip "cauză a durerii" printr-o atitudine de înţelegere a reacţiilor secundare provocate de o vulnerabilitate sporită la factorul: "sunt singurul care poate umple acest gol" ?

A încerca, mai ales în vremuri tulburi, să faci compania să meargă seamănă mult cu încercarea unui medic de a oferi unui bolnav tratamentul potrivit, mai mult sau mai puţin complex, şi apoi de a urmări evoluţia spre vindecare. Cu cât eşti mai priceput şi mai apropiat de oameni, cu atât vei fi mai capabil să găseşti un tratament pe măsură pentru ca aceştia să-şi recapete performanţele iar compania să-şi redobândească şi să-şi menţină „sănătatea".

Ca lider, destinul companiei este în mâinile tale. Chiar dacă şansele ei de supravieţuire sunt minime, chiar dacă nimeni nu mai crede într-o minune, tu trebuie să-ţi dai toată silinţa să găseşti cea mai corectă soluţie ca s-o salvezi. Dar primul pas în acest sens este bineînţeles consultaţia atentă şi competentă. Să fii în stare să vezi de ce „suferă" compania, să observi amănuntele, să stabileşti situaţia personalului ei, şi abia apoi, în funcţie de simptome, de gravitatea bolii, să acorzi un tratament corespunzător.

O cauză a durerii care poate alimenta o altă ipostaza de-a dreptul emoţionantă este prilejul unei regăsiri de sine într-o situaţie similară în care a fost pus cel de lângă tine, când simţi că trebuie să acţionezi cumva, însă contextul te obligă să laşi lucrurile să-şi urmeze cursul lor fără să poţi schimba ceva.

Aşa cum stabilirea diagnosticului este cea mai importantă componentă a activităţii pe care o desfăşoară doctorii, tot aşa stabilirea propriilor capacităţi de a organiza şi duce la împlinire acţiuni necesare pentru atingerea unei performanţe este cea mai importantă componentă a leadershipului tău şi reflectă îndeosebi eficienţa ta, ca lider. Liderii cei mai buni îşi vindecă organizaţiile de probleme indicând tratamentele cele mai eficiente.

Situarea pe o poziţie înaltă nu îţi asigură succesul deplin. Succesul îl obţii doar dacă eşti capabil să duci compania pe un loc fruntaş şi să o menţii acolo. Oamenii depind de tine, de dexteritatea şi priceperea ta în conducere şi îşi pun toate speranţele în tine. Dacă nu eşti mereu atent cu ei, grijuliu, totdeauna gata să le dai o mână de ajutor, totdeauna foarte profesionist, dacă nu te îngrijeşti cu toată dăruirea de binele lor şi de binele companiei, şi dacă nu eşti concentrat mereu pe obiectiv, nu vei obţine performanţe prea mari. Ca lider trebuie să fii capabil să realizezi o schimbare în fiecare persoană la nivelul întregii organizaţii pentru ca aceasta să-şi sporească puterile.

Golul pe care eşti singurul în măsură a-l umple pentru ca oamenii să-şi dea seama care sunt "cărţile" potrivite pentru ei este un efect al manifestării sentimentului de vinovăţie ce capătă pregnanţă în situaţia în care eşti dispus să te implici în lupta lor, dar nu reuşeşti să ieşi învingător.

Cu ce umpli acest gol? Cu transformarea unei înfrângeri în reuşită !

Încerci să ridici leadershipul la adevărata lui măreţie prin acceptarea şi utilizarea unui kitsch?

Leadershipul, consacrat demult în vocabularul internaţional, vine să desemneze tocmai o ştiinţă care se construieşte pornind de la intenţii juste, suficient clarificate, care au o finalitate foarte bine conturată în cadrul existenţei concrete a omului sau companiei. Şi se consolidează pe fapte care privesc competenţa celui care se angajează voluntar în lupta împotriva „bolii" care determină o rată scăzută de reuşită profesională.

Kitsch-ul, surogatul de artă, care a devenit un adevărat pericol la adresa leadershipului, în locul artei autentice de a iubi experienţa în domeniu (care oferă omului şansa aducerii unor contribuţii semnificative în viaţa companiei), poate produce până într-un anumit punct - la neiniţiaţi - o impresie întrucâtva asemănătoare cu cea specifică originalului.

Se ajunge astfel la o situaţie ciudată, când raportarea leadershipului la adevărata artă se face în lumina unui extract de surogate, care nu fac decât să-l înstrăineze de autentică lui menire şi înţelegere. Apelându-se la criterii de evaluare a performanţelor, improprii ştiinţei adevărate care promite doar ceea ce poate realiza, neţinând seama de nivelul de competenţă a celui care conduce.

O îngrijorătoare confuzie de valori are loc în raportul dintre a crede şi a şti, dintre a înţelege şi a interpreta. Iar inconsecvenţa în materie de a interveni asupra problemelor deja existente şi de a le rezolva în funcţie de aspectele constatate în practică, devine alarmantă. De aceea controalele efectuate asupra modului de îndeplinire a atribuţiilor specifice funcţiei, şi aprecierea adevăratei valori a liderului, devin atât de necesare.

Pot fi întâlniţi astăzi experţi în măsură să aprecieze starea de funcţionalitate a unei companii, cu ajutorul intuiţiei sau la nimereală, o obscură producţie de diagnostice, soluţii şi proceduri expuse într-o formă generală. În fond, surogatul reprezintă un produs cu efect placebo, consumat şi administrat fără o "consultaţie" prealabilă, în lipsa celui autentic.

Însă leadershipul nu poate fi ridicat la adevărata lui măreţie prin acceptarea şi utilizarea unui kitsch, sau mai rău, a unei imitaţii a unui kitsch în sine.

Leadershipul este excepţia pe care trebuie să o indici unei raportări la atitudinea ta faţă de viaţă care confirmă regula: "ai doar o șansă să faci o primă impresie cu erudiţia ta".

Încearcă să experimentezi mereu provocarea de a transforma existenţa unui om, fără să dai greş pe linia alegerii celei mai bune opţiuni de maximă descătuşare a imboldului de a continua drumul către schimbare.

Concluzie: Toate practicile şi metodele pe care le foloseşti, la un loc, alcătuiesc un mozaic care defineşte imaginea generală a leadershipului tău, respectiv a eficienţei tale. Cu cât reuşeşti să prescrii mai multe reţete de „însănătoşire", care să aibă efecte pozitive pe termen lung, cu atât creşte şi nivelul performanţelor tale şi cu atât îţi vei îmbunătăţi relaţiile cu ceilalţi.

Conferă leadershipului tău continuitate, ordonându-ţi practicile într-un mozaic care să alcătuiască un tablou precis al performanţei.

Visează şi priveşte

On Ianuarie 04, 2013

Învaţă să te apreciezi în conformitate cu felul în care gândeşti, din perspectiva libertăţii de a te simți bine cu tine și cu mediul exterior.

În viaţă trebuie să alegi. Uneori trebuie să alegi aşa cum ai alege orice lucru care te descalifică de la un anumit statut social, cu riscul de a te îndepărta de lume. Alteori trebuie să alegi ca şi cum ai spune: "Eşti liber să îţi experimentezi visul", fără ca cineva să-ţi dea un ultimatum.

De exemplu, poţi să te trezeşti dimineaţa la ora 6, pentru ca la ora 8 să fii la serviciu, să munceşti pe rupte 10 ore pe zi, ca apoi să ajungi acasă frânt de oboseală... pentru ca la bătrâneţe să aştepţi pensia, şi aia vai de capul ei. Astfel, rişti să nu afli niciodată nimic despre ce înseamnă să fii om de ştiinţă.

Sau, poţi fi ca Isaac Newton, te trezeşti când ai tu chef, stai liniştit în grădină, la soare, te bronzezi, priveşti în jur cu admiraţie, n-ai niciun fel de stres. Şi, în tot acest timp, meditezi. Îţi pui întrebări: ce vrea să spună lucrul acela, dar celălalt? Mai fumezi o ţigară, mai bei o cafea. Şi continui să meditezi, începi să devii conştient de gândurile tale şi efectele lor. Apoi începi să alegi acele gânduri care îţi sunt cu adevărat de folos pentru a emite o părere, o teorie, o idee originală.

Şi, la un moment dat, vezi cu totul întâmplător un măr cum cade din copac. Şi descoperi legea gravitaţiei. Fapt care te transformă în cel mai renumit om de ştiinţă al tuturor timpurilor. Rămâi pe veci în istorie, schimbi şi coordonatele ştiinţei, îl cunoşti şi pe Dumnezeu, îţi rezervi un loc pentru nemurire..şi nu duci lipsă de absolut nimic.

Să ne amintim că în biblie nu scrie nicăieri că trebuie să munceşti de zor... însă scrie de nenumărate ori că trebuie să ai credinţă pentru a mişca până şi munţii din lor. Şi universul face totul în locul tău, aproape fără să mişti un deget !

Visează, priveşte şi stai cât mai mult la soare ! De aici porneşte totul.

Leadership: Modelarea personalităţii pe care o onorezi necesită transfigurarea minţii tale spre recunoaşterea "Măreţiei Creaţiei" din perspectiva fundamentului unui parteneriat durabil cu totalitatea ştiinţei naturii?

Poţi să urmezi modelul de personalitate pe care îl atribui lui Newton, dar ar fi preferabil să te convingi înainte de toate că ai doza aia de genialitate care îţi permite să stai la soare şi să meditezi. A sta la soare şi a medita nu înseamnă că eşti un om leneş, ci că te relaxezi în timp ce îţi foloseşti imaginaţia şi capacitatea de a vizualiza o situaţie problematică, sau pur şi simplu de a vizualiza o altă perspectivă a lumii sau a lucrurilor. Cât despre Newton, el a descoperit ceva fără să stea cu sapa în mână.

Este un exemplu despre cum funcţionează mintea. Nu trebuie să munceşti cu sudoarea frunţii ca să ajungi să faci o mare descoperire. Trebuie doar să meditezi în linişte.

Începe şi tu să te consideri un om educat, înainte de toate, adică un om care îmbrăţişează domeniul ştiinţei, acomodându-se cu libertatea de a te manifesta în autenticitatea ta, și mai ales cu posibilitatea de a potența propriul fond interior. Nu vei întâmpina grămezi de probleme dacă ai primit educaţia de a gândi, de a observa, de a fi corect, asta este ceva ce vine mai mult de acasă, de a-ţi corecta abordările despre lume şi despre viaţa în funcţie de felul cum te simți cu tine și cu mediul exterior. Este foarte adevărat că cineva sau ceva a sădit demult în tine sămânţa curiozităţii, dragostea interesul faţă de ştiinţă şi plăcerea a învăţa şi de a lupta singur pe plan profesional. Poate că educaţia clasică este un nimic pe lângă ceea ce descoperi de unul singur. Cel mai probabil, asta se învaţă pe parcurs.

Iată ce îmi scria cineva pe web atunci când am scris despre Newton: "Avem destui Newtoni care visează, privesc, stau la soare şi aşteaptă ajutorul social. Nu-i nevoie de mai mulţi. Doar că aceştia de care dispunem în număr nelimitat nu formulează nicio teorie. E o diferenţă între a sesiza ceva dintr-o privire, şi a privi totul fără să sesizezi ceva."

Dar mi-a plăcut mult mai mult acest răspuns: "Fiecare cu bucuria lui. Unii descoperă gravitația. Alții America. Puțini însă descoperă că există viață în afara propriului ego și a tentativelor acestuia de a se face remarcat. Valoarea este intrinsecă și omniprezentă. Nu se supune regulilor pe care le emitem cu siguranța unor profeți. Probabil Newton avea şi el o mătuşă care i-a lăsat o moştenire. Eu pe de altă parte nu am mătuşă, şi până îmi cade mărul în cap trebuie să îmi cadă şi o pâine în stomac. Plus ca întreţinerea curentului şi apa nu se plătesc cu credinţă."

Ideea pe care eu expun aici nu este aceea că trebuie să ocolim anumite responsabilităţi sociale, nici de a face din "genialitate" sursa unei stime de sine durabile și sigure. Ci faptul că orice om de ştiinţă îşi alocă timp pentru a medita la lucrurile importante cu ajutorul deconectării prin influența naturii.

Ştiinţa naturii este o formă de cunoaştere acumulată cu răbdare, fără stres, prin capacitatea omului de a înţelege complexitatea lumii în care trăieşte, mecanismele ei, misterele ei, în conformitate cu preceptele propriei sale conştiinţe şi cu liniile directoare ale propriei sale experiențe de viaţă.

Visează şi priveşte la totul din jur dacă vrei să ajungi să faci o descoperire importantă în domeniu. De aici porneşte totul. Când firea omului şi înclinaţiile sale absorb energia din mediul din jur, prin urmare atunci când omul îşi dă seama că libertatea de a gândi este mult mai preţioasă decât munca fizică, abia atunci el va putea ieşi din limitele manifestărilor autoimpuse de tipul "drum spre nicăieri".

Să ne amintim ce spunea celebrul fermier Sepp Holzer la un moment dat: "Încearcă să duci o viaţă în simbioză cu legile naturii, cu totalitatea ei, cu legile ei. Nu există nimic pe lume ce trebuie combătut. Învaţă să recunoaşti posibilităţile infinite ale creaţiei.În natură găseşti sfat şi ajutor, trebuie numai să înveţi să înţelegi aceste lucruri. În situaţii dificile, pune-te în locul adversarului tău. Tu eşti planta, animalul, omul. "

Visele

On Ianuarie 02, 2017

Efectuează o corectare și o lărgire a concepţiilor hotărâtoare despre ceea ce înseamnă putere însufleţitoare, amplificând dialogul pe care-l porţi cu tine însuţi în realitatea unei experienţe unice.

Exista ceva mult mai mult decât şansa stabilităţii într-un fond originar şi revelator de sensuri. Exista conceptul de formă în estetica visului, numit de mine "Legea". Colorată de impulsul dorului după cele memorate de o existenţă dansând desculţă printr-o multitudine de lumini şi umbre, de impulsul a ceea ce se întâmpla în afara mea, dar prin mine, legea a reuşit să învingă în ciuda opoziţiei celor ce nu se cuvântă.

Acel ireal moment în care trăgeam de firul nevăzut al întemeierii unui castel de nisip, pentru a elibera sacii de moloz din neguri de timp uitate, era în sfârșit pregătit să se nască. Unui ireal izvorât dintr-un moment de cumpănă, când nu ştii cine eşti şi ce vrei de la viaţă, când nu vezi firul Ariadnei şi nu poţi găsi ieşirea din labirintul propriei memorii, propriei căutări în alte timpuri, i se cere o ultimă confirmare a naturii sale prin excelență problematice: de ce trebuie să existe un dat al conştiinţei?

Cu toată vraiştea totală a degringoladei temporalităţii care denatura culorile imaginaţiei mele, în care nu ştiam cine sunt de fapt, sau încotro mă îndrept, am elaborat cu mari dificultăţi un model de univers. Fără singularitate iniţială şi fără limite. Asemenea unui vrăjitor care reuşeşte, pornind de la spirit, să transforme materia inertă în căldură şi lumină.

Leadership: Poţi să te manifeşti ca un dat al conştiinţei într-o creaţie a minţii a cărei elaborare continua să-ţi pună la încercare experienţa de a fi prezent într-un vis care nu este decât o halucinaţie fără înţeles?

Lăsaţi-mă să mă fac înţeles, fiindcă sigur nu mă înţelegeţi. Trăiam între sentimentul de a fi parte dintr-un vis, şi impulsul de a căuta explicaţia pentru care aş dori să fac parte din acest vis. Şi îmi imaginam trăind acest vis în toate detaliile sale, chiar dacă visul însuşi părea să fie parte din impulsul demistificator al conştiinţei de a-mi înţelege fiinţa dintr-un punct mai înalt, de pe un piedestal al veacurilor spre pomenire şi veşnică neuitare. Un singur imn se intona în acest nou univers, repetându-se constant fără să indice termenul sau rezultatul final: "Totul este al meu ! "

Ar fi trebuit să-mi dau seama, dovedind grandoare şi prestanţă, că a mă recunoaşte stăpân şi conducător în propria uitare, în propriul anonimat, în soarta visului unde cerul are numai culoarea dimineţii însorite, era doar o modalitate a distanţării de obişnuit. Dar reprezenta, totodată, urmarea firească a convenţiei privirii încadrate în decupajul neaşteptat al unei creaţii spectaculare care îşi dorea răspândirea unei poveşti de care nu te mai poţi despărţi.

Şi, uite aşa, s-a născut în mine un fel de năzuinţă spre mai sus, în parte vanitate, în parte curiozitate debordantă, în parte o emoţie atât de mare, încât nu mai eram atent la niciun reper din realitate. Cred că o forţă de contrazicere a unui raţionament bazat pe presupuneri, pe nevoie şi analogie, a lucrat intens la capul şi creierul meu.

Leadership: Experienţa ta subiectivă este una confesivă la modul existenţial abstract atunci când se trezesc în tine năzuinţe mai înalte?

Ceea ce scria dr. Picioruş Gianina despre scriitorul român, Nichita Stănescu, merită atenţie: "El a încercat să se imprime într-un sentiment inefabil şi impersonal ca într-o culoare albastră, pentru a deveni nemuritor, reactualizabil în fiecare cititor. A vrut să prindă esenţa sufletului său în poezie, dar această comprimare de sine l-a rănit până la urmă."

Dacă vrei să te socoteşti drept cauză a unei urmări, dacă vrei să devii un fenomen care prin natura sa este apt de a produce o schimbare în lumea din jur, atunci trebuie deschizi ochii spre năzuinţe care depășesc perspectivele realului. Poate că trebuie să te integrezi într-un vis care îţi pune conştiinţa la încercare: de ce trebuie să exişti într-un loc în care totul este la superlativ, şi unde totul este aranjat doar pentru tine? În acest caz, tot conştiinţa ţi-ar putea furniza răspunsul: pentru că omul care trăieşte un vis trăieşte exclusiv pentru sine, fără a trăi şi pentru o cauză nobilă îmbrăţişată de alţi oameni.

Cine are pretenţia de a deveni nemuritor, reactualizabil în fiecare cititor, trebuie să știe mai întâi de toate încotro se îndreaptă efectele incursiunilor sale într-o realitate zugrăvită de existență în culori contrastante. Puterea minţii, puterea gândului, frământările, dubiile, aspiraţiile, căutările, nădejdea, sforţările disperate, convulsiile deşteptării și ale regăsirii de sine, toate dau nuanţele unor culori care pot atrag atenţia în mod repetat sub forma viziunilor înnoitoare sau înveterate.

O altă caracteristică a omului care trăiește o experiență subiectivă, precum cea a visului, este aceea de a se confesa, pentru ca esenţa sa (legată de reprezentarea propriilor trăiri și percepții, capacităţi și expectanţe) să poată străluci şi arunca scântei în lumina zilei. El se vede obligat să elaboreze, cu mari dificultăţi, un model de univers fără singularitate iniţială şi fără limite, asemenea unui vrăjitor care reuşeşte, pornind de la spirit, să transforme materia inertă în căldură şi lumină.

Adevărata încercare este aceea de a ne imagina cum arată lumea unuia care vrea să prindă esenţa sufletului său în propria creație, fără a fi conştienţi de profundul în care el se scufundă. Un singur imn se intonează în această lume, repetându-se mereu fără să indice termenul sau rezultatul final: "Totul este al meu".

Necesitatea de redare a unei experiențe subiective, adică o corectare și o lărgire a concepţiilor hotărâtoare despre ceea ce înseamnă putere însufleţitoare și lumină călăuzitoare, are ca resursă de bază dorința excesivă de dominaţie: „Totul este al meu ! ”

Visele sunt simbolul unei experienţe de revelare a realităţii sinelui suprem. Omul care se privește adesea drept o incursiune în timp și în spaţiu, omul care își amplifică dialogul pe care-l poartă cu el însuși, considerându-se reflexia unei părți din el însuşi fabricată dincolo de ceea ce se produce în viața reală, va genera întotdeauna dilatarea realităţii, mereu într-o nouă formulare.

Iar dilatarea realităţii este calea de mijloc a năzuinţelor de autodepăşire.

Visul lui Nicolas Flamel şi mesajul profetic al îngerului

On Ianuarie 02, 2010

Ideea este aceasta: să te deosebeşti de alţii printr-un fel de magie, printr-un fel de cod al cunoaşterii ascunse.

Într-o noapte, Nicolas Flamel, creatorul Pietrei Filozofale, a avut un vis. Dar a fost un vis, sau doar o apariţie ivită pe când abia aţipise, o manifestare palpabilă a destinului? Cerul se deschisese pentru a lăsa să coboare pe pământ un spirit luminos. Un înger cu faţa luminoasă se afla la picioarele patului; aripile sale albe umpleau cămăruţa şi ocupau tot spaţiul. Serafinul îşi deschise braţele. Ţinea în mâini o carte cu copertă strălucitoare de aramă. Vocea lui caldă, cu timbru sublim, s-a concentrat într-un mesaj cu puternic impact emoţional:

- Priveşte această carte, Nicolas. Ţi se pare necunoscută, ţie, ca şi tuturor celorlalţi oameni. Dar într-o zi vei vedea în ea ceea ce doar tu trebuie să vezi şi vei şti ceea ce nimeni altul nu ştie.

Nicolas întinse mâna pentru a lua cartea cea enigmatică, dar forma dispăru într-un nor ce se risipi curând. Câteva zile mai târziu, Nicolas Flamel se afla în magherniţa sa, ca de obicei aplecat asupra mesei de lucru. Era un biet copist care vindea regilor şi studenţilor exemplare din cărţile vechi. Citise multe cărţi la viaţa lui.

Dintr-o dată, copistul îşi ridică privirea şi zări în faţa lui un bărbat pe care nu-l auzise intrând. Obrazul vizitatorului părea ars de soare, hainele îi erau prăfuite de pe drum şi părea sfârşit de oboseală. Nicolas se uită la el cu bunăvoinţă. Se vedea că bărbatul nu înţelegea deloc limba franceză. Privi cu teamă în jurul lui şi apoi, liniştit, îşi deschise desaga şi scoase din ea, cu foarte mare grijă, un obiect dreptunghiular, învelit în fâşiii de pânză, făcute dintr-un papirus fin şi rar. Desfăcu cu încetineală fâşiile de pânză şi scoase la iveală o carte, pe care voia să o vândă oricui i-ar fi dat doi florini.

Lui Nicolas îi veni să leşine de emoţie. Cartea...şi legătura asta...le mai văzuse ... Totul i se arătase în visul pe care îl avusese cu o noapte în urmă. Îngerul îi întinsese aceeaşi carte !

Leadership: Imaginea care îţi acaparează mintea în căutarea credinţei în Dumnezeu se poate transforma într-un sentiment al sinelui, satisfăcător şi stabil, capabil să iasă din orbita tiranică a determinismului social?

Şi din acea clipă, totul s-a schimbat. Un biet copist a devenit unul din cel mai mari alchimişti ai tuturor timpurilor. Şi cel mai bogat dintre toţi. Şi cel mai cunoscut dintre toţi. Asta, fiindcă cei născuți într-o zodie norocoasă au parte de adevărate trăiri ezoterice, din altă lume, revelații și momente în care se simt speciali. Nu este vorba doar de nişte descoperiri materiale izolate care le trezesc interesul și nevoia de a cunoaște mai mult domeniul vreunei ştiinţe. Ci este vorba despre o revelaţie care le aduce ocazia de a se apropia de spiritualitate și de a percepe viața dintr-un alt unghi, mult mai elevat.

Practic, Nicolas Flamei a beneficiat şi de un alt ajutor, un semn mistic norocos, odată cu apariţia îngerului, acesta comunicându-i în mod neaşteptat deviza spiritualităţii: "Mai sfânt, mai preţios, mai luminos". Probabil, Nicolas Flamel şi-a pus atunci întrebarea cea mai stringentă: dacă şi îngerii, care sunt atât de puri şi de curaţi, doresc să devină încă şi mai buni, şi mai minunaţi, şi se perfecţionează continuu, atunci eu ce mai aştept?

Cu siguranţă că circumstanţele, evenimentele pe care le întâmpinăm sunt o revelaţie a fiinţei, o confirmare a modului nostru de a gândi. Iar apariţia îngerului desemnează întreaga esenţă a spiritului unui om şi modul lui de a judeca o cauză sau un anumit demers, numai în acea situaţie în care îşi descoperă latura divină (pe care niciodată nu îşi imaginase că o are). Uneori omul nu are suficientă claritate şi pricepere să ducă mai departe un vis, o relaţie cu natura divină, şi atunci el nu poate căpăta o nouă existență sau nu poate găsi calea de a trece într-o altă dimensiune sau stare a lumii.

Ideea este aceasta: să te deosebeşti de alţii printr-un fel de magie, printr-un fel de cod al cunoaşterii ascunse.

În spiritualitate, visul este singura modalitate de comunicare cu Dumnezeu, un fel de supraestimare a importanţei energiilor, trăirilor, senzaţiilor, percepţiilor pe care partea creativă (talentul şi erudiţia) marcată de o anumită predestinare, de o anumită inevitabilitate, neagă pericolul "rătăcirii" şi acceptă poziţia de intermediar între pământ şi cer, sau ca un fel de intermediar între un inconştient inavuabil şi o mărturisită conştientizare. Cert este un singur lucru: spiritul acceptă poziţia ta de "trimis al lui Dumnezeu" pe baza unei intimităţi supreme.

Leadershipul este echivalent cu descoperirea unor lucruri mărunte, care pot deveni foarte importante. Ceea ce nu crezi că este posibil să te împlinească, devine posibil atunci când îţi dezvolţi un sentiment măreţ de împlinire spirituală.

Visul lui Nicolas Flamel şi mesajul profetic al îngerului spun unul şi acelaşi lucru: că sentimentul religios, derivat dintr-un vis esoteric, este un sentiment capabil să dezvolte o inteligenţă de tip "holistic". Bine spunea cineva, că visul este o răscruce interioară unde răsună tot zbuciumul vieţii.

S-ar spune că persoanele mature spiritual au crescut în medii în care le-a fost permis să-şi exploreze şi să îşi exprime impulsul natural către divin, suficient de mult cât să-şi dezvolte un sentiment al sinelui puternic şi o identitate matură, distinctă de a celorlalţi oameni. Bineînţeles, rar se întâmplă să întâlneşti un mistic care să-şi destăinuie secretele prin intermediul unei metafore-simbol al imaginarului artistic, ca un fel de lucrare a spiritului divin, fiindcă de regulă aceştia păstrează tăcerea asupra lucrurilor care nu trebuiesc spuse.

Visul, producător al unui lungmetraj narativ

Naraţiunea care îţi ghidează viziunea poate să prindă contur atunci când logica visului din pictură se întâlneşte cu logica visului din cuvânt.

Mi-am așezat fiinţa într-un neobișnuit context narativ, cu scopul de a surprinde metaforic procesul creator al unei imaginii artistice veridice: reproducerea vieţii reale într-o dimensiune a iluziei atotputernice şi a mirajului înaltului spre care tinde evolutia unei noi forme de conştiinţă. Acest fapt se asociază cu ivirea unei noi mentalităţi, mai atentă la aspectele legate de redarea realităţii de dincolo de iluzie, de dincolo de orizontul vizual, dincolo de dimensiunile măsurate în spaţiu-timp.

Este ca şi când m-aş fi refugiat într-un vis în care protagonistul este un artist al penelului, scos din neuitare, capabil să redea acel contrast între "viaţă" şi "fără de viaţă" într-un tablou plin de culoare.

Or şederea fiinţei mele "în afara" terenului vizibil al conștiinţei diurne, proiecţia ei raţională într-un vis și disiparea ei în imaginarul infinit, pe măsura unei metafizici capabilă să întrunească o certitudine asemănătoare cu aceea a ştiinţei, mi-a schimbat total concepţia despre adevărul aparenţelor înşelătoare. Este clar că întreaga mea fiinţă, corespondentul ei pe planul unei conştiinţe spirituale a schimbării, intră mai amănunţit în analiza unui procedeu de alteritate numit Uphasetsirah (realizarea Unităţii Sinelui în acea parte a lumii invizibile).

Leadership: Poate deveni imaginea din profunzimea ta un spațiu de transformare, unde contrastul dintre viață și non-viață capătă noi valențe expresive?

Exact. Astfel s-a petrecut acea revelaţie care mi-a schimbat viaţa, şi a cărei lumină străluceşte în adâncul unui suflet prins în mrejele artei, decis să îşi caute cărarea pe acea zonă a imaginii ce se hrănește constant din structurile constituite ale lumii vizibile şi ale lumii invizibile. Şi, conştientizând starea de vis în care lumea este magică, mai ales după ce o forţă nevăzută mi-a îngăduit cu greu să realizez transcenderea dincolo de spaţiul fizic, mi-am amplasat fiinţa într-o măsură absolută, nelimitată, a luminozităţii imaginii pe care o proiectez în lumea exterioară.

Într-adevăr, visul este un stimulent pentru mintea unui artist perspicace care vrea să profite de un efect identic celui de clar-obscur, pe care numai literatura sau pictura îl poate revela. Aşa că mă refugiez într-un vis transpus pe pânză în timp ce neglijez restul…

Leadership: Imaginea pe care o generezi în conformitate cu determinarea perspectivelor de abordare a realităţii, depinde strict de sugestivitatea unei manifestări vizionare a imaginaţiei pe care o poţi asuma sub formă de naraţiune?

Creaţia mea este însăşi visul pe care vi-l împărtăşesc ca pe o taină, sau ca pe o certitudine. Iar povestea fabuloasă a unei viziuni ontologice este creaţia unui visător care renunţă la realitate pentru a urma o lume fantastică, dar extrem de spectaculoasă, pentru că este lumea propriului Sine.

Mă refer la faptul că visul meu, aşa cum este el: mărunt în descriere, dar fascinant prin întindere şi diversitate, pare să facă parte din conţinutul unui alt vis, din care trezirea nu este altceva decât o opţiune de rezervă. Visul mă îndeamnă să pun în mișcare imaginarul, eventual să realizez imposibilul.

Şi în vis mi-a apărut un om care se visa el însuşi parte dintr-un vis care se repeta continuu, şi s-a repetat, şi s-a repetat până când omul a decis să deseneze sau să picteze o reprezentare a ceea ce se întâmplă în sufletul său. Ca un fel de Hocus Pocus în care moartea învinge viaţa prin crearea unui sine virtual puternic, prin activarea unui "sine narativ" care nu respectă cronologia reală.

Cred că la asta se referea scriitorul Jorge Luis Borges atunci când îşi încheia povestirea despre un vestit magician:

"În zorii unei dimineţi fără păsări, magicianul văzu încingându-se, de-a lungul zidurilor, un incendiu concentric. Preţ de o clipă, se gândi să se refugieze în apele râului, dar apoi înţelese că moartea venea să-i încununeze bătrâneţea şi să-l mântuie de zbuciumul vieţii. Se îndreptă spre flăcări. Dar acestea nu-i sfâşiară trupul, ci îl mângâiară şi îl acoperiră, fără căldură şi fără combustie. Cu uşurare, cu umilinţă, cu groază, înţelese că şi el era o simplă aparenţă, ca un altul îl crease în visele lui."

Leadership: Naraţiunea care dă sens creaţiei tale îşi câştigă întâietatea vizavi de expunerea clasică şi impersonală a operei de artă, evidenţiind relaţia dintre ceea ce se întâmplă faptic şi sugestivitatea unei imagini care îţi poate îmbunătăţi viziunea?

Atunci când vine vorba despre realitate un singur lucru este cert: nu putem cere înfăptuiri pe plan material decât dacă luăm în considerare ceea ce ni se relevă prin vise, prin simbol, prin sincronicităţi şi coincidenţe. Iar ceea ce se arată ca o simplă aparenţă în lumea realităţii, poate să fie de fapt scânteia magică a unui vis din care nu te mai poţi trezi niciodată.

Evident. Aş putea cu uşurinţă să-mi continui monologul într-un vis capabil să se prelungească la nesfârşit. şi nu mai puţin să mă îmi asum un anumit tip de cunoaştere şi iniţiere în aventura căutării Sinelui. La fel cum artistul reuşeşte prin intermediul picturii abstracte să transmită anumite mesaje privitorilor, pentru a le crea diferite stări emoţionale. la fel aş putea să dau şi eu formă unui conţinut narativ splendid într-un cadru al amintirii, deci activând în mod aproape incomparabil nişte conţinuturi uitate de viaţă.

Aţi observat că naraţiunea mea poate să prindă contur atunci când logica visului din pictură se întâlneşte cu logica visului din cuvânt?

Într-un spaţiu unde anumite anxietăţi se exteriorizează, aici artistul reuşeşte să sugereze densitatea materiei fără a recurge la încărcări păstoase, la zgârieturi agresive sau acumulări excesive de opoziţie ale realităţii, ci îmbinând cu succes tonurile delicate ale acuarelei cu adevărate explozii de culoare. Aşadar, visul atrage atenţia lumii prin modul în care îmi reflectez dinamica intelectuală în oglinda unor spaţii care induc acel touch de artă şi cultură în cadrul intim al unui flux de imagini simbolice.

Încă ceva. Visul în care îmi cufund sufletul, gândurile şi emoţiile, nu este un set fără sens de imagini fantastice care apar în legătură cu slăbirea rolului conștiinței, ci mai degrabă este un mijloc de transcendere a limitelor gândirii mele raționale, apreciat ca act intelectual care surprinde relațiă dintre ceea ce se vede şi ceea ce este ascuns privirii necunoscătoare de artă.

Din perspectiva unui creator, naraţiunea este o modalitate temporalo-spaţială de expunere a unei lucrări de artă pe un teren privat: al unui vis care este ascuns de către conţinutul manifest al acestuia. Sau, mai bine zis, naraţiunea este expunerea unei imagini artistice în interiorul unei realităţi care depăşeşte aria cunoscută a timpului şi spaţiului.

Visul producător al unui lungmetraj narativ este mijlocul unui artist de a pune în evidență pe pânză vibrațiile sentimentului de “Deja-Vu” ce reflectă combinaţia dintre ceea ce el trăieşte ca experienţă şi cele simţite de el ca amintiri durabile.

Nu uita că imaginea fabuloasă care îţi îmbunătăţeşte viziunea este chiar imaginea unui artist care îşi poate însuşi zeci de personalităţi în planul mai multor realităţi care se suprapun.

Visurile unui bătrân prins în lupta cu destinul

On Septembrie 24, 2012

Învaţă să adopţi acea atitudine de tipul "M-am trezit" bazată pe o responsabilitate majoră faţă de efectele produse de stările pe care le resimţi în faţa destinului implacabil.

Ed Tom Bell. Voia să se elibereze de acel simţământ apăsător, obscur şi fără nume din străfundul său, să dea la o parte negura densă, fără sfârşit a deznădejdii datorate evenimentelor din ultima perioadă, ce-l împresura ca un cocon ce întârzia să se mai deschidă.

Se simţea închis într-un spaţiu strâns şi pustiu, centrul dramatic al unei vieţi trăite parcă într-o neîmplinire totală. Iar pustiul acela complet străin, atât de negru, atât de autoritar, dăunător în confruntarea cu viaţa, caracteristic numai omului ce se aruncă cu tot elanul în faţa necunoscutului aşteptându-şi deznodământul, îl reţinea tot mai puternic.

Părea să simtă nevoia unui loc unde să se retragă, unde să se odihnească… pentru totdeauna.

Cineva spunea că bătrânețea este o expresie a destinului deoarece atunci când eşti bătrân îți dai seama dacă până acum ai avut sau nu vreo menire.

Leadership: Poţi să-ţi duci menirea până la împlinire contracarând efectele unui destin care strigă neîncetat "Mai repede"?

În finalul filmului " No Country for Old Men (2007) ", personajul principal, şeriful Ed Tom Bell, (interpretat de Tommy Lee Jones), poartă o scurtă conversaţie cu soţia lui, Loretta.

I se părea că intrase din plin în delirul nedesluşit care preceda celălalt necunoscut, numit moartea. Întreaga lui fiinţă părea, pentru prima oară, o umbră. Nu mai semăna deloc cu omul ce întruchipa idealul cuprins în cuvântul "curajos". Devenise vulnerabil în faţa vieţii, în faţa condiţiei umane, ca o ultimă redută de luptă cu el însuşi. O luptă corp la corp cu destinul, încăierarea lui Iacob cu îngerul, primul contact al unui om de rând cu o altă dimensiune.

" Am avut două vise, îi spuse Lorettei. Amândouă cu tatăl meu. Ciudat. Sunt mai vârstnic decât a fost el cu douăzeci de ani. Într-un fel, el este tânărul.

Primul nu mi-l amintesc prea bine, dar m-am întâlnit cu tata undeva, nu stiu exact unde, mi-a dat nişte bani. Cred că i-am pierdut.

În al doilea, parcă eram pe vremuri… Eram călare şi mergeam prin munţi, noaptea. Treceam printr-o trecătoare. Era frig, era zăpadă. El m-a depăşit şi s-a tot dus… Nu a spus nimic, a trecut pe lângă mine. Avea o pătură înfăşurată pe el, ţinea capul plecat. Când m-a depăşit, am văzut că ducea jar într-un corn de bizon, aşa cum făceau oamenii pe vremuri, şi am izbutit să văd cornul după lumina dinăuntrul lui. Cam de culoarea lunii. În visul meu ştiam că mi-o va lua înainte. Voia să facă un foc undeva, în întuneric şi în frig. Ştiam că, atunci când îl voi ajunge, el va fi acolo.

Apoi m-am trezit. "

Leadership: Eşti pregătit să experimentezi efectele asumării deciziilor de adaptare la schimbările vieţii produse pe un fundal afectiv estompat de un destin vulnerabil?

Este firesc şi absolut necesar să privim cu interes şi curiozitate fiecare interpretare dată leadershipului, să avem o viziune de perspectivă asupra lui şi să ne drămăluim forţele cu care ne implicăm în "jocul" lui, deoarece viitorul este incert şi uneori de neconturat.

Un fundal afectiv estompat de un destin vulnerabil produce depărtarea de propria persoană, neacceptând ca premiză de reuşită niciun fel de compromis între ceea ce te împinge caracterul să faci și ceea ce trebuie să faci pentru a nu avea de suportat o înfrângere totală. Un "DA" pe care trebuie să-l plăteşti destinului reprezintă un "Nu" pe care îl spui vieţii fără nicio pretenţie de exhaustivitate.

Leadershipul trebuie să izvorască din noi, să fie convingător, impunând o formă de întoarcere la virtute, şi să se consolideze din convingeri proprii. Iar noi trebuie să ne păstrăm luciditatea critică asupra noastră în raport cu acceptarea (transformată în convingeri) a modelului propriu de evaluare şi dezvoltare.

Tu cum îţi gestionezi posibilităţile de percepţie a leadershipului? Prin voia destinului vulnerabil sau prin prisma idealului de sine cuprins în cuvântul "curajos"? Prin analiza unui vis cu tentă de prevestire neplăcută în care afli că altcineva ţi-o va lua înainte? Sau printr-o formă specială de sensibilitate pe care o poţi asimila unei treziri spirituale?

Menirea pe care ţi-o predestinează evoluţia în angrenajul unui complicat determinism psihologic este o manifestare a atitudinii cuprinse între momentul trăirii unei situaţii limită şi atmosfera înfrigurată a visării.

Pentru a te feri de sindromul Ed Tom Bel trebuie să adopţi acea atitudine de tipul "M-am trezit" bazată pe o responsabilitate majoră față de efectele produse de stările pe care le resimţi în faţa destinului implacabil.

Aceasta este atitudinea individuală ce stă la baza alcătuirii leadershipului, faţă de tot ceea ce ni se întâmplă, faţă de ceea ce privim ca pe o mare provocare, lanţul de evenimente cărora noi înşine le suntem protagonişti.

Leadership: Scopul principal al existenţei tale este de a deveni conştient de cum îţi foloseşti timpul ca resursa de supravieţuire, încât menirea ta să capete acea definire şi persistenţă a caracterului care exclude influenţele exterioare?

Puţini lideri, trecuţi de vârsta tinereţii, reuşesc să se menţină pe linia de plutire atunci când nava propriului lor Eu, a aliatului lor sau a adversarului lor tăcut, se leagănă în largul imens, nesigur şi neţărmurit al unei noi identităţi.

Cei mai mulţi înaintează tot mai mult înspre apus. Iar când această "navă a constantei de a fi" se scufundă, nimeni nu-i mai vrea, nimeni nu-i mai acceptă. Ei înşişi se resping. Refuză să-şi mai îmbrace costumul de scafandru, să se pregătească pentru o aventură de neuitat, pledând în favoarea unei solidarităţi autentice faţă de nişte valori mai stabile. Nu se mai preocupă de propria lor dezvoltare, modelând materialul brut rămas în ei, aşa cum artistul îşi modelează pictura cu ajutorul culorii pentru ca aceasta să capete volum.

Ci îşi anihilează menirea de lideri îngroşând legătura între "bătrâneţe" şi "depresie", acesta fiind singurul factor care îi poate apropia de realitatea viselor rămasă oarecum departe.

Leadership: Cum răspunzi de o ființă pe care nu trebuie s-o rănești, în situația în care destinul îți închide ușa în față și nu ai la îndemână tăria sufletească pentru a o deschide?

Un lider poate ridica oricând ștacheta, dacă ține piept evenimentelor. Dacă își protejează vulnerabilitatea în fața vieții, în fața condiției lui de "a fi", ca o ultimă redută de luptă cu el însuși. A continua să înoți, să înoți, să înoți chiar și pe timp de furtună este o condiție sine qua non pentru a atinge măreția în leadership și de a-ți proteja imaginea de om de caracter.

A-ți menține „constanta de a fi" este ca și cum ai răspunde de o ființă pe care nu trebuie s-o rănești, de un bătrân aflat la momentul în care trebuie să-și pună ordine în viață, în gânduri, în temeri și să-și facă curaj, să-și continue parcursul bun, să se îndrepte spre alte orizonturi, spre niște ținte bine definite.

Ai voința de a te elibera de acel simțământ obscur și fără nume din străfundul tău? Cum îți învingi sentimentul de culpabilitate, apăsător, ce te înconjoară din toate părțile? Te arunci cu tot elanul în fața necunoscutului luptând pentru a avea un statut demn? Te vezi în postura omului ce întruchipează idealul cuprins în cuvântul "curajos"? Te lași bătut în fața vieții, în fata condiției umane, ca o ultimă redută de luptă cu tine însuși?

Leadershipul este răspunsul pe care îl dai vieții atunci când destinul îți oferă mai puțin decât îi poți oferi.

Visurile unui bătrân prins în lupta cu destinul semnifică rezultatul unei abordări minuțioase și realiste a naturii umane a liderului pus în situații de viață bulversante. Trăiește-ți viața mergând înainte și vei începe mai bine să-l înțelegi privind în urmă. Ia în piept până în ultima clipă valurile create prin puterile tale.

Reala performanță și adevăratul performer se nasc din izbânzile obținute în vremuri de cumpănă, atunci când ieși învingător în ciuda opreliștilor apărute sau ridicate de alții în calea ta, atunci când poți spune, aidoma unui țintaș dibaci: " punct ochit, punct lovit. "

Iar atunci când ajungi la apusul - inerent pentru fiecare, îți poți spune ție și celorlalți: "misiune îndeplinită"

Vizionarul Ineditului

On Februarie 07, 2016

Redefineşte-te din perspectiva capacităţii de a-ţi explora limitele, diminuând contradicţiile dintre ceea ce surprinzi „pe fugă" și ceea ce se pierde „în aşteptare".

Pe măsură ce călătoream de-a lungul vieţii, imaginea necunoscutului, sub aparenţa unui amănunt dintr-un întreg al ordinii atotcuprinzătoare, mă urmărea peste tot. Fără voia mea, între atâtea peisaje nemaipomenite, la ea îmi fugea primul gând, pentru că tot ceea ce observam era doar o oglindire a ceea ce nu vedeam. Iar o vedere asupra a ceea ce este interpretabil în direcţia unei abordări de ansamblu facilitează o varietate de răspunsuri din care nu se înţelege mai nimic.

Ineditul este tema unui artist care caută o ieşire din faţa unei realităţi neînţelese, or din acest punct de vedere mă situam la limita dintre utopie şi adevărul absolut. Dacă voiam să introduc tot ce vedeam într-o formă nouă de cunoaştere, ar fi însemnat să mă leg de un fel de ghidaj deductiv, neclintit în convingerea că trebuie să existe ceva accesibil în spatele fenomenelor greu de explicat, subliniind importanţa propriei mele schimbări în acord cu o lume care se schimbă şi ea la un alt nivel.

Ineditul este creat de faptul că a ta concepţie despre viaţă este poziţionată în centrul unei gândiri care pune pe primul loc acea parte a vederii care se află în afara privirii centrale, focalizată nu atât pe ceea ce ţi se întâmplă, ci pe înţelegerea a ceea ce contituie o întâmplare. Este ceea ce îl caracterizează pe un artist care redă lumea nu după felul cum arată într-o clipă trecătoare, ci în funcţie de cum se îmbină elementele de cunoaştere ale unei realităţi dincolo de cea vizibilă imediat, care întrece orice aşteptări.

Leadership: Care e poziţia ta faţă de toate experienţele vieţii într-o realitate subminată de iluzie, dacă nu chiar înlocuită de aceasta, pe fundalul căutării unei surse de inspiraţie care să dea sens reprezentărilor tale despre cunoaştere?

Într-o călătorie dintr-un oraş în altul, trenul circulă cu opriri, dar chiar şi aşa călătorului îi ia puţin timp să prindă regulile unei excepţii impuse de acordarea priorităţii în a desluşi tainele unei vederi bazate pe modificarea percepţiilor anterioare.

Poziţia mea faţă de experienţele trăite într-un asemenea moment grăbit de logica mentală era aceea de spectator al unei lumi într-o continuă dezagregare. Şi asta, deoarece fiecare fenomen pe care îl surprindeam în mers înregistra tendințe de variaţie total diferite, de multe ori contradictorii. Peisajul era când mohorât, sărăcuţ în elemente, umbrit de nori, când complex și interesant, dar chiar în aceste împrejurări părea cât se poate de trist fiindcă îmi lipsea capacitatea de a schimba ceva.

Vederea se şterge odată cu începutul de altceva nou, nu pentru că nu a fost imortalizată, bine întipărită pe retina memoriei, unde există puţin potenţial reducător de contradicţii şi întrebări, ci pentru că întotdeauna este mai uşor să începi ceva decât să termini ceva, tot aşa cum este mai uşor să construieşti de la temelie o clădire nouă decât să refaci una veche.

Nu îmi rămânea decât să aștept să ajung cât mai departe cu gândul la obţinerea unor noi vederi, nu are importanţă încotro şi nici de unde, esenţială rămânea curiozitatea de a afla cât mai multe. Dar teama de păcatul de a prins în mrejele prezentului mă făcea să uit tot ce vedeam, tot ce aflam pe parcursul călătoriei. Singura mărturie că nu surprindeam doar lucruri de fond cuprindea posibilitatea de-a fi un exemplar unic de vizionar al ineditului.

Numai că dorinţa de a vedea cât mai multe fugea mai repede decât credeam, spre peronul unei alte staţii, iar ciudata curiozitate de a coborî acolo rămânea mereu în urma mea. Din această cauză, probabil, mă simţeam bântuit de câte o imagine mişcătoare în orice loc static. Însă şi pe acestea le respingeam odată cu pornirea trenului.

Leadership: Poți să schimbi regulile unei excepţii impuse de acordarea priorităţii în a desluşi tainele unor vederi bazate pe modificarea percepţiilor anterioare?

Tot ceea ce vedem este de fapt o sumă a convingerilor, percepţiilor noastre asupra realităţii. Excepţiile sunt acele cazuri în care nu reușim să distingem acele lucruri bătătoare la ochi, în schimb vedem ceea ce nu sunt pregătiți să credem. Sau distingem doar ceea ce putem imortaliza, ceea ce nu știm, dar nu neapărat ceea ce ne lipsește sau ni se potriveşte.

În artă, prin excepţie se constată absenţa viziunii din care creaţia îşi are punctul de plecare. Oamenii care nu reușesc să asimileze o cunoaştere prin revelație, în urma acelor experienţe personale de surprindere a ineditului, prin combinaţii de imagini și momente trecătoare, nu vor putea niciodată să înțeleagă leadershipul din perspectiva capacităţii de a-şi explora limitele.

Prioritatea în a desluşi tainele unor vederi bazate pe modificarea percepţiilor anterioare constă în a conferi importanţă acelui "moment trecător" care nu se mai poate repeta şi care trebuie să fie apreciat acum, înainte să zboare şi să dispară pentru totdeauna. În acest sens, o analogie cu o călătorie printre diferite oraşe cu este binevenită pentru a pregăti următoarea revelaţie: „orice lucru la care ţii, este un lucru la care poţi să renunţi în faţa evenimentelor la care iei parte pe neprevăzute".

Cunoaşterea deţinută de un artist are ca specific puterea de a schimba o realitate care i se dezvăluie puţin câte puţin, într-o trecere de la un set de criterii, vagi, interpretabile şi netransparente, spre un set de criterii clare, măsurabile, palpabile.

În romanul "Numele Trandafirului" scris de Umberto Eco, există acest fragment la care deseori m-am întors, fiindcă îmi furnizează o anumită înţelegere asupra conceptului de prioritate:

„Dar tot atunci, știu bine, am început să mă las legănat de simțul asemănării: orice putea să aibă misterioase analogii cu orice. Când m-am întors în Europa, am transformat această metafizică într-o mecanică, și de aceea am nimerit fără veste în capcana în care mă găsesc acum. De atunci m-am învârtit într-un crepuscul în care se anulau diferențele."

Ineditul este începutul unui ceva în aparenţă banal, dar care se continuă către ceva mult mai complex, pe măsură ce se intensifică contradicţiile între ceea ce surprinzi „ pe fugă " și ceea ce se pierde „ în aşteptare ".

Iar un om care explorează abordarea realităţii din perspectiva capacităţii de a-şi înțelege propriile experienţe şi propria călătorie, ar trebui să încerce să compare percepţiile deformate ale imaginilor îndepărtate sau apropiate cu mesajele ce pot să apară din cele două contradicţii.

Imaginile pe care le prelucrezi „în trecerea" prin lume, obligând uneori la un soi de ghidaj deductiv - o formă de a te îndepărta de puncte de vedere fixe, sunt de fapt absorbţii de amănunte diverse care pot să servească drept corecţie a unor evaluări de situații sau ca descifrări ale sensurilor existenței.

Leadershipul este imaginea pe care ţi-o formezi despre o realitate în care eşti constrâns să accepţi doar extrema unei viziuni, iar pe cealaltă să o renegi.

Vizionarul Ineditului este dependent de curiozitatea de a afla cât mai multe, neclintit în convingerea că trebuie să existe ceva accesibil în spatele fenomenelor greu de explicat.

Dacă vrei să ajungi cât mai departe cu eforturile de a-ți extinde orizonturile și viziunea asupra existenței, făcând din orice călătorie un fel de concluzie la observaţia unor fenomene de tip aparte, învaţă să înclini balanța identificărilor de noi imagini spre predominarea unei esenţialităţi care să constituie conţinutul unei logici în modul de construcţie a propriei tale lumi.

Viziunea inefabilă, sau Revelația adevărului si a realității supreme

On Ianuarie 13, 2010

Iluminarea interioară este un ecou al unității universale, reflectând conexiunea dintre divin și sine.

– Această iluminare interioară, care ar trebui să facă din mine un akh, îmi va fi dăruită neapărat sau depinde de voinţa zeului? întrebă Neferu.

– Voința zeului este voinţa ta. Căci eşti o parte din tot, din acel tot care este formă perfectă a zeului, în aspectele sale vizibile şi invizibile. Zeul este ceea ce vezi în jurul tău, ceea ce percep simţurile tale, este Egiptul şi alte națiuni, este lumea cu tot ceea ce trăieşte, este cerul stelelor fixe și al aştrilor rătăcitori, dar este şi invizibil, spațiul pe care nu-l poţi vedea cu ochii tăi și care totuşi există și desparte lumea noastră de toate acele lumi ce sunt, fiecare, stele percepute de ochii noștri şi stele pe care nu le poţi vedea, fie pentru că sunt prea departe de noi, fie pentru că vederea noastră nu reuşeşte să le capteze lumina.

Şi mai este ceea ce era înainte de creație, mai înainte de a fi existat Ta-tenen, precum şi ceea ce va fi după, când universul vizibil se va transforma, va dispărea în spaţiu şi în timp, căci spațiul este mai vast decât lumile pe care le conţine și timpul depăşeşte universul în momentul în care îl vezi atât în trecut – care, pentru el, încă mai există –, cât şi în viitor, care, pentru el, există deja. Trebuie să ştii că timpul și spațiul formează un tot, că unul nu poate exista fără celălalt, căci fără spaţiu lumea nu s-ar putea răspândi, iar fără timp, nu ar putea să se miște. Căci orice mișcare cere un moment şi orice moment este o părticică de timp.

Leadership: Distingi contrastul vibrant dintre lumină și umbră, ca o oglindire a vieții și a morții, ce te provoacă la introspecție?

– Tot ce-mi spui mi se pare foarte greu de înţeles, zise Neferu, oftând, uimit de asemenea vorbe.

– Numai prin meditaţie vei putea începe să înţelegi sensul profund al vorbelor mele. Căci eu însumi înţelegeam doar puţine lucruri înainte de a practica îndelung meditaţia asupra tuturor elementelor de gândire propuse de învățătorii mei. Apoi, într-o zi, după multe asceze, multă muncă, multe zile şi luni, şi ani petrecuţi în căutarea a ceea ce este în mine şi în afara mea, am primit viziunea inefabilă, am văzut lumina fără foc, lumina fără soare, lumina eternă, am ieşit din mine însumi, mi-am părăsit învelișul corporal şi am luat un corp nemuritor de lumină, apoi m-am întors în mine, după ce am avut revelația adevărului, a realității supreme, cea pe care oamenii nu o cunosc, în general, decât după ce au fost purificați de o serie de morți multiple şi de vieți repetate.

– Aş putea să primesc şi eu viziunea inefabilă?

– S-ar putea, dar nimeni nu poate cunoaşte căile interioare ale celuilalt, nici el însuși, căci doar în urma unei căutări neobosite de sine şi a propriului spirit ajungi să te cunoşti suficient ca să începi să speri că vei putea primi iluminarea interioară. Prin vieţi succesive sau într-o singură viață, prin asceză şi efortul meditaţiei, putem reuşi, totuşi, să scăpăm de duşmanii noştri din lăuntrul nostru, să ne alungăm călăi.

Leadership: Reflectând asupra propriilor experiențe revelatoare, ai reușit să stabilești un echilibrul între simțirile inspirate din viața repetată și percepția actuală, într-o reprezentare vizuală și imaginativă a sinelui?

Meditaţia, aşadar, este o compoziţie de forţe care conduc fie la împlinire, fie la desființare, fie la un soi de blocare într-o existenţă de tip "altă realitate". Forţa înființătoare şi cea desființătoare a Sinelui tău, pe care o numesc autocunoaştere, se află în echilibru dacă reuşeşti să te sustragi rutinei zilnice, astfel încât realitatea nu este pur şi simplu un "lucru de mijloc între două abisuri", ci este chiar locul acelui echilibru universal, înţelegerea lumii tale dincolo de înţelegerea lumii întregi.

Este vorba despre tendinţa spre a pune ecuaţie toate vibraţiile tale şi a le constitui într-o viziune unică, printr-un soi de "căutare a adevărului din tine". Deci, cumpănind între limitat şi nelimitat vei putea să experimentezi o liniște interioară profundă, care te ajută să te cunoști mai bine.

Cu această viziune a realului - cumpănă intre claritate şi viziune - marea ta devenire va primi acceptare printr-un soi de conştientizare a naturii evolutive a egoului tău şi a structurii acestuia. Astfel vei putea să înțelegi mai bine legătura dintre ceea ce te face să fii special şi ceea ce te face să înțelegi mai bine legătura dintre corp și minte. Deci, este o cumpănă ontologică între două impresii diferite, şi totuşi apropiate, şi, ca atare, ipostaza ta nu mai este aia de "rătăcitor", ci de "regasitor al puterii interioare", adică ţi-ai regăsit echilibrul, motivaţia şi puterea de a merge mai departe.

Leadership: În drumul tău către iluminarea interioară, cum valorifici răbdarea, dedicarea și meditația ca instrumente esențiale în descoperirea sinelui?

Întrebarea despre viziunea inefabilă este profundă și îndreaptă reflectorul către o călătorie care îți este unică și extrem de personală. Această explorare a sinelui, a dorinței de a primi iluminarea interioară, este o aventură pe care o întreprinzi nu doar cu mintea, ci și cu sufletul. Ești gata să te avânți pe această cale?

Gândește-te la căutarea neobosită de sine ca la o expediție în necunoscut, unde fiecare pas te aduce mai aproape de adevărul tău interior. Este un proces care necesită răbdare, dedicare și, mai ales, o dorință arzătoare de autodepășire. Nu este o călătorie ușoară, dar frumusețea ei stă în provocările pe care le întâmpini și în modul în care acestea te transformă.

Înțelegerea că nimeni nu poate cunoaște cu adevărat căile interioare ale altuia, nici chiar ale propriului eu, fără o introspecție profundă, este esențială. Aceasta subliniază unicitatea călătoriei tale spirituale. Fiecare experiență de viață, fie că este vorba despre vieți succesive sau despre călătoria din această viață, adaugă straturi la complexitatea ființei tale. Asceza și meditația sunt instrumente puternice în această căutare, oferindu-ți posibilitatea să te conectezi la nivele mai profunde ale conștiinței tale.

Leadership: Te-ai gândit vreodată că fiecare moment de revelație este, de fapt, o reconectare cu sinele tău, într-o căutare constantă a înțelegerii realității desprinse dintr-o călătorie spirituală?

Confruntarea cu "dușmanii" interiori, cu temerile și cu îndoielile tale, este parte integrantă a acestui proces. Învingându-i, îți deschizi drum spre libertatea spirituală. Dar amintește-ți, această bătălie nu este una care se încheie rapid. Este o luptă constantă pentru înțelegere și acceptare, în care fiecare victorie te apropie de iluminare.

Iluminarea interioară este, astfel, un ideal măreț, o stare de grație spre care aspiri neîncetat.

Este viziunea inefabilă pe care o cauți, dar și calea spre a o atinge este, în sine, o revelație. Pe măsură ce te adâncești în explorarea propriei ființe, descoperi nu doar limitele, ci și posibilitățile nesfârșite ale spiritului tău.

Te încurajez să privești fiecare moment de introspecție ca pe o oportunitate de creștere. Fiecare gând, fiecare emoție pe care o explorezi, te construiește și te definește. În această căutare, nu ești niciodată singur. Chiar dacă călătoria este a ta și numai a ta, universul își țese firul alături de tine, ghidându-te subtil spre iluminarea la care aspiri.

Așadar, îndrăznește să continui pe acest drum, cu inima deschisă și cu mintea curioasă. Ceea ce vei descoperi despre tine poate fi mai miraculos decât orice viziune inefabilă promisă.

Revelația care te motivează să devii altcineva acceptă ca și criteriu de validitate posibilitatea neînfrânată a sinelui de a atinge o iluminare spirituală.

Viziunea inefabilă, sau revelația adevărului și a realității supreme, desemnează acea etapă de înțelegere și acceptare de sine prin care dobândești curajul de a fi altcineva. Aşadar, o înțelegere profundă a sinelui și acceptarea propriei realități sunt esențiale în călătoria spre atingerea unei iluminări spirituale, oferind curajul necesar transformării personale.

Viziunea îţi înalţă aşteptările

On Ianuarie 03, 2013

Fii capabil să percepi schimbarea înainte ca ea să se producă, încât viziunea ta să capete statutul de "monument istoric".

Eroul bătăliei de la Verdun, mareşalul Foch, spunea: "Nu există situaţii fără speranţă, ci există doar oameni care şi-au pierdut speranţa în legătură cu acele situaţii."

Asta conduce la concluzia că acele elemente pe care oamenii le-au inclus în viziunea lor, combinându-le în fel şi chip în funcţie de propria lor structura psihică, în funcţie de propriile concepţii, nu au fost manevrate corespunzător. Prin urmare, conturează-ţi viziunea astfel încât drumul pe care îl parcurgi spre performanţă să aibă particularitatea de a fi excelent.

Tu ai capacitatea de a te proiecta în viitor şi de a vizualiza ceea ce îţi pregăteşte acesta? Îţi conturezi viziunea astfel încât drumul pe care îl parcurgi spre performanţă să aibă particularitatea de a fi excelent? Viziunea ta îţi înalţă aşteptările, sau te trage în jos? Adaugi semnificaţie vieţii tale acţionând în virtutea viziunii tale? Simţi că datorită viziunii, faci ceva folositor, ceva care contează cu adevărat?

Leadership: Poți să construiești o viziune atât de plină de semnificație încât să devină un "monument" al gândirii tale, transformând iluzia și mirajul în dimensiuni ale unei noi forme de conștiință?

Viziunea poate să capete statutul de monument istoric numai dacă este prețuită datorită straturilor de semnificație acumulate în timp, dacă nu este abandonată şi nu se degradează cu paşi repezi. Viziunea ta îi determină pe oameni să fie părtaşi la o activitate folositoare? Ce urmăreşti prin impunerea viziunii tale? Te înarmezi cu acel spirit de autoevaluare obiectiv şi corect înainte de a-ţi clarifica şi dezvolta viziunea?

Punerea în practică a unei viziuni nu este întotdeauna o sarcina ușoară. Aşa cum în fotbal, fundaşul central urmăreşte un atacant advers când acesta se retrage, dar numai până la linia de centru, - tot astfel un lider, prin conturarea unei imagini de sine pozitive, prin întărirea propriei identităţi, trebuie să urmărească să completeze acele spaţii libere din conştiinţa sa care nu vădesc nicio calitate excepţională, până în momentul când orizonturile sale se schimbă şi se lărgesc.

Ca să descifrezi sensul evoluţiei leadershipului de mare impact, exprimă-ţi viziunea, în aşa fel încât să-i determini pe oameni să acţioneze în spiritul ei.

Leadership: Viziunea ta poate să adopte un statut care să îndeplinească condiţiile legate de prezicerea celui mai prost rezultat posibil al unei situaţii, fără existenţa unor date sigure asupra acelei situaţii?

Viziunea ta se bazează pe elemente concrete? Viziunea trebuie să se bazeze pe elemente concrete, şi deci să fie realistă căci altfel vei fi catalogat ca nebun sau cel puţin unul care "prinde fluturi".

A acţiona în virtutea viziunii, fără să faci aprecieri în privinţa şanselor acesteia de a se materializa, este ca şi cum ai fi un scriitor notoriu dar care nu apare în anuarul scriitorilor, care nu dă interviuri, nu iese în public la nicio prezentare de carte, nu dă autografe. Dar, cu toate acestea, prin nu ştiu ce împrejurări, prin nu ştiu ce minune, primeşti zilnic scrisori de la fanii tăi. Cum îţi explici treaba asta? Un scriitor notoriu, pe care nimeni nu-l vede, pe care nimeni nu-l cunoaşte, dar cu toate acestea primeşte mii de scrisori de la fanii săi. Este sau nu o aberaţie?

Viziunea este acea calitate care apare şi se dezvoltă în paralel cu relaţia ta cu oamenii. Viziunea stabileşte o apropiere între tine şi ceilalţi, chiar dacă prezenţa ta în mijlocul oamenilor este mai rară. Paulo Coelho este cel mai iubit scriitor al momentului, Paulo Coelho. Mesajul celebrei sale cărţi, "Alchimistul", acela că fiecare om trebuie să-şi împlinească misiunea pe pământ, Legenda Personală, a ajuns la inima şi la mintea multor multor oameni, fără ca aceştia să fi citit cartea, fără să-l fi văzut pe scriitor, fără să ştie cine este el măcar.

Leadership: Ţii seama de imprtanţa viziunii tale în reglementarea unei situaţii de mare vulerabilitate, fără a fi luat în calcul impactul produs în cazul în care aceasta va fi adoptată în forma propusă de o conştiinţă acuzatoare?

1. Tu eşti capabil să inspiri o viziune, sau o idee revoluţionară în evoluţia gândirii celorlalţi oameni?

Căci numai viziunea îi poate face să-şi vadă aşteptările împlinite, să-şi îmbogăţească viaţa şi să-şi schimbe atitudinea faţă de ea. Altfel spus, viziunea constituie un impuls care se transmite de la om la altul. E de-ajuns că viziunea ta să schimbe un singur om, pentru ca acesta, la rândul lui să o transmită mai departe.

Leadership: Reușești să lărgești orizonturile propriei identități, transformând limitele aparente în noi posibilități de expresie ale conştiinţei tale?

Pentru ilustrarea leadershipului impus de viziune, liderul nu este chemat să aplice reţele de mult ştiute şi utilizate. El trebuie să integreze în conţinutul propriei sale viziuni acel mesaj dominant a cărui ritm de propagare să trezească, să stârnească nişte emoţii puternice pe baza procesului unic şi complex de intuiţie pe care îl coordonează, comunicându-şi sentimentele într-un fel propriu, - adică trebuie să fie capabil să sintetizeze într-un mod creativ impresiile transmise de propria lui realitate şi de glasul conştiinţei sale.

Pornind de la acest proces de schimbare spontană, dar şi indusă, datorată viziunii liderului - acelei viziuni clare, ambiţioase, remarcabile, poate complexe, poate simple, pe termen scurt său lung, care nu deformează realitatea, oamenii vor începe să simtă încet încet nevoia unei ieşiri de sub autoritatea tradiţionalismului, a felului de a vedea lucrurile, şi de a acţiona. Ei vor trece într-un alt stadiu de dezvoltare şi de maturizare, la început de observaţie a procesului de schimbare şi de conştientizare a noii situaţii în care sunt puşi, a efectelor pozitive sau a riscului la care sunt supuşi, aplecându-se atent şi liber asupra realităţii din jur.

Așadar, lărgirea orizonturilor identității prin „expresia conștiinței" sugerează că persoana reușește să depășească limitele obișnuite, explorând și exprimându-și ideile profunde și trăirile autentice, care conduc la o evoluție continuă și la o contribuție unică în lume.

Viziunea în leadership se referă la atitudinea pe care o adopţi în acele situaţii limită în care oamenii reacţionează conform indicaţiilor tale, cu nădejdea că sunt însoţiţi de o chemare sfântă şi înaltă spre a vesti puterea "Aceluia" care vrea să fie temut, şi fragilitatea "Aceluia" care cere să fie iubit.

Viziunea îţi înalţă aşteptările dacă începi să o percepi drept o binecuvântare fiindcă tu însuţi eşti o parte din răsplata ei, fiindcă datorită ei poţi ajunge la nivelul om prevăzător care ştie că viaţa poate lua oricând o turnură neprevăzută. Ca lider, trebuie să-ţi dezvolţi abilitatea de a-ţi păstra viziunea neclintită în situaţii complexe, şi să crezi cu tărie în inima ta că nimic nu te poate opri să-ţi atingi scopul.

Vizualizarea artei este esența viziunii

Pentru a aplica corect evaluarea vizuală, trebuie să fii conștient de interpretările subiective ale elementelor vizuale din jur.

Privirea este centrul universului pentru un pictor, acţionând ca un fel de liant între suflet şi lumină, ori ca un catalizator în reacţia chimiei subtile dintre vizualizarea interioară a trăirilor ascunse și a lumilor imaginare. Iar marea mea pasiune pentru artă, tensiunea creatoare, manifestarea ferventă a unei stări sufletești intense, denotă o forță mentală uluitoare care îmi permite să rămân dedicat şi să mă simt binevenit în lumea pe care mi-o creez cu ajutorul vederii, o fereastră deschisă către universul artistic, menită parcă să absoarbă culorile și formele dincolo de limitele pânzei.

Cu greu va putea afirma cineva că tot ce poate fi numit frumos în artă, și având mare forță estetică, se găsește în mecanismul văzului. Căci, pentru a desfăta și a fermeca un suflet receptiv la frumos, eventual privind marea lucind în bătaia soarelui, omul are nevoie de emoțiile regulate din spatele privirii. Mai ales când eşti pe litoralul grecesc, unde marea se împlinește cu dealurile, aici arta devine un soi de spectacol infinit al vederii devenite unicate, suficient pentru a purta sufletul într-un soi de zbor mistic care pornește din interior.

Ceea ce simt, emoția păcii și a liniștii existențiale, este ca o curgere neîntreruptă a sunetului produs de valuri, în bătaia soarelui. Asta în măsura în care sunetul valurilor reprezintă întregul dătător de emoții, subordonat dimensiunii estetice, deci fără să separ privirea de auz, arta poate fi concepută în simplitatea supremă. Mai ales când în această simplitate, Adoschoul Tkhirhas Iisras Ielaesert, spaţiul în care se manifestă creaţia divină, răsună concomitent mai multe sunete diferite, dar care sunt atât de bine unite, încât crezi că auzi doar unul singur.

Leadership: Te-ai gândit vreodată să explorezi mai multe aspecte ale unei compoziții artistice, astfel încât ceea ce vezi să capete amprenta unei excelențe inconfundabile?

Implicația vederii din plinul litoralului este evidentă în arta mea, şi chiar deţinătoare de un adevăr absolut: "Ceea ce văd este un spectacol, doar dacă ochii privesc cu inima". Tocmai din acest motiv, privind cu un soi de înțelegere profundă în cuget, mi se ivesc cuvintele pline de har din povestea "Palatul Norocului":

Aici, în locul în care marea se întâlnește cu pământul, deja ceva de ține de câmpul privirii, este ca o invitaţie într-un castel magic, în care odată intrat, timpul își pierde semnificația. Ceasornicul care îmi măsoară timpul petrecut pe plajă, instrumentul spațial care măsoară distanțele, își înțelepțește ticăitul, făcând asociația cu razele soarelui traversând cerul senin. Deci, ceva în mine, într-o vie conversaţie cu estetica, m-a făcut să determin unul din criteriile văzului: "Pentru a aplica corect evaluarea vizuală, trebuie să fii conștient de interpretările subiective ale elementelor vizuale din jur."

Leadership: Ai luat în considerare vreodată să analizezi mai detaliat interpretările subiective ale elementelor vizuale dintr-o lucrare de artă, astfel încât să poți să-ți dezvolți propria viziune într-un mod nou și captivant?

Un artist vede perfecţiunea acolo unde alții văd doar imperfecțiune. Spun asta pentru că acolo unde este nisip este și creație în devenire pe un şevalet, acolo unde este mare, pictorul poate să dea un farmec aparte unui tablou. Iar acolo unde este pământ, poate să înflorească abilitatea în trasarea liniilor drepte şi subţiri. Se vede, deci, că sunt ocrotit de simțământul ispititor al detaliilor când vine vorba de reprezentarea în desen a unei viziuni atipice, corelată strâns cu geometria și cu abilitățile de vizualizare.

Iar marea tot acolo este, strălucitoare şi plină de mister, chiar şi după lăsarea întunericului. Chiar şi când nu sunt prezent pe litoral. În acest sens, oricare ar fi fost lucrul care ne apropie sau care ne desparte, din clipa în care existenţele noastre au fost modelate de acelaşi destin artistic, am avut acea bănuială puternică că ideile şi idealurile mele sunt în contradicție cu realitatea, mai ales când vine vorba de reprezentarea pe şevalet a unor concepte abstracte.

Are să fie al naibii de greu de dezvoltat un asemenea concept, de genul echilibrul între lumină și întuneric, pentru că, pe măsură ce mi se dezvăluie mai multe despre orizont, cu atât el are să mă învăluie la loc cu misterul său, pentru că artiştilor le plac lucrurile ordonate, chiar și în condiții de haos. Până la urmă, dacă trebuie să însoţesc marea cu privirea, cu emoţia regăsirii peste ani şi ani, până la apogeul pe care ea îl atinge prin reprezentarea simbolică a unui orizont vast, ea însăşi urmând să îmi apară ca un simbol al despărţirii şi al regăsirii, atunci sufletul meu va naviga mereu pe pânza şevaletului…

Viziunea implică abilitatea de a cuprinde un orizont larg cu privirea, astfel încât să poți resimți emoția regăsirii peste ani și ani. Este ca și cum ai naviga pe apele trecutului, întâlnindu-te cu amintiri și sentimente care se contopesc într-un peisaj vast al sufletului.

Vizualizarea artei este esența viziunii, înțelegând că fiecare detaliu reprezintă o fereastră către lumea interioară a artistului, un fragment din povestea ascunsă în adâncurile sufletului său, un soi de Yllaraihah Enmimella Nyusasha, un moment al spiritului uman care tinde spre absolut.

Vizualul unei producţii semnate “Ti aspetto qui”

On Iulie 04, 2019

Construieşte-ţi o identitate care satisface nevoia unicităţii, adăugând profunzime creaţiei tale din perspectiva unei surse inepuizabile de încântare vizuală.

Am fost dintotdeauna adeptul formării unei atitudini de preţuire a frumosului, ce se vrea a fi o măsură a puterii de concentrare, a forţei de sugestie asupra văzului şi spiritului de observație. În fond, este şi aceasta o calitate a omului de mare talent şi educat, fin în tot ceea ce ţine de vizualul unui tablou plin de încărcătură sentimentală care însoţeşte veselia cea mai zâmbitoare a unei grădini multicolore, plină îndeosebi cu trandafiri.

Trandafirul denotă încrederea în trăirile unui artist singular care are acces la o lume expusă interpretării şi înţeleasă printr-o sesizare artistică, printr-o metaforă: “Tema vieţii, ca într-un vis ce se repetă”. Nimic nu poate schimba o gândire bazată pe energiile şi geometriile florii vieţii, prin asemănarea cu astrul unei lumi deosebite, filtrată critic prin formă, culoare, imagine, transparenţă, compoziţie şi un context bun. Drumul artei coboară în anonimatul pământului pentru a scoate la suprafaţă, mai apoi, un sentiment ceresc care nu poate decât înfrumuseţa o figură omenească.

Din acest motiv, mi-am educat gustul pentru frumos să caute senzaţionalul, asemenea unui căutător de comori, acolo unde lumea nu priveşte niciodată cu atenţie: în sufletul florilor, acolo unde doar foarte puţini artişti au libertatea să se exprime: în îngrijirea trandafirilor. Fii tu însuţi cea mai bună parte din comoara pe care ai descoperit-o spre locul de întâlnire cu natura, în căutarea clipei eterne.

Da. Este o calitate a liderului să ştie să se poziţioneze, cu multă răbdare, într-o ramură a activităţii pe care nimeni nu o prestează la nivel de artist, ştiindu-se ca făcând parte dintr-o categorie estetică a sublimului, cu darul lui de a însufleţi lucrurile, prin felul cum ştie să le grupeze, să le armonizeze între ele, unde toate vorbesc încet, cu glas din alte vremuri.

Leadership: Imaginea pe care o construieşti despre tine însuţi poate să personalizeze un mesaj concentrat pe generarea unei experienţe de viaţă sau a unui sentiment din care să se nască vizualul unei mărci personale?

Nu degeaba mi-am permis de atâtea ori să traversez una creazione dell'immaginario . Mă urmărea însemnătatea colosală a unei gândiri bazată, într-o îngemănare simbolică, pe maximizarea impactului pe care îl au culorile din perspectiva unui “ca şi cum” bine ascuns în pictura unei epoci dominată de ideea autonomiei individuale, trăită şi împărtăşită ca o experienţă de intrare într-un alt univers. Fiindcă am vrut dintotdeauna să fiu vectorul unei expresii frumoase, cizelate, metaforice, aluzive şi, în ultimă instanţă, plină de spirit în alegerea unei teme de studiu, de tipul “Identitate personală”.

Aşadar, nu mi-am îngrădit nicio clipă libertatea de a comunica o idee, o atitudine, o convingere, un concept, prin comparaţie şi diferenţiere. Cât de târziu mi-am dat seama, însă, că nu voi putea trăi fără să mă ştiu al altcuiva, fără să mă înconjur continuu de misterul unei picturi care se poate dezlega numai prin la corrispondenza tra memoria e dimenticanza . Poate că uimirea în faţa splendorii pe care o produce arta natura lasă urme în graba acestui “drumeţ întârziat”, care mereu se uită cu grijă la câtă cale e înaintea lui.

Când îngrijeşti o grădină mare, plină cu trandafiri, inevitabil îţi vin în minte cuvintele pe care Alexandru Vlahuţă i le adresa pictorului Nicolae Grigorescu: “Toate clipele de veghere le trăia în arta lui. De aici ușurința, libertatea, verva extraordinară a facturii lui. În arderea neîntreruptă a focului sacru e taina puterii unui artist. El n-a lăsat o clipă să se treacă focul pe care i l-a încredințat lui Dumnezeu. Și de aceea, tot ce-a vrut a făcut. Toate tainele i s-au deschis. Priviţi peisajele lui. Nu mai e pictură. E o fereastră deschisă larg în lumina de afară. "

Vizualul unei mărci personale se transpune și la gama de culori pe care trandafirii o împrăştie cu dărnicie, cu parfumul lor, spre a fi imortalizaţi într-o serie de imagini surprinzătoare, ce sugerează o relaţie apropiată între sentiment şi formă, între subiectul cunoscător şi obiectul cunoscut, între artist şi public. Iar de aici, pot spune că leadershipul este naturalețea și simplitatea cu care exprim vizual conceptele artistice și le transform în comunicare.

Leadership: Eşti în stare să aduci o contribuţie importantă artei de a surprinde o existenţă autentică prin promovarea ideii de a crea un sentiment de similaritate între "o parte selectată din peisaj" şi "totalitatea peisajului"?

Unii ar spune despre mine că fac parte dintr-o idee care îşi deschide cu generozitate aripile spre iluzia unei intruziuni în altă zonă de popularitate, ca obiect al unei manifestări de grandoare, timpul măsurat în atingeri tremurânde înfăşurându-se în jurul unei îmbrăţişări catifelate făcută din spirit şi admiraţie. Alţii, ar trece cu vederea existenţa mea, la fel de uşor cum se închide televizorul. Doar unora le este dat să audă şi să pătrundă puterea mea de a revărsa compasiune în relaţiile cu totul din jur, cu însăşi glasul naturii.

Cea mai importantă latură a creaţiei mele vizează modul de observare a unui trandafir în ipostaza de artist al unei poetici viguros definite, al unei opere de artă totale.

Cu toate astea, eroarea percepţiei privitorului poate fi legată de incapacitatea de a elimina din desenul acestei construcţii narative însăşi culoarea dominantă, ce se vrea a fi o glorificare a frumuseţii trăită la intensitatea unei corelaţii între fapte şi evenimente, fiindcă este destul de greu de surprins viforul marilor emoţii pe care le dă arta.

O floare văzută prin ochiul artistului este proiecția intelectuală asupra unei existențe autentice. Iar simpla prezenţă a unui trandafir, care mereu îşi deschide sufletul în faţa noutăţii unei personalităţi artistice complexe, sub puterea unei vrăji care te atrage în lumea cărţii, îţi dăruieşte o altă viziune asupra a ceea ce trăieşti între nevoia de a te destăinui şi tăria amintirilor, jumătate vis, jumătate realitate.

Totalitatea unui peisaj care merită pictat concentrează însăşi caracterul intim, partea de poezie a fiecărui lucru ce trece prin sufletul artistului la fiecare efort depus pentru a surprinde impresia de unitate estetică.

Am fost mereu o parte din sentimentul "de acasă" al unei sacre uniuni cu frumuseţea trăită la intensitatea unei experienţe de viaţă înfiripată şi înflorită în arta de înţelegere a unor abordări estetice subiective, a exigenţelor unei activităţi de creaţie care cere, în primul rând, iubire de natură, dusă până la evlavie. Ochii mei au fost şi vor rămâne însetaţi de lumină, încărcaţi de visuri, ca la vederea unei capodopere inspirată din adâncimile necunoscute ale unei vieţi ce parcă nu este a mea, ce de ce bună seamă aparţine unui purtător de înţelepciune şi frumos care şi-a găsit, în sfârşit, locul de concentrare simbolică.

Cea mai importantă parte din peisajul acestui loc minunat, numit "my garden", este simţul armoniei între ceea ce simt şi ceea ce văd, aşa încât să nu denaturez sau să exagerez formele unei figuri care transfigurează şi unifică creaţia, o delicateţe a execuţiei care face accesibilă măsura unei inteligenţe artistice aflate la maturitate.

Virtuţile expresive ale liniei şi formei în amploarea relaţiilor simbolice pe care le poate exprima trandafirul, ca mijloc de limbaj al picturii, sunt înzestrate cu ataşamentul spiritului meu de a trăi experienţa unei vieţi petrecute printre opere de artă, printre culorile vii ale naturii surprinse în toată splendoarea și generozitatea ei.

Arta este un pretext de a descifra viaţa naturii şi de a o face eternă într-o creaţie originală.

Până la urmă, ajungi să înţelegi vizualul unei producţii semnate "Ti aspetto qui" atunci când, dimineaţă de dimineaţă, trandafirii plin de atâtea culori îţi oferă darurile lor, sub formă de inspiraţie, vestind înrudirea lor modelată spiritual cu lumea artei.

Gândeşte-te la tine ca la abordarea unui tablou din perspectiva unui grădinar care nu-şi părăseşte niciodată grădina şi care, din dorinţa de a le da florilor un înţeles omenesc, o trăire spirituală înaltă, se preface într-un simbol al repaosului și liniștii, într-un soi de personaj fabulos adaptat la o tematică particulară intitulată "Cuvintele sufletului".

Impresia de unitate estetică se câştigă numai în ambianţa solemnă a unui loc de rafinată cultură şi simţire, dincolo de timp, unde fiecare senzaţie şi chestiune de bun gust face dovada de netăgăduit a unui Creator care a adus în existenţă un univers plin de personalitate şi forţa expresivă, plin de energie, contrast, lumină și culoare.

Leadershipul îndreptat spre fuziunea artei cu sensibilul are ca bază de susţinere relaţia dintre natură şi interiorul fiinţei.

Aici se intrevede măreţia gândurilor şi sentimentelor transmise prin imaginea unei grădini înfloritoare în care trăieşti experienţa necesităţii de a te deschide în faţa a ceea ce este bun, frumos şi nobil.

Vizualul unei producţii semnate "Ti aspetto qui" încântă prin caracterul intim al unei experiențe estetice prealabile, surprinsă într-un sentiment de mulţumire, linişte sufletească, exaltare emoţională, concentrat de puterea unei relaţii înfiripată între două imagini asemănătoare, care uneori se confundă până la identificare cu expresia naturii lui Dumnezeu: artistul şi opera lui.

Şi, acum, ultima dorinţă a trandafirului, mi-o asum ca pe o rugăminte adresată unui spirit eclectic, de rară pătrundere:

Te aştept, privitorule, să păşeşti în "desenul" poveştii mele despre pământ şi cer, despre uitare şi redescoperire, despre vise, speranţă şi puterea imaginaţiei, pentru a vedea cât de departe poate ajunge un pasionat al artei, încât să redea o altă dimensiune a vieţii, trăită până la intensitatea unei şoapte de dor, de admiraţie, de suflet, clipind parcă pe aripile versurilor semnate Ricchi e Poveri:

Voi continua să fiu mereu propria mea creaţie

Încearcă să îndeplineşti o sarcină artistică specială, în aşa fel încât știința cu adevărat superioară de care faci dovadă să fie mărturia artisticului pe care îl conţine semnătura propriei personalități și a unui stil autentic.

În scrierile mele ermetice despre ştiinţă, în care deseori ştiinţa este văzută ca o întâlnire neaşteptată cu un astru al cărui ciclu de formare a devenit esențial în evidența timpului mitic, am încercat să mă situez la orizontală: între secretul unei mari Opere de Artă şi acea epopee a materiei şi spiritului integrată într-o vastă şi puternică "Trilogie A Stelelor" care nu cunoaşte nicio programare a imprevizibilului.

Mai cu seamă, totul pare a fi altceva decât ceea ce este cu adevărat. Nimic nu este mai înşelător, la fel cum nimic nu este mai tentant într-o conjunctură tranzitorie decât să-mi aflu refugiul în miezul unui prezent încurajator, dar ambiguu, care poate determina formarea unui orizont nemărginit, numit Univers. Aici se situează artistul genial, sculptorul în lumină, imitatorul aparenţelor lumii reale, care se poate transforma în orice personaj, fără să se oprească din trăit atunci când se izbeşte de un "Eternal Darkness".

Mai trebuie să recunosc un singur lucru: în timpul demersului de a reorienta ştiinţa spre o reprezentare inovatoare a realităţii, regăsindu-mă în toate cele şapte părţi sau genuri ale coloritului armonios şi semantic consistent, am fost pregătit să experimentez matricea tuturor personajele principale aflate într-o trilogie fantastică a căutării de sine și de sens universal. Nici n-aş fi putut să fiu un imitator al aparenţelor lumii reale, fără să surprind esenţa unui "unexpected" sau "unusual".

Leadership: Eşti în stare să te percepi drept un rezultat al expresiei "Sunt un erou al altui timp", care poate fi aplicat și unei forme de artă menită să descrie originile unei creaţii durabile?

Într-o operă literară sau picturală, comparația este un mijloc de expresie artistică care ajută la îmbunătățirea semnificației unei acțiuni, a unui obiect sau a unui eveniment. Trebuie să fii un artist pentru a face ca părțile unui tablou sau ale unei alte opere de artă să atârne împreună - ca un întreg - prin relații vizuale inedite în sfera ştiinţei, la diferite niveluri de complexitate, cum se întâmplă spre exemplu în cazul epopeii lui Ghilgameş.

În Epopeea lui Ghilgameș, în acest poem epic din Mesopotamia antică, se înscrie relatarea unei călătorii într-o altă lume, pusă pe seama unui muritor deosebit de înzestrat. Altfel spus, în povestea arhicunoscută a lui Ghilgameș - considerat "cel care a văzut totul" (Sha Naqba Imuru) se urmăreşte relatarea istorică a eșecului primului muritor ce a năzuit spre obținerea nemuririi. Chiar dacă nu s-au descoperit dovezi despre aceasta, şi nici asemenea cazuri anterioare, un lucru rămâne cert: opera de creaţie se poate impune deopotrivă ca abstract-geometrică şi emoţional-fascinantă doar prin cucerirea unei mai mari reputaţii de înţelepciune.

Mai cu seamă artistul, ca să poată să-şi semneze scrierile cu pseudonimul "The King of Heroes", deci fiind în mod evident orientat sub o asemenea mentalitate, trebuie să-şi demonstreze capacitatea de a folosi cu succes ştiinţa şi conştiinţa în acelaşi timp, sub acelaşi cer şi într-un cadru constant, bidimensional. El se raportează la realitatea spirituală datorită unor conjuncturi neimaginate ce pot dărâma tot eşafodajul ideologic şi artistic construit în secole. Şi tot el, artistul consacrat prin mozaicurile bizantine, poate atinge perenitatea doar dacă este intermediat de zei și numai după trecerea prin diferite stadii inițiatice.

Leadership: Creaţia ta poate să-şi urmeze traseul firesc în continuitatea unei viziuni al cărei suport ideatic este îndreptat spre însuşirea unei imagini veridice ce se perpetuează între planuri paralele?

Un artist care se metamorfozează în substanţiale compoziţii picturale, cucerind epidemic tot universul prin ideile sale, devine un simbol al Creaţiei. Acelaşi lucru este valabil şi pentru un artist al cuvintelor care se metamorfozează în imagini ale unor forme de existenţă superioare, sau ale completării unor opţiuni nerealiste prin realizarea unor întâlniri neaşteptate cu nişte fiinţe profund spirituale.

În ambele cazuri, artistul nu-şi face o lege din a ascunde nici unul dintre scopurile reale în care îşi efectuează experienţele de traversare a timpului prin raportare la o alegorie sau la o istorisire ficțională care poate să capete proporţiile unei metafore arhetipale, sau proporţiile unei lupte între Bine şi Rău în sensul „cel mai ontologic".

Ci, fără îndoială, artistul urmează o maximă contrară, bine integrată în rezultatul unui realism prudent care susține ideea călăuzitoare a întregii sale opere într-o lume în care nimic nu reprezintă o certitudine. Aceasta maximă spune că: "cine urmăreşte nişte licăriri false poate descoperi adevăruri importante şi că, deseori, poţi întâlni un lucru în timp ce, de fapt, căutai altul."

Aici intervine măsura creaţiei mele, cu enunţarea ipotezei conform căreia existenţa unui orizont spaţial al Sinelui trebuie implicat în constituirea unui dublu pozitiv, ca efect al unei alterităţi care trebuie să fie, la rândul ei, exterioară subiectului care a generat arta. Şi, iată, fără s-o spun în gura mare, mărturisesc în secret că aceasta este măsura creaţiei mele: să-mi fac accesibilă oglindirea vieţii în moduri fabuloase despre o identitate care se bazează pe simboluri unice şi irepetabile.

Înţelegerea unei opere de artă implică atât recunoașterea asemănării dintre creator şi personajul în care se metamorfozează, cât și înțelegerea convenției dintre ceea ce știi că ești în realitate și ceea ce intuiești că văd ceilalţi în tine.

Voi continua să fiu mereu propria mea creaţie ori de câte ori voi construi un personaj după propria-mi asemănare, ştiind că ceea ce mă defineşte în totalitate este o permanentă asimilare a realității prin cunoaștere. Lucrul acesta nu se întâmplă pentru că ceea ce numesc creaţie reprezintă de fapt o întâlnire a intelectului cu imaginaţia, ci pentru că reflectând asupra modului de a crea un singur întreg din elemente disparate, îmi perfecționez funcțiile de gândire sintetică și analitică.

Vrăjitoria unui creator de capodopere

Îmbunătăţeşte-ţi capacitatea de a pătrunde în dimensiunea creaţiei avansate, combinând ceea ce convine unei tendinţe care porneşte de la intuirea subiectului şi merge până la semnificaţie.

Cum arată opera care este în fond secretul forţei filmului „Alexandr Nevski"? Regizorul Serghei Eisenstein scria într-o notaţie inedită că este vorba de vrăjitorie, de faptul că, asemenea tobei vrăjitorului, răsună una şi aceeaşi idee. Totul se învârte în jurul unei singure idei. Niciun cuvânt, nicio replică, niciun episod în care să nu fie vorba de duşman şi de necesitatea de a-l învinge: în planuri, în proiecţie, în amintiri, în acţiuni înseşi.

Nicăieri nu poţi întâlni o asemenea unitate de idei într-o astfel de varietate de întâmplări, într-o formă atât de vădită. Aceasta captivează hipnotic. Iar în ceea ce priveşte compoziţia aceasta înseamnă că avem de a face cu o fugă de o amploare cum, poate, nici la mine însumi nu se poate întâlni nicăieri. Nu există nicio replică, nicio situaţie care să nu redea „under a new angle the same theme", iar metoda montajului este metoda fugii. *****

Leadership: Îţi extragi cunoaşterea superioară din structurile experienţei de redare a unor noi forme de expresie?

Tipul uman care vrea să se autodepăşească trebuie căutat în lumea creaţiilor de mare profunzime, ele înşele o combinaţie de trimiteri spre nişte analogii complicate, care implică o participare intelectuală intensă. Iar încercările necontenite de a pătrunde în dimensiunea creaţiei avansate, de la substanţă la structură, de la simpla alternativă la necesitate, prin folosirea unor mijloace amplificare a ineditului, utilizate corect, contribuie la satisfacerea pretenţiei omului de a-şi atribui largi competenţe.

Punctul de referinţă al ştiinţei practicate - ideea, care se cere a fi urmată cu stricteţe, îmbogăţită cu noi reprezentări de noţiuni, nu mai este determinată doar ca element dominant al unei creaţii „ under the angle of inclination of your Being ". Ci constă într-o modalitate specifică a cunoaşterii de ansamblu, din anumite structuri ale experienţei de redare a unor noi sensuri şi forme de expresie (folosite pentru a defini ideile şi valorile, în prezenţa unor concepte inspirate).

Acestea din urmă capătă importanţă prin proiecţiile vectorilor de impact, de tip „Get Shared Key" care, aducând noi opţiuni de personalizare a creaţiei, pot efectua diverse actualizări ale finalităţii ei.

Totul se învârte în jurul unei singure idei atunci când mesajul verbal şi cel nonverbal se susţin reciproc până la iniţierea formării unei noi versiuni de accesibilitate a valorii de unicat atribuite actului de creaţie.

Câştigarea experienţei necesare pentru redarea aceleiaşi teme, sub noi forme de expresie, are o influenţă binefăcătoare asupra creaţiei intelectuale, spre gasirea unor noi variante de producere de a impactului de ansamblu şi a tendinţelor de performanţă. În timp ce vectorii de impact, de tip „Get Shared Key" se sprijină pe înţelesurile care ar trebui să te pună pe gânduri, mult mai complexe şi mai numeroase, întrucât propun alte alternative de raţionament, bazate pe probe şi concluzii logice, combinând ceea ce convine unei tendinţe care porneşte de la intuirea subiectului şi merge spre semnificaţie.

Leadershipul nu mai poate fi privit doar sub forma unui conţinut bine determinat de idei şi idealuri puse în slujba cunoaşterii avansate, ca o calitate a învăţăturii pe care o transmiţi. Obiectul analizei fiind acum o suită discontinuă de aspecte pro şi contra, prefigurând imperativul constituirii unei ştiinţe interpretative, care urmează condiţiile şi particularităţile unei modelari a percepţiei despre ce ar trebui să comunici, introducând mentalitatea lucrului bine făcut.

Ceea ce comunici trebuie să aibă un sens mai profund de unitate, surprinzând necesitatea de a învinge o rezistenţă exterioară şi tendinţa de renunţare : în planuri, în proiecţie, în amintiri, în acţiuni înseşi.

Vrăjitoria unui creator de capodopere surprinde acele elemente, nuanţe şi caracteristici ale creaţiei oglindite în propria ta conştiinţă, dar mai ales în dimensionarea bine controlată a ideilor care se învârt în jurul viziunii şi valorilor pe care reuşeşti să le transmiţi susţinătorilor. Este apanajul marilor maeştri în arta conducerii, capabili sa modeleze si sa dea noi forme de expresie creaţiei lor.

Vrăjitorul care desface orice fel de lanţuri

On Aprilie 22, 2012

Îmbunătăţeşte calitatea leadershipului tău, insuflând oamenilor puternice sentimente care ating şi fac să vibreze cele mai sensibile corzi din sufletul lor.

Încă o dată mă văd nevoit să fac referire la filmul „ Lionheart (1990) ". Aşa cum spuneam şi în articolul precedent, personajul principal, Lyon Gaultier, dezertează din Legiunea Străină şi ajunge în Statele Unite ale Americii. Însă ajunge prea târziu, fratele său murise deja, iar soţia acestuia rămase fără banii necesari pentru a-şi îngriji copilul. Simţindu-se întrucâtva responsabil de soarta celor două fiinţe rămase fără sprijin, el hotărăşte să le ajute.

Însă biata femeie care abia îşi îndura chinul, biata făptură atinsă grav de aripa singurătăţii, îngrijorată de neplata interminabilelor facturi – ea care făcea parte din clasa aceea nevoiaşă, care începe cu ultimul om strâmtorat şi se întinde din mizerie în mizerie, până la cele din urmă trepte ale societăţii; ea a cărei singură raţiune de existenţă, singură apărare împotriva vicisitudinilor vieţii o constituia doar fetiţa ei, Nicole, îngerul coborât parcă din rai special pentru a-i întreţine existenţa, o fiinţă atât de gingaşă, atât de iubitoare şi de veselă, – nu-şi poate răni orgoliul şi îl renegă pe Lyon, singura ei rudă, singura ei speranţă, refuzând cu îndârjire orice ajutor din partea lui.

Leadership: Azvârli o privire mai ascuţită în tenebrele care ascund adevărul unei persoane, încât să te faci părtaş la trăirile şi gândurile care îi guvernează viaţa?

Dar omul, omul făcut de Dumnezeu după chipul său, omul căruia Dumnezeu i-a impus ca primă lege, unică şi supremă, dragostea pentru aproapele său, omul care îşi cunoaşte inima şi n-o trădează prin ignoranţă sau laşitate – nu poate abdica de la principiile morale care îl defineşte.

Lyon era un astfel de om – o fiinţă plină de dragoste, nu doar un luptător straşnic, iar această dragoste plină de spirit, plină de grijă, plină de înţelepciune, care nu-şi găsise niciodată locul în inima nimănui, pentru prima oară iese la iveală. Ca un medic care ia în serios boala de care suferă pacientul şi caută să o trateze cu cea mai mare atenţie, el ştie prea bine că îndărătul perdelelor trase de la fereastra micii ei garsoniere, şede o inimă însingurată, împovărată de lipsuri, care se zbate zilnic luptând cu toate aspectele existenţei – zădărnicindu-i credinţa şi încrederea în viitor.

Aşa că se apropie cu însufleţire, cu multă fineţe, cu mult spirit de observaţie de ea. Mai întâi îşi închiriază o locuinţă aproape de a ei. O priveşte în drum spre serviciu şi înapoi, o analizează din perspectiva finanţatorului care trebuie să-şi respecte termenii contractuali. Cunoaşte de aproape rănile care o dor, ştie problemele cu care se confruntă, fără ca ea să bănuiască nici cel mai mic lucru. Aparent nepăsător, o lasă să se consume în existenţa ei searbădă, să-şi poarte singură propria povară. Dar apoi, treptat, ca un vrăjitor care face farmece şi minuni, care desface în mod magic orice fel de lanţuri, înlăturând orice fel de chin, el aranjează în aşa fel încât ea să primească mici sume de bani, care se transformă în sume tot mai mari, pe care el le câştigă din luptele ilegale, foarte bănoase.

Şi nu fără de folos. Căci în final ea realizează cine este binefăcătorul ei. Îl iartă totul, ajunge să-l preţuiască şi să se ataşeze de el.

Leadership: Rezultatul consolidării unei poziţii de apropiere este în concordanţă cu impactul ecuației de stare a unui sistem închis sau a unui sistem deschis?

Raţionalismul omului care vrea să-şi depăşească valoarea de referinţă (data de concentraţia de sentimente şi de forţă morală) nu se limitează la principiile cunoaşterii întemeiate pe viziune, ci mai degrabă porneşte de la natura acelei cunoaşteri care percepe contextul cauzal al producerii impactului pozitiv.

Iar rezultatul consolidării unei poziţii de apropiere prin care arăţi cine eşti cu adevărat se poate instala printr-o sensibilitate a deschiderii sufleteşti, adică prin remodelarea percepţiei asupra unei "lumi" aparent pierdute (lumea fiinţei lipsită de apărare, care se vede smulsă şi risipită din realitatea unei existenţe fericite).

Modul concret şi individual prin care identifici încercările de apropiere faţă de ceilalţi oameni, puse sub semnul unor noi începuturi, depinde de cele două sisteme de stare gestionate: închis sau deschis.

Sistemul închis operează absolut singur şi calcă în picioare drepturi şi libertăţi, relaţionând doar cu cei care susţin funcţionarea lui. În timp ce sistemul deschis captează acea imagine pe care vrei să o arăţi tuturor în forma unei individualizări care rezultă din starea ta emoţională.

Ca şi lider, nu te poţi pune singur în fruntea oamenilor, spunându-le: „ Urmaţi-mă” , fără ca mai întâi să-ţi setezi sau să-ţi personalizezi o întreagă listă de factori favorabili care să declanşeze mecanica specifică unei cunoaşteri profunde în relaţiile cu ceilalţi oameni - tot aşa cum un scriitor, înainte de a scrie un roman, conturează personalitatea fiecăruia dintre personajele sale.

Adevărata revelaţie a manifestărilor tale de afecţiune şi admiraţie îşi găseşte expresia în sensul pe care îl dai însemnătăţii unei părţi din întregul vieţii cuiva care a fost catalogată ca fiind nedemnă de luat în seamă.

Nu poţi produce o schimbare în ceilalţi oameni dacă nu reuşeşti să modifici corespunzător simţămintele lor, ceea ce presupune înţelegerea idealurilor şi aspiraţiilor lor, a naturii lor morale şi emoţionale.

E necesar, deci, ca mai întâi să te cufunzi cumva în existenţa lor, în căutarea acelor aspecte care le pot uşura transformarea - ca un vrăjitor, ca un om superior prin calităţile sale, înzestrat cu darul de a empatiza, de a le susţine interesul viu pentru schimbare – dotându-ţi leadershipul cu puterea de a privi mai adânc în sufletul omului, de a recunoaşte realităţile sale interioare după aspectul exterior.

Liderul este „vrăjitorul” ce desface lanţurile necunoaşterii, ale ignoranţei, ale nepăsării. Este cel care are o înrâurire pozitivă asupra oamenilor, asupra evoluţiei lor – şi pentru a avea acest efect el trebuie să cunoască bine natura umană şi modalităţile de influenţare a sentimentelor şi gândirii lor.

Leadership: Cum faci dovada evoluției Eu-lui tău după rigoarea unui spirit sistematic, ca păstrător al esențelor autentice, astfel încât să poți canaliza înțelegerea spre adevăratele dimensiuni ale naturii umane?

În cazul leadershipului, unde sunt acumulate toate valorile, trăirile, principiile, convingerile (care trebuie să fie vii, capabile să influenţeze, să impulsioneze, să însufleţească spiritele) se adaugă şi problema unei analize obiective, a evaluării sistematice a omului.

Tocmai pentru ca liderul să facă dovada deplină a evoluţiei propriului său Eu, dovada de continuator nu doar al cunoaşterii, ci mai ales al principiilor, spiritului şi valorilor sănătoase, adoptate şi promovate, el trebuie să-şi dezvolte spiritul analitic care îi va permite să se autoevalueze şi să-şi evalueze corect oamenii şi situaţiile cu care se confruntă.

Aşa cum un scriitor pasionat de natura umană cercetează şi cunoaşte îndeaproape rănile societăţii în care trăieşte, tot astfel un lider care îşi dă toată iscusinţa de a fi performant, îşi canalizează eforturile de întregire a leadershipului său prin cercetarea amănunţită a unităţii, a esenţei, a particularităţilor din care se constituie natura umană: prin descoperirea valorii propriu-zisă a omului, cu rigorile, cu întunecimile, cu strălucirea lui, prin examinarea multor aspecte ale trăirilor şi simţămintelor sale, ocrotindu-l de înţelegerea falsă a unei realităţi concrete.

Eul este partea tainică a puterii tale de a da dovadă de mulţumire în vederea ridicării unui paradis acolo unde este doar durere.

Puterea liderului stă tocmai în înţelegerea aspectelor fundamentale legate de dimensiunea umană, aşa cum puterea medicului stă în cunoştinţele sale teoretice şi practice. El îşi găseşte un aliat de nădejde în procesul prealabil de cunoaştere, de descoperire a celor mai înălţătoare trăiri, aspiraţii, idealuri pe care le degajă, le abordează, le emite fiinţa umană în ansamblul ei, pusă în faţa unor hotărâri dificile - întru desăvârşirea ei.

Numai cunoaşterea elementelor constitutive ale fiinţei umane, prin înţelegerea complexităţii sale, numai manipularea inteligentă şi în scop benefic a minţii şi a spiritului care îi alimentează acesteia permanent credinţa, existenţa, puterea de a merge înainte, îşi poate liderul dovedi adevărata valoare.

Numai insuflând oamenilor puternice sentimente care ating şi fac să vibreze cele mai sensibile corzi din sufletul lor, el poate face dovada evoluţiei propriului său Eu. Căci leadershipul depinde de funcţionarea celorlalţi oameni, tot aşa cum viaţa unui pilot de curse depinde de funcţionarea perfectă a motorului maşinii pe care o conduce.

Ca să faci din viată omului un paradis trebuie mai întâi să descoperi faţa ascunsă a ceea ce omul are mai grav ascuns într-însul, fără să-i testezi tăria caracterului. De unde anume vine suferinţa omului, care este sursa ei adevărată şi în ce fel se manifestă ea?

Vrăjitorul care desface orice fel de lanţuri este omul care se dedică chemării sale lăuntrice, fiind dirijat de o forţă intuitivă ce contribuie la crearea unei imagini pozitive şi a unei personalităţi magnetice. El reuşeşte să aibă o înrâurire hotărâtoare şi pozitivă asupra celorlalţi oameni, contribuind la îmbunătăţirea evoluţiei şi performanţelor lor.

Leadershipul este oare magie? O vrajă? sau o ştiinţă?

Vrăjitorul (I)

On August 16, 2010

În ziua când te vei simţi în stare să-ţi subordonezi cât mai mulţi oameni, în ziua aceea vei deveni un vrăjitor.

Edmond Dantes cântări cu multă grijă însemnătatea evadării sale neaşteptate din castelul d'If. Iar faptul că i se oferise faimoasa avere a lui Spada îl convinsese de avantajul ce-l deţinea în favoarea sa. Voia să se răzbune, iar ca răzbunarea lui să fie deplină trebuia să pună în mişcare un întreg angrenaj, dar fără să lase nicio urmă, niciun dubiu, niciun semn, doar un adânc aer de mister, un aer rece şi plin de îndoială.

V de la Vendetta. Gândul răzbunării i se conturase în minte ca o imagine vie a unui joc magic, primejdios, încâlcit, un joc de intrigi şi trădări, care reflecta în mod direct, ca o oglindă, propriul său caracter mult schimbat de vitregiile vieţii. Mintea îi era năpădită mereu de acest gând necurmat şi stăruitor – răzbunarea.

Dar ca să atingă coarda dureros de sensibilă a duşmanilor săi – aceia care au conspirat împotriva lui şi l-au trimis la închisoare pe nedrept – şi să-i pedepsească, trebuia mai întâi să-i înspăimânte, să le deformeze realitatea tulburându-le minţile prin năluciri şi apariţii înfricoşătoare, prin glasuri fără înţeles, prin priviri pătrunzătoare, printr-un lung şir de suspiciuni şi răsturnări de situaţie – totul printr-o prefăcătorie ieşită din comun.

Leadership: Îţi propui să încerci o experienţă de revelare a sinelui de la înălţimea unui vârf ce se calculează în raport cu o situaţie de tip "capcană"?

Regatele regilor sunt mărginite fie de munţi, fie de râuri, fie de schimbări ale moravurilor, fie de schimbări ale limbii vorbite. Dar regatul unui vrăjitor e mare cât lumea, nu e îngrădit de absolut nimic, doar de propria-i conştiinţă.

Edmond Dantes se preschimbă dintr-o dată într-un vrăjitor cu puteri depline – Contele de Monte Cristo, care, manipulând "globul său de cristal" putea să identifice cu o precizie nemaipomenită toate mişcările duşmanilor săi.

Şi era atât de iscusit în a-şi înţelege duşmanii, încât, aruncând în inimile lor acea teamă groaznică, de moarte, putea simţi bătăile inimii lor, respiraţia fiecăruia, tremurul de emoţie şi spaimă. Numai el era în stare să desluşească ce se petrecea cu adevărat în adâncul fiinţei lor, căci numai el s-a putut strecura ca o umbră abia perceptibilă în viaţa fiecăruia dintre ei.

Capcana este însăși structura caracterului tău pe care o dai poveştii unei vieţii care îşi ascunde tainele de ochii lumii. Fiindcă te poţi trezi prins între propriile-i ipostaze contradictorii şi o datorie pe care o ai de împlinit.

Leadership: Ai puterea să deblochezi acele zone de impact din evoluţia ta, pe care se întemeiază modurile de manifestare ale virtuţilor?

Un lider ştie să facă din primejdiile vieţii şi urmările lor o capodoperă a iscusinţei, a şiretlicurilor, a uneltirilor, a intrigilor, puse în slujba unei cauze, a unei idei, a unei viziuni sau a unui plan pe care îl consideră trebuincios unei interpretări de excepţie. Luăm astfel la cunoştinţă de existenţa unei reproduceri conforme cu un model uman de chibzuinţă şi înţelepciune, favorizat de pretenţiile unei însufleţiri înspăimântătoare, dar echilibrate şi evoluate, promovate îndeosebi de normele raţiunii luminate de credinţă şi de razele multicolore ale tuturor virtuţilor.

Succesul unui astfel de plan stă în capacitatea de a disimula foarte bine o situaţie, folosind drept considerente natura cauzei şi obiectivele la care se solicită nu doar un răspuns, ci mai degrabă o prestaţie care completează resursele de orice natură.

Iar a ştii cum să faci ca în orice situaţie, oricât de imposibilă ar părea, să te pui într-o lumină favorabilă prin interpretarea unui rol mare şi prin însufleţirea pe care o da o nouă identitat, necesită cunoaşterea multor poziţii optime de exercitare a unor presiuni asupra sectorului advers, în care se poate pătrunde prin inversare de mutări, fără a împiedica mobilitatea propriilor forţe.

Leadershipul, fundamentat pe modurile de manifestare ale virtuţilor puse în slujba propriei valorizări, va reproduce, astfel, structura raporturilor dintre inferior şi superior, dintre interpret şi situaţia lui de monopol - conform orientării sale, permanentizând şi justificând ierarhia însuşirilor sale existenţe.

Dar înainte de a trece la deschideri de perspective sau la efectuarea mutărilor cheie, liderul - maestrul în planul creaţiei - trebuie să-şi găsească puterea de a debloca acele zone de impact din evoluţia sa, pe care se întemeiază modurile de manifestare ale virtuţilor. Căci virtuţile tind să se înalţe înainte de a naşte fapte, şi ele nu se manifestă decât în relaţie cu ceea ce percepi a fi "căderile" şi "urcările", cu ceea ce-ţi lipseşte, cu ceea ce simţi cu adevărat în fiecare zi, cu ceea ce creezi şi ceea ce oferi ca reacţie spontană la ceea ce se întâmplă în jurul tău.

Leadership: Foloseşti descrierea fundalului pe care se petrec întâmplările ca modificare radicală a manierei unice de a interacţiona cu imprevizibilul?

Numai un vrăjitor poate înfăptui ceea ce nimeni nu poate înfăptui. Contele de Monte Cristo s-a condus în acţiunile sale după un vechi secret al magiei: „ Nimic nu trebuie să fie ceea ce este, ci ceea ce nu este. Şi, contradictoriu, ceea ce este, trebuie să fie ceea ce nu ar putea fi. ”

Vrăjitorul avea un fel aparte de a-şi etala puterile, cu o subtilitate şi o gradare a emoţiei greu de atins de orice actor, cu un joc de scenă nemaipomenit care făcea ca iluziile sale să pară adevărate. Totul depindea de imaginaţia lui şi de neatenţia duşmanilor săi, dar şi de delicateţea cu care îşi alegea şi aplica scenariile. Uneori depindea de căldura vocii sale, de seninul privirii, de cuvintele pline de duh care te făceau să i te încredinţezi complet şi să i te supui.

Când apărea vrăjitorul era ori noapte, ori îţi dădea el senzaţia de întuneric total. Era terifiant, umbrit de propriul său mister, de propria sa identitate neştiută de nimeni, iar jocul de scenă pe care-l făcea era plin de suspans, cutremurător. Chiar dacă era ziuă, noaptea părea că se înfăşoară în jurul duşmanilor săi, care se simţeau ca prinşi în vârtejul unei cascade: puteau să-şi spargă capul în cădere, sau să scape nevătămaţi.

Calm şi neclintit, vrăjitorul prezenta o privelişte înfricoşătoare pentru toţi aceia care au fost însemnaţi cu roşu în calendarul său, calendarul judecăţii, el fiind prototipul cel mai pur al judecătorului corect şi aspru.

Leadership: Tu ai capacitatea să vezi limpede în toate, ca într-un glob de cristal?

Ciudată şi nepătrunsă e voinţa celui convins că puterile sale sunt nebănuite şi nelimitate. Contele de Monte Cristo a dat dovadă de un leadership autentic, solid, prin dibăcia şi răbdarea cu care şi-a construit strategiile şi le-a transformat în realitate. În inefabilul său joc totul a depins de voinţa sa, lăsând deseori senzaţia că este un vrăjitor, cu puteri nelimitate, pe care nu-l ţintuieşte şi nu-l opreşte nimeni, nicio mustrare de cuget dintre cele care îi opresc pe puternici şi nicio piedică dintre cele ce-i ţintuiesc locului pe cei slabi.

Unul din punctele forte ale unui lider este capacitatea de a adânci toate lucrurile şi de a vedea limpede în toate, ca într-un glob de cristal. Contele de Monte Cristo a reuşit să-şi deruteze duşmanii, înspăimântându-i adeseori, pentru că a fost întotdeauna cu o secundă înaintea lor. O măsurătoare greşită, o singură prevedere eronată, l-ar fi putut face să dea greş.

Dar nu i-a fost dat lui să greşească, nu omului, sau mai bine zis vrăjitorului care are puterea să-şi însuşească cugetările celorlalţi oameni, desluşind cu o tainică privire calitatea sufletelor lor – nu lui, a cărui minte deosebeşte bine înţelesurile gândurilor tuturor, tâlcuind orice mişcare nevăzută.

Magia unei realităţi care se refuză etern comprehensiunii umane este expresia triumfală a unei atitutini de intervenţie hotărâtoare în destinul unor vieţi care se separă şi se întrepătrund în moduri neaşteptate.

Concluzie: Un vrăjitor, dacă ar exista în realitate, ar putea avea lumea la picioare. Dar un lider nu dispune de "puterile" şi "instrumentele" unui vrăjitor. El poate însă să aibă lumea la picioarele sale folosindu-se de analiză, sinteză, persuasiune, inducţie psihologică pozitivă, etc., dar niciodată la baza acţiunilor sale nu trebuie să stea gândurile de răzbunare. După cum nu trebuie să se considere niciodată un judecător suprem, imbatabil.

Liderul trebuie să ştie cum să conlucreze cu oamenii şi, mai ales, trebuie să fie călăuzit de adevăr şi de realitate.

Vrăjitorul (II)

On August 17, 2010

Demonstrează-ţi încrederea în însuşirile care avantajează modelul tău de perfecţiune, adoptând o poziţie ofensivă pe tot parcursul schimbării.

Pentru a-şi putea duce la bun sfârşit planurile de răzbunare, Edmond Dantes era nevoit să-şi arunce în luptă toate armele, să facă uz de toate puterile sale, îndrăzneala fiindu-i cea mai preţioasă călăuză. Niciunul din duşmanii săi nu trebuia să se pună de-a curmezişul în faţa implacabilului, iar pentru asta era necesar să le distragă atenţia, să-i înspăimânte, să-i lase pradă disperării.

Lumea s-a deschis la picioarele sale. Dantes nu mai era cocârjit de povara anilor petrecuţi în închisoare, ci falnic şi puternic, înţelept şi bogat. Îşi refăcuse şi forţa trupului, şi pe cea a spiritului. Şi cu fiecare zi ce trecea, simţea că devine din ce în ce mai puternic. Iar cu fiecare zi ce trecea, chemarea era din ce în ce mai puternică. Nu trebuia s-o înăbuşe.

Toată puterea unui vrăjitor depinde de neştiinţa celorlalţi oameni. Nimeni nu trebuia să fie în măsură să pună întrebări sau să zădărnicească vreuna din hotărârile pe care Dantes le luase deja. Nu a avut de ales, trebuia să se facă uitat. Aşa că a falsificat realitatea luându-şi o altă identitate. Şi-a asumat identitatea unui conte foarte bogat şi a fost suficient de priceput să-şi ascundă adevărata natură, astfel amăgindu-i pe toţi. Puterea lui de a se ascunde şi de a se disimula a fost atât de mare şi de convingătoare, încât absolut nimeni nu a trecut de acest zid indestructibil, gros ca al unei cetăţi impunătoare.

Regatul său era nemărginit. Era când lord, când preot, când doctor, când filantrop, când chimist, când fizician. Nu era nici francez, nici indian, nici arab, nici spaniol – era cosmopolit, îşi însuşise obiceiurile fiecărei ţări în parte, vorbea toate limbile. Dar nicio ţară nu se putea lăuda că l-a văzut născându-se.

Şi-a câştigat o faimă de om superior, ca şi cum o forţă superioară l-ar fi înălţat în vârful celui mai înalt munte. Era desăvârşit, de nepătruns. Toţi oamenii, dar în special duşmanii săi, aveau conştiinţa puterii şi a voinţei sale. Era văzut că un om ale cărui cunoştinţe şi inteligenţă depăşesc cu mult cunoştinţele şi inteligenţa obişnuită a celorlalţi oameni. Contele cunoştea pe toată lumea, dar nimeni nu-l cunoştea pe el.

Leadership: Procesul de construire a identităţii tale stă sub semnul întrebării, deşi îţi scoate la iveală finețea intelectuală?

Liderul este deseori supus unei riguroase forme de asociere dintre puterea de judecată, pe de o parte, stârnind admiraţia, şi puterea de a ierta, pe de alta, fixând sentimentele şi emoţiile într-un context care nu întotdeauna este avantajos, cerând o enormă responsabilitate. Aici primează capacitatea de a se descurca uşor în situaţii dificile. Deci, asigurarea unei anumite echilibristici riscante pe creanga subţire a vieţii şi experienţelor personale. O întemeiere interioară dată de un fundament spiritual puternic, ce-şi găseşte justificarea în încrederea de sine, ce se vede tot mai pregnant la exterior, reînnoită în posibilităţile raţiunii de a cunoaşte adevărul, susţinută de o purtare fără cusur în privinţa dreptăţii provenite din legea propriei conştiinţe.

Conform unui citat de pe internet, foarte potrivit aici, "un lider trebuie să asculte de legea propriei deveniri care-l îndeamnă spre căi noi, adică să se ridice deasupra identificării cu masele şi să-şi urmeze calea propriei chemări care-l ajută să-şi construiască o individualitate unică în felul ei".

Latura emoţională a liderului cade deseori pe un al doilea plan, ca şi în cazul artei războiului, care dezvoltă capacităţi intelectuale şi forţa fizică. Pentru sistemul de leadership greu de diagnosticat de ceilalţi oameni, capacitatea de a-ţi asigura o resursă umană fără "afecţiuni" profunde, devine primordială. Importantă se dovedeşte utilitatea a ceea ce doreşti să acumulezi, să îţi însuşeşti ori să gestionezi în urma transformării..

A asigura artei tale o anumită adaptabilitate la ceea ce ai devenit, în măsura asigurării stăpânirii de sine, dar şi o anticipare directă a metodelor de integrare a unei ecuaţii de evoluţie în contextul unei viziuni strategice, înseamnă să accentuezi acea dimensiune a acţiunii evaluative care oferă suficiente şi variate posibilităţi de a demonstra ceea ce rezulta în urma retuşării imperfecţiunilor tale. Fie luate singular sau prin amestecare.

Leadership: Menirea ta de reprezentant al unei providenţe tainice se cere a fi probată sub raportul dintre imaginea intuitivă pe care o ai despre ceea ce se întâmplă în afara voinţei tale şi imaginea pe care teoria unui fenomen de dobândire a puterii este capabilă să o dea despre tine?

Omul nu-i decât un om şi nimic altceva, pe când un vrăjitor e mai mult decât un om, e o fiinţă supraomenească înzestrată cu puteri, cu haruri nebănuite – dacă vrea poate porunci vântului, poate schimba chiar şi legile existenţei.

Acesta este imaginea pe care Edmond Dantes, alias Contele de Monte Cristo, şi-a construit-o în faţa oamenilor cu multă dibăcie şi cu o stăruinţa deosebită – imaginea unui vrăjitor, care îşi avea căile lui, sumbre, tainice şi greu de pătruns. Într-adevăr, numai o minte înţeleaptă, o fire inteligentă ca a unui vrăjitor putea să-şi exercite într-o asemenea măsură influenţa/dominaţia asupra tuturor.

Contele avusese grijă să se îmbrace întotdeauna în negru şi să-şi ia un aer solemn că să dea senzaţia unei falnice umbre nesigure, unui om al întunericului, foarte primejdios, sporindu-şi tot mereu aerul de mister. Apariţia lui părea întotdeauna miraculoasă. De fapt, el deţinea această putere uluitoare de a transforma totul, oriunde se afla, într-o atmosferă plină de incertitudine şi neprevăzut, o atmosferă sumbră şi apărătoare, ameninţătoare pentru toţi duşmanii săi. Toţi aceştia simţeau instinctiv că o primejdie plutea deasupra capetelor lor.

Leadership: Poţi să dezvolţi o viziune a unei ordini superioare, prin trecerea ta la un nivel considerat o cale de a te deschide în faţa unei perspective de finalizare a unui scop de tipul "nothing is impossible"?

Nu poţi să fii cineva, dacă nu te strădui să ajungi cineva. Sau, cu alte cuvinte, dacă nu te faci cunoscut, atunci nimeni nu te va urma. Fără umbră de îndoială, acesta este principiul după care s-a ghidat Edmond Dantes în atingerea scopului său principal - răzbunarea. El a ştiut că singura cale de a reuşi în acest sens era să-şi mărească puterea de influenţă, să ajungă cineva – o persoană specială, superioară care poate să pătrundă în înalta societate din acele vremuri. Şi a reuşit, luându-şi o altă identitate, folosindu-se de vastele sale cunoştinţe şi abilităţi psihologice să se situeze deasupra tuturor.

Edmond Dantes a reuşit în leadership, fiindcă a avut o strategie foarte bună pe toate planurile. Dar a avut un atu pe care a ştiut să-l folosească în favoarea sa: a avut puterea să se transforme dintr-un simplu marinar cu cunoştinţe limitate într-un personaj manierat cu cunoştinţe deosebite, având o capacitate de deducţie deasupra mediei. A avut puterea să schimbe vieţi, a avut o putere de decizie în viaţa oamenilor, şi-a pus amprenta asupra tuturor celor care l-au cunoscut şi nu numai.

Concluzie: Pentru a triumfa în leadership trebuie să te faci cunoscut, să fii în centrul atenţiei generale şi uneori să te metamorfozezi într-un alt om, un om superior. La baza acestei metamorfoze nu stă averea, ci o comoară mai de preţ: învăţătura, dobândirea de noi cunoştinţe în domenii diferite, comportamentul, limbajul, caracterul, atitudinea şi chiar... look-ul adecvat în societate.

Tu ţi-ai creat din leadership un model de perfecţiune? Cum îţi demonstrezi încrederea în însuşirile care avantajează acest model? Ce poziţie adopţi pe tot parcursul călătoriei tale către excelenţă? Poţi să identifici paşii de bază ai procesului schimbării? Este îndrăzneala cea mai preţioasă călăuză a ta?

Cum îţi măreşti puterea de influenţă? Te foloseşti de vastele tale cunoştinţe şi abilităţi psihologice ca să te situezi deasupra tuturor? Poţi să te metamorfozezi într-un om superior? Cum îţi foloseşti puterea uluitoare pentru a-i schimba pe oamenii din jurul tău?

Vrăjitorul (III)

On August 18, 2010

Incubă în leadershipul tău preocuparea consecventă şi adâncită pentru fiecare din etapele hotărâtoare ale interpretării propriului rol, pentru ca influenţa ta asupra convingerilor celorlalţi să fie maximă.

Contele de Monte Cristo le-a abătut cu multă iscusinţă atenţia duşmanilor săi de la esenţial. A avut grijă ca aceştia să nu presimtă nicio nenorocire, să n-aibă nicio premoniţie despre prăpădul ce avea să se abată asupra lor. Le-a sădit în suflet teama şi nesiguranţa, i-a derutat jucându-se cu puterea lor de judecată, mânuindu-i ca pe nişte jucării. Presărând doar capcane şi tentaţii în calea lor, a reuşit să le inoculeze neîncrederea şi îndoială, groaza pătrunzând adânc în sufletul lor.

Vrăjitorul avea puteri pe care nimeni nu le avea, pe care nimeni nu şi le putea imagina. Şi-a ţesut un văl după care şi-a ascuns cu grijă toate mişcările. S-a ascuns îndărătul unei cortine de după care a putut să observe mişcările adversarilor, s-a înarmat cu dovezi zdrobitoare împotriva lor, dovezi pe care ei nu credeau că pot fi descoperite, construindu-şi o strategie prin care le-a amplificat panica şi i-a dezarmat total.

Leadership: Poţi să deschizi o perspectivă nouă asupra fundalului pe care se constituie puterea ta de mijlocire înaintea lui Dumnezeu, la limita dintre ceea ce este adevărat şi ce nu este?

Cu aproape 20 de ani în urmă, duşmanii săi, care complotaseră împotriva lui şi-l trimiseseră pe nedrept în închisoare, fuseseră foarte uniţi în demersurile lor. Dar acum fiecare o luase pe propriul său drum. Aceasta este una din slăbiciunile răufăcătorilor – după ce comit fapta, se despart. Iar când drumurile li se înfundă, încep să simtă că totul se datorează providenţei.

Iată mâna lui Dumnezeu ! Cu această idee bine întipărită în minte, vrăjitorul s-a jucat cu ei aşa cum se joacă vântul toamnei cu frunzele uscate. I-a dezbinat de-a binelea, definitiv, toţi i s-au supus de bunăvoie. Dacă ei şi-ar fi unit forţele ar fi putut să-l ţină la distanţă, ba chiar să-i pună la încercare aparenta lui putere de nezdruncinat, aparenta lui imortalitate. Dar ei n-au înţeles care sunt puterile cu care se confruntă. Oriunde se aflau simţeau prezenţa înfiorătoare a ursitei.

Simţeau cum îi încearcă o slăbiciune, simţeau că sunt bântuiţi de nişte porniri ciudate, nefireşti, neconsimţite. Au început să-şi piardă controlul asupra puterii de judecată şi asupra raţiunii. Simţeau că se îneacă în propria lui neputinţă. Afectaţi de coşmarul prin care treceau, au încercat să-şi dea seama cine e în spatele tuturor întâmplărilor misterioase care puteau fi puse pe seama unor duhuri rele. Dar lucrurile care se petreceau depăşeau cu mult puterea lor de înţelegere. Practic luptau cu un adversar invizibil. Căci cum poţi să te aperi împotriva mâinii severe a lui Dumnezeu?

Leadership: Reuşeşti să te impui şi să dai un sens puterii tale, recunoscându-te ca individ separat de lume şi, în acelaşi timp, deasupra ei?

Ca să triumfi într-o bătălie trebuie să descoperi slăbiciunea duşmanului tău şi să-l loveşti exact în punctele slabe, dar fără să te expui vreunui risc. La fel ca şi celebrul Papa Pius al VI-lea (conte Braschi), Contele de Monte Cristo şi-a ascuns ura nutrită împotriva duşmanilor, pentru a se apăra de forţele lor. Ca nu cumva căutând în străfundul sufletului său, aceştia să simtă pericolul ce-i păştea. În orice circumstanţă, contele se comporta atât de natural şi de calm, de parcă nimic neobişnuit nu s-ar fi întâmplat, de parcă n-ar fi fost el în spatele tuturor lucrurilor.

Vrăjitorului i-a fost uşor să-şi canalizeze puterile spre fiecare dintre duşmanii săi, fiindcă a reuşit să le slăbească vigilenţa. A avut grijă să-i determine să comită greşeli din neatenţie. Toţi s-au trezit implicaţi într-un păienjeniş de evenimente pe care nu le puteau interpreta deoarece modestele lor cunoştinţe şi capacitatea de înţelegere erau blocate de rapiditatea cu care se desfăşurau evenimentele, precum şi de convingerea că faptele reprobabile ale trecutului lor au fost adânc îngropate. Practic toate convingerile lor erau întoarse la 180 de grade.

Leadership: Poţi să declanşezi o întrerupere la o valoare mică a distanţei faţă de o putere imensă, arătând că poţi înlătura diferenţele de statut dintre oameni?

Contele de Monte Cristo a făcut uz de toată forţa de care dispunea pentru a-şi ascunde atât identitatea cât şi scopurile, înarmându-se cu dovezi zdrobitoare împotriva duşmanilor săi. A fost suficient de consecvent şi de şiret în încercarea lui de a pătrunde în mintea lor. Complexitatea jocului său a depăşit de multe ori capacitatea acestora de înţelegere. Gândurile le erau confuze şi contradictorii, ca şi cum ar fi fost atacaţi de forţe oculte – nu aveau nicio putere asupra lor. Mai mult decar atât, ei ar fi trebuit să rămână uniţi, un singur trup, ca atunci când au conspirat împotriva lui, însă le-a lipsit puterea şi hotărârea de a se uni, ceea ce a făcut posibilă dezbinarea lor.

Singura cale ca să-l învingi pe cel măcinat de gândul aprig răzbunării, sau măcar să-i domoleşti ura, este să-l înfrunţi cu mult curaj şi cu inimă bună. Duşmanii săi ar fi putut să-i anihileze sentimentul dulce la răzbunării sau chiar să-l rănească cu propria magie, dacă s-ar fi căit cu adevărat. Dar vrăjitorul a acţionat iute, atacându-i năprasnic şi anihilându-le capacitatea de a se apăra sau de a-i răspunde cu aceeaşi monedă.

Cât de mare este influenţa ta asupra convingerilor celorlalţi? Care este liantul care te uneşte sau te desparte de ei? Care sunt calităţile care îţi alcătuiesc caracterul? Ştii să ţi le pui în valoare? Contezi pe ele? Ştii să te foloseşti de ele ca să-i convingi pe ceilalţi să te urmeze? Cum se poate măsura influenţa ta? Manifeşti o preocupare consecventă şi adâncită pentru fiecare din etapele hotărâtoare ale interpretării propriului rol?

Leadershipul se află în relaţie directă cu poziţia pe care o adopţi pe tot parcursul unei incidenţe a evenimentelor din care reiese conținutul esențial al unei lucrări de mare amploare, numită: Providenţă !

Concluzie: În leadership este nevoie întotdeauna de o tactică, care pe de o parte constă în a te înconjura de oameni loiali, de încredere, care să te sprijine în demersurile tale, iar pe de altă parte să-ţi anihilezi rivalii, descoperindu-le şi atacându-le punctele slabe. Dar întotdeauna trebuie să te foloseşti de dovezi şi argumente reale ca să-ţi asiguri avantajele în faţa lor. Cu cât tactica este mai bine pusă la punct, cu cât dispui de dovezi şi argumente solide, cu atât mai repede ţi se va uşura drumul spre victorie.

Demn de reţinut este şi modul de acţiune (care să-ţi asigure acel "văl de protecţie"), care trebuie să fie cel legal, căci fără a fi mâna providenţei, "păcatele trecutului" totdeauna vor ieşi la iveală şi te vor face să eşuezi rapid.

Vrăjitorul (IV)

On August 21, 2010

Învaţă să conduci „întâmplarea", ca să poţi adăuga o valoare considerabilă rolului pe care ţi-l asumi.

Contele de Monte Cristo a fost foarte abil în a-şi construi strategia. A fost capabil să scruteze sufletul şi caracterul duşmanilor săi, citindu-le intenţiile la fel de uşor cum un general poate citi un plan de război. I-a ademenit pe aceştia în magicul său plan plin de capcane, strecurându-se în viaţa lor ca o fantomă, bântuindu-le mereu conştiinţa, semănând confuzie şi furie în sufletele lor, secătuindu-i astfel de toate puterile înainte de a-i distruge.

Vrăjitorul era o fiinţă umană, însă puterile lui formidabile l-au transformat aproape într-un Dumnezeu. Era un personaj învăluit în mister, protejându-se astfel foarte bine împotriva oricăror încercări de subminare a puterii sale. El s-a folosit cu dibăcie de un nume fals că să-şi ascundă adevărata identitate, păstrându-şi aparenţa nevinovată. Dar vrăjile sale erau la fel de eficiente ca săgeţile, suficient de puternice să le străpungă scutul duşmanilor săi. Toţi aceştia au fost neputincioşi şi incapabili să pătrundă în zona mocirloasă a magiei sale şi să înlăture suferinţele pe care le abătea cu multă abilitate asupra lor.

Leadership: Efectul de creştere al performanţelor tale este pus în valoare de o compoziţie perfect simetrică a destinului, justificând poziţia ta de a adăuga noi măsuri la datoria faţă de promovarea puterii?

Vrăjitorul avea puterea de a-şi controla duşmanii, stârnind în ei frica dar şi fascinaţia cu acţiunile şi comportamentul său enigmatic. Toţi s-au simţit prinşi în capcană, incapabili de a se elibera indiferent cât de mult s-ar fi zbătut. Totul în jurul lor s-a prăbuşit complet, atitudinea lor fiind destul de sceptică în ceea ce privea viitorul lor. La fiecare pas pe care-l făceau simţeau în adâncul sufletului teama puternică că li se apropie sfârşitul, asemenea unor şoareci speriaţi prinşi în capcană. Nu au putut întrezări pânza de falsuri şi minciuni pe care vrăjitorul o ţesuse în jurul lor, iar asta i-a pus într-un pericol de moarte.

Totul s-a potrivit, într-adevăr, foarte bine. Vrăjitorul era un diversionist foarte priceput. A reuşit să strângă laţul în jurul duşmanilor săi, care nu au mai găsit puterea să-i ţină piept. Toată stăruinţa lui a dat roade. Totul s-a întâmplat exact după cum prevăzuse, după strategia pe care şi-a construit-o cu multă abilitate şi măiestrie, cu delicateţe şi răbdare. Era un şir nesfârşit de întâmplări şi fapte, de evenimente, de simboluri, de măşti, de apariţii misterioase, de schimbări de situaţii, toate dând impresia că duceau spre un drum greşit. Însă, ciudat, între toate acestea a existat o legătură misterioasă, care a servit la atingerea scopurilor sale.

Compoziţia perfect simetrică a destinului, pentru a putea fi completă, trebuie să aibă un sens mai larg de organizare a lucrării Divine, prin ieșirea în lume la misiune. Contele a devenit un soi de angajat al unei misiuni în care cerinţele de evadare sunt ceva mai greu de îndeplinit, fiindcă mai întâi a trebuit să joace un joc numit: "Party for Your Rights", care i-a pus mintea la contribuţie şi l-a făcut să fie mereu atent unde pune piesele într-un decor plin de mister, emoție și suspans.

Leadership: Îţi modelezi identitatea după criteriile propriilor orientări, într-o manieră distorsionată sau transparentă?

Omul care evoluează în medii aspre va beneficia de un capital dominant apropiat de cultura "reglărilor de conturi", care îi va asigura succesul intimidant, dependent de virtuţile autorităţii care se opun viciilor ascunse pe care falsa moralitate i le poate induce. Cultura reglărilor de conturi intră cumva în conflict cu stilul pozitiv de conducere, dar pune mai bine în aplicare normele vehiculate de gândirea care se autoanalizează. Modul de reacţie în faţa diferitelor provocări devenind, prin aceasta, mult mai puternic şi mai complex.

Cel care acordă valoare leadershipului, răspunzând mai bine la solicitările şi provocările exterioare, poate genera atitudini de refuz când vine vorba de a se prezenta în faţa lumii drept un apărător al valorilor. Ceea ce reflectă, de fapt, diviziunea lui în două laturi: una distorsionată (când realitatea nu corespunde cu idealul sau imaginea ta) şi cealaltă transparentă (în măsura în care îţi faci cunoscute acţiunile şi planurile). Dar totodată reflectă opoziţia între ceea ce este mai valoros la el şi ceea ce este total lipsit de valoare.

Un fel de superioritate raţională pe jumătate construită, puţin vulnerabilă, care exclude aproape total elementele inferioare ale identităţii personale, datorată unei orientări care permite accesul falsificat la o posibilă înţelegere veritabilă a vieţii, dar care întăreşte abilitatea de a face lucrurile să se întâmple după voia sa.

Orientările pe care le adopţi în materie de control a accesului la superioritate spun ceva despre propria ta atitudine, oferind criterii de ordonare a elementelor de valoare disparate, plasându-le într-o configuraţie mai cuprinzătoare. În sensul acesta, orientările personale nu se raportează cu adevărat doar la viitorul plămădit din prea mult sine, ci la prezentul plămădit din neputinţa de a te opune unei reformări negative, din neputinţa de a te opune dorinţelor orgolioase de autodepăşire.

Iar leadershipul moral nu se pune bine în acord cu intenţiile întortocheate de a trata cu ostilitate orice ţi se întâmplă sau cu încercările a cultiva confuzii în jurul noţiunii de „Self". Totuşi, leadershipul nu exclude niciodată din ecuaţia de succes strategia şi capacitatea de a pune în mişcare evenimentele în favoarea ascensiunii personale.

Leadership: Ştii să pui în mişcare evenimentele în favoarea ta, rămânând fidel unor acţiuni care nu-şi optimizează câştigul decât prin multiplicarea mizei pusă în joc?

Evenimentele ciudate care s-au succedat au fost numai rodul unui vrăjitor. Lucrurile s-au schimbat în viaţa duşmanilor săi cât ai clipi, înainte ca ei să se poată obişnui cu ideea. Deşi zilele n-au fost niciodată la fel una cu cealaltă, vrăjitorul a reuşit însă, printr-una din acele taine de nepătruns, să facă în aşa fel încât duşmanii săi să se obişnuiască cu ideea că totul se repetă – aşa le-a distras atenţia de la ceea ce se întâmplă cu adevărat în jurul lor - iar totul se întâmpla cu un anumit motiv.

Voinţa nemărginită a Contelui de Monte Cristo, combinată cu infailibilul său fler, au pus în mişcare forţe misterioase - modalităţi prin care să-i amăgească şi să-i deruteze pe duşmani, urzind împotriva lor o vrajă atât de puternică încât aceştia, neputând să-i ghicească intenţiile, siliţi de împrejurări şi încremeniţi de uimire, n-au opus nicio rezistenta. El a fost stăpânul acelui lanţ de evenimente care s-au succedat cu repeziciune zi şi noapte, iar procedurile lui de lucru au fost nedetectabile.

Pentru că succesul tău în leadership să fie deplin, trebuie să devii un vrăjitor, asemenea Contelui de Monte Cristo. Trebuie să ştii să conduci întâmplarea, să ştii să conduci firul evenimentelor în favoarea ta, după strategia pe care ţi-a construit-o cu multă abilitate şi măiestrie, cu delicateţe şi răbdare. Trebuie să pui în mişcare acele forţe misterioase care să facă posibile toate "minunile" tale.

Dar pentru asta este necesar să fii cât se poate de meticulos în alegerea căilor de acţiune pe care le urmezi şi să nu acţionezi niciodată întâmplător, chiar dacă poţi da senzaţia asta. De asemenea, trebuie să te bazezi numai pe date concrete şi cuantificabile, nu doar pe flerul tău. Ţine cont de faptul că cel mai mic accident, cea mai mică nepricepere, poate distruge rapid orice strategie oricât de bine ar fi ea pusă a punct.

Miza pusă în jocul de-a vrăjitorul este să deţii controlul prin prefacerea materialului intuitiv complex „de semne ale unui mister deschis" într-un construct psihologic lateral cu trăsături naturale.

Concluzie: Un lider excelent ştie să conducă întâmplarea (aceasta este adevărata artă în leadership) dar atenţie, el nu conduce niciodată la întâmplare.

Strategia sa este totdeauna pusă la punct şi ceea ce pare întâmplător nu este niciodată întâmplător, acest lucru însemnând că are capacitate de a intui, respectiv de a prevedea rezultatele acţiunilor sale cât şi abilitatea de a se orienta rapid luând măsurile adecvate în situaţii care modifică planul său iniţial.

Analiza atentă a cauzelor şi efectelor acestora, intervenţia promptă ori de câte ori există o abatere de la planul iniţial, sunt esenţiale.

Vrăjitorul (V)

On August 28, 2010

Generează un procent cât mai mare de credibilitate, pentru ca leadershipul tău să capete relevanţă datorită direcţiei deosebite dată de centrul propriei tale realităţi.

Prin improvizaţiile şi acţiunile sale deosebite şi neaşteptate, Contele de Monte Cristo şi-a atins ţelul. Ca un magician cu puteri depline, a controlat prin mijloace numai de el ştiute raţiunea duşmanilor săi care, spre disperarea lor, nu au putut desluşi cine este acel cineva sau ce este acea forţă superioară, misterioasă, care le punea în mod deliberat piedici în cale, care le dicta pe toate şi-i ţinea sub influenţa sa.

Toţii duşmanii săi au căzut într-o capcană a conspiraţiei ţesută cu multă minuţiozitate şi, ca nişte peşti prinşi în năvod, au fost incapabil să se elibereze. Ar fi trebuit să-i ţină piept contelui cu puterile lor. Ar fi trebuit să-l înfrunte şi să-i desfacă vrăjile, căutând semne şi mijloace pe care să le poată întoarce în avantajul lor. Ar fi trebuit să se apere, să se despartă cu totul de el, printr-o punte peste care el să nu poată trece. Dacă ar fi reuşit acest lucru, l-ar fi putut distruge. Dar nu au reuşit.

Leadership: Prefacerea ta într-un personaj aflat la o distanţă mică de momentul săvârşirii acţiunii dă imensă uşurinţă transformării de ordin personal cât şi însuşirii atributelor de preţ ale caracterului tău?

Vrăjitorul şi-a conceput strategia cu priceperea extraordinară a unui general. Secretos, dând lumii un caracter foarte enigmatic, el a reuşit să-şi facă nevăzute intenţiile şi acţiunile, câştigând respectul şi admiraţia duşmanilor săi. Aceştia au ajuns să se bazeze în întregime pe el în ceea ce priveşte reuşita lor atât în viaţa profesională, cât şi în cea particulară. Altfel spus, vrăjitorul a ajuns în centrul universului lor.

Când faci parte din viaţa oamenilor, şi mai ales a duşmanilor tăi, nu poţi decât să fii plin de energie şi rapid în mişcări. Trebuie să fii sigur pe tine, să poţi conduce evenimentele după propria ta voinţă. Vrăjitorul era neobosit în pânda lui, iar hotărârea lui era de nezdruncinat. Ura lui era prea intensă, iar impetuoasa lui voinţa îl incita şi mai mult la acţiune, pricinuind tot multe frământări duşmanilor săi.

Pe măsură ce pătrundea mai adânc în viaţa lor, în sufletul lor plin de păcate, hain şi lacom, cu atât le perturba cursul vieţii adâncindu-le starea de suferinţă şi de nelinişte. Cufundaţi într-o nesiguranţă continuă privind soarta lor, duşmanii săi, buimăciţi, înspăimântaţi, cu nervii încinşi, trebuiau să-şi încordeze la extrem capacitatea de rezistenţă spre a nu fi covârşiţi de sentimentul de teamă.

Deşi toate evenimentele care se produceau începuseră de când şi-a făcut apariţia în peisaj contele, nimeni nu a putut pune pe seama lui toate acele întâmplări uimitoare, nebuneşti, confuze, care predispuneau la îngrijorări şi nelinişteri. Contele arăta foarte inteligent şi capabil, avea o atitudine calmă şi sigură de sine, şi o minte deschisă, dând mereu dovadă de o bunăvoinţă extraordinară aidoma unui om cu inima curată.

Leadershipul tău dispune de o "îmbrăcăminte" expresivă sau inexpresivă?

Una din principalele preocupări ale leadershipului este "îmbrăcămintea inexpresivă" , asortată oricăror schimbări, ce se potriveşte acelui mod de a fi prin care omul îşi poate revendica anumite teritorii de influenţă, cu deosebirea că nu urmăreşte dimensiunea generatoare de "spectacol" în raport cu percepţia lumii. Ci explorează dimensiunea utilă şi eficientă a acestei îmbrăcăminţi în procesul devenirii şi al asumării unei identităţi valorizatoare, care uneori capătă o formă riscantă, dar profitabilă.

Niciodată creatorii de leadership nu-şi vor proiecta o imagine profesională puternică, asigurându-şi imboldul de promovare a unei identităţi diferenţiatoare faţă de identitatea de grup, dar interesante în primul rând din punct de vedere practic al rolului ei, dacă mai întâi de toate nu anticipează acel moment de obţinere a foloaselor, de ordin material, dar şi sufletesc.

Este un fel de răzbunare care învinge timpul, creând premizele unei transformări de sine radicale, supusă unui proces riguros de selecţie a cunoştinţelor teoretice şi practice asimilate pe parcursul etapei formative, urmând legi nescrise, producând reacţii de continuă susţinere.

Dar adevărul este că, tot mai mult în prezent, leadershipul, ca rezultat al unor evenimente mai degrabă predictibile sau programate, cunoaşte un amplu proces de democratizare, trecând tot mai mult de la ceea ce numim "încleştarea orgoliilor", apropiate de ambiţiile de supremaţie, la ceea ce se aşteaptă de ani buni, la nevoia de luciditate, de trezire spirituală. Iar aici putem vorbi de un tip de "îmbrăcăminte expresivă" , realizată la scară industrială, în condiţiile cărora practicitatea ei se află pe plan de egalitate cu siguranţa, multifuncţionalitatea şi durabilitatea.

Leadership: Poţi să-i schimbi pe oameni chiar dacă nu eşti credibil în faţa lor, astfel încât să funcţionezi cât mai bine într-un prezent care este simultan un viitor continuu şi un trecut îndepărtat?

Contele de Monte Cristo s-a priceput că nimeni altul să evite cu îndemânare toate primejdiile ce l-ar fi putut paşte. S-a priceput ca în fiecare moment să apară într-o lumină favorabilă faţă de toţi duşmanii lui. Dacă n-ar fi avut suficientă prezenţă de spirit, un pronunţat simţ al creativităţii şi o putere de convingere foarte mare, n-ar fi ştiut cum să acţioneze pentru a-şi atinge ţelurile. Şi-a asigurat prezentul răzbunându-şi trecutul, în timp ce era obsedat de ideea unui viitor al său și al nimănui altcuiva.

Dar un vrăjitor se gândeşte întotdeauna la toate. Învăluit de mantia unui om mărinimos şi prietenos, impresionând prin jocurile de cuvinte, găsind mereu alte modalităţi de a le ţine mintea ocupată duşmanii săi, aceştia nu au întrevăzut adevărul din spatele aparenţelor.

Indiferent care e scopul pe care îl urmăreşti, nu poţi să-l atingi fără ajutorul oamenilor, chiar şi a duşmanilor tăi. Însă pentru ca oamenii să te susţină în demersurile pe care le întreprinzi, trebuie să devii credibil în ochii lor. Dacă nu te apropii de ei, dacă nu-i cultivi cu simpatie, dacă nu le arăţi respect, ei nu te vor răsplăti niciodată prin încredere, şi ca urmare nu vei putea obţine adevăratul succes. Atunci când oamenii cred în tine, îşi eliberează potenţialul şi sunt mai motivaţi să te urmeze.

Dar, la fel ca un vrăjitor, trebuie să-ţi joci bine rolul, căci oamenii simt instinctiv dacă cineva e de încredere sau nu. Trebuie să le câştigi inima, crezând în ei, pentru a-i face să lucreze cu adevărat pentru tine. Dacă nu creezi o realitate conform aşteptărilor lor, nu vei fi niciodată acceptat la conducerea lor.

Singura posibilitatea de a jongla cu orice fel de minge într-un joc de-a Dumnezeu este să te ascunzi în spatele unei identităţi noi, care creează o grămadă de calităţi, pe care în realitate nu le ai, dându-ţi astfel poate curajul care îţi lipseşte, să te exprimi în orice situaţie degajat şi sigur pe tine.

Concluzie: Lipsa de credibilitate duce în cele din urmă la izolarea ta ca lider şi astfel planurile tale nu vor avea nicio finalizare. Pentru a fi susţinut în toate demersurile tale, strategia, metoda şi căile de realizare nu trebuie să fie fanteziste, ci realizabile şi fără cusur. Căci este suficientă o umbră de îndoială şi vei pierde toţi susţinătorii.

Care este amănuntul pe care trebuie să-l schimbi la tine ca să-ţi ridici nivelul de influenţă? Ce relevanţă are această schimbare pentru tine şi pentru ceilalţi din jurul tău? Ce scoate în evidenţă noul tău stil de leadership? Reflectă el o realitate care îţi armonizează şi protejează personalitatea, sau care o inhibă şi îi diminuează valoarea?

Vrăjitorul (VI)

On Septembrie 06, 2010

Învaţă să înfăptuieşti minuni cu toate mijloacele puse la dispoziţie de inteligenţă, pentru ca impactul tău cu excelenţa în leadership să fie maxim.

Contele privea cu atenţie prin mulţimea ce asista la înmormântarea Valentinei. Reuşise cu o dibăcie numai de el ştiută, demnă numai de un magician cu puteri ascunse, nebănuite, să facă în aşa fel încât toată lumea să creadă că fata murise cu adevărat. Crease cu o nemaipomenită măiestrie această "iluzie". Numai el ştia că, de fapt, fata trăia.

Continuă să privească în jur. Neliniştea îl măcina tot mai tare, căci iubitul Valentinei, Maximilien, care nutrea o dragoste adevărată faţă de ea, se strecură afară din mulţime şi se făcu nevăzut. Contele, care citise dinainte ce se petrecea în adâncul inimii tânărului, părăsi la rândul său mulţimea, pentru a da de urma lui.

Ultima luptă cu durerea. Contele merse acasă la Maximilien, şi, tocmai când acesta, cuprins de o amărăciune fără margini, era pe punctul de a-şi curma viaţa, el îşi făcu apariţia fulgerător în odaia lui, oprindu-l de la un asemenea gest necugetat.

- Prietene, făcu contele cu un glas nespuse de blând, nu lua hotărâri pripite.

Maximilien:

- Cine m-ar putea împiedica? Căci toate nădejdile îmi sunt zdrobite, inima mi-e frântă, viaţa mi s-a stins, în jurul meu nu-i decât doliu şi dezgust; pământul s-a schimbat în cenuşă; orice glas omenesc mă sfâşie. Mai bine mor, căci altfel mi-aş pierde minţile, aş înnebuni... Dumneavoastră, care spuneaţi că aveţi toate mijloacele puse la îndemână de inteligenţă, toate puterile materiei, dumneavoastră care jucaţi sau mai bine zis care vă faceţi că jucaţi rolul Ursitei, n-aţi avut nici măcar puterea să-i daţi o contraotravă unei tinere otrăvite. Pretinsul meu binefăcător, salvator al tuturor, fiţi mulţumit, o să vă vedeţi prietenul murind. Apoi, cu râsul nebuniei pe buze, se repezi pentru a doua oară la pistoale.

Leadership: Felul în care ansamblul tău de privilegii răspunde la solicitările forțelor destinului şi ale întâmplării, oferă un mod intuitiv și natural pentru conformarea unei structuri de control cu funcţiuni de transmitere a unor stări de motivaţie?

Un vrăjitor care are puteri supranaturale, are şi drepturi depline asupra vieţii şi morţii. În mâinile lui stau destinele celor ce-l înconjoară.

O văpaie arzătoare îi izbucni din gâtlej în ochii contelui. Simţind cum i se topeşte inima în piept, hotărî pentru prima dată să-şi dea la o parte masca de fier, rece, neclintită, de neatins, pe care o afişa mereu din prudenţă, pentru ca nimeni să nu-i poată descoperi adevărata identitate, pentru ca nimeni să nu-i ghicească şi zădărnicească planurile de răzbunare. Se transfigură sublim într-o fiinţă divină.

- Ascultă, prietene – căci pot să-ţi spun aşa, fiindcă, fără să ştii, îmi eşti prieten de unsprezece ani. Dumnezeu mi-e martor că aş fi vrut să ascund toată viaţa taina din fundul inimii mele. Dar, acum, îmi dau seama că nu pot. Vezi tu, eu sunt acela care a salvat viaţa tatălui tău, într-o zi când voia să-şi ia viaţa, aşa cum tu vrei să ţi-o iei astăzi; eu sunt omul care a trimis punga surioarei tale şi Faraonul tatălui tău; eu sunt Edmond Dantes care, când erai copil, te jucai pe genunchii mei, şi pe care l-aţi crezut cu toţii mort.

Dintr-o dată firea minunată a lui Maximilien îşi reveni pe neaşteptate şi pe deplin.

- Trăieşte, Maximilien ! Nădăjduieşte. Nu-ţi pune capăt vieţii, căci va veni o zi când vei fi fericit şi vei binecuvânta viaţa. Te rog să ai încredere în mine. Îţi făgăduiesc, îţi jur, că dacă peste o lună de zile nu vei fi cea mai fericită fiinţă din lume, te voi aşeza eu însumi în faţa pistoalelor încărcate şi a unei cupe cea mai sigură otravă. Dar făgăduieşte-mi, în schimb, să aştepţi până atunci şi să trăieşti.

Leadership: Abordezi oamenii din perspectiva conceptului de "diversitate a circumstanţelor schimbătoare ale vieţii", prin analiza importanţei luării în considerare a consecinţelor de personalizare a unei puteri exterioare?

Dă-ţi măştile la o parte şi arată-ţi adevărata identitate pentru ca oamenii să ştie ce se ascunde cu adevărat în inima ta. Căci nu poţi scăpa de ceea ce numim, cu un termen foarte nesigur, "conştiinţă", în cazul în care, din pricina măştilor tale, cei din jur voi avea de suferit. Ca lider, datoria ta este să menţii entuziasmul şi speranţa în oameni cât şi optimismul atât de necesar în tot ceea ce fac, în toate demersurile pe care doresc a le întreprinde.

Pentru aceasta, trebuie să fii capabil, ca şi Contele de Monte Cristo, care i-a salvat de la moarte şi pe Maximilien şi pe iubita lui Valentine redându-le fericirea, să-ţi iei în primire rolul de binefăcător.

Însă trebuie să fii înzestrat cu acea minte pătrunzătoare ca a contelui, capabilă să cerceteze totul cu de-a-mănuntul. Să intuieşti când oameni par a fi lipsiţi de orice perspectivă şi nu mai au puterea să creadă în ei înşişi, şi să le umpli acea goliciune lăuntrică ce se repercutează asupra muncii lor, asupra spiritului lor creativ, întreprinzător, asupra propriei lor voinţe, transformându-i în făpturi fără apărare.

O putere exterioară care îţi hrăneşte mintea şi îţi conduce viaţa este o putinţă efectivă, o capacitate de a-ţi exprima şi realiza voinţa ca o condiţie obligatorie pentru accesul la o conştiinţă a realităţii lui Dumnezeu.

Leadership: Ai puterea să înfăptuieşti minuni cu toate mijloacele puse la dispoziţie de inteligenţă?

Ca lider trebuie să înveţi un fel cu totul special de a privi lucrurile, şi anume să nu observi doar comportamentul specific al oamenilor, ci să diseci cu atenţie trăirile lor, înainte de toate. Poţi recunoaşte totul într-un om după felul cum se comportă, cum aşteaptă, cum ezită, prin gesturile, prin afirmaţiile sale. Să-l priveşti cu atenţie pe om, poate o oră întreagă, poate o zi întreagă, să priveşti mimica sa, ochii dacă-i scânteiază, dacă nu şi-a pierdut entuziasmul şi siguranţa de sine, şi în sfârşit, dacă e purtat de sentimentul triumfului.

Sarcina ta ca lider nu e să le prelungeşti suferinţele oamenilor, ci, cu bucuria pe care o arată un tată pentru fiecare membru al familiei sale, să-i ajuţi să-şi adune toate puterile şi să facă un pas înainte spre viitor. Nu uita că prin poziţia ta, şi având toate mijloacele puse la dispoziţie de inteligenţă, ai puterea să înfăptuieşti minuni.

Leadershipul este ceea ce înfăptuieşti prin intermediul angajamentului personal de a schimba lucrurile şi conjunctura de evenimente care configurează o lume a marginilor, a „mai puţinului”, a aproximativului.

Concluzie: Ca lider trebuie să fii un fin observator al manifestărilor şi chiar al trăirilor omeneşti şi să sesizezi modificările care fac ca fiinţa lor să stagneze; să fii capabil să aduci măcar un pic de seninătate în sufletul oamenilor în vremuri de restrişte prezentând lucrurile într-o formă optimistă dar fără să fii un... vânzător de iluzii.

Invaţă să înfăptuieşti minuni cu toate mijloacele puse la dispoziţie de acea inteligenţă patrunzătoare obţinută prin antrenarea resurselor umane, pentru ca impactul tău cu excelenţa în leadership să fie maxim.

What Is Love (II)

On August 23, 2017

Învaţă să îţi recunoşti individualitatea și să ţi-o apreciezi la adevărata ta valoare în felul în care artistul se raportează la acel ideal de frumuseţe din sfera muzicii încununat cu succes in the feel of a moment without no end.

Mi se pare puțin deplasată manifestarea acestei voinţe personale de a învinge o rezistenţă incertă, de a intui ce trebuie trecut cu vederea și de a urma alegerea unei forţe de contrast între aparenţă și esenţă. Dar trebuie remarcată această tendinţă de expansiune spre cele încă nevăzute, dar nădăjduite, dacă vrem să înțelegem atât modalitatea de ascultare a „strigătului" creaţiei, ca sublim al unei priveliști de pe vârf de munte, cât și pe artistul maturităţii depline în arta cântului, aflat într-o perpetuă mişcare de revoltă faţă de kitsch-ul vulgar.

Ultima dintre coincidenţele care mă urmăresc în procesul de extindere a mijloacelor de expresie este apropierea de acea stare a minţii în care pot să experimentez creativitatea intensă însoţită de euforie, suspendarea noţiunii timpului şi implicarea profundă, până la identificare cu activitatea pe care o fac. Cineva numea acest fenomen "starea de flux".

Credeam că marile talente, dincolo de sublimul unei demonstraţii a virtuţii de a înţelege şi a practica estetica unui anumit stil, estetica unui anumit timp „atunci" şi a unui anumit loc într-un spaţiu de gândire dedus din perspectiva năzuinţei de a onora un destin, îşi întemeiază arta exclusiv pe ideea de frumos.

Sau, mai bine zis, frumosul constând din armonia suavă între rimă şi ritm, o contopire a cuvântului cu nota, constituie conţinutul artei acestor artişti niciodată dezlipiţi de mirajul iubirii periculoase pentru care ar risca tot: "I give you my love, but you don't care ! "

Există oameni şi întâmplări pe care involuntar le uiţi, tot aşa cum artistul îşi uită ego-ul, narcisismul, şi decide să cerceteze ceea ce se află dincolo de fenomenul complexităţii pe care îl implică abordarea unei diversităţi de forme de creaţie. Şi bineînţeles că nimeni niciodată nu a regretat acest lucru firesc, aşa cum se regretă multe altele. Dar întotdeauna alchimistul paletei de culori rămâne fidel acelei nuanţe de toleranţă, între plăcere şi suferinţă, pe care o cere din partea intuiţiei. Acea nuanţă de violet care se găseşte rar în natură: "I want no other, no other lover".

Leadership: Atitudinea ta faţă de ceea ce ai de înfăptuit se remarcă printr-o apropiere de idealul de frumusețe care nu va fi atins niciodată?

Raţiunea de a mă apropia de Marele Creator este similară aspiraţiei abstracte spre frumos, din care se alimentează putința de a domina o lume, sentimentul apartenenţei la o formă mai înaltă de loialitate în relația cu Vocea Universală. Ajung până la recrearea întregii spiritualităţi a omenirii şi ridicarea ei pe o treaptă superioară a sublimului. Iată esenţa artei !

Chiar dacă opera mea nu atinge idealul de frumusețe sperat, ea reuşeşte în schimb ceva mult mai important: să construiască o teorie neconformă cu realitatea. De aceea ea nu trebuie să fie produsă de o aspirație abstractă spre frumos, ci de activitatea conjugată a tuturor forțelor și capacităţilor omului de a se raporta la ceea ce este superior în profunzimea ființei sale. Ce poate fi superior la mine, altceva decât ideea de infinit? „What else can I say?"

Uneori încerc să mă strecor într-un decor privat, poate reuşesc să controlez tendinţa către unitatea dintre idee şi imagine, principiu formal al oricărei tehnici. Ochii mei, la fel că ai bătrânului Rembrandt dintr-un roman al lui John Fowles, privesc etern înainte, dincolo de pânză, de la înălţimea geniului care este conștient de măreția sa, dar rămâne neputincios în faţa realităţii umane.

Pictura, sublima operă de artă, nu pare la locul ei în acel salon al secolului al XVIII-lea, dar proclamă un adevăr pe care o astfel de ambianţă are scopul de a-l înăbuşi: "I know we're one / Just me and you".

Leadershipul reprezintă trecerea artistului de la stadiul de „a percepe" la stadiul de „a înţelege" cea mai înaltă idee a artei ce are ca determinant principal transformarea unui destin într-un dialog al valorilor autentice.

Întotdeauna omul care nu crede în întâmplător, acelaşi om care merge neîncetat pe calea artei în ciuda abaterilor de la convenţiile ei uzuale, se dovedeşte însufleţit de gânduri mari şi înnoitoare, tot aşa cum Pygmalion se simţea însufleţit de o afecţiune crescândă faţă de sculptura lui. Dar când ajunge la punctul de vârf al potenţialului său, în faţa ultimei încercări de a da un contur cât mai realist artei sale, el ia aminte la cuvintele lui John Fowles:

"În cele din urmă, ce contează nu este numai priceperea, cunoaşterea, inteligenţa, norocul sau lipsa norocului, ci să ştii să alegi şi să înveţi să simţi."

Este exact acelaşi lucru pe care artistul îl pregăteşte prin intermediul artei, încercând să surprindă prin chinurile şi durerile facerii cele mai emoționante momente din viaţa sa, fără să le impună, cu ajutorul mijloacelor de expresie, întrerupte uneori de rostiri clare şi apăsate: "When we are together, I need you forever".

Leadershipul care corespunde cel mai bine artei are ca scop compunerea și promovarea dialogului dintre "să ştii să alegi" şi "să înveţi să simți".

Să știi să alegi rima potrivită și să înveți să simți ritmul înainte de a compune o piesă, iată adevărata clasă a unui artist care se raportează la acel ideal de frumuseţe din sfera muzicii, încununat ulterior cu succes in the feel of a moment without no end: What Is Love.

What Is Love (I)

On August 20, 2017

Fii liber să te exprimi nu prin impunerea unei dominări care permite continuarea și reimaginarea unei „capodopere", ci prin identificarea acelei modalităţi de interpretare a trăirii pure care permite declanşarea senzaţiei de autentic.

Trăiesc la graniţa dintre două lumi, a gândurilor şi a amintirilor acestora, din care pare să răzbată substanţa plină de tâlcuri a imaginaţiei interpretative bazată pe dorinţe şi frici. Tot ce mă înconjoară este supus privirii scrutătoare a criticii împinsă până la analizarea diferenţei dintre ceea ce pot schimba şi ceea ce mi se întâmplă.

Fapt ce asigură un sprijin în înţelegerea complexităţii fiinţei mele, a gândirii şi a manifestărilor ei, ca o perpetuă expansiune a Battleground-ului între forţa ce declanşează anumite procese mentale (atenţia, percepţia, intuiţia, conştiinţa) şi răspunsul subconştientului la consecinţele unui neajuns al puterii creatoare.

"What Is Love" reprezintă un perpetuu motiv de activare a ieşirii dintr-un sens giratoriu, un exerciţiu de justificare a fugii mele din calea unei raţiuni care asemenea neajunsurilor unei plaje fără nisip se bazează pe nostalgia vremurilor trecute. Ştiţi voi ce puteri nebănuite se ascund într-o melodie, în splendida artă a sunetelor și a tonurilor, într-o inspirată alegere de cuvinte, într-un ritm energic pe care greu reușești să ți-l scoți din cap, şi cum te poate ea ajuta să-ţi fie mai bine şi mai uşor în viaţă?

Toate capătă coerenţă, înţelegere neforţată, intensitate crescută, cauzând o stare de conectare la ceva incomensurabil şi indestructibil. Ca atunci când reuşeşti să-ţi aprinzi imaginaţia cu enigma adâncurilor unei sensibilităţi ce parcă reînvăţă să se exprime, a unei fierbinţeli aproape livreşti, viaţa născând câte o literă şi câte un punct, o valoare a unei note muzicale, însoţind rolul de moderator într-o capodoperă: "Just me and you".

Leadership: Ce sprijin găsești în înțelegerea tentaţiei de a merge dincolo de limitele unei dominări raţionale asupra fenomenului numit îndeobşte „viaţă"?

Trăiesc cu impresia că dacă mă implic cu toată intensitatea gândurilor într-un context emoţional, ca atunci când întâlneşti prima dată pe cineva special, completând un dublu ecran, în care o jumătate devine ecoul celeilalte, voi putea să-mi delectez privirile, simţurile, imaginaţia, mintea şi sufletul, cu noi episoade dintr-un spaţiu semnificativ, de mare trecere spre un nou început, autentic şi poate chiar veşnic. Un spaţiu plin de provocări şi împliniri, plin de viaţă şi culoare, unde totul este relativ, avându-şi ca temelie chinul emoţional dintre "What is right?" and "What is wrong?"

Sunt unii care nu au învăţat în viaţa lor o notă muzicală, nici să trateze abordarea inteligentă a unei partituri, nici să se miște în stil mare pe ritmul unei piese nebune, nici să înţeleagă adevărata valoare a refrenului: "Baby, don't hurt me / Don't hurt me no more". Dar cântă după ureche extraordinar. Dansează ca şi când nimeni nu-i privește. Astfel se simt în largul lor.

Sprijinul lor este avântul spre un tărâm pe care nu-l stăpânesc prea bine, dar îl experimentează în mod conştient ca un fel de ruptură resimţită între poet și geniu din care se naște o filosofie a eliberării individuale din acea dependenţă a complexităţii care transmite ideea perfecţiunii. O filosofie alăturată mişcării artistice care constă în reprezentarea gândurilor şi sentimentelor în actul creaţiei, într-o manieră spontană.

Este un fel de egoism situat deasupra stării de complicare, de multiplicare şi fragmentare a particularului, pe care o provoacă încordarea pentru o plăcere mai mare, pentru o reuşită mai grabnică, care te îndepărtează de rivalitatea dintre ce e bine şi ce-i rău, ce-i perfect sau imperfect.

În artă trebuie să vedem atât năzuinţa omului către desăvârşire, unde începutul imposibil face uneori cât jumătate din întreaga reuşită, dar în special trebuie să observăm neajunsul unui creator faţă de izvorul de fericire pe care îl contemplă şi care ulterior se înscrie pe o altă linie a preocupărilor sale.

Leadershipul este o combinaţie de potenţialitate şi exprimare în baza căreia funcționează acele „extended moments" de interacțiune între năzuinţa omului spre performanţă și eliberarea lui din dependenţa complexităţii care transmite ideea perfecţiunii.

Severa fidelitate a gândirii mele faţă de conţinutul unui single care mă reprezintă profund, la modul că reușește să umple orice gol din mine, chiar de neînţeles în această desfășurare a vieții plină de fantezie și mister, pregătește marea trecere dincolo de limitele şi sensul reprezentării perspectivale în artă.

Schimbarea pe care o iniţiază arta mea, ultima frază cu care se încheie un roman pe care nu-l voi scrie niciodată, este un preview al unui cadru dintr-un peisaj imaginar racordat la vocea unui om care vrea să fie auzit interpretând o îmbinare de mai multe stiluri muzicale, legate printr-un numitor comun: "This is our life, our time."

What Is Love este acel act de înțelegere a vieții trecut intens prin filtrul artei, cauzând o stare de conectare la ceva incomensurabil şi indestructibil care susţine însufleţirea şi energia de care trebuie să dai dovadă pentru a deveni liber.

Fii liber să te exprimi nu prin impunerea unei dominări care permite continuarea și reimaginarea unei „capodopere", ci prin identificarea acelei modalităţi de interpretare a trăirii pure care permite declanşarea senzaţiei de autentic.

Este o plăcere să cauţi perfecţiunea raportându-te la descifrarea înţelesului unei capodopere, dar este oare această îndeletnicire pe măsura gustului şi a felului tău de a fi?

Who wants to live forever (II)

On Octombrie 27, 2015

Dezvoltă-ţi capacitatea de a înţelege ceva superior existenţei însăşi, încadrându-te în planul trăirilor raportate la un spaţiu fără limite.

Mă ridic din neputinţa de a înţelege ceva superior existenţei însăşi, în sfera de influenţă a puterii de a percepe un loc ascuns dintr-un timp noologic. Concomitent, visez în taină că într-o zi timpul acesta străpungător, prefăcut într-o amintire netrăită, o să mă ia cu el, cât mai departe de tot ceea ce mă întregeşte ca fiinţă vie.

Viitorul este o nostalgie a prezentului, un dar al inimii de a se extinde spre piscul sentimentului de "nelimitat", în care imaginaţia alternativului şi posibilului cuprinde admiraţia faţă de opera unui artist care a surprins decisiv întregul mapamond. Avântul de a mă preface într-un călător al minţii, îndurând furtuna excluderii din existenţa iscată din seninul vibrant al imaginarului, se poate împiedica oricând de sensul profund al unei rezonanţe constante cu lumea. „Can you touch my world with your fingertips?"

"Who wants to live forever" trebuie să se încadreze în planul trăirilor raportate la un soi de infinit care îl încearcă neîncetat, ca o durere vie care vine şi dispare, procurând experienţa propriilor limite: crima de a se respinge de omenesc şi extazul de a se simţi rece, ca un Luceafăr strălucind în întuneric, manevrând vederea de dincolo de stele. Ceea ce nu aş putea contesta niciodată ca fiind un contrast între iluzoria aşteptare a unor efecte la superlativ şi realitatea crudă a întoarcerii în concret, când orice lucru tinde spre o finalitate transcendentă. "This world has only one sweet moment set aside for us."

Numai o perfecţiune a viziunii izvorâte din măreţia universului poate să conducă la o lectură univocă a imaginii despre cel ce mişcă munţii din loc printr-o regie a sunetelor care descrie trăirile sufleteşti ale poetului, experienţele de viaţă ale exilului său în climatul aspru al unei tonice şi necesare competitivităţi dintre zei şi oameni.

Leadership: Poţi să te autentifici ca o îndreptare a lumii în planul cosmic universal, fără să-ţi reduci imaginea la o realitate care se află pe plan secundar faţă de un rol principal?

Încet-încet, străbătut de efluvii ascensionale, intru ca un străin naufragiat pe meleagurile unui infinit care îşi caută rostul, în moartea care împlineşte glorios viaţa. Şi aşteptând nerăbdător chemarea timpului - îndrăznesc să sper că te voi cunoaşte bine ! - să reînvii într-un trecut demult uitat. Un simplu punct lipsit de orice accent, dar apărând ca un absolut al trăirii. Amintind de Faust: "Nimicul tău sper să-mi ofere totul".

Dar este oare posibil ca cel deghizat într-un cuplu de senzori de mişcare conectaţi la bornele unei surse de tensiune ce duce la rezistorul de comandă "Forever is our today" să transmită pe o anumită frecvenţă semnalul renaşterii sale din nimic?

O realitate care se află pe plan secundar faţă de un rol principal este un cumul de informaţii, crezuri, valori, sentimente, acumulate prin experienţa personală, pe care le-ai trăit doar în planul lumesc, relevând o latură a omului care acordă importanţă lucrurilor trecătoare. Dar ceea ce stârneşte cu adevărat curiozitatea este rolul principal pe care toate bucuriile şi întâmplările vieţii ţi-l impun în relaţie cu viteza de expansiune a spaţiului, materie fizică şi energie, o totalitate infinită de sisteme cuprinse una în alta, care prezintă un grad tot mai înalt de complexitate.

Leadership: Poţi să transmiţi pe o anumită frecvenţă semnalul renaşterii tale din nimic, încât să vezi dincolo de tine acea ocazie de creare progresivă a unui spaţiu nesfârşit?

Omul integrat într-o structură de existenţă convergentă spre realitatea momentului trecut sau viitor, cu prilejul menţinerii raportului optim dintre posibil şi imaginar, în caruselul informaţiilor de multe ori contradictorii ce fac trecerea spre o dimensiune încărcată de simboluri şi semnificaţii, reuşeşte să capete prestanţa unui „Luceafăr strălucind în întuneric".

În ceea ce priveşte leadershipul, acest om reprezintă un produs necesar al raportului dintre puterea de reinventare şi obligaţia de a se supune unei ordini a creaţiei superioare, care deschide porţile în faţa lumii de dincolo de zidurile momentului şi al vizibilului.

Considerând reflectarea într-un alt timp ca pe un rod ce aparţine devenirii, în care se constituie conceptul de a fi „altcineva", făcând o apropiere între formarea experienţială şi noutatea imaginativă, se creează viziunea unei lumi independente de legile realităţii. Această privire aruncată lumii de dincolo de timp poate schimba pentru totdeauna înțelegerea lumii de dincolo de a noastră.

Leadership: Eşti menit să conturezi un posibil scenariu ştiinţific în care universul reprezintă o proiecţie onirică a fiinţei tale primordiale într-un scop suprem, prin comparaţie cu Zeu singur care este adulat de muritori până la limita imaginaţiei?

Vizionarii marilor transformări nu uită de reflectarea în conştiinţă a unei existenţe care aparţine unei lumi exterioare. Se vede acest lucru din atenţia puternică acordată reflectării denumite „exterioară", din rolul rezervat acesteia în mersul cunoaşterii care să fie în acelaşi timp o formă de reprezentare a unor noi perspective de înţelegere asupra unei realităţi superioare. Şi totodată care să însumeze eforturile progresive ale omului de a-şi organiza propriul conţinut şi de a se cunoaşte prin reflectarea imaginii sale într-un spaţiu nelimitat.

Iar a renaşte din nimic este sinonim cu a te conduce, a găsi orientare în contextul unui spaţiu nealterat ştiinţific, un spaţiu luminat de prezenţa unei anumite distanţe de ceea ce enunţă logica obişnuită a gândirii.

Leadershipul, în ecuaţia universului, poate fi descris ca o reîntoarcere a omului în elementele naturii veşnice din care a izvorât numai dacă misterul profund al operei sale rămâne de nepătruns sau imposibil de atins pentru muritorii de rând.

Dacă vrei să câştigi o întreagă lume, ca pe un dar universal, atunci încearcă să te apropiii de cele veşnice găsind orientare doar în misterul profund al existenţei tale înscrisă în inimile celorlalţi oameni.

Who wants to live forever evidenţiază semnalul intrării omului vizionar într-o dimensiune nouă a creaţiei, arătând mai apoi adevărul mistic: cine nu reuşeşte să se transforme într-o picătură din oceanul timpului, nu va reuşi niciodată să lase urme în nisipul fin al clepsidrei universului.

Who wants to live forever (I)

On Octombrie 25, 2015

Experimentează-te ca sumă a posibilităţilor de cuprindere a nesfârşitului, definindu-te ca fiinţă care cunoaşte totul.

Mi se părea că ceva îmi scapă ca amintire difuză a celor neştiute încă, în faţa celor luate drept câmpuri de luptă în timpuri care se înmulţesc şi se bifurcă, vizibile doar ochiului spiritual. Eu însumi existând doar într-o învârtire interminabilă a fluxului de energie dispersată în univers în diferite momente "stare". Eram o lume stranie alcătuită din orizontul devenit lege universală a unei cauzalităţi răsturnate, ce elimina posibilitatea unui răspuns logic constructiv.

În fond, era vorba nu doar de un continuu schimb de viziuni şi reprezentări ale lumii dispuse într-un mod particular: "Forever is our today", ci despre identitatea mea dusă la un nivel ce nu putea fi contrafăcut cu aparenţe şi manevre de tip intervenţional. De o împietrire în nemurire, în alte forme de materie, convergente într-un pol de stabilitate ridicat.

Intens, ivit dintr-un cuget plin de frământare, Mefisto mă atenţiona: „ Nici în eoni nu poate să dispară urma şederii tale pământeşti. "

Marele Ştiutor al celor neştiute, opus şi totuşi convergent Universului pe care îl oglindeşte în sine atât de admirabil cu precizia unei superputeri situată departe de conştiinţa umană, putând chiar să învingă gravitaţia şi să salte în înaltul unui altfel de viu decât cel biologic, al unui viu distilat şi curăţat de o anumită presiune atmosferică, acest splendid transformator al timpului preia sarcinile apărute prin influenţa a două categorii de factori. Şi anume: creşterea complexităţii ştiinţifice şi îmbunătăţirea flexibilităţii ca forţă a dinamismului în interacţiune cu un "Dincolo de raţiune".

Exilatul de lumea reală aspiră, cu durere, cu încântare, cu revoltă, spre un altfel de grandoare, aceea a lucrurilor care s-au împotrivit trecerii timpului. Şi care au rămas la fel de frumoase. Ce-i drept cu o anumită probabilitate de dispariţie. „What is this thing that builds our dreams, yet slips away from us?"

Leadership: Poţi să descoperi sensurile profunde ale unui act de cunoaştere absolută, contribuind la dobândirea unei identităţi care conţine variabila „Forever"?

„De acum încolo..." sunt cuvintele asupra cărora se concentrează un om al viitorului, încercând să descopere sensurile încurcate ale unei căutări ce vizează cele neştiute şi nevăzute. El poate fi identificat cu un ID singular care se întâmplă să fie valid pentru toate versiunile presupunerilor privind probabilitatea găsirii unor repere noi de orientare, sau mai bine zis unor repere de legătură între două lumi. Una accesibilă şi una inaccesibilă, una a realităţii şi alta a suprarealităţii.

Nu vei putea niciodată să experimentezi acea împlinire a cuceririi desăvârşirii, orientată spre posibilitatea de a te mişca într-un loc sau altul cu puterea minţii, încât să faci faţă provocărilor de ordin creativ de care ai nevoie pentru a te autodepăşi, dacă nu reuşeşti să te integrezi într-un nou tipar de evoluţie - al omului ce se vrea a fi definit ca fiinţă care cunoaşte totul.

Fără o minimală premeditare privind cheia simbolică a unei opere artistice care evocă imagini dintr-o lume văzută parcă prin lentila distorsionantă a unui iluzionist şi fără zestrea transcedentală a noţiunii de univers, văzut ca spaţiu al unui joc mecanic în care Egoul poartă în permanenţă masca celui jucat, nu se poate elabora o temă simbolică axată stilistic pe punerea în scenă a unui excelent spectacol de poveste.

Un artist poate fi definit ca "o fiinţă care cunoaşte totul" numai dacă reuşeşte să exprime o comunicare privilegiată între ceea ce se consideră a fi revelat într-o realitate alternativă şi ceea ce se consideră a fi "fapte" în spatele unui scenariu de viaţă ficţional.

Leadershipul, măsurat în dimensiunea rationalităţii care surmontează limitele aparent imposibilului, conturând forma ideii cunoaşterii nemărginite, întotdeauna interpretabilă în sensurile adânci ale unei creaţii individuale ce figurează ca un întreg al lumii noi, prezintă avantajul că trebuie să te înţelegi din punct de vedere al unei alte persoane.

Al unei persoane definite în lumina unei identităţi care conţine o singură variabilă: „Forever", vulnerabilă din punct de vedere al concretului în faţa dependenţei de a se conecta mai profund la un sine multidimensional - care este identificat și întemeiat prin intermediul unei ipostaze de călător, proiectându-se în trecut, în viitor, sau în altă fiinţă. Forever nu reprezintă experienţa omului de dincolo de moarte, ci orientarea cunoaşterii spre o dezvoltare mult mai avansată.

O identitate care conţine variabila „Forever", fundamentată pe libertatea inepuizabilă de interpretare a realităţii dintr-o poziţie asumat subiectivă, este reprezentată de efortul de integrare a unui scenarist într-un context spaţio-temporal în care misterul se construieşte din asocieri bizare ce propun o estetică bazată pe concepte inovative de superioritate.

Who wants to live forever este mărturia unui incognoscibil care devine idealul înfăptuirii unei trainice dezvoltări ştiinţifice. Cineva spunea că ştiinţa este un fel de oglindă ideală, în care se poate citi în fiecare moment motivele activităţii viitoare a omului. Dar oare această activitate creativă, imaginativă, progresivă, nu are ca principală funcţie, în conformitate cu un statut privilegiat de asociere cu nişte presupuneri legate de realitate, aceea de a detecta un nou început de perspective de viitor, care aparent nu sunt posibile?

Wonderful Life

Încearcă să-ţi demonstrezi atașamentul față de timpul universal, printr-o săritură plină de grație în "înaltul cerului" de unde să vezi totul.

Nu ştiu sigur de ce mi-a plăcut îndeosebi melodia aceasta, dintotdeauna împlinită prin apropierea de tot ce constituie esenţa vieţii, anunţând posibilitatea de a vedea o nouă frumusețe în ceva ce dispare, cu intenția parcă de a crea o lume sau de a slăvi excepționalele realizări ale unui Dumnezeu umanizat. Dar şi posibilitatea de a defini o atitudine în cazul unui om uitat în pliul memoriei unei vârste fără griji, care se împotrivește eroic ambiţiei universale de a-şi depăşi starea de vulnerabilitate, condiţia de muritor, asemenea unui zar aruncat la întâmplare într-un joc de noroc al destinului.

În ritmul ei, blând și mângâietor, ca expresie a unei existențe vagante, mă pierd, mă rog, mă încarc cu voie bună dintr-un suflu divin şi mă regăsesc cu adevărat. Pare un act de adoraţie faţă de acel lucru minunat prin care încep să mă cunosc mai bine. Aici trăiesc punctul maxim al relaxării şi al detaşării de tot ce seamănă cu o povară, de tot ceea ce încerc să ascund de mine însumi, în speranţa personală şi deloc fantezistă a regăsirii unei trăiri depline, asemenea aceleia pe care o ai când răzbați teafăr dintr-o boală grea şi redescoperi cerul. Pentru că te ajută să aprinzi o scânteie magică din dragostea dumnezeiască.

Examinarea melodiei în termenii neutri ai unei descrieri limitate empiric de o dreaptă puternică numită "deplinătate", asemenea unui vârf de stâncă ce se pierde în peisaj, îndeaproape pe o serie de subiecte legate între altele, organizate pe axa unor reprezentări simbolice, are ca echivalent abordarea filozofică a unei experienţe măsurabile tocmai datorită vizibilității sale în contextul unui con de lumină ce are în vârf Cutezanța: „Look at me standing ! ”

Te apropii de cele sfinte când simți gustul subtil al valorilor picturale, instantaneelor fotografice, cu arhive istorice trecute prin filtre pline de contrast, instaurate de cel mai înalt grad al sublimului trecător care îi face pe majoritatea ascultătorilor să dezlege o mereu altă vrajă la fiecare apăsare pe butonul "replay".

Leadership: Noblețea firii tale este modelată de o curiozitate plină de avânt faţă de ceea ce se câştigă prin evidenţierea relaţiei dintre idea de „deplinătate" şi mijloacele artistice care o susţin?

Aflăm aici temeri și speranțe, sensuri și imbolduri ale unei căutări de sine înflăcărată de visuri, un strigăt interior către nevoia de wonderful life , ca o bilă de energie rostogolită spre generațiile viitoare. Care dau liniile esențiale unei identități profund îndatorată ascensiunii fulminante spre dorința de a trăi veşnic, menită să caute răspunsuri de care ea însăși s-ar teme. „No need to laugh and cry."

Slowly, încerc să mă regăsesc pe versurile unui timp care se scurge asemenea sângelui din urechiușele inimii, numai ca să întrezăresc o frântură din măreția autentică a universului, o unică construcție interpretativă a unui plus de farmec etern, dar nostalgic. Ca şi când aş pune accentul pe imaginea unui paradis închipuit cu disperarea unei regăsiri: de parcă ne-am fi căutat toată viaţa.

Deplinătatea este tot ceea ce te înconjoară care capătă sens doar în lumina unor evenimente ulterioare care dezvăluie ceva din lumea ta interioară.

They seem to hate you Because you're there , în mijlocul unei realităţi care se derulează cu mare viteză, acţionând la nivel subtil pentru a produce principiul schimbării la nivel de răsturnare a logicii obişnuite, a previzibilului care contrariază și tulbură, continua să neliniştească prin însăşi senzaţia de singurătate. Acea tristeţe metafizică a izolării, adesea înnobilată prin corelarea cu conceptul etic de dragoste: "Oh, I need a friend To make me happy".

Atât de mult m-a atras şi videoclipul, scenele plină de un clarobscur în care visez cu ochii deschişi, încât aş crede că se apropie transformarea mea într-un fir de nisip din Univers, realizarea efectivă a unei experienţe inedite, de a descoperi o scurtătură în spațiu și timp, up straight in the sunshine , sub influenţa modelatoare a unei călătorii şi a unui imperativ categoric: „No need to run and hide ! "

Ca o fiinţă supusă unei experimentări a imposibilului, mult mai profundă decât cerul senin care leagă începutul de sfârşit ! Atât de mult te răscolesc imaginile, alb-negrul conturând cenuşiul unor vieţi normale, încât pur şi simplu, închizi ochii, aşa cum se topesc razele soarelui în faţa Domnului, şi te vezi purtat în triumful unui timp „regăsit", deci negat. „You know it feels unfair / There's magic everywhere"

Leadership: Îți demonstrezi ataşamentul faţă de timpul universal imitând atracția frumosului unei lumi care își conştientizează relația cu Creatorul?

Vreau să simt magia unei stele pe care o numim "Soare", încărcătura electrică a unui nor de furtună, creșterea spontană a temperaturii unui gram dintr-un corp ce exercită aceleași funcțiuni ca și aripile unui înger. Sau doar o picătură de eter. Not so alone . Să nu cunosc durerea, să nu știu nimic, doar că exist, să nu simt decât eternitatea clipei şi perfecţiunea gustului prezent într-o călătorie pe bicicletă. O săritură plină de graţie în înaltul cerului, o plimbare cu umbrela prin istoria unui dans intens şi provocator. Pe ritmul unei muzicuţe acordate în gama Do.

Vreau să beau apă din izvor fără cană, vreau să alerg fără să obosesc, cu toate că mă simt țintuit într-un scaun ce mi-l împrumută Dumnezeirea: petala unei amintiri care nu se uită niciodată, frumosului etern așternut în prospeţimea şi gingăşia unei flori de câmp. Şi să mă opresc doar la începuturi de drum. „Look at me here / Here on my own again."

Relația mea cu Creatorul este aceeași precum relația cu sensul vieții: trebuie să explic de ce există totul mai degrabă decât nimic. De ce trebuie să privesc mereu doar partea din dreapta a imaginii, când aș putea la fel de bine să încerc să îmbunătăţesc compoziţia și calitatea ei?

Ca să înțelegi sensul vieţii trebuie să urmăreşti derularea unor imagini alb-negru ilustrate în timpul unor povești aleatorii în care se prezintă în mod sugestiv şi plastic trăsăturile caracteristice ale unui colţ din natură, ale unui obiect, ale unei fiinţe, ale unui fenomen, aşa cum sunt văzute ele din perspectiva unui Creator care îşi exprimă atitudinea faţă de acestea printr-o exprimare surprinzătoare: „Până la urmă, sunt un om obişnuit de lângă fiecare dintre voi, dar care a văzut totul şi a trecut prin toate."

Să înțelegi sensul vieţii înseamnă să încerci să-ţi demonstrezi ataşamentul faţă de timpul universal printr-o săritură plină de graţie în "înaltul cerului" de unde să vezi totul. Iar la revenire să-ți alegi doar imaginile care ți-au plăcut cel mai mult.

Wonderful Life este o abordare a momentului prezent pe care artiştii o numesc „saltul în creaţie".

You Can Be My Lucky Star Tonight

On Iunie 28, 2018

Învaţă să crezi cu îndrăzneală în profunzimile din care poate răsări o măreţie nebănuită.

Ca să vă daţi seama ce se petrece în mintea mea, mai întâi trebuie să înţelegeţi ce se întâmplă în sufletul meu, şi să trăiţi aceeaşi poveste. Dacă nu sunteţi familiarizaţi cu tăcerea atât de subtilă şi de totală, încât să simţiţi că vi se taie respiraţia, atunci încercaţi să pătrundeţi în biroul meu, ca într-o casă închisă, lăsându-vă cuprinşi de acea lipsă de inspiraţie, disperare soră cu moartea, judecată tulbure, ca alternativă a unei lumi apuse care, încet-încet, face loc alteia, atât de diferită și nu întotdeauna mai bună.

Numele meu probabil nu vă spune nimic, Walter Elias Disney, fiindcă abia m-am întors din New York şi mai am doar 40 de dolari în buzunar. Din ce în ce mai pregnant am nevoie de repere spirituale care să mă ajute să nu mă las înghiţit de rătăcirea cea mai dureroasă, abandonarea cea mai tristă într-un labirint al deşertăciunii unde singurele repere sunt uitarea de sine şi de ceilalţi, urmate în final de sacrificiul suprem.

Oare voi muri aici, în acest spaţiu plin de electricitate statică, plin de promisiuni şi vise care nu prind contur, în acest vid absolut, loc imens, nemăsurat, redat de-o culoare fără calităţi specifice?

S-ar părea că încerc să scot cu cazną, la lumină, un început de inspiraţie, un cuvânt, unul singur, apăsător, grav, îndepărtat, indispensabil. O linie fără mlădiere, neînduplecată. Dar sunt legat de un fel de greutate ascunsă sub o umbră imensă de îndoială, o nesiguranţă ameţitoare izvorâtă dintr-o modestie pauperă, o ancoră ruginită, prinsă de o funie neagră în subteranul unei lumi neinteresante şi inerte.

Leadership: Poţi să iniţiezi un select în stadiul de faliment al vieţii tale care să returneze valoarea TRUE în situaţia unei modificări a contextului în care sunt amplasate coordonatele unei noi "înălţimi"?

Cu certitudine, atitudinea mea este cea a pictorului care îşi caută într-un deplin anonimat vocaţia şi determinarea, uitarea deziluziei suferite, în intenţia de a sugera că arta se fundamentează pe un act al pătrunderii dincolo de realitatea vizibilă, într-un spaţiu al ideilor ce merită răspândite. Dar cu ce?

Nimicul e mai întâi un gol al vieţii, apoi o stare de confuzie, culminând cu o pierdere de sine temporară în clipele în care eram locuit de puterea pătrunzătoare a muzei. Un soi de rădăcină adâncă, pierdută în zona inefabilului. Iar durerea de a fi umilit, trădat, neajutorat în faţa acestui pluton de execuţie numit deznădejde, se pierde într-un sens incomplet şi nelămurit, într-un imposibil de prevăzut.

Viziunea nu se mai concentrează spre ceva palpabil înainte de a fi pusă în întinderea unei foi de desenat ci, asemenea vechilor cărţi de învăţătură, ea se îndreaptă spre îndemnurile la calmă aşteptare. Şi nimic altceva în plus.

Golul spaţiului, vrăjmaşul cel mai cumplit al artistului, acel univers intim unde se pare că nu se întâmplă nimic, poate fi umplut doar printr-un vicleşug al credinţei pe care îl regăsim ca stimul de mare intensitate în scrisoarea lui Paul Gauguin din 1888 adresată lui Émile Schuffenecker: "Arta este o abstracţie – extrageţi-o din natură în timp ce o visaţi şi gândiţi-vă mai mult la actul de creaţie decât la rezultat. Aceasta este singura cale de a vă ridică spre înălţimi şi de a face ceea ce face meşterul nostru Divin: a crea."

Leadership: Viziunea si chemarea artistică te pune în situaţia unei noi forme de expresie a carei amprentă se regăseşte în imaginea pe care o creezi din fidelitatea faţă de ceea ce se petrece chiar în preajma ta?

Şi dintr-o dată, în tot acest spaţiu redus, în acest aer cenuşiu care mă determină să-mi fie teamă de însăşi masca vieţii şi de natura puterii mele de cugetare, apare o mică atracţie, o mică şansă de a-mi salva mintea, o flacără de speranţă, o mică imagine a întregului meu suflet sensibil, o jucărie veselă, o sursă bogată de inspiraţie - foarte ieftină, un organism plin de viaţă, născocitor şi intrigant în acelaşi timp.

Personajul micuţ şi şmecher, dar cu nuanţe grave, simbol al căminului şi al prosperităţii, pare să caute ca într-un joc palpitant de logică răspunsul la o singură întrebare: unde pot găsi caşcavalul fără să intru într-o capcană?

You can be my lucky star tonight ! În sfârşit o lumină în bezna unei lumi confuze, o sclipire mai blândă dincolo de o mască comică, într-un dincolo nelămurit de lumea fenomenologică. O alternativă a unei lumi aflate în cumpănă, o mutaţie în genele care controlează sinteza fanteziei, un spaţiu al unei construcţii imaginare providenţiale, toate sunt fabricate într-o singură matriţă, transpuse într-un singur personaj. Mickey Mouse. Un sistem de motivaţie patentat de o gândire unică prin sensibilitatea care o emană un suflet de care te ataşezi definitiv şi irevocabil.

"În mijlocul necazurilor şi confuziei stătea o figură mică, voioasă şi şugubeaţă. Vagă şi nedefinită la început. Dar a crescut şi a crescut, iar în final s-a constituit într-un şoricel zburdalnic, exuberant. Ideea m-a prins cu totul."

Leadership: Ţii cont intotdeauna de gradul de toleranţă şi modul în care îţi exprimi afectivitatea faţă de un factor "întâmplător" care îşi umple eternitatea din multiple corespondenţe artistice, simbolice şi providenţiale?

Din prima clipă este atins esenţialul. Mă simt îndesat într-un spaţiu dintre două respiraţii ale iluziei vieţii, de parcă aş căuta cuvinte şi gesturi deja trăite şi coapte pe îndelete, dar care şovăie să se arate într-o anumită lumină, din umilinţa de a fi depăşit tocmai de calităţile unui personaj excepţional, de basm.

E vorba de un luptător pentru libertatea de expresie, întâmplător decis chiar în miezul compoziţiei, în care trebuie să pulseze forma şi culoarea. Dar mai ales povestea. Marea vrăjitorie în artă este să te pui în locul personajului tău pentru a crea un nou model de abordare personalistă, un nou model de poeticitate.

Acel „touch" al artistului este vital nu numai în opera pe care o zămisleşte prin suferinţă şi singurătate, prin culoare sau prin cuvinte, ci mai ales în conştiinţa înfăptuirii durabilităţii unui concept, unui simbol, unui Brand personal. El captează viziunea unui psiholog care atinge şi cea mai ascunsă cută a celui căruia-i face portretul: o viaţă, un ideal, o legendă. Dar mai ales sensibilitatea rafinată a unui pictor care din câteva linii de creion conturează mai întâi un portret, apoi evoluţia captivantă a unui personaj transformat dintr-o situaţie artificială într-o existenţă reală.

O profundă şi misterioasă solidaritate pare să-mi făgăduiască un destin de-a dreptul fabulos, desprins dintr-un vis atât de frumos că mi-aş dori să adorm la loc şi să-l continui, la fel cum se derulează evenimentele într-un film de Oscar bine regizat. Astfel, încep să mă regăsesc într-un motto al lumii care pretinde a fi guvernat de o mică eternitate, o mică intervenţie divină în sufletul unui artist care părea că nu-şi va mai găsi vreodată inspiraţia. Dar a trebuit să fiu pe cont propriu ca să ajung să-mi trăiesc legenda.

Din magnificul laborator sufletesc al artistului unde iau naștere bazele unor noi forme de expresie, o parte imensă se alocă în memoria unei fiinţe dragi care uimeşte prin simplitatea care o face accesibilă lumii.

Iar cealaltă parte, călăuzită de lumina divină spre o intensă experiență mistică în care visul devine realitate, are ca singură constantă schimbarea care dă sens vieţii, exprimată prin următoarea formulă care alunecă doar prin lumea ideilor şi a creativităţii, din a cărei scânteiere artistul îşi face debutul în panteonul gloriei:

"Floarea ce înfloreşte în condiţii vitrege e cea mai rară şi mai frumoasă dintre toate ! "

You Can Be My Lucky Star Tonight aduce in prim plan norocul de care au parte numai aceia care au ajuns la constatarea că orice idee este bună doar dacă o duci până la capăt. În ceea ce priveşte creativitatea, totul porneşte de la nimic, mai bine zis de la o frustrare, dar pe parcurs ea se transformă într-un diamant dacă cauţi un răspuns cu toată inima şi dacă te uiţi în direcţia care trebuie.

"O parte importantă din mine a rămas copil, fiindcă am avut curajul să visez." (Walt Disney)

Your Mirror

On Septembrie 05, 2017

Adevăratul izvor al creaţiei este viața din care trebuie să extragi o concluzie corectă cu aceeași atitudine de asumare a realităţii cu care încerci să-ți accepţi reflexia în oglindă.

Culoarea vieţii mele corespundea întregului căruia îi lipsea o parte, asemenea unei premise fără concluzie, constituind o diminuare a posibilităţii de modelare a materiei realităţii pe care o înarmasem preventiv cu forța fenomenului substanțial al creaţiei. I've got to be strong / Even if I know that this feeling is wrong !

Împovărător, îmi impuneam transformarea într-un om diferit printr-o confirmare a faptului că însăşi efectul realităţii prin acțiunea creaţiei era o formă modificată a aspiraţiei spre transcendenţa potrivită „oglinzii sufletului" căreia, însă, nu-i puteam găsi întrebuinţări estetice.

Studiind cu atenţie fiecare "right or wrong" al naturii mele, învăţând să cântăresc şi să măsor frumuseţea sau urâţenia gândurilor şi emoţiilor - întreţinute de impulsurile instinctive cărora le dădeam curs la fiecare "dincolo" de unda idealităţii absolute, am început să mă transpun tot mai mult în peisajul straniu al unui tablou cu subiect de roman.

Leadership: În ce fel reușești să plămădești din confruntarea cu tine însuți o nouă dimensiune a expresiei personale, în stare să transforme revolta interioară într-o forță creatoare autentică?

Un roman apăsător care te ţine prins în atmosfera sa greoaie la fiecare schimbare de pagină, din care artistul din mine, lăsându-se afectat de experienţa confruntărilor celor două omniprezenţe, plămădeşte conceptul: "Look in the mirror".

Neîndoios, deplina formare a personalităţii mele era marcată de o transformare a modului în care mă raportam la viaţa trăită prin artă, înainte de a ajunge la acea înălțime a manifestării artistice la care se urcă de obicei artiştii plini de vanităţi.

La temelia ei contribuia, într-o perpetuă mişcare de revoltă, acea scânteie reală a visului nedomesticit de atingerea unei viziuni a beatitudinii asupra lumi, acel activ de credinţă focalizat pe instrucţiunile unei funcţii de pragmatism: "I've got to stand up for myself". Arta era o sursă de însufleţire, nu o dovadă de slăbiciune.

Leadership: Modelul gândirii tale conține totalitatea caracteristicilor esențiale ale obiectului supus reflecției, în ideea că bipolaritatea dintre prieten și dușman interior devine sursă de creație și transcendență?

Bineînţeles, în felul meu de a fi şi a plăsmui după modelul gândirii ce conţine totalitatea caracteristicilor esenţiale ale obiectului supus reflecţiei, eram deosebit de ambiguu, având întotdeauna două sensuri ataşate caracterului perspectivist al existenței, ca pe un test de autocontrol:

O excentricitate bazată pe existenţa unei prejudecăţi: "I've got to not care" şi o formă subtilă de a smulge vieţii plăcerile extreme, de a insista, de a căuta şi mai asiduu minunea unei renaşteri în veşnicie. Şi, dacă aş fi găsit-o, să îndrăznesc un răspuns la marea întrebare a spiritelor iluministe, sondând legile bipolarităţii: "Îmi sunt mie însumi duşman sau prieten?"

Artistul este întotdeauna nebănuit de complex în timpul consacrării activităţii imaginative, în tot ce face, gândeşte, simte, proiectează, din care evadarea o constituie uneori accesul la o dimensiune a vieţii scăpată de limitele spaţiului şi timpului.

Arta de a te explora în oglindă pentru a te revela presupune să recunoști acel „what is wrong” care te împiedică să fii încoronarea creaţiei.

Sensul „încoronării creaţiei” este acela de a crea o legătura puternică între intensitatea sensibilităţii care te poartă spre forme cu impact emoțional și vocea conştiinţei care propune abordarea unor teme cu timbru moral.

În timp ce valoarea variabilei de tip pointer: "We've got to be strong / Even if our reasons seem wrong" , are ca unitate de măsură ironia unei înfruntări neobosite, a luptei Îngerului cu Iacob, constituind conformarea la regulile unui joc al ficţiunilor prin care artistul se apără pe sine de singurul duşman al condiţiei sale de geniu: viziunea unei lumi lipsite de calitate.

Lorenzo Bernini, printre cei mai mari artiști ai barocului, cunoscut mai ales ca sculptor, s-a decis să judece la un moment dat "Ghicitoarea" lui Caravaggio prin evidenţierea exacerbării fanteziei şi a adevărului natural:

"Adesea în natură găseşti părţi care ies în evidenţă, când n-ar trebui să fie aşa, sau altele care ar trebui să iasă, fără ca acest lucru să se întâmple. Cel ce ştie să deseneze bine lasă deoparte ceea ce apare în realitate şi n-ar trebui să fie aşa, şi desenează ceea ce ar trebui să fie şi nu apare…"

Leadershipul artistic înseamnă să găsesti perfecţiunea în ceea ce lipsește dintr-o imagine pentru ca ea să fie autentică.

Destinul meu şi cel al creaţiei mele, în exerciţiul temei pentru care o reflecţie de tip heideggerian ar fi putut reprezenta un suport de excepţie, căpătau astfel o nuanţă subiectivă indicată în comuna excludere din rândul lumii, din care lipseau extrem de multe elemente de personalizare. Din construcţia acestui tandem s-ar fi putut cu uşurinţă omite elementul central al unei vieţii reuşite, esenţialul expunerii unei imagini artistice, un verset fundamental al sublimului.

Se vede că mai aveam multe de învăţat până să ajung la cunoştinţa adevărului pe care îl exprimase demult criticul literar Vissarion Belinski: „Lucrările autentic artistice nu au nici frumuseţi, nici lipsuri, dar cel căruia îi este accesibilă integralitatea, va remarca numai frumuseţea.”

Your beauty lies within you.

Adevăratul izvor al creaţiei este viața din care trebuie să extragi o concluzie corectă cu aceeași atitudine de asumare a realităţii cu care încerci să-ți accepţi reflexia în oglindă.

Your Mirror este cartea de vizită pentru imaginea de sine construită după modelul unei experiențe de viață, pe fondul fineţii cu care pictorul stăpânește tehnica pensulației, din care poţi învăţa să vezi dincolo de chestiile de suprafaţă.

Your Painted Smile

On Octombrie 12, 2018

Învaţă să te examinezi în oglinda mărturisirilor prezente în raţionamentele artiştilor, încât să atingi în mod constant o superlativă intensitate a vieţii lor interioare.

Privirea ei s-a oprit asupra mea înduioşată, înţelegătoare şi blândă, ca un mesaj de promovare a lecturii unei poezii plină de rimă, în care autorul pune în scenă un "ego" plin de fineţe care creşte impulsul de a-şi procura plăcerea la vederea lucrurilor pe care le posedă. Înflăcărarea este puterea unui zâmbet care te înseninează.

Se vede că ea n-a suferit influenţa proeminentă a literaturii mele, totuşi părea să fi fost atinsă de mirajul unei libertăţi dobândite în baza comparaţiilor dintre strălucirea unui vis care se repetă şi culoarea unui thriller reuşit despre curaj şi izbândă. Privirea ei, la fel ca fiecare bătaie din aripi a unui fluture de mai, exercita o anumită presiune asupra gândurilor mele, o redirecţionare a sentimentului de efemeritate, făcându-mă să rătăcesc tot mai departe, înspre înalt, asemenea păsărilor într-un zbor deasupra norilor, prin universul unei voioşii fără seamăn.

Încă mai analizez efectele şi variaţiunile cromatice ale unei expresii faciale cu impact semnificativ asupra psihicului uman. Printr-un efect de contrast simultan, atmosfera de profundă vibrație sufletească serveşte drept fundal al unui tablou însufleţit de nesfârşitul gând al unei călătorii în timp, când totul rămâne complementar culorii din lumină, acel roz-pal al unei clipe păstrată într-o scânteie de eternitate.

Nu-mi este teamă de nimic. Nu vreau să mă las înşelat de oglinda sufletului, de ceva care mă mistuieşte prin încărcătură emoţională, prin expresivitate şi sugestie. Arma secretă a unei femei este o realitate care nu se supune nici spaţiului nici timpului. Cât de mult ar suferi un artist dacă ar ceda tentaţiei de a se lega sufleteşte de cineva fără să îmbrăţişeze un loc al transcenderii realului, al multiplicării luminilor şi al dilatării misterului.

Leadership: Îţi percepi sinele prin lentila unei reprezentativităţi de categorie ideologic-literară, altfel decât privitorul unei imagini care încearcă prin sensibil să pătrundă în inteligibil?

Don't talk to me. Lasă-mă să te privesc prin lentila unei reprezentativităţi de categorie ideologic-literară, a unei logici a diferenţelor de nuanţe, cu plăcerea cu care pictorul îşi plăsmuieşte o viziune din care scoate miza unui destin avangardist, dând la iveală printr-o coincidenţă bizară de culori o lume secretă, plină de magie, încărcată cu credinţă şi har dumnezeiesc.

Îţi urmăresc atent strălucirea ochilor, culoarea lor este reală, dar în acelaşi timp par pierduţi într-o poveste cu tuşă suprarealistă. Totul dispărând într-o clipă, ca atunci când încerci să confişti sclipirea unei stele, lăsându-te orbit de lumina unui spaţiu care se lărgeşte pe măsură ce te afunzi în el.

Văzută ca dublu al unui personaj de Cella Serghi, acestei fiinţe îi pot fixa corespondenţele doar în nomenclatura culorilor alb şi roz folosite de pictorii care vor să demonstreze frumuseţea unui tablou în interacţiunea cu o stare de fantezie care este însăşi esenţa unui gen artistic autonom, reglementat printr-un profund caracter literar.

Ai avut puterea să deschizi o altă uşă, o altă carte, printr-o asociere între curiozitate şi dorinţă, îndemnându-mă să continui încercările de "iscodire" a semnificaţiilor pe care le poartă culorile într-un adaos de profunzime atribuit contrastelor dintre delicat şi energic. Tăria unei femei se recunoaşte în intensitatea culorii pe care artistul o alege predominantă în tabloul său.

Roşul semnifică imaginaţia. Mândria este camuflată uşor într-un alb-gălbui în colţul buzelor. Nu m-am hotărât încă în ce mod ar trebui să te înţeleg, fără a ceda tentaţiei de a mă lega de vreun compromis fără compromitere în pasiunea pe care o pun în slujba ideilor artistice, între a exista prin clar-obscur şi a mă afunda în paginile inspirate de o înaltă ţinută poetică.

Leadership: Poţi să creezi avantajul unei zone vizuale confortabile pentru vederea de aproape şi de la distanţă, printr-o abordare care solicită un model de implicare ridicată dedicată experienţei de a fi reazem pentru altcineva?

M-ai cântărit într-o clipă şi parcă nu în avantajul meu. Dar ca să te înţeleg din priviri, ca să folosesc acea substanţă care dizolvată într-o anumită cantitate de solvent, la o anumită temperatură, dă culorii o intensitate luminoasă, trebuia să te las să te pierzi în amintirea pe care o trezeşte gestul unei atingeri cu totul accidentale.

Mi-ai citit cartea despre calităţile liderului şi erai atât de entuziasmată, prea mult atinsă de colajul pictat integral cu sigla raţionamentului în care se foloseşte inventiv experienţa de inginerie umană numită metamorfozare, într-un crescendo al disperării de a fi dorit să faci parte dintr-o poveste cu grad estetic vizibil.

Plimbându-mă prin cameră, ţi-am arătat tablourile care mi-au bucurat dintotdeauna sufletul. Picturi originale imaginate de mama mea, privind bogăţia sufletească a omului, menite să reflecte un mod de expresie a creativităţii dusă la alt nivel. Un simplu exerciţiu de eliminare a tensiunii dintre realitate şi ficţiune. Se simţea peste tot în jur acea specială stare de energie pe care o degajă munca în care pui suflet şi rămâi plăcut surprins de rezultatul final.

Privirea ta se întorcea mereu spre mine, zâmbetul ţi se îmbina armonios cu trăsăturile unui personaj mistic dintr-o operă literară care se transpune în alte lumi şi te face să reflectezi la întâmplările care se petrec într-o tăcere stranie. Atâta duioşie emana prezenţa ta, simţind-o ca o mână pe umăr, ca o strângere în zona inimii. Semn că m-ai acceptat ca şi confident al tău, ardeai de nerăbdare să-mi cuprinzi emoţia cu cea mai intensă pasiune a minţii de a controla o altă minte.

Leadership: Contribui la crearea unui model de redare a experienţei izvorâtă din detaliile unei fiinţe care îşi trăieşte sentimentele în interiorul unei oglinzi ce reflectă o realitate niciodată de două ori la fel?

Dar oare ce gândeşti tu despre mine când mă priveşti atât de adorabil? Încerc să intru pentru o clipă în mintea ta, să-ţi deschid ascunsurile prin intermediul unui personaj de Cella Serghi care iubea capacitatea de a fi pasionat, preocupat de frumos.

"Tu mă priveşti ca de pe alt tărâm, alteori gata să mă îmbrăţişezi. Nu-ţi este teamă, nu te aperi. Eşti atât de sigur de tine, uşor ironic, puţin trist. Ca un om aflat în faţa unei vitrine, admirând o bijuterie care-l fascinează. Ar vrea s-o aibă, dar ştie bine ca asta nu se poate. Îl desparte o vitrină, adică o lume. E durere şi furie în privirea ta, dar totodată ceva îmbietor şi bun. Vei pleca din faţa vitrinei cu o uşoară nostalgie. Ai alte treburi, alte socoteli. Lumea e mare. Nu-i cât o vitrină. Dar pentru mine pământul s-a micşorat. E atât cât îl înconjuri tu. Lumea toată eşti tu. Iar eu sunt disperata iubitoare a acestei lumi."

Am rămas până seara târziu împreună, ca două statui ce aşteaptă să prindă viaţă prin atingerea colorată a unui pictor suprarealist. Îmi imaginam privirea ei, solemnă şi demnă, cum ai înfăţişa un înger coborând din cer care va sparge acoperişul închisorii şi îl va elibera pe deţinutul ei.

Ea încerca să-mi surprindă privirea fără ca nimeni să ştie, ca pe o instanță invizibilă ce analizează gesturile și reacțiile personajelor dintr-o operă literară care nu va fi terminată niciodată. Eu eram „ochiul" străin ce domină imaginea creată în panorama conștiinței sensibilă la frumos. Ea era acea parte a oglinzii care reflectă atenţia ochiului îndreptată spre absolut, spre infinit şi mister. În mine persista dorinţa ei de a sorbi sărutul unei iubiri nesfârşite.

Amândoi constituiam fondul unui tablou "I lost you inside my mind" în care predomina lirismul culorilor, ambivalenţa simbolică a unui microcosmos temporar, inspiraţia de înaltă ţinută poetică. De fapt, păream a fi ieşit amândoi de sub penelul unui artist care nu cunoaşte adversitatea în artă.

Omul privit prin lentila artei se constituie ca reflectare a unor sentimente elevate şi intense într-o dublă oglindă: în oglinda experimentală a unei opere literare şi în oglinda unei realităţi fictive care pretinde că este mai reală decât este cu adevărat.

Your Painted Smile este creaţia unui artist care porneşte în studierea culorii de la înţelegerea mecanismului percepţiei vizuale ca moment fundamental al experienţei de a exista ca fiinţă care îşi doreşte cu pasiune să atingă în mod constant o superlativă intensitate a vieţii interioare.

Zborul artistului în universul său propriu

On Octombrie 22, 2014

Pune-ţi nestingherit în valoare talentul, inspiraţia şi imaginaţia creatoare, fără să te simţi limitat de cerinţele bazate pe fundamente incoerente sau împovărătoare.

Regizorul Serghei Eisenstein nu este deloc încântat la început de subiectul ce i se acordă pentru filmul ce i-a fost încredinţat, „Alexandr Nevski”. Tema nu intră în preocupările sale, care sunt, după cum o ştim, îndreptate spre alte direcţii. Cerinţele precise pe care i le impune tema sunt tot atâtea canoane tiranice pentru acest artist obişnuit să zboare liber în universul său propriu.

„Grea situaţie. Cea mai grea situaţie în munca noastră, pentru imaginaţia creatoare. Să inventezi o figură pentru ecran care să corespundă strict cerinţelor tematice exprimate teoretic cu o rigoare matematică, într-o formulă ! Asta e formula – creează după ea imaginea ! Dar sunt situaţii când n-ai încotro. Şi a fost tocmai cazul nostru.”

Cu ironia-i caracteristică se gândeşte Eisenstein la „sfântul” Alexandr Nevski din care a trebui să facă un erou de film, după ce ţara făcuse din el un erou naţional. *****

Leadership: Îţi desăvârşeşti creaţia mutând ştiinţa pe „o linie de fond” sau pe „o linie de apel”, convins că poţi îndeplini cerinţele precise pe care le impune tema propriei contribuții la efortul de a valorifica o imagine în cel mai potrivit mod posibil?

Dacă încerci să îți sporeşti valoarea prin ceea ce gândeşti, prin ceea ce creezi, prin ceea ce transmiţi, acceptând fuziunea dintre exigenţele care îţi sunt impuse şi producţiile de inovaţii care îţi aparţin în mod autentic, înseamnă că te-ai angajat deja într-o luptă a cărei natură reală poate fi dovedită prin determinarea efectelor cu repercusiuni asupra nivelului de performanţă.

Tranziţiei spre un nou model de personaj, posibilă oricând pe spirala nevoii de a te simţi împlinit prin impunerea propriului subiectivism, îi revine rolul de a aduce nivelul tău de automotivare la cote extrem de bune. Un fel de du-te-vino, fără frontiere, între postura analizatului şi cea a analistului, între două spaţii disjuncte căutând aria intermediară: un zbor liber într-un univers plin de abundenţă.

Grea situaţie. Cea mai grea situaţie în munca ta, pentru imaginaţia creatoare. Căci o nouă renaştere a spiritului de creaţie exercitat asupra expresivităţii artei nu este posibilă în condiţii de îndeplinire a cerinţelor care nu corespund capacităţilor, resurselor sau nevoilor personale. Aşadar, "linia de fond" a ştiinţei pe care o consideri necesară exercitării artei are ca şi corespondent preocuparea ta pentru crearea unei imagini menite să aducă în prim-plan impunătoarea ta personalitate, prezenţa ta în mijlocul unei teme care anunță găsirea unor răspunsuri la cele mai actuale enigme ale omului contemporan aflat în raport cu uimitoarea evoluție a unui personaj controversat, cum este personajul istoric.

Efortul de a valorifica o imagine în cel mai potrivit mod posibil presupune continuarea inventării unui nou personaj care corespunde strict cu promovarea propriei poveşti despre cum ai acţiona dacă ţi-ai atinge maximul personal într-o altă ipostază.

Leadershipul se transformă continuu nu prin izolarea creatorului într-un univers static, în care totul este învăluit într-o exprimare prevenitoare, ci prin transpunerea lui într-un univers plin, complet, atotcuprinzător, învăluit într-o reţea densă de trasee de investigare a acestei arte.

Cine oare ar putea nega rolul pe care îl are propriul Eu, ca instrument ajutător al artistului creator, ca amplificator de funcţionalitate, în cazul unor viitoare sarcini aprobate de eventuale intervenţii de natură proactivă? Oare accesul tău la un nou stadiu de maturitate, de orientare, superior celor precedente, nu-ţi modelează percepţia vizavi de sensul artei în contextul propriul tău univers?

Un lider îşi desăvârşeşte creaţia mutând ştiinţa pe „o linie de fond", atunci când se raportează la propriul său Eu creator, la ansamblu de prejudecăţi, opinii şi credinţe, dar în context comparativ cu ceea ce are de oferit. Dar, totodată, el îşi poate îngusta orizontul creativ dacă îşi mută ştiinţa pe „o linie de apel", raportându-se la cerinţele şi exigenţele stricte ale căutătorilor de excepţional, angajându-se în anumite limite care nu pot fi depăşite.

A muta ştiinţa pe "o linie de apel" înseamnă să foloseşti o figură de stil, precum analogia, parabola sau hiperbola, pentru a scoate în evidenţă imaginea unui posibil univers ciclic, prin care "treci" ca artist ca să întăreşti credibilitatea poveştii tale sub chipul unui alt personaj.

Zborul artistului în universul său propriu admite existenţa originalităţii şi a potenţialului creator bazat pe talent, inspiraţie, imaginaţie, dezvoltate în timp pentru a da o formă inedită unui subiect impus – dar care pot fi limitate de cerinţe împovărătoare, fără nici un fundament coerent. Iar aşa cum preciza cineva, în acest caz poţi ajunge în faţa unor paradoxuri bizare şi, în timp ce-ţi forţezi mintea să le dezlegi sau să le înţelegi, eşti imediat bombardat de altele.

Zborul spre înalt al păsării cu aripile frânte

Urcă spre zona dominantă a "Omului" din tine, ca să poţi deţine în întregime controlul asupra celorlalţi din jur.

N-avea nimic mai de preţ pe lume decât un soţ, iar soţul acesta nu avea nimic mai de preţ pe lume decât pe ea, femeia visurilor lui. Dar între aceste două fiinţe asemănătoare, pentru care orice poet de geniu şi-ar închina toate odele, între aceste două fiinţe iubitoare, devotate, care s-ar căuta, aştepta, merita una pe cealaltă până la sfârşitul lumii, a intervenit necruţător năpasta. Ca de obicei, sursa necazurilor, scânteia care stârneşte focul nimicitor în viaţa oamenilor, banii.

Şi numai pentru acest preţ nefericit - consecinţa unei alegeri greşite, Llewelyn Moss trebuia să dea socoteală în faţa posesorilor lor de drept, din lumea mafiotă. Să ne mărginim a spune că viaţa lui era în mare pericol.

Într-o cafenea. Ochii Carlei Moss se opriră dinaintea acestei imagini a speranţei: şeriful Ed Tom Bell, un bătrân curajos. Există vrăji, miracole care pot trezi credinţa, chiar şi când Dumnezeu este de neînţeles. Tom Bell părea să fie miracolul mult aşteptat. Iar prezenţa acestui înger singuratic vestea raiul, eliberarea grijilor, calmarea oricăror nelinişti.

Leadership: Cum poți transforma acea tensiune interioară, care apasă sufletul, într-un punct de renaștere și reconectare cu libertatea pierdută a sinelui autentic?

Ore în şir, zile întregi, poate săptămâni de-a rândul domnise în sufletul ei - atât de bun, atât de blând şi iubitor, acea stare de tensiune, apăsătoare ca o negură de toamnă, aproape de neîndurat, care nu se poate compara decât cu neînfrânata cădere liberă a unei păsări cu aripile frânte, înainte de impactul fatal cu solul.

Ca sărmana Lusa, transformată de vrăjitorul Kaşnur într-o bufniţă şi condamnată pe viaţă la singurătate, biata Carla Moss trebuia să depaşească limitele impuse de propriile-i sumbre gânduri şi trăiri, de propria-i transformare care nu mai dădea sens, nu mai unifica armonios întreaga ei fiinţă. Avea nevoie doar de un singur cuvânt care să rupă blestemul dureroasei sorţi şi să-şi recapete libertatea sufletească. Dar tocmai acel cuvânt fermecat îi pierise din minte şi din suflet.

Leadership: Starea în care judeci un anumit moment din viaţa ta, izolându-te de realitatea din jur, stă sub constrângerea necesităţii implacabile de a trăi într-o reprezentare a negării oricăror distincții de valoare între rolul și delirul background-ului tău?

Singurul lucru care trebuia să fie adevărat şi statornic, cu neputinţă de schimbat, era voinţa - acest Sesam al transformării, magicul cuvânt care-i putea deschide ei, neajutoratei, stâncile îndărătul cărora se întrevedea, prietenoasă, perspectiva unei schimbări.

"Eu sunt singurul care te poate ajuta, care îţi poate salva soţul. " îi spusese Tom Bell femeii cu o hotărâre sinceră care-i aduse acesteia un soi de uşurare, atingerea vântului sfânt al schimbării.

Iar acest cuvânt magic al voinţei, căzut ca un tunet prevestitor din înaltul cerului, " Pot ", semnul izbăvirii, acest cuvânt simplu, dar valoros, înzestrat parcă cu puterea neobişnuită de a insufla viaţă până şi unei statui din marmură, a fost de-ajuns pentru ca înfăţişarea Carlei Moss, sărăcăcioasă şi tristă, înspăimântată de cel mai negru coşmar, să capete un aspect sănătos, strălucitor şi plin de viaţă.

O evadare din iad, un voyage dans la lumière , o transpunere într-o altă realitate, o uşurare a suferinţelor şi o întărire sufletească, avură miraculoasa putere de a alunga din nefericita femeie, cel puţin pentru moment, orice furtună interioară. Background-ul acestei femei consta într-un manifest pro-viaţă paşnic, mulat pe libertatea de a alege, pe entuziamul cu care acceptase noţiunea de "iubire", în niciun caz nu includea durerea unui eveniment care necesită atenţia imediată.

Leadership: Tratezi totul în termenii unui singur parametru din care rezultă semnificaţia unui anumit moment de inversare de trend în imaginea de ansamblu?

Dezvoltarea leadershipului are la bază în primul rând un proces de schimbare şi de orientare dinspre interior spre exterioe. Orice poţi face pentru a întări ceea ce te uneşte de ceilalţi oameni din jur, te ajută să te cunoşti mai bine şi să fii permanent în contact cu tine însuţi. Odată ce această prioritate devine prima natură pentru tine, în viaţa ta se va întâmpla un lucru uimitor: vei recăpăta controlul.

Singur te acuzi de mentalitate retrogradă dacă te arăţi dur şi intransigent faţă de ceilalţi precum acel personaj dintr-un roman al lui Jown Fowles, căruia conştiinţa i-a comandat să-i spună fostei sale partenere: " Te-am studiat, te-am examinat, te-am testat, m-am folosit de tine şi am învăţat de la tine, a fost plăcut şi interesant, dar acum aş vrea să plec. "

Posezi simţul relativităţii lucrurilor, al pierderii, al aventurii? Tratezi totul în termenii unui singur parametru - prezentul animat de diversitate? Căci o astfel de abordare nu este în conformitate cu cerinţele esenţiale ale leadershipului, ci doar cu termenii unui prezent funcţional, contorsionat şi miop.

Leadership: Dispui de cea mai importantă premisă pentru valorificarea propriilor calități, luând în considerare voinţa de a fi altcineva?

Să deţii controlul asupra a ceea ce eşti, asupra a ceea simţi şi asupra reacţiilor în momentele următoare, înseamnă mai întâi de toate să dispui de cea mai importantă premisă pentru valorificarea propriilor calităţi. Şi numai aceste calităţi, bine finisate şi trecute prin sita judecăţii şi emoţiilor, pot conferi o aură de umanism leadershipului - acele calităţi încorporate în structură interioară a şerifului Ed Tom Bell: coeziunea, coerenţa, omogenitatea în sentimente.

Singurul lucru care trebuie să fie adevărat şi statornic, cu neputinţă de schimbat, este voinţa de a fi altcineva, un nucleu de mobilizare şi impulsionare care să gestioneze situaţia: "Pot" - acest Sesam al transformării, care poate îndepărta stâncile îndărătul cărora se ascunde, prietenos, conturul luminos al personalităţii tale.

Eşti o persoană care are harul de a transmite speranţă şi nădejde în sufletele oamenilor din jurul său, eşti un simbol al valorilor umane? Nu uita că tu eşti miracolul mult aşteptat al transformării tale, care se adevereşte numai dacă va schimba lumea din jur.

Leadership: Eşti ceea ce eşti datorită a ceea ce poţi să fii într-o situaţie în care noţiunea de "realitate" are conotaţia de degradare socială şi de revenire în anonimatul neputinţei de a te reinventa?

Rolul pe care ţi-l asumi, ca lider, implică o referinţă esenţială la acea entitate numită propriul tău Eu, sau mai bine zis la posibilitatea de a fi cineva puternic - care nu poate fi gestionat decât prin raţiune şi realism, dar şi printr-o cooperare strânsă a calităţilor şi abilitaţilor tale de "Om", care pot schimba stările emoţionale a celorlalţi din jur.

Eşti un om mare, cu o înclinație profundă pentru a face bine, sau unul care îşi protejează centrul universului său interior prin nerecunoaşterea evenimentelor care te pot purta în pragul fatalităţii?

Un prelungit sprint spre marea performanţă, spre linia de sosire. O luptă continuă bine dozată în eforturi şi reacţii pozitive, ingredientele de bază ale propriei deveniri, care au însuşirea de a scoate la iveală un alt orizont, o altă valoare reală spre care să aspiri, ca un prim cadru necesar existenţei tale – a naturii tale reale, a fiinţei tale autentice.

În acest sens merită atenţie afirmaţia făcută de poetul şi prozatorul german Heinrich Heine: " Fiecare om în parte este o lume care se naşte şi moare o dată cu dânsul. "

Această "lume", nu reprezintă altceva decât produsul unei schimbări de profunzime, esenţa proprii tale deveniri, rezultatul tentativei de a te ridica deasupra propriei tale mediocrităţi. Nu ca un om care îşi cataloghează semenii, ci ca un om care caută să scoată tot cei mai bun din ei - acel diamant neşlefuit care face parte din însăşi natura lor, şi care se poate traduce prin: " eu sunt ceea ce sunt, datorită a ceea ce pot să fiu ."

Acolo unde însă meandrele faptelor sunt cu deosebire întortocheate, acolo unde valorile sunt ascunse adânc şi dificil de îndepărtat, unde aparenţele sunt incerte, oglinda stărilor tale sufleteşti trebuie să fie de cei mai pur cristal, strălucind foarte puternic, ajutându-te la depăşirea limitelor sau blocajelor de orice natură.

Leadershipul vizează necesitatea de a te împăca cu tine însuţi în toate dimensiunile vieţii şi realităţii care există simultan, se condiţionează reciproc, permiţându-ţi a recunoaşte diferenţa dintre ceea ce simţi faţă de cineva şi ceea ce te motivează să înduri experienţele slăbiciunilor tale şi libertatea de a alege.

Zborul spre înalt al păsării cu aripile frânte prefigurează o tentativă de a te ridica deasupra durerii, deasupra gândurilor şi emoţiilor tale, o recâştigare a libertăţii numai printr-o deplină alipire, cu toată fiinţa ta, de şansa schimbării indusă cu ajutorul altora. Desemnează lupta continuă, în ciuda impasurilor şi evenimentelor nefavorabile, spre piscul performanţei dorite.

Ca să poţi deţine în întregime controlul asupra celorlalţi din jur, trebuie să urci spre zona dominantă a "Omului" din tine. Dă la o parte învelişul tare care îţi înconjoară perimetrul fiinţei, şi vezi cine eşti de fapt. Scoate miezul din tine.

Poţi fi un " înger descins din rai ", sau " o pasăre cu aripi frânte în cădere liberă ". Sau, cel mai rău, poţi fi un personaj invizibil care îi observă pe toţi cum îşi pun în scenă spectacolul numit " existenţă ", fără a lua parte la desfăşurarea lui, şi fără a se implica, fără a depune niciun efort – un om pasiv care, ca o stea care îşi pierde strălucirea, îşi duce existenţa într-un deplin anonimat.

 Notă: "No Country for Old Men (2007)"

 Notă: Lusa - personajul din opera lui Wilhelm Hauff, fiica maharajahului Indiei. Transformată de vrăjitorul Kaşnur într-o bufniţă. Blestemul se putea rupe doar dacă se găsea cineva, nesilit de nimeni, s-o ia de soţie. Şi numai califul Raşid din Bagdad, transformat la rândul lui în bufniţă, a rupt blestemul:: "Da" vreau să fii soţia mea.

Zbuciumata călătorie spre iad a fiinţei simţitoare

On Septembrie 22, 2013

Demontează condiţionarea majoră între suferinţă şi evoluţie, activând câmpul de forţe motivaţionale necesare influenţării procesul de schimbare.

Clarice simte cu groază că face parte dintr-un scenariu sumbru, demn de un Stephen Jones. Dar nu ştie să smulgă această fatală imagine din minte, nu poate să oprească excesul de substanţă sensibilă la presiune, transferată moleculelor aproape epuizate cu rol de reglator al activităţii nervoase. Cum să supravieţuiască unei călătorii spre adâncul lipsit de ieşire, spre iad? Toată energia vitală i se concentrează pentru o clipă într-o singură direcţie, descurajantă. A totalei autodistrugeri.

Şi cum nu se poate elibera din iad, se instalează starea de inerţie care domină câmpul de forţe motivaţionale necesare influenţării procesul de schimbare. Nefaste bombardamente lăuntrice, dătătoare de fiori aspri, o aduc în starea de neoperativitate. Practic, este singură în casa criminalului, un loc întunecat şi înfiorător, şi simte că cineva o urmăreşte de aproape, gata oricând să o surprindă cu o lovitură mortală.

Un act de credinţă, o singură manifestare de voinţă ar putea oare s-o scape de gândul morţii, din menghina aceasta solidă ce pare că-i strânge cu putere cortexul cerebral? Şi doar pentru gândul acesta neliniştitor se duc cu stoicism atâtea lupte interioare, reacţii nepotolite de panică înlănţuite într-un ritm tulburător.

Leadership: Încercarea ta de a da o semnificaţie aparte întâmplărilor din viaţa ta se constituie într-un crescendo al voinţei de a găsi ceva cu care să te identifici în totalitate şi care să contribuie în acelaşi timp la dezvoltarea a ceea ce s-ar putea numi "Revelaţia unei realităţi ireversibile"?

Creşte valoarea tensiunii necesară stopării complexului de izolare. Faptul că nu poate ieşi din cercul slăbiciunii o preocupă peste măsură, şi pe bună dreptate. Cu toate acestea, Clarice se ţine tare. I se pare că, într-un fel, este în joc onoarea ei. Abia schiţează o mişcare, nu rosteşte nicio vorbă. Acum îi este mai mult ca oricând necesară imaginaţia vulcanică. Să facă ceea ce n-a mai făcut, să îşi rişte viaţa. Să mizeze totul pe un singur zar norocos, salvator. Iar acest gând asumat, ca un fulger căzut din cer cu voia Domnului, purtător de noi forţe, îi luminează conştiinţa şi o investeşte cu putere de iniţiativă.

Numai speranţa îi susţine funcţiile de siguranţă şi energia pozitivă transportată prin canalele fine de distribuţie a încordărilor alternative. Ea capătă dintr-o dată energia şi inspiraţia de a se avânta într-o acţiune riscantă, cu elanul şi spontaneitatea unui copil care îmbracă costumul lui Superman şi porneşte la salvarea lumii. Evident că s-a lăsat cu ceva adrenalină, fiindcă totul părea o aşteptare a inevitabilului. Ca să prindă un curaj salvator, ea începe să se identifice cu un erou care încearcă să-şi învingă destinul.

Mai rămâne un anumit unghi nedescoperit, o dublare a unei linii de acţiune aplicate pieziş pe o linie străină din planul conştiinţei. Numai astfel psihicul ei mai poate să suporte o greutate în plus. Trebuie să-l ucidă cu orice preţ pe Buffalo Bill. Cu simţurile ascuţite să pătrundă întunericul, să depăşească cu mult marginile conştiinţei. Să tragă ! Acum ! Acum ! Poc ! Poc ! Poc !

Clarice răsuflă uşurată. Furtuna s-a potolit. Norii cenuşii ai groazei, care s-au adunat şi au produs trăsnetul salvator, în sfârşit s-au dispersat. Buffalo Bill este mort ! Abia acum ea are revelaţia unei realităţi ireversibile: "Odată ce te-ai angajat într-o acţiune, trebuie să te asiguri că ai dus treaba până la capăt".

Leadership: Constrângerea de a te supune unei realităţi aparte poate să armonizeze toate faţetele personalităţii tale şi astfel să devii mai tolerant faţă de convingerile care provoacă rezultate nedorite?

Dificultăţile de adaptare la noi contexte şi situaţii pot oferi spectacolul inedit al unei expresii dramatice de profundă nelinişte sufletească. Aceste dificultăţi, care îl determină pe individul supus unei dedublări periculoase să abordeze mai greu procesele de „ stimul-reacţie" , pot să apară din erori de autoevaluare. Care, la rândul lor, produc o anumită dezorientare şi o canalizare ineficientă a energiei într-o singură direcţie, descurajantă. A totalei autodistrugeri. Generând acele dificultăţi de înţelegere a propriilor capacităţi şi limite.

Aceste dificultăţi pot să apară şi în demersul investigativ de evaluare a situaţiei în care se regăseşte individul, în special atunci când are loc o creştere a "costurilor" induse de noile probabilităţi, calculate prin condiţionările externe ce pun în evidenţă acele contraste pronunţate dintre emoţiile care pun stăpânire asupra minţii sale. Iar adaosurile continue de stimuli negativi care acţionează asupra subconştientului, ameninţând integritatea personalităţii sale, conduc uneori la şocul emoţional.

Cum te evaluezi într-o situaţie fără ieşire: drept un cost relativ al erorii de predicție sau drept un element pozitiv care atestă importanţa anumitor alegeri?

În raport cu obligaţiile impuse de leadership, ce nu pot fi practic ignorate în procesul de percepţie a realităţii şi de dezvoltare pe plan psihic şi emoţional, în pofida influenţelor de natură perturbătoare, individul trebuie să fie categoric în avantaj. Să nu recurgă la cea mai puţin constrângătoare alegere. Iar inconvenienţele cauzate de o gestionare greşită a emoţiilor nu trebuie să fie disproporţionate în raport cu scopurile vizate. Mai simplu spus, echilibrul individului nu trebuie să fie afectat de reacţiile nepotolite de panică, înlănţuite într-un ritm tulburător în situaţii de criză.

Poţi să dai leadershipului tău o medalie pentru câştigarea războiului psihologic la care te supun gândurile, fără să măsori adevărată valoare a ceea ce reprezintă esenţa fenomenului uman?

Fiecare individ dovedeşte o anumită slăbiciune la un moment dat, un mod prea puţin sofisticat de a se lupta cu el însuşi, cu emoţiile şi sentimentele cele mai puternice, încât nu mai este în stare să stabilească un contact mai amănunţit cu punctele sale forţe şi motivaţii. Are loc o condiţionare majoră între suferinţă şi evoluţie, care împiedică activarea câmpului de forţe motivaţionale necesare influenţării procesul de schimbare.

Şi astfel este neglijat leadershipul care, raportat la gândirea şi simţirile omului, nu mai serveşte la nimic. Nu mai poate înlesni acea aventură a cunoaşterii, nu mai poate permite pătrunderea în acel univers al "dinăuntrului", plăsmuit dintr-un aluat mai dur şi mai curajos.

Tocmai din acest motiv liderii sunt animaţi tot mai des de pasiunea de a recurge la evaluarea dimensiunii interne a leadershipului. Iar după părerea expertei Anne Deering, autoarea cărţii "Alpha Leadership", această dimensiune se referă la modul în care te organizezi din punct de vedere psihologic pentru a reacţiona rapid faţă de mediu, pentru a avea abilităţile de gândire necesare ca să-ţi dai seama ce este important de evaluat la tine însuţi, încât capacităţile tale să nu se atrofieze.

Eşti capabil să joci o partidă tare de şah cu tine însuţi? Cum te organizezi din punct de vedere psihologic pentru a reacţiona faţă de mediu? Dai leadershipului tău o medalie pentru câştigarea războiului psihologic la care te supun gândurile? Testează-ţi capacităţile de a face faţă jocului nemilos al "supravieţuirii" în condiţiile unui mediu uneori ostil în care transformarea ta este mai dificil de realizat.

Un lider ar trebui să înveţe, în primul rând, să-şi retuşeze gândirea şi să redea strălucirea lăuntrică a fiinţei sale. Pentru aceasta el trebuie să facă distincţia dintre aceste două tipuri de reprezentare a personalităţii sale. Prima, din punctul de vedere al prudenţei, al posibilităţii de a utiliza capacităţile de distanţare faţă de orice control de natură externă. A doua, din punct de vedere al instabilităţii şi vulnerabilităţii psihice, care duce la gânduri extreme în situaţiile limită, transformându-l, supus luptelor interioare, într-o ţintă sigură pentru eşec.

Esenţa fenomenului uman este de a înțelege rostul lui în societate și de a contribui masiv la punerea în valoare a experienţelor care îi definesc caracterul. Aceste două considerente pot fi justificate prin următoarea concluzie imperativă:

"Dinainte de a începe ceva, trebuie să ştii dacă poţi duce până la capăt acţiunea".

Zbuciumata călătorie spre iad a fiinţei simţitoare aduce în prim plan necesitatea liderului de a-şi dezvolta o gândire imparţială cu un "status" stabil şi neinfluenţabil în condiţiile ostile de intervenţie a unor forţe externe, destabilizatoare. Care pot declanşa frica de acţiune, anxietatea, instabilitatea şi inerţia.

Crearea unui blindaj de protecţie impenetrabil care să ne ferească de intervenţii externe perturbatoare şi destabilizante, dar uneori şi de forţele interne ce pot apărea din instinctul nostru de apărare, este utilă pentru noi toţi. Dar absolut necesară pentru un lider.

Zbuciumul sufletelor tenace (II)

Dezleagă adevăratul înţeles din spatele acelor vagi derute care îi despart pe oameni de cele două constante: "a fi" şi "a nu fi", fără să te pierzi tu însuţi într-o mare de îndoială.

Cantitatea de energie negativă radiată de inspectorul Finch dă naştere unei reacţii chimice adverse. Starea de surescitare a suspectului principal, Laura Quinn, fierbe la maximum, ea are nevoie de un inhibitor care să stopeze reacţia. Tăria ei de caracter se descompune în elemente inofensive, toate celelalte însuşiri implicate în procesul de restructurare se separă brusc în unităţi de sine stătătoare, cu funcţionare independentă, lentă şi nesigură. Numai ea ştie ce se petrece în adâncul ei.

La formarea covalenţelor este posibil ca perechea de electroni participanţi să provină de la un singur atom. Un zbucium straniu îl încearcă chiar şi pe cel mai de temut vânător. Finch nu se mulţumeşte când Laura îi răspunde cu nonşalanţă, cu aceeaşi monedă, dar mult mai derutant. Căci el, omul plămădit din fildeş, dispreţuieşte această dulce şi blândă ecuaţie, cuprinsă între calm, inteligenţă şi subtilitate. Extazul succesului nu mai vibrează într-însul. Nu-şi mai poate monitoriza pulsul. Nervii se nelinişteşc. Creşte concentraţia de oxigen din sânge, totul în el se înfierbântă.

Zbuciumul condiţionat de bilanţul evenimentelor, meteoritul acesta ce trece peste Terra incognita a simţurilor lui Finch, se intensifică numai în momentele biciuitoare trăite de Laura Quinn - tot mai electrizată, tot mai limitată, lipsită spontan de forţă vitală atunci când câmpul lui de energie negativă îi invadează fiinţa, devenind atotstăpânitor.

Abia în acest moment de înaltă încărcătură, energie şi vibraţie, densitatea propriului său orgoliu îi maximizează plusurile. Toată concentraţia de substanţe reactante se agită, apoi se dublează. Totul în el capătă amploare, ca şi cum ar fi străbătut de un curent electric de mare intensitate.

Leadership: Eşti capabil să-ţi construieşti o stăpânire de sine mai puternică în avalul lanţului de evenimente care îţi marchează existenţa, într-un context de tipul: "Nu fi prea blând cu ceea ce ţi se întâmplă"?

Urmează un nou atac. Lansând un adevărat vârtej de curenţi cu voltaj crescut asupra Laurei, el încearcă să înlăture instantaneu toate particulele însufleţitoare din sistemul imunitar al fiinţei ei. Dar ea scapă de şocurile de curent la care este supusă, cu un singur preţ: dilema morală. Bine spunea Aldous Huxley: "Ceea ce trăieşti nu este ceea ce ţi se întâmplă, este ceea ce faci cu ceea ce ţi se întâmplă."

Fundamentul Laurei este imprecis. A cerceta substraturile fiinţei ei este aproape imposibil. Pentru că peste impulsurile şi gesturile ei iniţiale se suprapune voinţa electrizantă a lui Finch care-i scurtcircuitează aproape toţi stimulii, toţi parametrii de funcţionare. Îi modifică tiparul de gândire, inhibă activitatea conexiunilor existente în spaţiul ei de manifestare, până ce o aduce la pragul apropierii de adevăr.

O adevărată revoltă se stârneşte în Laura, în timp ce la polul opus, în Finch, un zbucium sinistru se zbate între îndoială şi asumare. Două suflete zbuciumate se află faţă în faţă ca doi spadasini întărâtaţi. Dintre care unul atacă, celălalt se apără. Care va mânui mai bine sabia voinţei? Care stăpânire de sine va fi mai puternică?

Până la urmă, vinovăţia este un caz de stimă de sine scăzută, o creştere a vulnerabilităţii de natură emoţională şi psihică. Laura nu trebuie să fie blândă cu ceea ce i se întâmplă, ci să înfrunte cu multă încredere şi iscusinţă o situaţie greu de suportat. Trebuie să găsească o modalitate de a se echilibra energetic, de a-şi curăţa conştiinţa de păcatele săvârşite cu voie, fără voie, deci să facă faţă provocării: "Nu o să prezint niciodată constatări şi dovezi amiabile, chiar dacă sunt vinovată."

Evoluţia leadershipului tău poate fi redusă la o alternanţă cumulativă de cauze şi efecte referitoare la diferenţele dintre "acceptarea de sine" şi "cerinţele impuse de natura evenimentelor", încât să-ţi pui în valoare schimbarea caracterului?

Îndrepţi totul către un fundal întunecat? Firea ta suscită numeroase îndoieli, trezeşte nelinişti, reacţii de îngrijorare? Dispreţuieşti acea dulce şi blândă ecuaţie, cuprinsă între calm, inteligenţă şi subtilitate? Încerci să înlături toate particulele însufleţitoare din sistemul imunitar al celorlalţi? Felul tău de a fi stârneşte în ceilalţi o adevărată revoltă, un zbucium sinistru?

Sistemul de funcţionare al omului este pus sub semnul întrebării atunci când el se află în faţa vicisitudinilor unei conjuncturi temporare adverse. Rezultatul interferenţei celor două unde " a fi " şi " a nu fi ", care se exclud una pe cealaltă, se potriveşte vibraţiei lui interioare. Vibraţie care, la rândul ei, acţionând cu intensitate, îi deschide mintea şi sufletul. Sau îi activează acea stare anormală de uzură psihică şi emoţională.

O bombardare constantă cu stimuli de natură să lanseze "iremediabilul", înfăşurând omul într-o spirală a incertitudinii şi instabilităţii, aruncându-l pe nişte serpentine ameţitoare, obositoare, greu de suportat, îndreptând totul din el către un fundal întunecat. Va avea ca rezultat înfrângerea rezistenţei, capitularea în faţa unui adversar mai puternic şi etalarea tuturor aspectelor personalităţii sale.

Leadership: Te dovedeşti vrednic de însemnătatea evenimentelor trăite prin recurgerea la o abordare de tip "Nu pot să mă abat de la schimbare", cu scopul de a cunoaşte adevărul asupra propriei tale naturi?

Fundamentul omului este imprecis. A cerceta substraturile sale este aproape imposibil. Pentru că întotdeauna tiparul său de gândire, care îşi creează o reflexie amplificată sub forma emoţiei, nu este predominant, nu este bătut în cuie. Fundamentul poate fi oricând reactualizat, alterat, îngustat, extins, destabilizat, poate fi oricând scurtcircuitat de o voinţă mai puternică, de o gândire mai abstractă, mai tenace.

Aflat sub imperiul unei astfel de entităţi potrivnice care te constrânge să renunţi, ai puterea să mai lupţi? Plin de îndoială, nesiguranţă, tulburat de multe rătăciri, alegi să crezi că lucrurile pot şi vor fi schimbate în bine? Caracterul tău este la fel de puternic ca al Laurei Quinn?

Te laşi electrizat de voinţa superioară a celorlalţi, sau ripostezi cu o intensitate mai mare? Care sunt cauzele şi împrejurările care pot constitui circumstanţe atenuante? Pot ele duce la insolvenţa ta morală? Dai celorlalţi motiv să recurgă la judecăţi intransigente?

Adevărata natură a omului este de a preţui ceea ce nu poate schimba la el însuşi, prin faptul că tot ceea ce îl face deosebit se rezumă la acceptare, iertare, eliberare de trecut.

Liderul-artizan produce creaţie la comandă, doar ca să se cumpere, indiferent de calităţile formei. Opera lui nu e gândită şi realizată în aşa fel încât să înfrunte criza, austeritatea, rutina, şi să dureze. El apelează, din această cauză, la unelte pentru finisări uşoare şi materiale perisabile şi uşor de prelucrat, la un curaj radical şi la un tip de persuasiune extrem de speculativ, obţinut prin modificări minore ale situaţiei, pentru a-şi satisface dependenţa de a deţine controlul. Cel puţin o perioadă.

Liderul-artist întotdeauna creează pentru a ne oferi spre contemplare forma originală a operei sale. Iar liderul-amator vrea să înveţe totul, dar este mereu lipsit de vlagă în imposibilitatea de a se ridica deasupra lui însuşi.

Numai liderul-veritabil participă activ la competiţia cu sine însuşi. El explorează zonele cele mai sensibile ale existenţei sale, mai ales în sezoanele secetoase - singura cale de a înlesni o legătură puternică cu sinele.

Leadershipul se află în dezechilibru atunci când esenţa împlinită a omului este supusă unei mari încercări: rătăcirea. Atunci când constantele de frumuseţe şi bunătate morală se pierd în negura neputinţei de a schimba în bine viaţa, atunci când omul nu poate recunoaşte ferm adevărul din dualitate, se produce acea îndoială nesfârşită, acea tulburare a liniştii interioare, care îl desprinde complet de sine însuţi, de real şi de credibil.

Iar lideri veritabili sunt oameni capabili să-şi gestioneze efectele propriilor rătăciri, suportând cu stoicism efectele propriei crize structurale. Abia în momentele de înaltă încărcătură, energie şi vibraţie, îşi maximizează ei plusurile.

Învaţă să reacţionezi corect şi cu discernământ în faţa unei crize de personalitate, când ai de ales între a rămâne prizonier al evenimentelor în care eşti implicat cu sau fără voia ta, şi a descoperi în tine un alt om în mijlocul acestor evenimente. Leadershipul înseamnă să optezi pentru a doua variantă.

Zbuciumul sufletelor tenace evidenţiază tendinţa de a transforma evoluţia în involuţie, atunci când zbuciumul tău existenţial pare că începe să se înăsprească. Astfel se creează o adevărată degringoladă în careul trăirilor şi gândurilor sale, o adevărată luptă între tine şi propriul tău Ego.

Dacă vrei să ştii care este nivelul de leadership la care te afli, dacă vrei să ştii în ce categorie de lideri te încadrezi, atunci dezleagă adevăratul înţeles din spatele acelor vagi derute care îi despart pe oameni de cele două constante: " a fi " şi " a nu fi ", fără să te pierzi tu însuţi într-o mare de îndoială.

Zbuciumul sufletelor tenace (III)

Estimează-ţi riguros valoarea de ordin personal şi profesional, luând seama la înţelesul pe care îl acorzi întâlnirii cu tine însuţi.

Îndreptând totul către un fundal întunecat, prin inducerea unui flux de o anumită frecvenţă, Gavin Finch răzbate dincolo de simplitatea concluziei. Dincolo de aparenţe, dincolo de stratul impenetrabil al imensului zgârie-nori unde suspecţii săi îşi ţin la adăpost gândurile şi simţirile. Apoi el clasează aceste pulsiuni într-un top al celor mai terifiante temeri, împingându-şi suspecţii în zona în care rezistenţa lor este înfrântă. Cufundaţi parcă într-o transă profundă aceştia sunt nevoiţi să scoată la iveală tot adevărul.

Laura Quinn este suspectul principal în cazul furtului de diamante. Încăpăţânat, urmând chemarea voinţei sale spintecătoare, Finch face legătura între Laura şi elementul invizibil. Identifică lucrul desprins din ansamblu prin nesfârşite variaţii întortocheate şi complicate, pe care singur le construieşte cu dibăcia unui pescar care încearcă să descopere noi modalităţi de a prinde rechini. Şi chiar atunci când fenomenul izolat răzbate din întuneric, imediat când simte o dedublare a personalităţii celui interogat, îl învăluie pe acesta cu un fior de gheaţă, de umilă resemnare.

Expert în materie de condiţionare la nivele profunde, Finch cercetează zidul dintre necunoscut şi existent, zidul despărţitor de orice fel de teritoriu. În el totul anunţă Renaşterea, în timp ce toţi suspecţii săi resimt Sfârşitul. Aşa cum alchimiştii recurg la un limbaj codat şi cifrat, la imagini misterioase şi hieroglifice, firea enigmatică a lui Finch suscită numeroase îndoieli, trezeşte nelinişti, reacţii de îngrijorare în rândul celor supuşi nemilosului interogatoriu.

Siguranţa lui Finch se află tocmai acolo, în momentele tulburi, de suspans, la care îşi supune în mod lucid suspecţii. Extazul prin care trece în toată această misiune tensionantă, guvernat de nişte „legi" care par să protesteze, îl împinge spre zona medie a anchetei. Ordonă atacul, cu artileria grea, obuze şi grenade, combinate subtil, până îşi oboseşte ţinta, până o lasă fără vlagă. Laura cedează presiunii la care o supune Finch şi, încet, încet, îşi dezvăluie caracterul uman slab.

Leadership: Limitele pe care le experimentezi prin căutarea unei relaţii între natura influenţei tale şi asumarea constrângerilor pe care ceilalţi trebuie să le accepte, provoacă în tine spărtura care înlesneşte plonjarea ta în sfera unei conştiinţe aşezată deasupra realităţii?

Modelul de ofensivă adoptat în scopul îmbunătăţirii accesului la o zonă nouă de influenţă, prin cablul invizibil al controlului de sensibilitate, prin reglajul presiunii care operează cu precădere la nivel moral şi emoţional, producând o adevărată transformare la nivel funcţional, are acea însemnătate a unei resituări a întregii tale persoane în deschiderea către suferinţa altuia.

Această rară fineţe psihologică dezvoltată în scopul revelării unei imense realităţi, în expunerea sistematică a unor adevăruri vitale, însuşite abuziv în propriul folos, se poate transforma într-o compromitere a echilibrului puterii de care trebuie să dai dovadă. Cu alte cuvinte, influenţa pe care o produci la nivel de conştiinţă în raport cu oamenii din jur, trebuie acceptată ca o asumare a constrângerii de a fi etichetat drept "Ridicol" sau "Valabil".

Valoarea ta de "atac" la adresa unei conştiinţe vinovate de modificări ale adevărului, acţionată prin intermediul voinţei de a-ţi împlini datoria până la capăt, îşi exercită întreaga responsabilitate până la ultima fază de implementare a constrângerilor care îţi permit să decizi tu singur asupra cursului vieţii individului. Dacă te aşezi deasupra celorlalţi prin însăşi modalitatea ta de a deveni o persoană care transmite agresivitate, chiar dacă nu în mod direct, ci la nivel de raţiune, înseamnă să-ţi testezi limitele de a te auto-valida drept un individ care nu capitulează de la reguli închistate şi nevolnice, dar nici nu demonstrează vreo virtute în "moderaţie".

Ar fi bine să te gândeşti dacă nu cumva, lăsându-te purtat de valul puterniciei, leadershipul tău nu alunecă în panta involuţiei, sau chiar mai rău, spre un blocaj total - acela al incapacităţii de a te distanţa de ceea ce nu poţi ierta. Însuşirea de a ierta este o caracteristică umană la mare preț în toate, dar nu şi atunci când te împiedică în atingerea scopurilor tale.

Nu uita că realitatea este bariera pe care trebuie s-o treci în cazul în care conştiinţa îţi cere să fii de partea adevărului, dar în acelaşi timp este un spin plin de venin dacă încalci dreptul celorlalţi de a-şi susţine nevinovăţia.

Leadership: Îţi măsori eficienţa influenţei tale din perspectiva unei conştiinţe care se vede pe sine ca „aparţinătoare" unei categorii de persoane invulnerabile în faţa greşelilor, contribuind la înţelegerea virtuţii de a-ţi realiza cu măiestrie o nouă perspectivă asupra puterii adevărului?

Încearcă să ieşi din realitate, fără să te rupi de tot de ea. Dacă alegi iertarea, înseamnă că preferi să fugi de acea formă a experienţei de a judeca totul la rece şi de a pune degetul pe rană - aceasta este realitatea pe care o confirmă toţi liderii care pun accentul pe asumarea responsabilităţii, asigurând balansul necesar, normal între drepturi şi obligaţii.

Iar dacă alegi ignoranţa sau uitarea, puse pe seama fragilităţii emoţiilor de tip "apropiere-deschidere", acţionând mai mult ca facilitator al unei relaţii profesionale transparente, făcând abstracţie de obiectivitatea a ceea ce este în esenţă o judecată nepărtinitoare, atunci tendinţa ta va fi cu atât mai mult să crezi că te poţi transforma într-un om bun, aşa cum se aruncă înainte orbul care vrea să salveze planeta.

Asta ar înseamnă să fugi din realitatea cea mai dură şi să te pierzi într-o lume a idealităţii şi moralităţii pe care ţi-a făurit-o din prea multă bunăvoinţă.

Ca lider ar de ales între două opţiuni tangibile, cărora le poţi estima suficient de riguros valoarea în momentul în care îţi evidenţiezi calităţile: o luptă de răsturnare a dezordinii pentru a se reveni la ordine, sau o prelungire a trăirii spre un deznodământ departe de regrete, dar compromiţător. Ia seama la înţelesul pe care îl acorzi întâlnirii cu tine însuţi !

Când experimentezi limitele tale extreme, fizice şi psihice, poţi răspunde cu o atitudine de tip laissez-faire, adică să te implici formal în cursul evenimentelor. Sau cu o atitudine de tip sacrificial, astfel nu vei mai fi un om de temut, ci unul amiabil, dar cu riscul de a fi perceput drept slab. Sau poţi să răspunzi cu o atitudine de tip pragmatic-agresiv, ceea ce face din tine o persoană pretenţioasă şi intransigentă.

Puterea adevărului are ca fundament principal întâlnirea cu tine însuţi atunci când eşti dispus să-ţi regăseşti conştiinţa de sine în coordonatele unui fapt obiectiv care îţi sporeşte virtutea de a trăi în lumea interioară a celorlalţi oameni, fără să te simţi superior lor.

Zbuciumul sufletelor tenace poate fi înţeles ca o greutate ce atârnă de gâtul suferinţei pentru a o scufunda şi mai tare, datorându-se atitudinii ferme a liderului care încearcă să ia partea adevărului, şi, prin aceasta, fapt ce ajută la redimensionarea optimă a valorii sale. Este de fapt trecerea unui amestec de însuşiri prin pânza experienţelor care dau consistenţă înţelesurilor de "constrângere", „intimidare" şi „inhibiţie", care numai prin oxidarea cantităţii lor devin benefice pentru definirea potenţialului personal.

Zbuciumul sufletelor tenace (I)

Urmăreşte raportul dintre oameni şi încearcă să descoperi elementul primordial care-i orientează în sens negativ, pentru ca leadershipul tău să facă faţă unor experienţe nedorite.

Într-un colţ întunecos al barului se desluşesc două siluete, asemănătoare prin experienţa dobândită în timp şi prin însăşi natura lor pretenţioasă de a fi. Gavin Finch şi Laura Quinn. Gavin intuieşte că Laura este omul din spatele jafului, în timp ce Laura este convinsă că Finch nu are nicio probă clară împotriva ei.

Dacă urmărim firul conversaţiei şi încercăm să scoatem la iveală elementul primordial care-i domină pe cei doi, ademeniţi de tentaţia de a experimenta o nouă dimensiune umană, simţim acel fior care parcă strigă din fiecare celulă a lor, emiţând un anumit tip de unde cu intensităţi şi vibraţii înalte, în funcţie de specificul personalităţii fiecăruia.

Imprevizibil, Finch trăieşte parcă numai pentru ceea ce este nelimitat, dincolo de măsura interioară a sentimentelor. Numai prin efectuarea unei investigaţii exhaustive, pe alocuri dusă până la absurd, îşi înnobilează profesionalismul, numai astfel garanţia singulară a evoluţiei sale spre excelenţă îşi poate menţine valabilitatea. Aceasta este suprema lui fericire, de a-şi satisface pe de-a-ntregul armonia lăuntrică, pansându-şi rana veşnic deschisă a vanităţii, resimţită numai în momentele de slăbiciune a suspecţilor, cu pansamentul mistificării şi inducerii în eroare.

Stând faţă în faţă cu suspectul, singuri, fără martori sau ascultători, Finch îşi ascute mai tare mecanismele de control, îşi împinge mai departe forţele poliţieneşti, dominând prin suspans şi tensiune, prin inducerea voluntară a spaimei, prin sondări ale trecutului în cele mai teribile şi apăsătoare moduri posibile. Nu se lasă până ce suspectul nu ridică steagul alb al capitulării, nu-şi găseşte liniştea decât atunci când biletul acestuia spre libertate îşi pierde valabilitatea.

Leadership: Poţi să pui într-o lumină favorabilă ceea ce resimţi la nivel de conştiinţă de sine, din perspectiva libertății de a-ţi etala superioritatea prin prezenţa privilegiilor şi exagerărilor de tipul "experienţa de posesiune a unei doze de tensiune este totul" ?

Să-şi vadă suspecţii plini de fiori, cum se chinuiesc în remuşcări să iasă la liman, cum caută răspunsuri, cum încearcă să se eschiveze minţind, cum îşi tulbură liniştea sufletească, cum se sustrag de la răspunderea penală, asta şi doar asta îi accentuează lui Finch senzaţia de siguranţă, asigurându-i reuşita deplină.

Această stare de mulţumire lăuntrică, aproape diabolică, ajunsă până la paroxism, este ca o sală de consiliu unde consfătuirile, ţinute alternativ, se focalizează asupra necesităţii de a lupta pentru excluderea socială. Un fel de bătălie pentru cucerirea fără precedent a supremaţiei pe scena umanului. Se ţes intrigi, se fabrică dovezi, se modifică întreaga structură funcţională a omului, se caută informaţii ce pot conduce la extenuarea şi demascarea lui, transformând totul într-o dramă neobişnuită.

După cum bătrânul Peyrade din opera lui Balzac astupă hornul camerei şi se slujeşte de o sobă al cărei burlan iese prin zidul din afară deasupra străzii, domnul Finch astupă orice gol din inima suspectului slujindu-se ici şi colo de toate mijloacele de persuasiune posibile, care ies împovărător din tiparul normalului. Practic îi suplimentează omului bagajul sufletesc cu o încărcătură negativă consistentă, alterându-i întreaga structură de control.

Leadership: Conștientizezi cum rezistența ta poate reprezenta o exaltare a unei lupte continue, făcând din fiecare moment al vieții tale o oportunitate de a-ți demonstra tăria de caracter?

Dar suspectul acesta bine închegat, Laura Quinn, calculatorul acesta rezistent la suprasolicitare, dotat cu protecţie adiţională la tensiuni prea mari, nu se lasă cu una cu două. Şireată ca o vulpe, ea ripostează fără menajamente. Dar cu tact, cu inteligenţă şi delicateţe. Sub mantia de nevinovăţie ascunzându-şi toate sentimentele, fricile, ura.

În timpul interogatoriului tensiunea alternativă, care trece atât prin valori pozitive cât şi prin valori negative, este convertită într-una care are valori de o singură polaritate. Laura nu trebuie să ajungă până acolo încât să cerşească de la Finch iertarea, să implore mila, ci să-l determine chiar pe el însuşi să cadă cu mâinile întinse la picioarele ei.

Chiar şi sub imensul focar al neliniştii, sub acea îndârjire a pumnilor încleştaţi, când toate necunoscutele din ea ard şi se înlănţuie ca nişte nebuloase, Laura îşi păstrează cu străşnicie nervii calmi.

Leadership: Trăieşti numai pentru ceea ce este nelimitat, dincolo de măsura interioară a sentimentelor, în termeni de "cauza care îţi asigură evoluţia profesională corespunde unei staţionări într-o poziţie autoritară" ?

Ce anume îţi satisface pe de-a-ntregul armonia lăuntrică? Care este factorul care îţi accentuează senzaţia de siguranţă, asigurându-ţi reuşita deplină în leadership? Domini oamenii doar prin suspans şi tensiune? Astupi orice gol din inima celorlalţi slujindu-te ici şi colo de toate mijloacele de persuasiune posibile?

În ansamblul reprezentării sale, omul cu trăsăturile şi manifestările sale întrunite pe fondul unei cauze care îi solicită intens psihicul şi emoţionalul, sau pe fondul unei solicitări excesive a asumării de responsabilităţi certe, el exploatează unele efecte de profunzime specifice leadershipului, care însă împiedică atingerea nivelului de performanţă dorit. Efectele în cascadă, directe, indirecte şi cumulative se transmit progresiv asupra propriei sale existenţe.

În asemenea cazuri, deloc excepţionale, chiar destul de frecvente, omul se simte depăşit de responsabilităţile greu de gestionat. Retrăgându-se într-o lume a lui, ambiguă şi incompletă, leadershipul său scade în zona în care trebuie să-şi amplaseze scutul de apărare ce-i poate garanta eficienţa. Efectul fiind vizibil cu precădere atunci când se află în imposibilitatea analizării sale pe fondul pretenţiilor îndreptăţite pe care le are de la el însuşi. El ajunge să-şi suplimenteze bagajul sufletesc cu o încărcătură negativă consistentă care îi alterează întreaga structură de control.

Leadership: Calcularea scenariilor negative pot împiedica percepția pozitivă a viitorului, limitând dezvoltarea ta personală?

Trăsăturile pozitive ale omului înfloresc mai cu seamă în jurul ecuaţiei funcţionale elementare, de forma: stimuli + valori + plasarea conştientă într-un mediu de corectitudine , decât în vecinătatea unui leadership scormonitor, care îşi propune demonstrarea cauzelor care îi înfrânează dezvoltarea sau îi scade nivelul de eficienţă. În acest sens este valabil ceea ce spunea expertul în programe de instruire John Euhrman, că unii oameni oscilează şi se zbat între diverse variabile, torturându-se cu întrebări de genul " Şi dacă? "

Dacă ajungi în acest punct primejdios, în care îţi pui tot felul de întrebări, calculezi tot felul de scenarii, pui răul în faţă, scăzându-ţi şansele de a vedea viitorul în roz, înseamnă că deja te afli la "bariera în care aştepţi să treacă trenul".

Armonia dintre mental și emoțional, cât și la nivel exterior - armonia în relațiile de viață, începe să "staţioneze", nu mai poate parcurge traseul uzual al tranziției spre deplinătate. Aceasta este starea pe care o resimţi în momentele de tensiune, când eşti constrâns să ridici steagul alb al renunţării.

Liderii cei mai buni îşi descoperă adevăratul Eu abia în momentele tensionate ale evenimentelor de mare impact, dincolo de limitele impuse de însăşi natura situaţiilor pe care le generează prezenţa lor într-un altfel de curs al vieţii.

Ca şi Laura Quinn, orice lider trece pe parcursul vieţii prin asemenea momente extrem de tensionate, copleşitoare, neaşteptat de profunde, chiar umilitoare, când se modifică întreaga lui structură funcţională, transformându-l într-un inculpat care la fel ca orice infractor înainte de finalizarea unui proces trebuie mai întâi să-şi verifice conştiinţa şi să fie atent să nu aibă vreo pată neagră pe ea.

Numai un astfel de moment cheie poate să scoată la iveală negativul, viciul din om. Un prag de semnificaţie ordonator, care face ca materialul din care e constituit omul să fie parcurs şi corectat, supus unei operaţii de prelucrare prin formare, la o anumită presiune, apoi testarea lui indiferent de corecturile anterioare, până ce sunt neutralizate toate aspectele negative.

Expertul în materie de leadership, John Maxwell, spunea la un moment dat: " Unul din cele mai valoroase lucruri pe care le-am făcut în viaţa mea a fost să iau hotărârile importante înaintea momentelor de criză. Acest lucru mi-a permis să gestionez aceste decizii în momentele critice ale vieţii mele. "

Totuşi eu sunt de părere că cei mai buni lideri abia în momentele tensionate ale vieţii îşi descoperă adevăratul Eu, dincolo de limitele impuse de însăşi natura lor, de reacţiile lăuntrice care le înmoaie starea de spirit, dar le limpezeşte gândurile şi le testează conştiinţa.

Sub imensul focar al neliniştii, sub acea îndârjire a pumnilor încleştaţi, când toate necunoscutele din tine ard şi se înlănţuie ca nişte nebuloase, poţi să-ţi păstrezi cu străşnicie nervii calmi? Ce-ţi strigă vocea conştiinţei? Îţi trimite un mesaj pentru a te avertiza în privinţa sentimentul tău de vinovăţie? Cât este de grav acest sentiment? Îţi provoacă o teamă atât de puternică, încât să fii tentat să cedezi cu uşurinţă?

Cursul vieţii unui lider este dat de facultatea sa de a discerne, de a distinge lucrurile unele de altele, de a judeca limpede, cu pătrundere, lăsându-se în voia unei lumi care, chiar dacă o ia razna, se cere a fi îndreptată prin apelul la emoţiile care îi determină acţiunile.

Zbuciumul sufletelor tenace evidenţiază raportul care se stabileşte între oameni şi momentele tensionate prin care trec, şi felul în care ei reacţionează la diverşi factori interni sau externi.

Dacă vrei ca leadershipul tău să facă faţă unor experienţe nedorite, încearcă să descoperi elementul primordial care-i orientează pe oameni în sens negativ.

Vision As An Image From A Dream

On December 01, 2022

Man seen as part of Creation is a distinct Self formed by the connection established with an infinite world, based on a subjective experience.

I saw myself in a dream whose meaning I cannot understand. The images appeared diluted, diffuse, blurry, as if I had entered some kind of deep trance in which my mind was focused on a part of a refracting mirror in a 3D visual plane. This fact seemed correlated with the distance between a lens and the point where the image of an object at infinity is focused.

The dream indicates distance from realistic reflection, and I was undoubtedly inside a mirror that measured time, magnifying by distortion any reflection of reality. Inevitably positioned, as a reaction to the reaction, as in a painting in which only the color white is found, in the genre of the one made by Kazimir Malevich, my reflection insisted on revealing itself in an infinity of forms. Establishing myself in a certain form was not enough.

Suddenly, in front of me, 3 equal doors opened, parallel, but without right angles. Each of them represented another dream, another attempt to express reality disguised as an illusion strong enough to fool my image reflections. And precisely these polyvalent reflections, unreal, but unexpectedly captivating, triple the effort of subconsciously imposing my personality in the same spectrum of light that crosses a certain medium with a different refractive index.

Yes, there were 3 doors in a dream looking for the dreamer in the mirror. I didn't know which one to enter, unable to figure out how to proceed as each door led in a different direction. So I closed them all back, hoping to find another dream somewhere else, but one that could be activated by unlocking a single door.

Leadership: Does the image that illustrates your personality include the variety of points of view that give importance to the degree of exposure of your Self in a context of "incursion into a dual reality"?

The space in which I was completely enclosed, without escape, was the testimony of an existence manifested through an Infirhaevah aktha Esvaistyhan, meaning "try to see without believing". And this space had the profile of a Coleridge fantasy. A man dreams that he is crossing paradise and as proof he is given a flower. When he wakes up, the flower is next to him. It is evident that Coleridge's desire was to trace the vague, invisible and relatively infinite soul of the artist into concrete, limited, visible works of art, in the fabulous attempt to penetrate the "veiled" phenomena.

Not long after, I came across another mirror, which, like the previous one, opened 3 other doors, opening 3 other perspectives. I didn't know which one was the right one, my eyes weren't sure of their vision, they couldn't distance themselves from the phantasm of an existence that brings out that illusion of admiring the heavens with their glittering constellations. And the vision did not indicate to me any opportunity to realize any of my wishes. One would say that there is a correlation with a deep doubt. It just seemed like an abundance of forays into my past, or unexpected future. Maybe the mirror itself was just a distance from the realistic reflection, and the 3 doors illustrated – each of them – a journey to another space of my life from another dimension?

Out of instinct, I chose the door in the middle, but with the approval of the mind that launched the idea of "autonomy of the poetic image quasi-independent of the creator", by referring to the intersubjective space that soulfully unifies the emotion with the image. And so I entered through the middle door, into a mirror that controls dreams, directs them, forces them to multiply, regulates the incoming ones, thus ensuring the reverse connection with an unlimited world. And I became part of it, part of a dream that can only be recognized in a mirror.

Leadership: Can the perception you have of yourself and all that represents you include the uniqueness of a subjective experience formed at a distant moment in time, but remembered through superimposed images?

Then I woke up from the dream. The mirror in my room was still there. And when I looked into it carefully, with infinite curiosity, with the reflection of the universe in my eyes, I remembered that I had entered through it and entered a dream whose meaning I understood, only now, simultaneously in real terms. I will never be able to separate what I saw from what will remain a memory...

The rays of light propagated in a perpendicular plane, in an imaginary realm, as in an optical illusion that baffles and tricks the brain. I don't quite understand if what I saw, in a dream that harbors other dreams, was part of an avant-garde painting reflected in the form of a subjective experience, or if this hypnotic vision, assembling a whole narrative, was just a collection of images superimposed in a real that emanates the revelation of some purpose.

But, by extrapolation, each novelty can lead to the creation of a small universe between Ego and Alter Ego, a metaphysical dualism whose division into equal parts is done uninterruptedly until the return of the basic personality. And, I must say it bluntly: indeed, I was living simultaneously in two universes: reality and dream.

Leadership: Can you represent yourself in a process of receiving an image that transcends time and space, as in a continuous present that mysteriously involves you in a virtual dialogue with yourself?

The mirrors also multiplied, the doors were countless, white prevailed everywhere. On the one hand, there was the risk and psychic automatism, on the other hand, the harmonies of a light intensified in a latent metaphysics, capable of sublimated interpretation of mental states, made their way. All referred to Brion Marcel's point of view:

"The mission of art remains the same: to communicate the invisible through representations accessible to the senses and the mind, giving us the certainty that this representation is completely similar to what was depicted, having the same qualities and the same merits as the original image, as well as the successor seals to the seal itself, as the shadow to the body".

A voice from off, latent, impossible to define, commanded me in a low voice: "Don't mention any of this out loud, and come back at another time". I don't know how it's done, but this unknown, deep, resounding voice, expressed through a paradoxical "dialogued dictation", had a considerable effect on me. As if something or someone wanted to secretly show me a bright panorama of my future, without compromising the image with which I share the built space of my dream, of sleep.

I was left with only one thought: what I was interested in seeing in myself, in the dream, is a reaction to the reality that only the artist's eye depicts.

Leadership must be resumed in the case of the manifestation of the act of creation, through an infiltration of dream constructions into dualistic thinking, from which another image of the self results: "what you really believe about yourself is not always reality itself, but only a memory of what has not yet manifested".

Vision As An Image From A Dream is manifested in the case of creators who amplify their visionary experience with new forays into an imaginary that they assume, experiencing it completely with their soul and mind.

Everything I thought about the act of creation is inversely proportional to the dreamlike vision that the universe planted in my brain. My self, formed in the sphere of the mystical, of the divine, of intuitive knowledge, revealed to me another side of creation, the opposite of what I initially thought. Thus, I can be blamed, like the post-impressionist painters, for launching the idea that – in fact – creation represents the connection we have established with an infinite world, based on a subjective experience.

Vision Remains Clear In The Darkness That Blinds The Eyes

On April 16, 2023

Only by recognizing the existence of the miraculous and the sacred can people overcome the meaninglessness of everyday life and understand the true meaning of their existence.

I look up at the warm spring night sky. The darkness gathers its silences in a bundle of stars that seems to project on my whole being the aura of something that can be called destiny, beyond that moment, strikingly realistic, resting on the space of a potential meeting between heaven and earth.

I would like to fall asleep looking at the stars gratefully, with sincere admiration for the infinite, looking at them in a very special way, with a magical eye of an artist who sees eternity in a dream picture whose harmony of colors serve a visionary and generous soul. And in the dream, absolutely sensational, to feel that I am a bright star shining in the colors of a spring landscape.

At the same time, I hold in my right hand a book whose character extracted from "One Thousand and One Nights", dresses my silent dream in a plane of reverie, filling the void in half of a life that does not belong to me, but recognizes my reality.

Said of Bassora, a handsome young man, with a lofty and heavy look, was convinced that he had been protected by a lucky star since birth, and as proof, he felt that something mysterious was following him everywhere. He had received a whistle from his father as a gift, to call the protective fairy when needed, and thus escaped all dangers, later becoming the Ruler of Baghdad.

Leadership: Can you express your vision as visibly as possible in a frame of mind that stimulates anticipation of events by sharing a story that has already happened?

And in this darkness of perfect silence, you can only rely on your keen hearing, but especially on the science of omens, as knowledge of the future. Normally, this knowledge is a rejected pole of idealizing reverie, depending on the whims of a random variable: the power to cross the expanse of a desert that dominates the earth and where the forces of evil under the command of Mephisto contend for supremacy.

And for the Sirius star to protect you, you have to pass (from birth) the test of crossing unscathed a darkness that steals your soul when you're not paying attention.

So there is a supposed inevitability about the darkness that falls upon those born under a lucky star, a darkness that engulfs them by all possible means. Because of this, the eyes that know how to look at the light in the darkness, the eyes that act like stars that illuminate the whole world, can give very different meanings to the word Egohewenahis, which usually expresses "the entrustment of the hoped for". Consequently, the properties of the eye are not those of a simple sensory organ, but of a more subtle "coding".

Leadership: Can your vision complement the retelling of suggestive content you rely on to increase the likelihood of a meaningful event?

As you can see, natural and celestial bodies are part of my field of vision. A star in the sky and a book in hand, luck and knowledge, two directions full of spiritual meaning. One side purifies and intensifies the other. Both seem to reflect their light in a completely different way than I expected.

I must also note that the system made up of two such symmetrical entities, positively defined, passed through an almost alchemical mixture of real and unreal, is deterministic by launching futuristic scenarios. Therefore, the eyes that look at me from the sky behave only with certain probabilities of bright manifestation.

From this I conclude that the more distant an object is, the more the vision loses intensity (just like with colors), while the insignificant shades of gradients fade in turn, or appear in a really light color. And because all chiaroscuro is based on a visible prominence, and because completely ideal vision is constantly under the effect of light, it means that a body that becomes monochrome has been marked by a reduction in the intensity of light.

In Eliade's vision, the world has two planes: a plane of the causal, objective world, and a plane of the world of mysteries, and man lives at the intersection of the two planes, where individual energies interfere with cosmic energies. In fact, almost all of Eliade's short stories express the author's effort to know the secrets of the universe and access the sacred plane.

And precisely for this reason I try to turn my eyes to the sky, the stars being my guides in the world of books, at the change of day into night, because what I see through the filter of a glimmer that whispers my future – is exactly what I will receive.

Leadership: Do you evaluate the probability of the manifestation of inner feelings, guided by the coordinates of a Self-Universe?

My eye looks into this distance guided by the coordinates of a Self-Universe: "I exist in one state in the World of Infinity, but it is hidden from the view of the world".

It is clear that in the absoluteness of the artist's eye there is no specific beauty, but only a multitude of faces of the same beauty, just as there is not only one eye color that attracts the gaze. However, the illusions of magnifying reality in which the criterion of the sublime predicted by the art of mirroring in an imaginary "other" is measured, because they can express in their identity both the difference and the diversity of what can be contained in the concept of "infinite space".

And if the imaginative vision, concretized in the realization of a Self-Universe, inserts itself into a general ontology of the infinity of matter in space and time, therefore of a general ontology of human finitude, then the simple contemplation of natural things only shows me how an image is presented from a certain point of view, without worrying about how the light appears with the help of books.

The proof is the fact that the forces that illuminate the stars at night also illuminate my soul when I look beyond appearances, beyond the present, beyond the horizon. I only need to see what is written for me.

In fact, what directly highlights the impossibility of explaining the presence of the impenetrable divine, Yimetasenahi, by means of the laws of sight, laws valid only within the framework of geometric optics that study the intensity of light, is precisely the attempt of the sensitive disposition to overcome a well-determined perspective in the sphere of authentic infinity.

Seeing beyond vision is close to a model of representation of reality that encompasses all aspects of a story full of interpretations, to the extent that the story becomes a way of connecting to a larger universe.

Vision Remains Clear In Blinding Darkness when something leads you to the dimension of a reality seen through the eyes of an artist who wants to convey their image in a symbolist theme, being able to open the way to dreamlike spaces, to dreaming.

Romanian writer Matei Călinescu said it best: "Only by recognizing the existence of the miracle and the sacred, people can overcome the meaninglessness of everyday life and understand the true meaning of their existence."

Visual Expression Amplifies Inner Feelings

On August 26, 2024

Simple tools can become catalysts for profound artistic expression, transforming personal experiences into universal works of art.

In the vast workshop of my existence, where time flows like paint on an infinite canvas, the pencil becomes an instrument of divine revelation, a Xenthoria Ulmivent, a miraculous fusion between tangible reality and spiritual transcendence. With every line drawn, with every shadow outlined, the story of my life takes shape under the hand of a Renaissance painter, whose fingers are guided by pure love for the colors of the universe. Creative consciousness transforms everyday experience into complex visual narratives, especially if they consider the depth of each experience and the interconnectedness of all experiences.

My pencil seems to be just a simple tool, but in the hands of a painter in love with colors, it becomes a magical tool that writes the story of my life. Evocative, deeply poetic, every line drawn on paper acquires a subtle nuance of nostalgia, una especie de eco del pasado , and every word becomes a spot of light in this endless painting. I realize that under his touch, my story is not just black and white, but a vibrant mix of colors, where my emotions merge with an unseen brush.

The fusion of technique and emotion gives rise to unique forms of expression. Each past moment, each present moment, each becomes a distinct color, a unique mix of warm and cold tones, as if I myself were a living, ever-changing painting. It's as if every experience, every emotion lived, finds its reflection in an infinite palette of colors, my life unfolding in the form of a living landscape, where every shadow is not just a depth, but a call to self-understanding.

Leadership: Can you perceive the transformation of mundane objects into portals to timeless dimensions of creation, considering this perception to be a manifestation of your creative life force?

Chromatic vision enriches artistic expression, mainly with the aim of conveying the complexity and depth of human experience. And only the trained eye of the creator can discern subtleties imperceptible to the average viewer. In this sense, the writer Giorgio Bassani testified in the novel "Grădinile Finzi-Contini":

"In my grandfather's library, among old books and engravings, I discovered a world of colors and shapes that fascinated me. Italian Renaissance paintings, with their austere saints and idyllic landscapes, offered me an escape from the harsh reality of the times. It was as if a gateway to a timeless dimension had opened before me, causing me to contemplate eternity, to transcend the limits of ordinary perception, inherent in a deep mystical revelation.

Each page turned seemed to emanate a subtle energy, a vibration that resonated with something deep within my soul. Sometimes, in the silence of the library, I thought I heard whispers from the past, voices of artists sharing their secrets of creation. The vivid colors of the frescoes seemed to pulsate with a life of their own, as if animated by a mysterious force, an "Epedysasis Harrexhium", an eternal call of divine beauty.

In the late nights, when the moonlight filtered through the dusty windows, the images seemed to come alive. Saints turned their gazes to me, as painters turn their gazes to the mystery of creation, and idyllic landscapes turned into portals to worlds beyond reality. I began to feel that these works of art were not mere representations, but mystical codes, keys to understanding the secrets of the universe and my own existence."

Leadership: To what extent can a mundane object become a tool of revelation that shapes not only visual images but also subjective interpretations of your inner universe?

The more I delve into the contemplation of works of art or written words, the more poignant the feeling becomes that I am witnessing a mystical revelation, risking to transform seemingly mundane objects, be they old books or a simple pencil, into portals to timeless dimensions of divine creation. Thus, I risk getting lost in a maze of meanings and discovering that reality is more than what I perceive with my senses.

A simple pencil can become a magic wand that transforms a blank sheet into a world full of color and life, just as a Renaissance painting can reveal secrets about human nature and the universe. In both cases, the object becomes a portal to a timeless dimension, where time dilates and the boundaries between reality and imagination blur.

The pencil, in my hands, doesn't just draw clear outlines, it creates complex stories, like lines woven into the narrative tapestry of existence. Imagination complements concrete visual information. I often imagine that each note of graphite becomes a word of a mysterious language, a language that expresses itself through color, movement and rhythm, beyond that barrier of ordinary perception. And in the depth of every detail there is a question: can my life, in essence, be a white canvas, which the painter in me fills with emotions and feelings, or was I always destined to be an explosion of colors?

Everyday objects can take on deep meanings, can't they?

Authentic art transcends the boundaries of the physical environment, merging various forms of expression to create a complete sensory and emotional experience that reflects the complexity of life.

Visual expression amplifies inner experiences whenever the soul of the artist resonates with the deep essence of the creation. In this case, art becomes a mirror of the inner universe of the creator, reflecting the complexity and depth of human experience.

At the end, the pencil writes with the hand that lives the emotions deeply hidden in the soul. But it is not just the hand of a simple author, of an anonymous person skilled in conventional literary techniques. It is also the hand of a painter who transforms each chapter into a work of art, through a transcendent vision, so profound that reality and imagination merge into a cosmic kaleidoscope. Maybe the secret is not in the written words, but in the way the colors intertwine with my story, the way the light and shadow blend harmoniously on the same page of my life, under the magic of a hand that knows how to see beyond the contours. Color vision amplifies artistic expression.

My story is not only read, but seen, lived, felt... and painted.

Visualizing Art Is The Essence Of Vision

On February 07, 2024

To properly apply visual assessment, you must be aware of subjective interpretations of the surrounding visuals.

The gaze is the center of the universe for a painter, acting as a kind of binder between the soul and the light, or as a catalyst in the reaction of the subtle chemistry between the inner visualization of hidden experiences and imaginary worlds. And my great passion for art, the creative tension, the fervent manifestation of an intense state of mind, denotes an astonishing mental strength that allows me to remain dedicated and feel welcome in the world I create with the help of sight, an open window to the artistic universe, intended as if to absorb the colors and shapes beyond the limits of the canvas.

One can hardly assert that all that can be called beautiful in art, and having great aesthetic force, is to be found in the mechanism of sight. For in order to delight and charm a soul receptive to beauty, possibly gazing at the sea glistening in the sunlight, man needs the regular emotions behind the gaze. Especially when you are on the Greek coast, where the sea meets the hills, here art becomes a kind of infinite spectacle of the vision that has become unique, enough to carry the soul in a kind of mystical flight that starts from within.

What I feel, the emotion of peace and existential stillness, is like an uninterrupted flow of sound produced by the waves, in the beating of the sun. This to the extent that the sound of the waves represents the entire giver of emotions, subordinated to the aesthetic dimension, so without separating sight from hearing, art can be conceived in supreme simplicity. Especially when in this simplicity, Adoschoul Tkhirhas Iisras Ielaesert , the space where the divine creation is manifested, many different sounds resound at the same time, but which are so well united that you think you hear only one.

Leadership: Have you ever considered exploring multiple aspects of an artistic composition so that what you see takes on the stamp of unmistakable excellence?

The implication of the view from the seashore is evident in my art, and even holds an absolute truth: "What you see is a spectacle, only if the eyes look with the heart". Precisely for this reason, looking with a kind of deep understanding in my mind, the words full of grace from the story "The Palace of Fortune" come to me:

"I am the Fairy of Fortune, said the beautiful maiden , and the palace that can be seen at the top of the mountain is my home . If you want, you too can come to my palace today . I 'm just telling you that you don't have time to think and rest . Also know that if you enter the palace gate before the clock strikes the last stroke of midnight , I will receive you and be your friend and protector . But it may be too late if you come just a moment after midnight . "

Here, in the place where the sea meets the land, already something to hold in the field of view, it is like an invitation to a magical castle, where once entered, time loses its meaning. The clock that measures my time on the beach, the space instrument that measures distances, ticks its tick, making the association with the sun's rays crossing the clear sky. So, something in me, in a lively conversation with aesthetics, made me determine one of the criteria of seeing: "To correctly apply the visual assessment , you must be aware of the subjective interpretations of the surrounding visual elements. "

Leadership: Have you ever considered looking more closely at subjective interpretations of visual elements in a work of art so that you can develop your own vision in a new and exciting way?

An artist sees perfection where others see only imperfection. I say this because where there is sand there is also a budding creation on an easel, where there is sand, the painter can give a special charm to a painting. And where there is earth, skill in drawing straight, thin lines can flourish. It can be seen, then, that I am protected by the tempting sense of details when it comes to the representation in drawing of an atypical vision, closely correlated with geometry and visualization skills.

And the sea is still there, bright and full of mystery, even after dark. Even when I am not present at the seaside. In this sense, whatever was the thing that brought us closer or separated us, from the moment our lives were shaped by the same artistic destiny, I had that strong suspicion that my ideas and ideals were in contradiction with reality, especially when it comes to the representation of abstract concepts on the easel.

It's going to be damn hard to develop such a concept, like the balance between light and dark, because as more of the horizon is revealed to me, the more it has to envelop me in its mystery, because artists like orderly things, even in chaotic conditions. In the end, if I have to accompany the sea with my gaze, with the emotion of rediscovery after years and years, until the peak that it reaches through the symbolic representation of a vast horizon, itself coming to appear to me as a symbol of separation and rediscovery , then my soul will always sail on the canvas of the easel...

Vision involves the ability to take in a wide horizon with your gaze, so that you can feel the thrill of rediscovery years and years from now. It is like sailing the waters of the past, encountering memories and feelings that merge into a vast landscape of the soul.

Visualizing art is the essence of vision, understanding that every detail represents a window to the inner world of the artist, a fragment of the story hidden in the depths of his soul, a kind of Yllaraihah Enmimella Nyusasha , a moment of the human spirit that tends to the absolute.

Waiting For Change Can Erode The Spirit

On December 17, 2013

The battle that you carry with you every day can turn into a source of pride, being perceived as a strengthening of your character if you have the vision of a transcendent reality.

A dry life - you can't throw away like that, like an empty magazine! She's still good enough to fight her, when the time comes and when the need arises. Not for personal reasons, not even for revenge, not for selfishness, not for altruistic reasons, yet it is so much for you to turn the wheel, to push the world beyond the blood and the wreckage--for no other reason than fight, the fight continues, and wait for the opportunity to fight until the last breath. But waiting wears you down and can be hopeless, and to that is added the unspoken fear that when the time finally comes, you will be too crushed, too raw, too inert from so much waiting, too tired to walk with the others .

This is not the reason why you plunge into oblivion anything that can get on your nerves, abolishing it, definitively and unconsciously, with irony, sarcasm and even counter-sentimentality, with the escape into another human being, into a self foreigner? Until you reach this state, brutal impotence will return as you surrender to sleep and ghosts.

The round moon crept through the transom of the window. He was no longer like a crucified call, but a voyageur, fat and obscene, looking indiscreetly into the rooms and through the beds. Ravic was now fully conscious. This had been a relatively innocent dream. He had others.

Leadership: Do you believe that the value of your life, even without personal or altruistic purpose, can guide you in your continued effort to change the world according to a vision that opens beyond pain and destruction?

In a life that sometimes seems pointless, we cannot abandon it as a useless object. She still holds enough value to serve us in future battles, even without a personal or altruistic motive. The struggle continues, being a constant effort to change the world, to push it beyond pain and destruction, with no other purpose than the struggle itself and the hope of continuing this struggle until the last breath. But this waiting grinds us down, often seeming hopeless, amplifying unspeakable fears that crush us under their weight. It causes us to withdraw into ourselves, protect ourselves with irony and sarcasm, and take refuge in an alien identity to avoid the confrontation of powerlessness.

In this retreat, the specter of loneliness and isolation becomes more palpable, like the full moon streaming through an open window. This light is no longer an alarm signal, but rather an invasive and grotesque presence, spying indiscreetly on the intimate spaces of life. In these moments of sporadic lucidity, Ravic recalls his dreams, some more innocent than others, but all testaments to the internal struggle and pain that refuses to leave the shadow of his soul.

Through leadership it was believed that every attempt to push the world beyond pain and destruction is actually a visual representation of internal struggle and aspiration towards a higher ideal.

Waiting for change can erode the spirit, turning hope into an unbearable burden. Let's not forget that awareness of reality can often come at unexpected times, often following a seemingly innocent dream. And changing perspectives on life can be both a liberation and a new form of captivity, depending on the circumstances and inner state.

Wandering In Search Of Hidden Truths

On January 14, 2016

Go beyond the limit of immediate knowledge, learning to look at yourself from the perspective of things that you reject.

Reality itself complied to my suspicions directed towards the effects of a magic detached from a sort of update of the madness of merging with someone else, nourished from the knowledge of relationships, laws and causal and non-causal principles that always had charm. I tended to believe that I would never come to decipher them.

Obviously, everything could've proved to be a utopia, to the very end, if the thirst drawn from the desire of inducing myself into a state of confusion, so as to more easily forge my way through the new ways of being and appearing, was not promptly addressed. Once again, I had realized that I had to learn to see beyond appearances, in order to find more interesting things from the archives of contradictory representations of the possible and impossible, which alternate between one another.

Promoting a vision and a new understanding of reality gave me my courage to chisel those theories-images, concepts-framework not only of myself and the relevance of what separated me from what I wanted to become from the perspective of a nonlinear approach of the phenomena of correlation of knowledge. But rather about what was required to be explained in the face of the arguments of subjective reason which I made use of.

Leadership: Has the totality of your experiences of interpreting phenomena of alterity developed your ability to detect patterns, to reason deductively and think logically in terms of analogies with situations in which you find yourself as a symbol of the union of opposites?

The famous writer Umberto Eco confessed in the novel "Foucault's Pendulum": "I began to feel bound by the sense of resemblance: anything could have mysterious analogies to anything. When I returned to Europe, I transformed this metaphysics into mechanics, and so I suddenly got caught in the trap in which I find myself now. Since then I've been spinning in a twilight where differences were cancelled."

Definitely, I felt an invisible bond between me and an experience lived through the momentum of new ways of thinking, like an actor who bewitches the thousands of enthusiastic spectators with the intense experience of spiritual moods. Things rejected by me were the confirmation of a reality that I did not understand, mixtures of elements with special, concrete or abstract meanings that could be correlated or approximated on the basis of similarity or contrast, continuity or discontinuity criteria.

The alterity that emphasized my uniqueness was a combination of the ability to see beyond appearances and the power to see beyond what reason and evidence I was offering. We were the effect of the similarity between two similar characters, but different through the reaction of the elements with special meanings: one which assumes all the differences of reality and one that wants to know the truth by concealing reality.

I thought I had to turn myself into a symbol of the union of opposites in terms of analogies to the situations in which I find myself, to become the master of all positions of thought towards surrounding objects. Everything that surrounds me, intermingling with a reality that extends from day to day in a constantly moving world, acquired valences of metaphor, premonition, artwork as a sort of initiatory journey and ritual in a fantastic universe.

Building a distinct identity is the result of an integrative experience that gathers all things at a point of interpretation that you give to the meaning to life.

What, in one place, things revealed to me as an important guide to guidance among the most important concerns of philosophy, elsewhere they were revealed to me as an obvious manifestation of the idea of eternity. What one thing means by analogy in a certain type of relationship with reality, another was to my dislike because it showed how much it had been a part of my emotions.

If I had given up all that involved that doubtful magic, comprising the guessing of elements that had yet to manifest themselves, only if I would penetrate them meditatively through reminders and unspoken thoughts, knowing how to see myself from the absence of what I was, I surely wouldn't have managed to portray myself as a new world.

All I am left with, now, when everything falls into doubt and logical variations, is to ask myself the same questions to which Sheik Ahmed Nurudin couldn't not answer: "What sort of light am I? Through science? Through high admonition? By pure heart? Through a just path? Through unwavering faith?"

The hidden truth that only creators bring to light is a confirmation of what you already know, but which acquires special significance depending on the significance you give and according to the conclusions you draw about nature and their causes. The hidden truth of things is the dominant weight of significance in relation to the other, meaning that only you can attribute to things according to how they develop in your life.

Finding the meaning of a new reality by observing and redefining all the things around is actually to justify an activity that can change your vision of what you thought you knew and, above all, how much you were wrong about what you let go through the filter of the first impression.

Wandering In Search Of Hidden Truths is never futile, especially if it results in a space of ideas that ensures a new perspective of the world, life and your own person. Remember that falling asleep in an imagined conviction can be the start of a transposing into reality of ideas of progress.

In every moment of your life you are the creation of the reality to which you adhere.

Watch Where You Go, Because You Will End Up Where You Look

On June 11, 2023

The sight is not made to delight the eyes, but for what the eyes find in it: a special memory or a part of yourself.

It is a splendid day for the eyes that admire the beauty of flowers in a lush setting, especially when the vision is based on the truly authentic and intense experiences of an alternative reality, under the pretext of discovering the authenticity of nature in its simplicity. I am in the botanical garden, in the reality of a painting that conveys peace, a relaxing atmosphere. Certainly, my improved vision with artistic potential is individualized at the contact between the taste for beauty and the expressive intensity of a special, olfactory, sonic and visual space, far from any exclusivity or obscure passion.

In this pictorial plane, purely abstract, the work of the viewer consists in capturing the vivid colors of the flowers, conceived as if in the coordinates of a universe that assumes the depths and complications of a static time, Aronecotebit Sayolesena Yracocabisen, an affective dimension of reality, a time that doesn't return, seeming a cyclically created infinity, whose serenity the gods outside the universe and their laws watch over. Revealing unexpected meanings and implications, the viewer's eyes light up at every step, so much do they focus their attention – especially on the big picture, the details of a custom setting being part of a trilogy dedicated to painting or photography.

The plan of a fragment of such a reality, designed for the captivating viewing of the most diverse palette of inner manifestations, intersects the vision of my eyes with the focused vision of the surrounding images, at the point where the experience of rendering colors in a painting takes a character of aesthetics. For this reason I try to distinguish, to memorize, to appreciate a "beyond the real", by passing from the perceived to the imaginary, which the act of seeing brings with it to the simple details, but complex enough to keep my eyes focused for a while.

Leadership: Does your creation emphasize the posture of a viewer who, by contemplating, abstracts from the surrounding reality and himself, being only the object of his gaze important?

The eyes themselves have become prisoners of a space that is constantly constructing itself, a tacit acceptance of the size of a larger image, such as the image attributed to a look "beyond the expected", in the intention of the beautiful to be replaced by the embodiment of a graceful flower which enhances the brilliance and naive character of the first stage of youth. In warm colors, in some delicate watercolor tones, the flowers reveal their purity, their beauty, their smell through an attempt to avoid my sight, but they do not have the power to shine, without being bright.

So what is an alternate reality? It is the capturing in images of a sensation of "resurrection", as if I had been reborn in an enchantment of vibrant colors, trying to escape from a memory without the present or, on the contrary, to join a conditional goodbye process of art to enlighten my soul, my senses, my feelings. It is a snapshot of an observable scene in an invisible way, in which case I focus on seeing only one part of a delightful image, leaving itself hardly revealed, that part of imagination, vision, perspective, and which produces everything: art, emotions, reactions.

It is, at the same time, a realistic description of an "observable" situation, but hard to detect at first glance, which gives rise to a work of art.

A treasured memory or an emblematic image? Still admiring the flowers around, especially the roses that speak to me through such vivid colors, praying to see them more and more often, considering them as speaking beings specially created to delight my soul and eyes, I realized how what is important is to return to a natural setting, away from the hustle and bustle of the city, away from the social thoughts that drag me down. Only in the botanical garden do they sit properly in a continuous wait. I do not even think of moving away from the path of the spiritual delights of life.

Leadership: Can your creation contain an image capable of expressing a special memory, a memory held in memory as a model of vision that unites the spiritual and the material into a single whole?

And, yes, sight is a fulfilled totality when it meets the images that satisfy its needs, better than progressive glasses, considering the experience of recognizing a creation that, not being situated in a single artistic current, deliberately mixes the register of the miraculous with that of the inexplicable. It is embodied in an enormous power of penetration, assuming the limits of time and space through visions and imaginings that swing between fixed and dynamic images, between the frozen snapshot of the present moment and the duration of a Deja-Vu experience.

This creation, truly called "An extraordinary adventure in the world of flowers", causes the anonymous viewer, as well as the professional photographer, to plunge into a fantastic and apparently illusory world, only to increase the power of the supernatural in pictorial art. It is a delight to see a flower garden landscape, so varied, mature, almost incomprehensible, and like God, to be the only creator who can give it a touch of timelessness, a special symbolism in a surrealist imaginary, an absolute beauty in a sort of earthly paradise.

Last but not least, while still walking among the flowers, my gaze took the place of the gaze of an art lover named Marcel Brion, who once wrote about the Spanish painter of Greek origin, El Greco:

"El Greco's palette brings the rarest and most subtle combinations of tones, contained in a light, transparent, almost liquid pictorial paste. Now that we are used to talking about the matter of a painting, we no longer know how to characterize the so little material, anti-material matter of El Greco's paintings, and we can only say that, evoking imperceptible forms and dressing them in colors that are of becoming rather than of being, the artist spiritualizes, according to his vision, matter. The spiritual would have been in danger of remaining a prisoner of matter, especially if he accepted to enter the so carnal body of men, therefore the special matter from which he wove his appearance had to be without weight, without thickness and without density; open and perfectly permeable to the spirit."

The evaluation of a work of art is given by the subjective experience of an artist who knows how to capture the moment when his own vision becomes the spiritual value of a painted picture.

Leadership is combined here with the intensity of a look that captures in a unique vision that image that does not necessarily invite you to action, but corresponds to the inner level, the vibration of your soul.

Watch Where You Go, Because You Will End Up Where You Look. You have the conviction that you will return to the place where the memories remain alive, take on color, creating the feeling of a deep and real intimacy. Consider the fact that a painter simultaneously embodies his thoughts, feelings, aspirations and ideals in a work of art that explores the mysteries of the natural world and, at the same time, encourages you to think about the spiritual state of this world.

Water Means Blood

On December 26, 2015

Try out your mastery in giving birth to an authentic creation, finding that something beyond imagination that can materialize in an inner change.

While the Emir of Kharesm prays on his knees in the besieged city, the prisoners around him, who were ordered to repair the defensive wall, shout desperately: "Water ! Water ! We don't have water with which to mix the mortar ! What do we do?" Then, the Emir gives an order to his troops: "Mix the mortar with their blood". And continues his prayer while his order is executed.

The same wave of cruelty floods this film as well. Death dominates early on and, same as in the Mexican film, the triumph of life will end it. "Twice – on the idea: water means blood – the specter of water passes with its destructive force, bringing about death, bloodshed and victory over man. And the third time, it appears in the authentic sense of that idea of water as lifeblood..."

The fabrics of Eisenstein's films are all made from the same fiber, the same themes intertwine, come back and develop obsessively in each of his works. *

Leadership: Can you set up a picture of reality that abounds in the intensity of experiences from the action of a colorful story by triggering a higher spirit attitude towards a single target: "It must be as I want it to be ! "?

The first action of imposing a personal idea in a creative montage, resulting from the living depths of a generous artistic vision, can be justified through the fact that is always fits in the standard of reference of those who understand the importance of a memorable experience through the substance and consistency of the message it bears. The image of the reality the director refers to is always directed towards a single target: "let it be as I want", because he insists on showing his power of creation to everything that is before the deeds.

Also, the montage sends us to that "It must be as I want it to be ! ", respectively to the action possessing of an update of reality, used to intertwine an old theme with a new world, or a reality transformed into fiction. Something that is not lost by viewing it, but rather stays for a long time in man's mind through the impact triggered by a powerful explosion – an effect of the variable called "credible argument."

Leadership is a promoter of the credible argument, triggering a certain excitement among people as a means of representing a new perspective of knowledge of the world through the lens of an affective, intellectual and artistic reaction.

In other words, before you give life to a script idea, you have to start by finding a reason to explain everything, from what you see to what is not seen, to analyze the things that make up the objective reality by their very nature. The scenario is a story full of color that cannot receive anyone if first of all it is not believed, or if its very essence is not revealed.

Leadership: Can you increase the intensity of the experiences resulting from a story considered as a way of expressing conceptions, feelings about the world and life in an artistic form?

The credible argument, within the framework of a unitary, coherent painting, where reality can breathe even in the steam of fiction, strengthens the link with that something that makes you feel, something that is beyond your imagination and expectations, thus, something that can materialize in an inner change – as if you have personally lived a unique experience. Here we are not only referring to the facts recorded on film, but to the motives and symbolism behind the facts that serve as the transposition of feelings into a form of creation.

Finding a way of expressing conceptions, feelings about the world and life in an artistic form is actually to become aware of the relationship between what you are experiencing directly and what you are experiencing through a human experience transformed by the jury of events, in view of the film theory which states that "an arrangement of images is characterized by the existence of a single fund".

Who looks on the internet, for example, at the image of a tourist destination that repeats itself on numerous websites, will manage to stop from the endless search for a possible better option only if it offers the guarantee of a memorable experience.

But let us not forget this way, what the Heath brothers said in their book "Ideas with guaranteed impact": "If we try to convince a skeptical audience to believe in the veracity of a new message, the reality is that we will lead a difficult battle against social knowledge and relationships that the individual has formed throughout an entire lifetime."

A director has to give the screenplay and the film a personal touch reconstituting the action of a story based on the images presented and make use of these images to impose his own interpretation of the events in his life.

Water Means Blood actually expresses an image of reality, rendered in color, but one that sparks a powerful emotion. The best directors know how to create a real story, offering the opportunity of "going deeper" into its core, even using fantastical images.

We Rarely Notice What We Really Need To See

On February 18, 2024

Unravel the mystery behind the image that fascinates you by building your own story inspired by the visual composition.

The challenge of submitting my imagination to illustrate a given theme had now become accessible, more than ever. In the end, it was all about my mind being swept through the waves of the senses, as a kind of powerful incentive, an honorable reward that I felt I had achieved by looking, and only looking, at the connection between sea and land, between infinity and fertility. Yes, there is something fulminant in the way the artist, bent on creation, feels his emotion like a tsunami force, tempered only by the sea breeze that caresses the traveler's dream to infinity.

If the emotion is not expressed, is not deepened in a seascape, and if it does not pour out in waves of color on the canvas, then the artist feels it in confusion and helplessness. But when the emotion is already expressed through an Oliscenta Umesque Edmaerche , a state of inner liberation and peace, in which the soul feels pure, in harmony with divinity and its own essence, then the theme of the painting comes to life through delicate touches and vibrant lights. Therefore, the faculty of sight to capture the beauty of the sea must become a mirror of the artist's soul, reflecting his deepest feelings.

At that moment, when sight intertwines with dreaming, giving life to fantastic worlds, when the unique experience of immersion in the beauty of nature, with beaches and cliffs, intertwines with the sensitivity of the artist, painting a story on the canvas of the soul, then any feelings of helplessness and vanity disappear from my sensations. Exactly. My consciousness seems enlightened and facilitated by a vision capable of broadening my horizons, a kind of window to unknown worlds that also reflects a mirror of my inner universe.

Leadership: Can you make a direct connection between your thoughts and their form expressed in art, so that the visual impact they cause is deep and authentic?

After all, DaVinci said it better than me: "You'll have to sit through the first scene in a perspective at the height corresponding to the eye of the beholder ; then, still small and by arranging the faces and the things according to the hills or valleys , you will fill in the whole scene . And for this and for other reasons that could be said, try first of all to render by drawing, in a way that is easy for the eye to understand , the thought and in the preconceived imagination and in the mind . "

Because the sea viewed from the angle of a canvas becomes a story of infinity, a symphony of blue, a mirror of the soul that I wanted to show only in a scene that the eye rarely encompasses. A scene that the eye will never be able to capture in its entirety, but only intuiting fragments of the hidden splendor of a world conceived first in the mind, then carefully expressed in creation. Because that's what any artist, especially one as talented as me, aims to take refuge in the art of beauty expressed through mobilizing images that, in a way, fix an event between the sea and the land.

A violent storm, a fishing scene, a moment of deep stillness, the effects of light and shadow on the surface of the water depending on the time of day, or the graceful movement of seagulls. All these events, through the power of imagination, can evoke the feeling of freedom and hope, but at the same time they can trigger a deep introspection about my own life and my place in the world.

Who am I in the midst of the freedom to paint the sea? They are a release from limitations. I am looking for a way to connect with nature and express my own vision of the world.

Leadership: Can you construct an image that enhances the emotional and symbolic impact of the idea that a world that the eye coldly takes in becomes the backdrop for a personal inner journey?

Remember the character of Dumas in the work "The Hand of Providence", when he uttered the famous words: "I will be strong, I will be rich, I will be what I want, I will dominate the chaos that will result from a world that disappears and another which constitutes."

In this regard, I would have to add an artistic detail, or rather a visual or symbolic metaphor that illustrates the struggle and determination of the individual in front of the elements of nature. Combining seemingly contradictory elements, such as the power of nature with the fragility of man, can create a tense and dynamic image.

For example, an artist like myself might use the image of a traveler on a long and difficult road, or a sailor on a rough ocean, to emphasize perseverance and the will to survive and thrive despite difficulties. This image could heighten the emotional and symbolic impact of the idea that a world that the eye chillingly encompasses becomes the backdrop for an epic inner personal journey.

But if the sea were to read these words and meditate on them, what would she have to say?

- Swirled up In an apparent state of security that I thought I had built around myself, I became uncaring . Then, one day , I caught you on the beach , with your warm gaze , you aimed at me , at the easel . With that gentle breeze of your gaze , you follow me discreetly, with the humility of one who sits things down the ladder of God, while I reveled in the ruddy glints of the sun broken in my immensity . You were captivated by my every move in the golden twilight. The weak rays of the evening crept between your so sincere, clean vision and my reddish horizon , full of emotion , letting the contours of an image, of an experience be seen . , the form of a feeling. While you were pouring out the image to me , I was carefully calculating the minutes, hours, days, that had passed since the moment of our meeting, more concerned with my task of bad like an unforgettable dream. And then, only in the reality of a life that leaves nothing out , against the background of an edifying sensitivity , I noticed what I should have understood from the beginning : "Only an artist can see beauty in me, more than my own eyes can."

Leadership is the vision with which you broaden your horizons, so that everything that encompasses your self creates a bridge between what you feel and what you express.

We rarely notice what we really need to see, because our attention is focused on the superficial details, only on the image, not on the content. When the artist can feel as he sees, then the image to which he relates will become alive in his soul, and thus he will be able to convey a profound message with unparalleled force and authenticity. Or, as the sea well remarked:

"Only an artist can see the beauty in me, more than my own eyes can ."

What A Wonderful Thing It Is To Be Loved

On April 26, 2012

Every born-again Christian has the obligation and honor to support God's work in a systematic way, as an attempt to reconcile with the past and what has remained there.

I met on the street a very poor young man who loved. He had an old hat, gnawed clothes, pierced elbows. His boots were full of water and his heart was full of stars.

What a wonderful thing it is to be loved ! There is only one thing that is more wonderful: to love ! The heart, passing through love, becomes heroic. It is made up only of purity. It rests only on that which is great and high. No unworthy thought can sprout in it, just as nettles cannot grow on a glacier. The high and serene soul, untouched by low passions and emotions, which dominates the life and shadows of this world, madness, lies, hatreds, vanities, misery, lives in the blue of the sky and feels only the deep and subterranean shaking of destiny, as the top of the mountains feel the earthquakes.

The sun would go out if no one loved anymore.

Deep hearts, wise spirits, take life as God made it ! It is a long ordeal, an incomprehensible preparation for an unknown destiny. This destiny, the true one, begins in man with the first step inside the tomb. Then something comes before your eyes and eternity begins to be seen. Think of this word: eternity. The living see the duration. Only the dead see eternity. Until then, love and suffer, hope and think.

Woe to him who loved only the body, forms, appearances. Death will take everything from him. He will be forgotten and lose his immortality. Try to love souls, you will find their body.

Leadership: Is the lucidity that the depths of the soul in which you meet God brings to you the form in which your introspective gaze is exercised on a broken, ruined, but not hopeless destiny?

The only power that propels man to another level, to maturity, to faith, to the peak of intelligence, during a life that the generous soul receives through repentance, is the virtue of purity. In this direction, the road seems to be prepared not so much by that poverty which can bring you down to the last step, and you can become the last bastard because of it. But of poverty that can turn necessity into virtue, becoming an answer to the question: how much can I force myself to resist the pain and vanity of the world?

Studying the phenomenon of poverty as a human fact on a large scale, researching both good and bad hearts, believers and unbelievers, regardless of working with one's own intellectual and spiritual cultivation, seems like a kind of book you want to read without a pencil in your hand, without emphasizing the most important aspects of responsibility: the justification of the facts and their verifiability. You can't read without paying attention to yourself, without understanding the experience of others, just as you can't read much without getting your eyes tired at all.

Leadership: Can authentic power spring from the ability to see value in apparent 'nothing' and transform it into essence, so that your existence becomes a reflection of a destiny that fulfills your inner calling?

The work is worth more than the man, said the painter Eugene Delacroix. And I think he was not wrong, because the most important aspects of your own version of being, in the face of values that can help you succeed in life (such as fairness, freedom, truth, goodness, dignity, openness, involvement), must be passed through the filter of a healthy mind and a sensitive heart. The work of your evolution from materiality to spirituality is based on the use of the full potential of transforming anxieties and stressful moments in life into a creative way to rediscover yourself and find out what you can do to feel fulfilled.

Here is the difference between men, according to the depth of the soul, and nothing can differentiate it more than the encounter with God in the unknown. Some accept poverty as a good opportunity for evolution, finding the strength to do the true work of God that is closely related to the nature of the mind, the nature of its own, intellectual-creative force.

Wealth makes the young man lazy, dries him of any purpose. In youth, only poverty, purity, and hope are the basic aids in the effort to receive God's work. And true faith comes down to science: discovery, creation, invention, and reinvention. Only youth makes change, old age only masks it.

The work of the entire human Christian system conforms to the maturity and virtue of purity, forcing in a realistic way the act of man to be great through the ability to remember the life of his soul subject to the ideal of forgiveness, to shine in the dark, to transform suffering into power and wisdom.

What A Wonderful Thing It Is To Be Loved By God not so much for your humble condition, but for overcoming this condition by faith. And faith is a long trial, an incomprehensible preparation for a powerful destiny, capable of blurring the line between triumph and convulsive weeping, and extending the eternal union between dream and reality.

What Am I In This Hopeless World?

On April 20, 2020

What you are at a given time consists of the sum of all the various changing conditions to which it refers to the event called "a lifelong trial".

- I saw you crying on the Ponte Vecchio, and your tears troubled me. Today I saw you laughing. Your laughter pierced my heart like a dagger, but it disturbed me even more. You just know what you are, Ioannis. Her question struck me. As I thought about what to respond, it seemed to me that the bare walls of the room were moving away from me, it seemed to me that I was rising, that I was looking at myself from the outside.

- What I am? I said. The world has aged, everything has already been thought, the hearts of the wisest look only to the past, seeking solace. The world is enlightened only by dusk, and the thinking man has no future in this place exhausted and ravaged by wars and thirst for power. The church has become entangled in worldly things, and in the eyes of a clever despot, man is no better than an animal destined for slaughter. What am I then in this hopeless world? What am I? God is beyond my comprehension and I cannot find Him, because I am not capable of love. Because of this, I am a prisoner of time and space. The hopeless world of the finite is my only home, but the biggest misfortune is that I am not satisfied with that, I am not satisfied. Therefore, I have nothing to do but resume my pilgrimages, even if I only run away from myself going from one place to another.

*Mrs. Ghita, I don't know what I am and I don't even distinguish good from evil, like other people. There are angels of light and angels of darkness, she told me. You are not an angel of light.

Leadership: Is the importance you give to the meaning of your life directly proportional to the importance you give to yourself in a game of destiny subordinated to the search for a truth that cannot be suppressed?

The man subject to the conditions of life, thrown into a deep reflection on the somewhat unjust destiny, will first of all want to avoid the lack of pain, in spite of the wisdom that says: "repeated experiences turn into a wall of defense around the soul". And a man becomes better and more honorable as he succeeds in coping with these conditionings, taking as a point of reference the sum of all past thoughts, with reference to what he says in his mind when he lives those experiences.

Probably, the right to which man holds most, taking as a life lesson the pain of not being able to make himself understood by others, not being able to share his feelings, is to be aware of his contradictions and to emerge victorious from the struggle with himself. Or, what is this struggle, other than an understanding and an assumption of the difficulties he goes through throughout his life. After all, this is the motto of a strong man: "If you want to increase your self-esteem, implement your will, but without emotions."

The supreme fulfillment of a destiny of great dramatic charge only makes sense in the case of a prisoner in time and space who shows his intelligence in trying to find a truth that cannot be suppressed, such as: "My stimulating attitude is an attempt to overcome any lifetime limitations."

Probably the great drama of a man held captive in a story called "The Meaning of Life", even in the case of his supreme intelligence that does not allow itself to be subjugated by obsolete views, is that it cannot depart from its own image that at some point tainted his self-esteem.

The German philosopher Arthur Schopenhauer said this best: "The intelligent man will avoid being insulted by others, he will seek only a quiet, modest life, but as undisturbed as possible, and therefore after he has begun to know the so-called people, he will withdraw from the world, and if he has great intelligence, he will prefer loneliness, for the more one has in himself, the less he needs from the outside, and the more others can be of less importance."

Leadership is the ability of man to be aware of his contradictions and to emerge victorious from the struggle with himself, bearing in mind that any "salvation at the hour of death" is a lifelong trial.

What Am I Then In This Hopeless World? Well, I am a man outraged by the attempt to give meaning to the fulfillment of a destiny with a great spiritual load, because only he who breaks through in harsh conditions can become an enlightened one.

True wisdom, here it is: "Try to give meaning to a life experience full of limits before you exceed your own limits."

What Are The Best Leaders Doing?

On February 23, 2009

Bring your contribution to improving the quality of your leadership, by a better dosed adjustment of your attitude in favor of the change.

Recently, at a TV show on the channel "Realitatea", the special guest Cristian Tudor Popescu, one of the most famous journalists in Romania since 1989 and currently president of the Romanian Press Club, was talking about the image of Romania in the world. I didn't watch the show from the start and I also didn't have the patience to watch it until the end, but draw my attention in a special manner what the known journalist said in a certain time:

"I feel the need to give something. A bartender gives you a beer, you drink it and you are not thirsty anymore. A man gives you a paper, you read it. And me, in my turn, I feel the need to give something to other people."

Leadership: Do you demonstrate a definite awareness of the value that defines you by supporting the superior quality of an irrefutable claim that does not surprise, but still perpetuates for the benefit of life lessons?

What distinguishes great leaders from average ones? Well, first of them feel to give something to the community where they live, to make themselves useful, and that's why they get involved with all their heart in the activities they display to produce a changing. A minor or major changing. Temporary or even permanent.

Their biggest wish is to be more than some simple viewers, who take place on the stage, in a single row of chairs and who watch with fascination hours after hours the show which others sustain (those excellent actors chosen with a lot of attention and good taste), and in the end they applaud laughing and they leave.

Don't imagine that these people worthy of praise, who get involved with their body and soul in everything they do, who obtain exceptional performances in their profession, are different from the other people. No, they are normal people, but they have aspirations, thoughts and conceptions which are different about the life and their role in this world. I think the difference between people is very small, but sometimes it seems huge.

Are you taking part in the show? Or, you just watch it? A leader who focuses on educating present and future generations assumes a certain consciousness of his value by supporting the superior quality of an irrefutable affirmation that does not surprise but continues to perpetuate the benefits of life lessons that spiritually enrich those around him.

Leadership refers directly to the comparison that is made between the honor of bringing to the public the example of the service of a noble cause, in which the facts corresponding to your thoughts, states, and dominant features are used as evidence, and the benefits of a better understanding of the actions of others in the same direction as you. With the only difference that sometimes you have to "turn left" for others to see where you want to go.

Leadership: Can you determine the quality of a certain claim to be true or false, calling for a concrete illustration of a phrase like: "There is only a ramp between the scene and the public?"

Just as the theater brings a significant contribution in the development of social consciousness, so you can contribute to improve the quality of your leadership by a better dosed adjustment of your attitude in favor of changing the world for the better.

A leader appeals to the concrete illustration of a phrase like: "There is only a ramp between the scene and the public" when he wants to stimulate a certain mood that resonates with the reason for the change that it wishes so much, highlighting the duties of a key role: to transforms a society of conflicts into a society of understanding.

But just as the direct contact between the actor on stage and the masses from the performance hall confers to theatre a particular responsibility, so your contact with the cruel reality that you must counteract, confers to your leadership a high dose of obligations, which, if you do not honor them successfully, may cause side effects. In the sense that you can be cataloged as "unacceptable" if you appear disinterested towards others.

Leadership implies a responsibility and a duty of service of each one for all. An Human Resources expert, John Maxwell, very well said: "The measure of a leader is not the number of people who serve the leader, but the number of people served by the leader."

To us, the importance of helping is the fact that it serves as a passage from the stellar philosophies that are bordered by apathy (illiteracy), separate from the dominant ideas of a category of individuals that make an excellent impression, a narrow view of the quality of life, because its principles do not contain the germs of a different principle of reality. The reality is that the world is not limited to a commodity market, but to the germs of a state that is perfect.

Leadership: Do you balance the exposure and visibility of your position before changing the "surprise cost" of a peak moment that causes dependence on the credibility of an affirmation?

It is amazing how in a world stifled of indifference and coldness can still be found people trying to give something without being pushed from behind. By trying to see what is the best in others and help them as much as you can, sometimes more, sometimes less, is indeed a quite extraordinary thing. Wonderful things happen when someone hurries to express his solidarity and to contribute to the development and prosperity of the community to which he belongs.

Leadership sometimes boils down to the following questions:

Leadership is a way of making the experience of the world in which you are living a tool that adds value to humanity through a consistency of ideas and a convergence of the approaches of those with the right to shed light where things are not transparent, legal and moral.

The surprise cost of a peak moment is characterized by the possibility to determine the impact of transmitting a powerful message to present or future generations. Is the parameter of a pattern of personal motivation that must cause dependence on the credibility of that statement that is precisely the condition and principle of your moral perfection.

Are you adjusting your attitude in favor of the change? How do you bring your contribution in modeling the society? Can you evolve in your career by helping the others around you? Do you feel the need to give something? Or, you are just waiting only to receive?

Your ramp towards success is given by your attitude. Do you adopt an attitude of indifference and superficiality to the world around you? Or, an attitude of gratitude and solidarity?

A lasting lifelong lesson is like the formulation of a truth that you have mastered over time: it conforms to reasons of reflection and reasoning, but cannot prove to be superior if it does not change the face of the world.

The best leaders make it so that a personal statement becomes a way forward for present and future generations.

What Are Visual Harmonics By Derivative With Harmonic Montage?

On July 16, 2010

A visual leader in cinematography weaves together distinct images so that each sequence of frames conveys a unique emotion or idea without redundancy.

In music, harmonics (of the fundamental or dominant) are the vibrations that occur with the vibration of the dominant tone, which they accompany. But in the movie, the visual harmonics turn out to be... an element of a fourth dimension! Possessing such an excellent instrument of perception, for the sensation of movement, as cinematography is—even at its primitive level—we shall soon learn to orient ourselves in this four-dimensional space-time continuum and feel as at home in it as in our own. slippers.

What are "visual harmonics" and hence, by derivation, "harmonic montage"? The "orthodox" montage, Eisenstein states (and now also considers the montage practiced by him up to this film to be "orthodox"), is a dominant montage. That is, the editing of frames according to the dominant, visible value they contain. The emotional effect, in this case, derives - let's remember the film Potemkin - from the juxtaposition, from the collision of two frames with opposite dominants, which were in conflict (opposed by graphic value, by the size of the load, the length of the frame, etc.). Precisely to create the dominance of a sequence, in the film Potemkin, Eisenstein had used these guide frames.

The use of distinct visual elements and color coding in complex narratives facilitates the connection and sequence of frames, maintaining the spatio-temporal continuity of the cinematic story.

In cinematography, where a network of visual lines develops, also called narrative thread, so that in each narrative "node" several distinct visual elements meet (a reflexive point is called a narrative node, such as a monologue , in which main themes and motifs are encountered). Because of this, visual lines interweave with different meanings, so that no group of two adjacent images (successive frames) conveys the same emotion or idea. The director, his main task, is to demonstrate that such a way of narration can always be achieved if we use different perspectives; in certain cases, however, resources may be too few if we consider the complexity of the scenario.

Observation. A way of organizing the networks of narrative threads that form visual lines, analogous to that in the visual arts, is sometimes encountered in practice when structuring the story. Namely, in the case of complex narratives, in order not to unnecessarily complicate the connection and sequence of frames, it is important for the director to use distinct visual elements (or symbols whose functions are denoted by different color codes); in this case, the space-time continuity in the film resides in the way the scenes are edited.

When choosing leadership as a vision you must interweave visual lines with different meanings, avoiding emotional or conceptual repetitiveness between successive frames.

Of course, in this case, the crucial moments of the narrative, captured by a well-structured script, do not have to be of the same intensity of perception that the audience expects. The montage plays, in this case, the role of narrative knots of the epic thread from the script itself, and the threads of the subject, having the role of thematic guide, unravel only with the help of the scenes that clarify and reveal the essence of the story.

Harmonic montage, as opposed to the "orthodox" dominant montage practiced by Eisenstein in earlier films, can be seen as an attempt to demonstrate that one can always achieve a complex narrative using 15 different types of visual elements; In some cases, however, 14 elements may be too few to express the desired complexity.

Visual composition facilitates the connection and sequence of frames, maintaining the spatio-temporal continuity of the film.

This approach to assembly is analogous to the organization of complex electrical circuits. Just as circuits use different colored wires to avoid tangling when connected, harmonic montage uses distinct visual elements to avoid narrative confusion. The "apparatus clips" in the circuits can be seen as the key points of the narrative, painted in the same emotional "colors" as the scenes that precede or follow them.

In this context, individual scenes play the role of wires in the circuit, while the crucial moments of the narrative represent the nodes of the network. This approach allows the director to create a "four-dimensional space-time continuum", where visual harmonics become an element of a fourth cinematic dimension, giving viewers a complex and multi-layered experience.

Harmonic montage therefore becomes an excellent tool of perception, allowing the director to orchestrate the sense of movement and emotion in a much more sophisticated way than in dominant montage. This advanced technique allows viewers to orient themselves and feel "at home" in this new cinematic dimension, as comfortably as in "their own slippers".

Directorial leadership consists of orchestrating networks of visual and narrative lines, creating reflective nodes that connect diverse themes and motifs, providing a coherent and engaging narrative.

What are visual harmonics by derivative with harmonic montage? They are visual elements that complement and enhance each other, creating a unified aesthetic experience. I say this because they function similarly to musical harmonies, as opposed to a montage that integrates multiple layers of visual meaning as an integral part of the film's narrative rhythm and flow.

What Bizarre Whim Haunts The Soul Of This Dying Man?

On November 03, 2013

The decision to accept yourself as a discreet confidant of people is a form of seeing how they react, knowing their limits and finding out how far they can go without shaking their convictions.

- Here, then, is what led me to consult you, continued Samuel. Well, Julius thinks he's going to die soon, and I'm afraid he's right—and he'd like before he dies, at least to have the joy of calling you his wife.

- His wife? murmured Frederique.

- Yes. do you realize what bizarre whim haunts the soul of this dying man? I know very well that she asks absolutely nothing else from you than to continue the filial affection that you give her even now. I know well that he will respect you as his daughter. But I, who love you, I who had and expressed to Julius this desire which means my life, cannot easily endure that another, even a dying friend, should offer his name before me to her who promised to wear mine.

- I made you a promise, yes, Frédérique said softly, and I assure you that I will keep it. I am yours, and you did not need to consult me about the answer to Herr von Eberbach. I categorically refuse any proposal from you.

Leadership: Are you able to change something in the way you position yourself and act in the context of assuming a duality (reconciled with yourself), so that what fulfills you does not violate the rights and beliefs of others?

- Yes, you are an angel, said Samuel; but have I the right to abuse your generosity, and can I respond to your devotion with my selfishness? Is it necessary that, in exchange for my happiness, two beings should suffer? Especially when these two beings are the man I love as a brother, and the woman I love more than a sister? Shouldn't I give up, avoiding the risk of being considered a scoundrel, a happiness that would bring him death and you poverty?

He stopped for a moment, as if trying to gather the strength necessary for a sacrifice, and resumed:

- My friend is dying. He lives only for this supreme hope. To destroy it means to destroy existence. A true crime. Banish that thought? With helplessness. She clings to marriage with that stubbornness that is only characteristic of children and the dying. My friendship clashes terribly with my love. I feel it is almost a criminal act to deny a poor dying soul the happiness that harms no one in this world, but would help him to go with a smile to the next world.

Leadership: Can you find another way to communicate a reality, by belonging to the same reality expressed differently?

Our thoughts and material needs, if they intertwine in revealing the forms of manifestation of the "happiness" phenomenon, as evidenced by the relationship between the two characters in Dumas' novel, can lead to a change in attitude about life. And not only that. The idea and the phenomenon of change appear in people's lives both in the way of honestly confessing the oppressive steps of the heart, and in the way of approaching a reality that, even if it hurts, even if it comes from an exasperation of sensitivity, even if it seeks adventure in all its poses, creates a personality full of firmness and maturity.

Here comes the phenomenon of duality, the conflict between real and latent, an example of opposition or contrast between two aspects of something, a veil that lifts from your eyes and you understand the world exactly as it is. I mean that when he reveals his thoughts, the man is really himself, while in everyday life with him he is only a mask that boasts a superb composition and a special effect.

Or as someone wrote on a web page, "in a couple's relationship, the duality goes to the point where the life partner constantly feels that he does not know who he has by his side, which sometimes is not such a bad thing, because you can never be bored, and there is always a new challenge before you. In principle, the opposing forces are constantly aspiring to a reconciliation that will take them out of their separation and raise them again to the unity from which they descended."

Leadership mirrors the image in the mind of the man in control of his instincts, who cannot be humbled when he reveals his thoughts, intentions and feelings. That makes him unique and determinable (especially in rules, behaviors and values), makes him the possessor of a reality that has its own and particular dimension.

What Bizarre Whim Haunts The Soul Of This Dying Man? I believe that the desire to be loved, without having to qualify for acceptance, is a whim that you will not be able to make the most of later as you would like, a whim that you can always dispense with if you notice that something doesn't suit you.

The writer Gerard Lele well emphasized: "Dependence is that imperious need to be loved without any moment of weakness or absence, love without which the individual gets sick, weakens, ceases to live, ceases to exist. The addict has a greater need to be loved than to give love, and his need is insatiable; he is like a bottomless sack that ceaselessly demands to be filled. Everything happens as if he does not love himself and asks the other to love him in his place. His demands risk exhausting his partner."

What Catches The Eye Is What Only It Sees

Develop a way of perceiving the inner reality of the creation you experience concretely, forcing your eyes to see beyond what is directly visible.

It is rumored that the ocean hides in its depths, mysterious, unfathomable, unspeakable, the most sublime views of the symbolists, views of the purified and luminous soul extended beyond all senses. And the depths of this ocean, whose treasures are hidden among the great coral reefs, can reveal the translation of a singular creation. It is an enigmatic world, a space of creation conceived as a *full*attributed to a figurative depth. And it is here that the gaze of my persistent, all-encompassing, unsurpassed storyteller eyes originates, the only guide that begs my mind to expand its horizons.

On the skeleton of the great legends that supported the belief in an Erhutasfienta(the seat of the kingdom of Poseidon, delimiting the possessions of Hades) the imprints of captivating stories, partially translated into painting only by artists like Jim Warren, glorious motifs, ideal for moments of wandering or longing, made to help me cross the threshold to myself and to my heroic dimension.

And look, at the bottom of the ocean, matter has finally become solid.

Once again I put my imagination to the test, revealing the horizons of a creation impressive in its vastness and diversity. Only the painter of great talent can give class to many consecrated people of occult symbolism (of an unprecedented complexity), both by the compositional originality of his visions, not at all conformist and comfortable, but especially by that decoding of the visual message, indissolubly by reference to the valences of subjectivity: "You cannot be sure of what you see, hear, understand".

Leadership: Can your work reveal the horizons of an impressive creation through vastness and diversity, beyond the impact claimed by the image in the foreground of your attention?

The ocean of the main languages in the world of art has its waves, however, being able to combine all the valences of symbolism related to receptivity and openness. And yet, to represent an artistic moment you don't directly need the image of waves hitting the shore, because this is a complex and complicated phenomenon to achieve even in the poetic art of symbolism.

It is no wonder that it is difficult to arrive at an artistic composition, considering this phenomenon that needs more than shapes, colors and expressiveness, to have a random character in all cases.

And if at this moment the image in the foreground of my attention is an illustration of high waves on an uncertain sea, this is because my eyes, open, exposed directly to the light, can speak and reveal so many secrets, so many beauties, so many states of mind that my subconscious creative horizon imprints on the artistic approach. And the viewer of my paintings is going to feel all this in a fabulous way.

The thread of this phenomenon is masterfully hidden in the guise of an artistic artifice (the optical illusion of infinite space), leaving without explanation a lot of cases that reappear on the horizon of imagination. It is observed, therefore, that the internal reality of my creation, in the sense of exploring the mysterious depths of the ocean, aims to increase the effect of mystery and obscurity, pulsating from every square centimeter of the canvas.

Leadership: Are you able to make a sustainable creation on a visual background mainly composed of the composition and joining of several alternating or contrasting sections, but united by the overall vision?

This synthesis between the sunlight and the chiaroscuro hidden in the waves, produced in the case of a relatively transparent medium, comprises the greatest preponderance of the particular in art: reality is produced by that something in which both cases are one.

In principle, one could say that in art we capture a double image: we see the waves hitting the shore, at the same time we see how the light creates the sheen above the waves. And what my eyes outline in an image, due to the effect of refraction, such as the image of a rainbow in the direction of the solar disk, does not undergo any change if it is transposed into another, relatively dark space.

In fact, my eyes move the subject of the image in such a way that it is seen simultaneously with another. The image appears variously colored on the edge, especially if the light space is parallel to the visible background of a rainbow reflection, like a mirror, thus the surface of the water reflects the light from the rainbow back to the sky, especially intensifying the blue-green color of the waves.

Right view – right action. Correct attention – faithful representation. So, to see correctly means to distinguish the difference between shades, avoiding the views considered "just", not the depths revealed intuitively and in lively figures. In art, you must discover the elements that constitute viewing and discover the causes that generated their multiplication in the sensitive plane, by using observation and experiment rather than by the flight of imagination.

A well-defined vision must ensure the faithful representation of an image that, imprinting itself particularly in the imagination, can be used as a background for actions that highlight your personality and artistic abilities, but also the abilities to adapt to the variations of the surrounding environment.

What Catches The Eye Is What Only It Sees. And what did my eyes see today? They saw the ocean with its foaming waves, which changed perceptions and created new landscapes and views. My eyes played so beautifully with the blinding flashes of the waves, but also with the sparks of the ships crossing each other. Along with the waves, my thoughts have traveled thousands and thousands of miles, without quite understanding their meaning or depth.

And I remembered that life, with its unpredictable waves, forcibly took me in a different direction than the one I set out for. No man becomes a perfect artist until he has known the unique feeling of disorientation that comes from an involuntary emotion, as when you stand in a half-finished watercolor landscape.

This is also an internal reality of my creation, because all my emotions contained in the dimension of space and time that the ocean compressed into a single moment of illumination, were simply waiting to be discovered...

What Did Griffith Represent In The History Of Film?

On July 19, 2010

Every artistic decision of a director involves a piece of his creative identity, contributing to the development of cinematic syntax.

First, David Wark Griffith. The American filmmaker whom Sergei Eisenstein will write about played a huge role in the development of the Soviet film editing method, or more precisely, what is best in Soviet film came out of "Intolerance".

What did Griffith represent in film history? The means he used: the close-up, the alternation of actions, the movement of the camera, the variation in angles, etc., had been discovered before him. Griffith used them creatively for the first time. The cutting of an action, the dramatic alternation of two different lines of action through parallel montage, the creation of a specific tempo through montage, the variety of angles - all these elements, which are the basis of the cinematic language, were consciously used only by Griffith.

The morphology had existed, but Griffith created the syntax. Cinematography acquired an articulate language through him. The Soviet film school, and primarily Eisenstein, then took over this medium, turning it into a way of communicating thoughts and feelings.

A visionary leadership model involves not only discovering new means of expression, but also integrating them into a coherent syntax, articulating a cinematic language capable of conveying thoughts and feelings.

Griffith's unique contribution lies in his creative and self-aware use of existing cinematic techniques such as close-ups and action sequences.

“One of the fundamental concepts in cinematic language that is important to reflect on is the analysis of montage, that is, how sequences are arranged and edited to create a coherent and engaging narrative flow. This involves studying the movement of close-ups and the cutting of action, including the speed and tempo of individual scenes that the director uses to heighten emotions and emphasize key moments. In the present case, Griffith used detailed technical drawings to cut out the different parts of a film and assess their interactions so that each scene contributes harmoniously to the development of the narrative and the building of dramatic tension.

For this reason, the variability of shooting angles is crucial to ensure an optimal perspective of each scene, thus increasing the visual and emotional impact on the audience. In scene design, parallel montage patterns are often used to compare different scenarios in terms of visual impact and narrative fluidity. This approach allows for the creation of robust and effective films anchored in a solid and coherent narrative structure. For example, the Soviet film school, especially the director Eisenstein, took up this method, turning it into a way of communicating complex thoughts and feelings."

Innovative leadership in cinematography involves the ability to take already known elements and use them creatively, transforming them into a complex and profound form of expression .

What did David Wark Griffith represent in film history? He represented the father of articulate cinematographic language, transforming already known techniques such as close-up, alternating actions and parallel montage into a complex and coherent form of expression. He created cinematic syntax, giving structure and rhythm to visual narrative and paving the way for the use of montage as a tool to convey ideas and emotions. Through his innovative use of editing techniques, Griffith profoundly influenced the Soviet film school, becoming an inspirational model for directors such as Sergei Eisenstein.

A true director is able to transform film into an articulate language capable of communicating complex ideas through the conscious use of editing techniques.

What Did You Want To Tell Me, Look?

On June 06, 2024

What you see in yourself is what you let reflect around you.

On the streets of Iasi, in Copoului park, an oasis of color in a dreamy landscape is taking shape. In this quiet place, a piece of heaven removed from the urban bustle, the flowers open their petals like little multi-colored treasures that deserve to be looked at for a long time, by no means stolen. Here, a simple woman, with hands cracked by work and a face furrowed by the sun, but with an artist's soul, weaves her magic, an arte a traves del cual se presentan al publico ilusiones apparentemente imposibles . She is my neighbor, a simple woman, raised in the country, without any college, and who works at Salubris, but who transformed the park into a living masterpiece.

Behind the simplicity hides a deep and creative soul, perceived only as a silent enigma. Her rough hands, accustomed to mowing the lawn and planting flowers, became in time living, clean brushes, painting with vivid colors the green canvas of nature. Arranged with care, with enchanted images, the flowers are not just simple plants, green views of nature, but poems written with delicate petals and vibrant colors, odes to the simple beauty of the world. Thanks to her, each flower has a special place, a story to tell, an emotion to convey.

The projection of her soul floods the geography of vision, transforming the mundane into a symphony of colors and fragrances, along the lines of an "Enztaassal Desthiasha Idasenzi", the revelation of a creative manifestation. Young or old, all passers-by stop from time to time and admire the work of a soul in love with nature, amazed by the beauty created by the hands of this simple woman, unknown, often overlooked, but holier than all. There is something in it, a small addition of appreciation for beauty, that kind of dignity that makes you superior to the others, not coming out except through the voice that the surrounding eyes give to art, elevate it to the light, to the good God.

Leadership: Can you express the vibrant essence of creation through your inner voice in an engaging visual message?

An artist soul does not need privileged conditions to manifest its authentic splendor. These silent fountains of anonymous art flow smoothly and color the world with their dull freshness, and only when you cut beyond appearances and simplify the outer noise can you hear the melodious whispers of blooming nature.

Indeed, even the humblest of men can create unforgettable masterpieces, like artists who confess their souls in moments of divine inspiration. It is not for nothing that the writer Simona Popescu chose "Exuvii" as a means of revealing the sensitivity that comes from the metamorphosis of butterflies:

"It is curious how seldom you meet men who say things which we cannot say ourselves about the formation and transformation of the eternal spirit. That is the rule of memories. If I were to penetrate into the chamber of the soul of any of them, I should find that he is pure and fragile, like a lily surrounded by butterflies. Perhaps, beyond this delicate flower, a great psalm is heard with faith, a whisper of the universe that sings an endless story. Is it possible that the echo of the stars is hidden in its delicate fragrance falling flowers she gathered in her dreams, and a pale light that pulsates with the rhythm of her inner universe? Do we not find the delicacy of her dreams in the butterfly's wings?"

Leadership: How important to you is the appreciation of the inner voice, reflected in the idea that what you express uplifts your soul and connects you to the divine essence?

Some gestures rely on a motor impulse, erupted from the depths of the being, revealing the vital principle of all artists endowed with aesthetic power: "As an intermediary between the material world and the spiritual world, the artist has the ability to access and express the vibrant essence of creation through the voice interior, transforming it into an instrument of the revelation of primordial beauty."

Of course, in the crystalline diamond of the pure soul hides the echo of shooting stars, manifested through graceful eruptions of creative gestures.

This woman does not have university degrees, she did not study art in prestigious schools, in accordance with world trends. But it has something much more precious, something passed through the purifying fire, something that contains the supreme power of the universe: the "noble soul". An elan whose intensity gives value to existence, summarizing the being in its original depth. He has the talent to see the beauty in the simplest things and share it with others. It has a special sensitivity, like that of a butterfly, a receptivity to the harmony of nature that is translated through special floral arrangements.

Her artistic soul flows into everything she does, turning a simple sanitation job into a work of art. All those who admire her floral arrangements smile, feel calmer, more connected to nature, in tune with the harmony of a life lived in balance. And her greatest joy, tightly held to her chest, is given by a small addition of appreciation for beauty: "This is what I made with my hands, this is my work, which all the passers-by admire !"

Leadership: Can you consider your talent for seeing beauty in the simplest things to be the object of a fulfilling attention, and not an effort to overcome yourself?

Sublime, isn't it? Beyond apparent fragility, like the lily surrounded by butterflies, such gestures carry the primordial force of cosmic creation. Through its crystal clarity, this soul reflects the primordial light in a concentrated form accessible to human perception. I still don't know what's more important: to see what I feel, or to feel what I see.

The visual aesthetic she creates is not just a simple treat for the eyes. It is an invitation to introspection, an awakening of the senses, a deeper connection with nature and with one's own being, an "Auriumerial Ephicasedom Appel", a form of spiritual enlightenment translated as "capturing emotion through images". Always in bloom, full of color and good cheer, the flowers cared for by her tell us about the fragile beauty of her life, about the simple joy of the little things in her life, about the transforming power of art to which her pure soul aspires.

As I said, if we were to enter the sanctuary of the soul of such a pure being, we would discover a crystalline fragility, like a lily surrounded by butterflies. This simple woman, without any education, has demonstrated so many times that art is not reserved for the elites, but is an expression of the human soul, accessible to everyone. That beauty can be found anywhere, in any place, if we have open eyes and a receptive heart. That an artist's soul can turn any corner of the world into a masterpiece.

The true measure of greatness is recognizing that the supreme power of the universe, reflected in your noble soul, is a testimony to the beauty you spread around.

What did you want to tell me, look? That the image of a beautiful life resides in simplicity? That the image of a beautiful story resides in the experiences? That the ultimate beauty does not reside in external refinement, but in the depth of emotion and sensitivity of the soul connected with nature? Or, perhaps, only what is inside man gives the measure of the beauty he spreads around?

The look, as my eyes perceive it, filled with what I feel every moment, always reminds me that any simple man I meet is a man with a big soul. And the only truth I really know is that I am inspired by such people.

What Does It Mean To Be Congruent?

On January 30, 2009

Learn to communicate beyond the words you speak, in order to better interact with others and better discern the quality of their message.

You are congruent when you jump for joy because you have been promoted and you shout: "Hooray, I'm happy, happy, happy."

When you verbally warmly congratulate your rival for getting the promotion you've been eyeing for a long time, but inside you're fuming with rage, that feeling comes across more or less non-verbally—unless you're a big actor. There is such a thing, there are people who have learned to communicate. Now you are not congruent. Caution: Seeking congruence is not wanting to manipulate. And this time, there is a good and a bad use of this tool. It is polite not to want to spoil someone's joy of victory by showing spite, it is natural to experience such a feeling when we lose. In this case, congruence is at the service of our politeness.

Leadership: Are you able to direct the Unconscious of the person next to you in the direction of your objective, in the direction of what you aim for through communication?

So try to observe yourself in the coming period. Be aware of what you are communicating beyond the words you speak. Then correct what needs to be corrected, training yourself to manifest a more congruent expressiveness. Learn to make gestures that support your speech. Feel free to use your hands, body, positions, eyes. Think about occupying the space that belongs to you: do not keep your arms close to your body. Nod your head. Use all that nature has given to be expressive in congruence.

Thus, you will already have enormous assets to make yourself understood and believed – because it will be felt or perceived that you are genuine.

But, you will tell me, what if I have to lie? "Not every truth is worth telling", says popular wisdom. And in doing so, you must be congruent, otherwise your innocent lie will not stand or won't stand for long. Imagine a seriously ill friend in the hospital. He moans: "I can't escape anymore". If you tell him: "Yeah ! You're going to get away", and jokingly add: "Bad weed doesn't die", thinking that, in fact, your friend won't get better, you'll be communicating this non-verbally to the Unconscious (your deepest belief) and you will only reinforce his fear of death.

So learn to be congruent in all situations. You must direct the person's Unconscious in the direction of your objective, in the direction of what you are aiming for through communication. And it won't be effective unless you are congruent verbally and non-verbally.

Leadership: Have you trained yourself to "hear" in a different way, so as to enrich your capacity for perception and understanding?

Whether your goal is to get the latest compact disc of your favorite singer or to sell a customer the green plant that will perfectly decorate his interior. Get your life partner to accompany you to the cinema or convince your boss to give you a vacant job; either for an interview for a job or to propose your screenplay project to a producer; whether it's to turn down the product he wants you to buy or to get an entrepreneur to sign a huge contract... Always remember that the Unconscious is listening and interpreting.

You should train yourself to spot non-verbal cues by watching our politicians on TV. Don't dwell on the meaning of the words they speak, but look at them. Observe them, transfer your "listening" ability to visual perception. With a little practice, you too will begin to realize – consciously and not just vaguely – that here, at this point in the discussion, there is a lie, a cover-up, an embarrassment. It is indeed very instructive. Without sharpening your attention, your Unconscious would have sensed very well that something was wrong and then this sensation would have been lost, while your Conscious would have registered only the meaning of the words.

You must therefore become receptive to the non-verbal of the other. Not to seek argument, but to understand more deeply and in a complete way, with the aim of being able to better communicate with him and better discern the quality of his message. To learn to communicate beyond the words you speak, so as to enrich your capacity for perception and understanding. Let's follow these tips, but let's not forget what Romanian writer Ionel Teodoreanu said: "Feelings never acquire the philosophy of the mind."

Leadership follows another rule, which should now be obvious: "Good communication depends on the background of what you say, so that you show the esteem you have for your interlocutor, always finding something to value him".

Learn To Always Be Congruent by pleasing others – this is the greatest vector of authentic power you can have over them. This attitude of recognizing the other applies to all your interlocutors, in all cases, children, adults, life partner, clients, boss, collaborators, groups, friends. Don't forget this last tip from Erica Guilane-Nachez:

Denigrating the other person, making them look ridiculous, or "sweeping" them under the rug may be goals for some. This, however, will never be communication and is generally the sign of a mediocre settlement of the ego. Only a weak person tries to crush another weaker than him. On the other hand, someone who is truly strong and fulfilled is sure of his strength and confident in his happiness, he has absolutely no psychological need to demonstrate his strength in this way.

A person who is really strong is more likely to bend down to support those who have difficulty standing. Thus, if you have the annoying tendency to put down the other (life partner, child, those close or less close), ask yourself what is not going well inside you and how to improve this situation. But don't ask yourself why you have problems in human contacts !

We must recognize that the other has the right to respect his ego – or, if not, to keep our distance and not try to communicate with him. if you are looking for help and cooperation, the pleasure of being together, or, more prosaically, proof of good behavior, always remember that the ego in front of you is the key that will open or close the "lock" of the door that leads to your goal.

What Does Leadership Mean To You?

On January 13, 2013

Learn to respond to your thoughts and deeds as a unique way of bringing and integrating a spiritual experience into social reality.

If you didn't know, you're finding out now. Weak people, those who lack the courage to go to battle, always react through an incomparable treachery to every challenge of the world, often compensating for any suffering, any inferiority complex through an unexpected, and as subtle as possible, violent reaction.

Look at the quiet, studious, formerly top of the class man, always at home, every Sunday at church, praying 3 times a day, family man, eating no meat at dinner, etc.

Try to show him that you are much more intelligent than him, try to contradict him with any argumentation and see how he reacts. You will see how easy it is to completely get on his nerves ! But be careful, he is like those tiny bottles filled with the most venomous poison, which if they explode...

So, you have to be a real craftsman in poisons to know how to annihilate and deviate with great dexterity any unwanted effect... in what regards some people.

Let us remember the famous Martha Lowenstein, known as "The Poisoner of Austria". Here's how the world described her: "She is so delicate she wouldn't hurt a fly."

- Yes, delicate and deceptive as a still water – will say the general prosecutor in the courtroom when handing out the death penalty.

Leadership: Are you prepared to answer the challenge of thinking who you really are when you forget that you are still something else in an attempt to surpass yourself?

Where and how is the essence of man determined? Is it not in the attempt to prepare man to define a lasting existence in time, to assure a trust in that reason that can say "God exists and I will be saved because I have dealt with any temptation, because I have overcome all trials, endured anything only out of love for my fellow people"?

The essence of man is determined by the dimension of his thoughts and deeds, good or bad, when he is faced with a reality that is far too cruel and cold for his experience of life up to that point. The unconditional predominance of the capacity to discern the effects of certain changes on his professional and, indirectly, personal situation can break the balance that characterizes a well-balanced soul, preventing his adaptation to the conditions of life.

The deepest regret appears when you are filled with enmity against someone or something, or when you are faced with the assertion of a doubt about reality. It is like looking into a mirror in which your image appears distorted because of the suffering of having lived a certain life experience at a low intensity. In this case, your entire philosophy resembles more a defense mechanism against the suffering of being like you are when you are "disgusted your yourself".

The level of supportability of personal attitudes comes from the attachment to the effect of life that tends to devalue when you feel that you are not fitting into your ideal of perfection.

The most pretentious feeler and intellectuals sin not only through a contemptuous and arrogant attitude, full of pride and vanity, but rather by a detachment from the surrounding world, through the care of not falling into absurd adventures.

If we need to find a preventive means against human passions and sins to avoid unwanted effects, then it is good to keep away from the occurrence of events, the encounter and avoidance of which requires a certain spiritual experience that is a shield against the temptation to succeed in petty purposes, against the deception of being free in a strict way of life.

The attempt to surpass yourself sometimes resembles an attempt to blame someone else for a mistake of yours that could have been avoided if you didn't want it to end up the way it did. It is a kind of denial of spirituality. In this case, your way of waking up feelings of action, but with a selfish character, is anchored in a context dominated by despair and frustration, when you are overcome by the inability to do more than others, the inability to be at the same level with them when it comes to being "adorable".

This is what it means to be endowed with the traitor's vocation. It is also a way of surpassing anyone: by alienating the assets of others, by cheating, by conspiracy, by denial, by the erosion of relationships. It means that you have certain visions and a certain experience of moving things, but not in an orthodox manner.

Proving you have a strong character means to permanently return to searching for the good element within you that is not available for the evil that happens to you.

At the opposite end, people are balanced by their own forces in the sphere of greater stability of values over time, not because of inertia in a painful state of mind. Look at the guy who so well combines the knowledge of things with physical exercise. He knows how to exhaust his negative energy; he does not allow it to spool up inside of him (until it explodes). Try to provoke him with anything. Wanna bet he won't even notice you?

Strong people do not respond to any challenge, they do not react through dirty perfidy or dirty secrets, but rediscover themselves by identifying with an active spiritual experience. Moreover, they annihilate their dominant manifestations through a calm of mind, thoughts, and soul, always preferring to enjoy a sauna after 20 km of running.

At the end of the day, he is not the one who decides what the ideal life looks like, but his whole ability to understand the moment he experiences, the present moment in the totality of a balanced way of thinking reflected in a peaceful attitude expressing force and grandeur.

Self-discontent is a testimony of existence itself seen as a validation of the fragility of man in the face of the experience of being less than the expectations he insists on imposing.

What does leadership mean to you?

For me, leadership means to emphasize the predominant faculty of sound thinking in an active, emotional and intellectual character, reflected in a behavior that cannot be blamed.

The most durable leadership can be regarded as an expression of spirituality contained in an ideal of greatness, lived for a creed that requires a certain self-discipline in order to grasp the sense of moral and social responsibility.

What Does The Director's Art Consist Of?

On February 01, 2009

Authenticity in artistic expression is born from the delicate balance between truthful and affective, towards a deep and personal meaning of human reality.

The working method of the two artists works perfectly, without asperities. Collaboration always has eight precise successive moments. First Eisenstein shows him the montage of the sequence. Then the sequence is timed and the director expresses his wishes for the music. They express these wishes plastically: "Here, here it must sound as if someone is ripping the child from a mother's arms", or "make it sound like you hit a cork on a bottle". Prokofiev is always delighted by such artistic indications.

Then the composer returns to his hotel room in Alma-Ata, where he transposes the notated timing into a certain number of measures depending on the tempo the music of the sequence is to have. On the plan is a metronome, a stopwatch and sheets not yet written, but with the staves divided into measures and scribbled with all kinds of notes for his understanding only. Once the frames of the composition are precisely fixed in this way, Prokofiev composes the music that fits into this pre-calculated network of measures.

Leadership: Can you heighten the sense of revelation when, in front of a work of art, you feel the inspiration echoing in your own existential experience?

What the artist will do later, through a kind of shaping of the ideas (and information) received through vision, is nothing more than the effective materialization of that primordial determinant in triggering the creative action called inspiration, Rumatatti Aliudagoss Essaes , an impulse of all man's abilities, and it is manifested in all artistic achievements of value. Art therefore becomes, in terms of the artistic vision, a "phenomenon where the most developed senses, such as sight and hearing (which are manifested in existential experiences) must be appreciated according to the criteria imposed by the phenomenological relationships generated by each of these three horizons: emotion, expression and expressiveness .

Especially since, when faced with a thematic motive such as "tearing the child from a mother's arms", the art of a director must show his concern to capture the impressive essence of that motive. Therefore, art, as it is, determined by the close collaboration of several artists, must detect what lies hidden beyond the external appearance of a "subject", so, in other words, it must penetrate into the depths of the mystery that the subject tries to reveal it in an innovative way.

The director's art consists in capturing the deep essence of the motive, beyond the outward appearances. He must explore the complexity of emotions and reveal the human impact of tragedy. As for "penetrating the mystery", art becomes a key that must allow viewers to penetrate the mystery of human suffering. It must challenge viewers to reflect on the human condition and the tragedy of borderline situations.

Leadership: In your search for meaning, have you discovered how art serves as a bridge between tangible reality and the abstract world of emotions that govern human existence?

Importantly, through the artistic exploration of pain and loss, the director can provide the audience with a cathartic experience. The emotions evoked by the show can contribute to emotional healing and a better understanding of the human condition. Art is not only a form of entertainment, but also has an important social role. By addressing sensitive topics, it can contribute to raising awareness of social issues and stimulating public dialogue.

It is difficult to penetrate the mystery of human suffering, and the director's art consists in facilitating the understanding of this deep experience. There are numerous examples of films that successfully tackled this thematic motif, such as "Schindler's List", "Requiem for a Dream" or "Grave of the Fireflies". In the music composed for any scenario in these films, human suffering was represented by obscure tonalities, enigmatic chord progressions, and the use of deep-sounding or ethereal instruments, which added an enigmatic and unsettling atmosphere.

What the artist will do later, i.e. the "total creation" that tries to reveal the mystery, generating intense emotions in the bubble of which we find eroticism and violence, love or hate, is only a metaphorical manifestation of that primordial determinant whose impact influences all aspects creation. We encounter here a phenomenon of accommodation of mystery with subjective understanding, in an alternative way: the interception of vital signs and their metaphorical relaunch, through the act of a creative reinterpretation. Lapidarily it could be said that the point at which creation must reach, through a kind of metaphor of mystery, regarding any subject taken from real life, must put on metaphorical garments in this creative reinterpretation.

Leadership: Have you ever realized that through your own interpretations, you are invited to evaluate the artwork in a unique way, exploring the tensions and emotions hidden behind each existential motive?

At the heart of this collaborative process, where the working method and creative tempo of Eisenstein and Prokofiev work in perfect synchronization, we discover the essence of artistic creation. Art, therefore, is no longer just a singular phenomenon, but becomes a dynamic dialogue between visions, a montage of emotional and symbolic sequences that compose the inner landscape of creators. Against this background of interdisciplinarity, where music and image intertwine, our senses are invited to evaluate the work of art through the prism of an emotional plasticity and a deep symbolism, which transcends the frames of ordinary composition.

The effective communication and creative collaboration between the two artists highlights a constant concern to penetrate beyond the visible surface of reality, to explore the tension and emotion hidden deep in the mystery of each thematic motive. Thus, their joint creation becomes a brave interpretation, a reception of the mystery through the lens of a bold artistic vision, bringing back to life the vital signs of humanity through a metaphorical re-editing that expresses, in a unique way, the complexity of the human experience.

Through art, seen as a bridge between various forms of expression, you can overcome the limits of individual expression, offering a complex interpretation of life. And for art to become a universal language of emotions, it must overcome cultural barriers and touch the sensitive chords of people from different backgrounds and contexts.

The director's art is to transform a painful thematic motive into a meaningful and moving work of art. Through sensitivity, collaboration and innovation, the director can create an artistic experience that challenges viewers, moves them and makes them reflect on the complexity of life. In fact, the director must find a balance between realism and sensitivity, avoiding excessive melodramatism and sentimentality.

What Does The Eye Lack To Perfect Its Vision?

On March 19, 2023

You cannot admire a thing for its beauty, unless you have thought it beautiful before you liked it.

What makes a random thing like the oil painting on my wall stand out from the crowd is its profoundly different meaning, investigated through a probing question: "Is there a secret hidden here?" And even if the painting itself depends on my eye's property of identifying the universal only through the particular, using here and there the process of allegory, the eye will never be able to use sight in such an unfettered way as to explain the basis of a satisfactory image through a few things.

The eye and beauty in art: perspective ! Let us look for some beautiful, unsuspectedly beautiful things, admire them for their inner or outer beauty, and try to reproduce in drawing an image of them. I believe that absolutely all the surrounding elements, once noticed and reproduced for the intrinsic pleasure of the artist to paint memorable moments, constitute a decorative art of visual origin, art that naturally develops on the basis of a sensory sensibility.

Yes, perhaps I am sensitive at times, especially when I look at a thing with that love that I should be afraid of hurting, a thing taken in relation to myself or the environment. Fact that often makes the transition from the egocentric orientation to the orientation towards the individual experience of understanding the outside. Basically, it is about that aesthetic sensibility that resides from the boundless admiration for the artistic spirit, born from a sweet delirium to which pride is indulged, which you have for a thing to which the vision of the soul is linked, through which man understands the things of reality seen and unseen.

Leadership: Can you convey the emotion manifested by a good visual contact with the thing that attracts you beyond words, in accordance with the norms of a simplicity that emphasizes the titanic dimensions of a vast horizon?

Therefore, the aesthetic sensibility plays an essential role in a well-ordered system, because the very eyes make me anticipate a law of art: "you cannot admire a thing for its beauty, unless you thought it beautiful before you like it". I don't say this for nothing. Because in my soul at that moment I felt the emotion manifested by a good visual contact with the painting that attracted me beyond words, probably mirroring the language full of poetry of an artistic eye that, fulfilling a duty of admiration towards the landscape represented, manifests itself as an illumination of the horizon.

Instinctively, not just imaginatively, I would say that I know what my eyes represent when they are in front of something: I recognize them immediately, I appreciate them as aesthetically harmonious. In other words, the eyes represent a source of memory that never exhausts its subjects or models, without troubling the problem of beauty except when "measure and proportion" vastly exceed in beauty and in execution.

In fact, I would say that the eyes represent the vast horizon of aesthetic concepts integrated in any creation, having the scope of a vision that integrates the immediate in the high dimension of various meanings.

At one point, Socrates asked the beautiful and all-knowing Hippias what beauty itself is, that which added to anything makes it beautiful. And Hippias gave the answer, slightly thoughtful:

"the beautiful is the same as the advantageous and the useful, but the beautiful ones are very difficult".

In this case, the thing that attracts my attention is not so much a simplistic painting, part of it chromatically depicting the spring season, but precisely that weight with which I understand and appreciate simplicity, better than anyone else.

Leadership: Do you turn your gaze excessively to those things so minor, but inherent in the constitution of a vast plot expressed by shaping the infinite into the finite?

Often people do not see what is right in front of them. And seeing, they think they know how to see. I say this because not everything we see represents a vision of the eye, filtered through a chromatic modeling process that involves suggesting light by mixing white in color, and shadow by adding black.

But what happens if my gaze is directed in excess to those things so minor, but inherent in the constitution of a vast plot expressed by shaping the infinite into the finite?

Well, I could find a first answer based on a differentiation of reflected and narrowed light. First, I would start from the idea that any insignificant thing can take the value of the greatest thing, only if you know how to look at it. For example, a leaf, if it is seen with a magnifying glass, or under a microscope, point by point, it would seem like a huge territory inhabited by an infinity of micro-organisms. So, any minor thing can be seen as a great whole, or as a fortified labyrinth, with many tunnels leading in different directions, especially if the eyes know how to perceive the reality from the interior of a temporary, imaginative structure.

Even I would be wary of placing myself anywhere but the most trifling thing, for it would be to neglect my artist's eyes – eyes as penetrating as a magnifying glass, or even as a microscope. In fact, any small detail can represent, quite by chance, the very micro-organism that, together with other micro-organisms, forms in the depths of the drawing the configuration of a symbol perceived only by those who know what they are dealing with.

Not everyone knows how to see infinity in a single point, taken at random in a drawing where each line is a separate object.

The theme that is on the order of the day, on the leadership menu, is the art of looking at things as a whole that shows traces of recombination of different elements, but capable of determining a new overall structure.

Elements such as color, appearance, authenticity, the content of the theme, the symbols addressed, all based on the study of the soul.

What Does The Eye Lack To Perfect Its Vision? Maybe he lacks the ability to differentiate perceptually the characteristics of the elements that make something exceptional. Or maybe he's missing the artist's double vision that doesn't go away when he gets modified optical correction, ranging from long distances to intermediate and short distances.

What Exactly Limits The Quality Of Your Influence?

On April 01, 2008

Leadership is like a web management application that does not have to crash or generate "system errors" that lead to the interruption of command execution or a calculation process.

"Louis XIV was the protector of the writers Corneille, Moliere, Racine and the musician Lully. He did not place much value on the moral code of the time, having many mistresses. But after the passing of his wife in 1683, he married a pious widow, Mrs. de Maintenon, who encouraged him to devote himself more to religion. Thus, Ludovic began to carry a prayer book and a rosary with him everywhere, and the disasters of the wars and the death of several descendants caused much pain. Absolute monarch, obsessed with grandeur and praised by his courtiers, Louis isolated himself from the common people and at his death in 1715, when his lifeless body was transported to St. Denis, the crowd apostrophized, mockingly."(Brian Mooney - Great Leaders)

This short account of the life of the famous monarch highlights a single lesson: greatness is not a work based on the added value brought both by the means of production, by human capital. Rather, it's like a lottery in which you have to be careful who you entrust your data to. For, one day, the player who did not have enough chips to "call", drew a losing card and thus gave his life.

Well, you can positively influence the way other people perceive you, only if you live up to their spiritual and moral ideals, only if you do not block their attempt to adapt to a new context. It's all about their attempt to see themselves as part of a whole that does not wear out, and their actions, without which the whole would be interrupted, must lead to a greater involvement and a more serious concern for order, for quality, for fulfilling objectives.

From the moment the leader establishes a connection with the people, and until he manages to establish the exact relationship between their horizon and his own, it can be quite a long time. And he has the most difficult task in this period of transition to a higher level of performance because he has to reconcile his and their interests, facilitating the transmission of his values and ideals, bringing evidence of the effectiveness of his leadership, developing that initiative aimed at highlighting his personality full of courage and wisdom – that personality who must occupy a place of honor in their lives and expand their circle of influence by applying a development strategy that will give the green light to his initiatives.

Leadership: Is your power of influence limited by the situations you have to deal with because of the important position you hold as you try to build the course of events in the order you want?

What limits the quality of your influence? Your power of influence is always limited. Because the situations that you have to deal with through the important position that you occupy, remain, practically, innumerable, not to say infinite. No matter how skillful and brilliant you are in the art of persuasion, you will not be able to print without hesitation, without contesting your decisions – a finality corresponding to your level of expectations, and to build the thread of events in the order you want.

Someone will always oppose you; someone will not accept you as a leader. But the reality is that rejection is part of the art of leadership, being a basic component of your training as a human being. Leadership is dynamic, and it changes depending on the relationship between you and other people. What level of relationship do you have with the other people around you?

What I have generally noticed about leaders is that everyone makes their own set of rules about the relationships they establish. But personal resources and opportunities to maintain them are also inexhaustible. In other words, it is difficult to establish a relationship, it is difficult to be accepted by people, but once you have achieved this, you can easily find many ways to optimize and amplify their development.

Therefore, building an attitude of awareness, an attitude that keeps you in touch with yourself and then with other people, must be part of the goals of all your orientations. It is your merit to be aware that people need you, your resources of knowledge, faith, trust. But they need to rely on themselves after the relationship is established, they need to feel creative, that is, able to cope with whatever situation they are going through. And that is done only through what they are (and could be) in every moment.

But for that, first of all, they need to recognize your position and be willing for you to invest time, patience, and emotional energy in them.

Do all the paths that people around you walk on converge unto you, even if the way you build your attitude toward yourself isn't directed toward sharing the values of your leadership?

Just as a referee must apply sanctions promptly, in the spirit of true fair play, when the game does not take place within the limits of the rules – so too the leader, in order to increase people's confidence and ability to accept him as their lead, must to express what is characteristic of them — that is, to apply that decision, that solution, that method of rendering and upholding their ideals (in the spirit of true fair play) and of raising them to a higher level.

Building a correct attitude towards yourself and the relationships you establish is not a privileged goal, but a necessary one. All the paths people are walking on should lead to you. Every way of thinking they form must first be connected to your thinking, meaning, it must pass through the "workshop" of your leadership. Consequently, it is worthwhile to focus on sharing the values of your leadership, suggesting to people the inclination towards the well-defined essence of your leadership.

If you share a vision for your own team, and you notice different reactions, why do you think this is happening? In order to get closer to people, it is necessary for your vision to be unanimously accepted, and thus all their paths will converge towards you. Remember that no one can achieve anything great if they offer very little. No team performs without the leader making sacrifices and without giving his best.

Leadership is represented by leader + people, by people + leader. The quality of leadership depends on the leader and the people he leads. And successful leadership is given by the people and by the leader.

Can you persuade people to live up to their leadership duties by using a personal example that brings to their minds the fabulous story of a vision that really affects history in a practical and concrete way?

Have you ever shared a vision of your own team and seen different reactions? Why do you think this happened? In order to lead people more effectively, you need to approach them morally and emotionally.

Do you first have to obtain people's permission in order to lead them, or do you put yourself in charge of them? The answer is pretty obvious. It takes time, effort and commitment to develop positive relationships with those around you, you can't go straight to a high level if you haven't gone through the other levels of communication. Can you name at least one cause that could hinder the qualitative progress of your leadership?

How do you approach a problem of common interest? Because you will not be able to rise to a higher level, you will not be able to increase your power of influence if people around you abandon you, or if they do not accept your decisions. It is as if you have typing in duplicate an important report, but you miss certain letters – which change the meaning of the sentences and the meaning of the content, which causes the report to be canceled.

1. Do you generate errors of clarity in thought and action? Are people dissatisfied with the way you express your beliefs and the way you display your qualities? Do you block any communication with people, nullifying their point of view?

2. Do you exclude any issues of common interest that could affect you and their development? Do you have difficulty transmitting your own coordinates of action and development?

3. Does the value content of your leadership thwart any attempt to keep the relationship with the people around you intact?

Leadership is based on the interaction between the leader and those who represent him, so it is based on the interdependence and cohesion between them. Leadership can be represented by a circle, in which the rays are given by the interaction between the leader and the group – which must be dominant between the center of the circle, where the leader is located and the perimeter of the circle formed by the group. The personal example, but also the leader's ability to stimulate the performance of the team through various means are essential in the fight to achieve the proposed goals.

The relationships you develop with the help of influence are like a book that costs less than four books of the same kind, with the only condition that that book be read and reread as often as possible.

The Quality Of Your Influence can be limited by the way you express your beliefs and the way you display your qualities in a context where any step can be wrong. Remember what I wrote above: In order to increase people's confidence and their ability to accept you as their leader, you need to express what is characteristic of them — that is, you need to apply that decision, that solution, that method to them to reproduce and uphold their ideals (in the spirit of true fair play) and raise them to a higher level.

What Is Beyond The Line Of Sight?

On October 28, 2024

Creation becomes a response to the calls of the soul, when every step you take follows the contours of a vision that transcends the material.

I realized that the only way to make art is to immerse yourself completely in living, through a kind of continuous, self-imposed transformation with purifying action. Oana Fântânaru, my sister, is an example of absolute dedication to art, as she leaves her personal mark on every step, as she overcomes her limits, both physical and spiritual. I still wonder if art, the indefatigable force with which she deeply identifies, claims victory over her entire being before she reaches the heights of art.

This year he won a place on the podium at almost all mountain half-marathons in Romania. With each path traversed, with each peak conquered, her passion not only deepens, but is reconfigured, becoming a "continuous revelation" - mountain trails are no longer just spaces for physical effort, but sanctuaries, places of gathering of the mind where find authenticity. Indeed, she wanders between the desire to overcome physical limits and the call of the mystery that lurks in those wild places, exploring not only the terrain, but also her own fears and aspirations.

Purification through art requires total abandonment, for the essence to be discovered and expressed, especially against the background of an intense, exhausting, but also revealing race. Mountains are not just simple geographical targets, but spiritual mirrors, each stone being a symbol of the obstacles to be overcome. Every moment when she feels "tempted by convenience", Oana lets herself be carried away by the desire to discover what is beyond the line of sight, like an explorer who is not satisfied only with the available maps, but wants to draw new ones with the power of her body to express oneself freely, with varied, complex movements, artistically executed through the harmony between strength and grace, through sequences of jumps and stretches full of grace, through the fusion of technique and spontaneity.

Leadership: Can you recognize in every effort you make a divine sign, a call to a higher spiritual dimension, which profoundly transforms your being into a receiver of higher revelation?

Of course, beyond the line of the seen is that dimension of the spirit freed from physical and mental constraints, starting from the consideration that: "only by overcoming known limits can we find our authenticity." When she participates in competitions, it is as if her every step on the mountain paths becomes an invisible brush, painting with sweat and determination on the infinite canvas of nature. The "whispers of the ancestral stone" echo in her every move, turning simple running into a sacred ritual of becoming. Step by step, he overcomes not only his bodily limits, but also the invisible boundaries of his own consciousness.

This resonates with what I just read on Wikipedia:

The Christian writer Lactantius (ca. 240 – ca. 320) narrates that on the eve of the battle Constantine the Great had a dream in which he was told that before going into battle he should inscribe on the shields of the soldiers the heavenly sign of God - caeleste signum dei . Probably the chi-rha monogram (the letter X crossed by the letter P). But Eusebius of Caesarea in his work "The Life of Constantine" - "Vita Constantini" tells about the appearance in the sky at midday, above the sun, of a luminous cross with the inscription In hoc signo vinces ("Under this sign you will win"). The cross would have appeared to Constantine, but also to his army, while they were in Gaul on their way to the Italian Peninsula. Christ would have appeared to him at night, who would have ordered him to make a flag with the sign he saw.

The revelation of authenticity manifests itself in signs that transcend immediate reality, whether written in the sky or in the purifying effort of mountain running, fundamentally transforming the nature of the recipient. For Constantin, the divine sign came in the form of a shining cross in the sky, while for Oana, revelation manifests itself in moments of perfect fusion between technique and spontaneity. In both cases, overcoming physical limits becomes a gateway to a higher spiritual dimension. Oana has to go beyond physical limits to achieve moments of enlightenment in running, just as Constantine had to overcome his old beliefs to accept the Christian sign.

Leadership: In moments of confronting physical limits, when steep trails and ultimate effort mirror your soul, how can you achieve your vision through authenticity?

In each calculated step, en cada mirada lanzada sobre la línea del horizonte , Oana creates a work of art in which every element is fully organized, the route becoming a metaphor for her inner journey. Her art, marked by a surprising precision, gives meaning to a path immortalized in the memory of the mountain and the viewers, like a stage on which every detail has been orchestrated with finesse and passion. I'd say it's an art of balance, where my sister manages to maintain the special appeal of height and silence, yet dominates the image as a whole, imposing an imposing, overpowering presence. Everyone's eyes are on you when you cross the first finish line, but you only look within yourself when you feel that the entire race was, in fact, a return to your essence.

Surely, every glance cast towards the peaks means a deepening of one's own art. Everything takes place in the space between spiritual revelation and overcoming physical limits. Here, in Oana's art of running on the mountain paths, with incredible grace, skipping steps as if crossing an invisible thread between heaven and earth, new tendencies to combine movement with meditation emerge with elemental force. These are symptomatic of the decisive orientations of modern painting, in which the soul opens itself to the viewer without mask or illusion. In fact, Oana is the embodiment of the new type of artist – a special visionary, exposed to a category where simplicity meets depth, where the image reveals fragments of the inner universe.

In this sense, the elements of Oana's art do not come from the public sphere of life, but derive from a deeply subjective and individual zone: the echo of the dream of becoming a snapshot of pure authenticity runs through her every fiber. For the first time, an artist, without resorting to disguises or pretexts, manages to give visible form to a pure, rational truth, but born from the deepest feelings.

In the heart of nature, in the middle of hills and mountains, we meet an artist who sees the images of the dream as worthy of being laid on canvas, transforming the mountain route into an open-air gallery. The guiding signs to win were everywhere, she followed them and won every time. Clarity of inner vision guides the physical steps toward shaping a perfect image, toward embodying a perfect image, toward revealing an image of authenticity.

Leadership involves recalibrating your perception, transforming your beliefs into authentic guiding landmarks. Two of those benchmarks are: unwavering confidence in your vision and respect for the diversity of perspectives.

What is beyond the line of sight? It is a dimension where dream and reality merge into an image of pure authenticity, where artist and art become one. It is a call to art, a call to the externalization of feelings with the help of the image refreshed in the memory of the world, but also a refuge of the deepest reflections, where the artistic ideal finds its full expression.

What Is Essential Remains Invisible To The Eye

On November 26, 2024

The Creator is that mystery that weaves together existence, making himself invisible where all seems visible.

They are everywhere and nowhere. I am present and at the same time totally unseen. I roam the world with light steps, as if the earth breathes with me, in an unspoken dialogue of existence. The ear of corn, golden now, stretches out like a carpet of living light, each ear carrying within it a dash of the earth's energy. My steps cross it slowly, and my palm caresses the ears in a ritual of returning to the essence of the earth, to the origins. It's as if each touch becomes an imprint in the memory of the universe. It is in this serene and timeless moment that the warm late autumn air carries my thoughts to times past. Between these memories, I feel that every moment is more than what it seems on the surface.

Time, this invisible sculptor of my existence, feels different here through its association with the rhythm of nature and eternity. Every second becomes a fragment of light that feeds my soul, an "Endyexhium Irraetriss Cerneienoh" - that something that transcends words and becomes part of my essence. In this journey, everything seems to dissolve into a continuous present, the cornfield becoming a space where time loses its edges, reflecting the idea that "the present is the only reality that matters." In this intimate atmosphere, I begin to understand that there is no need to look for beauty – it is already here, visible, but hidden in details waiting to be discovered through attention and contemplation.

Nature looks at me gently, as the Creator finds peace. The grass and the sky seem to whisper a silent "we recognize you" in subtle dynamics as an echo of my own search. Further, the happy steps take me to the heart of the city. The little train in the huge amusement wheel follows its circle, and the happy hearts in it beat as if in unison with mine. The people on the train wave at me, yes, it seems to me that they all see me from above, as if we are part of the same dream. And maybe we are.

Leadership: How much does introspective representation define you when you accept narrated experiences as the essence of ongoing creation?

In a perfectly nuanced swing of vivid colors, I slip like an unseen soul through fleeting moments, trying to live each other's moment as if it were my own. I always live between the recollection of these moments and the dream, between creation and reality, where every symbol carries a hidden truth – un frutto che va raccolto solo a piena maturazione .

What can be more intense, more mysterious, than getting lost in the search for yourself?

A shiny shop window reveals me to a salesman who smiles at me. I don't know if he knows me or if he just recognizes a look that is looking for something, triggering a spontaneous connection, like between two pieces of the same puzzle. Yet among all these people, among all the images that come and go, I still seek my reflection. The image beyond appearances. That essence that defines me beyond the visible. It is a virtue to know yourself fully, to shape your self in a demiurgic act. However, I'm looking for a higher meaning, that something that seems to unite with the sparkle of the Creator, transforming origins into images, and experiences into a masterpiece of the soul.

Leadership: How can a seemingly mundane moment become the essence of an entire inner universe when you become aware of the eternity hidden in each passing second?

But the Creator also has a longing, perhaps the same all-consuming longing that the character in Erich Maria Remarque's novel Arc de Triomphe suffered from:

"She took the glass from his hand and drank. She was very beautiful and you could feel that he loved her. She was not beautiful, the way a statue or a painting is beautiful. It had the beauty of an orchard through which the wind blows. It was like the life in her, and who had made her what she was, had formed her by the mysterious meeting of two cells, from the nothingness of a womb. It was the same incomprehensible enigma, as in the seed that contains a whole tree, petrified, microscopic, predestined, even now—the crown, the fruit, and the shower of flowers of April mornings—and that in a night of love and of the meeting to a lump of clay from which a face, shoulders and eyes emerge, and those very eyes and those shoulders, after having wandered foolishly, among the millions of people in the world, to stand on a November night on the Pont de l'Alma in Paris and let them come to you..."

The eye captures details that the soul transforms into eternal memories. As I approach the horizon, a question crosses my mind: What energy can connect me to these fleeting moments, making them part of eternity? Then other questions assail my thoughts. Am I just a bystander among bystanders? Or are they the fixed point of a universe that refuses to stop? Pesemne, in the silence of nature I find answers to questions that I haven't even formulated yet.

Leadership: If your emotions became universes, how could they redefine the unseen stories around you to coincide with the authenticity of your own vision?

The universe is a stage, and every second plays the role of a silent messenger of the meaning I attribute to my being. The Creator also sees, through my eyes, all that is contained in the infinity of the moment, letting everything happen as if time were suspended between dream and reality.

On the seafront, the waves dance to a hypnotic rhythm and the sun reflects its light in their foam, creating a visual symphony. A young acrobat defies gravity with every jump, and his moves are poetry written in the blue sky. Passers-by watch in fascination, and their silence says more than any words. I watch too, feeling that each of his leaps gives me the freedom that I can only find if I have the courage to break free from limitations.

Suddenly, the words of Antoine de Saint-Exupéry, from The Little Prince, pop into my mind : "What is essential is invisible to the eye." Only now do I realize that the moments I live are not just images, but symbols of a deeper freedom, hidden in everyday life. Life is a mirror of the soul, and its beauty becomes visible only to those who open their hearts to the details overlooked by eyes that do not know how to look. Between dream and reality, between light and dark, we discover that we are not just observers, but creators of our own stories.

The acrobat's jumps seem to unite the sky with the earth, and the looks of the passers-by turn into reflections of their own search. The sea breeze caresses my face, and for a moment I feel like I am part of this universal cycle of interconnections and rebirth. An old man with an ice cream in his hand is standing in the shade of a gas station, and his gaze exudes a deep peace. It's as if time has stopped for him, giving him a moment of eternity. In another corner, a salesman smiles at me through a shop window, his simple gesture sending me a silent message: small connections with others give meaning to our existence.

Leadership: In an eternity where reunion and loss harmoniously intertwine, how can you redefine your role as a creator in the face of ephemerality?

People's faces, whether smiling or surprised, give me answers without question. Are they my mirror, or am I their mirror? Perhaps this is all part of a wonderful life, a continuous spectacle of small moments that, together, become eternity. In the end, the Creator remains that mystery that weaves together existence, making himself invisible where everything seems visible.

In this perpetual search for self-discovery through the mirror of the world, every moment becomes a celebration of the miracle of existence. Like a fragile balance between loneliness and belonging, between nostalgia and hope, life unfolds in a succession of magical moments. They remind me that I am simultaneously alone and deeply connected to everything around me. Each moment is a subtle reflection between what is visible and what remains incomprehensible, outlining a universe of infinite emotions.

I still believe in the power of creation beyond any imposed limits. In this way, I assume the role of a creator who passionately embraces any form of mirroring, uniting universal experiences in an act of discovery and understanding. God is also here, in the moment I live. Like me, He looks at everything as goodbye, but always lives, without death. I would like to be able to encompass the infinite, in the form of God, so that I can always remember myself - the one who was lost and found again in the beauty of life...

Turning introspection into creative testimony means redefining your role as a creator, keeping moments forever alive in your memory and enriching them with your own worldview.

What is essential remains invisible to the eye , especially when the truth is revealed in silence, through correspondence with a creator who outlines his work, beyond the limits of ordinary perception. I say this in the conditions where appearances become deceptive, giving way to a process of deep introspection, starting from the consideration that the essence of things cannot be reduced to what is seen. But what you feel when what you see becomes a living extension of a work of art.

What Is Leadership

On April 16, 2009

Never dare to support the transition of power from a single-pole to a multi-polar configuration, without disregarding the wisdom and character of the measure that unity of "All That Is" gives.

I sometimes hear talk about secret societies, about the masonic degrees of the enlightened, as if from a clairvoyant episode known for conspiracy theory. Suspicious individuals (some at the top of the pyramid of society) boasting the privilege of being part of all kinds of undercover organizations, educated in Jesuit -led schools, such as the Order of the Illuminati, Mystery Babylon, the Illuminati of Bavaria, the Order of 7, individuals who called themselves the "Perfectibles" due to the exploitative and interventionist function of their thinking.

You need a lot of patience to reinforce the meaning of their thinking, which inspires no idea of the ideal, no motivation to the humanity of science, to the propagation of culture. We find in their case only expressions full of hidden spirit words in the form of a tangled language, with many symbols and meanings, because "as above, so below". Interesting figure of speech for those who really understood what she is referring to (and for that you have to be a writer).

But the universe doesn't care much about secret organizations. God exists, certainly, and He rules everything in this world by the force of supramolecular molecules and structures, ions, atoms, photons, and so on. There is enough of a single "impulse" that comes from who knows where, for man (big or small) to change his plans categorically. Other times you need a trigger for total change, so that the world does not forget that it is so fragile in front of the divine fire metaphorically expressed by dueling with a dragon with countless heads and faces.

And if we have entered into a game of ambiguities, it is worth mentioning here the words of the Romanian writer Cornel A. Ailincăi: "We should remember that any territory, however vast and however free in the open, has within its limitlessness a hidden rhythm, a cosmic norm of ordering that puts the game of its infinite forms in the dependence of structures and functions understood only by the Great Creator, never by ordinary mortals."

Leadership: Is the strength of your virtues measured in the ability to watch over every aspect of spiritual life, in assessing the likelihood of undergoing a greater reversal of situations that do not give you stronger reasons to nurture the memory of past times?

I was reading somewhere that before the Second World War, the Russians came into possession of a secret material in which a new world order was envisaged, or the taking over of the world by who knows what secret grouping. And the tough guys decided to invade Germany.

The most inconvenient problem was Adolf Hitler, the element invisible to the leading minds in the shadow. When the universe sends someone, good or bad, this individual messes up all the plans of the world. A real catastrophe, an epidemic, a tsunami, an earthquake, a fatality of divine punishment, an unforeseen asteroid miraculously fallen from the sky (though there was a similar case once in the middle ages). Many would not have wished for such a nightmare in a game of prolonged agonies, torments and hallucinations, but always the Moving Heaven Victory must be well understood, categorically and without the right of appeal, by all ordinary mortals.

Russia was stopped at that time from an attempt to invade Germany (and was saved only by weather conditions from Hitler's subsequent invasion, see Operation Barbarossa), and France surrendered almost overnight to Nazi Germany and Italy. The French cried with bitter tears, poor souls, as the German armies marched through Paris.

Leadership: In the turmoil of the events you experience with intensity, can you distinguish a longing for past sacramental blessings, but also an isolation from the care of God that you chose to ignore?

And what did secret societies and Freemasonry across Europe do in the midst of these changes in the plan of the universe? They were destroyed, all with their secrets, all with symbols, all with riches ! There was no trace of enlightenment left in Europe.

They all ran away like cowards, wherever they could, far from the horrors of war. Most of the survivors fled to America, not Russia, because the Russians did not tolerate these rare intelligences. People of the "Super-Intellectualism" species always seem to be very knowledgeable when it comes to drawing up plans for the world order, but they never show any courage when confronted with a symbol of Divine Wrath. Who would have the courage?

As a conclusion, and a personal opinion. Men with their heads on their shoulders, please leave the mystical badges and affiliations in secret groups, because at the first sign of the universe you will all run away like ants in the path of fire, you will not know where to scramble. Just one asteroid dropped miraculously from the sky, just to your right, and you'll immediately realize how small and insignificant you are in front of the universe. Learn the lessons of history and make sure that events do not have to be presented in an order reversed by Someone or Something much stronger than we mortals !

The best leaders apply themselves and do something useful for the Planet, they are defenders of the humanity of science, not defenders of plans devoid of spiritual brilliance !

Leadership is the divine sign that we must take into account when events seem to not happen in the order we want, in relation to the power of impressions and emotions that the contrast between what was and what is Job – between his condition in times of prosperity and the one to which he had been brought by suffering.

What Is Love (II)

On August 23, 2017

Learn to recognize your individuality and appreciate it to your true value in the way the artist relates to that beauty ideal in the sphere of successful music in the feeling of a moment without end.

It seems to me a little dispelled the manifestation of this personal will to overcome uncertain strength, to notice what must be overlooked and to follow the choice of a contrasting force between appearance and essence. But this trend of expansion to those still unseen, but hopeful, should be noted, if we want to understand both the way of listening to the "cry" of creation, as a sublime view of the mountain peak, and the artist of full maturity in the art of singing, in a perpetual revolt against the vulgar kitsch.

The last of the coincidences that follow me in the process of expanding the means of expression is the closeness to that state of mind where I can experience intense creativity accompanied by euphoria, suspending the notion of time and deep involvement, until identification with the work I do. Someone called this phenomenon "flow state."

I believed that the great talents, beyond the sublime demonstration of virtue of understanding and practicing the aesthetics of a certain style, the aesthetics of a certain time "then" and a certain place in a space of thought deduced from the perspective of honoring a destiny, it bases its art exclusively on the idea of beauty.

Or, rather, beauty consisting of the suave harmony between rhyme and rhythm, a fusion of the word with the note, is the content of art these artists never detached from the mirage of the dangerous love that would risk everything: "I give you my love, but you don't care ! "

There are people and happenings that you involuntarily forget, just as the artist forgets his ego, narcissism, and decides to explore what lies beyond the complexity of engaging in a variety of forms of creation. And of course, no one has regretted this natural thing, as many others regret. But always the color palette's alchemist remains faithful to that nuance of tolerance, between pleasure and suffering that he demands from intuition. That shade of purple is rarely found in nature: "I want no other, no other lover."

Leadership: Is your attitude towards what you have to do noticed by an approach to the ideal of beauty that will never be achieved?

The rationale of approaching the Great Creator is similar to the abstract aspirations towards beauty, which feeds on the ability to dominate a world, the feeling of belonging to a higher form of loyalty in the relationship with the Universal Voice. I come to recreate the whole spirituality of mankind and raise it to a higher level of the sublime. Here is the essence of art !

Even though my work does not reach the ideal of beauty I had hoped for, it does in return something far more important: it builds a theory that is not in line with reality. That is why it must not be produced by an abstract aspiration towards beauty, but by the conjugal activity of all the forces and capacities of man to relate to what is superior in the depth of his being. What can be superior to me, other than the infinite idea? "What else can I say?"

Sometimes I try to sneak into a private setting, perhaps manage to control the tendency towards unity between idea and image, the formal principle of any technique. My eyes, like those of old Rembrandt in a novel by John Fowles, look forever beyond the canvas, from the height of the genius who is aware of his greatness, but remains helpless in the face of human reality.

The painting, the sublime work of art, does not appear to be in its place in that salon of the eighteenth century, but proclaims a truth that such an environment aims to suppress: "I know we're one / Just me and you."

Leadership is the artist's transition from the stage of "perceiving" to the stage of "understanding" the highest idea of art that has as its main determinant the transformation of a destiny into a dialogue of authentic values.

Always the man who does not believe in chance, the same man who goes on the path of art in spite of the deviations from his usual conventions, proves to be enlivened by great and nurturing thoughts, just as Pygmalion felt instilled by a growing affection for his sculpture. But when he reaches the pinnacle of his potential, in the face of his last attempt to make a realistic outline of his art, he remembers the words of John Fowles:

"Ultimately, what matters is not only skill, knowledge, intelligence, luck or lack of luck, but knowing how to choose and learning how to feel."

It is exactly the same thing that the artist is preparing through art, trying to surprise by throes and labor the most touching moments of his life, not to impose, by the means of expression, sometimes interrupted by utterances clear and emphatic: "When we are together, I need you forever."

Leadership that best matches the composition of art aims to promote dialogue between "knowing how to choose" and "learning to feel."

Knowing how to choose the right rhyme and learning to feel the rhythm before composing a piece, this is the true class of an artist that relates to that beauty ideal in the sphere of music, then successfully crowned in the feeling of a moment without end: What Is Love.

What Is Love In The Context Of The Meaning Of The Self?

On March 04, 2008

Try to capture the essence of a moment, without limiting yourself to what you have seen or heard separately, so that your perception produces the impression of "endless".

He felt empty and didn't know why. As if the heat of his body was slowly leaking through his skin, as if his blood wanted to lean on something that wasn't there and was always, always falling into a void. This emptiness is like a hand coming out of the darkness, wanting to take you right in. Was it love? Give love. How she handled that word, he thought. Without thinking, like an empty glass. He filled it with something, which he called love. With how many other beautiful things it had been filled before! With the fear of being alone - with a tendency towards another self - with the glittering reflection of a fantasy - but what did she really know? Wasn't what he had said, with the aging together? Wasn't she much fairer in her spontaneity? And why am I sitting here, on a winter's night, between wars, and debating words like a teacher? Why do I resist instead of confusing myself with distrust itself?

Leadership: Can you be a living example of how time and circumstances can transform perceptions and feelings, promoting the values of the concept of "everything converges to greatness"?

The increasingly firm distance between the ideal meaning of love and the signifier of the Self that finds its peace only through the warmth of the body, increases the nuance of "everything converges towards greatness" type thinking and leads to the intensification of the elaboration of more and more general ideas, such as the idea that the person for whom today you would sacrifice anything might, in a few months, make you cross the street (or the bookstore) to avoid them.

Human history is full of such erroneous examples. Whereas, in the structure of the signal that the feeling of attachment generates, the empty and the full, the meaning and the signifier are not yet differentiated, in the human structure, because the meaning does not move further and further away from the signifier. The sign belongs to nature, the sign belongs to desire.

Here are three human values that could promote this concept of "everything converges to greatness"

Positive outlook: You must have an optimistic outlook on life and circumstances. By thinking positively and focusing on the good aspects of experiences and challenges, you will be able to see every event or obstacle as an opportunity for personal growth and development.

Perseverance: When you persevere in the face of adversity and don't give up on your goals, you will bring to life the idea that every effort you make contributes in some way to a greater end result. Through perseverance and determination, you demonstrate that the road to success may be difficult, but that each step forward is a step toward greater achievement.

Empathy and collaboration: Understanding and supporting those around you are essential to promoting the idea that "everything converges towards greatness". Through collaboration and empathy, you can create deep connection with someone to overcome obstacles and achieve shared goals, bringing to life the idea that all individual efforts contribute to a greater collective outcome.

Leadership: How do you assess the impact that freedom of expression has on personal development, in the context of exploring the emotions that make you feel alive within the dimension of authenticity?

Love is, indeed, a sum of emotions and thoughts through which people regulate their relationships with each other in society, especially since life does not always offer you great chances to be happy. Sometimes it's just an illusion. But, by making the right tool, such as speaking with a special soulful tone, or through fine gestures, man became the only being capable of giving his nature chosen, deep, special meanings. Being a means of communication and elaboration of emotional information, the sign of love unites in and through it matter and the following idea: "everything that is empty can be filled with something that lasts". This sign is important not because of the sensitive matter it presents, not only through gestures, small attentions and words whispered in a kiss, calm, with infinite nuances of meanings and interpretations, but because of the idea that the soul represents the really important point of attraction in a couple.

Love, rendered through a deep and authentic connection with our inner essence, a joining of our hearts with others in a way that allows us to express and experience our authenticity and compassion, must always be kept free, never constrained or restricted. It is a force that unites us by filling the void between us, along the lines of a subtle balance, and allows us to develop our understanding of ourselves and others in a deep and meaningful way.

A leader realizes how the exposure of emotions in a unique setting can transform the visual perception of his inner reality so as to create a unique setting for his way of perceiving and evaluating the world around him.

What is love in the context of the meaning of the self? It's a way to receive an expressive image in the way you interpret the following message: "I'm here for you".

What Is Love (I)

On August 20, 2017

Be free to express yourself not by imposing a domination that allows the continuation and reimagination of a "masterpiece", but by identifying that way of interpreting the pure experience that allows the feeling of authenticity to be triggered.

I live at the boundary between two worlds, their thoughts and their memories, from which the tangled substance of interpretive imagery based on desires and fears seems to have come out. Everything that surrounds me is subject to the shadowy look of criticism pushed to the analysis of the difference between what I can change and what happens to me.

A fact that provides support in understanding the complexity of my being, its thoughts and manifestations, as a perpetual expansion of the Battleground between the force that triggers certain mental processes (attention, perception, intuition, consciousness) and the subconscious response to the consequences of a failure of creative power.

"What Is Love" is a perpetual reason for activating the exit from a roundabout, an exercise to justify my escape from a reason that, like the shortcomings of a sandy beach, is based on the nostalgia of past times. Do you know what unpredictable powers are hiding in a melody, in the splendid art of sounds and tones, in an inspired choice of words, at an energetic rhythm you hardly manage to get your head off, and how it can help make it better and easier for you in your life?

All gain coherence, unforced understanding, increased intensity, causing a state of connection to something immeasurable and indestructible. Just as when you manage to ignite your imagination with the enigma of the depths of a sensibility that resembles a resurrection to express itself, of a near-real hotness, life generating a letter and a point, a value of a musical note, accompanying the role of moderator, a masterpiece: "Just me and you".

Leadership: What support do you find in understanding the temptation to go beyond the limits of rational dominance over the phenomenon commonly called "life"?

I live with the impression that if I engage with all the intensity of my thoughts in an emotional context, like when you first meet someone special, by completing a double screen in which half becomes the echo of the other, I will be able to distract my eyes, the imagination, the mind and the soul, with new episodes from a significant space, a great transition to a new beginning, authentic and maybe even eternal. A space full of challenges and fulfillments, lively and colorful, where everything is relative, based on the emotional torment between "What is right?" and "What is wrong?"

There are some who have not learned a musical note in their lives, neither treat the intelligent approach of a score, nor move in a great way in the rhythm of a mad piece, nor understand the true value of the chorus: "Baby, don't hurt me / Don't hurt me no more". But sing extraordinarily by ear. Dance like nobody cares. That way they feel at ease.

Their support is the impetus to a realm that they do not master too well, but they consciously experience it as a kind of rupture felt between the poet and the genius from which a philosophy of individual liberation is born from that dependence on the complexity conveying the idea of perfection. A philosophy that accompanies the artistic movement that consists in representing thoughts and feelings in the act of creation in a spontaneous manner.

It is a kind of selfishness that is above the state of complication, multiplication and fragmentation of the particular, which is caused by the strain for greater pleasure, for a faster success, which takes you away from the rivalry between what is good and what is bad, what is perfect or imperfect.

In art, we must see man's perception of perfection, where the impossible beginning is at times as much as half of the whole success, but in particular we must observe a creator's shortcomings of the source of happiness that he contemplates and which subsequently enters another line of his concerns.

Leadership is a combination of potentiality and expression on the basis of which those extended moments of interaction between man's expectation towards performance and his release from the complexity addiction that conveys the idea of perfection.

The sever fidelity of my thoughts to the content of a single that represents me deeply, to the fact that it manages to fill any void in me, even incomprehensible in this unfolding life of fantasy and mystery, prepares the great pass beyond the limits and the meaning of perspective representation in art.

The change that my art initiates, the last phrase that ends a novel I will never write, is a preview of a frame from an imaginary landscape connected to the voice of a man who wants to be heard interpreting a combination of several musical styles linked by a common denominator: "This is our life, our time."

What Is Love is that act of understanding life intensely passed through the filter of art, causing a state of connection to something immeasurable and indestructible that supports the enthusiasm and energy that should give evidence to become free.

Be free to express yourself not by imposing a domination that allows the continuation and reimagination of a "masterpiece", but by identifying that way of interpreting the pure experience that allows the feeling of authenticity to be triggered.

It is a pleasure to seek perfection by referring to the deciphering of the meaning of a masterpiece, but is this occupation according to your taste and your way of being?

What Is Or Who Is God?

On July 15, 2020

The result of an inner calling is the revelation of a God who gave life to man to reflect and support the evolution of his knowledge.

God exists, I told myself, but what God is, we will never know. Our knowledge and vocabulary are limited, all we can try to say about God is just a clumsy comparison. Even Revelations is also written by humans. It's stupid to talk about words, because they are also explained in words. Since God is, he is infinite and eternal, and what is infinite and eternal, even if they are only words, is always and everywhere, both in the finite and the infinite world. Therefore, God is and always acts in every moment, even if we do not know what his existence and action are beyond the concepts of our finite world.

God is in me and outside of my being, always and in every moment. It unites love and hate, faith and unbelief, passion and purity, so that nothing contradicts God, but we will never know how such a thing is possible. But if I believe in God, I believe at the same time in the incarnation of the Word and all that follows, and that God, revealing Himself in Christ, was all man and all God and there is nothing left here that is contradictory or disturbing to the mind. And the Holy Trinity is such a logical and rational symbol for the essence and mode of action of God in the world of the finite and the infinite, that it seems to me at the moment the most important knowledge.

*Because of the finite character of words, it is only a symbol, but because of the essence and action of God, it is, at the same time, more than a symbol. **

Leadership: Can you convince yourself of the correctness of your words beyond the concepts of a finite world, so as to give meaning to the existence and action of an all-powerful entity that surpasses any skill in protecting its understanding?

I read the lines above, written by Mika Waltari about God, and draw a conclusion. God exists, is everywhere, is eternal, but no one can see his face and no one can discern his identity. We all have something to write about God, many people may have known Him through written words as a poem of love or bravery, but no one will ever be able to know what He is or who He really is. Why?

Because if the world knew who God really is, and if God were to be noticed by everyone, then the world would get used to Him and He would become a normal thing. A banality, an improbable substitute for ignorance, incompetence and lack of interest. For he who becomes accustomed to a thing for a long time begins to give it up, to get bored of it, and to stop believing in it. In a way, you have to be covered in magic if you want to keep people's interest and attention burning.

What fascinates man, his gaze, his soul, his mind and his spiritual faculties is that very note of Hocus Pocus That Will Blow His Mind.

Therefore, any word that has God in the foreground must be a metaphor, a personification, or a comparison with an incompletely known, incompletely identified, yet sublime entity, because it makes everyone believe in something that gives them hope, to which to pray, and to last after death. The importance of the knowledge on which the existence of God depends competes with that phenomenological perception of art which includes the action of creating a work later invested with the name of a masterpiece.

Leadership: Are you on the threshold of a knowledge that focuses exclusively on an expression like "even if there is no God, there is at least one returned value that shows the conditions under which a story has ended"?

In order to recognize yourself in your words, for your soul to resonate with what you write, any notion you approach must become the subject around a living reality. Many are willing to believe that their model of reality corresponds to the fullness of faith, without intuiting what true faith is and without turning faith into a religion of knowledge based on duality.

And the change of the image in the foreground appears objectively only when mistrusts or oppositions appear to which we cannot respond, being able only to defend ourselves with an expression like "even if there is no God, there is at least a returned value that shows under what conditions a story is over".

This value returned in the space of words can have as correspondent the very force with which they feed the human soul, striking in his sensitivity and consciousness, so that the evolution of this man acquires the status of authority or person favored by a destiny full of meaning, less full of sinuosity. On the other hand, words can justify the sinuosity of the path you are taking, or they can justify your degree of credibility in choosing a new perspective in life. And God's authority can also be felt in carefully choosing the words used to bring you fulfillment or unfulfillment.

Right was he who spoke the words: "All fades in the face of the words you are able to discipline to shape your thinking path."

Words resonate strongly in the souls of men, in the consciousness of mankind. And once again I find myself forced to refer to the words spoken by Mika Waltari, when Young Johannes spoke to himself in a moment of lucidity:

"How do the most learned, the wisest people in the church imagine that they can comprehend the mystery of divinity in words? Only the contradictions of the Fathers and even of the Bible show that this matter is beyond human comprehension. So it must be, because if God were in our sense, if He were to be contained in words, then there would be no God."

Words are an open invitation to enter into the reciprocity of God's action, loving the divine presence in man and therefore being partakers of God's work. They hit or forgive. They give meaning to everything, always returning other meanings. Therefore, when we speak of God, we are favored to value our suffering or joy by introducing into our destiny the status of "traveler" assigned to the soul that can turn more to good, and less to evil.

The idea of omnipotent providence is important in leadership, especially in terms of the words used to indicate the path worth following by every man who aspires to a higher degree of understanding of philosophy and knowledge, insisting that the human spirit is "an area wider than conscience".

What Is Or Who Is God? Well, think of the answer in words. But first look around, remember everything that happens to you, and try to learn the teachings of life. The secret to knowing God is the creativity with which you combine pieces that seem completely different, so as to justify getting out of a maze simply called life.

At the same time, God can be a man endowed by nature with a higher intelligence, just as the Morning Star shines brighter than any other star, but is actually exercised through a form of manifestation of moving matter, through spirit, consciousness and reason. Can you find a word that fully reflects this truth?

I will conclude here, also with a quote from Young Johannes's dialogues with himself:

"There is no greater humility than that of these people, the greatest scholars of our age, who feel the limits of their intelligence and the inaccuracy of their writings, but still agree to devote their time and skill, to use their will and knowledge to find a common and acceptable formulation for what we know about God."

What Is The Autobiographical Nature of The Film?

On August 29, 2011

To excel in cinematography, you must demonstrate the ability to distill personal emotional experiences and sublimate them into complex narratives, translating them into metaphors and images.

This indefinite seething, which boils in the cauldron of the filmmaker's imagination, also encompasses the material of emotional memory accumulated throughout life. It has been assumed more than once that "Ivan the Terrible" also has an autobiographical meaning. But the statement, insufficiently based on an argument that could handle real biographical data, remained unconvincing. Moreover, sometimes, by forcing similarities and parallels, the comparison in a biographical sense takes on a ridiculous air through its simplicity. And yet, the autobiographical note of "Ivan" is certain.

The autobiographical character of the film does not reside, however, in the external similarity of the situations. It appears in two senses: "Ivan" encompasses an affective experience – let's call it, the memory of some personal emotions, of some psychic states of essential importance that the director had gone through, which however appear sublimated in the film, translated into the form of metaphors related to cinematic storytelling. Then, "Ivan" is born from the distillation of the entire creative experience up to now, including part of it, developing older themes, resuming others that are now returning in a new form.

A visionary leader knows how to transform his own affective memory into an artistic material, using life experiences to give depth and authenticity to his stories.

The analysis of the autobiographical character of a film like 'Ivan the Terrible' is usually done when the director's personal experiences are brought in the form of fine metaphors, because it is difficult to obtain a very direct and homogeneous representation of the character's original life, so as to record an optimal emotional transmission to the audience (recommended values for the maximum impact of the cinematic narrative).

According to the theory of cinematic creation, if one goes from personal experience in its pure state to its transposition into film, the decrease of all authenticity is achieved gradually, while the intensity of emotional transmission depends on the product between the depth of life experience and the size of the metaphorical transposition into cinematic language. In this context, the emotional refraction index of personal experiences in relation to the cinematic environment in which they are presented represents, in fact, the degree of transformation of real emotion into cinematic emotion, and the extent of the metaphor used brings the message closer to universality.

The autobiographical character of a film may reside not in the external similarity of the situations, but in the affective experience and essential psychological states of the director, translated into cinematic metaphors.

Of course, the emotional transmission is more accentuated in scenes with strong impact (where the emotional charge is greater), especially if the personal experience resonates with the common experiences of the audience. This effect is attenuated if the personal experience is embedded in a narrative context with an emotional refractive index as close as possible to that of the director's real experience and if the metaphor used, such as the "mirror of the soul", is very subtle.

This approach emphasizes the importance of the balance between the authenticity of the personal experience and the ability to transmit it in a universally accessible way through cinematic language. Of course, the director must find the optimal point between preserving emotional authenticity and using cinematic techniques to amplify the impact on the viewer.

Thus, the autobiographical character of the film "Ivan" does not lie in the external similarity of the situations, but in two essential aspects: the film encompasses a deep affective experience of the director, a memory of fundamental emotions and psychic states, sublimated and translated into the metaphorical language of the cinematic narrative. In addition, the film "Ivan" is born from the distillation of Eisenstein's entire previous creative experience, developing and resuming older themes in a new and more complex form.

The essence of artistic leadership lies in the ability to integrate the creator's deep psychic experiences, sublimating them and transforming them into central elements of the cinematic narrative.

What does the autobiographical character of the film lie in? It consists in integrating the director's essential emotional and psychic experiences, sublimating them into the cinematic narrative and translating them into complex visual metaphors. Especially since these personal experiences deeply influence the way the characters and the atmosphere of the film are built, giving it an authenticity that is difficult to replicate.

What Is The Phoenix?

On April 06, 2010

How you shape your visual representations of reality can serve as a vehicle for displaying your own inner light, even in your darkest moments.

And now, tell me, what is the Phoenix?

- Isn't it Ra's soul?

- AND?

- Isn't it Osiris too?

- AND?

- I don't know anymore, Cheops confessed.

- Then come with me, I will show you the Phoenix, before I reveal its nature to you.

Anhaf moved away, while Cheops followed the Great Seer, who led him around the base of the obelisk, a four-part set of sloping blind walls, each one hundred and fifty paces long and more than one hundred and fifty feet high. steps. Only a low and narrow door, located behind the massive monument, gave access to the interior of the monument, which, at first glance, seemed full, intended only to serve as a plinth for the obelisk. They entered a low, square hall, lighted by oil lamps, set upon narrow boards formed by a broad brick inserted in the masonry, behind which polished copper plates were fixed, to reflect the feeble light of the lamps. The four walls of the hall had only one opening: apart from the entrance, the other three sides opened to deep galleries, also lit by burnt earth oil lamps.

Benu grabbed the arm of Cheops, who wanted to go to the gallery in front of the entrance door.

Leadership: How confidently can you venture into the unknown, guided by your senses, to reveal a visual perception to guide you down the right path?

Penetrating the hidden sanctuaries of knowledge fuels your courage to follow those who have the vision to discover them, in accordance with the subjectivity of your own experience.

- Prince, he said to him, you are showing a bravery and a determination that could be fatal to you, thus setting off for the first door you meet on the way, without thinking!

- What kind of thinking would make me choose one door and not another? Cheops said in wonder.

- A kind of thinking that is acquired not through science, but through intuition. See: in front of you, to the left and to the right are three doors. Each one opens to dark galleries, with many detours, they intersect, lead to dead ends, to bottomless wells or to stairs that take you, slowly, into the bowels of the Earth. But only one door can lead you to the place of ultimate initiation. The others are like the Duat, like the world of the dead, haunted by demons, full of deadly traps. The daring profane who would enter alone and secretly into the hall where we are, and enter at random into one of these galleries, trying to learn its secrets, would certainly never reach the light again, disappearing into the midst of darkness. For in the deep and remote parts of these galleries, the light suddenly disappears and probably the one who ventures finds himself in the most impenetrable darkness.

- If he is prudent, he can take a torch with him.

Leadership: To what extent can you own the perspective that a building is not just a shelter, but a visual representation of a balance between exposure and protection, in perfect symbiosis with the surrounding nature?

- Do you feel equipped with all the necessary resources to face the darkness that awaits you, or is there still much to discover on the road to true sight? In a labyrinth so carefully constructed, is the light of your own consciousness enough to guide you, or is more understanding needed to decode the hidden messages of the architect who designed this space?

- Let me tell you more. We do not know by what mystery these lamps, which burn all the time, eat the air. But if the skilful architect who designed this construction and these galleries had not provided numerous ventilation ducts, which take the air from outside, those who would enter these galleries would die of suffocation. Now you must know that only the single corridor, which leads to the mysterious heart of the sanctuary, receives air from the outside. That's why we can reach and stay there with lamps and torches, without running the risk of running out of air. But the profane who would get lost through the other labyrinthine galleries - if the god does not help him find the way that will bring him back to the lighted places and to the exit - would soon perish. For if he continues to light his way, the fire will burn his air and he will soon die of suffocation, and if he extinguishes the torch, he will soon die of thirst and hunger in the darkness.

- Benu, you scare me! What treasure is hidden in the heart of this sanctuary, to be thus protected?

- Do not think that there are riches in gold and lapis-lazuli. There are things that the profane can neither see nor touch; for it would provoke the wrath of Ra and Isis. And you will find out the reason after you penetrate the secrets of such a mystery. If I tried to reveal them to you now, you would either not understand my language, or I would reveal to you what is yet to be revealed except to the initiated. Now follow me with confidence.

An aspirant to the status of omniscient must have something of the quality of an architect: he must relate intuitively to the dynamics of space, having the conviction that structure corresponds not only to a physical necessity, but also to a higher visibility necessary for survival.

Phoenix is a mysterious labyrinth, the sacred space of knowledge, into which few dare to enter, and even fewer manage to find their way out. The architect of this labyrinth is not only a creator of spaces, but an opener of new perspectives in the interpretation and use of the world, given that every element is strategically placed to facilitate a revelatory experience.

Initiation into the mysteries of this sanctuary is, in itself, an experience that shapes your perception of the world and your role in deciphering and obeying the unwritten laws of nature and divinity. In the context where reality and symbolism intertwine in the design of this sanctuary, how should you interpret those secret, closed passages whose access is strictly controlled by ventilation engineers?

What Is The Role Of A Leader In His Own Life Story?

On February 21, 2009

Deepen every level of leadership so that you can get people to align with your beliefs, ideals, and actions.

I want to continue in this article a very important idea that captures the essence of leadership, an idea that I started in the article "The Secret Workshop of Leadership".

For those who haven't read my blog post, I'd like to summarize the subject a bit. At the beginning of "The Devil's Advocate (1997)", Kevin Lomax, a very ambitious young lawyer, manages to acquit his very wealthy client (who had been convicted of double rape). Immediately after this success, Kevin is recruited by the famous law firm "Milton, Chadwick Waters".

And it wasn't a long way from here to Hell. His wife dies, his mother dies, and his friends mysteriously disappear. His life is falling apart. The culprit was none other than his adoptive father, John Milton, who, at the end of the film, offers to join him and "serve" sin and the devil himself. But Kevin, overwhelmed by the memory of his wife, makes an unexpected gesture: he commits suicide, ending this pact with the devil.

At the end of the film, the events unfold back, and we see Kevin Lomax again, entering the courtroom, bewildered, where he had to defend the defendant accused of rape. Here he meets his beloved wife, and due to the reunion, due to the feelings he had for her, he decides not to represent his client, thus refusing to morally decay. Love saved him from moral failure.

Leadership: Do you have to give up what you are for what you can become, or do you have to face "sin" to figure out who you have to give yourself to?

What role do you feel you can really play? The role of a leader never goes unnoticed, so he has to decide whether he can play that role or not. So the biggest role of a leader is the role that he feels he can really play. But this role must be played in accordance with the criteria of honesty and integrity, which define the character of the leader.

Leadership has an integrative character and shows the spiritual and ethical dimension of the leader. For leadership to reach maturity, the leader must somehow guarantee his or her obligations, and his or her behavior must not affect his or her self-image in any way. But at the same time, the turn leadership takes (dependent on other factors) must not affect one's personal life.

Leadership is dynamic, and it changes depending on the relationship between you and other people. Just as a player cannot be penalized for an offside when he has at least two opponents closer to him than their own goal line – so is the case with you, in order to climb the leadership ladder, you must reduce the risk of being penalized by other people when you break the rules and deviate from the moral standards imposed by them.

Because yes, people set the tone for choosing a leader. So, it is absolutely necessary to regulate your relationship with them morally and emotionally. And when the discrepancies between you and other people are too great, it is better to give up – because continuing is akin to tilting at windmills.

Leadership: Is your performance affected by a trait that someone else identifies with and dominates you by inducing a sense of guilt that causes you to be submissive and always allow things you otherwise wouldn't?

How do you advance on the leadership ladder? (Do you have to give more to reach a higher level? How do you morally and emotionally regulate your relationship with the people around you? Is your leadership more insecure the more you advance in your career? How do your emotions and feelings affect your performance?

Consequently, it is worthwhile to focus on consolidating and sharing values that immunize and enhance the power of your own Ego, and then suggest to people the inclination to the well-defined essence of circumstances that can strengthen their character. The way you conceive your character, the way you interpret your role, with realism and involvement, with balance, with responsibility and lucidity, marks that dimension of your leadership that allows you to continue the process of convergence to the standard accepted by those who must follow you.

These are the questions that any leader must answer in front of his "I" and decide whether to continue on the path in one way or another, or give up.

The way you conceived your leadership, the way you interpreted your leadership role so far – was it done in the right way? Do you encounter the spontaneous tendency of people to accept leadership based on honesty and morality? Are you navigating a deep tunnel that leads you to nothing? Do you think it's possible to lead people without knowing yourself? Do you deviate from moral norms and professional ethics? How did you set out to achieve happiness through leadership? What do you think is the factor that can stop your momentum and demotivate you to rise higher in the hierarchy?

Regardless of the level of consciousness a leader reaches, he must always return to the first level of power: that of preventing his own victimization.

The higher you get, the more likely you are to feel the need to return to the first level. As your influence grows, you may find that the people around you are "disappearing". It goes without saying that influence does not automatically mean a high-quality level of leadership, but can lead to values, and thus to the exclusion of happiness. What is the price you have to pay to achieve happiness through leadership? Because the higher you get, the more commitment you need to stay there. You don't get to something great if you offer very little, or if you deviate from moral norms and professional ethics. But you're also not getting much if you're tilting at windmills.

One thing is true for leaders who aspire to a healthy lifestyle. It is not only their potential that is valued by those around them, but their whole personality, their whole style of making themselves understood, of conveying what they feel, therefore, of empathizing with those around them. How one dresses at a certain moment, how one expresses their feelings, thoughts and opinions, how one behaves in different circumstances, etc. But it is no less true that this style, even if elevated, is not always accepted and does not always correspond to the rules of the majority.

Establishing relationships with other people, but failing to understand yourself, is like navigating a deep tunnel that leads to nothing. You are basically sinking into the darkness of your own ignorance, limited by yourself, but especially by the chains of outward prejudice – moving further and further away from that beneficent light that fills your soul with peace and joy. Tip: Respect your leadership duties by re-evaluating the way you perceive your own being, but constantly evaluate the "status" of the people you lead, as well as the positive changes you make.

Leadership is the power to see how far you can go, reevaluating the way you perceive your own being in terms of a meaningful life.

The Role Of A Leader In His Own Life Story is that of the immortal presence of the divinity in himself. Furthermore, what Yoga Swami said must be kept in mind: "Do not interfere with those who have no real interest in spirituality."

What is a Manager and what role does he have in a Company?

On January 01, 2009

The manager is for a company what a conductor is for an orchestra.

The other day, I watched a concert of symphonic music, on the well-known channel Mezzo. Looking at the conductor and the instrumentalists, I've noticed a very interesting thing which, at that moment, I couldn't explain. Each instrumentalist had in front of him a score, not lifting his eyes from it. So, what's the sense of the conductor in all this affair, if nobody in that orchestra looked at him?

A quick search on Google enlightened me. The conductor is "the man with the wand" and his contribution to the quality of a music interpretation represents more than 80%. His role is to maintain the rhythm until the end of the concert, to coordinate and harmonize all the instruments permanently, so that each of them to be integrated in the score, and of course, he has to interfere in case the composer's indications are not respected.

Moreover, the conductor is the one who chooses the musicians who will play in a concert because he is the only one who can observe the interpretative skills and the qualities of each person. I also have to mention that the training of a conductor it's special than the rest of the musicians – it is imperative for him to know from head to toe all the score, the tempo, the interventions of the instrumentalists, and also he should know at least three instruments to perfection. Without a conductor to coordinate in a professional manner, the musicians and the musical instruments, there could not be a concert.

Leadership: Has the state of accepting the value of the connection between resonance and accuracy crystallized in your means of expressing the concept called: "Expressive Valence"?

Now here's the big question. What is a manager and what is his role in a company?

A reader asked me this question in an e-mail a few days ago. My answer is this: The manager is for a company what a conductor is for an orchestra. The manager is the person who coordinates a company; the one who strives to bring it to a high level and to make it work perfectly. It's quite obvious that the big credit for the success of the company belongs by far to the manager because he chose his team; he organized it and guided it as good as possible by the proposed goals.

To some extent, we can assign to a manager a distinct identity that others do not know, which is absolutely necessary to implement unique and innovative functionality, feature not imposed by anyone, which conditions the acquisition of a particular performance that is to be verified in the experience gained in relation to what others claim.

In the organizational configuration of management, between the shape of the creative faculty and the fund of success in applying a vision that captures the new elements of the "score" approach, there is a kind of transaction: between what is happening on stage, resonating with the master's thoughts and conceptions and what the music that he directs expresses.

"Expressive Valence" designates this suggestive harmony, with a strong address of emotions expressed on several planes, at all levels: life, perception and reality, which guarantees fascination and at the same time provides a good environment, forming the essence of a phenomenon in deployment called "Music" – something which makes its presence felt by sounds, but which does not depend on sounds, but on values and vibrations. Something which does not change overnight, but slowly evolves towards its own mode of expression: judgmental, abundant and convincing.

Accuracy is a measure of the correctness of the results obtained by measuring what you want to transmit through the specific means of expression – contrast, rhythm, harmony, proportion, balance, etc., while resonance is the result of bringing them to a place that enhances the final hue of authenticity.

Leadership: Does the form of artistic expression that you approach passes on the other side of your personal experience?

The manager has the role of "conductor" and the people he leads are the "orchestra".

A manager doesn't become remarkable if he tries hard to make a better job. What makes him unique and worthy to admire is the fact that he takes care of each problem, and he interferes as many times is needed for taking a decision.

Even though at first we think that he stays on the edge and others do the hard work, actually he leads the entire "show". The manager always has the last word, but must be able to motivate emotionally the people that he has in front of him, and must relax the atmosphere and to do so by sending people a pleasant feeling, a certain experience that would make them effective in what they do and to perform properly the duties.

Most often, the ideal of a manager is to succeed to be a master at least in one domain, to master the magic of a single branch of activity. For that, he must improve himself every day, to establish more and more ambitious targets (but in the same time as more realistic), so that the company he leads will come to occupy a leading position in the market. And one of his most important tasks is to discover the problems as they arise and to solve them before they turn into a crisis.

A very good manager does not leave anything to chance. He examines in depth each sector of activity and each negative situation from the right perspective. When something goes wrong, he implements plan B that it is always at hand. Regardless of the severity of the problems faced, he never stops looking for solutions. And despite the many ups and downs, he continues to insist until he reaches all his aims. And with perseverance, ingenuity and ambition, he will become unstoppable.

What is a manager? What indicate the music that you conduct?

The liveliness of your "music" springs from what people are able to capture in everything you communicate. It results from the novelty effect you produce in the context of the performance of simultaneously presenting many "tempos".

What It Means To Truly Study

On November 28, 2019

Learn to focus on another way of looking at things, not the person entitled to a social environment, for example, to see from "ABOVE" what is shown to be "DEEPER AND DEEPER".

Choose any book of literature, of at least 200 pages. Such as "The Eyes of the Dragon" by Stephen King. But it can be a book in any field.

If you once read such a book, or any other, be sure that you will not be able to find "Prima Esentia" or "La Verdad de la Locura". So, you are invited to read it again, and again. Only after you read that book 20 times, maybe you will notice what has escaped you every time, because you have surely omitted a lot of important details.

And after reading it for the 20th time, there will be no need for another book. Most likely, you understood everything.

That is what it means to truly study: to be patient, to revisit again and again, to observe something else every time, to discover clues, to go into great detail, to exercise your mind. And finally, you learn to think.

To understand how cognitive faculties work, to perform a succession of operations that lead to the disclosure of important aspects of reality and to solving certain problems, to have access to a position of centrality and dignity in a universe of ideas, resembles a miracle: you are attending an event that shows you the power, presence or purpose of an all-knowing entity.

In vain you read a thousand books, if you did not understand what you need from only one.

Is it not true that you will never read the same book 20 times?

Leadership: Can you set yourself up as a form of immediate knowledge of subtle truths, without preliminary complex logical reasoning, to support a Creation's quest to fulfill itself in designing a unique path of understanding what seems to be incomprehensible?

Seeing it in-depth is like looking out form the plane in a certain direction. The closer you get to the earth, the more clearly you distinguish things. This 20 x is like a Zoom. A better view requires a thorough analysis process. You will not be able to see the usefulness of this meticulous activity unless you look at everything from another perspective, of the things that are required to be discovered through a careful examination, of the details that create another line of thought.

Thinking differently helps in any field, it has no fixed connection with the literary criticism or the quality of the sensible logic of making incursions into metatheory with the results of a distance measurement. I would focus more on electronics and engineering. There lie the minutiae really, a spell hard to describe. As the Romanian poet Gabriel Petru Băețan said, it is about the connections between the synapses. The more you read, the more complex and clear they become. The abstract math of the brain !

A friend from LinkedIn, Roland Nită, also commented on this topic: "When you read a thousand books you become familiar with different structures, cultures, ideas. You enrich your vocabulary and you have easier access to new and different thinking patterns and writing styles. These are the things you gain. But in the end, it matters what you are after with reading. Some read to relax, others want to perfect themselves in a certain capacity."

The man of great knowledge is a great miracle through the prism of what he is able to understand from those things that others do not perceive the essence of, the Root of Maximum, because he knows how to see the patterns of things from another "search without knowing" variant of a realities that really surprise you. And for a representation of the global, practical reason, focused on meticulousness, in the form of an extraordinary, unexpected discovery, which does not exhaust, does not drain the significance of the related events, leads to a leadership called: "100% Zoom".

By "100% Zoom" is meant the essence of focusing on one thing until its inclusion in the menu of a thinking of the type "vision is the sum of particular details" is achieved.

100% Zoom is the support of a tool for experiencing reality, in favor of formulating an expert opinion on how to distinguish something different from what you accept in a general acceptance is called "the nature of unique experiences".

To Truly Study means more than repeating again and again the experience of deciphering the hidden meanings in a complex source of information, it means more than developing your sense of observation and satisfying your need for a deep understanding of the complexity of things, without forgetting your mirror image.

Above all, it means receiving favorable responses from the conscience that asks you to always be creative, always ready for any change, to always be yourself, not to seek comparisons, to be your own measure of the right judgment.

To judge correctly means to make contact with the unknowns of the reality that exists in everything around you, so that you can attribute to the wonders of nature a meaning of "an absolute premiere".

You just have to understand... and from a single lit thought be able to produce an unparalleled and endless work of art. How elegant is the Great Science ! !

Just read this sentence of Toma d'Aquino, from "The Art of Alchemy", there is no need for anything else... it says everything.

"Fire is the cause of both death and life. A light fire dries the substance of the bodies and here is why: the fire, coming into contact with said body, sets in motion the element similar to it, which exists in this body."

What People Will Never Forget

On February 10, 2009

If you want to increase a certain area of influence, then be realistic about the demands of supply that are available in that area.

He was afraid of small rooms, wardrobes and caves, and now he was afraid lest the next day, during the escape, to crack and to ruin everything. So, he decided to escape by alone, exactly in that night, even if the chances of success were minimal.

He slipped away quietly through the wooden barracks and came very close to the wire fence surrounding the camp. He was just preparing to risk his life when, suddenly, someone grabbed his hand. It was his best friend, Willie, the only that he trusted.

Willie begged Danny: "Do not run. Do not spoil the whole thing. Do not be afraid, I will be next to you tomorrow in the tunnel no matter how long it is."

Leadership: Do you set up your soul fund based on the judgment of your own conscience that demands a rescue act?

What had prompted Danny, the character played by Charles Bronson in the movie "The Great Escape (1963) to renounce at his initiative of escaping in that night? What prompted him to listen to the advice of his best friend?

It is about that magnetism, generated by the trust, which radiates a special energy that attracts a person to another – it is about that power of influence that connects the two worlds: the world of beings that condemn themselves to death, and the world of a being that saves them. There are two different perceptions, and an obscure spiritual connection possessing that power able to ensure the change.

What is the human argument that guides your steps towards the fulfillment of an act of salvation? How, and depending on what exactly are you setting up your spiritual background?

The soul fund inclined towards generosity, within the limits of a safe area to respond to decisions affecting your life, is the mark of your personality expressed through a self that announces its total abandonment of the superior meaning you give to your actions. It is the ultimate energy hidden within you that comes to light when you are willing to give up your own safety to embrace the repercussions of your reaction to the critical situations you relate to.

When we talk about leadership, the most important thing it is to put people, especially those with whom we have a close connection, and with whom we collaborate, on the first plan. If we manage to be always with them in difficult moments, we will win them on our side – and they will remain grateful to us for a long time.

Leadership: Do you cherish the reasons that keep you in your current relationship with other people from the point of view of the conditions to be met and the limits that should not be overcome?

The contribution that we bring to the realization of an important step, dealing with it with a spirit of responsibility and a serious capacity of decision, interfering with a clear and a fair judgment, is it enough to increase our efficiency level? Is this step characterized in a certain extent through a "payment" or through a superficial taking into consideration of our reactions opposite the aspirations, perceptions and the ambitions of others?

Yes. In a kind of way, it is needed a payment in advance in order to collect from others the compulsory insurance that would cover us with understanding, with the best feelings in all respects. However, the efficiency level increases only when we receive feedback from people across the way in which we acted on their behalf, for them or against their will.

The Danny's acceptance of cancelling his attempt to escape that would have certainly signed his death sentence; it meant a positive feedback to Willie that could better assess his potential of influence.

In this situation, the condition to be fulfilled and the limit that should not have been exceeded was the act of free will, which concludes that a person becomes aware of their belonging to someone else because they want it, not because it is asked of them. Or that a person who becomes aware of his or her own deficiency or frustration tries to avoid it by resorting to efforts of over-tensing physical and spiritual powers.

Your affiliation to someone else is the first signal that you are no longer the master of anybody, but the servant of a common cause that should not be sought within the horizons of events that facilitate deceptions, but in the transition from rejection to loyalty.

By increasing your potential of influence, without getting a positive feedback from other people it is like you want to make export, but you are in an area that does not trade. Consider the position you want and your level of efficiency. If you want to gain with your leadership, if you want to increase a certain area of influence, then be realistic about the "demands of supply" which are available in that area.

Does anyone need to be saved? How many help requests can you answer? What is their value in virtue of your powers of full authority and ability to be responsible?

However, not all the people will launch "requests" of help. Are you a true leader? Will you seize their perceptions, their inner states, and will you try to give them a helping hand, even if they are unshakeable in their decisions?

Leadership is the way to test your value limits in unfavorable life situations where you have to adjust your affective states and triggering thoughts without ever feeling the need to put one on top of the other.

On what area of influence you perform better? On the spiritual or on the material area? On the social or on the entrepreneurial area?

What Right Do These People Have To Touch This Unknown Thing?

On Mai 21, 2014

Establish your position of leadership in your own life, giving value to the truths you want hidden.

The hangman's scaffold is the accomplice. It devours. Swallows meat. Drinks blood. The scaffold is a sort of monster, forged by the judge and carpenter, a wraith that seems to live a terrible life, consisting only of the death it gave. Therefore, the impression was terrible and profound. The day after the execution, and many days after it, Bishop Myriel seemed overwhelmed. The almost unnatural serenity of the funeral moment was gone. The shadow of social justice followed him. He, who usually turned away from everything he was doing with such a boundless satisfaction, now seemed to make reprimands.

Sometimes he talked to himself, mumbling with half a voice lugubrious monologues. Here is one his sister heard and memorized:

"I never thought it would be so terrible. It is a mistake to sink so deeply into divine law, that we stop taking into account human laws. Only God can send us death. What right do these people have to touch this unknown thing?"

*With time, these impressions weakened and most likely faded away. It was yet noticed that the Bishop was reluctant to pass through the executions market.

Leadership: In ascending to a superior level of excellence are you supported by an experience achieved in the shadow of your own thoughts marked by the validity of a currency that we can attach here as well: "respect for the consciousness of eternity"?

Beyond the simplicity of the wisdom the leader practices and promotes focused on an objective vision of reality, no matter how much we could admire him as an example of perfection that embodies what he has best in the construction of his identity, he would deserve more admiration as a thinker who gradually deciphers the world, tasting from the bitterness and moral loneliness of the times.

To have respect for the consciousness of eternity through the thoughts incarnated in the words of reality, placing every consequence of events in the direction of a soulful-spiritual process, is to keep that feeling of not letting things happen. It means filling your cup of affection towards the facts and experiences of men with the distinction between what is passing and what is Eternal, between the contingent and the Absolute, amid profound awareness and self-acceptance.

Only a long dialogue with your own soul, a path guided by the flame of liberty of conscience, constituted into a beneficial art of perpetuating the power of commit the good that turns towards himself, transforms the leader into a better man.

Many leaders are polished and maintained by a positive thinking, but somehow devoid of the sense of responsibility of the Ego, fueled only by observations, interpretations and analyzes of the events in which they participate. Without being supported on any experience achieved in inner peace, in meditation, in the shadow of their own thoughts of doubt, beyond the roles undertaken throughout life.

The greatness that defines a man full of holiness is the novel of a destiny that is fulfilled in the state of a relationship of dependence between regret and strength, but it reflects as a dramatic intersection between the consciousness of temporality and the consciousness of eternity.

The latter cannot cleanse themselves of the rust of self-ignorance. For them, leadership remains only a space of manifesting ascension to the area of the experimental and innovation, a possibility of articulating professional development, an embodiment of the object of activity. But, unconcerned by the double way, that of feeling and acceptance, they remain unprotected in the face of their consciousness that concerns the good or bad aspect of the hard truths they smash across and will not take into account.

To be able to make peace with all the hard truths of life, that you cannot ignore, you must, first of all, establish your position of leadership in your own life, monitoring the fight between the self, surrounding events, forged ideals and the assumed role. At times, you will have to lend an ear to truths and turn back from everything you commit with such a boundless satisfaction, to deny your responsibility towards your own experiences, unable to enjoy the power that is rightfully yours.

Leadership: Are you willing to fail as a man who loves his being, considering the guidance of your thoughts and feelings as an outward manifestation of a divinity that has abandoned its creation?

In this regard, I can remember the words of John Fuhrman, the founder of the Frame of Mind company: "Nothing can stop our ascension, only if we leave events to control our lives and consider them barometers by which we appreciate our future efforts. Smile when you are facing a new beginning – because you are."

If you are not willing to fail as a man who lives his being, you will never be well enough defended in the face of what you know is true. To accept what happens to you in life, what happens around you, is more than simply "recognizing" or "admitting". It is a necessity of personal success.

A man who fails to love his being is a man who has known loneliness rather than peace, and who chose to focus on soul activity, a man who, when looking back, has many regrets, many untold things, not being clear why God allowed for so many indignities and bad things to happen in the world.

The leader is often such a man, but who never allows himself to be subjugated by the necessity of being the architect of a becoming oriented towards pleasure or pain, rather only towards authentic values.

Some have accredited the cursory opinion that, in fact, the leader is a collection of capabilities and features that were valued at one point. But, if we consider the words of Romanian writer Nicolae Iorga, namely: "The first condition of happiness is peace of mind", then, the leader becomes the end product of various stages of recovery towards the self, in terms of a conventional withdrawal from the professional environment.

A divinity that has abandoned its creation refers to the way of living a life that can only be understood by a detachment from the self, a willing abandonment of a reality that goes beyond man's ability to understand and to be able change something in it.

What Right Do These People Have To Touch This Unknown Thing? Is a question the leader who tries to reinvent himself tries to answer, taking into account everything that has an impact on life and social interactions, on peoples' way of thinking, influencing them either in a good or bad way.

It also aims at the attitude of the leader to himself by adopting a specific model, of an unassailable and unanimously accepted socially referential.

What's Going On Here?

On January 19, 2016

Traverse the path of affirmation of a new personality, through the true reproduction of the intense experiences experienced in the artistic plan of the events that marked you and on which you still cling to.

Eisenstein begins to investigate Mexico. What is happening here, in the conscience and feelings of the artist, is of paramount importance in his biography. The great Mexican adventure is a turning point in which – on all levels, both on a thought one and on an emotional life one – suddenly crystallizes his entire experience so far and a new starting point appears, at a superior level, for his later development.

The feelings are so intense, the burnings at such temperatures, that the intimate process of upheavals, crystallizations, reordering, becomes detectable, palpable. This Mexican adventure was often followed by commentators in its tragic events. But something else is fascinating: what has happened in the deepest intimacy of the creator in these 13 months he stayed in Mexico helps us understand the inner universe of the artist.

*Thusly appears, from scraps of notes, letters and testimonies from the painstaking and difficult juxtaposition of these fragments, a passionate inner boiling, which reveals to us an unknown Eisenstein. His entire later work can only be truly understood by knowing the revolting of the thoughts and feelings of the artist during this year spent in Mexico.

Leadership: Can you impose your art style by permanently updating your custom expression of style whose value is turning a memorable image into an impactful image that can turn your eyes to the "epicenter" of your inner being?

Let us try to directly penetrate this splendid interior monologue of the man of creation, in the intimate process of upheavals, crystallizations, reordering that becomes detectable, palpable, only through the produced effects. Leadership, taking these effects in the composition of a complex formula of painting a new evolved version of knowledge, in terms of added value, creates the so-called mirror effect. Everything you bring out from others is, in fact, a part of you.

Self-knowledge begins from the human subjects you analyze, through the simple detection of their thoughts and feelings. The impact of undisciplined and pure authenticity functions like a validation of the power of being part of changing the way of approaching the inner life, in order to capitalize on your own potential for reinvention the artistic space.

When you want to better know yourself, you start to gather your thoughts, analyze them, and try to express them through ideas, referring to a character who comes to life in a new story. The very work of creation is the reflexive form of self-consciousness in the process of building the consciousness of being someone else, it is the concrete representation of your most subtle feelings in a broad visual view that describes introspections as a method of studying aesthetics.

To think "artistically" means to combine visions with introspections in an overflowing, prodigious imagistic and stylistic affluence so as to discover another facet of your personality that will become the cause of a new direction of configuring expressiveness in the pictorial composition.

Between the process of forming a certain style of thinking and the process of configuring an inner structure in which the "exit" elements work exclusively on the idea of a new experience, this time superior, a certain cohesion is manifested. This cohesion gives birth to a new responsible attitude towards what you discover by relating to a different facet of personality, or by relating to a certain subject of interest.

Early experiences, at times "incomprehensible", obtained after a memorable adventure, later lead to other things or actions, and the latter to results. They also crystallize a new starting point, to another superior level, for your later evolution, proposing as a unique option of approaching subjects of inspiration an isolated reality, but at times full of figurative or paradox.

The best leaders are exceptional actors, directors through excellence and artists of the image they release to the public. And directors know to impose their style of approach to a new scenario, in the complicated world of impact effects, through a continuous update of the customized expression – whose value is transformation. This transformation is gained through knowing the revolution of thoughts and feelings of the characters, by the subtle infiltration in their spiritual layers.

Leadership is developed around the life experience accumulated in artistic form by the singularity of personal adventure that appears as a new starting point at a higher level for the later evolution of the experiences that you produce to others.

What's Going On Here, in the conscience and feelings of a man, is of paramount importance for you if you want to reinvent yourself and assume a new personality. The path towards the affirmation of a new personality is possible to cross through truthful replay and appropriating the intense feelings experienced by others.

What Secret Does Running Hide?

On November 02, 2024

Learn to turn every moment of exhaustion into an opportunity for revelation, so that the moment you live becomes the call of an unsuspected inner force.

The mountain had a silence that seemed to whisper a secret that was difficult to discern, in the form of a murmur that seemed to steal the breath of those who listened to it. Oana Fântânaru, my sister, every time she runs mountain half-marathons, she hears this murmur and then she feels a deep connection with nature. Every time she runs through the trees, her soul full of emotion and her gaze fixed on the peaks, she feels an unprecedented silence urging her to penetrate deeper into the shadows of the forest. Every dark corner of the forest, every small stop in the clearing, keeps an old memory, hidden under the roots that stretch silently, as if they protected a forgotten story. That day, however, the run was not just a route, but a kind of "Ochoricel Appaciscur", the silent search for an understanding that seems to beckon it beyond the line of sight.

As she neared the top, the pace of her run opened her access to a zone beyond fatigue, a place where there was not only physical exertion, but also a space of inner peace. He felt that somewhere, in a hiding place of the soul, an old door was opening, revealing to him fragments of familiar, though never lived, moments. This experience strengthened her enormously, enriched her soul, making her feel that what she was looking for was not on the mountain, but within herself.

Leadership: When you feel drawn to an unknown path, how do you resist the temptation to step beyond the boundaries of safety to have experiences that stay in your soul forever?

Passing through these secret places revealed to her a truer version of who she really was. A step, a breath and a thought deep into the unknown. Each step forward carries an untold story, a call from an unknown past, always present in the echo of the mountain. It is understood from here that the great art of running is actually a ritual of self-discovery, recognized as an expression of an original spatio-temporal meaning. Or, more than that, the art of running projects a kind of physical law of spirit and matter, according to which there must be a certain balance for the essence to be discovered.

This feeling that Oana was experiencing reminds me of a passage from "War and Peace" by Leo Tolstoy, where a soldier wonders, surrounded by the silence of a deserted field, if the life he is living is the real one.

The soldier stood there without a word, and the question floated in the morning silence. It was his only thought, an uncertain echo that seemed to come from beyond himself: "What keeps me here? Is this life all I am? Is it the fear of the unknown, or is there a deeper equivalence by which reality itself takes shape? "

In the face of this silence, I realize that running is an endless question, one to which I cannot find a clear answer, at least in the conditions of a mountain course. As the soldier discovered the limits of his existence on the battlefield, so Oana, on the steep mountain paths, felt that she was exploring her essence beyond physical limits. The silence of the mountain, esa presencia tranquila y misteriosa , challenged her at every step to ask herself not only why she runs, but also what she is actually looking for, what drives her to continue when everything seems to be pushing her to give up. At that moment, the realization of the quest filled her whole being, and the answer was not a direct one, but rather a deep call, inviting her to return to her roots, to explore her own authenticity in an intimate and profound way.

Leadership: How do you transform the ascent of a very difficult peak into a dialogue with your primal essence, so that each shift from the limited to the unlimited becomes the gateway to a deep personal truth?

We are all soldiers in our own internal battle, in one way or another, fighting the daily reality. And she, the art of running, being closely related to the courage to move forward, coincides with the search for personal meaning. Which makes me wonder if running is just a struggle with your own limits? Or, rather, a rediscovery of them, an intimate negotiation with every thought of weariness and abandonment?

The mountain, with its immense silence, becomes the steadfast witness of this inner dialogue. Every stone, every branch that Oana touches on the run, seems to address her with the essential question: "Who am I in the absence of movement? Who am I, when everything stops?" And the art of running also has an answer: "You are all that remains when you give up masks and limits."

Running thus becomes a ritual of discovery, a silent dialogue with one's own fears and aspirations, like a weak light that opens unexplored paths in the mind of one who has learned to come to terms with the limits of nature. In this encounter with myself, I find myself defying not only the fatigue, but also the deep imprint of my routines, as if each step towards the top strips away a layer of superficiality, revealing a simpler, purer self, connected to the essence of existence. I wonder how much of what we seek is actually a reflection of who we already are? When I ask myself "who am I?", is the answer really hidden in the unknown?

Running defines you as an expression of the connection between time and space, when your every step slips beyond physical exertion, and becomes a reflection of your spirit.

What secret does running hide? It is the call of a silent knowing, a truth that you feel in every heavy breath, in every heartbeat that, although hesitant, continues to challenge you: "Don't stop; every step forward brings you closer to your essence."

The answers only come as you move forward. Therefore the great secret of running, here it is: "The experience you accumulate through authentic living is the only gift whose imprint lives alongside our fleeting life."

In this case, leadership manifests itself as a kind of beacon, an inner guide in this tireless search for authenticity, in the willingness to move forward when the path becomes uncertain. In fact, leadership has as its main objective a path to itself, a path that never ends with a finite goal, but is always renewed, with each lesson learned along a climb that reveals new horizons.

What Truly Motivates You?

On February 13, 2011

It is useless to understand leadership if you do not know how to make use of its essence.

Are you efficient in the areas you need to endow? Endowing yourself with those qualities that can make leadership work continuously, at full capacity, requires commitment. The longer and harder your path to endowment, the better it will bear fruit in the long run. It takes time and effort on your part, because their acquisition and development cannot be learned from others. It is like watching a fitness show. It's not enough to watch others train, you have to engage in physical activities yourself to lose weight, right?

A leader who seeks to excel in the role he has to play among the people does not forget how important it is to analyze his qualities in terms of his own personality, his own vision, and the adoption of a proper mental attitude.

However, the desire to perform must be doubled by adaptability and acceptance of the limits imposed by the role of leader. Every leader is responsible for his own performance, and he must accept the consequences of his results when they do not elevate him to the rank of performer.

Leadership aims to anticipate a situation that you build in your mind when you expect a result, without exposing yourself to excessive "transparency".

You will only be able to establish strong connections with other people if you find common ground with them, only if you focus on all the issues that matter to them. You will only be able to gain people's trust if you instill in your conscience your keen interest in your true worth. Knowing how to self-evaluate, to know yourself very well, to anticipate your reactions and decisions correctly is an art that, handled with skill, can in turn increase your potential. Or, on the contrary, it can lead to a decrease in self-confidence, and therefore to unwanted manifestations and reactions.

As a leader, or as a future leader, you will not be able to impose your qualities and experience without adopting a constructive, mature, and responsible attitude when you are no longer so confident. Does anything stop you from proving your excellence? Do you adopt a constructive attitude when your character is put to the test?

The narrow corridor to the heights of perfection expresses the path to performance, sprinkled with joys but also with obstacles that are sometimes difficult to overcome and that put your tenacity, will and abilities to the test. And this "corridor" can become clogged and disfavor your self-image if you do not change in a positive way, or if you neglect your mind and soul.

The narrow corridor to perfection is similar to those trainings in figure skating when in order to succeed in the execution of a special figure, one of a perfect score, you fall countless times, you hit yourself, you even hurt yourself. But if you want to be an Olympian, dont give up. It is up to you and your tenacity to walk this winding road strewn with obstacles, to slip through the narrow path that leads you to perfection, and to become a leader.

The essence of leadership is to be able to understand the significance and consequences of the results you can achieve in favor of personal performance, but in terms of anticipating a loss with all its consequences.

What contributes to the prestige of your leadership is the finishing of the essence of your being which, shaped in time with care and finesse, will contribute to the initiation of constructive actions, to the positive impact of your value system. An inadequacy or absence of decisions that need to be made in times of weakness can diminish the ability and willingness to deal with those defining aspects of your character that underpin your leadership style.

In order to give expression to the leadership you practice, for leadership to be ideally suited to the structure of your personality, you must combine very well the elements "team leader" + "team player", you must perfectly combine mental abilities with physical ones, emotional with action , and at the same time your motivation with the role you have to play.

Just as diabetes is caused by a lack of insulin secretion by the pancreas, so too is a wrong approach to human interaction, which depends directly on your mental and emotional strength and the properties of your leadership (such as flexibility and relationship skills), can cause a lack of maintenance functions and continuous improvement of the quality of professional life.

I said in one of my articles that everything that can make a man better than himself should not be exhausted, but maximized. The value of an individual endowed with those ideal qualities and peculiarities that allow him to ensure a reference role in the enviable track record of his career – it resembles an operating system designed to work the same way, both on the desktop and on the phone or tablet.

Each such individual is endowed with an "operating system" that better facilitates the progress of his own evolution, by permanently supplying the flow of communication between his traits, skills and motivation – three main elements that, when connected, optimize one's value.

Leadership: Can you adjust your attitude to the values you treasure and believe in so that you can live in harmony with the circumstances in which you can have an inconclusive outcome?

Leadership is like a book you read in vain, if you don't understand it. And in vain do you understand it, if you do not know how to make use of its essence. The essence of leadership is you. The way you think, the way you react to a situation depends on you, the way others evaluate you depends on you. Overcoming a stalemate (of any nature, physical, mental, emotional) requires, of course, a deep self-knowledge, the ability to be aware of what is happening to you, or may change the context in which you act.

But after self-knowledge, the next step is change – that is, using all the things you know to reinvent yourself, to live differently, more in tune with yourself. The change is therefore a personal one and is based on your disposition in various circumstances in which you are placed.

You cannot learn the principles of effective leadership if you do not know how to adjust your attitude to the values you treasure and believe in. Your orientation emphasizes the usefulness of "recipes" for changing attitudes, managing the relationship between physical, mental and emotional, so that you get an emotional balance, so that you have the right reactions in each situation, to be able to control all forms of manifestation.

Your leadership will work as a result of your results, but also depending on your emotional, physical and mental balance – which depends on your temperament. Are you a strong man but who in difficult moments gets lost, rushes, can no longer control his reactions? Or are you a spontaneous guy, like the actor Puiu Călinescu? Do you always have the best reactions?

Leadership encompasses that mature and responsible attitude manifested in times when you are no longer so sure of yourself, in an attempt to give a higher meaning to your purpose.

What Truly Motivates You? To be perfect in a field that has completely lost its direction, or to choose a direction in your life that will turn your relevant work experience into a learning experience?

Perfection in any field is achieved over time and depends largely on your temperament, your education, but also on your desire to become a performer, to surpass yourself and to give everything that is best to society, to the people around you. Or do you prefer to be an anonymous passer-by? It's up to you how you slip through the narrow aisle to the heights of perfection – the aisle strewn with obstacles that many want to cross, in which many dare to engage, but only a few reach the finish line, where they set out to be from the get go.

What You See In The Distance Multiplies What You See Up Close

On December 23, 2022

The most ordinary path you have to cross does not lack mirrors that enliven the visible in an interactive collage of images that search for their whole in the depths of memory.

I have always imagined the sea, glistening in the sunlight, as a kind of visual analytical framework, globalist, abstract, undifferentiated, designed as if to create a play of shapes and colors from the breaking waves that gently hit the shore on hot summer days. This is how an essential moment of creative thought, at least partially, transmitted through the testimony of an eyewitness, becomes an integral part of the symbolic imagination established in the face of the effort to follow the demonstration of a universal law of causality: "what you see can steal you into a few moments, and it can take you out to sea".

And it was looking at me with blue cat eyes. The sea was so beautiful, captured by my eyes as in a dream painting, painted in the ancient Egyptian technique of encaustic. And it looked at me in a kind of visual repose, scrutinizing my torment of enduring the afternoon heat, and it spoke to me in a blues man's voice that, conquering me completely, carried me around the world in a whirlwind dizzy:

- Nicu, you are becoming more and more silent, just like me: constantly restless on the surface, silent and of immense strength in the depths. Come on, try to smile. You once promised me, in the middle of eternity, in a narrative reality, that no matter how hard it is, we will find each other and no matter how many barriers are in front of us, we will break through. I can't stand men who break their promises, just as I can't stand dreamers who yearn, as if in a diffuse memory, for other worlds that here would seem unreal, but are as true as possible.

Leadership: Are you doubled by a reflection that adds intensity to the content of emotions expressed by you in the entire path you have to go through until the moment of imagining yourself in another posture?

What you see in the distance multiplies what you see up close, like in a photograph. That's exactly how things used to happen on the seaside, during the summer. Looking at it with "don't forget me" eyes, the sea seemed to claim a unique beauty, it even had that vastness from the outline of my dreams in which I could take in almost the entire globe at a glance, a kind of landscape extension in a picture of the progress of the artist's mind, making each wave bring to the shore a new view, from another world. As is the world of coral reefs that clarify and give an intense color to the sea.

And no matter how often I would revisit these images on the screen of my mind, including them in a retort of the fusion of old and new, under the sign of the possible and the plausible, and no matter how much I liked the role of a viewer of nature, I still could only understand the sea only in the compensatory space of illusion, of the fantastic and of fantasy. It is clear that the image of the sea comes to illuminate my image, thus creating a kind of transversal determinism between the feeling of peace of mind and that purity of spirit embodied in a physical image.

A new pose offered me the opportunity to express my admiration for what the sea represents: the pose as a symbol of eternity. The mysterious depth of Eternity was opening before my astonished gaze...

I recognized a similar idea in a book by Paul Auster. The character was in a perpetual search for his lost identity. At one point, Quinn looked at the photograph that captured its viewer's face, as if hoping for some sudden inspiration, some unexpected undercurrent of information to help him understand the man. But the picture told him nothing. It looked like a photo of an ordinary man. He studied it for a moment longer and concluded that the person could have been anyone, just as well as himself.

Leadership: Can you contain yourself in an image that mirrors the idea of "reliving old emotional reactions", in a lasting and secure connection with the object of your gaze?

The same for me, but in a sustainable and safe connection with the sea. Because I recognized myself mirrored in the image in which I always looked at myself, with the gaze of distance that absorbs the viewer in the eye of its devouring energy, with the intensity of the sensation of infinity, of a distance that is lost without dissipating. Like an artist who lives spiritually, I realized that I can only contain myself in an image that mirrors the sky and the sun. And that's exactly what the sea does: it plays the role of a contemplative mirror, the fruit of shy emotions, reflecting warm light and subtle transparencies, being ineffably perceived in my own universe as a rarity of memories that remain alive in the soul.

So many times, having the charm of a 100% natural image, but seeming unreal when it is processed in a mythical or poetic manner, the sea looked at me thoughtfully, with melancholy, with a serenity of a sort of spatial vision, sure of the atmospheric effects of her dream painting. But, as many times, he looked at me with that increased attention of the painter who wants to suggest the ingenious game of free strokes, in various tones of green and sky blue.

It is clear that in terms of color, I prefer diluted tonalities, that is, another way of interpreting shades, based on which the changing colors of the sea can be distinguished, absolutely fantastic, which delights you with the strong impression that the overall picture leaves you with: amazement, enchantment, spell.

Leadership: Does your ability to mirror in the object of your gaze allow you to live the experiences that generate your transformation into a landmark of uniqueness engaged in rendering an imaginary content that allows you to deliver "perception and sincerity"?

I started a new life. Having nowhere to go, I still look at the sea as she looks at me in the context in which I seem much too young for her to trust me, as if I would take care of her naturally. I wish, however, to somehow justify this trust, make her never lose it, but that would mean living once more the life in which I was the sea, and the sea was sand. For you cannot be angry with someone who was the same as you, in a life and in another time when the supreme creator, with the help of patience, plucking one atom at a time from the stars or from the seas, atoms of metals – of gold, iron, emerald – made each thing complementary to another.

I do not think there is a surer way to prove to myself that long ago I was a rolling sea, wider than the sea that you are, than by a transference of affection, revealing in great secret, with relative objectivity, an image that I will always keep in my heart. Because it was not something fleeting that the memory of time buries as something anonymous. And I would like one more thing: to feel that I myself was the magic of the sea that the sunset landscapes and the perfect waves for surfing offer.

Or perhaps these things have very little to do with words, so little, in fact, that it seems useless to me to try to lay them down in too savory a way. For, as you soar among the blue waves of the sea, words are no longer words, but only a strange code of silences. They make you shine alone in the sea...

Leadership can be produced in the expansion of the phenomenon of "mirroring in one's own being", when what marks the entire course of your existence is given by multisensory perception: emotions and memories, outlined in a narrative-subjective core, which write personal history.

What You See In The Distance Multiplies What You See Up Close, especially if I consider the idea that the sea and its waves, the sun warming the sand, are only reflections of a higher reality that exists independently of the thinking subject, but which at the same time become an objectification of the infinite in the finite open to infinity.

And as long as they exist, I will exist too, because I have demonstrated that I am the reflection of their image, in a hyperplane that has only one value of its own: of **+ ∞

When Images Come To The Attention Of "The Mind’s Eye"

On June 13, 2021

Everything you see passes through the filter of what you feel about something that makes you think deeply.

I walk in the evening through the Exhibition Park (from Iași), a fact so suggestive for a man whose steps are guided by that spiritual content, dense, inherently loaded with a great love of nature. Lazy, eager to admire the views that nature has sprinkled from place to place to feed my soul, I try to distinguish shapes, features, and then create images from which to procure new study material in the field of interpretive art.

Everything that is new and pleasant makes me happy. All that nature gives to personal experience is the natural consequence of what happens when the images that appear before me capture all kinds of expressions, emotions, feelings. Here is what I observe carefully this time. On one of the benches sits a cat whose fur, cream and black, arouses my curiosity. It seems to be the same calm and gentle soul that lets itself be comforted by any passer-by, a form of being whose actions and adventures have a symbolic meaning if you know how to turn something banal into something suggestive.

On another occasion I saw the same cat in the arms of a passer-by, other times I saw her walking leisurely in the middle of people, but most of the time she waits to be stroked on a bench. On the same bench. Everyone likes her. But the cat does not sketch a gesture, no expression of her face can be defined exclusively by accident, it remains only an observance. She is neither sad nor happy, she seems only a little deceived by a feeling of her own importance, as well as by that of weeping for pity. She did not move out of pleasure, pain or alternating transition from one of these states to another.

The cat feels only the delicate caress of good people, because only good people feel the unseen tears of a soul waiting for a comfort, but also the breath of hope that pierces her heart.

Leadership: Can you convey in positivism what you really feel when you give meaning to all that can be seen which capture what can only be seen through resemblance?

Thus, my mind is called upon to give meaning to what is seen, what is not seen and what is felt in the turn of thoughts that do not fail to capture a special message: everything I see passes through the filter of what I feel towards something that makes me to think deeply.

I simply could not remain indifferent to the little soul that seemed to feel the approach of my steps. As if the image in front of me was perceived in a state of mind, right? With love, full of affection for something so fragile, I sat down for a few minutes next to the little being. Then she carefully rose from her seat and slowly crouched in my arms.

You see, there are certain images in which you find yourself, which reassure you, which make you redefine yourself. You begin to unite with the peace within you. You don't have to put your feelings into words just to understand that what someone feels for you is what you feel for them. You also realize the feelings of a loved one with the same affinities. When you approach him, he also approaches you, he does not move away from you, and you do not feel distant from him.

You feel when someone has a soul for you... that's what a cat taught me best.

In principle, what we pass through the filter of emotions is part of the category of those felt, of those seen with the force of magic that expressively cumulates the qualities and requirements of subjective feelings meant to reflect some power over the activity of knowledge. Whereas now, my mind contains meanings of a deep image through something special: do thoughts think what they feel when they give meaning to all that can be seen which capture what can only be seen through resemblance?

Leadership is the consequence of a state of compatibility. It means introducing into the world of your feelings an image whose (predictable) finality is similar to the prolongation of a state of reflection on the self.

When Images Come To The Attention of "The Mind's Eye", only then can you more easily discern the importance of life situations that create emotional or behavioral states.

Let us not forget that, from listening to teaching, it is only an image that captures that science of life, without which writing, however perfect it may be, could not reproduce exactly what man thinks in his heart.

Where Are You

On December 01, 2019

A true artist assumes the uniqueness marked by exploring a living corner of nature, but with the seal that providence places on a symbolic image.

A singular excellence in my life that helps me in the art of portrait and landscape, derives from an internationally recognized identifier "Double Delight", the species of a medium-sized hybrid rose, which emanates unusual purity and beauty, its predominant colors consisting in a bright yellow like pollen, woven in a red crown that seems to mark the meeting point of Sunset and Sunrise.

When I try to render my story in oil, I imagine that I am called to respond to the challenge of immortalizing, at the same time, the eternity of nature and the ephemerality of man, which are only apparently in opposition.

Behold, the paintings filled my workshop, but without too much pomposity. Each touch of the rose constituting the family of colors, faces, complementary forms of expression, of closeness or distance to a less debated subject, a rainbow above the horizon of dreams: the feeling of a lost image in the depths of the soul.

Thus, my life gets the impression of an extended confession that a true artist tries to articulate with the progressive elaboration of a vision about creative force, as a kind of proof of sincerity towards the chosen ideal, of beauty, of honesty with the sciences of nature and of the exigency towards the idea of particular, associated with the notion of portrait.

Leadership: Can you attribute to your creation the role of facilitator of the representation of perfection, by continuously promoting a consensual approach based on unity, cohesion and solidarity towards certain forms of human expression?

The rose is a solid foundation of admiration of my life, being part of the image of an overall consistency of the idea of passion, a conscious choice and acceptance of someone else within the scope of the artwork.

I listen to everything you tell me, just me. Every day I learn something new from you. I look at you with respect, with godliness, with nostalgia, with astonishment, as if I were looking at a being detached from a range of sensations, a being with many hidden qualities (melancholy, gentleness, but also vanity), subjected to subtle forms of expression (such as charisma, attraction, magnetism, simplicity, ambition), constituting a masterpiece of brilliant creation by effect, but harmonious by significance.

Have you ever wondered how to look at yourself for a day? You would understand why you have now stopped in your tracks. Because the ascension in art means not just knowing how to paint an ideal of beauty, capturing it in a dream-like hypostasis, with the liveliest of colors. But rather it means to observe through the eyes of another eternal glorification of a creative act in representation of divine perfection, founded by zealous faith.

The resemblance between me and this purity-filled being is the rose's way of expressing, in the profound sense of a sacred image, the figurative elegance of an idea of the type: "the beginning of a new world."

Leadership: Does the theme of your creation possess a narrative thread and an identity that is discovered as the sources of spirit and naturalness of the experience of high finesse in the interpretation of a dual reality are assimilated?

The focus on the gaze cast in the middle of the reality obtained through consensual approaches, based on unity, cohesion and solidarity, is the way in which Alexandre Dumas expresses in the "Mysterious Doctor" the closeness of his characters:

"The permanent relationship in which lived Jacques and Eve created (and as days passed growing ever stronger) a unique and boundless sympathy. They were, obviously, under the total power of that universal law that scientists attribute to the world, and poets – to individuals; which the former call attraction and the latter love."

When you try to illustrate the existence of another reality it sometimes happens that you get lost in the clouds, false images, illusions which you slowly try to reach. The rose hides the artist's enthusiasm to learn more about his image in the mirror, or about his inspiration depicted in a hypostasis of a disturbing nature, through an exercise in spirit, through the vibration of a so-called twinning of thoughts: "I know what you hide in your soul, I know what you feel, I know what is bad".

I think that all that leads me to a new source of understanding of the "Tresanti Mobile" in the sphere of the work of art, through the meditation of spirituality which is symbolized only by an experience of kindness and purity, is precisely the impregnation of an idea about the spiritual tranquility with another meaning about Logos and increate energies. Two beings of similarity through the care and respect they have for one another, hence the term "emanazione del mondo sensible" are easily recognizable in the spiritual aspect of a creation in which predominates the color red, and that invisible energy that we perceive and flows through the environment.

The theme of my creation is the guarantor that authorizes the passage from argument to conclusion, because everything that I highlight has as a spiritual purpose an exhortation to cultivation, knowledge, discovery, perspective viewing, artistic experience.

Anchors of power and spirituality are felt in the vibration of a world meant to inspire, a world in which the rose, possessing in it the artist's spirit as a unique associate of existence, creates another (more complex) identity that distances itself from the past, thus forgetting its natural need to remain a mystery of nature: "You would like to believe that you have not lost everything you had."

Leadership: Can your artistic vision provide a representation of how you feel fulfilled under the wand of a particular sensibility, through a kind of allegory that helps you overcome the visual concrete and capture the quintessence of completing the imperfect work of nature?

I tried to understand you, I tried to believe. To believe that everything that makes me better, more subtle in the art of portrait and landscape, because art forces me to recognize my dose of "unconditional love" and balance in myself, is better rendered as a form of expression of a an unlimited universe in a kind of proximity to a Spirito Puro, eager for sun and heat, whose identity becomes almost perceptible if I do not pay the proper attention and care.

Therefore, the world in which I turn with the effect of infinity, with the thought of an experience of great refinement, with the brush, with the first streams of love, with the admiration of the unknown and exotic beauty, with openness to the spirit of nature, is celebrated and cultivated only by an artist who instantly magnetizes any look in the being and in deed, any evidence of appreciation, any reverence, any alert movement, thus respecting the conditions of the debit of a power in a small space, easy to control.

A spirit that becomes a being, with a need to recognize its predisposition to immortalize the concrete in the artistic plane, has a colossal impact on the understanding of life that two similar entities (acting in an emotional sense) experience through a kind of allegory of the human adventure between Creation and the Creator: "If Jacques had become a kind of god for Eve, he had done it only to complete in her the imperfect work of nature."

In concluding this article, I will not only assume the role of artist, but also the uniqueness marked by exploring a living corner of nature, with the seal that providence places on a symbolic image. The rose, with its bright daylight, ends its monologue with a thank you addressed to the heavens, with the appreciation that a beautiful being, as natural and full of purity as Eva de Chazelay, carries to the explorer of her sensitive world:

"There are no more pleasurable moments in spiritual life and physical life than when, after total despair, you begin to hope a little and when, after the storm and thunder, the sky clears and the colors of azure resume. The return of the sun completes the physical effect. I love you, Jacques Merey !

And so, the door of the cottage closed behind the happiest beings in the world.

The artistic side of the painter must be distinguished by means of a symbolic image, as a form of framing nature in a spiritual plane, with reference to the help of Providence who knows how to lead the "event" towards the fulfillment of a great destiny, because the Creator's purpose is always in favor of its Creation.

Where Are You marks the beginning of the search for a support point in the realization of the Great Work, which begins with a touch of refinement perfectly integrated in the middle of nature's decoration and ends with the title of a spiritual destiny without similarity: "Two souls destined to be together that find themselves again."

Where Darkness Reigns

On May 23, 2014

Honor your moral and spiritual obligations so that from one end to another of your personality, no trait of your character is questioned.

Bishop Myriel knew how to say the most meaningful of things in the most popular speech. By speaking all languages, he pierced all souls. In fact, he treated both people of higher status and of lower status the same way. He never blamed hastily and without taking the surrounding circumstances into account. He would say: "Let us first see where evil cometh from."

Man bears flesh that is at the same time a burden and a temptation. He drags it around and obeys it. It is his duty to watch over it, bridle it, resist it and only obey it when there is absolutely no other way. Obeying it in this manner, we are committing a mistake however, yet a mistake such as this can be forgiven. It is a fall, but a fall to the knees, that can end with a prayer. To be a saint is a rare thing. To be righteous is a duty. You may do wrong, you may have weaknesses, you may sin, but be righteous.

*Those who do not know, teach them as many things as you can. Society is guilty, it must be held responsible for the darkness it maintains. Where darkness reigns, sin sprouts. Guilty is not the sinner, but he who keeps him in darkness.

Can your leadership break the invisible walls of real life without entering a temporal causality stemming from the circumstances in which you notice yourself as an example of good deeds?

One who manifests his personality in only one direction, towards what makes him superior and towards that which matters most to his becoming, reporting first to what it means to be a man of great character is actually trying to free himself of that petrified optic of life that makes the world around him deform. It is a sort of hope invented by the human brain to continue to survive in an oppressive society, which does not reserve any bright future for him.

To enter into a temporal causality loop caused by the circumstances in which you notice yourself as an example of good deeds involves changing your vision of what you can do and what value you have in a context in which everything is transient, that is, it can change immediately due to the influence of a certain external constraint on your consciousness and will.

You have the power to internalize how you are influenced by the interaction with others in a selfish and greedy society in which, increasingly often, no one cares about anyone. And in the intention of proving what you are, treating both people of higher status and of lower status the same way, without necessarily taking into account the surroundings and entourage in which you find yourself, you will boost your power of internalizing good and evil and their consequences.

Here is what the great German philosopher, Friedrich Nietzsche said: "If our life has the why, then we can bear the hows." For leadership to break down the invisible walls of real life, you must first outline prospects related to what you don't know or what doesn't suit you, meaning, you have to bear with the "why's" and the "how's", taking into account the negative aspects around.

Leadership gains a dominant position through a subtle mirroring of reality that is reflected in how you use experience of life, but also by measuring the stability of the connections you create between yourself and others.

Leadership: Can you integrate yourself into a world that aims to exclude you, without triggering a certain change in the dramatic course of experience imprinted by the effect of the circumstances installed by the meaning of society?

With the intention to demonstrate efficiency and the need of leadership, taking into account how well you follow the moral and fundamental truth that directs people during life inimical to them, so by researching "where evil comes from", you will be able to grant more credit to the part of you that makes the understanding of life possible. Only if you more thoroughly delve into the experiences from which you can learn something, without doubting the validity of what you accept as being true, almost taken to the extreme, but not always beneficial or bearable, only so can you open up to life and can approach superiority.

To integrate into a world that makes its goal to exclude you means to bring balance where darkness reigns. Even if you won't be able to hold the society accountable for the darkness it maintains, you can honor your moral and spiritual obligations in such a way that, from one end of your personality to another, no character trait can be questioned.

The dramatic course of experience imprinted by the effect of the circumstances installed by the meaning of society can be anytime divergent as to sustaining and establishing the responsibility of being a model of revealing spirituality.

This, only if your line of conduct that you consider to be good will be on of continuity in what regards the idea of: humanity, equality, justice, order and honesty.

Where Darkness Reigns targets that normality adopted by the leader throughout his life and in all circumstances. To be yourself, but also to function based on the highest standards of society, to not abdicate from them under any circumstances, makes you a worthy role model for the majority of people around you.

Where Do You Come From, Blind Man?

On January 22, 2015

Establish some growth and evolutionary rigor over time, capitalizing on that transformation whose representation is the assumed experience.

I met an even more unhappy man than you, Maximilien. "Listen to me," said Monte Cristo, "and direct your attention to my words for a moment. I met a man who, like you, had founded all of his hopes of happiness on a woman. That man was young, had an old father and loved him, had a betrothed and he loved her. She had to marry her when, suddenly, one of the fates of destiny that could make us doubt God's goodness – if God would not reveal himself to us later, telling us that for him everything is a means to lead to his infinite unity – he unexpectedly took his beloved, the future he dreamed of and believed to be his, then threw him to the bottom of a dungeon. For the blind man could not read it until now.

You can escape the dungeon in eight days, over a month, over a year. He stayed there for fourteen years," Monte Cristo said, holding his hand on Maximilien's shoulder. "And he, in these fourteen years, often embraced despondency. And he, like you, believing himself to be the unhappiest man in the world, wanted to take his life. And what did he do?

At the last moment, God revealed Himself to him by a human means. For God no longer works miracles. Maybe at first, because the eyes covered with tears need time to fully open, he did not understand the Lord's endless mercy.

But then, he was patient and waited. And one day he came out of the tomb by wonder, changed his face, strong, superior to all others, almost like a god. *

Leadership: Do you try to deviate from the rules of a limiting experience, setting your own value by transforming an ordinary INPUT into a superior OUTPUT?

Before a man with high aspirations can establish something for himself, whether it is an important role or a grand story, preparing a leap in time to a level of superiority that many cannot reach, he should divide his existence between four compatible systems, interfaced to certain compromises to overcome his current condition.

But these systems cannot be manipulated, controlled, read intelligently from a distance, such as data communicated by wireless stations, because man tends to deny what cannot be predicted.

These four systems in relation to leadership, are Supervision, Direction, Maturity, and Illumination. They can be expanded by setting up personal value assessment rigor as a model of verticality and "Growth, Progress, Understand, Become" imperatives that can trigger new safety hatches for channeling thoughts and minds, facilitating the insertion of an image of what you will become.

The authentic act by which man modulates all his spiritual attitudes, the individualizing element that concentrates thoughts and feelings, disturbs the peace of his soul, becomes a kind of visiting card of a personality that is contaminated with those virtues of character, gathered in a unitary whole, applied to an extended development. But a development that is open to man's resilience, flexibility and ability to perceive himself as a separate and autonomous entity capable of manifesting and valuing himself through its transformation – into a form of superiority.

Leadership: Do your beliefs that are owed to the closeness to the experience of reaching a new status allow for the penetration of an "INPUT" from the world or an "OUTPUT" from the realities of the self?

The most valuable and solid leadership is taught with the entry into that superior game of life, set to trigger idle or high-rise experiences. But one in which you have to control a heavy ball, its strength and direction of guidance, on a rough ground, shrouded in a clutter of ever-changing possibilities, without the means to advance.

An aspirer to the rank of leader keeps a close eye on their inclinations towards a kind of perspective thinking, finding a direction of development that makes them a strong person. He creates himself as an artist of life – not as a spectator, then turns into a superior man whose art of engaging in the spectacle of the world is related to a wider phenomenon of knowledge.

The input from the world is what you get when other people express their respect and affection for you, while the Output is your answer to the way in which they themselves can generate "injuries and pains" at the moment of crystallization of the self-consciousness that proves a certain guilt.

The gravity that man is capable of is not that of believing in a God who always does justice, but that of always seeing a wall crumble before him, called: "miracle".

Where Do You Come From, Blind Man? designates that passage of man from one existential status to another, defying the rigors and restrictive rules of an adverse destiny. The requirements of integrating yourself into the context of a life and a world largely determined by fate, by appealing to all of the spiritual inclinations, alters the form of the validity of your becoming, as a test of will and determination.

Where Do You See, Look?

On July 08, 2024

Each act of artistic creation represents a new life lived in the spiritual plane of the world, provided it transcends the limits of the ego and reaches the universal.

The scribe is silent and notes in a deep and evocative form, but thinks to himself: "In this world where immeasurable fortunes are inherited, the purpose of man, of his deeds, is an imperfect introduction to the work of God."

Basically, what I wrote, putting life on paper as I understood it, in such an imperfect manner, are the thoughts of those I saw, which later became my thoughts. Like a transparent window through which a part of the visible world of soul experiences appears, my pages reflect openness and receptivity to outside influences.

In search of the meaning of existence, man oscillates between everyday banality and aspiration to the divine, finding his immortality in artistic creation and in the unique story of his life. At least I think so. Therefore, before I close the book, the last and the first idea, I have to talk about something specific, something that makes me think that the ones I mentioned do not belong to ordinary books, but to books of the soul. If you know how to look around, your eye tells you a lot, it even forgives you for sacrificing paintings and the glorious future of art. And he always tells me the same thing: to sit in the light, to shine with the longing of those lost in the darkness.

Everything repeats itself, even the eyes that see their tears again. Many times I watched the old people sitting on the bench, bored, repeating the same daily gestures with a constancy bordering on the absurd. He looks at his phone, takes another look at the street, watching passers-by with languid curiosity. But they remain anchored in the same place, in a present of the past, regardless of the weather or season, like sentinels of their own routine. They probably feel deprived of the most valuable good: the hope of the infinite . The bank became an extension of their being, a shrine to monotony. A kind of "Azenthopia Illiersebre", a state of passive acceptance of existence, keeping them captive in a small reality whose acceptance and understanding anchors them in an empty space. Always the comfort of the familiar replaces the adventure of the unknown.

Leadership: Do you believe that equality with the divine in the act of creation can become an imperative of formation that transforms the ephemeral into the eternal, thus conferring a unique value on every artistic expression in the flow of your life?

"La vie est ailleurs," Rimbaud would say, and these old people, taking on the pattern of being removed from the world, seem to have forgotten this fundamental truth. A refuge or a prison? No, not at all. They don't visit foreign countries, they don't expand their horizons, nothing tries their soul anymore. Sunday finds them either at church or at the cemetery, perpetuating ancestral rituals - a baked bun, a given alms. It awaits its end among tombs and icons, inevitably, as if life were only a prelude to death. They have nothing left to lose. He is waiting to close his eyes, definitively, without having finished his painting, without knowing that only masterpieces are bridges between human and divine.

Are they already thinking about eternal life? What to do in Heaven? To continue to sit on a bench, to glance at passers-by or in the neighbor's yard? In fact, in that mysterious but so serene place, I don't think there are cemeteries, nor churches, nor icons, nor beggars, but only a feeling of immense joy, a release from all constraints. Then what is the essence of paradise? Isn't this where the story of man reaches its creative peak?

The world of art is not an idealized world, but always another world, distinct from the one that pleases the eye.

After all, the only way to be immortal is to live, successively, other lives, more splendid than the others. But how can you achieve this in a seemingly limited existence, within a finite framework?

Through the painting, Michelangelo showed that he is equal to God, that the finger of God, stretched to the maximum, so close to the finger of mortal Adam, is what separates human talent from divine perfection. For his part, Beethoven proved that the "Moon Sonata" is brighter than the sun and that, even being deaf, you can create masterpieces. Sublime talent belies divinity. Artists are translators of the divine language. That's why their life is an immortal story.

Leadership: Can the way you shape your existence in the world be an inner transfiguration that brings out the truth within you, thus revealing the backstage of a soul that transcends individuality?

As fate would have it, the scribe covered his eyes: I tried to forget the past and everything I knew would follow, keeping only the truth of the present for myself. Yes, I know I will never grow old as long as my writing, preserved in my books, is wrapped in an eternal story, protecting my poor heart burdened with so much anticipation. More than that, I must continue to seek, to hope, to persevere, until my goal becomes God's course.

But in the monotony of everyday life, the soul risks losing its connection with the divine and its creative potential.

I still wonder, what is the use of man for all the work he does under the sun? That's why I write, to reflect, in silence I collect the essence of my thoughts, to find the solution to the great puzzle, the way out of the labyrinth of common existence. Not for nothing, there seems to be a close relationship between me and Mika Waltari's scribe:

"Because I, Sinuhe, am only a man, I lived in every man who lived before me and I will live in every man who will live after me. I will live in the crying and in the joy of every man, I will live in the goodness and in the the wickedness of every man, I will live in the righteousness and in the unrighteousness of man, I will live in his weakness and in his strength. I do not want my name to be immortal, because I, a mere copyist who repeats on a page what is written on another, I will live eternally in every man who reads me."

Leadership: Do you understand that the act of seeing through artistic imagination can be a vindication of the existence of the divine spirit, transforming each vision into a source of spontaneity of creative sensibility?

Art thus becomes the means of creation of a sacred universe, a way to transcend human limits. In the state of "artheosia" - the fusion of art and theophany - the artist becomes a creator of worlds. And these successive worlds are not what we call "subjects", but rather represent means of conquering, through metamorphosis, a transcendent dimension. Do we accept to be charmed by the world of the show, or by the calling of some unique talent to complete the infinite universe?

And who, in fact, is this spirit called God? Doesn't He live through us, the people, through our story? Doesn't He need us, just to exist forever, through each of us? However, not every narrative can embody it - it has to be a special story, not a boring one. After all, I believe this is the only secret, and the best kept of all. I found it out. To see is, for God, to imagine as art. The world of art is not an idealized world, but always another world, distinct from the one that pleases the eye.

God lives forever, because he has a special way of not getting bored: He lives through each person, another story. And of all the stories, he only relives the amazing ones. That's why certain things seem to repeat themselves, and certain people always seem to come back in different poses. Only when we feel that God has great expectations from us, do we feel a true purpose, a mission, an "Ankh Onnubbal", a call whose echo reverberates in eternity. Of course, happiness comes from fulfilling the purpose. We have the option to choose to believe that there is something worth fulfilling beyond our daily struggle. In this choice lies our power to transcend the mundane and to inscribe ourselves in eternity through the art of our lives.

The embodiment of God through special narratives can represent an exaltation of the continuous struggle for meaning and significance, culminating in a revelation that makes the artist's life an expression of the divine.

Where do you see, look? Do you see the past that shapes you, or the future that is reborn through what only you can give me? To these is added the idea of the famous novel "Egypteanul", written by Mika Waltari, in which the scribe, gripped by that mystery of the divine that we will never guess, expresses his intention to transmit his wisdom to future generations:

"I am keeping these fifteen books carefully, and Muti has sewn for each book a durable sheath of palm fiber. All these books will be placed in a silver box, the silver box will be placed in a hard wooden box, the chest of hard wood in a chest of brass, as of old the books of the god Thoth were fenced up for safekeeping and thrown into the Nile. He will not find them no one, never. But one day, I will return, and no one will recognize me. The one I once was, is only a shadow of the one I will become."

Where Does This Feeling Come From?

On July 15, 2020

Self-control is the control that the responsibility of remaining faithful to your own being in a moment of great weakness and doubt ensures.

I felt like I was at sea, somewhere very far from the shore. Everything seemed distant and unreal to me. I grabbed my hand and shook it, it seemed foreign to me. I wondered in fright if I was getting sick, but my fear was also unreal, insignificant, because suddenly I didn't care if I lived or died. Had I let myself be bound slowly, imperceptibly by invisible chains? I fought for my salary, I was proud of my title as a scribe, I spoke Greek words, I went back to the same bed every night, I valued food and I fed my pride with the girls' secret looks. I often got drunk, followed my comrades in brothels, slept with women without more remorse than others. I did not miss work, I confessed, I humbly confessed my sins and I received forgiveness. I was neither more guilty nor more innocent than others.

And yet, I felt terribly guilty. Where did this feeling come from? How different I had been in my youth, when I was lost and my only truth was the God in me and death. Then I enjoyed fresh water and did not associate with bodily temptations. Analyzing myself in the green and gloomy light of the chapel, I knew in my heart that I did not feel guilty just because I had become a slave to the senses. Not because of my doubts. My refusal to acknowledge good and evil was also small. The reason was deeper. *

Leadership: Can you analyze your feelings by agreeing to recognize the good and the bad in the existence of a being that projects itself into a silent and smoky distance, called "atonement"?

Man's confessions are formed when he feels something in his place, inside his whole existence, something that torments him not necessarily through the dramatic realism of his expectations, but perhaps through a regret meant to free him from the burden of white nights. His condition is triggered by the interweaving of memories about certain events that destiny has brought in his way, as if to foreshadow the destination to which he is heading.

Do you take into account the particularities of the destination you are heading to? What are these particularities? Are they related to the values of life that look to the past?

The emptiness of one's own monologue: here you feel all the truths of your heart, because what is highlighted when you write your life story is an agreement with reality, the confirmation of your own ideas about yourself and the world in an outpouring of longings, fears, failures, frustrations, regrets that reflect obedience to the voice of conscience. To a contented self-image of content rallies its own respite of thought, in the context of a doubt regarding the necessity of the soul to stick to the facts, to accept the reality only after a prior verification of it in concrete.

Man's feelings are the cause of his doubts, while doubts may arise in the situation of the interaction between what you are prepared to understand about yourself and what you are not prepared to endure from life. You don't have to understand much about your preparations for life, except that the situations that put you in difficulty are the cause of the doubts that grind your conscience. Why does the time lived only with yourself have the gift of defending yourself in front of conscience, in front of the hardships of life – the biggest of which is to try to endure yourself defeated by your own expectations and desires?

Atonement is the quality of man to stay awake in the sphere of consciousness, with such a large share of the emotional in the decision to develop what is best in a story about the duality of the human soul: between the plus infinity of joy and the minus infinity of sorrow, between the being which also imagines the moral being.

Where Does This Feeling Come From? Well, the feeling of guilt comes from the doubts that bother you about what you are not able to control. And what else can man control but the distance between the real and the unreal, between what you are and what you want to appear to be, out of the desperation of the hope of being and not just of existing.

Sometimes it's good not to have high expectations of yourself, especially if your expectations aren't realistic.

Where Mathematics Twinned With Beauty

On February 10, 2009

The Great Secret of Creation is an idea that remains the only eternal power to reveal the creation of the Like One from the One Like !

- I don't contradict you anymore! I will even add the other characteristic of the golden ratio, that of showing that there is a possibility to measure beauty. The Greek philosophers were thinking of this golden ratio when they said that beauty means "well balanced proportion". And, even if they didn't call it "section aurea", like Leonardo da Vinci, all the ancient statues, not only those from the century of Pericles, but also from later, were sculpted with this golden section in mind.

Similarly, Vitruvius said that "symmetry derives from proportion - what the Greeks call analogy - the consonance between each part of the whole. Leonardo da Vinci argued that the golden ratio should be the law that dominates architecture, so that proportions can be established through it between the different parts of a building, as well as between the built volume and the free one, because only the observance of this ratio makes an architectural ensemble pleasing to the eye". That is why, in Matila Ghyka's book: Aesthetics and the theory of arts, numerous measurements are mentioned that were carried out in relation to the "dimensions and proportions of the temples of Hellas" from which it appears that, in the beauty and harmony spread by the Parthenon, the Propylaea and other Greek temples, the golden ratio also intervenes.

- You are right. Greek architecture presents another aspect of beauty, I could say, diametrically opposed to that which Egyptian architecture inspires, for if the majesty of the pyramids or the Sphinx brings to mind the thought of death and eternity, Greek architecture pulsates with life. It is enough to look at the Temple of Athena Nike, its elegant and harmonious columns that carry a pediment in the form of an isosceles triangle, everything being calculated to give the impression of grace and elegance.

- But even in the statues, the Greek sculptors did not use live models for their deities, but made them taking into account a certain system of proportions that had the purpose of producing the impression of harmony of everything. From the Renaissance to the present day, all artists have taken into account this division of segments. I only remind you of Kepler, the astronomer, mathematician and, I could say, the esthetician of the 16th century, because he wrote, in addition to the other well-known works, a treatise on aesthetics with the title: Harmonics of work (Harmony of the world), in which expresses itself in an entirely original form about the golden ratio: "This geometrical proportion, I believe, is an idea which remains the only eternal power to reveal the creation of the Like from the Like!"

Leadership: Can you form a certain perception of what "the beautiful from divine creation" is, so that you follow the coordinates of a single purpose: to generate a single vision of a science that firmly assumes an object of study?

- If I were to choose the beautiful from the mathematics left by the ancient Greeks, I can honestly say that I don't know what I should leave out. I have the impression that the Greek philosophers, who were also mathematicians, wove all mathematical problems with threads of beauty, harmony or delight. For example, the theorem: "all angles inscribed in a semicircle are right" , which was established and proved by Thales. It is said that it impressed him so much that he sacrificed an ox to the gods.

And only Thales was neither at his first scientific discovery, nor a naive one, who let himself be caught in the trap of pride. He was one of the seven wise men of Greece, had traveled through Egypt, and had astonished Pharaoh by showing him that he knew how to measure the height of the pyramid by the shadow it cast alone. And yet, in this theorem, which brings no practical use, he saw a beauty worthy of admiration, a beauty that delighted him and for which he felt the need to thank those he considered to be the masters of wisdom.

- But this theorem is still so beautiful today, although we pass over it with great ease! The fact that it is enough to take any point on the semicircle and join it with the extremities of the diameter to form a right angle by itself, can delight you like a song, or like a poem, or like a painting! Equally remarkable is the Pythagoreans' admiration for number itself, number abstract and devoid of any practical meaning. In order to isolate it from any kind of application that could be attributed to it in social and economic life, the Pythagoreans first, and then the other Greek mathematicians, invented a new science, called Arithmetic, a science that would deal only with the properties of numbers abstract, of course wholes, for only wholes were regarded as numbers.

The other concrete numbers, which could also be fractional or even irrational, were considered as quantities and the calculations with them belonged to another science, called logistics, a science within the reach of merchants, slaves and neglected by philosophers. Arithmetic did not have any practical applications, it was studied only as a pleasure, and Socrates defines it in Charmides or on wisdom as: "the science of what is even and odd, of the differences between numbers and of the relations between them".

Leadership: Can you express what you perceive as "beautiful" within a similarity between a discovery that is made only to the soul and through the soul, and an empirical discovery that is constantly confirmed in all situations of life?

- That's right. For Pythagoras, Arithmetic was the most beautiful of the sciences and even the most advantageous, because only in this field, "things appear in the form of numbers"!

- As if only Pythagoras saw Arithmetic as the most beautiful science? Didn't Gauss say that Mathematics is the queen of sciences, and Arithmetic is the queen of mathematics?

- He gave his hand to Gauss to say it, because he had the science already cultivated by the Pythagoreans and all those who followed them for more than twenty centuries, while Pythagoras was stirring the harmony that would charm future generations. There were things that no one had thought of before, and which he then strung like shining beads on a thread. Let us think only of the division of numbers into primes and composites. From a practical point of view this division serves no purpose. But how much delight have these numbers created through their properties in the souls of mathematicians, starting from the time of Pythagoras and up to today?

I am thinking, for example, of the demonstration that Euclid gives, in Book IX, about the infinity of prime numbers.

- You thought well, because this demonstration delighted many mathematicians, from then until today, and they encouraged them to add other new demonstrations. Should we take the Elements to read, right there, how Euclid formulated this discovery of the Pythagoreans?

The Great Secret of Creation aims at a discovery that is not necessarily based on observation and mathematical calculations, but on belief in a world that has been ordered by a supreme intelligence.

Where mathematics has twinned with the beautiful, the obligation is established to recognize the transfer of the responsibility of divine creation to man and to follow the advice of the Creator: "Everything you do for science, you also do for Me. And everything you discover through the power of faith, is a invitation to explore the beauty in you as a reflection of the beauty around you".

Returning to mathematics, here is what Wikipedia tells us: Among the more recent works on the golden section, which are the basis of Matila Ghyka's thinking, we should also mention those of Heinrich Emil Timerding who, analyzing how the principle of the golden section was applied, insists on the fact that "the golden section is only a particular case of a more general rule, that of the recurrence of the same proportions in the elements of a whole".

Where No Stream Passed, A River Flows Now

On February 17, 2013

Exploit your leadership potential by developing and transforming your knowledge into a pulsating direct current that cross an entire lifetime of man.

During college, I was beginning to feel some strange impulses in my soul whenever I fell pray to countless and tedious arrears, polluting, in my vision. A consequence of an inhibiting inequality, a serious mismatch between values, a heavy burden awry distributed in my existence. It was the manifestation of a vacuum form that seemed to gain a permanent character.

Something inside me intermittently shimmered: "I can be more than an empty space; I can be a core of exploiting my own potential around which all forces gravitate. I can be the discoverer of that universal, undrainable and vibrational energy, of that forgotten or hidden alchemy, which transforms realities. As a sentinel to serve the science of transformation, available in very tight limits, to redress it so as to fertilize and expand my horizons."

Nobody guessed who I was and what I could become. A fine and very persistent seductive of matter, discoverer of some auxiliary energy, able to unleash them at will. A true artist of configuration and reconfiguration, who records and then converts with an unfailing accuracy each particle of knowledge, transforming it into a pulsating direct current – over which an alternative electric power can be always superimposed.

Man's conception of the intrinsic need to be someone else lies in the improvement of the gratitude towards the hero of a story that is ready at all times to become a reality.

I felt that I was operating as an electric generator, equivalent to a radiant energy device, developed by T. Henry Moray. I was almost mechanically seduced by my own burning curiosity; I was working permanently at maximum strength. Shaken by the thirst of discovery, I embarked on a torrential and uncontrollable analysis and creative process, driven by the temptation to discover the invisible fluid, vital to transformation.

A decision taken by both spirit and faith.A relief of black thoughts. A deep anger against that vacuum form around me, which choked and limited me, sending me into a dark corner. A desperate attempt to discover myself.What were my chances of success?

In a sense, I felt like I was part of the cast of River Queen (2005), with story valences... full of experiences that guided me in writing the story of my life. But the movie ends like this:

"I was sad in those days, on the verge of desperation. There were no missionary priests there, nor churches where I could pray. I sometimes confessed to soldier Doyle, my only friend. He taught me that it often helps to write your thoughts down on paper. Although at time I would like to show him what I wrote, I don't think he'd read a word of it anyway. He would probably burn the papers or throw them in the river. That is because what you wrote is for yourself only so that, seeing what you wrote, you could better understand what happened to you... the story of your life."

In my overflowing enthusiasm, I wanted to forcibly turn the wheel of time that was always tumbling forward, ever more powerful and difficult to deject, like a ball punted from free kick and ricocheted into another unknown area. I was heading at high speed toward the rugged ground where few have the courage to enter. I entered the game, on a virgin land. Thus was born the idea of my predestination.

Leadership: Can your evolution of a hero of faithfulness, inspired by a real story, gain a special significance from the perspective of an individual destiny that creates new relationships between Creation and Creator?

I stepped into my dark laboratory, the place where opposites are born and ingredients are processed. I lit the lamp. I put it on the experiment table, all full with substances ranging from one quantity to another (solutions, compunds, solvents, diluents, serums, reagents, additives), selected according to the properties of each. Properties that I discovered myself through distillation, by replacing some rigid and special formulas, covered with dust by time.

Sweeping, continuous and burdensome efforts, which aimed perfection. Ignoring any obstacoles in my path, I wanted to discover the meaning of life in one jump, an impetus powerfuly sprung from the depths of consciousness. To get to know the transcending forms of all boundaries and, equally, of all progress, was the plan of an artful mind that knows how to make the difference between eternal and ephemeral.

And when a Samson strains its fists, even the mightiest mountain bends and finally collapses, unleashing all latent energies, all the world's mysteries sealed in the time capsule.

Leadership applies to the idea of a permanent passage from the status of promoter of high aspirations, to a more imagined reality, to the status of a subject of a special destiny.

Behind my work, there was an extraordinary poetic force, like that of Dickens. It did not mirror the philosophical and political views of the time, like Milton's work. Also, it did not incorporate characters, like Shakespeare's undecided Hamlet, for its content to invite to meditation or reply.

My work consisted of completely different alchemical elements. It concentrated a subtle energy, then released into another completely new, determinant, turbulent and mysterious energy, which kindled the soul and mind all the way through. Behind it, there was the meaning of life, developing by my own rules, in a roundabout.

Alchemy means transformation. It also behaves like electrons: in the form of wave. A wave that propagates towards the desired direction, affecting, in a way, reality. My destiny was the subject of the work of an artist who knows a thing: creativity is everywhere.

Leadership: Is your struggle with the condition that defines you as a man the fulfillment of a destiny that puts you face to face with the greatest challenge: the expanding power of a centuries-old creation in the endless wealth of the world?

Are you going at high speed to that rugged ground where few dare to enter? Do you dare to play the game on a virgin land?

Being an alchemist means having the power to transform yourself, to fuel that strong pivot of self-knowledge, that constituent part of the exploitation core of your own potential. All this empty or barren space that defines you now, stretching over a vast territory, can always be filled, populated, fertilized with a certain level of well-defined and easily tolerated substance for your development, maintained within certain limits and conditions.

During these oscillations – from minimum to maximum, from a low voltage constant to a very high voltage constant, from "to be" to "not to be", occurs, of course, a true polishing of your own personality, of your own creation, applying novelty and efficacy. Where no stream passes, a river can flow at any time if you channel the water to this new course.

The resultant that is formed – a fertile and well-structured horizon for development, not virtuosity or mere erudition, but a true alchemy of individual experience, of self-improvement, of overcoming old perceptions – acting on leadership, the point of maximum intensity. Hence, you must always be sober-minded in your ascension; you must not apply too much stress on your "source" of progress.

But, in turn, this resultant, generated by a plurality of parameters, factors, contrasts, currents with the same sense and direction, can always decompose – can return to its original state in case of abnormal development. Or, in the case of an "external aggression" – when you interact with people dominated by harmful thinking – those who have nothing better to do than criticize from the very beginning your efforts and enthusiasm.

The expanding power of a centuries-old creation in the endless wealth of the world is highlighted in the novelty with which you experience a reality whose constant updating depends on how you relate to the existence of a Creator who has assimilated the quintessence of a knowledge of the highest class.

Where No Stream Passed, A River Flows Now marks the end of mediocrity and the fight for that elusive goal: perfection.

If you want to get into the first platoon of the long distance runners, you must agree to submit yourself to a strenuous and permanent physical training. To overcome mediocrity, form a clear vision of your goal and your own limits.

Where The Heart Does Not Lie, Where The Longing Does Not Disappoint

On February 04, 2011

Increase your ability to become a role model, by externalizing your inner world.

At the end of the movie "Leon - The Professional", Mathilda follows the advice that Leon – the killer, her only best friend, gave it to her shortly before his death. So, having no other options, she goes to Tony, Leon's "adoptive father" who had promised him that he would take care of Mathilda, if he will be killed.

Taking a friendly attitude, Tony gives her a one hundred dollar bill - money for entertainment, and promises that he will always help her.

- Can I take a job for this? Mathilda asked him, in honor of appreciation that she had for Leon.

- A job? What can you do? Tony asked her with curiosity.

- I know to kill.

Two people, the same affinities. Raised by Leon, Mathilda began to resemble more and more with him. He became the expression of her soul, an example for him - good and convincing, even if she was just a child and did not know enough life. He remained in her heart. The ideas and the guidance that he gave to her, especially vis-à-vis to the "art" of killing (the very essence of his leadership) still living, yet it enlightened her whole being.

Perceiving her inner voice that was whispering to her: "Be a killer, be like Leon" Mathilda had the feeling that her life has taken on a meaning, a purpose, a perspective.

Leadership: Does your status as a beneficiary of consistently emotional luggage facilitate people's transition from the "experimental" stage to the "unitary system" stage?

Leadership means entering into harmony first with yourself and then with others. It's just a way to rise higher than what you can have and give, than who you are behind prefabricated masks in a certain sense, still unrevealed.

You could always resort to boosting prospects for approaching a new thinking concerning what you consider to be really valuable for your transformation, for better or for worse, but also for many other assessment methods of your constant "to be". All these expectations, estimates, calculations, intentions and direction adjustment, no matter how reprehensible or commendable, closely related with forms of direct knowledge, are able to ensure leadership operating, maintenance and development.

If we try to investigate human "roots" as essence of an only individually valid truth by taking a reference sample at a behavioral and feelings expression level, we could easily determine the type of relationship established between individuals.

The state of well-being and motivation of the extraordinary encounter with thought and a feeling of the opposite sense does not fit well with the mechanism of your needs unless you feel disappointed with yourself.

Let's imagine an inward movement, a special feeling arising from the development of a new rationality that shatters professional contexts and then begins to contribute to the enrichment of life experience. What can now be called "willingness to adapt to a new life", taking as model a man a lot more rich at heart, bringer of peace and equilibrium in life, could be replaced by the willingness to surpass yourself by widening the sphere of consciousness and enriching the behavioral repertoire.

Psychologically speaking, there is a shift from being a regular individual from the "experimental" stage of harsh living conditions, to the "unitary system" stage of thinking and feeling, comprising a similar structure to the followed model, creating added value and then separated value, causing the emergence of a new human: Beyond the old darkness.

Leadership: Is the truth that restores your main goal in life guided by the motto: "More human than I know myself"?

Without a doubt, the heart is not lying and longing is not disappointing when there is a direct relationship between you and the other, an interweaving of your feelings with their feelings.

To influence those around you, they need to find in you a role-model; they need to discover in you those qualities that they appreciate enormously. In other words, they must be in line with what you want, with the reality of your life, with your own personality – with what you are, what you feel with your ideals. So they will be penetrated by that strong desire to aspire to be like you incessantly.

Externalizing his inner world, Leon came in harmony with Mathilda. He had a great influence on her - and she, feeling a deep sense of respect, admiration, attraction, she wanted to be like him, a killer, probably even better than him. Her feelings have developed since he was with her in critical moments of her life, and not having a different pattern to follow she had immersed in the only reality that she could know.

This spiritual light which surrounded the girl, positive from her point of view, has prompted her life and gave it a sense, which made to keep something in her from Leon.

The true wealth of the soul is the need to feel appreciated by the world when your abilities are released by devotion to something more magnificent than what you think about yourself.

Where The Heart Does Not Lie, Where The Longing Does Not Disappoint designates the rapprochement between two personalities who, even if they are not together, exhibit the same attributes, the same emotions and the same extremes.

As a leader you can influence people's lives for the better or worse. It depends primarily on the values that you've developed and promoted in your life and others. Depends on your quality, but also other's. And if you're one step ahead of the others, but they do not want to follow you, it's better to retire.

Conversely, when you find a good leader that understands your work and your points of view, who provides an appropriate environment for your development, it will be found the motivation to move forward together.

Who Doesn't Deserve To Be A Chief

On April 29, 2009

Ensure coherence to the whole process of the desired change, without orienting yourself on a worn map.

She thought that if she is a graduate of two faculties, as if she holds a doctorate and a didactic title, nobody will ever ask or demand her some explanations. But she was terribly wrong !

It's not easy to conduct a clinic laboratory. It would be really absurd to believe that every person has the necessary competences to do this thing. First of all a laboratory chief has to be present the entire programme established by the existent settlement so that he could answer to all the requests that the general manager of the hospital has. He needs to have some experience in administering at least a section, or a branch of activity, so a leading experience he needs to have by all means.

Therewith, a laboratory chief has the obligation to evaluate the professional performances of the personnel which are in his direct administration, according to the organizational structure and data sheet, and to contribute at the fulfilling and maintaining an atmosphere of collaboration, calm and a fair-play competition in the laboratory. And, it's very important to participate at all the meetings in which are discussed problems about the activity of the laboratory or the unity (dispensary, hospital) in which he works.

All these tasks which had to be accomplished many times were too "absurd" for a laboratory chief who, based on the fact that she is a graduate of two faculties and that she has a didactic title, she can afford to do what she wants. Therefore, she didn't take seriously her attributions, she didn't get involved in the laboratory problems, in the very important problems demanded by the manager of the hospital (problems about the organization, acquisitions, statistical reports, etc.), she almost never participated at the meetings – to offer some information about the made analysis, the laboratory problems, beside the fact that she was going to work and leaving from work whenever she wanted, without giving any explanations.

What were the other things that she didn't do? Well, nothing, just like any person exceedingly overbearing and arrogant. Finally, the hospital managers took the most inspired decision, the single possible: to dismiss immediately the laboratory chief and replace her.

Leadership: Do you navigate an unknown area to demonstrate that your important skills can be recognized in the presence of a key value that defines you?

If you navigate in an area, which is not covered by any map, you have all the chances to never find what you are looking for. And if you do not reach the established destination, it means you have not accomplished anything. An unknown area is a last remaining piece of writing in a memo that will never be published. The prestige of the area you represent increases the image of your business and your future.

The chief of the laboratory is like a ship captain who has all the chances to never find the way to the true performance if he puts his trust in a poorly trained crew. It is like they would navigate left to chance, promiscuously, guided by the principle "a map is not useful for anything."

As a head of the laboratory you must know exactly what tasks you have to fulfill, both on long-term and short-term, and to know your responsibilities. It is hard to coordinate the activity of people in a laboratory, especially if they are either few, and the number of reviews is very high, or if they are close to retirement and no longer have any interest to improve themselves.

The key value that defines the leader is represented by the discovery of an area of competence that he can control only by establishing measures to prevent and limit the effects of abdication from personal power.

In other cases, it's hard to coordinate the activity of those people even if they have enough experience, but who don't want to be coordinated, they don't want a chief, but they prefer to lead themselves, to do whatever they want, they prefer to be in a "crazy place." So, it's a big responsibility to be a laboratory chief when you confront difficult situations that need different approaches. And in these conditions is very hard to accomplish your work skills with seriousness and professionalism, with success and with a smile on your face.

To analyze the map of leadership means to study each element of it that may come in your help and that may ensure your success, and to extract as much information about the territory in which you intend to exercise your influence. In leadership, you cannot orient yourself on a worn map, and to keep yourself moving following the indications provided by it. First of all, you need to draw by yourself a map to delimit the most valuable members of the crew, of those impostors who claim to be more than they are.

Leadership: Does the perfect image of your profession correspond to redefining the area of applicability of an attribute that does not make any contribution to achieving the concordance between the need for the desire to perfect and the virtue of behaving in the midst of disorder?

A hospital managers can't take the risk of keeping at the administration of a laboratory, where every day a lot of sick people come and they need a lot of investigations, a slow person, who is not capable of respecting the obligations written in the work contract, and above this, with a lot of arrogance.

This is what the hospital manager said after he fired the laboratory chief: "Despite the grades and the obtained credits, if the laboratory chief doesn't do his/her job; he/she will be replaced without a doubt." Firm and categorical ! That's a quality management !

Hence, in the course of your approaches, you must systematically follow the way in which are appearing the constituent components of the map you use in order to achieve performance. You should reveal the hidden side of people, depending on the fluidity of their qualities and skills. To guide yourself on a worn map means to give to people the authority to disregard your vision, means to let them do what they want.

Leadership is a journey from which you have a great chance of returning as a hero, knowing that you are doing something extra from the perspective of creating a new image of the specialization you are addressing in relation to others.

Conclusion: When it comes to the success of an organisation, of an institution, the most skilled managers will notice the professionalism, seriousness and the performances that the employees and the service chief prove, not the theoretical credits. Actually, managers will not have a choice, if they want their company to work; they will have to think twice before hiring someone in an important leading job.

Who Has The Power

On January 02, 2009

Why certain people don't see the great opportunities that are just in front of their eyes and do not deal with them?

A reason for which some people avoid to make a step forward to future, to progress, to perfection, is that, first of all they are afraid of changing, then they don't know how to observe or they refuse to recognize the chances of success that appear day by day. And they overlook or avoid thinking at long-term consequences of their decisions.

Yesterday, on my way home, I stopped at an antiquarian. Usually at an antiquarian the books are cheaper, and if you know how to negotiate, you have the chance to get anything at half price. This time, instead, I bought three books almost for free. These three books, which were in a perfect condition, are from the printing house Brandbuilders Grup, and I knew they were very expensive. As I arrived home, I checked on the printing house site the real price of those books and I and found that each of them exceeded 70 lei. More exactly these three books are 260 Ron. But do you know with how much money I bought them? Are you ready?

35 Ron. You read right. Just 35 Ron.

Where is the mistake in all this business and who is to blame? Obvious, the salesman. First he didn't know at all how to negotiate, and then he didn't know the real prices of those three books on the market. And, just like this, slowly, slowly, bankruptcy knocks at the door. Yes, I believe it's very true. Some people are very selfish, lazy, uninformed and anxious.

Leadership: Do you define your specific orientation towards receiving a work of art without taking into account the actual value of its content?

Let's face it; if the antique seller would know the real value of the three books would he sell them at such a low price? Be sure that I was ready to pay for those books 150 Ron, because it was still a profitable business, than to buy them from a library or direct from the printing house.

But here is the hard part. When I left, the salesman was "negotiating" with another client the price of another book. "I'm sorry; I can't give it to you with 4 Ron. At least 6 Ron."

Ironic, isn't it? He could have obtained from me 150 Ron, and now he was bargaining for 2 Ron.

A work of art that you have to value is an external force that not everyone suspects, especially when it belongs to your decision to serve its stake. If it is said that the true face of a book is a multiple one, resulting from its amount of interpretation in all languages, then its literary value is an indicator of the quality of the content that you use and reveal it through the prism of the abundance of ideas and projects that stand out.

Leadership: Can you produce an "impetus to obtain more" effect by increasing the value of an asset relative to the shelf price, revealing its shelf life through the subtlety of its essence that always remains the same?

All people are making bad choices once in a while. But for some of them this thing makes them smarter, not stupid. For the high level people, this kind of situation is an advertisement that they have to change their way of thinking and acting. On the other hand, simple people ignore the shock and they don't give up at their traditional way of thinking.

Uninformed people pay a bigger price.

Information represents, especially in these days, a big advantage. And top people know better than anyone what is the value of information, that's why they are always in touch with the news from the domain in which they display their activity. Actually they are so concerned about their future that more than five hours a day they spend developing their knowledge. Sometimes they don't have enough time for other extra job activities; they are so concerned about their personal and professional development. The good part is that top peoples are always on the highest degree of success. A continuous and sustained effort is always rewarded, isn't it?

Leadership follows the following statement that contains the label of a long-term business perspective: "enhance the value of an asset by the total asset value in circulation ! "

The asset that must always be appreciated by at least 50% may be a certain thing, its attributes or the content it distributes, having a large public draw. It depends on how you increase its efficiency or importance through the "know-how" that will allow it a very clear differentiation from the products of other suppliers in your market.

Let's go back a little bit at the antiquarian's salesman, who has the possibility to document every day how much he wants, about anything in any field, for surely he was not in need of books. But he preferred to sit on a bench, smoking quiet and watching passers. How could he know the value of those books in a library? And how could he know how to negotiate, how to obtain a better price, if the books about were sitting down, right beside him, but he never read them?

Everyday some people learn something new, but for others, nothing is new under the sun. The chances of making a career, of getting somewhere far, are at everyone's hand, but some of them are too selfish and too "busy" to take advantage of them. I hope from the bottom of my heart that at least this article is read by some merchandisers and to learn something precious. Namely that "whoever holds the information, holds the power."

According to Wikipedia, Know-How is a term taken from English, which designates specific knowledge, owned by a natural person or an enterprise, regarding a product or manufacturing process.

Leadership is the know-how that makes the difference between the value of the opportunity to improve a result and the value of the constant to deliver the qualities of your work.

Who Took Perfection From Man?

On March 10, 2009

Be above others, bringing solid proof for the superior qualities that define your personality.

- What could the great William Harvey say about this black blood? The anatomist Johann Schreck asked himself while he dissected the body of a girl who had died because of a liver disease. He had learned to dissect bodies ever since he was a student at Padova, an activity absolutely necessary for his continuous improvement.

Time passed slowly in the small underground room, the head became unbearable. While he was carefully handling the pinchers at the thin extremities, he tried to cast away the thoughts that were filling his mind. His last days were hard for him, he wondered who he could still do his job. Only a few days ago, he passed the test the inquisitors had given to all the great scientists. Only a few of them had escaped alive.

Leadership: Are you determined enough to support future explorations in the realm of your own professional skills, ensuring your own intentionality the possibility of acquiring a positive connotation?

- Is it true that you are practicing activities coinciding with no right of appeal to those declared heretic? asked a Dominican priest, with an ambiguous smile.

Schreck knew that if he didn't succeed in contesting with solid arguments all the arguments that he was unjustly accused of, he would have the same fate as Fulgenzio Loffredo or the other elite whose ideas, convictions and practices opposed the accepted and known way of thinking, imposed by the fathers of inquisition. Technically, they were accusing him that he belonged to the Hematic sect, that is a sect of people who fed on animal flesh depleted of blood. Only those belonging to Hebrew religion would escape the rigors of the Inquisition.

Trying to understand where the Dominican wanted to get to, Schreck made a quick judgment that lasted only a second and which brought to his lips the right answer. He had to deny the accusations, but he also had to remain on the Dominican's field and effectively disapprove him.

- Monsenior, I have no preconceptions about blood. For me, valuable are the things that Christ has shown us and that has been lovingly sent down to us by Saint John, in the sixth chapter of his Gospel: „Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink..." I get the body and blood of Christ by Eucharist. I participate regularly, just like you, to this sublime act of cannibalism."

The inquisitor was surprised of Schreck's answer, since all the people he had addressed this question denied it whit no arguments.*

Leadership: Can you demonstrate that the degree of justification of a convincing belief, based on risk factors, is an indication of the truth that can be obtained by experientially anchoring a unitary practice?

Nobody except yourself knows your potential better. For your leadership to grow, first of all, you must repress any negative and discouraging influence, and protect yourself against the negative effects of a thinking that makes your incrimination possible.

Get ahold of your thoughts, on your judgment, on your actions, as people who have their thinking greatly conditioned by some unhealthy values, beliefs and practices, that are incorrect or condemnable, would do anything to destabilize your character traits and diminish your performances, incriminating you for any negligence that you manifest. You can become an easy victim for any omission of your personal system of values that your entire existence is based upon. Such individuals shall compare you with their own beliefs, conceptions and interests, and if you are on the same page as they are, then you will always be directed by their will, you will get lost in the labyrinth of intrigues and ingenious speculations.

Just like physical and mental health rapidly decrease under the pressure of stress, so your state of existence will get worse because your mind will be filled with pieces of reality corresponding o the rules, principles and practices of those who want to create their own dictatorial status.

In order to get rid of the individuals who nourish their leadership with a growing intrinsic motivation to impose their own ideas and values, you must wisely fight against all their opinions and standpoints, bringing solid arguments for supporting the superior qualities that define your personality and which emphasize your well-designed way of thinking.

The negative influences that others exert on you can disappear just as easily as some footprints on sand can be erased by wind, if, by your thinking and attitude, by your ideas and actions, you make proof of an extraordinary greatness. If your personality is dominated by some profound values or convictions, if you exhibit your ideas and convictions masterfully, just like a spider makes his web miraculously, then your leadership will earn a great meaning, and you will win ground before others.

The truth that can be obtained by the experiential anchoring of a unitary practice corresponds to the formulation of one's own conclusion with reference to the relationship between what you can achieve on your own and what you are not allowed to make known among neophytes.

Who Took Perfection From Man reflects a reality that concerns all of us. That is, if we will be responsible for our personality and if we will have the power to go against the negative influences from outside, we will certainly gain a greatness and meaning that will get us closer to perfection.

On the other hand, if we let ourselves drawn into the individual game of others, and if we will let ourselves guided by them, we will get to function (think and act) in disagreement to our convictions and moral values – and this will stop our tendency to the perfection of our character.

Conclusion: A strong personality, which is built upon special principles and values, shall be able to resist by the power of thought to the parasitic external influences created by smaller or larger groups of people united by false ideas serving some hidden agenda. Such a personality crawling on the moving sands of other people, will always succeed in fighting them with their own weapons and survive, increasing their name, value and power.

The demolition of shaky "constructions" like those made of playing cards, or of a sandcastle, can only be done by such a personality to whom nothing can rob the gift of perfection based on the solidity of principles and values planted in time.

Who Wants To Live Forever (II)

On October 27, 2015

Develop your ability to understand something superior to existence itself, falling within the plan of experiences related to a limitless space.

I rise from the inability to understand something superior to existence itself, in the sphere of influence of a power of perceiving a hidden place from a noological time. Simultaneously, I secretly dream that one day, this piercing time, turned into an unlived memory, will take me with it, as far away as possible from what makes me whole as a living being.

The future is a nostalgia of the present, a gift of the heart to expand to the peak of the "unlimited" feeling, in which the imagination of the alternative and possible encompasses the admiration for the work of an artist who has decisively surprised the entire world. The momentum to turn myself into a traveler of the mind, enduring the storm of exclusion from the existence emerged from the vibrant clearing of the imaginary, can always be tripped by the deep meaning of a constant resonance with the world. "Can you touch my world with your fingertips?"

"Who Wants To Live Forever" must fit into the plan of experiences related to a sort of infinite that always challenges him, like a living pain that comes and goes, procuring the experience of his own limits: the crime of rejecting himself from the humane and the ecstasy of feeling cold, like a Morning Star, shining in the dark, maneuvering sight beyond stars. What I could never deny as being a contrast between the illusory wait of superlative effects and the harsh reality of returning to the concrete, when each thing tends towards a transcendent finality. "This world has only one sweet moment set aside for us."

Only a perfection of vision stemming from the universe's greatness can lead to a univocal reading of the image of the one who moves mountains through a soundtrack that describes the poet's spiritual experiences, the life experiences of his exile in the harsh climate of a tonic and necessary competitiveness between gods and people.

Leadership: Can you authenticate yourself as a straightening of the world in the universal cosmic plan, without reducing your image to a reality that is secondary to a leading role?

Slowly, crossed by upward effluvia, I enter as a stranger, stranded on the shores of an infinite that seeks its purpose, in the death that gloriously completes life. And anxiously waiting for time's calling – I dare hope that I will know you better ! – to be revived in a past long forgotten. A simple point devoid of any accent, but appearing as an absolute of living. Reminiscent of Faust: "I hope for your nothing to offer me everything."

But is it possible for the one disguised in a couple of motion sensors connected to the terminals of a source of tension that lead to the command resistor of "Forever is our today" in order to transmit the signal of your rebirth from nothing on a certain frequency?

A reality that is secondary to a leading role is the sum of information, beliefs, values, feelings accumulated through your personal experience that you've experienced only in the worldly plane, revealing a side of man that gives importance to things fleeting. But what really provokes curiosity is the main role that all the joys and events of life impose on you in relation to the speed of expansion of space, physical matter and energy, an infinite number of systems comprised in one another, higher complexity.

Leadership: Can you transmit the signal of your rebirth from nothing on a certain frequency in order to see beyond yourself that opportunity to create progressively an endless space?

The man integrated in a structure of existence convergent towards the reality of the past or future moment, with the opportunity of maintain the optimal ration between the possible and imaginary, in the carousel of information, often contradictory, which make the passing towards a dimension filled with symbols and meanings, manages to acquire the prestige of "a Morning Star shining in the dark."

In what regards leadership, this man represents a necessary product of the relationship between the power of reinvention and the obligation of subjecting himself to an order of superior creation, who opens the gates to the world beyond the walls of the moment and the visible.

Considering the reflection in another time as being a fruit belonging to becoming, in which is constituted the concept of being "someone else", making an approximation between experiential training and imaginative novelty, the vision of a world independent from the laws of reality is created. This gaze cast towards the world beyond time can forever change the understanding of the world beyond our own.

Leadership: Are you meant to outline a possible scientific scenario in which the universe represents an oneiric projection of your primordial being for a supreme purpose, as compared to the single God who is adored by mortals to the limit of imagination?

The visionaries of great transformations do not forget of the reflection within consciousness of an existence belonging to an exterior world. This can be seen from the powerful attention given to the reflection called "exterior", from the role reserved for it in the course of knowledge that must, at the same time, be a form of representation of new perspectives of understanding of superior reality. And, at the same time, which can summarize all the progressive efforts of man to organize his own content and to know himself by reflecting his image in an unlimited space.

"Forever is out today" is a metaphor that expresses that state of relative agreement between what you believe and the independent reality, in different periods of time, both opposite in tendencies, leading to innovation and originality in configuring your own identity.

And to be reborn out of nothing is synonymous to leading, to find orientation in the context of a space, unadulterated scientifically, a space illuminated by the presence of a certain distance from what the regular logic of thinking enunciates.

Leadership, in the equation of the universe, can be described as a return of man to the elements of the eternal nature from which he arose only if the profound mystery of his work remains impenetrable or impossible to reach for ordinary mortals.

If you want to win over an entire world, as a universal gift, then try to get closer to the eternal, finding guidance only in the profound mystery of your existence inscribed in the hearts of other people.

Who Wants To Live Forever highlights the entry signal of the visionary man into a new dimension of creation, later showing the mystic truth: he who manages to transform into a drop of the ocean of time will never manage to leave tracks in the fine sand of the hourglass of the universe.

Who Wants To Live Forever (I)

On October 25, 2015

Experience yourself as a sum of the possibilities of grasping the infinite, defining yourself as a being that knows everything.

It seemed to me that something was eluding me as a diffuse memory of those yet unknown, in the face of those considered battlefields in times that multiply and split, visible only to the spiritual eye. Myself existing only in an interminable spin of the flow of energy dispersed in the universe in different moments of "state". I was a strange world made up of a horizon become the universal law of a reversed causality, one which eliminated the possibility of a logical, constructive answer.

Basically, it was not only of a continuous exchange of visions and representations of the world arranged in a particular way: "Forever is our today", but of my identity brought to a level that could not be counterfeited with appearances and interventional maneuvers. By a hardening in immortality, in other forms of matter, converging in a high stability pole.

Intensely, emerged from a meditation full of anxiety, Mefisto warns me: "Not even in eons will the trace of your earthly stay disappear."

The great knower of unknowns, opposed and yet convergent to the Universe he mirrors in himself so admirably with the precision of a superpower placed far away from human consciousness, even able to overcome gravity and bounce into the height of a different kind of living other than the biological, of a living distilled and cleansed by a certain atmospheric pressure, this spending transformer of time takes on the duties emerged through the influence of two categories of factors. Namely: the increase of scientific complexity and the improvement of flexibility as a force of dynamism in interaction with a "Beyond reason."

The exile of the real world aspires, with pain, with delight, with rebellion, to a different type of grandeur, that of things that resisted the passage of time. And which remained just as beautiful. In fairness, with a certain probability to disappear. "What is this thing that builds our dreams, yet slips away from us?"

Leadership: Can you discover the deep meanings of an act of absolute knowledge, contributing to the acquisition of an identity that contains the "Forever" variable?

"Hence forth..." are the words on which focuses a man of the future, trying to discover the tangle meanings of a search aimed at the unknown and unseen. He can be identified with a singular ID that happens to be valid for all versions of assumptions concerning the probability of finding new landmarks of orientation, or rather, landmarks of connection between two worlds. One accessible and one inaccessible, one of reality and the other of the surreal.

You will never be able to experience that fulfillment of conquering perfection, directed towards the possibility of moving from one place to another with the power of the mind, so as to be able to face the creative challenges you need to surpass yourself, if you do not manage to integrate yourself in a new pattern of development – that of the man who wants himself defined as a being that knows everything.

Without a minimal precondition for the symbolic key of an artistic work that evokes images from a world seen as a distorted lens of an illusionist and without the transcendental dowry of the notion of the universe seen as the space of a mechanical game in which the Ego always bears the mask of the played, it is not possible to elaborate a symbolic theme stylistically focused on the staging of an excellent story show.

An artist can be defined as "a being who knows everything" only if he manages to express a privileged communication between what is considered to be revealed in an alternative reality and what is considered to be "facts" behind a fictional life scenario.

Leadership, measured in the dimension of the rationality that overcomes the apparent limits of the impossible, shaping the form of the idea of limitless knowledge, always interpretable in the deep meanings of an individual creation appearing as a whole of the new world, presents the advantage that you need to understand yourself from another's point of view.

That of a person defined in the light of an identity that contains a single variable: "Forever", vulnerable from the point of view of the concrete in the face of the addiction to connect deeper to a multidimensional self – which is identified and established through the image of a traveler, projecting himself in the past, future, or into another being. Forever does not represent the experience of man beyond death, but rather the orientation of knowledge towards a more advanced development.

An identity that contains the "Forever" variable, based on the inexhaustible freedom of interpreting reality from a subjectively assumed position, is represented by the effort of integrating a writer into a space-time context in which the mystery is built from bizarre associations that propose an aesthetic based on innovative concepts of superiority.

Who Wants To Live Forever is the testimony of an unknowable which becomes the ideal of accomplishing a lasting scientific development. Someone once said that science is a sort of ideal mirror, in which can be read, at every moment, the reasons of man's future activity. But does this creative, imaginative, progressive activity not have as a main function, in conformity with a privileged status of association with assumptions tied to reality, that of detecting a new beginning of future perspectives, which are apparently impossible?

Whoever Reads Beyond Words Discovers Experiences From His Own Existence

On September 18, 2022

Try to understand the psychological side of these manifestations that oppose the reality in which your thoughts push you, without having to divulge your beliefs and feelings.

I would say that those who read beyond words discover experiences from your own existence. Others, even with words taken seriously, are not able to express a personal idea. And you, dear reader, the fact that you read what I post on the blog does not mean that you understand everything, not even the intimate, relational symbolism between the lyrical self and the poetic universe that surrounds a writer like me. Instead of reading me, you could read other books during this time, because with people like me it is more difficult to understand something.

Yes, Nicu. It is not only about writing, but also about reality. I propose that when we meet, we discuss the following topic: when loved ones let you down. In the end, this is also a mysterious symbolism, without falling into surrealistic incoherencies, a kind of crystal in which the entire universe of a being foreign to you is reflected, as if descended from the imaginary of a little-known past that merged with the imaginary of an almost illegible future. Yes, I would like to hear your opinion on how you see a harmful state caused by disappointment. I went through something like this recently. I will tell you in general what it is about.

I hope it is not about me in this effort of yours to intuit at least a part of my hidden side. But, if you still want me to tell you what I think, then I believe that any condition passes by itself if you get out of the "I only believe what I read" cycle. Because when you read, you start to build a little universe of things you didn't really believe in, a universe from which you might never want to escape. I'm not saying anymore that if you close yourself in, it's worse than anything, it's a kind of wealth that is not indispensable to have a life worth living. As if you were the master of the castle located on the land of the ogre, therefore under the influence of a deceptive spirit. Over time, you will begin to take on the "face" of an evil drowsiness that suffocates everything and everyone within its reach.

Leadership: Can your confessions talk about a "vision" of reality in which everything is found simultaneously in all its parts, in an attempt to externalize some thoughts or emotions that do not depend on your control?

Dear reader. It shows that you are a sensitive person. You put any insignificant thing to your soul, like an independent spirit that diminishes its light resources until its poetic fruition ends up being limited by the limited capacity of the substantial imaginary. The mystery in which you shroud yourself, when you read my writings, prompts me to assume that behind your sensitive side, there is at least one hidden thought, one hidden in an opaque moon orbiting around a destabilizing gravitational barycenter: the so-called: "hypothetical imperative".

And your thoughts are controlled by the extent to which you read my writings, because everything you know about me, absolutely every detail, every detail regarding the expansion of reality, you know from what I write about myself. Otherwise, you would have known absolutely nothing, and I would have remained just a writer who does not confess his role as arbiter of truth and reality in the attention of his readers.

Sometimes you tend to play with psychology, but that's not good either. You are becoming an increasingly tangled thread. Too many equations, too many unknowns, too many tests, too much intrigue. All this strangles the spirit, like a roar produced by a distant fall of water. You begin to see in every minor thing a real nightmare. And in this phase, if you indulge too much in your creative side, you will lose the power to see what is not seen, Inervitesys Syratriques , the experience of the soul outside of joy. I do not know what to say. Perhaps your soul's experience in the material world has not accumulated enough energy to leap over your own shadow of prejudice and fear. That's why it's vital to spend time alone, to understand the emotions that arise, without needlessly hurting others.

If you continue like this, reading my writings avidly, but without understanding yourself, I think you will end this journey en el mundo de los libros , in the small universe of a man as strong as he is fragile. And, I assure you, there is no Aleph in the depths of this universe, but only an immense dark and cold chaos, an exogenous discomfort developed in the absence of sufficient natural illumination, an illusion, or rather a very brief experience from another world, from another dimension. Is this what you want? To be only a drop of darkness in the long meridian of delirium, to enjoy only non-being and silence?

Leadership: Are you ready to immortalize the moment of your transposition into a story that you can only truly imagine when you experience it as a force that brings out the suspicious side of your nature?

Do you want to know something interesting? I was reading about this in a book by Borges. Believers who come to the Amr mosque in Cairo know very well that the universe is inside one of the stone columns that surround the central courtyard. Of course, no one can see this universe, but if you put your ear to the stone columns you begin to hear after a while a persistent hum.

And you are in the same kind of situation. Your self is inside a universe full of precious stones, but increasingly heavy, which surround you with a blinding light, giving you a false aura of a well-read man, a bohemian and eccentric aura at the same time. And your searching spirit fails to find everywhere in this Universe, in nature, in stones, in leaves and dust, the sublime messages – carefully prepared by such a fine writer as me.

And who is to blame here: the reader who seeks the immensity of experiences (other than his own), or the writer who thus lets his character face the immediate and the contingent? Rarely does a writer as gifted as myself shape a universe of his own, hone his obsessions outside of reality with such faith, for so long, in a genre so admired by his readers.

Question: Why is it important to capture the moment of your transposition into a story that seems to draw you in, but whose details cannot be touched? Here's why. Because it is the only way to connect with your intuition. And the way to connecting with your intuition opens by connecting with me, with my emotions and thoughts.

Leadership aims at the way in which the opposition between the instinct of dominance and the instinct of defense is placed, so that a tendency of convergence between attitude, conviction and empathy results.

And this convergence must be the equivalent of receiving a perspective of spiritual ennobling.

Whoever Reads Beyond Words Discovers Experiences From His Own Existence, specifying that the way you think and feel about yourself, including your beliefs and expectations about how someone else is, determines what is called "attachment", the main object of objective appreciation.

Windows Of The Leadership

On October 10, 2010

Leadership is like a window with a direct view into the depths of the one who leads.

One day, while trying to express by drawing the face and features of a fearless character from the cartoon "The Pirates of Dark Water" named Ren, the master decided to sit next to me and, after the way he looked at me, I felt I will find out what I wanted to know for so long time.

I turned my look towards him. He gazed me carefully. The pale face, the slightly quivering of the lips was showing him what happens with me. I was very saddened by the fact that trying to express with as much accuracy and to create to the viewer a vivid mental picture of him, I missed just the essentials which are the feelings that I had to express on his face.

I had made a big mistake. I expressed a character in variegated colors, dull, without balance, without measure, without symmetry, I had not given coherency to the whole; I had not built a compelling space in which forms will fit naturally. Although I enjoyed a lot of affection from the master, I was somehow ashamed of my performance.

– My dear child – he told me looking in my eyes with an almost paternal love, to make a perfect drawing you must put there not only work, but also the soul and warmth. The drawing is a living art, is part of the artist's mind. The drawing is a window looking directly to the bottom of your heart, Nicu. Never forget this.

Leadership: Do you allow yourself a freedom of expressing which can surprise through the liveliness which crosses the borders of the ordinary?

As a valuable judgment and as a manner of synthesizing what you have learned and understood from your experience, but mostly of what you are transmitting through the expressiveness of creation, it's better to allow yourself a freedom of expressing that surprises not only through something innovative, but also through the liveliness which crosses beyond the borders of the ordinary. This allows people to connect more deeply to your essence.

The integration process of creation into leadership means a permanent report to the quality and quantity factor of the contributions you achieved through your own efforts of using certain doses of imagination and originality and supporting the closeness of what you are in your essence, of what is your own in the highest sense.

Even if at a subjective level, there are some feelings of dissatisfaction or discontent regarding how you express the sent message, we admit that there is a certain harmonious proportion, in conformity with a perfection ideal and with an almost intangible standard – and we advise leaders to specifically keep into account this proportion.

The ordinary is the creation from which no distinct finding can be drawn regarding the evolution and preservation of a pattern of thought that favors a certain language of representation of knowledge.

If you commit the mistake of prolonging the characteristics of some perceptions that belong to a superior mentality and that somehow make a "common front" with the projections of imagination, avoiding the usage of additional nuance correction, you won't be able to prevent the difficulties in setting apart reality and fiction.

Moderns acceptations, beyond the bars of the multitude of meanings, significances, deep thoughts and free willingly extracted learning out of the themes of personal creation, the leader-artist builds a new art style, with vivid and expressive colors, highlighted through affective, communicative and powerful concentration. The gradual and sometimes rapid separation of the whole ramification of ideas and strange thought patterns grants an own independence with the possibility of self-management and self-development.

If you detach from the perceptions that belong to an only subject of thought and from the abstract conceptions that inhibit the sphere of understanding art, it involves a new structure of connections for the creation with the outside world and with your approaches in acquiring and consolidating the thought patterns and producing final results.

Leadership: Can the inexhaustible variety of creation that you experience through "do it yourself" methods materialize itself in a self-image designed in someone else's thinking?

Like a painter, an accomplished leader expresses in his work, with great expressiveness, the brilliant formula of the essence of his leadership. By his work, in which he transposes his ideas, beliefs, aspirations and knowledge, the leader expresses actually his personality, but the character and the value of his work reflects the well-found opinion of people about his soul. As what creates the leader is, without question, a part of him.

If the leadership that you produce is not a living art, meant to be seen, to satisfy people's tastes and to change their mood - an art designed to help educate people, being able to transmit, by own artistic means, ideas and feelings of great depth and subtlety, then your role - as the leader - is not as a catalyst in the company's activity.

Leadership: Do you resort to an interpretation of the type "I know better", even when you practice accepting the significance of the creation that you attribute to the admiration for someone?

Leadership "windows" are the ways where you can put into practice your ideas and by which you can achieve goals. They must always open outwards, towards the being and the heart of other people, to be suitable for making responsible decisions, mutually agreed. If they open inwards, strictly only towards the vision and policy of the leader, they harm his career and his relationships with other people.

A weak leader, who can only seek his personal interest, which conforms only to his own values, perspectives, criteria and convictions, he is doing nothing but building a lot of mate windows to his own heart, well locked to other people, and this thing cannot provide a decisive transparency because prevents access for all to his space. So his leadership is a window that only transposes to his own universe and not accessible to anyone.

To rise above other people you have to be creative, passionate, to have vision. But if you lack the skills to influence and you lack the patience to get a broad support for your ideas and your principles, any steps you initiate are doomed to failure almost from the start. One of the safer ways to influence people around you is to open wide your "windows" of leadership to them.

Leadership is like a window with a direct view into the depths of the one who leads.

Before you promote your art, continue to broaden the meanings of the creation you experience, by enriching your personality with new perspectives of receiving corrective interventions.

The windows of the leadership are the ways of communication and interaction between you and other people are the ways that you can enhance your ability to drive. They should not be locked or mate, but to allow to those you lead to see to the depths of your soul. Otherwise, you will remain a great unknown and a misunderstood loner who eventually will be left.

Conclusion: To be understood, to be followed and supported in your efforts, you should ensure the access of others to your art.

With Too Little They Got Far

On February 11, 2009

Amplify your potential for change, by generating that supreme state of mind that would allow your access towards excellence.

Napoleon Bonaparte, Abraham Lincoln, John D. Rockefeller. What did these three have in common? Firstly, each of them somehow hallmarked humanity, making it into the history books, then each of them was born poor and, at the same time, each of them had a burning desire to surpass theselves and to succeed in life.

They managed to find their mission on their own because they understood a great truth: When you have a clearly defined goal, it doesn't matter how reach it. In other words, none of them benefited from material advantages, they all started from scratch, but came at the head on the world's stage because they didn't allow circumstances to discourage them.

People who are worthy of praise have that searing desire to overcome their humble circumstances. They follow their desires to the point they become the ardent obsession of their life. No matter how many drawbacks they must overstep, for them, life represents an enormous spring of joy, like an occasion of displaying their talent and value. Their desire to tuck up and get to work is so great that nothing can stop their rise to success.

Leadership: Is the meaning you give to life a courageous attempt to convey the aspirations and means of achieving your unity and natural independence under the subsequent co-ordination of a cause of great meaning?

Do you know why ECU (Engine Control Unit) is usually the most powerful microprocessor of all that exists in a car?

For it is the most put on to work. Practically, it has to do millions of calculations per second, having to analyze the data provided by dozens of sensors placed throughout the car, and then to decide on the best values to transmit them to the engine, for it to work with a minimum consumption of fuel and to less pollute the environment.

Can you work with a minimum consumption of "fuel" ? So that your area of development to progress, you have to be consistent with yourself, with your own values, and with your ideas at any cost. You have to put to work mostly your will, and that supreme state of mind, that state of maximum experience and safety that would allow your access towards excellence.

All those individuals who have achieved excellence, have been encouraged and self-propelled themselves forward, when the quantity of fuel from their reservoir of values and hope was small. Their unity of control was the energy combined with the ambition to go further. They have worked without "polluting" the area of excellence of others, and without consuming in any way the resources to existence of others.

Their cause was one of great meaning: to impose themselves in the face of implacable changes of history as a final result.

Leadership: Can you maintain yourself in concordance with yourself and what you want to become without straying too far away from the elements you believe in when you are subjected to a reasoning that believes itself to be almighty?

Laert, the son of Polonius from "Hamlet, the prince of Denmark", confessed to King Claudius: "And for my means, I'll control them so well /They shall go far with little."

We should all adopt this principle when we set forth without holding any kind of advantages. We are personally responsible for our destiny and the way we approach difficulties. Maybe we will have to make many efforts and even more sacrifices and we will, also, confront ourselves with many difficult set-outs before crossing the line that separates success from failure. But if we'll be animated by a strong desire, we'll eventually manage to achieve our goals, no matter how far or impossible they might seem.

A little means a lot. Low budget, but a strong desire to succeed in life and get exceptional results. I think that's all we need in order to fulfill our dreams: a strong desire. And let's not forget that, as someone once said, the mind doesn't know any other limits other than the ones we impose ourselves.

A reason that believes itself to be powerful, when it comes to focusing consciousness on the action that takes place in the spirit of an ideal placed above the adversities of life, in one form or another, happens as a natural result of a Higher Calling in which you have invested a bit of heart or a shred of pride.

When you dare to believe in something beyond all that is human, of much greater value that what life offers, you will not be able to give up on what you expect to find outside of your own story.

With The Eyes Of The Infinite, Look At The World In My Soul

On December 30, 2022

The eyes can capture an aesthetic reality only by capitalizing on things recognized only from a certain angle of vision.

The sea and the sand, captured in the moments experienced under the generous summer sun, are the result of my gaze towards the immeasurable, starting from the conviction that they are symbols of infinity, because they have neither beginning nor end. And even if the gaze becomes confused in the attempt to encompass the horizon, the sea offers the true tranquility, but at the same time it can encompass the representation of a reality with the help of the illusion of silhouettes lost in a stealthy past, being suppressed by an action taking place outside of time and space.

While the sand... the grains of sand conquer the forgotten moments only by turning the hourglass, returning from where they left.

To put it bluntly: the eye can capture an aesthetic reality only by capitalizing on things recognized only from a certain angle of vision, through the automatic action of the spirit of observation that harmoniously integrates the surrounding elements into a unitary whole. But the determination of the eye to behave aesthetically, looking separately at the elements in the foreground of the visual field, should be followed by the permanent demonstration of the relationship between the ideal artistic forms and the real ones. For this reason, the sea and the sand, elements that determine the state of my soul, translated into images with strong symbolism, make my vision expand beyond the "window work", towards a horizon of spiritual permanence.

Leadership: Can you enhance your Ego's ability to perceive, through the intellect or through the senses, an image that conveys emotion, accepting the idea that the reality you retreat into is a place where art is not a passive experience?

Are you wondering what this horizon of spiritual permanence represents? I think it is the next stage in the human path, of high vibration, well placed in the context of memorable memories, but also of learning opportunities about the beauty of life. This after the triggering of emotion and faith to unite the deepest and living realities, connecting radically distinct worlds.

Or, better said, this horizon of spiritual permanence is the next stage after the triggering of the emotion of an intimacy sufficient in itself, defined in an assumed transcendent, by intertwining the love of life with the nostalgia of a moment extracted from the secret world of a nonconformist mystic who lived many centuries ago and whose glimmer of memory you can catch a glimpse of through a half-open door, in a place foreign to any possible location.

It should also be noted that they often refer to art. But I try to avoid the passive experience of the viewer who finds himself in the object of his gaze with a sense of unreality, but rather as a reminiscence of an earlier painting.

Leadership: Can you maximize the impact of your creation on the human eye and sensibility by using the art of representing emotions in a narrative form, so as to give particular things the grandeur of absolute existence?

In art, the unity of reflection under the influence of the parallel potencies of the real world and the ideal world, is closely related to the sensitive perception of the sea and the seascape. That is, if I do not eliminate the practical interests that can be awakened by the aesthetic attitude assumed in front of a spectacular visual picture, capable of bringing any sublime setting out of anonymity. So, to the extent that I react intellectually to the sight of the objects that the sea brings ashore, operating with the Rholes-Thirsys spirit of surprising interpretation, something that everywhere receives echoes of poetic art, I will be able to enjoy the simple impression of a Deja-Vu within sensibility, but at the same time I will be able to offer a subjective explanation of the way particular things exist in the absolute.

To exist absolutely means to immortalize in a painting that special and unrepeatable day, which never ends in the memory of time. In this way, for the sake of the emotion that the sight of the sea and the sand awakens in me, I allow myself to reproduce a fragment of a book written by Ileana Constantinescu:

"I lose myself in a pleasant blue without realizing whether I merge with the sky or the sea or both. This merging with the two shades of blue gives me the feeling of immortality, without its monotony, a pleasant immortality, outside the cares of current life, an immortality that I cannot ask myself if I have the right to touch it on this day when I understood that what is important is not to be immortal, but to feel good in your own skin, privileged to have been able to feel the joy of being alongside splendid nature."

Inevitably, art likes to hide, to reveal itself in silence, as in a kind of mysterious ark lost in an endless sea of emotions, colors and smells that, of course, will save from oblivion only those that still believes in themselves. And I believe in design that never dies. Especially if I take into account the fact that in a work of art, perceiving fidelity to nature is a matter of the senses, linked to a way of perceiving and adapting to a restricted code of representation of emotions – much more appropriate than imagistic codes, but exposed on the surface of existential authenticity.

Leadership: Can you take control of your emotions when approaching or moving away from a fixed point, corresponding to a change in the ideal of the Ego to include within its memorialist edges the image of a miracle?

Another necessity in the eye-to-eye ratio, looking at an Impressionist landscape from the frontal perspective with the sea and sand in the foreground, and considering the panorama of the sunset sky as taken from an unfinished painting by Botticelli, is to draw conclusions as to the nearness or distance from a fixed point, at every stage of the manifestation of color when it appears organic, living, and mobile. This is also a reason for deep melancholy meditation, isn't it?

Indeed, the sea and the sand are still there, from so bitter a time, but no one tells their story from the infinity of worlds in the soul, no one describes them as a chain of words separated from everything, as in a chronicle of random intersections and unexpected events. No one allows them to always be in the precise center of the soul accidentally fallen into a world of immaterial realities. And even if I am the creator of the illusion, of the mirage of beauty, of things that are often not what they seem, I still cannot deviate from the compulsion of Echtoser Sanlierrys Passen: "what delights my gaze is what leaves me speechless with amazement".

Undoubtedly. I have to step into a land full of intensity, articulated, modern, inspired by the effervescence of colors and summer textures, where the absolute creations in art begin, to find the full concordance between the painting and the symbolic sensibility (characterized by melancholy), and thus to give birth to the portrait. It seems, then, that I will have to focus only on the concept of the "All-Seeing Eye" in order to agree that it is in vain that I strive to put on canvas the image of a miracle, if the sublime artistic value of my vision is not recognized it exceeds in all directions the validity angle of an imaginary world, transfigured in the plane of creation.

In leadership, as in art, you will have to create a creation capable of capturing the image of a miracle. To discover that in fact what you see around you is a reflection of what you become through the emotions you transmit playing a double role: as an idealistic dreamer and as a bearer of a symbolic image.

With The Eyes Of The Infinite, Look At The World In My Soul to recognize the depths that only the admiration for beauty and the tendency towards unity can explain. And, also here, it is worth adding a quote from a recently read book, "The Egyptologist", by Arthur Phillips:

Things erode over time. The sands grind, the gravel hides, the papyri crumble, the paintings are erased. Most of these processes are, of course, destructive. Sometimes, however, erosion clarifies, scraping away deceptive similarities, uncharacteristic errors, confusing and useless details. If, during the writing of these notes, I took it somewhere in the wrong direction, if I misunderstood or described something I saw or imagined I saw, well, in those moments you say to yourself: It's fine, I'll review everything when I get back...

And so I will.

Wonderful Life

On November 08, 2017

Try to prove your attachment to universal time, through a graceful jump in the "heights of the heaves" where you can see everything.

I do not know why I particularly liked this song, always accomplished by approaching everything that is the essence of life, announcing the possibility of seeing a new beauty in something that disappears, with the intention of creating a world or of glorifying the exceptional achievements of a humanized God. But also, the possibility of defining an attitude in the case of a forgotten man in the memory of an unqualified age who heroically resists the universal ambition of overcoming his vulnerability, the condition of mortal, like a dice thrown at random in a game of luck of destiny.

In its rhythm, gentle and comforting, as an expression of a vague existence, I lose myself, I pray, I freely charge myself with a divine breath and truly find myself. It seems an act of adoration to the wonderful thing through which I get to better know myself. Here lies the maximum point of relaxation and detachment from everything that resembles a burden, everything I try to hide from myself, in the personal and not at all fantastic hope of finding a full-fledged experience, like the one you have when you overcome a tough disease and rediscover the sky. Because it helps you light up a magic spark of divine love.

The examination of the song in the neutral terms of an empirically limited description of a strong straight line called "fullness", like a rock peak that is lost in the landscape, closely related to a series of interrelated subjects, organized on the axis of symbolic representations, has as an equivalent the philosophical approach to a measurable experience precisely because of its visibility in the context of a cone of light which has Daring at its peak: "Look at me standing ! "

You approach the holy ones when you feel the subtle taste of pictorial values, photographic snapshots, with historical archives passed through contrast filters, set up by the highest degree of the sublime passerby that makes most listeners always untangle another spell at every press of the "replay" button.

Leadership: Is the nobleness of your being modeled by an avid curiosity over what is gained by highlighting the relationship between the idea of "fullness" and the artistic means that support it?

Here we find fears and hopes, meanings and impulses of self-seeking sparked by dreams, an inner cry to the need for a wonderful life as a ball of energy rolled up towards future generations. Which give the essential lines of an identity deeply rooted in the fulminating ascension to the desire to live forever, meant to seek answers that it itself would be afraid of. "No need to laugh and cry."

Slowly, I try to find myself on the lyrics of a time that flows like blood from the ears of my heart, only to glimpse a chord of the authentic universe, a unique interpretation of an eternal but nostalgic charm. As if I were focusing on the image of a paradise imagined with the despair of a retrieval: as if we were looking for ourselves for our entire life.

Completeness is everything that surrounds you that only makes sense in the light of later events that reveal something in your inner world.

They seem to hate you because you're there, in the midst of a high-speed reality, acting at the subtle level to produce the principle of changing the level of overturning of the usual logic, the foreseeable that contradicts and disturbs, continues to anxiety through the very feeling of loneliness. That metaphysical sadness of isolation, often ennobled by correlation with the ethical concept of love: "Oh, I need a friend to make me happy".

I was so attracted to the video as well, the scenes full of a chiaroscuro, in which I dream with my eyes open, that I think that my transformation into a grain of sand the Universe is approaching, the actual realization of a new experience, to discover a shortcut in space and time, up straight in the sunshine, under the modeling influence of a journey and a definite imperative: "No need to run and hide ! "

As a being subjected to an experiment of the impossible, much deeper than the clear sky that binds the beginning to the end ! So much do the images disturb you, the black and white shapes the gray of normal lives, so that you simply close your eyes as the sun's rays melt in front of the Lord, and you see yourself worn in the triumph of a time "retrieved", and thus, denied. "You know it feels unfair / There's magic everywhere"

Leadership: Do you demonstrate your attachment to the universal time by imitating the attraction of the beauty of a world that is aware of its relationship with the Creator?

I want to feel the magic of a star we call the Sun, the electric charge of a storm cloud, the spontaneous increase in the temperature of a gram in a body that performs the same functions of an angel's wings. Or just a drop of ether. Not so alone. To not know the pain, know nothing, only exist, feel only the eternity of the moment and the perfection of the taste present on a bicycle trip. A graceful jump in the sky, a stroll with an umbrella through the history of intense and provocative dance. On the pace of a music rendered in the Do range.

I want to drink water from a spring without a cup, I want to run without getting tired, although I feel stuck in a chair lent to me by Godliness: the petal of a memory that will never be forgotten, the beautiful eternal bedding in the freshness and gentleness of a wild flower. And just stop at the beginning of the road. "Look at me here / Here on my own again."

My relationship with the Creator is the same as the relationship with the meaning of life: I must explain why there exists everything rather than nothing. Why should I always look at the right side of the picture when I could just as well try to improve myself its composition and quality?

In order to understand the meaning of life, you must watch the depiction of black and white images illustrated during random stories in which the characteristic features of a corner of nature, of an object, of a being , of a phenomenon are presented in a suggestive and plastic way as they are seen from the perspective of a Creator expressing their attitude to them through a surprising expression: "In the end, I am an ordinary man next to each of you but who has seen everything and has gone through all."

Understanding the meaning of life means trying to prove your attachment to the universal time through a graceful jump in the "heights of the heaves" where you can see everything. And when you come back, just pick the pictures you liked the most.

Wonderful Life is an approach to the present moment that artists call "leap in creation."

Words Are Also Explained In Words

On April 16, 2020

Learn to give meaning to your deeds and life through the experiences of materializing thoughts that respect the enlightenment and guidance of the divine force of the Logos.

How different I had been in my youth, when I was lost and my only truth was the God in me and death ! Then I enjoyed the fresh water and did not associate with bodily temptations. Analyzing myself in the green and gloomy light of the chapel, I knew in my heart that I did not feel guilty just because I had become a slave to the senses. Not because of my doubts. My refusal to acknowledge good and evil was also small. The reason was deeper. God is, I told myself, but what God is, we will never know. Our knowledge and vocabulary are limited, all we can try to say about God is just a clumsy comparison. Even Revelation is also written by humans. It's stupid to talk about words, because they are also explained in words. Since God is, he is infinite and eternal, and what is infinite and eternal, even if they are only words, is always and everywhere, both in the finite and the infinite world. Therefore, God is and always acts in every moment, even if we do not know what his existence and action are beyond the concepts of our finite world.

*God is within me and out of my being always and in every moment. It unites love and hate, faith and unbelief, passion and purity, so that nothing contradicts God, but we will never know how such a thing is possible. But if I believe in God, I believe at the same time in the incarnation of the Word and all that follows, and that God, being revealed in Christ, was fully man and fully God and there is nothing contradictory or disturbing to thought here, and the Holy Trinity is such a logical and rational symbol for the essence and mode of action of God in the world of the finite and the infinite that it seems to me at present the most important knowledge. Because of the finite character of the words, it is only a symbol, but because of the essence and action of God, it is, at the same time, more than a symbol.**

Leadership: Do you have the power to become someone other than you think you are, thinking of yourself as someone who compares to God's greatness in terms of what he expects to find in a variant of "abstract reality"?

Everything we think, we say in the same way, even if the words are covered by a mystique of paradoxical thinking, is closely related to the way we see the reality we experience: as a form of information needed to learn a certain teaching, or as a light that God has placed in everyone's heart to acknowledge His existence. Or, in order to discover the value of the relationship with God, we need a purifying instrument, bringing meaning and inspiration to the level of "research everything that happens to you", and this instrument is the written word.

To answer the question "what is the word?", first try to interpret the experiences you go through, filter them through the thought process, then try to find a meaning in the books that inspire you. There is certainly an intimate connection between existence and your actions, between feelings and reason, because nothing is accidental in the world. Even by reading carefully (even these lines) you can see an answer to what you are interested in finding out. The words, always put in a certain order, according to a certain logic, create a meaning that makes you aware of the levers of this experiment called "life".

God is also here somewhere, even if no one sees him. He leaves available to all some evidence of his existence, very small details, and it is good to consider the existence of a very advanced human being who, using at 100% the abilities of mind and soul, has found the means to communicate with the elements of the universe, putting them even in a close relationship with the dimension of causality.

By reading many books you will allow your mind to recognize many different patterns of thinking, and all the patterns of thinking of all people form a universe that the mind can perceive only through the cause-effect law. So you are trapped in a time when God is everywhere, but always in a different form, in a different incarnation.

The greatness of God is in the kingdom of words, because they are the path to thought, philosophy and wisdom, knowing that everything they say, in various ways, gathers in a universe from which the story called "life" arises.

But much more important than reading is writing. By identifying the relevance of the keywords that you include in your artist profile, through different links, you can always form other patterns of thinking. What happens to you in life is the result of using these patterns, even if they are invisible to those who follow the "nothing more" principle. And the universe, as the language of words, can be discerned only by a wizard of words who has imagined a world and a reality of his own. So, to understand the universe and the planets and the solar system, first learn to write and make pictures out of words, make music out of words, and finally be part of words yourself.

The word represents the first movement of the Creative Power, or the incarnation of thought. If you come to master the order and meaning of words, analyzing them in the world of the finite and the infinite, you will learn to explain everything in terms of "the main way of transmitting feelings or experiences", or you will be able to explain everything in terms of: shapes, colors and materials. So be diligent in the mastery of words, be aware of their power, be impeccable in their use, so that you may approach God by the force of thoughts expressed in a work called, "The Expression of the Soul."

Leadership is the creative power from which proceeds any manifestation of the cult of personality, with which we can make wise choices that will pass the test of time. This creative power, the word, symbolizes the manifestation of intelligence in language, in the nature of beings and in the continuous creation of the universe.

Words Are Also Explained In Words, especially if they are part of a universal language that, in a representation to another, from one form to another form that the accelerated movement of the mind and soul directed towards researching the outside, to occur as a double of an easily controllable reality.

Worthless Leadership In Romania

On March 18, 2013

Measure yourself with oneself without accepting as a form of alternative mirroring some observers who exclude a strong correction of their own image exaggerations.

That's why everything is as it is in Romania, as it has been for a very long time now: stupid and always backwards. The real plague that has broken out in our country for two centuries is corruption, that "backward" orientation due to false prophets, that is, those who know nothing, but claim to know everything. It is not surprising that too many piles and relationships within the institutions have gathered people without any solid training in all fields of activity. Toxic people on the inside, but very refined on the outside.

In all state institutions, we find father, mother, daughter, son, grandchildren, in-laws, grandparents, cousins, friends and other relatives, all under the same roof. All of them being great PhD students, with studies abroad, with tons and tons of diplomas, as if they had been picking mushrooms after the rain. All multipolar, with talents in a thousand directions. Just as well versed in philosophy as in accounting. Both a teacher, and a politician, and a psychologist, and an artist, and a singer, sometimes a doctor, sometimes a lawyer, sometimes a consultant, sometimes a presenter, sometimes at the disco, sometimes at the pool, sometimes at the festivities. All great connoisseurs. With high functions. With expensive cars. And they all become businessmen as soon as they get hold of an important post. All secured their pension, but not their immortality...

Not even a single one has a scientific foundation. The three great qualities of the scientist (invention, creation, discovery) are completely lacking in absolutely all our heroes. Basically, nobody knows anything about anything. Their science is "the science of hooves without horseshoes". The kind of individuals who can barely copy hundreds of paragraphs from books for their PhD, but have no idea what a blog/vlog is in the 21st century.

Leadership: Have you started to step back to take a greater distance from the point of view of some observers who participate in the unfolding of events, but cannot detach themselves from the routine pleasures in which they feel stuck?

Would these people have anything important to say in any field of science other than what they plagiarized? Dr. Genshin, what else could you write on a blog? If only you would scan a book (written by others) and put it on Scribd, so much to do for people who want to learn something.

These people remind me of that vizier Sams-ud-Davla, from the time of Avicenna, who shamelessly appropriated an important part of the state's income, increasing his already enormous wealth. He generously distributed his rich estates to his relatives and friends. Bribery and embezzlement reigned in the divans. The caddies-judges decided the cases in favor of those who paid more. The commanders used the army's money for personal purposes. All these people were like semi-scholars without great possibilities of intellectual expression, or like observers who excluded a strong correction of their own image exaggerations.

And after you've brought all your tricks into the government and diminished the value of each individual institution, at least do yourself a favor and put in each sector, in the key functions, someone really well trained in the field. How long are you able to make your way to social or historical events, abusing the power you hold?

Yes, you bring in a talented drummer, an innovator, you pay him 10-20 times better than those quacks who do nothing anyway, and maybe this way things will move better in every institution.

However, in Romania it happens exactly the other way around. All the rotten radishes end up as bosses and directors, and the real specialists leave the country, eventually signing contracts with various private companies.

Leadership: Are you able to recognize the real existence of an external "interference" that keeps you away from the possible abuses due to the too full of an un-assumed and unguaranteed power that was formed by combining the effects of negative contrast?

And naturally everything goes wrong. A country full of traitors, a country full of cowards and weak professionals. In order for a country to be subjugated easily, you have to destabilize it, that is, you have to weaken the solidity of the institutions, minimize their functionality. And how do you do that? Simple. You replace professionals with mediocre ones. Or, you bring only mediocre people who have no idea what science is, and the truly valuable and innovative ones will find their financial reward, the independence and the status that work offers them even abroad. Because of this, Romania is at the mercy of the great powers.

It is precisely on this principle that America has developed in the last 80 years. The best specialists from all over the world have arrived there, because there they are well paid for their talent, and appreciated at their true value.

No one truly talented will accept to do the work of incompetents (especially for little money). Along the same line of argument of weakening the "perfection" premise, an equally noteworthy observation was made by Avicenna several centuries ago:

"The river of knowledge, which now flows only for the elect, will in time flow over the whole world, to the farthest corners of the earth, and all will know about our teacher, as it will be known about all great and enlightened minds, about all the "gods" of mankind !

False prophets, those whom chance or undeserved privileges have perched in certain places on the summit, and who by boasting of their rank succeed in fooling the multitude, however much they may wish, they will never be able to produce within science that close coexistence between virtue and beauty which is allowed to bear the heavenly harvest."

Leadership is the privilege of learned people able to promote an image that is not built on the dimensions and resolution of another image (whose background is accepted to be "multitasking").

The Worthless Leadership in Romania is like a cart pulled by oxen, where the existence of a Tesla car should have been found. I could continue talking about what is happening in Romania at the present time, but I will stop here. I don't know why. Maybe because I'm tired of the false prophets who appear in lamb's clothing, but who underneath... are hungry wolves !

You Are Beautiful And Smart, But You Leave Yourself To Fate

On May 27, 2010

You cannot maximize the sensation of a fictional universe, in a representation of reality where the real show of life takes place behind the scenes.

- I came, said Samuel, to ask what news you have of his excellency, my friend Count von Eberbach. How goes it with love?

- Badly, replied Olympia.

- No, how can it be?

- That is how it is. In the first days he was very in love, very tender, very respectful and I would even add very charming. But after about 15 days in particular, he changed in an unrecognizable way. He is uneven, capricious, grumpy.

- Because you didn't bother to earn him. Men are so stupid that grandeur and simplicity repel them instead of attracting them. Only vileness and cunning hold them back. There are countless means of domesticating them, and beauty or intelligence mean nothing if you don't know how to use them. You are beautiful and smart, but you leave yourself to fate. It is foolish ! You are charming, you are wasted, you are kind, you are absurd. You indulged his whims instead of increasing his interest by resisting them. He asked you to dress in a certain way to remind him of a woman you look like. He also asked you to wear shawls of a certain color, to comb your hair in a certain way. And you fulfilled all his fantasies with a patience and gentleness totally lacking in skill, allow me to say. The obstacle is the main magnet of human desire, and even if it seems naive, we have to admit that what you have you no longer want.

- What could I tell you? said Olympia. Count von Eberbach is a selfish, demanding, even possessive man. It can be seen that he wants everything only for himself. He has the imperious desires of weakness and disease. He doesn't offer you anything from his soul, but he still wants yours. What he loves, or what he once loved in me, is not me, it is my resemblance to another woman. She is dead, she is a missing person who took his life to the grave with her. Could I deny him the happiness of this sacred memory? I wasn't jealous of the deceased: he loved her, I helped him love her. But now, I am afraid that he has not forgotten her, like so many others, and that the poor dead woman has not died for the second and last time. And I, for whom art has become my whole life, can I, for example, accept to give up theater and music forever, perhaps, as he asks of me? What he needs is neither a wife nor a mistress, but something like a daughter. Everything that resembles a will, a desire, a passion or a slightly bolder idea, tires him.

Leadership: Are you able to maximize the feel of the fictional universe to achieve the certainty of a fact that reveals the emotions of deep, unshared suffering?

This glimpse into the heart of the secret universe of the rich, arrogant and possessive man, unsettles anyone to the point of exhaustion. It is about a common mental condition that manifests itself in the howl of a consciousness that does not come to terms with the current situation, constituting, as in any significant psychological process, a desperate compensation for inner fragility, a cry of life itself that feels threatened by the murderous dynamic of an unsatisfied need.

Here it is no longer about the "fictional" character of the hell that the individual goes through, so it is not about a nightmare from which you wake up without seeing where the action leads from a parallel reality, knowing that you are back on the ground and all is more real than a consuming spell into which many enter and very few exit. This also emphasizes the allusion he sends to the Orpheus-Euridice couple: "God, how hard it was to shake off my sleep, to free myself from the muddy spell. Next to strength was the gate of oblivion thrown in the form of a crunching dice of fate. I went in there without knowing, and that's my fault."

The individual's inadaptation to the soul requirements of the one next to him triggered a crisis of consciousness that is no longer found in other periods of life, a consciousness that is not influenced by any kind of qualities, therefore often lacking moral stability. By this, leadership refers to a presence that can inspire the certainty of a relaxed climate, but not the certainty of a single fact, apparently. Finally, you cannot maximize the feeling of a fictional universe in a representation of reality where the real show of life takes place behind the scenes.

The psychology of the man defeated by the states of the soul is necessary to be aware of what happens if we take an extra step towards the stage of total dissolution of the main character, whose disappearance takes place through an exaltation of the unexpected immediacy and the imagination drained of powers.

In the deepest chemistry, the substance of man is given here by the revelation of a relentless law: "Everything that is mine, must be only to my liking", which stipulates, generically, a clause of the type "take it or pay for it", which implies the establishment of the real in a fiction whose springboard is the dream that you don't get to enjoy. The mythical love will now be constituted in one of those phases of the dream that becomes figurative in a concrete world, and whose presence reveals a more acute consciousness of fatality, of the difficulties that must be overcome, but all without hope.

Invoked in this way in the modulations of a lamentation, through the procedure "have mercy on me", the image of the strong man ends up being abolished in the destructive movement of the emotions of discomfort in maintaining relations with others, since his actions end with the evocation of a memories from which pain executes the heart. Absorbing in the matter of thoughts the entire substance of reality in which emotions are encased, plastered, transformed into the nothingness of the possibility of expression, man returns slowly, but surely, to the status of a helpless child who needs support.

So that, as can be seen by reading the novel by Alexandre Dumas, the man's way of dramatizing his life before the tragic end, increasingly has the character of a delirious reverie on destiny, which is in the latent thoughts, as it is said: "to dream with open eyes". Or maybe it is an attempt to reconstruct a psychoanalytic reverie about shame that then turns into a delirium of ruin? How can this keep the dreamer in a peaceful consciousness?

And here, the "love" element only enhances the feeling of a fictional universe to the maximum, the role of a relationship with someone becoming, obviously, a journey no less soothing, through the depthless surface of a world, silent and hidden.

The penetration into the depth of the leadership space is done through a confession of the feeling of pride towards the actions you undertake, these representing the certainty of a continuity in the spirit of opposition to the conformism of a life subject to easy codes and morals.

You Are Beautiful And Smart, But You Leave Yourself To Fate if you do not take into account the fact that everything you think about someone is attached to the nature of emotions and their intensity. When there is not enough patience in the expression of feelings, and if you cannot learn the true distinctions between things and their value, then you will not be able to approve what the sage S. Smiles says:

"Wisdom consists, above all, of that quality of the spirit, which enables the individual to have a fair, discreet and cordial attitude towards the circumstances of life. That is why cultured and experienced people are always patient, while others are petty and intolerant."

You Are Extraordinarily Expensive

On March 07, 2012

Be the value you gain by how you relate to yourself in a world that relates to a qualitative indicator of effectiveness.

Tuesday, I headed west to negotiate the terms of a partnership with a certain university. At the same university, without accessing a position for its prestige, I sincerely welcomed the availability of certain skills shown by different professors, but I also assumed the willingness to compromise if I sign a contract.

My terms had to highlight my special ability to teach and control the field of a certain science, better than anyone, but they were strongly directed towards the ability to explore and change working conditions and the results obtained by other teachers. Basically, I was prepared to prove to them my authority in the field and my unsurpassed skill in scientific results.

From the very beginning I set my rate according to the number of courses and seminars, let's say I was not at all modest, in fact, my conscience simply will not allow me to join modestly to great efforts to contribute over the years to the international prestige of the respective University. I am a rigorous and penetrating thinker whose very well-conceived conception of science and art articulates, in detail, courageously and well-aimed, on the flexible axis of permanent care for coherence, intellectualism, mixed with an impeccable sense of art.

Through science and virtue you become worthy of considerable fame, especially if you relate to the consolidation of an art that refuses repeatability and inertia.

- Alas, but you are extraordinarily expensive, not even the rector of the university earns so much, said one of the faculty representatives.

- You are absolutely right, my value is much greater than that of a rector, much greater than that of deans and much greater than that of teachers", I replied. And this is because the knowledge I have is much wider than theirs, for which my name in the world, and that is thanks to the Internet, is better known than all universities in Romania. Even the fact that you invited me here, it is a certainty that science has with which I built a BRAND shows great credibility (even on the international stage), my name being much more important than that of all those who represent this university.

Leadership: Can the message that your creation provides inspire that sense of harmony between art based on the concept of "measure" and art based on a cohesion of the whole composed of various fragments?

Benefits of being a professional is found, I believe, in the famous saying: "If you believe that a professional is expensive, it is because you do not know how much an incompetent will cost you in the end." Of course, when we talk about the professional's way of being valuable, especially because of the results he obtains, we are talking about the value gained through thinking focused on personal development, innovation and profit, through the Brand formed by individual experiences.

The professional is a Brand that knows how to reinvent itself through the added value of the product or service it represents. And the purpose of the product or service offered by reinventing the image projected in the world is to represent the added value of the one who knows how to effectively communicate an impressive artistic message: "The result of my creation is the beauty of your business of tomorrow".

Moreover, a message with a decisive impact is needed. Or your message "I'm great in a field" must be inserted in the public space so that it can become an indisputable tool of performance, by preparing a ground for critical debate of your own ideas and positions, at a time when indisputable evidence of your talent is needed. This high-impact message must not, first of all, aim at the definitive, lasting, extensive of an ultimate image of the elite performer, but at the intensive, collective performance that could obtain much superior results.

So, your creation in the public space is the Brand that you will use to be able to hope for an important gain, financial or spiritual. The capacity for creation is mandatory, especially in the 21st century, having to signal the opening of the public to the new in a space of collective becoming, of the multiple possibilities of acquiring a different determinism – one based on efficiency and continuous evolution (spiritual and material).

The true measure of a self-respecting Brand is the autonomy of a specialized thinking in the conception of a Creation that deliberately mixes the register of the miraculous with that of the natural.

What are these "various fragments" that are imposed on the whole of the reception of art? Well, they are the natural result of those efforts to self-define a form of expression and a representative image that inspires a strong trait of your personality, such as: determination, strong motivation, desire to succeed.

Art is built on an image defined by strong personality traits, while following the natural set of factors of progress in terms of the human condition in the world, starting from the desire to succeed in a form of personalization of what: "an attempt to reinvent a marginalized space" means. Often, the man full of inspiration and motivation has to intensify his effort to get out of anonymity and assert himself as a performer in a niche market that has not yet begun to take shape in the world.

Leadership is the character trait you gain from the effort to reinvent the relationship between Creator and Audience.

You Are Extraordinarily Expensive ! – This is what the people who use your services will tell you, but this is also proof that you are a good professional. He who asks little, deserves little, because he is considered a weak professional or even an incompetent. So learn to ask as much as possible of those who use your services !

Is a qualitative indicator of your effectiveness a serious Brand that has an impact on the future changes of the world?

You Are Me And I Am You (II)

On May 16, 2013

Serve yourself with sincerity and power, so that everything betraying your deficiency of "being" can be clothed with a new protective layer of your identity.

What now goes through my body, moving from cell to cell, putting my blood in accelerated motion, what loudly pounds into my temples, testing my nerves, is that disturbing thrill given by the feeling of déjá vu, the strange illusion that I once lived a similar intense experience, in a different setting from the actual world, which combined both a pleasant and appealing atmosphere with a particular, hostile and suffocating one.

It was then that I recognized myself for the first time. I remember exactly every detail, because it was then that my life began. Everything that betrayed my pain, which found support from you, was covered with an aura of positive energy. The dark room where I closed all my thoughts and feelings was swept by light. And in this light, very faint at first, then becoming brighter and brighter, I imagined that I would live all of it, without a duality with you, with myself, with fights, limitations and a lot of suffering.

I managed over time to become an executive, the only female executive in the "London Diamond" company. Now, I'm no longer thrilled to even remember those days and the old Laura Quinn subject to error. And yet, I know that between the new and the old me, there is some kind of complicity that can be trenchantly defined as opposition versus collaboration.

You and I, me and myself. The sweet and gentle equation between chaos, stress, uncertainty and incomprehensible, where calm, intelligence, subtlety and especially love have entered, all unleashing with terrible force and having a softening effect of exaggerated elements of time, which in combination with the springs from the condition of "being", have strengthened our devotion. *

Leadership: Does the way in which you reveal your personality serve the role that the vision of your own greatness is about to play in a reality that is at both an open unity and a complex plurality?

Do you feel that chill given by the feeling of déjá vu? Do you exist in duality with yourself, with fights, limitations and a lot of suffering? Is there a certain complicity between the new and the old you, which can be trenchantly defined as oppositionversus collaboration?

Most of the times, objections and reproaches made to man and his method of interpreting reality (which accentuates the fight between "to be" and "not to be", between good and bad, right-wrong, light-dark) ultimately aim by an addition to understand past, the concept of relations between the subjective, biased attitude towards someone and something, and the impartial attitude requiring independence of judgment and objectivity.

Right where these two existential attitudes of man are limited to agree or disagree to extremely trenchant attitudes of coming out from the physical and emotional exhaustion, we can easily add, delete or switch new elements, creating new links in his entire functioning system.

In this way, the world beyond the mirror in which man is usually reflected will exceed superficiality in its essence. Because of his addiction to consume himself with his own bitter thoughts, his doubts and his complexes associated with the state of discontinuity, man, failing to please himself, to be on the same page with his own self, receives the greatest blow from fate. It is thrown into a hostile setting, where he can no longer recognize himself.

But life can always resurrect from its own shortcomings, man can always pull something good out of a wandering, becoming a doer of his own progress. Everything that betrays his pain and finds support in the very authority of his own being can be clothed with a new protective layer, in order to strengthen the positive aspects of his identity. The dark room where he hides all this thoughts and feelings will light only f he lives in duality with himself, in order to be beyond all limitations.

Leadership: Does the validation of your self-image in front of the world involve a situation that is relevant only in a spiritual perspective that cannot be seen at first glance, but that saves your dignity?

Leadership is the exclusive product of man, and this science is improving only if due regard is given to the identity that he forges, learning lessons from life, so from his past, from the situations that threw him in a bad light.

Leadership comes with new support forces when man hides the box full of negative thoughts and feelings in a foreign and forgotten place, so as to detach himself from everything not falling within the standard of positive beliefs, in the high standards of personal safety.

Regarding this matter, German politician Ernst Thalmann wanted to state: "in our memories, our past remains alive only to serve the future and not for hopeless contemplation."

The leader has no value without the existence of adequate conditions for his progress. His virtue is generated by knowing the past, so by challenges of time, which in combination with his functional structure, strengthened his faith and conviction that only thus he can exist.

Leadership: Does the understanding of the past keep you captive in an uncertain state of undefined expectation, from which you can only detach yourself by analogy with changing the order of your own unconditional beliefs of any subsequent "charging"?

The most solid grounds for the final conception, especially on the human form and manifestation by understanding the past, which maybe kept him trapped in an uncertain state of "being", underlies the value of leadership, providing an illuminating window for his future attitudes and convictions.

But it is an easily verifiable, but also easily challenged truth that any shortcoming or breakdown in one's method of interpreting the past, which is so rich in lessons and can unravel the mysteries of perfection and full success, has its roots in the very premises and joints of the man's thought and value system.

Without denying the value given to the meaning of the past, accumulating lessons and placing them in the great unity of our personality, we will be able to obtain a new and complex combination, directly proportional with the stable properties of being and thinking, of dedication and love.

Thus shall we become the undisputed masters of our own being. If before, life was hazy and dull, it will suddenly become colored and more interesting.

The way you see yourself from the perspective of what makes you suffer is a rebirth to something other than what you used to be, something that pushes you to be more present, in appreciation of the small gifts of life.

In leadership this can be expressed through a metaphor: "try to see further through a tear that through a telescope".

You Are Me And I Am You (II) designates that hidden side of yourself, which contributes to the development of your whole being, removing you from the road of wandering. In the garden of life (which can be a paradise), you do not have time to reproach your own carelessness and mistakes. You can only serve yourself with sincerity and power, so that everything betraying your deficiency of "being" can be clothed with a new protective layer of your identity.

In other words, analyze your past, get involved in the present and you will manage to pull aside the curtain of time, glimpsing the future.

You Are Me And I Am You (III)

On May 16, 2013

Try to acquire that self-knowledge that can give you the answer to the question "where?" facilitating the anchoring of inner attitude in a reflexive thinking.

An organism with a certain temporary, but well-functioning structure, was suddenly born within me and developed over time, specifically dictating every fiber in my body, stimulating my every heartbeat through electrical signals passing through every nerve, which couldn't be detected by any device. An organism called EMPATHY. By integrating it inside me, a new and complex combination emerged, which was inversely proportional to my properties of being, thinking, dedication and love.

Since then, everything changed, I became a different person. If before my life was something cloudy and dull, where happiness never came, suddenly it became colored and interesting. In this adventure of openness and diversity in a tense atmosphere, thrills begins to make its presence felt at every step. Suspense boosted by questions without answer and by the mystery to discover the unexpected, to know how things will evolve, to serve the unknown, were taking shape more poignant.

What's next? Will it be as I believe, as I have always wanted? The same questions always put my heart to the test. I left the inertia !

Leadership: Does the joy of reinventing yourself at a new quality level of life hide a story where the word of order is not to talk about the "humiliation" of obeying all the hypostases of the moment?

The functioning of this tenacious, tendentious and adamant organism, as if resulted from chemical cellular reactions liberating energy indispensable for the vital process of my transformation, produced beneficial results every time and could be observed at any time of my life, in every one of my decisions.

A terrible feeling lingered inside me, that endless certainty, that retrieval of inner peace completely detaching me from all life's troubles, making me feel like I'm flying, like in a wonderful dream, in a spectacular game of touchwood. I wanted to catch what was still good and pure inside me, to catch the free sky and the sunrise, and to understand the azure.

Lister to me, you, who have not grown tired of supporting me in troubled times ! Only thanks to you I have managed to be different. Now, after so long, I feel relieved of the heaviest of burdens. My dreams came true. However, something irritating and persistent strongly burns in my chest, triggering emotions and causing intense reactions in my soul.

Could I hope you will always send me the same strong stimuli of ecstasy, the same blessed impulse to full happiness? The hypostasis of the moment that provoked me to overcome a barrier was the state of mind that made me be someone else, drawing the meaning of an extraordinary life, the significance of a higher mission in the world, the attainment of an intellectual ideal.

Leadership: Do you demonstrate flexibility in segmenting your own network of experiences in new power areas, without subjecting yourself to the contradiction between the perfect version of yourself and the recommendations of a consciousness that is faced with an overwhelming feeling?

The inherent quality of the man who takes his life in his hands, leaving it working in his favor, is that self-knowledge that can provide the answer to the question "where ?", namely that part of himself providing certain flexibility in addressing various crises, which causes him to be totally connected to what he feels, by means of what he thinks about his experiences.

It is, if it may be said so, that attitude that does not forsake the honest and simple in its aspirations, that predisposition which determines orientation, an underlying or relatively unconscious cause, producing vibrations of the chord that drives his whole existence into a wonderful adventure. An adventure of openness to new possibilities for fulfillment, whose nodes are composed of exclusive "challenge" - the type of truth values.

Self-transformation, under the conditions of a daily intake of emotions inappropriate for achieving the desired objective, still plays an important role in consolidating self-power with particular impact, including the possibility of better managing the lessons offered by that part of life which causes suffering. For a better implementation of the own model of arrangement for frugality and measure, that component of mental life that reflects a certain intensity and a certain constant as subjective experiences is absolutely necessary in leadership.

The area of power that conquers you through the novelty of a new significance attributed to life is given by the relationship between the impulse to reconcile with yourself and an attitude which, practiced on a daily basis, becomes a new way of characterizing yourself.

The intensity helps you discover yourself within various causes related to the interaction with the interest environment, empowering self-accomplishment. While the constant is given by the virtue showing no change in value over time - the virtue of being patient and disciplined in the middle of chaos. Practicing this virtue in every stage of life, transferring that intensity of consciousness, called inductance, to the present, means rising above what is happening and acceding to a higher level of reflexive thinking.

This inner attitude, rooted in a reflective thinking, can be defined and explained harder than any theory of evolution, but instead, its intuitive, heartfelt application, has superior effects. It is true that, by obtaining mastery in handling this attitude, one can (self) induce immunity on values that invest leadership with positiveness.

But as it is often transitory, proportional to the life energy involved in the ascension towards a better "Self", a bitter taste of vanity and delusion often remains behind. It feels like you're suffocated by a small, narrow space, where you have to spend your life.

The recommendations of a consciousness that is confronted with an overwhelming sentiment are these: keep your enthusiasm for the beginning of the road that you want to thrive and choose to go only towards the value system that makes everything beautiful when the time comes.

You Are Me, And I Am You renders that personality transformation that depends on the attitude adopted during the difficult stages of life. Leadership is a response to what is called to rely on you, by practising inner attitude in relation to other people.

Let us remember what the writer Anthony Silard said: "Relying on you means living according to your conscience and values and not to be accepted by others. When the world does not agree with your facts, you'll consider opinions only when you have something to learn from them."

You Are Me And I Am You (I)

On May 12, 2013

Rehabilitate the interior of your entire being, so as to strengthen that sense of identity that can reveal the unconditional truth of your existence.

I want you to get to know my whole life, which has always belonged to you and about which you didn't know nothing about. This whole fills the void inside me that, taking invisible forms, you have only filled with desires and hopes. I only want to talk to you, because you're the only one that knows who I am, that completely guards my most fragile secrets under the cover of my own interiority.

With every breath, I feel my warm blood circulating through my body, rapidly coagulating in contact with the venom of pride, which clouds my right judgment. The passage of time is also crippling. But every moment, I know I am a different person, I wake up happier because I have now given meaning to my frozen life, a meaning which I cannot find a name to, the end of which I cannot find, but whom you belong to. Yes, you. You are my real support, which tumultuous and confusing life gave to me in a gesture of supreme goodness, through acceptance, transfer and compassion.

Do not be afraid of my words, you know me too well, you know that everything that betrays me is my inability to be the same person of yesterday, the same Laura Quinn, the same lark that flies whenever she sees she's not listened to and always returns to her nest, which is cold and full of deception.

Now, I no longer ask anything from myself, but ask something from you: for you to share with me the joy of being alive in all the days to come, for us to merge in a single consciousness, as light meets darkness, forming one of the most magical natural beauties. That is all I ask from you: to believe in me, to know that you are my everything. You are the life, the existence frantically palpitating in a secluded corner inside me, and I am that cloudy and dull something in which I often sink, like in a cave where everything is dusty and dry.

Leadership: Are the meanings that fit in the substance of your being leaving definitive traces in a spiritual unity that gives you the experience of an emotion upon which someone close to you can get attached to?

Maybe you do not care about me, because I often treated you with indifference, without knowing that your indifference, your anger and your warm-bloodedness with me have always been stronger and more daunting.

Other times, seized by a mystical, almost crazy ecstasy, I rushed myself to you with fear, with desperation, with that impatience to strengthen the sense of identity and unity, only to feel you close, to no longer hate myself for treating you before with contempt. And also every time, you got angry with me and turned against me. Come on, remember ! Remember !

You are me and I am you. You always listen to me and I haven't got tired to accept you in my life as you are. I am Laura, and you are that strong and warm essence in my little abode, dusty with regrets and disappointments, but ennobled with beautiful hopes and dreams, which is often shaken, as of an earthquake, of the darkest thoughts and feelings.

The heart. Always awake and full of surprises, has always kept us safe, strengthened us and got us closer and closer. And us two, with an ideal behavior, established a link between the volume and the pressure of our feelings. Sad or happy, our common instinct responded in some way, out of a survival necessity.

Even when you looked sad or kept away from me, I always stayed behind you, going through the same winding road of life. Something kept me connected to you, even though you always made me change my mind and pull backwards. Other times, stolen by the sense of catching up, I got ahead of you, but was always close to you. With love or grief, but never with regret, always with hope and full of dreams. Come on, remember !

I know that, when diamonds will be found, if we are found guilty, we will be both in the same desperate situation. But we will be together for better or for worse, wouldn't we? We will be always close, locked in the same welcoming abode of our whole being. Isn't that right?

Because you are me and I am you, a whole that exists, the leading central authority of a single being. Myself, Laura Quinn.

Leadership: Do you allow yourself to be surrounded by the sense of spinning in two opposite directions when the complex of interactions in which you are engaged depends on the experience of an emotion that is not recognized?

Do you belong to a hidden person, who knows everything about you? How does she help you give meaning to your life? Who do you harbor in the welcoming abode of your whole being? Are you afraid of yourself, of what you are and what you feel? What makes you reckon yourself superior or inferior to yourself?

In leadership, everyone is both a spectator, director and actor, but especially a one winged angel, which can only fly while embracing his best friend, himself, that inner, needy and unique strength, manifested in your being in the transition to adulthood, that whole filling the void inside yourself, the void that, taking invisible forms, you have only filled with desires and hopes.

The birth of leadership, crystalized in its main excellence axis and categorized from the first signs of emergence, is closely related to the accomplishment of man as a whole, to ensure progress to his advanced state of "being" before occurring the transformation to the excellence stage. Basically, man is placed in his own dynamics, which depends on the complex of interactions in which he is engaged and the unforeseen effects that he has to flawlessly face, control and ultimately manage.

Depending on the conception, considerations and vision of the relationship Me - Him, Man and his Ego in the great adventure of full knowledge, we can describe the product of the two determinants as a masterpiece that takes you through all the possible emotions, realistically depicting human universe, while human energy and resistance to tensions generated by daily existence allows us to aim its performances and enter into direct contact with its essential points, especially when it adapts to any hardship.

When man is surrounded by a spinning sensation in two opposite directions, so when he is at the big intersection of the "being" and "not being" lane, only then his Ego, impregnated by so many truths and discontinuities in the field of existence, gets to talk to him, to shiver, to respond and to control the situation.

Leadership: Are you able to engage in a race with your own self when your attitude engages a stake far superior to individual destiny?

It is possible for man to adopt a thinking focused on himself only when surrounded by "Him", his essence, leading a double subordination that can sometimes create confusion, a dualism that should have been conciliated, reunited to create that unbreakable whole, the force that reaches perfection.

Here's what the American writer Baird T. Spalding once said: "You become what you embody. That is the whole secret of power, but to manifest the omnipotence that belongs to us, we must obey its source, incorporate and assimilate its characteristics."

The thinker's firm conviction was that only acquiring a more graceful and flexible conception about yourself, based on the interaction with your Ego, so much more intense and therefore truly objective, so the one impregnated by a very different reality can make possible the final passage from relegation – to promotion and success. The adoption of such an attitude towards you is legitimate in order to analyze leadership, allowing man's wholeness to be approached in a whole new light.

Rehabilitate the interior of your entire being, so as to strengthen that sense of identity that can reveal the unconditional truth of your existence.

The effect people produce on others is in a direct relationship with each individual's destiny when the emotions of one accumulate in the other's being, mysteriously reflecting on each person's possibilities to reinvent themselves.

You Are Me And I Am You brings to the forefront the man's wholeness, a sum of strengths and weaknesses, a sum of aspirations, regrets and repressions. His operating mode depends on his interior, on that well-designed and well-maintained abode, sometimes with huge efforts, in the generally accepted normal range.

You Are The Sight That Delights The Eye

On November 20, 2022

Permanently expand your limits of reality, shaping your thoughts and feelings in the form of beautiful and necessary things to fill your soul with.

My desk chair is free to judge me, like a merciless judge, for all my vacation escapades when he felt abandoned, useless, alone, and this, so as not to distort the reality of a deeper interdependence between what he had expected to see and what could not be seen. He firmly kept track of my working hours, which always gave him the opportunity to establish the flexibility of my work schedule, and being a subjective reaction to a certain event characterized by changes on an emotional level, he obviously put all his hope around my uninterrupted, beneficent, comfortable presence. Moreover, it found its primary support in the very idea of being the center of the universe from the solitude of my home office.

How could I see him again, a good time to start work at the office, without feeling guilty about the brief amicable but difficult breakup? Could I return to him without bringing him an offering of admiration? Shall I pretend that I am sick and only because of this fact should I apologize for the fact that I abandoned him for a while? Yes, I feel my soul estranged from what it has experienced itself, every space in its memory occupied by the micro-instructions of a desolate state of affairs, until the moment of my return to the office, beyond the edge of a time that returns to the past through the so-called "closed temporal curves".

For this chair, such a good connoisseur of my real world, whose patience time has measured with an Aductoriosus Stumbys (the act of controlling the escape from the real), this chair whose needs, preferences, expectations I have neglected, not granting enough time to honor its long-term obligations, to it and only it, I was so many times grateful for building and maintaining the dialogues I had with myself.

It's true. I didn't understand all its excesses of pride, the expression of the fact that it only wants to be listened to, especially when everything seems difficult. Also, I didn't understand that kind of arrogance behind which a certain self-doubt hides, in addition to other causes. Nevertheless, I looked at it with that specific parental tenderness, as a painter looks at his paintings: with admiration and surprise.

Leadership: Can you amplify a coexisting emotion in the reality you create, so as to close the "visible" in the center of a stationary image that can only be perceived through the eye of the heart?

My dear, office chair. No matter how much you try to feed yourself with the illusion of appreciation from the outside, putting me in the foreground of your affection, you will understand at some point that not even all the gratitude in the world and all the praises brought daily by those around you, could ever compete with the satisfaction and fulfillment felt in the depths of the soul, at the moment of lifting up from below a soul fallen under the burden of life's hardships.

I read this long ago, and as I give the author the right, I freely confess that if you tried to introduce me into the field of your emotions, by a considerable increase of some slow-moving affection, and even if you had the power to change yourself into a grand palace, becoming more a form of time than of space, then my eyes would retain the same vision for an entity with mere physical existence as you.

Happy is he who does not crave what he does not have, and rejoices with what he has !

And isn't it true that all people, young and old, live most of their day sitting in a chair that they never get attached to in any way? What is it like to sit in a chair, to be physically with it, to absorb its mass energy and store it in your own version of relaxation, and yet not see it, not feel the pain it endures so that you can feel comfortable, not listen to its voice when it craves a good thought, an unquenchable longing, continuing with its melancholy affection for the past.

Doesn't this sound like the tragedy of a character in a John Fowles play?

"It was then that I knew she was dying, I knew this all night, I could have told anyone. I sat there by her side listening to her breathing and babbling (she never seemed to get a proper night's rest), thinking of the turn things had taken in the short time I had been away from home. Thinking of my wretched life and not of hers, which was far more wretched. Anyone who had seen me then would not have had the slightest doubt. I was honestly and truly desperate, although I have no witnesses. There was nothing I could do. I wanted her to live so badly and I couldn't risk going for help, I was down, anyone would have known that for me there could only be her, for the rest of my life. I was sure of that.

There was also the other aspect: she was the only one who knew that I loved her. She alone knew who I really was. It's highly unlikely that anyone else will ever understand me..."

Leadership: Did you find a saving refuge in the face of the danger of losing yourself in your own image when you decided to join an experience of transformation induced by an emotional state?

Few things have the ability to move me to the depths of my being, at the same time giving wings to ideas and spreading the seeds of my knowledge, without necessarily clinging to a fulminant result. But this office chair, the spring of my effort to be as relaxed as possible, the reference index of an exceptional writer, curbing the immeasurable pride of the satisfaction of cultivating my self-centeredness, somehow managed to form that dose of sensationalism that practically overwhelms the way in which information is transferred to the viewer.

In the presence of the chair I feel comfortable, it is both convenient and suitable for normal life, because it manages to rise above other things through a visual image Odyresturhis Serpthorash that suggests a certain association or a point of similarity between attitude and its external manifestation, but above all through a dose of humanity offered without stinginess.

My dear, office chair. People will better appreciate the things around them when they understand that you yourself, the standard of the words spoken from the soul, are not just an entity with simple physical existence, that you are not just an unchanging energy between the system and the external environment, a bottomless form conditioned by transitory existence. You are much more than that. You are the symbol of a "Not Null" concept.

Often, you are my only dialogue partner, you are the sight whose eye smiles, you are part of the idea of equality between what can be called modernism and what can be called modern art. You are a saving refuge in the face of the danger of losing myself in my own image when I have decided to join a transformational experience induced by an emotional state or a subjective attitude. And, even more amazingly, you bring to the stage characters with a psychology full of complications, contradictions and inconsistencies, in the depths of which the writer's eye penetrates and notes, and the reader is urged to remember.

Leadership is prone to perform the miracle of transformation, using things to bring out the image of a man who is aware of his intellectual value or potential, but who at the same time presents a dissatisfaction: of not being able to distance himself from the point of view of his sight.

You Are The Sight That Delights The Eye only if you represent in the plane of your affectivity something with great symbolic valences, something very useful in controlling thoughts and in rendering emotions without which you cannot conceive a deep and complex feeling.

You Can Be My Lucky Star Tonight

On Iunie 28, 2018

Learn to boldly believe in the depths from which an unpredictable greatness can spring.

To figure out what's going on in my mind, first you need to understand what's going on in my soul and experience the same story. If you are not familiar with such subtle and total silence that you feel your breathing, then try to get into my office, like in a closed house, allowing yourselves to be embraced by that lack of inspiration, deathly desperation, a troubled judgment, as an alternative to a dark world that slowly makes room for another, so different and not always better.

My name probably does not say anything to you, Walter Elias Disney, because I just came back from New York and got only 40 dollars in my pocket. Increasingly, I need spiritual points to help me not get swallowed by the most painful miscarriage, the saddest abandon in a labyrinth of vanity where the only marks are self-forgetting and the others, followed in the end of supreme sacrifice.

Will I die here in this space full of static electricity, full of promises and dreams that do not gain shape, in this absolute vacuum, immense, immeasurable place, rendered in a color without specific qualities?

It would seem that I am trying to draw out, with lightning, a beginning of inspiration, a word, a single one, oppressive, grave, distant, indispensable. An unbreakable, unmanaged line. But I am connected to a kind of hidden weight under a huge shadow of doubt, a dizzying uncertainty springing from a modesty, a rusty anchor caught by a black rope in the underground of an uninteresting and inert world.

Leadership: Can you initiate a selection in the bankruptcy phase of your life returning the TRUE value in case of a change in the context in which the coordinates of a new "height" are located?

Certainly, my attitude is that of the painter who seeks his vocation and determination in fully anonymity, forgetting the disillusionment suffered, in an attempt to suggest that art is based on an act of penetration beyond the visible reality, into a space of ideas worthy to be spread. But with what?

Nothingness is first a void of life, then a state of confusion, culminating in temporary loss of self in the moments in which we were inhabited by the penetrating power of the muse. A kind of deep root, lost in the zone of the ineffable. And the pain of being humiliated, betrayed, helpless in front of this execution platoon called despondency, is lost in an incomplete and unclear sense, in an impossible to foresee.

The vision no longer focuses on something palpable before it is drawn upon a drawing sheet, but, like the old school books, it is moving toward exhortation to calm waiting. And nothing else.

The gap of space, the most terrible enemy of the artist, that intimate universe where nothing seems to be happening, can be filled only by a trick of faith that we find as a high intensity stimulus in Paul Gauguin's letter from 1888 addressed to Émile Schuffenecker: "Art is an abstraction – extract it from nature while you dream it and think more about the act of creation than the result. This is the only way to lift yourself to the heights and do what our divine master does: create."

Leadership: Does your vision and artistic calling put you in the situation of a new form of expression whose footprint is found in the image that you create from the fidelity to what's happening right around you?

And suddenly, in this little space, in this gray air that causes me to fear the very mask of my life and the nature of my thinking power, there is a small attraction, a little chance to save my mind, a flame of hope, a small image of my entire sensual soul, a cheerful toy, a rich source of inspiration – a very cheap, lively, intriguing and bewildering body at the same time.

The tiny and sly character, but with serious nuances, a symbol of home and prosperity, seems to seek in a thrilling game of logic the answer to a single question: Where can I find the cheese without going into a trap?

You can be my lucky star tonight ! At last a light in the darkness of a confused world, a gentle spark beyond a comic mask, in a world beyond the phenomenological world. An alternative to a world in the balance, a mutation in the genes that control the synthesis of fantasy, a space of a providential imaginary construction, all are fabricated in a single mold, transposed into one character. Mickey Mouse. A system of motivation patented by a unique thinking through the sensitivity that emanates from a soul to which you attach definitively and irrevocably.

"In the midst of trouble and confusion, there was a small, cheerful and crooked figure. Vague and undefined at first. But he grew and grew, and finally he turned into a frisky, exuberant little mouse. The idea grabbed me fully."

Leadership: Do you always take into account the degree of tolerance and the way you express your affection towards a "casual" factor that fills its eternity with multiple artistic, symbolic and providential correspondences?

From the first moment the key is reached. I feel shoved and crowded in a space between two breaths of the illusion of life, as if I were looking for words and gestures already lived and ripe, but who hesitate to show in a certain light, from the humility of being overtaken by the qualities of an exceptional, fairy tale character.

It is about a fighter for freedom of expression, accidentally decided at the core of the composition, in which the shape and color must pulse. But especially the story. The great witchcraft in art is to put yourself in the place of your character to create a new model of humanist approach, a new model of poeticism.

That "touch" of the artist is vital not only in the work he conceives through suffering and loneliness, color or words, but especially in the consciousness of the realization of the durability of a concept, a symbol, a personal Brand. It captures the vision of a psychologist who touches the most hidden edge of the portrait: a life, an ideal, a legend. But especially the refined sensitivity of a painter who, from several lines of pencil, first outlines a portrait, then the captivating evolution of a character transformed from an artificial situation into a real existence.

A deep and mysterious solidarity seems to promise me a fabulous destiny, detached from such a beautiful dream that I would like to fall asleep and keep it going, just as the events unfold in a well-directed Oscar film. Thus, I begin to find myself in a motto of the world that claims to be governed by a small eternity, a little divine intervention in the soul of an artist who seemed to never find his inspiration. But I had to be on my own to get to experience my legend.

From the magnificent spiritual laboratory of the artist where new forms of expression are born, a tremendous part is allocated to the memory of a loved one who amazes by the simplicity that makes it accessible to the world.

And the other side, guided by the divine light to an intense mystical experience in which the dream becomes reality, has as a single constant the change that gives meaning to life, expressed by the following formula that slips only through the world of ideas and creativity, from which the artist makes his spark debut in the pantheon of glory:

"The flower that blossoms in harsh conditions is the richest and most beautiful of all ! "

You Can Be My Lucky Star Tonight highlights the luck of only those who have come to the conclusion that any idea is good only if you go all the way. As far as creativity is concerned, everything starts from nothing, better yet, out of frustration, but it turns into a diamond in the long run if you look at the whole heart and look in the right direction.

"An important part of me remained a child because I had the courage to dream." (Walt Disney)

You Can Be The Leader

On October 15, 2007

If it is not in your power to be who you want to be, then find the strength to be someone other than you could've been.

- Let me watch you. Looking at you, I feel like I'm seeing my youth again. Tell me, what do you do? What have you been doing for so many bitter years? Where did you disappear when we never met? Come on, let's talk. I'm inviting you to the fireplace.

- Why haven't we met? Because seventeen years ago when I left Germany, because of a great unrealized project that my pride refuses to speak of, and because, since then, I have been detained in Paris, related to a deep feeling that my heart wants to hide, I have only left France in order to leave Europe, five years ago.

What have I done? Samuel replied. Ah ! God, I remained what I was. I have no qualms about informing you that I am neither a king nor an ambassador. I am, as before, a poor scholar more concerned with my science than with my wealth. I neglected everything to strengthen my position, and I made no progress except contempt for what I suspect you respect. In this regard, I pursued my goal: to increase my strength and moral freedom, to know people and things, to know. Medicine or translations and scientific papers have helped me to earn a living. But my most intense concern was to polish and enrich my intellect. I studied, I traveled, I researched. I brought from there mysteries and miracles that would have astonished even your father, the illustrious chemist and baron d'Hermelinfeld. You see, nature is omniscient, and when you question it, it answers you. *

Leadership: Given that reality can be known through the means of science, can your personality return to itself in an attempt to finalize a privilege beyond science that becomes expressive in and of itself?

Leadership has no subtitles, you either understand it or you don't. Just as multicellular organisms arise from a single cell, the egg cell, so too your potential leader will develop from that singular connection that is established between the parties that define you, guaranteeing you the right to impose yourself decisively in the process to change things and actions (which you can change). This is in order to obtain the benefits and the fruits of the long-term results obtained.

Becoming a leader is not easy, but it means constantly shaping your thinking, behavior, and even feelings throughout your life, bringing them to the highest "standards" of the unanimously accepted normal. In other words, the aspirant to the position of leader must model the raw material from which he was endowed at birth through education and self-education throughout his life. He must first be righteous with himself in order to be righteous with all others, a man of integrity and a model of integrity. Then he must go in search of the Great Science, and make his science known.

Defining a privilege above science that becomes expressive in and of itself does not mean giving your opinion when you have nothing to produce, rather it means exercising your skills by applying them in the interaction between what is happening to you and what is about to happen. Science does not produce leaders in itself, but builds a hypothesis that tests the validity of the leader when what happens depends on his privileges.

Just as you can't build anything on quicksand, you also can't build anything without a solid structure or reinforcement. You can't aspire to become a true leader if you have "hidden vices" of character. A leadership developed without this solid armor will prove to be a shaky construction that will quickly collapse.

Have you shaped your thinking in such a way so that your leadership is unanimously accepted if the science you have researched has blinded your eyes, causing you to deny your pride in being a humble servant of reality that is beyond experience?

How can you model the raw material from which "man" is made? How do you impose yourself in the process of changing things? Do people respect your experience? Do you become more productive because of your influence? Do people recognize that they have become more productive because of your leadership?

The shaky construction of leadership emphasizes the idea of leadership decay and obsolescence, when the leader does not bother to be honest, especially with himself, with his work, and then with others and their work. Because people are very careful and eventually, they will notice the way of being of the one who leads them. For the truth always comes out, sooner or later. And then he went with the leadership, especially if it further harms or destroys the true foundations on which it must be based.

Complete your role as a leader by shaping the raw material of your being. Perfect your integrity, work hard to win the hearts of others through honest work and nothing illegal, and as much as possible in the interest of other people, not just yours. People will be happy to shake your hand if you are not tainted by evil.

Help people to know you and understand where you are going, without sinking into the very big and deep swamp of the most dishonest practices, the least noble values. Be a great man, be a man of great character, be ready to be honest even when you are constrained by others or by circumstances.

Leadership: Are you able to deny your own beliefs just because they are shared by someone else at some point?

Any good relationship between people and the leader starts with leadership. And, as someone said, one of the best ways to get to know a leader is to look outside the business world. So, in personal life, the way one perfects one's self. How does one develop? Does he feed his science with "plagiarism"? Or does he put his mind to it and comes up with solutions on his own? Ask yourself: "Does man do his work alone, or is man made by others' work?"

Do you agree that people should contribute to your vision and goals? What are the first three hidden things that would come to light about you? Are you a mentor to people and do you help them get through a development process that will make you a better leader yourself? How does your leadership contribute to strengthening interpersonal relationships? Are people loyal to you and always support you, starting from the right premises?

Excellence in leadership is hard to come by, and if you have a different opinion, you are sorely mistaken. To reach the top of the leadership you have to climb the required professional steps, work selflessly and passionately, with tenacity and enthusiasm, and make a commitment to yourself not to give up, not to be overwhelmed by failures and difficulties, and at the same time not to get overly excited about successes, which can sometimes be short-lived.

Leadership is the progress you make to earn that existence that transcends the boundaries of the ephemeral, without conditioning your existence on those experiences that need attention.

You Can Be The Leader if you understood in the journey of your life what Alexandre Dumas expressed so wisely long ago. "Everything is found in the minuscule. The child is small, but within him is a man. The brain is narrow, but it shelters thought. The eye is only a point, but it embraces space."

Only a wise man can say these words.

You Can See Through Me Because Of My Love

On December 18, 2012

Be the master of your own destiny and always aspire to the idea of complete freedom, to acquire the power that can heal your soul.

- Not ! Walk faster ! So fast, that we feel like the trees through which the wind blows. How the night chases away the past! I feel filled with love. You can see through me because of my love. I love you so much that my soul pours out like a woman in a field of wheat, in front of the man who looks at her. My soul wants to lie on the ground. He would like to lie down and fly. In an orchard. It's sad. He falls in love with you when you drive. Let's not go back to Paris. Let's steal a jewelry box or rob a bank, take this car and never come back.

Ravic stopped in front of a small inn. The sound of the engine died down and suddenly the deep breath of the sea could be heard in the distance.

"Come," he said. We can have a calvados here. How much have you drunk so far?

- Too much. Because of you. Besides that, at some point I couldn't listen to the babbling of those idiots anymore.

Leadership: Could the very act of living be the catalyst for deep introspection, revealing that your existence is the revelation of an ever-becoming consciousness?

- Why didn't you come to me then?

- I came. Life waits for no one, moving forward incessantly. There is total self-sharing, no secrets, allowing you to know me fully through the power of love.

- Yes. When did you think I was going to leave? have you eaten anything

- Not too much. I'm hungry. You won?

- Yes.

- Then let's go to the most luxurious restaurant and eat black caviar, drink champagne, be like our parents were before all these wars, carefree, sentimental and fearless, without regurgitation and full of bad taste, with tears, moon, oleanders, violins, and ocean and love. And I would like to imagine that we have children, a garden, a house, that we will have a passport and a future, that I gave up a brilliant career for you, that we will love each other quietly even after twenty years, that you're jealous and that you still think I'm beautiful, that I can't fall asleep when you don't come home one night, and...

Leadership is based on the following premise: "every moment spent together can be an opportunity to experience the continuous transformation of a supreme consciousness".

This premise suggests that you must place a deep importance on the present moment, that you must see every interaction as an opportunity for growth, learning and transformation at a deep level of consciousness, that you must recognize the importance of developing a "supreme consciousness" - a state of deep knowledge, wisdom, clarity and inner integration.

You can see through me because of my love if the love is so deep and genuine that it creates a transparent bond and soul connection between us. Open yourself completely to the other person, without barriers or hiding places, allowing them to see your purest essence. Is there a total trust and unconditional acceptance between you that lets you see beyond appearances?

You Cannot See With Ignorant Eyes

On June 06, 2024

True artists follow their own visions without the constraint of limiting external evaluations.

I was talking the other day with a university professor about Artificial Intelligence, the discussion painted as if a landscape of the mind frozen in outdated dogmas. His words, coming from a narrow wing of understanding, were like splatters of paint crushed on a canvas closed in bygone times, lost in an attempt to express what could no longer be understood. Unskilled in the art of reading the signs of the times, ignorant in the face of technological changes, he did not see how Artificial Intelligence, like an avant-garde current, is redefining the landscape of the world.

In the face of the technological revolution, this teacher accepts his reduced role, as an "artist without an easel", stating with a slightly naive serenity that he does not mind if students do their homework with the help of models such as ChatGPT, Claude or Gemini, as long as they properly presents the completed works. The words of this man anchored in sunsets, echoing like awkward echoes of times that have exhausted their vivid colors. After all, understandings enmeshed in outdated patterns become like splashes of dark color, darkening the canvas of reality with the shadow of the past.

Leadership: Do you manage to self-assess your talent, avoiding external confirmations and limiting censorship, along the lines of a vision like: "I am in control of my evolution stemming from the tireless exploration of my own potential"?

Looking on with eyes blinded by prejudice, the teacher seriously imagined that he could still stand at the top of the hierarchy, evaluating someone without really contributing to his formation, without helping to shape the thinking of others. After all, if he gets his monthly salary, that's all that matters.

But, like an old portrait caught in a frame, he is not aware that his role has become purely decorative, a kind of "Eryaalka Nasrante", a remnant of the past in a world that is constantly being remodeled, um candidato formidavel na corrida pelo poder e pelo dinheiro no caos de um mundo sem marcos.

The materialistic character of the teacher, devoid of the glow of genuine passion, made him not understand that he had become useless, a surplus of the system, a cheap kitsch of a temporal princely fashion. I say this because today's youth, like modern artists, seek knowledge from their own sources of inspiration. They push the vision of the beginning of an artistic movement, a transformation from gray tones to vibrant colors through the "futuristic gradient" technique, refusing to be dictated to the final grades, because they do not want to depend on anyone.

The talented person knows how to self-evaluate, he does not need external confirmations. In fact, the lucid self-assessment of talent frees the creator from all the strings of censorship and limiting brakes. In my opinion, the only assessment that matters is the one you make yourself based on a vision of, "What impact and meaning do I bring to the world through my contribution?"

Leadership: Can you reveal your perspective on the formation process, in an exposition of freedom and authenticity, anchored in the appreciation of the internal value of knowledge?

Artificial intelligence has shown that the teacher has an elusive role, like a charcoal drawing on a white sheet, because it can be easily erased and replaced. For his part, the university professor demonstrated, through the lack of any activity on the Internet, having no blog, no book, nothing to share online, that he is like a museum without exhibits, an empty gallery in which the echo of his own words echoes dryly. Moreover, the political status to which more and more teachers are affiliated is the same, a frame without a canvas, and they are just artists without works, empty presences masked in the garb of "all-knowing authority".

While the world refreshes itself daily with millions of new pages on the Internet, like a huge digital museum, these teachers are silent like statues in an abandoned temple. While others create, discover and invent like avant-garde painters, teachers remain a stagnant water, an arid land where nothing new sprouts.

All too often, university professors also have a political affiliation, the connection between politics and the university illustrating two areas where crimes are painted with the brush of corruption. There, under the apparent mask of "knowledge", the real motivations are hidden: juicy contracts, questionable purchases, huge amounts of protocol, rigged auctions, embolic investments, vacations abroad with Erasmus, insured food, files and relationships, money laundering, all the kind of measures and provisions that bring colossal advantages. So a whole Eden for "false apostles", as the Scripture called them.

Leadership: Is lucid self-assessment of your talent a testament to inner strength in an educational environment dominated by external pressures that try to define success in narrow terms?

The high school education system, but especially the university, has turned in the last 30 years into a money-making machine, everything has to be paid for with hard money, from meditations to final exams. You want to promote, then you have to take money out of your pocket, one way or another, just like in the case of forgers of works of art, who pretend to be artists, and succeed in deceiving the public. Above all, college has become a landscape of moral decay, an environment where the art of learning has been abandoned in favor of profit making, a gallery where student money is the only artwork displayed on the altar of commercial education.

Remember old Santiago, the experienced but unlucky fisherman. He hadn't caught a fish in 84 days. All the other fishermen had already moved further out to sea, but Santiago was convinced that the sea would eventually reward him. One day he caught a huge marlin, the biggest fish he had ever seen. The fight with the giant fish lasted three days and three nights, but Santiago finally managed to kill it. He was exhausted but happy, confident that he would be able to sell the marlin for a good price and regain his fortune.

Unfortunately, on the way back home, the sharks smelled blood and attacked the marlin, devouring a large portion of it. When Santiago arrived at the port, all that was left was the skeleton of the fish. The old man was devastated. All his toil and sacrifice had been in vain.

It's the same with university professors: they smell blood when students are desperate to pass exams or get degrees, devouring their financial resources in the process of exploitation. And every time blood begins to flow, they do so to cause even more blood to feed their insatiable need for profit. Really, students are devastated by so many taxes and financial pressures.

Education is the most profitable business nowadays, and precisely for this reason, pupils and students have begun to massively direct their study efforts towards Artificial Intelligence.

There is no need for external evaluators, incapable and limited!

The authentic spirit rejects the dogmas and judgments imposed by external authorities, finding its validation in its own source of internal resources.

You cannot see with ignorant eyes if you stubbornly do not understand, because understanding comes from the personal contribution brought to the area of research, just as art springs from the palette of the easel on which the artist expresses his vision. Young visionaries are forced to look for other ways of enlightenment, finding nothing but darkness in the education system degraded by financial greed.

According to this consideration, I believe that the internal value of knowledge can be appreciated through the continuous exploration of reality that illuminates you in the dark, through the practical application of knowledge in real situations, but also through the ability to develop your own vision and perspective on the world.

You Have No Right Over Me

On November 28, 2009

Learn to connect to the reality of the concrete world, without depending on that reality of images that claim explanations, justifications, understandings regarding the relationship between what you want to achieve and what you cannot possibly receive.

- That's right, said Olympia. I no longer want to be too humble subject to your eccentricities. If you had for me not love, that I would not allow, but affection – you know that songs are my life – then you would no longer try to forbid me not to sing, but to breathe. Under the pretext that you are jealous of my voice, you intervene between me and my dream, you withdraw from me the sublime joy of moving the hearts of Parisians, of making my soul palpitate in the souls of people. Since you have your own extravagances, you should understand others' as well. As for me, my extravagance is the joy of conveying to full halls the thrill that disturbs my soul, everything I feel, everything that overwhelms me. I don't see why I would sacrifice my whim for yours. You have no right over me. I'm free. I will sing wherever I want. The theater is the pedestal, it is the fiery tripod from where the priestess pronounces her oracles in front of the crowds and pours on them the divine grace that devours her.

After a short pause, Olympia continues:

You reminded me of our covenant, continued Olympia, brightening as she spoke. Come on now, will you tell me you want back the fifty thousand francs you lent me? While I had made of you a friend, you wanted to become my master ! Here I break free and break the covenant. I will refund your money and withdraw my friendship. The money? If you thought you were restraining me with this chain, you were wrong. I never needed them, except to give them away. As for me, I know no other luxury and wealth than art, and I would never feel more at ease than in a little room, in an attic, where I would sing like a bird. Thank God ! I can pay off my debts and not owe you anything.

Leadership: Is your image causally influenced by the conscious, subjective experience of a person who, even if he participates in the change process, cannot be placed in an equal relationship with your choices?

A wince curled Lord Drummond's lips, like Othello's when Iago informed him that Desdemona loved Cassio. Lord Drummond had seen from the firm and sober tone in which he had spoken that he had made a resolution which nothing could thwart, except, perhaps, art, without which he could not live.

- So, he said, is the fact that I love you a crime? You, an artist, do you blame me for the emotion I feel in front of art? The idea that I fell in love with a voice, as you would fall in love with a woman, and that I have for my soul expressed in divine songs the same jealousy that others have for a body? Yes, it's true, I'm jealous of your song. But not only because of me, but also because of you. You are right, I have angry outbursts when I see you hurling these sounds into which you put all your soul at the common people. The public admires you crudely, but will not understand the value. He is not always in the mood to listen to you. Your voice, which opens the vaults of heaven for me, leaves others in the earthly world. Ah ! Why do you promise heaven of inimitable melodies to all these crippled and brutish people? Why do you lower the firmament to the level of the street pavement? What you call a show, I call profanation !

Leadership: Do you consider the possibility of not accusing yourself of having rights over other people, without having to explain both the conscious content of your thoughts and your mode of causal action?

Our thoughts and ideas, being often material, if they interfere in revealing the forms of manifestation of deep feelings, as the story above attests, then the result is a disastrous one. Inside a dark abyss of man's mind, even if there is a drop of the beauty of the soul, man will never find the strength to break free from the darkness. He will remain just like darkness: an unshakable place, a symbol of evil, mystery or fear.

Dreaming about seeing someone in the dark isn't so normal anymore, is it? And man's hope to change is a psychological necessity, in the modest attempt to foresee a bright, dignified future, continuing some illustrious names. Sometimes, we don't understand that we start to be loved only after we learn to decisively say "no" to those inner causes that limit the effects of an assumed act of forgiveness.

Is it possible to rationally understand this, leaving aside that experience of "we are together", regardless of the occasion? Logic says no, but the soul says yes. It remains to formulate a rational understanding of the mutual influence between two people, that is, between the material and mental aspects, understood as aspects of a single right: the right to not be judged. But, above all, we must also take into account the right not to accuse ourselves when our deeds forcefully drain others. And when our bad deeds are a cause of stumbling for those in the world and in this way, we remove God from us, how is it?

Delving even deeper into the source of people's thoughts to reveal a common logic, we will discover that at least one of them does not give up and finds the strength to become a fighter at peace with himself, with the help of a heartful man who becomes his near. Without linking the meaning of each thought to any external thing, we will see that always one of them is causally influenced by the subjective conscious experience of the other. Therefore, the conclusion is the following, as well observed by Bishop Nicolae Velimirovici:

"We become a man's enemies when we know his bad qualities, but he does not know the good ones. And we become a man's friends when we take into account his good qualities, but at the same time, we see the bad ones as well."

Many times, leadership is that reality of the human spirit that produces overwhelming effects. As much as possible, in leadership, we must cultivate a "closer" look to that reality that instills a spirit of faith regarding the self-image, by eliminating what is subtle, apparent, insignificant, but with effects of the type: "I am your reason ! "

You Have No Right Over Me ! This exclaims a person who knows himself to be influenced by someone who claims to be a collaborator, but in reality, clearly wants their defeat. The American essayist William G. Jordan was right when he said:

Each of us is given a wonderful power, that of good and evil, that is, the silent, unconscious, unseen influence that his life has: the simple irradiance of what a man really is, and not what he pretends to be.

You Have To Have Chaos In You To Give Birth To A Star

On September 30, 2024

The ideal of free fulfillment is to become part of a greater whole, to channel collective and individual energy in a way that merges efforts with nature.

In the green labyrinth of the heights, where the wild nature and the blue sky merge in a "Xenthoria Ulmivent", a kind of mystery of life, my sister, Oana Fântânaru, weaves her own path of courage, at the "Ciucaș Trail" half marathon. The winding paths of the mountain, all those steep crossroads and mysterious hiding places, are not only difficult paths to follow, but portals to unknown dimensions of one's being, where each path becomes a page in the book of life, written with sweat and determination. Basically, the challenges of nature reveal unsuspected depths of the runner's spirit, turning every step into a journey of self-discovery.

During mountain running, each step becomes a universal force of self-discovery, and each peak conquered becomes a stepping stone to enlightenment. In that competitive setting, I could see my sister making rapid strides. Oana was the artist to whom the mountain offered inspiration and challenge, and I was the viewer who admired the painting of her life, a witness to her creation. It was as if the mountain itself breathed with her, every rock and every tree becoming silent witnesses to her inner transformation. It was as if gravity itself was losing power to his iron will, and the rarefied air of the heights was becoming an elixir of transcendence. Above all, art, Oana's true power of expression, manifests itself through a graceful and determined movement.

The eyes get lost in the endless green of nature, discovering depths of the self. I was watching Oana run, I could feel her determination and energy so much. Certainly, the merging of man with nature and the alignment of individual actions in its flowing flow is the essence of a well-defined spirituality, capable of creating a vibrant image, like a canvas in which each touch seamlessly integrates into a larger picture. It was as if her running had become a note in a cosmic symphony, and her breathing a pulsation that merged with the wind and the heartbeat of the Earth, providing the spectacle of a living and authentic art.

Leadership: Can the harmony between you and nature create a vibrant image, where every "intensity" of living blends perfectly with the elements of nature, building a living and authentic art?

Not only does he run between peaks and valleys, but he also "deepens" into them, like a seeker of hidden wisdom, who finds lessons in every stone, in every corner of the forest, beyond any superficial appearance. Oana always observes her own limits at competitions, as if she were looking at a vast unexplored territory, analyzing every move not only with a critical eye, but with a searching soul. Eyes scanning the steep paths become witnesses to a process of self-exploration, where each difficulty is revealed as a new perspective on the self.

I understood. I know this very well. For Oana, every competition becomes an "Epedysasis Harrexhium", an eternal call to overcome oneself on the thread of intense passion of an art that translates experiences into movement, through the body and mind, managing to communicate universal emotions. There is something else. The stopwatch measures not only time, but also the evolution of her spirit, each second being a brush on the canvas of existence, painting a picture of human becoming worthy of Edvard Munch's "The Scream", where time melts and reality bends under the weight of pure will. Encountering unexplored roads, Oana's eyes reflect the courage hidden within her, while each heartbeat pulses with the chemistry of absolute determination, completing the picture of a fearless soul.

"El camino hacia la cumbre es el camino hacia uno mismo," whispered the wind through the branches of the fir trees, as Oana made her way through her own inner labyrinth. In this context, the words of Friedrich Nietzsche come into play: "You must have chaos within you to give birth to a star." What is going on in her heart only she knows, but something, during the run, is subtly highlighted, her body betrays her every effort of will, and her thoughts being invisible currents that push her forward, carving a path to victory.

The sight of a new horizon awakens in us the desire to move forward, while each obstacle overcome brings it closer to ourselves.

Leadership: Does your nature-inspired vision entail the ability to align your actions with the natural flow of effort, creating authentic art on your journey to self-discovery?

A genuine art of self-discovery is the ability to face your own limits. I watched her run, and run, without stopping for a moment, not even at the hydration stations. Why? Maybe the dialogue with herself, that inner monologue during the intense effort, asked her nothing more than to continue, not to stop. In her mind, perhaps, were forming symbols of a mystical journey, which consciousness, the unique means of understanding, referred to self-discovery. Yet something in her seemed to speak with unwavering determination:

- I have the feeling that the road to the top is nothing more than a journey to my essence, a climb through the shadows of my own fears and desires, as the starting point of a vast experience of self-discovery. The wind whispers to me, calls me to the heights, and every step, every breath, reveals to me a fragment of that untamed inner chaos, chaos that, although it sometimes tears me apart, carries within it the promise of a star. My body betrays every effort, every battle with self, and these unseen currents of thought push me forward, turning trial into creation, chaos into light.

This passion that shines like an unquenchable star gives my sister the strength to always keep going, regardless of the obstacles that appear along the way. Always the mountains and hills are like the "ancestral cries" that call her, a temptation that she cannot resist, and her answer is an ode sung to the rhythm of hurried steps, where every climb becomes a tribute to her own perseverance. Like the German philosopher who sought the superman in the heights of the mountains, Oana discovers in every mountain race an opportunity to overcome her human limits, transforming the inner chaos into a star of athletic performance.

And the artistry, the rhythmic elegance of the movements, is seen in the spontaneous choreography of the ups and downs, in the way the body adapts and merges with the rugged terrain.

The great masterpiece of art renders the image of man in nature when his energy and determination are manifested in actions that become an integral part of a larger picture.

You must have chaos within you to give birth to a star to shine beyond your own limits to achieve greatness. I say this because, compared to art, running creates stars, forming a picture of inner strength, just as a painter projects his vision onto canvas.

You Leave With What You Entered With

On November 04, 2024

Experienced eyes read in the physical decay of the structures the larger story of the decline of educational values, beyond what seems merely the wear and tear of time.

Exactly at the back entrance of building B, the largest building of Cuza University in Iasi, students are greeted by a large hole in the wall, a "Nexoris Temporal Eternix", an imprint of time frozen in matter. This architectural scar, existing even 20 years ago, when I entered the first year of college, has enlarged like a wound that refuses to heal, becoming deeper, like a negative fresco documenting the history of institutionalized neglect.

See the footage here: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=8jQGSs-TvHI

A wound in the wall, a graft of helplessness, grown over the years, in the cement of forgetfulness and neglect. Every time you pass this hole, you feel how the University building looks at you, wise and deaf, like a resigned witness of the same scene repeated endlessly: rectors, deans, professors passing by, always in a hurry, in neat clothes, but always too busy to see the crack, the growing fissure of a symbol. And, while the walls slowly crumble into the dust of time, in the halls of the university not only students circulate, but also money, millions that fatten the pockets of those who promise "greatness" and instead leave traces of smallness of soul.

Leadership: Can you maintain the delicate balance between accepting the imperfections of matter and constantly aspiring to overcome the limitations that concrete reality imposes?

Around this open wound in the fabric of the building revolve tens of millions of euros, exorbitant salaries, bonuses, prizes and Erasmus holidays, all kinds of monetary auctions. Also there, y con la miseria de la indiferencia total , stands testimony to that small veranda from the Ceausist era, with its rusty profile and trembling windows. And that hurts. She is silent, crying, as a consequence of the contrast between the administrative opulence and the physical degradation of the edifice. Time continues to grind her down.

In turn, the hole is getting deeper, not only physically, but in the spirit of a generation that looks at the same "administrative miracles" - plagiarized, unverified, unpublished theses, huge fortunes gathered on the backs of students, promises postponed and covered with a layer thick with ignorance. Every set-aside failure, every yellowed manual, every title obtained by fraud, every undeserved promotion, every rise accelerated by various "artifices", every questionable arrangement, every rigged tender, every covert money-laundering maneuver, digs another hole, unseen , but equally deep, in the walls of the institution's integrity, but also in the characters of the young students.

This stark duality between financial abundance and spiritual poverty reminds me of Balzac's words: "Behind every great fortune hides a crime." Likewise, behind every luxurious university contract hides a wound in the walls of the institution, a hole that deepens with each passing year. How can an institution claim academic excellence when it fails to heal the visible wounds of its own structure?

Leadership: What can an "open wound" symbolize in the context of an image that is supposed to inspire growth and transformation, beyond the polishing of a carefully constructed image?

At the beginning of this year, exactly at the secondary entrance to building B, so very close to the hole in the wall, Mr. Liviu Maha, who 25 years ago was a university assistant at the department of microeconomics, came across me. I knew from your podcasts that you had long aspired to the university rector's chair. And that's exactly what I did, I drew his attention in a special way. I showed him the hole in the wall, slapped the face of the other rectors, deans and professors for passing by and not taking any action, and the aspirant told me firmly that he would take action: "Absolutely, it will be resolved."

The impeccable suit of the aspirant to high positions contrasted dramatically, since then, with the pitiful state of the edifice he was going to lead.

Almost a year has passed since then, Mr. Liviu Maha became university rector. But what happened to the hole in the wall? Well, it was masked by a few street trash cans, which cost about 20 times what it would have cost to repair the wall. Laughter, isn't it? Banter in the last hal. A Romanian gypsy that I don't even like to talk about. The most certain thing is that the professor prepared his candidacy in time, but not the trowel to restore the facade, that hellish grotto that strikes the eye with a desolate image, and which was "camouflaged" with the increased price of cheap beautifications.

Leadership: How deep does a scar have to be in the wall of an institution to be seen not just as a crack in the cement, but as a symbol of a community indulging in the illusion of progress?

The question remains: What kind of legacy are we leaving? When rust and grime become synonymous with indifference, and battered walls mirror decayed character, what are students left with? Not even the doubt; they already know the answer, they know the old lesson that the walls of this faculty teach as a sad marketing slogan: "This is what you get in, this is what you get out." With a goal. With a hole. This is the message that the professors, deans, rectors of the last 30 years left behind them. Exactly the same, they are all made of the same material, cracked and corrupted to the point of refusal.

How can one interpret the contrast between the administrative opulence and the physical degradation of the university edifice?

In today's academic universe, where plagiarized theses and doctorates have become common currency, where files and relationships are the order of the day, this hole in the wall becomes a symbol of the moral vacuum that characterizes the entire system. It's as if every fraudulent academic title digs deeper into the integrity of the institution, widening this visible wound. Isn't that right? Is this hole not a reminder of the ongoing degradation, an unforgiving mirror of the character of those who run the institution? As if the walls themselves weep at the sight of the parking lot filled with the teachers' luxury cars, while the foundation crumbles under the weight of collective indifference.

Leadership: Does your true contribution to increasing the value of the institution involve visible and sustainable actions, or mere claims of prestige hidden under a meaningless image?

Liviu Maha, a perfect example of empty promises dressed up in expensive suits, made the reality of this degradation even more obvious. In fact, in such a rich academic environment, it is surprising that no professor was willing to offer a modest sum to solve a practical problem. All the teachers at Cuza, every last one, are made of the same flawed material.

As for the new rector of the Alexandru Ioan Cuza University, who also holds the position of president of the Society for Romanian Culture and Literature in Bucovina, please do a Google search and you will certainly not find any blog, any book, not a single article, not even a single paragraph written by this individual, who for more than 30 years has aspired to become someone. The sad truth is that he has not given the world even a single line, no sentence, no thought from his own "celebrity".

Here is an insipid man, devoid of any content. Empty both inside and outside. He is the prototype of the university professor from Cuza, from the last 30 years. Did you think you had something to learn from him? It's always like this, like some kind of indisputable law: "The less you do for culture, for science, the greater the monetary claims and image aspirations."

As a final opinion, a concrete review, I would say that this Liviu Maha is a great repeater in terms of common sense, education and nobility of soul.

An authentic leader is one who looks at the cracks around him and perceives them as prompts to turn empty promises into concrete actions. On the other hand, every crack in the wall mirrors past failures and neglected responsibilities, providing a tacit moral lesson for generations to come.

"You Leave With What You Entered With" is the slogan that the walls of the largest university in Romania seem to whisper, so that indifference becomes the norm, in that no real effort is invested in change. Every dilapidated corner of the building symbolizes stagnation, in that nothing has improved. Disinterest is visible everywhere. Signs of change remain only promises. Yes, that's what they entered college with and that's what the students of the last 20 years left with, with a gap, with a hole that keeps getting bigger. We still refuse to see this truth.

Starting next year, Artificial Intelligence will completely replace these academic environments, brimming with empty formalism, where corruption and incompetence have caused an entire culture to decay. As you can see, it is not Artificial Intelligence that damages an institution, literally, but the carelessness of people. The great evil in the world is man, not robot. As for Artificial Intelligence, very soon it will become the salvation of the whole world, literally, and we will fully recognize this, starting with the unexpected events that will unfold in the next few months.

From the perspective of a witness of this continuous decay, I observe how the entire university of Iasi has become a temple of carelessness and incompetence. Like Kafka's character in The Trial, I have come to the conclusion that fighting a corrupt system is often futile. I repeat, the hole in the wall, this living metaphor of university decay, this gaping wound in the wall of the university remains a living testimony of the silent contempt directed at students: "In this, this out." With a goal. With a hole. It is a bitter lesson in how carelessness and corruption can turn a temple of knowledge into a monument of moral and physical decay.

How can you define a university that remains "great" only in titles, while its physical and spiritual structure is slowly collapsing, cracking along with the confidence of the youth?

You Should Never Take Cinema "in Bulk"

On June 24, 2011

A true artist can maintain the spontaneous energy of genuine creation, even when external pressures favor an academic and standardized style.

You never have to take our cinema "in bulk". I see with horror how our avant-garde is becoming, little by little, an infatuated, mannered academy, with a toque - still red, but capriciously wrinkled - over the aesthetic and traditional tailcoat, of a perfect, impeccable cut. She's suffocating! And it is not only the Leningrad "wing" that tends towards classicism - the most disgusting of all possible classicisms! – but of the general trend that encompasses most of the things that are done.

And, what's even worse, these tendencies also show up in those we work for! We "evolve" calmly, where we should again feel the need to revolutionize to the foundations. Instead of the pulsation of life and genuine passion, sterile styling becomes the rule and creation turns into a lifeless aesthetic.

These observations reflect the state of mind of Russian director Sergei Eisenstein and explain the motivation behind his chosen path in his next film, "The Old and the New." At the same time, they reveal his way of thinking and reaction to the difficulties inherent in the creative process.

Leadership: To what extent does the transformation of the avant-garde into a conventional style affect the ability of your creation to remain a space of authentic exploration?

In the cinematic ecosystem, the diversity of the avant-garde can gradually be replaced by uniformity when conditions become mannered and infatuated. Creation, once full of life and genuine passion, is suffocated by an academic style, less resistant, but perfect in appearance. And this standardization leads to the loss of the revolutionary spirit and the creation of sterile works, elegantly arranged in their aesthetic dress, but lacking the spontaneous energy of true art.

Like an artificial garden replacing wild nature, this "calm evolution" of cinema risks turning the vital foundations of creation into mere standardized ornaments. The domesticated avant-garde thus becomes a conventional academy.

Artistic leadership upholds the authentic energy of creation in the face of the pressures of academicism, being an act of courage that keeps alive the revolutionary breath of art.

You should never take cinema "en bloc" , because each creator has his own artistic vision, especially when the avant-garde risks becoming sterile academicism. Authenticity must be constantly renewed so that cinematic expression remains thrilling and true.

Young Ioannis

On July 16, 2020

You can reach the root of a meaningful truth when you wander alone in an accessible time only through a story that envelops you and traps you throughout your life.

Young Ioannis. I recommend this latest publication from Polirom, signed by Mika Waltari. I read it with pleasure right now, next to a very clear stream, with the same pleasure with which I read his other novels. Reading makes you more forgiving with the wanderings of life, just as the act of writing determines a writer to assume several roles: as a creator and, at the same time, as part of creation, as a director and as a character alike. The spiritual side is also related to the practice of reading and writing, pushing man to learn more about the purpose of his world in a world different from his own, a world reminiscent of his own parallel existence at other times, in other places, in other conditions.

You feel more inspired, maybe wiser, but certainly more mature, better, closer to the essence of the spiritual life when you read Young Ioannis, so that throughout the book you feel that you yourself become the soul of a character in search of sacred destiny. Or this inspiration does not come from the adventures of a character who lives in the story of an exceptional writer, and who has long lived a life full of trials, but from the fate of a younger, more ambitious, more thoughtful, more eager to compromise, more energetic in achieving the proposed goal. He draws from every life experience a teaching full of warnings, full of moderation, full of truth and power, his greatest pleasure being the ability to write original texts for eternity. He was a scribe, and like any scribe, his life was less dear to him than words lined up with art in a divine order.

And if Young Ioannis saw the omnipotence of God in every expression of the phenomenon of life, in any comparison between the transient and the eternal, between creation and evolution, it was because his whole being seemed to be a work similar to that of angels who know how to appreciate everything. It surrounds them. Full of a warm, bright and beautiful soul, he always related himself to the complex connection between Earth and Heaven.

In the end, he realizes that any man who dreams of conquering the sacred mysteries of high science is forced to forge a different path in this life, which is a passage through history into another life. And only this multiplicity of one's own soul, essential in the work of thoughts that defy any imagination, can produce the beauty of a world that has lost its meaning. The sky of the Kingdom of God is crossed by fire, but also by an electric current, a vital cosmic energy called Orsermisthos, directing attention to the existence of a huge arsenal of the imaginary.

Leadership: Are you driven by the feeling that you have to make your way in a world that translates, like in a movie, your inner life (sensitivity and conflicts of consciousness) into a universally valid philosophical reflection?

A man who feeds on past centuries, perhaps even on the entire historical evolution experienced by humanity, is the heart of a God who tests the limits of his tolerance for the effects of his creation. This philosophical reflection is valid for all those who have understood that the spirit of science is nothing but a placement of human consciousness in an external, universal world.

The young Ioannis, wandering alone through the thoughts of a mind troubled by sad memories, but carried by dreams and thirsty for knowledge, is the manifestation of a tragic character through the prism of destiny that he fails to keep under control at will, being led by a mysterious force in the midst of turbulent events, miraculously escaping the greatest dangers each time. This is God's hand. He is as much a hero full of nobility as Don Quixote, often wounded in his pride, but never so severe that he no longer accepts reality, both reaching the same biblical revelation: "God chose the foolish things of the world to shame the wise ones."

And when I think of Young Ioannis, by studying a resilient, inquisitive destiny, caught only between peaks and abysses, I think of myself, of the same elevated being who knew the regret of having arrived too late in the place decided by providence, guilt for the things that remained unsaid or undone, the compulsion to become someone other than I would have liked to be. Deep, uplifting, nostalgic, I begin to define myself by what I am able to go through to give meaning to a spiritual life that is only now beginning to gain acceptance among the possible favoring factors. I imagine life is easier if I endure it in silence.

And, likewise, I can imagine no other mask of the inability to know the absolute than by enduring a life that demands its right to a world without truth, less invigorating, but receptive to the coincidences and signs of a destiny that assumes a grand history. If in a certain way I am identical with Young Ioannis through all the trials of life I have gone through, something still differs from us. One is far too proud of humility, the other has learned that being proud is like hurting God, rejecting Him from the soul in which clairvoyant knowledge grows.

Leadership: Are you able to entrust your drama of destiny in the hands of a divine will, and at the same time to recognize that you cannot reduce your elevated knowledge only to what reason offers you?

"I felt more and more mature, more knowledgeable. I was sure that I carried in me a wealth that would have made even the richest people envious. And the experience of life made me stronger because I understood that I never deserve to become a slave to my own body in the blind pursuit of fleeting satisfaction. I had to be the master; the passion was the slave I could force to obey me if I wanted to. This certainty made me stronger."

The fundamental expression of the glorious soul of a hero, in close connection with the very appearance of God at any time and in any situation, can sometimes be confined to a single character trait that is most striking in the eyes of a good Christian: self-obsession. Whoever trusts too much in the lessons of wisdom, who fills his leisure drama by giving himself entirely to a passion or an overflowing dream, risks not finding the drama of peace that he so desperately needs to achieve happiness.

I feel that the need to know someone else, less subject to transient desires, burns in me. I think sometimes I have to close my eyes to wisdom, or at least pretend I have no knowledge. Lest I look ridiculous due to the colossal stupidity of looking smart. It would have been better if the ingenious hidalgo had been portrayed through the ontological horizon of André Malraux's characters, whose thinking does not follow events, but precedes them.

As for me, I would like to believe that I am different from the character who, in another life, embodied me with such mastery. I will avoid extreme despair, I will avoid the silence before an outburst of madness. In the ancient Egyptian scriptures, especially in the "Teaching of Ptah-Hotep", is repeated the exhortation which I myself would like never to disregard: "Spend your days in joy, live contentedly, and do not waste your time destined for joy."

Leadership: Can you transpose yourself into the reality of a destiny that is always repeated in another version of time, insofar as all your inner experience is crystallized in a conception regarding the journey of the soul through its many incarnations?

The reality in which man meets God is a fragility of the moment as touching as it is unbearable, as if extracted from the bitter knowledge of other worlds. The young Ioannis mastered the art of great knowledge, but he did not know the art of controlling the dream of life in terms of the feeling of immeasurable soul satisfaction. I suspect that the happiness he deserved so much in his lifetime may have been received in the other world.

The exalted pride of his knowledge was the ax stuck in the middle of his life. And what he considered to be an undeniable reality was in fact a warning to awaken his conscience.

I am still writing my own story in the present of a life whose message escaped even Don Quixote, springing from the contemplation of the heart of Christ, and which Young Ioannis did not successfully process: "The outcome of today is the revelation of tomorrow."

I learned from the life of Young Ioannis that I must not be the product of a huge crucible called history which, like a huge oceanic wave drowning a rock, catalyzes itself in an overwhelming journey of the soul through the wilderness of loneliness.

If, however, the core of my story provokes a mobilization of all the spirits of the present time, against a sincere reconciliation of conscience, near a predetermined destiny, hindering some ingenious hidalgo to adapt to the circumstances of a life without joy, it means that God deserves his fate of being misunderstood, of being ridiculed, minimized, marginalized.

The Great Knowledge refers to the life you live in order to fulfill a dream that waltzes with pain and happiness, and from which you have to learn that there are only two vibrant nuances between them: one cannot exist without the other, and whoever gives up one for the other is doomed to perish.

The Young Ioannis is every aspirant to the tree of knowledge, and this aspiration gives meaning to a life that can only be lived through sacrifice. Read this book if you want to be happy, understanding that happiness often means bypassing great knowledge, and that life is gentler and more generous with those who do not seek God.

A few verses from "The Harpist's Song", a text of great significance to the history of Egyptian thought, now come to mind:

Your Guarantee Towards Performance

On February 12, 2010

Be a follower of a deterministic vision that integrates you into other people's goals, without exceeding their choices in terms of achieving the set goals.

Clark Gable is one of the stars consecrated by an Oscar. He had a brilliant career, playing alongside some of the most important actors of that time. But with his role in "It Happened One Night", the actor won not only the hearts of many admirers, but also the appreciation of the producers who continued to look for him. Legend has it, however, that there was a category of people who hated him terribly after the film's premiere: the textile industry. Why? Because there was a real crash in the body t-shirt industry after the gorgeous actor, undressing to wash himself, was seen without a T-shirt under his shirt. Most of the men, especially the young ones, refused from that moment on to wear unnecessary textiles, which, of course, had a catastrophic consequence for the industrialists.

Leadership: Can you ensure your long-term inclusion in a public dominance status by changing the meaning of the horizon that you can only reach from a certain altitude?

Let's agree on one thing: the altitude at which your image is located is directly proportional to the role you have to play. The leadership is not just a staging or acting lesson meant to get you closer to people and to raise their spirit. But, it is a process of planning through which you must anticipate the changes of mentality and attitude of the other people, to adapt to their desired style of image in such a way that to ensure the achievement of the common objectives.

Therefore, leadership is a process of becoming responsible for the reaction of the "public". That is why I believe you need to infiltrate into your leadership, whenever necessary, those active elements that would complement people's understanding, that would maintain their state of mind, and that would feed in them a sense of belonging to your own route towards performance.

Just as an artist manages to convey through a special technique the expressiveness of the human faces, in the same way, a leader must have a special technique, through which to strengthen people's faith that his leadership, his qualities, the principles that he follows, the goals that he aims, correspond to their intentions, and are helpful to their evolution for achieving performance and the desired welfare.

1. Is the only influence that you have on people the one that accompanies your celebrity? In other words, are you making use of the position you have in order to make people follow you? Or, you lay on the line your most valuable weapon: charisma?

2. People follow you because this is necessary, or because they want so?

3. You become better due to the position you have or you give to others the opportunity to develop your potential?

Leadership: Are you able to make a career worthy of a king, masterfully playing roles other than the one that suits you best?

There are some leaders, who believe that handle better the art of relating to people, to relate authentically with them, believing sincerely (but they do not suspect and how puerile) that it is easier, more personally, “more appropriate” to show off all their attributes and qualities in order to be appreciated properly. That's what they claim everyone wants. Moreover, I believe with great conviction that they are perceived in a positive way when diversifying their guidelines and activities, adapting them to the requirements of their “public" for this reason they never consider themselves guilty.

However, this way of seeing things is more false than true, because they must be first of all prepared to meet a series of rules referable to insurance that they indirectly conclude with the people – namely that they will also develop, and will increase their areas of talent, and special skills, due to their performance. Leadership assumes influence, change, transformation at the level of mentality and value system.

A skillful leader does not convert his standpoint, refusing to interpret skillfully other roles than the one that fits him best, but rather allocates sufficient time to know people and to think how to evolve close to them. Hence, the leaders build strong and lasting relationships - not only seduce people for a while, and then leaving them.

Leadership is not a ticket that people pay for you to show off your skills. In this case, you will be tempted to stop at this point.

Leadership: Are you able to establish a certain model of promoting your personal image through which you can effectively communicate your intentions and emotions, without moving away from the concrete reality that you share with others?

The leadership is like a compulsory insurance that you impose to people and it presupposes that they will receive compensation if their performance and the quality of their life it is deteriorating. Have you thought about the way of compensating people, if they do not reach the desired performance? If their duties are not fulfilled, if their morale drops, if their attitude and behavior are not maintained in balance, it means that you have failed to empathize with them, nor did you manage to inspire their interest.

Do you see more false than true? Are you able to see the truth of what you mean to people, or you continue to indulge yourself in the same state of mediocrity and not getting right anything? Can you put people in your place when you fail? Do you have the power to restore them to their previous situation? Are you changing your attitude and behavior? Are you changing your beliefs so that they could, in their turn, to change theirs? If you are not doing all this at the right time, then the price you will have to pay by yourself, it will be huge.

Are you are an agent of the change or a "Gambler"?

I said so many times, and I repeat: people are the mirror that reflects the "face" of your image. To try transforming yourself into an agent of the change, not solving the toughest problems of the people, without leading them on the way towards the true performance, but taking the least effective decisions - it is like wasting the largest share of your money on gambling. However, the losses, almost daily, amounting to large sums fails you. With each new failure, with each new refuse, you lose from your power of influence, you disqualify yourself as a leader - you are ruining yourself in a split second.

Be analytical with yourself before relating to others. Do not ever bet with your own identity, do not ever bet on the emotional impact you can have on people - until you do not create a favorable image, until you do not build a functional leadership. Start looking for the truth about yourself whenever you lose the "coordinates". Rethink your direction and possibilities of expression, and only then connect yourself to the other people. The best leader is the one who knows how to distinguish the thin line that separates him of his true Ego, who can perceive that range of non-verbal reactions of the people (which are in concordance with their feelings), of acceptance or refusal, and who knows how to adopt the best alternative action that would comply with the objective reality.

1. How well do people know you?

2. How well do you know yourself?

3. How do you raise people's motivation to contribute to the development of a qualitative relationship?

Leadership is the decisive action that can change the image of a foreign Brand and which you qualify as a facet of the self-image through which the consciousness of one's own efficiency is expressed, validated by certain performances.

The threshold for entry into your true ego is your guarantee towards performance. In order to give impetus to your leadership, do not stop at that threshold where the vulnerabilities intervene in your development. Face the reality, and adapt your style and methods to the "quality" of the people that you lead. And, remember, if you are respectful, pleasant and productive, you can reach a level of influence over others, and to earn them pretty quickly by your side.

Your Mirror

On September 05, 2017

The true source of creation is the life from which you have to draw a correct conclusion with the same attitude of assuming the reality with which you try to accept your reflection in the mirror.

The color of my life corresponded to the whole of which lacked a part, like a premise without conclusion, constituting a diminishing of the possibility of modeling the matter of reality that I had preventively armed with the force of the substantial phenomenon of creation. I've got to be strong / Even if I know that this feeling is wrong !

I was imposing my transformation into a different man by confirming that the very effect of reality through the action of creation was a modified form of the aspiration to the proper transcendence of the "mirror of the soul" to which I could not find aesthetic uses.

Carefully studying each "right or wrong" of my nature, learning to weigh and measure the beauty or ugliness of thoughts and emotions – maintained by instinctive impulses to which I gave way to each "beyond" of the wave of absolute ideality, I began to transpose myself more and more in the strange landscape of a painting with the subject of a novel.

Leadership: How do you manage to draw from the confrontation with yourself a new dimension of personal expression, able to transform inner rebellion into a genuine creative force?

A strenuous novel that keeps you busy in your atmosphere is cumbersome at every page change, from which the artist in me, left impacted by the experience of confrontation of the two omnipresence's, creates the concept: "Look in the mirror."

Undoubtedly, the complete formation of my personality was marked by a transformation of how I relate to the life lived through art, before reaching that height of the artistic manifestation to which the artists full of vanity usually rise up to.

At its foundation, in a perpetual revolt movement, contributed that real spark of the dream unharmed by the attainment of a world-wide vision of beatitude, that faithful asset focused on the instructions of a pragmatism function: "I've got to stand up for myself". Art was a source of enlightenment, not a proof of weakness.

Leadership: Does your thought pattern contain the totality of the essential characteristics of the object under reflection, in the idea that the bipolarity between inner friend and enemy becomes the source of creation and transcendence?

Of course, in my way of being and following the model of thought that contains the totality of the essential characteristics of the object subjected to reflection, I was particularly ambiguous, always having two senses attached to the perspective of the existence as a self-control test:

An eccentricity based on the existence of a prejudice: "I've got to not care" and snatch a subtle form of extreme pleasures of life, to insist, to seek more diligently the miracle of rebirth in eternity. And if I found it, I would dare to answer the great question of the illuminating spirits, studying the laws of bipolarity: "Am an enemy or a friend to myself?"

The artist is always unpredictably complex during the dedication of imaginative activity in everything he does, thinks, feels, designs, from which escape is sometimes the access to a dimension of life freed from the limits of space and time.

The art of exploring yourself in the mirror to reveal yourself presupposes recognizing what is wrong that prevents you from being corroborated by creation.

The meaning of "crowning creation" is to create a strong link between the intensity of sensitivity that takes you to emotionally impactful forms and the voice of consciousness that proposes addressing moral themes.

While the variable of the pointer type: "We've got to be strong / Even if our reasons seem wrong", has as a measuring unit the irony of a relentless clash, of the Angel's struggle with Jacob, constituting compliance with the rules of a game of fictions through which the artist defends himself from the only enemy of his genius condition: the vision of a world without quality.

Lorenzo Bernini, one of the biggest artists of the Baroque, best known as a sculptor, decided to judge at some point the "Riddle" of Caravaggio by highlighting the exacerbation of fantasy and natural truth:

"Often in nature, you find parts that stand out, when it should not be so, or others that should come out without this happening. The one who knows how to draw well leaves aside what actually appears and it should not be so, and it draws what should be and does not appear..."

Artistic leadership means finding perfection in what is missing from an image in order for it to be authentic.

My destiny and that of my creation in the exercise of the theme for which a Heideggerian type of reflection could have been an exceptional support, thus gaining a subjective nuance, indicated in the world of exclusion, which lacked many elements of personalization. From the construction of this tandem one could easily omit the central element of a successful life, the essence of exposing an artistic image, a fundamental verse of the sublime.

It seems that there is still much to be learned before I come to know the truth that literary critic Vissarion Belinski has long expressed: "Authentic artistic works have neither beauty nor grief, but to whom completeness is accessible, will only notice beauty."

Your beauty lies within you.

The true source of creation is the life from which you have to draw a correct conclusion with the same attitude of assuming the reality with which you try to accept your reflection in the mirror.

Your Mirror is the business card for the self-image built on the pattern of a life experience, amid the finesse with which the painter masters the brush technique, from which you can learn to see beyond surface things.

Your Painted Smile

On October 12, 2018

Learn to examine yourself in the mirror of the confessions present in artists' judgments so that you constantly reach a superlative intensity of their inner life.

Her gaze paused over me, affectionate, compassionate and gentle, as a message to promote the reading of a poetry full of rhyme, in which the author staged an "ego" full of finesse that increased the impulse to gain pleasure in seeing things which he possesses. Engulfing is the power of a smile that calms you.

It is obvious that she has not suffered the prominent influence of my literature, yet it seemed to have been touched by the mirage of a freedom acquired on the basis of comparisons between the brilliance of a repeating dream and the color of a successful thriller of courage and prosperity. Her gaze, like every movement of the wings of a butterfly on May, exerts a certain pressure on my thoughts, a redirection of the feeling of ephemeralness, making me stray ever farther, towards heights, like birds, in a flight above the clouds, through the universe of an odd laugh.

I still analyze the effects and chromatic variations of a facial expression with a significant impact on the human psyche. Through a simultaneous contrast effect, the atmosphere of deep soul vibration serves as the backdrop of a picture enlivened by the endless thought of a journey in time, when everything remains complementary to the color of light, that pale-pink of a moment kept in a spark of eternity.

I fear nothing. I do not want to be deceived by the mirror of the soul, something that consumes me through emotional load, expressiveness and suggestion. The secret weapon of a woman is a reality that does not obey either space or time. How much would an artist suffer if he gave up the temptation to bind himself spiritually to someone without embracing a place of the transcendence of the real, the multiplication of lights and the expansion of mystery.

Leadership: Do you perceive your self through the lens of a category of ideological-literary representation, other than the viewer of an image that sensitively seeks to penetrate the intelligible?

Don't talk to me. Let me see you through the lens of a category of ideological-literary representation, of a logic of the differences of nuances, with the pleasure with which the painter shapes a vision from which he draws the stakes of an avant-garde destiny, revealing through a bizarre coincidence of colors a secret world, full of magic, loaded with divine faith and grace.

I carefully observe the glowing of your eyes, their color is real, but at the same time they seem lost in a surreal story. Everything disappears in a moment, like when you try to confiscate the sparkle of a star, allowing yourself to be blinded by the light of a space that widens as you go deeper into it.

Seen as a double of a Cella Serghi character, I can only fix this being's correspondences in the white and pink color nomenclature used by painters who want to demonstrate the beauty of a picture in interaction with a state of fantasy that is the essence of an autonomous artistic genre, through a profound literary character.

You had the power to open another door, another book, through a combination of curiosity and desire, urging me to continue the attempts to "scout" the meanings that colors bear in an addition of depth to the contrasts between delicate and energetic. The strength of a woman is recognized in the intensity of the color the artist chooses to predominate in his painting.

Red signifies imagination. Pride is slightly camouflaged in a yellowish white in the corner of her lips. I have not yet decided how I should understand you, without giving up the temptation to bind myself to any uncompromising compromise in the passion I place in the benefit of artistic ideas, between existing through a chiaroscuro and going deeper in the pages inspired by a high poetic wardrobe.

Leadership: Can you create the advantage of a comfortable visual area for close and remote viewing through an approach that demands a high engagement pattern dedicated to the experience of being a pillar for someone else?

You weighed me in a moment and it was not too my advantage it seemed. But to understand you from a glimpse, to use that substance dissolved in a certain amount of solvent at a certain temperature, gives the color a luminous intensity, I must allow you to lose yourself in the memory that the gesture of a completely accidental touch awakens.

You read my book about the qualities of the leader and you were so excited, much too touched by the collage painted entirely with the logic of the reasoning in which the human engineering experience, called metamorphosis, is inventively used, in a crescendo of the desperation of wanting to be part of a story with a visible aesthetic degree.

Walking through the room, I showed you the pictures that have always brought joy to my soul. Original paintings imagined by my mother, regarding the human wealth of man, meant to reflect a way of expression of creativity brought to another level. A simple exercise to eliminate the tension between reality and fiction. Everything around that special state of energy released by the work that you put your soul into and are pleasantly surprised by the final result.

Your gaze always turned to me, your smile harmoniously combined with the features of a mystical character in a literary work that translates into other worlds and makes you reflect on the events that occur in an eerie silence. So much gentleness exits your presence, feeling it like a hand on your shoulder, like a tightening in your heart's heart. A sign that you accepted me as your own confidant, you were burning to embrace my emotion with the most intense passion of the mind to control another mind.

Leadership: Do you contribute to creating a rendering model of the experience that comes from the details of a being who experiences their feelings inside a mirror that reflects a reality never twice the same?

But what do you think of me when you look at me so adorably? I am trying to enter your mind for a moment, to open your hidings through a Cella Serghi character who loved the ability to be passionate, preoccupied with beauty.

"You look at me as if from another realm, sometimes ready to embrace me. You are not afraid, you do not defend yourself. You are so sure of yourself, slightly ironic, a little sad. As a man in front of a shop window, admiring a gem that fascinates him. He would like to have it, but knows that's not possible. A shop window separates them, a world. There is pain and anger in your eyes, but also something inviting and good. You will leave the storefront slightly nostalgic. You have other things to attend to, other business. The world is big. It is not like a shop window. But for me the earth shrunk. It is as much as you surround it. You are the whole world. And I am the desperate lover of this world."

We stayed up late at night together as two statues that are waiting to come to life at the colorful touch of a surrealist painter. I imagined her look, solemn and dignified, as you would show an angel descending from heaven, breaking the prison roof and releasing its prisoner.

She tried to catch my gaze without anyone to know, as an invisible instance analyzing gestures and reactions of the characters in a literary work that will never be finished. I was the alien "eye" that dominates the image created in the panorama of consciousness sensible to beauty. She was that part of the mirror that reflects the eye's attention towards the absolute, infinity and mystery. In me persisted its desire to sip the kiss of an endless love.

We both constituted the background of a painting "I lost you inside my mind", in which the lyricism of colors, the symbolic ambivalence of a temporary microcosm, the inspiration of high poeticism. In fact, we both seemed to have come out of the pen of an artist who does not know adversity in art.

The man viewed through the lens of art is a reflection of elevated and intense feelings in a double mirror: in the experimental mirror of a literary work and in the mirror of a fictional reality that claims to be more real than it really is.

Your Painted Smile is the creation of an artist who starts studying color from understanding the mechanism of visual perception as the fundamental moment of the experience of existing as a being that passionately aspires to consistently achieve a superlative intensity of inner life.
